PROBABILITIES
Moderate northwest winds; fair and warm today and Wednesday.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES

	Max.	Min.
Today	63	41
Year ago	75	51
(Weather, Bureau)

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, TUESDAY, MAY 1, 1934

INTEREST GROWS IN SHOPPING EVENT

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

New York, May 1—(CP)—James Riley, who has been a bank messenger for 44 years, is closing up shop.

He is doing just as good a job as he ever did, he says—it's the hours, that have petered out.

Almost his only joke of late have been bank robbers, hold-up men, and now Mayor La Guardia has ordered that police hours be shut off at the department shop for economy's sake.

Memphis, Tenn., May 1—(CP)—W. B. Cowan, Memphis Attorney, can't win for losing.

Cowan sued a former client for a $200 fee.

A chancery court jury decided in Cowan's favor, but awarded him only a $1 judgment.

And the court directed that Cowan pay about $15 court costs.

New Castle, Pa., May 1—(CP)—Under Old Man Law a penalty for "whistling" is 24 hours in jail.

Mayor Orr, who also is called "yellow king that tastes like axle grease," the Mayor, Mr. Mayor's record for those arrested for frequently for intoxication.

The sentence for this crime was: "Take it or 30 days in jail," he yells.

One of the guilty men replied: "I—but if I'll serve 30 days; where's the hardship?"

After taking the "cure" he asked for, is "vacation."

Scotchbrd, Ark., May 1—(CP)—"I'm a wrestlin' man and I takes anyone I can," boasted Jake Henry, in a challenge.

"Oh, yeah?" retorted Conrad Hartwig, and wrestling match started. When it ended, Henry had a broken right leg.

Atlanta, May 1—(CP)—News spotlights are penalized by a $100 fine by Atlanta officers to put three in the cells and now the police would like to throw a little light on the fact that took one of the lights off a police car.

Kingston, Ont., May 1—(CP)—Dr. Francis Henry Bermingham, for many years a prominent man and ear treatment in Rochester, Brooklyn and New York, died in Kingston today, following a short illness. Deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Bermingham of Ottawa and was in his 65th year. He graduated from Queen's University in medicine at the age of 21 years. He retired from practice about 18 years ago and came to Kingston to reside.

Regina, May 1—(CP)—A report from the Dominion Experimental station at Saskatoon today revealed the threat of an invasion of the plague of grain which may take a severe toll from 1934 grain crops in Saskatchewan.

Samples of seed grain forwarded to the Dominion Field Branch at Saskatoon, and the report showed the presence of more than the normal number of wheat grains. Wheat and barley samples showed the presence of smut.

Abrinston, Ont., May 1—(CP) Blake McLean, deposed teacher of school section number seven Osgoode Township, who started action to recovery $327.50 salary from the township council in the case is expected to have a hearing at the next sitting of school teachers' contracts in Ontario. The claim is for six months salary from January to June, the unexpired section of McLean's contract, for which he was not paid.

Berlin, May 1—(AP)—The conference of representatives of the triangle coalition, here, angered the newspaper Angriff to declare frankly in a front page editorial today that Germany cannot pay and big words will not help it face the facts courageously.

Brockville, Ont., May 1—(CP)—Mrs. M. Erwin, Elizabethtown was the victim of a peculiar accident here when, as she stood on the sidewalk waiting for a car, the tire of a passing motorcycle blew out and the machine took to the sidewalk striking her and seriously injuring her about the spine and head. She is in a critical hospital where her condition is reported as favorable.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., May 1—(CP)—Several fish of the season was caught by John Borg in the fall-line at the lower canal early today. It was a two pound speckled trout. The first fishermen were on the job at the canal at 15 minutes after midnight to open the 1934 trout season.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., May 1—(CP)—Fire early today at Desbiens', sporting goods store caused damage estimated at $1500 to the stock and $1000 to the building. The fire is believed by the police. Cause of the fire was believed to be defective wiring.

Meighen Quits Hydro, Resignation Accepted Immediately Says Henry

Possibility of Probe by The Senate is Puzzling

PRICE OR McCREA

Henry Denies Meighen Forced Out By Party

Toronto, May 1—Premier Henry stated that he would accept immediately the resignation from the Ontario Hydro Commission of Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, tendered yesterday.

Another Hydro complication which will face the government shortly is the possible retirement from politics when the legislature dissolves, of Hon. R. Cooke, Hydro chairman. Mr. Cooke will continue for a while, it is said, to represent the government on the commission, as he has been doing since 1932, but will eventually drop that representation.

Some successor as government representative will be named, if necessity, be appointed. With Mr. Meighen out, the government could handily appoint a man through that vacancy. But no permanent appointment is apt to be made it is said, until after the first session, and then, if the Conservative party is returned to power, not until the present depression lifts.

Rumor has it that one of the senior cabinet ministers—Attorney-General Price or Hon. Charles McCrea—could be asked to step in when Mr. Cooke steps out and provide the required government representation on the commission. Neither minister would be paid, it is said, for the extra commitment he would assume.

Premier Henry last evening denied the suggestion from some quarters that "political expediency" had dictated the Meighen resignation and its acceptance. "That," he said, "is just a newspaper's fairy tale."

The Premier said he had discussed the matter with Mr. Meighen on different occasions. Mr. Meighen, intimated, he added that he wanted to quit, and that his whole reason for so doing was to ask for a new mandate.

Mr. Meighen, he believed, had been very disappointed that Ontario would not grant an investigation into the Hydro power contracts and in connection with the holding of O.P.S. bounds by companies in which Hydro officials were said to have repeatedly told me," said Mr. Henry, "that he would ask the Senate for such an investigation."

The Ontario Government felt, said the Premier, that there was nothing to investigate in the statements made against Mr. Meighen by certain opposition leaders.

Premier Henry emphasized that their leader could have consented to any such investigation by Senators from Ontario prepared to protest to their leader, Hon. Raoul Dandurand, when he reported verbal assent to a Senate investigation of Mr. Arthur Meighen's conduct regarding the purchase of Hydro power bonds by the Ontario Government.

It was understood that Senator Arthur G. Hoyle, Belleville, one of Liberal Leader Mitchell F. Hepburn's colleagues in opposition, is rallying the Ontario senators against the proposal. In the opinion of this faction a Senate investigation of Mr. Meighen, it was declared, would be nothing but a whitewash of one of Mr. Hepburn's political opponents. Comment in such undertaking, it was held, would undoubtedly undermine the Liberal chances in Ontario.

Meanwhile, Ottawa could not be convinced that Senator Meighen's resignation from the Ontario Hydro Commission was unconditional. There were strong reports that Premier Henry, fearing hearty against the senator's concurrent membership of a Hydro commissionership and a senatorship, had forced him out. The lobbier had it that resignment against Senator Meighen's real position wasn't confined to the Liberal party but that many of the Conservative rank-and-file saw no future for one man, whatever his abilities, holding two "plums."

STOWAWAY

Seized by a desire to wander, 11-year-old Ruth McGrath of Boston, Mass., stowed away on the good ship Evangeline, bound for parts unknown. The good ship Evangeline, however docked at Saint John, N.B., and little Miss Ruth's game was up. She was detained by Canadian immigration officers and sent back home. The girl had only a dime with her. Had she slipped through the immigration officers, it would have cost the steamship company $5,000.

STRICT GUARD MAINTAINED

Ring of Steel in Many Centres Prevents Outbreaks

By The Associated Press

Stringent police precautions signalled the world-wide celebrations of May Day.

While radical workers organizations had called for unprecedented demonstrations in flaming manifestoes, the situation in most instances was one of tremendous distinction and quiet.

The only danger point at that time appeared to be in Havana, where several persons were reported shot down in the midst of a Communist demonstration in midafternoon.

In other lands, however, the demonstrations were in the characteristics of a parade staged in Tokyo where, 10,000 constabulary were under the direction of 3,000 police.

In Moscow, the red army corps with tanks and airplanes and the capital led a parade of citizens who during the day, set 600 tanks and more than 500 aeroplanes, roaring before them.

THURLOW RESIDENCE DAMAGED BY FIRE

Neighbors of George Martin Prevent Fire Spreading

6th. Concession Tyendinaga, May 1—Fire of an unknown origin caused considerable damage to the home of Mr. George Martin, Thurlow, yesterday afternoon. The front of the house and part of the interior was badly burned and only the kindly help of neighbors prevented more serious damage. The loss will be considerable.

ARMOURIES AT DUNDAS DESTROYED

75 Year Old Structure Burned Early Tuesday

LOSS $160,000

Noise Like Thunder Heard as Neighbors Awaken at Sound of Fire

Dundas, Ont., May 1 (CP)—The Dundas Armouries were levelled today by flames which swept through the 75 year old structure from an ammunition store room. Loss was tentatively estimated at $160,000.

A noise like thunder preceded the flames, according to Mrs. R. Weild first to notice the blaze. Her home is 50 feet from the barracks. Awakened, she looked out the window and saw flames shooting from the room of the adjacent building. She called the telephone operator and sent in an alarm.

Lives of firemen were continually in danger as the heat from the fire exploded bullets stored in various rooms in the Armouries. In the store room where the fire was believed to have originated there was a quantity of 303 calibre rifle bullets and 200 uniforms.

When the fire was brought under control at dawn today, only the officers' mess was still standing.

DUNDAS, May 1.—Many Dundas with rifle cartridges exploding and bullets whining through the air firemen fought a fire here today which almost completely destroyed the 60-year-old Armory with loss estimated at $75,000. In spite of the spectacular nature of the outbreak and the danger from exploding ammunition, none was injured. The flag on the Armory pole still waved serenely when only considerable ruins remained of most of the headquarters.

The blaze is believed to have originated in the supply room of the building, one of the first in the town. Officers of the Wentworth Regiment were confident nothing of value was destroyed when the fire originated in defective wiring. Lieut.-Colonel Bruce was hurried to do with the fact this is May Day.

When the militia arrived, the roof was a mass of flames and fire was streaming from the windows from the supply room window and the Sergeant-Major's.

Troubles Lost

In the latter rooms were stored some of the most prized trophies of the regiment, and the loss was heavy. Chest of trophies which for a period of 80 years were medical in an engagement in Egypt, a number of the plate was saved, however. Col. H. Bruce-Robertson, Major C. Wright, Sergeants J. Baker and J. Evans managed to get inside, and carrying out whatever they could grasp. Through their efforts some of the trophies were saved.

Sergeant Ed. Mason was the last person to leave the building last night, and after locking the door, pulled the structure before departing. Everything was in order then, he reports back.

The flames gained such headway that only the walls of the upper floor structure could be saved. This wing was built about 75 years ago and housed the officers' mess and orderly room.

More than 200 complete uniforms were burned. Rifles in the orderly room escaped damage except from smoke and water.

TEACHER LAID TO HIS REST

Impressive Obsequies of Late Ernest Penrose

The funeral of Ernest Penrose, Picton collegiate teacher, one of two who lost their lives in a boating accident on the Bay of Quinte last Sunday was found lying across the bottom of the boat on Monday afternoon at Picton United Church, with hundreds of students, citizens, all town school teachers and school boards in attendance.

Tribute was paid by Rev. David Wren and J. Harold Fox, Principal of Picton Collegiate. The chief mourners were his father, Rev. Mr. Penrose of Springfield and a brother from Hamilton, to which city the remains were sent.

4 BRITISH FLIERS DIE AS PLANES COLLIDE IN AIR

CRANWELL, England, May 1—(CP)—Four Royal Air Force officers were killed today when two aeroplanes they were flying over the Aerodrome collided and smashed to earth. Both crashed when emergency squads reached the wreckage.

THINK OUTLAW IS IN HIDING

Slippery Dillinger is Believed Identified on Monday

Chicago, May 1 (AP)—Police dug deep into gangland haunts today to find John Dillinger.

Convinced the slippery desperado has taken refuge in one of the numerous hideouts his gang is reputed to have here, the authorities combed the city, but had found no trace of him.

Definite identification of Dillinger as one of the four gunmen who disarmed three policemen early yesterday apparently led to the belief that the notorious outlaw was hiding in Chicago.

Happenings of Busy Days in Busy Shops

Over three hundred thousand names and shopping coupons printed for Belleville's Better Shopping Week now being held have been dropped into the sealed boxes of the one hundred and more local stores who have joined forces in making the present festival of bargains and value outstanding success. Of this number so far used, between eighty and one hundred thousand of the coupons were collected on Monday morning. Following Saturday's dropping, dumped in the barrel in the Walker Hardware window and drawn from by Mayor Rice. More printed coupons are being mailed by the printers for distribution among the stores. Those who have not had not enough number of coupons issued per day for any previous event of like nature.

A knotty point was raised among officials of the Better Belleville Week this morning. It was announced that the holder of the winning coupon stub, which claims the Grand Prize given as the result of the drawing, had not presented it. "In a case like that, if the customer feels that he or she objects to present it, what will be done with the stub, which is the real thing?" Mr. Ed. Shapiro was asked. "Simply we can't have one extra day's shopping, with some stubs not given out, and then have one special drawing to distribute the extra prizes," he suggested. "Good idea" was the unanimous reply.

Monday may no longer mean wash day for local housewives. From all baby that heavy job has been given over to Miller of the Belleville Laundry that the interested feminine audience in front of the Walker Hardware store while the drawing for what being given away. Practice this morning was considerably smaller than Monday's turnout. But the attendance of men folks set a new record.

Four Housewives on a street on the beam. But in the city here they're all a "coupon club." Busy with the numerous coupons with their large families, they find time a little too short to hurry down town by 9 o'clock, and then waiting to match the numbers of their coupon books with the numbers on the drawing's window. So they take turns. One remembers that one week and marks the numbers of all coupons and takes her turn matching them with the official ones. Then she reports back.

This might be termed a success story. Mrs. Smith, a young lady, who after forty years of continuous living to win a prize—some sort of prize—in a draw, has finally succeeded. "But," she remarked, "I had to wait for an opportunity like this to do so." The lady in question had called attention to the store of the Tip Top Tailors in Front St. The victory was written largely in her smile. Briefly she handed a coupon stub to Mayor Rice, who was standing in the store. He carefully scrutinized it, then with the official winning numbers and reached for the white slip. Then he drew the curtains. "First thing I ever won in forty years," she smiled as she accepted the prize. "Just pick me out a husband next."

A very regard and very small boy pressed a stub nose on the plate glass window this morning and on Front St. and nearly succeeded. Mayor Rice drew successive numbers from the drum. But no one little fat was clutched a grimy handful of coupons and stubs. Finally her's was called and printed he number and then studiously scrutinized the stubs. "Where did you get all that?" asked the astonished lady. "Found 'em," cheerily explained the small boy. "Just picked 'em up on the street. Maybe I'll get a prize. It's worth the chance," explained the lady as she gravely explained why stubs picked off downtown sidewalks had little chance to win.

WINS HONOR AT DRAMA FESTIVAL

MISS JOAN MILLER AS QUEEN ELIZABETH

The memento given by the Countess of Bessborough for the lady giving the best performance during the festival was awarded to Miss Miller of the Belleville Little Theatre Association for her interpretation the part of Queen Elizabeth in "Elizabeth the Queen". Miss Miller is seen here holding goodbye to Lord Rose played by Mr. William Buckingham. The cup for men fell to J. E. Adams of Sarnia.

Napoleon, Waterloo, Rothschild

Prosperity returns on the tide of rising prices—the Farmer gets better prices for his produce and he is more prosperous—the Manufacturer gets higher prices for his products and prosperity lifts him out of the Red—the worker gets more work and higher wages because of higher prices for their output and they are able to eat more and better food, and dress better, besides spending money for necessities of life and some of the luxuries. It's a cycle which makes for good for everybody—and while Higher Prices accompany Prosperity on its return, that is not a curse but a blessing.

ROTHSCHILD MADE A FORTUNE OUT OF THE BATTLE OF WATERLOO because he knew that Napoleon had been defeated—he had organized a relay of news carriers o n fast horses to bring the news to a channel port, where a fast boat was waiting to carry the news to London. With first hand news Rothschild made a killing on the London market and laid firm foundations for the tremendous Rothschild fortune of later years.

FIRST HAND NEWS is VALUABLE.

Speculators and investors make money buying stocks at low prices and selling at higher prices—the Thrifty Shopper makes money buying heavily when prices are low, and laying off when prices are high.

PRICES ARE CLIMBING.

In every commodity prices are climbing and the present low level of prices of all commodities will probably never be reached again in our generation. There is only one answer. Now is the time to stock up, even if you have to borrow money to do it. You can save from ten to thirty per cent. buying in Belleville this week—Belleville Better Week, besides you may win a very valuable prize.

BETTER BUY NOW THAN BUY AND BUY

So many things you need—buy them now when every store in Belleville is offering super values. Don't wait until climbing prices make the goods you want so expensive that you will hesitate to buy them.

BELLEVILLE BETTER WEEK

Celebrates the beginning of a new era of Prosperity for Belleville, Bay of Quinte District and Canada generally. Belleville Retail Merchants' Association are playing Santa Claus this week with gifts to patrons aggregating in value over $1,000.00.

BOMB BLAST HURLS BRICK MISSING BABY

Toronto Child Has Been Moved From Crib Wh..n Bricks Fall in EMPTY HOUSE USED

Ukrainian Priest Fears Attempt Was Made on His Life

Toronto, May 1 (CP)—A violent blast, set by unknown hands, shattered a vacant house during shortly before dawn today, hurling bricks and debris into rooms of a neighboring home and narrowly missing a sleeping baby.

Bricks and jagged pieces of glass showered into the bedroom of a house where Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Templeton and their baby daughter were sleeping. The baby had been removed from the crib a few minutes before in an effort to quiet his crying. Several large bricks settled in the empty crib.

While firemen called to fight the ensuing blaze in the shattered house, searched the debris for the cause of the explosion, which they thought might be buried there, police learned from Father Michael Gregory, Ukrainian Catholic parish priest of St. Josephat's Church, that he believed the blast was a May Day Communistic outrage directed at his people's lives next door to the building where the explosion was set.

Sides Smashed Out

Spurts of flame followed in the wake of the blast that rocked the building and smashed out both sides and the rear of the building and tossed bricks and debris for more than 100 yards, police said.

Templeton, when he found h's wife on the floor, called to them at the window and saw flames licking up the side of the house. He phoned in the alarm while near-by residents attracted by the blast gathered by hundreds around the wrecked dwelling.

It was only an hour before firemen, pouring water from two lines of hose into the building and both sides and the rear of the building had the fire under control. When Templeton and his family moved to a past, firement were sent in among the wreckage in search for a body believed buried there. No trace of a body was found.

At the head of the stairs they found a five gallon can which had contained kerosene. Police said there was a nine-foot cable which, it was thought, may have been used as a wick to the gasoline bomb.

BRITAIN REJECTS PRINCIPLE

LONDON, May 1.—(CP Cable)—The British Government today rejected the principle of international factory action against imports from countries paying low wages, declaring these imports happen to show an increase in any particular period".

THE WEATHER

Toronto, May 1—The weather has been fair and warm in Ontario and Quebec with a tendency to warm. Moderate northwest winds in the Maritime provinces, while in the west it has been cool with light snow and rain in many districts.

Northern Ontario—Fair and warm, partly cloudy and cool tonight and Wednesday with scattered showers.

Lake Region—Moderate winds, northeast winds; partly cloudy and somewhat cooler with scattered showers, chiefly in east portion.

Eastern and Northern Ontario—East to east winds; fair and cool.

Manitoba—Moderate winds; partly cloudy and cool; probably light scattered showers in southwest portion.

Coming Events

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB business meeting tonight at 8 o'clock. Club rooms at 8 o'clock sharp. m1-1i.

DANCE AT SOUTH END CLUB House tonight, from 9 to 1. Log Cabin Orchestra. Admission 35c. m1-1i.

"GYM NITE" AT THE Y.M.C.A. Friday, May 4th, 7 o'clock. Something different, Admission 15c. m1-1i.

COME AND ENJOY TEN NIGHTS in the Bar-Room" this Friday at 8 in Bridge St. Church School. Only fifteen and ten cents. m1-1

SAINT MICHAEL'S TENNIS CLUB opening dance in the Auditorium, Monday, May 7th. The Commodores orchestra. Refreshments. Dancing at nine. Admission 50c. couple. a28 m1 5 7.

CENTENNIAL AND UNITED EMpire Loyalist weekly meeting, Tuesday, 1st inst. 8 o'clock. Police Court. General business.—Everybody welcome. a28-3i.

Winning Numbers

Results of Tuesday's Drawing on the numbered stubs of the shopping coupons given out for Monday's shopping and completed by Mayor Rice in the window of Walker's Hardware today are as follows:

GRAND PRIZE—D—20141.

Thirty other prize winning stubs are numbered as follows:

1—A-21895.
2—C-12816.
3—A-27565.
4—D-41553.
5—C-4836.
6—C-27120.
7—C-15640.
8—D-14100.
9—B-6156.
10—B-12624.
11—E-27727.
12—E-1775.
13—B-6125.
14—D-13731.
15—A-13815.
16—B-15564.
17—D-15811.
18—A-21642.
19—D-47328.
20—E-1718.
21—C-12511.
22—C-24000.
23—E-12983.
24—B-2750.
25—D-31756.
26—C-27264.
27—B-9068.
28—D-14196.
29—A-14454.
30—D-3378.

Wed Dec 2 /com

City and District News

BORER INSPECTOR NOW ON ROUNDS

Following recent announcement that the Corn Borer Act would be enforced in Prince Edward County this season where it is still in force, Inspector Wm. Ostrom of Hastings County, Charles Massie, is making an intensive campaign of inspection in that district. Mr. Massie, who has jurisdiction in Hastings County, Ont., is advising all farmers to clear up and destroy all corn stalks. Commenting on the Act, which comes up for renewal this year, Inspector Marvin, Quinte district, said: "I am not giving any warnings so far have been issued."

TREATED GRAIN KILLS CHICKENS

A casualty of seed grain treated with formaldehyde for smut by a Carrying resident, and left in an exposed place in his barn, caused the death of four chickens who wandered into the barn and ate the seed, it is reported. Dealers in the drug which is coloring the large sale are cautioning its use.

WEEK-END TRAFFIC SETS PEAK FIGURE

Car owners of the city and district who flocked to the roads and highways with their cars on Monday caused an unusual spurt in the sale of gasoline and oils to midsummer levels, it was reported by service station managers and attendants on Monday. It was stated by the service men that the day's sales were almost equal to a number of older model machines still in use.

Level of Bay Rises 30 High Water is Expected

A steady rise in lake levels during the past week or so is reflected in the local harbor, it was stated today by the canal staff, and while the height between eight and nine inches according to a water gauge on the head of the harbor. Wharfmen were hopeful that a high water season this year.

MUSIC LOVERS 50 IN FOR TREAT

Belleville music lovers will have an opportunity of enjoying a program of vocal and instrumental music on a scale never before attempted in this city when the 48th Belleville Revue now being organized.

The leading and most popular local artists are co-operating with the Y.M.C.A. in initiating what they will be an outstanding event in the city's musical history. The program will include a number of musical type of individual numbers, both massed band, a dramatic club and a large chorus of young male voices.

All artists are contributing their services in the interests of the work of the Y.M.C.A., with the members of the Y's Men's Club acting as the organization's committee. This unique event will be held in the Collegiate Auditorium on Wednesday, May 8th, and full announcement of the personnel will be made later.

ROTARY NAMES NEW DIRECTORS

Election of directors of Belleville Rotary Club for the official year beginning July 1, at the Associated Monday's result in the return of the following: Jamieson, Dr. C. B. Dorland, Dr. S. B. Dorland, Mosley Doyle, J. R. Shorey, President Ken Symmons, on retiring from office July 1, will be a member of the Board of Directors, ex-officio. The president will be elected by the new board of directors, and secretary and treasurer appointed.

First Swim of Season Local Boys Take Dip

Old Sol, not only sent hast-wavs dancing from sidewalks and city streets on the hottest day of the season yesterday which saw thermometers rise to summery levels of above 70 degrees but also prompted a group of local lads to indulge in the first swim of the season, Same bathing suits, the group held high festival in the chilly waters of the bay just off the Institute dock, converted first-of-the-year waterings, spot, 'cast one in's a frisky cat!' Splash! bo—rr—ff!

LIBERALS HOLD SOCIAL MEETING

Marked by one of the largest crowds of the season, the monthly social held by the Belleville Liberal Association in their club rooms on Front Street last evening was an unqualified success. All trade of the city combined to assist in carrying out the evening's entertainment. With over forty tables of progressive euchre in play and all available space taken up in the main hall. Winners of the euchre were: Ladies, Mrs. M. Hill (78), Mrs. R. Murray (72); gentlemen, Mr. Byrnes Reid (76), Wilbur Weese (72). Following the card tournament refreshments were served by the ladies of the various wards, after which dancing to the music supplied by volunteer members of the club was held up to an early hour. At intervals during the evening little Miss Catherine Harris entertained with several tap dance numbers in her own inimitable style.

HIGHWAY WORK WILL START SHORTLY

Road work through the county on No. 2 Highway is not expected to commence for a week or so yet, stated James F. Hill, M.P., for East Hastings when interviewed today.

According to the announced plan of the provincial government, a considerable number of men will be given work on the job of grading and levelling at the sides of this main highway through the province. They will be recruited from the township through which the road passes.

PURSE CONTENTS UNDER CAR BRIDGE

Abandoned under the C. N. R. bridge over the Moira River the contents of a purse, consisting of a considerable amount of a local young lady lais Saturday night in the Michaels School grounds, was found early last evening by a Mrs. Cole, Bridge Street, Colborne street, and later turned over to the police. Worthington Anger reported the lost during Saturday night's escapade, was found, as the contents was naturally appreciated by the young lady, who is not only her purse and cash today.

SOFTBALL PLAYER SERIOUSLY INJURED

The condition of Victor Halsey, who was seriously injured when he was struck by a pitched ball on the College ball grounds last evening, is today reported to be much improved by his physician, Dr. J. J. Robertson. Halsey was injured, Gerald Gerald Zehler collided with him at home plate during a close play. Halsey was catching for the College Hill Outs. Halsey was knocked down by sustaining a slight concussion of the brain. He lapsed into unconsciousness and was rushed to the Belleville General Hospital, where he failed to fully regain consciousness until about 2.00 a.m. today. Following an ex-ray by Dr. Robertson and Dr. Adams it was announced that no fracture of the skull was found. No complications are expected to follow though Halsey is still in a rather serious condition.

FLOWERS PRESENTED TO SCHOOL INSTRUCTRESS

Close Home Nursing Class With Social Afternoon

On Friday afternoon after the close of the last meeting of the Home Nursing Class for this year in the King George School, the members of the class met in the Girls' Room to say "Good-bye" to their instructress.

While the class was in progress a small group of girls under the direction of Miss Dorothy Rowland, Norma Boaird themselves with decorating the teachers' room. A delightful tea at 4.30 was enjoyed a few light moments, while Violet Grant and Doreen Ferguson distributed the refreshments.

When Miss Gladys Hall nearly tore dibe once groaning table, Jeanne Orr arose to present a bouquet of sweet blooming to Mrs. Mcoll, expressing the gratitude that all had for her services. Mrs. Hall in a few appropriate words spoke for their patient hours spent for their benefit. All joined in three cheers for Mrs. Moulis suggestion, that she might have been taking them from other and more worthwhile studies.

Miss E. F. Rose, Mr. Mcile, and Mr. Brown, who were present as guests of the Home Nursing Class, were asked to act as judges of the note books prepared by the class for which Mrs. Mcoll is donating prize. Announcement of the result of the contest will be made at a later date.

STOP PRESS

HILL CHOSEN AS CANDIDATE

East Hastings Convention Unanimous In Its Choice

Madoc, May 7 (Special Correspondence)—Dr. H. M. Hill, M.P., East Hastings, this afternoon received the unanimous nomination of the Liberal-Conservatives of that Hastings to contest the riding in the coming Provincial general election. Mr. Hill accepted and addressed the convention.

Dr. Harold Welch of Stirling, K. C. Mcleslie of Deseronto, Robt. M. Mitchell of Thurlow, and W. John Kingston were the other persons whose names were placed before the convention for the honor of standard bearer. Mr. Hill's endorsation was thereupon made unanimous.

Mr. Walter Whytock was elected to the presidency of the provincial riding executive this afternoon and took the chair. J. P. Davis was elected treasurer and Mr. Hoover Vandusen of Deseronto was elected secretary.

Over five hundred people jammed the convention hall and the assembly was highly enthusiastic especially when Mr. Hill became the principal speaker of the convention.

The hall rang with cheers on this and on Mr. Hill's acceptance of the nomination.

Among the noted figures at today's gathering in the central metropolis of Hastings were Premier Hepburn, Minister of Forests and Mines, Mr. W. E. Tummon, member of the Dominion House of Commons and Dr. A. T. Rosbury, member of the Ontario House for East Peterborough. The Hon. Robert Cooks was unable to be present owing to illness but began to speak at press time.

Pop-Pop Boats

The Latest Novelty

19c

See Window

McKeown's

DRUG STORE

BELLEVILLE WEEK

Prize Coupons

With Every Purchase at Your

I. D. A. DRUG STORES

Tip Top Tailors

Modern Agency

McAhee and McDonald

Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing

ai-1w

Sherwin-Williams Family Gloss Paint

90c Quart

OSTROM'S Drug Store

mi-6

A FAMOUS BOOK-OF-THE-MONTH BECOMES THE PICTURE-OF-THE-YEAR!

EDW. G. ROBINSON in DARK HAZARD with Genevieve Tobin, Robert Armstrong, Hugh Herbert, Frank McHugh, Sidney Toler, Berton Churchill, Harry Beresford, Willard Robertson and Henry Kolker

SHOWS 2.30 ; 7.15 ; 9.00

ADDED SHORTS

The Two Black Crows featured with Moran and Mack in "Farmer's Fatal Folly"

"Native"

Subject to Moisture

"Sassy Kat"

CAPITOL All Wednesday

GIFT NIGHT Dr. B. N. W. Coupons Given Mat. & Eve.

McFee's...

ARE OFFERING A HOST OF BARGAINS DURING

"Belleville Better Week"

Our Tables and Cases are lined with articles too numerous to mention in this ad. However, if you are in the market for anything in the following lines, you would be well advised to pay us a visit between now and Saturday.

Watches, Glassware, China, Costume Jewelry, Clocks

Many of the bargains being offered by us during this week are in out of date merchandise, some are discontinued lines, others bought within the past year, but in all cases our cost has not been considered.

ANGUS McFEE

THIS IS A COUPON STORE

WE PAY CASH FOR OLD GOLD

— OBITUARY —

ERNEST M. WOODCOCK

Ernest Marshall Woodcock, 157 Keewatin Avenue, head of the Woodcock Motor Sales Co., 2729 Yonge Street, died suddenly on Saturday from a heart attack. He was in his 43rd. year. Born in Deseronto, he had been a resident of Toronto since 1907. During the Great War he served in the Royal Commons and Dr. A. T. Rosbury, member of the House for East Peterborough. The Hon. Robert Cooks was unable to be present owing to illness but began to speak at press time.

Surviving are his wife and a brother, F. M. Woodcock of Belleville.

MRS. M. F. ARMSTRONG

The death occurred on Monday morning at the family residence, 194 King Street East, Oshawa, of Mrs. Rose, beloved wife of Mathew F. Armstrong, aged sixty years. The death came as a distinct shock to the community as well as to Belleville, as Mrs. Armstrong had been ill for only a very short time.

The deceased was born in Brighton Township in the County of Wellington and was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Rea. Prior to coming to Oshawa, four years ago, she resided in Belleville for fifteen years and also in Bridgeburg, Ontario, for a number of years. During her residence in Oshawa, Mrs. Armstrong was a devoted member of the Andrew Mc Unitied Church being a member of the Women's Association and the Women's Missionary Society of the church. She was also a life member of the Women's Temperance Union, and honors which she conferred on her when she left Belleville.

When a resident of Belleville, Mrs. Armstrong was an enthusiastic worker of the Bridge Street United Church Women's Missionary Society of which she was an officer. She was keenly interested in the Church of the Holy Society and devoted much time to the activities of both these organizations. Belleville Women's Christian Temperance Union, Mrs. Armstrong was a valued and zealous worker.

She was treasurer of the local union for several years.

She is survived by her husband and one son, Albert W. Armstrong, Oshawa; one sister, Mrs. Frederick Freure, of Guelph, and a brother, Geo. Worthington of Hamilton.

The funeral will be held at the King Street residence on Wednesday, May 8, at 2 p.m. (Daylight-saving Time) Interment will be made in Mount Lawn Cemetery, Oshawa.

LATE ETTIE E. BUFF

Monday afternoon the funeral of Miss Ettie E. Buff took place from the residence of her sister, Mrs. R. E. Vivian, 174 Front Avenue, and was well attended by friends of the deceased and of her family. The service was conducted by the Rev. H. N. Moston of Foxboro, United Church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Semple of Bridge Street United Church.

The bearers were Messrs. R. Vivian, T. Vivian, H. Jose, Geo. Huff, J. Hudgins and Geo. Rose. Interment was made in Belleville Cemetery.

LATE CHARLES McLEAN

The funeral of Charles McLean took place Monday afternoon from the home of his son-in-law, Mr. J. R. McLean, Roslin. The deceased was a member of the Laine Hay Bands of Canada, and the service was conducted by Elders James Pyrock and D. Fairley assisted.

The bearers were Messrs. Wm. Fox, John, R. McLean, Ernest Mcclear, Joseph Coulter, Alex. Crawford and John Orser. Interment was made in Thomasburg cemetery.

Havana, May 1.—(AP)—Bullets fired from roofs into the ranks of 10,00 marching Communists today killed one man and wounded six others.

Guard Your Eyes!

I, as a practising optometrist with over 38 years' experience, CANNOT emphasize the need for proper eye care too much. YOUR EYES deserve attention — and for your own sake have them tested at least once in 2 years.

EXAMINATIONS

— — — backed by 38 Years' Experience in Caring for the Eyes of Belleville!

I make it a practice to do what I preach—and am prepared to back every statement I make. That's why I GLADLY provide a GUARANTEED OPTICAL SERVICE—assuring the use of CORRECTLY FITTED LENSES—correct prescriptions and the proper style.

J. A. McFEE

316 Front St. Phone 123

OUR GUARANTEE

1. That when glasses are not needed they will not be prescribed.

2. That when glasses are prescribed they are necessary to correct defective vision.

GLEN ALLAN OPENS SEASON

First Vessel to Warp Into Her Berth at Belleville

An echoing bellow from her upper whistle announced the arrival at her berth at the government dock yesterday morning of the season's regular shipping from the local port as the steamer Glen Allan entered the local port on Monday afternoon. Although minus the playful, chastising hand of Harbor Commissioners, Mr. Geo. W. Ostrom was on hand to welcome Mr. Wilson, owner and Captain Donn, skipper on the opening day. Greetings were also conveyed the regular over by the chairman.

As she pulled out on Monday evening the boat was well loaded for her first trip to the west. One thousand cheese and a quantity of eggs destined for Montreal made up the cargo. The remaining space aboard her was filled with empty bottles on their way back to eastern breweries.

Motor boats purred over the surface of the bay on Sunday after noon as owners took to the water to cool off from the heat of the season's hottest day, several punts and skiffs also made their way out as the anglers who dropped lines in favored spots and spent the time waiting for the wily fly. Along the cement pier of the government dock children gathered in groups with rods from poles bent over the water as they fished for the minnows and logs, sunning themselves.

Along the waterfront further up town with refreshment and paint brushes and caulking tools are busy preparing the craft for the season's activities on the water. In many instances the boats have been given old boats as well as new ones are being renovated and painted.

200 GARAGEMEN AT BRAKE CLINIC

Raybestos Representative Delivers Address at Hotel Quinte

Over 200 garagemen, mechanics and servicemen from all parts of Eastern Ontario convened at the Quinte Hotel last evening to attend The Coast-to-Coast Brake Clinic which was held under the auspices of The Canadian Raybestos Company Ltd. The local clinic was under the direction of the Canadian Supply Company through whom the invitations were extended to the garagemen and their assistants.

Mr. Cowell, service engineer of the Raybestos Company, gave the meeting a brief address and then a talk on "Brake adjusting trouble shooting." Mr. Wales also rendered a short oration on "educational values to all automobile mechanics in the business of this popular line in regards to brake service." Mr. R. Mcmillan, of the Canadian Brake Construction Company of Welland, Ont., spoke in regards to "steering problems and front wheel alignment." Mr. Ed. Service, Mr. W. R. Sachs, president of the Garage Supply Company, officially addressed the meeting and personally thanked the speakers of the night for the splendid co-operation of many jobbers present.

With jobbers and servicemen from many nearby points to gain considerable knowledge the meeting terminated with a buffet supper while music was supplied by Belleville's fine piece orchestra Mr. George Dixon, of the Keyes Clothing Company acted as chairman while Mr. Fred Douglas, local jobber manager, of the Supply Company in Belleville, was the master of ceremonies and responsible for the largest gathering of automobile mechanics and automobile servicemen ever to convene in this city.

After the meeting the speakers personally mingled with the garagemen distributing souvenirs and wherever possible in the matters of information regarding the latest information in automobiles.

R.G. CAMPBELL IS MANAGER

Succeeds Mr. W. Rankin in Post With Local Canning Company

The Associated Quality Canners, Ltd., will operate the factory of the Belleville Canners, Ltd., during the coming season, it was announced here today when it was announced by Mr. W. Rankin, manager of the Belleville organization of Mr. W. Rankin as Superintendent has been appointed as manager to succeed Mr. Rankin. The latter has been connected with the company entirely. Contracting has been practically completed at this time and a substantial pack is indicated.

POLICE NEWS

Police were called to the Frontenac Paper Box Company's factory on Pinnacle Street to investigate what looked like a break-in Monday afternoon. Upon arrival the officers were shown a window that had been broken by a brick being apparently hurled through it, as the brick was found on the floor inside. Police were led to believe that no person had actually entered the building although a window sash on the ground floor had been broken with an iron bar, and nothing. Nothing was reported missing by the officials.

A slight motor car collision happened last evening at the corner of Pinnacle and Bridge Streets, fender damage only resulting.

REV. G. GRAHAM TO LYNDHURST

Rev. Gerald Graham of Belleville Mission, has been appointed minister of the Parish of Leeds Rear, to succeed Rev. J. A. Campbell, resigned, it was announced on account of ill health. It was announced today by Rev. Lord Bishop of Ontario.

Rev. Isreal Dean T. B. H. Hall, Rector of Parish of Belleville and Sidney Parish, has been appointed to Belleville Mission Parish also take charge of Anglican work at the Tyendinaga Indian Reserve, Deseronto.

Rev. Mr. Graham will take over the parish on May 15th. His rectory is situated at Lyndhurst.

He has been in Belleville for two years past and his mission has comprised three congregations of the Church of the Holy Trinity at Canniton, the congregation of the Church of St. John on Huff's Island and the Church of St. John the Divine, Matthews, Belleville.

Mr. Graham, who came here as a deacon was ordained in the priesthood at ordination service in St. Alban's Cathedral on the Feast of Ascension of Rivercsburg.

FREE GIFT

THIS WEEK ONLY

To every purchaser of paint bought at our store during this week, we will present a box containing a bottle of Sun Gold Paint Powder and Liquid for picture frames.

We are distributors for the popular Canada Paint Quality line of finishes, including:—

SANITONE washable flat wall paints.

LUXON HI-GLOR ENAMEL for cement or wood floors.

SUN VARNISH for doors, boats, floors, woodwork.

CANADA PAINT finest exterior finish for woodwork.

PROTECTO preservative paint for shingles or summer cottages.

"LUXON SUPREME FINISH" in White or 24 colors,

for automobiles — bathroom or kitchen — canoes — lawn furniture — porch floors, or any interior or exterior surface requiring a weather and wear resisting rich gloss finish. Better than enamel or oil paint for such surfaces.

WHITE HARDWARE CO.

267 FRONT ST. PHONE 323

ml 3.

THOSE SUFFERING FROM

Deafness

or HEAD NOISES

See Our New Model

Opera Phone 1936

small, efficient, natural type shown no battery—the hearing specialists have proved. Just the aid for Church, Theatre, Matinee, Concert. Try it Free—also Stevon new 1935 CLEARTONE Battery Instrument and the double flat transmitters with phone cord, used the ear a small button (leather weight). Fits snugly in the ear. Each small instrument has twelve different tone adjustments. A. J. Stevon test is without charge or obligation. If you are slightly hard of hearing or very deaf call for a FREE DEMONSTRATION Hours: 10 a.m. till 8 p.m.

Thursday, May 2rd, Only

Rooms at Desk M. T. Dale

NEW QUEEN'S HOTEL

(Belleville)

Instruments Retailed at $18.50 up

Her Honest Red-Flannel Heart was Stung When the Local Bees Started Buzzing Around that Imported Honey!

You'll Love Your Bridge Work Laughing at this Drama of a Girl Doing Wrong By!

THE MEANEST GAL IN TOWN

Zasu Pitts

and these fun-gingers

PERT KELTON (tough Hit of "The Bowery")

EL BRENDEL (Amazin of Screw)

JAMES GLEASON

"SKEETS" GALLAGHER

COMPANION FEATURE

Young Love! Excitement! . . . a whole life time of emotions crowded into 24 thrill-packed hours.

"This Side of Heaven"

Now Playing

BELLE

Always a SMART SHOW

TOM BROWN MAE CLARKE LIONEL BARRYMORE UNA MERKEL

EXTRA — LANNY ROSS, radio's honey-toned tenor in a great new MOVIE LATEST NEWS FLASHES

LAST COIN. SHOW 8.30

BELLEVILLE BETTER WEEK COUPONS MAT. & EVG.

BELLEVILLE BETTER WEEK

Get Your Coupons at the Stores Showing The B. B. W. BANNERS

Coupons Also Given on All Accounts Paid

Come! Shop at the Stores Displaying The B. B. W. BANNERS

Coupons on Cash Sales and Money Paid On Account

ALL THIS WEEK

COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES DURING THIS GREAT BELLEVILLE BETTER WEEK YOU WILL RECEIVE NUMBERED COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES MADE IN THE STORES DISPLAYING THE B.B.W. BANNERS—RETAIN ALL COUPONS YOU RECEIVE AND YOU WILL BE ELIGIBLE TO WIN ONE OF THE WONDERFUL PRIZES LISTED BELOW, ALSO 30 ADDITIONAL PRIZES EACH DAY.

SATURDAY
APRIL 28th.
GRAND PRIZE
WON BY NO. A 28254

150 PCE. COMMUNITY SILVER AND CHINA SET
Approximate Value 95.00
ABSOLUTELY FREE and 30 other valuable prizes

MONDAY
APRIL 30th.
GRAND PRIZE
WON BY NO. D 26141

Beatty 149.50 Washing Machine
Instead of the $89.00 Washer originally offered—
(Courtesy Beatty Bros.)
30 Other Valuable Prizes—Absolutely Free

TUESDAY
MAY 1st.
GRAND PRIZE

3 Tons of SCOTCH COAL
Delivered to Your Home And 30 Other Valuable Prizes
Absolutely Free!

WEDNESDAY
MAY 2nd.
GRAND PRIZE

Ladies' Dress and Coat
value 65.00
Or if gentleman wins, a topcoat and suit of same value. And 30 Additional Prizes.

OVER $1000.00 IN PRIZES GIVEN FREE IN 7 DAYS

THURSDAY
MAY 3rd.
GRAND PRIZE

THE MYSTERY RADIO

"ACE BAILEY" MODEL
Stewart-Warner
RADIO value 149.50
And 30 Other Prizes
ABSOLUTELY FREE

FRIDAY
MAY 4th.
GRAND PRIZE

99.50 Coleman Stove
And 30 Other Prizes
Absolutely Free!

SATURDAY
MAY 5th.
GRAND PRIZE
4 Piece Walnut Bedroom Suite

And 30 Other Valuable Prizes
ABSOLUTELY FREE

THIRTY MINOR PRIZES EVERY DAY

A 7-Day Festival of Value Giving Never Before Equalled or Attempted by Belleville Retail Merchants

Prizes will be Drawn every Morning at 10 a.m.
By Mayor Tice in Window of Walker Hardware Store

KINDLY NOTE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION

All drawings will be made publicly in the windows of the Walker Hardware Co., and in every instance the drawings will be made by Mayor Tice.

The numbers of the winning tickets will be posted in the windows of the same store and will also appear in the Ontario Intelligencer.

The winners will receive their prizes on presentation of the winning coupons to William Doyle, Secretary, at the John Lewis Co.

COUPONS GIVEN WITH ALL MONEYS PAID ON ACCOUNTS

A Full List of Those Participating in This Sale Appears Elsewhere in This Paper—Look for It!

Over 100 Belleville Stores Banded Together in this Great Money Saving Event
Watch for the Coupon Stores—Get Your Coupons with Every Purchase-and Share in the Valuable Prize Awards

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER
THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.
W. H. MORTON, Publisher.

MAY-DAY

May-Day has various significances to the world today. Once it was the occasion of high festival on the village greens of England and of spring celebrations, today it stands for moving in many cities, another kind of movement, not associated with the light-some open air measures of generations ago. And today it stands for another movement, that of labor, in some European countries, of a revolutionary character.

Canadians find the day the realization of spring in all its progress, though latterly there has come into being here the custom of parades of workmen. To most persons the season and the weather are the reason for the rejoicing on May-Day.

EXIT WINTER AT LAST

Friday's snow and hail storm seems to have proved again the adage that cold weather in a late spring is only to disappear with a snowstorm. Since Saturday the turn seems to have been taken.

Of late weeks farmers have been counting damage to their fall wheat and other crops, and to strawberry bushes. With the coming of warm weather and the signs of budding they will be able to estimate their losses to trees and shrubbery more closely.

ATOM PHOTOGRAPHED

The tireless elusive atoms have been photographed through the medium of the X-rays which magnify ten billion times as much as ordinary light.

This has confirmed a point of science that what seems to be solid matter to the ordinary gaze and touch is really a closely-packed mass of electrical energy always in motion and each finest mote of atomic structure, capable of exerting a force. Man for two thousand years has been probing into the atom from the time of Lucretius. The Montreal Gazette comments: "The modern scientist has become transcendentalist. When for instance, we find that a radium atom is not hot but is controlled by electrical, not by gravitational forces and contains such store of energy that the collapsing of its electrical ingredients, will supply radio-activity energy for thirty thousand years, we are within the region of a romance that assuredly renders the most abstruse conceits of the transcendentalists almost prosaic by comparison. Yet this is but the beginning of wonderful discoveries which in the scientific experts believe they have found in atoms the key to the starry systems and the secret force ever at work upbuilding all solid forms throughout the universe. We are told that hard substances granite, steel, diamonds—are atoms in motion and products of atomic velocity."

Prof. J. J. Thompson calculates that in a cubic centimetre of hydrogen, that is a cube two-fifths of an inch square there are twenty billions of billions of molecules and that no living germ can contain less than one hundred millions of them, even the blood corpuscle containing more than three billion of them. A molecule poised on the point of a needle is like a midge on the summit of Matterhorn. There are more molecules in the teardrop than the population of the world totals. "Indeed in a tiny mote of dust there is more activity going on than in the largest factory in the world. Molecules are colliding millions of times per second in atoms which are smaller than molecules.

The amazing ocean of life which lies in the smallest things we know is what science has brought us without disturbing our life.

And the wonder continues to grow.

DOG BACK FROM THE DEAD

A dog is reported to have been brought back to life. He was chloroformed at Berkeley, California, and pronounced dead. And they revived him. He is now able to rise on his front feet, and bark and growl but he is in a stupor. Scientists' greatest concern is whether he will recover consciousness. The only possibility he will not may be because of the destruction of some of the brain tissue through his "death."

Now this dog eats plenty of food.

Back of this effort to revive the animal is the plan to find a way to revive those who have been the victims of drowning or electrical shock. But if doctors cannot bring back the brain of the dead dog to normalcy of function, there might be little possibility of their reviving human beings to their former stature. If the bodies were revived but the minds left inert, the revival and recovery would be a real travesty, such a picture as one might be made the subject of a horror film, a man with a dead brain.

Scientists are getting the greatest kick out of their experimenting and there is no end to what they may do.

Revival from the dead has always been to man not so much of an ideal as a vague dream or bit of folk imagination. If it should become possible in more than accident cases of electrocution or drowning, a new element might be injected into life which would transform the world. Putting flesh on the dead bones might then be the final step which would totter the brains of a whole civilization.

SIDELIGHTS

PORTRAIT OF A GIRL

She is something of a pagan,
She is something of a saint,
And the combination makes her
(As you might imagine) quaint.

She has moments touched with laughter,
Cruel as a nymph's could be
Mocking at a luckless satyr
From a fountain or a tree.

She has hours still and pensive,
Musing in a prayerful mood
When all life with fret and folly,
Seems a fleeting interlude.

She has days of wistful brooding,
She has times of heartless mirth,
And the combination makes her
Quite the dearest girl on earth!

—Alice Michaelis.

x x x x

INSPECTOR JAMES TINSLEY, of the Toronto police force, is retiring August 1, and his impending retirement brings forth some reminiscences in the press of his police experiences. The most hectic adventure of his police career happened in Brockville, where he was a member of the local police force. March 9, 1893, between 12 and one o'clock noon, a demented trapper who had a grudge against the police force, came into town and with a gun in his hand took up position covering the police station. The first uniform he saw he fired at—it was a fireman, who sought shelter behind the public scales. From then on events took on a lively pace, range was shot at, and most of them hit, including an old Indian, who rushed toward the maniac yelling "Leave with me for that." And dropped with a bullet in his brain; the Chief of Police who stopped several bullets: Sergeant Tinsley, who edged around a building to get in range of the killer, and shot it out with him on the street while sharpshooters in upper windows took pot shots. Tinsley was severely wounded but recovered, as did the Chief of Police. Several others were seriously wounded but recovered.

x x x x

HITLER MAY HANG that German printer to make him look like the interrogation point he inserted in the line recording Hindenberg's wishes for a long life for Hitler.

x x x x

TRAVELLER FINED IN KINGSTON for all-night parking of his automobile has written the Chief of Police that he will endeavour to avoid stopping over night in Kingston in the future, and that when in need of repairs, new tires, gasoline, etc., hitherto purchased in Kingston, he will endeavour to arrange to get them elsewhere. So will the Belleville that traffic streets are meant for traffic, not parking, but during the night, when there is almost no traffic, it does not seem to me that there is any great harm in parking on a side street all night."

x x x x

WHEN MARK TWAIN SAID that the troubles in his life he worried the most about never happened he said a mouthful. We worry more about things we expect to happen but which never materialize or at best dwindle to unimportance. Mark Twain (Samuel Clemens) had plenty of real troubles but being a humorist managed to laugh at them or at his biggest trouble came through his mistake in becoming a publisher as well as author. He made much money as an author and thought he would make more by being his own printer and publisher. He lost all the money he had made and went into debt a few hundred thousand before he found out that the publishing business was a great business to stay out of.

However, although not as young as he used to be, he assumed the debts of the concern, went around the world on a lecture tour and made enough money to pay the debts, and then some.

x x x x

Office Boy—Please, sir, I think somebody wants you on the telephone.

Chief—Now, what is the use of saying you think? I am wanted? Am I wanted or not?

Boy—Well, sir, somebody rang up and said, "is that you, you old idiot?"

x x x x

"Cora Anne," said her mother, sorrowfully, "every time you are naughty, I get another grey hair."

"Then," said Cora Anne, "you must have been a terror when you were a kid. Look at grandpa!"

x x x x

The little daughter came back from Sunday School with an illustrated card in her hand.

"What's that you have there, little one?" she was asked.

"Oh," said the child, "just an ad. about heaven."

EVERYONE HAS GUILTY SENSE IN A DEGREE

Guilty Feelings Follow Transgressions You "Get Away With"

By Louis E. Bisch, M.D. Ph. D.
Famous Authority on Health and Psychology

(Copyright, 1934, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

There can be no question but that you harbor a guilt sense. We all have it to a degree. No man, woman or child is free from it. This feeling of guilt may be conscious or unconscious. It does not matter what you have it and you may struggle even desperately to rid yourself of it. On the other hand, you may not actually know that the thing that is upsetting you or influencing you in various subtle ways is due to an unconscious condition of guilt.

Guilt feelings develop as we begin to distinguish between what is right and what is wrong. And this, to be sure, starts very early in life. The child soon learns that taking other children's toys, or whatever is not his own, is a wrong act that is punishable. Later, as he grows older, he also learned that there are certain laws which he dare not break for fear of the penalty.

But in addition to all the various restrictions that society and civilized society place upon us, there are mores and scores of thoughts and acts that we experience, that we know are not proper or moral, and in it is emotions like these that produce guilt more readily than any other.

In other words, your guilt sense grows out of the transgressions you "get away with." If you suffer punishment, you are not likely to feel guilty afterwards as when you escape punishment through not being discovered. The guilt sense and peculiar small voice called conscience has a lot to do with these feelings. Conscience not only makes us realize our guilt, but we want to be punished.

This sense of guilt in human beings is greater than people appreciate. Often we sit in judgment upon ourselves and are punished with much greater severity than the average court of justice upon the bench. We may be extremely harsh in somatic punishments. Indeed, people so so far as to punish themselves by depriving themselves of enjoyment—all secretly, without taking anyone else into their confidence.

Young people do this sort of thing frequently. Self-punishment is very common in boys and girls in their teens. In these years youth is very idealistic and holds itself to the highest standards. Hence, and especially sex problems, bother to a great deal and these undoubtedly are responsible for the majority of guilt feelings.

How much guilt sense depends largely upon the individual's early training. So-called "religion" may develop the sense of right and wrong more quickly and strongly in their children than careless parents. Many religious trainings also works the same way.

If however, parents, teachers and advisors would talk problems out, in a "heart-to-heart" fashion, with children, and with young men and women, although the latter may still realize they have done wrong, the sense of guilt does not torment them so much.

Under such ideal conditions young people learn that nearly everybody is suffering, or has suffered, from similar conflicts. They do not then consider themselves different and outcast, they begin to appreciate the fact that we all make mistakes as we grow.

Naturally the guilt sense is then still operative, it does not do the mental damage that otherwise happens.

Dr. Bisch's Daily Diet Hint

Persons who suffer from conditions of any kind should eat sparingly and eliminate meat and salt in the diet entirely. Bisch and Hollywood Diet advocate. Fruits be eat to a minimum, while simple foods together with green vegetables and salads should be eaten in quantity. In such conditions proper elimination is of the greatest importance. Water should therefore be drunk between meals and plenty of exercise taken.

"TRAILWAY" SANDWICHES FOR SCHOOL LUNCHES

Because housewives, as often their children, have to take their lunches with them, the Canadian National Railways Magazine has inaugurated a "delightful sandwich" competition. Among the entries in the competition for lunches, the following "fillings" have been submitted: chopped figs, dates and nuts moistened with lemon juice; peanut butter and orange marmalade; peanut butter, boiled egg yolk and mayonnaise, butter or cream cheese, minced celery and green peppers moistened with cream or mayonnaise; broiled bacon, ground, and peanut butter moistened with milk; cottage cheese and chopped green olive; boiled ham, boiled, chopped, and flaked sardines moistened with lemon juice; boiled ham and bacon, finely chopped and mixed with a little pickle. Who will turn up his nose at a "railway sandwich"!

POLICE COMB UNDERWORLD

Chicago, May 1.—(CP)—Police combed the Chicago underworld today for the slayer of Vernon Charles Emory, 34-year-old optician, died yesterday of the wound he received in the abdomen. Walter Franck 40, an Oak Park, Ill., resident, was arrested and held soon after the shooting, which occurred in his home.

JUSTICE KERWIN NAMED

Toronto, May 1.—(CP)—Mrs. Justice Kerwin, recently appointed judge of the Ontario Supreme Court, has been appointed by the Minister of Labour, Hon. Norman Rogers, Board of Conciliation to deal with the dispute existing between the Toronto Transportation Commission and the platform employes.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

MAY 1, 1914.

The Belleville Rifle company returned from Ashbridge's Bay twenty-nine years ago yesterday, April 30th.

The directors of the Y.M.C.A. will meet this evening. They will, as usual, take the down town.

The members of the Ramblers' Bicycle Club will have a run to Consecon on tomorrow night where they will have tea. They will leave the Y.M.C.A. at six o'clock.

Dr. E. W. Good of Toronto was in the city yesterday renewing his acquaintance with Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, Front.

The directors of the Y.M.C.A. will meet this evening. They will, as usual, take the down town.

Mr. Will St. Charles has returned home from Toronto where he has been attending Trinity Medical College. He was successful in passing his second year examination.

50 YEARS AGO

MAY 1, 1884.

Street musicians were plentiful today, there being no less than three "bands" on the street.

The City of Belleville Milk Company began making deliveries yesterday.

Hazleton and hotel porters now stand south of the rails at the depot and are prohibited from going to the platform.

A trio of gentlemen are in the city and are endeavoring to secure the city hall for a roller skating rink.

A bicycle valued at $150.00 was recovered here at noon today from Hartford, Conn. It is the property of Mr. Will Greatrix and is the largest wheel in the city.

Mr. John Watson, teacher at at the D. and D. Institute here, has been offered a good position on the staff of the D. and D. Institute at Austin, Texas, and will probably leave here early next week.

Some improvements have been made in the cabin of the yacht Islantha and her spar has been shifted.

BONES FROM TWO BODIES

Mystery Deepens in Kitchener Grave Find

Kitchener, May 1.—Kitchener's skeleton mystery deepened when the Coroner's jury held its inquiry into the finding of the bones and was told they were not all from the same body. The jury found the unknown woman was placed in Woodside Park by persons or a person unknown, after medical examination showed some of the bones were part of the body of a child.

The skeleton, believed when found to be that of a young woman, was discovered by boys playing in a sand pit in the park April 4. Police recalled a letter written by Jacob Ginzovich, now in a Hamilton mental institution, threatening he had killed a girl in April, 1925, burying her body in the park. The letter was written in September 1930, when Ginzovich was awaiting deportation to America, which refused his admittance.

Brought here from Hamilton by police, Ginzovich failed to help in solving the mystery, stating only that to a different spot than where the bones were found.

At the inquest Dr. G. McTaggart told the jury most of the bones were those of a female between 30 and 45 years of age. Ginzovich's letter had said the girl was about 36 and came from Winnipeg district and that he had given her an overdose of cocaine, causing death.

McQUIBBAN AGAINST BERGER

Nomination Speech Tells of Opposition to Hepburn

ARTHUR, May 1.—"My stand is unchanged: I'll oppose proclamation of the Liberal candidate as the start of a Liberal victory," stated Dr. Thomas McQuibban, Liberal Home Leader, at the conclusion of the convention which unanimously gave him the nomination in North Wellington riding.

Dr. McQuibban made it clear that the independent course he was following on the liquor issue in no way affected the cohesion of the Liberal party and that the campaign determination to defeat the Henry Government, Evidence of this unity was the presence on the platform of T. K. Slack, Progressive member for the riding, Hepburn's constituency and rumored in the Conservative camp as the Liberal Party opponent. Mr. Slack affirmed that while he had differed from the Liberal Home Leader in the legislature's beer division, he would throw all his efforts into the campaign on Dr. McQuibban's behalf.

SOUTH AFRICAN SITUATION

London, May 1 (CP Cable)— Assurance was given in connection with South Africa's request for control over Swaziland, Bechuanaland and Basutoland, in a White Paper, by the government at least until after the native and white populations of the territories had a full opportunity of expressing their views, was given today.

GOLD TAX STUDIED

Ottawa, May 1—(CP)— Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance and Hon. Charles McRae, Ontario Minister of Mines, were in consultation all morning on the 10 per cent gold tax.

THE BEST
SHINGLES
THE BEST
ASPHALT
ROOFING
EVERYTHING IN LUMBER
ROUGH AND DRESSED
Prices are still very attractive.
The Schuster Co. Ltd.
Phones 93 and 616 W. N. Belair, Prop.

Stewart Warner RADIO
Westinghouse Refrigeration
EASY
Washing Machines
The Big "A" Co. Ltd.
217 FRONT ST. PHONE 284
WE GIVE COUPONS ON PURCHASES AND ACCOUNT PAYMENTS

CLOTHES BURN NUN SUCCUMBS

Hamilton Scene of Fatality as Dress Fired By Electric Heater

HAMILTON, May 1.—Margaret Hanlon, known in religious life as Sister Claudia, was fatally burned Monday afternoon at the Good Shepherds Convent, Park Street north. She was 70 years of age. She had been in ill health for some time and was confined to her bed.

An electric heater had been placed in her room and as she was moving about, her cotton night dress came in contact with it. She was enveloped in flames in a few seconds. Her cries for help were soon heard and although help came almost immediately, she was terribly burned and soon died. Dr. O. A. Cannon was notified and declared an inquest unnecessary.

16 DEAD IN ELECTION RIOTS

Ankara, May 1—Sixteen were reported dead and thirty wounded following a riot in the town of Salakze, in the Island of Rhodes which occurred Monday during a municipal election, according to information received here.

Troops were rushed to the town in motor boats, while several Italian cruisers, which are based at the time, stood by in case of emergency.

BOMBS EXPLODED

Pittsburgh, May 1 (AP)—Dynamite bombs were exploded in four theatres early Monday, shattering hundreds of windows and routing frightened residents of adjoining apartment houses. Police said they believed a war between rival factions of motion picture operators was on.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

By R. J. Scott

As MODERN as TO-DAY—

—This LIFE POLICY

- DUAL-PURPOSE: Retirement Income or Emergency Income.
- ALL BENEFITS DEFINITIZED: You know exactly what the policy will do for you and your family.
- OBTAINABLE IN UNITS: Each is a self-contained insurance programme.
- FLEXIBLE: Additional units to enlarge your programme may be secured as changes prevail.
- NEW LOW RATES.
- MEETS TO-DAY'S INSURANCE NEEDS of the average man.

—THE—

EXCELSIOR LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

"A Strong Canadian Company"

HEAD OFFICE :: TORONTO

For information about this policy, write to

H. G. Cook, Trenton W. Sallsbury, Belleville
District Representatives

Housing, Schooling and Living Standards Must be Raised

Labor Association Applauds Address of Rev. I. B. Naylor

CHURCH AND LABOR

Sympathetic, reaching out a helping hand in all times, the Church has always striven to assist the laboring men in every way. Members of the Belleville Labor Association who met in the Y.M.C.A. rooms last night were told by the Rev. I. B. Naylor, pastor of the Bridge Street United church.

Several interruptions were noted during the course of the address given by Rev. Naylor, but they were caused only through the spontaneous outbreak of applause as the speaker drove home his talk in clear and simple fashion to the interested audience.

"We want Christianize industry to give a fuller, freer life to all who work, on whichever side of the glass door they may be. We must keep up the standard of housing, schooling and living. We must prevent depletion of health and exhaustion of energy. We must make the health and happiness of the workers the first charge of all productive industry," the guest speaker emphasized.

Work an Education

"The grim reality of work, however, could not be hidden by an Utopian dream; honest work was not a curse, but an education. Each man was created for a specific part in life, and through that life he must become just one of the many smaller cogs in the universe. Nothing but God could destroy mankind. But toil that undermined health, that assailed the nervous system was anti-Christian and must not be permitted in a Christian land, he declared. "From the standpoint of religion, that kind was dwarfing the souls of men."

"If the Church in such conditions is static, or evasive, then the moral passion of our time will travel through other channels and men will seek unconcerned pulpits for their message."

There must be partnership and goodwill between employee and employer, asserted the Rev. Naylor. Until industry is based not on fear, but respect, there can be no peace and no progress.

The partnership between soldiers and officers during war days was cited by the speaker as a combination working towards a definite end.

"Yet, if man combine to destroy factory, farm or school, then men may not combine to operate the factory, till the farm and make the house of God a gate of heaven!", he asked.

"We do know that in a Christian land, women and children cannot be sacrificed to any alleged necessities of trade. We do know that the sanitary basements should not be allowed for the enrichment of the absentees. We do know that no occupational disease would go without recognition. We do know that no preacher can rightly speak of 'golden streets' if he has not in his eye the streets and alleys of his own city".

"No church should be allowed to substitute the picture of the 'sweet bye-and-bye for the hard reality of grappling with human problems here and now."

Righting of Wrong

"The things that are wrong" continued the speaker "needs to be righted by Christian men or they will be righted by anti-Christian forces", he warned. "Let every man make his own heart right with God, and he shall have a christian land."

At the conclusion of his address, the Rev. Naylor exhorted the men to support their own association. Only through unity and co-operation could the organization hope to succeed. "Think together," was the tendency in the past has been for various organizations to break up into little factions. Prestige, power and inspiration have thus been lost.

Be true to your ideals. The Labor movement can only save the world if actuated by christian motives," he said.

President of the Association Cea. Elliott after thanking the honored speaker for the simple and straightforward talk, emphasized again the need for unity and expressed his appreciation of the large turn out, and the next regular meeting to be held on Thursday, May 10, Rev. Father Baker of St. Michael's parish would also address the association, members were informed. From then on the meeting of the association would be bi-monthly.

Informal discussion among members then was indulged in, with reasons or laboring conditions in the city fully and more openly dealt with by Mr. Samuel Weddes who also submitted several samples of the political situation which confronted electors at present.

PLANE CRASH PROBE

St. Catharines, Ont., May 1—(CP)—Dominion and provincial authorities opened an investigation today into the aeroplane crash at St. Davids Sunday which sent two Niagara Falls men to hospital with serious injuries.

Snakes Delivered in Coal Car Rouse Engine Crew, Coal Men

Two Snakes From South Sea Selves on Top of Coal at C.N.R.

SEEN IN YARD

There was less than the usual rest and swing about the job of unloading a car load of coal in the local yards or the Schuster Company Limited yesterday. Shovels and scrapers perhaps did clatter with a certain regularity, but it was noted there were frequent pauses in the noisy work as the toilers stopped over the fuel to bend to see deeper searchingly underfoot and into the darkened corners of the loaded car. Also it was observed a shovel was brandished from time to time like a weapon, and there was an interval of mysterious pounding on lumps of coal, not would we say some.

It commenced when a startled brakesman in the yards of the Canadian National Railways after bestowing the hand brake he had to switch engine to thrust the loaded car, leaped in the ground with a sudden alacrity and hurried to the cab of the switch engine.

"Snakes!" believed the husky brake as the engine crew at his urgent cry dismounted in quick circles in the direction of the innocent-looking load of coal.

"Sure, snakes," soothed the engineer as he reached for the fire hook. "I'll go and get it, got work to do. We'll run afterward."

"Snakes," repeated the brake in awed tones. "Two of them. Flat-headed ones. Poisonous they are from the top of the coal."

When the locomotive was delivered at the Schuster siding, the brakeman was with it, still hopping a wary eye on the load. His explained fully and at length that the car contained not only coal, but something else. His loose statements were fully verified by the testimony of the engine crew who had seen for themselves. Superintendent of the yards, Mr. Jack Istead attentively. He may have had visions of a new addition to customer suddenly finding himself face to face with a full length snake in a scuttle of coal some cool morning as he emerged from the darkness of the cellar. Another picture of one or more snakes playing hide-and-seek among the bags of the family furnace in some other cozy suburban household that had innocently ordered coal only, may have been flashed upon his mind, but at any rate, at the immediate location of two snakes which by now had apparently recovered deep into the grimy load. Whether their long-lashed shovels the unloading crew moved to the attack.

After the bottom of the load some time afterward two fairly bright snakes, one a brown and the other a large chunk of anthracite. A search for the slide failed to find them as they burrowed deeper before the attack of the workers. With well aimed blows of the shovels the hissing creatures were destroyed.

Identified later the snakes were classified as copper-heads, a species indigenous to the southern United States. How he came, they came from the Pocohontas Valley whence the car load of coal had been ordered by the local company. Dumped into the car along with the coal the snakes had apparently crept into it during the cold weather, and had come out to sun themselves in the railway yards during the warm weather, after their long train trip. Whether or not they were poisonous, local naturalists could not say, but the crew, the brakeman and brakemen were taking no chances on foot-long, strange-looking reptiles.

ASHAMED OF HER FIGURE

Husband Persuaded Her to Take Kruschen

By following her husband's advice, this woman made a tremendous improvement in her appearance—she actually took off 12 lbs. in 3 weeks! Owing to the fact of her experience, she writes:—

"A year ago I was troubled with rheumatism, nervousness and other complaints. And I got so fat that I was ashamed of my figure. I was persuaded by my husband to take Kruschen for a short time. I now weighed 181 lbs. After taking Kruschen for a short time the rheumatism was less painful, my nerves grew stronger and my step lighter. Then I knew that Kruschen was doing me good. I kept on taking it and got my weight down to 129 lbs., a reduction of 52 lbs. altogether. I am not losing when I say that I feel younger and more active, have a much better figure, and am healthier than I have been for years."—(Mrs.) F. S. Kruschen is a blend of six mineral salts, each of which helps internal organs to throw off each day those waste products that would otherwise form poisons in the form of fatty tissue.

MAY DAY IN VIENNA

Vienna, April 30—(CP) via Havas)—Italian motorcyclists belonging to the 10th Fascist Legion of Bologna who will take part in the May Day festivities in Vienna, arrived last night in Innsbruck, Austria. The Italian Shirts received warm welcome from the Austrian population and left today for Vienna.

LORD STRATHCONA TO SELL GLENCOE ESTATES

Biggest Real Estate Transaction in Scotland in Years

By THOMAS T. CHAMPION

Canadian Press Staff Writer

London May 1— (CP) — Lord Strathcona's decision to sell his Glencoe estates, prominent in the pages of Scottish history as the scene of the massacre of the Macdonalds in 1692, constitutes one of the largest transactions in real estate in Scotland for many years.

The highland domain extends from Loch Leven on the west into the Moor of Rannoch on the east, a distance of over 30 miles and covers about 91 square miles, a vast moorland for the grandeur of its scenery.

Glencoe is a famous deer forest, and the sale will also include the estates of Kinlochleven and Black Corrie.

The residence built by Donald Smith, the first Baron Strathcona, famous as a pioneer of Canadian railways is a modern chateau overstanding extensive views over Loch Leven and Argyll. Lord Strathcona and Lord Strathcona entertained here in princely style over a long period of years. Distinguished men and parts of the world, and many hundreds of visiting Canadians were guests.

CREW BATTLE FIRE AT SEA

Able to Subdue Blaze And Bring Ship Safe To Port

Liverpool, N.S. May 1—(CP) — Battling fire at sea and refusing to take to their boats even when there was danger of an explosion, every man of the Gloucester fishing trawler Sand Lynx has returned and brought her into Liverpool for repairs.

A spark from the generator of the motor operating the winch started the blaze in the engine room while the trawler was fishing on Brown's Banks yesterday.

The flames spread so rapidly that the interior was a mass of flames within 15 minutes, for a while the men feared the fire would sea, its way through the oil stores and cause an explosion.

Part of the crew was ordered to fight the fire, while others made the lifeboats ready for a quick getaway. After battling for over an hour the firemen finally got the flames under control and the Sand Lynx was headed for Liverpool, reaching port under her own power.

TREATY SAFE SAY JAPANESE

Britain Drops Matter of Policy of Japan in China

By George Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, May 1 (CP Cable) — Satisfied the Japanese government has no intention of interfering with the rights of other nations in China, the British government today dropping the matter of Japanese declaration of last week.

Sir John Simon, the Foreign Secretary, explained in the House of Commons Monday afternoon the British government, following representations by the ambassador to China. The statement, had secured assurances from the government that it had no intention of infringing the nine-power treaty guaranteeing Chinese integrity, and furthermore still stood for the "open door" principle in China.

Britain, Sir John reaffirmed, was resolved to assist in the widest principle of internal co-operation with China in the interests of world peace and prosperity, and the maintenance of peace in the Far East.

Weeps As He Greets Friends After Release

Alamagorda, N.M. May 1—(AP)—Albert F. Fall, former secretary of the interior in the Harding cabinet, wept as he greeted friends in his first public speech since his release from the Santa Fe prison.

Fall, who served a sentence in connection with the teapot dome scandal, spoke at the reception of the White Sands national monument. Tears streamed down his old, worn face he he faced many of his old friends in the audience. He delivered the latter part of his speech while sealed.

STILL UNCONSCIOUS

Peterborough, May 1—(CP)—Melville Fowler, 26 of Bridgenorth critically injured on Saturday night when struck by a car driven by Clifford Harman of Peterborough was still unconscious. Hospital authorities announced today. Fowler was driving home from Peterboro in a buggy when the car crashed into him from the rear. Traffic Officer Hornish investigated but did not hold Harman.

COCOA FIRMS ARE MERGED

Amalgamation of J. S. Fry and Son and Cadbury Announced

An amalgamation of the firm of J. S. Fry & Sons (Canada) Ltd. and Cadbury Ltd., has been announced from Montreal, the Canadian headquarters of these two widely known companies.

The new Canadian company will be Fry-Cadbury Ltd. and the two modern factories which have been near and friendly neighbours in Montreal for several years, are now a unit, where products bearing two of the most famous names in the English-speaking world will be manufactured.

The event is another milestone in the romantic history of two great companies pre-eminent in the cocoa and chocolate industries.

In a small shop in Bristol, England, Joseph Storrs Fry started making Fry's Cocoa in 1728, just 206 years ago. In Birmingham, England, in 1824, just over 100 years ago, John Cadbury started in business. He started his Cocoa and Chocolate business in 1831.

While it is only in recent years that Fry's and Cadbury's have come into between these two Firms, their histories are closely linked in many ways. Both Joseph Storrs Fry and John Cadbury started business with the belief in small beginnings and establishment. Both were Quakers. Both businesses have remained under the direction and control of the original family in this day. Mr. Cecil Fry, present Chairman of the Board of Directors of the present Fry Company, is the sixth in direct line of succession to Head the Firm.

The same high good will which Cadbury Bros. Ltd. John Cadbury founded in this business for which later passed into the hands Both businesses have remained under the direction and control of the business grew to world wide fame. Mr. William Cadbury, present Chairman of the Company is Mr. William A. Cadbury a direct descendant of the founder.

The Quaker influence has been shown in evidence in both Companies. In the early days of both Cadbury's and Fry's a short religious service preceded the day's work in the Montreal Joseph Fry's plant read the Scriptures to his employees every morning. During the 80's and 90's a passage of Scripture was read to their employees each morning by one of the Cadbury Partners.

Fry and Cadbury products were imported into Canada for many years prior to the establishment of the Fry factory in Montreal in 1923, and the Cadbury factory in 1929. Today these factories employ thousands of gallons of pure full cream milk annually, bought from Canadian farms. More than 97 percent of the ingredients used by Fry and Cadbury products are Empire-grown.

The new partnership begins its existence under the happiest auspices. With centuries of experience, the tradition of highest quality, trained staffs of loyal workers, elaborate and modern research facilities, an efficient sales and distributing organization and Dominion-wide consumer acceptance for all its products, it has every reason to be headed for even greater heights of prosperity. It will be guided by F. T. W. Saunders and W. P. B. Wrong, Directors.

BIG FORTUNE NOT IN SIGHT

Police Doubt Story of Transient Who Got Loan

Hespeler, Ont., May 1—(CP) — Police here today were investigating a report received in Hespeler advising Roy Wilson, a transient, that he was the heir to a small fortune in England and a farm in East Kildride, Scotland. The message having been presumably signed by a firm of solicitors there.

Now from Scotland comes word that there is no firm of that name and no deaths recorded of a Robert Wilson.

Chief of Police Wilson, who says he has been suspicious of the claims of Roy Wilson, says he believes the transient to be Roy Hudson, alias Frederick Hudson who it is alleged a somewhat similar game to that played on Roy Wilson from a widow there when he got his supposed fortune.

The chief also got word from a Mrs. Hudson of Toronto, who comes from East Kildride, stating a man answering Roy Wilson's description had borrowed about $30 from her. He then gave the name of Alec Colmore.

Wilson's whereabouts now are unknown.

FOR OVER 50 YEARS THE OLD RELIABLE

PEG TOP CIGARS 5¢

Frost, Winds, Clouded Skies, Banish Spring Thoughts in West

Winnipeg, Apir 30 (CP)—Chill winds, frost and overcast skies today banished thoughts of spring across the prairies.

Dust storms which dimmed the sun Sunday had abated but clouds prevailed. Colder weather, with northerly and easterly winds, and scattered showers were forecast.

Calgary reported an invaluable spring rain which fell all night. At Edmonton it rained nearly all week-end, then turned to snow which fell lightly.

Saskatoon had six degrees of frost overnight after rain and winds, frost and overcast skies today banished thoughts of spring across the prairies.

Dust storms which dimmed the sun Sunday had abated but clouds prevailed. Colder weather, with northerly and easterly winds, and scattered showers were forecast.

Calgary reported an invaluable spring rain which fell all night. At Edmonton it rained nearly all week-end, then turned to snow which fell lightly.

Saskatoon had six degrees of frost overnight after rain and winds, frost and overcast skies today banished thoughts of spring across the prairies.

Dust storms which dimmed the sun Sunday had abated but clouds prevailed. Colder weather, with northerly and easterly winds, and scattered showers were forecast.

Calgary reported an invaluable spring rain which fell all night. At Edmonton it rained nearly all week-end, then turned to snow which fell lightly.

Saskatoon had six degrees of

POLICE NEWS

After recovering a bicycle for a William Street resident, early last week, the police were notified that the bike had been stolen again on Saturday. A second search of the missing bicycle is now in progress.

Little Verna Warren, age 5 years, of 33 Station Street, was bitten on the left leg by a dog while she was out walking with her father yesterday afternoon Little Verna and her daddy were proceeding along Dundas street when the dog suddenly dashed out and without provocation lightly bit the little girl, causing a wound about one-half inch long Dr. J. A. Faulkner dressed the wound. The police were notified and instructed the owner of the canine to keep their dog securely tied.

A local resident, when stopped by the police on Friday, failed to produce his individual driver's permit. The operator was instructed to report at the police station. Further check-ups along this line will follow, so say the police.

REFUSES TO COMMENT

OTTAWA, April 30.—(CP)—Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Finance Minister, would not comment today on the Report from Britain that eight Brockville Gold Mining Companies would receive a new gold quotation and would fight the impost on the ground that it was ultra vires the Dominion Parliament. Any statements the Minister might have to make on that point would be made to the House of Commons, it was stated here today.

PLUNGES TO DEATH

New York, May 1 (AP)— Arthur Woodward 58, advertising executive, plunged to his death from his hotel apartment, Woodward, President of the A. W. Advertising Corporation, had suffered an apoplectic stroke.

"Couldn't Believe Only a Few Extra Dollars Could Buy So Much More Car Until I Saw the New Dodge"

SAY THOUSANDS OF MOTORISTS EVERYWHERE . . . .

Get Amazing Facts in "Show-Down" Plan!

There's only one way to find out which of the new 1934 cars gives the most for your money. That is to compare. Dodge offers you an easy, simple way to do it—"Show-Down" Plan. It takes the guess-work out of car buying. Gives you facts—not claims. Ask any Dodge dealer about it—and get a copy of the FREE "Show-Down" score card.

Advertisement authorized by Department of Supplementary, Chrysler Motors.

The New Bigger DODGE $945

DELIVERED TO YOU IN BELLEVILLE

The new, bigger Dodge on 117-inch wheelbase: Coupe with rumble seat; Four-door Sedan; Convertible Coupe. On the 114-inch wheelbase: Coupe; Two-door Sedan; Rumble seat Coupe; Four-door Sedan; Convertible Coupe.

RIGGS MOTOR SALES

224 PINNACLE STREET
PHONE 116 — BELLEVILLE

Personals

MARRIAGE NOTICE

The marriage will be solemnized in St. Michael's Church, Belleville, on May 10, 1934, of Patricia Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Purcell, Cambrian, to Elias H. Bennett, son of Mr. Jos. Bennett, Read, Ont. The ceremony was performed by St. Rev. Monsignor Nicholson. ml-1t

Miss Eva Lawrence, Toronto, has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. William Mossman.

Mrs. Geo. Sprackett, Porth St., is visiting at the home of her daughter Mr. Mrs. D. Hoskins, Toronto.

Miss Irene Delaney returned to Toronto, after visiting relatives in this city.

W. H. Bailey, dairy instructor of Madoc District, is in town today.

Mr. Clarke Kinnear of the staff of the Dominion Bank has been transferred to a Toronto branch and has left to assume his new duties.

Mrs. J. T. Bowyer, who underwent a serious operation in the Belleville General Hospital, is progressing favourably.

An enjoyable evening was spent last night when about fifty young people from Holloway Street church visited the Deseronto Young People. After being welcomed by Miss Helen Shell, president of Deseronto Young People, the program was handed over to Joe Anderson, Holloway Street president. Piano Solo, Alec Gordon; Accordian solo, Bruce Sills; Cornet Solo, Mr. Wardle; Vocal Solo, Miss Simpson; Reading, Anne Ashley; Piano Duet, Ada and Kay Crowe; Reading, Chas. Draper; Violin Solo—Gordon Brown; Musical Saw, Bruce Sills. Following the program, games were enjoyed followed by lunch.

Miss Helen Luscombe returned to Toronto, today after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luscombe.

Mrs. Walter Luscombe entertained yesterday at a charmingly arranged afternoon tea in honour of her daughter, Miss Helen Luscombe's bride-to-be. Receiving with Mrs. Luscombe and Miss Luscombe was Mrs. J. Ivor of Toronto. Mrs. E. Moorman invited the guests to the tea room. Green and yellow tapers and yellow daffodils gave the tea table a inviting air. Mrs. D. C. Forde and Mrs. J. F. Hill, Shannonville, poured, and those who assisted in serving were Mrs. Frank McKeown, Mrs. Arthur Hill, Miss Jean Moorman and Miss Gunds Hill.

A DOMESTIC TYPE

RUG CLEANED

Size up to 6 ft. 9 in. by 9 ft.

All dust removed, the grease, grime and spots taken out, the original bright colors restored.

$2.00 (Fringe extra)

Size 9 ft. by 12 ft. 6 in. $2.95
Size 9 ft. by 12 ft. $2.25

Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Telephone 238

Langley's
CLEANERS—FURRIERS
219 Pinnacle St. Belleville

HEROIC NURSE SAVES CHILD

Infantile Paralysis Checked by Prompt Assistance

One evening in the cold northern Ontario Fall, an outpost nurse was called to see an Italian section's children in Pedro, aged 6, had been ill for twenty-four hours with fever and general malaise, but by this time was better. Similarly, aged 4, was suffering from fever, stiffness of the back and neck, weakness of the right leg and other serious symptoms. The nurse suspected Infantile Paralysis, and secured a doctor from forty-five miles distance (transportation only by railroad) who confirmed the diagnosis of Infantile Paralysis. The outpost nurse began having had Infantile Paralysis as a child, gave a transfusion to the child, the benefit of which would be the same as Infantile Paralysis serum. The child got better without residual paralysis, undoubtedly due to the nurse's self-sacrificing care.

This is only one of the instances that make up the day by day program of the nurses in the outpost hospitals sponsored by the Red Cross. In all their activities, such as the home nursing classes, nutrition classes, Junior Red Cross work, the sewing of useful garments, undertakings so familiar to residents of the city who have benefited from or aided in the carrying out of these phases of Red Cross work, the same spirit of kindness and helpfulness is manifested.

Citizens who sympathize wholeheartedly with the cause of Red Cross will be given an opportunity next week to show their appreciation in a practical way when the annual appeal for funds will be made. Everyone can surely spare a sum to help in this compassionate work, realizing that each contribution goes a long way towards bringing comfort and hope to weary lives.

Quality Has No Substitute

"SALADA" TEA

"Fresh from the Gardens"

Weddings

GAULIN—COYNE

St. Michael's Cathedral, Toronto, was the setting for an interesting wedding yesterday morning, when Florence Coyne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phineas Coyne, of Capreol, and cousin of the bride of Mr. Edward Gaulin, son of Mrs. Gaulin and the late James Gaulin of Deseronto. The Rev. Father Ladislaus Wojdechowski officiated, with Mrs. Coffey at the organ. Spring flowers were attractively arranged in the altar.

The bride, given away by her father, wore a gown of white Swiss with veil falling to the shoulders at the back. She carried a white prayer book, showered with lilies-of-the-valley and orange blossoms. The bride's only ornament was a silver friendship necklace which was worn by the bride's mother at her own wedding and was composed of silver coins on which were engraved the names of the donors.

Miss Ella Gaulin, attended the bride as bridesmaid, wearing a frock of pale green stiffened chiffon and taffeta hat and accessories. Her flowers were Talisman roses. Mr. Edmund Dowling of Napanee, was best man.

A wedding breakfast followed at the Westminster Hotel for the immediate friends and relatives. Mrs. Coyne was in black triple sheer crepe with black hat and corsage of sweet peas. Mrs. Gaulin was in black crepe with corsage of sweet peas.

After a short trip they will live in Toronto. The bride travelled in a blue novelty tweed coat with baby wolf collar and cedarbark dress and accessories.

MISS WOODLEY WINS WASHER

Winner of Grand Prize For Monday and Saturday Winners Given

Miss Kathleen Woodley of this city, won the grand prize of a Beauty electric washing machine given by the local merchants as Monday's grand drawing in their Belleville Better Week now successfully entering upon its third day. Miss Woodley's number was D-20141. The holder of the grand prize for Saturday, A-26354, has yet to put in an appearance to claim the beautiful set of dishes and chest of silver offered.

By noon today 17 of the 31 winners at the drawing on Monday morning had applied at the Lewis Hardware Co. for their prizes. They were:

B-15562—W. D. Stewart, Belleville
D-36153—Mrs. A. Belton, Belleville.
A-26279—Mrs. Albert Potter, Demorestville.
B-36306—J. Rickett, Belleville.
D-21078—P. Cidis, Belleville.
A-27919—Mary Kennedy, Belleville.
C-20061—Don Ridley, Belleville.
D-14324—Mrs. Madden, Belleville
C-44572—C. J. Whitlock, Yarker.
B-27144—Mrs. Y. Keefe, Belleville.
D-32557 — Mrs. Robt. Goudy, Belleville.
E-4775—Mrs. K. Gerow, Belleville
C-31055—Mrs. Flindall, Belleville
B-18804—Mrs. R. Labarr, Belleville.
B-47801—Mildred Bonter, Point Anne.
B-17928—M. Huff, Napanee.
B-45145—F. McAvoy, R.R. 6, Belleville.

The remaining numbers unclaimed at noon today for the draw for Saturday's coupons were:

C-14396; B-33546; A-42006; B-2161; B-25321; D-34693; A-39742; X-48101; A-29789; B-17417; D-49810; D-6752; D-49772.

MILK REPORT FOR APRIL

	Butter Fat.
Walmsley	3.5
Montrose, Jersey	4.4
Montrose, Standard	3.5
Millard	4.3
DeVaul	3.5
Babcock	3.5
Leeming	3.6
Whalen	3.6
Breeds	3.5
Farnham	3.5
Butler	3.5
Harper	3.5
Reid's	3.5
Gilmens Dairy	3.6
Osborne	3.9

All samples tested for sediment test. (Signed) C. B. Waite, M.D. Director "Laboratory."

PALMER'S DIAMOND EVENT

Lor-Y-Lei Diamonds

are faultless quality and lasting beauty — a gift that is cherished forever.

BRIDAL PAIR

A beautiful diamond solitaire with diamonds in shoulder, and a charming wedding ring set with diamonds. Both for only

$115.00

Diamond Solitaire with six smaller diamonds in shoulder, square type. Lor-Y-Lei Fastless Quality

$450.00

Diamond Dinner Ring Platinum set with eleven perfect cut stones

$175.00

An Exclusive Creation

$100.00

WE have one of the finest collections of jewelry in this city. Call and our established reputations for quality and integrity makes us the ideal place for you to come to make your gift selections.

BELLEVILLE BETTER DAYS SPECIAL

FOR HER

Engraved 18 kt. White Gold Ring set with a sparkling LOR-Y-LEI DIAMOND. Outstanding value — Guaranteed Quality.

$25.00
BUY ON TERMS

WEDDING RINGS

Engraved White and Green Gold Wedding Rings. FREE—6 Teaspoons with each ring

$5.00 $8.50 $12.50 $15.00

GET YOUR BELLEVILLE BETTER WEEK COUPONS HERE
28 BRIDGE ST. E.

Belleville Better Week

GRAND PRIZE

FOR

WEDNESDAY MAY 2nd.

LADIES' DRESS — and — COAT

Value of $65.00 OR IF A

Gentleman Wins TOPCOAT and SUIT

OF THE SAME VALUE

A New Coat and Dress

of the latest fashion and finest material, designed from the latest Paris Fashions and made by the best makers—what finer gift could Dame Fortune hand to a lady in the spring of this glorious year of 1934.

But there is a chance of a man winning this prize—perish the thought, get together Girls, and show the men they haven't the ghost of a chance.

All together, now, for the Grandest Grand Prize of the year.

Is the Female of the Species More Lucky than the Male?

Here's where that question can be definitely or indefinitely decided. IF A MERE MAN WINS WEDNESDAY'S GRAND PRIZE he can blossom forth in a suit and Topcoat of the finest material by the finest makers—ready to step right out as a human emblem of prosperity and pride.

THIS IS A CONTEST BETWEEN THE FAIR SEX AND THE MALE SPECIES

It's up to the men to prove their right to first place in the sun by getting as many coupons as possible, hence more chances of victory. Come on men, get going and show the ladies that the male of the species can go some when the occasion arises.

Shop at the Coupon Stores

W. C. T. U. MEETING

A very interesting parlor meeting, under the Women's Christian Temperance Union, was held at the home of Mrs. J. Montgomery West Bridge Street, under the group of Mrs. S. P. Hagorman and Mrs. M. Denton.

The guests were received by Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. McMaster.

The beautiful spacious rooms were brightened by bouquets of sweet peas, while the tea table in soft colors of pink was centred with roses in a nest of tulle, and tall candles making a very pretty effect.

The group members with other guests who assisted in the social period were, Mesdames Denton, Hagerman, Sills and Baker.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Wrong, wife of Bethany who brought a message of the work of the Provincial Union as given at Peterboro. The faithful efficient work of the women and their earnestness as Christian workers, were so in evidence there seemed to emanate from them a strength which tolerated no discouragement even at past defeats.

She referred to the coming of Wrong baby of her and wife. Who is wanting it? Surely the brewers and distillers, she said.

What may we expect from it? There are 2200 standard hotels in Ontario. Each would get a license for beer by the glass. Assuming only two restaurant licenses to each hotel would mean 4400 for restaurants. Add to this 150 golf courses, means in all, new sale avenues in Ontario of about 6750. The Moderation League says the Provincial Government can clean an extra profit of $2,500,000. To obtain this, if the Government has a profit of five per cent. it would mean an outlay of $10,000,000. Let us use our brains in Ontario. If the Government needs the money, wouldn't it be cheaper to put our hands in our pockets and pay $2,500,000 to the Government rather than pay to the brewer $70,000,000?

"Roger Babson, the world financier says 'When men and women realize that every dollar of liquor revenue costs the taxpayer $20 of their money, then the liquor problem will be nearer solution.' Rev. Stanley Jones said 'I cannot see any essential difference between paying taxes with opium in China or with beer in United States,' at the Men's Missionary banquet of 500 Christian workers in Toronto.

"There are bigger things at stake than big profits for the brewers and wine merchants," Mrs. Badgley said.

Ontario's young man and women are the ones who will have to pay the price for the legislation —something that they have not created for, but which is being forced upon them.

The Scripture was read by Miss Betty Sweetman and prayer offered by Mrs. Sweetman.

A dust with autobary accompaniment, contributed by Mrs. McMullan and Mrs. Whitty, and a reading by Mrs. Corder, was much enjoyed by all. Mrs. H. L. Pearsall presided in her usual pleasing manner.

Genevieve Tobin and Edward G. Robinson in "Dark Hours" at the Capitol tonight and Wednesday.

JOBS HOUSES AUTOS Thousands of OPPORTUNITIES in the WANT ADS RADIOS ROOMS PETS

GEO. C. BIGGAR — JOHN KNOX CRAWFORD
ALFRED R. WHITTEN — G. REDDING BIGGAR

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD
Business Established 1902
MEMBERS
TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE

Announce the removal of their Belleville Office to 30 BRIDGE ST. EAST
F. R. WILLS - MANAGER
Phone 1738

All Offices Connected by Private Wire

a30-1w.

KIRKLAND LAKE GOLD MINES
Important Developments
Taking Place on This Property.
Write Us for Details NOW
with no obligation to you
BURTON AND COMPANY
Trusts and Guarantee Bldg. Toronto, Can.

Automobile Insurance
With three people being killed every two days in Ontario by autos, you are taking very great chances to be without insurance. Rates are now the lowest they have ever been.
Jamieson Bone & Co.
PHONE 1264
Insurance. Investments.

FINANCIAL MARKETS
NEW YORK TORONTO - WINNIPEG

TORONTO MINES

Toronto, May 1.—(CP)—The mining section of Toronto Stock Exchange put on a rather lifeless session today with volume small, particularly in the high-priced issues, and price changes were mainly on the down side. Offerings were not heavy in any section of the board, even the silvers, depressed by a drop of a cent for metal, failed in only moderate volume at prices showing losses within a limit of 15 cents. Base Metals were the firmest group.

Stocks gave a definite suggestion of summer quietness today, only a few sales, mostly of the broken-lot variety coming out for some of the big issues. Lacking definite information as to a possible revision of the gold 25c traders were inclined to remain out of the markets.

Lake Shore worked back to $49 and McIntyre to $64, and losses of a few cents appeared among the cheaper golds. A slightly firmer note was apparent in the early afternoon.

NEW YORK EXCHANGE

New York, May 1. — The main body of stocks ruled narrow and comparatively steady in today's market. Some scattered soft spots were in evidence. American Telephone fell 1½ points in active selling. Standard Oil of New Jersey and Montgomery Ward were also off over two points. Steel, Chrysler, Santa Fe and General Motors ruled virtually unchanged. Transfers approximated 1,350,000 shares.

Steadiness marked transactions in Canadian stocks. International Nickel was a lower but shares of Dome, McIntyre and Canadian Packages were unchanged to fractionally higher. On the curb Hiram Walker dipped a small fraction while Lake Shore improved a point. Dominion Government 4½ were about even. The Canadian dollar was 1/32 of a cent lower at 100.28⅛ cents.

Shares of American Telephone lost about two points at one time. The sell-off was attributed largely to fears of failure of Socony and Standard of New Jersey to increase their dividends. Columbian Carbon got up a point on favorable dividend action. U. S. Rubber was up as much. Swasne recovered fractionally as did United Aircraft.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, F. R. Wills branch manager. Quotations at close.

MINES

Ashley	90
Alex	1.15
Anne	38½
Breth. Treth.	11
Barry Hollinger	18
Base Metals	1.54
Bobjo	48½
Big Missouri	26 .85
Bagamac	36
Castle Treth.	56
Consturum	1.18
Central Patricia	69
Central Manitoba	9½
Coast Copper	6.75
Dome	36.00
Dominion Explorer	4¼
Eldorado	2.85
Falconbridge	2.70
Goldale	13
Granada	78
Hollinger	16.15
Hone Oil	1.36
Hudson's Bay	12.00
Howey	1.26
Kirkland Lake	54
Kirkland Townsite	27
Lake Shore	49.00
Massan	2.70
McIntyre	42.85
Mining Corporation	1.96
McLeod River	5%
McWatters	6
Moffat Hall	6
Mainbow	3.15
Normada	33.75
Inlgr. Nickel	27.50
N.S. Pioneer	12.75
Parkhill	67½
Premier	1.26
Reno	93
St. Anthony	50
Sherrit	1.14
Sisco	2.13
San Antonio	2.75
Stadacona	26½
Sudbury Basin	1.70
Sylvanite	2.50
Teck Hughes	6.10
Ventures	4
Wayside	4
Wells Austin	1.30
Wright Hargreaves	8.75
Mcvittie	75
God's Lake	1.40
Thompson Cad.	65
Rear	45
Maple Leaf	62
McKittrick	85
Heade Auth.	90
Greene Stab.	20
White Eagle	25½
Wayside	4

B. A. Oil, 15.
Imperial Oil, 14⅞.
Mcintyre Porcupine, 13⅜.
International Pete, 26⅛.
Supertest, 9.
Brewers and Distillers, 170.
Distillers Seagrams, 19⅛.
Walker's, 38⅜.
Walker's Preferred, 98.
Canadian Ind. Alcohol, 12.
Canada Malting, 50.
Cons. Bakeries, 10.
Bell Telephone, 119¼.
C.P.R., 16⅝.
Canada Car, 7⅛.
Canada Cement, 8.
Canada Malting, 33⅛.
Cockshutt, 7⅛.
Dominion Bridge, 35¼.
Ford "A", 8.
Smelters, 163.
Loblaw "A", 17½.
Montreal Power, 38¼.
Massey Harris, 5⅝.
Provinced Mfg., 3½.
Power Corporation, 13¼.
Shawinigan, 74.
Canada Vinegar, bid 26.
Steel of Canada, 27.
Brazilian, 11⅜.
Gypsum, 4⅜.
Can. Vickers, bid 10⅛.
C.I.A. (preferred), A16¼.

New York.

American Can, 100.
Aviation Corporation, 6⅞.
Auburn, 41¼.
American Power, 9.
Anaconda, 16¼.
National Distillers, 29.
N. Y. Central, 30⅜.
Case, 66⅛.
Ken. Auto Life, 23¼.
Cons. Gas, 35.
General Motors, 36⅛.
Inter. Telephone, 13½.
Standard Oil of N. J., 44.
Chrysler, 46⅛.
North American, 17¼.
National Dairy Products, 16.
Montgomery Ward, 28.
Phillips Pete, 18.
Radio, 7⅝.
Standard Brands, 21¼.
Stewart Warner, 8⅛.
American U. and T., 117.
United Aircraft, 23½.
Vanadium, 24⅜.
Westinghouse, 57⅜.
U. S. Steel, 47⅞.
U. S. Smelters, 115½.

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today:

	May	July	Oct.
Wheat	84⅛	68⅜	67⅛
Oats	41⅛	43⅜	40
Barley	34⅛	34⅜	37⅛
Rye	61⅛	62⅜	63⅜

Price range May wheat today—high 65⅛; low 64⅛; close 64⅛.

IN MEMORIAM

HEARNS—In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. I. Hearns who left us May 1st, 1931.
There is a link death cannot sever,
Love and remembrance last forever.
—Sadly missed by her daughter, Mrs. Jos. G. Searles, Trenton. ml-1t

IN MEMORIAM

MOON—In loving memory of Andrey Meenor Moon, who passed away May 1st, 1931.
Far and oft our thoughts do wander,
To a grave not far away,
Where was laid our darling baby,
Just a year and a day.
—Ever remembered by Mother, Father and Carl, ml-1t.

DIED

ARMSTRONG—Entered into rest in Oshawa, Ont., on Monday, April 30, 1934, Ida Rebecca, wife of Mathew F. Armstrong, age 60 years.
Funeral from the family residence 124 King St. E., Oshawa, Ont., on Wednesday, May 2, 1934, Service 1.00 p.m. (Daylight Saving Time). Interment Mount Lawn Cemetery, Oshawa, Ont. ml-1t

THE MARTIN FUNERAL HOME
218-218 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 2008
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
27 CENTRE ST.
Phone 716-W Day and Night
A. H. FLINN
Proprietor
Monuments Crypts For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland A. Pinkney
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve for Less
FUNERAL HOME
Cor. Church St. and
Victoria Ave.
Phone 2266

Thomas O. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
32 Everett St. Phone 62
Office
288 Front St. Phone 62

UNLISTED MINES

By A. H. Ketcheson and Co. at 2.30 p.m.

Adanac	30c
Seattle	130-135
Bidcalgo	44-45
Buffalo Ank.	180-190
B.C. Nickel	153-180
Bralorne	5.50
Can. Pardoes	24¼-27¼
Can. Malartic	70
Casey Summit	69-74
Canusa	41½
Columbia, old	16-21
Crown Res.	8-9
Cent. Kirk.	6½b.
Flake	3½a.
Francoeur	25-35
Great Bear Lake	33-43
Great Bear, Dev.	26-31
Gabrielle	57-62
Graham	74
Grandora	53-58
Hard Rock	56-58
Unia Consol.	14-15
Island Lake	18a.
Kenty Gold	8a.
Kirk. Gold Belt	32a.
Kirk. Hud.	34-41
Lamaque Gold	175-200
Lamaque Gold Cent.	21-34
Horseshoe	4a.
Longlac Lagoon	20A.
Malartic Dev.	5-8.
Mah and East	32A.
Monrad, RP	30A.
Morning Star	34-37.
Moore	30A.
McLeod Cockshutt	38-42.
McQuaid Red Lake	30-34.
North Shore	12A.
Normont	18A.
Pickle Crow, L. T.	78A.
Queen Lebel	16½A.
Quebec Smelting	1000-1530.
Reserve	2a. 26A.
Red Lake Gold	22-37.
Smallers Gold	28-32.
Sullivan Cons.	43-46.
Tobrit	14-15.
Tlahonta	5-6.
Thlewon	5a. 75-82.
Wendigo	54-57.
West Red Lake	21A.
Young Davidson	38½A.
Gilmour	18a.
Forty Four	900-1000.
Rice Lake Unis.	1000-1500.
Long Lac Adair	24-27.

Board Room Gossip

Winnipeg, May 1.—Weather in West cooler and fair, apart from Alberta showers. Forecast for today, cool weather and possibility of scattered showers.

The International Institute of Rome on Monday predicted world wheat crop over summer harvested in area would have about exact 1,500,000 and winter sowings in 15 European countries estimated 64,500,000 acres or 2,000,000 less than last year. Despite increase in spring sowings reported by other European countries, recent overbalance this loss expected summer harvest will be 1,000,000 acres less than last year.

Report issued by Dominion Climatologist in Toronto indicates Canada's farmer starting his 1934 seeding with winter wheat acreage 17 per cent. above normal.

New York.—(CP)—Wall Street said that there had been some foreign selling of our stocks in last two sessions. This selling has not been heavy and is mixed.

A broker who has been selling for some months in the New England States says that he found things quite cheerful in both manufacturing and retail units in all sections of this territory.

Storm Windows and Doors Carefully Removed Windows Cleaned
Estimates given for Hotels, Stores, Factories, and large Buildings.
Smith & Terry
PHONE 543
Service and Satisfaction

Anything and Everything in Carting, Moving Gardens, Sand and Gravel
Wood for Sale
WM. HOGG
282 Coleman St. Phone 86
a30, ml, 3

Evelyn Howard
COSMETICS
INTRODUCTORY SALE
.60 Vanishing Cream 4 oz. .43
.60 Cold Cream, 4 oz. .43
1.50 Cleansing Tissues 5 oz .89
.75 Theatrical Cold Cream, 1 lb. .59
.60 Face Powder .43
.75 Astringent .45
.35 Nail Enamel .25
These are high class Cosmetics at very low prices.
GET THE COUPONS
DOLAN
THE DRUGGIST
I.D.A. Druggist Phone 138

TO-LET

MODERN 6 ROOM BRICK HOUSE Chatham St. Phone 1738 after 6 p.m. ml-2t.

2 UNFURNISHED ROOMS, Use for cooking. Telephone service if required. Phone 738. ml-1t

3 ROOMED APARTMENT, suitable for office or light housekeeping. Apply 281 Front Street. ml-1f.

FIVE ROOMED APARTMENT, hardwood floors, heated, garage. O. R. Thompson, 104 Dundas St. West. ml-1c.

3 ROOMS UNFURNISHED, RENT reasonable, good location, also garden and garage. Would like party to help with housework part time. Apply 33 Hillside St. ml-3t.

FLAT WITH BATH, 481 BRIDGE Street, over Shore tea Company. Flat 28 Campbell Street. House, ten dollars month. You car garage, 22½ Front Street. Office Bridge Street. Apply Dan Doyle, Phone 869, 285 Front Street. a15-4-tu-tf-w-tf

SEVERAL APARTMENTS. All prices. Apply S. J. Fisher & Son, 91 Front St. a30-3t

OFFICE SUITE OR LIVING apartment. All conveniences. Hot water heating. 262 Front Street. Phone 2407F. a30-3t

5 ROOM APARTMENT, MODERN conveniences. Also 1 room apartment, suitable for light housekeeping. Apply 150 Front Street. Phone 2407F. a30-3t

NO 113 WEST MOIRA, 4 BED rooms. All modern conveniences. Garage and garden. Apply 99 Grove St. a15-4f

THREE LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING rooms, heated, with all conveniences, partly furnished or unfurnished. Call at 18 Foster crescent between 6 and 7.30. a9-tf.

APARTMENT, FIVE ROOMS heated, hardwood floors, frigidaire, electric range. Phone 2009. Feb. 21. Apply at Ontario Intelligencer Office. jm-tf.

TO-LET

STORE AND DWELLING, 257 Front St. Apply 255 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 257 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 255 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 253 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 251 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 249 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 247 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 245 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 243 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 241 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 239 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 237 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 235 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 233 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 231 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 229 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 227 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 225 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 223 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 221 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 219 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 217 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 215 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 213 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 211 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 209 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 207 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 205 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 203 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 201 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 199 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 197 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 195 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 193 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 191 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 189 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 187 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 185 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 183 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 181 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 179 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 177 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 175 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 173 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 171 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 169 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 167 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 165 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 163 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 161 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 159 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 157 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 155 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 153 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 151 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 149 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 147 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 145 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 143 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 141 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 139 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 137 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 135 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 133 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 131 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 129 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 127 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 125 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 123 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 121 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 119 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 117 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 115 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 113 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 111 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 109 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 107 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 105 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 103 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 101 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 99 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 97 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 95 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 93 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 91 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 89 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 87 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 85 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 83 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 81 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 79 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 77 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 75 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 73 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 71 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 69 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 67 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 65 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 63 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 61 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 59 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 57 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 55 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 53 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 51 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 49 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 47 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 45 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 43 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 41 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 39 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 37 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 35 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 33 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 31 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 29 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 27 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 25 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 23 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 21 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 19 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 17 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 15 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 13 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 11 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 9 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 7 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 5 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 3 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS, 1 Front St. Phone 1738. ml-1t

PHONE 99 Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagements, Medical, $1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; Memorial Notices, $1.00; Cards of Thanks, $1.00; In Memoriam, $1.00; Lodge Notices, $1.00; Resolutions of Respect, $5.00 per count line; Lodge Meeting Notices, 50c per insertion; Lodge Dances, 50c per insertion.

CLASSIFIED — One Cent a Word, cash; Two cents per word, credit. Minimum charge for any classified ad. 25c. Minimum 20 words.

COMMUNITY NOTICES per insertion for 25 words or under, over that amount, 2c. per word.

PROFESSIONAL, LEGAL AND Business Cards, $5.00 per month.

Rate $15.00 per month for Municipal, OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND COUNTY SECURITY NOTICES including those concerning Local Relief—Per agate line, 14 lines (14 lines to the inch) for first insertion; 10c per line for each subsequent insertion.

AUCTION SALES—Per agate line (Measuring to count as 14 words) minimum charge $1.00. Per agate line for consecutive insertions, 5c per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

Each succeeding allow five words to the line.

Telephone Copy Will be accepted when it is more convenient. PHONE 99. The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any Want Ad. ordered for more than one time.

Advertisers may have their replies addressed to this office care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

YOUNG OR MIDDLE AGED LADY to board in private home. Phone 911, collect, or box number, $6 per week. Write Box "K" Ontario Intelligencer. ml-1t

SUTTER PRINTER, STATE PRICE and condition. R. Swan, Swan Cheese Co., Corbyville. ml-2t

DANCE IN ORANGE HALL, SHANnonville, Friday, May 4. Night. Shannonville Baseball Club. Good orchestra. Refreshments. Admission 26c. ml-2t.

SEED OATS, HUCKWHEAT AND Buckwheat. Apply Graham's Coldstorage. ml-3t

SINGLE MAN TO WORK ON farm. Must be good milker. Apply Clarence Vermilyea. Phone 1906 r 4. a30-3t

PRACTICAL NURSING BY THE day. Reply care Nurse, Box 7, Ontario Intelligencer. a30-3t

MIDDLE AGED HOUSEKEEPER, for widower. Reference. Apply Box 7, Ontario Intelligencer, Grange Line. a26-3t

FOR SALE

DOUBLE FRAME HOUSE IN good repair. Both sides rented. Now double garage. Good locality. Apply 186 Bridge West. ml-2t

SAY MARE 9 YEARS OLD, weight about 1150, good general purpose, cannot hitch wrong, $150 for quick sale. Apply to J. T. Warren Grange, R. R. 1, Consecond Thurlow. ml-1t

TWO WINDOW TRAILER AND boat in good condition. Phone 127 between 6 a.m. and 5 p.m. ml-1t

SUMMER COTTAGE AT JONES' Creek, 2 miles North of Belleville Bay Shore. Equipment includes ice box, stoves, boat, etc. Phone ml-6f

HALF TON DODGE TRUCK; Floorco lime sower all steel; set of woven fence wire stretchers; lime sower gas flail. Chatham St. ml-2t

YOUNG EWES TWO OR three years old, also 40-50 lambs. Bargain for quick sale. Also 2 hundred Jersey bulls and several Jersey heifer calves. Graham's Cold Storage. ml-3t

MAHOGANY CASE UPRIGHT piano in good condition. No reasonable offer refused. Sold this week. 110 Catherine St. ml-2t.

HOUSE SOLID BRICK, HARDwood floors, 4 fire places, crystal chandeliers, hot water heating, double garage, 3 lots. Apply Box "L" Ontario Intelligencer. Terms arranged. Reference as to part payment. a26 26 ml 3.

1 ACRE CHOICE GARDEN LAND with 7 room dwelling, hydro, pump and hen house, in village of Thomasburg. Apply Box No. 37. This is a desirable residential home. Must be sold to wind up estate. Apply G. C. W. Sherry, Late, or Fred Collins & Cushing, Barristers, Belleville.

a14 26 28 ml 5.

BARRED ROCK BABY CHICKS, Marmill feeds, custom hatching. Phone Preston, Corbyville. Phone 2205. a30-3t.

GOOD MILCH COW. PHONE 1902W. a26-3t

FOR SALE OR RENT

BUILDING AT 122 FRONT ST., six roomed house, 201 Charles St.; Office space, 159 Front St., apply Jamieson Bone, 159 Front Street. a21-6t

FOR SALE OR TO LET

SIX ROOM HOUSE, CANNIFton Road; seven room house with 4 acre garden and 2 lots, 9 Mill Street; six room flat 38A Pownall. Immediately. Apply 16 Albion or John Donovan. a26-6t tory.

Nothing definite has been forthcoming yet on gold tax. Ottawa Press reports tell of a conference with mining leaders. Premier Bennett and Finance Minister Rhodes.

Business Directory

AUTOMOBILE LOANS
REFINANCING
AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner Car Financing of All Kinds
S. J. FISHER & SON
30 Bridge St. E. Telephone 188
Representative
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto-Ottawa-London-Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., SPINAL examination with the Radiochat reveals all diseases in the early stages. Foot disorders corrected, all diseases treated. Phone 900 or write 388 Coleman St., Belleville.

H. R. and Vera E. Pitcher
Graduates
(Honour Graduates)
Post-Graduate Service
431½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1274 Belleville, Ont.

ACCOUNTANTS & AUDITORS
ROSS EDGAR NEAL
Chartered Accountant
157 Front Street
Belleville, Ontario.

DENTIST
DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
Graduate
X-Ray
Phone 468 249½ Front St.
Over Bank

SURVEYORS
FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Provincial Land Surveyor, Engineer, Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc. Promptly attended to. PHONE 6—P.O. BOX 96
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE
Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
251 Front St. Phone 129

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
272 Front Street Phone 1154W

STOCKS & BONDS
BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. 1738. F. R. Wills, Branch Manager. ml-1y.

LEGAL
FORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors and Notaries Public, Chas. A. Payne, K.C., R. D. Arnott, K.C. Over 212 Front Street, Belleville, Ont.

CHARLES H. KER, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary and Commissioner, 25 Bridge St. East, Belleville, Ont., Phone 42.

T. W. MACGREGOR, BARRISTER, SOLICitor, Notary Public, etc., 15 Pinnacle St., Belleville. Telephone 74. ml-tf.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office, Campbell Street, Belleville.

FONTON & GRAHAM, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, Commissioners. Office: 28 Bridge Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on mortgages. W. Fenton, K.C., J. S. Graham. Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late F. S. Wallbridge). Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, Corner Front and Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 28 Bridge Street East. J. Butler, K.C. Ormonde Butler.

B. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

PERSONAL

HEART STRAIN OFTEN RESults from too much weight. Reduce with Sloudor Tablets. Harmless, inexpensive and easy to take. Three weeks treatment $1.50 McKeown's Drug Store.

YOU SAVE BY BUYING
At DOYLE'S Belleville Better Week

2 bozos SoldRic Powders..25c
3 lb. tin English Health Salts 39c
Kruschen Salts 69c
Jad Salts, condensed 55c
Kheruh Salts 35c
Epsom Salts ..... 2 lbs. 25c
Cruy Crystals 1.50
Crystol 59c
Aceto-Salicylic Tablets per 100 ..... 49c
Russian Oil, bot. 23c
Pure Norway Cod Liver Oil, lb. 65c
Twink Dye ..... 2 for 15c
Rit Dye (old style) ..3 for 15c
Colorite Mat Dye 11c

MOTH BALLS OR FLAKES 9c lb.
FORMALDEHYDE Full Strength 15c lb.
(Sufficient to treat 40 bushels of grain)
Moth Crystals, lb. 39c
Moth Balls ..... 25c up

Larvex and Larvex Kinks
GOLD FISH FREE
THURS., FRI. & SAT.
A beautiful Gold Fish FREE with each 25c purchase. No more than 4 Gold Fish to any customer.
Bring along a small container and replenish your aquarium.
LARGE GOLD FISH 15c and 25c each
TURTLES 15c each
FISH FOOD
FISH BOWLS
SEA WEED
Even if you do not wish to purchase, it will be worth your while to call and see our large new aquarium and fancy gold fish display.

Dr. West Tooth Paste 17c — 2 for 33c
Face Powders 50c to 1.50 per box Your Choice 29c
Woodbury's Soap 3 for 25c
Castile Soap, bar 9c
Colgate's 19c Toilet Soap .9c
Palmolive Soap 5c
Kotex 19c
1 Pkg. Modess 1 Pkg. Venus Powder Both for 25c
50c Prep 29c
25c Nuxzema 15c

LOOK AT THIS!
A BOX OF Cashmere Bouquet FACE POWDER 1/10
Coming in Pairs LIP STICK 35¢
Coming in Pairs PERFUME 35¢
ALL FOR 1/10
BOURJOIS

Greatest Radio Sensation of the Age!
THE VICTOR "FORTETTE"
2 in 1 Auto Radio
For Auto, Home, Picnic — Anywhere

PRIZE COUPONS WITH EVERY PURCHASE
Also Capitol Theatre Tickets with Purchases of Fifty Cents and Over
DOYLE'S DRUG STORE
THERE'S NOTHING TOO GOOD FOR THE SICK
221 FRONT STREET PHONE 328

SOFTBALL LID IS PRIED OFF, MAYOR HURLS

Bearcats Defeat Cubs by Score of Six to Five

HALSEY INJURED

Grills A. C. Down Tip Top Players by Six to Four

Softball was ushered into Belleville last evening with a twin bill in the pre-season Wall Street League during which the champion Delaney Bearcats defeated the College Hill Cubs by the score of 6 to 5 at the College Hill field, while the newly inaugurated Tip Top Tailor A.C. dropped their initial game, to local softball circles, by the score of 6 to 4 to the Grills' Garage A.C. at the Central Park. Both games were well attended and keenly contested. Mayor Geo. O. Hinds officially opened the pre-season league by not only throwing the first ball with the two managers at the College field batting and catching, but he spoke to the audience and assured them that good clean sport was always welcome in Belleville. His Worship also wished the league the success it warrants.

Garnering three runs in the first frame the champion Bearcats were able to stave off a rally of onslaught by the Cubs and eventually win the game, after somewhat of a pitcher's battle with Johnnie Bowden representing a little better support for his teammates to win over "Bunt" Miller who hurled for the Cubs. Outside Ether in right field for the winners was the only player to get timely three-base clout while Gray slapped the apple for the circuit for the Cubs. Miller, besides hurling an excellent game countered two safe hits at the plate while Jenkinson followed in line. The Cubs scored their lone run to five. Vic Hasay, the Cubs' catcher, was seriously injured in the third innings.

The line-ups:

Cubs—Gray, cornette, F. Murray, Jenkinson, Covert, Miller, J. Murray, Halsey, Gray, Hasay, Bowden, McDonald.

Bearcats—Sears, Tuttle, Jordan, G. Ether, Hanley, Bawden, Knott, J. Bawden.

Umpires—A. Ether and Pointer.

Score by innings:

Cubs ..... 3 0 1 1 0 0 — 5

Bearcats ..... 3 0 0 1 1 1 — 6

Over at the Central Park the newly formed Tip Top Tailors Club dropped their initial game of the season to the Grills' Garage also by the score of 6 to 4. The game developed into a pitchers' battle between Clarke of the "mechanics" and Gerow of the "suit-makers" with the former getting the better support of the offensive. The game was witnessed by an excellent crowd of interested spectators. The "mechanics" assumed the lead in the initial frame when a run was taken by the Tip Tops, despite their determined rally. The game was void of all controversy and cleanly contested from the hearty applause of the 500 odd fans present. The "line" of new uniforms is the talk of the "suit-makers."

The line-ups:

Tip Tops—Harvey, B. Morgan, Brown, Ryan, Ross Morgan, Bennett, Means, Barriage, Simpson and Farrar.

Grills—Latchford, Ridley, Barriage, Boyle, Latchford, Henn, Miner and Gerow.

Umpires—Rollins and Barnett.

Score by innings:

Tip Tops ... 1 0 1 2 0 0 0 — 4

Grills' ..... 3 2 1 0 0 0 x — 6

YESTERDAY'S STARS!

By the Associated Press

Fred Fitzsimmond, Giants—blanked Dodgers with six hits.

Gabby Hartnett, Cubs—drove in 2 runs, including game-winning single against Pirates with homer, double and single.

Paul Andrews, Browns—stopped Tigers with 8 hits.

Bill Hallahan, Phillies—his single in tenth drove in run that beat the Braves.

Charley Ruffing, Yankees—pitched and batted Braves to victory over Senators, clouting homer with two on.

Virgil Davis, Cardinals—contributed homer, double and single to attack on Reds.

Al Simmons, White Sox—pounded Indian pitching for home run, double and single.

HELD FOR MURDER OF PRIEST

Jersey City, N.J., May 1—(AP)—Dominic Marrs, 38-year old Newark carpenter, was arraigned in court today with murdering the Rev. Julius Nieves, 30-year old Roman Catholic priest of the Church of Mount Carmel Roman Catholic Church, and was held without bail in the Hudson County grand jury.

POLICE ON GUARD

Rouyn, Que., May 1—Warned to expect probable mine disaster, who were reported to be mangling 100 strong from Amos, 70 miles away, to join here to-day in protest at retrenchment of the City Council to allow May Day parades, four police forces joined hands to be in readiness for any disorder.

Williams Curve Master Today as Ten Years Ago

Old-Time Thrill Put Back Into Baseball as Hurler Matured by Years in Pro Ball Creates Fine Impression at First Turn-out

King baseball loomed on the local 1924 sport horizon last evening, when the Belleville Pals took hold their initial practice of the season at the Exhibition Park. And as usual, soon past the "old guard" of the diamond game in Belleville intermingled with the "up-and-coming" youngsters, who are aspiring to carve their name in the hall of fame along with those never-to-be-forgotten baseball celebrities of days gone by and through their unified endeavors bring back to Belleville the honors in baseball it little's sport centre like the Quinte City.

Back After 10 Years

JACK WILLIAMS, celebrity of old baseball days, who was back last evening in Exhibition Park, and in no way disappointed his "rallibirds".

Naturally all eyes were turned towards Jack "Chief" Williams, who returned last night to the amateur ranks by the A. B. C. of '24 after winter after ten years' absence from baseball diamonds in Belleville. Jack returned to his old love, Williams in no way disappointed his "rallibirds" but, on the contrary he put all interest and keen eyes to the park assured that he was still the master of the curve and the old "Williams" fast ball was still there. For over an hour Williams armed with his old battery mate, "Peeney" Mills with the ultimate result that the myrmidon of baseball in Belleville was assured incapar as the work of the pitcher and catcher was concerned. Williams once again thrilled the by-standers with his old time deliveries and control of the ball, that brought both him and Belleville fame and name in Canadian baseball circles ten years ago.

Not only was Williams the centre of attraction last night, but, Skipper Mills was looking after the plants of Ernie Smith, elongated third baseman of the Nationals in 1923, Bud Wilkins, ace hurler of the Victorias last year and Langhan, who hurled for the champion Crystalacs last season and from whom much is expected from the local senior club this season. Carl Casey put in an appearance at the last moment and warmed up with the two pitchers. Mel Ryan of Toronto and Geo. Wallace, an southpaw who hurled in recent years in the Dufferin County League. While working out the pitchers in the ball pen, Manager Mills was assisted by Earl "Sonny" Green, who is taking an interest in the coaching of young players during the spring training season. After working out for more than an hour Manager Mills announced that the next practice would be held on Thursday evening.

Not only were battery-men on hand but aspirants for every position on the 1934 edition of the Belleville Nationals put in an appearance. Roy Smith was back at his old position at the base while Lionel Blaker, who clouted the ball far and consistently for the intermediates also worked out at the initial sack. Other infielders to put in an appearance were Johnnie Kerr, Earl Darrah, Chuck Marriage, Alfred Mitchell, Jr., and Harold Long of Trenton, who announced his intentions of trying out for short stop with the Nationals. Jack Wilkins, who was one of the fleetest foot ballsters ever to don the spiked shoes in Trenton baseball circles, Bill Cunningham, Ed Smith and Art Scarlett, who intelligently covered the outfield last evening. In the outfield Alec Weir led the batting list, Weir has returning to his old love in right field. Ralph Rigby, who started for the Crystalacs last season is near cavorting about like an infant in baseball togs, while another local and prospective re-inforcement to the Nationals is Jack Utronki, were absentees for the evening. The Nationals will be out within the next ten days to assure Belleville of a contending baseball team this season and their appearance to give the manager-coach, Bill Cunningham, a President Chas. Meagher was one of the interested spectators last night and seemed more than pleased with the response after such a backward spring. Secretary Ralph Rowcroft every other night from now on will be calling the roll-call anew and Bawden, "Leary" Geyer of this city arrived home yesterday after an enjoyable winter trip to the Pal-Smith Paul "Saints" in the Central Hockey League. "Larry" tells us he's nearly busy for a few days' visit to day, he's going back to the Minnesota city, where he has secured employment. We asked him if he intended to play baseball this summer. "Well the girls have the upper hand of semi-pro ball down in Dixie and I'm afraid that the baseball arm's in pretty good condition, I might add," was the reply we got back. In reference to his past season at hockey, "Larry" assured us he's a big leaguer, but didn't finish in the money, but, take it from us Mr. Fan, he's a hockey player of fair club and will be in there next season. Among the many friends Geyer is looking fine and seems to be in the very best of condition. Incidentally he has been invited to eight miles of the Bohemia goal-tender, when Hilfinger had his cut. For'tionately I didn't know anything about the proceedings and take it from me, I was glad", he says. "Larry" is planning to return to St. Paul after a short visit locally. Incidentally while speaking of Geyer he was associated with Doug Brennan and Dil Clapper, two National League hockey stars whose home is in Minnesota, as well as the guests of honor at tonight's Kiwanis Club luncheon. Brennan is one way, local boy with London will also be honored.

Well, well, 'tis queer what you'll see when you haven't got your gun with you. For the information of those who have not as yet learned of the latest transfer passed in the O.B.A.A. we'd like to make a slight correction in the Tom Peterboro case. It seems to bat with Sig Konopka who received a transfer from Detroit to Peterboro, and not from Detroit to Murray from Toronto. Let's see wasn't it about a decade ago that Petes had a couple of up-and-coming ball players by the name of Camelli and Ansaldo? Then two more names appear on the list, both from a thousand miles to play in Peterboro—there's a lad named Grusse from ing.

The Ki-Y League will get under way just as soon as the entries are received and the schedules can be drawn. A reasonable period of time will be allowed following this announcement after which the play will be declared closed and the schedules prepared. All boys who plan to be included in the league this year will do so by filing their entries in at the office of the Y.M.C.A. as promptly as possible in order to assure their inclusion in the schedule.

Good News to Last Year's Winners

Although it was feared for some time that the usual award of crests to the members of the winning teams in the Ki-Y League would not be made, the executive of the league are pleased to be able to announce that the three winning teams, Athletics, Midgets and Flying Canadians will all have crests awarded them in very near future. Moreover provision has been made for the awarding of crests to the 1924 winners as well as those who were left by the club or no delay in making the awards following the completion of the winter's activities.

Any grouping for the Ki-Y league will invariably the same for the three groups viz. Bantam 13 years and under, Midget 15 and Juvenile 19 years, and under May 1st. There is also the possibility of an additional grouping being added having no age restrictions but barring out all senior softball players.

The Owl Family is doing it!

A WISE OLD OWL sat on an oak;
The more he saw, the less he spoke;
The less he spoke, the more he heard;
Just take a tip from this wise old bird:
Smoke
5¢ WHITE OWL CIGARS

CURRENT SPORT

(Day By Day)

As in years past there were just enough new faces appeared at the initial session of the Belleville Nationals last evening to assure the local senior executive of a successful season for the senior series. Naturally all eyes were focused on Jack "Chief" Williams, who returned from his initial demonstration the local club has title to were placed, but, the opposing teams will have much to fathom, once the "Chief" gets down to the business of a few warm days in which to limber up his arm. Jack seemed to be the old style "zips" while his curve ball has lost none of its cuts. Williams, having the benefit of many years of professional experience behind him, should be a great assistance to an advantage in the C.O.B.I. pitching staff.

A few new, and thank goodness familiar faces were seen sporting about in the infield. For the past few seasons the Nationals have seemed plenty short when it came when on the defensive the balls have swooped past the infield like a water through the well known sieve. Once these holes are plugged, the Nationals will again come to the front as they have in years gone by. Smith, elongated third baseman of the Nationals in 1923 and Bud Wilkins, ace hurler of the Victorias last year and Langhan, who hurled for the champion Crystalacs last season and from whom much is expected from the local senior club this season. Carl Casey put in an appearance at the last moment and warmed up with the two pitchers. Mel Ryan of Toronto and Geo. Wallace, an southpaw who hurled in recent years in the Dufferin County League. While working out the pitchers in the ball pen, Manager Mills was assisted by Earl "Sonny" Green, who is taking an interest in the coaching of young players during the spring training season. After working out for more than an hour Manager Mills announced that the next practice would be held on Thursday evening.

Not only were battery-men on hand but aspirants for every position on the 1934 edition of the Belleville Nationals put in an appearance. Roy Smith was back at his old position at the base while Lionel Blaker, who clouted the ball far and consistently for the intermediates also worked out at the initial sack. Other infielders to put in an appearance were Johnnie Kerr, Earl Darrah, Chuck Marriage, Alfred Mitchell, Jr., and Harold Long of Trenton, who announced his intentions of trying out for short stop with the Nationals. Jack Wilkins, who was one of the fleetest foot ballsters ever to don the spiked shoes in Trenton baseball circles, Bill Cunningham, Ed Smith and Art Scarlett, who intelligently covered the outfield last evening. In the outfield Alec Weir led the batting list, Weir has returning to his old love in right field. Ralph Rigby, who started for the Crystalacs last season is near cavorting about like an infant in baseball togs, while another local and prospective re-inforcement to the Nationals is Jack Utronki, were absentees for the evening. The Nationals will be out within the next ten days to assure Belleville of a contending baseball team this season and their appearance to give the manager-coach, Bill Cunningham, a President Chas. Meagher was one of the interested spectators last night and seemed more than pleased with the response after such a backward spring. Secretary Ralph Rowcroft every other night from now on will be calling the roll-call anew and Bawden, "Leary" Geyer of this city arrived home yesterday after an enjoyable winter trip to the Pal-Smith Paul "Saints" in the Central Hockey League. "Larry" tells us he's nearly busy for a few days' visit to day, he's going back to the Minnesota city, where he has secured employment. We asked him if he intended to play baseball this summer. "Well the girls have the upper hand of semi-pro ball down in Dixie and I'm afraid that the baseball arm's in pretty good condition, I might add," was the reply we got back. In reference to his past season at hockey, "Larry" assured us he's a big leaguer, but didn't finish in the money, but, take it from us Mr. Fan, he's a hockey player of fair club and will be in there next season. Among the many friends Geyer is looking fine and seems to be in the very best of condition. Incidentally he has been invited to eight miles of the Bohemia goal-tender, when Hilfinger had his cut. For'tionately I didn't know anything about the proceedings and take it from me, I was glad", he says. "Larry" is planning to return to St. Paul after a short visit locally. Incidentally while speaking of Geyer he was associated with Doug Brennan and Dil Clapper, two National League hockey stars whose home is in Minnesota, as well as the guests of honor at tonight's Kiwanis Club luncheon. Brennan is one way, local boy with London will also be honored.

Well, well, 'tis queer what you'll see when you haven't got your gun with you. For the information of those who have not as yet learned of the latest transfer passed in the O.B.A.A. we'd like to make a slight correction in the Tom Peterboro case. It seems to bat with Sig Konopka who received a transfer from Detroit to Peterboro, and not from Detroit to Murray from Toronto. Let's see wasn't it about a decade ago that Petes had a couple of up-and-coming ball players by the name of Camelli and Ansaldo? Then two more names appear on the list, both from a thousand miles to play in Peterboro—there's a lad named Grusse from ing.

ONTARIONS WIN BOXING

Pound Out Five Victories in Five Starts at Hamilton

Toronto, May 1 (CP)—Ontario's amateur boxing elite, warming up for the Canadian finals for the British Empire games, held a unanimous decision victory over a team from Cleveland, Led by the flashing Cullum boys from Hamilton, Ontario's pugilistic representatives put five victories in five starts — four by decisions.

Jackie Cullum, the mighty atom of the Cullum family that has already finds great difficulty luring banthamweights into the ring with him, personally capped the drive. He knocked out Jimmy Walsh of Cleveland in the second of the first round. This was the final bout on the card.

Earlier Jackie's brother Angelo had floored Emil Kasunic after 1.40 minutes of the fourth round for the first count. Fighting at 118 pounds, four less than his brother, Angelo gave the Cleveland boy a terrific battering before he finally smashed him down and out.

The other knockout win were scored by big Bill Match of Brantford, Ontario heavyweight and Len Wadsworth of Hamilton-Malin flinkweight. Steve Scorey with a right to the jaw in 1.25 of the fourth round and the referee stopped it. Wadsworth-Jimmy Kocian battle in the fifth round when the Cleveland boy was in distress.

In the other international bout, Mel Shouna of Hamilton, veteran featherweight, outpointed Al Gerald in decisive fashion.

SOFTBALL

Forced to take their first defeat in three starts, the Bell Telephone softball team bowed to the St. Michael nine by the score of 20 to 15 at the Albert campus last evening. The return game is to be played with the Bell on the Victoria Park diamond tonight.

Eddie Schrieder assumed the pitching duties for the St. Mike's outfit being capably handled by his battery mate, Geo. Kikes. Despite the fact Schrieder was nicked frequently for extra base hits in the earlier frames, he later settled away to stem the Albert attack. Lewday started on the hilltop for the losers but was forced to toss in the third innings in favour of Vern Page, who finished the hurling duties with

"Y" NOTES

With the indoor season drawing to a close with Friday evening's Gym Nite, at the Y.M.C.A. attention of the physical department will be centred on the seasonal activities, the organization of the Ki-Y football league and special instruction for the non-swimmers in the membership.

You Cannot Win a Prize Unless Your Coupon Is In the Box

Shoppers should see that they get coupons with every purchase, and in order to be possible prize winners, detach each from coupon and place in the box which is provided for the purpose in every store. Remember, you cannot win a prize if your coupon is not in the box.

AAJMAA ATHLETIC WEEKLY CHRONICLE

The Aajmaa Athletic Club rooms are now open every day over Hyde's Hardware Store from 1 p.m. to 1 a.m. There are two floors to the clubrooms, the lower floor being used for the lounge room; the upper floor is divided, in front half for the gymnasium, the back half is the janitor's residence.

• • • •

The lounge room is beautifully decorated in the club colors of purple and gold, with rugs that blend with the handsome surroundings. Any member may use the lounge room for cards, checkers, or just stretching out in a dandy place to while the hours away.

• • • •

The gymnasium is 60 feet long with a dressing room at one end. This room will be equipped with gymnastics, wrestling mat, boxing equipment, baskets for basketball, badminton and ping pong outfit. The gym will be open every evening until 10 p.m., Sundays excepted.

• • • •

Lacrosse—Anyone interested in lacrosse is requested to attend the meeting in the lounge of the Aajmaa Club rooms, Thursday evening at 7.15 p.m. sharp. Bill Barrett, the genial coach, is taking the reins of the lacrosse team. Lefty Hyde, Bert Meagher, Murphy Morgan, Wilkins, Brooks, Macdonald, Harley, Lee, and others whose names are forgotten at present are specially requested to attend.

• • • •

Wrestling—All those who are interested in wrestling are advised to attend the meeting Thursday evening at 8 p.m. sharp. Full particulars will be given then.

• • • •

Tennis—The tennis executive is formulating a strenuous drive effort to have a tennis court for Belleville.

• • • •

Softball—The Aajmaa Club are sponsoring a softball team. Those who haven't been so fortunate as to get in touch with Jack Phillips are requested to turn out to the meeting Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

• • • •

Basketball, Paddling, Physical Culture meetings will be announced later. So long until next Tuesday.

DR. FYFFE TO BE HONORED

Halifax, May 1—The Dalhousie University will confer the honorary degree, Doctor of Laws, on Dr. Fyffe, of the Hamilton City of Queen's University, at the Spring Convocation, May 15.

Recreation Alleys

Three mixed teams from Belleville visited the Kingston Bowling Alleys last night. The Kingston teams coming out in front with 4 points each while the other lost 2 points.

Belleville No. 1—M. Lynch 618; Mrs. Fitzsimmons 615; Mrs. Hinds 568; F. Redden 570; Miss Waldron 576; Mrs. Lynch 582—3529.

Kingston No. 1—Mrs. Keely 602; G. Brown 580; Miss Bosvick 543; Mrs. Gordon 574; Mrs. Bailey 560; H. Chandler 651—3579.

Belleville No. 2—Mrs. Fordyce 576; Mrs. Ellis 564; Mrs. Mahood 498; F. Adams 587; D. Wes; 456; G. Fordyce 351—2782

Kingston No. 2—Mrs. Burnside 521; D. Aboud 499; Miss Mells 489; Mrs. Fitzpatrick 564; Miss Baker 499; A. Richards 623—3359

Kingston four points

Belleville No. 3—Miss Benedict 442; S. Barton 526; Miss Scott 486; Mrs. McMeen 519; Miss Mosher 537; W. Walrath 564—3093

Kingston No. 3—Mrs. Reeves 601; R. Samson 574; Miss Taylor 584; L. Simpson 660; Mrs. Bailey 594; Miss Dunn 650—3513

Kingston four points.

Junior A

Rangers—E. Hamilton 493; T. Lee 519; C. MacKenzie 558; J. Ling 539; D. Huffman 544—2643

Maple Leafs—Bert Hamilton 493; Junior B

Hot Shots—F. Adams 589; P. Nichols 497; T. Ryan 546; F. Bradford 498; H. Hamilton 552—2782

Cock Cols—C. Salisbury 558; F. Mapes 545; R. Arnott 557; C. Goude 515; J. Ling 539—2714

Each two points.

Lab four points.

Pick Ups—C. Scouls 596; J. Black 496 (two players absent)

Pick Ups—Mrs. Scouls 596; J. Black 496 (two players absent)

LEAGUE LEADERS

By the Associated Press

National League

Batting—Ott, Giants, .405; Suhr, Pirates, .395.

Runs—Klein, Cubs, 14; Vaughan, Pirates, 12.

Runs batted in—Klein, Cubs, and Suhr, Pirates, 15.

Hits—Klein, Cubs, 18; Urbanski, Braves, 17.

BASEBALL RESULTS

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
Rochester	8	3	.727
Toronto	6	3	.667
Syracuse	6	3	.667
Newark	4	3	.615
Montreal	5	6	.455
Jersey	4	7	.444
Baltimore	4	8	.333
Buffalo	2	9	.182

Monday's Scores

Toronto 9; Baltimore 7

Newark 6; Montreal 4

Syracuse 8; Buffalo 6

Rochester 9; Albany 5

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
Chicago	10	3	.833
New York	8	3	.727
Boston	6	6	.545
Pittsburg	5	5	.500
Brooklyn	5	6	.455
St. Louis	4	7	.364
Cincinnati	3	8	.273
Philadelphia	2	9	.182

Monday's Scores

New York 5; Brooklyn 0

xPhiladelphia 8; Boston 4

10 innings.

xChicago 8; Pittsburg 6

13 innings.

St. Louis 10; Cincinnati 6

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
New York	7	1	.875
Detroit	6	4	.600
Cleveland	5	4	.556
Washington	6	5	.500
Boston	4	5	.444
Philadelphia	5	7	.417
St. Louis	4	7	.364
Chicago	3	7	.300

Monday's Scores

New York 7; Washington 4

Detroit 9; Detroit 7

Philadelphia 8; Boston 2

Chicago 20; Cleveland 10

DEATH CLAIMS ROWING ENTHUSIAST

Toronto, May 1—(CP)—Dr. Frederick Wilson, 70, well-known rowing enthusiast, died at his home here today. He was a member of the Argonaut Rowing Club for 50 years and was a former president of the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen.

Clothiers of Quality

Sale of Lonelies

Broken Lines of Mell's Suits regularly sold from 15.00 to 29.50, clearing at 6.50 9.50 13.50 17.50

Big values in fine garments. Tweeds, Worsteds, double and single breasted. Here's where you can save 10.00 and more on a suit and be more than suited.

Quick and Robertson

COREOT CLOTHING FOR MEN

First in Style, Quality and Reasonable Price

Doubles—Ryan, Pirates, and Roettcher, Cubs, 6.

Triples—Suhr, Pirates, 3; Collins, Cardinals, and W. Herman, Cubs, 2.

Home Runs—Ott, Giants; Klein and Hartnett, Cubs, 3.

Stolen Bases—Martin and Rothrock, Cardinals; Frey, Dodgers and Chiozza, Phillies, 2.

Pitching—Fitzsimmons, Cubs, 4-0; Hubbell, Giants, and Warneke, Cubs, 3-0.

American League

Batting—Reynolds, Red Sox, .441; Knickerbocker, Indians, 414.

Runs—Kuhel, Senators, 10; Morgan, Red Sox, and Manush, Senators, 8.

Runs Batted In—Reynolds, Red Sox, 11; Gehrig, Yankees, 9.

Hits—Reynolds, Red Sox, 19; Gehrig, Yankees, 17.

Doubles—Werber, Red Sox, 8; Greenberg, Tigers and Knickerbocker, Indians, 6.

Triples—Higgins, Athletics; Reynolds, Red Sox and Manush, Senators, 2.

Home Runs—Foxx, Athletics, and Bonura, White Sox, 4.

Stolen Bases—Walker, Tigers; Gehrig, Yankees, 4.

Pitching — Ruffing, Yankees; Thomas, Senators, and Hildebrand, Indians, 3-0.

PLAY REPEATED FOR SCHOOL CLUB

A very pleasant evening was spent at Glen George School when the ladies of the New University Sunday School repeated their play "Old Maids' Association," under the direction of Mrs. Jim Meluskie in aid of the Home and School Club. Rev. E. Farnsworth, as chairman, gave an interesting little talk on helping the boys and girls of today. Other items on the programme were, a musical number by the Boys of the Sunday School, accompanied by Clarence Mason and Wm. Mahon in a duet on xylo, and a Tableau "Weaved a Wife" in which Mr. Jrian Blackburn finally succeeded in finding a lady to his liking; also a piano solo by Nita Shortis.

HANDLED RANSOM

Chicago, May 1 (AP)—John C. "Boss" McLaughlin has confessed handling $53,000 of the ransom collected from Edward Greenberg, Paul banker, the Federal Bureau of Investigation disclosed today.

Listen . . . hear!

Kellogg's Rice Krispies are so crisp and crunchy that they actually snap, crackle and pop in milk or cream.

So nourishing and easy to digest. Just the thing for the evening meal. Always oven-fresh. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Listen!— get hungry

The ROMANTIC RUNAWAY

by KATHARINE HAVILAND-TAYLOR

© 1934 NEA SERVICE, INC.

"Well, get busy or go overboard," the heavy voice said next. "You can take your choice. I mean what I say and I'm armed—and you're not. See?"

There was a glint of light on the short revolver that was turned on him. Pablito moved, sick and unsteady from the blow he still felt, toward the engine. Suddenly he knew the boat was Field's fastest motor boat, the "Silver Dart", in which he had taken Field and his daughter riding so often.

He tinkered with the engine which his captor had choked. At last, after a few uncertainly spaced chokes and puffs, it came to life. Pablito turned to find the revolver still levelled on him.

"We got some talkin' to do," said the other man. "Head for Cuba and go there a hellin', see? We'll talk as we move. And if you want to try any funny tricks on me, just try 'em—"

The girl interrupted, "Aw, take that gun offa him. It ain't so easy to talk, Beau, with a gun trained on you. Besides he ain't armed." She looked at Pablito as she stopped speaking.

"Where'd you put your loot?" the man demanded of Pablito.

"What do you mean?"

"Say, none of that!" The voice became rougher. The eyes narrowed and the lips set in a twisted smile. "Look here, stranger," the man went on, leaning forward, "you and me and my little pard here all know you pulled off a cold killin' tonight. I can send you up if I wan.a. I can make you turn this boat around and head fr Key West and then I can turn you over to the police."

"Go ahead."

"Watcha mean? Gettin' funny, ain't you?"

"I meant to give myself up."

"Like hell you did. Say, looka here—whatja lay him out for anyway?"

◆ ◆ ◆

Pablito explained with fair steadiness as his lips grew dry and his nostrils pinched on the acrid scent of the salt water.

The man listened to Pablito's tale and then laughed suddenly. "You're a queer bozo," he commented sneeringly. "Kill a man who'd oughta been killed before he was born and then you're willin' to do time for it! Is that what you want? I'm soft about kids myself stranger. I know how you felt. But you need a medal for what you did—not stripes. Don't you know they'd send you up for life—or maybe swing you? You're pretty young for that. All your life, as you might say aheada you."

Pablito looked down at his twisting hands but did not answer.

Suddenly the other man laughed harshly. "Say, Lottie," he said, "ain't this the gahdamndest? Beggin' a guy to save his own life?" She nodded slowly.

Pablito shifted. He had suddenly remembered eyes. Noyes needed him, would probably starve without him. And Noyes, hiding from something or someone as he, Pablito, must not hide, was waiting for him in Cuba. Pablito felt the smart of tears in his eyes and a growing cramp in his throat.

The man was speaking now more carelessly. "You keep quiet about our gettin' off and we'll say nothin' about meetin' you. See?"

"Yes."

"Decided to live after all, have you?"

"Yes."

"You can work with us. We're goin' to comb the big hotels in Cuba."

Pablito did not answed and the man went on, "Not in your line, huh?"

"No".

"All right. But give us away and we'll send you up for life."

"I won't give you away," Pablito promised.

CHAPTER XII

Pablito watched the compass—clear in the strong white moonlight—and kept the boat headed for Cuba. The girl huddled low on a side seat, watching Pablito narrowly, steadily. The man called eBau slept fitfully, now and again waking to mutter that any "funny tricks" would mean one less bullet in the chamber of his repeater.

"Aw, shut up, eBau!" the girl advised after he had said this four times. "The kid's come to his senses. Ain't you?" she ended softly. Pablito nodded. Again the man slept and the girl edged toward Pablito, sitting closer to him. The wind was keen and strong from the north and he saw that she was shivering.

"They're havin' a storm up north, I guess," she hazarded.

He could not bring himself to speak, remembering what he had done.

"Feelin' sick, dearie?" the girl questioned gently. Pablito turned to her miserably and on his face she read the answer.

"The first murder's always the hardest," she said. Pablito covered his eyes with his hands.

"Dearie," she said warmly, "it wasn't like you did it fere yourself. Things ain't ever so bad if you do 'em for someone else. It was seein' that kid bein' beat that got you. Poor kid. Gawd, my mother, she used to beat me! I hope she's in hell—"

Pablito dropped his hands, staring ahead. He said nothing.

"Gawd it's cold," the girl muttered next. After a moment she crept closer and couched on the boat bottom against his knees.

"Do you mind this here?" she asked scarcely above a whisper.

"No," he answered. Nothing could matter ever again, he felt. For how could he go back to Estelle now? He never could. That was done—over. He felt the girl pressing closer and knew, staring down at her stupidly through the haze that gripped him, that she must be suffering from the cold. She was dressed lightly.

He tried to slip from his velvet jacket but she stopped him. "Watcha doin'?" she asked roughly.

"I want you to put it on. You must be cold," he told her.

◆ ◆ ◆

She looked at him wonderingly for a moment. Then she smiled, not quite steadily. "Keep your shirt on, brother," she ordered, adding, "My God that was white of you. I ain't used to it. Honest I ain't."

She patted his hand and he looked at her dully. After a time she slept, crouched against his knees.

Pablito had no wish for sleep and no thought of it. He managed the boat and watched his compass half unconsciously as memories of the night, early and later, came back to him. Always in the background was a vision of a man's figure lying across the sandy road and Pablito himself looking down at it.

Once he felt for the little gold heart tied in the handkerchief he had tucked under the edge of his broad, red sash. Feeling it, he drew his hand away sharply. He was a murderer now. He saw again the man in the roadway and the child; Estelle as she had raised her face to his. His misery was a tangled mania. He had never needed Noyes as he did then. Before his thought had been always that Noyes might need him.

When he spoke the girl at his feet shifted a little, groaned and shivered. He slipped from his velvet jacket and put it reound her. Beau moved, changing the tempo of his snore.

To Pablito the night was a year of hell—hard hell, Puritan hell. At three o'clock the wind died to a feeble whisper and the stars began to dim. At five came a gray, late dawn and a spectacular, short rain storm. Lottie groaned in her sleep and Beau awoke to curse her. Awake, he rubbed his eyes, yawned, stretched and set to planning.

They would have to land carefully. They had had other clothes packed and ready to take with them but a cluster of servants had made a barrier they could not pass. Now they'd have to make a careful landing, steal so make a caryful landing, steal some clothes and burn their costumes. They would have to keep away from Havana, hide in the bushes until night, then rob some clothes lines and, as Beau said satirically, "start a new life".

Pablito heard all this dully. He didn't care what they did nor—much—what happened. He wondered whether he would ever care again, whether he would ever know again anything but this deep, numbing pain.

◆ ◆ ◆

The rain passed away and the day became bright and dazzling. Presently Lottie woke. Pablito, who had the eyes of a seaman, made out a hair line of darkness on the water that was tinted by the glory of the sky.

"Cuba," he said heavily.

Beau strained his eyes but saw nothing. Loudly and with some humor he invited Pablito to "go on!" Lottie said she could see it too and Beau grinned. "Sure you do, sweetehart," he remarked genially. "I'll bet you see anything he sees and believe anything he says. Boy," he shouted with a turn toward Pablito, "you've made a hit!"

Pablito kept his eyes on Cuba, looking now like the thinnest wafer of a coin.

Perhaps they might make a landing by noon. They had had a late start. And what then?

Of this only, Pablito was certain; he would be in hiding and more or less in the power of the two in the boat with him. Always now he would be in hiding, fearing new faces that looked on his for more than a second, skulking through the streets, hunting such vaguely respectable places as those which would give him assurance of safety. He had dreamed much, although mistily, of all that he would do with life. He had never dreamed it was to be like this.

"You're right," Beau sang out loudly. "It is Cuba!"

He talked excitedly then of how they could make their "getaway". "We've only begun this," he stated. "There's a lot of dodging ahead. They're going to be lookin' for us."

"For us?" Pablito echoed. He wondered what Lottie and Beau had done.

◆ ◆ ◆

Beau looked at Pablito narrowly—at Pablito whose crime he understood from a sometimes soft heart at which he sneered or railed when it overcame him. He wished he had not used Pablito's dagger. "But he's sane enough now," he reflected, "and it was the thing anybody woulda done. It was only sense!"

"It seems like I could see the green," Lottie said, her eyes for a moment turned from Pablito toward the thickening wafer that was Cuba. Beau said he could see a lady on the shore raising hell with the milkman because the cream was sour. "Well," he added, suddenly serious, "here's to you, Cuba! Be good to us!"

They drifted around in the hot sunlight, Lottie moaning of her hunger and Beau telling her she should be thankful for the filled water bottles they had found in a locker.

Their course was necessarily devious. No one, not even the humblest of fishermen, must see them in Field's boat. They must find an isolated shore for landing which should be, if possible, fairly close to Havana. Once on land, they must wait for the cover of night before continuing on their way.

"What time do' you think it is?" Lottie asked wearily after they had been chased to sea by a fishing craft Pablito's water-wise eyes had found. Beau pulled out his watch, looked at it and admitted sheepishly, "I forgot to wind it."

"Ain't that swell", Lottie exclaimed with withering scorn.

"Say you ain't got no appointment have you?" Beau demanded. Pablito interrupted, "It's a little after 12. About half-past I'd say"—

Then, as he saw an open stretch without a sail or a blackened hull, he added, "I'm going to try to make it now—"

He turned the engine to full speed.

CHAPTER XIII

The sea was calm and Field had reason for his pride in the "Silver Dart". Soon Pablito saw what the man and girl beside him could not see—an indent of water cupped between jagged rocks and leading upward to a deserted stretch of beach. Beyond the yellow sand was a deep green tangle of tropic jungle.

The water was growing shallow and the going was perilous, Pablito knew. Lottie and Beau quarrelled mildly, unaware of the danger. Pablito turned the speed low. Lottie was saying, "What the hell are we goin' to do with this here Leviathan?"

"Turn it over and hope to God it'll drift to sea," Beau answered.

"It's a damn shame," the girl muttered. "It's a swell boat!"

"It wouldn't be so swell to be caught in it," Beau told her.

The boat scraped a rock and poised for a second, far tilted to one side. Lottie's eyes grew frightened but she made no sound; Beau swore; Pablito turned off the engine, stepped out on the rock, pushed the boat off and leaped back into it. Once more he turned the power on. They could not go much farther, he knew, but he wanted to be well out of the water in which sharks might be swimming before he began to pilot the crew ashore.

Again the boat struck a rock, this time squarely under the prow and so sharply that it vibrated from the shock. Again Beau swore loudly; again Lottie made no sound but her hands gripped one another until her knuckles were white.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

HEALTH MEANS CHARM AND HAPPINESS

Sparkling eyes and smiling lips speak of health and vitality. Clear skin attracts. The healthy active girl is both happy and popular.

Perhaps you are not really ill yet when the day's work is done you are too tired to enter into the good times that other women enjoy. For extra energy, try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It tones up your general health. Gives you more pep—more charm.

Remember that 98 out of 100 women report benefit. Let it help you too.

FRUIT-A-TIVES GAVE WONDERFUL RELIEF . . . CONSTIPATION SUFFERER STATES UNDER OATH

Mrs. Florence Williamson, Montreal, Quebec

So that others may also be helped Mrs. Williamson voluntarily has told of how Fruit-a-tives brought her relief from constipation. To give you positive proof she has stated before a notary:—

"I Make Oath and say that since I was twelve years old, I was ill with chronic constipation. I never felt good until I started taking Fruit-a-tives and now I can truly say they gave me wonderful relief. I enjoy life once more and strongly urge anyone who has the same trouble I had to try Fruit-a-tives."

Florence Williamson

A sworn statement to the above effect was made before a Notary Public at Montreal, November 4th, 1933. Original on file.

FRUIT-A-TIVES—25c and 50c at all Drug Stores

Little Benny's Note Book

Yestidday afternoon me and pop was taking a wawk before supper and there was a dark complexion man with a black mustash selling flowers on a corner, and pop bawt some red coronations, me saying, G. pop are you going to give them to ma, is it a anniversity or something? and pop saying, Not at all, and that's the very point. Nothing gladdens a lady's hart more than the spontaneous gift of a few uprooted flowers, in fact the very unexpectedness you are old and daring enough to have a wife that's a good tip for you to have in mind, he said.

Yes sir, I said, and when we got home pop put one hand on his chest and handed ma the buntch of flowers with his other hand, saying, Flowers to the flower of the family.

Meening ma, and she said, Why Willyum how nice, where did you get them?

I bleeve the man's name was Nickopopolo, at least he looked Greek, and I have no reason to bleeve his name wasn't Nickopopolo pop said, and ma said, Willyum, you're a goose.

That's me all over, just a big soft harted sentimental goose, pop said, and ma said, I mean they're faded, the man went and palmed off faded flowers on you, he must of seen you coming, and I'll bet he charged you a good round price for them too.

Price, yee gods she looks a gift bookay in the price, pop said. And he grabbed the flowers back and opened the window and quick threw them out, ma saying, Why Willyum I didn't mean I dont appreciate them, why Willyum ony an hour ago I telefoned the butcher and told him to come and take back his sirloin stake and bring me calf's liver instead as a special serprise for you, doesn't that mean anything to you?

It means I'm a slab of liver and you're the fairest flower of all; I apologize, pop said. Benny, run out and rescue those flowers dubble quick, he said.

Wich I did, and I brawt them back not looking any werse but not any better, and ma stuck her whole face in and smelt them with a expression like somebody thinking they was in heaven.

Quick relief for acid stomach

Acid Indigestion indicates too much acid in the Stomach. . . . The resultant misery will vanish speedily if you take a little Bisurated Magnesia (Bismuth in Magnesia) after eating, to improve the over-acid condition of the stomach. . . . This is better than relying on habit-forming Laxatives. . . . At all Drug Stores—in powder form, or in tablets for handy carrying.

What you need is

*Bisurated MAGNESIA

*BISMUTH IN MAGNESIA

It's a Protective Neutralizer—NOT a Laxative

TILLIE THE TOILER

By Russ Westover.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

TARZAN THE TERRIBLE

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

The king had dispatched a messenger to announce the coming of Jad-ben-Otho's son. The result was that Tarzan found himself accompanied through the temple by a procession of priests, garbed in grotesque headdresses. Some wore hideous masks carved from wood, entirely concealing the wearers' faces. Others wore heads of wild beasts cunningly fitted over their own heads. The high priest alone wore no such headdress. He was an old man with crafty eyes and a cruel mouth.

At first sight of him Tarzan realized that here was the greatest danger to his ruse. He saw at a glance that the man was antagonistic to him, and felt that the high priest was certain to look with suspicion on one who claimed to be the son of the temple god. But the mighty one did not openly question Tarzan's right to the title of Dor-ul-Otho. Still, the ape-man read his thoughts aright, and knew that the high priest would sooner or later attempt to tear the veil from Tarzan's imposture.

The king had now given over the guidance of his guest to Lu-don, the high priest, and Tarzan was taken into the great chambers where the votive offerings were kept. These were of such pricelessness and beauty that even Tarzan, who was familiar with the treasure vaults of Opar, was amazed. As he passed the barred entrance to a dim corridor he saw within many pithecanthropi of all ages and both sexes. Most of them squatted about in hopeless dejection, an expression of utter despair on their faces.

"Who are these?" he asked Lu-don, and instantly regretted it. Lu-don turned with a thinly veiled glance of suspicion. "Who should know better than the son of Jad-ben-Otho?" "Dor-ul-Otho's questions are not to be answered by other questions," said the ape-man sternly. Then Lu-don said: "They are the offerings whose blood must refresh the eastern altars as the sun returns to your father at the day's end." "Liberate them," commanded Tarzan. "Jad-ben-Otho is not pleased to have his people slain upon his altars."

Loses Ugly Fat 14 lbs. in 11 Days

Clark Gable and Myrna Loy in "Men In White" coming to the Belle, Thursday.

CLAIMS SUP'T INTOXICATED

Evidence is Given at York County Probe

Toronto, May 1 (CP)—Col. George Little, superintendent of the York County Children's Society, was so "drunk" on two occasions in 1929 and 1930 that he was unable to talk coherently on business matters, Miss Rowan Patterson, former assistant secretary of the society at the Infants' Home, told Judge J. Parker, investigating charges of mismanagement against the society on Monday.

"He was quite incoherent. He couldn't discuss the cases with me at all. He was huddled in his chair and smelled strongly of liquor," Miss Patterson said.

"I'm afraid it is a conclusion arrived at with much little reference to the basis of that conclusion," remarked the Judge when witness stated she considered Col. Little was intoxicated.

Cross-examined by J. D. Lucas, counsel for Col. Little, Miss Patterson denied the drunkenness was an impression. "It was a very definite fact," she said.

Miss Catharine Stone also declared Col. Little was "quite incoherent" when Miss Patterson visited him. "He didn't want to be bothered," she declared. "I went to him that way before but it's not usual. I noticed quite a strong smell. His face was very flushed and his eyes were glassy."

BIG KIDNAP GANG SOUGHT

Alleged Confession of Politician Followed by Police

Chicago, May 1—The United States Department of Justice announced through its Chicago office that it was acting on a story that appeared to be one of the greatest gang combines in the country's history.

The announcement followed a purported confession by John J. (Boss) McGrath that he had handled $53,000 of the $200,000 ransom obtained early this year in the Edward G. Bremer kidnapping at St. Paul.

Melvin H. Purvis, head of the federal department here, and Harry L. Nathan, his assistant in Washington, declined comment.

Their disclosures linked McLaughlin, a former state legislator and political power, with such notorious gangsters as the Dillinger gang and the Karpis-Barker group in the southwest.

The findings showed how "hot" money could be used in some of the nation's most famous crimes of the kidnapping period had been handled and how politicians, bail bondsmen, swindlers and other gangsters worked together throughout a vast midwest territory to help each other in fleecing the area's rich men.

Threat to Kidnap Girl in Edmonton

Edmonton, May 1—Edmonton city police admitted they were working on the Rev. J. M. Corgin kidnap case, in which the rector of Christ Church here was reported to have received a note threatening the kidnapping of his 21 year old daughter Margaret unless $5,000 was forthcoming. They refused, however, to hand out any information to reporters.

It is known, however, police officials believe they know the identity of the world-be extortionists and samples of their handwriting will be obtained for comparison by experts with the writing of the kidnap note.

When he reported the threatening letter, Rev. Mr. Corgin-Ching gave no instructions by police to speak to no one of the case. He was advised to show a willingness to pay over the $5,000 should further word be received from the men.

Canadian Press President Presented with Candelabra

Annual Meeting of Directors Held at Toronto

Toronto, May 1 (CP)—The Board of Directors of the Canadian Press, Co-operative News-gathering Association of the Daily Newspapers of Canada, met here in a two-day session in preparation for the annual meeting on Thursday next.

A pleasing feature of the session was the presentation to Mr. Nichols, President, M. E. Nichols of the Winnipeg Tribune, of a pair of Sheffield plate candelabra as a token of affection the Board feels and the membership at large and in recognition of services to the Association from 1931 to 1933.

In making the presentation, the President, Henry Cayton of Quebec Soleil said the association was greatly indebted to Mr. Nichols for successfully steering the association through one of the most difficult years of its history, when the country and the daily newspaper with it passed through the depth of the economic depression from which they are now improving.

In that trying time, Mr. Cayton said, they found in Mr. Nichols a leader with the courage to comprehend and the authority to state that however necessary it might be for the Canadian dailies to practise economies, they must not be carried to a point that would damage its efficiency and thereby devalue as a national institution.

Mr. Cayton reminded the Board that Mr. Nichols had been associated with co-operative daily newspaper in Canada from its very earliest days, when in 1907 he had become the first President, in Winnipeg, of the Western Association Press. He said that he could long have the benefit of his experience and wisdom.

Returning thanks for the gift and gracious words accompanying it, Mr. Nichols said he had never spent happier years than those he had as President of the Canadian Press.

Miss Hepburn Said to Be Seeking Divorce

New York, May 1—Ludlow Ogden Smith, whose wife is better known to the public as Katharine Hepburn than Mrs. Smith, left his office in the hands of a secretary who reported that "there is no comment" on the reported divorce proceedings begun by Mrs. Smith in Reno.

Practically nothing is known about the Hepburn-Smith household affairs except that, when Miss Hepburn came to New York from Hollywood a few months ago to take the lead in the Broadway play The Lake, her husband, an insurance man, moved out of the house he owns on the upper East Side and lived in an apartment nearby while the actress played in Manhattan.

The names of Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow Smith were omitted from the Philadelphia Social Register of 1934, after appearing in the 1932 and 1933 editions.

Although there was never any secrecy about their marriage, few of Miss Hepburn's friends and newspaper reference files contain no definite record of the event.

Rev. Donald MacKay Moderator of London

Listowel, Ont., May 1—The London and Hamilton Synod of the Presbyterian Church opened the business session of its annual meetings here today with various committees meeting to hear reports.

Rev. Donald MacKay of St. George's Presbyterian Church, Stratford, was named to the moderatorship over two other nominees, Rev. G. Tredwell Thompson and Rev. E. G. Thompson of Woodstock.

FATAL RIOTING ON MAY DAY 100 INJURED

Fighting Resumes Early Today 40 Miles From Paris

Industrial Centres Feared as Likely to Produce Disorders

By Stuart Mercsey

Associated Press Staff Writer

Paris, May 1 (AP)—Threats of police, heavily reinforced by mobile guards bearing rifles, patrolled strategic spots in Paris today while 10,000 troops were held in reserve against "Red May Day" outbreaks.

The heart of the capital buzzed with its usual activity and public services functioned normally despite of Communist-sponsored strike but a thousand workers reported to the workers' districts.

Most of the factories were closed.

After a night of fatal rioting in the provinces, one was known dead and nearly 100 were estimated injured in battles in which tear gas and fire-hose figured at Manles and Angers.

Manifestations were concentrated in Paris, but trouble was feared in industrial centres of Roubaix because of flaming political enmities and the Communist call for a general strike.

The Rightist press warned against the "Red Peril" and "civil war" and Premier Doumergue, while Left groups countered with charges that members of the Right were armed for civil war.

Paris Is Rioted

Paris resembled a military camp. Ten thousand soldiers, with fixed bayonets, were backed up 30,000 police called to put down disorders.

Early this morning, a radio-equipped car was dispatched over the capital to direct a fleet of fast police cars to scenes of rioting.

Fresh fighting broke out at Manles, 40 miles from Paris, during the night when 2,000 Reds attacked barricades in which 60 persons were hurt. The police finally won.

The rioters threw the city into partial darkness by smashing street lamps. Some took advantage of the confusion to rear barricades. They threw up stones, bricks, stones and sticks. It was midnight before the mobs could be routed.

At Angers, fighting broke out when a leftist throng formed outside the prefecture and charged after persons sympathetic to the government of Premier Gaston Doumergue.

Tear-gas bombs were hurled into the hall. When the government supporters fled they were attacked by the rioters. Many were hurt in hand-to-hand fighting before police could be called on to cover. In the struggle one policeman died.

Small riots in other cities also failed to beset failure.

At Lyons, one Turray, was attacked at Mantes, where "Anti-Fascists" still are infuriated over the defeat of Gaston Doumergue's ministry-election Sunday for a seat in the Chamber of Deputies.

DEATHS MONDAY

By the Canadian Press

Baltimore, Md.—Dr. Wilbur H. Welch, 84, of Johns Hopkins Hospital, dean of American physicians and world famous in the field of pathology.

Washington—Major General H. L. Scott, retired, 80, noted Indian fighter and former Chief of Staff of the United States army.

London—Sir Charles Parson, 77, electrical engineer and rubber company executive.

Ottawa—Robert McMahon, 71, former secretary and manager of the Ottawa Electric Railway Company.

Troon, N.S.—John James Johnson, provincial surveyor in Colchester county for 50 years.

Montreal—Thos. Haddon Flavelle, 68, prominent in Montreal printing and publishing circles.

Victoria—Herbert G. Graham, 77, pioneer of Manitoba, former Liberal member of Parliament for South Brandon.

Windsor, N.S.—Peter McCullough, Fielding, 71, Registrar of Probate for Hants county.

Lovely Gift Is Presented Miss Craig

ROSLIN—Rev. F. C. Beaser and Mrs. Beaser spent a few days during the past week in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hepburn, who have been residing in Mr. J. Goodfellow's apartment, have moved to part of Mr. David Miller's house.

Mr. W. Welsh attended the Welsh attended the meeting of the Tyendinaga Conservative Club in Melrose on Monday evening.

Mr. M. Parpey has been irawlicensed auctioneer for Hastings and Wm. Leslie of Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson and family visited relatives near Frankford, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Copeland is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. Copeland.

On Thursday evening the Roslin Hall a party, sponsored by the girls' and ladies' basketball teams, was given in honor of Miss Alleen Craig a former member of the girls' team, now residing in Belleville.

The early part of the evening was spent in dancing music for which was supplied by Fairfield Orchestra. Lealie lunch was served, and at its conclusion, Dr. Welsh called the gathering to order and Miss M. Grey read an address, and Miss E. Kerr made the presentation of an aero-pack travelling case to Miss Craig, who very graciously thanked all for their gift.

List of Donors of Special Prizes for Wednesday May 2nd Purchases to Be Drawn for Thursday Morning

SEE THESE PRIZES DISPLAYED IN THE WINDOW OF

Tip Top Tailors

PRIZE	DONOR
1 Flower Basket and 3 doz. Roses,	Dorothy Quick
1 Men's Turnbull Athletic Shirt	McIntosh
1 Cake Plate	McFee
1 Pair Ladies' Silk Hose	McIntosh
1 Pair Ladies' Silk Bloomers	McIntosh
1 Box Chocolates	Dickson
1 Neck Tie	Meagher's
1 O. and S. Coffee	Kresge
1 Box Stationery	Laurie Lewis
1 Cliffe Toilet Set	Latimer's Drug
1 Pair Ladies' Silk Hose	McIntosh
2 Rowntree Cocoa	Metropolitan
1 Pair Silk Hose	McIntosh
2 Neilson's Cocoa	Metropolitan
1 Pair Silk Hose	McIntosh
2 Neilson's Cocoa	Metropolitan
1 Athletic Shirt	McIntosh
1 Set Mesh Silk Underwear	McIntosh
1 Wool Hose	J. Shaw
1 Arabia Coffee	Loblaw
1 Music Case	Weaver's
1 Neck Tie	O. Symons
1 Salad Bowl	Woolworth
1 Case Coca Cola	Kresge
1 Case Orange Crush	J. E. Ives
1 O'Cedar Polish	C. Hyde
1 Pair Theatre Tickets	Capitol
1 Pair Theatre Tickets	Belle
1 Tea Kettle, Aluminum	J. Lewis
1 Pair Running Shoes	Agnew Surpass
50 Turret Cigarettes	National Billiard Parlor
1 Little Don Cigarette Roller	Schryver's Drug

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 9 a.m. Close 5.30 p.m.

Belleville Better Week

Offers Still Further Inducements to Save

10 qt. Galvanized Pails, ea. 15c

Strongly made from hot galvanized metal, in every handy size for house use. While they last at this price. Opening Hour Special Wednesday, each ..... —basement

Costume Jewelry Less than Half Price

BRAIDS, BROOCHERS, HAIR-RINGS AND FINGER-RINGS IN THIS ASSORTMENT in a big variety of designs, colors and materials. When you consider that these are coming at a lot less than half price—you'll see the advantage of matching several outfits at this price. On sale from 9 to 10 a.m.—if quantity lasts. Each ..... —main floor centre

Bed Spreads Half Price

- Printed Cotton
- Brocaded Rayon
- Candlewick

Some Slightly Soiled

A grand half price clearance that many thrifty housekeepers will hurry down to save on! They are colorful cotton spreads, in gay colors for summer use—lustrous brocaded rayons, and white candlewick. Some have become in excellent size, and are noted for their good service, and smart appearance. On account of some of these spreads being slightly soiled, and some broken lines we are clearing them at just half of their regular prices! Opening Hour Special Wednesday, each

98c to 2.98

New Shipment Print House Frocks

In a host of new colorful designs that every woman will appreciate. Of sturdy cotton prints, fashioned in styles that are most practical for wearing around the house. Short sleeves — some very smartly trimmed with collar and cuffs. Small, medium and large sizes. Opening Hour Special, each ..... —second floor

Special Clearance! Children's Sweaters

A limited quantity makes it imperative that you shop early if you want to take advantage of these attractive values. Slip-over style, of fine wool, in a good choice of styles and colorings. Sizes for little tots 2 to 6 years. Opening Hour Special, each ..... —second floor

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE BELLE

"Moment Gal" is Five Star Comedy Five stars any way you look at it is the claim for the new comedy-drama, Moment Gal by Dell Tower at the Belle today and Wednesday, matinee daily. Its riotous situations, hilarious dialogue and rib-tickling characterizations are said to have earned it a five-star rating. And in addition the new production has a fine star cast—Zelda Pitts, Pert Kelton, El Brendel, James Gleason and Sheila Gallagher.

The story set in a small town where a one-chair barber in Brush Bend leads in the limelight. Is woven around some everyday folks and their pursuit of life, love and happiness. All is well with the barber's romance and his pert typical romance with the agitator shop girl—Zelda Pitts until a crooked show girl and a slicker travelling salesman take up abode in the village. Then love, true love is rounded out by the town pool shark and outcast.

The show girl, played by Sheila Kelton, energizes the lugubrious dialectician, and he decides that his pill is a better vocation as a manhunter. To their fingertips the barbershop habitues fall for Pert and business booms.

Jealousy and intrigue, however, are set afoot by marathon romance of Zelda and El and only after boisterous scenes has come to the barber in the form of a second chair establishment is the threatened cut and peace brought to the little village.

Pert Kelton is the stranded show girl who makes eyes at much of the male population of the town. James Gleason is the local champion pool shooter and has drawn his full lower strains of the sporting career. Sheila Gallagher is the travelling salesman who sells both himself and his company's products to the ladies.

"The Side of Heaven"

"The Side of Heaven," the second feature attraction on the same program brings together one family one of the most representative of the country, until yet to be seen in any production.

Based upon the novel of Marjorie Bartholomew Paradis, it presents the climactic events of all their individual lives crowded together in a seldom-seen human document in which two youthful romances are introduced.

Heading the impressive cast are Tom Brown, Mae Clarke, Lionel Barrymore, Una Merkel, Onslow Stevens, Mary Carlyle, Henry Wadsworth, Eddie Nugent, C. Henry Gordon and Dickie Moore.

AT THE CAPITOL

EDWARD G. ROBINSON AND GENEVIEVE TOBIN IN "DARK HAZARD"

Edward G. Robinson is the most consistently unlucky loser on the screen has ever seen. Maybe his hands are cursed—because as a motion picture hero isn't an absolute 100 per cent—but all, he did win Mary Astor at the finish of "The Little Giant."

Well, that's only the exception which proves the rule in Robinson's case. The Magnificent Dollar can be counted as another one for he had two women. One was devoted to him in that picture, though he divorced one to marry the other.

Robinson is the loser anywhere, the First National star has been the perfect loser in affairs of the heart. Even when he apparently wins he loses. In his pictures, he is always marrying the wrong woman, or losing the right one to a rockier man.

And in his latest picture, "Dark Hazard," now appearing at the Capitol Theatre till Wednesday Robinson still runs true to form. When his irresistible urge for gambling leads him to Saratoga he is played by Genevieve Tobin to run out on him for another man.

Robinson is the best meaning fellow in the world in "Dark Hazard," yet he simply can't keep his promise to quit gambling.

In "I Loved a Woman," his last picture before "Dark Hazard," Edward was still more unlucky in love. He married Genevieve Tobin, daughter of a fellow meat-packer, only to find her a cold, self-satisfied uncongenial companion. Then he found Miss Astor as a dazzling young opera singer, fell madly in love with her, and immediately discovered that she merely was using him as a stepping-stone to success and to the lads.

It's the same story right back through the line of Robinson pictures. In "Tiger Shark", the girl he married falls in love with his best friends, the first mate of his vessel. In "Two Seconds", Eddie is in love with the girl with a heart, and who sees him only as a meal ticket, and he goes to the chair for killing her after he has found her to be unfaithful.

Even as the Chinese hero of Lanny Ross, Radio's boney-toned tenor is appearing on the same program in a smart revue "Just Fun and Music" with the popular Rubinoff, with its up-to-the-minute world-wide events.

RADIO PROGRAMS

TUESDAY
E. S. T.

8.00—Frances Alda, soprano — WEAF
8.30—Concert Program; Hudson's Orchestra—WABC
7.00—Crime Clews—WJW
7.30—Abe Lyman's Orchestra and "Ascendians"—CFRB
8.00—Musical Memories; Edgar Guest, Alice Moor, Chas. Sears, Joe Koestner's Orchestra—WJW
8.00—California Memories—CHAC
8.00—Ben Bernie and his Orchestra—WLW; WTAM
8.30—Ed Wynn—WEAF; WLW
8.30—Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra—WABC
9.00—Jessel Music Hour—WJZ
9.00—Colonel Stoopnagle and Budd, Glen Gray's Orchestra —WABC
9.00—Beauty Box Theatre; Blossom Heart with Gladys Swarthout; Chorus; Nat Shilkret's Orchestra—WEAF
9.30—Symphony Concert; Frank Black; Emil de Cou, Soprano, Spanish baritone — WJZ; CFCF
10.00—News—CFRB
11.00—Rudy Vallee's Orchestra — WEAF

WEDNESDAY
E. S. T.

8.00—Sam Herman, xylophonist—CRCT
8.45—Metropolitan s-Prade—CFRB
9.00—Jack Denny's Orchestra, Concert Program—WJZ
9.30—Albert Spalding, violinist; Conrad Thibault, baritone; WABC
10.00—Nick Lucas, songs; Fred Rich's Orchestra—WABC
10.00—News—CFRB
11.30—Smilin' Ed McConnell — WABC
11.45—Mischa Raginsky's Ensemble —WABC
12.15—Ben Bakin's Ensemble—CFRB
1.00—New Seats in the Balcony; WLW; WEAF
2.00—Jan White, tenor; Instrumental trio—WJZ
3.00—Sentimental Moods—CFRB
3.15—Alice Joy—WJZ
3.30—Prince George's Speech Day from Empire Exhibition—CRCT; CFRB
4.45—Gordon, Dave and Bunn songs—WABC
5.30—The Hunting News—CFRB
6.45—Irene Rich in Hollywood sketch—WJZ
7.00—Tom Munchaugen' CRCT
7.15—Ray Aces—CFRB
7.30—Broadway Melodies; Evan Marshal, baritone; Ben Fresman's Orchestra—CFRB
7.45—Babe Ruth's Baseball Comment—CRCT
8.00—Nino Martini; Chorus, Andre Kostelanetz' Orchestra —WABC
8.00—One Hour With You—CFRB
9.00—Ed Gold Program; Dr. Powell Master of Ceremonies —WEAF
9.00—Corn Cob Pipe Club quartette, Harvard music, mandolin quartet—WRAF; WTAM
9.00—Jack Benny's Orchestra, Harry Richman—WJZ
9.30—Albert Spalding, violinist; Conrad Thibault, baritone; WABC
10.00—Nick Lucas, songs; Fred Rich's Orchestra—WABC
10.00—News—CFRB

"Honorable Mr. Wong", Robinson fared no better. His little almond-eyed bride had an affair with the man she really loved soon after her marriage to Robinson. In "Five Star Final" Robinson played by Aline MacMahon's adoration of him.

"Dark Hazard" is based on the story prepared by W. R. Burnett, author of "Little Caesar", in which Robinson starred in his first outstanding screen hit. It has for its theme the inconsequential value for gambling of a most sympathetic character who would rather lose than win—himself with the colorful setting of a greyhound racing track.

Supporting the cast include Genevieve Tobin, Glenda Farrell, Gordon Westcott, Robert Cavanaugh, Willard Robertson and Emma Dunn. Alfred E. Green directed the picture from the screen play by Ralph Block and Brown Holmes.

A Moran and Mack Comedy; Miniature and Bexer Kat Kartoon, that's a MGM complete—a treat of a program.

Colored dishes given away tonight at Better Belleville week coupons to each paid adult admission on matinee and evening shows.

QUANTITATIVE BASIS FOR DAIRY EXPORT

PAPSKURA, New Zealand, May 1. — (CP Cable via Reuters) Finance Minister J. G. Coates today told an audience New Zealand should work with the United Kingdom in an effort to formulate a dairy produce to the British market.

Miss Olive Whyte Proposed by C

WINDSOR, Ont., May 1.—(CP) Windsor C.C.F. Study Club at a meeting tonight decided to recommend Miss Olive Whyte, C. C. F. candidate for the federal riding of Windsor, to the national convention to be held in Saskatoon today.

PROBABILITIES
Moderate southwest to south winds; fair and warm today and Thursday.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES

	max.	min.
Today	73	41
Year ago	72	52

Weather—Sunny.

BELLEVLLE, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY MAY 2, 1934

BUYERS FROM FAR, NEAR THRONG STORES

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Chicago, May 2—(CP)—Joe Paprock and his friend, Harold Riley were fined $210 and $60 respectively after housewives pounded on eggs without being able to break them.

They complained that some of the "eggs" they bought from the pair were not eggs at all, but stones of the same shape.

* * * * *

Sarasota, Fla., May 2—(CP) — Bonita House went after one fish—a tarpon—and came back with two—a tarpon and a shark. The shark swallowed the tarpon that Bonita was playing on her line, and fought for an hour and a half before it was landed.

When the shark was killed and cut open, the tarpon was found, reposing in its stomach.

* * * * *

Seattle, May 2—(CP)— City Traffic Engineer J. W. A. Bollong says bicycles are now a "menace" not only to their riders but to automobiles and pedestrians.

"Their use by young and old is increasing at an astonishing rate" he said.

He recommended passage of a city ordinance requiring they be licensed.

* * * * *

Philadelphia, May 2—(CP)—R. George Harvey, agent in charge of the United States Division of Investigation's Philadelphia office, sent his best machine gunners and pistol shots to the midwest to hunt John Dillinger now he's on amanhunt all his own. A sneak thief broke into his apartment, stole his wife's fur coat and carried off the baby's dime bank.

* * * * *

Grand Coulee Dam Site, Wash., May 2—(CP)—Because he took a bath, Ben Classen "made" the front page of the newspaper here and it wasn't Saturday night either.

After the water system was turned on this brand new boom town he was the first to bathe under a hotel "room and bath" offer.

* * * * *

Vandergrift, Pa., May 2—(CP)—It was not the hours but the time that carried a dispute at the Hicks coal mine and 500 coal diggers remained away from work.

Under daylight saving time, operators wanted the men to go to work at 5.30 a.m., instead of 6.30 to make railroad connections.

The miners didn't show up. Their leaders explained such a work schedule would rob them of an hour's sleep in the "cool morning hours."

* * * * *

Denver, May 2—(CP)—Mrs. Estelle Leo says her cat has been kidnapped and she wants something done about it.

"I know the woman who took my cat and I want her charged with grand larceny," Mrs. Leo told Hubert L. Shattuck, assistant district attorney.

"That's a pretty grave charge" said Shattuck.

"Yes, and that's a pretty important cat," Mrs. Leo retorted, "because it's my cat."

Shattuck promised to try to get in touch with the accused "catnapper."

* * * * *

Kingston, Ont., May 2—(CP)—What is believed to be a Canadian record was set this week by the cheese factory at Enterprise when it began operations for its 63rd consecutive season.

Built in 1871 by the late Thomas Clancy, it has been under the management of the same family since that time. The present manager, P. J. Murphy, is a son-in-law of the late Mr. Clancy.

* * * * *

Kingston, Ont., May 2—(CP)—For the first time in over half a century, beavers have made their appearance in the waters near the village of Enterprise about 25 miles northwest of Kingston. A trapper at Enterprise last week found a beaver caught in a trap set for muskrats.

The Department of Game and Fisheries in Toronto was notified and a request received that the hide be sent there.

* * * * *

New York, May 2—(AP)—Cesare Sabelli announced today an intention to take off tomorrow at 9 a.m. on a non-stop New York-to-Rome flight with Captain George R. Pond. The flight has been postponed from time to time since last August.

Sabelli said Dr. Kimball of the weather bureau had advised him weather conditions over the Atlantic were very good. He said he was maintaining constant communication with Dr. Kimball.

The two men plan to take off from Floyd Bennett field in a Belanca monoplane, the Leinardo Da Vinci.

Direct Relief Dangerous Says Hon. Wm. Finlayson at Madoc Convention

James F. Hill Unanimous Choice For Candidate in East Hastings

500 PRESENT

Executive of Rriding Formed Ex-Warden W. Whytock Named Head

Amid the most tumultuous applause ever afforded an appointed representative James F. Hill, M.P.P. for East Hastings, accepted the unanimous nomination of the Liberal-Conservatives of East Hastings at Madoc yesterday afternoon to carry the Conservative banner in that riding at the coming Provincial general election. Hand clapping and shouts from the five hundred and more delegates who represented every municipality of the riding at Madoc's largest and most fervid convention during the afternoon, greeted the acceptance of the nomination by Mr. Hill.

With Mr. Hill four other prominent names were submitted by the nominating committee, but all withdrew in favor of the popular candidate. John Kingston, Tweed; Dr. Harold Welsh, Roslin; ex-Warden R. M. Mitchell and Reeve E. C. Metcalfe of Deseronto, were placed before the convention.

(Continued on Page 5)

COLOMBO WINS RACE TODAY

Unbeaten Colt Odds on Favorite in Two Thousand Guineas

Newmarket, England, May 2. — Lord Glanely's unbeaten colt Colombo today won the 126th renewal of the classic two thousand guineas stakes. Colombo, hot favorite for the derby in which he will meet much the same band of high-class three-year-olds, started at probably the shortest odds in the history of the classic.

R. B. Strassburgher's French colt Easton raced into second place with the Aga Khan's Badruddin third in the field of twelve.

Colombo, trim son of Manna, a former derby winner, out of Lady Nairne, was ridden by Johnstone to a one-length margin at the finish over the French horse, who in turn finished a length and a half ahead of Badruddin.

The champion, backed strongly to win the turf's mythical 'triple crown' this season, started at record odds of 7 to 2 on. Easton was 20 to 1 against, and Badruddin 50 to 1 against. Colombo's backers, the great majority of the fans at turf headquarters, had to be satisfied with a return of $2.00 on each $7.00 outlay.

Records Ninth Win.

Colombo recorded his ninth win in as many starts, seven of them being as a juvenile last season when his earnings of $85,000 were surpassed on the English turf only by those of Hyperion, the derby and St. Leger winner.

Lord Glanely's colt, hailed as the best English racer since the great Isinglass of forty years ago, will be about an even-odds starter in the derby. The other race in the 'triple crown' is the autumn St. Leger. Only ten horses in 150 years have won these three races together, outside of the war years, when substitutes were run.

Because Colombo entirely dominated the field, there was special place betting in which Easton was quoted at 3 to 1 and Badruddin at 10 to 1.

The race, first run in 1909, was worth approximately $40,000. It was run over the guineas mile, compared to 1½ miles for the derby and 1¾ miles for the St. Leger.

Rear Boy Jew or Roman Catholic, Quebec Judge Will Give Decision

Montreal, May 2 (CP)—Whether a nine year old boy should be raised as a Jew or as a Roman Catholic is the problem faced by Judge J. A. Robillard of the Juvenile Court. The judge said today he would give his decision in two weeks.

The case came to court when the child's mother, Mrs. Minny Paul, a Jewess, complained the boy's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Donnelly, had induced him to leave a Hebrew boys' home and live with her.

The boy's father, James Donnelly, had died a year after the child was born, the court was told. In the meantime the boy had been baptized as a Roman Catholic, the father's religion. The mother went to New York and remarried. In 1931, the mother returned to Canada and sought to regain custody of the boy, then in charge of the paternal grandmother. A juvenile court judge had granted the mother custody and he had been received into the Jewish faith and had been placed in the Hebrew boys' home.

W. A. Delegates Reach City

Delegates arrived in the city late this afternoon for the forty-eighth annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the church of England in Canada, Ontario Diocese. Sessions begin in St. Thomas' Church tomorrow, with junior and girls' branches meeting this afternoon and tonight. Christ Church W.A. is in charge of arrangements and luncheons will be served in the Parish House of that church.

Diocesan officers of the W.A. are:

Honorary Presidents— Mrs. John Lyons, Kingston; Mrs. Lennox Mills, Montreal; Mrs. Buxton Smith, Kingston.

Honorary Vice-President — Miss A. Muckleston, Kingston.

President—Mrs. H. P. Lowe, Kingston.

1st Vice-President—Miss L. H. Kirkpatrick, Kingston.

2nd Vice-President—Mrs. J. H. H. Coleman, Kingston.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. W. H. Chalmers, Kingston.

Corresponding Secretary — Mrs. Francis King, Kingston.

Treasurer—Miss Winifred Burns, Kingston.

Dorcas Secretary-Treasurer—Miss Emily Ruttan, Kingston.

Living Message, Editor, Secretary-Treasurer — Mrs. W. P. Noonan, Brockville.

Girls' and Candidates' Secretary-Treasurer—Miss Edith Van Straubenzee, Kingston.

Secretary-Treasurer for Junior Work—Mrs. Grant Sparling, Brockville.

Educational Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. P. H. Huyck, Kingston.

Treasurer, Extra Cent-a-Day Fund—Mrs. Leech, Amherst Island.

Little Helpers' Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. H. E. Johnson, Delta.

JOE WRIGHT ON THE MEND

No Blood Transfusion Will be Given Sculler For a Day

Toronto, May 2—(CP)— Joe Wright Jr., noted Canadian sculler who has been confined to hospital with blood poisoning, will be given a rest today and no more blood transfusions will be administered immediately, Dr. T. A. Robinson, attending physician, stated.

"He seems in fairly good shape today and I don't think we will give him a transfusion" the doctor said. It might be necessary to give another transfusion tomorrow, however.

Wright was taken to hospital, when blood-poisoning in the hand caused internal hemmorrhages for several days his condition was serious. It has been improving slightly.

Transfer Office in Toronto For C. P. R.

Montreal, May 2—(CP)—The establishment of an office for the registration and transfer of ordinary capital stock at Toronto was decided on by shareholders of the Canadian Pacific Railway at their annual meeting today. In addition to Toronto the company has transfer offices at Montreal, New York and London.

C.P.R. DIRECTORS

Montreal, May 2.—Retiring directors, Sir Charles Gordon, Ross H. McMaster, Montreal; Reginald McKenna, London, Eng.; James A. Richardson, Winnipeg, and W. J. Blake Wilson, Vancouver, were re-elected at the annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway shareholders today.

2 CANDIDATES NAMED FOR ONE RIDING

North Essex Liberals Unable To Agree on The Candidate

DATE IS HELD

Premier Not to Announce Election Date at Rally

Toronto, May 2 (CP) — While party leaders continued their campaign for the coming Ontario general elections, the constituency of Essex North today found itself with two Liberal candidates, the result of a split in the executive of the North Essex Liberal Association.

Called by J. N. Bontront and H. G. Emerson, vice-presidents of the Association, a Liberal convention was held at Belle River last night and A. A. Marentette, Reeve of Sandwich West Township, was selected candidate. The other candidate is Dr. P. N. Gardner, who was declared by President Alfred Quenneville to be the official candidate.

Dr. Gardner was chosen at a convention in Tecumseh last June. President Quenneville in an official statement declared the Belle River convention and its candidate would not be recognized.

(Continued on page six)

NO STATEMENT FROM MEIGHEN

Expect He Will Bring Matter Before Senate Today

OTTAWA, May 2.—(CP)—With two more supporters on the opposition side assured the vote on second reading of the Marketing Bill in the House of Commons is due to take place today. It was expected last night but failed to materialize. Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, however, adjourned the debate and thus has the right to speak first today. As he is the sponsor of the Bill his utterance will bring the debate to an end.

Added to the solid ranks of the Conservatives and the Progressive Farmer-Laborities supporting the Bill will be Thomas Reid (Lib. New Westminster) and Henri Bourassa (Ind. Labelle). Both spoke last night and announced their intention of voting for the second reading and endorsing the principle of the Bill.

Like Hon. W. R. Motherwell, former Liberal Minister of Agriculture, who previously announced he would depart from the line marked out by Rt. Hon. McKenzie King, Liberal leader, and support the bill, both said there were features they did not like and that they would be constrained to oppose the measure later if these were not changed.

Tempers Flare

Tempers flared up in the House, when J. P. Pouliot (Lib. Temiscouata) spoke in Opposition to the Bill. He tangled with Sam Gobeil (Cons. Compton) and I. D. Macdougall (Cons. Inverness) and later the speaker ordered some of the uncomplementary utterances stricken from the record.

While the Lower House was debating the Marketing Bill the Senate turned again to the League of Nations and discussed Senator A. D. McRae's motion, that Canada should withdraw from the International Association. While Senator W. A. Griesbach of Edmonton, said he would support the Government in its policy of continuing its interest in the League he was really indifferent as to whether Canada withdrew or not.

The League's interests in Canada were championed by pacificists and that was as much as signing its death knell. It had begun as a society of conquerors seeking to maintain the status quo and it was idle to hope to maintain the status quo forever.

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Government leader in the Senate, did not make the statement it was rumoured he would make in connection with his resignation from the Ontario Hydro-Electric- Power Commission. It is possible he may make it today and carry out his rumored intention of asking the Senate to appoint a committee to inquire into allegations concerning his conduct in connection with the commission.

SENTENCED TO DEATH

Berlin May 2—(CP-Havas)—Eight Communists were sentenced to death today by the Hamburg emergency court after being convicted of acts of terrorism in 1932 and 1933. Thirty other Communists received sentences of up to 15 years imprisonment, and only one was acquitted. The Communists were members of the "Red Navy" in 1918.

A Second Christmas

Christmas has been developed down through the years as a great shopping event, a season of gift giving, of unselfishness and joyous gatherings.

Unhappiness has been banished, practically, at the Christmas season, and almost everybody tries to make some one else happy.

"Old Scrooges" at the Christmas season are very scarce now, smothered by a happy, wholesome public opinion.

There should be more Christmas seasons in the year.

This week in Belleville is as like the Christmas season as can possibly be—in the matter of increased shopping, a shopping spree, as it were, and no doubt there is considerable gift giving connected with it, as folks realize that this may be the last chance to buy goods at the low price levels forced by business conditions during the past few years.

Manufacturers have notified dealers that prices will be advanced on all new orders.

Farm produce is rising in price.

Workmen are getting larger wages and shorter hours, consequently prices of products must be raised.

It is the part of wisdom to buy now, this Belleville Better Week, when Belleville merchants are offering special inducements in all lines, when all things are favorable to money saving, even the weather—and don't forget to count your coupons and check them with the printed list of prize winners in this newspaper daily.

Thronged stores and happy faces indicate the tremendous interest this great shopping event has aroused.

Winning Numbers

Results of Wednesday's drawing of Tuesday's shopping coupons are as follows:

Grand Prise, E-28,224.

A-37055
B-45645
A-13492
E-12041
E-19020
A-30090
E-18304
D-49073
C-27992
E-16536
C-14318
B-9519
A-21549
E-42785
D-24388
E-45033
B-30424
E-20426
C-14313
E-13965
D-33411
B-48671
E-28014
E-22885
P-48067
P-48046
D-30687
D-14470
A-14692
B-10789
E-21788

BOOTH MOTIVE PERSONAL ONE

Biographer of Lincoln Disregards McGeer's "Loose Talk"

New York, May 2 (AP)—"Just loose talk" was the comment today of Ida M. Tarbell, biographer of Abraham Lincoln on the statement by a Canadian lawyer that John Wilkes Booth had assassinated the emancipator at the instance of "international bankers."

The lawyer, Gerald G. McGeer, made his startling assertion during his testimony before a parliamentary banking committee in the House of Commons at Ottawa.

Booth, he said, was employed by a group of bankers to remove Lincoln because of his monetary policies.

"McGeer's statement is not supported by any evidence that I have ever encountered," said Miss Tarbell. "I do not think there is any truth in it. It is just loose talk."

"Historians are generally agreed" she said, that Booth was not motivated by anyone in shooting Lincoln.

"He was entirely on his own," Miss Tarbell said. "He shot Lincoln because he regarded him as a tyrant—a destroyer of his beloved south."

FRENCH HUNT GERMAN SPIES

Paris, May 2—(AP)— Police announced today that a huge "German spy organization" had been uncovered with the arrest of an agent in Paris and that warrants had been issued for other members of the group.

Secret service agents were said to be searching for the spies, but even the name of the agent arrested here was not made public.

The organization was uncovered, authorities said, as the result of investigation of charges against a French army officer, Captain Froge, who was taken into custody in connection with the mysterious disappearance of plans for the defense of the city of Belfort.

Lonely Mother Artist at 81

Missing Her Son, She Turns to Recreation of Early Days

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., May 2 — (CP)—The work of Algoma's oldest artist today was drawing praise from critics and from contemporaryies. For Mrs. E. Robinson, who recently celebrated her 81st birthday, has returned to the recreation of her younger days and is preserving the beauties of Algoma landscape on canvas.

Born in Devonshire, England, Mrs. Robinson came to Canada with her parents when she was a young girl. They settled in Woodstock. Twelve years ago she came to Sault Ste. Marie, to live with her son, Edgar Robinson, a printer.

With the depression the son lost his job and went to Timmins to find another. Since his departure Mrs. Robinson found time heavy on her hands and she returned to the recreation she had abandoned years before. Now, despite an eye ailment, she is able to turn out some fine work. "I felt so lonely after my son left that I just had to do something to take up my time," she said. She is charming and bright despite her advanced age.

HAD LEG AMPUTATED

Sudbury, Ont., May 2—(CP)—Staggering in front of a street car at 11:30 last night while allegedly in an intoxicated condition, Eric Maki, 64, had his left leg so seriously injured it was amputated at St. Joseph's hospital by Dr. R. M. Torrington.

Prince George Not to Make Tour of Australia and New Zealand

London, May 2 (C.P. Cable — The Duke of Gloucester, who will visit Australia and New Zealand in place of Prince George, is completing arrangements for the tour at Tidworth, where he is stationed as an officer of the Royal Hussars.

The Duke will sail on August 31 aboard the cruiser Sussex. After visiting Australia he will go to New Zealand and thence return home January 21 aboard the Australia, cruiser of the Royal Australian Navy, travelling via the Panama Canal.

Meanwhile the Duke will combine his military duties with several public engagements. He will fly to Belfast on May 26 to receive addresses of the parliament of Northern Ireland. He will have luncheon with Viscount Craigavon, the Premier, and the Duke of Abercorn, the Governor, and attend an evening party at Government House.

TOWNSFOLK FLEE FLOODS TO HILLTOPS

Fort Vermillion Houses Ground to Pieces by Ice Cakes

5 HOUSES WRECKED

Thousands of Dollars Damage in Peace River Country

PEACE RIVER, Alta., May 2. — (CP)—Crashing ice swept down by flood waters on the mighty Peace River forced the entire population of the little northland town of Fort Vermillion to flee to the hills last Friday, April 27, according to word received here today.

An ice jam just above the little town, 250 miles north of here caused the flood. The populace of 443 persons evacuated the village to escape the inundation that flooded buildings and crashing ice, that levelled telegraph towers. Five homes were completely wrecked.

Damage to property and livestock from the great wall of water which descended on the sleeping community about 4 a.m., was estimated in thousands of dollars. An exact figure has not yet been determined.

Peace River Town is about 200 air miles northwest of Edmonton, on the Peace River.

The turbulent stream backed up behind the huge ice barrier until its weight finally crashed through. A great wall of water cascaded over the flats with a deafening roar, carrying large blocks of jagged ice along with it.

Residents who had not already moved from their homes on the Flats as the river rose, fled before the rapidly-advancing waters, leaving their houses to be ground to pieces by the massive ice cakes.

Many children were marooned in a mission on the south bank of the river. Men of the settlement attempted a rescue with teams and wagons, but the waters rose so rapidly, teams were useless and boats were used. The swirling waters swept into the Mission, flooding the ground floor, shortly after its occupants had been taken to safety.

FALL WHEAT IS HARD HIT

In Some Sections Ninety Per Cent Has Been Killed

Toronto, May 2. (CP)—In practically all sections of Ontario fall wheat has been damaged extensively by a severe winter, floods and frosts and in some cases 90 percent of the crops have been killed, the Provincial Department of Agriculture reported today.

Southern Ontario was the only section where winter crops weathered the frigid winter. The six counties in the eastern division reported wheat acreage would have to be patched or torn up, that spring conditions were backward and that the fall wheat situation was anything but promising.

In Durham County it was estimated 90 percent of the crops had been killed and in Peterborough and Prince Edward counties in Central Ontario similar conditions were prevalent.

Clover and alfalfa fields in Eastern Ontario were reported to have wintered well but little improvement was seen in the fall wheat fields. Strawberries and other berry crops looked promising while poultry was in good shape generally.

General feeling in Northern Ontario was that conditions were improved and farmers appeared more hopeful for the future. There was still a considerable quantity of snow in this district and it was not expected that seeding would commence for a fortnight.

Spokane, Wash., May 2—(CP)—Police figure that the 1,000 feet or so of hose stolen from various homes recently must have been put to good use. A 22-inch lawn mower has been stolen from the public museum.

Momentum Grows Daily in Sale Week

Although the winning numbers as the result of Wednesday morning's draw were prominently posted in the window of the Walker Company hardware store on Front Street at 10.30 o'clock this morning, up to 11.30 o'clock no holders of the winning stubs had presented them to Mr. William Doyle of Lewis Hardware for identification. A large number of prizes as the result of the drawings since the first day are still awaiting claimants.

The following numbers have yet to be claimed by holders of the corresponding stubs:

Saturday—B-2162; A-28742; B-17417; B-48101; D-49772; D-34092; B-33546; D-6752.

Monday —A-27265; C-6836; C-273309; B-14100; B-6156; B-29694; E-27727; B-6128; D-15751; A-13812; C-34000; E-12985; B-2750; D-31766; B-9068.

As a result of Wednesday's drawings of Tuesday shopping coupons, at least three out of town customers during Belleville's Better Week are richer. Identified by the names on the stubs Mr. J. Ward, Hamilton; Josie Shannon of Marmora, and Mrs. H. G. MacKay of Colborne Ontario, have only to present their numbered stubs and receive their prizes.

How great the area is that has been affected by the present Better Belleville Week is disclosed by a few stubs taken at random from the huge pile in Walker's window. Out of town purchasers who signed their names on Tuesday's shopping coupons include Mrs. A. J. Southwell, Locust Hill, Ontario; C. Kilpatrick, Madoc; J. S. Mattis, Bloomfield; Samuel Weese, Selby; O. W. Scott, Frankford; Mrs. H. G. McKay, Colborne, Ont.; Mrs. Hemphill, Deloro; E. J. Murphy, Steenburg; Mrs. F. Hiscott, Bonny Grey Boulevard, Toronto; Mrs. George Shoniker, Trenton.

Holders of the winning coupons are asked to present them to Mr. Will Doyle, Lewis Hardware, as soon as possible for identification. The task of checking those which are presented is made harder when holders are late in presenting them.

The window display of the Tip Top Tailors where the majority of the prizes are displayed will shift in kaleidoscope fashion on Wednesday afternoon, as glimmering new articles are placed in the window to replace the many others that have been claimed by the winners. Winners of the drawing of the last three days' shopping are asked by the manager to leave their prizes on display until the first of the week when they will be given.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, May 2—The weather has been cool in the western provinces with light showers in some districts while from Ontario eastward it has been mostly fair and warm.

Northern Ontario — Moderate southwest winds; fair and warm. Thursday, partly cloudy, probably followed by local thunderstorms.

Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence Valley—Fair and warm today and Thursday, moderate southwest winds.

Lake Superior—Fresh winds; unsettled with showers or thunderstorms.

Kenora and Rainy River—Mostly cloudy with scattered showers or thunderstorms.

Coming Events

DANCE IN ORANGE HALL, SHANNONVILLE, Friday, May 4, auspices Shannonville Baseball Club. Good orchestra. Refreshments. Admission 25c. m2-2t.

TEA AND HOME COOKING SALE Friday afternoon, May 11, at the home of Mrs. Pratt, 219 Ann St. Auspices Girl Guides. m2-1t

CARD PARTY ST. GEORGE'S, Station St., Thursday evening, 8.15. Good prizes. Refreshments. Admission 25c. m2-1t

DANCE IN ORANGE HALL AT Point Anne, May 4th, from 9 to 2. Cole's Komedy Kids Orchestra. Admission 25c. m2-2t

DANCE AT ST. JOHN'S MISSION, Herchimer Ave., Thursday, May 3. Refreshments. Troubador Orchestra. Admission 25c. m2-1t.

SAINT MICHAEL'S TENNIS CLUB opening dance in the Auditorium, Monday, May 7th. The Commodores orchestra. Refreshments. Dancing at nine. Admission 50c. couple. a28 m1 5 7.

DANCE AT SOUTH END CLUB rooms every Tuesday and Saturday evening. Blue Jackets Orchestra. Admission 25c. Euchre every Thursday. Admission 15c. m23-m.w.s.-tf

MOOSE EUCHRE AND DANCE — Wednesday, May 2nd. 8.15 sharp —regular prizes—four door prizes. Fur choker, three baskets groceries. Commodores. Admission 25 cents. a28 m2.

City and District News

CUSTOMS SHOW SHARP INCREASE

An increase of $6,966.00 over the corresponding month of a year ago in the collection of customs duties is noted from the local customs office for April. Accordingly the figures released the customs revenue in April last was $178,254 as compared with 239,780.94 for the month of April 1933. April is the first month of the fiscal year in the Canadian Customs Department.

KEYES SUPPLY CO. ALSO SPONSORED

The Keyes Supply Company as well as the Ontario Motors Company sponsored the coast-to-coast relay, which attended by about two hundred garagemen, mechanics and servicemen from all parts of Eastern Ontario, under the auspices of the Canadian Baybestos Company, arrived, as the Hotel Quinte on Monday evening. In Tuesday's paper the sponsorship by the Keyes Supply Company was inadvertently omitted mention.

Mr. E. LaBarr To See Kentucky Derby

Mr. Elmer G. LaBarr left this afternoon by motor for Louisville, Kentucky to attend the annual Kentucky Derby which is scheduled to-morrow (Thursday) of this week. This is Mr. LaBarr's first time to see the Derby run.

BLDG. PERMITS AMOUNT TO $2,050

Only minor alterations and repairs to property throughout the city were noted in construction figures reporting the month of April. A total of $2,050 in building permits were issued by the city engineer's office for the month. Comparative figures during the same month one year ago totalled $178,254 with $2,100.00, owing largely to the fact that no new building with the exception of minor repairs and alterations were carried on during that month.

Temporary Quarters In Council Chamber

Files and rooms of correspondence of the city engineer will at present be taken accounts of the various departments were moved to the temporary quarters in the lower office of the city hall this morning. Accompanied by the city engineer, city tax collector and moved bed and bedding by the council chambers where temporary quarters will be taken up for the time being. The work was moved swiftly and the start of the work of removing the lower offices.

THURLOW RESIDENT STAMPS OUT FIRE

Mr. Harry Carter of the sixth of Thurlow, believes he can qualify for a position as fire ranger at short notice. Early last evening he blanked from his car on Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Carter discovered he was on the residential bush fire in some dry, hay-

Pop-Pop Boats

The Latest Novelty

19c

See Window

McKeown's

DRUG STORE

Tip Top Tailors

Made Agency

Hughes and McDonald

Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing

ai-1c

Sherwin-Williams

Family Gloss Paint

90c Quart

OSTROM'S Drug Store

ml-1c

Why? Pay More

When you can have a car at your service with careful, courteous driving at a moment's notice.

DAY FARES 20c
NIGHT 25c

Special Low Rates for Country Trips

MOIRA TAXI SERVICE

BELLEVILLE, ONT.

MERCHANTS

Merchants, participating in Belleville Better Week, requiring additional coupons can get them at the store of J. A. McNabb Limited.

road. Stopping his car, after considerable work he extinguished the outbreak, but it reached into the shelter part of the bush. He ascertained at the conservation blackboard office. It is believed that a lighted cigarette stub had been tossed into the dry grass from some previous car.

CORRECTION IN LIST OF PRIZES

In the list of donors of special prizes for Wednesday, May 2nd. prizes are to be drawn for Thursday morning, that appeared in Saturday's issue of this paper, an error occurred in the first prize listed reading "1 Dozen Baskets" and 3 dozen roses — Dorothy Quick." It was to have been three dozen roses and flowers to the value of $3.00 — Dorothy Quick."

Trade Commissioner To Visit Kingston

W. A. Wilson, Animal Products Trade Commissioner of London, England, is at present in Canada and will visit Kingston Wednesday and other interested at the Dairy School in Kingston on May 15th. Mr. Wilson arrives Daylight Saving. Many of the makers of this cheese will be present to hear his first hand the progress of the cheese trade in the British Isles.

21ST BATTALION TO CELEBRATE EVENT

On Thursday evening 21st Battalion Club of Kingston is celebrating the 19th anniversary of the organization of that famous regiment for overseas and many of the local boys served with the battalion in arms in the anniversary. The 21st Battalion has a long and notable career in the Canadian Expeditionary Forces and no doubt many of the survivors of the Battalion will be present.

CARRYING PLACE ROAD CONTRACT

The road from Trenton to Carrying Place of twenty foot wide concrete will be built by Mr. T. Belanger of Smith's Falls, who has been awarded the contract. The distance is three and a half miles.

The total contracted price of yesterday by the Highways Department was 248.8 miles.

Among the grading and culvert contracts awarded were:

Campbellford to Hastings, Holdcroft Construction Co., Kingston, 10.6 miles; 8 miles Belleville-Trenton, Raymor Construction Co., Toronto, 10.9 miles; Hastings to C. V. Bills, Smith's Falls 5.6 miles.

RIDING QUALITIES OF CARS PROVED

A well known lady of this city is firmly convinced of the stability and super riding quality of the new Pontiac model cars, and the smoothness of the roads in this district and through the city.

Fumbling with the key of her car in the down town section of the city yesterday, she laid her large purse on the running board of the new machine until the car door could be unlocked. She got in and drove off, still with the purse on the running board. It was not until she had returned home late in the afternoon that the purse was missed. It was found, contents intact, still on the running board where it had been placed. A considerable amount of money was inside it.

START PLOWING OF PLOTS NEXT WEEK

Plowing of garden lots throughout the city which will be allotted this year to unemployed is expected to be started the week under the direction of Alderman William Harvey, chairman of labor.

Seventy-three names have so far been registered of applicants seeking the free lots. The majority of these it was pointed out at the office of the city engineer are those men who made a success of raising produce last summer and are eager to help themselves and their families once more by raising sufficient to feed them during the cold months.

APRIL BRIDES NUMBERED 18

Spring is here. Better times are on the horizon. The depression must be over. Any one who reads the marriage license bureau reported a very successful month during April, with nine licenses issued. A total of eighteen April brides measured "I do" during the month, according to the figures given out for the month.

STOP-STREET LAW ENFORCED

Activities on the part of the local police will be centred on motorists failing to observe the stop street signs throughout the city. You can inform all operators of motor vehicles that the infringement of this by-law must cease before serious injury or damage is reported." Chief Kidd informed the Ontario Intelligencer today. "There have been a few small accidents recently through the ignoring of this law, and this practice must cease before someone

Friday Afternoon

AND EVENING OF THIS WEEK

A SPECIAL STYLE SHOW OF THE FAMOUS

"KNIT-TO-FIT" MARINETTE

Suits & Dresses

In the New Pastels Terrific for Spring and Summer at

Wottens Limited

A special representative will be in charge and special orders taken on these dresses and Knitted Garments. Come in and see them.

is seriously injured," added the chief. All that's slop signs are clearly marked with large signs, that read "Stop Street", giving no cause for any motorist to fail in observing the same. In the future all infringing on this law will be summoned into court, according to police information today.

SNOW DRIFTS STILL SEEN IN NORTH

While residents of the front townships have turned on electric fans to combat the sudden midsummer heat wave, yokels are still encountering over deep snow in the bush of the north country. Ice locks the rivers, snow drifts still lie in the northern townships of Bangor, Wicklow and McClure, and lakes are frozen over, according to Reeve W. J. Davis. Even on the shelving sides of the country roads, part of the heavy snow drifts of last winter still remain.

LAWYERS TO ENJOY HALF HOLIDAY

Lawyers of the city as well as others will enjoy the privilege afforded by a regular weekly half holiday during the warm months, it was decided yesterday. At a meeting of the local Bar Association the proposed approval was given the suggestion to observe the regular weekly half holiday on Wednesday afternoon during the months of May, June, July, August and September.

DELORO WOMAN FINED IN COURT

Charged with having a mash suitable for the manufacture of illicit liquor, Mrs. John Cross, Deloro, was found guilty and fined $200.00 and costs in the county police court held before Magistrate Chevrier at Madoc yesterday. The fine was paid. The case followed a raid and search of the Cross home by the R.C.M.P. acting on information received. A large quantity of mash apparently recently mixed in a large barrel was destroyed by the authorities.

RED CROSS TO OPEN CAMPAIGN

Funds Required to Assist in Society's Undertaking

Organization has been completed for the annual campaign for funds sponsored by the Red Cross Society and beginning next Monday (May 7th) Citizens of Belleville will be called on by women of the community who have so generously offered to undertake the task of canvassing. The work of the Red Cross is particularly a hustler in Belleville. Each winter the sewing project which has its inception during the World War when the "Knitting Sox for Soldiers" slogan was everyone's tongue is continued. Now there are sox to be knit for destitute, not for dug babes. There are layettes to be sewn so that the infant arrival will have a trousseau to welcome it, there are mittens to be made for small hands. And to such an extent was the work carried on in Belleville last year that, sixteen hundred articles were made by local women under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Lister. Materials for such work costs money and so do the dozen other phases of Red Cross work. To continue the program the Red Cross Society must have the support of citizens.

The warm-hearted, generous response of the Red Cross in years by humanity cannot be computed in the cold coin of the realm, and yet this same coin may be transmuted into magical gifts. Placed in the hands of the organization, it becomes a power to restore a crippled child to health; to ease the pain of war victims languishing in hospitals; to minister to the neglected and lonely and needy; to lend a hand in aiding in great national disasters. In fact, there is no compass of its power.

It hatils health in the mine or ronto. It is to turn out to preach its enlightening gospel to the world. The Junior Red Cross is an international bond of fellowship and is one of the most dramatic signs of good in the world today. "Service" its motto, is well exemplified each day in all parts of the civilized world. Red Cross work transcends statistics. The values of broken bodies and minds of suffering soldiers cannot be computed in monetary value. But nothing can help like human sympathy. It is a great and definite power. The settler is nerved by the knowledge that outpost hospitals may be reached in hours of pain or emergency. The Red Cross Society with its peacetime programme has become a part of civic, national and international life. Stanley Baldwin declared, in speaking of the work of the Red Cross, that: "No toil will be too great, no strain too severe no patience too protracted for the challenge of the task that lies before us."

UTILITY RATE CUT

New York, May 2—A rate cutting move against seven utility companies including the New York Telephone Company, was under way today as a direct result of utility legislation passed by the New York State Legislature in the recent session.

BELLEVILLE BETTER WEEK SPECIALS

SQUARE HOT GALVANIZED

Wash Tubs

26½ ins. by 11½ ins. deep

98c ea.

BROOMS

Good quality corn, 5 string, tacked. Regular 40c value

34c ea.

WE GIVE COUPONS

SMITH HARDWARE

PLUMBERS & TINSMITHS

Come to The

Belleville Nurseries

For

ROSES

Shrubs
Perennials
Evergreens
Fruit Trees etc.

Home Grown Stock, Guaranteed Healthy and True to Name.

We are Co-operating in BELLEVILLE BETTER WEEK

You will get Prize Coupons with all Cash Purchases at

The Belleville Nurseries

Phone 218 179 Dundas St. E.

a26, m3t.

First Edition "Life Of Our Lord" by Charles Dickens on sale May 15, Price $2.50.

JOY NICHOLS QUINTE BOOK SHOP

Order now as quantity is limited.

FACTS ABOUT BETTER VISION

By H. E. EDWARDS
EYESIGHT SPECIALIST
235 Front St. Belleville

Consider This —

Of any ten persons who are NOT wearing glasses how many should be? Authorities say at least five. Those folks may "get along" without glasses, but they would do so much better WITH them. Nothing at all strange in the fact or possibility that YOU may be one of the five. Our service with by yes.

(Continued Next Week)

UNIDENTIFIED MAN KILLED

Believed David Buder Once Was Employed Near Marysville

Believed to be David Buder, late of Marysville, an unidentified man was killed in the east-end railway yards at Toronto early today. The Toronto authorities have since communicated with Belleville police regarding information as to the possibility of the dead man being David Buder. A letter addressed to that person was found in the clothes of the deceased.

Chief Kidd was requested to ascertain if any relatives of such a person were residing near Belleville. The letter carried Buder's name but was sent in care of Charles Duran, Marysville, where it is believed Buder had previously been employed as a farm hand.

The dead man's description was given out by the Toronto authorities as being: Age, 25 to 35 years; height, 5 ft. 10 or 11 inches; clean shaven; dark hair; had on brown overtrousers and a brown and blue sweater over which had been drawn a pair of bluish overalls. He also wore a grey peaked cap and a wrist watch.

The city and Provincial police are endeavouring to locate relatives of Buder.

FAST TRIP BY STAGE COACH

Journey From Toronto to Montreal in Less Than 36 Hours

At a meeting of the Belleville Centennial and United Empire Loyalist Celebration Committee on Tuesday evening, Magistrate Millen gave an account of William Weller's famous stage coach ride.

In the days before the railways and in this country, travel was largely by stage coach. The journey was made with numerous swamps and mud holes to navigate, streams to ford and steep hills to climb. The ordinary time for a trip from Toronto to Montreal, at any season of the year, took from five to six days.

William Weller, who resided in the Bay of Quinte District became one of the best known, if not the greatest, stage proprietors and had the reputation of having the best driver in the Province. He knew every inch of the roads from Detroit to Montreal.

In 1840 Lord Sydenham (Poulett Thomson), Governor General of Canada, in January of that year was appointed to arrive and to be hanged in Montreal. It had been decided by the Governing Body. There was no telephone, telegraph or radio in those days, the most rapid means of travel was by stage coach and Sydenham had thirty-six hours in which to leave Toronto for Montreal to be in time to stop the hanging. He approached William Weller to ascertain if he could possibly make the trip. Weller undertook to make the trip within the thirty-six hours and Sydenham left Toronto by stage. Lord Sydenham was the only passenger. He left Government House at Toronto, that Weller could not make the trip in time to save the life of the prisoner. Excitement ran high on the subject with the result that Weller offered to bet $1000 that he could make the trip within the thirty-six hours. The bet was accepted and Weller made the start.

Relays of horses were used from time to time along the route.

William Weller performed the remarkable feat of handling his passenger in Montreal twenty minutes less than the thirty-six hours. The necessary documents were signed by Lord Sydenham and the man's life was saved. Lord Sydenham made a handsome financial return on that occasion of $100. No one but Weller could have done this. In his privative business he had stables of horses at short intervals along the route and could readily make the necessary changes to keep horses fresh.

The Weller family were well known in the Province of Ontario. William Weller's sons having become a County Judge and another son Local Master of Titles.

In the pageant during the Centennial, William Weller and Lord Sydenham will be portrayed as the men enter according to their arrival at Belleville, where they alighted when horses were changed.

Tennis Club Plans Season

St. Michael's Tennis Club met last evening in the academy when plans were made for the coming season. Work on the courts will commence at once if immediately and it is hoped that playing will begin soon.

It was announced that the club membership is limited, applicants being advised to register early with the membership committee of which Miss Audrey Wilkins and Jim Lafferty are conveners. The lists will be closed when the court capacity is reached.

A club tournament is planned for the official opening day.

Last season's inter-club tournaments aroused much interest and it is hoped that these events may be started earlier in the summer.

Gananoque - Clayton FERRY

Announces the Opening of Navigation

Saturday May 5

Following Schedule in effect until June 15

Leave Gananoque:
7.00 a.m. 10.00 a.m. 1.00 p.m. 4.00 p.m.

Leave Clayton:
8.30 a.m. 11.30 a.m. 2.30 p.m. 5.30 p.m.

ALL CARS—$2.50 PASSENGERS—50c

THOUSAND ISLAND NAVIGATION CO. LTD.
Gananoque, Ont.

FERRY HEADS MAKE TOUR

Officials of Thousand Island Co. Look For Big Tourist Season

Mr. Ross W. Carnegie, Vice-President, Mr. Roy Carnegie, Secretary Treasurer, and Louis Phelps, Clayton, N.Y., Agent, of the Thousand Island Navigation Company, which company operates the large steel double ferries (Steel Steamer Champion, thirty-two automobiles; Steel Steamer Frontenac, twenty-four automobiles) plying between Gananoque, Ontario and Clayton, N.Y., left Gananoque, Ontario, on April 30th, on the annual inspective trip of the Provinces of Ontario and States of New York and Michigan.

The Spring schedule starts on May 5th, and the company look for increased travel, since they have had more inquiries this year than in any previous year in the history of the company.

The motor trip couples over two weeks, and while the chief mission is to advertise the excellent ferry service between Gananoque, Ontario and Clayton, N.Y., a large amount of advertising respecting the two towns in question is distributed at each and every stop. The publicity department of both towns are deeply appreciative of the valued service, the representatives of the Navigation Company will render this year and have rendered during the preceding years.

Not only is the ferry route a most delightful cruise through the far famed Thousand Islands, but also affords the tourist an opportunity to visit two of the most popular summer resorts of two countries; Gananoque, Ontario on the Canadian side and Clayton, N.Y., on the American side.

The arrival and sailing and full schedule of the ferries appears elsewhere in this paper.

Spratt's Bird Supplies

Purina Dog Biscuits

Garden Seeds and Fertilizers

MacKenzie & Co.

26 Market Sq.

PHONE 744

REBUILD ARMOURIES PLAN

Hamilton, Ont., May 2 (CP)—G. D. Wilson, Conservative member in the House of Commons for Wentworth, today was on record that he had appealed to the Dominion authorities to proceed as soon as possible with rebuilding of the Dundas Armouries, partially destroyed by fire yesterday. He thought the government would include the work in its relief program.

OPERETTA COMPOSER DIES

London, May 2.—Philip Braham, composer of numerous musical comedies and operettas, died suddenly today in his office. His death was attributed to heart failure.

COME AND SEE THE BIGGEST OF FOOTBALL PICTURES

SATURDAY'S MILLIONS

A UNIVERSAL PICTURE

With ROBERT YOUNG, LEILA HYAMS, Mack Brown, Andy Devine, Lucille Lund, Mary Carlisle, Grant Mitchell. Story by Lucian Cary. Produced by Carl Laemmle, Jr.

DOUBLE BILL

With Luring Eyes . . . Luscious Lips . . . She held the fate of two nations in her hands!

. . . THEN . . . She faced Death to save the enemy she loved!

Follow the Amazing Exploits of Secret Agent 24"

Last Times Today Edw. G. Robinson in 'Dark Hazard!'

CAPITOL THURSDAY FRIDAY SATURDAY

B. B. W. COUPONS MATINEE AND EVENING SHOWS.

Clark GABLE MYRNA LOY

How can he choose among these women . . . to his fancy?

A NURSE who worshipped him!

A GIRL WITH MILLIONS who tempted him from his career!

Clark Gable as the young doctor in a role more romantic than "It Happened One Night"

MEN IN WHITE

★★★★ The Pulitzer Prize Story

Jean Hersholt — Elizabeth Allan — Otto Kruger

STARTING TOMORROW

BELLE Always a SMART SHOW

Feat. at 2.19 — 7.42 — 9.43

LAST TIMES TONIGHT

"THE MEANEST GAL IN TOWN" | "THIS SIDE OF HEAVEN"

LAST COM. SHOW 8.30

BELLEVILLE BETTER WEEK

Get Your Coupons at the Stores Showing The B. B. W. BANNERS

Coupons Also Given on All Accounts Paid

Come! Shop at the Stores Displaying The B. B. W. BANNERS

Coupons on Cash Sales and Money Paid On Account

ALL THIS WEEK

COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES DURING THIS GREAT BELLEVILLE BETTER WEEK YOU WILL RECEIVE NUMBERED COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES MADE IN THE STORES DISPLAYING THE B.B.W. BANNERS—RETAIN ALL COUPONS YOU RECEIVE AND YOU WILL BE ELIGIBLE TO WIN ONE OF THE WONDERFUL PRIZES LISTED BELOW, ALSO 30 ADDITIONAL PRIZES EACH DAY.

SATURDAY
APRIL 28th.
GRAND PRIZE
WON BY NO. A 28254

150 PCE. COMMUNITY SILVER AND CHINA SET
Approximate Value 95.00
ABSOLUTELY FREE and 30 other valuable prizes

MONDAY
APRIL 30th.
GRAND PRIZE
WON BY NO. D 29141

Beatty 149.50 Washing Machine
Instead of the $89.90 Washer originally offered.
(Courtesy Beatty Bros.)
30 Other Valuable Prizes—Absolutely Free

TUESDAY
MAY 1st.
GRAND PRIZE
WON BY NO. E 28224

3 Tons of SCOTCH COAL
Delivered to Your Home And 30 Other Valuable Prizes
Absolutely Free!

WEDNESDAY
MAY 2nd.
GRAND PRIZE

Ladies' Dress and Coat
value 65.00
Or if gentleman wins, a topcoat and suit of same value. And 30 Additional Prizes.

OVER $1000.00 IN PRIZES GIVEN FREE IN 7 DAYS

THURSDAY
MAY 3rd.
GRAND PRIZE

THE MYSTERY RADIO

'ACE BAILEY" MODEL
Stewart-Warner RADIO
value 149.50
And 30 Other Prizes
ABSOLUTELY FREE

FRIDAY
MAY 4th.
GRAND PRIZE

99.50 Coleman Stove
And 30 Other Prizes
Absolutely Free!

SATURDAY
MAY 5th.
GRAND PRIZE
4 Piece Walnut Bedroom Suite

And 30 Other Valuable Prizes
ABSOLUTELY FREE

THIRTY MINOR PRIZES EVERY DAY

A 7-Day Festival of Value Giving Never Before Equalled or Attempted by Belleville Retail Merchants

Prizes will be Drawn every Morning at 10a.m.
By Mayor Tice in Window of Walker Hardware Store

KINDLY NOTE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION

All drawings will be made publicly in the windows of the Walker Hardware Co., and in every instance the drawings will be made by Mayor Tice.

The numbers of the winning tickets will be posted in the windows of the same store and will also appear in the Ontario Intelligencer.

The winners will receive their prizes on presentation of the winning coupons to William Doyle, Secretary, at the John Lewis Co.

COUPONS GIVEN WITH ALL MONEYS PAID ON ACCOUNTS

A Full List of Those Participating in This Sale Appears Elsewhere in This Paper—Look for It!

Over 100 Belleville Stores Banded Together in this Great Money Saving Event
Watch for the Coupon Stores—Get Your Coupons with Every Purchase-and Share in the Valuable Prize Awards

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

W. H. MORTON, Publisher.

GLAD TAXPAYERS

In a recent radio broadcast on government revenue and the income tax, C. Fraser Elliott, Commissioner of Income Tax pointed out to his hearers which might seem almost news to them but which ought to be one of the first things learned in life—that taxes are a duty—one way of serving one's community or one's native land. Indeed without them there could be no organized society as we know it, no progress, no safety, no security.

For instance, what does a citizen of Belleville get for his tax receipt, rail how he will as some do against the taxes and the city fathers who spend money? He gets protection of police, and of firemen, he gets improvements, which he could not possibly get without some form of co-operative effort such as that in running a city or here a man or a woman pays in taxes instead of labor. There are a thousand other things he secures by being a taxpayer and best of all, a community. Mr. Elliott points out that taxes ought to be paid with alacrity and without grumbling for the taxes give one things one could not buy. Only co-operation makes such developments as a community possible.

Nothing is to be said about a man demanding that the equivalent in taxes be given, that a community spend money wisely and well. Every taxpayer and tenant who is directly a taxpayer has a right to pick his representatives to spend the taxes and to jog the representative's sense of business if necessary.

Perhaps some fail to realize that in having a council which does not receive pay, the city is getting the benefit of citizens' labor for nothing. One may object, "O, well, think of the honor!" but the objector should also think of the abuse and misconstruction of his acts a representative is often subjected to, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred unfairly.

Taxes are not made to be grumbled at, for it is the people indirectly who make the taxes, which mean service. The question of extravagance and rash spending is of course another matter.

THOUGHTS ON FILMS

Whose film do you see? Why do you pick know the name of the author? Is individuality alone in the actor and the director and the movie technician? That thought was brought out by a brief editorial comment in the Woodstock Sentinel Review recently that radio announcers give the names of composers of musical competitions while in the motion pictures the names of the composer and author are rarely known or recognized.

People pick their stories largely by their favorite authors. Who is your favorite film scenario writer? Does it mean that individuality is lost in the training or that the author, the technician and the actor are all in all? The day may come when a movie will be known by its author's name. Of course the names of those who write scenarios are given before the play begins, but no one knows them. Why?

o

Talking of films—why it is Belleville gets so much better fare than might be expected? There is no doubt that this city is very fortunate in having films of a higher class than the ordinary. One may truthfully say that the movie fare of Belleville is far above the average radio entertainment outside of the purely classical music and art. This would seem to indicate that the people like good films as good art just as well as the expert does, because they pay to go to good pictures.

o o o

Also talking of moving pictures it is to be noted that there are many fine rural pictures seen today. Exteriors are not now always of great streets in huge cities, or the interiors the homes of millionaires, but often these are the streets of smaller towns and villages and acres of the country and the rugged and sterling interiors of the homes of the people. This is important because it shows how from the early sensationalism which featured the first films the art has come more and more to represent life. Its field is still widening.

Perhaps the moving picture is no more to blame for the stress on the big city, the watering-place and the resort than the average novel, but the movie has a vast field in which to widen its life scope. It may be that the demand for rural and small town and city life in pictures is not as great as it will be, and it may be that the vast number of films receive their greatest support in the cities accustomed to the filming of cities, yet it does appear that to represent the whole field of life should be and will be the part of the film. One has only to look at the advance made in the pictures by the filming of natural life, the life of insects which give the people an insight which they could not otherwise secure into the story of scientific investigation, to realize how the film's interest is extending.

Every art cannot but mark progress. Probably the actor is not so fitted for rural parts as he or she is for the parts in the city scene but the generation will come who will be actors capable of portraying every phase of life with more or less fidelity to nature.

The movie is not a mere bit of entertainment, it shows life and it must be careful to give an impartial view of life.

SIDELIGHTS

GRAVE and GAY

(Supervised by The Longshoreman)

TO MY FRIEND

If I have failed you greatly,
I beg of you, forget
Each poor and faulty phase of me;
But treasure the rest of me yet!

Because, had that perfection
I ever longed to win
Been mine, I should never have vexed you with
One moment of lack or of sin.

I should never have caused you sorrow
Or any brief pang of pain,
For I longed to clasp your hand in mine
And to lead you to joy's domain.

So I would have you remember
Not all I have failed to be;
But only the brighter, better part,
The bloom and the promise of me!

—Aline Michaelis.

x x x x

WHEN EVERYTHING GOES WRONG, and all your plans are twisted by wicked and perverse people, who are always right, in their own opinion, just get a wad of gum and chew on the philosophy that things are never so bad that they cannot be worse and that every cloud has a silver lining, and it's always darkest before the dawn, and if the world weren't full of all kinds of people there would be no variety, and variety being the spice of life this life would have no spice, and consequently no reason for living—and all that kind of thing, if you get what we mean, even if we don't know exactly just what we do mean.

x x x x

FIRST SUNNY DAY brought out the members of the curb debating club, with headquarters corner of Bridge and Front Streets, and the first important subject under discussion was whether rubbing alcohol was superior to the wine and whisky sold by the government. One loquacious old timer asserted that the rubbing alcohol makers were turning out a high class article to suit the large clientele now partial to that particular beverage, and he liked it better than the government shop stuff. Of course, said he, like olives and caviar you have to cultivate a taste for alky rub, canned heat, etc.

x x x x

TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS GRANT to the school milk fund administered by the school nurse, Miss Ross, was voted by the Rotary Club Monday. It may not be generally known that it costs thirty-five dollars a week for milk for the schools, and many under-nourished children have been greatly benefitted. Building up better bodies goes hand in hand with imparting" education—better bodies, better citizens and better communities—hence a better nation. One generous citizen gave two hundred dollars to the school milk fund, but it necessarily takes a lot of money to keep it going, and it is well worth while. The Board of Education has supplemented private subscriptions from time to time, but this is an excellent opportunity for citizens to get in their good deed of the week, or the month, or the year, as the case may be.

x x x x

OF COURSE INCOME TAX payments had to come Belleville Better Week.

x x x x

BELLEVILLE BETTER WEEK is growing in interest as the days go by, and the demand for prize coupons increases. Belleville merchants are giving generous values and this coupled with the fact that the opportunity to pay for substantial increases impresses the thrifty shopper with the desirability of buying heavily now when the buying is good. Manufacturers in all lines are sending out notices of price increases and this is a sure indication of the way the wind is blowing.

x x x x

WHAT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELING it must be to win an electric washer valued at $150! But what a grander feeling to win that bedroom suite. Some young couple might win that and set up housekeeping in a bungalow built for two.

x x x x

Gilbert Stuart, the celebrated portrait painter, once met a lady in the street in Boston who saluted him with:

"Ah, Mr. Stuart, I have just seen your miniature and kissed it because it was so much like you."

"And did it kiss you in return?"

"Why, no."

"Then," said Stuart, "it was not like me."

SEAL SEEN AT SALMON POINT

Fishermen Frustrated in Capturing The Animal

In its second appearance of the present season, Lake Ontario's little seal, that has been seen by residents of Prince Edward County during the past two or three years at intervals, bobbed up in the water at Salmon Point, Hallowell Township, in Prince Edward County, on Thursday of last week, and playfully sported in the water just a short distance away from a fishing boat containing Ken Hyatt and Durwood Huff, fishermen of the county. Taking up the chase in an attempt at capturing the creature alive the fishermen pursued it, but were unable to proceed further, when the seal escaped into shallow water by pulling over a sand bar just off the point. Last winter the seal was observed near Picton, fishing near the Big Gloe, while two years ago four Bandaka residents were startled when its broke water just a few yards from shore at that point.

SAMUEL GOOD 90 YEARS OLD

Pays Belleville Visit by Motorbus on Birthday

Mr. Samuel Good a well known and highly respected resident of Canifton, celebrated his ninetieth birthday today and his many friends throughout the district where he has lived on his farm for many years, will be pleased to offer congratulations to him upon attaining this great milestone. Mr. Good may be old in years, but not in spirit as he is still active and interested in affairs generally. Tuesday he made the journey to Belleville on a used motor bus and spent the day visiting the stores and generally enjoying himself greatly and returned home on the bus late in the afternoon. That he may continue to enjoy good health and contentment and pleasure in life for many time to come is the wish of his numerous friends and acquaintances.

"Y" BOYS PROVE GREAT SALESMEN

Judging from the way the boys are selling the tickets there should be a full house for "Dan Rice" at the Y.M.C.A. this coming Friday. Quite a number of boys are busy trying to win one of the three prizes being offered for the best salesmen and how these boys are hustling. The prizes consist of a steel casting rod for first, an electric torch lamp for second, and a scout hunting knife with sheath for third. These prizes have proved quite an incentive to the "high pressure boys" and in addition there are many of the boys who are offering to sell a few just to help out.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

MAY 2, 1914

The muster parade of the 15th Regiment last night was the best of the season, upwards of 350 men were in attendance.

Mr. George Leighton of Dayton, Ohio, is home on a visit.

Mr. W. P. Hudson, Campbellford, formerly of the local Y.M.C.A., was in the city.

The Downey Co. dock is being rebuilt. It will be a great improvement to the harbor.

The Wharf Street Debating Club will hold its annual meeting for the election of officers next Tuesday evening in the old rooms at the foot of Wharf St.

The extremely low water in the rivers and lakes also noted is causing lumbermen grave anxiety. The water supply is said to be lower than it has been for sixteen years.

30 YEARS AGO

MAY 2, 1904

Police Officer Cook has resumed his duties after a long and severe illness.

Mr. Harry Brown has accepted a position on the steamer Alexandria and commenced his duties this morning.

Mr. Chas. Good of Toronto, was in town Sunday.

The steamers Varuna and Ella Rose have started on their regular trips.

Some of those fellows who are grappling in the river might better have a day's work. Some time soon they are flourishing their hooks around they may catch the Fisheries Inspector.

There is a large amount of wild picturesque debris being back yards at present and the hills of ashes would make volumes for the phenomenal consumption of coal last winter. Clean up, good people, or the sanitary inspector will be after you on May 15th.

At 2 p.m. today the thermometer registered 80 degrees. Lovely weather—a shame to remain indoors.

40 YEARS AGO

MAY 2, 1894

A number of ball-fish are keeping the suckers company in their ups up the river.

Friday will be arbor day. It would be a good idea for the harbor commissioners to observe the day by planting some trees on the island.

White fish fry to the number of 500,000 were recently deposited in the bay.

The Anglo American hotel office is being enlarged and refitted.

We are informed that an experienced and desirable hotel man has made an offer to lease Hotel Quinte provided the owners furnish it. This, it is expected, will be done.

Mr. Frank Walker to Rawdon, ex-Warden of the county, was in town today.

50 YEARS AGO

MAY 2, 1884

The bicycle track is receiving attention and the grounds are being enclosed by a high board fence.

A terrific gale prevailed today, the waters of the bay rose in huge waves and Rathbun's dock flooded. A portion of the cribwork of the island was swept away and carried over against the ferry. The ferry, Mary Ethel, was unable to make her trips owing to the wind. Bill boards were blown down and hats went flying about streets. Terry Madoc stage which is a heavy wagon was standing in front of the Dominion Hotel and the wind carried it across the street to the curb of the sidewalk at Gibson's butcher shop.

We note with pleasure that amongst those who passed their primary examination before the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, was Mr. W. V. Lynch, son of Mr. P. P. Lynch of this city. We congratulate Mr. Lynch on his success.

Kingston, Ont., May 2.—(CP)—Queens University will this year set a record, it is expected in the number of graduates in Arts, Science and Medicine, though it was impossible today to state the definite number.

SEEDING IN WEST

REGINA, May 2.—(CP)—Seeding is now under way in practically all sections according to reports received by the Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture.

Owner Operated INDEPENDENT DRUGGISTS' ALLIANCE Personal Service

I.D.A. MAY 3 - 4 5

Thur. Fri. Sat.

DRUG STORES DRUG STORES

We Reserve the Right to Limit Quantities

Blood Purifier, reg. 1.00, I.D.A. 89c

Mus-Kee-Kee Herb Tonic 1.00

Listerine Tooth Paste 25c

Jergen's Almond Lotion 23c 43c

Bayer Aspirin Tablets 22c 39c 98c

Ayerst Cod Liver Oil .. 50c 89c 1.19

Mineral Oil, I.D.A., 16 ozs. .. 59c

McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tabs. 55c 89c

Boschalax Laxative Pastilles .. 15c 35c

Sal Hepatica, 3 sizes 29c 57c 1.09

Carter's Little Liver Pills .. 22c 69c

Zed Salts, Condensed 55c
Freesone Corn Liquid 25c
Frutatives, 50c size 37c
Beecham's Pills 22c 46c
Sit-So-Dol 55c 1.19
Mimi Tablets ..... 100 for 49c
Sloan's Liniment 39c 57c
Radia Stat, 1 and 2 lb. Bx. 55c 1.20
Petrolagar 89c 1.13
Cre-O-Tone Tonic, reg. 1.25 ..... 89c
Anacin Tablets 12c 69c
Phillips' Magnesia 25c 39c

Kidney Pills I.D.A. 50c size 29c

Moth Balls and Flakes Each 9c lb.

Moth-Killer Crystals 1 lb. Can 39c

Mistol Rub, for muscular pains . 50c
Gillette Blue Blades 5's and 10's, 25c 50c
British Consols Cigarettes .. 10c 25c
R. & Dun Cigars, Babies, Panetelas, etc. 5c 10c
Wrigley's Gum and Aromints .. 4 for 15c
Ovaltine, Food Beverage 45c 67c 1.08
Vip, Health Food 10 oz., 20 oz. 59c 98c
Moth-Tox, kills moths, eggs and larvae. 75c

Lavender Shaving Cream 25c
J. R. Williams' Luxury Cream 29c
N'Amel Tooth Paste 25c
Ipana Tooth Paste 39c
Vaseline Hair Tonic 39c
Hind's Honey and Almond Cream 43c
Rosarie Powder Puff 49c
Cuticura Cr'ly Face Powder 25c
Mum Deodorant 23c 43c
Lysol, 3 sizes 23c 43c 1.12
Modess, J. & J. 23c
..... 2 boxes 47c

Woodbury's Soap 10c 3 Cakes 25c

Pond's Creams Cold and Vanishing 39c

NATIONAL BABY WEEK April 30 to May 5

CASTORIA Fletcher's, Reg. 50c size 24c

ROBINSON'S Barley, Large 34c

STEEDMAN'S Teething Powders 19c

ZAM-BUK Ointment 50c tin 31c

VINOLIA Castile Soap 10 cakes for 25c

MILK MAGNESIA I.D.A. 16 oz. 35c

J. & J. Baby Soap 20c cake

Baby's Own Tablets 22c

Black Band Nipples Reg. 15c 3 for 19c

Baby Pants Reg. 25c value 19c

Pyrex Nurser Bottles 29c 3 for 85c

Pure Olive Oil 3 sizes 15c 25c 45c

Nursing Bottles Reg. 19c 3 for 19c

Meed's Cereal 1 lb. 25c 4 lb. 80c

I.D.A. Baby Powder 25c

I.D.A. Camphorated Oil 3 oz. bottle 25c

Absorbent Cotton 1 lb. roll 29c

Kruschen Salts 69c

Belleville Better Week PRIZE COUPONS

With Every 25c Purchase Also with Money Paid On Account

DOYLE'S Drug Store Phone 326

DOLAN'S Drug Store Phone 138

GEEN'S Drug Store Phone 131

LATTIMER'S Drug Store Phone 67

SCHRYVER'S Drug Store Phone 49

OSTROM'S Drug Store Phone 105

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

—Copyright, 1934, by General Press Association, Kingston, Ont.

By R. J. Scott

DIRECT RELIEF DANGEROUS

(Continued From Page 1)

Newly elected president of the company is Lieut.-Col. Hon. Wilfrid Conservative Association, ex-Warden Walker Wyllie, Maidoc, Madoc, elected as chairman for the ensuing year this afternoon. Appointed on the committees with him were Hon. Wilfrid Bridgeman, John Kingston; Rod. Vice-President, Geo. Orlp, Bovey of Thurlow; Secretary-Treasurer, Fred Meadowcroft, Tweed, W. J. Mott, Madoc, and Arnold Thompson, Mrs. W. J. Morton, Plainfield, and Miss Rosamond Burley, Rodk. On the platform also were the Hon. Wm. Finlayson, K.C., Minister of Lands and Forests; Mr. W. H. Tummey, M.P., for South Hastings in the House of Commons; A. E. Mahoney, M.P., for Hastings-Peterboro, and the newly elected executive officials. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Finlayson, Mrs. Ture, the Hon. Robert Cooke, chairman of the Ontario Hydro Power Commission, was unable to be present.

Proud of Riding

Visibly affected by the gushy and almost boisterous demonstration given him on his arrival, the minister stepped on to the platform to be welcomed by the delegates to his few words of thanks, and the many assured attention.

"It is the proudest moment of my life," he said simply as he faced the throng which packed the large hall.

"For eleven years I have been privileged to represent you and I still have tried to carry on my job at all times. Now, after the election of the new riding, we are a closer constituency, and there is not a definite purpose. It is for a real government. Reports from the north are just as loyal as those from the south, and I can only hope that later I will be able to have earned some of this support and confidence which you have given me here today."

Mr. Hill paid tribute to the pioneering and activity evidenced at all times by the late Hon. Beniah Carnegie, chairman of the Hydro Electric Power Commission.

"In following Mr. Cooke, I feel satisfied that it will be a hard job to keep up the high standard set by him in caring for his own riding. He was elected to the old riding of North Hastings. He merited the confidence and support which was given him.

Briefly outlining the present situation confronting the government in respect to the liquor question, Mr. Hill declared that the efforts of the opposition to make an issue of such is natural and inevitable. "Perhaps has only kept one step ahead of public opinion. Only in time, neither can any government hope to survive. . . as representatives are elected to do your bidding. It is our job to anticipate your desires as you know them."

Opposition Disorganized

The opposition was referred to by Mr. Hill as being a disorganized group which only functioned either during the past two years was to embarrass the government unnecessarily seeking lost issues, which were dug up and twisted to suit their own ends. "They meet in back rooms and elsewhere to hatch out new plots, which are pushed at the people. They should not be honored with the name of Liberals. . . have too much respect for Liberalism to give the greater part of the opposition that title."

"It is unfortunate that parties of the country that the greatest number of earnest men in the country, the opposition are gained, said Mr. Hill, and that any opposition did not wish to get into power, but are readily vacuities them following a leader who would lead them in the right direction. . . Even now there is actual hatred existing between the two opposite party. What will it be like if they get back into power?"

Mr. Hill concluded his address with an appeal for common sense in the matter of voting at the next election. "Think well," he urged, "before you put an end to your ballot."

As chief speaker of the afternoon the Hon. Wm. Finlayson, Minister of Lands and Forests, was also given a rousing ovation by the gathering.

"I am glad to be here," announced the speaker without preamble, following the introduction by Chairman Walker Wyllie. "I wanted to come to Madoc, and for two reasons. One is that our own deputy is following in the steps of his father in the same position, and the other is that I think I have met him personally for the past ten or eleven years. Your choice of candidate is an excellent one, and I am glad to see the work that Mr. Hill has already done. Mr. Hill is mindful of the accomplishments of the Hon. Beniah Carnegie, who did very much for his constituency in North Hastings, and the many activities of the Hydro Electric Power Commission he was forced to think in terms of dollars and cents in the past, the time, nevertheless he found time to do many things for the new riding. One of the accomplishments of Mr. Hill's was during his successful fight to do away with the old system of forest relief in the northern townships by means of a working wage for its residents.

Direct Relief Dangerous

"Direct relief is a dangerous thing," impressed Mr. Finlayson. "It has given many Canadians the idea that the government owes a living for nothing. We are for-getting the principle of the golden rule. It will be an unhappy day for Ontario when the system of direct relief is carried further."

Mr. Hill was chief by the speaker as a man who had worked hard in the campaign in the matter of providing work for the unemployed. "Perhaps it was low pay, but it was work, and many men are now through free handouts." The average man prefers to work and manage to grow enough produce to keep himself through the winter, but ready cash was always the problem. Road work, even at the low wage rate, helped.

Referring briefly to government, Mr. Finlayson declared that the party machine that was able to govern successfully for the past thirteen years "is not dead."

"That the country was not overcome upon an era of prosperity is evidenced by the upward trend of farm products and general prices ahead. "The recovery is coming from the right end, and not the top. We want no sudden flurry of so-called prosperity, but a steady recovery to promote from time to time. We are not going to have such a time this year that mining activities will mean an upward jump without the cause, nevertheless we are in a position to start a mine-to-mine campaign. It is encouraging for us to ship thirty of them back to the United States in the past year.

Potatoes at fifteen cents per bag and apples at fifty cents per bushel are prices. The price of hogs had increased 100 per cent. over last year's figure. Even the British preferential market in Britain was not to be overlooked by the Ontario Country and under Premier Bennett's direction had been arranged for it at six cents per bushelsover that granted to other foreign countries. Other British markets were being negotiated that will be able to handle other products of the province the Hon. Col. Kennedy was arranging yet another market that would be distinctly advantageous to this country.

Reviewed Record

In a swift, comprehensive survey Mr. Finlayson reviewed the major accomplishments and financial standing of the Henry government. Reductions in the public debt, which are being made in controllable ordinary expenditures and were started two years ago by Premier Henry, were also a sliding scale. Now the country is set in such a way to work out a balanced budget. "We produced an honest surplus last year. And we have an honest surplus, except for relief." The speaker pointed out that best to the task or whiistering the improvement of conditions for the farmers, the mining industry and sand-home owner was explained. The case of driving and helping pulp wood workers was cited as one instance where money had been spent as an act of Christian charity. Over seventy-six million dollars, but against it there was a million of security. Forests, gold, Hydro loans and mortgages were all a reserve asset. Even the roads and highways were classified as assets to the province.

"Don't let any one tell you this government has been wasting money. What we have been doing is carrying on the necessary work in order to keep the country together."

Even in medical service the province is doing more free work than any other province in the world. Free cancer clinics were cited by Mr. Finlayson as one branch of the work. Constant guard against disease in outlying sectors was another.

Not Election Dodge

Road construction will be carried on throughout the province during the coming year, emphatically declared the speaker. And the raise in wages of hourly rate for road workers and road camp workers was not an election dodge, as the opposition had hinted, he followed up. The increase was a natural and expected one, due to better conditions in the country at the present time, and the general betterment of living standards he enjoyed at present by all classes. Mr. Finlayson concluded his address by saying he sincerely continued support for Mr. Hill.

T. A. Thompson, M.P., in a brief address enlivened by witty anecdotes, seconded the necessary action on the Gold Tax. Mining men were finally able to dig the ore than the ordinary user could pay for it on a fair wage. He referred to the healthy state of the country at the present time, and the general upswing in the business and financial horizon.

E. Thomson, M.P., told the delegates that at the coming election history would either repeat itself, or for the first time, it would not. He was sure that a conservative convention ever held in this part the party didn't go out and win.

E. C. Metcalfe, Dr. Harold Welsh, ex-Warden R. M. Mitchell and John Kingston addressed the audience briefly and pledged their support to the candidate.

Those present in the hall, secretary of the St. Hon. R. B. Bennett as Prime Minister of Canada and Hon. R. J. Manion as Prime Minister of the Province of Ontario, and of A. E. Ames as Liberal-Conservative party was received by the convention before conclusion.

Following a committee meeting of the new executive held later Mr. D. D. Morrison, Tweed, was elected deputy returning officer.

CANADA LEADS LUMBER TRADE

Exports to British Market Highest in World

London, May 1 (CP Cable)—Canada during March led all countries in the export of lumber to the British market.

Board of Trade returns tonight showed total British imports of wood and timber in that month as £2,235,000, which a quarter as £2,236,000 worth, came from Canada.

HITLER GIVES DENIAL TO WAR-GUILTINESS

Chancellor Calls It a Lie and Praises German Will

Berlin, May 1 (AP)—The will of the German people has proved stronger than the world powers who beset them in post-war days, Chancellor Adolf Hitler told German workers in his May Day address in Tempelhof Air Field today.

Applauding thousands immersed crowd, officially said to number 2,000,000, the Nazi strongman repeated the "war guilt lie" and declared Germany ready for their progress toward recovery.

Increase Arms Seek Peace Pact

Rome, May 1.—Italy has determined to increase the power of her military while at the same time seeking a pact of non-aggression which Germany would be permitted to participate, the Associated Press learned today.

Henceforth, it was disclosed, the Italian government will proceed in military matters along two lines:

First, to plead the cause of limitation of armaments at present levels with every international gathering necessary; second, to add the greatest possible measure of efficiency to the Italian military forces.

Are Named Delegates to Conservative Convention

Meeting Held For Purpose in Community Hall

MADOC—A meeting of the Conservative Club was held in the Community Hall on Friday evening with an attendance of about sixty. The purpose of the meeting was to appoint delegates to the Convention in Madoc next week. The following were appointed Walter Brett, Dunnan Ellis, James Lawrence Burns, Norman Whytock, William Roberts, John Robertson, Campbell Wallbridge, Fred Curry, Frank Smith, John Hallidone, Arthur Bird, Dr. Eagleson, W. E. Connor and William Hill. Proxies were also appointed as follows:—Walter Whytock, George West, Tom Ellus, Robert McGhee and William Kelly.

Personals

Mrs. Dave Beaton, who has been visiting her parents in Madoc, has returned to her home in Toronto.

Miss Mary Bronson has been a week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. Wesley Hollis.

Mr. Charles Rollins of Coe Hill was a Sunday visitor in town.

Mrs. Lidbeck of Peterboro, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert Fair.

Mrs. Jarvis and daughter, Barbara of Toronto, have been visiting Mrs. Wesley Hulin this week.

Miss Haviland, Miss Bresnahan and Mrs. Arnold are Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Brown.

Resigns Office

On Friday afternoon, April 27th, the Madoc Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. A. C. Anderson with an attendance of 35. Mrs. R. Wellman, second vice-president took the chair in the absence of other officers. The meeting was opened with the Institute Ode and the reading and adoption of the minutes of the previous meeting. Correspondence contained thanks from two insanes who had recently received flowers during illness and a letter from Mrs. E. N. Whytock, tendering her resignation as president of the Madoc branch of the Women's Institute, which office she had held for the last five years. The resignation was regretfully received.

Miss Mary Gillen Reg. N., was then introduced as one of Madoc's girls and gave a splendid talk on "Health in the Home", stressing the need and value of fresh air, sunshine and cleanliness in our home life, for the welfare of our children and also in the sick room.

Roll Call was well responded to by "Hints for the Sick Room" contributed by members. Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed by all present.

STARHENBERG IS APPOINTED

Dollfuss Says Austria Becomes Christian State

VIENNA, May 1.—(AP)—Prince Ernst Von Starhemberg, leader of Austrian Fascists, today was appointed Vice Chancellor of the nation by President Wilhelm Miklas.

By the May Day appointment, Von Starhemberg succeeds former Vice Chancellor Emil Fey who simultaneously became Minister of Public Security.

By the new combination under Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss, Starhemberg would automatically take the chancellor's place if Dollfuss were unable to officiate while Fey, in his new cabinet post, insures Himmelfarb command of the police, the Gendarmerie, and Auxiliary and Militia.

Another mark of distinction for the May Day combination was signed by Chancellor Dollfuss of Austria's Christian State in a radio address broadcast. Opening his address with the words, "In the name of God and Austria," the chancellor told that the new Austria born today as a result of the overwhelming popular revival of the constitution yesterday will be a Christian state.

As evidence of the Christian foundation, the very first official act of the new state, the little chancellor pointed out, was the formal signing of a concordat with Vatican City a few minutes after the proclamation.

"We purposely chose a May Day celebration of the constitution," said chancellor Dollfuss, "because it is the day of the awakening of national pride, a man who has come a true day of the work of all workers".

RUBBER DREAM IS REALIZED

Edison Made 100,000 Tests And Picked Golden Rod

Fort Myers, Fla., May 1 (AP)—A dream Alva Edison, the Thomas Alva Edison to insure the United States an emergency source of rubber in the event the tropical supply should be curtailed-lives in the miniature rubber plantation near here.

Flowing from the tiny goldenrod plant, Edison believed by the "wizard" after more than 100,000 tests of various other weeds, rubber, in the crude, now is a reality fact. However limited its immediate commercial availability may be.

While secrecy has enveloped the work, it is understood that Edison pronounced the product capable of standing up to tests before its death. Henry Ford and Harvey Firestone have been interested in the project which they aided in financing, and a staff of five men work on—the dream coming true.

NAMED NEW GALT CHIEF

Robert Carson, Sergeant For Past Eight Years Heads Force

Galt, Ont., May 1 (CP)— May Day brought a new chief of police to Galt. It was announced at the City Hall this morning that Robert Carson, sergeant last month appointed chief, succeeding Albert Burich who asked to be relieved of those duties. It was exactly 30 years ago today that he joined the force. The former will continue with the force with the rank of sergeant. The new chief who came to Galt from the Lake Erie Steel Company is a brother of Chief Thoms. Carson of the latter city.

It hurt awful

- but mother fixed it!

You can't always prevent children from being burned or scalded, but accidents may be prepared to relieve their pain, to prevent infection and being branded for life by unsightly scars.

Cooling and soothing, Unguentine quickly relieves the fire out of a burn or scald. It heals gently and safely. Rarely is there a scar left.

"Unguentine does not dry out which makes dressing easy, without pain. It remained entirely antiseptic all the time and is actually to contact with a burn or wound.

Be ready for these accidents—ready to relieve pain—ready to prevent scars. Have a tube of Unguentine always at hand where you can reach it instantly.

The wise Mother keeps a tube of Unguentine in the kitchen cabinet, another in the bathroom cabinet and another in the medicine cabinet of the spare bedroom.

Unguentine Quick!

BILLION MADE BY EXCHANGE MEMBERSHIP

New York Firms in Six Years Despite Slump Make Money

EVIDENCE HEARD

Almost Two Million Dollars Apiece For Members

Washington, May 1 (AP)—Evidence that New York Stock Exchange member firms have made nearly $1,000,000,000 in the past six years, despite the depression, was presented today to a United States Senate committee.

Ferdinand Pecora, counsel for the Senate Stock Market committee, pieced together the profits realized by members data showing that Exchange firms averaged almost $2,000,000 apiece in net profits during the six boom and four depression years. Gathered from the member firms themselves, the data also showed have handed a total gross income of more than $2,000,000,000 during the six-year period.

During the high-time years of 1928 and 1929 their gross annual revenue averaged far more than $1,000,000 apiece.

These and a mass of other bitterly undisclosed statistics relating to market operations were presented to the committee since the Exchange control legislation appeared the last in both House of Congress.

Concededly the disclosure of this data was sought to put the Exchange members "on the spot" to force them to close all stock exchanges in the House yesterday of a "vicious" campaign of "misrepresentation" against the legislation by the New York Exchange.

Pecora, in the midst of statistics was an amazing story of the depression's effect. It showed one member firm profits dropped from $849,000,000 in 1928 to a loss of $6,000,000 in 1932 and rose again to $96,000,000 for the first eight months of last year. The total net profits for the period were $933,167,844.

GERMANS DRINK WINE TO HELP GROWERS

Nazi May-Day Celebration is Filled With Praise

By JOHN A. BOUMAN
Associated Press Foreign Staff Berlin, May 1.—Germany's second May Day celebration under the Nazi regime was a holiday to those in many world capitals — was devoted to praise of the happy lot of the German farmer.

One official recommendation was that he joyfully celebrate today all Germans drink a good glass of wine "to help the farmer to help the German winegrowers."

Loses House by Fire Offered $200 Yesterday

London, Ont., May 2 (CP) — A large barn belonging to Ernest Ellis, near Lobo, was burned Monday night. A valuable horse for which only Monday, Mr. O'Neil refused $200, a number of cattle, sheep and pigs were also destroyed. The grain was a total loss, while agricultural implements were damaged. The fire department from Lucan and London were called but could give little assistance. The loss estimated at $6,000 is covered by insurance.

Stray Bullet in Strike Kills Young Watcher

Washington, May 1.—The United States industrial scour, clearing its several sectors as settlements ended strikes, was marred today by a death.

Paul Mehalic, about 18, who left a seated bowling game to watch a clash between strikers and guards at the Latrobe Electric Steel Company in Latrobe, Pa., was killed last night by a stray bullet.

C. R. B. C. Should Control Says Sedgewick at Probe

Listening Public Better Served by Private Stations Claimed

OTTAWA, May 1.—(CP) — The listening public would be better served if the operations of radio stations were left definitely in the hands of private stations and the Canadian Radio Broadcasting Commission become a regulatory and controlling body, Robert Sedgewick of Rogers-Majestic Corporation, told the Parliamentary Radio Committee Monday. The company operates Station CKGW, Toronto. Sedgewick, "It would," the Toronto Radio official said, "be for the purpose of cooperating with and assisting privately-owned stations in Canada to improve their programmes, purchasing as far as their funds will allow, Canadian-created talent, of any advertising matter, and assisting by the purchase of time to broadcast those programmes in the more remote sections of Canada where a shortage of talent and lack of funds make it impossible for the private station owner to give the same quality of programme that the listener in the more populated areas has always been receiving."

Radio stations everywhere, said Mr. Sedgewick, would welcome any change that "would convince them, that the Canadian Radio Commission was really interested in cooperating with the private station owner and was prepared to improve broadcasting generally; witness at the present time the private station owner feels, that he has hardly enough revenue from which he is entitled when the commission is compelling with him for his services, safe in the knowledge, that whether or not he gets the sufficient funds, he listens to make the station actually pay, the station will continue to operate because it has money expropriated from parliament to draw on."

The cost of duplicating in Canada the whole broadcasting commission would approximate $6,305,000 the witness said, but would be unnecessary. If Canada were able to duplicate the British broadcasting it would result in a very short time of losing the majority of listeners turning them over to International Bankers of the day."

This was greeted with a low wave of laughter from the committee.

"You may laugh if you like but worse crimes than that have been committed in the name of mercy," the committee will meet later today.

TO SCOTLAND WITH TOM HAMILTON

The renowned Entertainer in song and story as Conductor on these special sailings

	From Montreal	From Quebec
ATHENIA	May 4	May 18
LETITIA	June 15	June 29
LETITIA	July 14	July 27
LETITIA	Nov. 29 (June)

LOW CRUISE RATES

	One Room	Two Rooms
Cabin Class from	$122.	$226.
Tourist Class from	104.50	189.
Third Class	82.	144.50

Ask for our folder about this and other features of Scottish character.

Apply to your local agent—or to our own offices

Anchor-Donaldson Line
217 Bay Street, Toronto.

ANCHOR-DONALDSON
RIGHT TO THE HEART OF GLASGOW

Look

AT THE TEMPTING DISPLAY OF OUR DELICIOUS

Old Fashioned Home-Made Candies

In Our Window!

And Note Their Low Prices too. Now You Can Afford Your Favorites

—PURE AND WHOLESOME MADE OF THE FINEST INGREDIENTS—

MOORES

245 FRONT ST.—Next to Royal Bank

Safety for Valuables

A Safety Deposit Box may be retained in The Dominion Bank at a small rental for your valuable papers—stock certificates . . . bonds . . . mortgages . . . deeds . . . insurance policies . . . your will . . . jewellery, et cetera.

Rentals are as low as three dollars a year. —less than one cent a day.

THE DOMINION BANK

ESTABLISHED 1871

Belleville Branch . . . C Waite, Manager

BRANCHES THROUGHOUT CANADA AND OFFICES IN NEW YORK AND LONDON

A City Residence

"For a day, a week, or months, I have a city residence at the Windsor Arms Hotel," writes a visitor to the city. "Shopping, theatres, and business are all within easy reach. Everything is there for comfort. Rates are moderate."

WINDSOR ARMS HOTEL

22 St. Thomas Street (Floor at Bay)

TORONTO

Tel.—Ma. 8346-8-9-4

Write for Folder

For Better-Round World-Wide

FUR STORAGE and INSURANCE

Telephone

421

WOODLEY'S FURRIERS

272 Front St.

Personals

Mr. Bruce Lattimer has returned home after attending College of Pharmacy, Toronto.

Miss Lenore Stafford, who is attending Toronto University, is home for the summer vacation.

Miss Madeline Heagle of Kingston, returned home yesterday after spending Sunday with Misses Elvira and June Scott.

Rev. T. H. Hall, who is taking charge of the Church of England Missions here, accompanied by Mrs. Hall was a guest of Mrs. Edward Cross, John street, yesterday.

Mr. Jack Nash, well known Canadian badminton player, is visiting in the city today.

Mrs. Phil Derushie and Master Harry, of Lakefield, are visiting at Mr. Robert Crawford's, 99 South George street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deuke and family, are in Oshawa, today, attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Matthew Armstrong.

Mrs. J. De P. Wright, Joseph De P. Wright of Kingsville, Mrs. W. L. Wright of Hamilton, Mrs. Hedley Snider, Hamilton, are guests at the Hotel Quinte today.

Miss Greta Clarke of Peterborough, Mission Worker in Honan, China, who is delivering addresses at the W.A. annual meeting this week, is the guest of Mrs. Addison Vandervoort, while in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Heagle, Kingston, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Scott spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Heagle and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walker at Hoard's.

3RD AMELIASBURG NEWS BRIEFS

3rd Ameliasburg.—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tyler are moving from this neighborhood to Mr. Harry Dempsey's tenant house on the 1st concession of Ameliasburg. All wish them every success in their new home.

Sunday School was in good attendance of thirty-nine on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Adams and children, Centre, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Moreland and family, of South Lakeside, were the guests one hour from Mr. and Mrs. Everett Adams on Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Humphrey and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Bedal of Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Alyea, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Adams and girls were entertained to dinner on Sunday at Mr. Joseph Adams'.

Mr. W. Locke and Mr. Everett Adams attended the Masonic supper at Picton on Thursday evening.

A Child's SIMPLE FEVER Relieved

Teething, Indigestion, diarrhoea . . . is fast most baby ailments bring on simple fever. Mrs. Bernard Rioux, Enterprise, Ont., says: "My baby's sickness and hands were so hot I was frightened. I gave him a Baby's Own Tablet at once and by after supper he was all better." All the simple ailments of childhood following teething are promptly and safely relieved by Baby's Own Tablets. Doctors recommend them. 25c at all drug stores.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS

IF I WERE KING!

Some Thoughts, Whimsical and Serious, as to Improvements Possible by Benevolent Dictator

As Told to Belleville Rotary Club

"If I Were King", formed an interesting theme for Belleville Rotarians to ponder over at the Monday meeting when the subject was thoroughly developed in whimsical manner with serious intentioning, by R. V. Illsley, manager of the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Kings, good, bad and indifferent, who strutted their brief moments upon life's stage, were sketched briefly by the speaker, from "Old King Cole" who was a merry old soul, to the "Vagabond King" of song and story, who was satisfied with being King for a day and cared not who made the laws of France so long as he wrote and sang the songs of the nation.

People have ever been desirous of kingly power so that they might work good or evil, as their character and disqualifications favored, but who has not wished for power to right the most glaring wrongs of the world, and purge this world from poverty, sickness, all unnecessary suffering, and banish selfishness. Rotarian liberty gave every interpreter scope of what might be accomplished in the making of a benevolent King, if one had all-powerful dictatorial privileges. Some of his ideas as follows:

Conscription of Brains

Conscription of best minds and noblest hearts for public service. Many fine men have served their fellowy well in Canada but it must be admitted that political calibre in service has not been maintained, asserted the speaker. There is too many inferior men in the administration of public affairs.

We have been doing many soon the thing they must do above all else in order to make money and attain place and so much power as possible. Heroism, on the continent is different from Great Britain to our great detriment. Over there the aristocracy is first-born have been, the Church, the Navy, or Parliament.

Fanatical Partisan Fury

Then too, led by a partisan press we have ridiculed and criticized our worst villains for whom we differed, until we have sent them to the gallows or the grave, blinded by or embittered or heart-broken obliviou. Such is the power of the press, but also often its shame.

We want more men whose concern is not so much for party as for the state—and we want fewer men, fewer law-making bodies and better—and we should pay them well.

Smaller Councils

Towns and cities would be better administered with small councils, elected, or appointed, for longer terms, and with a General Manager to run them. Experience has shown that with large unwieldy bodies and constantly changing personnel, the government has not been conducted with common business efficiency.

Too Much Government

Four or five provincial administrations would govern Canada much more efficiently than the present multiplicity of governing bodies. With a tremendous saving in money. Governing bodies for the Maritimes, Quebec, Ontario, the Prairies and British Columbia, would be sufficient, together with a Federal Parliament of at most one hundred members. With over two hundred members of Parliament gathered at Ottawa they vote as the Party Whip commands and cost the country $4,000 per year plus. Great Britain legislates for 45,000,000 people from one central Parliament. Our needs are no doubt different in many respects, but we are over-governed.

Retain the Senate

In the opinion of the speaker the Senate should be retained as a safeguard against ill-considered or hasty and injurious legislation, but this body could also be considerably reduced with benefit. Appointments to the Senate could be made by the Supreme Court of Canada on the best brains of Canada conscripted for national service. Men like Rowell and Sir Handley, Sir Robert Falconer and the late Principal Peterson, or Sir Arthur Currie, of McGill; C. H. Cantile, J. A. McLeod, Sir Edward Beatty, Sir Thomas White, "Billy" Nickle, and some good farmers like the late Dr. Sinclair of the developed Manitoba Wheat and widened the wheat growing belt over one hundred miles northward; also men like Sir Thomas White and Sir Henry Drayton. Men like those mentioned would be glad to serve Canada under such circumstances, and would represent brains and diversified talent, instead of men whose chief claim to their preferment has been their contributions to party welfare, and vice versa.

Play Cricket With Neighbors

Discussing international trade the speaker said that Canada alienated make it known to the world how willing and anxious we are to "play cricket" with our international neighbors. What a sweeping out there should be of barriers to trade and interchange of goods. No nation can live to itself alone, and President Hoover's declaration on the eve or his defeat in the last election in the United States that that country should shut itself off from the rest of the world in compartment, live to itself alone, was bad politics, and worse economics.

More For The Farmers

Much could be done for the farmers which would result in better stock or grain, cattle, fruit and vegetables, and less exploitation of the farmers by well organized concerns and political parties to the detriment of the sons of the soil.

Why not "codify" without law in Parliament? A fair deal all round? Fair wages with part of them deferred to enforced saving, or unemployment insurance. Control bodies representative of both employer and employee?

The Machine Wins

Put a crimp in unwise speculation, said the speaker, who said that for every dollar made and kept in the blind speculation of a boom ago, and being again forced upon the country, there have been five on the bust. Just like the race track betting the machine wins.

Closing, the speaker, said there were problems that were given to the problem of proper use of leisure time. Men also should earn to live, otherwise not be taught something of a trade or a domestic art and not waste time on so much good literature.

If one were King he would tithe many a lance at the evils of the times, secure, then, more and foremost more clean fun and laughter, with a higher standard of living for the many and a less audacious by luxurious and wasteful standard for the few.

2 CANDIDATES

(Continued from page one)

Other candidates nominated last night were James F. Hill, Conservative standard bearer for East Hastings and Wheeler Gervais, Conservative, South Grey.

Liberal gains were levelled at Premier George S. Henry when Dr. L. J. Simmons, Conservative in the Legislature for Centre Simcoe, addressed the Barrie Rotary luncheon on Monday night. He declared the Premier had "wobbled" on the beer and temperance issues. The Premier said it was because he possessed $20,000 in bonds.

Used as Club

"The interests in the Conservative party in favor of beer and win used those bonds as a club to get what they wanted," Dr. Simpson charged in referring to the Government's legislation for extending beer and wine sales.

The Ontario Hydro system took the Abitibi development, which resulted in Liberal demands Premier Henry resign because he held personal stock in the government hydro utility purchased.

While the verbal war waged no indication of a government announcement regarding the date of the election was forthcoming. The Premier and Hepburn said today it had not been definitely set. The Premier would not make any announcement of the date at the Conservative rally here tonight. It had been predicted that such announcement would be made with forecasts placing the voting around June 21.

Premier Henry is scheduled to address the North County Liberal-Conservative Association convention at Brampton next Saturday when Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Minister of Agriculture, will stand again for nomination.

The resignation of Senator Arthur Meighen as a member of the Hydro Commission took its place in Liberal campaigning when Arthur Roebuck, Liberal candidate for Toronto Bellwoods, declared in an address this resignation, with Hydro Chairman J. R. Cooke's retirement from politics, recently made "tearing a sinking ship."

Mining Salesmen Deported

Hon. William Finlayson, Minister of Lands and Forests, told the convention at Madoc, which selected Mr. Hill as East Hastings' candidate, that 30 mining salesmen had been returned to the United States for practising Ontario Government. Mr. Finlayson declared he did not favor a mining boom through efforts of "lower class salesmen."

The minister also told the convention wages were increased in road camps because conditions are better and not as an election dodge.

The other cabinet minister who took part in last night's campaigning was Hon. Leopold Macaulay, Minister of Highways, who defended the government's record before the South Grey convention at Durham where Winslow Kernahan was named Conservative candidate.

W. Harry Hinton, Progressive leader, was promised opposition from Conservatives in North Perth "during the Spring for the month of May."

Services for April were conducted by Rev. Mr. Reid.

CA27

Women's Canadian Club Visits Ontario School for the Deaf

Manner of Teaching Small Beginners Explained to Guests

DEMONSTRATION

Club Members Impressed With Advanced Methods in Training

So much interest was created concerning work at the Ontario School for the Deaf by the address of Miss Catherine Ford, Director of Instruction, to the Women's Canadian Club recently that the invitation of the School was accepted with an almost complete attendance yesterday afternoon.

Ninety-five were present in the auditorium of the Ontario School for the Deaf when the meeting opened. Those who arrived early inspected the splendid exhibits of children's handiwork in weaving, basket making and project planning and were amazed with the skill and artistic arrangement of the various articles. Particularly interesting was the geography project on Holland. Miss Herdon's class of small children had made, among other things a very realistic windmill derived from a bushel basket, a cheese box, ingeniously arranged, painted and even equipped with doll visitors in familiar Dutch costumes.

Mr. J. W. Kinnear, president of the Women's Canadian Club was chairman and after the meeting had assembled she asked Miss Ford to take charge of the program.

In her address to the Club some months ago, Miss Ford had told of teaching methods at school. Mrs. Kinnear remarked, now the members would be shown these methods in operation.

Miss Ford conveyed the regrets of Mr. H. B. Petterly, superintendent, who was unavoidably detained for a few minutes but would visit the guests later. The demonstrations, this afternoon, would show in detail how the deaf student beginning school at five or six, is introduced to education. It must be kept in mind that these children have no idea of language, do not know that it exists. While a hearing child has a vocabulary of between fifteen hundred and two thousand words, when it begins school, the deaf child doesn't know the significance of one word. First in the child's instruction, comes word recognition with printed letters, the alphabet and then the first hundreds of times to instil into the child's mind the significance of wordsyand actions. Training in distinguishing movements and mouth quickens the child's eye so that lip reading is created. Voice building exercises make the children aware of its voice. The developing of resonance and voice control, is aided by the amplifier for those who have some residual hearing. The child is given ear phones attached to individual controls so that the volume may be adjusted to the child's needs. The resulting sound, in most cases, would overcome a hearing person but it just penetrates the deaf child's wall of silence and acquaints it with an entirely new sensation. Inflection is taught, the teacher speaking through a microphone.

Miss Hoyle's, Miss Reilly and Miss Handley's classes of fascinating little tots took part in the demonstration of class room methods. The guests marvelled at the rapidity with which the children responded to the various phases of teaching and had to reassure each other that children were actually deaf, so quickly did they read lips and skilfully answer their teachers.

The value of rhythm work in all of instruction was stressed by Miss Ford and steps in its training were shown by Miss Reilly's class. Reddick and Mr. Alec Gordon at the piano.

Miss Ford explained the immense value of teaching the deaf child to speak. She said it was by this means income accomplished more easily when speech is used as the medium of instruction by the able to speak, the deaf child is made to feel at home with its speaking associates not hopelessly isolated.

For the older child whose period of severe illness has made deaf help must be given immediately, so as to save it not feel humiliated and despondent. A special course is conducted in lip reading by Miss Desmarad for such pupils and in the first demonstration yesterday visitors were shown the remarkable results of this training.

As the final number on the programme two graceful dances were given. Three girls in dainty yellow and mauve costumes gave a ballet dance while three couples in striking black and red costumes danced the dashing Argentine.

Mr. Petterly expressed pleasure that so many club members were present at the school and got personally what is being done in the education of the deaf child. The guests were invited to return and visit the children at work in their classes.

"We have an exceptional staff here" said Mr. Petterly, "Otherwise we could not accomplish the results we do. All work together and everyone is anxious to do the best possible for the children. Great advancement has been made in the teaching of the deaf. Signs are taboo in the school. The children are able to interpret what is said to them and to give back their thoughts in speech."

Mr. Kinnear thanked Mr. Petterly, Miss Ford and the staff of the school for their kindness in arranging the afternoon. The children having one hundred per cent. hearing did not have done better in the demonstrations.

Behind it all we see the concentration and application of the children, and the patience and love of the teachers".

Afternoon tea prepared and served by girls of the household science department concluded a particularly enjoyable club meeting. The table, charmingly arranged with roses and pink tapers, was presided over by Miss Desmarad and Miss Handley.

Clark Gable featured with Myrna Loy, Elizabeth Allan and Otto Kruger in "Men in White" at the Belle, Thursday.

HONOUR ROLL

QUEEN VICTORIA SCHOOL

HONOUR ROLL FOR APRIL, 1934

Junior Primer—(A Class)—Agnes Graham, Bernice Juby and Lillian Barrage, equal.

(B Class)—Betty Way, Carol Norton, Gerald Churchill, and Carrol Hoyle, equal; Ethel Watson and Marelle Parks equal.

(C Class)—Jean Graham and Mary Lee Pigden equal; Betty Vesterfelt, Donald Wandbagh and Jack Williams, equal; Mary Trim, Harry Wheeler.

Senior Primer — Ernest Young, Kathleen McBrien, Bertram Stapley, Billie Nevins.

N. Anderson

First Book:—Doris Rapino, Jack Cooper, Norman Mills, Phyllis Mitchell, Betty Ann Graham, Jean James, Jenny Lepore, Douglas Soule.

Sr. Primer—Class I.— Ernest Bookus, Doreen Tugnette, Barbara Bayley, Shirley Bellet, Gerald Staples, Phyllis Alexander, Madeline Grant.

Class II—Eugene Dewey, George Moon, Grace Frith.

A. G. Tucker.

AIKENS LADIES' AID HAS MEETING

SIDNEY CROSSING—The regular monthly meeting of the Aikins' Ladies' Aid, was held at the home of Mrs. Alex Lawrence on Thursday last.

The fine from here attended the pageant at Centenary Church on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Outwater spent Friday last with Mrs. M. Outwater and daughter at Mount Carmel.

Miss M. Hazard of Trenton, has been visiting friends in the neighbourhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hogle called on Mr. and Mrs. Barton Hogle, Sunday evening.

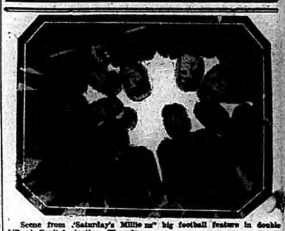
Mr. Fred Moon is improving in the Belleville General Hospital after undergoing an operation for appendicitis.

Misses Viola and Mary Dickens of Belleville O.S.D. spent the week-end at their home.

Quite a number from here spent the Grand Opera Festival at Bridge Street Church to enjoy hearing Denton Pealim was read by Audrey Hoskens. Hymn 12 was sung and followed by

KIDNEY TROUBLE

The function of the kidney is dependent upon its supply of mental energy from the brain, and if that supply is transmitted by means of the nerve trunk and fibres then that transmitted organ can only be abnormal in its function when the proper mental energy is not supplied.



In order to remove the cause of kidney trouble certain corrections must be made to give the nerve a chance to express themselves as they should.

H. R. AND VERA B. PITCHER

D.C.

LICENSED PRACTITIONERS

421½ Bridge St. E. Belleville, Ont. Phone 1216

Scene from "Saturday's Millie m" big football feature in double bill at Capitol starting, Thursday.

SALEM W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of Salem W.M.S. was held on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Gerald Ward presiding. There were 12 members present. The President, Mrs. C. Leslie was in the chair and opened the meeting with singing a hymn and reading the Scripture lesson after which was answered by a verse from Bible concentration, "Christ." The minutes were read and adopted. Miss Helen Leslie 2nd group leader then took charge of the programme. A duet, solo and reading were given by Mrs. J. Haines and Helen Leslie and Mrs. S. Haight. Miss Bernice Johnson gave a very interesting report of the W.M.S. Presbytery held in Napanee. Mrs. J. Sills closed the meeting with prayer after singing a hymn.

WALLBRIDGE MISSION BAND

On the 29th of April the Wallbridge Mission Band held its monthly meeting. It was opened by singing hymn 429. This was followed by the Lord's Prayer. Dorothy Sine gave Secretary's report and the Scripture reading taken from 23rd Psalm was read by Audrey Hoskens. Hymn 12 was sung and followed by

• GRAND PRIZE

• For

• Thursday May 3rd.

The Mystery Radio

The "Ace Bailey" Model

STEWART WARNER RADIO

THAT IS THE RADIO SENSATION OF ALL TIME

Value

$149.50

This is the grand prize that will go to the lucky holder of Thursday's winning coupon. Hold your coupons until the Grand Drawing Friday Morning, you may be the winner.

— SHOP AT THE COUPON STORES —

30 OTHER VALUABLE PRIZES — ABSOLUTELY FREE!

a story read by Mary Phillips and a poem read by Grace Chisholm. Collection was taken up and the closing hymn, number 92, was sung.

MRS. BONISTEEL ADDRESSES W. I.

Redeserville.—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ward accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ward and daughter spent Wednesday in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, Toronto, Mrs. George Kelly, Misses Florence and Pauline Kelly, Belleville spent last Sunday with Mrs. George Gray.

The Women's Institute met at the library room Thursday afternoon. The speaker was Mrs. Bonisteel of Belleville. There were quite a few present.

Miss Eva Frederick of Kingston spent Sunday with Miss Eva Wannamaker.

Mrs. Fred Redner and Marjorie spent the tea hour on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Redner.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Redner on arrial of a baby boy.

Irene Holmes spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holmes.

Thousands of OPPORTUNITIES in the WANT-ADS

JOBS HOUSES AUTOS — RADIOS ROOMS PETS

10 Reasons Why YOU

SHOULD BE A SHAREHOLDER IN

Monarch Great Bear Syndicate

LIMITED

(No Personal Liability)

(1) GREAT BEAR LAKE, according to the best informed Government Officials, Mining Engineers and Geologists, is the richest mineral area of any place in the world.

(2) MONARCH GREAT BEAR SYNDICATE, LIMITED owns or bonhinds 2,300 acres in four groups in Great Bear Lake, all of which were secured because of the confidence in the properties.

(3) MONARCH GREAT BEAR SYNDICATE, LIMITED owns the Dillon, High Grade Silver discovery in the Gaskell River Section near White Eagle Silver Mines. This discovery ranks with the most outstanding in the area.

(4) DILLON ORE ASSAYS 4,500 ounces of silver per ton. Value $2,000.00 per ton.

(5) ON THE MACKENZIE ISLAND a high grade gold discovery was made, assaying up to $70.00 per ton.

(6) SIXTEEN VEINS have already been discovered on the various properties owned by the Syndicate, every vein returning gold values in either High or Low Grade.

(7) IT IS THE INTENTION TO MAKE SHIPMENTS OF HIGH GRADE SILVER ORE TO THE SMELTER DURING 1934.

(8) THE CAPITALIZATION of the Syndicate is extremely low, being 150,000 share-units, $9,000 of which are still in the treasury.

(9) THE MONARCH GREAT BEAR SYNDICATE, LIMITED is the most outstanding mining speculation being offered in Canada to-day.

(10) A CREW OF HAND-PICKED MINERS are on the way into Great Bear Lake to open up the high grade silver veins on the Gaskell River group. Production of high grade silver will soon be under way.

PRICE $2.00 PER SHARE UNIT

BURTON AND COMPANY

Since 1926

INVESTMENT DEALERS

302 Bay Street, Toronto, Canada

Messrs. Burton and Company,
Trader and Guarantee Bldg.,
Toronto, Canada.

Gentlemen:—

Please forward full particulars and map regarding Monarch Great Bear Syndicate Limited — Share-Units, without obligation on my part, to

NAME .....

ADDRESS .....

GEO. C. BIGGAR — JOHN HICK CRAWFORD
F. ALFRED E. WHITTEN — G. FIELDING BIGGAR

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD

Business Established 1902

MEMBERS

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE

Announce the removal of their Belleville Office to

30 BRIDGE EAST

F. H. WILLS - MANAGER

Phone 1738

All Offices Connected by Private Wire

a30-1w.

Automobile Insurance

With three people being killed every two days in Ontario by autos, you are taking very great chances to be without insurance. Rates are now the lowest they have ever been.

Jamieson Bone & Co.

PHONE 1344

Insurance. Investments.

POLICE NEWS

A single case of intoxication laid against a local young man constituted the docket of today's local police court held before Magistrate Mikel. The usual fine was imposed and paid.

A motor accident happened on the bay bridge road late last night when an automobile driven by Frank Kerr of the city apparently became out of control, as the car left the road into the guard rail, breaking off five posts in succession. The car was badly damaged, some of the occupants being seriously injured, however. The local police investigated.

Numerous complaints have been received by the police department relative to the breaking of some windows in the rear of Front street stores. Another similar complaint was registered yesterday when windows were reported to have been broken by throwing stones, in the old Mc-Laughlin garage on Coleman street. The police are investigating and drastic measures may follow.

A rather queer accident happened this morning when a large transport in passing caught the front awning over the awning of the front store window of Devault's grocery store, West Bridge street. The awning was torn, but, upon the arrival of the police the matter was amicably settled between the parties concerned.

BABY BURNED

Barrie, Ont., May 3—(CP)—Helen Howcroft, aged three daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Howcroft of Bradford St., was severely burned around the body, right leg, and thigh today when her dress caught fire from a small fire of smouldering rags, the flames enveloping her before they were smothered through the efforts of her sister Edith. Her mother's hands burned. Confined to hospital the child may require a blood transfusion, her physician stated.

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

NEW YORK EXCHANGE

New York, May 2—(AP)— The stock market settled mildly around slowly today as the meagre speculative following seemed to be without any appreciable force.

Trading during the greater part of the session was at the dullest pace of the year to date. The ticker tape hardly moved at times. Even the so-called professionals seemed to be more timid than usual and there was little or no public participation.

Aside from the firm tone in gold mining shares, Canadian stocks showed minor changes. Canadian Pacific and International Nickel were fractionally improved. On the curb Lake Shore moved slightly but Hiram Walker dipped moderately. Dominion Governments were steady. The Canadian dollar was 1-32 of a cent higher at 100.15 5-8 cents.

TORONTO STOCKS AND MINES

Toronto, May 2.—Trading was in the slow pace in the first three hours on the Toronto Exchange today but prices of industrials maintained a generally firm tone. Oils, Banks and the Brewery issues registered a majority of gains.

The mild upward tilt given to the New York market in the morning session encouraged soldiers to retain their stock and offerings were expressed for sale. Walker's common came out rather freely at a fractionally lower price but elsewhere volume was small on the down side.

A wave of buying in the gold shares broke out shortly before noon today and within an hour the issues were carried up 50 cents to $2.50. McIntyre had a morning advance of 2.26 for a while but receded a little on the close. Canadian Malartic groups firmed less definitely.

Silver shares were strong on a report that Washington is again toying with the question of using monetary base. Bidcoupe, Nipissing and Mining Corporation and the Sherritt issues all added small gains.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, F. H. Wills branch manager, at closing at 2.30 Daylight Saving Time:

MINES —

McVittie 73
God's Lake 3
Thompson Cad. 50
Bear 43
Mylle Leaf 64
McMillan 67
Reeds Amal. 90
Greene Stabl. 83½
White Eagle 22½
Ashley 9
Alax 1.09
Aime 30
Breth. Treth. 19½
Barry Hollinger 16
Base Metals, bid 1.55
Bobjo 59
Big Missouri 30
Bagamac 99
Castle Trethi. 60
Coniagrum 1.26
Central Patricia 73
Central Manitoba 10
Coast Copper, bid 4½
Dome 37.25
Dominion Explorer 4¼
Eldorado 2.26
Falconbridge 2.75
Goldale, bid 15
Granada 77
Hollinger 18.00
Home Oil 1.60
Hudson Bay 13.25
Howey 1.30
Kirkland Lake 80
Kirkland Townsite 36
Lake Shore 20.00
Macassa 2.72
Malartic 64
McIntyre 40.50
Mining Corporation 1.91
McLeod Sirver 24
Moffat Hall 5½
Nipissing 2.26
Noranda 40.50
Inter. Nickel 36.05
B.C. Pioneer 13.50
Penhill 1.00
Premier 1.30
Reno 1.02
St. Anthony 60
Sherritt 1.13
Sisco 2.25
San Antonio 3.96
Stadacona 2.50
Sudbury Basin, bid 1.66
Thyrnhite 2.65
Teck Hughes, bid 8.15
Ventures 96
Wayside 1.45
Waite Amulet, bid 1.31
Wright Hargreaves 1.68

Toronto.

B. A. Oil 15.
Imperial Oil, 14¾.
McColl Frontenac, 32½.
International Nickel 36¾.
Supertest, bid 24½.
Brewers and Distillers, 1.68.
Distillers Seagrams, 18¼.
Walkers, 24.
Walker's Pref., 16½.
Canadian Ind. Alcohol, 12½.
Canada Bud, 16¼.
Cons. Bakeries, 12.94.
Bell Telephone, 119¼.
C.P.R., 16¾.
Canada Cem., 74½.
Canada Cement, 8.
Canada Malting, 33¼.
Cockshutt, 7¼.
Dominion Bridge, 24¼.
Smelters, 162.
Ford "A", 5¾.
Loblaw "A", 17½.
Montreal Power, 38¼A.
Massey Harris, 5¾.
Page Hersey, 72½.
Provincial Paper, 11½.
Power Corporation, 12½.
Shawinigan, bid 81.
Steel of Canada, 36¾.
Brazilian, 11½.
Gypsum, 6¾.
Can. Dredge, 11¼A.
G.I.A. (pfd.), 16½A.

New York.

American Can, 98.
Aviation Corporation, 7¾.
Auburn, 43.
Am. Por. Power, 9.
Anaconda, 15¼.
National Distillers, 29¾.
U. S. Control, 30½.
Case, 65¾.
Elec. Auto Lite, 23¾.
Coms. Gas, 29¾.
General Motors, 23¾.
Inter. Harvester, 39¾.
Standard Oil of N. J., 43¾.
Curtiss Wright, 3.
North American, 17¼.
Vat. Dairy Prod., 18¼.
Montgomery Ward, 27¾.
Phillip's Pete, 18¼.
Radio, 8¼.
Standard Brands, 20¾.
Stewart Warner, 8.
American T. and T., 114¾.
United Aircraft, 22¾.
Vanadium, 24.
Westinghouse, 37½.
U. S. Steel, 46.
U. S. Smelters, 115¼.

UNLISTED MINES

(A. H. Ketchason and Co., 2 p.m.)

Adanac, 20A.
Beattie, 18-5.
Bidgood, 3A.
Big Long Lac, 18A.
Bathurst, 4¼-5¼.
Buffalo Ank., 130-190.
B. C. Nickel, 160-82.
Bunsierra, 90A.
Can. Pandora, 27-30.
Can. Malarch, 19A.
Casey Cinch, 6¼-7A.
Canusa, 6¼B.
Columbus Cad., 18-21.
Crown Res. 5-6.
Francoeur Mines, 26-35.
Great Bear Lake, 23-42.
Great Bear Fay, 30-31.
Gabrielle, 67-69.
Greenlaw, 7A.
Hard Rock, 64-68.
Hard Rock Units, $300-$600.
Island Lake, 10A.
Johnson Nip, 28-32.
Kenty Gold, 8½-9.
Kirk Gold Belt, 32A.
Kirk Preston, 8½-11.
Lamaquin Gold, 173-200.
Lamaquin Contract, 22-24.
Coni Kirk, 61A.
Horseshoe, 6-7.
Longlac Lagoon, 20A.
Melala Dev., 5-6.
Man and Minder, 23A.
Minrand, 30A.
Morning Star, 34-37.
McLeod Cockshutt, 38-42.
McQuig Red Lake, 30-34.
North Shore, 28A.
Normont, 15A.
Nicola, 85-90.
O'Connell, 34-34½.
Pickle Crow, 78A.
Queen Lebel, 14½A.
Quebec Kayrand, 1000-1500.
Reserve Is. 25A.
Red Lake, 32-37.
Smellers, 28-32.
Sullivan Cons, 42-46.
Sylvanite, 2.60.
Thalsta, 5-6¼.
Teck Hughes Lake, 21A.
Young Davidson, 38½A.
Forty Four Gold, 900-1000.
Juce Lake Units, 1000-1500½.
Along Lac Adak, 24-27.

Board Room Gossip

The United States plant of Hiram Walker-Gooderham and Worts now under construction at Peoria, Ill., will be in operation in about 3 weeks. Mr. H. G. Hatch, chairman of the Board has just returned from a visit to the Peoria plant subsidiary and is well satisfied with progress. The new unit in operation the plant will have capacity of 100,000 U.S. gallons of all kinds of spirits daily. At a board meeting Col. G. T. Chisholm of Celer and Hammond was elected director to fill a vacancy due to the death of J. P. Mackith. Dividends were declared on preferred but no action on common—Financial Post.

A further increased developed during March in the listed securities by chartered banks but only a slight one bringing the total up from $835,025,115 to $840,000,000 a gain of $1,614,966. The entire gains were made in holdings of government securities. The total increasing by some $14,250,000 while municipal securities were reduced by $11,000,000 and holdings of railway and other securities by over $1,000,000.

Ottawa—A definite statement with respect to the application of the proposed 10 per cent. tax on profits will be made today either in form of a government statement or an announcement in the House of Commons by the Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance, who announced the tax in his budget speech a fortnight ago.

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ketchenson and Co. today

	May	July	Oct.
Wheat	64½	65¾	67½
Barley	34¾	35¾	37¾
Oats	31¼	32⅜	35¼
Rye	41½	42⅛	43¾

Price range today wheat, closing — High 64¾; low 64¾; close 64½

MRS. WALTER FERGUSON

The death occurred on Tuesday morning at the Western Sanatorium after a lengthy illness of Mrs. Zulma Perrault, wife of Mr. Walter Ferguson of Sulphide.

The late Mrs. Ferguson was born in Foxboro fifty-six years ago and had resided all her life there and at Sulphide. She was the daughter of the late Austin and Anne Snider and was a woman of most estimable qualities.

Left to mourn her death besides the husband are four brothers, Leonard Snider, Foxboro; Bernard Snider, West Huntingdon, Richard Snider, Toronto, and Harry Snider of the township of Thurlow. To them will be extended the sincere sympathy of many friends.

The late Mrs. Snider is resting at her former home at Nickel and Browns until Thursday noon. The funeral service will be held Thursday afternoon at Foxboro United Church.

JESSE WASHINGTON HUNT

Peterborough—The funeral services for the late Jesse Washington Hunt, held from the family residence, 226 Charlotte Street Tuesday afternoon, were largely attended, not only by friends of the family from the city, but by a large number of friends in the Marmora and Madoc districts in which the family is particularly well known.

Rev. Mr. J. Woolcott of the Salvation Army officiated both at the services at the house and the graveside being assisted by George Leader.

Mr. Hunt who passed away in his 68th year following an illness of three years, was born on a farm five of Madoc Township, and a son of the late William Hunt and of Mrs. Hunt. He lived in Campbellford from 1900 to 1914 and for six years ago.

Besides his widow, Mr. Hunt is survived by four sons, Stanley of Delorad, Saskatchewan; William of 470 Rubidge street, Cecil of 226 Charlotte Street and Clifford of 228 Charlotte street, Peterborough; Reta Hunt at home. A daughter, Mrs. Annie Dowson, predeceased her father four years ago. He also leaves three brothers, William, James and Charles all in Saskatchewan, and two sisters, Mrs. J. Mc-Fat of Madoc and Mrs. Ben Osborne of Belleville.

Interment was made at Little Lake cemetery, the pall bearers being members of the Salvation Army

VISITING CHAPTER CONFERS DEGREE

Campbellford Chapter R.A.M. Guests at Regular Meeting of Moira Chapter

The officers and members of Moira Chapter R.A.M. No. 7 G.R.C. Belleville were hosts to the officers of Ionic Chapter of Campbellford last evening. The visiting chapter conferred the R. A. degree with Ex. Comp. Alex MacColl of Campbellford, acting as Ill. Comp. and Glover V. Ex. Comp. Meyers, Ex. Comps. Conant, Bemp, Reynolds, Castle, Neil and others assisting in the work.

During the banquet hour the usual toasts were proposed and responded to with Ex. Comp. Wm. Pontion, K.C. responding to the toast to the Grand Officers in his usual fluent manner. The toast to Ionic Chapter was proposed by Ex. Comp. Cook, who also proved a genial chairman throughout the evening. Ex. Comp. Spears of Trenton responded to the visitors' toast. Other speakers were also heard from.

During the evening a delightful programme was presented headed by the Moira Chapter orchestra. Miss Jean Croft gave two humorous readings, while solos by Miss Ruth Bowerman and a comedian from Toronto also delighted the large gathering. A return fraternal visit was contemplated by the local chapter.

PHILANTHROPIST DIES

Cincinnati, May 2—(AP)—Col. William Cooper Procter, 72, Cincinnati industrial leader and philanthropist, died this morning.

Summer Cottage For Sale

New frame cottage, four rooms, all screened windows, verandah, electric light, hydro on Trent River, sand beach, about half a mile north of Frankford on the highway. Very reasonable price and terms.

BELLEVILLE LOCATORS

Geo.-N. Gorman, Prop.
166 Front Street
Phone 687 House Phone 687

Thomas O. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
36 Everett St. Phone 63
Office
288 Front St. Phone 62

THE MARTIN
FUNERAL HOME
218-222 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 2266
FLOYD A. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

BELLEVILLE
BURIAL COMPANY
Limited
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
27 Campbell St.
Phone 774-W Day and Night
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland S. Browne
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve Quality Less
FUNERAL HOME
Cor. Church St. and
Victoria Ave.
Phone 2255

BELLEVILLE-MADOC BUS
Leaves Belleville
7 A.M. and 2.30 P.M.
Leaves Madoc
9 A.M. and 2.30 P.M.
PHONE 1340

LAWN MOWERS
Repaired and Sharpened
Called for and delivered.
HARRY BROWN, Blacksmith
Rear 149 Pinnacle St.
Phone 3118

Let Electrolux Do Your Spring Cleaning
Pianos, Draperies, Rugs, and Chesterfield Demoted.
Rates Reasonable
246 John St. Phone 1325W

PHONE 99 Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 25c; Marriages and Engagements, 50c; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; In Memoriams, Cards of Thanks, Poetry, minimum charge, 25c for 25 words or less, that 1c per count line; Ladies Reading Notices, minimum charge, 50c for 25 words or less, that 2c per count line.

CLASSIFIED RATES—For Sale, Wanted, Miscellaneous, Lost and Found ads for first TWO insertions, subsequent insertions 1c per word, minimum 25 words.

COMBINATION RATE—10c per insertion per word for one week, over that number of words.

PROFESSIONAL, BUSINESS AND BUSINESS CARDS—(Yearly Contract) $1.50 per month per line.

OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES (including Estate Notices)—Minimum charge for first insertion 25c for 25 words or less, that 1c per count line, 1c per word for subsequent insertions.

AUCTION SALES—Minimum charge, including 50 count 25 words; minimum charge for subsequent insertions, 25c per word.

An initial or figure count as one word.

In estimating the number of words to the line.

Allowance your Want Ads when it is more convenient. PHONE 99.

The Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of an incorrect ad. Phone 99 if it is wrong.

Advertisers may have their replies addressed to a Box Number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

FACTORY REPRESENTATIVE for famous Health Appliance. Excellent opportunity. Write Harmony Electric Appliance, 20 Dundas St. E. Toronto Ont. m2 4 7.

COOK GENERAL EXPERIENCED and reliable. Good wages. Write Box "Y" Ontario Intelligencer, stating wages expected. m3-2t

SMALL FURNISHED APARTment. Reasonable rent. Must have bath. Write Box "Z" Ontario Intelligencer. m2-1t.

WANTED TO BUY

YEAR OLD HOLSTEIN BULL, purebred or grade. Apply Wesley Bradshaw, Corbyville. a30 m2.

BUTTER PRINTER, STATE PRICE and condition. Apply Box 2, Brighton Cheese Co., Corbyville. m1-2c

SEED OATS, BUCKWHEAT AND clover. Apply Graham's Cold Storage. m1-2t

FINANCIAL NURSING BY THE day. Sleep out. Write Box "A" Ontario Intelligencer. a30-3t

FOR SALE

ONE PREMIER DUPLEX VACuum with electric polisher, also 2 Sple Bed Chesterfield suites, twenty-five dollars. Phone 1215. m2-1t

1 DODGE TRUCK 1930 MODEL. 1 Rugby Truck 1932 Model. 2 Dodge Coupe 1928 Model. A quantity of egg cases, both new and second hand. 1000 egg crates holding a dozen eggs each. A quantity of office furniture, also about 80 loads of garden soil which requires to be moved at once. Full details may be obtained at my Office. R. J. Graham.

TWO BURNER GAS STOVE with oven, white enamel back. Cheap. 14 Palmer St. m2-2c

BABY CHICKS, JERSEY BLACK Giants, also coch Buff Wyandotte, Rowland, 188 Bleecker Avenue. Phone 3412. m2-3t.

1929 FORD TUDOR. GOOD CONdition. New battery, etc. Cheap for cash. Apply 1811 St. Lawrence. m2-3t.

BABY CHICKS, BARRON STRAIN white Leghorns May 5th, six cents four wheel trailer. W. R Casey, R. 5, Belleville. a26 m2.

DOUBLE FRAME HOUSE IN good repair. Both sides rented. New double garage. Good locality. Apply 168 Bleecker Ave. m2-2c

SUMMER COTTAGE AT JONES' Creek, 3 miles from Belleville on Bay Shore. Equipment includes row boat, stoves, boat, etc. Phone 2227J. m1-3t

HALF TON DODGE TRUCK. Florence three burner oil stove; set of woven fence wire; electric iron; three burner gas flat. 34 Chatham St. m1-2c

40 YOUNG EWES TWO OR three years old, also about 40 lambs. Bargain for quick sale. Also 2 purebred Jersey bulls and several heavy heifer calves. Graham's Cold Storage. m1-2t

MAHOGANY CASE UPRIGHT piano in good condition. No reasonable offer refused if sold this week. 110 Catherine St. m1-2t.

BARRED ROCK BABY CHICKS, Marmill feeds, custom hatching. H. Brenton, Corbyville. Phone 2205r5. a30-3t.

FOR SALE OR 20 LET SIX ROOM HOUSE, 71 CANNIFton Road; seven room house with 3 acre garden and barn, 205 Dundas Street; six room flat 84A, Possession immediately. Apply 16 Albion or John Donovan. a26-6t

KILLED IN EXPLOSION

Utrecht Holland May 2—(CP-Havas)—One worker was killed and 15 injured in an explosion in the state railway shop here today. Material damage was considerable.

Business Directory

AUTOMOBILE LOANS

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner
Financing of All Kinds
G. J. FISHER & SON
30 Bridge St. E. Telephone 198
Representing
Campbell Auto Finance Co., Ltd.
Toronto-Ottawa-London-Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C. SPECIAL examination with the Radiolast reveals all diseases in the early stage. Foot disorders corrected, all disease treated. Phone 960 or 1702 and 22 Coleman St., Belleville.

H. R. and Vera E. Pitcher
CHIROPRACTORS
(Elsmer Graduates)
Palmerston Block, Entrance
216 Bridge St. E.
Phone 1274 Belleville, Ont.

ACCOUNTANTS & AUDITORS

ROSS EDGAR NEAL
Chartered Accountant
197 Front Street
Belleville, Ontario.

DENTIST

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 462 240½ Front St.
j17-3m.

SURVEYORS

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Provincial Civil Engineer.
Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to.
PHONE 5—P.O. BOX 80
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
251 Front St. Phone 128

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
278 Front Street Phone 1154W

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738. F. H. Wills, Branch Manager. m3-1y.

LEGAL

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries, Public. Chas. A. Payne, K.C., D. D. Arnott. Offices: 218 Front Street, Belleville, Ont.

CAMPBELL, KERR, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary and Commissioner, 35 Bridge St. East, Belleville. Phone 1444.

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLicitor, Notary Public, etc., 18 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74.

MACDONALD WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON & GRAHAM, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, etc. Offices: 32 Bridge Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Solicitors for Dominion Savings. W. H. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham. Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late P. E. Wallbridge), Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc., Dominion, Donald-to, Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets. Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 26 Bridge Street E. R. J. Butler K.C., Ormonde Butler.

S. D. DONOVAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

PERSONAL

CORRECT THAT UNSIGHTLY overweight condition without harmful drugs. Dr. Edwards' tablets are effective and reduce in a non-radical way. $1.00 three weeks treatment at McKeown's Drug Store.

For ECONOMY Read the ADVERTISEMENTS

FREE! 1,001 PRIZES EVERY WEEK

Free trips to New York or Chicago—Baseballs, Fielders' Gloves.

"HEY KIDS—JOIN MY BASEBALL CLUB—AND WIN A SWELL PRIZE. JUST MAIL YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS WITH ONE QUAKER PUFFED WHEAT OR RICE BOX TOP TO BABE RUTH'S BASEBALL CLUB, P.O. BOX 1083 CHICAGO FOR MEMBERSHIP BUTTON & CONTEST ENTRY FORM."

LISTEN TO BABE RUTH over the N.B.C. Blue Network every MON., WED., and FRI., 8:45 to 9 p.m. E.D.T.

QUAKER PUFFED WHEAT PUFFED RICE

TORCHY PEDEN SUFFERS FALL

Bike Rider Painfully Burned But Continues in Race

Toronto, May 2 (CP)—A spill in which Torchy Peden suffered painful burns failed to slow up the giant Victorian, and, with Jules Audy, he was still leading the six-day bike race here this morning.

The teams of Charlie Winter and Frank Bartell, of New York, and Roy MacDonald, Ottawa, and Freddy Zach, Switzerland, were tied with the leaders, but behind in points.

Seven riders were involved in the spill. Fioraanti Baggio, teamed up with Henri LePage after injuries forced Alfred Letourner out, went over the top of the saucer and was badly injured about the face. Zach suffered two broken ribs but continued in the race.

The standing at 8 a.m.:

	M.	L.	P.
Peden-Audy	942	3	245
Winter-Bartell	942	3	214
MacDonald-Zach	942	3	104
Van Kempen-Ottevaire	943	3	153
McNamara-Rush	942	1	251
Fielding-Cadou	942		110
Boucheron-Mouton	941	9	104
Petri-Beckman	941	6	191
Baggio-LePage	941	6	113
Elder-Van Slambrouck	941	2	104

LEAGUE LEADERS

American League.

Batting — Vosmik, Indians, .442; Reynolds, Red Sox, .426.

Runs—Vosmik, Indians, 12; Kuhel and Manush, Senators, 11.

Runs Batted In—Reynolds, Red Sox, 15; Foxx, Athletics, 14.

Hits—Reynolds, Red Sox, 20; Werber, Red Sox and Vosmik, Indians, 19.

Doubles — Werber, Red Sox, 8; Greenberg, Tigers, and Averill, Indians, 6.

Triples — Manush, Senators, 3; Chapman, Yankees, Higgins, Athletics, and R. Johnson, Red Sox, 2.

Home Runs—Bonura, White Sox, and Foxx, Athletics, 4.

Stolen Bases—Walker, Tigers, 7; Gehrig, Yankees, 4.

Pitching—Ruffing, Yankees, Thomas, Senators, and Hildebrand, Indians, 3-0.

National League.

Batting—Wilson, Phillies, .389; Allen, Phillies, .383.

Runs—Klein, Cubs, and Vaughan, Pirates, 14.

Runs Batted In—Klein, Cubs, and Suhr, Pirates, 15.

Hits—Moore, Giants, Allen, Phillies, Urbanski, Braves, and Klein, Cubs, 18.

Doubles—Ryan, Giants, 7; English, Cubs, 6.

Triples—Suhr, Pirates, 3; Collins, Cardinals, and W. Herman, Cubs, 2.

Home Runs—Ott, Giants, Hartnett and Klein, Cubs, 5.

Stolen Bases — Frey, Dodgers, Rothrock and Martin, Cardinals, and Chiozza, Phillies, 2.

Pitching—Bush, Cubs, 4-0; Warneke, Cubs, and Hubbell, Giants, 3-0.

Kiwanis Club Entertains Members of Hockey Teams

Dit Clapper, Doug Brennan and "Toots" Holway Honored Guests

An honorary banquet to three pro hockey players, whose names are synonymous with the progress of the game in this Dominion and residents of this district was tendered last night to Dit Clapper of the Boston Bruins, Doug Brennan of the New York Rangers and "Toots" Holway of this city by the Kiwanis Club at the Queen's Hotel. The banquet was also significant in other respects, that the members brought along their sons and those not fortunate enough to have such valuable property, some other boy was invited to meet and hear from these players, what it takes to be a member of a professional team. Souvenir hunters were out in droves and the younger element represented at the banquet will have in the signatures of the players, a memory of a fine night not soon to be forgotten. The speaker of the evening, Judge G. E. Deroche gave the boys and the older members an insight of what sporting life is like in Florida in the winter time.

Large Gathering

It was one of the largest gatherings of the members in some time with Eddie Shapiro acting as president, Jack McIntosh was appointed sergeant at arms and James Bankier as song leader and the members sure pepped up on their singing. J. Arnold Thomson and James Bankier kindly obliged with solos much appreciated with Leo B. Riggs presiding at the piano. The players were introduced singly to the gathering, Eddie Logan introducing his school mate, Dit Clapper, P. C. MacLaurin saying "how de" for Doug Brennan and George A. Lee telling of the fine qualities of "Toots" Holway. Each member introduced was justly cheered especially by the younger members present. Claude D. Tice, acting in the capacity as interrogator of the players and elicited from them many points of interest to the assembly.

Dit Clapper was sure the long overtime game in Toronto in the spring of 1933 won by the Leafs was the toughest game he ever played in and that "Chuck" Gardiner of the Chicago Black Hawks is the hardest goalie in the loop to beat. The player also stated, that he received a real thrill in playing hockey as a pro and liked to win. "The team spirit is most prevalent in the pro game" said the player. Doug Brennan stated, that all forwards were hard to stop and he personally took great delight in beating the Bruins as his pal Dit Clapper was the victim. Asked by one of the gathering what he did when he received a dirty check he simply remarked "get his number".

Fine Talk on Florida

"Toots" Holway stated the pro game was tougher than the amateur brand and that the "no off-side" rule speeded up the game and made for more thrills, than the old style of onside passing. He thought forward passing in every zone was here to stay. The thanks of the club was expressed by Dr. Walter Morgan. Judge Deroche acted in the role of pinch hitter, Rev. Father Lynch of St. Michael's College being unable to attend at the last minute. The speaker told of his sojourn in the land of sunshine and of the interesting items picked up. He told of seeing fish that come to dinner, when the dinner bell rings and the dog, after failing when doing his trick on a tight wire fretted until he was allowed to do it over again without a mistake. He described quite minutely the sports centre of St. Petersburg, where roque, shuffleboard, bowling and chess are played almost continuously. He also told of the softball team, whose players are all over 75 years of age. The youthful members of the gathering were quite thrilled with the sport accounts, while the address was most instructive for the older members. The meeting was one of the best held by the club in some time. After the banquet everyone were introduced to the three players, the kids getting a real kick out of shaking hands with notable figures in the hockey world. After the banquet a theatre pary was held at the "Belle" where an excellent double feature was witnessed.

ILL FROM POISON

CHICAGO, May 2.—(AP)—William Caulfield Sharp, 56, identified by papers as a former vice president of Middle West Utilities Company, was found poisoned in his hotel room and was rushed to the County Hospital for emergency treatment.

BISLEY TEAM IS SELECTED

Ten of The Team Has Had Previous Experience at Shoot

Ottawa, May 1 (CP)—Canada's rifle shots have been selected to take part in the competitions of the National Rifle Association at Bisley, England, and will sail from Montreal on the S.S. Aurania on June 15th, it was announced today by the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association. The commandant of the team will be Lt.-Col. H. F. G. Letson, M.C., the officer commanding the University of British Columbia Officers' Training Corp, and a rifle shot, well known to all Canadians who have shot at Ottawa and Bisley. The adjutant will be Capt. H. W. Bishop, the G.G.F.G. of Ottawa, a Bisley shot of note and a former shooting member of the team. The composition of the team was announced today, and consists of 10 men who have had previous experiences at Bisley, and eight who are making the trip for the first time. As the object in sending the team is not entirely to win, but as a reward in building up rifle shooting in Canada, the D.C.R.A. were well pleased with the selection. The shooting members of the team are as follows:

Lt. S. Johnson, Cadet Services, Wayne, Alta.; Co. Sgt. Maj. Geo. M. Emslie, M.M., 48th. Highlanders, Toronto; Corp. B. W. Beaumont, R.C.A.F., Vancouver; Lt. Col. F. W. Utton, O.B.E., R.O., Toronto; Lt. R. D. McLeod, Saint John; Rflm. D. C. Brereton, Winnipeg Rifles, Winnipeg; Lieut. R. A. Sweet, R.H. L. I., Hamilton, Ont.; Capt. A. C. Lucas, Q.O.R., Toronto; Lt. H. W. Steeves, 8th. Field Battery, Moncton, N.B.; Pte. P. J. Martinson, Three Rivers Regt., La Tuque, Que.; Sergt. C. E. Iddiols, 13th. M.G. Corps, Calgary, Alta.; Sergt. E. G. Stock, Queen's Own Rifles, Toronto; Sgt. Maj. Inst. J. Trainor, the R.C.R., Toronto; C.Q.M. Sgt. A. Parnell, the Black Watch, Montreal; Corp. H. L. Taylor, R.C.A.F., Vancouver; Lt. N. Dow, 7th. C.M.G. Corps, Saint John; Sergt. J. Borland, 48th. Highlanders, Toronto; Pte. R. G. Hamilton, the Grenville Regt., Ottawa.

BASEBALL RESULTS

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
Rochester	8	3	.727
Toronto	6	3	.667
Syracuse	6	3	.667
Newark	9	5	.643
Montreal	5	7	.417
Albany	4	5	.414
Baltimore	4	8	.333
Buffalo	2	10	.167

Tuesday's Scores

Newark 11; Montreal 3

Syracuse 7; Buffalo 6

Other games to be played at a later date.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
Chicago	10	3	.769
New York	9	3	.756
Pittsburg	6	5	.545
Boston	6	6	.500
Brooklyn	5	7	.416
St. Louis	5	7	.416
Philadelphia	4	8	.333
Cincinnati	3	9	.250

Tuesday's Scores

Pittsburg 4; Chicago 1.

Philadelphia 11; Boston 6

New York 10; Brooklyn 9

St. Louis 3; Cincinnati 2 (11 innings).

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
New York	8	4	.667
Detroit	7	4	.636
Cleveland	6	6	.500
Washington	6	7	.462
St. Louis	4	6	.400
Philadelphia	5	8	.385
Chicago	4	7	.364

Tuesday's Scores

Boston 7; Philadelphia 2

Cleveland 12; Chicago 1

Detroit 5; St. Louis 4

New York 10; Washington 5

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Hank Greenberg, Tigers, walloped homer and two singles against the Browns.

Ralph Birkofer, Pirates limited Cubs to five hits.

Don Heffner, Yankees, tripled in ninth to start five-run rally that beat Senators.

Burgess Whitehead, Cardinals, singled in eleventh to drive in winning run against Reds.

Henry Johnson, Red Sox, struck out eight in pitching six hit game against Athletics.

George Watkins, Giants, led attack on Dodgers with two homers and single.

Willis Hudlin, Indians, held White Sox to five hits and one run.

Ethan Allen, Phillies, batted in three runs against Braves with a homer and two singles.

CURRENT SPORT

(Day By Day)

Now that the baseball and softball season has been ushered in we would like to appeal to the sponsors of such games in regard to publishing same. Naturally we cannot be at two places at one time, nor are we infallible. The Ontario Intelligencer is glad to publish the accounts and results of all games played in this district and as for out-of-town games the best procedure is to mail or send in the score cards or accounts of the various games played. All such copy received in this office before 9 a.m. daily will appear in that day's issue. As for the games played in Belleville we recommend that following each game the scorer or manager leave the score card at Bill Cook's cigar store the night of the game and they will be collected, and an account of the game made. As the sport dead line in this office is 9.15 a.m. we hope that the sporting fraternity will realize our position and assist as much as possible. By the above suggestion they can help greatly.

The softball season opened with a bang Monday night with a twin bill in the Wall St. League. Contrary to expectations however, both games were keenly contested with little to choose between winners and losers. Over at the Coleman Flats the Grills Garage found tough opposition in the newly formed Tip Top Tailor A.C., while the best the 1933 champion Bearcats could get from the College Hill Cubs was a 6 to 5 victory. If the opening games are any indication of those to follow the league should enjoy a successful season. Incidentally the injury that befell Vic Halsey, Cub catcher, was most regrettable. Not being at the game at the time of the accident we cannot judge, but it seems as tho' there is no need for players sustaining injuries to such an extent that not only was medical attention necessary but the removal of the injured man to the hospital. Halsey is still confined to the hospital. Another twin bill in this loop is scheduled for tomorrow.

Altho' special efforts have been brought to bear in regard to organizing a junior O.B.A.A. loop in this section of the province those in authority find themselves in a difficult situation with only the Crystalacs ready to face the barrier. For the past few seasons the Hastings County Junior League has boasted of four or five clubs. This year, however, the Moose and the B.A.A.A. have disbanded in Belleville while the latest word from Wellington is that their players have been drafted by Picton intermediates. There was some talk of Napanee entering a team but apparently fell thorugh. It has been suggested by some interested persons that the Crystalacs be included in the Bay of Quinte intermediate league, being allowed to play a single schedule series with the four clubs in the loop. These games would have to be exhibition affairs insofar as the junior club is concerned, they taking a bye in the junior O.B.A.A. playoffs. In order to make the games interesting for the intermediate clubs it has been suggested that the games should count in the intermediate standing.

It has been the cry of the O.B. A.A. "assist the minor series as much as possible." We'll here's an opportunity for the intermediate clubs in the Bay of Quinte League to do their Boy Scout deed. The juniors are not asking for a double or triple schedule but merely home and home games in order to stimulate interest of minor ball thruout the district. From a local angle the argument is well taken and should at least receive some consideration from the older organization. At that the Crystalacs might surprise some of them. Manager Young had the juniors out Monday night and judging from reports a good crowd was on hand.

Another boxing card sponsored by the South End Club is on the books for Friday night and features Freddie Parry in his first amateur bout since his re-instatement from professional ranks. Dame Rumor says that Parry is to fight under the colors of a new sporting club recently formed here. He is matched to fight Tommy Bowler of Oshawa. Another bout of interest is the Gordie Morris-Howard Wheeler go. These two bantams give the fans plenty of action and when they last met drew a big crowd. While the boxers are at it the annual "Y" circus will be in full swing at the Y.M.C.A. All winter Instructor Morden has been drilling the boys and girls during class hours and Friday night sees them give their farewell appearance in one grand indoor spectacle of gymnastics and other feats of physical culture. This show is well worth attending. For those interested in punt sailing a meeting has been called at the South End Club rooms tonight.

Trout fishermen were out in large numbers yesterday but official reports are to the effect that the weather was too cold to assure any large creels. A few days like yesterday and the anglers will be able to catch their quota.

RECREATION ALLEYS

Mercantile League

Teco.
W. Baker	376
L. Childs	517
H. Wright	590
N. Wilbur	732
C. Moon	496
Total	2711
Ont. Intell.
W. Cordes	507
F. Cook	520
C. Ling	555
J. Ling	603
A. Eggleton	484
Total	2669
Teco 3 points.
Scopis All Stars.
C. Scopis	513
V Huffman	423
A. Boyle	479
J. Black	580
T. Barrett	626
Total	2633
National Grocers
H. Cordon	538
J. Jackson	367
F. MacDonnell	503
H. Akey	483
H. Kemp	572
Total	2463
Scopis All Stars 3 points.
A. and P.
A. Knott	486
H. Moxam	610
G. Shemilt	59[illegible]
G. Buckley	451
A. Berry	583
Total	272[illegible]
Loblaws.
D. Garlepy	669
E. Mouck	545
G. Fordyce	533
H. Mason	438
J. Doe	565
Total	2755
Loblaws 3 points.

Senior League

Bankers.
Hetherington	631
Redden	431
Cleland	488
Burley	458
Nunn	501
Total	2509
Super Test.
V. Gibson	565
D. Belnap	436
M. Harkins	419
P. Burke	548
M. Kelleher	529
Total	2497
Bankers 3 points.
C.N.R.
A. Knott	669
R. Burtt	442
Graham	504
Batty	489
H. Robinson	622
Total	2726
Rovers.
Walshe	611
J. Shaw	407
R. Browning	404
Salisbury	592
J. Doe	462
Total	2476
C.N.R. 3 points
Marvelubes.
Cook	433
Stewart	510
Boynton	367
Bawden	806
Total	2116
Marvelubes 4 points.

SMART CARD IS ARRANGED

Fred Parry To Box First Time Since His Reinstatement

Featuring a return bout between Gordie Morris of Belleville and Howard Wheeler, the human wildcat of the Trenton Airport, an all-star boxing card sponsored by the South End A.C. has been arranged and will be presented at the city hall on Friday night. The main bout of the night sees Freddie Parry, the pride of the C.N.R., in his first amateur bout since receiving his amateur reinstatement from the A.A.U. of C. last winter. Parry is matched to fight Tommy Bowler of Oshawa.

In his hey-day Parry was noted for his ferocious attack with stinging lefts and rights, while in Bowler he meets an up-and-coming youth of 145 pounds who has battled his way to the fore throughout Eastern Ontario. Two Arts, Art Angell of Belleville and Art Aylin of Kingston meet at 135 pounds, while Freddie Martin who recently boxed his way into the hearts of many local boxing fans meets a clever lad in Bill Horricks of Kingston at 120 pounds.

Johnnie O'Neill of the South End has been signed to meet Earl Potts of the Airport, while Bruce Bristol, a newcomer from Madoc has been drawn against Arlie Bauder, the 155 pound slugger from the Airport. Mark Storms, S.E.A.C., meets a rugged youngster in Joe Northmore of Kingston with Young Joe Samain and Art Saunders opening the card at 95 pounds.

Eight bouts in all are being featured with Bert Wells, local popular referee as the third man in the ring. Neutral judges will be on hand and the fans are assured of a real night's entertainment. At a recent meeting of Morris and Wheeler much controversy was heard regarding relative ability of these two lads. Wheeler is a weaving fighting youth while Morris always goes better while boxing. The result of this bout will be watched closely by all interested in the fight game in Eastern Ontario.

SOFTBALL

The "stockroom" department downed the "office" staff by the score of 17 to 11 in a regular scheduled game in the Stewart-Warner-Alemite league last evening, thereby tightening up the league race.

The "office" nine went on a scoring rampage in the second frame to count seven runs. Not to be outdone the stockroom sluggers notched 11 runs in the very next inning. The game throughout proved a slugfest with both teams using all available players.

Radio and Office—Ristow, Murdock, Edwards, Jones, Brown, Seymour, Mondeville, Smith and Allen.

Stockroom—Kerr, Corr, Darrah, S. White, V. White, Stirland, Doyle, Angell and Colden.

Albert College Wins.

Albert College succeeded in evening the series of softball games against St. Michael's A. C. yesterday to the score of 15-13.

Albert College after suffering their first defeat on Monday at the hands of the highly rated St. Michael's squad stepped onto the St. Michael's grounds and handed them their first loss of the season. Both teams will be at full strength for their final game to decide the superior team at the college grounds at 4.15 p.m. on Thursday.

Albert College got away to a slow start being baffled by the pitching of Temple of the St. Mike's team. He succeeded in holding them to one hit while St. Michael's hit Day for 4 runs in the first two innings.

In the third ining the Albert bats went on a rampage and pounded Temple from the mound to collect nine runs to tie the score at the end of the third. Schrieder then replaced Temple on the mound and although erratic at times held the Albert team in check until the sixth inning, when the Collegians hit him for four runs.

The St. Michael's team are a well balanced squad with George Kikes playing a stellar game behind the bat besides edging his team on at all times. George is a spark plug in their line-up. Other players on the St. Michael's squad who deserve mention are Schrieder, Forster and McCreary.

The Albert squad played great baseball. The infield was air tight making brilliant plays. Driscoll and Dunnington playing well at short and second base. Macfarlane handled the catching duties well and pulled off some smart plays between second and home. Lew Day on the mound for the Collegians went the route and pitched a good game. He was hit often but was well supported by the outfield of Grabb, Bishop and Warren who pulled off some smart catches. Dunnington and P. Lake got the only home runs of the game.

Clothiers of Quality

$15.00 Suit Special

FOR BELLEVILLE BETTER WEEK

BLUE SERGE SUITS—Best value ever offered in Belleville — Guaranteed fast colour —

Only $15.00

Extra Pants $4.50

There has never been, nor never will be again, as good a Blue Serge Suit offered for the money.

THIS IS A COUPON STORE

Quick and Robertson

CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

First in Style, Quality and Reasonable Price

1931 3rd. Anniversary 1934

ON THURSDAY, MAY 3rd, the National Billiard Parlor will celebrate their third year in business.

Free Coca Cola to Everybody

8 Tables—The Most Up-to-Date Billiard Room in Town—8 Tables

National Billiard Parlor

291 Front Street

"Look, Joe, both Torchy Peden and Jules Audy ride C·C·M.'s"

"SURE we do, boys. So do many other 6-Day bike riders. Do you boys ride C.C.M.'s too?" inquired Torchy Peden with a grin.

"No, sir. Neither of us has a bike. But we want our dads to buy us C.C.M.'s this Spring," said Joe.

"I wish you luck, boys. I know every boy is keen on owning a bike, especially a C.C.M. If you want to convince your dads how good C.C.M.'s are, bring them down here and show them these two C.C.M.'s that I've pounded away on for 37,500 miles, and they're still going strong. Jules and other riders have ridden their C.C.M.'s just as far as I have ridden mine."

"Gee, that's a great idea. We'll try and get our dads to come."

BOYS! You may not have the chance to show your dads the bikes ridden by Torchy Peden and Jules Audy, but you can surely get your fathers to go with you to a C.C.M. dealer's and see the 1934 C.C.M.'s. There's the same rugged, standup quality in them as in Torchy's and Jules' C.C.M.'s. They've all the extra C.C.M. features that make them extra value for the money.

An ordinary bike would crumple up under Torchy Peden's hard riding and would be a poor investment for him. While a boy isn't as hard on a bike as Torchy, every boy's bike has to stand plenty. The best investment in the long run is in a bicycle of real quality—a C.C.M.

C.C.M. Boys' and Girls' Models..$29.95
C.C.M. Crescent (Men's or Ladies') 31.50
C.C.M. Standard Roadster 35.00
C.C.M. Boy Scout 38.50
C.C.M. Road Racer 39.50
Time payments may be arranged for small extra charge.

C·C·M· the easy-running true-value Bicycles

You know what oil goes into your car when you buy

VEEDOL MOTOR OIL 100% PENNSYLVANIA AT ITS FINEST

40c A QUART IN SEALED CANS

Tide Water Oil Company of Canada, Ltd. Montreal Toronto Regina

THE WHOLE WHEAT CEREAL
CHILDREN LOVE IT'S CRUNCHY GOODNESS
ENRICHED WITH SUNSHINE VITAMIN D
Quaker
MUFFETS

The ROMANTIC RUNAWAY

By KATHARINE HAVILAND-TAYLOR

Pabllio saw, a natural channel ahead as he stepped out this time. If he could make it he could run with 100 feet of short, sturdy and carefully he eased the boat through at a opening. Then he screeched high and shrill that he couldn't make it. Then Pablito jumped off the engine to sit back. "Left change at Manhalian Junction," Lotie said.

"Well get you to shore and send that radio out," Then they ran on Lottie. Pablito rolled up his sleeved trousers, slitting them in order to pull them high on his thighs. Then he stepped into the water. "I'll carry you," he said to Lottie. She smiled as she held out her arms and he lifted her over the edge of the boat.

"Oh, baby!" she murmured ecstatically as her arms tightened around his neck. "I'm sorry that Walter Raleigh musta took lessons from you!"

* * *

It was a difficult feat, getting Lottie to land. She was heavy and the way was perilous. The rocks were slimy and the sands, washed by the tide, were shifting and deceiving. (The sun beat down fiercely and the water as he followed. Once he fell and once Pablito slipped but he did not fall. At last he set Lottie down on the beach, wiping the dripping brow with a shirt sleeve.

"Thanks for the piggy ride," he heard and, looking down at her, managed to give her a wan smile. "Gifts for cover, kid," Beau ordered. Rather shiftly and after a warm glance at Pablito the girl made her way up the precipitous beach toward the jungle of green. Again Pablito and Beau waded, pulled by the undertow and be-traved by the changing levels of the sea bed. At last they reached the landing boat and found more difficulties. How to get it into the water was their problem. The wash of the waves threatened to bring it back to cover.

Beau swore, during which was his way of showing that he was balked. Pablito, on the other hand, considered.

"I'll take her out," he said at length, "put on a low power and head her toward Key West. I'll run out enough gasoline so that she'll go only 10 or 15 miles. Then if she washes back it isn't likely it will be to this shore."

"Shift said Beau admiringly.

"We can string up a signal," Pablito went on, "that will look as if we had been calling for help." He crawled into the boat as he spoke. Working quickly, he tied to a small improvised mast his broad scarlet sash.

"How are you going to get back?" Beau asked.

"Swim and wade I guess."

"Ain't there sharks around here?"

"I suppose so but what are we going to do about it?"

"Say you got your nerve!" Pablito turned on a low speed then and nosed the boat through the reeds toward open. When he was in the open at last he then stopped to estimate the passing sense his direction. Then he headed the craft, stepped quickly to the prow and leaped into the churning water.

When he could think of anything except the struggle with the churning water and rocks he felt Beau beside him.

"All right!" Beau gasped. He was there was one to meet Pablito. "Not much farther," he said a moment later. Then Pablito, with a turn, found the uneven sea bed. At last they were wading, driven blinding their heady, glittering eyes the water, but making headway.

Lottie, despite Beau's order, stood on the beach waiting for them.

"Honest to Gawd," she said as they joined her, weak and heavy with water, "Honest to Gawd that got my goat!"

The cover of trees and dense undergrowth protected them. On the beach Pablito saw fat lizards basking in the sun and a spider four inches across with red markings. In the wood Pablito pulled the undergrowth away from a spot that was high and dry and after beating it hard with his waterscaked jacket told Lottie she might sit down.

Beau settled to soliloquize wistfully about his need for clean food and a shave. The water had pasted his garments to him and Pablito saw that a large bug hung on his chest, fastened with a cord about his neck.

"We can't get going until it's dark," said Beau. No one answered. He stretched out and soon was sound asleep. Lottie edged closer to Pablito. "You're a good sport," she said and her voice was almost soft.

* * *

The afternoon wore on and the heat of the sun began to diminish. One of those breezes which, strong or mild, seems to keep the undying foliage of the tropics constantly a-flutter crept into the wood. Lottie, who had slept, stirred, sat up, stretched and rubbed her eyes. Pablito, who had kept watch, smiled at her.

"What's next?" she asked after a yawn which blurred her words.

"Quien sabe?" Pablito answered.

Beau opened his eyes. "You ich ferstay Spanish?" he asked, a gleam in his eyes.

Pablito nodded.

"You're going to be useful to us." Beau announced. "And I'll see that you don't forget it or that we saved your life, old-timer!"

As dusk Pablito scouted about with Beau while Lottie waited. They found a jaeh-hacken road not far away and beyond Pablito saw a hibiscus hedge, its huge scarlet flowers like a mass of sporadic flames. Back of this was a clump of poinsettia, fully six feet tall, its blossoms a glowing crimson. There were cultivated banana trees too and Pablito knew they must be nearing someone's country estate.

Then down the road a creeping blotch appeared and as it grew larger Pablito saw it was an ox cart drawn by two sleek animals with rings in their noses. A two-wheeled, creaking, screeching ox cart. He and Beau stepped to the side of the road and dropped there behind a tall growth that afforded protection. As he hid Pablito thought of the lacking, Cuba's deadly little six-inch, dust-colored snake which can borrow straight downward in the hardest earth almost in a second.

The cart drew nearer. It was filled with girls dressed in these queer costumes, their pastel shades glaring, paper bodices cut low and legs that showed the lightly hair-ering butterflies on their pretty ankles.

The man who drove the cart slowly pulled his beast was grinning pleasantly. He was dressed as a farmer. His girls' chatter was high and shrill and happy.

When the rear of the cart wheels was dimmed Beau crept from his hiding place and Pablito followed.

"What the hell was that?" Beau said.

"It's the carnival," Pablito told him. "Our location is moving fast be one of the Sundays in Lent when everyone encamps."

"Come on then!" Beau sang out heartily. He turned with relief. "That means we're safe!"

CHAPTER XIV

Beau and Pablito hurried back for Lottie and after they had done what they could to make their costumes presentable the three of them followed the path the ox cart had taken.

For some time they walked in silence. Then, at the crest of a little hill, Lottie paused and pointed. A small hollow, shaped by pines was a cluster of one-story one-door adobe houses with grass and thatched roofs. Beyond these, looking like tarnished pearls in the soft twilight, were the cement houses of the gimcrack and still farther beyond on another rise stood the cathedral, its heavy tower etched in black against the silver sky.

"Hurray—a town!" cried Lottie. Beau put his hand on the girl's arm that was strung around his neck. And when I bumped into Kitty

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Little Benny's Note Book

Pop was starting to smoke and think in his private chair and ma said, I dont know where he'd be if it wasn't for my taxi and presents and me. I have a notion that is what I am this very afternoon. Do you remember Kitty Parkers, Willyum Jones and.

Not by name, but if she's very beautiful I'll probably meet her face, pop said, and ma said, Well she's not very beautiful, in fact on the contrary, hes hee. Anyway she's the bosom friend of Sally Smiths, and when I bumped into Kitty yesterday today I naturally asked her if it was true that Sally is actually going to get married at last, and if so why was she in such a hurry to get married, and if she could possibly be the funny looking spunker for a man that I've seen her around with lately, and Kitty said, Do you mean a man with a little mustash? and I said, Well, it's a mustash but it's really a strayed eye-brow, and Kitty said, Youre speeking of my brother, Fwelson Travis, the ass.

Wowie what a hot spot, pop said, and ma said, Exactly, that's where I'm going, Kitty came to the 4 Quick as a wink I said, Of course I'll be there with bells on, and Kitty, that's what makes it such a hot spot, pop said, And then I went on to tell her what a strange freak of nature it was that such a fine looking person could have such a homely brother, and her reply to that was the information that she and her brother were twins and looked so much alike that once at a masquerade party she got on a little table and danced, and nobody could tell them apart.

From the frying pan into the fire, pop said, and I did not like him talk to your beaut pop said, and ma said, Certainly not, that's where my tact came through with its most flying colors, I immediatly created a isolated her on her adaptability, I said her I didn't know what a clever woman in the world with such a variety of wrong feetures who could still give the impression of yeuth-cally being a brevity. Well naturally she had the time of her fare for a storm, so all she could do was thank me profoundly and want away more or less satisfied, how's that for tact, Willyum I was said.

It takes all the prizes, pop said.

And he got behind the sporting page and stayed there.

RADIO PROGRAMS

WEDNESDAY
E. S. T.

6.45—Gordon, Dave and Benny, songs—WJZ
6.30—Jim Hunter, News—CFRB
6.45—Lum and Abner, Hillbilly sketch—WJZ
7.00—Betty Crocker Magic Kitchen—CHCT
7.15—Ray Acee—CFRB
7.30—Broadway Melodies; Everett Marshall, baritone; Jerry Freeman, Orchestra—CFRB
7.45—Baby Ruth's Baseball Comments—WJZ
8.00—Nino Martini; Chorus, Andre Kostelanetz Orchestra — WABC
8.00— One Hour With You—CHCT
8.00—Old Gold Program; Dick Powell Master of Ceremonies —WABC
9.00—Corn Cob Pipe Club of Virginia, barnyard music, male quartet—WEAF; WTAM
8.00—500,000 Watt Dedication of WLW
9.30—Jack Denny's Orchestra, Harriet Hilliard, vocalist—WJZ
9.30—Albert Spalding, violinist; Conrad Thibault, baritone — WABC
10.00—Nick Lucas, songs; Freddie Rich's Orchestra—WABC
10.00—News—CFRB

THURSDAY
8.00—Herman and Banta, xylophone duet—WJZ
8.00—Organ Melodies—CFRB
9.15—Castles in the Air; Concert Program—CHCT
9.30—Treasure Chest; Howard Phillips, baritone, Don Allen's Orchestra—WLW
10.00—U.S. Navy Band—CHCT
10.30—Tony Wons; Keenan and Phillips, vocalists—CFRB
11.30—News—CFRB
12.15—Rex Battle's Orchestra —CHCT
12.15—Rumpus Club Lunch—CHCT
1.00—Anne Leaf at the Organ—CFRB
2.00—Metropolitan Parade—CFRB
2.15—Alice Joy, songs—WJZ
3.30—Hazel Glenn, soprano; Orchestra—WJZ
4.00—Dedication Ceremonies of Statue of William Jennings Bryan; Franklin D. Roosevelt—CHCT; CFRB
4.45—Rex cole Mountaineers, Hillbilly Songs and Sketch—WEAF
5.30—Jim Hunter, News—CFRB
6.30—Music and Songs—WJZ
6.45—Sisko Melody Masters—WLW
7.00—Rudy Vallee's Orchestra; Guest Stars—CHCT
7.15—Easy Aces—CFRB
7.30—Voice of America; Mary Eastman, soprano; Alex Gray soprano; Gregory Orchestra—WABC; WGR
8.00—Captain Henry's Showboat; Chas. Winniger; Lanny Ross; Gus Haenchen's Band — WEAF
8.00—Nelson's Hour—CFRB
8.30—Fred Waring's Orchestra—CHCT
9.00—Paul Whiteman's Orchestra; Nikita Balieff, Creator of Chauve Souris; Deems Taylor—WJZ
9.00—Col. Stoopnagle and Buddy Glen Gray's Orchestras; Concerto Program, songs—WABC; CHLW
9.30—Anne Leaf at the Organ—CKAC
9.45—Ramon Thurber, humorist—CFRB
10.00—The Cavaliers, male quartet —WJZ
10.00—News—CFRB

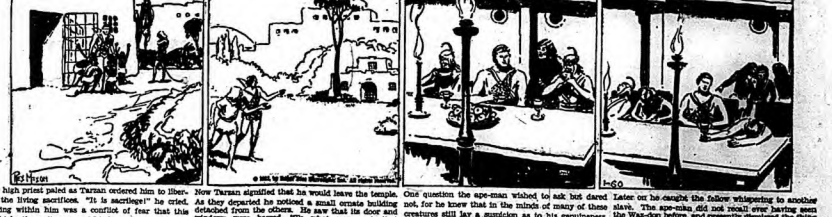
CONNAUGHT NOW 94

Cap Pension Act May 14 (CP Cable Via Reuters)—The Duke of Connaught, last surviving son of Queen Victoria, and uncle of the King, spent his 84th birthday at the Villa La Tourrasse today, where he has passed the better part of the winter at Cannes.

The Duke, was the Governor-General of Canada from 1911 to 1916, had many telegrams of greeting from other members of the Royal family and friends. In excellent health, he expects to return to England early next week for the London season.

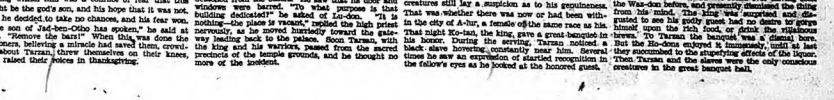
ASTHMA
Hay & Rose Fever Relief
"Asthma came on me after a heavy cold, making me wheeze, cough, gasp and choke. No one could do anything for me until my daughter read about RAZ-MAH. From the first dose I got relief." Mrs. J. O'Brien, Canada. "I've suffered from 21 years or more my money back. Don't mind a cough, cold or hay fever. Get RAZ-MAH today. Don't cough, choke, gasp—Use RAZ-MAH. Druggists everywhere.
RAZ-MAH

TILLIE THE TOILER



By Russ Westover

BRINGING UP FATHER



By George McManus

TARZAN THE TERRIBLE

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

The high priest paled as Tarzan ordered him to liberate the living sacrifices. "It is sacrilege!" he cried. Reeling within him was a conflict of fear that this might be the god's son, and his hope that it was not. But he decided to take no chances, and his fear won. "The son of Jad-ben-Otho has spoken," he said at last. "Remove the bars!" When this was done the priestess, believing a miracle had saved them, crowded about Tarzan, threw themselves on their knees, and raised their voices in thanksgiving.

Now Tarzan signified that he would leave the temple. As they departed he noticed a small ornate building detached from the others. He saw that its door and windows were barred. "To what purpose is that building dedicated?" he asked of Lu-don. "It is nothing—the place is vacant," replied the high priest nervously, as he moved hurriedly toward the gateway leading back to the palace. Soon Tarzan, with the king and his warriors, passed from the sacred precincts of the temple grounds, and he thought no more of the incident.

One question the ape-man wished to ask but dared not, for he knew that in the minds of many of these creatures still lay a suspicion as to his genuineness. That was whether there was now or had been within the city of A-lur, a female of the same race as his. That night Ko-tan, the king, gave a great banquet in his honor. During the serving, Tarzan noticed a black slave hovering constantly near him. Several times he saw an expression of startled recognition in the fellow's eyes as he looked at the honored guest.

Later on he caught the fellow whispering to another slave. The ape-man did not recall ever having seen the two-dim before, and presently dismissed the thing from his mind. The king was surprised and disgusted to see his godly guest had no desire to gorge himself upon the rich food, or drink the villainous brews. To Tarzan the banquet was a dismal bore. But the Ho-dons enjoyed it immensely, until at last they succumbed to the stupefying effects of the liquor. Then Tarzan and the slaves were the only conscious creatures in the great banquet hall.

Every NEW HOTEL Extra
$3 per day UP
HOTEL
GOVERNOR CLINTON
C. W. RAMSEY, Jr., Manager
*1200 Outside Rooms
*1200 Modern Bathrooms
*Circulating Ice Water
*Finest R. C. A. Radios
*Quiet—You Can Sleep
*4 Excellent Restaurants —Reasonably Priced
*Complete Medical Unit, Health-Building Service.
*Every Transit Facility Within a Few Steps
*Convenient Location
New York's answer to today's demand for NEW hotel luxury at medium cost. Every comfort and convenience gives you maximum value for your money... rates begin at $3 a day for one—only $1 more for two.
S. & S. Buses Stop at Door Opposite Pennsylvania Station
7th Ave. at 31st St., New York City

Hydro Electric Power Commission of Ontario

Statement Dealing With a Charge That The Chief Engineer of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission Had Issued a Pamphlet "as an Attack on Mr. Hepburn"

During his long term of office as Chairman of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario, Sir Adam Beck, on many occasions, reminded the citizens of this Province of the great asset they possessed in the staff of the Commission, as well as in the staffs of the local municipal utilities, and he insisted that this fullest confidence should be reposed in the staff and that they be encouraged to devote their capabilities and thought to the development of the undertaking with which they were identified. Sir Adam encouraged the members of the staff as they came in contact with misrepresentation of the Commission's work to speak in correction of errors. The following policy, that characterized the work of the Commission under Sir Adam's administration still maintains.

In order that there may be no misunderstanding with regard to the action taken by the Chief Engineer, Mr. Gaby, in his address at Ottawa in 1931, which was the subject of specific criticism in the recent Session of the Ontario Legislature, a formal statement dealing with the matter was issued and appears below.

It should be appreciated that the title "Chief Engineer", by no means fully indicates the scope of the duties that Mr. Gaby has for many years discharged. In his capacity as Chief Executive officer of one of the largest electric supply undertakings in the world, he has the responsibilities and exercises the functions of a General Manager and has, for many years, in an executive capacity, directed the departmental affairs of the Hydro organization. He appears before the Commission to receive its instructions and to report upon all matters handled by the Commission's large staff. Mr. Gaby is entirely within his rights and is properly discharging his duty when he draws attention to error or misrepresentation likely to be to the welfare of the Hydro undertaking. If, for example, anyone publicly sates that the Queenston-Chippawa development had cost $150,000,000 when its actual cost, as recorded in the Annual Report of the Commission is less than $77,000,000, it would be the duty of Mr. Gaby or, indeed, of any responsible officer of the Commission, to call attention to the error and, if possible, to correct it by reference to published Reports or statement of the Commission.

"The statement issued by Hon. J. R. Cooke on March 16, 1934, is as follows:

Statement by Hon. J. R. Cooke, Chairman, Hydro-Electric Power Commission.

In the Legislature on Tuesday, March 13th—referring to a statement by Mr. Gaby, Mr. Hepburn expressed the intention of bringing about, Mr. F. A. Gaby's dismissal should the Liberal party be returned to power—the Hon. Mitchell Hepburn added: Hon. Harry Nixon if he would dismiss Mr. Gaby. The Hon. Harry Nixon is reported in the press as replying, "Do you know that Gaby issued a three-page pamphlet as an attack on Mr. Hepburn."

As Chairman of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, I regard it as my duty and privilege to point out that there is no justification whatsoever for such a charge against our eminent Chief Engineer, or for the charge, as one press report has it, that he "gave three pages of his pamphlet to a personal attack on Mr. Hepburn."

The only occasion of which I am aware when Mr. Gaby has ever made public reference to Mr. Hepburn, was an incidental reference made in the course of his address of nearly three years ago to the Electrical Development Electric Association and Association of Municipal Electrical Utilities, Ottawa, June 26th, 1931.

Mr. Gaby's 1931 address contained an extensive review of technical and other historical data respecting the Commission's operations and, after publication in THE INTELLIGENCER, was reprinted from the same type, as a 43-page pamphlet. It is the only publication of the Chief Engineer, as well as of the officers and technical staff of the Commission, during the municipalities properly informed upon the details relating to the work of the Hydro undertaking. Obviously it is essential to do so in a manner that ensures that those interested will be able to recognize the correct data, and distinguish between various mis-representative statements that throughout the Commission's history have, from time to time, been published.

In this address and towards the close, Mr. Gaby made a special reference to the comprehensive information given in the Commission's Annual Report and quoted as an incidental illustration of the necessity of having corporations and municipally-published data—he cited some incorrect statements that Mr. Hepburn had just previously been reported as making.

One very serious mis-statement made by Mr. Hepburn in 1931 was that the Queenston-Chippawa development had cost $150,000,000, whereas the fact is that it actually cost less than $77,000,000 as recorded in the Annual Report of the Commission. Mr. Hepburn apparently had been misled by taking his information from a publication specially prepared and issued in the United States and which avowed that its data were for the anti-city section with any "thorough-going anti-municipal ownership advertising campaign". Mr. Gaby used this incident to urge upon the assembled municipal men the value of relying upon official published Reports of the Commission and in particular upon the Annual Report to which he was specifically referring.

Mr. Gaby's 1931 address is in printed form so that anyone can refer to it, and I challenge anyone to show any place where Mr. Gaby has ever attacked, or has attacked, Mr. Hepburn personally". The whole presentation is a definitely impersonal basis—and just here I should like to add that although during the years they were with the Commission, Mr. Gaby has had to make many public statements, I can recall no instance where he has ever criticized any officer or with any individual, upon a personal basis.

Mr. Hepburn's name was simply referred to because it was essential to identify the representations that had been publicly made, but there were no personal criticisms whatever in the whole address. The portion of the reprint in which Mr. Hepburn's name is mentioned covered less than two pages out of the 43-page reprint as issued.

About the time when Mr. Gaby's address was prepared Mr. Hepburn's statement respecting Hydro were being given currency in the press and Toronto they will contrary to representations that Mr. Gaby would be making to the municipal representatives. The Commission then requested, and still regards Mr. Gaby's course as entirely appropriate and his comments as fully justified.

burn, was an incidental reference made in the course of his address of nearly three years ago to the Electrical Development Electric Association and Association of Municipal Electrical Utilities, Ottawa, June 26th, 1931.

Mr. Gaby's 1931 address contained an extensive review of technical and other historical data respecting the Commission's operations and, after publication in THE INTELLIGENCER, was reprinted from the same type, as a 43-page pamphlet. It is the only publication of the Chief Engineer, as well as of the officers and technical staff of the Commission, during the municipalities properly informed upon the details relating to the work of the Hydro undertaking. Obviously it is essential to do so in a manner that ensures that those interested will be able to recognize the correct data, and distinguish between various mis-representative statements that throughout the Commission's history have, from time to time, been published.

In this address and towards the close, Mr. Gaby made a special reference to the comprehensive information given in the Commission's Annual Report and quoted as an incidental illustration of the necessity of having corporations and municipally-published data—he cited some incorrect statements that Mr. Hepburn had just previously been reported as making.

One very serious mis-statement made by Mr. Hepburn in 1931 was that the Queenston-Chippawa development had cost $150,000,000, whereas the fact is that it actually cost less than $77,000,000 as recorded in the Annual Report of the Commission. Mr. Hepburn apparently had been misled by taking his information from a publication specially prepared and issued in the United States and which avowed that its data were for the anti-city section with any "thorough-going anti-municipal ownership advertising campaign". Mr. Gaby used this incident to urge upon the assembled municipal men the value of relying upon official published Reports of the Commission and in particular upon the Annual Report to which he was specifically referring.

Mr. Gaby's 1931 address is in printed form so that anyone can refer to it, and I challenge anyone to show any place where Mr. Gaby has ever attacked, or has attacked, Mr. Hepburn personally". The whole presentation is a definitely impersonal basis—and just here I should like to add that although during the years they were with the Commission, Mr. Gaby has had to make many public statements, I can recall no instance where he has ever criticized any officer or with any individual, upon a personal basis.

Mr. Hepburn's name was simply referred to because it was essential to identify the representations that had been publicly made, but there were no personal criticisms whatever in the whole address. The portion of the reprint in which Mr. Hepburn's name is mentioned covered less than two pages out of the 43-page reprint as issued.

About the time when Mr. Gaby's address was prepared Mr. Hepburn's statement respecting Hydro were being given currency in the press and Toronto they will contrary to representations that Mr. Gaby would be making to the municipal representatives. The Commission then requested, and still regards Mr. Gaby's course as entirely appropriate and his comments as fully justified.

Just a Tea Picker

World Voyager Irwin photographed this Tamil girl on a Ceylon plantation. Cruise passengers on the Empress of Britain were charmed with the lovely Island.

THE RISE OF AN EMPIRE INDUSTRY

Montreal—(Special to The Ontario Intelligencer)—The rise of the tea industry of the Empire tea industry.

Tea has been known in China for so many hundreds of years that the earliest tea tades into legend. It is said that nearly five thousand years ago the philosopher Shen-nung accidentally discovered its virtues. In using the faggots of the tea plant to support a pot on his fire some leaves fell into the boiling water. The fragrance of the steeped leaves was delightful to him that he ventured to taste the brew and was filled with delight at the discovery of the flavor. In return for this unexpected blessing which chance had bestowed upon him he spread the knowledge of this stimulating beverage.

We first hear of tea in England in the seventeenth century and many and diverse were the uses to which it was put by the unitiated. The leaves, after they had been served as a vegetable after the liquid had been poured off and again as one of its being kept in barrels like bear. It soon replaced beer and cider at the breakfast table and gradually the present day British habit developed of drinking tea at any and all hours of the day.

But it was not until the nineteenth century that tea became an Empire industry, and here again annually.

chance took a hand. In 1830 a young British officer stationed in Assam observed the tea shrub growing there wild and in great profusion. Having previously seen service in China and being familiar with the cultivation of tea there he realized the potentialities of his discovery.

Samples of the plant were sent to the Governor-General who decided to explore the possibilities of tea planting in India. Successful experiments were made and just one hundred years ago now, after the spring meeting in April 1834, the first Empire tea seeds were planted. From that moment on the industry arose which was to bring prosperity to millions and a teapot into every British home.

Later in the century Ceylon was discovered to be admirably suited to taste for tea. until 1870 Ceylon was renown for its coffee plantations on which the prosperity of the Island largely depended. About this time a blight peculiar to the coffee plant suddenly made its appearance. spreading through the plantations like a bush fire with results no less devastating. Within a year tragedy overtook the prosperity of the Island what had been a flourishing industry was entirely wiped out. The planters then turned to tea, planting the tea seed where coffee had formerly grown. Like a phoenix rising from the ashes the tea plant throve mightily and in Ceylon to day the tea estates cover half a million acres. Empire tea exports now approximate 700 million pounds

POLICE COURT AT TRENTON

Many Cases Heard by His Worship Magistrate Jarrett

Trenton, May 1 (Special)—Trenton police court held a morning and afternoon session yesterday before Magistrate Thomas Jarrett.

Mrs. DeFosse was charged with uttering slanderous remarks by Mrs. Glosefetti. After a great deal of controversy in both French en English and pleas by their counsel, Mr. Smith represented Mrs. Glosefetti while Mr. Bull appeared in behalf of the accused. On the evidence the Magistrate found her guilty and suspended sentence for one year.

A wage dispute between a Trenton tailor and a former employee was straightened out and the claim for twenty-five dollars was cut to $4.50.

In the afternoon, Armand Lapointe, 18, of Montreal, and Harry Saxon, 20, of Toronto, appeared before the Magistrate charged with breaking and entering a C.P.R. box car. They were in custody since last Wednesday pending the trial. Crown Attorney R. D. Wilson, K.C., of Belleville, prosecuted.

Lapointe was allowed his freedom on suspended sentence of one year as he had no previous record. Saxon told the court that he operated a stationary store in Toronto and resided in a room there in Montreal. He has three previous convictions including a term in Guelph. He claimed his parents lived in Indian Grove in Toronto and that his father was employed in the postal service at Toronto.

Crown Attorney Donnan suggested that he had for another week in the Belleville gaol until his story had been checked and communications made with his parents. A toy pistol owned by Saxon was in court. Magistrate Jarrett ordered his removal to Belleville to court on May 7.

Mrs. Lila Kletal charged her husband, George Kletal, with assault. His son and grandson appeared on his behalf and on the evidence submitted the charge was dismissed.

Candy Hits Girl's Eye Suit is Dismissed

TORONTO, May 2.—For injury done to the eye of Ethel Cosby, Niagara Falls, by the piece of rock candy, thrown by someone while she was playing in the street, the Ontario Court of Appeal at Osgoode Hall declined to hold George Stuckey, Niagara Falls merchant, W. Cornelius and A. Delaney responsible.

On behalf of the child, Charles Cosby, her father brought action against Stuckey, Cornelius and Delaney, claiming $2,500 damages. The plaintiff alleged that his daughter was playing outside Stuckey's shop last June and that the piece of rock candy which struck the little girl was thrown by one of the merchant's employees.

Child Falls Asleep Causes Car Crash

STRATFORD, Ont., May 2—(CP)—Mrs. Koch, Detroit, was treated in the Stratford General Hospital for injuries suffered in an auto accident today about a mile east of the city. The injured woman was a passenger in a car driven by Harry Baird, also of Detroit. According to Baird's story to police he was driving toward Stratford, when his son, who was riding in the front seat, fell asleep and slumped towards the door of the car. In trying to catch him the driver lost control of his car which ended up in the ditch, not badly damaged.

ARGYLL DRILL SEASON PLANNED AT COBOURG

The Argyll Light Infantry of this city will on Friday evening, June 1st leave the city for Cobourg where for three days they will be quartered in a tented field. They will return to the city on Monday evening June 4th. Members of the regiment are looking forward with interest on this outing which will combine pleasure with instruction.

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Celebrating Our 6th Anniversary with a Feast of Good Values!

6TH ANNIVERSARY SALE

Beginning Thursday, May 3rd, Closing Saturday Evening

Shop Early and Save!

Read Each Page of the 4-Page Circular Sent to Every Home in the City! The Savings are Unusual!

See the Display Windows!

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE CAPITOL

"SATURDAY'S MILLIONS"
And "MADAME SPY"

"Saturday's Millions" the Universal football picture which opens an engagement at the Capitol theatre tomorrow has many features which make it a film drama of unusual interest.

The story is filled with interesting situations and is swiftly moving action is interpreted by a cast of unusual excellence Robert Young, Leila Hyams, Johnny Mack Brown, Andy Devine and Lucille Lund appear in featured roles and their characterizations are altogether admirable. It is interesting to note by the way, that this picture marks the screen debut of Miss Lund, the recently crowned "All American Girl."

"Saturday's Millions" breathes the very spirit of football, and brings to the screen a rousing gridiron battle which has probably never been excelled for clarity and exciting action. The game comes at the close of the picture, and forms a surprising climax to a most interesting story.

The tale deals with the life of Jim Fowler, star football player at Western University, embittered by the adulation of what he considers his "wealthy friends", and convinced that he is popular only because of his prowess on the gridiron. His constant conflict with himself is filled with interest and suspense.

Do not miss "Saturday's Millions". Director Edward Sedgwick has produced a picture of unusual interest.

On the same programme another excellent action feature, though of a different type, is "Madame Spy" Love, intrigue and adventure comprise the nucleus of a picture that is more than an evening's entertainment in Universal's powerful continental drama, "Madame Spy" which opens an engagement at the Capitol theatre tomorrow, Thursday.

A truly great cast includes Edward Arnold, Noah Beery, John Miljan, Vince Barnett and Rollo Lloyd. The director, Karl Freund, has turned in a masterly job on a subject he knows well.

"Madame Spy" will more than satisfy even the most finicky theatre goer.

Here is a double bill that is unbeatable anywhere for good sound, clever, wholesome entertainment.

AT THE BELLE

Clark Gable And Myrna Loy
In "Men In White"

Clark Gable and Myrna Loy head the cast of "Men in White" new M.G.M. production which comes Thursday and Friday to the Belle Theatre.

The story marks the first time these two popular players have ever been cast opposite each other.

"Men in White" is based on this season's famous New York stage play of the same name by Sidney Kingsley. It is a story in vivid pictures of life in a great modern hospital. Medical men.....men in white,...are its heroes and its villains. The nobility of a superior profession is extolled in high drama.

Gable As The Doctor

Clark Gable, as Dr. Ferguson, a young interne, is ambitious to become a great surgeon like his mentor, Dr. Hochburg (Jean Hersholt). But he is also in love with Laura, beautiful nurse (Myrna Loy). The two, in the demanding business of surgery, do not go together.

A breach is inevitable, and in disappointment Gable enters into a liaison with Barbara a nurse (Elizabeth Allan). To reveal any more of the gripping story that won the 1933 Pulitizer prize for 1933 would be to spoil the spectator's enjoyment of one of the season's important pictures, that reveals Clark Gable, making love more thrilling than ever before, in a picture more modern than "It Happened One Night."

Stuart Erwin, prominently cast as Dr. Levine, thwarted, disillusioned medico. The part affords the gifted Kruger an opportunity to bring a vivid characterization to screen audiences.

C. Henry Gordon plays the "heavy" role of the doctor who comes to grips with Gable over the sick bed of a dying patient, although he is the senior doctor, Gable permits, in his diagnosis of the case and saves the child's life as a result.

Henry B. Walthall portrays the role of the hospital's senior surgeon. Russell Hardie and Russell Hopton weave a secondary web of drama around the principal characters. Hardie in love and problems, of which the picture presents swift, brief glimpses.

A Reckless Interne

Wallace Ford, gay and cocksure as a reckless young interne cavorts through the scenes of "Men in White" usually savaged in the best clothing of his fellows, borrowed for a careless evening's entertainment. Ford plays the "city kind" of consumption.

Hedda Hopper and Patsy Kelly are appearing on the same program in an uproarious comedy "Maid in Hollywood", a screen oddities, and Paramount's Stars of Tomorrow", round out a program of exceptional varied screen entertainment.

Two Features Tonight

Often a bridesmaid but apparently never to be a bride. This is the sad romantic plight of Zasu Pitts in "The Meanest Gal in Town" at the Belle for the last time tonight and which features among its performers such outstanding comedy talent as Pert Kelton, Lucien Brendel, James Gleason and Skeets Gallagher.

On the same program "Inis Side of Heaven" tells a human story with heart-warming qualities, and reveals an impressive array of tal-

Why do Doctors Check Kidneys First!

Because they know that healthy Kidneys remove from the blood the waste matter formed by the ever-changing human body as it decays and rebuilds itself. But if the Kidneys fail—the system is poisoned and illness surely follows. As a health safeguard—as a wise precaution—flush your kidneys regularly every three weeks with Doan's Kidney Pills—for over three generations the favorite Kidney stimulant and remedy—now habit forming—free from drugs.

20

Dodd's Kidney Pills

ent including Tom Brown, Mae Clarke, Lionel Barrymore, Charlie and Tim Merkel. The last complete show starts at 8.30 p.m.

RAISING OF AGE IN COURT CASES IS ADVOCATED

TORONTO, May 2.—(CP)—A broadening of the range of charges applicable to automobile fatalities was urged in a presentation by an Assize Court Grand Jury to Mr. Justice J. C. Makins.

The jury found that where an accused driver was allowed to go on a manslaughter charge, by virtue of this trial, no other charge could be laid. They suggested, therefore, that an accused person be liable to face charges arising from other violation against the criminal code or provincial statutes that the law allows, in addition to the manslaughter charge.

List of Donors of Special Prizes for Thursday May 3rd Purchases to Be Drawn for Friday Morning

SEE THESE PRIZES DISPLAYED IN THE WINDOW OF

Tip Top Tailors

PRIZE	DONOR
1 Electric Sandwich Grill	Walker Hardware
1 Silk Cushion	McIntosh
$3.50 Flowers	Dorothy Quick
1 Men's Athletic Shirt	McIntosh
1 Men's Turnbull's Shirt	McIntosh
2 Cans Nowntreet's Cocoa	Metropolitan Stores
1 China Breakfast Set	Woolworth
1 Box Writing Paper	Ostrom's
1 Can Arabia Coffee	Loblaw
1 Glass Cake Plate	Woolworth
1 Ladies' Hat	Krooh
1 Mesh Bloomer and Vest Set	McIntosh
1 Men's Dress Shirt	McIntosh
1 Pair Ladies' Full Fashioned Hose	McIntosh
2 Cans Nelson's Cocoa	Metropolitan
1 Men's Athletics Shirt	McIntosh
1 Garden Rake	John Lewis
1 Pair Ladies' Full Fashioned Hose	McIntosh
1 Pair Theatre Tickets	Capitol
1 Pair Theatre Tickets	Belle
24 Bottles Cocoa	Kresge
24 Bottles Orange	J. Ives
1 Large O'Cedar Polish	Chas. Hyde
1 Ladies' Compact	Schryver
1 Sashar Men's Pipe	Schryver
1 Room Sunworthy Wallpaper, value $8.00
1 Side Maple Leaf Bacon	Sille' Book Store
1 Potted Fern	Clark and Miles
1 Pair Kaiser Hose	Given's
1 Picnic Ham	Weldon
½ lb. Nectar Tea, ½ lb. Bokar Coffee	Clark and Miles
2 1 lb. boxes McCormick's Biscuits, Metropolitan	Atlantic and Pacific

Stewart Warner RADIO

Westinghouse Refrigeration

EASY Washing Machines

The Big "A" Co. Ltd.

217 FRONT ST. PHONE 284

WE GIVE COUPONS ON PURCHASES AND ACCOUNT PAYMENTS

A30-E

PROBABILITIES
Moderate to fresh winds; mostly fair and warm.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES

	max.	min.
Today	75	43
Year Ago	57	45

Weather—Sunny.

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1934.

GOLD TAX MODIFIED BY FINANCE MINISTER

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

North Willesboro, Mass. May 3 —(CP)—Excite it in the camp New England's fire is a thing of the past. Local residents complained of the spectators on the state highway, but were unable to persuade the state to install traffic lights. So they took matters into their own hands. Two teams of oxen will be driven up and down the highway, the theory being that the plodding animals will form a blockade to slow down the fast drivers.

• • • • •

Emporia, Kas., May 3—(CP)—History repeated itself when workmen began repairing an old residence here. On the back of the first board torn from the house April 17, 1934, was written "April 17, 1893. Wrote on the devil, Henry." April 17 this year was windy and the carpenter who tore off the board was named Henry.

• • • • •

Camden, N. J., May 3—(CP)—Joseph Hegre is as down at his home and stretched out with a sigh of contentment. The sigh turned to one of pain. He had stretched too far. His knee was twisted so badly he couldn't walk to a hospital.

• • • • •

Pittsburgh, May 3—(CP)—John Mikula went to work dismantling old furniture at the Lawrenceville apartment of the poor.

The wood is used to build bird houses. They are sold and the proceeds go to the otherwise unemployed builders.

• • • • •

Rochester, Ind., May 3—(CP)—Minnesota's attempt to control a blaze at an ice storage house on the shore of Lake Maxinkuc. They collected in such number at the seven ounce mark that the pump had to be stopped several times.

• • • • •

Chicago, May 3—(CP)— When Dr. Lloyd Thomas Jones is set of false teeth for Miss Bertha Kitzberg he did a very extra special favor for a friend when the trouble started.

So fresh was his of the product of his own art, he asked to borrow the teeth for a dental exhibit.

She complied, she charged court, but she denied never returned her teeth.

The teeth cost her $66. The court awarding her a $55 judgment, but the dentist keeps the teeth.

• • • • •

Kitchener, Ont., May 3—(CP)— Police used tear gas today to break up a fight at Victoria and strife sympathizers gathered outside the plant of the Kay Tanning Company. A Mrs. Duchack, Ahrens Street, was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct.

• • • • •

New York, May 3—(AP)—Count Sabelli and Miss Georgia Pond hoped to soar out over the ocean today on a projected flight to Rome flight, opening aviation's trans-Atlantic season.

The two fliers, who have made several unsuccessful attempts to hop for Italy since today the basket had their monoplane "Leonardo Da Vinci" in readiness at Floyd Bennett field for a take-off sometime this afternoon if weather conditions were satisfactory.

"The last bucket is ready", said Sabelli.

• • • • •

Killarney, Man., May 3—(CP)— Governor Crawford, pioneer of the Killarney district, is dead here. Born in Dalhousie, Ont., He came to Manitoba in 1881.

• • • • •

Brockville, Ont., May 3—(CP)— Meeting in Synod here, the Presbytery of Brockville Presbyterian Church, unanimously Rev. Dr. S. Davies, Smith's Falls, to become moderator of the Presbytery of Montreal and Ottawa. The Presbytery agreed to co-operate in the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the congregation of Mountain Station to be observed this year.

• • • • •

Bournemouth, England, May 3— (or cable)—In coalition with labour, was the keynote as Ramsay Mcdo, from the presidential chair today opened the annual national conference of the Liberal party. Minister Mr. Mcdo, Mr. Mcdo declared "the only safe course for a body of definite beliefs like ours is that come what may we shall stand for our beliefs."

• • • • •

London, May 3—(AP)—A well-dressed burglar robbed the home of Greta Nissen, actress of $5,000 worth of jewels early today.

A butler, awakened by the thief battled the intruder until he broke away and escaped. Miss Nissen's home is near Park Lane.

IMPROVEMENT SUBSTANTIAL SAYS EVANS

Canadian Chamber Commerce Head Tells of Progress

EVENTS STUDIED

Recovery in Two Stages in Canada, Convention is Told

Washington, May. 3—Mr. W. Sanford Evans, Winnipeg, president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, addressed the Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America here today on "Canada's Economic Progress."

After conveying greetings from the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Evans said:—

"For the present meeting of this body, parliament of nations, you have set the theme of recovery. There has been recovery. It is a fact, and all the more assured because it is evidenced in many countries. Methods differ, but all are striving to the one end. But recovery is your Chamber's desire—constraining that it recognizes, presents problems no less serious than those of decline. It is so easy to fall to see in what manner changes are really due. To attribute casual relationship to sequence may be mere coincidence, to acquiesce in claims for particular methods, which may not have been the operation or more general causes, may lead to false conclusions and for many years to come awkward or crippling restrictions. This is a time for the business men's watchfulness, the keen mind and the will to accept only the true and the best. We have a long way yet to go, but we have started and we mean win through."

Deflation 1929-33

Mr. Evans then traced the course of deflation in Canada to the low point between December 1932 and February 1933. Then came a net debtor country and a large producer of raw materials, has been very sensitive to the changes that have suffered only to much the same extent as other countries. Through it all, Canada has continued as an operating community," said Mr. Evans, "and has succeeded in combining sufficient foreign exchange to meet necessary external payments."

Special emergency action taken by Canadian Governments were outlined by Mr. Evans under the heads of monetary policy, trade and tariff policies, financial assistance to industries, debt adjustment, and unemployment relief. Mr. Evans then continued:

Stating that these governmental policies had measures for recovery it is evident that they have not constituted of themselves any substitute a governmental scheme of reconstruction. Canadian governments dispensed moderate doses of assistance but did not undertake to or undertake any kind of major op-

(Continued on Page 3)

MAGISTRATE MIKEL RUSHES SEASON

While lads twittered in the branches and birds sang or writhed in the throes of a sudden attack of spring fever today was the hottest day of the present heat wave, Magistrate W. J. Mikel took one step ahead of nature. He strolled the downtown city streets topped by a nodkaddie of straw hat—the first of the season.

"What's the idea, brother, what's the idea"? questioned Mr. Geo. F. Ostrom who buttonholed the Magistrate near the corner of a downtown bank.

"Just the urge of the season," replied Mr. Mikel. "I just feel the urge to wear it. Set a sort of precedent, you know. Anyhow, why should people wait for regular seasons to wear something. I may be first this year to wear the straw but I'll find myself comfortable. By he by, where's yours? Surprising to a little now that warm weather is here. Get the straw has out and lets celebrate the return of summer as it should be celebrated".

Paint House with Maple Syrup All Bees in County Swarm About

Pittsfield, Mass. May 3 (AP) — Frank Wilson and his family have had the novel experience of being besieged in their house by a great swarm of bees and a crew of house painters gets the blame. When they started their paint, the painters used three gallon cans of maple syrup instead of three similar looking cans of linseed oil that stood nearby. When the syrup-sweetened paint was spread on the house it evidently attracted most of the bees in Berkshire County, and the family did not dare venture outdoors until nightfall, when the bees left.

BRITISH FASCIST ORDER GROWING

The British Black Shirts, a Fascist order, assertedly gaining support in England under its leader, Sir Oswald Mosely, M.P. Mosely is photographed (RIGHT) giving the salute of his men during a gathering in London, LEFT: the regulation uniform of the members of the British 'Black Shirts.

DR. CROSSLEY EVANGELIST DIES AT 84

As One of Famous Team of Evangelists Paid Visit Here

MANY CONVERTED

Rev. Dr. Hugh T. Crossley, of the famous evangelistic team of Crossley and Hunter, who covered Ontario and the United States with their tours of evangelism over a generation ago, died in Toronto after a lengthy illness at the age of eighty-four years.

His death recalls to many the numerous evangelistic visits which the famous servant of Christ paid to Belleville in the days of the nineties and a little later. In those days Bridge Street Church was the meetings were held and where the closest relationship with the church. The two visited here in the eighties, nineties and after each turn of the century. Once again Dr. Crossley came with Mr. Lennox and after a lapse of years he made another appearance here at a still later date.

(Continued on Page 2)

VISCOUNT TREDEGAR DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Lately Returns From Health Cruise to Australia.

London, May 3.—Viscount Tredegar died of pneumonia today at a private nursing home only a few days after returning from a cruise he took to Australia for his health. He was 67 years old.

Viscount Tredegar, born April 10, 1867, was created a peer in 1926.

He was married in 1890 to Lady Catherine Agnes Blanche Gascoyne-Cecil. They had one son, Hon. Evan Frederic, who was born in 1893.

Viscount Tredegar served with honor in the Boer War in 1900-1901.

He was president of the National Union of Conservative and Unionist Associations and of the Royal Agricultural Society of England, being elected to both offices in 1927.

HIGHWAY WORKER KILLED BY BLAST

Leo Lattone, Actisolite, is Victim of Premature Charge

Marmora, May 3—When a preliminary charge of dynamite exploded unexpectedly as a car cut on highway construction three miles east of here Wednesday afternoon, Leo Lattone, 22, was fatally injured, his head being blown off.

The construction gang on No. 7 Highway were blasting their way through rock. The practice is to drill with 14 feet deep holes under they drop two sticks of dynamite and explode them, to make a pocket at the bottom for a larger charge.

This is done twice, the second time with four sticks, after which they place the big charge.

At 2.15 yesterday afternoon, the four sticks had been placed. The fuse, lighted, each cap attached had been dropped in. Lattone was pouring in water on top of it. While he was bending over the charge went off prematurely.

Dr. F. J. Nickle of Madoc, coroner for the county, investigated and found that what had been done was the same as had been the practice for several months past with the same gang. He found no reason for attaching blame to anyone.

The young man was a son of Mr. and Mrs. David Lattone, Actinolite, and was employed by Hooper and Scott, contractors of that portion of the highway where the accident occurred.

GERMAN SPY IS ARRESTED

Taken Through French Police Reading The Want-Ads

(By Stuart Moroney Associated Press Staff Writer)

Paris, May 3 (AP)—A veteran German spy and his alleged French accomplice are in prison today because the French police read want-ads.

Stanislas Krauze, former Polish army officer, was such a persistent spy, police declared, that he sought a new passport to facilitate activities for Germany by advertising after Captain Ernst Roehm of the army—who allegedly sold him 56,000 rifles—was executed on June 30 suspicion.

Authorities said France's new espionage case has no connection with the so-called international spy ring in connection with which Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bercowitz self-styled Canadians, two inventions and 11 others are held.

Detectives, however, raided the activities of the latest suspects as "more dangerous" to France, because of the arrest of Captain Froge at Belfort, a fortified town near the Franco-German border.

COL. H. LENNOX DIES AFTER HEART ATTACK

Overcome With Heart Attack Reason For Death

WENT OVERSEAS

One of The Most Colorful Figures in Canadian Politics

Toronto, May 3—(CP)—Col. Herbert Lennox, member of parliament for North York, died today following a heart attack last night.

Col. Lennox was born in Simcoe County, son of Thomas Lennox and Margaret Leland, both Irish. He was educated at Barrie public schools and collegiate and at Cagoode Hall in Toronto. He was a barrister-at-law, King's Council and a member of the law society of Upper Canada.

With the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, he commanded the 58th battalion, which he took overseas during the Great War. He was defeated by his candidature for the Ontario Legislature in 1902 and 1903, but elected in 1905, 1908, 1911, 1914 and 1919. He was first elected to the House of Commons as a Conservative in 1925 and re-elected in 1926 and 1930.

Herb Lennox was one of the most colorful figures in the Ontario politics. Annually he was host at Lennoxville, Que., to thousands attended the picnics with food, and men genially shaking hands and having a merry time on the company guest.

Tall, burgent debater, Herb was equally well known for his wit. Always exceedingly well groomed, he liked flashing colors—his straw hat bands and ties being famous among friends.

Overwork was responsible for Colonel Lennox's final decision said. During the past few weeks, he had been engaged in large number of criminal cases in the assizes in addition to his regular parliamentary duties. He was 65 years old last month.

INDEPENDENT PARTY FORMED IN ONTARIO

Elmore Philpott And H. H. Hanna Back of Movement

MANY NOMINATED

Macaulay Blames Liberals For U. S. Failing To Ratify Agreement

Toronto, May 3. — Liberals and Conservatives today heard warnings of a new independent party in the Ontario general election campaign, an organization which Mr. Hanna is change is necessary in the political and economic systems if conditions are to be improved.

The new party made its appearance at Tiverton last night as part of another night of campaigning throughout the province, during which three more candidates were selected at conventions held by the C.C.F. and a Conservative. They were William G. Nixon, Liberal, for the riding of Norfolk; Elmore Philpott, Liberal, for Windsor-Sandwich, and Mrs. Adelaide Hunter, Conservative, for West Lambton.

Captain Elmore Philpott, former head of the Association of Ontario C.C.F. clubs, and H. H. Hanna, secretary of the United Farmers of Ontario, appeared at Tiverton last night and announced the launching of new independent party. Captain Philpott scoffed at the campaign issues being discussed by Liberals and Conservatives, when such a serious economic situation was to be met.

Mr. Hannan and Captain Philpott had praise, however, for the Dominion government's national Industrial Board legislation, which they described as the best work any parliament has accomplished since 1918.

Mr. Nixon, Tweedsmuir, Liberal candidate in Norfolk, was nominated at a convention of Liberals held at Tiverton. He obtained 149 votes, Joseph Legris, Haldimand barrister, 98; and Nelson Green, former mayor of Haleybury, obtained 7.

Mr. Nixon was an employe of the Ontario government for a number of years, being agricultural representative before entering the political field.

Out-of-Town Shopping Boosts Buying Week

Miss Sylvia Stark of Bloomfield is Grand Prize Winner—Many Unclaimed Numbers Drawn Each Day This Week—Interest Continues to Grow

With the presentation of winning stub No. 26354 drawn by Mayor Tho on Monday from Saturday's shopping coupons, the second Grand Prize was given to Miss Belleville Better Shopping Week was claimed yesterday by Miss Sylvia Stark, Bloomfield. Other Grand Prizes still remain.

Proof that Belleville Better Week is attracting wide interest from shoppers in this area is afforded today by observation of a number of cars from outside points in today's draw of winning coupons by Mayor Thompson. Among those present tonight winning stubs were: D. Taylor, Bonarlaw; Mrs. Mr. Haslitt, Bonarlaw; F. A. Bird, Brighton; Mrs. W. Lodge, Tweed; Mrs. Wm. Bonarlaw; Mrs. A. Turney, Morganstown, Ontario; Mrs. Anderson, Havelock; G. E. Hilligill, Wellington. All that the holders of these stubs are asked to do is to present them to Mr. Wm. Doyle, Belleville Hardware for identification. Presentation of prizes will then be made.

Holders of prize winning coupons in the drawings of Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday will present their coupons at any time during the week certified at the Tip Top Tailors store, Front street, but the prizes will not be handed over until the beginning of next week, in order not to disarrange the setting of the window for Saturday.

A number of unclaimed prizes are still awaiting holders of winning coupons. The following numbers are listed at the Lewis Hardware Store as being yet unidentified with holders of the stubs.

Monday's draw:

- 50—26278
- B—16145
- C—16218
- A—25745
- B—17147
- B—16191
- D—24992
- B—17228
- B—13547
- D—26715

Unclaimed numbers of Tuesday's draw:

- A—27255
- C—27199
- B—25674
- E—21127
- C—13211
- C—24066
- E—17983
- E—27126
- B—31766

Holders of the above numbered stubs are asked to present them to Wm. Doyle, Lewis Hardware, Front street, at soon as possible.

Unclaimed numbers of Wednesday's draw:

- B—26645
- B—5519
- B—24284
- C—16671
- B—25896
- B—19789
- B—19070
- B—24388
- B—26527
- B—12041
- C—16436
- B—21788
- E—25783
- B—25885
- B—26458
- E—26824
- F—26857
- B—26048

The Cooking demonstration which has been under way at the store of the John Lewis Company ends this afternoon and at 5 o'clock the drawing will be made for the Cleckheaton Orpey Camp Store. The drawing will take place in the window of the Lewis Hardware representatives of The Ontario Intelligencer.

Winning Numbers

Is your number here? The following is the list of winning stubs drawn by Mayor Thos on Thursday morning as the result of Wednesday's shopping.

Grand Prize—G-30366.

Consolation Prizes—G-40655; D-

$1023; E-29149; D-5216; C-42604; C-40650; D-46298; C-13504; E-41247; C-42573; F-31043; B-2936; C-42603; E-21744; F-46537; C-22930; E-23542; C-42602; E-23541; C-42601; F-13892; E-38827; B-39236; E-19801; F-47387; C-533; C-27014; G-38335; B-15395; F-24527.

Dividend-Paying Mines Bear Full Burden of Gold Tax Says Rhodes

GOLD TAX COMMENT

(By the Canadian Press)

Mining men across Canada viewed the Federal Governments' revised gold taxation plan today with general approval. They were satisfied the assessment would not touch the small producer of the yellow metal or low-grade ore mines. The flight against the straight 10 per cent levy was the chief behind of these groups.

Development of the Gold Mining Industry, given impetus, when the United States set a high monetary price of $35 an ounce for the metal, will be unretarded by the altered tax announced yesterday in the House of Commons at Ottawa by Prime Minister R. B. Bennett. Mine authorities were convinced of it.

Mines, which did not pay dividends prior to January 1, 1933, and all placer mines are exempt from the new special tax of 25 per cent of the difference between the old market price and the $20.67 statutory price, expected to net the Government $9,000,000.

Ontario's Minister of Mines, Hon. Charles McCrea, who conferred with Ottawa Administration heads on the subject of changing the original levy, said at Toronto the modification was a "fair and satisfactory one." The slogan now, for the Mining Industry, he said, will be "full steam ahead."

Offset Appreciated

George Bateman, secretary of the Ontario Mining Association, welcomed Prime Minister Bennett's announcement. He considered the exemption of producers and mining Companies to credit corporation income tax another step in the right direction.

"There is, of course, no question, that a substantial relief has been made on the industry but the matter is settled and everybody will try and make the best of it," he remarked. Mr. Bateman said the industry was grateful to Mr. McCrea and Hon. Wesley Gordon, Federal Minister of Mines, for the part they played in the negotiations with the Government.

At Winnipeg, S. G. Blaylock, President of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, said the alleviation of taxation will ease the burden which would have caused exploration and development of new properties more hazardous.

"There can be no valid objections to the tax as it now stands," commented E. S. Ronnily Smith, vice-president of the Nova Scotia Gold Mining Society. "There is no objection to imposing a tax on profits. And the tax in its new form is really a tax on profits."

READY TO GO SAY TORIES

Election Date Not Yet Set, W. H. Ireland States

Toronto, May 3—(CP)—The Conservative Party in Ontario is "set and ready to go" whatever date for the provincial general elections is announced, W. H. Ireland, K.A. and party whip, announced today after a closet caucus of the candidates, provincial secretaries and candidates and members.

Mr. Ireland said no date had been officially set for the election but gave the assurance the party was "all ready for the election campaign just as soon as the date is announced."

After luncheon adjournment, the delegates were welcomed at an open meeting by Mayor W. J. Stewart, on behalf of the city, and other spokesmen on behalf of the party.

Drawing with Maple Syrup All Bees in County Swarm About

Pittsfield, Mass. May 3 (AP) — Frank Wilson and his family have had the novel experience of being besieged in their house by a great swarm of bees and a crew of house painters gets the blame. When they started their paint, the painters used three gallon cans of maple syrup instead of three similar looking cans of linseed oil that stood nearby. When the syrup-sweetened paint was spread on the house it evidently attracted most of the bees in Berkshire County, and the family did not dare venture outdoors until nightfall, when the bees left.

Properties Not Paying Dividends Prior to 1933 Exempt

$30 AN OUNCE

Federal Decision Exempts Low Grade Ore And Placer Properties

Ottawa, May 3.—Canadian gold mines now know the extent to which they will have to contribute to the Dominion treasury from their newfound profits due to the recent rise in the price of gold. Changes in the gold tax originally announced in the budget speech by Hon. R. Rhodes, Minister of Finance, were revealed yesterday by Premier R.B.Bennett.

Instead of a straight 10 per cent. levy on the value of all goods delivered to the mint the tax will be 10 per cent. levy on the premium on gold that is on the amount by which the price of the yellow metal exceeds the statutory price of $20.67 an ounce. The present price is approximately $35.00.

Mines which did not pay dividends prior to January 1, 1933, and all placer mines are exempt from the new special tax of 25 per cent of the difference between the old market price and the $20.67 statutory price, expected to net the Government $9,000,000.

Ontario's Minister of Mines, Hon. Charles McCrea, who conferred with Ottawa Administration heads on the subject of changing the original levy, said at Toronto the modification was a "fair and satisfactory one." The slogan now, for the Mining Industry, he said, will be "full steam ahead."

Offset Appreciated

George Bateman, secretary of the Ontario Mining Association, welcomed Prime Minister Bennett's announcement. He considered the exemption of producers and mining Companies to credit corporation income tax another step in the right direction.

"There is, of course, no question, that a substantial relief has been made on the industry but the matter is settled and everybody will try and make the best of it," he remarked. Mr. Bateman said the industry was grateful to Mr. McCrea and Hon. Wesley Gordon, Federal Minister of Mines, for the part they played in the negotiations with the Government.

At Winnipeg, S. G. Blaylock, President of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, said the alleviation of taxation will ease the burden which would have caused exploration and development of new properties more hazardous.

"There can be no valid objections to the tax as it now stands," commented E. S. Ronnily Smith, vice-president of the Nova Scotia Gold Mining Society. "There is no objection to imposing a tax on profits. And the tax in its new form is really a tax on profits."

Federal Decision Exempts Low Grade Ore And Placer Properties

Ottawa, May 3.—Canadian gold mines now know the extent to which they will have to contribute to the Dominion treasury from their newfound profits due to the recent rise in the price of gold. Changes in the gold tax originally announced in the budget speech by Hon. R. Rhodes, Minister of Finance, were revealed yesterday by Premier R.B.Bennett.

Instead of a straight 10 per cent. levy on the value of all goods delivered to the mint the tax will be a 10 per cent. levy on the premium on gold that is on the amount by which the price of the yellow metal exceeds the statutory price of $20.67 an ounce. The present price is approximately $35.00.

Mines which did not pay dividends prior to January 1, 1933, and all placer mines are exempt from the new special tax of 25 per cent of the difference between the old market price and the $20.67 statutory price, expected to net the Government $9,000,000.

Ontario's Minister of Mines, Hon. Charles McCrea, who conferred with Ottawa Administration heads on the subject of changing the original levy, said at Toronto the modification was a "fair and satisfactory one." The slogan now, for the Mining Industry, he said, will be "full steam ahead."

Offset Appreciated

George Bateman, secretary of the Ontario Mining Association, welcomed Prime Minister Bennett's announcement. He considered the exemption of producers and mining Companies to credit corporation income tax another step in the right direction.

"There is, of course, no question, that a substantial relief has been made on the industry but the matter is settled and everybody will try and make the best of it," he remarked. Mr. Bateman said the industry was grateful to Mr. McCrea and Hon. Wesley Gordon, Federal Minister of Mines, for the part they played in the negotiations with the Government.

At Winnipeg, S. G. Blaylock, President of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, said the alleviation of taxation will ease the burden which would have caused exploration and development of new properties more hazardous.

"There can be no valid objections to the tax as it now stands," commented E. S. Ronnily Smith, vice-president of the Nova Scotia Gold Mining Society. "There is no objection to imposing a tax on profits. And the tax in its new form is really a tax on profits."

Brake Works Loose Car Smashes Window

Marmora, May 3 (Special) — Leaving his car parked on a steep hill with the brake firmly set, while he went to a nearby shed, G. H. Attard of Marmora came out to find his car had broken away and car dashing wildly down the grade. Fortunately his car was not heavy and the car continued until it came to rest in the window of the Sweet restaurant. The glass was smashed, the jams on the windows bowed but the car escaped with only a broken fender. It is believed the brake worked loose.

Coming Events

ALEXANDRA ROSE DAY, Saturday, May 5th. Assist the charitable work of the Ladies' Chapter, I.O.D.E. Please buy a rose. m3-1t.

BEGINNING AT CITY HALL FRIDAY May 4, Dance Class for Adults. Admission 50 and 35c. Including tax. m3-2t.

THE UNSHADOWED CROSS," repeated by Methodist Army Citadel, Monday, May 7th. Silver collection. m3.5.

STRAIGHT EUCHRE AT SOUTH END Hall every Monday at 8 o'clock sharp. 8 prizes. Admission 10c. m3-1t.

WELL BABY CLINIC WILL NOT be held tomorrow owing to alterations being made at the City Hall. m3-1t.

ALBERT COLLEGE ORATORICAL contest, at the college, Friday, May 4, at 8 o'clock. "World Movements in Canada." Admission 25c. m3-2t

NO RESERVED SEATS FOR "Orm Nile" at the "T" tomorrow evening. The time, 8 o'clock, the price 25c. m3-1t.

DANCE IN ORANGE HALL, Shannonville, Friday, May 4, under the auspices of the Shannonville Baseball Club. Good orchestra. Refreshments. Admission 25c. m3-2t.

DANCE IN ORANGE HALL AT Cole's Kennedy Kids Orchestra. Admission 25c. m3-2t.

Friday Afternoon
AND EVENING OF THIS WEEK
A SPECIAL STYLE SHOW OF THE FAMOUS
"KNIT-TO-FIT" BRASSIERETTE
Suits & Dresses
In the New Beach Yarns for Spring and Summer at Wottens Limited
A special representative will be in charge and special values have been arranged these evenings. Knitted Garments. Come in and see them.

Trout Season Poor, Due to Continued Cold Weather

Debate Over Live And Artificial Bait Waxes Long

Brook trout "hungry fussy" keeping beauties in the ice cold depths of the gurgling streams of the northland starving for food and the companionship of the fishermen who so far this season have refused to stir from the downy depths of their soft beds to trace them to their lairs.

The season so far has been definitely a poor one. Occasional parties have gone forth with rod in hand in search of their favorite fish, but even with good weather to favor them, the number has been smaller than in previous years, it is reported by veteran casters.

Ask the majority of the old timer fishermen, why the delay and the answer is that warmer weather is awaited. Brooks are still covered with ice in many sections of the north. Streams are ice cold. And there is little actual pleasure for even the most hardened fisherman in being forced to stand in numbing water of some creek after having sneaked out in the cold dim dawn and being further chilled after the driving for miles to location...

Ask some other old timer how it comes, that some sock trout with fancy bits of feathers bear high-sounding names, when a country kid with a bobber, section of bamboo pole and a can of worms can be forth and fill a half bushel basket with squirming beauties in an even shorter time than the expert fly caster can bag a half dozen. His answer will be that he has more fun that way. The kid is only after knock-down drag-out results.

Fishermen know, that a trout taking live bait will scrge on the food, sometimes taking it deep into the throat. In removing the hook from such a fish, often under bait is impossible to release it without injury.

Sharks Hook Free

In fly casting the expert places the bit of feather with a dexterious twist of the wrist so that the eager trout rises, seizes the hook in a startling flash in the air and sneaks off. Often he is hooked so lightly that it is a simple matter to free them. More often than not he manages to shake the hook and go free. It is the uncertainty, that makes the game so interesting.

A fish worm in a fly fisherman's camp is in enemy territory; likewise a few squirming bit of feathers wrapped around a hook in the live bait fisherman's can only succeed in bringing forth the sarcastic outbreaks of unseemly words from even the other's way of fishing. But the live bait fisherman always does more successful than the fly fisherman. Both have their points. When the fly fisherman on the surface of the water it is a sign for the scientific angler to unlimber his hook and tie on an imitation of a fly hatching. Flies are the favorite food of trout and it is practically useless to dangle a worm wrapped around a hook in front of his exacting nose, when the flies are in the air.

In bass fishing it is a well known fact that artificial lures are far more effective than live bait, during certain periods of the day. Live bait is attractive to bass only when he is hungry. But an old smallmouth bass, even though he has a full crop will fight any time at the crop of a bait, or tantalize a shiny wiggling thing alien to his territory. He has been known to hit a spoon at the end of bouncing rod to scene plug that has not a single fish hook to remind him of anything to eat. When caught and released, the same fighting bass been found crammed with food-fish. He loves to fight and be quarrelsome.

CHARACTERISTICS OF PEOPLE BORN IN JANUARY
- STRONG POINTS
- WEAK POINTS
- SUITABLE OCCUPATIONS
- and Many Other Details
NOW READY AT 25c Per Copy
A similar booklet for February is on the press. Succeeding months soon.
THE JAMES TEXTS
BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO.

Letters to The Editor

TELEPHONE HOOK-UP.

The Bell Telephone Company of Canada,
Montreal, May 2, 1934

Editor Ontario Intelligencer,
Belleville, Ont.

Dear Sir:—In your editorial on trans-ocean telephone service, on April 2 last, you say "Today the telephone hook-up is between Canada and England is through New York."

You have overlooked the fact that in July, 1932, the agreement between the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, the Canadian Marconi Company, and the British Post Office for all-British routing (or translation) by telephone cable went into operation. As we have pointed out more than once, this happy arrangement became effective immediately prior to the Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa and proved of great service to the delegates at that gathering.

Calls from anywhere in Canada to Britain, or indeed to any of the British dominions except New Zealand, are routed from the Bell Telephone terminal in Montreal by overland lines to the Canadian Marconi's transmitting station at Drummondville, Que., whence they travel by the air route to the receiving equipment of the British Post Office on the other side. Return messages are received at the Canadian Marconi receiving station at Hamachine, Que., and go from there by Bell Telephone land lines to Montreal for completion to the particular telephone, anywhere in Canada, for which they are intended.

This service is in operation every day from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. and it is only the occasional call outside these hours that is routed via New York. Ninety-nine per cent. of the business is on the all-British routing.

I am sure your readers who read your interesting editorial will be equally interested in this feature of trans-ocean telephone service.

Yours truly,
C. P. PORTER,
Publicity Manager.

15 YEAR OLD TO COURT

Chatham, Ont., May 3.—(CP)—The 15-year old lad against whom a charge of assault was preferred yesterday as the result of an altercation at the Bloomfield school, Raleigh Township during which Bobby Copley, 14, had both arms fractured at the elbows will appear in court tomorrow morning.

LAGER OR ALE UNDECIDED

Charge of Possession Dismissed in Police Court

"Get a glass, oh yer, you'd better bring along a bottle opener too" said B. C. Donnan, K.C., local Crown Attorney to a police officer during this morning's police court, when a bottle of beer was opened to determine whether its contents were lager or ale during a case when Fernando Donato, Belleville faced a charge of illegally having liquor in his possession. After hearing much contradictory evidence, His Worship Magistrate Mikel dismissed the case as it could not be proven by the Crown just whether the contents of the bottle was lager beer or ale, the labels on the bottle having been removed. The beverage was legally bottled, however, as the cap, or top bore the stamp of the Northern Ontario brewery company and the government's sanction.

Donuet, who resides on an old scow situated east of the bay bridge in the Bay of Quinte pleaded not guilty, when arraigned and stated to the authorities that neither his home on April 26th last and found seven bottles of beer, that he had purchased the beer on April 21st and it was lager beer. Sergeant Thompson of the Provincial Police told of making the search of the scow, where Donuet lived. He found seven bottles of beer, manufactured by the brewing company referred to, which nearly put up in white bottles, the seven bottles contained being dark green. Two employees of the local brewery were house and Provincial Constable L. Thompson, gave evidence that although no person in the court would determine whether the contents of the bottle was beer or ale, even after a portion of the contents had been emptied into a glass. The Crown later sent to the local brewery warehouse for a sample bottle of the referred to lager beer. Although the bottles differed in color no marked contrast of the contents was forth-coming. While handing down his decision that lager beer His Worship remarked "Could I be fined for handling this bottle, even it has not been purchased, do you think?"

Chas. A. Payne, K.C., who appeared for the accused did not tender any evidence on behalf of the defendant. "It is fairly clear, that we cannot establish whether the contents is beer or ale", added Mr. Donnan, before His Worship dismissed the case.

Belleville Better Days Bring BETTER BARGAINS
IN LIPSON'S MEN'S CLOTHING

Men's Suits at $12.50
All wool worsteds, plain blue and some striped, also browns and greys. Sizes 36 to 44. Extra Special— $12.50

Extra Special Men's Black Calf Oxfords 1.79 and 1.95

Spring Coats in grey and brown tweeds. 7.95 and 8.95

Extra Special Boys' Suits in blue and tweeds 4.95 and 5.95

Men's Work BOOTS Although the price of these work boots is steadily going up, we have been fortunate in securing a shipment to sell at this low price 1.79

Lipson's STORE 249 Front St.

Men's Hats & Caps 69c to 1.95

Men's Fine Shirts All Colours and Sizes 59c

Pop-Pop Boats
The Latest Novelty
19c
Soo Window
McKeown's
DRUG STORE

Tip Top Tailors
Make Agency
McGhee and McDonald
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
a2-1m

Sherwin-Williams
Family Gloss Paint
90c Quart
OSTROM'S Drug Store
m3-1

BELLEVILLE WEEK
Prize Coupons
With Each Purchase at your
I. D. A. DRUG STORES

STARTS TODAY!
Youth aflame on gridiron and campus in the year's big football picture!
SATURDAY'S MILLIONS
With ROBERT YOUNG, LEILA HYAMS, Arthur Hoyt, Sterling Holloway, Dorothy Dunbar, Lucille Lund, Mary Carlisle, Vivian Oakland and Jack Oakie
Saturday Evening Post story by Tristam Tarry
ALSO ON THE SAME PROGRAMME
Foolish men believed her lies!

MADAME SPY
with ELIZABETH ALLAN and OTTO KRUGER
2.30 7.00 9.35
CAPITOL
LAST COMPLETE SHOW 9.35
Doing to length of this program. First Evening Show at 7 P.M. We Urge You To Come Early!

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. J. E. THRASHER

The funeral of Mrs. J. E. Thrasher took place Wednesday afternoon to the home of her son-in-law, daughter, Mrs. R. S. Pearce, 300 Bleecker avenue. Service at the house and at Elmwood Cemetery, where interment was made, was conducted by the Rev. T. J. Nancekivell, minister of the Tabernacle United Church.

The bearers were — Messrs. S. McDonald, C. Erskine, A. Cross, K. Cross, W. Caverley and C. Pearce.

Many friends were in attendance and the floral offerings were numerous and beautiful.

MRS SARAH SHAW

Stirling, May 3 (Special) — Mrs. Sarah Shaw an aged and respected resident of Huntingdon Township, died at the home of her son, Robert Shaw late Wednesday. She was born in Huntingdon 81 years ago of Irish descent and lived her entire life in that community. Her husband, the late Robert Shaw, predeceased her ten years ago. The late Mrs. Shaw was an active member of the Presbyterian church. Left to mourn her loss are two sons, Robert and William both of Huntingdon. The funeral will be held Thursday at Beulah United Church with interment in Beulah cemetery.

MRS. MARSHALL SWEET

Springbrook—Friends and neighbors were shocked when news visited this community sarly very sudden passing one of the oldest residents in the person of Mrs. Marshal Sweet at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence McComb, 12th Concession, Rawdon, on Tuesday morning, April 24th. Mrs. Sweet was born in the community and lived all her life here. She leaves beside her sorrowing husband, a family of eight children, namely (Carrie) Mrs. Griffin of Picton; (Maude) Mrs. Percy Lemmon, Rawdon; (Minnie) Mrs. E. Jones of Toronto, (Myrtle) Mrs. Foucault of Toronto; (Gertrude) Nelson of Caperol, John of Springfield, one sister Mrs. J. Mcmorrow of Springfield, one brother Mr. Freborne McCabe of Picton.

The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon from her daughter's home to Rawdon United Church where interment took place. The pastor Rev. W. Pilsy spoke comforting words to the family in his message. Many floral tributes of beautiful hymns were sung.

Neighbors and friends join in sympathy with the family in the loss of a loving mother. The pall bearers were sons and son-in-law.

MRS. MATILDA MOWATT

Stirling, Matilda Mowatt died at her home on James Street (Sidney Township) Wednesday after an illness extending over some time.

The late Mrs. Mowatt was born in London, Eng., eighty years ago being the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gill. Her husband Lawrence Mowatt predeceased her some time ago. She had been a resident of Belleville and vicinity for twenty years and was highly respected. Religion she was a member of the Salvation Army.

Left to mourn her death are one daughter, Miss Edith at home; three sons, Herbert of the C.N.R. depot clerks office and Frederick and Charles of England. Two sisters, Mrs. R. Carrier and Mrs. E. Mounsey reside in Liverpool Eng.

To the family the sympathy of all their friends will be extended.

MRS. THOS. CUSHING

Mrs. Cushing, wife of Alf. Thos. Cushing, died early this afternoon at her residence, 33 Alexander street, after a lengthy illness.

Obituary will appear in Friday's issue of The Ontario Intelligencer.

B. B. W.
House Cleaning Specials
Martin Senour Floor Wax, lb. 39c
Richmond Floor Paint, qt. 69c
Richmond Quick Dry Enamels, qt. 69c
Zinc Trans-ocean Shingle Stain 27c
Reversible Dust Mops 49c
Sponges 20c
WE GIVE COUPONS
SMITH HARDWARE
PLUMBERS & TINSMITHS

STROUD'S
Watch Monday's Paper for the Lucky Coupon issued in this store. A Beautiful 68 piece Dinner Set is to be given away to the holder of the Lucky Coupon.
Elite Bath Soap 4 Special 5 Cakes 25c
Liquid Veneer For Spring Housecleaning Large 60c Bottle for 29c
STROUD'S DELICIOUS ORANGE PEKOE Tea 49c lb.
SANDWICH Toaster or Grillette Reg. 2.95 for $1.98
Silver Gifts for the June Bride
Silver Bread Tray With or without handles $1.00
Northern Tissue 250 sheets of white, sterilized, linenized paper 3 for 25c
Rennies' Bird Seed 1 lb. pkg. 15c
STROUD'S SPECIAL BLEND Coffee 39c lb.
Mop Sticks On Sale 15c
Good Brooms 35c
Salts and Peppers With Kmart Handles $1.00 pr.
STROUD'S COUPON STORE

Ready For "Gym" Nite

There is considerable activity at the Y.M.C.A. today, with the final preparations being made by the Gym Nite taking place tomorrow evening. In addition to the usual gallery accommodation for basketball games, etc., the bleachers will be erected on the gym floor so that there will be seating accommodation for over five hundred.

Final practices have been in progress throughout the week and the different groups taking part in the display will be ready to give their part in the approved manner. The program will probably include the following numbers:

March of the lanterns, by Junior School Class.

Group Games and Relays, by Juniors.

Setting up exercises, by R.C.A.F. Aide Horse exercises and pyramids, by Junior School.

On the Parallels, by the Four Horsemen.

Mat Work and Pyramids, by Senior School and Intermediate classes.

Tumbling, by The Four Horsemen.

Wrestling, by members Y. Wrestling Class.

Posing in Bronze, by Senior members.

The King.

Crossley and Hunter travelled together for over thirty years, engaging in about 400 separate campaign, and there were few centres throughout the Dominion where they did not put a household word. One of the outstanding campaigns was conducted in Ottawa, when 1,100 persons came forward as a result quickly accepted Christ. Among these were Sir. John A. Macdonald. Following this came a campaign when seventeen Scandinavian churches in the Minneapolis district invited the evangelists to conduct a campaign in that city. In all 4,000 of the northern races in the district came forward. Of special importance was the campaign conducted in New Soundland, with the result that 1,000 persons of all denominations united with the Methodist Church, 100 with the Presbyterian and upwards of seven hundred with the Church of England.

When ill health forced the late Rev. John Hunter to retire from the ministry, Dr. Crossley continued his work alone for about eight years, and then for another ten years joined forces with J. H. Townsend as his companion evangelist.

Some years ago at the close of a campaign in Winnipeg, the evangelist was honored with the degree of Doctor of Divinity by Wesley College, during the first evangelist in Canada to be so honored.

DR. CROSSLEY

(Continued From Page 1)

The death of the Rev. J. E. Hunter was a blow to Dr. Crossley but he continued his evangelism. A few years ago he conducted meetings in Belleville at Holloway St. Church and on that visit everyone who was there were impressed with the set of exercises which he showed the audience he used daily and which he demonstrated.

His partner in the present work for many years was the late Rev. John E. Hunter, the father of Rev. E. Crossley Hunter, pastor of Carlton Street United Church. The two were associated in their work for some thirty-four years, and it is claimed that over 100,000 publicly accepted Christ following their numerous campaigns.

Since his retirement and yearly annuation in 1926, the Crossley home in Belleville with Rev. E. Crossley Hunter, of 24 Wellesley Street, where he passed away yesterday. He lived for the greater portion of his active ministry years with his campaign partner. He was in his eighty-fourth year.

Born at King in 1850.

Born at King, Ont., in 1850, Dr. Crossley was established into the ministry of the Methodist Church in 1876 and carried on his work for over half a century. He was a bachelor. Nieces and nephews surviving include Misses Lily and Maud Crossley of Toronto, and Miss Ethel Crossley of Oakville.

A public service will be conducted from Carlton Street United Church, Toronto, at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon by Rev. Dr. Albert Emerson, Moderator of the United Church of Canada. He will be assisted in the service by Rev. T. A. Cameron of Yorkminster Baptist Church. Tributes will be voiced by Rev. D. W. Hincks, Dr. E. B. Lancely (two old college chums of the deceased) and by Rev. Mr. Hunter. Interment will be in Forest Lawn Mausoleum.

Rev. Dr. Crossley was known as the "singing evangelist," and many will recall his frequent rendition of "Hearts Made Clean," one of his own composition. This will be sung at the public service tomorrow. The body will lie in state between noon and 2 p.m.

Few men were more widely known in the evangelistic world than were Crossley and Hunter, particularly on this continent, and it was as if by fate they were drawn together. It seems that letters to each other, each suggesting that they link up in evangelistic campaign, crossed paths.

400 Campaigns

Crossley and Hunter travelled together for over thirty years, en-

Today and Friday
Clark Gable
Myrna Loy
in a story rich in human appeal, packed with laughs, glowing with romance ★MEN IN★ ★ WHITE ★ with ELIZABETH ALLAN OTTO KRUGER
Belle Theatre
Perf. Starts 2.30 — 7.10 — 9.15
Wed. & Thurs. 2.15 — 7.05 — 9.05
ADDED — TODD-KELLY COMEDY — SCREEN ODDITY — STARS OF TOMORROW.
B.B.W. COUPONS

Yes Sir!

I'LL SAY I NEED HANDKERCHIEFS"

"A Great Special Purchase of Men's Hemstitched Linen Handkerchiefs

Our Headquarters Buyer has just returned from Ireland, where he was successful in securing a quantity of manufacturer's overmakes in Men's Pure Linen Hemstitched Handkerchiefs, full size, and we offer these at . .

15c each or 4 for

29c each or 4 for

50c

1.00

236 Front St. Belleville, Ontario Phone 329

MUCH UNDER

Regular Prices

TWO GRADES ONLY

HONOUR ROLL

HONOR ROLL, APRIL, 1934
QUEEN ALEXANDRA SCHOOL

First Book, Class I—Cecil Pridette; Maurice Rollins; Joan Hamilton; Barbara Reid; Margaret Ann McGuire; Frances Kalpin; Laureen Lewis.

First Book, Class II—Florence Newton; Helen Kellar; Dorothea Collins.

Sr. Primer, Class I—Tom Sedgwick; Norma Dunlap; Leona Bennett; Eileen Martin; Gordon Travers; Vira Pack.

Sr. Primer, Class II—Maxine McKenna; Mary Calbery; Roydon Fowler; Geoffrey Dunn; Robert John Smith; Alice Pack.

Jr. Primer, Class II—Erwin Dunlop; Beatrice Hodgson; Billy Gray.

Jr. Primer, Class II — Rowa Wright; Ethel Carr; Donald Hannah.

First Book, Class I—Dena Pappas; Dorothy Mills; Alex Rushlow; Irene Soderberg; Helen Bateman; John Miller.

Sr. Primer, class II— Margaret Taylor; Billie Bankier, Douglas Leslie (equal); Audrey Rankin; Tommy Cross; Donald Taylor; Jessie Burns; Ernest Burns.

Jr. Primer, Class III—Alma Anderson; James Hodgkinson; Gerald Pack; Winnifred Carter; Ross Woodcock.

Grade IV—Barbara Connolly; Phyllis Trudale; Joe Rushlow; Derrick Heard; Frank Rushlow; Betty Calberry.

A. M. MacKay, Teacher

Jr. Second — Lana Alvarez; Nancy McMillan; Joan Wetson; Muriel Semple; Elinor Sandercock; Bobby Dermo; Billy Caldwell; Joan Penhall.

Sr. First—Clayton Johnson; Doris Foster; Roy Sanford; Lily Rushlow; Joyce Morton; Merrilyn Stobie; Eileen Cameron; Sammy Lazier; Eugene Rosebush; Teddy Smith; Jean Murray; Harry Martin.

H. Potter, Teacher

Junior II—Lois Cockburn, Clifford Cooke, (equal); Louise Laney; Clara Close; Jack Pearson.

Senior I—Muriel Hibbard; Mildred Newton; Margaret Miller, Annie Phillips, (equal); Margaret Forman; Ethel Jeffrey, Fred Bly (equal); Dorothy Gordine; Violet Eyre; Jane Weller.

Phyllis Clemence

KING GEORGE SCHOOL

Junior First—Jack Phillips, Ronald Moorman, Donald McGowan, George Woodcock.

Sr. Primer—Fay Mitchell and Mabel Burrows, equal; Florence Babcock and Walter Weaver, equal; John Patterson, Helen Parks and Velma Hancock, equal; Muriel Rollins, Raymond Gadsby, Lorne Burrows, Eileen Jeffs.

Junior Primer—Class I—Alice Mauthner, Clifford Lazenby, Wilma Fox, Vivian Wood, Marie Brown.

Class II—Audrey Tribworth, Jack McGee, George Carnley and Olive Brown, equal; Kenneth Gardiner.

Class III—Carl Clemper, Harold Kessler, Bobby MacMahon.

Junior First—Lorna Smith, Clive Smith, Georgina Mitchell, Donald Pomeroy and Erwin Brown, equal; Jean Grills and Bernice Bartlett, equal; Jean Brown, Betty Connors, Doris Grills, Donald Green, Clifford Vesterfelt and Joyce Fraser, equal, Gordon Harrison, Lillian Jeffs, Shirley Reid, Ernest Ward, William Browning.

Sr. Primer—Fred Miles, Sylvia Goldberg, Clayton Archer, Christie Gaudin.

Junior Primer— Rosalda Ayling, Eddie Thrasher, and Jean Caverly equal; Kenneth Crewson.

M. Cook, Teacher

Sr. Pr.—Ruth Murr, Evelyn Preston, and Fred Pollitt, equal; Marie Westcott, Raymond Hannah, equal; Harvey Archer, Fay Thompson and Norman Turner, equal; Douglas Ashley, Doris Sullivan, and Jack Hall, equal; George Tilterson, Bruce Parsons, David Tilney, Cameron Smith.

Primer—Marion Riches, Marguerite Ferguson, Fred Trow, Walter Gardiner.

L. Ridley, Teacher

First Book —Lillian Hall, Stanley Wiggins, Vera Pindall and Ross Hannah, equal; Kenneth Tilney, Ernest Rexon, Raymond Hall, Mary Parsons, Charles Cooke, Betty Jane Wood, Billy Cook, Dorothy Quilney, Ruth Brookhurst.

Sr. First—Ruth Wood, Betty Noble, Jean Hall, Marjorie Shapper, Agnes Hurst, Jessie Nolan, John O'Connor, Cecelia Seames, Reta Webster and Ernest Lorenzo equal.

Junior First — Mary Piccion, Helena Tuttle, Mafalda Piccion.

Senior Third—Charles John McCabe, Cyril Power, Mary McMahon, Anne Ann Dwyer, Robert Allore.

Junior Third—Victoria Prywara, John Dell, Joan Mosher, John Johnson, Glenn Dolan, Barbara Nolan and Catharine Nolan equal, (Marion Dwyer, Marie Chapelle, equal, (June Boyd and Marjorie Hamilton, equal), (Vera Bland and Wilfred Holland equal).

Second—Alice Callaghan, Catherine Mackenzie, Jessie Mack, Raymond Huffman and Helen Barriage equal, Betty Barrett, (Catherine Adams and Helen Pritchard equal), Molly Lewis, Barbara Flurey, Ruta Frawley, Burt Barriage, Doris Trudeau, Gordon Messervey.

Second Class—Ruth Brooks, Jessie Boyle, Hazel Alexander, Billy Travers, Jack Cooper, Billy Cook.

First—Helen Scott, Angela McGowan, Jean Allore, Sophia Dyrzwara, Geo. Shephard, (Clifford Doyle and Francis Cronk, equal)

James Jenkins, John Doyle, Bernard Scanlan, Carroll Kiser, Robert Jenkins, Earl Cronk.

Primer — Kathleen Callaghan, Barbara Thompson, Margaret Jarrett, Donald Barrett, Veronica Cronk, Robert Fleury, Gwendolyn Doyle, Marilyn Donavan, Mary Glavin.

IMPROVEMENT SUBSTANTIAL

(Continued From Page 1)

eration. If under those conditions Canada did not share in the depression than the average of other countries, and has already recovered to substantially the same degree, why there should be a suggestion that the forces everywhere have been more general and more powerful than those arising from the direct corrective actions of government.

Change of Policies?

"What has been said above applies to the position in Canada up to date. Many recent developments raise a question whether some change of attitude in governmental policies may, whether deliberately or not, be in process. Canada went off gold in good company in 1931, but until within the last few weeks she showed no signs of going off democracy—despite illustrious examples. Now, however, legislation providing for boards and control that did not before exist is being passed and both Dominion and Provincial governments are taking to themselves general authority to exercise, within certain large spheres, powers of the state by executive decree. So far, the production and marketing of natural products is the principal sphere affected, but to some instances the new authority is wider and would appear capable of wide extension. No general plan of action, or new objectives for Canada have been proposed, and until this is done or application of the new policy is attempted, if they are to be used at all, it will not be possible to estimate what significance the recent incidents may have.

"Production and commerce are activities of man. The world of matter has its laws which are constant and calculable, but the purpose, the energy and the direction which converts the material and processes of nature into articles of use for man and distributes them in the channels of trade is human. It would seem, therefore, that if the main causes of what happens and does not happen in the economic world lie in human nature, it should be possible to reach an understanding of fundamentals which would be simpler and more familiar than do the abstruse laws and technicalities around which the discussion of these problems so largely centres.

Record Of Bank Debits

"From this point of view one of the most interesting and important of all indexes must be the record of bank debits, or sums drawn against all bank deposit accounts, because at this point we come directly in touch with human nature in the act of spending money, without which under modern conditions the exchange of goods and services cannot take place.

"Bank deposits form the great bulk of spending resources. If people are disposed to use freely their exchange-are freely effected, and if they are not they cannot be. The reasons why people contract the use of their spending resources and lower the ratio of debits to deposits are the prime causes of economic trouble to be sought and remedied. The rate at which money is spent becomes the great secondary cause from which the consequences more directly flow. If, for example, it is true that the velocity of money and credit determines price levels, then anything that may be the quantity in use that does the work, and not that in bank title or bank ledger, and the best index of money work done in bank debits.

Banking Strength

"Now, underlying the whole Canadian situation has been the stability of its banking structure during the crisis. Values and the management were found suitable and adequate, and of equal importance, they retained the confidence of the public. Between 1929 and 1933 aggregate bank deposits in Canada declined only 14½ per cent. Spending resources were affected only to this extent. In use made of these spending resources, however, the decline was from a monthly average of $3,202,207,000 in the peak year 1929 to $2,153,801,000 in 1933, a decline of 46.8 per cent. The extent of work to the extent of $1,735,516,000 per month

NABOROHOOD SHOE BARGAINS

For the balance of Belleville Better Week — Look over these values listed below, and be sure to pay us a visit. Space will not permit us to list all our Bargains.

Women's Fine Shoes

The newest creations in women's fine footwear, including the new blues, greys and beige. Your choice of pumps, ties, straps and sandals — All sizes.

$1.89 $2.98 $3.39

Men's Oxfords

Men! These shoes are top quality, made from fine leathers, sewn soles, rubber or leather heels. Eight styles, and all sizes.

$1.79 $2.39 $2.89

Children's Shoes

With sandal straps. Good quality uppers, and crepe rubber soles

Sizes 5 to 7½ .. 69c
Sizes 8 to 10½ 89c
Sizes 11 to 2 ... 99c

Women's Everyday Comfort Shoes

Women's one strap kid house shoes. Comfort and wear in every pair.

89c

Women's Sport Shoes

In two-tone brown, all white or all oak colors. With rubber soles and heels. These should be seen to be appreciated. Special at 1.79

Women's Arch Support Shoes

A special corrective shoe for women. Combination last, with medium heels. A wonderful shoe for tired aching feet

2.98

Camp Shoes

These camp shoes are made in the popular moccasin vamp. Regular rubber sole and heels.

MEN'S	Sizes 6 to 11 1.59
BOYS'	Sizes 1 to 5 1.39
YOUTHS	Sizes 11 to 13 1.29
CHILD'S	Sizes 5 to 10 1.19

Men's Work Boots

Made from chrome leathers, with leather or Panco soles. Elastic gussets made to stand long hard wear.

$1.89
$2.39
$2.89

NABOROHOOD

242 Front St. SHOE STORES Opposite
Telephone 919 CANADA'S FOREMOST SHOE RETAILERS Campbell St.

We Sell the Best for Less

Wright's SUPERIOR STORE

BUTCHER SHOP & GROCERY
84 W. Moira St. Phone 1195 We Deliver

GREAT EXPANSION SALE

To celebrate the remarkable progress made in food merchandising by Superior Stores, a Great Expansion Sale will be carried on during the month of May. Each week our store will feature a great array of bargains in food and household products. Be sure to attend this sale and take advantage of the many saving offered.

ITEMS FOR WEEK ENDING MAY 5th.

Pure Lard, lb.	10c	Sweet Oranges Doz.	25c and 39c
Choice Tomatoes 2 ½ tins	10c	Jar Cream Bricks each	25c
Choice Hand Picked Tomatoes, 2's, tins	7c	Cameo Soap, bar	3c
Tiger Clothes Pins, large bottle	16c	Brooms
Delixo Jellies 4 flavors	19c		35c 39c
Strawberry and Raspberry Jam, 32 oz.	29c		65c 69c
Extra Special—Crabapple Jelly, 48 oz. jar	39c	Granulated Sugar 10 lbs.	67c
Toilet Paper 8 rolls	25c	Potatoes,	29c
Paper 2 rolls	15c	Robin Hood Oats large box	17c
Good Apples, 6 lbs.	25c	BUTCHER SHOP ALL MEATS AT LOWEST PRICES
Maple Leaf Cleanser 2 tins	9c	We urge you to try our new Fish Smokies, 2 lb.	15c
Prairie Blossom Flour 24 lb. sack	57c	Something New and Delicious Smoked Herring

We Give Coupons with Each Purchase

We Sell the Best for Less

Do YOUR TWO EYES SEE the Same?

A thorough examination by Lewis' Registered Optometrist will reveal the true condition of your eyes. Our well tablished prices include examination and choice of the most modern designs in eyewear.

CONSULT US TODAY

More and more the people of Belleville are coming to realize the importance of giving their eyes careful attention, and they are coming to Lewis' for that efficient, careful service. You, too, should entrust your vision to Lewis' Registered Optometrist's care.

Lewis' Glasses are Moderately Priced

For Appointment Phone 1406

LEWIS, 285 FRONT ST.—Opp. Loblaw's

Healthy Happy Children

Thrive on

MOORES CANDY

Wholesome Home-made Fudges	19c lb.
Peanut Crisp	19c to 25c lb.
Nut and Cream Chocolates	25c and 29c lb.
Chocolate Covered Dates	25c lb.
Burnt Almonds and Brazils	39c lb.

Extra Special This Week
FULL COURSE MEALS
30c — 35c 40c

Sandwiches, plain or toasted 10c to 25c
Hot and Cold Drinks of all kinds
Ice Cream Sodas and Sundaes 10c up
Ice Cream Bricks of all flavours 25c each

MOORES

245 FRONT ST.—Next to Royal Bank

Your Furs Demand Protection!

Don't let them collect dust and become the prey of moths.

Don't let them be an attraction for any possible thief.

Our Storage Vaults will protect your furs—they are insured against any possible harm.

HAVE OUR MESSENGER CALL

DELANEY

EXCLUSIVE FURRIER
Phone 7927
17 Campbell St.

Now Sensation in

FOUNTAIN PENS

A new sackless pen that holds twice as much ink, and fills by one stroke of the plunger. Made by Sheaffer and sells at only

$3.95

Call in and see the pen you have been waiting for

AND

Take home a box of delicious fresh LAURA SECORD CHOCOLATES and make someone happy.

25c—50c and $1.00

Dolan

THE DRUGGIST
I.D.A. Druggist Phone 128
ASK FOR LUCKY COUPONS

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at the Ontario Intelligencer Building Front Street, Belleville.

W. H. MORTON, Publisher.

ROADS AND ROAD SIGNS

Few signs point the way to Belleville according to the writer of an article which appeared on Monday last on "Roads and Road Signs." Now the lack of signs may indicate several things, indifference or lack of foresight, or it may mean that Belleville is so proud that it believes everyone knows where it lies. The probable reason is the second, lack of thought or realization.

But this lack of thought means no end of stoppings, no end of inquiries and no end of doubts on the part of those who do not know the roads to Belleville. The writer of the article tried to make a trip to Belleville via the Carrying Place, and succeeded but at what an experience! No signs on a fence or post indicated where Belleville lay, and the result was a long trip via Consecon, Wellington, Bloomfield and the sight of Lake Ontario instead of Quinte's waters.

The point is very clear—something should be done about it. Most Belleville and Prince Edward County motorists know where the road from the Carrying Place cuts off to join the road to Belleville on the north shore of peninsular county and can realize how easy it is for those who do not know the roads in that county to take the road to Consecon. So there should be some sign, a very inexpensive one set-up at this point to direct traffic aright.

But this only opens up the greater question—Where is there a real sign at all on the entering roads anywhere about Belleville? There may be a few but few persons could find more if that many. Motor Clubs might take up that matter and see if something cannot be done to get Belleville signs hereabouts, so that motorists may not become lost in this civilized settlement.

NATURE'S HARMONY

May is here and probably there never was a time when more would women, boys and girls, were so delighted to welcome the entrancing warmth of May — that something which puts life into the grass and into human beings and the animal and bird creations. Go through Belleville today and you would find one hundred per cent. of the people entirely satisfied with these glorious days which have triumphed over winter's blasts of wind and cold and April's delaying.

In the whole countryside there is the same pleasure in the weather though of course it is for youth we write. These days the producing fields are full of farmers making every possible effort to take advantage of the time to prepare for the season to be. The very fields smile on such glorious days as nature is now opening to the earth just as the curtains of the stage open on a scene of loveliness.

Other climes may please at other seasons but the province of Ontario in its May and June and the months between has the most joyous the most highly treasured time and place in the world. Canada has severe winters at times and sometimes cold ones, but she seems to possess in her spring, summer and autumn a charm which will challenge the appeal of any other part of the world—even Sunny Italy.

Dwellers in cities and workers in offices and in foundries do not know the full delight of these days. The privilege which is given to them comes many a waft of the pure spring air as they labor.

But when they can catch a glimpse of the countryside at the week-end or see nature in their gardens even in the cities of evenings thy come to full appreciation of the loveliness of life in nature. Contrast from the indoors to the outdoors now so tempered as to be safe for the tenderest child to go out resolutely and not at almost scantily clad is productive of that charm which so gladdens the heart of mankind. Then that other contrast from heat and work of the day in the city to the free expanses on week-end excursions comes into the picture. Man becomes a little more as mother nature intended him, free from the worries incident to and part and parcel of the civilization under which he has grown up. The days are not far ahead when man will revel in flowers in the fields and woods. The greatest painter which ever decked a canvas in nature with her natural colors of green and gold preparing to clothe the grasses and branches as they came from winter's hands. The birds are also part of that harmony which seems to sweep through all life in the springtime and in the growing period of the year. Man is more close to nature's heart in these days than in the severer periods of the calendar.

Words of course fail to indicate what nature does with her infinity of detail and with her great masses and her little things —man can but indicate faintly the surge of this season of the year.

It is the time of the year when the sentiments of the hymn of Saint Francis express the soul of that muter type of man who cannot sing in song nor paint in color all that he sees. Wonder, love and praise flow out from man's lips to the Spirit behind all these lovely forms and sounds to which man's eye, his ear, his brain and his imagination are attuned.

These should be days of that relaxation which means coming into full understanding of something of the meaning of life. Life is so much richer now, it is the growing time not only of grain, but of thoughts and impressions which tempt man upward and on.

SIDELIGHTS

GRAVE and GAY

Supervised by The Lamplighter

SLEEP SONG

Weaver of nets, all dusky-dim
Like skies of midnight with stars a-brim,
Stars in your nets as in heaven's abide.
Hearts' desires by the day denied.
Sleep, weave softly a fair design
Of shades and of stars for tired eyes of mine!

Weaver of nets which a while ensnare
Minds and bodies beset by care,
Out of day's conflict bringing them peace,
Opening vistas of glad release.
Sleep, weave swiftly a rare design
Of rest and of dream for this heart of mine!

—Aline Michaelis

x x x x

FIFTY MILLION FROGS CAN'T BE WRONG—Spring is here—intimates a Huntsville despatch to the Toronto Globe. Three times have the Huntsville frogs have been frozen in, but now they are singing their heads off, rejoicing that the long winter is at last ended and the long summer begun. So, get your straw hat, BVD's and two piece suit ready for action.

x x x x

SIGNS OF POLITICAL TEMPEST begin to appear in rumbling thunder of extra-vernacular, here and there and above the sidelines—soon the war of words will be in full blast, and the great comedy of election as we have it in this country again enacted.

x x x x

"INTOXICATED BY THE EXUBERANCE of his own verbosity"—an expression used many years ago in an election contest, is due for a re-appearance in the near future.

x x x x

TRISTAN DA CUNHA, the loneliest place in the world, three islands, 16 square miles in area, in a vast expanse of ocean, 2000 miles west of Cape of Good Hope, where the mutineers of the British ship Bounty landed and started a colony which has existed for nearly one hundred years, was almost visited by Robert Ripley, "Believe It or Not," not long ago. His ship sailed all round the island but on account of the rough weather could not land. He has visited the island for two years, but the islanders sent out word that they were not suffering for anything, and asked that all and sundry be informed that they had a surplus of Bibles and epsom salts. Every ship that passes Tristan da Cunha has supplies of one kind or other, sent by kindly folk in England and elsewhere, but there seems to have been an epidemic of ideas which ran to epsom salts and Bibles as the prime need of the islanders.

x x x x

The teacher was examining the class to see how much they remembered of a natural history lesson given the day before, and told each child to give her the name of an animal.

Up went a hand.

"Well, Tommy, what animal do you remember?"

"The warmer," was the unexpected reply.

"Nonsense. There's no such animal. Sit down."

Up went another hand.

"Please, miss. I know what 'e means. 'E means the otter."

x x x x

It was market day, and local trains were crowded.

Eight burly farmers had completely filled a smoker when there entered a small and important gentleman.

"Nae room here," said one of the farmers.

"You must make room," said the important one sternly. "These carriages are constructed by Act of Parliament to seat five on each side."

"Well, we winna constructed by Act of Parliament tae fit them," said the farmer."

x x x x

A private, walking down a street with his sweetheart, met a sergeant belonging to his regiment.

"My sister, Sergeant," said the bashful young man.

"That's all right," said the sergeant, smiling; "she used to be mine."

x x x x

"Did it cure your husband of walking in his sleep when you put the tub of water by the side of his bed?"

"Yes, and it cured me of putting a tub of water by the side of his bed."

x x x x

A Caution—If you don't want to be robbed of your good name do not have it engraved on your umbrella.

MOST PAINFUL IS MUSCULAR RHEUMATISM

Persons Who Have Had it Liable to Future Attacks

By Louis E. Bisch, M.D., Ph.D
Famous Authority on Applied Psychology
(Copyright 1934, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

The term Muscular Rheumatism embraces several conditions which are characterized by pain in a muscle or group of muscles. A stiff neck is a kind of muscular rheumatism. So is lumbago, as well as so-called "pleurodynia" or an affection of the muscles between the ribs. It is really questionable whether the inflammation in muscular rheumatism is in the muscle itself, or whether the sensory nerve, or nerve of feeling and sensation, which runs to the muscle, is involved.

At any rate, such rheumatic-like pains are fairly common and they can be so severe as to confine a patient in bed for days on end. Exposure, to cold may start an attack. Men are more prone to the disease than women.

Often, after a strenuous tennis match or game of golf, when the individual is perspiring freely, and is then exposed to a draught, he will suddenly develop—often in a severe form.

Chilling of any kind, such as sitting by an open window, exposing the arm or back during sleep, may cause the condition.

The pain is the worst part. It may be dull and aching; it may be severely knife-like, it may be like a cramp.

A characteristic feature about the pain is that it never lets up. Pressure is exerted upon the painful part, although this is not a constant feature.

In lumbago the pain is in the muscles of the loins. It usually appears quite suddenly. When it is so severe that the patient must go to bed, it often occurs that he is unable to move without excruciating pain.

In muscular rheumatism of the stiff-neck variety the head is held awkwardly and rigidly. To turn or turn the head, the patient must turn the whole body. This is done to spare himself the pain which may be very severe and may even affect the muscles of the back.

The pain is generally speaking the most torturing in cases where the muscles of the ribs are involved. Here the sufferer is afraid to breathe. Usually, he does so in a strange to say, pressure aggravates the pain.

When a cough happens to complicate the conditions the torment may be real agony.

Persons with this affection often think they have pleurisy. Muscular rheumatism may be found in other muscles of the body besides those mentioned. It may occur in the extremities and in the abdominal muscles.

For pleurodynia, strapping of the chest, so as to lessen the excursion of the ribs in breathing is often beneficial.

In any case of muscular rheumatism the part should be kept at rest. Probably more pain plasters are used for various forms of muscular rheumatism than for anything else.

Sometimes certain forms of electricity bring relief. A certain remedy may help in one case and not in another.

Those who have had one attack of the malady, no matter where the location, are likely to have another of the same kind.

Such persons, therefore, should avoid exposure and wear warm, protecting clothing, cold, damp places seem to predispose to repeated attacks.

There is nothing dangerous about muscular rheumatism, but it is one of nature's most annoying troubles.

Dr. Bisch's Daily Daily Diet
Dr. Bisch's Daily Diet, Number Two, after middle life, whether men or women, should think of reducing the amount of fats they consume. Inasmuch as muscular exercise had best be resumed in accordance with a corresponding reduction of the fats, the following diet should be followed. Care should also be taken as regards the amounts of alcohol taken. Don't drink beer at any time, for instance, will distend the stomach unduly. The daily allowance of cocktails or strong liquors likewise is bad.

GETS LETTER FROM BALBO

Jones Farellda, Front St., Proud Possessor of Document

His Excellency Marshal Italo Balbo, Governor of the Italian provinces of Tripolitania and Cirenaica has written Mr. Jones Farellda, 295 Front street, Belleville, expressing his pleasure at the receipt of a letter and photograph of the Italian Governor, on occasion of trip of General Balbo across the Atlantic and Canada on his way to Chicago last summer, with the greatest air fleet in history. Mr. Farellda has been interested now for had seen his ships pass over Belleville.

The letter in Italian written by the private secretary to His Excellency Marshal Balbo reads:

"Il Segretario Particolare
"Al Sig. Il Governatore

"Tripoli, li 18 Apr., 1934, Anno XII

"Egregio Signore,

"Sig. Maresciallo Balbo ha ricevuto la Sua lettera e la fotografia del Lei ritratto ed mi ha dato l'incarico di ringraziarla per il gentile gradito pensiero.

"Distinti saluti."

A free translation into English runs:

"Tripoli, 18 April 1934, 12th year, Dear Sir,

"His Excellency Marshal Balbo has received your letter and photograph sent by you and has instructed me to thank you for the kindly expression.

"Yours sincerely."

The letter will be treasured by the Belleville man, who has already been identified with aviation in the purchase by admirers of Marshal Balbo.

AVIATOR IS PRAISED

New York, May 3.—(CP)—Passengers, including L. B. Spencer, K. O. of Welland, Ont., today gave high praise to the skill displayed last night by pilot Ernest Hallam in bringing his big plane in a successful emergency landing in a fog at Newark. The plane was equipped with sleeping and one passenger, Perry F. Wurst, Buffalo banker, suffered anything more serious than bruises.

We Deliver — Superior Store — Ciceri & Blue — We Deliver

Try Our Personal Phone Service For Real Food Service

WE WISH TO THANK THE LADIES who took advantage of our Personal Phone Service last week, and to urge those who have not tried it as yet, to do so. We know you will be more than pleased. Do not carry home your weekend orders or pay ten cents to have them delivered when you can call us and be assured that MISS NEWSON will personally select your order, and when you receive it you may be assured that you will not find the Celery wilted, or Green Tea for Black Tea, etc.—and Best of All, this service is free.

8 oz. Osstand Jams 2 for 25c
Phone 821 for Service
Fresh Butter 23c lb.
Phone 821 for Service
Javel Water Bottle 6c
Phone 821 for Service
Good Size Pineapples 2 for 25c
Cabbages ..... 4c lb.
Asparagus .. 2 bchs. 27c
Cucumbers .. 2 for 27c

Chateau Cheese 2 for 25c
Phone 821 for Service
Granulated Sugar 10 lbs. 67c
Phone 821 for Service
H.R. Lard 10c lb.
Phone 821 for Service
New Carrots 2 bunches for 11c
Choice 2½'s Tomatoes 10c tin
Choice Corn ..... 11c tin
Peas ..... 2 tins for 25c

PHONE 821
FOR REAL PERSONAL SERVICE
We Carry VELVET ICE CREAM
Bricks and Bulk

MEAT SPECIALS
ALL WESTERN RED OR BLUE GRADED STEER BEEF
Prime Ribs, Boneless, Rolled 18c
Shoulder Roast, per lb. 9c
Round Steak, per lb. 15c
Boneless Rolled Veal Fillets 12½c.
EXTRA SPECIALS
Sliced Breakfast Bacon — 27c
Fresh Caught Pickerel, lb. 15c
Silver Bright Salmon — 15c
Swift's Premium Sliced Cooked Ham per lb. 39c

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

MAY 3, 1914

Sir John Willison, one of the most popular newspaper men in Canada, will be the guest of honor at the final banquet of the local Canadian Club on Saturday night.

Mr. Wm. Allison of Toronto, will arrive on Monday to take charge of the boys' department of the Y.M.C.A.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crang of Toronto, formerly of Belleville, are in the city today.

Mr. Leon Ostrom of Winnipeg, paid a short visit to relatives here on his way to Montreal.

The 34th. Battery, R.C.F.A., will parade tomorrow morning to St. Thomas' Church next Sunday.

The dead grass on Victoria Park was burned this morning. From upper Front Street it looked as if the whole water front was ablaze.

30 YEARS AGO

MAY 3, 1904

Mr. H. Ashley is in New York on business.

Col. J. Earl Halliwell of Stirling was in town today.

Mr. John N. Carter is in Kingston for a few days on business.

Mr. E. J. Butler, barrister, is spending a few days in Montreal.

Mr. J. Nevin Deacon is paying a short visit to his home here. He is on the staff of "The Country Ont."

Mr. John J. Cook has gone to Valleyfield, Que., to manage a cheese factory.

Mr. C. J. Cunningham, Buffalo, N.Y., is visiting his parents at their home on Yeomans St.

Mr. E. E. Holden of the Bank of Montreal staff, has been transferred to Calgary.

Mr. Cameron Brown, who conducted the Dairy Lunch here for some time, has purchased a country place near Hamilton. Mr. Brown lived at one time in Hamilton and is a graduate of the Hamilton Times.

40 YEARS AGO

MAY 3, 1894

The production of the Cadets' Picnic was greeted by a large audience at the opera house and the success of the manner in which the operetta was performed pleased everyone. Mr. J. Nevin Doyle, the conductor, is to be congratulated on the success. Mrs. Doyle certainly furnished an evening of great enjoyment. The following were the cadets: Frank Wollever, Leo Burdette, Willis McKay, Russel Carman, Cecil Pralick, Herbert Fish, Peter Doyle, W. F. B. Johnson, Harry Kelso, John Doyle, Allan McFee, Russel Weller, Ellis Bogart, Cecil Rose, Tommy Clarke, Fr. Petty, W. C. McLean, Ed. Rous, Fred Weller, Fr. Dash, Lindsay Hamilton, Jas. McDonald, Fred Burrows, Harry Walker, Willard and Bob Hungerford.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Greatrix will leave next week to spend three months in the Old Country.

50 YEARS AGO

MAY 3, 1884

Forty-seven members are now on the Board of Trade list.

A man was in town yesterday with a lot of fortune telling birds and attracted much attention.

The tannery building in Canniffton was damaged by a gale yesterday.

Callender's Minstrel Band made a parade through the streets today.

The sun frowned son of sunny Italy with the festive hand organ grind his first appearance this season today.

The first swift two life boats were swept away by a squall in Big Bay yesterday.

GRAHAM IS REV. HONORED

Farewell Banquet is Tendered by Three Missions

Rev. Gerald Graham, who has been in charge of the three congregations of Ameliasburgh, Bethel Avenue, Canniffton and Huffs Island, was tendered a farewell banquet and presentation by the three missions at St. John's on Thursday evening. About two hundred and fifty persons attended the event, the dinner being put on by the ladies of the three congregations. Rev. A. Wright, Bethel Church, presided during the banquet and the subsequent program. Addresses were given by Mr. James P. Hill, M.P.P. for West Hastings, Rev. G. O. Wright, Belleville, Mr. Elgar Bateman, Mrs. Bateman, Rev. Belleville, Mr. F. B. Graham of Brockville, father of the Rev. Gerald Graham and Mrs. Rev. Dr. Charles W. Bishop of Albert College, Mr. Thomas Nightingale of Huffs Island, on behalf of the three missions of which Rev. Mr. Graham has been rector for two years, made the presentation of a substantial cheque on behalf of the three congregations. Rev. Mr. Graham made a feeling speech of acceptance of the token of appreciation of his labors here.

Mr. Graham goes to Lyndhurst on May 15th., to take over the duties of the rectorship of Christ Rear.

The function was a spontaneous tribute of all phases of the work associated with the church, which Mr. Graham has been carrying on here.

Composing Stick Used by Franklin

London, May 3 (AP)—A composing stick which Benjamin Franklin used when he was a journeyman printer in London in the early 18th. Century was presented today to the Franklin Institute of Arts and Sciences of Philadelphia.

The relic was donated by the London society, The Worshipful Company of Stationers and Newspaper Makers.

REV. GRAHAM IS HONORED

Farewell Banquet is Tendered by Three Missions

Rev. Gerald Graham, who has been in charge of the three congregations of Ameliasburgh, Bethel Avenue, Canniston and Huffs Island, was tendered a farewell banquet and presentation by the three missions at St. John's on Thursday evening. About two hundred and fifty persons attended the event, the dinner being put on by the ladies of the three congregations. Rev. A. Wright, Bethel Church, presided during the banquet and the subsequent program. Addresses were given by Mr. James P. Hill, M.P.P. for West Hastings, Rev. G. O. Wright, Belleville, Mr. Elgar Bateman, Mrs. Bateman, Rev. Belleville, Mr. F. B. Graham of Brockville, father of the Rev. Gerald Graham and Mrs. Rev. Dr. Charles W. Bishop of Albert College, Mr. Thomas Nightingale of Huffs Island, on behalf of the three missions of which Rev. Mr. Graham has been rector for two years, made the presentation of a substantial cheque on behalf of the three congregations. Rev. Mr. Graham made a feeling speech of acceptance of the token of appreciation of his labors here.

Mr. Graham goes to Lyndhurst on May 15th., to take over the duties of the rectorship of Christ Rear.

The function was a spontaneous tribute of all phases of the work associated with the church, which Dr. Graham has been carrying on here.

MINISTERS CARED FOR IF NOT CONTRIBUTORS

Man Earning $10,000 Pays Same to Fund as One Earning $1,500

TORONTO, May 3.—(CP)—Ministers unable to contribute to the Pension Fund will be cared for. The Presbyterian Synod of Toronto and Kingston decreed today after hearing stories of hardship among members of the Synod.

The Synod yesterday discussed the advisability of changing the system under which contributions are made to the fund. Under the present system a minister with a $10,000 yearly salary contributes the same amount as one earning $1,500.

A minister, who had to sell the gold from his false teeth appeared before the Synod to explain he was unable to contribute to the fund. He was Rev. R. M. Ells of North Bay.

AGRICULTURE "RETRATED"

Des Moines, Ia., May 3 (AP) — Milo Reno, President of the National Farm Holiday Association, charged today that the administration has betrayed the United States farmer and termed Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace "the greatest retreater the farmer has ever had in an official position."

NAVIGATION ON LAKES

Port Arthur, May 3—(CP) —The passenger steamer Hamonic of the Northern Navigation Division of the Canada Steamship Lines came into Army Arthur at 5:30 a.m. today to open navigation between the lower and upper lakes.

Myrna Loy with Clark Gable, Elizabeth Allan and Otto Kruger in "Men In White", now at the Rialto.

CARMEL Y.P.S. ENTERTAINS

Interesting Program is Given By Visitors

Rawdon, May 3.—On Friday evening, April 27 about sixty members of Mount Pleasant and Rawdon Y.P.S. journeyed to Carmel and enjoyed a social evening. Rev. T. W. Howe, president of Carmel Y.P.S. welcomed the visitors on behalf of the Young People's Society and also assisting the chairman. He regretted that Rev. P. G. Smith was unable to attend. He also spoke of the splendid spirit of fraternity and good will between neighborhoods. All sang the Seventh League hymn and after prayer the meeting was given over to the visitors. Mr. John Coggins then presided and graciously replied to the welcome. All joined in "Living For Jesus Here" and Mr. Irwin Reid offered prayer. Mrs. Kenneth Smith rendered as a solo "Jesus Knows". Mr. Harry McAdam read the scripture lesson and Miss Mildred Sharp was heard in a reading entitled "Mummy's Prayer". Mrs. Frank Smith outlined the book, "What Should the Bible Mean To Us". Miss Edna Thrasher and Mr. John Coggins sang a duet, "Lord, I Want To Be a Christian In My Heart". Mrs. Percy MacMullen rendered "The Towering Singer" with Clifford Holmes taking the part of the singer. Miss Olive McConnell gave a resume of the recent Young People's rally at Holloway Church, Belleville, and told of Dr. Kellaway's address on the Christian Commonwealth Youth Movement in Canada. Miss Francis McKeown also brought echoes from this meeting, dealing with Justice and liberty. The Mount Pleasant orchestra composed of the Misses O. McConnell, Isabel Turner, Edna Thrasher, Fay Andrews, and Francess McKeown, and Messrs. Ira David and Kenneth Smith rendered two selections during the program. Mr. Kenneth Holmes with Mrs. John Holmes as accompanist sang the solo "Boy". Mrs. Arthur Phillips recited a humorous selection. Mr. and Mrs. Mr. Kenneth Smith gave a saw solo, "Old Plantation Melodies", accompanied by Miss Francis McKeown at the piano. Mr. Fay Andrews sang "My Little Home In Tennessee" with guitar accompaniment. After singing the anthem, "God Save the King" served a very delicious lunch which was thoroughly enjoyed. Votes of thanks were tendered for program and lunch and the fully gathering broke up, feeling it had been good to have been present.

On Sunday morning after Sunday school a temperance program was put on by the secretaries of that department. After devotional, Mrs. James Sharp addressed the school, followed by brief introductions by Mrs. Allan Bailey, temperance secretary, and Miss Marjorie Clifford Holmes. Little Gladys Sharp gave a recitation. The guest speaker, Miss Gertrude Traynour of Wellman's gave a splendid temperance talk which was thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Kenneth Holmes sang "The Ninety and Nine". This splendid program was closed with the singing of a temperance hymn. Miss Marion Phillips spent the week-end with her friend, Miss Audrey Sharp.

Miss Marguerite White found a hen's egg last Saturday which measured 7 x 8 inches. Who can beat this?

Mrs. John Booth spent the past two weeks with her sister-in-law in Campbellford.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bailey attended the funeral of their cousin, Mrs. Luther Deville at Campbellford last Monday. They formerly resided on the fourth concession of Rawdon.

Miss Eva Andrews spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin and attended the surprise party on Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Alex Martin.

Mr. David Hall who planned to sail on April 27 for Scotland was notified that owing to icebergs the first boat would not leave Montreal till a week later on May 4. Dave plans to travel on the "Duchess of Atholl".

Master Carleton Phillips visited the Allan school a couple of days last week.

Dr. W. Brown of Foxboro, a former teacher at the Allan school visited relatives in Campbellford and Rawdon on Friday by paid Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bailey a brief visit. During his teaching days he formerly boarded with the Baileys.

Rawdon folks were sorry to hear of the fire last Thursday which nearly ruined the home of Mr. Bert and Miss Mary Carey of Stirling.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sharp, Mrs. Silin Sharp, Mrs. Frank Young and Glenn Young of Wellman's gave a call on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, Campbellford.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Andrews, Elva and Fay and Mr. Herb Higgs spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Sharp, Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Montgomery were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacDonald, Murray, on Friday evening.

Friends were sorry to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. Rigle, mother of Mrs. Johnson, Campbellford and Belleville hospital in the ambulance and they hope she soon recovers.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy MacMullin, Eileen and Ormel were dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. MacMullin, Stirling.

Mrs. Harry Sharp is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Frank Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sharp spent the week-end with her cousins at Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peel, Peterborough visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Drewery over the week-end.

Mr. Johnson, Campbellford, about twenty-five ladies attended Wellington Women's Institute meeting held at the home of Mrs. Reginald Sharp on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Madaleine Sharp and Thain. The roll call was answered by "Today Is Here, Enjoy It". Mrs. V. H. Hooper gave a splendid paper on "Country Life and How to Enjoy It". Mrs. Ira Sharp gave another splendid paper dealing with "agriculture". The Misses Louise and Lulu Hoover delighted with a duet, the former playing guitar accompaniment. Mrs. Lucille Dracup and Mrs. Willie Matthews each rendered a solo. Readings were given by Mrs. Edmund Dracup, Mrs. Ed. Todd and Miss Dorothy Belanie. The Misses Dorothy and Bernice Dunham rendered a pleasing duet. Community singing was heartily enjoyed and little five year old Donna Mollie delighted the visitors by singing "Put Your Shinning Wheel in the Parlor". At the close of this April meeting bunt roll of helpful ideas about agriculture, the hostesses served candy and peanuts.

Mr. and Mrs. David Colton, Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Heath, Mrs. C. Sharp and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heath were among those from Rawdon who attended the funeral of Mrs. Luther Denike in Campbellford.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Martin of Bethel have moved to their new home in Stirling but Mr. Martin plans to help his son-in-law, Mr. Harry Preston on the farm during the summer.

Several of the farmers have taken their young cattle on the island to pasture owing to a feed scarcity at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy MacMullin of Mount Pleasant, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Waters and Lorne of Wellman's, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Baker of Bonarlaw and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Payne of Carmel were among those who attended a sale on Saturday last week for Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Doolittle at their home in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thompkins spent Sunday with the latter's sister, Mrs. Bert at Frankford.

Several Rawdonians attended the "Sech Packers" evening in Ely Family Church last Thursday evening and report a real treat evening of entertainment under the direction of Mrs. R. W. Rowland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace and Carleton spent the week-end with relatives in Toronto.

Miss June Dunham is holidaying with her grandmother, Mrs. Charles Dunham for a few weeks.

Mrs. Arthur Burkitt entertained Mrs. A. R. Reid and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wayward over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thain spent the last week with relatives in Eldorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rush of Bayside spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ovens.

ATTEND MEETING OF PRESBYTERY

FOXBORO—Mrs. W. J. Cairns returned to Belleville, after spending the last two weeks at the home of her brother, Mr. Bert Wannamaker.

Mr. D. Ulman of Stirling had dinner on Saturday at Mr. J. W. Dunlop's.

Mrs. Cynthia Sills of Toronto, spent the week end at the home of Mr. J. G. Sills.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stewart and Jackie spent over Sunday at Hastings.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wannamaker and Miss Marion Daniels attended the shower for Mr. and Mrs. Cairns of Belleville on Friday evening.

Miss Evelyn Mulrody, Mrs. B. Spencer and Mrs. A. Watt attended the service on Thursday evening in Bridge Street Church, which were conducted by Denton Massey of Toronto.

Rev. H. H. Mutton and Mr. R. A. Morton attended the meeting of the Presbytery in Trenton on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Wannamaker Mr. and Mrs. Percy Preston spent Sunday afternoon at Mr. Earle Prentice's of Marmora.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Derry and Douglas Hopkins spent Sunday at Gilmore.

Miss Marion Daniels attended the shower held for Miss E. Shead of the Sixth Line in honor of a recent bride. Mrs. Hubbard (nee Aletha Sine).

Miss Isobel Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown and Mr. Wesley Morton of Thomasburg spent Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Morton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Montgomery and Mr. T. Montgomery of Stirling called at Mr. W. Hodgins on Sunday.

Miss Marjorie Mapes of Belleville spent the week end at Mrs. Bert Wannamaker's.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Montgomery and Dorothy and Mr. and Mrs. Edmonds and Mrs. J.P. Yorks spent the week end at the home of Mr. W. Hodgen.

Bwynne is pleased to welcome the warm weather.

RETURN FROM TRIP TO FLORIDA

Mrs. Grace Deacon, accompanied by Stanley Pearce returned home on Saturday having spent the winter months in Florida, St. Augustine and other southern cities. They report having had a most delightful vacation.

Mrs. Myrtle Crawford of Stirling was a guest at the home of Mrs. Dunlap last week.

Mrs. Holmes of Peterboro visited relatives in North April on Sunday the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Shannon visited in Toronto on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson of Agincourt were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Watson.

Miss Rita Deacon who is attending Peterboro Normal School spent the week end at her home here.

Mrs. Richard Mikel is home from Queen's for the summer vacation.

Mr. Howard Bleecker of Montreal visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bleecker, over the week end.

Hubert Hollingsworth is home from Queen's having completed his term there.

Mrs. Palmer Wilfrid Terrion of Read is visiting his relatives here for a couple of days.

Mr. Michael Finnigan left for Perth on Monday where he has accepted a position.

Mrs. Kennedy, who has been spending the winter months in Lindsay and Toronto, has returned to her new home here.

Miss Frances Crawford, who has been visiting her parents for the past three weeks, returned to Toronto Hospital for Sick Children on Wednesday to continue her duties as nurse-in-training.

FARMERS HURRY WITH SPRING WORK

3rd Ameliasburgh—Farmers are busy early and late since the weather has turned a bit favorable. Some are hoping that the worst winter will continue so the grass will start. Feed is getting low, some have had to buy hay.

Mr. Arnold Mastin has gone to Kingston where he has secured a service station.

Several ladies from this line attended Institute meeting in Consecon on Friday evening.

Mr. C. N. Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Ceburn Adams attended the obsequies of Mr. Alvin Russell at Asbury Church on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Boyle visited relatives in Madoc on Sunday.

Master Casey Mastin had the misfortune to break his arm on Sunday afternoon. It was an x-ray being taken by Dr. Johnson. Trenton, Dr. VanLuven reduced the fracture and Casey will carry his arm in a plaster cast for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Adams and Kathleen also Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Alyea were guests of Mr. Joseph Adams on Sunday.

Thirty nine attended Sunday School last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Adams, Seymour and Margaret of Centre also Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Moreland and Billie and Jack of Centre Lasender spent Sunday with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Everett Adams.

Mr. Joseph Adams spent Monday afternoon in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tyler moved on Monday to Albury where Paul has secured work for the summer with Mr. Harry Dempsey.

RETURNS HOME FOR VACATION

Huff's Island, May 3—Mr. Donald Hatfield, Queen's University, Kingston is home until the beginning of the next term.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Woolridge took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. R. Anderson one day recently.

Mrs. E. Barber spent the week end in Guelph and on her return brought Miss Annie Sayers, Toronto to spend a time in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fitzgerald, Shannonville, and Mrs. Wm. Blades of Belleville, were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. Dondale.

There was no service here Sunday evening, owing to the indisposition of Rev. G. Graham.

Mrs. E. Hall was taken to the hospital Monday for a critical operation.4

Mr. and Mrs. P. Motley and boys were Sunday callers on Mr. and Mrs. Hubbert, Redmerdale.

ATTEND LAST W. I. MEETING OF SEASON

CENTRE—Mrs. Mac Lont and Mrs. (Rev.) Irwin of Toronto, were guests at the home of Miss Helen Reimer for three days the past week.

Mr. W. N. Redner, Miss Helen Redner also Mrs. Lont and Mrs. Irwin were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Pox on Wednesday evening. Mr. R. Pox and family also spent the evening with his parents.

Farming operations are general this week in this locality. Fall wheat and meadows are badly winter killed which will make more spring work for the farmers. Growth has been very slow but grass is beginning to show green in spots and will soon be as blooming in the woodlands.

Mrs. M. Redner and Miss Marjorie were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. R. Redner.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson, Mrs. B. Anderson and Miss Clara Pox were Sunday visitors of Mrs. Pox on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Pox also Mr. and Mrs. R. Pox spent Tuesday evening with W. Pox and family of Union Vale.

The W.I. met at the library room at Redmerdale on Thursday afternoon. A few of the ladies from this vicinity attended it being the last meeting before organization.

MRS. E. WAGER SUFFERS STROKE

UNION VALE—Mrs. A. Vincent was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. E. Wager of Picton on Monday. She has suffered from a slight stroke on Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Pearsall and Mrs. Earl Pearsall spent Tuesday in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Vincent and George and Miss L. Wiman were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent at Crofton.

Mrs. Pearce of Picton Collegiate on Monday owing to the illness of one of the teachers, Mr. E. Penrose who was drowned on Saturday afternoon in the bay. The funeral service was conducted by Mr. Penrose has not been received. The funeral service was largely attended on Monday afternoon at the Picton United Church after which the body was taken to the home of his parents at Hamilton.

Mr. Spencer Pierson of Toronto, spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. Vincent.

Mrs. Della Walker has returned home after spending the winter months at Crewe.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Pearsall of Wellington, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. P. Pearsall.

Miss Melena Stiedtl of Kingston, is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. Vincent a few days.

A number attended the show "Little Women" on Thursday night.

4 Coupons for Every $1.00 at Woodley's
LADIES!
The Smartest Hats in Town

WHEN PENNIES COUNT

Save on colds by asking for NAVY Tissue. Soft . . . absorbent . . . medicated. Don't take chances on common brands. NAVY is the value. Tissue made by Eddy's.

EDDY'S STERILIZED NAVY TISSUE

The E. B. EDDY Co. Limited
Kingston Branch
189 Ontario St. 90

FREE GIFT
THIS WEEK ONLY

To every purchaser of paint bought at our store during this week, we will present a box containing a bottle of Sun Gold Paint Powder and Liquid for picture frames.

We are distributors for the popular Canada Paint Quality line of finishes, including:—

SANITONE washable flat wall tints.
LUXOR FLOOR ENAMEL for cement or wood floors.
SUN VARNISH for doors, boats, floors, woodwork.
CANADA PAINT finest exterior finish for woodwork.
PROTEXTO preservative paint for shingles or summer cottages.
"LUXOR SUPREME FINISH" in White or 24 colors,

for automobiles — bathroom or kitchen — canoes — lawn furniture — porch floors, or any interior or exterior surface requiring a weather and scratch resisting rich gloss finish. Better than enamel or oil paint for such surfaces.

WHITE HARDWARE CO.
267 FRONT ST. PHONE 323
mi 3.

Stewart Warner RADIO
Westinghouse Refrigeration
EASY Washing Machines
The Big "A" Co. Ltd.
217 FRONT ST. PHONE 284
WE GIVE COUPONS ON PURCHASES AND ACCOUNT PAYMENTS
a3-S.

READ THE ADS
Keep Step With
THE TIMES!

GRAND PRIZE For FRIDAY May 4th.

$99.50 Coleman Stove

Wouldn't you like to be the winner of this beautiful Coleman Stove? Then save your Friday's Coupon for the Grand Drawing Saturday morning. If you fail to win the first prize, there's a good chance of winning one of the 30 other prizes offered.

Shop at the Coupon Stores

Festival of Values

NOT MISERABLE TO BE BLIND

New York, May 3 (OP)— Miss Eleanor Gertrude Brown, of Dayton, Ohio, blind since childhood and burdened with the sorrow of poverty in her early years, will receive the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Columbia University at the commencement next month. Probably the first woman to earn such a high scholastic honor while blind. She is 42.

Publication of the thesis for her doctorate, entitled "Milton's Blindness," has already been announced by the Columbia University press. In it, from the point of view of "one who knows what blindness is" she opposes the contention of generations of scholars that the blind poet lamented his affliction.

"No one," she wrote, "would deny that blindness has its deprivations. What it has its compensations is recognized by every sightless person. It is, I believe, the thought of these benefits that Milton would leave with the reader.

"It is not wholesome to be blind. It is inconvenient. The blind need to exert undue patience with reference to their affliction. Since on account of their dependency their lives are closely knit with their helpers. The blind make the adjustment to their handicap perhaps as happily as any group of afflicted people."

To clinch her argument, she quoted Booth Tarkington, who once was blind for six months and has had several operations on his eyes: "It is hard for any one who has not been blind to realize what a thrill it is not to have to see everything."

Bad Legs
Varicose Veins—Ulcers

Make up your mind today that you are going to give your legs a chance to get well. No operations nor injections are necessary, no confined rest. This simple Emerald Oil home treatment permits you to go about your business as usual—while it quickly heals old sores, reduces swellings, stimulates circulation and makes your legs as good as new. No waiting for relief! You get it IMMEDIATELY.

Just follow the simple direction—you must get satisfaction or money back—druggists everywhere.

EVERY ROADCRAFT TIRE IS Guaranteed!

The Roadcraft Tire—made by Gutta Percha—is a guaranteed medium-priced tire.

The Guarantee is backed by the maker's 50 year reputation for square-dealing.

No other tire in this price class is protected by the Built-In "SHOCK ABSORBERS" moulded into the Roadcraft Tire.

GUTTA PERCHA & RUBBER, LIMITED
Head Office: TORONTO, Canada. Branches from Coast to Coast.

GUTTA PERCHA TIRES
GUM CUSHIONED MADE BY
THE LARGEST ALL-CANADIAN RUBBER COMPANY. FOUNDED — 51 YEARS AGO — IN 1883

JUNIORS HEAR FOREIGN WORK DESCRIBED

Girls Hear Appeal of Missions at Diocesan W. A. Meeting

Previous to the opening of the annual convention of the Women's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada, Ontario diocese, the Junior auxiliaries branches convene and the enthusiastic attendance at these meetings yesterday afternoon and Sunday evening promised well for the complete success of the agenda.

With diocesan officers presiding and members of Christ Church and St. Thomas' Church busily arranging last minute details, the rally of the juniors of the diocese was held in St. Thomas' Parish Hall yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Grant Sperling, Brockville, secretary-treasurer for junior work, presided with the diocesan president, Mrs. H. P. Lowe of Kingston, also present on the platform. Juniors from the ages of seven to fourteen were present, large numbers from neighbouring parishes and representatives from these further away.

The address of the afternoon was delivered by Miss Greta Clark of Peterborough, Ontario, who is home on furlough from the mission field of China. Miss Clark had a charming manner of addressing the children and she absorbed attention with which they listened to her words showed how interesting they found her message. Miss Clark told how she reached by train, boat, finally rickshaw the city of Kaifeng where the school of St. Mary's Hall is situated. Then by means of coloured slides she told the day by day life of a child of China in the school and at home.

Junior's Branch

Her hearers were introduced to the first branch of the Juniors in China, to groups preparing for Sunday school, to little waifs for whom no one seemed to care until the missionaries arrived. She showed them the Cathedral, St. Mary's Hall built by Canadian W.A. money; Patriotic pictures showed Chinese tots suffering with eye disease, prevalent in China and so readily cured if they are able to receive medical attention. These real scenes of country life and of other missionaries' one of whom is called "Miss Grandmother" as she is now teaching the children of former pupils. It was thus brought home to the children how much depended on their co-operation. An adorable little Chinese girl smiled the good-bye and thank you which brought the slides to a close.

An interesting little play was given by the juniors of St. Thomas' Church when three little girls who would rather play with their dolls than go to the juniors' meeting was won over by three others who had attended the meeting. Those taking part were Joyce Perrin, Kathleen Reeve, Hilda Illsley, Mary Vose Thomson, Jean Orr, Mary Cook and Marion Orr.

Mrs. Lowe then presented the awards won by the Juniors.

Membership Growth

The evening session was devoted to the girls' branches and once again the attendance was large. Harold and Trenton having the largest representation. Miss Edith Shrubsall, Kingston, girls' secretary and candidates' secretary-treasurer presided in her annual report and said there were seventeen branches in the diocese with two hundred members. She urged a special effort towards increased membership, noting that the total was twenty-six less than last year.

The awards for work and competitions were won as follows:

Study Book—Isabel Morton, Brockville, Laurene Rickaby, Kingston, Doris Brant, Mohawk; Knitting and Sewing—Scarf—Winnifred Richardson, Merrickville; sweater—Bremner, Merrickville; Lois Robinson, Prescott; babies' nightgown— Phyllis Wetherhead, Athens. A special prize was awarded Lorraine Miller, 8 years old of Harefield as she sent a very neat and splendidly knitted, Mrs. Lowe presented the prizes.

Mrs. Symes of Montreal, Candidates' Secretary of the Dominion Board, addressed the meeting last evening. She had many valuable suggestions to make in various phases of girls' work and showed how programs could be made more attractive and how interest could be maintained.

Mrs. Symes dwelt on the call to missionary work.

"There are so many avenues opening up to girls today. To what service would she choose that is enlisting under the banner of Jesus Christ. Nurses, dietitians, evangelists are needed for the foreign mission field, matrons, seamstresses, supervisors, teachers, evangelists are needed for work in Canada. Girls who are free to leave home and who wish to give their service to Jesus should think of the great work awaiting them."

Stories of the remarkable accomplishments of missionaries were told in an interesting manner by the speaker. Those who could not offer their services could do so by money and by prayer.

Appeal for Missionaries

"Pledge is a very dull word," said the speaker, "I wish we could find another to express the money you send to missions. Let me tell you what your 'pledge' does and you will see how a small sacrifice on your part is responsible for many souls in mission fields." Mrs. Symes then related instances of conversions which changed lives through the influence of missionaries.

"Jesus gave his life for others; we give His only Son. So we must give ourselves," she concluded.

Miss Clark recently returned from China, spoke briefly on her call to the mission field. She was converted after a sermon on the text "God is Love", so inspired her that she was filled with a desire to give her life for Christ's service. Shortly she applied to the W.A. and after seven years was sent to China. An entirely new, difficult and time discouraging awaited her but she was always sustained by love and by the prayer being said for her at home. Hearts in China are hungering for news of Christ's message of hope called and the response to missionary teachings was every effort well worth the sacrifice entailed.

"You have a wonderful motto in this diocese 'she hath done what she could.' In looking back over your life, do you feel that Christ could say the same thing about you?"

During the evening a number of humorous sucs sang, Miss Grace Gillard acting as accompanist.

Personals

Mr. Donald McIntosh, Specials street, is visiting with Mr. Albert Hubbs, Cardinal, tomorrow, for Scotland, where he will visit his mother.

Mrs. Thomas Henderson of Rossmore, has returned home from Cook Hill.

The winners of the Moose Euchre last night eight ladies, Mrs. Connolly, Mrs. Holland, Helen Darrah, Mrs. Chamberlain, with special to Mrs. Staples and men's, T. A. Simpson, J. Smithson, T. J. Hevlin, H. Ryan with F. A. Simpson winning the special. Mrs. McGinnis was the consolation prize. The fur choker, donated by J. T. Delaney was won by Betty Edmon and the baskets of groceries by Miss Laura Rose, Miss K. Bean and Mrs. Brickman.

The Right Rev. A. L. Fleming, Lord Bishop of the Arctic, who will be in Belleville this week where he will address the annual meeting of the Diocesan W.A., will be the guest

60 BRANCHES OF AUXILIARY REPRESENTED

Bishop Lyons Celebrates Holy Communion at Christ Church

CHURCH, WORLD

With Rt. Rev. John Lyons, Lord Bishop of the diocese of Ontario, officiating, impressive services at Christ Church this morning, opened the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada. The church was filled with worshippers, delegates representing the sixty branches of the Auxiliary in this diocese. Bishop Lyons celebrant was assisted by the Ven. Archdeacon Dumbrille of Napanee, as gospeller, and Rev. Cecil Swaffer, Picton, Rural Dean of Prince Edward County, as epistler, and the rector, Rev. C. G. Wright, Rev. G. G. Wright, W.A.

An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. G. G. Wright who pronounced to the congregation the threefold challenge of missionary in the world today. There is the old missionary call to the priesthood and to those who have never known Christ, there is the new situation when within recent years the undertaking of the building of a nation on a godless foundation and the spread of its godless teaching and the situation at home, the growth in our midst of a spirit of practical paganism.

Candid recognition that all leadership, inspiration and direction come from God through the incarnate life of Christ His Son is the only solution to the problems of today, not the selfish panaceas offered by governments.

Intentness on immediate parish problems, pride in the history of the church too often overclood the service such that the church must ever have a forward outlook. More significance should be placed not on the glorification of the past but the realization that it is the instrument of God.

Members of the W.A. were urged to seize the one idea that they are chosen to fulfill the eternal purpose of God Himself. From this thought they will receive inspiration and consolation, the difficulties arise. The biggest work W.A. members can possibly do is to bring Christ, heart and strength under the sway of the living Christ who accepts them because they are called into His service.

Mr. Cyril Waite presided at the organ and Christ Church choir assisted in the service.

Luncheon was served in Christ Church Parish House, where welcome was extended the delegates by Mrs. G. G. Wright, reply being made by Mrs. Morden of Brockville. The business meeting opened this afternoon in St. Thomas' Parish House with Mrs. H. F. Lowe, diocesan president, in the chair. Miss Greta Clark, China, was the special speaker.

INSPECT PLANES FOR RACE

London, May 3 (CP-Havas) — Colonel James Fitzmaurice, former commander of the Irish Free State Air Force, left for Southampton today enroute to the United States to inspect aeroplanes and air reserves in connection with his participation in the London-Melbourne air race in October.

Big Reductions in the Following Lines

Leather Goods, Toilet-ware, Silverware, Clocks, Lighters, Bracelets, Pendants, Glassware, Umbrellas, and etc.

J. O. R. McCurdy

224 Front St. Phone 518

PICTON

Picton, May 3 (Special)— Dr. Gerald Allison, medical health officer, assisted by Mrs. Ball, nurse, administered the first injection of toxoid on Monday, to pupils of the public schools, whose parents wished to have it done. The local board of health has made this service possible without cost to the parents.

Mr. Simpson, choir leader of St. Mary Magdalene's church, is training the children of the Sunday School choir.

Mrs. Wager, Sr., suffered a slight stroke on Sunday evening at the home of her son Mr. Frank Wager, Main Street, West.

Mr. Keith Rose has discontinued his bakery business and is delivering bread for the K. M. Herrington bakery.

Mr. Perry Clark of London is spending a short holiday with his brother, Mr. Harry Clark, Greenbush.

The auction sale at the home of Mrs. Edwin Hicks, Jane Street, on Saturday afternoon was largely attended, and bidding was brisk and good prices obtained. Only two lots of the residence and as they offered less than the reserve bid. It was not sold.

Mrs. Ben Ware, and Miss Florence Ware of Lynn motored to Picton on Monday and are spending the week visiting friends here.

On Sunday Mr. Andrew Williams motored to Williamsburg and brought his father, Mr. Charles Williams back to Picton. Mr. Williams who has been ill for some time is somewhat better for a long time, spent ten days at Dr. Locke's clinic and has returned home much improved in health.

Miss Frances Weidemark of Toronto is spending a holiday with her mother, Mrs. Hazel Weidmark, Union Street.

KNOT HOLE CLASS HOLDS REHEARSAL

The Knot Hole singing class held their final rehearsal at the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday night in preparation for their appearance at the Collegiate on Wednesday, May 9th when they will take part in the "All Belleville Revue."

Fifteen members of the class which is sponsored by the Y's Men's Club, practised loud and long and would give a good account of themselves at the "Revue."

Mrs. Harold Howard and Bert Houston are directing the singing while Mr. Thompson acts as warbler of the group.

The boys are well worth hearing.

They're All Here!

Gay Fore-Runners for Spring . . .

. PRINTED SILKS

. TAFFETA SUITS

And Others As New As The Season Itself

ADVANCE SUMMER EVENING DRESSES NOW ON DISPLAY

NELLIE SMITH

Kresge Bldg. (Upstairs)

296 Front St. Belleville, Ont.

Fay Wray and Nils Asther in "Madame Spy", opening today on double bill at the Capitol.

LADIES! You Get

4 Coupons

For Every $1.00

At WOODLEY'S MILLINERY

Belleville Better Week

CONTINUING OUR SPECTACULAR AND TIMELY Sale

Belleville Better Week

COATS and DRESSES — COATS and DRESSES

EVERY ONE OF THE ITEMS ON THIS PAGE IS A MONEY SAVER. WHEN YOU SHOP AT THE STORE TOMORROW YOU WILL FIND MANY OTHER SPECIALS NOT ADVERTISED.

Dresses

A group of new print dresses and 75 others drastically reduced to clear at $4.95

Dresses

One Hundred high grade dresses, formerly selling up to $25.00, including wools, specially priced at $8.95

We are a Coupon Store—Coupons Given on all Cash Purchases or Money Paid on Accounts—Shop Early

FURTHER REDUCTIONS

Our entire Spring stock must be cleared at these prices — Buy NOW.

Special reductions on all our Higher Grade and Branded Lines.

Suits

All our Swagger Suits go into this sale at greatly reduced prices. To clear at 20 to 33⅓ % Discount

New Coats

All new coats received during the past week will be included in this sale at —

10% Discount

SPECIAL!

Odd Group of Coats to clear at $7.95

SPECIAL!

TAILORED SUITS

Formerly selling up to $25.00. To clear at $9.75

BLOUSES

Specially priced for this sale $1.95

No Alterations, Exchanges or Refunds During this Sale

PHONE 444

The J. A. McNABB, Ltd.

254 FRONT STREET . BELLEVILLE

JOBS HOUSES AUTOS Thousands of OPPORTUNITIES in the WANT ADS RADIOS ROOMS PETS

KIRKLAND LAKE GOLD MINES

Important Developments
Taking Place on This Property.

Write Us for Details NOW
with no obligation to you

BURTON AND COMPANY
Trusts and Guarantee Bldg. Toronto, Can.

GEO. C. BIGGAR — ALFRED E. WHITTEN — G. FELLOWS BIGGAR — JOHN BACON CRAWFORD

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD

Members Established 1902
TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE

Announce the removal of their Belleville Office to 30 BRIDGE ST. EAST
P. E. WILLS - MANAGER
Phone 1738

All Offices Connected by Private Wire

a30-1w.

Automobile Insurance

With three people being killed every two days in Ontario by autos, you are taking very great chances to be without insurance. Rates are now the lowest they have ever been.

Jamieson Bone & Co.

PHONE 1346
Insurance.

TREASURER'S SALE OF LANDS FOR TAXES CITY OF BELLEVILLE, IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

To wit:—

By virtue of a warrant issued by the Mayor under seal of the Corporation of the City of Belleville, bearing date of the 26th day of February, 1934; a sale of lands in arrears for taxes in the City of Belleville, will be held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, Belleville, Ontario, on the hour of Two O'Clock A.M. (Forenoon) on Thursday the 24th day of June 1934, unless the Taxes and Costs on the lands are sooner paid.

Notice is hereby given that the list of lands for sale for arrears of taxes being published in the Ontario Gazette in their issues of March 24th, March 31st, April 7th and April 14th, 1934 and the amount of the said list may be obtained from the City Treasurer's office.

Treasurer's office this 16th day of March, 1934.

E. H. STOCK, Treasurer.

City and District News

J. F. HILL M.P.P. AT CONVENTION

Mr. James F. Hill, M.P.P., for East Hastings riding left today for Toronto where he will attend the Ontario Conservative Convention. He is expected to return home on Saturday.

BACK SOON AFTER HIS LIBERATION

A few hours after he had been liberated from the local county jail where he had served two weeks, after pleading guilty to a charge of common assault, Conrad M. Levick (random), was arrested in a very intoxicated condition by the local police yesterday afternoon. Levick is to be charged by the chief of police in today's police court and may send him the latter for 15 days. After Levick pleaded guilty Chief Judd asked for his home town, and why the officer tells me he was so far gone that he kept hanging on the grass, on West Bridge street, to keep from falling off the earth."

An officer had arrested him and then the latter was still slightly "stewed".

Premier And Others on Radio Hook-up

Hon. George S. Henry, Premier of Ontario, Col. W. H. Price, Conservative Organizer and Charles McCrea, Minister of Mines will be heard over a Provincial wide radio hook-up tonight from the Royal York in Toronto, where the Conservative organization is paying tribute to their leader. Election issues will be discussed over the radio.

MILK STOLEN ON DONALD STREET

Unusual activity by thieves over night is reported from the Donald Street section of College Hill Mr. D. Fox today found that about fifteen quarts of milk had been taken from a creamer and Mrs. Ritchie also had milk stolen from the back door. A number of bottles of Mr. William Caldwell is said to have been interfered with.

ALL BELLEVILLE REVUE READY

Scenes of brilliant numbers by the leading entertainers of the community will form the program of the All-Belleville Revue to be presented under the auspices of the Y's Men's Club in the Collegiate Auditorium on Wednesday, May 9. Col. Jr. C. Graham as chairman will present mass numbers with the Brass Band, Boys' Choral, Dramatic Club, Ladies' Club and Rhythm Band, etc., interspersed with individual and group vocal and musical selections by the leading talent of the city.

The Y's Men present in this revue the first of a series of annual events which because of their brilliance and unique form will be welcomed by the music-loving public of this city.

The Revue provides not only a splendid opportunity for refined entertainment, but also introduces the Young Men's Christian Association, under whom it is being staged, further financial resources for its service in this community.

SCHOLARSHIPS TO MECHANICS

Scholarship winners in the motor trade industry were announced annually by General Motors of Canada, Limited and just completed the 1933-34 awards. Of the 600 selected as follows: First prize, $50, Paul Cheltenham, Oshawa Collegiate and Vocational Institute; Second prize, $30, Raymond Kessel, Barrie Collegiate and Vocational Institute; Third prize, $20, Wilfred Lewis, Windsor and Walkerville Technical School. Enrollment for the special courses includes Herbert R. H. Oatley, Belleville and many others. The scholarship course is the third of its kind to be conducted at Oshawa.

U. S. TIMBER EXPORTS

Washington, May 3.—(AP)— A decrease in the lumber shipments from the United States into Canada under the proposed Canadian Natural Products Marketing Act was foreseen today by the Lumber Manufacturers' Association. The Act was given second reading in the House of Commons at Ottawa last night.

ROAD WORKERS FIGHT FIRE

Thorpdale, Ont., May 3 (CP)— The two-storey frame home of Anthony Boivin was in ruins today, Levelled by flames which broke through the building in less than half an hour. An army of transient Canada highway workers came to the rescue but their efforts proved of no avail. Mr. Boivin and family were away at the time.

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

TORONTO MINES

Toronto, May 3.—(CP)—The mining section of the Toronto Stock Exchange reported the gold tax and the attending agitation as a matter of history today, showing little appreciation or disapproval by definite movements in either direction. The effect on prices was suggested that the government announcement until late yesterday did not take the market by surprise, but suggested rather that Wednesday's adjustments were based on correct advance information regarding the tax. Gold prices closed generally firm with only scattered losses, while base metals and shares were also steady to strong.

The gold tax issue settled, the mining market simmered today, developing few movements in either direction. Brazilians, which caught the tax wave in demand at higher prices but the other big gold-producers were off a point or two. They did little better than maintain a show of firmness.

Th cheaper producers, enjoying the benefits of the tax, were higher for a while, the group including Bralorne, Anacon and Consolidated Smelters but the advance petered out and the gains were lost. Hyrailway, a tardable issue, lost a little ground.

TORONTO INDUSTRIALS

Toronto, May 3 (CP)—The curb was scaled down narrowly again today on the industrial section of the Toronto Stock Exchange with action appearing mainly in some of the distillery issues, the oils and also some of the brewery shares. Unsteadiness on the New York Bourse inspired a note of caution here. All issues showed losses, totalling the day on the down side. Consolidated Smelters responded to the new gain in bullion, dropping 4 points.

Still in a waiting attitude, industrial stocks drifted off narrowly in a narrow range but with small gains holding the balance over losses except in the distillery group which showed fractional losses. Volume was small in the first three hours of trading.

In the grain pit, prospect for early dividends, the liquor issues were offered down, Walkers' seven points touching $5 1-2, and Industrial Alcohol 12, Walkers Canadian preferred some improvement this afternoon.

UNLISTED MINES

By A. H. Ketcheson and Co. at 2.30 p.m. Daylight Saving Time.

Adanac 30c
Beattie 132-134
Bidgood 87
Big Long Lac 19c
Bullcreek 44½-46
Buffalo Ankr. 180-190.
B. C. Nickel 170-178
Business 50c
Can. Malartic 27-30
Can. Malarchewan 18c
Casey Cossmit 69-72
Chesterville 24c
Columario, old 16-22
Crown Reserve 43-45
Fiske 3½c
Four Nations U. 700-1000.
Francoeur 26-35
Great Bear Lake 36-45
Great Bear Dev. 25-28
Gabrielle 61-64
Gunnar Gold 7½
Hasaga 74
Kenty Gold 68c
Kirk Gold Ext. 12c
Kirkland Frontier 3½-4½
Lamaque Gold 20-22
Lapaska 2 Contact 34c
Cont. Kirk 6½
Moreheuse 12c
Cumptan 100-113
Long Lac Gold 34-37
Long Lac Lagoon 20½
Long Lac Mines 25c
Mandy Mine 30-40
Moose Lake
McLeod Cockshutt 43-46
McCuaig Red Lake 32-36
Mint Gold 28c
Normont 12-15
Obaska 70-80
O'Connell 34-40
Pickle Crow 78c
Queen Lobel 14½c
Quebec Rainey 1000-1500
Windsor and Walkerville Technical School. Enrollment for the special courses includes Herbert R. H. Oatley, Belleville and many others. The scholarship course is the third of its kind to be conducted at Oshawa.
Reserve 2c 3c
Red Lake Gold 38½-43
Rochford Gold 3½-4½
Sullivan Cons. 43-46
Tobrym 11-12
Thabska 8-4
Thlkemona 74, 78-83
Wendigo 53-57
Wingait 2½
West Red Lake 31c
Young Davidson 29½-30
Cleveland Lake
Forty Four 800-850
Lake Lac 1000-1500
Grandora 53-58

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today:

Wheat, May 94 3-4; July 95 5-8; Oct. 97 1-4.

Oats, May 31 1-4; July 42 3-4; Oct. 44 1-4.

Barley, May 35 1-8; July 36 3-8; Oct. 37 1-2.

Cash, May 31 3-8; July 32 1-2; Oct. 34 1-4.

Price range May wheat today—Open 94 3-4; low 94 1-2; close 94 3-4.

NEW YORK EXCHANGE

New York, May 3.—(AP)—Stocks moved cautiously today. The trend, however, was toward moderately higher levels. Improvement occurred in some of the rail, sugar and oil war shares, the U. S. Steelting also Amerian Sugar Refining were up more than two points each. U.S. Steel, General Motors, American Telephone and Chrysler gained fractions to a point. Transfers approximated 2,000,000 shares.

Commentators spoke of at least a technical rally of moderate proportions and buying in some of the groups was attributed to short sales of this hope. The short interest, however, was said to be relatively small and stimulation for recovery was being awaited from other sources. Bonds were irregular.

Slight irregularity was registered among Canadian stocks. Moisture was a share easier following firmness yesterday.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, P. E. Wills branch manager, Belleville at 2.30 Daylight Saving Time.

MINES

Ashley 90
Atlas 2.12
Acme 26
Breth. Treth. 10
Barry Hollinger 15½
Base Metals 1.95
Bobby 32
Big Missouri 31
Bagamac 26
Castle Treth. 55½
Coniagrum 1.23
Central Patricia 73
Central Manitoba 10½
Coast Copper
Dome 36.75
Dominion Explorer 4½
Eldorado, bid 2.00
Falconbridge
McIntyre 46.50
Mining Corporation 1.90
McLeod Cockshutt
McWatters 44½
Moffat Red 5½
Nipissing 2.26
Noranda 46.25
International Nickel 27.85
O. S. Dunlop 13.25
Parkhill 70
Premier 1.30
Reno 87
St. Anthony 58
Sherritt 1.13
Sisco 2.13
San Antonio 2.95
Stadacona 28
Sudbury Basin 1.72
Sylvanite 2.56
Teck Hughes 6.00
Ventures 24
Waynide 43
Waite Amulet 1.21
Wright Hargreaves 8.90
McVittie 84

God's Lake 1.46
Thomson Cad. 50
Bear 41
Maple Leaf 66
McMillan 67
Reade Auth. 1.00
Orone Shield 34
While Eagle 35
Unlisted Mines
B.A. Oil 13
Imperial Oil 14¼
McColl Frontenac 13½
International Petrol 29¼
Brewers and Distil. 1.63
Distill. Seagrams 18¼
Walkers 61
Walker's pfd. 16¼
Can. Ind. Alcohol 12¼
Canada Bud 10½
Cons. Smelters 25
Bell Telephone 119½
C.P.R. 15¼
Canada Car 7¾
Canada Cement 7¼
Canada Malt 33
Cockshutt 7¼
Dominion Bridge 20¾
Dominion Bridge 33¾
Ford A. 7¾
Smelters 159
Lobiaw A. 17¾
Montreal Power 38¼
Massey Harris 5¾
Page Hersey 16¼
Pressed Metals 17¼
Power Corporation 13¼
Canada Vinegar 36¼
Steel of Canada 36¾
Brazilian 11
Gypsum 19
C.I.A., new bid 10
C.I.A. pfd. 105½
NEW YORK
American Can. 99¼
Aviation Corp. 7½
Auburn 42½
Am. Foreign Power 9
Anaconda 15¼
American Tobacco
N.Y. Central 30¾
General Motors 35¼
Inter. Telephone 23¾
Standard Oil of N.J. 43¾
Chrysler 34
North American 16¼
Nat. Dairy Prod. 18¼
Montgomery Ward 27¾
Phillips' Pete 10¼
Radio 8¼
Standard Brands 20¾
Stewart Warner 8¼
Amer. T. and T. 114¾
United Aircraft 22½
Vanadium 22¾
Westinghouse 57¾
U.S. Steel 46
U.S. Smelters 115¼

Anything and Everything in Carting. Flowing Gardens, Moving Jobs and Yard Work.
WM. TICE
283 Coleman St. Phone 36
a28, m1, 3

Summer Cottage For Sale

New frame cottage, four rooms, all screened windows, verges, about half a lot land, on Trent River, sand beach, about half a mile north of Frankford on the highway. Very reasonable price and terms.

BELLEVILLE LOCATORS
Geo. N. Germaine, Prop.
166 Front Street
Phone 99 Home Phone 627

Farmers

DON'T INSURE
until you have consulted the agent for the
BAY OF QUINTE
FIRE INS. CO.
Head Office
Picton — Ontario
Office in Crystal Hotel
Phones:
Office 1778 Res. 22043
CLAYTON W. BURR
Agent

Boat Builders

We Have Boat Cedar 6 to 14 Inches
Also all kinds of Lumber and Shingles. Get our price before buying.

WHITE'S Lumber Yard

14 North Front St.
m1-tf

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS

Change of Time Effective April 29th 1934

TRAINS GOING EAST

North Station No. 118, 12.35 A.M. Mail and Express Monday only
North Station No. 12 12.35 A.M. Mail and Express Daily except Monday.

North Station, No. 16, 2.00 A.M. The Maple Leaf. Daily.

North Station, No. 14, 12.05 noon. The Ocean Limited Daily

North Station, No. 6, 6.08 P.M. The Inter-City Limited Pool Train Daily
North Station No. 448, 7.00 P.M. Daily except Saturday to Ottawa.

TRAINS GOING WEST

North Station No 19 2.55 A.M Mail and Express Daily.
Morning Star, No. 17, 4.10 AM The Inter-City Limited, Daily.

North Station, No. 5, 2.45 P.M. The Maple Leaf. Daily
North Station No 9 5.50 P.M

Daily except Saturday and Sunday

North Station, No. 15, 7.10 P.M. The International Limited Pool Train Daily
North Station No 109 7.35 P.M. Local train Sunday's only.

BELLEVILLE & PETERBORO

North Station No 11 6.15 A.M Local Passenger Daily except Sunday
BELLEVILLE & PICTON
North Station No 352 8.00 A.M Local Passenger Mon. Wed. Fri. Leave Picton for Belleville 13.30 P.M same days.

Produce Market

Toronto, May 3 (CP)—Wholesale prices on produce delivered at Toronto as quoted by the Ontario Farmers Co-operative Co. here today were:

Eggs, grade A, large, doz. 17c; grade A medium, doz. 15c; grade C, doz. 14c; churning cream, No. 1, lb. 22c; No. 2, lb. 20c; butter, No. 1 solids, lb. 21c; No. 2 solids, lb. 21½c.

Ontario Cobbler potatoes, bag 95 cents.

Dealer's price on hand-picked white beans, in carlots, f.o.b. at point of shipment $1.15 bushel.

DIED

MOWATT—In Thurlow Township, on Wednesday, May 2nd, 1934, Matilda Elizabeth Mowatt, in her 81st year.

The funeral will be held from the Belleville Church Funeral Home, Campbell Street, on Friday, May 4th, 1934, Service at 3.00 p.m. Interment Belleville Cemetery. m1-1i

DIED

CUSHING — Died this morning, Minnie Cushing, wife of Thos. Cushing, Alexander Street. Funeral notice later. m3-1i.

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland Tickell
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve for Less
FUNERAL HOME
Cor. Church St. and
Victoria Ave.
Phone 2295

Thomas O. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
32 Everett St. Phone 62
Office
288 Front St. Phone 62

THE MARTIN
FUNERAL HOME
218-218 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
Phone 2500
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J HARRISON

BELLEVILLE
BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
57 Campbell St.
Phone 715-W Day and Night
J. W. ILLAH
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

TO-LET

FOUR ROOM APARTMENT DOWN stairs. Conveniences. Phone 2226W. m1-3i

MODERN 6 ROOM BRICK HOUSE Charles Street. Phone 702 or 806 after 6 p.m. m1-2i.

FURNISH HEATED APARTMENT, suitable for office or light housekeeping. Apply 251 Front Street. m1-3i.

FIVE ROOMED APARTMENT, hardwood floors throughout. Apply O. R. Thompson, 104 Dundas St. West. m1-1in.

ROOMS UNFURNISHED, RENT reasonable, good location, also garden and garage. Would like party to help with housework part time. Apply 38 Hillside St. m1-3i.

7 ROOM APARTMENT, MODERN conveniences, hot water heat, newly decorated throughout. Apply 251 Front Street. m1-3i.

APARTMENT FIVE ROOMS bright hardwood floors, fruit trees, electric range. Possession Feb. 21 Apply at Ontario Intelligencer office. m1-tf

NO 133 WEST MOIRA, 4 BED rooms, modern conveniences. Garage and garden. Apply 26 Moira. m1-3i.

APARTMENT FIVE ROOMS heated hardwood floors, fruit trees, electric range. Possession Feb. 21 Apply at Ontario Intelligencer office m1-tf

Special Notice

Meeting of the Conservatives of Belleville will be held in their club rooms, Campbell Street, Thursday at 8 p.m. for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the convention at Marmora on Friday, May 11th. Also besides the ladies' and young men's organizations.
P. McEwown, R. H. Ketcheson, President. Secretary.
m3-6 7.

BUSINESS LINERS

West Side Ladies' Shop

1 A BRIDGE WEST.
Real bargains in print dresses, silk dresses, half price. Bargain table assorted cotton underwear at 10c. Rayon hose 25c pair. Hats reblocked and retrimmed 75c. W. C. Palmer, Manager. m3-1i

Board Room Gossip

It is becoming more and more likely that Argentine will be allowed to export 500,000 tons of wheat although quota be exhausted. Excess will be deducted from 1934-35 quota. Only drawback however, is expected to be larger than anticipated 110,000,000 bu. crop world's load of imported wheat continues to diminish although apparently consumption has not materially changed throughout the world according to many statisticians.

Montreal Gross Premiums of C.N.R. for 9-day period ending April 30th were $4,098,610 as compared with $3,890,000 for similar 9-day period of 1933 an increase of $548,362.

PHONE 99
Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 25c; Marriages and Engagements, Notices 25c; Anniversary and Funeral Notices, $1.00; In Memoriam, $1.50; Resolutions of Condolence and Thanks, $1.00 for 75 lines over 75 lines 1c per line; Cards of Thanks, $1.00.

CLASSIFIED — (For Sale, Wanted, etc.)—1c per word each for first insertion; ½c per word for subsequent insertions 1c per word, minimum 25c.

COMING EVENTS—1c per word each insertion; if to be noted, over that date 2c per word.

PROFESSIONAL, LEGAL AND BUSINESS CARDS—$1.00 per month; $5.00 per month for Professional, Legal and Business Cards.

OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES—1c per word for first insertion; 1½c per word for subsequent insertions; minimum 25 words for first insertion; minimum 10 words for subsequent insertions.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

Telephone your want ads to us. PHONE 99. Ads. may be left at our office. We are responsible for more than one insertion of an ad. only for the space we actually occupy. Advertisers must have their replies addressed to the Box Number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

EXPERIENCED STENOGRAPHER —Must be quick and accurate. Write "Q" Ontario Intelligencer. m3-1i

WANTED TO BUY—PAY CASH. State particulars and best price to Box "C" Ontario Intelligencer. m3-2i.

BY RELIABLE YOUNG GIRL, position in housework, or nurse maid. Is fond of children. Box "P" Ontario Intelligencer. m3-2i.

COOK GENERAL EXPERIENCED and reliable. Good wages. Write Box "Y" Ontario Intelligencer. m3-2i.

LIGHT CAR, REASONABLE small down payment. Purchase guaranteed by responsible party. $40.00 per month, weekly if desired. Box "A" Ontario Intelligencer. m3-3i.

BUTTER PRINTER, STATE PRICE and condition. H. Swan, Brook Chesse Co, Corbyville. m1-3i

FOR SALE

BROOK SUPER SIX '29 MODEL. Good condition. 5 Souies. 130 Campbell Street. Phone 1342M. m2-3i

DRESSER, DINING ROOM table, kitchen chairs, refrigerator, Quebec stove with oven, stove pipes, rocking chairs, linoleum. Box 38 Everett. m3-1i

TIMOTHY HAY IN STACK 416 Mrs. Mallett, on Bridge-Dundas Highway. m3-1i

TAKE CHOICE GARDEN LAND with 7 room dwelling, barn, hog pen and hen house with water. Thomasburg on Highway No. 37. This is a desirable residential property. Apply to Mrs. Mallett, estate. Apply O. C. W. Sherry, Belleville, Ont. Solicitor, Barrister, Belleville. m3-2i

USED MACHINERY, ONE FORDson tractor, 2 furrow Oliver plows, 14 inch Cockshutt plow, Massey Harris disc harrow. Apply Bert Hall, Massey Harris Warehouse, 321 Front St. m3-1i

HOUSE, SOME FURNISHINGS— wood floors, 6 fire places, crystal chandeliers, hot water heating, double garage. East Hill. Apply Box "L" Ontario Intelligencer. Would consider exchange for part payment. a26 28 m1 3.

1932 TWO DOOR FORD COUPE, condition. New battery, etc. Cheap for cash. Apply 181½ Station. Phone 2227J. m1-3i

DOUBLE FRAME HOUSE IN good repair, 3 rooms, 2 rooms finished. Lot 165 Bleecker. m2-3i

SUMMER COTTAGE AT JONES' Creek, 3 miles from Belleville on Highway No. 2, cottage, 3 rooms, kitchen, bathroom, hot water heating, electric light, double garage, 2 lots, 100 x 200 feet. Apply 22 Front St. m3-1i

TO-LET

FURNISHED BEDROOM, SUITABLE for gentleman. Apply 251 Front St. m3-1i

FURNISHED ROOM, SUITABLE for gentleman. Apply 251 Front St. m3-1i

Business Directory

AUTOMOBILE LOANS

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner Car Financing of All Kinds
S. J. FISHER & SON
39 Bridge St. E. Telephone 189

Incorporated
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto-Ottawa-London-Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., CHIROPRACTIC examination with the Radiograph reveals all diseases in the early stages. Foot disorders corrected, all diseases treated. Phone 900 or write 208 Coleman St., Belleville.

H. R. and Vera E. Phober
CHIROPRACTORS
(Graduate Graduates)
Palmerian and Sweeney Graduates
42½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1276 Belleville, Ont.

ACCOUNTANTS & AUDITORS

ROSS EDGAR REAL
Chartered Accountant
157 Front Street
Belleville, Ont.

DENTIST

DR. ROBT. M. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 448 Phone 2404 Front St. 217-2m.

SURVEYORS

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Engineer.
Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions promptly attended to.
PHONE 8-F.O. BOX 89
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS
Phone 1346
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
251 Front St. Phone 230

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
278 Front Street Phone 2166W

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738 P. E. Wills, Branch Manager. m-1y.

LEGAL

PORTER, PATNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public. Chas. A. Payne, K.C., R. D. Arnott. Phone 218 Front Street, Belleville, Ont.

CHARLES H. KERR, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary and Conveyancer, 25 Bridge St. East, Belleville. Phone 74.

F. C. WHITE, BARRISTER, SOLICitor, Notary Public, etc., 12 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. m4-tf.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, Office, Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON, GRIFFIN, MACKENZIE & Gallow, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, Office: 20 Bridge Street East over Dominion Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on mortgages. W. N. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham. Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMBSON AND CO. (Successors to the late F. S. Wallbridge) Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 22 Bridge Street E. R. J. Butler, K.C., Counsel.

B. O. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, Office: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

PERSONAL

A ROBBER AT LARGE IN BELLEville. Don't forget to protect yourself against all youthful charms. Behave safely, sanely and surely with Genuine Tablets. Ask Mallowain's Drug Store. Phone 138.

For ECONOMY Read the ADVERTISEMENTS

LEAFS LOSE OPENING GAME TO ALBANY

Winners Score All Runs off 5 Hit Attack in Third

LARGE CROWD

Bisons And Montreal Succeeded in Wining Opening Tilts

The results of the Northern openings in the International League seem to indicate the fans lost very little, if any, enthusiasm during the two weeks the teams were playing in the "southern" half of the circuit.

Where some 33,000 fans, considered a good opening day turnout, saw the season's first games May 18, last year, when the weather was a trifle colder, a total of more than 48,000 packed into the parks at Toronto, Montreal, Rochester and Buffalo for yesterday's four games.

Toronto's Maple Leafs easily copped attendance honors although they couldn't win their first home game. After a civic welcome and street parade witnessed by about 5,000, the Leafs drew approximately 17,000 fans to the stadium to see them drop a 3-2 decision to Albany Senators and wind up again in a three-way tie for second place with Newark and Syracuse. A five-hit attack on Sheriff Fred Blake produced all the Albany runs in the third inning.

The League leading Rochester Red Wings got about the best all-around results from their opening. Not only did they attract 14,230 cash customers, but they smashed out a 9-4 victory over Baltimore Orioles, getting extra base hits in big bunches.

Buffalo Bisons, despite their place at the bottom of the standing and a six game losing streak, had a paid attendance of 11,430 and they celebrated the occasion by shattering their string of losses with 14-6 triumph over the Newark Bears.

Montreal, the largest city in the league, had the day's smallest attendance. Possibly because the Royals are down in the second division only 6,000 fans turned out to witness a return battle of the mound struggle between Chad Kimsey and Fred Pussell which marked the opening at Syracuse. This time the decision and score were reversed, Kimsey pitching the royals to a 2-1 triumph although he allowed seven hits, including a homer by Joe Benes to six off Pussell.

DAY OR NIGHT.

A WISE OLD OWL sat on an oak;
The more he saw, the less he spoke;
The less he spoke, the more he heard;
Just take a tip from this wise old bird:

Smoke WHITE OWL CIGARS 5¢

SEN. SOFTBALL SCHEDULE DRAWN

Six Clubs Will Play 45 Game Schedule at Four Parks

A forty five game schedule was adopted by the Belleville Mens' Softball League at a special meeting called last night. The club delegates voted to play their games on Monday and Thursday evenings, whenever possible with all gate receipts to be split at the termination of each game.

Previous to the inauguration of daylight saving in Belleville of June 16th all games will be called at 6.00 p.m. sharp and seven innings will be played. After the introduction of daylight saving however, the games will not commence until 6.30 p.m. when a full nine innings game will be played. In case of rain, the postponed game will have to be played the following night, in order to have the schedule over in time for the league play-offs. It was deemed advisable to have the third and second team play the best two out of three games with the winner meeting the first placed club in a three game series for the league championship, at the termination of the regular schedule.

The umpires voted upon were—A. Ethier, C. B. Colling, Chas. Bernett, Herb Pointer, Joe Goyer, Harry Rollins, D. Goodfellow and Allan Meagher, while D. Blackburn, M. Little and Geo. Hammett were added to the list as alternates. During the evening Manager Grant Ashley of the Delaney Bearcats, announced that the entire gate receipts taken in at the Wall Street game played on May 17 would be given to Vic Halsey, recently injured member of the Cubs.

The 1934 schedule of the Belleville Mens' Softball League:

May 31—Delaneys vs Grills at Central Park
May 31—S.E.A.C. vs Cubs at College Field
" —Tip Top vs Alemite at Alemite Grounds
June 4—Cubs vs. Tip Top at Central Park.
" —Delaney vs. S.E.A.C. at Cricket Field
" —Grills vs Alemite at Alemite
June 7—Alemite vs Delaneys at College Hill
" —Cubs vs Grills at Central Park
June 11—S.E.A.C. vs Tip Top at Central Park
June 13—Grills vs S.E.A.C. at Cricket Field
" —Tip Top vs Delaney at Central Park
June 14—Alemite vs Cubs at College Field
" —Tip Top vs Grills at Central Park
June 18—S.E.A.C. vs Alemite at Alemite
" —Cubs vs Delaney at Central
June 21—Alemite vs Tip Top at Central Park
" —Grills vs Delaney at College Field
" —Cubs vs S.E.A.C. at Cricket Field
June 25—Alemite vs Grills at Central Park
" —S.E.A.C. vs Delaney at Cricket Field
" —Tip Top vs Cubs at College Field
June 28—Tip Top vs S.E.A.C. at Cricket Field
" —Grills vs Cubs at College Field
" —Delaney vs Alemite at Alemite
July 2—S.E.A.C. vs Grills at Central Park
" —Cubs vs Alemite at Alemite
July 5—Delaney vs Tip Top at at Central Park
" —Alemite vs S.E.A.C. at Cricket Field
July 9—Delaney vs Cubs at College Field
" —Grills vs Tip Top at Central Park
July 12—S.E.A.C. vs Cubs at College Field
" —Alemite vs Tip Top at Central Park
July 13—Delaney vs Grills at Central Park
July 16—Tip Top vs Cubs at College Field
" —Delaney vs S.E.A.C. at Central Park
" —Grills vs Alemite at Alemite
July 19—Alemite vs Delaney at Alemite
" —Cubs vs Grills at College Field
" —S.E.A.C. vs Tip Top at Central Park
July 23—Grills vs S.E.A.C. at Cricket Field
" —Tip Top vs Delaney at Central Park
" —Alemite vs Cubs at College Field
July 26—Tip Top vs Grills at Central Park
" —S.E.A.C. vs Alemite
" —Cubs vs Delaney at College Field

BASEBALL RESULTS

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Rochester	9	3	.750
Toronto	6	4	.600
Syracuse	6	4	.600
Newark	9	6	.600
Albany	5	5	.500
Montreal	6	7	.462
Baltimore	4	9	.307
Buffalo	3	10	.231

Wednesday's Scores

Albany........3 Toronto........2
Buffalo.......14 Newark........6
Montreal.......2 Syracuse.....1
Rochester......9 Baltimore....4

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
New York	10	3	.750
Chicago	10	4	.713
Pittsburgh	7	5	.583
Boston	6	6	.500
Brooklyn	5	8	.385
St. Louis	6	7	.462
Philadelphia	4	8	.333
Cincinnati	3	10	.231

Wednesday's Scores

Pittsburg......4 Chicago......2
New York.......6 Brooklyn.....5
St. Louis......4 Cincinnati...1
Other clubs not scheduled.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
New York	8	5	.615
Cleveland	6	4	.600
Detroit	7	5	.584
Washington	7	7	.500
Boston	6	7	.462
St. Louis	5	6	.455
Philadelphia	6	8	.429
Chicago	4	7	.364

Wednesday's Scores

St. Louis......5 Detroit.......2
Philadelphia..12 Boston........11
Washington....6 New York.....2
Other clubs not scheduled.

LEAGUE LEADERS

(Including Yesterday's Games)

National League

Batting—Ott, Giants, .395; Wilson, Phillies, .389.

Runs—Klein, Cubs, and Vaughan, Pirates, 15.

Runs Batted In—Klein, Cubs, 16; Suhr, Pirates, 15.

Hits—Moore, Giants, 20; Lindstrom, Pirates, and Klein, Cubs, 19.

Doubles—Ryan, Giants, 7; English, Cubs, 6.

Triples—Suhr, Pirates, 3; Lindstrom, Pirates, W. Herman, Cubs, and Collins, Cardinals, 2.

Home Runs—Klein, Cubs, and Ott, Giants, 6.

Stolen Bases—Frey, Dodgers; Chiozza, Phillies; Rothrock and Martin, Cardinals, and Piet, Reds, 2.

Pitching—Bush, Cubs, 4-0; Hubbell, Giants, 3-0.

American League

Batting—Reynolds, Red Sox, .451; Vosmik, Indians, .442.

Runs—Morgan, Red Sox, 13; Vosmik, Indians; Kubel and Manush, Senators, 12.

Runs Batted In—Reynolds, Red Sox, 16; Foxx, Athletics, 15.

Hits—Reynolds, Red Sox, 23; Werber, Red Sox, 21.

Doubles — Werber, Red Sox, 8; Greenberg, Tigers, and Averill, Indians, 6.

Triples — Manush, Senators, 3; Chapman, Yankees, Reynolds and R. Johnson, Red Sox; Higgins, Athletics, and Campbell, Browns, 2.

Home Runs— Foxx, Athletics, and Bonura, White Sox, 4.

Stolen Bases—Walker, Tigers, 7; Gehrig, Yankees, 4.

Pitching—Ruffing, Yankees; Thomas, Senators, and Hildebrand, Indians, 3-0.

CURRENT SPORT

(Day By Day)

We are in receipt of a letter signed by Tommy Pedder, the local diminutive professional swimmer, who although he has failed to get in the money at the last two marathon swims, staged under the sponsorship of the C.N.E., the local swimmer has always made a creditable showing. Tommy is not asking for charity but desires employment for the summer whereby he can earn sufficient money to defray his expenses while training in Toronto, or elsewhere. Tommy Pedder is a quiet unassuming youth, who is a credit to the sporting element of this community. He goes about his work in a manner befitting a gentleman and always swam under Belleville colors and banner, despite the fact he has always been called upon to foot his expenses, while unemployed. It would be a fine gesture on the part of one of the local sporting clubs to take Tommy into the fold and assist him materially.

His letter, dated at Belleville, reads: Dear Sirs—"As I have been unemployed since turning pro I was wondering if I could get a job or backing in Belleville. I would need about $75.00 to carry me through training and to keep me while in Toronto. In other attempts at the C.N.E. marathon I took care of all expenses myself, but this year I am unable to do so. There are two Toronto sportsmen trying to obtain work or backing for me in Toronto, but I would sooner stay in Belleville if they would only keep me this year. Last year I swam 7 1-2 miles in the big swim and am likely to do better this year. I was 12th when taken out." Signed Tommy Pedder. The letter speaks for itself and it is to be hoped, that help may be afforded this son of Belleville in his endeavours.

Oscar "Lefty" Judd ex-Guelph Maple Leaf hurler, who turned professional with the Los Angeles "Angels" last winter, found the going rather rough and tough. Judd apparently wasn't quite as good as he imagined as he was given his out-right release yesterday. At that there is quite some difference in trying to throw 'em past amateur ball players and class AA men, some of whom have had considerable big time experience. Down in Kingston the Limestone City sport scribe has just awakened to the fact, that the Ponies may lose a couple of their stars. Although we predicted the shift of Compean, Quinn, Elliott and McQuade to Brockville some weeks ago, the matter is not even settled as yet. According to the underground wire we have been informed that the Kingston players are over anxious to move eastward. But, down in the Island Town the baseball moguls are slightly dubious as to whether the Pony stars are good enough for their league or not.

The other day we intimated, that Jo-Jo Graboski, ex-Oshawa, Chicago Black Hawk, ice celebrity was seriously considering taking up sailing on Geo. Fulford's yacht at Brockville. The Oshawa sport scribe along with others, scoffed at the idea. Well, for the information of all concerned we can inform our contemporaries that both players previously mentioned in this column, Morgan and Graboski were personally in Brockville last week on business As for Peterson, the third member of the trio, it is not likely he would foresake a college education to go swabbing decks.

The Gordie Morris-Howard Wheeler scrap, to be staged at the City Hall by the S.E.A.C. promoters on Friday night, is just about the talk of the town. The followers of the fight game are split in their decision, some laying odds, that the local mittster can "take" the slugging youth from the Airport, while others scoff at the suggestion, saying: "Wheeler hits too hard for Morris". On paper this bout has all the markings of a natural and should be the feature of the night. A number of local fans are quite interested in the Bowler-Parry mixup. Parry has not been doing any actual fighting for some considerable time and his first amateur ring appearance in three years will be watched closely. In his hey-day Freddie Parry was a pretty fair sort of a light-weight, but, the question arises—"do they come back?" Promoter Joe Samain has procured the services of sixteen good boys throughout Eastern Ontario, giving the fans eight high class bouts. Some new faces have been included on the card and should give the show, that much needed color. The S.E.A.C. has presented two previous boxing shows this season, both being a credit to the fight game.

It was officially announced last evening that the Belleville Arena would be offered for sale in the near future. The Arena directors met yesterday afternoon and definitely decided to take a drastic move. After seriously considering the entire matter, that body decided, that they could no longer finance the Belleville Arena in the off season. Full details relating to the sale are to be advertised, we learned, with the building being sold to the highest bidder. The decision of the directors did not come from out of the blue, but, has been a bone of contention for many months past. There are some interested citizens about town, we understand, who do not wish to see the Belleville Arena pass out of existence. To such men we hope the matter of the salvation of the Belleville Arena will now be foremost in their minds. If the Arena is to be saved for the youth of Belleville in future years, action is needed immediately as outside interests are already in on the ground floor, 'tis rumoured.

For those interested in lacrosse, a public meeting will be held in the "Aajmaa" club rooms, Front St., tonight. The matter of fostering lacrosse will be thoroughly discussed.

RECREATION ALLEYS

LADIES' LEAGUE

Metropolitan Stores— M. Lynch 455; M. Adams 489; L. Melchior 500; S. Melchior 540; D. West 522 Total 2506.

Bankers—E. Scott 503; R. Wilson 471; G. Melchior 495; P. Melchior 598; Miss Doe 427. Total 2494.

Metropolitan —Three points.

Frontenacs— F. Langman 278, M. Kyd 304; E. Smith 323; A. Tompkins, 531; E. Hill 409. Total 1845.

Lucky Strikes—Mrs. Johnston 408 M. Charlton 433; P. Ethier 489; H. Blaind 475; Miss Doe 260. Total 2095.

Lucky Strikes —Three Points.

Special Game

Bank of Commerce (Belleville)— Miss P. Melchior 714; G. Nunn 527 D. Burley 760; T. McRae 582; Miss M. Lynch 472. Total 3055.

Kingston—Parodes 606; Kornish 430; Virgin 511; Bruce 550; Lethwood 496; Total 2595.

Belleville—Four points.

Bank of Commerce II (Belleville) —P. Redden 502; P. Belnap 573; R. McLean 489; S. Barrett 591; T. Shiels 624; Total 2779.

Tip Top (Kingston)—A. Young 517; D. Aboud 520; G. Mitchell 535 K. Wanless 431; P. Smith 496. Total 2499.

Belleville—Three points.

Two teams from the Kingston Bowladrome visited the Recreation last night with the locals coming out on the high end of the score.

The Bank of Commerce team of the Major League won 3 points from the league leading team from Kingston. For the locals L. Shiels was high with 624 and for Kingston G. Mitchell was high with 535.

The Bank of Commerce Junior team took all four points from Tip Top of Kingston. D. Burley of the locals rolled 268-194-298—760. Miss P. Melchior also of the Bank of Commerce rolled a nice score of 247-238-229—714. For the visitors Mr. Parodes was high with 608.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Rabbit Warstler, Athletics, led assault on Boston pitching with two doubles and two singles.

Mel Ott, Giants, clouted sixth homer of season and single against Dodgers.

George Blaeholder, Browns, limited Tigers to seven hits.

Freddy Lindstrom, Pirates, rapped Chicago hurling for triple and two singles.

Frank Frisch, Cardinals, batted in two runs in 4-1 victory over Reds.

Clothiers of Quality

Belleville Better Week

TOPCOAT SPECIAL

$10.00 and up

Harris Tweed — Angoras — Donegals — Fleece

• STYLES
RAGLANS, PLAIN SLIP-ONS, BALMACAN AND ALL-ROUND BELTS.

All made by the best makers and carrying the Quick and Robertson mark of Quality and Style.

Quick and Robertson

CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

First in Style, Quality and Reasonable Price

PIRATES JUMP INTO LEAD BY BEATING CUBS

Pittsburg to be Feared as Eastern Teams Move West

CLEVELAND UP

Take First Place in American Without Playing

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.

As the eastern clubs of the National League move on to the west for the opening of the first intersectional strife of the 1934 major league season a timely warning might be to look out for Pittsburgh Pirates. It appears very much to the point as the Buccaneers clash with the league leading New York Giants in the first series.

So far Chicago Cubs have held the spotlight more than any other western club in the circuit but it was Pittsburgh, in third place with only a fair showing against Cincinnati and St. Louis, which knocked the Cubs out of the lead and made them take two defeats in a row for the first time this season. Following Tuesday's 4-1 triumph behind Ralph Birkofer, the Pirates won 4-2 yesterday with Heinie Meine, veteran right hander, on the hill.

Pittsburgh never was in trouble yesterday as Arky Vaughan opened the firing in the first with a homer with one on base and the hits off Lon Warneke continued to come, when they counted.

Chicago's defeat dropped the Cubs a half game behind the Giants, who wabbled through to their third straight victory over Brooklyn 6-5 when Frank O'Doul smashed a pinch homer with two aboard in the eighth.

The Cardinals won the other National League struggle from Cincinnati, which had to get along without Jim Bottomley, by a 4-1 count. Tex Carleton hurled effectively to the last inning, then Dizzy Dean did good relief work. Philadelphia and Boston were unscheduled.

American League

Cleveland Indians slipped into the American League lead without playing a game as both New York and Detroit suffered reverses, going to second and third respectively. The Yanks bowed 6-2 to Washington when the Senators landed on Russell Van Atta in the first inning, collecting six hits and four runs before retired with only one out, and finishing the job against Johnny Murphy in the same inning.

St. Louis Browns handed the Tigers a 5-2 setback on a combination of home runs by Irving Burns and Ray Pepper that produced all the tallies and George Blaeholder's seven hit hurling. Philadelphia's Athletics outslugged Boston 12-11 after spotting the Red Sox six runs in the first two innings. Bob Johnson's pinch homer in the seventh finally put the A's ahead.

Chicago was bracketed with Cleveland for an off day.

GET AWAY

From That Languid Tired Feeling Caused by a Lazy Liver

Parke's Liver Tone quickly tones up a lazy liver and soon restores you to normal. It is also a great aid in stomach disorders. A month's treatment for $1.00

DOLAN

THE DRUGGIST

Phone 138

THE ANKLERS

Toronto, May 3.—Torchy Peden and Jules Audy, leaders most of the way in the Toronto six-day bicycle race, shared the top spot in the standing this morning with Charlie Winter and Frank Bartell, the New York-Newark combination. They each had 1,381 miles and three laps to their credit but the Canadians led in points with 450 to 393.

The 8 a.m. standing:

	Miles-Laps	Pts.
Peden-Audy	1381-3	450
Winter-Bartell	1381-3	393
MacDonald-Zach	1381-2	356
Fielding-Gadou	1381-2	241
Boucheron-Mouton	1381-0	234
Van Kempen-Ottevaire	1380-9	228
McNamara-Rush	1380-7	425
Van Slambrouck-LePage	1380-3	310
Petri-Beckman	1380-1	401

CARELESS DRIVING FOUND

St. Thomas, Ont., May 3.—A coroner's jury inquiring into the death of F. O. Shillington, London salesman, in an auto crash, found the accident was caused by the careless driving of George Mack of St. Thomas.

Shillington was killed when Mack's truck crashed into his car on the Sandymount hill here.

Lost 20 lbs. of Fat in 3 Short Weeks

20 Pounds Gone!

New Safe, Quick Reducing Method

"I took 3 bottles of BonKora and lost 20 lbs. in 3 weeks. Reduced hips 4½ inches. Reduced waist and bust too and wear dresses 2 sizes smaller." — Mrs. Margaret Mrak housewife who reduced.

BonKora, the quick, easy Reducing Treatment, takes off fat the new "3-stage" way. Triple action: triple speed. Take a little BonKora daily. Eat big meals of tasty foods you like in combinations as explained in BonKora package.

Safe, too. No dangerous drugs in BonKora. In fact, this treatment builds health while reducing fat the quickest way.

Don't let ugly fat ruin your charm. Get BonKora from druggist today. If not delighted with quick loss of fat, manufacturer refunds money you paid for this bottle. You don't risk a penny.

Get a Big Bottle of BonKora Today. Special This Week at ALL GOOD DRUG AND DEPARTMENT STORES. Your druggist has it or can get it quick from his wholesaler. If not, write today to Battle Creek Drugs, Ltd., Dept. 3, Walkerville, Ont.

Belleville Better Week "SPECIALS"

SHIRTS— Men's fine quality broadcloth shirts in white and colors, with two collars to match, or collar attached style. SPECIAL 1.45

TIES— Special sale of men's neckwear, in neat designs and smart stripes. Good value at 75c. SPECIAL 50c

SOX— Men's fine quality botany wool sox in checks of, grey, blue, brown and maroon. SPECIAL 35c — 3 for 1.00

UNDERWEAR— Men's fine quality shirts and shorts. SPECIAL, SET 78c

SUITS— Special Sale of Men's Fine All Wool Worsted Suits during Belleville Better Week—these suits have two pair trousers and were regular 22.50. SPECIAL 18.00 — 2 PANT SUITS

If you need a suit don't fail to see these.

TOPCOATS— We have three special sale groups of men's topcoats. Real values 9.95 12.95 15.95

Prize Coupons Given With Every Purchase

Shaw's Men's Wear

THE STORE OF FASHION

● "Hired today, fired next month." That's the way it is with Tom. And all because he doesn't shave as clean or as often as he should. He doesn't realize that a tender skin is no excuse for neglect.

If your skin is sensitive, use today's Gillette Blue Blade. This blade is specially processed for smooth work on tender faces. It makes even twice-a-day shaving easy and comfortable. Get a package of Gillette Blue Blades tomorrow and see how smooth and pleasant shaving can be.

Highest Quality Positively Guaranteed

Gillette Blue Blades

NOW 5 for 25¢ · 10 for 50¢

Bargains for Belleville Better Week at CHAS. J. SYMONS' Men's Wear 206 Front St.

Coupons with Every Sale up to 25c — 5 Coupons with Every 1.00 Sale

SPECIALS
Work Sox 15c 19c 25c
Worsted Sox ..35c—3 for 1.00
Cotton Jerseys 39c
Broadcloth Shorts 49c
Sweat Shirts 98c 1.19
Turtle Neck Sweaters 1.29 1.79

Suits and Top Coats
Spring Top Coats
10.95 12.95 14.95
Extra Special — Men's Two Pant Suit 21.50

Shirts and Neckwear
Separate 2 collar, and collar attached 95c
Extra Special—White broadcloth, collar attached .. 1.15
Neckwear
75c value for 39c
1.00 value for 69c
1.50 value for 98c

Hats and Caps
Special Value in Hats
1.95 2.95 3.45
Extra Special Value in Caps
59c 69c 89c 95c

Men's Sox
Fancy Sox 15c
Fancy Cashmere 39c
Fancy Silk and Lisle 19c
3 pairs for 55c
Special — English Cashmere, reg. 1.00 value for 50c
Extra Special—Sox 29c
2 for 55c

Gloves and Sweaters
Pure Wool Sweaters and Sweater Coats
98c 1.45 1.95
Fabric Gloves, reg. 1.00 value for 59c
Special Deerskins 1.39

Underwear and Pyjamas
Bal. Combs., reg. 1.00 ....89c
Bal. Combs., reg. 1.50....1.39
Special Combs., reg. 1.39, 98c
Merino Shirts and Drawers, each 69c
Pyjamas 1.29 1.59
Extra Special Value 3.00 for 2.19

SPECIALS
Work Shirts 69c 79c
Work Pants 1.29 1.59 1.89
Work Mitts and Gloves 25c 39c
Overalls [illegible]
Braces 35c 50c 75c
Special [illegible]

ZWICK'S ISLAND NEARLY FINISHED

Thousands of Tons of Material Moved to New Location

Thousands of tons of work; hillocks of shovelsful of earth moved from one location to another; constant hammering of picks on its formerly steep cliffs; wheelbarrow after wheelbarrow of material taken from its westward side and dumped into the hollows and depressions; graded to within a few degrees of a level plane. Zwick's Island has arisen, phoenix-like from its buried past and taken on a new lease of life by providing recreation facilities for a nearby city. Hundreds of men have labored in shifts throughout the winter and fall on the constant job of improvement. Engineers and landscape artists have directed the task.

Swiftly It Draws to Completion

Today its hills are gone. Its deep and ugly former depression and gravel pits are but a memory. In a gentle and rounding sweep the remaining section of the higher part of the island rises to a pronouncement which is accentuated in height and distance by its scientifically graded sides. Around its case runs a winding path. On its south a long level flat playground with an unobstructed view of the lake to the west. On the north side ideal locations for the climbing of a few circling. On its crest, room for rest and solitude. Yet to be completed is the bathing beach on the south side and the final job of judicious planting of shrubbery and trees under the guiding hand of a landscape gardener, who designed the original plan of work.

Today sixty-six men were still on the payroll to complete the final grading and fill with the softer and finer earth taken from the top of the island. Throughout the past winter an average force of one hundred and twenty five men have been employed on the relief work there. Hundreds of gardeners have been kept by the wages derived from the work. Their task on this job is nearly done.

RESIDENTS NOT ABLE TO RETURN TO HOMES

Water Still High and Less to Property Will be Heavy

Peace River, Alta., May 3—Raging torrents flooding the Peace and Boyer Rivers today began to recede but the water was still far too high to permit the residents of Fort Vermilion to return to their homes from the hills.

Only for a brief while last night was Arthur Bowtell, the government telegraph operator at Fort Vermilion, able to maintain telegraph connections but he rushed through the message that all residents of the village were safe.

Several houses were damaged, a warehouse was badly wrecked and the Dominion Government Telegraph lines crossing the Peace River were rent out of operation by debris and ice breaking the poles. The telegraph operator crossed the river by boat, and reported that damage had been done but no loss. He then returned to his post at Fort Vermilion.

BESSBOROUGH VISITS KINGSTON SATURDAY

Kingston, May 3.—It was understood here that the Earl of Bessborough, Governor General of Canada, will pay an official visit to the Royal Military College on Saturday. Confirmation could not be received here this afternoon.

The visit, it is understood, will be the usual spring visit of the Governor General to the college. Ceremonial drill, etc., will be put on by the cadets. It was learned also that the Governor General will remain overnight in the city and attend the divine service in St. St. George's Cathedral on Sunday.

SPECIAL FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Wadsworth Upright Piano, not new, but in excellent condition.

BARGAIN FOR $162.50

Liberal Terms arranged

Globe Music Co.

227½ Front St. Belleville, Ont.

Lengthen Military Service Probable Policy of France

Action Taken Due to The Dangers of The Hitler Policy

(By John Tyrrell)

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

PARIS, May 3.—(AP)—France is considering lengthening military service in the face of the danger the government sees in the policies of Chancellor Adolf Hitler of Germany, it was learned authoritatively today.

Premier Gaston Doumergue, reliable sources said, is backing a proposal by Marshal Henri Petain, War Minister, to increase by stages the 12-months conscript service until eventually it reaches possibly two years.

The French Parliament has been hostile to such a measure but the reduction in births during the Great War has resulted in diminishing the size of the army and the cabinet favors a frankly bold action to keep France strong by a world situation the Government regards as full of danger.

The programme has been drawn by the general staff, which is fearful, that the present year of training is inadequate in view of the powerful professional German army which the French declare is constantly being increased in size.

The last increase in the length of service was in 1931 when it was increased from two to three years at the time when the world depression in Europe.

Since the war, the length of service steadily has been decreased.

The proposed increase is declared the logical outcome of the French belief, that disarmament now is out of the question in view of Germany's clear announcement, that she intends to build up a army.

The French have been particularly aroused by sizable increases for defense purposes included in the new German budget.

With the prestige of Premier Doumergue behind the programme, observers say that it has an excellent chance of being approved by parliament.

MARKET BILL PASSES 120-60

Liberals With Two Exceptions Oppose Bill in its Entirety

OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—By a vote of two to one the principle of regulating the marketing of natural products in Canada has been endorsed by the House of Commons. Climaxing a long debate on the Natural Products Marketing Act the House yesterday placed its approval on the measure sponsored by Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, as at least a partial solution for the ills of the farmer, the fisherman and the lumberman.

The vote of 120 to 60 represented the division of the House when the Bennett Government has secured on a division in the House since it entered office in 1930. Conservatives, Labor-ites, Progressives and Independents voted solidly for the Bill. The Liberals opposed with two exceptions, Thomas Vien, Minister of Transport, and Hon. W. R. Motherwell, former Minister of Agriculture.

Study of the Bill in committee of the whole and the House despite a drive on the part of the Liberals supported by Hon. Mackenzie King, O.C.F. leader, to have it referred to the Agriculture Committee. Mr. Motherwell who voted for second reading led in the move to send it to the Agriculture Committee.

Mr. Weir appealed to the members for constructive suggestions during the committee stage and insisted it would be a waste of time to send it to the Agriculture Committee.

SYNOD COURT IS ASSAILED

Rev. Stuart Parker Hits at Presbyterian Court

Toronto, May 3 (CP)—Synod is, in reality, only an expensive court of review and not worth the huge expense it entails, Rev. Stuart C. Parker, of Toronto, Ont., told his colleagues at the Presbyterian Synod of Toronto and Kingston yesterday.

General Assembly and in fact the entire organization of the church had been patterned after the Presbyterian Church in Scotland, he said. In reality such a system was not workable in Canada owing to the wide area to be served and covered.

"Really, if it were not for the wonderful fellowship resulting," he declared, "I do not see how the Synod is worth the expense involved."

The general matter of church administration should be considered and a biennial arrangement for assembly meetings might well be thought of, he declared. The United Church was now successfully operating with such a plan.

Rev. W. Butterworth Fraser, took exception to Dr. Parker's lengthy report.

UNIFICATION OF RAILWAYS IS ADVOCATED

E. W. Beatty, President of C.P.R. Gives Views at Meeting

NEW CONDITIONS

No Fear of Monopoly if Run on Co-operative Basis

Montreal, May 3 (CP)—Unification was the only adequate solution of Canada's railway problem, E. W. Beatty, K.C., told shareholders of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company at their annual meeting in the course of his presidential address.

Mr. Beatty said that the railway situation in Canada was unsound and in good times as well as in bad involved economic waste of millions of dollars a year. He said it was idle to lay the blame on governments or to parliaments. They must view the situation in the light of present day experience and conditions and their conception of the future of transportation in the country.

New forms of competition had arisen which occupied a useful place in the transportation system of the country. The public interest required that the limits of their place in that system should be ascertained and their operations and tariffs controlled in the same manner as the railways.

He thought that the railway situation should be fortified to meet new conditions and ensure the solvency of the private companies and the nation.

The proponents of the present competitive system between the Canadian Pacific and the Canadian National Railways said Mr. Beatty asserted that an equal or at least a sufficient economy might be effected by co-operation between the two companies but it must be patent that this could not be effected, Mr. Beatty said, unless there did not enter into the administration of the government system of political considerations into a solution of the problem.

"While I would like to believe that to be true, I have heard emphatic assurances of the same character made during the past few years that positively they have proved to be without foundation," Mr. Beatty declared.

Continuing Mr. Beatty remarked, that the consolidation of the C.P.R. for a joint administration by a private company had caused some people to deduce the effect of the proposal would be to turn the assets of the Canadian National System over to the C.P.R., the government retaining the liabilities.

No Escape From Liability

The government's guarantee of the National system's securities meant there was no escape from their liability save by the unthinkable course of repudiation. The purpose of unification was to provide the owners of the National System with more money to satisfy their obligations than it was possible to secure if dual and competitive system were maintained. Likewise economies would increase the revenue of the C.P.R.

"It has never been suggested that the C.P.R. should assume ownership of the National System—that will remain with the government with the ownership of the C.P.R. remain with its present proprietors," Mr. Beatty said.

To effect the suggestion is a partnership with a division on an agreed basis of the net earnings of the properties jointly operated. Private administration is recommended as that most likely to lead to an elimination of political influence and secure maximum efficiency.

"I am satisfied, that in good times as well as in times of adversity unified administration gives the greatest assurance of economy and efficiency. The objection usually offered is said to be founded on fear of the consequences of monopoly but I think the fear is groundless. Railways do not and cannot enjoy the unrestricted monopoly that the public interest may be fully protected by public control exercised through the Board of Railway Commissioners and the government.

Speaking of the co-operation which has already been worked out between the two railways, Mr. Beatty said, predicated as it was on the maintenance of competition between them, the field of co-operation had its limits. The company's officers had devoted themselves to applying that principle in every branch where it was capable of being applied with advantage. Joint measures introduced had involved an estimated annual saving of $1,000,000. Many others were under consideration.

BRIDGES IN DANGER

Widdifield Station, Ont., May 3 Danger that bridges might be washed away by the swollen waters or rivers in this section appeared today as rocks were loaded onto the span near Mile 15 of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway to prevent it from being carried away. Another bridge in Concession Four was also in danger.

McINTOSH BROS. PRESENT VALUES WORTH WHILE

For Belleville Better Week

A Prize Coupon Given with Every Purchase

Prize Drawings Daily

The New Velva Suede In

Bloomers, Panties & Vests

White Flesh Peach

79c

Rayon Bloomers

Tailored and lace trimmed, in summer shades. All sizes. Each

50c

Candlewick Bed Spreads

Large double bed size hand-tufted in shades of rose, green and yellow. Very Special at 2.95

John Brown's Shamrock Linen TABLE CLOTHS

Pure linen with coloured borders of gold, jade, blue and rose in damask patterns.

Size 52 x 52 ins., each 1.00 Size 52 x 70 ins., each 1.50

NEW PURSES

In leather, crepe and patent, in envelope, pouches or top handle shapes. All nicely lined with fancy or plain fastening, coin purse and mirror. New smart styles. Prices

1.95 to 4.50

Boys' Bloomer Pants

In navy blue, fully lined, belt loops, four pockets. Bottoms below knee. All sizes. Special

1.15

Men's Fine Sox

Checks of blues, blacks, reds and browns on a grey ground. Sizes 10½ to 11½. Special, per pair

15c

Boys' Polo Sweat Shirts

With zipper, many shades, all sizes. Special

95c

Silk Hose

French heels, cradle foot, with mercerized reinforced sole, toe and heel for longer wear. Sizes 9 to 10½. Special, per pair

69c

All Silk Georgette Crepe Chiffon Hose

Dull finish, cradle sole, crepe plaited toe, heel and sole. Sizes 9 to 10. Per pair

1.50

Specials in the Economy Dept.

A FEW SPECIALS FROM THE DRUG DEPARTMENT

Minard's Liniment	19c
Aspirin Tablets	10c
Kelloge's Asthma Remedy	69c
Rival Herb Tablets	59c
Epsom Salt	19c
Tablets	19c
California Syrup Figs	35c
Fenos Bath Salts	49c
Andrew's Liver Salts 39c and	59c
Lucozo	19c
Seltzer	19c
McCoy's C. I. L. Extract Tablets	45c
Diamond Dinner Pills	19c

And Many Other Specials

Wm. Roger's and Son Flat Silverware

Includes Tea Spoons, Cold Meat Forks, Soup Spoons, Sugar Shells, Pickle and Berry Spoons. Come in and be convinced that this fine silver makes very suitable gifts at a price never heard of before. Any piece of silver half price of the regular price.

McINTOSH BROS.

257 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE PHONE 802

Templer Flower Shop

14 CAMPBELL ST.

We have been able to obtain a fine shipment of Ferns for this week-end. They come in various sizes and all are reasonably priced.

Special for Friday and Saturday Daffodils—50c per doz.

PHONE 1900

Be Sure to Visit The IDEAL Stores This Week REAL BARGAINS

SPECIAL! Libby's Tomato Catsup 2 bots. .25

FIGS, layers, 2 pgs. .15
MAGIC BAKING POWDER, 1 lb. .34
GREEN GAGE JAM 48 oz. tot. .29
LARD, Pure, Best quality, lb. .10

PUFFED WHEAT—3 only to a customer. New Mgr. Jobs the Bake Rolls Club Friday, Saturday, Monday Only. .10 No Delivery

FLAKED WHEAT, Fresh, 2 lb. bar .27
TOMATOES, 1gc. tins 2 Fine quality, 2 for .29
HONEY BUTTER, Good for kiddies, pkg. .24
PUMPKIN, 1gc., Real good, tin .10
SCHNEIDER'S LARD, "Chicoyroso" 2 lbs. .25
BABY FOOD, Apricot, 2 tins .21
CHEESE, plain, pimento, 2 pkgs. .25

CHARCOAL, large bags .15
KARBOL SOAP, Big 5 cakes .05
MATCHES, Eddy's, 3 boxes .25
SNAP, Hand Cleaner, tin .14

SPECIAL! Dill Pickles Nice, Crisp, Well Packed Large Jar .25

IDEAL Good TEA Gives Real Satisfaction lb. 58c

220 Front Street The IDEAL Stores Phone 633 Cash Coupons

PHONE 122 PHONE 122

MEATS

GOVERNMENT GRADED MEATS OF HIGHEST QUALITY

ROUND STEAK OR ROAST, lb. 17c
SIRLOIN STEAK OR ROAST, lb. 19c

EXTRA SPECIAL CHOICE WESTERN STEER CHUCK ROAST lb. 9c

CHOICE PORK SAUSAGE, lb. 17c
ENGLISH STYLE YORK PIES, each 7c
NICE LEAN BREAKFAST BACON per lb. 27c

Ideal Meat Department

Free Delivery Phone 122

Bigger and Better Values for the Week-End at

Adams'

Women's Sport Oxfords

Cuban heels, black and white, fawn and brown. Leather or Duplex soles. All sizes. Special 1.98

Women's Sport Brogues

Black or brown. Leather soles and rubber heels. Sizes 3 to 7 1.98

Women's Pumps and Ties

Black kid, cuban or spike heels. Sizes 3 to 7 1.98

Women's EEE Ties

Rubber heels, built in arch support, cushion soles. Sizes 3 to 8 1.98

Women's Blue and Brown Pumps

Spike heels. Sizes 3 to 7. Clearing 1.98

Broken Lines of Women's Oxfords and Pumps

Cuban and spike heels. All sizes in the lot. Regular 3.00 and 3.50 values. Special 1.98

Special Values in Camp Oxfords

Youths'	1.19
Boys'	1.29
Men's	1.49

Misses' and Children's Patent Straps and Calf Oxfords

Sizes 8 to 10½ — 11 to 2 99c — 1.29

Supersilk Hosiery

All the wanted shades. Special 75c and 1.00

Adams'

THE SHOEMAN

This is a Coupon Store

Big Values at Cook's Housefurnishing Shop

Friday and Saturday

Curtain Net

Curtain Net in white and cream. Neat patterns, tailored edge. On sale at, per yard 19c

Cotton Panels

Cotton Panels in white and cream, neat patterns. 2¼ yds. long. At, each 49c and 59c

Drapery Chintz

Drapery Chintz in several patterns, reversible. 28 inches wide. Only, per yard 12½

Japanese Grass Mat

100 only Japanese Grass Mats in assorted patterns and colors. Size 24 x 66 ins. Only 39c

Verandah Grass Mats

Verandah Grass Mats in assorted patterns and colors. Size 27 x 54 inches. On sale at, each 39c

Frilled Curtains

Frilled Curtains in fine marquisette, with colored picot. 2¼ yards long. On sale at, pair 89c

Rag Mats

Rag Mats in hit and miss pattern, light and dark colors. Size 24 x 48 inches. Only 49c

Linen Tea Towels

Linen Tea Towels in fine quality, hemmed ready for use, colored border in rose, blue, green and yellow. Only each 19c

Verandah Grass Mats

Verandah Grass Mats in smart patterns and colors. Size 36 x 72 inches. Only 79c

Curtain Material

Curtain Material in filet and tuscan nets, in white and cream tailored edge. On sale at yard 25c

210 Front St. JOHN W. COOK Same Location Use Elevator

SERVICE

Church will spend two months or more in the rural villa, which he has visited briefly on three occasions, it became Pope, it was learned today.

WILL LEAVE VATICAN FOR SUMMER REST

WANTED IN OTHER CITIES

VATICAN CITY, May 3—Within a few weeks Pope Pius plans to move from the Vatican, sole residence of Popes for sixty-four years, to the Papal summer villa at Castel Gandolfo.

Accompanied by a few high Churchmen, a detachment of Swiss Guards and Papal gendarmes, the 77-year-old head of the Catholic

Hamilton, May 3—John Honeyford, who took nursery from twelve local doctors and other professional men on the assurance he would deliver them English children, was found guilty in police court today on charges of false pretenses and sentenced to six months definite and twelve months definite in the Ontario Reformatory.

List of Donors of Special Prizes for Friday

May 4th Purchases to Be Drawn for Saturday Morning

SEE THESE PRIZES DISPLAYED IN THE WINDOW OF

Tip Top Tailors

1 Table Lamp	Oliphant Electric
2 Hand Bag	McIntosh
3 3 lb. Chocolates	Scoop's
4 Pair Silk Bloomers	McIntosh
5 Pearl Necklace	Palmer's
6 Bath Salts	Doyle's
7 1 lb. C. and S. Coffee	Kresge
8 5 Gals. of Gas	Big "A" Service
9 Box Face Powder	Doyle's
10 Silk Hose	McIntosh
11 1 Can Tea	Dominion Store
12 Athletic Shirt	McIntosh
13 Silk Necktie	J. Fahey
14 Cigarette Case	Ostrom's Drug
15 2 lbs. Arabia Coffee	Loblaw
16 1 Neilson's Cocoa	Metropolitan
17 Richmellow Coffee	Dominion Store
18 Rowntree Cocoa	Metropolitan
19 Full Fashioned Hose	McIntosh
20 1 Case Cocoa Cola	Kresge
21 1 Case Orange Crush	J. R. Ives
22 Electric Percolator	Kresge
23 O'Cedar Polish	O. Hyde
24 Bath Salts	Schryver's
25 Bath Powder	Bleecker's
26 Box Lavender Soap	Bleecker's
27 Pair of Ladies' Hose	Wotten's
28 Pair of Ladies' Hose	Wotten's
29 Roll of Roofing	White Hardware
30 Tea Kettle	People's Store
31 ½ lb. Tea and ½ lb. Coffee	A & P Store

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE CAPITOL

Big Double Bill "Saturday's Millions" and "Madame Spy"

"The man bit the dog! Young Spencer Tracy reported gets startling scoop!

Robert Young lost the football game, in "Saturday's Millions"! The whole moving picture industry is rocked to its foundations!

This unprecedented sensation is now an exhibition at the CAPITOL Theatre. It is Universal's third and greatest football picture. It is entitled "Saturday's Millions" and is taken from Lesley Cary's Saturday Evening Post serial. The sensation comes in the fact that Robert Young, who plays the role of the hero, fails to win the football game in the last min. This comes as a great shock, because the hero had been hurt. His hand was broken and that is the hand that fails to catch the forward pass which lost the game. You want the hero to win and still when its all over, you realize that that is the only way this picture could have carried a great psychological wallop.

Leila Hyams plays the girl he wanted, and Mary Doran plays the other girl in his life. There are plenty of football players. Ray Mala Mewers, Kenny Pinckert and Johnny Mack Brown, former University of Alabama football hero, and a score of Southern California stars. Andy Devine, who played in Universal's other annual football pictures, is present, adding, as usual, the Cardiff plenty of comedy touches to the story. Edward Sedgwick directed.

"MADAME SPY"

Why was she called "The Queen of Spades"? Why did austere and dignified statesmen fall under her spell? What secret charm did she hold over men that made her the most sought after, revered, yet most feared woman in Europe?

All these startling facts form the climax which unmasked one of the most amazing spies in history, "Madame Spy", Universal's newest picture, which decides at the Capitol theatre today with Fay Wray and Wm. Asther in the features roles. They are supported by Edward Arnold, Noah Berry, John Miljan, Vince Barnett, David Torrence and Rollo Lloyd.

"Madame Spy" peers into the heart of a woman who placed love of country and duty over that of a man. The story of "Madame Spy" abounds with romance and adventure as it traverses the blood spattered fields of Europe. Fay Wray is seen as the exotic spy, who was prepared to lay her life down for her flag, but wouldn't give up the man she loved. Eventually she overcame the many obstacles in her path and achieved the one without losing the other.

Hart Pressnd, who directed "The Mummy" with Karloff and "Moonlight and Pretzels", more recently, is responsible for the direction of this picture.

Owing to the length of this double program, the first evening show will start at 7 p.m. Last complete show at 9.30. To be sure of a good seat please come early!

AT THE BELLE

Four-Star Play Becomes Season's Distinctive Screen Hit

A new and remarkable screen team is playing at the Belle today and Friday, matinee daily—Clarke Gable and Myrna Loy. You have known them both for some time, but you never really known them until you see the new Metro Goldwyn Mayer film (first time together), "Men in White". In the words of a recent news dispatch from the director, Richard Boleslavsky,

They're Perfectly Matched

"They are the complement of one another. Each brings out the latent appeal of the other". Gable's extreme masculinity and the distinct femininity of Myrna Loy, amounting almost to a feline quality, at times, bring to the screen one of the most romantic and dramatic film teams of the season.

But romantic appeal is not the only aspect of "Men in White". It is in itself a gripping story, stark in its unveiled realism.... a story of life in a great modern hospital. From the outstanding stage play of the season of the same name, "Men in White" is a beautifully told and enacted tale of the struggle of a young physician over circumstances that plunge him into love with an heiress and into a liaison with a nurse, Barbara.

The tragic role of Barbara, played by lovely Elizabeth Allan, is poignant and charged with passion. In a singing performance she plays it to the hilt. Perhaps the chief charm of "Men in White" is its all-around cast, as fine a group of actors as any single production has seen. Such "names" as Jean Hersholt, Otto Kruger, C. Henry Gordon, Russell Hardie, Wallace Ford, Henry B. Walthall,... with superb artistry create a magic illusion that never for a moment breaks.

Settings are Noteworthy

The settings are perfection, if the feeling of actually being inside the sepulchred walls of a great hospital is any guide. This is especially true of the gripping operation sequence, which has no equal in stark realism or vivid drama.

Excellent Sheris

A hand picked program of junior features have been assembled for presentation on the same program including Thelma Todd and Patsy Kelly the screen's screen comediennes in a uproarious comedy "Maid in Hollywood." Paramount's intimate review of 1933 screen favorites appropriately titled, "Stars of Tomorrow," and "Vital Victuals" a refreshing and different screen vehicle, with brilliant wit interspersed by Pete Smith. Performances start daily at 2.30, 7.10, 9.10. Feature offering starts at 3.10, 7.40, 9.45.

APPOINTMENT APPROVED

Cobourg, May 3—Hon. W. G. Martin, Minister of Public Welfare, has ratified the appointment of Kenneth J. Hodgert, of Port Hope, as Superintendent of the Children's Aid Society of Northumberland and Durham.

Belleville's Greatest Merchandising Achievement Soon Ends!

FOLLOW the CROWDS

TO THE COUPON STORES During the Final Two Days of BELLEVILLE'S BIGGER and BETTER BARGAINS

SHOP EARLY and OFTEN

BUY THIS WEEK AND SAVE AT COUPON STORES

You've just got TWO MORE DAYS to participate in the greatest merchandising achievement ever attempted by Belleville merchants and what a carnival of values it has been and will be until the final gong rings on SATURDAY NIGHT.

Just go on a window shopping tour tonight and see for yourself what real worth-while values there are for you—not necessarily cheap goods but high grade merchandise priced in nearly every instance below actual worth—with the added attraction of the coupons which might spell a real gift for you.

The Great Event Ends Saturday

30 Minor PRIZES for Tomorrow

Tomorrow's Grand Prize A Coleman STOVE

PRIZES DRAWN FOR EVERY MORNING AT 10 A.M. IN WALKER HARDWARE STORE.

Bethel Friends Tender Surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Martin

Are Presented With Farewell Gifts by Community

Rawdon.—On Friday evening about seventy-five of Bethel folk gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Martin, Mrs. Martin's mother, and tendered Mr. and Mrs. Alex Martin a pleasant surprise before their departure to Stirling.

Mr. E. C. Tucker was master of ceremonies and a splendid programme was rendered by local talent.

Mr. C. M. Sine gave two delightful vocal solos and Mr. Fred Houchin rendered two cowboy selections, one being "Strawberry Roan" with guitar accompaniment.

Miss Laurene Scott read a selection entitled "The Minister's Wife" and Miss Mary Martin also read a selection.

Master Gordon Green and Miss Irene Tucker gave a duet and the latter accompanied on the guitar.

Mr. Sine then read an appropriate address of farewell, paying tribute to their work in the community and church and Mrs. Martin's valued help in the choir of Bethel United Church.

Mrs. James Warren presented Mrs. Martin with a bridge lamp fitted with a parchment shade.

Mr. Clifford Thompson then presented Mr. Martin with a handsome pipe clock.

Both of the recipients fittingly replied, thanking their friends for the gifts and for the kindness one and all to visit them in their new home.

Several of the men were then called upon for short speeches and the ladies served a delicious lunch which all heartily enjoyed. The folks then returned homewards after saying goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. Martin and hoping they would have many new friends in Stirling.

Among the Mount Pleasant friends who attended a recent birthday party for Mrs. Ross Campbell were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Rose. Guests were also present from Wallbridge and West Huntingdon. Mr. Lorne Wilson of the latter place helped to cut the lovely birthday cake as his birthday came a little later that week.

There were fifteen guests in attendance and a sumptuous lunch of delicious viands was served by Mrs. Campbell and the dining-room table was specially adorned for the occasion. Friends extend hearty felicitations to Don and hope he enjoys many more.

Several Rawdonians enjoyed a delightful house party on Thursday evening sponsored by Messrs. Jesse and Rhewin Brady.

Mr. and Miss Harvey Pitcher and Harold, of Stockdale, were supper guests on Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Simpson moved to their new home on Pump Street last week.

Mr. W. Whitton and bride were tendered a miscellaneous shower and dance in Mesnie Hall on Thursday evening and the newlyweds received many lovely gifts.

Mr. Charley Wannamaker, of Halloway, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Wannamaker of Madoc Junction, Mrs. Amos Green and daughter Beatrice and son Harry, of Belleville, Mr. and Mrs. Georgie Wallace of Anson attended the burial of their mother, the late Mrs. John Wannamaker, in Stirling cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. The body had been laid in rest in the vault during the winter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Mason, Harold, on Thursday, April 26th, a daughter, Lois Doreen.

The president opened Wellman's Y.P.S. with devotional exercises and Mr. Howard Wallace read the Bible lesson. Master Jim Watson delighted with a violin solo, Miss Carolyn Johnson gave a splendidly prepared topic on the origin and setting of the popular song, "When You And I Were Young Maggie." The author, George Johnson, was a Canadian and he wrote this poem about seventy-five years ago in Westworth County, Ontario, and he has made reference to Glanford Hill and the heroine was known in everyday life as Maggie Clark. In 1864 the young couple were happily married and a few years later after her tragic death her husband had this beautiful love song set to music and today it is emblematic of Canadian romance.

Wellman's Orchestra delighted with this number at the close of the topic.

Frederick Beckett gave a guitar solo and Miss Essie McGuire gave a pleasing reading. Miss Dorothy Dunham put on a "bird" contest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Barron entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Warren to tea on Friday evening.

Miss Catherine Kirby spent Sunday with Miss Helen Farrell.

Rawdon friends were shocked to hear of the sudden passing of Mrs. Marshall Sweet who was visiting at Stirling. Mrs. Sweet was a staunch worker in the Anglican Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKeown have moved to their new home at Norwood.

Mesdames Andrew Thompson, Willis Lewis and Victor Trout visited their sister, Mrs. Morrow, at Peterborough.

ELDORADO Y.P.S. HAS MEETING

Eldorado.—Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wyre and family were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Andrews on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. McCann, Misses Iva and Bernice McCann and Clayton spent Sunday at the latter's brother-in-law, Mr. Ed Post, of Malone.

Mr. John B. Shaw of Cooper is spending the week at his brother's, Mr. H. Shaw.

Mr. George Sandford spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sandford.

Mrs. Elgin Pyne is spending the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Declair, at Queensboro.

Misses A. Holmes and Helen McCaw called on Mrs. Ed Wannamaker and Mrs. L. C. Blackburn and spent the tea hour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Blackburn on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Magee and two children of Bancroft were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gordon on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Whyte and children spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jlakins.

Mrs. Fred Wright attended the funeral at Mrs. D. E. Jones' on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sandford received word on Monday morning after spending the week-end visiting friends at Kingston.

Mrs. J. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Chas. McCann, Mrs. Chas. M. McCann, Mrs. Andy Holmes, Mrs. Mrs. (Rev.) Smith and Mrs. S. Holmes were guests on Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Holmes.

Mrs. Wiley of California, also Mrs. Wm. Walter Scott of Belleville were visiting relatives in this vicinity during the week.

Mrs. John McAdams of Cooper has returned home after spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Holland.

Quite a number attended the taffy party at Mr. Fred Chambers' sugar house and all report a very enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. John McClintock were recent visitors at their daughter, Mrs. Clayton McMurray, of Queensboro.

Mrs. A. Post and two children of Fuller were guests of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. Chambers on Sunday.

A number of the farmers are working on the land this week and some have started their early potatoes on Saturday.

Mr. Kenneth Holmes was a visitor in our vicinity on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Chas. McCann were visitors in North Marmora vicinity on Sunday and attended the special services held by the Standard Church there.

Mr. W. D. Nickle of Malone was a visitor at his son's, Dr. F. J. Nickle on Thursday, and Mrs. W. Nickle who has been spending the past two weeks here and at Madoc, returned home with him.

Miss Evelyn Chambers will have her visiting her sister, Mrs. Alger Post of Cooper, returned home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Warren of Bannockburn visited the latter's parents on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Bert McCoy has returned home after having spent the past week in the Belleville General Hospital.

Mr. Walter Henley of Millbridge spent the dinner hour with Mr. J. Fitzgerald on Tuesday last.

All were very sorry to learn of the Madoc High School burglary, as a number of young people from here attended the school there and had books destroyed in the fire.

The Young People's Society of Eldorado and Union held their regular meeting on Wednesday evening in the basement of the Eldorado church.

The president, Mr. Clifford Chambers, opened the meeting by singing hymn 374 and prayer by Mr. Fred Trumpour.

Miss Helen McCaw read the Bible lesson which was the 35th letter of Isaiah. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Miss Mildred Andrews. The roll call showed about forty young people in attendance.

After singing hymn 170, Mr. Gordon Pigden gave the "Worship Period." Instrumental number was given by Miss Leda Post at the organ, accompanied by Miss Mildred McCann with guitar.

The topic, "Our Literary Heritage of England," was well given by Miss Laura Chambers and was very much enjoyed by all. A reading was given by Miss Thomas, was given by Miss Freda McCaw.

An organ instrumental number was given by Miss Leda Post.

Then the "Red" side and White" held a short business meeting to make plans for the banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Martin and family spent the week-end visiting relatives at Belleville and Wellington.

The "Train Square" boys group held their regular meeting at Mr. Charles Pledge's club-

Webster Cigars

NOW 5¢

YOU'LL APPRECIATE THE DIFFERENCE.

L.O. DROPE LIMITED

house on Friday evening with Rev. J. R. Trumpour as leader. The girls' senior class held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Wright on Friday afternoon. The time was spent in making candy baked to be sold at the box social in aid of the Sunday School.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Mackenzie of Dalton spent the week-end with the latter's sister, Mrs. Fred Chambers, recently.

CARMEL LAD FRACTURES ARM

CARMEL—A number of the farmers have started their spring seeding.

Mr. James Bronson and Byron were callers at Mr. M. Reid's Sunday forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vandervoort and Lyle attended the burial of Mrs. Frank Garrison on Sunday afternoon.

Inspector Mr. H. Clarke was a visitor at the home of Mr. Bronson on Tuesday.

Quite a number attended the social evening given by the Epworth League on Wednesday night.

Mr. Norman Clay is working for Mr. George Hicks for the summer.

Mrs. Ethel Clay and Miss Pearl returned to her home in Stirling, after visiting Mrs. C. Clay.

The milk wagons have started again with E. Horton and Noel Guay as drawers.

Master Byron Bronson had the misfortune to fall and break his arm last Monday.

PLAY DELIGHTS AUDIENCE AT PICTON

Shannonville United Church young people presented their play "The Blue Bird" in the United Church Sunday School rooms to a delighted audience on Friday evening, April 27. The play opened at 8.15 with the following cast:

D. Clarke playing the part of Ashton MacDonald a likeable young man and Mary Ann Lee in search of the blue bug; his chauffeur, Tom Reynolds played by Eddy who later in the play falls in love with the maid Chattaroga, Sivira Livermore, played by Ruby Bates, whose providing much amusement. Obadiah Macklyn, who runs the hotel played by Wallace Anderson and Cindy Macklyn, his wife who runs Obadiah, were constantly involved in embarrassing situations. Allan Rose eloping with Enid played by Norma Farnsworth. Enid Leuton, eloping with Allan Rose, played by Phyllis Mills, these two powerful characters played their parts real well. Molly Keeper, played by Elsie Anderson. Jeff Keeper, played by Harold King in charge of the blue bug with the jewels, both characters adapting themselves well to their difficult parts.

Bill Harrington the detective who is in search of the jewels, so efficiently played by Bert Liddle who unexpectedly finds his wonderful Letty Long the actress, so admirably played by Bertha Houston. During the intermission Arnold Mitchell and Will Gray always the favorites with every audience with Mrs. Gray at the piano sang several Mills and B. Leach with guitars, accompaniments. Orchestra with J. H. King and W. Robertson with their violins and the cello singing greatly assisted with the musical programme.

The local young people succeeded in making their objective, the paying of a book for the Sunday School.

Much credit and appreciation is due them in accomplishing this effort.

Miss Kathleen Mills moved a vote of thanks on behalf of the young people, to the ladies of the United Church, Picton, for their lovely lunch, of hot coffee and cake so much enjoyed after such a long drive. This was seconded by Bertha Houston and the evening closed on the last presentation of "The Blue Bag."

CONSECON W. A. SPONSOR PLAY

CONSECON—Group No. "Two" of the Women's Association of the Young People of Bloomfield put on a play in the Masonic Hall on Wednesday night, which was much appreciated.

Mrs. Frank Terry of Frankford, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Rocks.

The Women's Institute held an At Home in the Consecon Hall on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose Bush attended the Conservative Convention at Picton on Thursday.

Mr. Arthur Wilson went to Tweed on Wednesday for the cheese hoop of the Consecon Cheese Factory.

The Young People's League of the United Church entertained the Junior League on Friday evening.

Mr. Howard Maclin spent Saturday with his sister, Mrs. Fred Cook at Belleville.

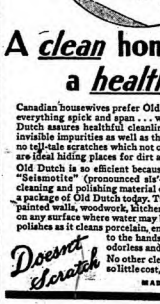
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ward and Mr. and Mrs. B. Rattley were in Belleville, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose Burris and Mrs. Lorne Ayres on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Turney of Toronto, visited the week end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Weeks.

Mrs. Ella Carman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Burr.

Mrs. John Vlass, Mrs. Ella Robinson and Mr. E. B. Kemp were in Picton on Saturday afternoon.



Mr. and Mrs. T. White of Trenton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Clark on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Fink and family visited their daughters, Mrs. R. Young and Mrs. C. Rattley.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Brook were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Humphrey on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Taylor and family and Mrs. Wm. Rowley attended the funeral of the late Mr. Manley Taylor at Brighton on Sunday.

Mr. Jay Sprague was in the city recently on Monday, looking after the telephone and refrigerators and electric washing machines.

A clean home means a healthy home

Canadian housewives prefer Old Dutch because it keeps everything spick and span . . . wholesomely clean. Old Dutch assures health-like cleanliness because it removes invisible impurities as well as the visible dirt. It leaves no tell-tale scratches which not only mar the surface but are ideal hiding places for dirt and germs.

Old Dutch is so efficient because it is made with pure "Seismotite" (pronounced sis'-mo-tite), a fine, flaky, cleaning and polishing material of volcanic origin. Buy your supply of Old Dutch today. It's ideal for cleaning floors, painted walls, woodwork, kitchen utensils, glassware, or on any surface where water may be used for cleaning. It polishes as it cleans porcelain, enamel and tile. It's kind to the hands, doesn't clog drains, is odorless and removes odors.

No other cleanser can do so much at so little cost, nor so well at any price.

Doesn't scratch

MADE IN CANADA

March Dividend Payments Show Encouraging Gain

Total of $13,764,975 Almost Two Million Above Same Month Last Year—Many Companies Able to Increase Rates

By A. D. O'Hallaran
Copyright 1934 by Central Press

Toronto, May 1.—Canadian dividend payments continue to improve as indicated total for April almost $2,000,000 above that for the corresponding month for 1933, making the 4th month of the year in which the total has exceeded that for the corresponding period of the

A. D. O'Hallaran previous year.

Payments for April are estimated from official declarations by Financial Council, approximated $13,764,-975, contrasted with $11,925,125 for April, 1933, and $20,532,979 for April 1932.

Most encouraging feature of the compilation of the monthly payments is the number of companies able to increase their rates for the period, and the liberality of their distribution after having had to omit payments, or greatly reduce, or to reduce arrears of dividend by reorganization. Such cases as the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. of Canada has restored its old annual rate of $5 a share on the common by payment of $1.25 for the quarter, an increase of 25c over the previous quarter. Canada Northern Power Corp. has increased quarterly rate on the common from 20 to 25 cents. Canadian Canners on convertible preferred from 87½ cents, and Geo. Weston Ltd. doubled the old rate of 25 cents quarterly on the new common as a result of the tax free one split. Payments on account of arrears of dividend are made by Canada Cement, Investment Foundation, Montreal Grocers, Niagara Wire Weaving, Price Brothers, Steel Co. of Canada, Provincial Paper and Wright-Hargreaves' business is shifted to regular distribution. Economic increase in dividend disbursements, follow:

Security—	Rate	Amount
Abitibi Power Pfd.	1.75	17,500
Alex Oil	.02	15,000
Alberta Pacific Pfd.	1.75	20,000
Atlantic Sugar Pfd.	1.75	19,444
Brant. Cord. Pfd.	.50	30,047
B.C. Fish	.50	18,528
Buck Silk Mills	.25	25,000
Bell Telephone (A-B)	.25	37,500
P. N. Burt	.30	51,772
Can. Bud. Corp. Pfd.	1.75	1,069
Canada Dry	.50	218,073
Canada Iron Fdys. Pfd.	1.50	58,467
Can. Cement Pfd.	1.75	116,758
Can. Canners 1st. Pfd.	1.50	68,377
Can. Canners Com.	.87½	87,500
Can. Cottons	1.00	27,155
Can. Converters Pfd.	1.50	54,922
Can. Fair-Morse Pfd.	1.50	22,500
Can. For. Invest.	.25	18,351
Can. Gen. Invest. Pfd.	1.75	14,261
Can. Gen. Invest.	.87½	45,933
Can. Gen. Electric	.50	149,999
Can. Gen. Electric Pfd.	.87½	149,761
Can. Industrial Pfd.	1.75	31,371
Can. Industries, A-B	.87½	56,250
Can. Oil. Pfd.	2.00	40,000
Can. Pub. Service Pfd.	1.75	17,941
Can. Wire Boxes, A	.37½	26,455
Consol. Mining	.25	250,000
Dom. Glass	1.25	53,125
Dom. Glass Pfd.	1.75	49,250
Dom. Stores	.30	37,500
Dom. Textile	1.00	270,000
Dom. Textile Pfd.	1.75	34,261
East Steel Pfd.	1.75	6,874
Economic Trust	.31½	47,250
Edmonton Dairy Pfd.	1.65	10,299
Fanny Farmer	.50	49,301
Fanny Farmer Pfd.	.50	5,494
A. J. Freeman Pfd.	1.50	13,920
Goodyear	1.25	160,787
Goodyear Tire Pfd.	1.75	127,064
Gurd and Co. Pfd.	1.75	17,500
Highland Dairy Pfd.	1.75	3,261
Hunt's Ltd. "B"	.12½	11,793
Hunt's Ltd. "A"	.12½	2,332
Int. Paper Pfd.	.50	17,177
McColl-Frontenac	.50	114,783
Midland-Pac. Grain Pfd.	1.75	9,979
Minn. & St. Pfd.	1.65	5,566
Moore "A" Pfd.	1.75	47,521
Moore "B" Pfd.	1.75	29,359
Monarch Knit Pfd.	1.00	11,500
Nat. Breweries	.40	288,649
Nat. Breweries Pfd.	1.50	49,562
Nat. Grocers Pfd.	1.75	91,128
Niagara Wire Pfd.	1.75	11,097
Ogilvie Flour	2.00	150,000
Page-Hersey	.75	130,000
Page-Hersey Pfd.	1.75	319
Perfection Pfd.	1.75	1,687
Prov. Paper Pfd.	1.75	61,250
Reg. Silk "A"	.50	15,000
Robinson Pfd.	1.75	10,500
Standard Fuel Pfd.	1.62½	23,466
Silverwood's Pfd.	1.50	30,000
Stop and Shop Pfd.	.25	13,887
Supertest Pfd.	1.75	27,500
Supertest "A" Pfd.	1.75	3,125
Supertest "B" Pfd.	.37½	9,000
Thrift St. Inc. Pfd.	.41	7,631
Thrift St. Ltd. Pfd.	.17½	11,000
Tombliu Pfd. Ltd.	1.75	9,461
Thrift St. Com.	.10	2,000
Tip Top Pfd.	1.75	24,500
Tor. Elevators Pfd.	1.75	26,250
Tuckets Pfd.	1.75	35,000
Un. Pond and Share	1.75	5,952
United Securities	.50	25,631
Wabasso Cotton	.75	30,000
Weston Ltd.	.25	43,359
Whitall Can. Pfd.	1.62½	30,875
Bell Telephone	1.50	1,170,116
Brazilian Tr. Pfd.	1.50	5,903
B.C. Electric Pfd.	1.50	75,000
B.C. Power Com.	.18	395,000
B.C. Telephone	1.50	15,000
Can. Bread Com.	.50	72,500
Canada North Power	.25	93,750
Canada North Power Pfd.	1.50	56,250
Consumers' Gas	2.50	351,360
Maritime Tel and Tel.	1.75	53,925
Montreal Tr. & N.T. Pfd.	1.17½	26,250
Int. Hydro Pfd.	.87½	124,949
Jamaica Public Serv.	.25	11,700
Jamaica Pub. Serv. Pfd.	1.75	17,500
Montreal L. and Pow.	.37	1,660,902
Mont. Tramways	.225	157,500
New Brunswick Tel.	1.12½	44,937
Nor. Ontario Power	.50	120,007
N. & S. Light & Power	.75	25,932
Ont. Electric Power Pfd.	1.50	7,500
Ottawa L. & P. Pfd.	1.40½	24,375
Ottawa L. & P.	1.60	52,500
Ottawa Traction	.50	26,038
Porto Rico Pfd.	1.75	17,500
Power Corp. 1st. Pfd.	1.50	75,000
Power Corp. 2nd. Pfd.	.75	75,000
Quebec Power	1.00	176,515
West Kott. Power Pfd.	1.75	8,750

Institutions—
Dominion Bank	2.50	175,000
Bank Nova Scotia	3.00	360,000
Canadian Bank	2.00	240,000
Can. Per. Mtge.	2.00	140,000
Central Canada	2.00	59,000
Colonial Invest.	1.00	37,500
Eastern Trust	2.60	20,000
Equity Fire Ins. Co.	1.50	15,000
General Trust Can. Pfd.	1.50	16,500
Imperial Life	.05	164,972
Guarantee Co. N.A.	4.00	12,184
Huron and Erie	1.50	75,000
Imperial Life	1.75	17,500
Landed Banking	3.50	95,000
London and T. & D. Bank	2.00
National Life	.62½	6,250
National Trust	2.00	72,000
Can. Loan	1.50	60,000
Royal Trust	1.50	60,000
Toronto Gen. Trust	1.50	39,595
Toronto Gen. Trust	1.50	45,000

Mines—
Bralorne	.12½	125,000
Dome	.50	476,647
Hollinger	.10	462,000
Pioneer Gold B.C.	.02	262,750
Premier	.03	150,000
Sylvanite	.05	164,972
Wright-Hargreaves	.15	475,000
Total		$13,764,975

RANSOM MONEY READY

TUCSON, Ariz., May 2 (AP)—The $15,000 ransom to free six-year-old Jane Robbins awaited the call of her kidnappers again today.

There was no public indication

Flo-glaze

The PAINT that "Leaves NO Brush Marks"

"A Canadian Product Better Made"

WALKER HARDWARE COMPANY, LIMITED

248 Front St. Belleville Phone 163

TO PURCHASE PLANE

Sydney, Australia, May 2. (CP Havas)—Air Commander Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith, famous Australian airman, sailed for San Francisco from Sydney today to purchase an American plane which he expects to fly from England to Australia after race. He was accompanied by his wife.

ON SALE AT LOBLAWS Week of May 3rd-May 9th

Enjoy These JYLMER Products at a Saving

"SPECIAL" JYLMER Green Label CHILI SAUCE 12-oz. Bot. 14¢

"SPECIAL" JYLMER QUALITY CHILI TOMATOES 2 for 21¢ Tins

JYLMER Choice Quality PRUNE PLUMS 2 Lbs. 21¢ No. 2 Squat Tins

JYLMER Choice Quality Golden WAX BEANS 2 Tins 11¢

"SPECIAL" A Real Economy! Rich, Red SOCKEYE SOVEREIGN SALMON Halves—Tin 16¢ Tall Tin 29¢

OXO 10 Cubes Box 26c

ROSE Brand—DILL PICKLES 31-oz. Jar 22c

SUNLIGHT SOAP 2 Cakes 13c

St. William's PURE ORANGE MARMALADE 32-oz. Jar 29c

"SPECIAL" PURE OLD COLONY New Crop MAPLE Syrup 16-oz. Bottle 21¢ 32-oz. Bottle 41¢

"SPECIAL" Post's BRAN Flakes 2 Pkgs. 19¢

ECONOMY RECIPES that are easy to make—By Miss C. G. Taylor, B.H.S., Dietitian

Moulded Salmon Salad

1 tin Sovereign Salmon
½ tablespoon gelatine
¼ cup cold water
1 cup boiling water
¼ cup lemon juice
1 tablespoon melted butter
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup finely chopped celery
1 tablespoon finely chopped pickle
2 tablespoons mayonnaise

Moulded Salmon Salad

Cup Cakes with Maple Icing

Mix dry ingredients, add egg, butter, milk, vinegar. Cook to double boiler, stirring constantly until mixture thickens. Add washed salmon. Strip and flake to salmon which has been separated into flakes. Fill buttered moulds and steam. Will serve 10 persons. Serve with a few wet beans beside the mould.

Cup Cakes with Maple Icing. Use any standard cake recipe, baking in individual tins. Frost with icing sugar to which you add a small amount of melted butter and sufficient maple syrup to spread. Top each cake with half a pecan.

SPECIAL Florida March Seedless Grape 3 lbs. for 19¢ Junior Size Tin

"SPECIAL" DIAMOND TOILET FLUSH 11¢

EMERALD Peas 19c 34c

Chocolate Graham WAFERS 22c lb.

Mark 115th Anniversary of Order of Oddfellows

Stirling I. O. O. F. And Rebekahs Attend Divine Service

Stirling.—As a fitting manner in which to commemorate the one hundred and fifteenth anniversary of the I.O.O.F., one hundred members of the Stirling Lodge No. 239 and an equally large number of ladies of the Stirling Rebekah Lodge attended divine service in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. At a quarter of eleven, the members of the Stirling Lodge No. 239 formed in a procession in front of the lodge rooms and headed by the Stirling Citizens' Band under the direction of band leader Ned Potts, proceeded to march to the church for service where the ladies of the Rebekah Lodge had already assembled. Rev. J. A. Koffend, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church was in charge of the services and delivered a most inspiring and eloquent sermon on "A Reverence For Truth" in which he clearly manifested to his audience the evident disregard of the present day world for the meaning of the word truth. The National Anthem was played at the conclusion of the services. Those in charge of the preparations were Karl Sine, N.G.; J. B. Thompson, P.G.; F. T. Ward, P.G.; J. W. Sarles, treasurer; Stirling Encampment No 80, Alex Parks, C.P.; E. R. Carlisle, F. S.; J. B. Thompson, Recording Secretary; Stirling Rebekah Lodge, Florence Maynes, N.G.; Mrs. Alberta Farrell, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Agnes McGee, F.S.; Mrs. Agnes Hammond, Treasurer.

At a meeting of the Horticultural Society held last Thursday evening, a contribution was voted to the memorial of the late Prof. Macoun, of Ottawa, whose life was spent in the interest of horticulture. The memorial will be in the form of a rock garden and pool. Dr. Archibald, director of the Experimental Farms, will provide a suitable site and will assume full responsibility for carrying out the project. All societies in Canada are asked to contribute.

Mr. Disbrowe will make the necessary arrangements for a competition in which the Stirling high school students will be eligible. The ribbon award given by the Ontario Association will go to the successful pupil. Another competition put on by the local society will be open to pupils of the Stirling public school and S. S. No. 19, Rawdon. This will be in the form of an essay along horticultural lines. Mrs. Lawlor and Mrs. J. Wilson will choose the subject.

The society has a number of Carolina Poplars, Spruce and Pine trees for sale at moderate prices. In a brief address, Mr. J. B. Belshaw, president, sketched an outline of the program to be given at the district convention which will take place in Kingston on June 13.

Dr. C. F. Walt motored to Kingston on Monday. He was accompanied on the return journey by his daughter, Miss Margaret who has completed her second year term at Queen's University.

Miss Marie Demorest of Queen's University, Kingston, returned home on Sunday to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Demorest after completing her first year term.

Mrs. Earl Morrow and son Howard were Sunday visitors in Trenton.

Dr. Alexander Hall of Hornell, N.Y., was a week-end guest of Miss Charlotte McCann.

Mrs. Stanley Roblin of Whitby spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Belshaw last week and attended the funeral of her grandmother, the late Mrs. Mary Belshaw.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank C. Weaver of Lockport, N.Y., were week-end guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Annie Bailey.

Mr. Thomas Montgomery, Sr., is in Toronto for a few days this week.

Miss Margaret Cannon of Belleville was a Stirling visitor on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGee and family of Belleville were Sunday guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. McGee.

Dr. J. R. Guthridge of Belleville called on Stirling friends on Saturday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Koffend and son Bobbie and Miss Inez Elgie motored to Toronto on Monday where they will spend a few days.

Mr. H. R. Tompkins spent the week-end in Kemptville.

Rev. H. J. Farrell was in Madoc on Sunday and assisted at the Forty Hours devotions.

Mr. A. E. Dobbie left last week for Smith's Falls.

Mr. G. C. Craven of the Royal Bank staff spent the week-end at his home in Bath.

Word has been received in Stirling of the death last week of Mr. Norman Langtree of Ingersoll. Deceased was a former resident of Stirling and was a son-in-law of Mr. Walter Martin. Interment took place in Oshawa.

Miss Jean McCubbin has resumed her duties on the public school staff after recovering from her recent illness.

Miss Eva Inkster of the Marmora continuation school staff and Mr. Sanderson of Oxford Station were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Morrow.

A large number from this district attended the funeral in Frankford on Sunday of the late Hiram Smith of that place. Deceased was a brother-in-law of Mr. Fred Carr of River Valley. The funeral was held under the auspices of the Orange Order with Rev. A. S. McConnell of Stirling conducting the services in the Frankford Anglican Church. Interment took place in Frankford.

A wedding of interest to many Stirling residents is that of Miss Helen Hawkins of Toronto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hawkins of Trenton to Mr. John Clark Halligan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Halligan of Toronto. Miss Hawkins attended both public and high school in Stirling where she resided for a number of years along with her family. The following is the account of the wedding appearing in the Toronto Globe:

Halligan—Hawkins

A quiet wedding took place in Toronto on Saturday morning, when Helen Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hawkins of Trenton, was married to John Clark Halligan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Halligan. It was held in St. Vincent de Paul Church, Roncesvalles Avenue, Rev. Father T. McCabe officiating. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a suit of beige rib moss crepe, cut on straight lines, with short jacket trimmed with kolinsky, and brown hat and accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of Talisman roses and lily-of-the-valley. She was attended by Miss Rita Halligan, sister of the groom, who wore a suit of powder-blue crepe, with beige hat, and corsage of Sweetheart roses and sweet peas. The groomsman was Mr. Charles O'Brien. The altar and sanctuary were decorated with palms and spring flowers, and Mrs. J. M. Crawford played the wedding music. Mrs. Daniel Ryan sang during the signing of the register. After a reception for the immediate families, the bride and groom left for a motor trip, the bride travelling in a navy blue and white swagger suit, with blue hat. On their return they will live on Lonsdale Road.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Reynolds are sorry to hear of their critical illness at their home in Stirling.

Stars of Radioland

MORTON DOWNEY

Following a lengthy vaudeville tour which took him into 30 states, Morton Downey has returned to the air waves with two regular programs

FOURTH SIDNEY COMMUNITY NOTES

4TH SIDNEY—Mr. and Mrs. R. Brickman, Mrs. Albert Holmes and son, Roland were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes.

Mrs. A. Wood returned home on Sunday having spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. W. Lough and Mr. Lough of Colborne, where the stork left twin girls on April 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Pound and son Ross, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hannah and son, Maurey took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. P. Harris on Sunday.

The weather being ideal at present the farmers are busy on their land, although a very little seeding has been done, while the ladies are busy at their spring house-cleaning.

Rev. and Mrs. Johnson motored to Kingston on Tuesday last, their daughter Margaret, returning home with them having completed her exams at Queen's University.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Nobbs are moving across the Bay, where they have purchased a farm. They intend moving this week.

Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. R. Reid having met with a very painful accident, when she fell and broke her wrist. She was rushed to the Belleville Hospital, where the bone was set. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Lloyd entertained a number of their relatives to a taffy feed on Thursday evening last. Among them being Mr. and Mrs. P. Roblin, Mr. S. Roblin, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. Barragar.

Mrs. M. Smith of Belleville, also spent the week-end at their home.

Miss K. MacPherson and Miss G. Bradshaw spent Saturday with the former's brother, Mr. J. MacPherson.

"Complexion Curse"

TUMS

MRS. J. ALEXANDER IS HOSTESS TO QUEENSBORO L. A.

QUEENSBORO—Miss Mary Sexsmith of Tweed, spent the week-end at her home here.

Mrs. Pyne of Eldorado, has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry DeClair.

Mr. Keith Rollins and Mr. Dick of Brewer's Mills, spent Tuesday at the home of Mr. Fred Rollins.

Miss Dorothy McCaw of Actinolite spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McCaw.

Miss Betty West has returned to her home at Grimsby after spending the past two weeks with her brother, Mr. C. West and other friends.

Mrs. Geo. Love is ill.

Mrs. Bruce Phillips and Mrs. Jas. Groves of Remington spent Wednesday with Mrs. Edmund Groves.

A number from Queensboro attended the funeral of the late Mr. John Rollins of Madoc, held at Cooper church on Friday.

Mrs. Irvine Delyea spent Saturday in Belleville.

Mrs. John Bailey is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Rollins.

Mrs. Frank Cleveland of Cooper, has been spending a few days with Mrs. Harry DeClair.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Fargey were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Glover one day last week.

Mr. T. J. Sager of Prince Albert spent the week end with his father Mr. C. A. Sager and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Leslie.

Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander and family spent Sunday with Madoc friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Sager motored to Trenton on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Groves were in Belleville on Sunday visiting their daughter, Mrs. Allan McCoy, who is ill in the Belleville Hospital.

Rev. Price of Actinolite had charge of the service in the United Church on Sunday evening. A larger congregation than usual were present.

With a large attendance the regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the United Church was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Alexander. The President, Miss Jennie Thompson, presided. After the devotional and business part of the meeting a short interesting programme was given. A very pleasant social hour was spent over the bountiful lunch which was served.

The Y.P.S. met in the church on Monday evening for their meeting which was in charge of Mr. Allan Sager. After the opening exercises and roll call, Aileen Holmes read the Scripture reading. The topic was read by Allan Sager. Papers on two of the English poets were given by Mr. Jack Cafley and Miss Mable Sager. A duet was sung by Joan Cafley and Marion Alexander. A bird contest was put on. The meeting was closed with a hymn and prayer.

THIRD THURLOW WEEKLY NOTES

3rd Thurlow.—Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Bell of Belleville and Mr. and Mrs. Adamson and little son, of Toronto, called last week on Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cooley.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Casey and Ruth visited recently at Mr. Frank Casey's, 5th line.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clarke and Reta visited friends at Napanee last week.

Rev. R. H. Merriam and two daughters, West Huntingdon, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Easton.

Mrs. Margaret Diamond of Toronto, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. E. W. Brown.

Miss Anne Brown, on the staff at O.S.D., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brown.

Mr. Gordon McPherson is at present in Belleville General Hospital, having undergone an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dean spent a day recently at Mr. Frank Palmer's, Foxboro.

Miss Hazel Wilson, Belleville, has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dean.

Mrs. E. W. Brown, Mrs. Margaret Diamond, Mrs. Clayton Eggleton, Gerald and Marilyn, also Miss Anne Brown called one day recently on Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cooley.

Miss Reta Clarke spent the tea hour on Thursday last with Miss Anne Brown.

Mrs. Albert Palmer also Dorothy and Jack are spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. John Ross, Corbyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker were guests recently of Mr. and Mr. Harry Dafoe, Carmel.

Mrs. Grant Crosby, Roblin's Mills, is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Clarke.

Mr. P. F. Casey has returned home after visiting friends in Belleville.

Miss Hazel Walker is spending a few days with her friend, Miss Stella Bradshaw, 4th line.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker spent a day last week with the former's brother, Mr. Harry Walker, 4th line.

NOBODY WANTS SOVIET EXILE

Apparently untroubled by efforts of France to deport him and by the reluctance of Turkish government to grant him sanctuary, Leon Trotsky, Soviet exile plays with his dogs at his villa near Royan. Insert, Madame Trotsky who lives in exile with her husband.

Hindu Rope Trick Performance Will Bring Reward of $2,500

LONDON, May 1.—(CP Cable)—The occult committee of the "Magic Circle" today offered a reward of $2,500 for a genuine performance of the famous Indian rope trick in which a fakir is supposed to fling a rope into the air, snub it to nothing and have an assistant climb it.

The committee which met here last night, reported it had conducted a long investigation into claims of persons who said they had seen the trick performed and had reached the conclusion the feat never had been and never would be accomplished.

The chairman of the committee suggested the "magic circle" might just as well have offered $25,000 or $250,000 for all the chance there was of anyone claiming the money.

Lord Samphill, President of the circle, said the committee was rendering a public service, since firm believe in the trick persisted. Lord Halifax, former Viceroy of India, wrote he had made many unsuccessful attempts to see it done.

SHOWER HELD FOR POPULAR RESIDENT

Lonsdale—As sugar weather is over many have been busy gathering in their buckets until next season.

A nice warm rain has started the grass as some places are showing up quite green. A few cattle were seen on Tuesday making their annual trip to some summer pasture.

Miss Florence McCrae, Mrs. Joe Haight and baby took tea with Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCullough one afternoon quite recently.

Mr. Joseph McVicker has had his tonsils removed in Hotel Dieu, Hospital, Kingston and all wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. H. M. McCullough was in Belleville on Wednesday.

Mr. J. W. McCullough, Belleville, called on his friends in this vicinity one day lately.

Rev. Dr. A. G. Mameron, Deseronto, called on Mr. A. H. McCullough one afternoon this week.

Mr. Alex McRae is having a new steel roof put on his barn this week.

Mr. H. M. McCullough cut wood for Mr. Frank Kinner one day recently. On account of so much snow and ice a great number haven't employed the sawing machine yet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Farrell and daughter Madge spent Saturday in Belleville.

Miss Flossie Hewitt visited Miss Olive Hewitt on Sunday.

Quite a number attended service in St. Jude's Church, Kingsford on Sunday evening. Rev. A. E. Pepper, pastor.

Miss Thelma Melburn, brother Ralph, enjoyed a visit with their uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Ross Melburn on Saturday evening, spending most of the evening in Napanee.

Mrs. J. McMath has been staying part of the past week with her sister Mrs. W. Haight.

Quite a few from this neighborhood enjoyed a pleasant time on Saturday evening at a miscellaneous shower given by the many friends of Miss Helen Scott, which was enjoyed at the home of the bride, Forest Mills. The happy couple received many lovely gifts. All wish Mr. and Mrs. Grant Gerow a happy voyage through life.

ENTERTAIN AT ENJOYABLE PARTY

6th Tyendinaga—The farmers of this vicinity are busy getting in the crop. They all report the meadows and fall grain are a complete failure.

Mrs. C. L. Goodman spent Monday with Mrs. Theodore Parks.

Mrs. J. Boldrick, Arthur and Bessie visited friends at Lime Lake and Moneymore on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Treverton and family of 4th line spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Treverton.

Miss Hazel Emerson spent last week with Mrs. Murney Wilson.

Mr. Arthur and Miss Helen Boldrick entertained about twenty of their young friends on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Murphy of Shannonville, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Goodman.

Mr. R. Jose and Mr. R. Dudgeon of Belleville, called on Mr. C. L. Goodman one evening recently.

WALLBRIDGE MISSION BAND HAS MEETING

WALLBRIDGE—Mrs. E. Hancock called on Mrs. Orval Yateman on Thursday afternoon.

A great deal of the alfalfa and clover seeding seems to be killed out this spring. Many of the farmers have already ploughed it up.

Mrs. E. T. Hinchcliffe and Ruth spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. John Hinchliffe.

The April meeting of the Wallbridge Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Sam Nicolson on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr and Mrs. Dan Hyde of Belleville spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bird.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas Hinchcliffe, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fair and Mrs. John Hinchcliffe took tea on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Fair of Bayside.

Miss Audrey Nicolson spent Sunday with Miss Helen Lane.

Miss Clara Potts of Trenton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hudson Ketcheson.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Nobes were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hill of Trenton, spent the tea hour on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hinchcliffe.

Mr. and Mrs. Noyes have moved into this neighborhood on the farm recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Holmes.

The Wallbridge Mission Band held its April meeting in the church on Sunday with Mrs. Chas. Fair in charge. The meeting opened by singing a hymn, followed by the Lord's prayer in unison. The usual business was discussed. Audrey Nicolson read the Scripture lesson, Psalm 23. All joined in singing a hymn, Mary Phillips read a story "Little Shadi's Prayer". Grace Chisholm read a poem "The Cross". Collection amounted to sixty-five cents. After singing the hymn Blessed Assurance Mr. Nobes dismissed the meeting.

Mrs. Arthur Clare is steadily improving after her operation.

Master Carman Rikely broke his arm, while playing at school last week.

Mrs. Cecil Tripp and daughter of Frankford, have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silvenus Moore.

Mrs. Robert Armstrong and family of Toronto, moved into a part of Mr. Leonard Sine's house on Monday.

Mrs. A. Consaul called on Mrs. John Hogg on Monday afternoon.

½ the work and better looking floors!

It can be done—it is being done by smart housewives everywhere who use Poliflor regularly. They know that there IS a difference in floor waxes. They have proved the difference with the "Shine and Shuffle" test—the test that we invite YOU to make in order that you, too, may discover which wax will outlook and outwear whatever other wax you may be using now on the floors of your home.

THE SHINE AND SHUFFLE TEST

While you still have some of your present polish left, get from your dealer a tin of Poliflor and test them both. Use Poliflor on one floor in your home where the finish must be right. Then take a floor where wear is extra hard and do this floor also with Poliflor Wax. On your other floors use the polish you always have been using. Test the results you get from both finishes over a period of time—we leave the decision to you.

Made by the Makers of NUGGET SHOE POLISH

Poliflor WAX

"There's a Polished Home in every tin"

SHOES THRIVE on a steady diet of "NUGGET"!

"Nugget" feeds the leather, keeps it lively, soft and pliable. You know what that means—Bill will get far longer wear out of those shoes; they'll look neat and well-kept all the time, too.

Follow Bill's example. A touch of "Nugget" will keep your shoes looking new, staying new and in A-1 shape months longer than you would expect. The cost per shine is next to nothing. In a tin of "Nugget" there's enough to polish your shoes 100 times.

Ladies! "Nugget" White Kid Cleaner is ideal for white shoes.

NUGGET SHOE POLISH

There's a "Nugget" Shade for Every Shoe Made

The RED & WHITE Stores

3 UNUSUAL THRIFTY DAYS!

these prices are proof of your savings!

QUALITY FOODS ALWAYS!

We hardly need to point out that such well-known high-quality foods at such decidedly low prices mean a tremendous saving . . . but we do want to stress the fact — these outstanding values are for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES with Cowboy Cutouts 2 pkgs. 17c

Here's 2 Biscuits You'll Enjoy-Special Value

CHOCOLATE Marshmallow — Vanilla wafer marshmallow, and jelly covered with chocolate — 15c LB.

Porto Bello — Sandwich style — Shortcake, with assorted flavour fillings — 15c LB.

KIRKS Cold Water Castile SOAP 5c

EXTRA SPECIAL Choice PEAS Sieve No. 4 Extra Fine Quality 2 Tins 23c

RED AND WHITE PEANUT BUTTER Finest Quality 26 oz. jar 25c

IN BULK FRESH MILLED OATS 7 lbs. 25c

FOR A QUICK MEAL C & B Chef Ready Meals 2 Tins 25c

Salmon Fancy Pink Quality 2 lge. tins 25c

LUX Popular Toilet SOAP 3 for 21c

McCormick's Fresh Arrowroot Biscuits Special 25c lb.

Maraschino Cherries Full lb. boxes 25c ea.

PURE GOLD MEDAL Orange Marmalade 32 oz. jar 29c

GOLD MEDAL Strawberry Jam 40 oz. jar 34c

RED AND WHITE Pumpkin Choice Quality Tin is enough for 2 full pies 10c

COMFORT SOAP For the laundry 5 for 19c

Magic Baking Powder (Cash & Carry) 16 oz. tin 34c

BRUNSWICK SARDINES 5 tins 29c

Lawrason's Snowflake For household cleaning 3 pkgs. 25c

FRESH ROASTED PEANUTS lb. 10c in Shell

Nugget SHOE Polish 12c

RED AND WHITE

Epsom Salts ... pkg. 5c

Pure Coffee ... lb. 38c

Sweet Corn ... tin 10c

Vanilla Extract .... 15c 8 oz. bottle

Jelly Powders 4 pkgs. 25c

HAWES FLOOR WAX Keeps floors in good condition 1 lb. tins 43c

QUALITY ALWAYS HIGHER THAN PRICE

HEADS RAWDON RIFLE ASSOC.

Active Season is Planned By Members of Club

Rawdon, May 3—The Rawdon Rifle Association held their annual meeting at the home on Wednesday evening of last week and set the date for the shoots as follows: May 24th, May 26th, June 14th, June 18th, June 30th, and August 1st Sept. 1st. The final shoots commencing May 30th, will be the official shoots for the silver salver donated by the D.C.R.A. This was won last year by Mr. A. Mack and the silver cup donated by Mr. E. R. Collett of Toronto was won by Mr. John Wellman, he having the highest aggregate at all the shoots. Any members winning this cup for three consecutive years may hold same.

An added attraction this season is a silver cup donated by Lieut.-Col. A. V. Yates of Delcro to be awarded to the members of the Association in 21 years of age and under.

Shooting will commence this season at 12.30 p.m. sharp.

The election of officers for 1934 resulted as follows, Captain, Geo. Wellman, Range Officer, Isaac McMurray, Secretary Treasurer, Wallace McIntyre, Trapper Archer, Chas. Parrott; Caretaker of Rifles, Frank Patrick.

The joining fee was left the same as last year viz. $1.00. Arrangements were made to have the Rifle Range Pit put in first class condition.

It was decided to pay prize money as in former years, viz. Special prizes at each shoot except the fifth for 1st. 2nd and 3rd, highest man for each 5 cents and for each respectively.

Also prize money on the season's shooting as follows: First 5, seventy five cents. Next ten 50 cents each, next ten 35 cents each, based on the aggregate for all the shoots.

As a special inducement for the first shoot May 24th prizes will be given for every eyes made, or a 500 yard range at the rate of five points per inch, or cents and for each or over are made.

The finishing report showed the Association to be in a healthy condition financially with a balance on hand of $78.12, this including a donation to the Association from Dr. A. T. Embury, M.P. and Hon. G. S. Henry, Premier of Ontario.

On Sunday evening last Rev. W. G. Swayze of Tweed, preached in St. Mark's Church to a large congregation, his father Canon W. O. Swayze taking the services at Tweed.

Taking as his text the passage of Scripture "Whither Goest Thou?" Mr. Swayze preached an inspiring sermon. He stressed the fact that we should all ask ourselves this question and that action is needed.

In closing he eloquently and beautifully explained "The Lord's prayer" as a prayer with which to start each day.

Miss Julia Brown spent the week end in Toronto with her brother Dr. Chapman Brown.

Mr. John Brown is visiting his daughter Mrs. G. E. Reid at Aylesboro, for a few days.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ROBERT REID IS LARGELY ATTENDED

Quite a number from this line attended the funeral of Mrs. Robert Reid in Stirling on Thursday afternoon in the Presbyterian Church. Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved one as she was a former resident of this neighborhood before moving to Oshawa.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reid (nee Edith Rollins) have returned home from their honeymoon and are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. A. Cranston.

The ladies are taking advantage of the milder weather and are busy working on the land.

Mrs. T. Kennedy is still confined to her bed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. Walt in Frankford.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Cranston spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. Walt in Frankford.

Mr. and Mrs. O. McAvoy spent Sunday afternoon with friends at Stoco.

Miss Alice Fleming of Stirling spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Stevenson.

Mrs. M. Cronkright, Ronnie and Joan are visiting her sister, Mrs. Sam Way.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Caverley spent Sunday visiting relatives at Picton.

VICTORIA NEWS OF COMMUNITY

Victoria, May 2—Mrs and Mrs. Ray Fox and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fox spent Thursday at Mr. Walter Fox's, Union Vale.

Mrs. M. Redner and daughter Marjorie of Redneyville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Redner.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brickman spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Brickman and Audra, Mrs. Louisa Vandervoort and Mrs. Ray Fox spent Friday at Wellington.

Mrs. Vandervoort returned home after a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. L. Brickman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Green and son Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Brooks and daughter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hubbs spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Green.

Mr. Harmon Montgomery and sister Miss Mabel motored to Toronto on Saturday and visited their aunt, Mrs. Stephen Springer, Kashless, remaining for a few weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson and Mrs. Alex Anderson and Miss Clara and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fox spent Sunday at Mr. Willis Fox's.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fox called at the Mrs. Sarah Fox residence afternoon to see their daughter, Mrs. Keith Redner and wee babe.

ADDRESS HONORS BRIDAL COUPLE

A happy gathering of neighbours and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hale on Thursday evening, April 26th, to offer a miscellaneous shower in honor of their daughter and niece, Miss Alice Mae Howard Richards. Mr. Morley Sine ably acted as chairman for the evening. The bride and groom were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Hotchkiss read an address after which "Here Comes the Bride" was softly rendered with Miss Phyrra Wade as Master Max Chard dressed as a bride and groom seated in a large basket of gifts and presented them to the happy couple. After the gifts were unwrapped of which there were many beautiful pieces of china, linen, cut glass and silver as well as kitchen utensils, both graciously thanked the donors in a few well chosen words. Then followed a short program of vocal and instrumental solos, readings and speeches, which took the greater part of the evening. Lunch was then served by the ladies. The address was as follows:

Dear Aletha and Howard:

For several years down from the Cane Howard Richards is his Sunday home.

Sailing alone in his Chrysler car Right back to the sixth—but not so far;

Up on the hill there was a "Nine".

So Howard began the origin of his line.

We'd seen this-happen for many a day

And then last fall we heard folks say:

"Howard Richards has gone on a farm,

He'll not keep batch, I'll bet my arm.

Then last, Wednesday just about noon

We saw the car, and wondered why so soon;

Cause Howard usually waited 'till And then went back to woo and wait.

Well anyway before half past one Down past the school the car did come;

Just down the road to the white frame house

Where the attendants had waited as quiet as a mouse.

Right down the fifth in the Chrysler.

The four set forth on their mission Couldn't whisper.

What was their mission? Couldn't you guess

To see them all bubbling with happiness?

Why Howard and Aletha were on their way

To tie the knot. 'Twas their wedding day.

Into Hiram parsonage they went With a bashful look;

Where Rev. Hotchkison stood with a little black book.

The bride and bridesmaid dressed in blue

And the bride whispered shyly, "I-I-do".

Then the ceremony over and out they came

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Richards now, by name.

They started their journey for the west, they said,

And soon the news travelled the couple were wed.

But in our minds their return was in sight

And we hurried around for this shower tonight.

So this the occasion why we have come here.

The young folks and old folks to bring you good cheer.

Now Aletha we'll miss you, as from us you part,

A new venture facing, a new home to start.

In our Ladies' Aid you've been a loyal member,

And in our W.M.S. your work we will remember.

Now as Wooler will benefit by the loss we sustain.

Our friendship and love we'll still maintain.

Sometimes you may long for the home you have left,

Sometimes you may feel of friends you're bereft.

Now if you feel lonely just whistle and sing,

It makes the clouds brighten like everything.

Don't ever start nagging, be cranky or pout,

It spoils a home sooner than all get out.

Just be to your husband a dear loving wife,

And then he will love you the rest of your life.

And here some advice to Howard would do

To Aletha we hope you will always be true.

We hope you will bring her back once in a while,

To join in our gatherings and help make us smile.

We are all gathered here now, to wish for you

Long life and real happiness, prosperity too;

Accept of these gifts a slight token, we pray,

Of the love and esteem we bear you alway.

May your pathway be joyous, your new friends be kind,

Also remember to keep your dear saviour in mind.

Return thanks for His blessings and always give heed,

To His loving commandments — we wish you God speed.

Signed on behalf of your friends, Leda Hadgley, Edna M. Ketcheson, Mrs. J. A. Lott, Mrs. Gerald Sine.

ASKS REFERENDUM

Woodstock, May 2—Asking that a referendum be submitted to the people of the province before the proposed amendments to the Liquor Control Act, or any other amendments to the act which will give freer reign to the sale of beer and wine in Ontario are made effective, the Oxford Presbytery of the United Church, in session in Innerkip United Church, on Tuesday today urging the people of Oxford to support on the coming election only such candidates as will endorse this stand. All Oxford candidates will be asked to state their position on the subject.

HOOH TEST SAFETY PACKAGE

GEM LYE

Spent Clogged Drains. Keeps Drains Open. AT ALL GROCERS

ANGLER'S CORNER

Prescott, Ont., May 3—(CP)—The Eastern Ontario Fish and Game Protective Association was an accomplished fact today, formed at a meeting of representatives of 18 fish and game clubs here yesterday, to further the interests of fishermen and hunters in this part of the province.

The organization embraces clubs in the counties of Frontenac, Leeds, Dundas, Stormont, Glengarry, Prescott; Russell; Lanark; Renfrew and Carleton.

John L. Reid, Prescott lawyer, was unanimously elected president. Hon. George H. Challies, Minister of Game and Fisheries for the Province of Ontario was elected honorary president.

Other officers are: Honorary vice-presidents, Dr. H. A. Stark; M.L.A., Brockville; Frank Shaver, Brockville; vice-president W. E. Wright of Casselman and secretary-treasurer, Hubert D. Earl of Prescott.

Resolutions were passed and will be forwarded to the Ontario government. Among them is one suggesting the present elementary system in nature study in the public and separate schools be more comprehensive in regard to game birds and animals and their economic importance.

Another asks that the boundary line between Ontario and Quebec on Lake St. Francis be established so as to rectify the present difficulty. It was said that fishermen had no means to guide themselves while fishing in this lake, with the result that many were fined for illegal fishing.

ACTOR'S WIFE ALLEGES CRUELTY IN ACTION

Claims Husband, Richard Bennett Has Part in Maniacal Moods

Los Angeles, May 3 (AP)—Charging that Richard Bennett stabbed her with a pencil, beat her and threatened her life were made today by his wife in a separate maintenance action.

The suit demanding $2,000 monthly alimony asserted Bennett "so fiendish and cruel" His wife last month that she had to go to a hospital for treatment. In an "Orchids to Hotel," she said, the actor jabbed a nail file into her wrist while in one of the "maniacal moods" to which she charged he was subject.

Once, the actor's wife charged, she found him garbed only in a "bedroom robe" in his bed room with a "drawn automatic." When she protested, Mrs. Bennett alleged, she was told to get out if she "did not like it."

To this the actor replied that his secretary was an elderly woman who had been in the employ of the family for years.

His attorney said Bennett had offered his wife half of their community property, which she valued at $75,000, but refused to pay alimony "because of the fault of the separation was more hers than his own."

NILES' CORNERS WEEKLY NOTES

Niles Corners, May 3—Mr. T. Fillingham, Sr., Rose Hall spent Friday evening at A. N. Dafoe's.

Geo. Channel spent the week end at the home of his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Dafoe visited at Stockdale on Saturday.

Miss Ruth McCulloch of Wellington was a week end guest of Miss Phyllis Lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ellis and Gladys visited Mr. and Mrs. Bronson Thompson, Pleasant Bay on Sunday evening.

Mr. Ben Ellis is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Ross Cruickshanks, at Picton.

C. B. Clapp spent Monday at Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ferguson of Lindsay are visiting at Garnet Istead's.

Cloverdale factory started operating for the season this morning. Mrs. Clifton Ellis and Raymond spent Saturday at Belleville.

Mr. Garnet Istead has a milk route to Ben Gill factory for the season.

Mr. Joseph Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Ellis and Raymond spent Saturday at Belleville.

Mr. Garnet Istead has a milk route to Ben Gill factory for the season.

THE ONLY CORN FLAKES ENRICHED WITH SUNSHINE VITAMIN "D"

Valuable Coupon in Every Package

Quaker Corn Flakes

MADE IN CANADA

SEE THE AMAZING NEW BAND-A-BLU BURNER

NOW STANDARD EQUIPMENT on the NEW 900 SERIES

Coleman Safety Instant-Gas Ranges

Make and Burn Their Own Gas—Light Instantly.

The greatest improvement ever made in liquid fuel stoves! Produces a band of clear-blue, carbon-free flame.

1. Cuts fuel cost one-fifth.
2. Wider range of cooking heats.
3. 20% greater heating efficiency.

Ask your dealer to show you the new Coleman Ranges that bring you Coleman Stoves that bring you cooking service no matter where you live!

MODEL No. 940 Standard Porcelain Finish Top

ASK YOUR LOCAL DEALER or write to THE COLEMAN LAMP & STOVE CO., Ltd. TORONTO, 2, ONTARIO

C12.6137

John Lewis Co.

Headquarters Coleman Products

265 FRONT ST. PHONE 2260

DOMINION STORES

The New TWIST-TOP

A NEW ATTRACTIVE & CONVENIENT PACKAGE FOR AN OLD FAVORITE

COFFEE SALE

Richmello lb. 35c

Domino lb. 29c

EARLY MORNING lb. 25c

Fresh roasted fine quality beans, FRESH GROUND in the store... as you buy, means Really Fresh Coffee.

No fumbling, no pulling and tugging with the lid of this new tin. Simply twist...and lift and it's off! there is no danger from sharp edges.

You will like this new package ... it's so easy to open ... so convenient and so safe.

Weston's BISCUITS Chocolate Ruffles 2 lbs. 29c

The Marvelous New Cleanser Glisen-Clene Does More Easier To Use 2 Tins 15c

Fancy Cane SUGAR - 10 lbs. 66c

Quaker CORN FLAKES 2 Pkgs. 15c

For Those Finer Fabrics LUX Small Package 3 For 25c

The Health Soap Lifebuoy Soap 3 Cakes 22c

Large Size PRUNES - 2 lbs. 25c

Whitens Clothes P. & G. SOAP 10 Bars 32c

Hellmann's MAYONNAISE 8 oz. Jar 21c

Bayside Choice Quality TOMATOES No. 2½ tin 3 For 27c

Fresh Milled ROLLED OATS 6 lbs. 25c

Hand Picked WHITE BEANS 3 lbs. 10c

Kellogg's Whole Wheat Flakes - Pkgs. 12c

Clubhouse STUFFED OLIVES 8½ oz. 21c

The Mah Chocolate Drink VITONE 8 oz. tin 33c 16 oz. tin 55c

MAGIC BAKING POWDER 1 lb. tin 34c Cash and Carry

NARVO ANNUAL SALE

May 4 to May 12 (inclusive)

	REGULAR	SALE PRICE
½ GALLONS	2.85	2.10
QUARTS	1.50	1.10
PINTS	.85	.65
½ PINTS	.50	.40

For 8 days only, NARVO, the revolutionary surface finish, will be on sale at these low prices. Combines all the advantages of paint, lacquer, enamel. Has none of their drawbacks. "Tough as rubber, hard as ebony," it will not crack, chip or blister. Spreads smoothly, dries quickly, gives enduring beauty. Suitable for floors, furniture, walls, metals. 30 beautiful shades. Act NOW!

NARVO IS ON SALE AT SALE PRICES AT THE FOLLOWING DEALERS

JOHN LEWIS & COMPANY — 265 FRONT STREET BELLEVILLE

ARE DELEGATES TO CONS. CONVENTION

BURNEY—A number of the fathers and mothers and their children met at the home by the M.B.D. Comrades at Allisonville L.O.L. Hall on Tuesday night and enjoyed a very nice time.

Messrs. Jack Reid, Geoge Hubbs, Trow. Vancott, Norman and Howard Fox were at Trenton on Monday evening.

Messrs. Norman Fox and Clifford Hough were at Bellville on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Murney Parks were delegates to the Conservative Convention at Picton on Thursday.

Among those who visited Bellville on Saturday were: Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Carter, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McHenry, Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Adams, Mrs. E. Blakely, Mrs. J. B. Marvin, Misses Velma Arkins and Irene Fox, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Doolittle, Mr. and Mrs. Murney Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Messrs. Kenneth Vancott, George Huffman C. A. Pringle, Norman Fox and Sam Clarke.

Mrs. Geo. Caughey and son, Mr. Harry Caughey, Big Island, visited her sister, Mrs. Isaac Clarke, on Sunday.

Mr. Jo Moon, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hubbs were at Bellville on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Sykes and Mr. Roy Sykes, Wooler, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jo Moon on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vancott visited Mr. and Mrs. Orval Weichenmaker, Mountain View, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morden and Thos. Vancott visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vancott, Hickson on Sunday.

Several farmers in this vicinity started work on the land Monday morning.

ATTEND ENJOYABLE SURPRISE PARTY

Madoc Junction, May 2—Mr. and Mrs. D. Haggerty and son of West Huntingdon, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Hough of Bellville had Sunday dinner at Mr. and Mrs. George Eggleton's.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stapley spent Saturday evening in Bellville.

Mr. Charles Jamieson of Bonarlaw spent Sunday with Mr. Arnold's.

Rev. R. Merriam, Miss Pearl and Master Rupert Merriam spent the tea hour on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Andrews of Yarker and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pitchett of Stirling attended service at Ferguson church on Sunday afternoon, and later were tea guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pitchett.

Mrs. Arnold Wannamaker of Bellleville spent the dinner hour on Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. George Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Beaudrie and family from Madoc moved into the neighborhood this week.

Rev. R. Merriam spent the tea hour one evening recently with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stapley.

R. D. Pegelow and daughter Miss Irene Eggleton of Picton spent Wednesday at their cousin, Mr. and Mrs. C. Pitchett.

Mrs. Nathan Wannamaker visited relatives in Bellevile on Friday, and also called on a cousin, who is ill in the Bellevile hospital.

Miss Ruby Stapley of Stirling, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stapley.

Misses Alice and Norma Clarke of Bellevile spent a day recently with their sister Mrs. Howard Joby.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Saunders of Colborne spent Monday evening with friends here.

Mrs. Oliver Stapley and Mrs. L. Rodgers were among those who attended the surprise and presentation for Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dobbie at their home in Stirling on Monday night.

MOIRA

Moira—Mr. Henry Emerson is employed by the county at the present time crushing rock near Tweed.

Mr. and Mrs. Moorcroft and family who recently moved into the neighborhood and are on the farm formerly occupied by Mr. Clayton Hagerman made their appearance at church last Sunday morning. All sincerely hope their stay will be long and indeed welcome them into our midst.

Work has been started on the Vanfasset Cemetery at Moira and expectations are that it will be completed in a couple of weeks. This is an undertaking which is very much looked forward to in connection with the Old Boys' Reunion this summer.

Mr. W. H. Morton of Bellevile also Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morton and family of Bellevile called at the home of Mr. J. H. Hardy last Sunday and spent a short time with Miss Jane Hardy who has during the past week been seriously ill, but reports are that she is very much improved at present time. Mrs. Arthur Bailey of Latta is staying with her during her indisposition.

Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Merriam and daughter took dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. Morton and family.

Miss Laura Post, R.N. and Miss Enis Spence, R.N. are both busy at their calling and are stationed in Tweed village at the present time.

Mrs. Lee Hagerman received a call to the bedside of her mother at Coe Hill who has been seriously ill, but word was received to the effect that she is recovering.

Miss Vera Hagerman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie of Belleville was a caller at J. F. Hardy's recently.

A number of the men from this neighborhood are employed on the construction of Lake of Hill at West Huntingdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Foster and family and Mr. and Mrs. B. Ketcheson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hollinger.

TWO HAVE NARROW ESCAPE AS 'PLANE CRASHES

Within 100 yards of the golf clubhouse at Niagara Falls, Ont., a light aeroplane, piloted by Harold Brooker and carrying John Zyabeck both of Niagara Falls, crashed to earth from an altitude of only 35 ft., scattering 20 golfers who had been watching the aeroplane's gyrations in terror. The wreck of the machine is shown above. The pilot and passenger were removed to hospital. Their injuries are reported as serious.

FRIENDS VISIT AT CROFTON HOMES

CROFTON—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rorabeck were at Picton on Monday.

Mr. Howard Arkett of Bloomfield called on Mr. Harold Baker one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Palmer of Bellevile and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thompson of Picton, called on Mrs. S. R. Munroe on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Covert spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Otis Covert at Demorestville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarke and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Foote spent Friday in Kingston.

Mr. O. A. Pringle of Madoc, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawkins of Bear Lake, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clarke.

Mr. Fred Purtelle and Miss Winnie and Mr. Stanley Calnan of Grayden were in Belleville on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rorabeck were in Belleville on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bongard Betty and Jerrold, spent Sunday with Captain and Mrs. Bongard at Gilmore.

Mr. James Clement and Mrs. E. Williams, Carson and Bernice, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jones and family.

Mrs. Mrs. Angus Ryckman were in Belleville on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Wm. Caughey called on Mrs. Marshall Noxon on Friday last.

Miss Lila Caughey of South Bay, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Caughey.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Vincent accompanied by Miss Wilson of Oshawa, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Caughey.

RELIEF FAMILIES FOR FARMS

TORONTO, May 2.—(CP)—Fifty families now on relief here have been selected by the Provincial Settlements Board to be placed on farms in Southern Ontario, Board of Control was advised today by the Welfare Commissioner. The Board authorizes him to spend $1,050 in providing about 20 of the families with clothing.

NOT WANTED IN ENGLAND

London, May 2 (CP-Havas)—The Home Office today rejected Leo Trotsky's application for permission to reside on Britain soil. The former Soviet war lord has gone into hiding somewhere in France awaiting word from Turkey or some other nation which will grant him refuge. France ordered him expelled recently because of his failure to abstain from political activities.

BRIDE AND GROOM ARE HONORED

Wooler, May 3—S. A. Montgomery, the Misses Valentines, Bryon Perry and Miss Spencer attended the funeral of the late Manford Taylor from his late residence in Brighton on Sunday afternoon.

Alden Arthur has been suffering with summer flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Dunn were in Brighton on Sunday.

The School Board of the Continuation and Public School in the village held a public meeting on Tuesday evening.

(C) Wooler was accompanied Norman Montgomery of Belleville to Colborne on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Roy Kilbanks and son of Belleville spent the week-end with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dovland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Vansickle and Maria were in Brighton on Sunday afternoon attending the funeral of the late Manford Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Taylor, Brighton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Brunell.

Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stickle are ill with Scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lott spent the tea hour on Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Ketcheson, Wallbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Sine and children spent Sunday with friends in Rawdon.

Quite a number from this way attended the funeral of Mr. Frank Sine in Pembroke on Friday.

A beautiful miscellaneous shower was given Mr. and Mrs. Howard Richards (nee Aletha Sine) on Thursday night.

The mission circle was well attended on Sunday night, the young people of March Hill put on the programme, which was much appreciated.

SUCCUMBS TO INJURIES

Peterborough, May 2.—(CP)—Melville Fowler 37-year-old Smith Township farmer seriously injured on Saturday night when his buggy was struck by a car west of the city, died today. Clifford Harsman, teller in a local bank, and driver of the car was not held by the police.

"Gee, Mother, these new wheat flakes sure do taste good! Can I have some more?"

"You certainly may. Kellogg's Whole Wheat Flakes are the kind of food I like to see you eat."

Made from Canadian Wheat

NO WONDER mothers like to give their children Kellogg's Whole Wheat Flakes. For they know what a splendid, all-round "building" food whole wheat is.

And never before was whole wheat so tasty, so delicious as in these new crisp-toasted flakes. Children and grown-ups both love them!

You'll get a welcome surprise, too, when you see the size of the big package these delicious flakes come in. It certainly is economical.

In fact, Kellogg's Whole Wheat Flakes are a food to meet these modern times. Outstanding value. Almost a meal in a bowlful. Ready to serve with milk or cream.

Ask your grocer for the red-and-green package. Extra crisp and crunchy, thanks to a new Kellogg discovery. Oven-fresh. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario. Quality guaranteed.

FIRE DESTROYS OLD LANDMARK

SYDENHAM—Mr. and Mrs. H. Taylor, Mrs. Sine and Mr. and Mrs. George Bell spent Sunday in Frankford, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Sine.

When fire destroyed the old log house on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brunnell an old landmark close to one hundred years old, passed into oblivion.

Mrs. J. A. Lott, spent Tuesday in Harrowsmith, a guest of Rev. E. B. and Mrs. Seamith.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parr and son Alford, Mrs. Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Will Gardiner all of Trenton, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Brunell.

Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stickle are ill with Scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lott spent the tea hour on Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Ketcheson, Wallbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Sine and children spent Sunday with friends in Rawdon.

Quite a number from this way attended the funeral of Mr. Frank Sine in Pembroke on Friday.

A beautiful miscellaneous shower was given Mr. and Mrs. Howard Richards (nee Aletha Sine) on Thursday night.

The mission circle was well attended on Sunday night, the young people of March Hill put on the programme, which was much appreciated.

The Young People held their last meeting at the Tabernacle Church on Tuesday evening.

Miss Beatrice Bragg accompanied by Miss Anna Bell spent the week-end at Bowmanville and Port Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Terrill and some spent Sunday afternoon at Codrington.

Mrs. E. J. Wessels returned home from Kingston hospital on Wednesday.

Mrs. Douglas Stewart returned home after spending a week with her sister Helen Terrill in Bellevile.

On Wednesday evening Miss A. F. Bell will entertain the teachers of the Methodist at the Stone school house.

Miss Hamer attended the Conservative rally at Warkworth on Friday afternoon.

Marguerite Davey spent the week end with Helen McColl.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Perry, called on Mr. and Mrs. Howard Richards on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Gooding.

Mrs. Meyers and family spent Sunday in Trenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Richards (nee Aletha Sine) of Sidney, were honored by a very large gathering of friends and neighbors to show to them the high esteem in which Howard is held by the church and community.

Rev. A. Poulter announced an impromptu programme given by the Young People in music and word and then Marion Nelson read an address given on behalf of the Pleasant Valley community in presenting to the bride and groom an upholstered occasional chair and chair table.

Gerald Kemp paid tribute to the groom in his faithful service in the Young Peoples work and extended congratulations to him and his bride on behalf of the Young Peoples Society in presenting to them upholstered rocking chair. Percy Gooding welcomed the bridal couple to the neighborhood where they will open their new home together on life's journey.

To our friends and our homes a welcome we extend, your way to our hearts also may you frequent on behalf of the "Terrill Line" neighborhood to accept this Chesterfield with our blessing.

At this juncture, Mr. Richards thanked his friends and the bride voiced her sentiments, and this was not all, as a table full of beautiful gifts including a Kenwood blanket and spread to match, silverware, table linen, towels and many other gifts were on the best. Almost overwhelmed the bridal party to express their thanks and appreciation.

"For They are Jolly Good Fellows" was heartily sung by the audience. During the social half hour, Mrs. Richards sang a number of new friends.

Mr. Sharpe is some again after spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Sanford Sharpe.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Terrill and Mr. and Mrs. E. Terrill attended the funeral of the late Manford Taylor, Brighton on Sunday afternoon.

Percy Gooding and Wm. Smith, S. A. Montgomery, and Misses Valentines, Bryon Perry and Jolla Spencer were in Brighton on Sunday afternoon.

FIRE DESTROYS OLD LANDMARK

SYDENHAM—Mr. and Mrs. H. Taylor, Mrs. Sine and Mr. and Mrs. George Bell spent Sunday in Frankford, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Sine.

When fire destroyed the old log house on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brunnell an old landmark close to one hundred years old, passed into oblivion.

Mrs. J. A. Lott, spent Tuesday in Harrowsmith, a guest of Rev. E. B. and Mrs. Seamith.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parr and son Alford, Mrs. Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Will Gardiner all of Trenton,

The ROMANTIC RUNAWAY

By KATHARINE HAVILAND-TAYLOR

love when they were at last in each other's arms. Was it any wonder, that she was close to tears. She was so much ashamed of how he'd treated her, would have been. She swallowed hard and blinked quickly.

Steve spoke then. "Let's go to the front room. I'll get some coffee sent to a little food."

"I have some money," Pablito said.

"Don't go talkin' it around. In-deed." Lottie advised, "if you do you won't have it long."

◆ ◆ ◆

Tony had reached the first gambling hall. A maid, bathed in a fine stamp and cheering audibly, raised its long bearded head to survey the situation. A small black boy played on the doorstep and back of the head in line of weak flutters while in the growing gloom, Tony's voice, rising in anxious fret stayed its tattered long leaves to count them.

An old maid-of the heavy sort of Scotch flowers weighted the air. Sitting in one of the chairs she grew with a grin for real music lately attracted a rather. She drew would be a paradise, Pablito thought, if only he could forget the grief and misery of his love.

"This place looks like something in a movie," he said to Lottie, discounting to the enchantment.

"Yes, isn't it?" Lottie agreed, "but I shall scream," she said next, her silver making a seance so anxious of false greatness.

"Ain't got the little will" Nean frowned seemingly. For a moment Pablito forgot indifference. He understood Lottie, sympathized and also pitied her.

"You've been a good sport about all this," he said gently, "and it won't be long now before we can get you settled."

She could not quite keep the tears back at that, but she turned behind the two men in order that they might not see her "making a damn fool of herself." Pablito's body had touched her straining. "Nobody cares," thought Lottie, "ever laid awake thinkin' of gyttin' me comfortable." Her eyes, blurred gaze, did not waver from Pablito's broad back and her heart swelled within her.

Years before a masculine brutality that had rubbed the first dust from her tawdry wings had made her decide she would "do the act' do dirty" any man who crossed her path. Now she knew she could not keep that vow.

She stooped and bent down as that she could mop her eyes with the edge of her wide skirt. Pablito offered. "Come along," he ordered her. "Short, forward-beckoning sort of the time."

Lottie smiled, lifted her chin, smiled again and joined them.

◆ ◆ ◆

Back in Florida the camp was cloaked in gloom. Several of the more sensitive feminine visitors had gone to their beds with fevers due to the there imagining noises, and, in whole, fluttering voices, to add their frightened maids about those noises. Most of the men stalked the beach, smoking hard and incessantly and talking big-game fishing. The doctor who had come by airplane from Palm Beach sat at the side of Theresa Jeffries' bed. He, too, was all the visitors, had not indulged in hysterics. He wished—did the doctor—that she would cry. Crying would be more natural. Women who were made widows by the short, sharp thrust of a Spanish dagger should cry. Theresa Jeffries did not frowned. He always did this, having learned that feminine clients invariably prefer to be considered seriously ill, or that she would be.

Theresa Jeffries had not spoken once of her husband and that, too, was unnatural.

Marcia Treadway paced the length of the veranda that lay across the front of the cottage she had chosen as her home at the spring. No one can, she decided, was so wholly and tragically bereft as was she. There was nothing left for her. Tony could not make the trip! commute and she must to be carried and even that he made to be done for her.

Marcia knew that many of the men had heard of the days of her flirtation with Ted Jeffries and that they had wondered with the been interest that arises from vicarious meeting of widow and widower had expected her perhaps to run away with Jeffries. Marcia smiled over that her self-control was shown by no edge of scorn. Well, she had been. Jeffries' affair with Marcia had not learned to know Ted, so she knew him.

If his wales had been silenced a few hours sooner Marcia would have had a chance to tell him and to believe in all her life. As it was, she would always be glad that her his reply to her frank offer to go to away with him. Jeffries had evaded clumsily with random remarks about a man's duty to his position, his duty to his wife and his duty to protect Marcia against herself.

◆ ◆ ◆

Dirty old he had been, Marcia knew now, and a weak one. For the first time she was sorry for Theresa Jeffries. Theresa must too must have learned long ago how to deal with such men.

Marcia thought then of the boy called Pablito and her heart ached. She did not want to think of the boy called Pablito. She thought, reminded her lips. "After all, he must have done something that made him run away!" She tried to shape this into an excuse for her own sin.

It was a horrible burden, this thing that she had put on her memory, in the palm of her soft, weak hand.

At first it had almost unnerved her to find that a frightened servant what had happened and hurried toward Jeffries' room declaring, "I never, I never did it!"

Marcia had followed, thinking only to tell him that she in some measure knew who did it. That far she had been driven by the thoughts of self by the shock. But just when she was on the point of crying, "I saw it all, Ted," Jeffries and hid when I heard the shuffle of feet. Pablito's head; he was short and thick-set and dark-haired—, just at this point Marcia remembered that if she said this she would be marked all the rest of her life by her husband.

How they were saying the boy called Pablito had killed Jeffries. The boy all the women liked, the boy who had such a good voice and such charming manners.

"I'm not going into evidence!" Marcia reminded herself, realizing the thought did not help her.

Suddenly she could not endure solitude another moment. Marcia descended the two steps and hurried down the beach toward the men who were talking with Jim Field.

CHAPTER XV

"The 'Silver Dart' has been found," Field announced as Marcia joined the group. "It was sighted by a Jarvier who's headed for Rio in his plane. He strolled—"

"Empty?" Marcia asked.

"Yes, I'm afraid so, perhaps for help. It was well below Cuba."

"Can Pablito swim?"

Field laughed. "Swim!" he echoed. "My God, can he swim! He's a fish. He was one of those dock rats, the sort you see coins thrown from you sail for Havana.

"Do you think he's in Havana? Will they look for him there?" Marcia asked feverishly. She could sit here no more. Thank heaven she had enough money on hand for him and care for him if he should arrive.

Field said, "He couldn't swim to Havana. The theory is that the boat got half way there and then ran out of gasoline. Someone else may have picked him up or he may have jumped overboard, seeing something bearing down on him. He wasn't a coward. He once licked Big Zeke, who had all the other servants afraid of him. They said Pablito took a lot of punishment in that fight. Zeke doesn't exactly follow the Queensberry rules. I saw him land one fellow a blow in the stomach that sent him 30 feet and afterward the man walked doubled over like a nut cracker for a week."

"Him," Marcia said, "why you you so frightfully certain Pablito killed Jeffries?" She could not help the break in her voice nor the hesitation between the words.

◆ ◆ ◆

One of the men strolled his cigar thoughtfully, the other looked out to sea. Field thought, "Steady, old girl! You're giving yourself away! He said more patiently and slowly than was usually his way, "I know he did, Marcia. His foster father is a man named Noyes, wanted for a murder years ago. Jeff saw Noyes on one of the small boys and recognized him. He thought Noyes recognized him, too. Noyes must have told Pablito about it and the boy obviously decided to seal Jeff's lips once and all."

I think you're working on very little," Marcia said sharply.

"My dear," Field answered irritatingly, "the whole thing's clear. We have the proof in Pablito's shoe which my own poor little girl recognized this morning. There's the boot too, that the boy knocked down an old man who tried to stop him—he'd like to kill the old chap—and his father's child described Pablito. It all ties up—not a doubt in the world."

"Perhaps it was Noyes who did it," Marcia persisted.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Little Benny's Note Book

THAWTS ON LIFE

1

Most men with no hair look part mining.

Though some feel distinguished, no doubt.

Some of x myself may see my own scalp.

Though it's a privilege I'd rather do without.

2

O take your troubles easy,
Look your worries in a cage,
Smile with care to spring yourself,
Unless you're worried about your age.

3

The nicest way of waking up
And starting the day with, cheer
Is to have a little doggie
Lick the end of your ear.

4

You half to be brite to write a whole book.
Even if it's half full of bunsness.
But just to write "punk" on strange margins
Is a sure sine of ignorant dumness.

5

Don't bother you loop and think before you act.
If you want to make life smoother
And not ruffer,
For when you're once pored too much sail on your cog
There's nothing to do but suffer.

RADIO PROGRAMS

THURSDAY E. S. T.	FRIDAY E. S. T.
4.00—Dedication Ceremonies of Stalks of William Jennings Bryan; Franklin D. Roosevelt—CHOT; CFRB	8.00—Frank Banta, Sam Herman, piano and xylophone—CHOT
4.45—Rex Cole Mountaineers, Hillbilly Songs and Sketch—CFRB	8.00—Organ Melodies—CFRB
5.30—Jim Hutter, News—CFRB	8.00—Madison Singers—WJR
5.30—Tom Waring's Children's Hour—WJR	8.00—Little Jack Little, songs and piano—WBEN
6.00—Singin' Sam, Barbasol Man—CFRB	8.00—Music Appreciation Hour, Walter Damrosch conducting —WEAF
6.00—Sally Malone—WLW	8.15—Will Osborne's Orchestra; Pedro De Cordoba, Friendly Philosopher—WABC
7.00—Sally Valley Orchestra; Sam Herman—CHOT	8.30—Tony Wons—CFRB
7.15—Easy Aces—CFRB	8.15—Eno Crime Clubbers — CHOT
7.30—Voice of America; Mary Eastman, soprano, Alex Gray Medalist, Symphony Orch. —WABC; 7am	8.30—Reception of the National Y.W.C.A. Mrs. D. Roosevelt speaker—CFRB
8.00—Captain Henry's Showboat; Tom Winniger; Lanny Ross; Gus Haenchen's Band — WEAF	8.15—U. S. Marine Band—CHOT
8.00—Nelson's Eddy—CFRB	8.30—U.S. Army Band—CFRB
8.30—Fred Waring's Orchestra—WABC; CKAC	8.00—Modern Hymns of Hollywood —WEAF
9.00—Paul Whiteman's Orchestra; Frank Munn, tenor; Deems Taylor—CFRB; CKAC	8.30—Lowe, Jim Rimler—CFRB
9.00—Jack Benny; Mary Livingstone; Don Bestor's Orchestra—WJR; WTAM	8.30—Music of Gershwin and Orchestra—WJW
9.30—Bell Telephone Program: Grace Moore, soprano; Frank Black's Orchestra—WEAF	7.00—Alfred Swenson, Walter O'Keefe; Bobby Dolen's Orchestra — WJR
10.00—News—CFRB	7.00—Jessica Dragonette; Romain Newman's Orchestra—CHOT
	7.15—Chat Asst—WJAG
	7.45—Babe Ruth Baseball Combination—WEAF
	8.00—Waltz Time, Frank Munn, tenor; Abe Lyman's Orchestra—WEAF; WTAM
	8.00—Leah Ray, vocalist; Phil Harris' Orchestra—WJZ
	8.15—Ruth Etting; Ted Husing and

RADIO TONIGHT

Hon. GEORGE S. HENRY

Prime Minister of Ontario

Lieut.-Col. the Hon. W. H. PRICE, K.C., Attorney General
Hon. CHAS. McCREA, Minister of Mines will speak at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, Thursday, May 3rd

BROADCAST FROM

CFRB . CKCL . CRCO . CKLW . CKPR . CFPL . CFCH . CKGB . CJKL
Toronto Toronto Ottawa Windsor Fort William London North Bay Timmins Kirkland Lake

8.00 to 9.30 p.m. Daylight Saving Time (7.00 to 8.30 Standard Time)

Johnny Green's Orchestra—WABC

8.30—Jack Whiting, master of ceremonies, Jeannie Lang; Jack Denny's Orchestra—CFRB

9.30—Jack Benny; Mary Livingstone; Don Bestor's Orchestra—WJW; WTAM

8.30—News Bulletin—CHOT
11.00—Derby Day Program: Graham McNamee will introduce celebrities—WJZ

Y. P. BRANCHES HAVE MEETING

Minto, May 3—The Y.P.S. met in the church on Friday evening with Mr. Lorne Bateman in charge of the programme assisted by members of St. Andrew's Y.P.S. Minto. A most interesting and enjoyable evening was spent. A vote of thanks was given St. Andrew's for their kindness and lunch was served by the ladies of Galen.

Messrs. Lorne and Harold White visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stone on Sunday.

Mr and Mrs. Kenneth Belcour have moved to Madoc to reside. We wish them good luck in their new home.

Miss Edna McMaster spent Monday with Mrs. E. Colden.

Mr. T. Hogle spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Reid and home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hewson visited Mrs. Hogle on Sunday.

TILLIE THE TOILER

By Russ Westover

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

TARZAN THE TERRIBLE

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

L.O.B.A. MEMBERS ATTEND FUNERAL

Bellevay—Quite a number of the L.O.B.A. ladies from this lodge attended the funeral of the late Mrs. R. Reid held in Shilling on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sutherland and the latter's father, Mr. Hobbin of Centenary, and Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Brandon had dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Embury Hough.

Mr. Sougard and son of Albion Hill, Belleville, have been spending the sat few days wrecking the building recently purchased from Mrs. R. Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spencer and daughter of Madoc spent Sunday afternoon with the latter's brother Mrs. Hubble.

The Women's Institute met at the home of the president, Mrs. R. Bird, Friday afternoon when the district president, Miss E. Ketcheson was expected to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hamilton called on Mr. G. Irvine and Mr. and Mrs. R. Hough on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Etta Huff, an esteemed resident of this locality passed away on Saturday last after several weeks illness. The funeral which was held on Monday afternoon at the home of her sister Mrs. Vivian of Albion Ave., Belleville was quite largely attended by friends from this vicinity.

Miss Vera Rose is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. C. Hagerman of Belleville.

Mr. Grenville Frederick has returned home after spending a few days with his sister Mrs. C. Phillips, of Belleville.

Mrs. R. O. Lott has returned home from the Belleville Hospital somewhat improved.

Mrs. W. Wilson called on Mrs. L. Ward on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. C. Ross spent Thursday last with Mrs. H. Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs Robert Hough had dinner with their daughter and family, D. Haggerty of West Huntingdon.

Mr. Aubrey Reid of Madoc Junction has been spending a week or so at the store.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Howes of Carmel and Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilson were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. R. Rose.

Mr. and Mrs. Embury Hough had dinner recently with Mr. and Mrs. C. Eggleton of Madoc Junction.

Mr. G. H. Rose and Mrs. W. Cadman were Wednesday evening callers on Mrs. R. Townsend.

A meeting of the cheese company was held at the factory on Friday night for the transaction of business for the coming season.

Mr. A. Lowery spent a few days last week with her sister Mrs. S. Rose.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Elliott and family spent Sunday evening with Mrs. R. Townsend.

The general discouragement with the farmers is the loss of their seeding and fall grain by the hard winter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Searls and Mr. and Mrs. McCoy were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Elliott on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kelly and Mrs. A. Lowery called on Mr. and Mrs. W. Kelly of Madoc on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Spencer from Prince Edward spent Sunday with the former's sister Miss B. Spencer.

Mr. G. Rose of Madoc spent a few days last week putting in his crop on the late R. Hough's.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilson and son of Sidney and Mr. and Mrs. F. Howes and daughter of Carmel were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Rose on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Kelly spent the week end with friends in Belleville.

CHEESE FACTORY BEGINS WORK

3rd Hillier—Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Benway and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Benway.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Lewis were at Picton on Saturday.

Mr. Stanley Thompson will be canning fowl again this week. This small factory at the farm of Mr. Danford Trumpour has been occupied by Mr. Thompson, canning fowl and veal now for a year with great success. They had a good market for the canned goods.

The Christ Church Sunday School has opened for the year with a good attendance each Sunday.

Mrs. Ada Crandell and Lorne of Hillier spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benway. Mrs. Benway is gaining slowly.

The boys are fishing for suckers these nights.

Clover Dale Cheese Factory started operation on Monday. Mr. Murray Parks is the maker. Mr. Ward the drawer for the third concession coming with a truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Leavens spent Sunday at Trenton with Mrs. Angus Kirk.

The play from Plainfield, given at Allandale on Friday evening was well attended.

BAYSIDE ITEMS OF INTEREST

Bayside—Mr. and Mrs. James Sandercock, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sandercock, Jean and Norman, were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Meyers'.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Saylor visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Saylor.

The many friends of Mrs. Geo. Clapp will be glad to know that she is improving from her operation at Kingston General Hospital.

Mr. D. Bonisteel of Thurlow spent the dinner hour Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. John Clapp.

Mrs. Goldsmith visited her sister Mrs W. Bonisteel on Sunday.

Miss Helen Jeffery spent saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jeffery.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rush, Miss Mary Rush visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rush of Springbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Hunt and baby Gordon were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Hunt, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Megginson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Chappelle at Campbellford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hinchcliffe, Mrs. John Hinchcliffe, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pike spent the tea hour Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Fair.

Mrs. Burleigh of Odessa has returned home after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Boulton and family.

FOURTH THURLOW WEEKLY NOTES

Fourth Thurlow, May 3— Mrs. Harry Walker has returned to her home after her recent operation in Belleville General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bradshaw took dinner one day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Carman Gibson, Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker of Picton called Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ray, Zion, were entertained at the tea hour Monday last, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bradshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foote were recent visitors in Oshawa.

Mrs. Gilbert Bonter accompanied by her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. Leslie, Salem, spent Sunday afternoon in Picton.

CHRISTIAN STREET INTERESTING NOTES

Christian Street, May 3— Mrs. Oscar Parks of Wellington Road spent Monday evening with Mrs. Harold Noxon.

Messrs. Harold Noxon, Oscar Parks and Harold Cross attended Lodge at Ameliasburg on Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Werden spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Calnan.

Mrs. Annie Taylor of Trenton is spending some time with her sister Mrs. James Noxon.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Parks of Wellington Road spent the tea hour on Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cross and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Burr and Ronald of Burr's spent Thursday evening with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Werden.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Roblin, Mrs. Harold Cross, Gertrude and Willet attended a supper party on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Lloyd of 4th concession of Sidney.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Calnan spent the tea hour on Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Marsh Branscombe of Picton.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Werden and family and Mr. Marcus Werden spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Ward Noxon, Consecon Street of Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cross spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Calnan.

Miss Bernice Cook is fit with the flu and unable to attend school.

Mrs. Ross Burr and family and family of Picton spent Sunday with his mother Mrs. James Noxon and Mrs. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sprague and children of Mountain View spent Sunday on Sunday with her mother Mrs. B. J. Cross.

PERSONAL NEWS OF ROSSMORE

Rossmore, May 3—Mr. and Mrs. Gerow of Belleville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. P. Belnap.

Mrs. E. Hubble of Havelock is visiting her sister Mrs. M. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Thompson have moved to their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Gerow and Mr. and Mrs. B. Gerow and Mrs. P. Belnap were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Reid's, Albury.

Mrs. Thomas Henderson is visiting her sister at the Bay for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Roote spent a day recently with their daughter, Mrs. Ivan Stevens, Belleville.

Mr. P. Dobson has secured a position at Consecon.

Mrs. Ben Weese was in Kingston on Sunday last visiting her husband who is very ill in the hospital there. Mr. Weese is confined to his bed with very little hope for improvement.

Miss G. Foster spent Friday last with friends at Belleville.

Mrs. W. Smith, Belleville is spending her holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Loasee has returned home after visiting friends in Napanee.

EATON'S for Service

VARIETY — You'll find all your favorite foods in an extensive range of nationally known and fancy lines — interesting, tempting foods to help make meal planning a pleasure. Eaton's for variety.

CONVENIENCE — You shop with ease — spacious aisles — everything within easy reach — packaged for quick selection. Parcels delivered to your car — by visit or phone. Eaton's for convenience.

QUALITY — Careful buying — painstaking tests and constant checking safeguard the quality of Eaton's. Eaton's name stands for value — a shop for fine foods. Eaton's for champion quality for the long run.

ECONOMY — Eaton's regular prices are never high — but long and frequent specials — economy-minded purchases and modern merchandising methods bring a thrifty saving to you. Eaton's for economy—always.

SATISFACTION — Eaton's the synonym in Canada of the famous guarantee "Goods Satisfactory or Money Refunded" — Eaton's service for satisfaction — the fullest sense of the word.

A Few Convincing Examples for this Week

• Eatonia CHOICE QUALITY
TOMATOES 4 No. 2 Squat Tins 29c | 12 Tins 85c

• A Delicious SUMMER CEREAL Famous for Flavor
GRAPENUT FLAKES 2 Pkgs. 21c

• Check Your Needs—For BEVERAGE or BAKING
FRY'S BREAKFAST COCOA ½ lb Tin 21c

• The Price Shouts Its Own Story of Economy
GOLD LAUNDRY SOAP 5 Bars 16c

• Skilfully Blended to Give Maximum Flavor for the Price
FAMILY BLEND TEA 1 lb. Pkg. 39c

• Freshly Baked for this Sale by GILCHRIST'S
RICH FRUIT CAKE lb. Piece 14c

• MAPLE LEAF Brand
PURE LARD 1 lb. Print 10c
• OTTADELLE delicious 16 oz. tin
MAPLE BUTTER 19c
• McCormick's DUPLEX
CREAMS A dainty embossed shortbread style biscuit of rich purity — popular sandwich variety — delicious when served in assorted flavors. 2 lbs. 29c
FLOOR WAX COVERWELL An economical wax that is easy to apply and gives a beautiful soft hand finish. ½ pt. Tin 19c
SPRING CLOTHES PINS Check your pin bag, here's a chance to 2 doz. replenish your supply. Strongly made, spring action. pkg. 10c
CLASSIC CLEANSER 2 pkgs. 9c
• Pioneer
Chick Scratch 25 lb. bag 75c
• Pioneer
LAYING MASH 25 lb. bag 75c

A Flavor Aid KEEN'S MUSTARD ½ lb. tin 49c
SILVO SILVER POLISH Tin 22c
SNAP BUTTERFLY POWDER 2 TINS 23c
SHERRIFF'S ORANGE MARMALADE 4 lb. tin 39c
EATON'S NEW MAYFAIR CEYLON TEA One cup to the pot is all that is needed — with the knowledge that it costs no more. Try it and you'll be delighted with the flavor is to a tea's satisfaction better. ½ lb. 39c
SUNGLO HEALTH MEAL Large 29c pkg.
LUX TOILET SOAP Cake 6c

There's a reputation for GOOD MEAT
Behind Every Purchase at EATON'S
SPECIALS For FRI. and SAT.
• Blue Br. Govt. Graded Beef
CHUCK or SHOULDER ROAST 10c
BLADE ROAST lb. 12c
ROUND Steak or Roast lb. 17c

Grade A LAMB
Legs lb. 22c | Loins lb. 17c | Fronts lb. 13c

• Maple Leaf Br. Smoked Shoulder
PICNICS Shank Off Cello. Wrapped lb. 17c
• Boneless and Rolled
Roast Veal lb. 12c
• Pure Pork
Sausage lb. 14c
Weiners lb. 14c
• Eatonia Breakfast
BACON Rind Off, lb. 34c | Rind On, lb. 30c

EXTRA SPECIAL—LARGE SIZE—SUNKIST NAVEL
ORANGES Regular 45c Doz. doz. 39c
PINEAPPLES Large Size each 21c
NO. 1 LEMONS doz. 21c Better Beliville Week
CHOICE RIPE BANANAS 3 lbs. 25c
EATON GROCETERIA "Where It Pays to Shop"
This is a Coupon Store

FRIDAY A COLEMAN STOVE SATURDAY 4 PC. BEDROOM SUITE $1.00 PURCHASE gives you 4 COUPONS AT WOODLEY'S MILLINERY

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED
Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 9 a.m. Close 9.30 p.m.

Friday is Bargain Day in our Big
6th Anniversary Sale

Seconds in Men's Fine Shirts
A rare value at this low price, even though marked seconds—men's fine quality shirts, tailored on good fitting lines that men like. A wide selection of new stripes, in many color combinations, or the plain white shirt for sport. Collar attached or separate collar styles—in various sleeve lengths. With a size range from 14 to 17, you'll find ample variety to make your selections from—but be sure that you come at 9 sharp. Each ..... 79c —men's store main

Men's Running Shoes—Size 8 Only
Canadian made, with heavy duck tops and strong resilient rubber soles — in size 8 only, hence the low selling price! Ankle protector style, the kind most men prefer. At this price you'll have to shop promptly—the quantity won't last long. Pair ..... 88c —men's store rear

Clearing Lines of Rayon Lingerie
Regularly 89c, 1.00 and 1.50
• Panties
• Bloomers
• Teddies
• Pyjamas
• Gowns
• Slips
Lovely quality garments at such a great reduction in former price. Fine quality rayon, in a host of pretty lace trimmed or tailored styles—a wonderful assortment of pretty pastel shades. Sizes in the lot, small, medium and large. Note the former pricing—the selection one has to choose from—and at this bargain pricing, you'll probably select enough to last for some time.
Bargain Each or Set 69c

Kiddies' Pantie Dresses
Regularly 29c
The very thing for summer wear, of cotton prints, in a good variety of patterns and colors, trimmed with plain colored cotton broadcloth. These are in sizes for 2-4-6 year olds, and are stamped to embroider. Each ..... 23c —main floor right

3 Panel Buffet Mirror
Regularly 1.98 each
Three panel style mirror, with frame in gilt finish. Splendid size, and featured at a special low price for Friday morning. Each ..... 1.29 —main floor rear

5 lb. Pail Floor Wax 69c
A good grade wax, put up in 5 lb. pails—a pail should last you for some time — and floors are easier to keep clean when waxed. Buy Friday!

Colored Woven Check
Terry Towels
Size 18 x 36 inches — Limited Quantity!
A limited quantity at this low selling price, a big inducement for thrifty shoppers to shop early! Good weight and quality, the kind that thickens with everyday use. In gay colored woven checks—the size 18 x 36 inches—excellent considering the low price. Special, each 15c

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

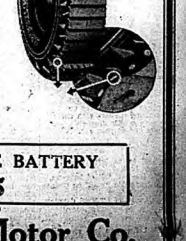
DAIRY CATTLE FEED ON ROAD

Farmers Let Them Run Until Pasture Fields Are Ready

Hundreds of thin cattle are grazing on the thinner grass along the highway beside the main roads and highways of Hastings County, rakish looking cattle enough exposure to the speeding traffic, and bringing with their hairs to the already surfeed heads of their owners who have no other choice but to turn the animals out to forage for themselves. With pastures throughout the district burned and dried up, and feed lower in quantity than ever before on record, only the remaining snatches of grass along the roads remain to tide the rural owners over.

A short trip through the northern section of the county on Wednesday by a reporter of the Daily Ontario Intelligencer disclosed more than eight complete herds on the highway between this city and Madoc. Each herd contained from eight to fifteen animals. In their search for food they deployed across and on the well travelled road. Munching greedily and hungrily, they were oblivious to the traffic and gave it right of way. Four times the car was forced to a complete halt in order to allow the animals to cross the road to some other tempting bit of grass.

On the section roads through the townships the same manner of grazing was observed. Farmers have let the pasture gets down and allowed them to roam. At milking time the animals straggled in, still munching as they went.



The farmer has no alternative. He shakes his puzzled head to find some way out of the dilemma. Opening the pasture gate seems the only way out of the situation, until he has had a chance to grow in the meadow.

Barn Feeding Since November

"He's up against it just now," stated Mr. Leonard Reid, prominent farmer of the 1st. of Sidney, Madoc. "He's fed to feed his stock since early in November when the first snow came. Since then it has been a continuous grind keeping ahead of the demand on the stored feed. Our own supply will only last for fifteen more days or so. Then we'll have to buy some. All this has gone for is an early growth of grass."

But, while the farmer anxiously watches each speeding car as it passes along the highway where his cows are grazing, the motorist who has entered into the matter with a real friendly good grace and tolerance for highway rights. He has learned to respect the conditions which now faces the rural resident and his speed has been governed accordingly. The fact also that a heavy cow could do much damage to his machine on the broadside with sufficient force has also impelled him lately to step with lighter tread upon the accelerator.

YOU'LL BE SAFER ON THE TIRE THAT NEVER WEARS SMOOTH

Anyone can see that this tire with TWO TREADS has far greater resistance to puncture and blow-out — is SAFER than any conventional single type of tire.
Because of the Air Cooling holes which air cushion the tread, it is easier riding — steers easier, too.
And if you have an eye for economy, the SEIBERLING DUO TREAD AIR COOLED TIRE COSTS LESS PER MILE AND DELIVERS ANTI SKID MILES AT ABOUT HALF THE COST OF ANY OTHER TIRE.

SPECIAL 13-PLATE BATTERY $5.45

St. Charles Motor Co.
343 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE PHONE 232

Painful Piles

Go Quick—No Cutting—No Salves

If you think an operation is always the only way to escape the misery of torturing Piles, it's because you haven't heard of Hemoloid the harmless internal medicine discovered by a western physician.

After years of study Dr. J. D. Leonhardt was convinced that the cause of Piles was inflammation, circulation of blood in the lower bowel — the hemorrhoidal veins filled with stagnant blood—and that the right way to get freedom from Pile agony was to remove the cause with an internal medicine. Immediately the doctor set to work to find the remedy. He succeeded and called his prescription HEM-ROID.

Pile sufferers everywhere are benefitting to Dr. Leonhardt's discovery, so why double or delay longer when J. B. McKeown and all druggists say, "No matter what kind of Piles you have, one bottle of HEM-ROID must relieve you or you the safe clean way to get rid of your pile misery or money back."

PROBABILITIES
Fair to moderate winds; Sat. mostly fair. Moderate temperatures (Temperatures for Toronto, Hamilton, Kingston and Ottawa).

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES

	Max.	Min.
Today	80	47
Year ago	56	32

Weather — Sunny

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1934

PREMIER HINTS AT LATE JUNE ELECTIONS

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Zaragoza, Spain, May 4 (AP)—Twelve bombs were exploded on the outskirts of Zaragoza today, destroying electric conduits.

Labor agitators were blamed by authorities.

Three youths were arrested carrying the explosives concealed in their clothing.

Atlanta, May 4 (CP)—Money is getting easier, for certain heirs to displaced fortunes and plus as the German authorities in the wind-down and threats of children here. When Dr. Hardock Kuyen complained a year ago of the meagre salary of Billy Sowell, 12-year-old, in the third grade, the penny so recovered at his clinic is two days.

Miami, May 4 (CP)—Because of a smile he found pasted in his father's desk years ago, Royer Bishop, statistician at the race course the new deal when he addressed students at the University of Miami. The motto, Bishop said, was as follows: "Laugh, and the world will laugh with you; weep, and you weep alone." Bishop caught if he had not opened his mouth would be father of other subjects than the new deal.

Taylorville, Ill., May 4 (CP)—Service pays. Dr. Campbell A. Stokes, 75, of Edinburgh, who had the reputation of never refusing a call day or night, left an estate valued at $100,000. When he was a medical student the physician was at the bedside of a five-year-old boy, whose arm had been broken.

Quebec, May 4 (CP)—Hon. J. E. Perrault, provincial Minister of Mines, will be guest of honor at Timmins, Ont., May 13, on the occasion of the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the discovery of the mines in Ontario, it was learned here today.

Montreal, May 4 (CP)—Dr. W. Hamilton Fyfe, Principal of Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario, will be the principal speaker when the Eastern Canada region of Teach holds its annual birthday festival today. Delegates from many cities in Eastern Canada and the United States are expected to attend.

Pittsburgh, May 4 (CP)—Pittsburgh's mayor, William N. McNair, has proved his mettle in quelling of a rough-rider.

After visiting Federal Police Court he found himself without transportation. Stepping into the street he hailed a motor car driven by Kirby bounding along astride a motorcycle.

The mayor hopped into the side car and Kirby curtly said: "City Hall, gentleman."

Winfield, Kas., May 4 (CP)—Going through an old trunk, Mrs. F. L. Mitchler found a dress pattern she purchased 25 years ago and had never used.

She decided to make a dress by it.

New neighbors are asking if the pattern became "it's stylish."

Haddonfield, N. J., May 4 (CP) —Pants is pants and skirts is skirts in Haddonfield, New Jersey, where the community fathers have passed an ordinance to embarrass the fair sex.

A jail sentence of 90 days or a $25 fine is provided for the male who wears a skirt on the female who dons trousers.

Memphis, Tenn., May 4 (CP)—The problem of farm rentals originated by bank in the Garden of Eden, says W. M. Landess, Shelby County agricultural agent, commenting on the prohibited conference of representatives of United States' cotton tenants. "Adam and Eve were put out of the Garden as tenants because the weedin' adder by the rental farms," Landess says, "and there has been a tenant problem ever since."

Omaha, Neb., May 4 (CP)—An entry in the log book of Company D, Omaha Fire Department reads:

"Thursday, May 3.—Call answered to home of J. A. Stoll, Robin Hood Apartments, and being rushed back to local; ambulance performed and bandage applied. Robin has just even foraging for bushes."

Later, says Captain Bowen, is not an incident in the life of a fireman.

Premier Asks Statement Regarding Liberal Fund Cheers Tory Convention

Price Charges Opposition Sides With Reds For Votes' Sake

NORTH YORK CASE

Report of Singing of "Internationale" Is Quoted

Toronto, May 4. — Accusing the Liberal party of attempting to join up the Communist element on his side, Attorney - General Price, speaking before the Conservative banquet in the Royal York last night, backed up his charge by quoting from a newspaper report which described how the chairman of a Liberal meeting in North York objected to the singing of the red International and told the radicals in the audience: "That's fine, sing all the revolting songs and we'll join in yours."

"Here is an amazing thing," exclaimed Col. Price. "With the C.C.F. is backing away as best it can from the red element, here we have the Liberals moving towards them. I have here a clipping from the great Toronto Star, dated May 1. It tells of a meeting in North York under the auspices of the Dufferin and Bathurst Liberal Association, in the interests of Morgan Baker, Liberal candidate in that riding. D. W. Lang, Liberal candidate in South York, and president of the Toronto Men's Liberal Association, and J. C. M. German, Liberal supporter, were both present. The meeting was presided over by R. Dean Wills.

"Mr. Wills said he said the attorney-general, reading from the clipping.

After Mr. Lang and W. A. Edwards, deputy reeve of Mimico, had spoken, members of the audience asked Gus Moral, accordian player, and Jim Internationale, and he was unable to oblige, and shout a dozen persons responded to sing a song it was fine." said the chairman. R. Dean Wills, when the singing was over. "John is not with us now but we will join in yours."

"I have never heard the Internationale before," said J. C. M. German, K.C. "It sounds like a rousing song, like the Marseillaise."

(Continued on page two)

WEDDING WILL HURRY COURT

Court Sits Earlier To Allow Witness To Shop Before Wedding

WINDSOR, Ont., May 4.—(CP).—Because Miss Marie Lafromboise of Amherstburg, is to be married on Saturday, Windsor police court opened at 10 o'clock this morning, instead of the usual hour 11 o'clock.

Miss Lafromboise, a book-keeper for an Amherstburg firm which charged a Windsor employee with theft of money, did not finished her evidence when court adjourned last night. When told she must return on Friday she said "I hardly see how I can".

Pressed for reasons she said she was to be married on Saturday but the court reminded her that was another day and that Friday was situation a bit by declaring she had to return to work on Friday so the court will sit an hour earlier than usual as an aid to cupid.

MAY GET ACCLAMATION

HAMILTON, May 4.—(CP)—Tonight East Hamilton Conservatives will assemble to choose a candidate to contest the seat in the coming provincial election. All signs point to the endorsation at the sitting Conservative member, William Morrison. Thus far, no report of any opposition to his candidature has arisen.

Red Tape Called Bane of Church Board is Blamed as "Mediaeval"

Toronto, May 4 (CP)—Annual sessions of the Presbyterian Synod of Toronto and Kingston were ended today with the body on record as recommending the abolition of the General Board of Administration. The Synod passed a resolution at its closing session yesterday accordingly sending to the General Assembly that the Board be abolished.

Rev. J. R. Skene received a communication from the Board asking no. Ittigations be started without the Board's consent. He said the communication was "dictatorial."

Dr. D. T. L. McKerroll declared the church would never thrive until authority was decentralized.

When oral objections were made to Rev. Mr. Skene's motion recommending abolition of the Board, Rev. Mr. Skene declared he would not withdraw it as the church had been suffering for years from "red tape" and the "medieval intelligence of the Board of Administration."

The increasing consumption of alcoholic beverages came in for criticism and the Ontario government's beer and wine bill was protested in another resolution.

THREE HELD AFTER RIOTS AT KITCHENER

Tony Kebsi Taken To Hospital With Brain Concussion

TAXICAB PELTED

Many Injured In Riot, Police Included In Casualties

Kitchener, Ont., May 4 (CP)—A riot which broke out at the plant of the Lang Tanning Company this morning sent one man to the hospital with concussion of the brain and resulted in injuries to many others, among them being several police constables.

Kebsi, a striker, is the wounded man. He was struck over the head by a worker who used his lunch pail with telling effect after he is alleged to have been stabbed by Kebsi.

A picketer who had driven to work in the plant put up a bold front which baffled the strikers. Finding his car ringed about with strikers, he seized a crank from under the front seat, and brandishing the weapon, he stepped out of his car to do battle. The strikers withdrew.

The taxicab in which Kebsi was removed to the police station was bombarded with rocks as it pulled away. Three windows were smashed.

Rockery Disappears

A man living across the road from the factory is bemoaning the disappearance of a two foot rockery upon which he had spent some time. Yesterday, in the morning's battle, the rocks were strewn all over the neighborhood.

Police say charges will be laid as a result of today's disorders.

The latter is believed to have a fractured wrist. Also P.C. Howells, one of the seven policemen on the scene, suffered a fractured leg in a shower of rocks which broke down on the officers. P.C. Schlupp escaped with particularly large boulder with his hip, while one of the hard hurling navvy stables Eddie Byrne and Bill Ferguson. Byrne was struck on the head by a heavy rock while Ferguson got his head in the way of a coffee mug which he dared the Globe and other "trad-

(Continued on page two)

RADIO-OPERATED TYPEWRITER

A radio-typewriter capable of sending and receiving 200 words a minute is demonstrated at the convention of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association in New York by its inventor, W. G. H. Finch (nearest camera) It already is being used for news transmission to newspapers.

Winning Numbers

Have you any of these numbers? Today's drawing of Thursday's clearing house by Alderman W. A. Woodley named the following 31 winners:

Grand Prize—P-15699.
Thirty consolation prizes:

C-5433
D-8045
E-12447
E-25314
D-12212
F-1183
G-40033
E-41222
C-36209
D-15499
G-378
A-30588
F-29365
H-0071
B-6402
D-21064
H-2752
G-4807?5
F-26749
A-15390
H-530
A-19027?
F-21614
A-7469
B-15443?
A-40934
F-19655
C-27731
F-24104
A-19556

MRS. G. O. TICE PASSES AWAY

Wife of Mayor Suffers Relapse After Slow Recovery

The heartiest sympathy of the citizens of Belleville goes out today to their chief magistrate, Mayor George O. Tice and the members of the family in the bereavement which has come to them in the passing from this life of Mrs. Tice, His Worship's most estimable wife. Friends of Mrs. Tice, and their number is indeed, large, have followed with interest of hope for recovery the progress of the illness which confined her to the Belleville General Hospital for the past four weeks and it was with sincere regret that they learned today of her sudden death which occurred at the hospital late Thursday night.

The late daughter of Mrs. Tice, the City of Belleville has lost a good citizen; one who took an interest in the advancement of the city; in charitable work; church life; and fraternal society activities. She was a woman of most pleasing personality, making friends easily and retaining the friendships she formed. Her wife will be truly missed.

The late Mrs. Tice was born in Hastings county near Stirling. Her maiden name was Margaryt Jane McCaughen, her parents being the late John and Sarah McCaughen. For a number of years she resided with her husband in Western Canada, but for the past fifteen years has resided in Belleville. She is one time she resided in Brighton and had many friends in that village and district.

In religion Mrs. Tice was a Presbyterian being a valued member of St. Andrew's Church and in the work of the congregation she took much interest in the Missionary Society of which she was a member. The work of the Y.M.C.A. also received her support and she was a worker in the Woman's Auxiliary to that institution. The sick always received her sincere sympathy and the committee in charge of obtaining funds to be used by the auxiliary in sending flowers to them was given her generous support. In fraternal organizations she was a member of Belleville Chapter No. 55 Eastern Star and the White Shrine of Belleville.

Mrs. Tice is survived by her husband, one son Claude D. Tice, city editor of the Ontario Intelligencer; two brothers, John and James McCaughen of Brighton; one sister, Mrs. James Kemp of Brighton and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Jason S. Tice of Belleville. They shall mourn her loss deeply but their sorrow the warm sympathy of friends is extended to them.

ALDERMAN WEARS ARMOR

Ramsgate, England, May 4 (CP Cable)—A Saxon King wearing a winged steel helmet and carrying a heavy sword ruminated today on his abrupt dismissal by a group of civilian councillors.

He was Councillor A. B. Kemp, who clanked into the council chamber in great state last night, bringing a fit-out of medieval armor. He offered apologies to the mayor, saying he was attending a pageant in the town's jubilee pageant and had had no time to change after a rehearsal.

The mayor remarked, "I appreciate your enthusiasm for the pageant but I must ask you to withdraw and resume ordinary attire before returning."

The Saxon King meekly gathered up his regal accoutrements and departed.

SKUNKS INVADE TOWN

Sudbury, Ont., May 4 (CP)—According to a dispatch received here today from Little Current on the Manitoulin Island, a contingent of skunks invaded the town early yesterday morning. The air was permeated with their pungent odor until far into the day." The report adds. "All parts of the town seem to have suffered alike so that the visitors cannot be accused of being partial."

Old-Fashioned Summer Ahead

Dr. Ackerill Predicts On Year's Hottest Day

A steadily mounting mercury today climbed to the highest point of the season, reaching a mark of 85 above shortly before noon, and the humidity which accompanied its upward surge during the afternoon to set a new high May mark. The 24-hour record was shared from the pavements and residents strolled in the cool shade scattered over their arms. Dr. D. H. Ackerill, M.C., took time out to predict on "old-fashioned" summers.

"We're due for one, and this season we'll probably get it. So will you," he said. "It will be a beautiful weather and there'll be a big baseball on Saturday but we had an old-fashioned winter. It was a beauty."

Right now all that the farmers need to keep them happy, report all set on rural fronts, is a good rousing rain storm to soak up the drenched land that has been plowed.

FIRE LOSSES INCREASE

TORONTO, May 4.—(CP)—Fire losses in Canada during the week ended May 2, 1934, are estimated by the Monetary Times at $514,000 as compared with $185,825 during the preceding week and with $281,500 during the corresponding week of last year.

Longer Conscript Term Rouses French Public General Wegand Blamed

Longer Military Service Only Way To Meet Birthrate Drop

WEGAND'S STAND

Fifteen Month Term of Service Is Advocated

(By Stuart Mosmer, Associated Press Staff Writer)

Paris, May 4 (AP)—A roar of protest resounded throughout France today against the general staff's plan to lengthen the military service of conscripts.

General Maxime Wegand, Chief of staff, was blamed by the Socialists for permitting France to drift into a position where long service seems the only method by which to compensate for the low war-time birth rate.

Under a system devised by former Premier Edouard Daladier, arrangements were made to maintain the effective without increasing the length of service. This was approved by the Chamber of Deputies, but stalled in the Senate.

The system was revived. Socialists charged today, by the opposition of General Wegand and the general staff—so Wegand, they said, the French army is at its weakest, just when Chancellor Adolf Hitler's German forces are growing strong.

15 Months' Service

The general staff now is urging increasing the compulsory service of one year to 15 months, contemplating further extension if Germany continues strengthening her military.

The Daladier plan to keep conscript forces at a minimum of 500,000 men during the critical period between 1935 and 1939 was to retard the effect of the low birth rate crufts begin their soldiering that they might be called before the colors in the conscript "classes" of the war generations.

It is in this four-year period that the comparatively few born between 1914 and 1918 will come of military age.

The advocates of the general staff's plan, accused of blocking the Daladier program, assert that the average, normal conscript class of 250,000 a year will be called in 1937.

"Militarists" led by Andree Tardieu, Minister of State without portfolio, the Socialists claim, are exerting the utmost pressure upon Premier Doumergue who they say has not yet abandoned the idea of increasing the service.

Relief Work Ceases May 15?

If city council adopts a recommendation passed at the regular committee meeting of council held last evening, all relief work will be cancelled in the city after May 15. After that date any families whom the relief office feels are in need of relief orders will be handled with relief vouchers.

The recommendation to be presented city council on Monday evening next reads:

"That in accordance with the request of the Relief Committee passed on May 1st, from and after May 15, no more men be called for relief work after that date are allowed to finish their shift. After that date, any families whom the relief office deems to be genuine relief cases will be handled with relief vouchers."

The committee meeting was one of the briefest of the present season.

"Hot Dog" Creator is Dead at 70 First "Dog" Sold in N.Y. in 1900

New York, May 4 (AP)—Harry Mozely Stevens, who created the North American hot dog and built a fortune on it, is dead at 78.

The English-born caterer to the high-hatting crowd at millions of sport fans succumbed to arteriosclerosis at his home here yesterday after a long illness.

Starting in a small baseball park at Niles, O., Stevens lived to see his business develop until the farflung Stevens' concessions covered every major league ball park, many of the largest race tracks, Old Madison Square Garden and the new Grand Central Palace.

Stevens sold the first hot dog (so named by the late Tod Dorgan, sports cartoonist) at the Polo Grounds in 1900. Sausages had been sold in rolls before that, but it was the hot sausage in the hot roll with mustard or pickle was his own idea. The new delicacy met with immediate acclaim from hungry sports followers and quickly developed into a sporting institution.

Almost as well known here were his double-jointed peanuts. Harry Payne Whitney once defined Stevens as the man "who parlayed a bag of peanuts into a million dollars."

Longer Longer Canadian Wegand

Longer Military Service Only Way To Meet Birthrate Drop

WEGAND'S STAND

Fifteen Month Term of Service Is Advocated

(By Stuart Mosmer, Associated Press Staff Writer)

Paris, May 4 (AP)—A roar of protest resounded throughout France today against the general staff's plan to lengthen the military service of conscripts.

General Maxime Wegand, Chief of staff, was blamed by the Socialists for permitting France to drift into a position where long service seems the only method by which to compensate for the low war-time birth rate.

Under a system devised by former Premier Edouard Daladier, arrangements were made to maintain the effective without increasing the length of service. This was approved by the Chamber of Deputies, but stalled in the Senate.

The system was revived. Socialists charged today, by the opposition of General Wegand and the general staff—so Wegand, they said, the French army is at its weakest, just when Chancellor Adolf Hitler's German forces are growing strong.

15 Months' Service

The general staff now is urging increasing the compulsory service of one year to 15 months, contemplating further extension if Germany continues strengthening her military.

The Daladier plan to keep conscript forces at a minimum of 500,000 men during the critical period between 1935 and 1939 was to retard the effect of the low birth rate crufts begin their soldiering that they might be called before the colors in the conscript "classes" of the war generations.

It is in this four-year period that the comparatively few born between 1914 and 1918 will come of military age.

The advocates of the general staff's plan, accused of blocking the Daladier program, assert that the average, normal conscript class of 250,000 a year will be called in 1937.

"Militarists" led by Andree Tardieu, Minister of State without portfolio, the Socialists claim, are exerting the utmost pressure upon Premier Doumergue who they say has not yet abandoned the idea of increasing the service.

TWO VICTIMS OF GAS FUMES

Man Dead, Roommate Unconscious From Open Gas Jet

Toronto, May 4 (CP) — Peter Cunningham, 76, is dead and J. Kennelle, 61, is unconscious from effects of gas poisoning at a rooming house today. The men, tenants on the third floor of the house, were found by the landlord. Fearing the fumes of gas, the landlord found Cunningham dead on the bed and Kennelle on the floor. A gas jet on a small stove was open and the room filled with death fumes.

FOREST FIRES KILL TWO

Doughton, N.C., May 4—(AP)—Two persons were believed to have perished and thirteen others had been destroyed by forest fires which continued today after swept through approximately 200,000 acres of timber land in northwestern North Carolina.

Local Weather Like Miami's

Mr. G. M. James pointed out today for the benefit of those who read his recent articles in this paper that "our local weather for the past few months a temperature around 75 to 80 degrees and he might be almost an exact duplication of what we enjoyed at Miami, Florida, all last winter."

PREPARATION BEGUN HERE FOR ELECTION

Mr. B. C. Donnan, K.C., Is Chosen As Clerk of the Board

LIST REVISION

In Belleville Lists Will Be Compiled by Enumerators

Although the date of the election is not yet announced, instructions from Chief Election Officer, His Honor Judge Deroche called his attention to the fact at a preliminary meeting yesterday afternoon. The board consists of, His Honor Judge Deroche, chairman; the Local Registrar of the Supreme Court, John Kerr; Sheriff George Stokes; the Clerk of the Peace, B. C. Donnan, K.C; and the Lcss Master, W. C. Mikel. Mr. Donnan was chosen clerk of the board.

In Belleville the Voters' List will be compiled by enumerators who will work a house to house census. Outside Belleville the Municipal list, parts one and three as certified by the Judge for 1933 will be used subject to revision.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, May 4 (CP)—Showers have occurred in Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Northern Ontario and the Maritime provinces. Fair, warm weather has prevailed in Southern Ontario and Quebec.

Northern Ontario —Unsettled today and Saturday with showers or thunderstorms.

Lake Erie—Fresh easterly winds; partly cloudy, with a few scattered showers; cooler at the Soo.

ASSAYS 8ST PER TON

HELENA, Mont., May 4.—(AP)—Montana gold investigators eagerly scanned assay reports today that showed a value per ton of $82.16 a ton in samples submitted from a vein discovered in the property of the Montana Gold Mining Co., at Marysville.

The vein approaches in value those discovered in the Bonanza days of Montana's golden history.

Samples were taken from the vein about six feet below the level from which ore previously assayed showed values of $17.20 a ton.

Coming Events

EUCHRE PARTY AT ST. George's Sunday School, Station Street. At end of third Belleville Boy Scout troop, summer camp at Massassaga Point, Lake Ontario, at 8 o'clock. Good prizes. Refreshments. m4-1i.

RUMMAGE SALE Y.M.C.A. Saturday night, May 5th, 7 o'clock. m4-1i.

BOXING AT CITY HALL FRIDAY May 4, at 8 p.m. Prices 50c. Admission 50 and 35c. including tax. m3-3i

ALBERT COLLEGE ORATORICAL contest, on college, Friday, May 4, 8 p.m. Subject: "Youth Movements in Canada." Admission free. m3-3i

DANCE IN ORANGE HALL, SHANnonville, Friday, May 4, under Shannonville Baseball Club. Good music. Refreshments. Admission 25c. m2-2i.

FOLLOW THE CROWD TO THE Moose Saturday night, dance, Saturday, May 5th. Music by the Commodores. Ladies door prize. Admission 25c.

ARMY AND NAVY VETERANS straight euchre this evening at 8:30 p.m. sharp, in Memorial Hall. Good prizes. Admission 25c.

City and District News

LOCAL ROTARIANS VISIT COBOURG

The second annual intercity Rotary ladies' night was held at Cobourg last night sponsored by Rotarians from Cobourg, Port Hope, Trenton, Belleville and Campbellford, joined by special invitation by Whitby and Oshawa clubs. The intercity committee in charge of proceedings comprised Ken Hodgert, Port Hope, Chairman; N. Alex. MacColl, Campbellford, Secretary; and Harold Staples, Cobourg, Treasurer. The banquet Chairman was Dr. Frank P. Lloyd, President of Cobourg Rotary, Sandy Burrows, Belleville, was song leader, and Leo Riggs, Belleville pianist. The program was featured by short speeches from Tom Ross, Bowmanville; W. Bissett, Port Hope; Charlie Foster, Trenton; Ed. Berstein, Belleville; Clarence Williams, Campbellford; Dr. George Stevenson, Whitby; and Cecil Cannon, Oshawa. Greetings from Dr. Grant Bird, Governor of the Twenty-seventh District, Rotary International, were a feature. A program followed the banquet in St. Peter's Concert Hall, with Bob Graham, Past President of Belleville Rotary Club as Chairman. Cobourg Dramatic Club put on a one-act play, "The Deceivers" directed by Mrs. Mary Lloyd. Belleville, Trenton and Bowmanville Rotary Clubs each made contributions to an intercity program, and the proceedings were concluded with dancing in the gymnasium, with Snell's orchestra, Oshawa, supplying the music.

INJURES KNEE TRIMMING BUSH

Trimming a rosebush last night, Mr. George Watkin, Cedar Street, cut his knee with the knife he was using, inflicting a wound which required several stitches to close.

O. S. D. DORMITORIES OPENING SHORTLY

Whether or not the Hon Geo. S. Henry, Minister of Education, will be an honored guest in this city on the occasion of the formal opening of the new dormitory buildings at the Ontario School for the Deaf tentatively set for May 15, is not known as yet by Mr. H. B. Fetterly, principal of the school. Invitation to take part in the official ceremonies had been sent to the Premier. No answer has yet been received or date announced by him.

At present 340 children are in attendance at the school.

PAIR OF LOONS CIRCLE IN BAY

A pair of loons circled the bay last evening sending their eerie call across the smooth waters, and presenting a noisome entertainment for the many mudcat fishermen who angled patiently from the dock. Two tame hell-divers, believed to be the same ones who took up location there last summer, have returned to the bay just off the waterworks pumphouse and are again busy fishing for perch.

REMODEL OFFICES IN CITY BUILDING

City Engineer Chas. A. Mott this week had the distinction of filling out a building alteration permit for work to be completed in one of the City Hall departmental offices allied to his own. Work is now being carried on speedily in the alteration of the office of the city treasurer, tax collector and the waterworks department. Contract price was announced at $800.00.

Pop-Pop Boats
The Latest Novelty
19c
See Window
McKeown's
DRUG STORE

Tip Top Tailors
Madoc Agency
McGhee and McDonald
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
a3-1m

Sherwin-Williams
Family Gloss Paint
99c Quart
OSTROM'S Drug Store
m1-5t

I.D.A. DRUG SALE
ENDS SATURDAY
Coupons with every purchase at your
I. D. A. DRUG STORES

FIND CROWBAR IN OPENED GARAGE

Major W. Holloway, Donald St., stated today that the night before last his garage was broken into and the crowbar with which the intrusion was effected was found within. The break-in has been reported to the police.

APRIL OF 1934 A VERY DRY ONE

The past month of April was a dry one, with an average of only 1.17 inches of rain, but during the month a total of one inch of snow was recorded in the district.

April 1933 set a record with 3.36 inches of rain, although only one-tenth of an inch of snow was officially registered.

PORT ACTIVITIES ON THE INCREASE

Loaded with gasoline for the British American storage tanks here, an oil boat of that line whistled into the local port last evening. Working throughout the night, the crew of the tanker discharged her cargo, following which she crept out at dawn today.

LAWN SPRINKLERS LITTLE USED YET

Although the "open season" for lawn hose service has been in effect in the city since May 1st, so far little actual use of the hose is reported by the local waterworks department. During the period between May 1st and October 1st, consumers are reminded that the hours for use are between 7.00 a.m. and 9 a.m. Evening hours are between 5.30 p.m. and 8.00.

RUBBISH BLAZE DAMPED BY DEPT.

Firemen were given a run just before eight-thirty o'clock on Thursday evening to a rubbish fire on the corner of Albert and Bridge Streets. Neighbors, it was reported, had complained of the smoke and flying sparks.

TOURIST YEAR IS FORESEEN

It will be a good year for tourists, reports the local Chamber of Commerce tourist bureau. Predictions of the local Chamber are based upon the amount of correspondence that has been received so far this season from all parts of the United States requesting information regarding touring and camping facilities in the northern section of this district. Queries during the past week have shown a decided increase in volume. Already it is noted that the number of cars bearing foreign license plates have become more numerous on city streets.

Homer A. Townsend Accepts New Post

Homer A. Townsend, B.S.A., former supply teacher of this city has been engaged by the Picton Collegiate and Vocational Institute to fill the vacancy created by the death of Mr. E. H. Penrose.

LET'S GO SWIMMING

Bathers could swim in the Bay of Quinte today and enjoy it. Noon readings taken today showed a temperature of just 50. Average summer temperature is 60.

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. WALTER FERGUSON

The funeral of the late Mrs. Walter Ferguson took place Thursday afternoon from the funeral home of Tickell and Browne, Church Street, to Foxboro United Church where service was conducted by the Rev. J. S. McMullen. Many friends of the deceased and her family were in attendance. During the service a solo in keeping with the solemn occasion was rendered by Mr. S. C. Gay. Th bearers were Messrs. B. Hamilton, M. Wickett, R. A. Simmons and R. Morton.

Interment was made in Foxboro cemetery.

MRS. THOS. CUSHING

Many friends learned yesterday with much regret of the death of Mrs. Thos. Cushing, wife of Alderman Thomas Cushing, which occurred Thursday at the family residence, 28 Alexander Street.

The late Mrs. Cushing was a woman of most estimable qualities, being a devoted wife and loving mother. For some years she had been in failing health. She was a devout member of St. Michael's Church and prior to her illness took an active interest in the work of the parish. Mrs. Cushing was born in Toronto, being the daughter of the late Dennis and Johanna Kanaen. For the past thirty years she had resided in Belleville.

Surviving to mourn her passing besides the husband are two sons, Thos. P. Cushing of the Canadian National Railways, Montreal, and Frank G. Cushing, barrister, Ottawa; one daughter, Mrs. Austin Robertson at home; one grandson, Francis Robertson at home; three sister, Mrs. Albert Richey, Rockaway, N.Y.; Mrs. F. J. McGuane and Miss Johanna Kanaen, both of Toronto.

To Alderman Cushing, his family and the sisters of the late Mrs. Cushing the sincere sympathy of many friends will be extended.

MRS. ROBERT A. HALL

The death occurred today (Friday) at Plainfield of Maria E. Hall, wife of Mr. Robert A. Hall in her 77th year. She had been in failing health for some time.

The late Mrs. Hall was born in Huntingdon township being the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Beatty. For some time she resided in Thomasburg, but for the past fourteen years has made her home in Plainfield. She was a member of Plainfield United Church and was very highly respected. Many friends will regret her passing.

Left to mourn her death besides the husband are one daughter, Mrs. Albert Weir of Hillier, two sons, Addison Hall of Long Branch, Ont., and Norman Hall of Belleville; one sister, Mrs. Hugh Coulter of Chapman's Corners and one brother, Albert Beatty of Chapman's Corners.

The sincere sympathy of many friends will be extended to Mr. Hall, his family and relatives in their bereavement.

IS PERFECT
EVERY BLUEBIRD DIAMOND

Bluebirds are perfect diamonds selected for fine color and brilliancy. Bluebirds for Happiness.
ANGUS McFEE
EST. 1880
Use Our Deferred Payment Plan
WORLD'S STANDARD FOR FINE DIAMONDS

MOTORS, BIKES MAKE UP NEWS

Boys Warned To Cease Riding Upon Walks

When three local driven motor vehicles arrived at the intersection of Grove and North Front Streets simultaneously the situation resulted in an accident late yesterday afternoon. A collision occurred between two automobiles, one driven by Mr. Rosevear, 35 N. Front St. and the other by John Charlesworth, 54 Strachan St. The entire accident happened when Mason's wood truck turned from N. Front Street eastward into Grove Street, as the Charlesworth car was coming out of Grove Street, it collided with the Rosevear car going north which was just passing the truck. The case is still being investigated by the police.

Another motorist run over a dog and killed it on Front Street yesterday afternoon.

Two boys under the age of 15 years, were found riding their bicycles on South Front Street sidewalk. The offenders of this by-law were told to report to Chief Kidd today, at which time they were given a reprimand. Commenting on this infringement Chief Kidd stated this morning that complaints of boys riding their bicycles had been received and an example would be made of the next offenders caught.

A pair of roller skates stolen the night before last from in front of the hospital, were recovered on Dundas Street by Constable Dard last night.

No motor accidents were reported on the highways during the past 24 hours.

ANNOUNCING TRINITY CLOTHES
Made to Measure
SUITS and O'COATS
Prices
$23.00 to $35.00
THOS. WALTERS
Belleville's Popular Tailor
269 Front St.

GARDEN TOOLS FOR SPRING
ALL STEEL
GARDEN RAKES
PRICED
45c 50c 65c to 95c
LAWN RAKES
PRICED
95c to $1.15
SPADING FORKS
PRICED
$1.00 to $1.50
GARDEN CULTIVATORS
PRICED
95c to $1.15
SMITH HARDWARE
PLUMBERS & TINSMITHS

PRICE CHARGES OPPOSITION

(Continued from page one)

Liberals and Reds.

"Just fancy that!" exclaimed the attorney-general, putting the clipping down in front of him and lifting his gaze to his audience. "And this happened at a Liberal gathering attended by the president of the Liberal Association in Toronto and Liberal candidates.

"I tell the province at large and this great audience gathered here tonight that our song in this country is God Save the King."

A terrific outburst of applause prevented the attorney-general from continuing for several moments. "They can sing their songs if they like, they can accuse us of waving the flag, but we stand for loyalty to the Crown, to the King, God bless him. This is no small thing. As attorney-general I have made it a point to maintain law and order. And they are trying to take it out on the attorney-general in many ways, just as they tried to take it out on the premier in East York the other night. But the premier is a fighter. He went down there to a ratepayers' meeting, not a political gathering, and he came out with flying colors.

"There are individuals who are trying to bring Communist views into the affairs of this province," charged Col. Price. They are people who want to change everything, who want to wreck all our institutions. We of the Conservative party do not advocate Workers' Unity Leagues. We stand for safe policies and a safe leader. We are not going to allow force to be used in this province to obtain any objective."

Some time ago, said Col. Price, he had warned the C.C.F. they were playing with fire when the Communists were taken into the party. They played with it until just recently when an attempt was made to oust the radical element.

"They thought they could get all the discordant elements together, all the people who were against everything," said Col. Price. "I talk to the farmer tonight. Does he want his land socialized and taken away from him? And to the labor men I say. Do you want this opportunism which advocates force instead of government?

Hon. Charles McCrea, Ontario Mines Minister, emphasized the solid cabinet support that was behind Premier Henry. He pointed to the divided leadership of the opposition, and asked how the voters could possibly leave the task of governing the province to a party which had no unity of policy or leadership.

"Every member of the government is solidly behind our premier," said Mr. McCrea amidst applause. "We are fighting as a solid, united unit and when the election comes around I know the Conservatives of Ontario will swing into battle, rank upon rank, to return this government to office. It has been said that the government will be defeated in Northern Ontario. I predict the North will remain with us. They know what this government has done for the development of Northern Ontario.

EX-SERVICE MEN ENCOURAGED BY RED CROSS AID

Special Devotion Given To Their Problems By Society

1914—1934! Soldiers and the Red Cross, down the years together. Time and the perplexities of peacetime weigh down on many of these gallant men who never knew defeat. The passing of the years is leaving its mark, and more and more do they need encouragement and help.

To help them is the problem. To ease the burdens, to sustain health and morale is the task of the Red Cross. Governments do not nor can they be expected to do everything. Many obligations must be assumed by the Red Cross. And so, last year, in the hospital, in the sanatoria, in their homes, in their lodgings, many bewildered ex-servicemen (and their dependants in certain cases) received much needed help.

Thousands of dollars were spent to provide comforts, clothes, eyeglasses, teeth, milk, coal and so on, in addition to the daily help and advice in matters of all sorts. Thus does the Red Cross try to assist the ex-soldiers.

Red Cross assistance is not confined to her war-time friends. Throughout the country a full peace time program is carried out. In Belleville groups of women devote many hours each winter to sew for the local branch. Home Nursing Classes, Nutrition Classes, Junior Red Cross are sponsored.

Of special interest is the work of the outpost hospitals, two of which are caring for scattered settlers in northern Hastings County.

To help finance these undertakings the local branch is now appealing for funds. In the week of May 7th. Red Cross workers will call at each home in the city for donations. It is earnestly hoped that the response will be generous.

PREMIER ASKS STATEMENT

(Continued from page one)

ucers" of his character to test in the courts their reported questioning of his right to sit as prime minister while holding these securities. Referring to the writ that had been issued against him by an Essex County citizen in connection with this issue, Mr. Henry declared that no action had ever been pressed. "Now," said he, "the Globe wants to know if I'm sitting legally as prime minister. My answer to the Globe is they could have found out if they had followed the course of that once-threatened action, and can still find out, by putting the matter in the courts where I am prepared to defend myself.

Purchase of Bonds

Explaining his purchase of the bonds—a purchase discussion of which has been revived in political circles with the recent resignation from the Hydro Commission of Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen—the premier, declared: "I invested in $25,000 worth of Ontario Power Service bonds while minister of highways. It had nothing to do with the office of prime minister or any government business. I looked upon it as a patriotic effort; to put money into a great national enterprise which would mean so much to Northern Ontario. The Globe wants to know what profit I made on these bonds. I made no profit. I lost money. If I had been thinking of my own interests the money would have gone into safer investments. I have no doubt as to the judgment of the people of Ontario. They know I was in no way trafficking for my own advantage. I was seeking cheap power for the North Country. And as I have since repeatedly stated of all the undertakings in Northern Ontario this purchase of the Abitibi development by the government will eventually be recognized as one of the most forward and beneficial steps ever taken in this province."

Although the prime minister denied that an election date had been selected by cabinet, the great audience was advised by him, quoting a scriptural injunction, to "Look to your tents, O Israel; the battle is on." There was nothing better to which an election could be compared than a horse race, he said, and in his belief Old Man Ontario had too much "horse sense" to bet his money on "a youthful and untrained jockey, riding a horse that had been beaten eight times."

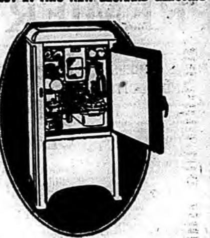
Ontario led in public welfare legislation, and, in fact, had been described by Ramsay MacDonald, on one occasion, as having a government that was not "conservative" in any sense of the word but was "the most radical socialistic organization that I know of." Mr. Hepburn, he said, had repeatedly threatened, if elected to power to cut these services in half.

An organized effort was being made, he said to get all the malcontents in the hope of defeating it. Even "isms," better known in Russia, than they are here, were being introduced to the campaign for the same purpose. Mr. Hepburn's slogan, he said, was "power by promise at any price." He doubted if there was one Liberal candidate who had not been promised a cabinet portfolio.

POLICE FIND AUTOIST TO HELP BROTHER

Daniel Buder Able To Go To Toronto To See Body

The helping hand of the law and the assistance of a Toronto traveller and his car bridged the gap between this city and Toronto for Daniel Buder, resident north of this city, last evening, who was financially unable to pay his fare to that city to view the body of his brother, David Buder, tentatively identified as the man who was found dead along a railway track near Toronto a day or so ago. Explaining his plight to Constable William Evans on desk duty at the local station last evening, aid was soon forthcoming. A Toronto resident, identified by the serial number on his car license plates, was flagged down in the downtown sections and advised of the circumstances. Willing help was forthcoming and a through ride for the local man was secured.



Find Near Peterboro To Be Developed

Cobourg, May 4.—Arthur Cooper, mining expert, stated a report had been received from the Ontario Department of Mines on samples of gold ore found north of Peterboro and that work will start immediatel yon the property. He refused to say what the assay report contained, but declared it warranted further development.

Mr. Cooper said an engineer would arrive from Montreal to work on the property next week. The ore body is said to be eight feet in width.

NEW DISARMAMENT MOVE

LONDON, May 4.— (AP)—Another British initiative in an effort to obtain even a limited disarmament during the Geneva Conference beginning late this month was foreseen in political quarters today because of the increased activity in disarmament committee of the cabinet.

YOU GET MORE FOR EACH DOLLAR
YOU INVEST IN THIS NEW LEONARD ELECTRIC

FOR OVER HALF A CENTURY the Leonard has been known as the quality refrigerator. Now the large sales volume permits Leonard to be sold at no higher cost than ordinary refrigerators.
See this new Leonard. It has looks—beauty. Charming, modern lines. Snowy finishes—non-fading, hard as flint. Inside, there's more room—and every inch of it usable.
Twelve freezing speeds—extra-fast freezing tray—cold chest for storage—a "vacation temperature" that cuts operating cost when the owner is away—ice tray lifter—and a score of other features.
There are 7 beautiful new models. Come in and see them—NOW.
MORE FOR YOUR MONEY
Chill-o-meter, with 12 freezing speeds; Automatic Steady-Kold Defroster; Chromium-plated hardware; All-Porcelain cooling unit; Removable Ice Tray Supports; Vegetable Crisper; Sanitrays.
LEONARD
THE COMPLETE REFRIGERATOR
On Display with
JOHN LEWIS CO.
Special Representative for
THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED
265 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE

Dillinger May Fly Guards At Airports

CHICAGO, May 4.—(AP)—The airways out of Chicago were guarded today to keep John Dillinger from flying away.

Convinced that the elusive Indiana outlaw is still hiding somewhere in the underworld haunts, possibly wounded, and awaiting a chance to flee, the police were keeping a sharp lookout at the airports.

TORONTO, May 4.— (CP) — More than 500 Oddfellows, members of the ancient mystic Order of Samaritans assembled here today to attend the 11th semi-annual convention of the Northern Division of the order. The ladies of the Oriental Oddfellow organization, are also taking part in the convention.

NOW—
GET SET FOR THE MOST EXCITING FOOTBALL GAME YOU EVER SAW!
Robert Young
Leila Hyams
Andy Devine
Johnny Mack Brown

SATURDAY'S MILLIONS
Will lift you right off your seat!
DOUBLE BILL CAPITOL FRIDAY SATURDAY DOUBLE BILL

SECRET AGENT "B-24"
She used her beauty to snare the secrets of Men and Nations!

Madame SPY
FAY WRAY
NILS ASTHER
Matinee 2.30 : Eve. 7.00 : Last Complete Show 9.30

THE GREATEST JUNGLE CIRCUS IN THE WORLD!
STARTS TOMORROW
. . . Three lone humans . . . an explorer, a girl, a 10 year old child . . . in Asia's darkest jungles . . . pitting their strength against a maelstrom of ferocious beasts

DEVIL TIGER
• COMPANION FEATURE •
A whirl of love and laughter
JAMES DUNN
CLAIRE TREVOR
in
"HOLD THAT GIRL"
TONIGHT ONLY
Clark GABLE Myrna LOY
in "MEN IN WHITE"
Feat. at 7.40 — 9.45
BELLE
SAT. MAT. THE WOLF DOG
LAST COM. SHOW

ARCTIC STORY TOLD WOMEN BY BISHOP

Anonymous Gifts Are Received For North Missions

St. Thomas' Parish House could not accommodate the crowd gathered to hear the address of Rt. Rev. A. R. Fleming, Lord Bishop of the Arctic last evening, at the session of the annual meeting of Women's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada, Diocese of Ontario. Bishop Fleming had visited the city on other occasions and was received a very hearty welcome by the citizens. His stories of missionary work in Northern Canada made such an appeal to Belleville friends that the announcement of his proposed visit resulted in the assembling at an early hour of an enthusiastic and interested audience.

Mrs. Lyons, Chairman

For the meeting last night Rt. Rev. John Lyons, Kingston, the Lord Bishop of Ontario, Diocese, and formerly vicar of St. Thomas' Church, Belleville, presided and spoke feelingly of the distinguished visitor's first visit to the city, when the ambitions of the Collegiate were filled to capacity.

"I was the chairman on that occasion. The speaker was then Archdeacon Fleming," said Bishop Lyons. "It is a wonderful privilege for the two of us to meet again in the office to which we have been called under God in His Church. I not only extend a welcome on behalf of the Woman's Auxiliary but as Bishop, on behalf of the diocese of Ontario.

"Bishop Fleming needs no introduction into any church gathering in the Dominion of Canada. From the far-north parish to the utter most bounds of the country, the Bishop and his work are known. It would be presumptuous of me to introduce him. I commend to you the Bishop of the Arctic."

Reverend Gration

Bishop Fleming received an ovation as he responded to the welcome of Bishop Lyons, on behalf of the missions of the north. Bishop Fleming's acknowledgment of appreciation for the northern citizens of Canada were manifested by every sentence he spoke and clearly showed why the missions had met with such marked success.

The newly-created diocese of the Arctic is approximately one-third of the land area of the Dominion of Canada. The scattered people, few of them thousand souls made up of three distinct groups of people, the whites, trappers, government representatives, explorers, scientists, and traders; the Eskimos, particularly the Cree, and the Indians.

"Let me first clear up a problem that has been troubling you," said he, "why a new diocese was created and a new bishop elected at this time of depression. The action was the result of a survey made by a special committee reporting to the General Synod after studying to organize better the mission work in that area. Formerly this area was in four dioceses which presented unreasonable situations. In the making of a new diocese, the diocese of Mackenzie River was eliminated, the Bishop filling another vacancy. I was elected Bishop of the new diocese and the office of Archdeacon of the Arctic was eliminated. In this way no new obligations were assumed but my parish is now a unit making administration much easier."

Present Diocese

"Ours is not only the largest and the most scattered diocese in the church but the poorest. We rely definitely on faith and prayer to carry on, for we, the mercy ships to bring most inadequate. Bishop Fleming then told several instances of generosity and help given by friends in this country and in England. Outstanding was the action of one whose identity was unknown to the Bishop who from England sent the necessary funds to respect the missions at Cambridge Bay and carry it on for five years.

"Constantly our best gifts are received anonymously and it is an inspiration for us to know that the people of our church fulfill the Christ doctrine allowing their right hand know what their left hand is doing".

First in Canada

"Did you know," asked the speaker, "that a priest of our church first celebrated Communion in the Dominion of Canada? You probably thought that it was the Jesuits The service took place in Baffin Land in 1578 when Sir Martin Frobisher's party visited this country. Cartier had raised the Cross and claimed the land of Canada for his Church before that, but the first celebration of Communion was in 1578.

In the Bishop's diocese the Indians are of a particularly virile type second to none because they had had least contact with the white man. The effect of the white man has been always detrimental to the native races, he said.

"After all," pointed out Bishop Fleming, "this is the reddins' land. What are you people doing in it?"

One must not forget that the Indians and the Eskimos are real citizens of Canada. There has never been a treaty with the Eskimo. He is a citizen on exactly the same basis as the white man. He pays taxes to the Dominion government Since he has no permanent habitation he is taxed on fun, paying one dollar and a half or each fox skin and similar taxes on other furs.

The term "Eskimo" is resented by the natives of the North. It is considered a degrading name as it means "raw fish eaters". His real name is "Nhit" denoting generality.

"I love the Eskimo because I admire his real personality. He fights against disability with a smile. He is one blood brother because he is human and because we are all brothers in Christ Jesus Our Lord. What if his mode of living may be repulsive to us. For him as for us the Lord Jesus Christ lived, died and triumphed over death. With us, he should know the heavenly Father who loves all men".

Bishop Fleming's address was illustrated with beautiful slides which impressed on his hearers the various activities of the people of the Arctic.

"Some people have an idea," he said as he showed an Eskimo village, more typical perhaps, that he has no use for snow huts, that igloos are cleaned up, that they really eighby per cent. live in snow huts each winter, and tents in the summer.

Airplane Travel

Pictures showed that the sledges the common mode of travel in the winter were replaced in the spring by mounds of snow as night.

Speaking of travel he said the dogs are lashed together with raw hides as bolts would not endure this mode of travel. As the dogs get very hungry it is not safe to leave the sledges at night or even in the morning the dogs would have eaten the lashings and the sledge would be in pieces.

The airplane has changed the whole outlook of the north. A trip that would ordinarily take three months was made by the Bishop in seventeen and a half days. A trip to Copper Mine took Stefansson six years to make. Now one can fly there from Toronto in seven days by 'plane. The Bishop uses the plane to make his pastoral visits to the missions of the north.

Many views were shown of the hospitals, the missionaries the churches and the congregations.

Good Housekeepers Appreciate the "STOR-DOR"

JUST as they appreciate the many other advantages of owning a Westinghouse Dual-automatic Refrigerator. Here, in one LIFETIME Refrigerator are ALL the features you have been looking for. World's fastest freezing. Electric Light. Rolling Shelves. Extra ice-cube capacity. All-steel cabinets with stainless porcelain interior. And the ONLY dual-automatic, hermetically-sealed refrigerator mechanism in the world . . . a triumph of Westinghouse engineering. Be sure to see Westinghouse before you buy.

DOYLE'S DRUG STORE
321 FRONT ST. PHONE 329

Westinghouse
Dual-automatic REFRIGERATORS

RESURRECTED FROM DEATH, PUPPY BARKS FOR FOOD

Literally in his "second life" after being asphyxiated with poison gas, Thirteen, fox terrier puppy being used in a life and death experiment by Dr. Robert E. Cornish, University of California scientist, is pictured actually sitting up to eat after barking for food. The photo was made 14 days after the terrier had been officially pronounced dead by asphyxiation.—Int'r. Cornish resurrected the puppy and has kept it alive with injections of adrenalin, powerful heart stimulant and hepatrin, a solution mixed with the blood of another dog.

GRANDDAUGHTER OF WEALTHY CATTLE KING KIDNAPPED

Here is six-year-old Juno Robles who was kidnapped Wednesday by Bernabe Robles, millionaire cattle king, who has been held by kidnappers for $15,000 ransom after she was abducted while en route home from school at Tuscon, Ariz. Also shown above is the child's father, Fernando Robles (RIGHT), an electrical contractor, who has been negotiating with the kidnappers.

Happenings of BusyWeekDays as Crowds Grow

Wednesday's grand prize, a lady's dress and coat, valued at $45.00, and lucky number for out of town shoppers, was drawn from the previous day's shopping coupons and was Mrs. Alice Tuttle, 92 South John street. Prompt presentation of the winning stub was made, after which the articles were given her by J. A. McNabb Company. Her winning number was G-30366.

In the special contest conducted in the store of the John Lewis Company in connection with the Coleman store demonstration, the lucky coupon bore the name of Mrs. H. M. Brown, R. R. 3, Belleville, entitling the lady to a Coleman Gypsy Queen camp stove.

Although Friday's drawing of Thursday's shopping coupons was completed in record time this morning, up to eleven thirty o'clock in the morning no claimant had presented the winning ticket for the grand prize, and only a few had identified their stubs with any of the thirty consolation prizes. A considerable number of other prizes still await claimants. They are listed by numbers elsewhere.

Out of town customers are still flocking to local stores. From a few coupons picked in haphazard fashion this morning in the John Lewis had been placed on Friday morning the following addresses were taken: S. J. Smith, 200 Notre Dame East, Montreal; Wilbert McAllister, Lonsdale; Mrs. W. Maistre, Napanee; Harry Crews, Trenton; Elva Vincent, Brighton; C. B. Ferguson, 2942 Madison Avenue, Montreal; Mrs. C. Graham, Tweed; Mrs. Peck, Trenton; W. A. Blake, Trenton; Mrs. Roy Eggleston, Stirling; Mrs. J. Webster, Albert; Mrs. Wilson, Newburg.

There was a display of humour connected with one stub noticed in the barrel today. "Try and guess who I am," invited the holder of the corresponding stub who had written the globe message across the coupon in neatly blocked letters.

Housewives were out in force today to watch the drawing of coupons being conducted at ten o'clock in the morning in the Walker Hardware Company. Coupons were correspondingly heavy from a large day's shopping on Thursday. Almost twice as many as had noticed on Wednesday were in the barrel.

Merchants are readying their stores for what will probably set an all time shopping record on Saturday. In several instances store managers anticipating a rush which will cram their aisles to the swinging doors are adding extra help to stem the tide. In the meantime printing presses are roaring and rumbling on the task of producing the numbered blue slips which are bringing fun and satisfaction to losers as well as winners.

Many Coupons are Unclaimed

Nearly fifty unclaimed numbers are still awaiting claimants holding winning number stubs as the result of the daily drawings since the commencement of Belleville Better Week. Holders of the winning coupon stubs listed below are asked to present them to Mr. Wm. Doyle, Lewis Hardware, after which presentation of the prizes awaiting will be made.

Monday's Draw Unclaimed:
B-17417.
B-48101.
D-34093
B-33646
D-8752

Tuesday's Draw
A-27365
B-39684
E-27727
A-13812
C-34090
E-13985
B-3750
D-31766

Wednesday's Draw
B-8519
B-30454
B-46071
B-28486
B-19786
B-19930
A-21549
D-48073
D-34888
B-29387
E-16536
E-23885
E-20436
E-39254

Thursday's Draw
B-3208
B-29836
G-42673
C-153
D-5216
B-46268
B-29148
A-21547
E-31744
E-38277
D-19601
E-47387
F-31043
F-40332
C-13540
F-12822
G-13604
G-19855
G-23290
G-38383
B-15396
F-24187

$200 FINE LEVIED IN STILL CASE

Charles Genereaux, Queensboro, was found in possession of a still suitable for the manufacture of illicit liquor following a search of his premises by the H.O.M.P. and the Provincial Police yesterday. Genereaux was immediately taken to Madoc where he pleaded guilty to a charge of operating an illicit still and was fined $200.00 and costs or in default of payment serve three months in the common jail. The fine was not forthcoming. Genereaux was lodged in the county jail last evening. The case against Genereaux followed a search of the Genereaux property by the authorities following which the illicit still was found secluded in a clump of bushes at the rear of the Genereaux farm, near Queensboro. The accused man admitted in open court the operation of the still on the night previous.

CAT TACKLES FISH TACKLE

Scene Worse Than That of Bull In China Shop Enacted

When Constable Evans proceeded to investigate just why a large crowd of people were congregated outside the window of Steve Licence's sporting goods store last evening about 9.30 p.m. he comprehended and decided to find that a Persian cat, cavorting about among the fishing tackle proved the centre of attraction and apparently was in distressing circumstances.

The "help" was the property and pet of a family who resided nearby and had apparently walked nonchalantly into the store before closing time and had been locked in. The cat later attracted by the French street lights made its way to the front window where it became entangled in a line of fishing tackle. "Tabby" soon became so "wound up" in the fish lines, spoons, flies and plugs that the situation was somewhat serious, insofar as the cat was concerned, but, proved amusing to the large audience that had gathered. Fish hooks had become fixed to the cat's tail, dusting it at end of, not only embarrassment, but annoyance as the entanglement became more pronounced as she endeavored to release herself.

Constable Evans at once informed Mr. Licence of the predicament and upon his arrival the cat was soon released and returned to its two owners.

Whitefish Liberated In Bay of Quinte

Successful Whitefish Hatch Followed by Culture of Game Specie

Fifty-five million baby whitefish are swimming in the Bay of Quinte this week after being liberated by officials of the Dominion Fish Hatchery who have successfully cultured them during the past winter. Tanks are now cleared at the hatchery in preparation for the culture of a fewer number of pickerel and maskinonge. The latter fish spawn was secured from Bear Creek, near Marmora.

POLICE NEWS

Roy Hollingshead and Joseph Winton, two residents of the Trenton Airport relief project, pleaded guilty in charges of intoxication when arraigned before Magistrate Mikel this morning. The usual fine of $15.00 and costs was not forthcoming in either case, the accused men taking the jail sentence of 15 days in default of payment. Their arrest followed a complaint recently laid by local residents residing on S. George St., relating to two men causing a disturbance. "Can you pay this fine?" queried His Worship, "Not on 25 cents a day, I'd say," was Hollingshead's reply as he was led away by the court officer.

Morley Reid of this city, faced a charge of keeping liquor for sale. He pleaded not guilty to the charge and after hearing considerable contradictory evidence in the matter, His Worship enlarged the case until tomorrow, when judgment will be handed down.

On three charges of obtaining money on false pretenses, Geo. W. Cornell, Point Anne, appeared in police court today. All three charges were dismissed. R. C. Donnan, K.C., County Crown Attorney, intimated that the matter would be referred to the Pension Board for further consideration.

McFee's Greatest Desire Is:

PUBLIC SERVICE!

AND—FOR 38 YEARS J. A. McFEE HAS BEEN SERVING BELLEVILLE WITH A SPECIALIZED OPTICAL SERVICE . . . . . AT NO EXTRA COST!

I feel a keen sense of duty toward the public. It's my job to care for those who suffer from defective vision. And today, as for over 38 years, I am striving to provide a PUBLIC SERVICE that will stand above reproach. Time, energy, thoroughness and utmost care are put forth to GUARANTEE satisfactory EYE COMFORT for every patient. My optical parlors are fitted with the latest scientific equipment to assure correct examinations and prescriptions. That is why, with skill and experience, every pair of McFEE GLASSES is sold with a GUARANTEE OF QUALITY. J. A. McFEE

Guaranteed Satisfactory Eye Comfort plus Guaranteed Scientific Examinations!

. . . . That's Why You May Get Glasses Here In Confidence

If you need glasses, by all means get them now. Don't delay. We shall gladly cooperate in any way we can in order that you may be fitted at once—with FIRST QUALITY lenses, fashion-styled to fit your own particular face type. Consultation invited.

McFEE'S Better SERVICE Costs No More!

J. A. McFee
OPTOMETRIST

THIS IS NO RUMOR!

HOLWAY BROS.
Red Indian Service Station
Is The Only AUTHORIZED
Firestone
Dealer in Belleville

"A TOUR THROUGH HOLWAYS"
OUR Gasoline Pumps are a familiar sight to everyone.
OUR Service appreciated by most.
OUR Invitation to you is to come in, and with us, go through our establishment, where we can show you the value of the FIRESTONE FACTORY REPAIR METHOD, used only as an authorized dealer can use it, because he alone is under the direct supervision of the Firestone Factory.
Remember We SACRIFICE Nothing

HOLWAY BROS.
"TOOTS" and "BOUNCER"
RED INDIAN SERVICE STATION
Corner Bridge and Front Streets

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

W. R. MORTON, Publisher.

MORE DANGER WITH ADULTS

The situation regarding fatal accidents during the first three months of this year directs attention once more to the necessity for greater recognition of the dangers of modern traffic by adult pedestrians. For many years, the accident experience of older pedestrians has been growing worse, while that of children has shown improvement. Education of children as to the dangers of playing in the street, of hitching on vehicles, and of crossing streets between intersections, has undoubtedly had a beneficial effect. It is evident, however, that adults have not responded to repeated warnings to the same degree. It is a daily occurrence to see adult pedestrians dodging in and out of the complications of traffic—crossing against traffic signals, wandering out from behind parked cars, and walking on country roads with their backs to traffic. The fact that they do it so successfully must be due to a very large extent to the ability of the operators of motor vehicles to make allowances and exercise caution.

While how you cross the street is of more importance than where you cross, it is nevertheless true that if you cross in the middle of the block, or, in other ways, act contrary to known rules of safe practice, your chances of being killed or injured are multiplied.

With the approach of the season of heavy traffic, a word of warning to drivers is also opportune.

While accidents are due, in the great majority of cases to faulty human reactions, there remains a considerable number which are due to negligence in making needed repairs to vehicles. It is often impossible to test the mechanical equipment of a car involved in an accident because of the damage done, and figures relating to vehicle defects are therefore usually inaccurate. It is often impossible to detect a defective car merely from appearance, so the number of such vehicles on the road is unknown. But the drivers and the owners of these vehicles are aware of these defects, and under the circumstances face terrific responsibilities when they drive them, and know they are a menace to other traffic on the highway. The dangers inherent in rapid travel are already too great. To add to these hazards by the use of mechanically dangerous vehicles, cannot be viewed as a minor offence.

BROADCASTING AND CONTROL

Should there be government control of radio broadcasting, as in England, or should it be a private enterprise, as in the United States? Both sides of this question are presented in the current Rotarian Magazine.

The income of the British Broadcasting Company, it is stated, is derived mainly from license revenue, every owner of a receiving set paying a fee of $2.50 per annum, while the income in the broadcasting stations is derived from advertising.

Commander Stephen King-Hall, British author whose voice is frequently heard over the British Broadcasting Company network, points out that the British listener is very well satisfied. He sees the wireless business as a personal and intimate matter. He listens to programs in his own home, and likes to feel the thing belongs to him and not to a lot of firms whose advertisements already fill half the newspapers.

"With us in England," Commander King-Hall writes, "the B.B.C. is rapidly qualifying for admission to our list of national institutions. I imagine that in the United States the radio ranks in people's minds with the theatre business, the films, and the press, and if such were the case in Great Britain, then you would find people quite ready to discuss whether better news, better variety, and better music could be obtained from a commercialized service. But such a question does not arise in British minds."

On the other hand, Earl Reeves, who upholds the American system in this exchange of opinion, believes that advertiser-sponsored programs make for better radio entertainment than does government-controlled broadcasting.

"Surveys show," says Mr. Reeves, "that governmental broadcasting takes two forms: first, it may become the adjunct to the propaganda department of the dominant party, a situation that exists at present in a few countries; or, second, it becomes in its spoken program, wan and colorless, avoiding current controversial issues, permitting a minimum, even, of political discussion as in England. In either event, the entertainment necessarily is handed down by bureaucratic officials, in its content being what a centralized governmental bureaucracy thinks should be good for the public and useful to itself."

Reasons are the pillars of the fabric of a discourse; but simultitudes are the windows which give the best light.—Fuller.

Every moment of resistance to temptation is a victory.—Faber.

SIDELIGHTS

GRAVE and GAY

...supervised by The Lamplighter

YOU HAVE GONE ON

I have your memory, nothing more
Of you is left me from the time
Since you came singing through my door
And set my prose of life to rhyme.

You have gone on, with song still sweet
Upon your lips and in your breast;
You have gone past with dancing feet,
A thing too fair to be possessed.

But still your image dwells with me
You greet me from the hearth, the stair,
And though I wander, land and sea,
In each new place I find you there.

You have gone on, a singing lass
Lost somewhere in the wide world's maze;
But something of you will not pass
From out my heart through all my days.

x x x x

THE ANSWERS to the problem of our new leisure of today are work and study. Work and study as never before; to improve self and one's neighbor. And back of these objectives lies the good of a broader ethics and a more tolerant feeling of humanity. Mohammedan, Jew, Protestant, and Catholic alike need occupation, wages, and the comforts of life. In the face of national needs, artificial boundaries fall. The man who helps anyone to a better plane is helping himself and all humanity.—L. V. Jacks, in the Rotarian Magazine.

x x x x

BRITISH RADIO BROADCASTING is under government control and no advertising is permitted, programs being paid for by the license fee from receiving set owners, of which there are three. The United States radio broadcasting service is supported by paid advertising, and controlled by private companies. Radio advertising has been the subject of much debate and investigation. A recent questionnaire in the United States revealed that only a few of the leading programs listened to had followings which could identify the sponsors. Amos and Andy lead the parade in listeners who knew the name of the toothpaste they represented. Eddie Cantor, of course, put over dated coffee strongly enough, but a goodly number of his wicked little and cared less for the firm that paid for the broadcast. Radio advertising is a shot in the dark for the concerns with which people turn off advertising talks seems to show a resentment that sales talk should be forced into the home sugar-coated with entertainment. The British system would seem to be the best in the long run for all concerned and productive of better programs.

x x x x

SENATOR GEORGE PERRY GRAHAM, printer, editor, humorist, and lifelong lacrosse player, Liberal of the Old School, graduated into the New School, born in Eganville, reared in a parsonage, aged in the wood of printers' cases and poster type, educated in the Little Red School House; and the big stone electoral colleges at Toronto and Ottawa, has been the recipient of many editorial congratulations over having attained the age of reason, discretion, or somepin. Hell, and that's what's good fellows of the newspaper profession like George P. never grow old, and never die. When they get tired of this wicked and perverse generation they just transfer their talents, smiles and generosity to a higher plane where all the joy and happiness, love and laughter of life is generated and transmitted to this plane for the use of those who have eyes to see, ears to hear and lips to laugh with. George P. Graham's saving sense of humor has brought him through degrees of sorrow seldom experienced by the average man, but no matter how deep the hurt the face that was turned to the world was always sunny and bright. Life would be much better and brighter if there were more public men of the type of George P. Graham.

x x x x

IN THE DAYS OF THE NATIONAL POLICY and Free Trade, political issues were clear cut and the parties were as far apart as the poles. Now the issues are mainly minor ones, concerning administration efficiency, and it seems hard to get up much steam for or against in the mind of the average man or woman, which makes it very hard for the professional politician.

x x x x

A man walked into the foreman builder's office and stated that he had come in reply to the firm's advertisement for a night watchman.

"What are your qualifications for this job?" asked the foreman.

The man scratched his head. "Well, guv-nor," he said, "the least bit of noise wakes me up."

x x x x

The heavy man was trying to get to a vacant seat at the circus.

"Pardon me," he said to a woman, "did I step on your foot?"

"Yes," she said after glacing at the ring. "All six elephants are still out there. You must have."

HAVING SOME HOBBY HELPS KEEP ONE FIT

Do Something Entirely Different From Your Regular Work

LOUIS E. BISCH, M.D., Ph.D. Famous Authority on Health and Psychology.

(Copyright 1934, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Every man and woman needs a hobby. No person living can keep his nose to the grindstone day after day, week after week, month after month, and year after year, without getting rusty. You get stale on the job. Your brain becomes fagged. You fall into the habit of doing your work in a lifeless, mechanical fashion. Hours become eternities and you begin to think you are the most miserable person that lived. The thing you must do of course, is vary the monotony.

No matter how interesting and fascinating your daily routine may be in the beginning, repetition will sooner or later take all the fun out of it.

Therefore you must vary the monotony by taking an interest in other things. In short, do something that is entirely different from your livelihood, something that you can look forward to with expectation.

In other words find yourself a hobby.

The brain is a wonderful machine. It is made up of very sensitive nerve cells and fibres and each of them has a special job to perform. In fact certain parts of the brain are given over to certain specialized functions. For instance, a group of nerves that have to do with sight are confined to the back of the brain. Those whose specialty is speech are located on the left side, above and in front of the ear. In a similar way, when a person does a certain kind of work it is probable that certain nerve cells are set apart for that specific purpose.

It stand to reason that there is relatively speaking, a greater strain on this group than on any other and, therefore, these particular nerves are the first to break down from exhaustion that any of the others not used so continually.

Although the brain in many ways is a very tough organ and capable of withstanding many abuses, and still remain able to recuperate fairly quickly, it certainly has its limitations.

Like any other machine it should be put for repairs every once in a while.

The best way to keep your brain going at topmost speed is to use other brain cells as often as possible.

And the very best way of bringing about that you are using variety of nerves is to do things that are entirely different from those you, and that give you pleasure.

If you are strongly inclined to keep a flower garden, or to raise pigeons, or to draw or model, or raise Persian kittens—what ever it be, that is the hobby you should adopt. But let your hobby absorb you. Let it make you forget. Don't let a commercial spirit enter into it.

If your hobby happens to be the writing of short stories, write them as fast as you like, as many as you like, on as many themes as you like. But don't be influenced in the writing as to whether or not the stories will sell.

Pursue your hobby for the hobby's sake.

Pursue your hobby for the sake of the doing and for no other reason.

Dr. Bisch's Daily Diet Hint

Persons who work late at night, or who retire from five to six hours after the evening meal, often find that they fall asleep more quickly if they eat a light sandwich or take a hot drink, such as milk, before retiring. A glass or bottle of beer is likewise excellent in promoting relaxation. Actual hunger, may, of course, produce insomnia. Such bedtime "snacks" should not however, be too heavy.

65,000 SCOUTS ARE REPORTED

Movement Gains Headway In Canada, Reports Show

Ottawa, May 4 (CP) — Steady growth of the Boy Scout movement in Canada was reported at the annual meeting of the Canadian Govincial Council of the Boy Scouts Association held here today under the chairmanship of his Excellency the Governor-General, Chief Scout for Canada.

The report just ended was an active one owing to the special relief work which the organization undertook. Whose numbers more than 65,000 boys and leaders from the 8,500 troops were tamed during the year to Scouts qualifying for specific public services.

Postponement until next spring of the visit to Canada of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell was confirmed, and plans for their entertainment previously made were carried over until next year.

A report was presented upon the participation of the Canadian Scouts in the fourth world Scout Jamboree in Hungary, and a letter received from Lord Baden-Powell stating that the Canadian Scouts had distinguished themselves by their bearing and Scout efficiency.

The holding of the International Scout jamboree in connection with the 100th anniversary of the City of Melbourne, Australia, Dec. 27 - Jan 5, was announced in a letter from Sir Isaac Isaacs, Governor-General and Chief Scout of Australia to His Excellency the Governor-General, the latter was expressed that a representative of the Canadian Canadian Scouts would be able to attend.

The report of the Dominion Medal Board recorded the issuing of the 28 medals and eight lesser recognitions awarded Scouts for life-saving. The silver wolf, the highest honorary Scout decoration, was awarded during the year to J. W. Mitchell, Provincial President of the Boy Scouts Association of Ontario; E. M. Jockel, Assistant Provincial Commissioner for Wolf Cubs for Quebec; Julius H. Griffith, Provincial President for British Columbia, and District Commissioner Sidney Eagleton of Smyrna, Man. Announcement also was made of the presentation to Hon. Vincent Massey by the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America, of the highest American Scout decoration, the silver Buffalo.

"Yes, fine! It's great to hear your voice again!"

WHEN YOU THINK OF A FRIEND FAR AWAY... AND YOU HAVEN'T SEEN HIM (OR MAYBE, HER) FOR WEEKS... AND YOU CAN'T FIND TIME FOR WRITING LETTERS...

Have a visit by Long Distance... it's the next best thing to being together.

- Distance Disappears when you pick up your telephone: you are talking to someone 100 miles away or so before you realize it, and for as little as 50 cents. Long Distance is easy to use, dependable, personal. See rates in front of your directory.

G. W. PROCTOR, Manager

Municipal Airport on Tax Sale List

Kitchener Board Will Fight Sale

Kitchener, Ont., May 4—(CP)— the land, while a township official said today it is the intention of the township council to bring the tax question to a head. The Committee claims since the airport is situated in the township of Kitchener and Waterloo, it is tax free even if it is located in another municipality.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

MAY 4, 1914

The Duke of Argyll, son-in-law of the late Queen Victoria, and former Governor-General of Canada as the Marquis of Lorne, died at his home in Scotland aged 69 years. He came to Canada as Governor General in the year 1878. The Duke of Argyll was the Hon. Col. of the 15th Battalion Argyll Light Infantry of Belleville.

Saturday evening, April 30th was "Ladies' Night" at a meeting of the Belleville Club of Winnipeg. Fully one hundred people were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. William (Bill) Squires was the principal speaker. Mr. Squires left Belleville in the early seventies and vividly recalled to the memories of the older Old Timers present the days before the railways penetrated the north country and Belleville was the shipping point for that territory. Those were the days when Belleville was a busy town and wagons laden with grain from the country side lined Front Street from the upper bridge to the wharf. Mr. Squires was personally acquainted with Scott who was shot by Louis Riel they having campaigned together in the gold fields of Eldorado in the early sixties.

30 YEARS AGO

MAY 4, 1904

The steamer Kingston brought an excursion party from Trenton to this city last evening.

The building of the granolithic walks will commence shortly under the management of Foreman Tyuaich.

Mr. Frank Robinson of the Belleville Kilties Band is home on a short visit.

Mr. W. J. Logue left this morning for Los Angles, California. He is a delegate to the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, representing Belleville and Brockville.

Messrs Frew and Robert Paiss left this morning for Huntingdon, Ind., where they have secured positions.

Mr. E. F. Milburn, M.A., principal of the high school is spending a few days in Guelph with his son Mr. E. Milburn, a member of the staff of the School of Montreal in that city, who is ill.

40 YEARS AGO

MAY 4, 1894

Montreal papers bear witness to the fact that Canadians in crowds are flocking south from the United States. The depression there is evidently the cause.

Workmen are busy up along the docks and the season promises to be brisk.

The Ella Ross brought an unusually large number of passengers up the bay this morning. Most of them stopped off at Belleville.

Mr. Jas. Tilley is having overy the yacht Atalanta preparatory to launching her.

Mr. C. F. Aylesworth, Jr., C.E. who has been inspecting the site of the proposed dam to be built by the city above the railway bridge, reports that the work at this point would have a 12-foot head and a minimum force of 100 horse power.

St. Charles and Pringle are unquestionably the favorites for the Montreal Street, Railway.

50 YEARS AGO

MAY 4, 1884

The young man of the period watches with apprehension the opening of the ice cremeries.

The annual meeting of the Bay Quinte Yacht Club will be held at Hambly's restaurant on Wednesday evening next.

A petition from the Chemical Engine Company No. 5 was read at the fire committee last night asking for a grant of $25 to aid them in furnishing their building. The matter was left over.

A Kingston sport, who stuck ashore in the Bay on May 1st.

Moonlight excursions and picnics will soon be in order.

The members of the police force have been provided with new helmets.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK - By R. J. Scott

Copyright, 1934, by Central Press Association, Inc.

FOUR DUTIES TO BE FACED SAYS MANION

Speaks Before Daily Newspaper Publishers of Canada.

GREAT POWER

Democracy in Most Precarious State Says Speaker

Toronto, May 3.—Canadians today were faced with four fundamental duties, Hon. R. J. Manion told the daily newspaper publishers of Canada, at their annual dinner last night. They must uphold the parliamentary institutions and the economic system which had been built up; correct the system so that the evils of unemployment would vanish; do justice to all the classes; and do everything in their power to further the cause of peace.

The Minister of Railways and Canals in a speech which was listened on democracy, unemployment, the railway problem, debt, interest, the gold standard and the great questions implicit in the problem of international peace.

He was introduced by Andrew W. Smith, of Halifax, president of the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association, as a "great soldier, author and statesman", after Henry Cagnon, of Quebec Solell, president of The Canadian Press, had proposed the toast of the banquet, had outlined the responsibility of the newspapers in providing Canadian daily newspapers with a "daily and complete news service" and had expressed the opinion that without "democracy democracy in our country would not be possible."

Daily newspapers were undoubtedly great powers in the promotion of thought, said Dr. Manion. He based on his hearers the advisability of care in shaping their opinion. Since in his opinion there was little industrial thinking but much radically-influenced mass-thought.

Serious Thought Needed.

Serious thought was needed today. Democracy was now in a more precarious state than it ever had been despite the war fought to "make it safe". And democracy was the greatest on the public debt. Interest charges daily "eat into" it. Not more than before the war, while population had increased only by one-third, "a revolutionary" 60 per cent. in the interest we pay would bring down our yearly charge to $40,000,000, and something will have to be done about it," said the Minister. The same, in principle, was true the world over.

Another point emphasized by the speaker was that the ills of unemployment must be corrected. "We must give work to all who are willing," he said, "and work to all who are willing."

Canada had too many railways, the three trans-continental systems were a burden, another instance of the results of mass psychology to which he had referred at the outset. But great railway economies had been effected and he voiced a plea for "give and take" of the Canadian National Railways a chance."

Press Applauded.

"Democracy having claimed the right for every citizen to judge of everything and to meddle in everything, he must of necessity be kept informed on everything," said Mr. Cagnon in his brief address. The facts reported by the Canadian Press formed the basis on which public opinion was built. "I can understand to summarize the despatches covering the intellectual, spiritual, social and economic fields of human activity, one would find that no better history, and certainly not a more lively one, could have been written than" said Mr. Cagnon.

The most edifying record of The Canadian Press for the past year, however, was its accounts of the spiritual fervor which manifested itself in so many ways after the depression "began to deter the people from too material an existence."

"Even in the spirit of optimism now prevailing, there is a consciousness of the need for a more spiritual mood to which we were subjected 12 years ago," said Mr. Cagnon, "and the more substantial and well-informed statements which have been consistently flowing through the columns of the press of the Canadian Press" asked Mr. Cagnon.

WEST LAKE NEWS OF HAPPENINGS IN DISTRICT

West Lake, May 4—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mills of Rochester motored over and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Young at West Point.

Mrs. A. J. Young is very low at present. Dr. Currie and Nurse Jones are in attendance.

Mrs. Ryan, Bloomfield, has been spending the winter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stanley McDonnell, on Ryan Point Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Tubbs have returned from Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Hyatt and baby were Sunday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Brown.

Mrs. Hagerman is in Picton hospital, on Saturday last her friends are hoping she will be improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Haycock and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McConnell were dinner guests on Sunday of Mrs. Hyatt's on Sunday.

Robert Hoff is improving nicely. He has been confined to his bed for several weeks with a broken limb.

Miss Lillian Maitland is very busy in her green house these days. The seedlings would seem to have come on faster than usual this spring.

Tonsorial grooves are transplanting into the cooling beds this week. The present weather has been fine for the job.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman McGrade visited his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. Beaumont at Rimbrook one day last week.

ALLISONVILLE WEEKLY NOTES

Allisonville, May 4—Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Adams motored to Trenton on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McElwey was in Belleville on Saturday.

The many friends of Mr. Fred Cunningham will be sorry to learn he returned home from Belleville General Hospital, Tuesday May 1st.

Mrs. Lout of Roblin's Mills was through here on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hubbs and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McHenry motored to Belleville on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Noxon spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. Doolittle.

Mr. and Mrs. Tod Morden were guests at the home of Mrs. Morden's brother Mr. Fred Vanoott, Foxboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vanoott were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wannamaker, Mountain View, Sunday.

Mr. Lorne Brickman was calling in Allisonville on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wash Pine, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brownell on Sunday.

Mr. Healey and Mr. Bibby motored to Belleville on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carruths and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brasen spent a day recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Brasen.

Mrs. R. Anderson spent a few days in Belleville last week the guest of the home of her son, Mr. Earl Anderson.

Misses Alice spent the week end at the home of their sister, Mrs. Harrison, Plainfield.

YEMEN'S CAUSE FAILING

Bagdad, Iraq, May 4 (AP)—Capture of Yemen's chief port, Hodeida, by the advancing forces of the Iman Yahya of Asdi, Arabia, was reported here today, and observers regarded this victory as dooming the cause of Yemen in the tribal war.

LOST HOPE — BUT INDIGESTION ENDED

By Eddie Spaniel's Female

"I never thought I could be," writes a Nottinghamshire man who had lost hope of being cured of indigestion, "that for a paltry sum I had the secret of such a terrible and painful affliction."

It was the formula of a London Medical Institute, however, who has been studying and treating stomach ills for 30 years, that led to this remarkable recovery—a formula that is being used with great success in many Kingdom hospitals.

The formula, recently made available to Canadians following the establishment of a branch in England, is known as Macdoc Brand Stomach Powders. Sufferers from Acidity, Indigestion, Heartburn, Flatulence, Dizziness, Gastritis and stomach troubles generally, will find that it provides a great help in allaying pain and distress.

Ask your druggist for Macdoc Brand Stomach Powder. It is sold in bottles, (powder or tablets), at 75 c, but one dose. To get the genuine, look for the name "Macdoc, O. Montreal." Sole Canadian distributors, Rigo Agencies, Toronto.

CONTEST WINNERS ARE ANNOUNCED

Madoc W.C.T.U. Makes Awards to Pupils

MADOC—Desiring to help teachers to emphasize the principles of health, citizenship, truth and safety, the W.C.T.U. conducts a contest annually. This year's contest since Instruction in schools and colleges Act, which is compulsory for contest work is given annually.

The following pupils of Madoc Public School received the awards in the contest sponsored by the local W.C.T.U.

Posters:—

Senior—Filly Hawthorne, first Robert O'Riordon, second.

Junior—Ella Arnold Rutherford, first; Olive Simpson, second.

Junior IV—Jack Martin, first, Chesley Mumby, second.

Senior IV — Mackenzie Reeves, first; Lloyd Reynolds, second.

Work Books:—

Senior—Cecila Casselman, first Kathleen Phillips, second; Margaret White, third; Jean Rose fourth.

Junior—

Beverly Ann Hubbs and Jean Mitchell, first; Glen Rutherford, second.

Essays—

Senior—Filly Hawthorne, first Robert O'Riordon, second.

Junior—Ella Arnold Rutherford, first; Olive Simpson, second.

Junior IV—Jack Martin, first, Chesley Mumby, second.

Senior IV — Mackenzie Reeves, first; Lloyd Reynolds, second.

Work Books:—

Senior—Cecila Casselman, first Kathleen Phillips, second; Margaret White, third; Jean Rose fourth.

Junior—

Beverly Ann Hubbs and Jean Mitchell, first; Glen Rutherford, second.

On Monday evening, April 30, the Young People's Society of the Madoc United Church put on a novelty tea in the Sunday School room. A large number were present and a very enjoyable evening spent by everyone.

The programme was as follows:

Piano solo, Miss Edna Bellsbury, Belleville.

Musical monologue with encore, Mrs. Abbot.

Violin solo, Mrs. Zuercher.

Chorus, Mrs. Yearwood, Jean Phillips, Lillian Carney, Eileen Keely, Lelia Goodfellow.

Piano duet, Miss Minnie Ferguson and Miss Edna Salsbury.

Reading, Miss Jessie Hole, Miss MacDermid.

Vocal duet, Miss Norma Pair and Mrs. Leslie Ashley.

After the program the guests began their "Journey through life". The first stage began in the "Infant Room" of the Sunday School where Miss Norma Pair and Miss Lillian Carney, dressed as nurses, provided the guests with bibs and served a lunch of animal crackers and milk. The visitors had to recite nursery rhymes and hold dolls and teddy bears.

Miss Jean Phillips, as a Scotch lassie and Alex Broad were in charge of the next room which represented "School Days". Little Miss Sylvia Abbot sang "School Days" for the visitors, one of whom had to occupy the "Corner Seat" with the customary cap. All had to endure say a dity learned in school or do some stunt. The guests were served cookies, candy lozenges, all-day suckers and gum.

The next stage of the "journey through life" was the wedding. The tourists all entered a room prettily decorated in pink and white seated at the table were the bride and groom. Assisting them to serve the wedding cake were Mrs. Vaughan Jack and Miss Melinda Ferguson. The bride: Miss Eileen Kelly, was daintily gowned in pink. The groom Mr. Gray Rivers, responded to the toast to the bride and informed the well wishers that they were going to drive to Bridgewater on their honeymoon.

Next in line came middle age with its receptions and afternoon teas. Mrs. Rivers was the hostess and with the assistance of Miss Phoebe Stewart and Miss Etta Foley served a dainty lunch of cake, sandwiches and tea.

Then at last comes old age with its pleasant memories and fond dreams of days gone by. Entering we see seated at a table, Grandma (Mrs. C. B. Hannah and Grandpa (John Bristol) reading the newspaper by aid of a lamp. A flowering geranium was on the table. Grandma was busy piecing a quilt. Back on the wall one sees that familiar picture, "Home Sweet Home". The guests enter and receive a kindly welcome. Grandma offers them after-dinner mints. Mrs. Ashley and Mrs. Hubin sang very sweetly "Silver Threads among the Gold" after which the visitors leave and end their "Journey through life".

Dramatic Society Meet

Following the meeting of the Young People's Society the members of the Madoc Dramatic Society held a short meeting in the basement of the church. The members of the society extended their best wishes to Gray Rivers who is leaving to finish his school work at Fraser, Ontario. Mr. Donald Whytock and Miss Norma Pair presented Mr. Gray with a suitable gift. Mrs. Leslie Ashley also presented Mrs. Leslie Ashley with two tea cups on behalf of the society for her assistance in their last play "Let's All Get Married".

The school has started again in the Armouries. One hundred new and up-to-date desks have been purchased. First form has been established on the main floor being second, third and fourth forms are stationed in the officers' mess room on the second floor. Plans for a new and up-to-the-minute high school are being discussed, but as yet no definite arrangements have been made.

Personals

Miss Margaret Cochran has returned to Madoc having been in Belleville for the winter.

Mr. Don Kinlock of Oshawa was a recent visitor in Madoc.

Mrs. Olive Wilmot is visiting her sister, Mrs. Herb Carter, in Belleville.

DEATHS THURSDAY

New York—William H. Woodin 66, former Secretary of the United States Treasury, head of the Treasury during the 1933 banking crisis.

London—Viscount Tredegar 67, president of the National Union of Conservative and Unionist Associations and of the Royal Agricultural Society of London.

New York—Joseph M. Stevens, 78, widely-known connoisseur at Metropolitan Museum, New York, who built a $2,000,000 fortune on a peanut stand.

Winnipeg—Charles A. Vanderlip, promoter and manager of exhibitions and amusements, famous for putting for many years and active in City Hall affairs.

Berlin—Professor Friedlaender 58, historian of German songs and popular "songs".

Stratford: John Purcell 87, veteran grand jury summoner.

London, Ont.—Miss Anna Burg, Shaw-Hurst St., noted figure in charitable endeavours, the Canadian Red Cross Society and Church work.

EXPORT BOARD FOR FRUIT TRADE

KENTVILLE, N.S., May 4—(CP)—A Dominion Export Board should be constituted simply to cooperate with provincial fruit growers and should be made up of representatives of the leading apple exporting provinces, according to a resolution placed by the directors of the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers Association.

MOVEMENT OF GLACIER

Causes Boundary Mark

After a geographical boundary movement had been erected on top of the great divide at Mount Robson in British Columbia, near the Yellowhead Pass through which the Canadian National Railways enters the Rocky Mountains, the movement of a glacier changed the height of land and carried the boundary mark 200 feet out of position. The course of a river flowing north was altered to run south.

CANADIAN PRESS SERVES PURPOSE

President Praises Work of J. F. B. Livesay The General Manager

Toronto, May 3 (CP)—In his president address, Henri Cagnon, general manager of Quebec Solell today told the annual meeting of the Canadian Press that, with the possible exception of the war years, there has not been in the history of the Co-operative News-Gathering Association of the Canadian daily newspaper a period in which its usefulness to the papers and to the country itself has been as clearly demonstrated as during the last few months.

He reviewed the important nature of legislation and debates at Ottawa and in several of the provincial legislatures in showing what the Canadian Press had been able to do in placing these events in full proceedings before the people of Canada. The work of the "debates reporting staff" in this regard he considered an outstanding evidence of its public usefulness.

Mr. Cagnon paid tribute to the "long years of faithful and responsible effort" of J. F. B. Livesay, general manager, had contributed to the Canadian Press, in welcoming Mr. Livesay home from Nassau, the Bahamas, where he had recuperated after an illness, he said:

"For myself I cannot visualize the Canadian Press without concerning at its portals the personality and the organizing ability of its general manager. It would perhaps be going too far to say the Canadian Press could not have become the great co-operative news-gathering organization it is today without him, but I have no hesitation in saying that his abilities have contributed mightily to the upbuilding of the organization which is to all of us a source of pride."

The annual meeting concludes with the election of directors. Those today for 1934-35, and will be followed by the meeting of the new board and the election of officers.

Laborite Asks Why Trotzky Refused

London, May 4—(CP Cable)—Jack McGovern, fiery Laborite demanded in the House of Commons this afternoon why Leon Trotzky had been refused permission to enter her country when "so many Nazi revolutionaries are admitted", "the question immediately arose in the government. Previously Sir John Gilmour, Home Secretary, had announced refusal of permission for Trotzky to enter the country.

OIL TO BE IN ENGLAND

by Cunard

Sailings FRIDAYS from MONTREAL to Plymouth, Havre, London and Belfast, Liverpool. Cherbourg. Third Class Cabin Rates to Great Britain $72.50 and upwards. Tourist Third Cabin Rates to Great Britain and Europe $108.50 and upwards. Low Round Trip Rates to Europe. Apply Local Agent or Cunard Line, 111 Bay Street, Toronto.

Sail CUNARD ANCHOR-DONALDSON

HARBOR SEAL LATEST GUESS

Seals Often Ascend Large Rivers According To Old Report

Prince Edward County's seal which has been making occasional appearances off the mainland in Lake Ontario several times each year during the past few months, is a "harbor seal", according to an official report of a biological survey made by United States Bureau at Washington the year 1884. At that time the creatures were common in the St. Lawrence River, and even ascended large rivers to be present in Lake Ontario.

In an article written by Dr. C. Hart Merriam of the United States bureau of biological survey and printed in the magazine, Forest and Stream, on March 15, 1884, the following statement was given:

"Seals are commonly supposed to confine themselves to the immediate vicinity of the sea; still they have been known to ascend large rivers and often have been found in fresh water lakes far in the interior. They have been killed in Lake Champlain and several have been recorded from streams in New York. Numerous examples belong to the species known as harbor seal are found here at present, although abundant in the St. Lawrence River, fifty miles below Quebec.

Blatchford's ALL-IN-ONE CHICK MASH

It is made with the same care and from the same high quality ingredients as Blatchford's regular Chick Mash—the only difference is—it has

INCLUDES SCRATCH FEED

GROUND RIGHT INTO IT.

It is correctly balanced and minimized. Easy to feed. No additional grain required.

CHAS. E. BISHOP & SON

BELLEVILLE PHONE 283

"In the Brockville Evening Recorder for Jan. 11, 1884, appeared the following: 'Letters to the St. Lawrence—Several gentlemen crossing the river from Morristown this morning were considerably surprised to find in the ice on the water near the first Sister Island a large and exceedingly lively seal which, gambolling around in apparent glee. Mr. William Griffiths, of Morristown one of the gentlemen who witnessed the animal's gambols, says it was the size of an ordinary Newfoundland dog."

Seals had been observed by older residents of Belleville and Prince Edward County on several occasions many years ago. The late Mr. A. Cory of this city, distinctly remembered seeing seals off Wellington over fifty years ago.

SCHOLARS SCAMPER FROM RUNAWAY TEAM

Eighteen Young Old Youth Scholars Assemble And Is Dropped

Seaton, May 4—(CP)—Seventy scores of children bound for Hungerford Collegiate scampered in every direction to leave a wide berth to a galloping runaway team of horses dragging a sawing machine, Reginald Hollo Bolley sprinted across the road and clung to the reins until he brought the frightened animals to a stop. Damage was charged more than 20 feet on his knees.

LOOK AT ALL THREE and COMPARE the PRICES

Some people think that Plymouth's many features make it cost more than other low priced cars. Compare the PRICES and FEATURES.

	PLYMOUTH SIX	CAR C	CAR P
FOUR-DOOR SEDAN DELIVERED TO YOU
INDIVIDUAL WHEEL SPRINGING	YES	NO	NO
HYDRAULIC BRAKES	YES	NO	NO
FLOATING POWER	YES	NO	NO
ALL-STEEL BODY	YES	NO	YES
OIL FILTER	YES	NO	NO
AIR CLEANER	YES	YES	YES
VALVE SEAT INSERTS	YES	NO	YES
MAIN AND CONNECTING-SHAFT BEARINGS	4	3	3
NO PISTON RINGS	4	3	3
NEEDLE BEARINGS	YES	NO	NO
UNIVERSAL JOINTS	YES	YES	YES
OVERALL LENGTH (SEDAN)	181 7/16"	178"	178"

When you've looked at all Three Lowest-Priced Cars and Compared the Prices and Features, you'll find Plymouth Quality is within the reach of any Motor Car Purchaser . . . This is the supreme achievement of Chrysler Engineering and Manufacturing Genius . . . . . .

THE new Plymouth Six gives you four vital quality features. Two of them are entirely new features and two go to give you a smooth ride.

TWO SAFETY FEATURES

Hydraulic brakes, perfected by Chrysler engineers, are the safest kind of brakes. They are always equalized—self-adjusting—self-braking. They operate with a touch of the toe . . . and will stop on a dime!

Plymouth all-steel body, reinforced with steel, is the only kind of body that satisfies a modern-minded motorist. It's the only really safe kind of body. All-steel electrically fused into one sheet-steel unit—as rigid as a modern as a steel bridge or a steel Pullman.

TWO COMFORT FEATURES

Plymouth Independent Front Wheel Springing is the same as used on some of the world's highest priced cars. The long, soft coil springs of specially processed molybdenum alloy steel permit the wheels to "step" over bumps and prevent "back-seat bounce".

Floating Power engine mountings are much more than "rubber cushions". They permit the engine to absorb its own vibrations. The passenger doesn't feel the engine at all!

Try and match these features at Plymouth's low price. Certainly—"Look at all Three", but see the new and ride in the New Plymouth Six. Accept your Plymouth dealer's invitation today.

INSIST ON THESE FOUR VITAL FEATURES

FLOATING POWER ENGINE MOUNTINGS

INDIVIDUAL FRONT WHEEL SPRINGING

SAFETY STEEL BODY

HYDRAULIC BRAKES

BUILT BY CHRYSLER

PLYMOUTH SIX DELIVERED TO YOU IN BELLEVILLE $798 AND UP

J. T. WARREN

CHRYSLER AND PLYMOUTH GARAGE

121 Front St. Belleville

Healthy Happy Children

Thrive on

MOORES CANDY

Wholesome Home-made Fudges ..... 18c lb.
Peanut Crisp ..... 10c to 25c lb.
Nut and Cream Centres ..... 25c and 29c lb.
Chocolate Covered Dates ..... 25c lb.
Burnt Almonds and Brazils ..... 39c lb.

Extra Special This Week
FULL COURSE MEALS
30c 35c — 40c

Sandwiches, plain or toasted ..... 10c to 25c
Hot and Cold Drinks of all kinds
Ice Cream Sodas and Sundaes ..... 10c up
Ice Cream Bricks of all flavours ..... 25c each

MOORES

245 FRONT ST.—Next to Royal Bank

JOBS HOUSES AUTOS

Thousands of OPPORTUNITIES in the WANT ADS

RADIOS ROOMS PETS

GEO. C. BIGGAR ALFRED E. WHITTEN J. GELDING BIGGAR JOHN WILSON CRAWFORD

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD
Business Established 1902
MEMBERS
TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE

Announce the removal of their Belleville Office to 30 BRIDGE ST. EAST
F. E. WHITE, MANAGER
Phone 1738

All Offices Connected by Private Wire

s30-1w.

Automobile Insurance

With three people being killed every two days in Ontario by autos, you are taking very great chances to be without insurance. Rates are now the lowest they have ever been.

Jamieson Bone & Co.
PHONE 1364
Insurance. Investments.

3 WARSHIPS ARE ORDERED TO HODEIDAH

Arabian Port Centre of Trouble As Saud Advances

ANARCHY IN YEMEN

Britain And Italy Send Forces To Protect Citizens

By ALBERT W. WILSON
(United Press Staff Writer)

London, May 4 — (AP)—British occupation of Hodeidah was threatened today because of the break-down of the civil administration at that important South Arabian port as a result of the headlong flight of Yemeni Bill warriors before the conquering troops of Ibn Saud, ruler of Saudi Arabia.

Apprehension over the future conditions of the powerful Ibn Saud and the other parts of the Arabic world were overshadowed in British official quarters by alarming reports of a state of anarchy in the Yemen itself.

Reports today said Ibn Saud's formidable military machine was the spearhead of a great part of the Yemen—a state bounded by the Red Sea, the desert and British-protected Aden.

Fighting at End

It was indicated that the fighting between Ibn Saud and the Imam Yahya, ruler of Yemen, probably was over, but the danger of widespread disorders brought a new threat to the near east establishment of tranquility.

Pending the restoration of order by Ibn Saud in Hodeidah and other Yemeni seaports, the British government, British official circles indicated it may be necessary for British armed forces to land.

British armed forces already have been dispatched to the war zone to assure the safety of foreign residents and interests.

It was said in Government quarters that the Italian fleet visited Hodeidah.

The British commander of the Aden Protectorate, sent to Hodeidah to protect British nationals, was instructed to keep the Government informed of developments.

Rome, May 4 (AP)—The Italian Government today ordered three light warships to Hodeidah to protect Italian subjects and interests in which may be endangered by the conflict in Yemen.

The order for the dispatch of the warships to the danger area came from Benito Mussolini as Premier and Minister of the Navy.

PROBE HEAD IS OUTSPOKEN

Declares Revelations At Probe Are Very Serious

Ottawa, May 4 (CP)—Declaring that the revelations of the tobacco purchases by the Imperial Tobacco Company were very serious as to challenge Parliament and that the company would have to clear them up, Hon. H. H. Stevens put the situation definitely and in no uncertain terms, up to the company in the committee on mass buying and trade relations here today. Grey Miller, president of the firm, denied he was holding back information and promised to meet the Minister's demands as far as possible.

The situation grew tense in the committee as members became dissatisfied with Mr. Miller's answers to the policies of his company in fixing prices at which it would buy the products of the growers. The Minister, who is chairman of the committee, then brought the issue squarely before the witness.

TWICE ENTERS FIRE SAVES FAMILY

Floradale, Ont., May 4 (CP)—Making two trips into the smoke-filled interior of a little farm home near here early today, Melvin Shuh, young Pennsylvania farmer, rescued his sick wife and their baby from the flames.

An exploding coal oil stove filled the downstairs with smoke and fire. Shuler lay helpless upstairs. Her frantic cries for help reached the ears of her husband in the barn and he raced back in time to effect the double rescue.

73 BOXES SOLD

Delta, Ont., May 4. (CP)—Of the 220 boxes of colored cheese offered on the Delta cheese board on 200 boxes were sold at nine cents a pound. The remainder was held for a week.

PALMER'S DIAMOND EVENT

Belleville Days

Lor-Y-Le Diamond
Set in an exquisitely reversed white gold ring

$50.00

USE OUR PAYMENTS

Engagement and Wedding Ring
Beautifully Matched Lor-Y-Le Diamond

$25.00

OUR BIG EVENT

Lady's Diamond Ring
White or green gold

$15.00

Wedding Rings
$5.00 up

4 COUPONS FOR EVERY $ PURCHASE
—Shop On Friday and Saturday—
28 Bridge St. E.

WE have one of the finest collections of jewelry in this city. That and easy establishment reputations for quality and integrity makes us the ideal place for you to come to make your gift selections.

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, F. D. Willis branch manager. Quotations at 2.50 p.m. Daylight Saving Time:

MINES

Ashley 94
Ajax 1.11
Acme 26½
Brsh. Tretb. 10
Barry Hollinger 15½
Base Metals 1.53
Bobjo 49
Big Missouri 99
Bagamac 36
Coniburnia 28
Central Patricia 60
Central Manitoba 11
Coast Copper 4.75
Dome 27.00
Eldorado 2.56
Falconbridge 3.75
Goldale 15
Granada 78
Hollinger 13.70
Hom. Oil 1.56
Hudson's Bay 13.00
Harvey 1.38
Kirkland Lake 53
Kirkland Townsite 27
Lake Shore 40.75
Massey 3.70
Malartic 52
McIntyre 45.50
Mining Corporation 1.96
McLeod River 5¾
McWatters 43
Moffat Hall 6
Nipissing 2.35
Noranda 40.00
International-Nickel 27.90
B.C. Pioneer 13.10
Parkhill 88
Premier 1.38
Reno 95
St. Anthony 58
Sherritt 1.11
Sisco 2.15
San Antonio 3.27
Stadacona 27
Sudbury Basin bid 1.75
Sylvanite 3.54
Teck Hughes 6.15
Ventures bid 93
Wayside 41
Waite Amulet 1.37
Wright Hargreaves 8.85
White Eagle 35
Wiltsey 15
Cody's Lake 1.46
Thompson Cad. 46
Bear 47
Maple Leaf 65
McMillan 67
Reade Auth. 96
Ormsby Head 90
Toronto.

R. A. Oil, 18.
Imperial Oil, 14⅞.
McColl-Frontenac, 24¾.
International Nickel, 29½.
Supertest, 24⅝.
Brewers and Distillers, 16⅜.
Distillers Seagrams, 17¾.
Walkers, 34⅛.
Walker's Pref., 101½.
Canada Malting, 41.
Can. Breweries, 6¼.
Bell Telephone, 119¼.
C.P.R., 14¾.
Canada Car, 7.
Canada Cement, 8.
Cockshutt, 7¼.
Dominion Bridge, 20⅝.
Ford "A", 22⅝.
Smiths, 13⅜.
Loblaw "A", 17½.
Montreal Power, bid 37⅞.
Massey Harris, 5.
Page Hersey, 69½.
Penmans Limited, 17¾ asked.
Power Corporation, 12¾.
Can. Steamship, 1½.
Steel of Canada, 36¼.
Brazilian, 12¾.
Gypsum, 6¾.
O.I.A. (new), bid 10.
O.I.A. (old), 14¼.

New York.

American Can, 99½.
Aviation Corporation, 7⅜.
Auburn, 51.
American Par. Power, 8⅝.
Anaconda, 16⅜.
National Distillers, 27⅞.
N. Y. Central, 30½.
Case, 58¾.
Elec. Auto Lite, 23⅜.
Cons. Gas, 33¼.
General Motors, 35½.
Ingler, Telephone, 33¼.
Standard Oil of N. J., 44⅜.
Chrysler, 44.
North American, 17⅜.
National Dairy Prod., 16⅛.
Montgomery Ward, 27⅛.
Phillip's Pete, 18⅜.
Radio, 6¾.
Standard Brands, 20⅛.
Stewart Warner, 8⅛.
American T. and T., 112⅜.
Vanadium, 23⅛.
United Aircraft, 23.
Westinghouse, 57½.
U. S. Steel, 46¼.
U. S. Smelters, 117.
United Aircraft, 23⅛.

½ ½

Board Room Gossip

Considerable improvement in Canada's varied industries is revealed by an analysis of returns which received since first of year by Toronto Stock Exchange. April bulletin shows 107 companies reporting 68 with higher earnings against 39 with lower net or instances deficits. Of 68 companies showing improvement 39 had higher net 12 had favorable balance against deficits in previous year and 17 showed reduced deficits. Of the 39 making a poorer showing 30 had a lower loss and 9 recorded larger deficits.

Two Sections of Stock

The U.S. House has approved section of Stock Market Regulative Bill dealing with liability misleading statements and power of Federal Trade Commission with respect to Exchanges and Securities.

We look for a gradual advance to convey after the gold tax debacle. Public confidence has to be restored and to accomplish that we must hurdle the past couple of weeks of blue ruin predictions.

News from the Mines continues good. Prospective buyers are looking excellent and we are reliably informed that two are on the point of purchasing and producing by this time a year hence.

Despite the fact that the tax will take the lucre producers away where from 10 to 40 cents per share we still like them. The yield will still be good. Earnings will run around $3 an ounce or $15,000,000 for all above that on the same tonnage and grade of ore.

24 AIRPLANES FOR DEFENCE

Australia Decides To Add Reinforcements To Air Defences

Melbourne, Australia, May 4 (CP) Cable to Australian Purchase of 24 Seagull amphibian aeroplanes was announced today by the Minister of Defence, shortly after announcement of Government's plan to build a cruiser in Australia's programme of increasing her defences in the face of the certain situation in the Far East.

Earlier this week he announced placing of a contract for a 7,500 ton destroyer to be built in Australia type, armed with 6 inch guns.

The Seagull is a two-seat flying boat, a biplane, with wings of composite construction (stainless steel sides and wood rib) and an aluminum alloy hull. Great care was taken in the design of the machine to obtain aerodynamic efficiency and low resistance, for example, is so designed that when the wheels are raised they are housed in recesses in the lower wings.

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS

Change of Time Effective April 29th 1934.

TRAINS GOING EAST

North Station No. 118, 12.35 A.M. Mail and Express. Monday only.
North Station No. 12, 1.20 A.M. Mail and Express Daily, except Monday.
North Station, No. 16, 9.00 A.M. The Maritime Limited, Daily.
North Station, No. 14, 12.05 noon. The International Limited, Daily
North Station, No. 6, 6.08 P.M. The International Limited Local Train. Daily.
North Station, No. 448, 7.00 P.M. Daily except Saturday to Ottawa.

TRAINS GOING WEST

North Station No. 19 2.55 A.M. Mail and Express Daily.
North Station, No. 17, 4.10 A.M. The Inter-City Limited, Daily.
North Station, No. 5, 2.45 P.M. The Maple Leaf, Daily.
North Station No. 9 8.30 P.M. Daily except Saturday and Sunday.
North Station, No. 15, 7.10 P.M. The International Limited Pool Daily.
North Station No. 109 7.35 P.M. Local train Sunday's only.

BELLEVILLE & PETERSBORO

North Station No. 11 6.15 A.M. Local Passenger. Daily except Sunday.
BELLEVILLE & PICTON
North Station No. 553 8.00 A.M. Local Passenger. Mon. Wed., Fri.
Leave Picton for Belleville 12.30 P.M. same days.

34 Strachan Street To-Let

2 rooms downstairs, 2 bedrooms, toilet, hardwood floors downstairs, wired for electric range, hot water heat, garage, garden, easily heated. A comfortable home at low rental. Immediate possession.

BELLEVILLE LOCATORS
Geo. N. Gorman, Prop.
167 Front Street
Phone 99 Home Phone 667

DIED

TICE—In Belleville on May 3, 1934, Margaret Jane McNaughton, beloved wife of Geo. O. Tice.
Funeral from the late residence 23 W. Bridge Street, on Monday, May 7th, at 2.30. Private service in the home at 2 p.m. thence to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church for service at 2.30, Interment Belleville Cemetery. ms4-3c

DIED

CUSHING—In Belleville on Thursday, May 3rd, 1934, Annie Keenan beloved wife of Alderman Thos. Cushing.
The funeral will take place from her late residence, 36 Alexander Street, on Saturday, May 5th, at 8.30 a.m. to St. Michael's Church for Mass at 9 o'clock. Interment in St. James' Cemetery. ms4-1c.

DIED

HALL—In Plainfield on Friday, May 4th, 1934, Maria Allen Healy, beloved wife of Robert A. Hall, in her 77th year.
The funeral will take place from her late residence on Sunday, May 6th, Service at 2 p.m. Interment Thomasburg Cemetery. ms4-1c

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
87 Campbell St.
Phone 777—If No Answer Call 898
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland H. Tickell
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Have for Sale
FUNERAL HOME
Cor. Church St. and
Victoria Ave.
Phone 2295

Thomas O. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
36 Everett St. Phone 62
Office
252 Front St. Phone 61

THE MARTIN
FUNERAL HOME
218-219 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE SERVICE
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

TO-LET

APARTMENT TO LET, ENTRANCE from Front street and Victoria Avenue. Fit to suit tenant. Apply Sam Pappas, Belmont Restaurant. m1-tf.

HOUSEKEEPING MADE EASY by occupying one of these attractive residences:—Duplex house, Charles St.; Front St. Apartment and house, Church St.; Duplex St. Miss Corbett. Phone 1663.

3 ROOM HEATED APARTMENT, private bath, hot water heating, laundry. Apply 251 Front Street. m1-tf.

FIVE ROOMED APARTMENT, hardwood floors, heated, garage. Dr. R. Thompson, 104 Dundas St. West. m1-1n.

5 ROOM APARTMENT, MODERN conveniences, hardwood floors, basement, suitable for light housekeeping. Apply 150 Church Street. Phone 1579. s27-tf.

NO 133 WEST MODERN, SEMI-detached house, all modern conveniences. Garage and garden. Apply 36 Bridge E. s12-tf.

APARTMENT, FIVE ROOMS heated, hardwood floors, fireplaces, electric range. Possession Feb. 21. Apply at Ontario Intelligencer Office. ja-tf.

Attention

The Conservative Convention for West Hastings will be held in the Town Hall, Marmora, Friday, May 11th, at 8 p.m. for the purpose of selecting a candidate. All supporters of the Hepburn Government are cordially invited.

A. E. Ellis, R. H. Ketcheson,
President, Secretary,
Deloro, P.O. Belleville
m4 7 9.

SAYS POLICIES DICTATED

Washington, May 4 (AP)—Investigators reported to a Senate committee today that the policies which led to the failure of the $35,000,000 Central Republic Bank of Cleveland were dictated by Joseph R. Nutt and that he was "influenced" by the Van Sweringens.

BACON HOGS

Toronto, May 4 (CP)—Bacon hog quotations were irregular today at $7.80 to $7.75 P.D.B. shipping point with $1 premium for extras.

Today's prices were: Kitchener $7.60 down 15; London $7.60 unchanged; Hull, Que., off truck $8.25, up 15; Peterborough $7.60, unchanged.

PHONE 99
Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagement Notices $1.50; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; In Memoriam, $1.00; Cards of Thanks, $1.00; Resolutions of Respect, $5.00. Above rates are for the per count line; Leaded Readers, double the above rates; minimum charge 75c.
CLASSIFIED — For Sale, Wanted, etc., 1c per word per insertion; minimum charge 15c per insertion.
COMMERCIAL CARDS—$1 per month per 12 words or under.
CLASSIFIED DISPLAY—15c per insertion for 12 words or under, over that 1c per word. Minimum 15c.
PROFESSIONAL CARDS, 1 INCH by one month $3.00. Yearly (minimum) $18.00. Each additional inch.
OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES (including those concerning Local Sales)—15c per agate line (14 lines to the inch) for first insertion; 10c per agate line for each subsequent insertion.
ADVERTISEMENTS not used, leaded for count as 12 words; minimum 25 words for 75c; thereafter 1c per insertion, 3c per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.
Telephone orders will be accepted, but it is understood that CASH IS NOT REQUIRED UNTIL PAYMENT IS MADE. PHONE 99.
Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any Want Ad.
Advertisers may have their replies addressed to the Box Number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

GENTLEMEN BOARDERS WANTED. Comfortable rooms. Close to Front St. Phone 910F. m24-11

FURNISHED ROOM WANTED BY business girl, centrally located, by week-end, moderate price. Reply to Box "E" this office. m24-1t

LADY'S BICYCLE, PHONE 610.
m4-2t.

SOD SUITABLE FOR LAWN bowling green. Inquire 14 J. WEST, Foxboro. m4-1t.

AT ONCE 10 GIRLS TO LEARN hairdressing, starting Monday, May 14. We will offer a complete course in hair dressing including in permanent and finger waving. Good paying positions guaranteed after completion of training. For full particulars and interview, write or phone giving number to Box "W" Ontario Intelligencer. m4-1n

SALESMEN WANTED
MEN WANTED FOR RAWLEIGH Routes of 800 families in Hastings County, Belleville. Reliable hustler can find start earning $25 weekly and increase rapidly. Write immediately, Rawleigh Co., Dept. CN-3-B, Montreal, Canada. m4-1n

FACTORY REPRESENTATIVE for famous Health Appliance. Excellent opportunity. Write Harmony Electro MFG., 2 Dundas St. E., Toronto. m4 2t 7.

POSITION WANTED BY YOUNG girl as domestic. Good references. Phone 1352J. m4-1n

USED CAR, WILL PAY CASH. State particulars and best price to Box "C" Ontario Intelligencer. m3-2t.

COOK GENERAL, EXPERIENCED, with reference. Apply Write Box "V" Ontario Intelligencer. m3-2t.

LIGHT CAR, REASONABLE. Quarterly payments. Phone 15 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. m4-1n.

MARRIED WRIGHT, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office, Canadian Bank Building.

CHARLES H. GRAHAM, BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Public, Commissioners, etc. Office: 28 Bridge Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on mortgages. W. N. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham. Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late F. B. Fairbridge), Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets. Belleville. Ontario.

BIGGAR & BUTLER, BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office: 30 Bridge Street E. J. Butler K.C. Ormonde Butler.

B. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

PERSONAL

UNSIGHTLY FAT RUNS YOU OF self-confidence and charm. Slender Tablets help you to rid yourself of excess avoirdupois quickly, safe and sane manner. $1.50 for three weeks treatment. Ask McKeown's Drug Store. Phone 135.

PLEBISCITE PLANNED FOR SAAR VALLEY

Geneva, May 4 (AP)—A committee of three was named today to make arrangements for the plebiscite which will determine the future of the industrially important Saar Valley.

LOST

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, TWO parcels containing blankets and drapes between Brookside and Havelock, via Belleville, Stirling, Campbellford. Reward if left at Ontario Intelligencer. m4-2t

LOST

WHEEL AND SPARE TIRE OFF Chevrolet car, between Trenton, Frankford and Foxboro. Finder notify Queen's Hotel. c4-2t

Business Directory

AUTOMOBILE LOANS

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner Our Financing of All Kinds
S. J. FISHER & SON
26 Bridge St. E. Telephone 161
Representing
Campbell Auto Finance
Co. Ltd.
Toronto-Ottawa-London-Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., SPECIAL examination with the Radiclesat reveals all diseases in the early stages. Foot disorders corrected, all diseases treated. Phone 900 or write 288 Coleman St., Belleville.

H. R. and Vera B. Pitcher
CHIROPRACTORS
(Honour Graduates)
Palm-Neuropathic Service
435½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 2274 Belleville, Ont.

DENTIST

DR. ROST, H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 662 243½ Front St.
Belleville, Ont.

SURVEYORS

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Engineer.
Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to.
PHONE 6—2-0. BOX 98
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with an Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
231 Front St. Phone 128

HALL & EARLE

General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
228 Front Street Phone 1154W

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738. F. H. Wills, Branch Manager. m8-1y.

LEGAL

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public, Chas. A. Payne, K.C., Jas. R. Arnott. Offices: 212 Front Street, Belleville, Ont.

CHARLES H. KERR, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary and Commissioner, 25 Bridge St. East, Belleville, Ont. Phone 1.

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICitor, Notary Public, etc. 15 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74.

MARRIED WRIGHT, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office, Canadian Bank Building.

CHARLES H. GRAHAM, BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Public, Commissioners, etc. Office: 28 Bridge Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on mortgages. W. N. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham. Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late F. B. Fairbridge), Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets. Belleville. Ontario.

BIGGAR & BUTLER, BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office: 30 Bridge Street E. J. Butler K.C. Ormonde Butler.

B. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

BUSINESS

CRESS CORN SALVE—Just rub it in. No need to bathe or bind. At Belleville 110 & 1 Drugstore.

For Your Summer Wardrobe
FUR STORAGE and INSURANCE
Telephone 421
WOODLEY'S FURRIERS
272 Front St.

BISHOP GIVES PRAISE TO W.A.

Missionary Effort Taxes to Bounds of Earth Says His Lordship

In Christ Church Parish Hall yesterday afternoon delegates to the annual meeting of the diocesan W. A. assembled for luncheon and to receive the address of welcome from Christ Church branch. The visitors had for their honored guest Rt. Rev. John Lyons, Lord Bishop of Belleville of the diocese, who delivered an inspiring message on this occasion.

Under the convenorship of Mrs. John Sargent and Mrs. Harold a delicious luncheon was served in Christ Church W. A. members, baskets of fragrant flowers in charming spring colors were tastefully arranged on the long tables. And the head table diocesan officers and distinguished guests were served.

Lilies and marigolds with pink and Betty Wilson were awarded merits cards at the annual meeting of the diocesan W.A. Mayor Dewe of Colborne Sprung were presented with silver membership pins in recognition of Mrs. Addison Vandervoort having the largest number of new members.

I DREADED THE THOUGHT OF GREASY POTS AND PANS UNTIL I USED

It cuts through grease—makes messy kitchen jobs easy!

DON'T be a slave to kitchen chores. Just use a solution of one teaspoonful of Gillett's Pure Flake Lye dissolved in a quart of cold* water. It puts an end to stubborn stains. Lifts grease and grime off like magic!

Gillett's Lye is indispensable for all your heavy cleaning . . . for stopped-up drains . . . for toilet bowls. Order a tin from your grocer today. Say good-bye to hard rubbing and scrubbing!

*Never dissolve lye in hot water. The action of the lye itself heats the water.

FREE BOOKLET—Be sure to get the new revised Gillett's Lye Booklet . . . it tells how this powerful cleanser and disinfectant will lighten dozens of household tasks. Contains full information for soap making, through cleaning and other uses on the farm. Write for free copy to Standard Brands Limited, Fraser Ave. & Liberty St., Toronto, Ont.

GILLETT'S LYE EATS DIRT

RECEIVE AWARDS

The Junior Branch of the Women's Auxiliary at Christ Church is receiving high praise as two of their members Alma Wade and Betty Wilson were awarded merit cards at the annual meeting of the diocesan W.A. Mayor Dewe of Colborne Sprung were presented with silver membership pins in recognition of Mrs. Addison Vandervoort having the largest number of new members.

Anglican Auxiliary Hear Stories of Chinese Devotion

Work of Missions Is Related By Miss Greta Clarke

Reports of a comprehensive and encouraging nature covering all the phases of the society's work were presented by diocesan officers at the two days session of the W. A. and Junior Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England, Ontario diocese which opened yesterday in St. Thomas' Parish House Rev. Canon Armitage, M. H. A. Low, president, Kingston, was in the chair.

Greetings were extended the visitors from various women's organizations in the city, Mrs. Wm. Sherburn, representing Victoria Avenue Baptist Church; W.M.S. and Juniors, Mrs. C. Bishop, Bridge Street United church; W.M.S., Mrs. J. Moore, John Street United Church and Mrs. Bell was present to welcome the delegates in the name of their societies. Letters of greeting were read from the Toronto and Ontario Catholic Women's League, Mrs. Hamilton Cassels, Toronto, president, from the officers and members of the Women's Auxiliary in the dioceses of Huron, Algoma, Quebec, Toronto, Saskatchewan, Prince Edward Island, Qu'Appelle and Montreal. These expressions of welcome were duly appreciated by the meeting.

President's Address

Mrs. L. H. Kirkpatrick, Kingston, diocesan first vice president then introduced the president who addressed the delegates. Mrs. Lowe referred to the hospitality of Christ Church in entertaining the annual meeting and the co-operation of St. Thomas' parish. She paid a tribute to the devoted and inspiring manner in which the heads of the various departments had carried on their work during the year and discussed at length the purposes of missionary funds to which money contributed. For the thankoffering appeals would be considered on Friday. It was later announced that this matter was taken at the service in Christ Church during the morning had amounted to one thousand and twenty dollars and thirty cents. Four hundred dollars of this will go to the bishop for work in the diocese. Much of the money will be used for the training in nursing, support and pensioning of women missionaries, and to the medical missionary work conducted by their families.

Mrs. Lowe deplored the fact that there had been a decrease in membership in the past year. Reasons for this was that the spiritual side of the work was not being sufficiently stressed.

"We need to examine ourselves and ask God to show us if we really believe that the love of Christ constraineth us," she said. Many devotions to take part, in some accessible.

"We must keep before us the needs of the world, and by prayer ourselves Christ's faithful soldiers and servants."

Reports Presented

The minutes of the last meeting were taken as read on motion of the recording secretary, Mrs. W. H. Chalmers, Kingston. Reports were then given by Mrs. Francis King, corresponding secretary, and from the following dioceses: Frontenac —Mrs. J. P. Mackenzie-Naughton Kingston; Ontario, Grenville—Miss Leslie Daniels, Prescott; Leeds, the report of Mrs. A. A. Smith, Brockville; Hastings—Mrs. Chas. Sweet, Stirling; Ernestown and Addington—Mrs. C. E. Radcliffe, Deseronto; Prince Edward—the report of Mrs. E. R. Cook, Belleville.

Reports during the afternoon were those of Mrs. W. J. Noonan, Brockville, Living Message; Mrs. P. H. Huyck, Kingston, Educational and Miss Emily Nottan, Kingston, Dorcas. These reports were printed in pamphlet form and distributed to the delegates.

The last report was probably the most interesting of the afternoon. Miss Nottan's special devotion is to the purchasing of supplies for and the packing of boxes which mean so much in the material work of the missionaries. Miss Nottan told of the many calls she had, of the difficulties encountered in meeting requirements and of the messages of thanks which were a wonderful encouragement to all the efforts and money expended.

Devotional periods were sung during the session, Mrs. Ross Hunter presiding at the piano.

Delegates Elected

Delegates heard with interest an address by Mrs. J. R. Soares, Toronto, Girls' and Candidates' Secretary for the province. Mrs. Soares felt that her work was the nicest.... the selection and assistance of candidates for the mission fields. Over one hundred applications from all over the Dominion were received last year from girls offering their services to do their bit for the Lord.

Mrs. Soanes then told something of the girls who were this year entering upon their life as foreign missionaries. She referred to Miss Lillias Harper, B.A., of Winnipeg, who was leaving with Miss Greta Clark, as a teacher-Miss Burns, in China, of Miss Lillas Powell, Gravenhurst, who would soon be assuming the duties of nurse at the New Life Hospital, Hwaian, Kiangsu, and Miss Ann Burgess who would be leaving shortly for China.

The many tasks and faith and prayer opened the door of opportunity to the candidates, unexpected donations paying their expenses, or circumstances fulfilling them for their chosen work.

Miss Greta Clark

Herself a candidate more than ten years ago, Miss Greta Clark, missionary to Kaifeng, China, addressed the meeting and the fervour with which she spoke of her love of Christ and the joy that had come to her in His service stirred her hearers but maybe her hearers. Her special appeal was for the prayers of her hearers.

"It is only by the power of the Holy Spirit that we can be faithful when her friends asked her if she were not too tired after her day's work to continue as night she replied,

"I work in the daytime and I get paid. In the evening I make my thankoffering to the Lord Jesus for all He has done for me."

Mrs. Kan, whose grief at the death of her little boy was lessened by the fact that he had known Jesus before he died, employed a Bible woman at her own expense for several years to bring the Christian message to other little Chinese boys.

Medical work in this Chinese diocese is a great missionary undertaking. Terrible eye diseases, intestinal troubles, fourty emergencies when Chinese who have "lost face" over a trivial matter attempt suicide, repenting almost as soon as they have committed the rash act to give the one hospital in a centre of eight millions a very active program.

Banditry and communism are the grave dangers in China today.

"Missionaries are the great witnesses of the light. We must pray more and by our faith overcome the dangers of communism. Your missionaries overcome and at home will treasure your prayers."

Makes You Forget You Have FALSE TEETH
No longer does any wearer of false teeth need to be embarrassed by Fastesth, the new, greatly improved powder to sprinkle on your plates. Fastesth holds teeth firmer and more comfortably. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Imparts no taste. Keeps FASTETH, 35c, or 65c, also to-day at your druggist. Sprinkle
FASTETH—MADE IN CANADA

LITANY DESK IS DEDICATED

Bishop Dedicates Carved Oak Memorial to Archdeacon

One of the most notable events in the parish of Tyendinaga recently was the visit of the Lord Bishop of Ontario, Rev. Dr. John Lyons, who was greeted by the congregation of Christ and All Saints' Churches.

At Christ Church the rector presented eighteen candidates for the Apostolic rite of Confirmation, after which the Bishop dedicates the beautiful carved oak Litany Desk given the church by the parish guild, and a few of the friends, in memory of the late parish rector, the Venerable Archdeacon Creighton who for nearly a quarter of a century was the faithful friend, priest and pastor of the Reserve.

In an address to the many present, the Bishop spoke feelingly of his friend with whom he had been associated so many years in the ministry. Dedication was then made of a memorial which will perpetuate his memory to future generations. Assisted by the rector and the Rev. A. L. Green of the city, he celebrated Holy Communion. During the offertory the choir rendered the anthem: "Let Not Your Heart be Troubled." One of the floral sprays of flowers that decorated the altar was sent from Ottawa by Miss Isabel Creegan in affectionate remembrance of her brother, the Archdeacon.

At All Saints' Church the service was unique and impressive. Evensong was combined with the consecration services of the new cemetery. Singing a hymn, the church wardens, Messrs. R. H. Hill and Gordon Frost, followed by the robed choir, clergy, Bishop and congregation, marched around the cemetery, after which His Lordship consecrated the land, setting it apart as "God's Acre" where the bodies of the faithful may be laid to await resurrection.

For you
THIS EVERYDAY LUXURY
The luxury of a complexion kept lovely by Yardley Lavender Toiletries can be yours, even though you spend but little on cosmetics. The daily use of Yardley Toiletries, luxury that it is, costs so little. Soap that long outlasts ordinary soap, Lip-Pomade, snow-white cream, a mist-fine powder, and a fragrance so correct for every occasion—these lovable items will win your heart when you begin their daily use. 166
YARDLEY LAVENDER
LONDON • TORONTO • NEW YORK • PARIS

YOUR GREY HAIR
Can Be Restored To Its NATURAL COLOR
Without The Use of a Dye
ANGELIQUE HAIR RESTORER
is made from roots and barks and restores the ORIGINAL COLOUR in the NATURAL way, at the same time giving the hair its natural healthy lustre.
SOLD UNDER A MONEY BACK GUARANTEE
PRICE $1.00 PER BOTTLE
manufactured by Angelique Products Limited, Toronto
FOR SALE BY
DOLAN The Druggist

Big Reductions in the Following Lines
Leather Goods, Toilet-ware, Silverware, Clocks, Lighters, Bracelets, Pendants, Glassware, Umbrellas, and etc.
J. O. R. McCurdy
224 Front St. Phone 318

Personals

Mr. Henry Ross, formerly well known accountant of the Belleville branch of the Royal Bank, has been appointed manager of the Wellland Branch of the same bank.

Mrs. G. H. Brown, Elmer street, has returned home after spending the winter months with her son in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McCreery, Bridge street, are leaving Belleville on Friday on an extended motor trip to Winnipeg, and possibly the coast.

The Monica Hawell Club under the direction of Mr. Harry Wagner met at the home of Miss Joyce Woodhouse, Emily street last evening, where club members were entertained. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Miss Gladys Cramer, Reg. N., of the last meeting, called the roll and gave a financial report. After the business part of the meeting was brought to a close a social hour was spent. A door prize was given and Miss Arthur Cole held the lucky ticket. There was a number of contests and games which were conducted by Mrs. Tuck and her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Robertson and were accepted with much enthusiasm and laughter. Those receiving prizes were Mrs. I. B. Naylor Mrs. Wm. Wease and Mrs. C. E. Hogle. At the close of the social hour dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Robertson assisted by Mrs Ethel Wease, Little Miss Jean McDonald and Master Donald Dolan after which a vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. Hall to Mrs. Tuck, all joining in the hearty clasp of hands. Mrs. Tuck making a suitable reply.

TABERNACLE W. A. MEETS

Group No. 5 of the Tabernacle Church met at the home of Mrs. H. G. Tuck, 57 Station street on Wednesday evening, May 2nd with an unusally large attendance. Mrs. H. Hall, convener, was in charge of the business part of the meeting assisted by Mrs. C. E. Hogle. The meeting opened by singing "Blest be the Tie That Binds" with Mrs. Hogle at the piano, followed by the "Lord's Prayer" repeated in unison. Mrs. Ed. Sharpe read the minutes of the last meeting and gave a financial report. After the business part of the meeting was brought to a close a social hour was spent. A door prize was given and Miss Arthur Cole held the lucky ticket. There was a number of contests and games which were conducted by Mrs. Tuck and her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Robertson and were accepted with much enthusiasm and laughter. Those receiving prizes were Mrs. I. B. Naylor Mrs. Wm. Wease and Mrs. C. E. Hogle. At the close of the social hour dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Robertson assisted by Mrs Ethel Wease, Little Miss Jean McDonald and Master Donald Dolan after which a vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. Hall to Mrs. Tuck, all joining in the hearty clasp of hands. Mrs. Tuck making a suitable reply.

VANDERBILT'S COLT ENTERED

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 4—(CP)—Discovery, Alfred G. Vanderbilt's chestnut colt, and one of the favorites, was the first to be entered today for tomorrow's Kentucky Derby. His entry was formally posted shortly after the list was opened.

SWEDISH CROWN PRINCE ILL

STOCKHOLM, May 4—(CP)—Crown Prince Gustaf Adolf, heir to the throne, is ill with influenza, it was announced today.

DENVER SNOWBOUND

Denver, May 4 (CP)—Even rattlesnakes cannot keep laborers on a Denver unemployment relief project from their work. Removing stone from a mountain near Denver, the workmen discovered 15 rattlesnake nests and killed many reptiles. They officially listed their work as the "supplementary rattlesnake eradication project."

$8,500 AWARD

TORONTO, May 4—Mrs. Maude Amy Brandt was given $8,000 and costs of action by reason judgment in her $50,000 damage action for the death of her husband, Charles O. Brandt, in a motor collision in June last Kingston. Out against Charles Horace Keeling.

"I'D RATHER STAY HOME THAN GO THAT WAY"

INK SPILLED ON McLARNIN

New York Sport Writers Are Unfair To Bomber

By Sam Robertson, Canadian Press Staff Writer

New York, May 4 (CP)—It might be a mistake for Jimmy McLarnin to bring along a couple of pleasure cars to Chicago for his workout as a bodyguard when he invades the Windy City for tonight's 158-pound welterweight championship fight with Barney Ross.

Hardly likely to increase the Vancouver bomber's popularity here should it be the fact that some metropolitan writers of sporting pieces are lambasting him roundly— with polished ink—because he will have an advantage of 10 pounds or less over the champion at the start of the lightweight title affair, May 28 engagement.

Weight is being made to appear like a very rowdy rowdy. Ross, in comparison, would seem to be a Lilliputian trying to protect his yoke of cranky.

If the campaign of vituperation continues it might have a special significance, should New Yorkers be able to think about such things in these days of crowded sport, when they become tax payments. But in case it should, it would be well to consider there are some 2,000,000 Jewish inhabitants within the confines of Manhattan to dub the match "lopsided," "unsporting" and even "a place in the sun" for a big-little man and a fight.

Pulled from the pugilistic closet is the 1932 meeting between McLarnin and Young Corbett III, for the non lightweight. Fuller asserted a bad performance might end the commentators use the fight to back up their argument that the Vancouver boy's former showing was "good looking" for little men to fight.

Completely lacking for diatribes, however, is the fact that Jack Mesaros, Fuller and Ross, or their handlers perhaps, are the seekers after the matches, not McLarnin.

3 MONTHS ON BISCUITS AND MILK

Woman's Digestive Troubles

Everyone who is subject to any form of indigestion should know of this wonderful experience. Advice from one who has had such severe attacks is always worth having. She writes:—

"I suffered from indigestion, gastritis and constipation and was so very ill. I had (on medical advice) to live on soda biscuits and milk for three months. Well, a friend advised me to take Kruschen and now I am pleased to say my troubles are ended. I can eat anything, a good meal without any painful after-effects, my skin is clearer—in fact quite otherwise there is no sign of constipation. I would advise anyone suffering like me to take Kruschen."—(Mrs.) M. Pk. L.

The immediate effect of the six salts in Kruschen is to promote a natural flow of the digestive and other vital juices of the body. Soon after you start on Kruschen you will find that you are able to enjoy your food without any distressing after-effects. And as you persevere with the "little daily dose" you will see that the relief which Kruschen brings is lasting relief.

RECREATION ALLEYS

The Major League at the Recreation Alleys bowled their last scheduled game of the season last night with the championship Belleville Fruit team finishing in first place with a total of 43 points for 15 league games.

The league comprised of six teams with close games all through the schedule. The Bank of Commerce nosed the Belleville Golf out of a play-off position by two points on the total.

The teams finished in the following positions:

	Points
Belleville Fruit	43
Recreation	34
Defaze	34
Bankers	29
Belleville Golf	27
Ontario Intelligencer	10

Major League

Belleville Fruit—T. Morrow 735; C. Bryant 666; P. Coulson 642; L. Rossetti 589; B. Miles 651. 3313.

Bank of Commerce—Lee 648; D. Tobe 729; P. Belnap 589; L. Barrett 714; L. Shiels 676. 3125.

Belleville Fruit 2 points.

Ontario Intelligencer—Hardwick 533; Fitzpatrick 588; Archibald 607; H. Hardwick 514; A. Meagher 544. 2636.

Recreation—Lee 562; Lynch 738; Doran 666; Harris 619; Domenico 679. 2264.

Recreation 4 points.

Belleville Golf—H. Ridley 661; T. Rodney 724; J. Marsh 577; B. Wray 588; J. Legault 580. 2991.

Dr. Kane—2 Dromore 617; R. Penn 596; J. Cox 479; C. Keegan 395; H. Bowden 521. 2548.

Belleville Golf, 2 points.

CURRENT SPORT

(Day By Day)

When the local senior men's softball loop opened the other night they adopted a 45-game schedule, with practically one half of the games being played at the Central Park on Coleman Flats. It was announced by these flats authority that special bleachers would be erected at these grounds, assuring the fans of better accommodation at these softball games, which incidentally will be of nine innings duration as soon as daylight-saving time gets effect. Games will also be played at the old Albert College field, on Alemite grounds and the Cricket Field, thus assuring the fans in every part of the city games in their immediate vicinity. The schedule will take to four months, starting on May 30 with the play-offs extending until August 15, a winner having to be declared on that day for O.A.S.A. provincial play-downs competition. The present Wall Street pre-season loop will not only give the teams ample practice but add to the prestige of the game. The Wall Street loop terminates on May 26, thus giving the boys a five-day breathing spell between league schedules.

For the purpose of completing plans for the coming sailing season the punters down at the South End A.C. met on the other night and drafted their sailing rules. They intend racing every Wednesday afternoon and also on legal holidays from May 24 until Labor Day. There are classes as last year are in vogue, A class (22 feet and under), B class (18 feet and under), C class (14 feet and under). The D class will include the punts and they have been improved for the preceding classes. A special class for skiffs will be arranged with the W. H. Patterson cup being awarded this class. Suggested dimensions for punts were discussed and adopted. The matter of the amount of canvas to be carried was set at main sail and jib for cup races but no limit was set on the sail area in league races. All protests must be in the hands of the secretary-manager not in twenty-four hours of the race from which it arises. The meeting was attended by the Belleville Yacht Club competing in their club races and the scheme was brought up and a committee of four appointed to confer with the B.Y.C. on a tentative level relating to the possible co-operation between the two clubs that there will be no set on dates and any possible over-lapping or friction.

For the past two evenings the base ball fraternity throughout the community have been holding away at the Pay Ground. Manager Mills has more than his share of work cut out to weed out the chaff from the wheat. Last night there were fifty-three aspirants at every position in the infield, except second base where five tried out. Roy Smith and Lionel Blaker seem to be the class of initial suckers with Roy Covert, Bill Heuk, two juniors coming up and Chuck Barrigge are at the hot corner nightly while Dean Ford and Harry Long look the best at short. Around the keystone sack Allan Meagher is trying a comeback but is finding stiff competition in Gerald Green, the best all-around ball player of the lot. Harry Morgan and Carl Barry have marvelous about in the middle of the diamond now, while another lad who is looking bad we failed to recognize. The outer gardens are very lonesome to investigation. Judging from the interest taken by the rank-and-file baseball is in for a banner season in Belleville during 1934. Jack Usher Williams was the centre of interest for many, but we were glad to see Carl Casey getting out to practice regularly this year as is Ernie Smith, Vinny Ulcoski, Wallace, Bud Wilkins and other hurlers. Skipper Mills has called another practice for Monday night.

Up in Oshawa the baseball minded persons are all agog over their baseball park and the Queen Alexandra League on Saturday. The motor city grounds are doing things up in a big league style with a band, parade and speech. The latter occupation might be well taken by the local managers on May 24 when they raise the Oshawa sport scribe has the following to say relating to Saturday's opening of the City League:

"A parade, led by a band, the usual opening ceremonies and one or two other features will be the highlights of the opening but the game itself promises to be a real treat and from the early encouragement will be short and snappy. The fans are going to see baseball and the local lumber yard will see that they are going to get and this year it will be a case of "baseball and more of it."

The umpires will be worn by local boxers for the first time this evening when Freddie Parry, welterweight champion of Canada, will be the final bout, and Gordie Morris the middle-weight champion in the semi-final go, will appear under the whistle of Jack Harvey, Ernie Stewart, Warner Alemlie A. C. at the all-star boxing and wrestling card by South End A. C. in the city hall tonight along with six other outstanding bouts. The promoters are looking for no end of trouble to bring between the fans and the officials on the card tonight. At the same time the annual meeting of the boxing section will be held at the Y.M.C.A.

Two well played and keenly contested baseball games in the Wall Street League last night now finds the Bell Telephone Co. at the top of the loop, after they downed the Bearcats by 7 to 5 in a hair-raising game, their first game from the tail-end Tip Tops.

Loughran gave Baer the worst licking of his life here three years ago tonight.

EVEN MONEY FOR TONIGHT

Bout of Loughran And Neusel Staged At New York

New York, May 4 (CP)—They're feeding another young and aggressive heavyweight to Tommy Loughran at Madison Square Garden tonight—blond Walter Neusel of Germany.

For a time it looked as though the Philadelphia veteran would be a short-ender at 8 to 5 but the odds were alternating steadily today and Tuesday as were they would be even money by the time the formalities of the weight examination and his youthful rival enter the ring for the 10-round go.

Neusel packs a fairly healthy wallop, is hard to hurt and has plenty of strength and stamina but veteran critics doubt whether he is ready yet for such a master craftsman as Loughran.

The semi-features, heavyweight champion, and Max Baer, who'll fight Primo for the title June 14, thing Tommy will win, Baer emphatically so.

"Loughran will bling the Dutchman down," said Max. "He gets the hands into your face until you begin to think someone's trying to smother you with a lumber blanket. I'd like to know as much as that fellow's forgotten about boxing.

DELICIOUS FLAVOR

YOUNGSTERS love Kellogg's PEP. Crisp. Full of the flavor of wheat and bran. Packed with nourishment. Mildly laxative. Always fresh and ready-to-eat. Delicious with milk or cream. Enjoy PEP often. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Truly BETTER-BRAN FLAKES . . . Ready-to-eat

GRILLS TEAM ARE LEADERS WALL STREET

Defeat Bearcats 8 to 7 On Central Park Diamond

LARGE CROWD

College Hill Cubs Come From Behind To Win Over Tip Tops

Grills A. C. softball team assumed sole possession of first place in the Wall Street Softball League last evening when they downed the Delancy Bearcats by an 8 to 7 score at Central Park while College Hill Cubs came from behind to win from the Tip Top ballsters at the College Hill diamond by the 7 to 5 score. Both games were well attended and were keenly contested.

At the Central Park the "mechanics" assumed an early lead when they scored three runs in the initial frame. Sager on the hitkop for Grills was the first batter up and third when he developed a wild streak and with the help in favor of Earl Clarke who fell victim to the Bearcat fingers and lost the lead. Later his team mates shelled Ridley for four runs in the second when Clarke went on to win in a walk. Ridley was replaced by Poxx. The Bearcats staged a last inning rally to score two runs, but fall short of tying the score. Outside Ehler with a home run for the Bearcats was the big hit for with Earl Clarke getting a single and a triple for the same. The Grills' battery was the winning "mechanics" 10 to 8 but failed to connect at the opportune time.

The line-ups:

Bearcats—Ridley, Tuttle, Jordan, J. Ehler, G. Ehler, Hanna, Webb, Bowen, Delaney, Nunnis Ehler Grills' Garage — Laichford, Sargent, Clarke, Brown, Simpson, Hall, Sager, Clarke and Caddick.

Umpires—Polzner and A. Ehler.

Score by innings:

Bearcats ..... 1 0 0 4 0 0 2—7 10 2
Grills' ..... 3 0 0 3 1 1 x—8 8 3

Batteries—Tip Tops—Polworth's College Hill Cubs broke into the league last evening at the College field when they downed Cornell Vance's Tip Tops 5 to 3 in an up-hill struggle. The "saints" bagged all of their runs in the initial frame, but failed to fathom the slants of George Robinson, who hurled for the Cubs after relieving Jenkinson's night cap and he made the best of it by basically lashing the Tip Top batters to the tune of seven hits, and also allowed but two scratch hits after the hectic first. Jack Harvey, hurling his first game for the losers, was also in rare form when he allowed but five hits hitting Cubs to sit safe bases, the sixth time proving fatal for Harvey after L. Jenkinson's triple to score Murray with the score tied. Bennett was in double and a single led the losers at bat.

The line-ups:

Cubs—Lupenette, Gray, Miller, G. Jenkinson, R. Murray, Robinson, J. Murray, L. Jenkinson and McDonald.

Tip Top—Barrigge, Bennett, C. Morgan, Meens, C. Barrigge, Harvey, Smith, Clarke, Brown and Simpson.

Umpires—Barrett and Norton.

Score by innings: R. H. E.

Cubs ..... 0 0 0 2 1 2—5 6 3
Tip Top ..... 3 0 0 0 0 0—3 5 2

Alemlie League.

In a regular scheduled game in the Alemlie League last evening the "machine shop" nine turned tables on the Fleglers defeating them 11 to 8 in a free hitting contest. Meagher was the outstanding for the winners with Flagler hurling for the opposition. A final upkeep by the winning "machine shop" gave the machine shop in the last two innings won them the day.

The line-ups:

Machine Shop—Darrah, Gilbert, Dickey, Rigby, Gasley, Belnap, Wilkins, Earle and Churchill.

Automatics—Royle, Booth, Flagler, Page, Hudson, Lupenette, Allin, Wesse and Ray.

Umpires—Little and Seymour.

Score by innings:

Machine Shop ... 1 0 4 1 2 3 1—11
Automatics ..... 0 0 0 4 3 0 1—8

PEDEN-AUDY'S LEAD GROWS

Winter-Bartell Team Is Down 72 Points Below Leaders

Toronto, May 4 (CP)— Torchy Peden and Jules Audy, Canadian leaders in Toronto's all-day bagels race have increased their lead over Charlie Winter, New York, and Frank Bartell, Newark, to 72 points at 8 o'clock this morning. Reggie Fielding, Toronto, and Laurent Lefebvre, Montreal, were tied with the two leading teams in mileage but were far behind in points.

8 a.m. standing.

	M.	L.	P.
Peden-Audy	1221	3	578
Winter-Bartell	1221	3	506
Fielding-Gadou	1221	3	323
McNamara-Rush	1221	3	307
MacDonald-Zach	1221	3	291
Toumbacos-Hoskin	1221	3	266
VanEenpen-Ottevaire	1221	3	218
Petri-Beckman	1220	3	499
Van Slambrouck-Page	1220	3	334

OFF COLOUR? HOW IS YOUR LIVER?

Wake up your Liver Bile

—Without Calomel

Your liver's a very small organ but it can cause a lot of trouble. When it's sluggish and not working as it should, bile backs up in your system and you feel "all in." Your skin may become yellow, your head aches, your tongue is coated, your breath is bad, you're constipated, you're generally out of sorts. Don't take calomel. Get Carter's Little Liver Pills—all your bilious troubles will disappear. Be sure to get the genuine. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Refuse substitutes. Sold by druggists everywhere. 25c at all druggists.

CARNERA, BAER SIGN UP BOUT

Baer Winces Slightly At Grip of Prime the Great

New York, May 4—The superdreadnaught of the sockers, Primo Carnera, met Max Baer, his glittering challenger, socially Thursday, for the last time before their heavyweight title tussle on June 14 and the honors rest until then with Madison Square Garden boss Tex Rickard.

The occasion was the formal signing for the 15 round match in the Garden quarters of the sockers. Primo Carnera, met Max Baer, his glittering challenger, socially Thursday, for the last time before their heavyweight title tussle on June 14 and the honors rest until then with Madison Square Garden boss Tex Rickard.

The occasion was the formal signing for the 15 round match in the Garden quarters of the sockers. Primo Carnera, met Max Baer, his glittering challenger, socially Thursday, for the last time before their heavyweight title tussle on June 14 and the honors rest until then with Madison Square Garden boss Tex Rickard.

The occasion was the formal signing for the 15 round match in the Garden quarters of the sockers. Primo Carnera, met Max Baer, his glittering challenger, socially Thursday, for the last time before their heavyweight title tussle on June 14 and the honors rest until then with Madison Square Garden boss Tex Rickard.

The occasion was the formal signing for the 15 round match in the Garden quarters of the sockers. Primo Carnera, met Max Baer, his glittering challenger, socially Thursday, for the last time before their heavyweight title tussle on June 14 and the honors rest until then with Madison Square Garden boss Tex Rickard.

The occasion was the formal signing for the 15 round match in the Garden quarters of the sockers. Primo Carnera, met Max Baer, his glittering challenger, socially Thursday, for the last time before their heavyweight title tussle on June 14 and the honors rest until then with Madison Square Garden boss Tex Rickard.

The occasion was the formal signing for the 15 round match in the Garden quarters of the sockers. Primo Carnera, met Max Baer, his glittering challenger, socially Thursday, for the last time before their heavyweight title tussle on June 14 and the honors rest until then with Madison Square Garden boss Tex Rickard.

The occasion was the formal signing for the 15 round match in the Garden Club as the champion heaved his great bulk into the session.

Carnera marched straight to Him showing all his ivory in a toothy smile, and grabbed the challenger's fist in the first of the smallest hand shakes in fistic history.

"How you feel?" bellowed Primo, putting all his 275 pounds into his grip.

Baer winced and bent slightly.

"I'll feel better June 14," he admitted sourly.

Matchmakers recovered in time to bust up the orderly procedure of the signing of the contracts by announcing in the middle of a couple of rehearsed speeches that there was maybe about to be situation, that he was the next heavyweight champion. Which is likely, since it was obvious his day was ruined, that the rest of June 14 he won't be trying to make up lost ground.

While Carnera has definitely definitely that he will train at Pompton Lakes, N.J., officials at Asbury Park, N.J., announced that Max Hoffman, manager of the challenger, has decided to stage there instead of Atlantic City. No formal announcement is likely, but Jill Jack Dempsey, who will have much to say about Baer's training, arrives here next week.

Both Carnera and Baer will see Tommy Loughran, still holding up as a title challenger, fight against the bid of Walter Neusel, the blond German, in a 10 round bout in the Garden tonight. While the odds against the gallant Loughran are quoted at 8 to 5, the Carnera and Baer believe he will win.

Clothiers of Quality

Specials for the LAST TWO DAYS of Belleville Better Week

MEN'S SHIRTS — Forsythe Shirts $1.75 UP

See the new Tropic Sunshade ..... Shirt and Tie to match $3.50

YOUTHS' SUITS — with 2 pair pants $6.75 and $9.75

BOYS' SUITS — with 2 pair pants $6.75 and $7.75

Quick and Robertson

CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

First in Style, Quality and Reasonable Price

CAMPANULA WINS CLASSIC

Lord Durham's Light Brocade In Second Place

Newmarket, England, May 4 (C.P. Cable)—Sir George Bullough's good three year old filly Campanula today won the classic One Thousand Guiness Stakes over the mile course here.

Lord Durham's Light Brocade was second and Sir Alfred Butt's Spend a Penny, ridden by the veteran Steve Donoghue, was third in the 120th. running of the historic event—one of the turf's five classics for three year olds.

DUNDEE RETAINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Paterson, N.J., May 4—Working in a precise machine-like fashion from start to finish, Vincent Dundee retained his intercontinental welter championship by a decisive decision tri-umph over Al Diamond, hard rugged Paterson challenger here last night.

Dundee did his work before a crowd of approximately 8,000 fans, the majority of whom were for the hometown boy. So partisan were they that the decision was booed despite the fact the official tally sheets of the ringside judges and referee and only one, the third, to Diamond.

Although one-sided, the fight was an interesting one, not only because of the manner in which Dundee worked on his victory. Aiming from the start at the 30 year old Diamond's body, the crafty Vince systematically with his boxing skill as his objective all the way to the final bell.

EVERY DAY IS BARGAIN DAY AT TIP TOP TAILORS

YOU CAN TAKE THESE SPRING FABRICS TO THE LIGHT

DURING the past two or three years a lot of men have been buying their clothes in the dark—"no-name" suits and topcoats at so-called bargain prices. And when they have divided that price by the number of days' satisfactory wear, they have found that "sale prices" are not so alluring. Tip Top Tailors have no "sales"—every day is bargain day at Tip Top Tailors—a name that has satisfied more than a million buyers.

You have a wide range of choice of beautiful British woollens that you can take to the light. They'll wear and wear and wear, and hold their smartly tailored shape until the last day of service.

SCOTCH TWEEDS
HARRIS TWEEDS
IRISH DONEGALS
SCOTCH HOMESPUNS
WEST OF ENGLAND WORSTEDS
BRITISH SPORTING FLANNELS
BOTANY SERGES
SAXONYS

Some conservative, some boldly patterned, in the new shades of blue, grey, brown—all particularly Spring-like. Make your choice—have it hand-cut and tailored to your individual measurements in one of the new single or double-breasted styles that are being worn this spring.

Your Unrestricted Choice AT ONE PRICE

$23.50

All Union Labor Employed

Tip Top Style 616—Our designer has caught that swagger youthful exuberance in this double-breasted model with wide peaked lapels and patch pockets. To your measure from your choice of British woollens.

Tip Top Tailors

Geo. W. Tindall, Mgr.

298 Front St., Belleville

BUSH LEAGUE FOR ROADMEN

Belleville Boys at Kaladar Ask Aid in Outfitting

With the object of forming a real "bush league" ball, devoted primarily to the advancement of football, softball and baseball, Belleville boys now engaged in road construction work in the north, stationed at Camp 485, Kaladar, have requested aid from local residents in assistance in outfitting the players.

In a letter received in the city today by Alderman Frank A. Dominico from a group of boy a plea for gloves, bats, balls and other equipment is made.

The letter, written by Mac Spafford, former Belleville residents, is worded in part:

"We have outfitted the soccer team, but have been unable to finance the baseball and softball teams. We would appreciate it if the citizens of the old home town could send us any sort of equipment that would be useful. It is very lonesome here, with nothing to do after working hours, and there is little else to do but work, eat and sleep. We have a pretty good camp out here, and are used fine by the executives of the camp, and the boys all seem satisfied.

"Hoping to hear from you soon, we remain:

Ray Gruder,
F. Fitzpatrick
A. W. Richard
H. Parker,
C. Spafford
F. Green."

Donations to the boys may be left at the office of the Central Relief at the City Hall.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

ALL KIDNEY DISEASES BACKACHE RHEUMATISM BLADDER TROUBLE DIZZINESS

MOST THE PROOF

BEE HIVE

GOLDEN

CORN SYRUP

A GREAT ENERGY FOOD

CHIROPRACTIC

Is relieving human suffering and making cures—cures in many cases of ailments that have persistently refused to yield to other methods of treatment. This may be a broad statement, but we find it to be correct in dealing with the various ailments from day to day. When you thoroughly understand the principles of our science and how our treatments are administered you will be convinced that our scientific methods of healing are correct. You will think it not strange that many of the most obstinate of human ailments should yield readily to our treatments.

H. R. AND VERA B. PITCHER
CHIROPRACTORS
(Fatherson-Pitcher Service)
Belleville, Ont.
Phone 1276

43½ Bridge St. E.

MANY LEAKS TO REPAIR

Still One Million Gallons Being Lost Each Day Says Manager

Over one million gallons of water each day are still gushing and spouting through hundreds of leaks in the local waterworks system while emergency crews of the department fight an almost losing battle to trace and repair them. Each street has its quota of ruptured and leaking mains and services. Sudden expansion of the underground system following a let up of the severe contraction of pipes during the extreme weather by citizens who have taken the trouble to report the strange noises mysteriously emanating from underground. Even with the huge wastage at present, however, pumps at the local station are perfectly able to handle the extra consumption, with plenty of reserve power, it is reported by Manager E. T. Austin.

Stars of Radioland

VIRGINIA WARE

Virginia Ware began her professional career as a newspaper reporter, but journalism didn't appeal to her, so she became a stock company actress. Now she is starred in dramatic programs over the radio.

"NEW" MONEY ADVOCATED AT OTTAWA

'Reformed Money' Would 'Burn a Hole' in One's Pocket

WOODWARD'S VIEW

No Point In Hoarding Money Under His Proposal

OTTAWA, May 4.—(CP)—Continuing its study of the new Bank Act, the House of Commons Banking Committee meets today with two additional theories of reformed money before it. Previously the committee was presented with samples of a new form of money designed to literally "burn a hole" in one's pocket and impell the owner to spend it.

The sponsor was E. St. Woodward of Vancouver, Dominion Executive Secretary of the Free Economy League of Canada. The money would have to be stamped every month and a decreasing stamp equal in value to one per cent. of the face value of the Bill attached. This then would be no point in hoarding money and in order to avoid having to pay the tax people would rush to get rid of money as fast as possible and turn it into goods and services, business would pick up, unemployment would vanish.

The other witness yesterday was Gerald G. McGeer, Vancouver lawyer and student of social credit. He elaborated on the plan he had submitted to the committee earlier in the week for basing the volume of the country's currency on the value of the collective activities of the people rather than on gold.

Plans Differ

His scheme was not identical with the Douglas Plan, he told the committee. In fact he did not believe the Douglas Plan could be worked into the form of a practicable statute.

With the declaration that "democracy small rule result", Gerald G. McGeer, Vancouver economist, yesterday closed his final appearance before the Bank Committee of the House of Commons today.

Unlike Mr. McGeer's testimony on Tuesday last, which occupied two days, his appearance today was brief. In fact, if the time spent on answering supplementary questions as to whether or not he should be called was deducted, he was on the stand for only about half an hour. He was called, with definite limitations for questioning by members of the committee, who felt that they would like certain features of his plan clarified.

The real secrets of the Dominion were at $20,000,000,000 Mr. McGeer said, but the Bankers insisted that the country could not issue more than $300,000,000 in notes without danger.

He contrasted this with what he said was the actual practice of the banks of issuing more credit than they had actual assets behind. He failed to see the reason why banks could do something, which the country could not do.

Made Plea For Study

Asserting, that he believed this theory would lead to disaster if continued, the Vancouver Economist made a plea for study of his scheme. He did not hope to convince us in 24 hours, but he did ask members of the committee to think it over.

At the conclusion of his testimony, a motion that his expenses in coming to Ottawa be paid, was carried without comment by the committee.

LOU SCHOLES RECOVERING

Joe Wright Fighting His Way Out of Blood Poisoning

Toronto, Many 4.—(CP)— Joe Wright, Jr. Diamond Sculls winner of 1932, fighting his way out of blood poisoning contract first Diamond Scull winner, Lou Scholes, is lying on his feet after a three months' illness it was learned today.

Scholes ran into difficulties with his car on a 30-below zero day last winter and the effects ran from the hips to the toes. For weeks his condition was serious. But today he is out and around. His weight dropped, however, from 240 to 170 pounds.

Jumpy Nerves

Yield to the soothing action of this medicine. You will see better :: sleep better :: feel better :: look better. Life will seem worth living again. Don't delay any longer. Begin taking it today.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

you asked us — we asked EASY

HERE IT IS

a Genuine EASY Vacuum Cup WASHER

for Only $99.50

HUNDREDS of customers have told us "We like the EASY Vacuum Cup Washer. We like the thorough, safe way it washes. Can't you give us a model at about $100.00?"

Here's the answer. EASY, world's exclusive manufacturers of Vacuum Cup Washing Machines, has met your challenge and ours! Here is a genuine EASY Vacuum Cup Washer in the hundred dollar price range—the lowest priced EASY Vacuum Cup Washer ever offered to any buyer anywhere.

And it's a beauty! Just look at its handsome finish—its sturdy construction—its many exclusive and admired features.

Then let us explain how you can own this wonderful new washer at practically your own terms. No need to wait another day for the washer you've always wanted. You can purchase an EASY Ironer for any EASY Washer for

$65.00

EASY TERMS OF COURSE

LOOK AT THESE FEATURES

Three nickel plated copper Vacuum Cups, adjustable for large or small loads.

Tub Porcelain enamelled inside and out.

Extra large pliant wringer rolls.

Cadmium plated wringer, tarnish proof and rust proof.

Beautiful exterior finish.

Sturdy, EASY construction.

Fully guaranteed.

The Last Word in Home Laundry Equipment

See the new EASY Spin-Dry Washer that washes and dries ready for the line, without fuss or damage to even the most delicate fabrics.

THE BIG "A" CO., LIMITED

217 Front St. Belleville Phone 284

AUTHORIZED EASY WASHER DEALER

• Grand Prize FOR Saturday May 5th

30 Other Valuable Prizes

ABSOLUTELY FREE!

4 Piece Walnut BEDROOM SUITE

A beautiful suite that any person would be proud to own and it goes to the lucky holder of the winning coupon.

Shop at the Coupon Stores

GREAT BRITAIN READY TO PAY

Silver Taken in June For Debt Payment Now Prepared

(By Albert W. Wilson, Associated Press Staff Writer).

London, May 4 (AP).—Great Britain already is prepared to make a silver lyhon debt payment to the United States in June. It was reported in financial circles today, as a result of the recent drop in silver prices.

While official confirmation was lacking, it is believed probable the government took advantage of the price, although the day of reckoning is only a little more than a month away, there is still no official indication that Great Britain is making any kind of a payment on her debt to the United States, but it is believed it will be another token payment.

Well-informed financial quarters said today that there was evidence of purchases of silver on the open market by the British government.

But one prominent broker said: "Silver was bought privately from the Indian government to make that December payment and the British government probably is doing the same thing again."

Great Britain's war debt to the United States totals $4,536,157,358.

The next instalment on the British debt due June 15, is $95,670,765.

The token payment made at the time the December British instalment fell due was $7,500,000.

GROVE FEELS FINE

Boston, May 4—Although Bob "Lefty" Grove cut out loose with his $125,000 pitching arm without suffering the slightest twinge nowadays, it will probably be some time before he starts another game for Boston Red Sox.

"Grove says he is feeling fine and rearing to go," Manager Bucky Harris said today. "But I have no idea when I will be able to start him. That does not mean, however, that I am not going to use him at all within the next few days, if St. Louis Browns or disappeared.

Detroit Tigers force us to use a relief pitcher.

HEROIC CHILD TRAMPS BUSH

Tells Story of Alleged Attempt To Murder In North

Shillington, May 4—A courageous 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Mackwood, settlers living in an isolated farm six miles from here, tramped wearily through the dense bush in the early hours this morning, reaching here in an exhausted condition to bring word of the alleged attempt to murder his mother and an older brother.

Shot With Rifle

Both were shot by bullets from a German Mauser rifle, said to have been fired by a neighbor, Walter Kirn, who lived alone on a small adjacent farm. After a posse of some twenty-five men from the neighboring countryside had scoured the woods, Kirn was captured, disarmed, and is now lodged in the jail at Iroquois Falls.

Emund Mackwood, aged 12, who was first shot, is in a critical condition with a slim chance to live, Dr. Arnott reported, with bullet wounds in the chest and arm. Mrs. Mackwood, the mother, was shot in the left arm, which was shattered. Both have been taken to the Matheson Hospital.

Previous to the alleged shooting, Kirn, police allege, attempted to burn the Mackwood farmhouse and it was the noise of the flames which awakened Mrs. Mackwood and her four children. After the shooting, Kirn returned to his own farm, and allegedly set his own home on fire. It was completely destroyed. With his rifle under his arm, he then took to the bush and

Chas. L. Hyde

Plumbing and Heating Specialist

Tinsmithing and Roofing Stoves and Paints

Automatic Oil Burners — Vacu Draft Furnace Attachments and Rural Water Systems a Specialty

192 Front St. Phone 34

TELEGRAPH OFFICER PLANS EMERGENCY TRIP

Montreal, May 4—Telegraph service plus the sympathetic co-operation of a Canadian National Telegraph supervisory officer, played a large part recently in helping a Montreal mother get to the bedside of her son, victim of a serious shooting accident at Houston, Texas. The lady in question, Mrs. C. Blanchard of Montreal received a telegram by Canadian National Telegraphs advising her that her son "Tommy, apprentice jockey, had been seriously wounded in a shooting accident. Other jockeys at the course urged Mrs. Blanchard to hurry to her son's side and, as funds for that purpose would be required, they collected together and wired the sum necessary for the journey. This money arriving on Sunday, when ordinarily delivery of the money would have been difficult, the Canadian National Telegraphs supervisor took a sympathetic interest in the affair. Consulting railway and air line officials he planned the trip for Mrs Blanchard, having first secured the necessary funds for her journey. To get Mrs. Blanchard to Houston as quickly as possible, it was decided that she should travel by train to New York and fly from that city to Houston. Accordingly the lady was a passenger on "The Washingtonian" train of the Canadian National Railways, with arrangements completed for her to board an airplane at New York and fly to Houston to be at the bedside of the young jockey who was reported in a serious condition.

READ THE ADS Keep Step With THE TIMES!

ECZEMA, RASHES & OTHER SKIN TROUBLES

Soothed & Healed by Zam-Buk Ointment

Zam-Buk Medicinal Soap 25c. cake.

Japan, Protector of East, Will Refuse West Right to Talk Peace in Orient

Foreign Minister Hirota Voices New Policy in China

TELLS PREFECTS

Japan However Ready to Discuss Treaty Rights

(By Glenn Babb, Associated Press Foreign Staff).

Tokyo, May 4 (AP)—Foreign Minister Koki Hirota voiced a vigorous expression of Japan's new "hands off China" policy today and implied that Japan proposes never again to discuss the question of peace in the Far East with western powers.

Addressing the annual conference of prefectural governors, the foreign minister declared that Japan refuses to submit to a repetition of what happened at Geneva in 1932 when unfortunately Japan's opinions concerning the maintenance of peace in Eastern Asia were rejected—compelling us to recede from the League of Nations."

Although Hirota mentioned only Geneva in this, his first public expression of the Tokyo government's recently enunciated policy toward China, there was a strong implication that Japan intends never again to debate Oriental questions on equal terms with the occident as she did at Washington in 1922 when the nine-power treaty was framed.

Referring to the powers' treaty rights in China, Hirota said that "if necessary, Japan is willing to exchange views individually with powers concerned about their rights and interests."

But, recalling Japans difference with the Occident which led to her departure from Geneva, he added:

The Foreign Minister restated the main points in recent declarations through which Japan answered the question of Great Britain and the United States concerning the policy in Eastern Asia.

Hirota reiterated that Japan respect existing treaties and the rights of other powers in China.

Then added:

"Japan is the principal protector of the stability and the peace of Eastern Asia.

"It is Japan's mission to maintain peace and order in Eastern Asia in co-operation with the other countries of the Far East.

"Japan sincerely desires the unification, integrity, and prosperity of China, and can attain this only through China's own self-awakening efforts."

Legislature to Study Montreal Finance

Quebec, May 4—(CP)—A special session of the Quebec Provincial legislature has been called for June 6, it was announced here today. The legislature will deal with Montreal's financial troubles at the extra session.

PRICE DROP IN TOBACCOS STIRS PROBE

Hon. H. H. Stevens Voices Dissatisfaction With Answer

DETAILS GIVEN

Control of Production Seen As Remedy For Industry

Ottawa, May 4 (CP)—Further light on the vexed question of why tobacco prices dropped so sharply in the fall of 1931 is sought by the House of Commons Committee on Mass Buying which meets again today. Yesterday the committee had Grey Miller, president of the Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, on the stand all day and the chairman, Hon. H. H. Stevens, expressed dissatisfaction with his answer to a question as to the reason for the price drop.

Mr. Miller promised to get all the information he could and place it before the committee. The market for tobacco, it was stated once ad at 30 cents a pound and within a week buyers were offering only 20 cents. The reason, Mr. Miller believed, was that there was an over-supply of tobacco and the first price was too high.

Details of Company

More details of the financial history of the Imperial Tobacco Company were given by Mr. Miller. It had no connection, he said with the British-American Tobacco Co. in that the United States or the Imperial Tobacco Company of Great Britain and Ireland, either it had acted as purchasing agent for the latter company in Canada.

One transaction in which the Imperial had invested $25,000 in the National Tobacco Company had returned it dividends aggregating $1,-275,000 in five years.

The actual cash put into the original corporation of the present company 40 years ago was $14,102,-767. The present capital structure through purchase of other companies and issue of stock had become $63,733,300, and the market value of the stock of the company was about $100,000,000.

Control of production was the remedy for the problems of the industry, Mr. Miller believed. He said in the last few years the production of Canadian tobacco had risen until it exceeded the apparent world consumption of Canadian tobacco by 40 to 60 per cent. The high price of Canadian leaf had a bad effect on its sale in England.

List of Donors of Special Prizes for Saturday May 5th Purchases to Be Drawn for Monday Morning

SEE THESE PRIZES DISPLAYED IN THE WINDOW OF

Tip Top Tailors

1 Pair Nu-back Corsets	McIntosh
1 Pair Men's Shoes	Leslie's
1 Sport Bag	Leslie's
1 Serving Tray	Bowra Electric
1 Linen Table Cloth	McIntosh
5 Gals. Gas	Big "A" Co. Garage
1 Dress Shirt	Quick and Robertson
1 Pair Tennis Shoes	Naborhood Shoe Store
3 Pair Full Fashioned Hose	Wotten's
1 Bed Spread Set	McIntosh
1 Man's Shirt	Lipson's
1 O'Cedar Mop	Walker Hdw.
1 Pair Full Fashioned Hose	McIntosh
1 Neilson's Cocoa	Metropolitan
1 Rowntree's Cocoa	Metropolitan
2 Arabia Coffee	Loblaw's
1 Grey Blanket, Wool	Metropolitan
1 Simmon's Bed Spring	Wray's Furniture
1 Case Coca Cola	Kresge
1 Case Orange Crush	J. B. Ivas
1 Glenn Hat	G. T. Woodley
1 Pair Pyjamas	McNabb's
2 Crosse and Blackwell Jam	People's Store
½ lb. Tea and ½ lb. Coffee	A & P Stores
1 Ladies' Skirt	Artistic Ladies' Wear
1 Ladies' Blouse	McNabb's Ladies' Store
1 Ladies' Blouse	People's Store
1 Ham	Green's Meat Market
1 24 lb. Bag Flour	Tweed Milling Co.
3 1 lb. boxes McDormick's Biscuits	Metropolitan

Belleville's Greatest Merchandising Achievement Soon Ends!

FOLLOW the CROWDS TO THE COUPON STORES During the Final Two Days of BELLEVILLE'S BIGGER and BETTER BARGAINS

BUY THIS WEEK AND SAVE AT COUPON STORES

You've just got TWO MORE DAYS to participate in the greatest merchandising achievement ever attempted by Belleville merchants and what a carnival of values it has been and will be until the final gong rings on SATURDAY NIGHT.

Just go on a window shopping tour tonight and see for yourself what real worth-while values there are for you—not necessarily cheap goods but high grade merchandise priced in nearly every instance below actual worth—with the added attraction of the coupons which might spell a real gift for you.

The Great Event Ends Saturday

30 Minor PRIZES for Tomorrow

Tomorrow's Grand Prize A 4-Piece Walnut Bedroom Suite

PRIZES DRAWN FOR EVERY MORNING AT 10 A.M. IN WALKER HARDWARE STORE.

A ROMANTIC RUNAWAY

By KATHARINE HAVILAND-TAYLOR

Field laughed. "Nora", he said and laughed again. "Nora—Desmond Fairley!"—he turned, turning to the man at his right. "So easy going Jack, do anything to avoid a fight!"

"Then how did he murder anybody?"

"Oh, Lord!" Field broke out in fervent gratitude. "I am glad, Marcia! Father good—come to Havana—The Marcia I've known all the time—the good and looking down. "I'm no use—by dog! I knocked down his old man."

Field!

"Pablito was in a big hurry".

Field pointed out. "And there's another thing, too. Nobody but Pablito could run the Silver Dart for more than 10 feet lately. The damned nub had developed a heart leak. So you see?"

"Jim," said Marcia, "if you don't mind I'm going on to Havana. The Carnival will be grand. I think it might do me good."

"Trying over?" Field questioned.

* * *

"Yes." She answered quickly, and her face grew keen. She could see Fairley, slowly, as he settled his bill herself responding to the promise of another. She could see Pablito, protect him and care for him after she found out. And in any way she could discharge at least a part of the debt she owed him. She had a certain certainty that he must be in Havana "or near there. This certainty persisted despite all the testimony that made it seem impossible.

"Will you make my excuses to Fairley and say good-by to her for me?" she asked, turning to Field. "I judge she's too busy to see me."

"She's rather shocked," he admitted, frowning. "Cecilia's not well. This affair has upset her. It seems that she was fond of Nora Hilo. He had taken her hooking a good deal. I think Norma would not want to lose her."

Portney looked after Marcia as she turned to go back to his bungalow. Watching her he said, "All that Cecilia Jeffries had were her pearls and rings."

The implication went understood.

"I'm glad Marcia's getting out," Field stated bluntly. Then he forgot her and her interest in the late Mr. Jeffries who had been so unwise as to object to a stranger's opening the small safe that held his wife's pearls. Field forgot because Alvarez was hurrying toward him, an important message making his lean face keen and intense.

Field left his guests' to move toward Alvarez.

"There is news," Alvares stated. "A fisherman last night saw a light in the shack where Pablito lived. It is thought that he has not left Florida at all but, in order to see us off on a false trail, he started the film 'Dart' to sea with his red sash—if it was his —tied to the mast. I've sent men over to the shack to search—"

* * *

Noyes realized that it was not safe for him to try to enter the shack. He had crept there after he had been knocked out, robbed and taken to a beach a nine words from which he had escaped after two long, hungry-packed days. Nevertheless he had come back to get Pennell clothing and the Winslow Homer water color. He hoped to sell one or the other or both in Havana and get his fare to Cuba where Pablito, whom he so needed now, would be waiting for him.

Hiding himself, Noyes had heard nothing about the tragedy at the Field camp.

He peered nervously from the doorway of the shack toward the mainland, suspecting that at once the white human vulture that had already picked his bones might be following. But the vulture had quite said him to go back to another carcass.

Then Noyes looked farther and on the watery saw a boat bearing toward the island. He poked the clothing and the water color under an oilcloth table cover and wriggled through a small rear window awake, of his shack as his heart pounded hard, that they were after him.

That was during the early afternoon. Francisco Treadway, with the arrogance of those who have "connections" with which to command, an airplane and set forth for Santa Maria Island, with Neal Bruce, seated with salt water and sky, clenched teeth in the back seat. Treadway had been told to "Find Noyes" and he was going to find him.

And after many hours—with odd things do happen—was at the approximate time when, in New York, an Englishman of great height with gray, lifeless hair that had once been black was answering a startled detective's question. The detective had asked, "Did any one remember a boy or girl, fair haired and the Englishman replied, "No difficult to say, you know. I hardly—that is—or —know my—"

The Englishman in New York was standing on the curb of busy streets. Here he signalled a taxi-cab and was whirled toward a yacht which faced on an avenue known as Park. Here, he had told the taxi driver, he chose to look at a newspaper but he saw it not at all. He remembered the last of the young thing for whom he was searching. He felt disappointed, annoyed and tired and because of the wickedness of the world. Then a speech would result by finding another girl. He almost cringed at a picture which, floating through his mind, gave him a vision of five blond, round-faced, dutiful daughters. His daughters—a son mounted but the sturdy consolation that was his had always him decide that, no matter what the sex of the child, his offspring he would do the proper thing; the only thing for a man of his world to do. He had a family. He was tired of the noise and the confusion around him and he was isolated by his loneliness.

CHAPTER XVI

A few hours later Marcia Treadway, in Havana, entered the Hotel. Here, as darkness settled on the Prado and the outline of Morro grew vague, she rubbed her face with cold cream and settled on a chaise longue to think and decide what to do next. Obviously there must be some reason to go about finding a person for she had never considered them before and found herself fumbling. If she consulted a detective she might bring Pablito to grief, or, worse, endanger him she wished. There was no doubt by now that a description of him had been broadcast widely together with the fact of his supposed crime.

She frowned, rubbed away the cream and then closed her eyes so tightly that small wrinkles stood out on her lids.

At that moment Lottie, Beau and Pablito were seated at a table in a small, dingy cafe looking out on a shabby street. In the shadows of the town crowded on the narrow sidewalk outside to see the strangers who had come there to eat.

A waiter, wearing a far from immaculate apron, stood ready to take the order.

"You are ready and well ahead for the carnival, honorary," he commented, looking at the dishevelled contents of the three patrons. Pablito in showing the Spanish mind, answered. "It is better to be too early than too late."

"True, Senor."

The waiter agreed. "And many hope the fete this night." He decided that Pablito, despite his light hair and eyes was a native. None but natives spoke Spanish in this way—without accent. The other two were not Cubans, because Cubans do not answer to a wink, influenced by the drinks. The party was a little odd, the waiter decided, but that was God's matter. His own was indoing anyone who ordered the cafe con leche, than he had planned the strangers better.

A gentleman who ordered his cognac-and-soda and asked with the trio to drink with him. Pablito thanked him and in turn ordered him to drink. Then they both refused one another with many thanks and so ended the preliminary ceremony.

The cognac he able to pick up considerable look tomorrow. Lottie thought the incident "You say good at that kind of thing?" he asked, turning to Pablito.

"I don't believe so."

"Well, how do you can have it," Beau told her lastly.

"Maybe so, can I find the name on the station," Lottie suggested since no one answered her question.

Beau responded energetically with "My Gawd, there ain't no station! If a train run by here it would be only a hook, sniffle twice, set to snorting and sleep forever. That's how much life there is on the feller."

"You are ready and well ahead for the carnival honorary," he commented, looking at the dishevelled contents of the three patrons.

"Where we goin' from here, Beau?" Lottie leaned across the table.

"Havana," he answered. "Never hide when you're supposed to. It's always a give-away—hidin'. We're goin' to Havana and we're in the carnival tomorrow. Wy? get enough here to last a week. There's no danger here. I'll bet they don't get more than one newspaper a week in this town and the man who gets it is probably too sleepy to read it. Havana's the place to hide in lottery. Look active and alert, don't you, Pablito? Look as if you wanted the line outside, crowding and hooting one another in order to see the fun."

Pablito said that he would be glad to do so.

"Now call in one of those dusky rubber-necks and ask him where we are. Nerve, Lottie, nerve and whether we can rent a river to take us to Havana. Nice ordered when they had finished their meals.

Pablito turned to a single cot in a teen-faced boy wearing a perpetual smile in his chocolate brown eyes. Pablito began in Spanish "will you be so kind as to draw close? I wish to ask the question."

The boy entered the cafe with the lithe, graceful strids of the Latin. He accepted a tiny glass of wine of which he drank with a small flourish. He gave Pablito such information as they needed.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

FEIST 25 SONGS

4 HITS OF THE DAY

"Pretty Polly Perkins"
"An Old Water Mill"
"I Knew You When"
"Spotlight Serenade"
"Over Somebody Else's Shoulder"
"Sing"

— 25 Cents Per Copy —

AT YOUR MUSIC STORE

Brand New Records
3 for 25c
Weaver's Music Store
214 Front St. Phone 2321

RADIO PROGRAMS

FRIDAY
E. S. T.

4.00—Madame Sylvia of Hollywood —CFRB
5.30—News, Jim Hunter—CFRB
6.30—Radio Variety Concert and Orchestra—WLW
7.00—Lowell Sinda, Walter O'Keefe; Bobby Dollar's Orchestra—WJZ
7.00—Nenia Dragonette; Rosario Bourdon's Orchestra—CNOT
7.15—Sketch—WJZ
7.30—Babe Ruth Baseball Comment—WJZ
8.00—Wells Twins, Frank Munn, tenor; Abe Lyman's Orchestra—CFRB, WJZ
8.00—Leah Ray, vocalist; Phil Harris' Orchestra—WJZ
8.15—Ruth Etting; Ted Husing and Johnny Green's Orchestra—WJZ
8.30—Jack Whiting, master of ceremonies, Frankie Lang; Jack Denny's Orchestra—CFRB
9.30—Jack Denny; Mary Livingston; Don Bestor's Orchestra—WLW; WTAM
9.30—News Bulletins—CNOT
11.00—Derby Eve Program; Graham McNamee will introduce celebrities—WJZ

SATURDAY
E. S. T.

8.00—Dance Band—CNOT
8.00—Organ Melodies—CFRB
9.00—Dance Orchestra—CFRB
9.00—Paul Mason's Orch.—CFRB
10.15—Talking Pictures—CFRB
10.30—Concert Miniatures—CFRB
11.00—Pietro Yon, organ—CNOT
12.15—Ben Bailie's Orch.—CFRB
2.30—Spring Festival—CFRB
3.00—Symphonic Variations—CFRB
3.30—George Shorten Gypsy Orchestra—CFRB
4.00—Gerhard Columbia Debate—CNOT
4.30—Plano Duo—CNOT
5.45—Kentucky Derby—CFRB
6.00—Kentucky Derby Re-enactment—WGN
6.30—Music—WGN
7.00—Studio Party—CFRB
7.30—U.S. Marine Band—WJZ
8.00—Columbia Broadcasting—CNOT
8.30—"Looking at Life"—CFRB
9.00—L. Romanelli's Orch.—CFRB
9.30—"Take Shad Crane"—WJZ; CFRB
9.30—News—CNOT
11.00—Jack Denny's Orch.—WGN

BANK DIVIDEND MOTION IS LOST

Ottawa, May 4 (CP)—George Cocks, United Farm member for Macleod, moved in the House Banking Committee today to limit bank dividends to six percent a year. It was defeated after running into opposition from all sides.

The Cocks amendment would limit dividends to six percent of the paid up capital plus the reserve fund.

Toronto, May 4 (CP)—Possibility of an immediate election was reviewed today by Fred de Bush, President of the Central Liberal-Conservative Association, in addressing a party rally Thursday.

TILLIE THE TOILER

By Russ Westover.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

TARZAN THE TERRIBLE

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Little Benny's Note Book

THE WEAKLY NEWS
BISKETT PAGE

Mr. Edd Biskett by brother Fred, who is not working again at present, dreemed a good cheer for a play and expects to make a lot of money writing it if he can ony remember it even.

Miss Maud Jonson's grandmother is taking driving lessons. Inspires them much more than the teacher from the automobile place on account of her being a naturely fast driver but not knowing much about starting cars.

POME-BY SKINNY MARTIN
A Song For A Asser

My mother's naturet patiences
Gets all the ways diminished
When she's sewing me a button on
And I keep asking if she's finished.

INTRISTING PACES ABOUT INTRISTING PEOPLE

Shorty Judge can call up a frend on the telefone without having anything to actualy talk about and yet it's libel to be about a half a hour before his frend has a chance to say good by.

Charmed Life

Glasses Magee the famous exhorter has been bit by a dog, kicked by a horse, stung by a bee, pinched by a oyster, stung by a parrit and attacked by a snake, but his ony scars are 3 natural moles.

SCHOOL NOTES

During joggriffy, last Wendsay, absent minded Pods Slimkin wished so hard he was home in bed that he fell asleep with his head on his desk and had to remain after school and write 50 times Mankind is happier if we live without sleep but children cant learn without staying awake.

Claire Trevor and James Dunn in their latest riotous romance, "Hold That Girl" at the Belle starting Saturday.

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE CAPITOL

"SATURDAY'S MILLIONS" AND "MADAME SPY".

We the spectator sitting in the grandstand, many feet from the scene of play, football is apt to impress us a game of silence, with the players saying about like automatons. One may see a defensive backfield man rush up and down the line, slapping his team-mates on the back, but there is no sound. Apparently no one says a word.

But on the field of play the atmosphere is decidedly different. Bedlam reigns till the air. The enthusiastic back-slapper addresses his fellow players in strident tones. "Get in there, fellows! Stop these speed Welsh that comes! They can't make it, they can't make it! Good work Jim!

Then whole team takes up the cries. "Into it, fellows! Come on, let 'em have it! Third down, third down! Watch it—here it comes! Here's the play! Look out—it's a pass! It's a pass, it's a pass!" And the team plunges into action, their lusty shouts drowned out by the cheers from the grandstand.

What is said to be the screen's most exciting football game forms a part of "Saturday's Millions," Universal's stirring gridiron drama which is the feature attraction at the Capitol theatre, with Robert Young, Leila Hyams, Johnny Mack Brown, Mary Carlisle, Andy Devine and Lucille Lund in featured roles.

The picture which was directed by Edward Sedgwick, tells the story of a college football star who regards the game simply as a "racket."

"Madame Spy"

Fay Wray, exotic young screen star, has played many and varied roles in her young life, but for the first time in Universal's intriguing continental drama, she is enacting the part of a spy.

The beautiful Miss Wray was never more thrilled than in the making of "Madame Spy" which is now playing at the Capitol Theatre, with Nils Asther in the male lead opposite her.

Despite the suspense of a situation which finds the beautiful Maria, in fact story, about to seal the doom of the man she loves, while the audience waits nervously to see if she will go through with it.

Even Miss Wray, enacting the role of Maria, lost herself in this scene and smoked freely and nervously. And they weren't synthetic cigarettes either!

This scene is but part of the dramatic action that takes place in "Madame Spy" with a featured cast that includes Edward Arnold, Hobart Henry, John Millian, David Torrence and Vince Barnett.

Matinee 2.30, last complete evening show at 9.30.

Fay Wray, as "Madame Spy," and a scene from "Saturday's Millions" now at the Capitol.

AT THE BELLE

"Devil Tiger" and "Hold That Girl"

The gigantic task of editing the 700,000 feet of film of "Devil Tiger", the sensational animal-adventure picture, which was nearly a year in the making in the Asiatic jungles, has recently been completed. It is to be presented on the two-feature program at the Belle, tomorrow (Saturday) and Monday, matinee daily.

It was in October, 1932, that Clyde E. Elliott, who directed "Bring 'Em Back Alive", left Hollywood with a cast headed by Marian Burns, Kane Richmond and Harry Woods, and started for the other side of the world. A year later he returned and started the arduous job of editing miles of wild animal fights and other thrills down to 7,000 feet.

It is the first time in the history of sound pictures that a screen drama has been made in its entirety in the virgin jungles of Asia.

"We spent a whole year on the job, but the results prove that we were justified," declared Elliott. "It was not a case of throwing animals into a pen and making them fight. We had five cameras, a specially constructed sound unit, and we stationed our cameramen in steel cages at the spots the animals frequented. Then we waited for the clashes.

"It took three weeks to get our elephant stampede in Northern Siam. We spent a week getting the tiger-crocodile battle in India. More than 25,000 feet of film were exposed in shooting this fight which was made with the aid of artificial lights. The fight started shortly after dark and lasted for six hours. Four cameras were operated on the battle.

"Hold That Girl", Merry Love-making and wise-cracking at a fast and merry pace, James Dunn and Claire Trevor appear together in their latest picture "Holding That Girl", the second feature attraction on the same program. The smart repartee of the two sweethearts in this brisk and fast comedy romance will keep the spectator constantly laughing.

A smart, young Irish detective falls in love with a girl reporter while they are both rushing for the same assignment. The course of love is very uneven and they run into constant disputes over their conflicting assignments. On various occasions the young detective has the girl arrested on false charges, because of her constant interference with his work. She assumes his jealousy by accepting dates with another suitor, who, unknown to her, is a gangster. On a jewel robbery assignment, which both are working, the girl slips into a car, and is the witness to the jewelery murder. She is kidnapped and taken to the gang hang out, where she learns that her gentleman crook is the leader of the mob. He tries to save her from the same fate with which the jeweler met, but the mob insists upon doing away with her because she is a reporter and knows too much for safety. Meanwhile, the young detective has trailed the car, and arrives on the scene in time to save his sweetheart and to apprehend the gangsters.

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Saturday Is Climax Day to Our Big 6th ANNIVERSARY SALE! . . . and Belleville Better Week . . .

Boys! Youths! Sturdy Brown Camp Shoes

Moccasin type toe, a sturdy brown leather camp shoe that is mighty flexible and good wearing for summer. Strongly stitched and fitted with a Goodyear Wingfoot sole, with leather insoles. Blucher cut and a splendid saving at this special sale price. For Saturday only! Sizes 11 to 13 and 1 to 5. Pair 1.19

Men! Buy these New Goodrich Zipps for Sports Wear!

We are agents for this well known line of footwear, and are introducing this line at a special low price for Saturday. These Zipps have a new "sanisol" insole which can be sponged out after use. Peg top style, non-chafe tops, in all brown, or white trimmed with brown. These have a soft, flexible rubber sole, with reinforced toe scuffer. All new for this season, featured Saturday at a special price. Sizes 6 to 11. Pair 1.25

—men's store

Another Shipment!

New White Hand Bags for Summer

New Bags in WHITE, which is a leader for summer — some very swanky styles to select from, the majority in underarm effect, either smooth, or in imitation pigskin effect. Smartly fitted with inside change purse and mirror. Such quality bags generally sell higher in price, so take advantage of these savings and buy for summer use. Saturday Special, each 95c

A Special Group of

Rayon Lingerie

Teddies, vests, slips and gowns in this assortment, and every piece offering splendid savings to early shoppers Saturday. Excellent quality rayon, in some very pretty styles, either tailored or finished with fine lace. A choice of shades, in sizes small, medium and large. Saturday each 39c

Cool! Comfortable!

Children's Ankle Socks

Fine mercerized cotton makes these cute little ankle socks for children—you'll want a big supply for summer so why not purchase Saturday. Plain and fancy turn down tops in blue, white, pink, scarlet, and fawn. Sizes 4½ to 9½. Pair 15c

Men's Cool Cotton Broadcloth Pyjamas

$1

With warmer weather here, time to think of lightweight pyjamas, if you want good sleeping comfort. We've just received this new 1934 every smart pyjama pattern, in several very striking color combinations. Roomy in cut, with good quality trimmings, they'll go quickly at 1.00 suit. Drop in Saturday and make your selections, buy enough to last all summer. Sizes 36 to 42. Each 1.00

—men's store

Men's Balbriggan Combinations

Natural shade, easy fitting, comfortable weight balbriggan combinations for men, specially featured at 59c each! No sleeve and short leg style, they will fill the wants of most men. Sizes 36 to 42. Suit 59c

—men's store

From the Meat Counter

Combination Meat Special

for

Saturday 3.30 to 9.30 only

63

4 lbs. Roast Beef (average) .....

1 lb. Fresh Pork Sausage .....

½ lb. Side Bacon (sliced) .....

For the Home and Garden!

Painted Canvas

Deck Chairs

Strongly made on hardwood frames, with gay colored canvas seat. Made with arm rests and a special foot rest which is detachable. For the lawn, or the verandah, a smart piece of furniture that is just right for lounging in on hot, lazy days. Special, each 1.79

—main floor rear

Folding Lawn Settees

A smart garden seat that is very inexpensive at this marking. Strongly made, with hardwood frame in natural finish, with painted green seat. Folding type, which allows it to be packed away or carried easily. Special, each 1.29

Manufacturer's Clearance!

Metal Beds

Attractive Panel Style

Only the fact that they were a clearing line could we get them to sell at this price. In smart panel style, finished in rich walnut colored enamel. 4' size only, you are looking for a bed of this type, you'll be well pleased with their neat design and the low price they are featured at. Special Saturday, each Sale Priced $10. to $12.

—main floor rear

Three Good Reasons for Buying Motor Oil at the C. D. S.

Motorists! Look!

Silver Star Motor Oil

In Heavy and Medium Heavy Grades

A big shipment of this well known and popular grade of motor oil priced to save greatly for you Saturday. Medium and heavy grade motor oil that ensures splendid lubrication at a great reduction in cost. Fill up your crankcase Saturday. It would be good economy to buy two tins. In 2 gallon tins. Special, the tin 1.23

Polarine Heavy Grade Motor Oil

Another shipment of this popular motor oil, in heavy grade for summer driving. It is used satisfactorily by hundreds of motorists in Ontario, in almost every make of car. Fill up Saturday. Priced,

2 Gal. Tin 1.69

Eaton's 100% Pennsylvania Motor Oil

2 Gal. Tin 1.79

Time and again we've been asked for this quality oil — this shipment has just arrived and we expect big demand for it! No need to emphasize the good qualities of this oil — with such a big and constant demand as it gets, we feel that it speaks for itself, in this respect. In heavy and extra heavy grades. Priced, the 2 gallon tin

1.79

—basement

Washable Colored Striped Krinkle Bedspreads

Size 72 x 90 inches — not a skimpy spread, but one that is amply large for the double bed. In neat, colored stripe effects in rose, blue, yellow, or green. Washable, too! Special, each 1.00

—main floor rear

Crisp 36 Inch Dress Cottons

Fresh, crisp cottons for making summer dresses, aprons, ensembles, etc. In a choice of colorings and patterns too numerous to list here. 36 inches in width. Special, yard 14c

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

The performances of James Dunn and Claire Trevor are even better than in their last picture, "Jimmy and Sally", and that's saying a great deal.

The other members of the cast who do remarkably well in their allotted roles are Alan Edwards, Gertrude Michael, John Davidson, Robert McWade, Effie Ellsler and Jay Ward.

Clark Gable Departs

A new and remarkable screen team is playing for the last times at the Belle Tonight....Clark Gable and Myrna Loy. You've known them both for some time, but you've really never known them until you see them together in 'Men in White'. The feature presentation starts at 7.40 and 9.45 p.m.

ANGLING LICENSE ISSUED AT $1

Toronto, May 4.—Operation in Ontario of a new three-day angling license for non-residents, costing only $1, was announced yesterday by Hon. George H. Challies, minister of game and fisheries.

The department is very much interested in boosting the United States tourist trade in this province and feels that with this new $1 fishing permit many a United States angler who otherwise might stay at home, will be tempted this summer to try his luck in Ontario waters.

During the last legislature session, the department introduced a $7 family fishing license for non-residents, "Between the two licenses," said Mr. Challies, last night, "I am confident that we will have many more fishermen with us from the States from now on. And the money they spend while here will be well worth while."

PROBABILITIES

Moderate southwest to northwest winds; mostly fair and somewhat cooler tonight and Thursday; probably a few flurries scattered showers.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, MAY 5, 1934

TEMPERATURES

	max.	min.
Today	67	34
Year Ago	61	34
Weather—Partly cloudy.

BANCROFT MAN'S BACK BROKEN IN CRASH

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

East Windsor, Ont., May 5—A bunch of the boys were whooping it up—at the next table were all the basement of the Hanson Orthodox Church here. Mathias Kranack, who has the hall, gives his version of the subsequent battle, and the boys were all insulted and admitted "popping" one of the guests with a "pop bottle" under provocation. Six assault charges in all have been laid, and the case will be heard here Tuesday.

* * * * *

Galt, Ont., May 5—(CP)— H. R. Hatchey of Toronto, formerly of Wallaceburg, has been appointed general manager of the Hydro Electric System, Galt, it was announced here today. Mr. Hatchey will assume his new duties on June 1. The position has been vacant since the death of Robert Elliott six years ago.

* * * * *

Guelph, Ont., May 5—(CP)— Anybody can have two sets of teeth, declares Tom Young, but it is the height of something or other to have three. Young, 67, is now growing his third set and from the pretty young misses are spouting threats his gums. Mr. Young had been without teeth of any kind for a year when he lost the last of his second set. Two weeks ago he felt an irritation in his mouth. He went to a dentist. "Why, dear me!" he remarked the drill-and-fill man.

* * * * *

Guelph, Ont., May 5—(CP)— Justice moved quickly in the case of a 15-year-old boy, when he was finally guilty of stealing more than $30 from a woman's purse. They found the money and recovered it when arrested. He appeared before the magistrate on the same afternoon and committed to Industrial School at Hillcrest. He will be dinner at the institution the same night.

* * * * *

Guelph, Ont., May 5—(CP)— Harry Midge Fancy, 24, who had escaped from custody at the Ontario Reformatory here is credited with the theft of 18,000 pounds of milk testing 3.25 percent fat, the test is the basis for division of the B.C.F., in hay last lactation period. The milk was held by Three Ridge Farm here and in each of the three months during which he operated the farm over 1200 pounds.

* * * * *

St. Paul, Minn., May 5—(CP) — Said the Judge to Mrs. Peter Heath, as he sentenced Peter to 30 days in the workhouse for beating her:

"If keep him locked up so long as you do, Mrs. Heath, I don't know when you think he's bad enough.

One hour later Mrs. Heath came back.

"Your honor," she said, "may I take him home now, please?"

* * * * *

Elizabeth City, N.C., May 5— (CP)—He wants to be buried in calaboo here. A former holders of the office decline responsibility for the burial. They say that small boys stoned them, dog owners threatened to shoot them up, and that dogs that were impounded were mysteriously were nabbed.

The city is considering scrapping the dog ordinance.

* * * * *

Roanoke Rapids, N.C., May 5— (CP)—Wham! Went the big tent at the circus and it in a sandlot fire.

Up popped a rabbit in left field just in time to catch the ball on the ebb.

Fayner later reported the rabbit stew he had for dinner was very good.

* * * * *

Athens, Tenn., May 5—(AP)— An automobile, rounding a curve, threw a wheel which rolled across the sidewalk, striking five-year-old Cleo Bolton, walking with her mother.

She was killed. The car driver was held.

* * * * *

Sunbury, N.S., May 5—(CP)— There is nothing like a good yellow fever epidemic to bring relatives to the day right for Samuel Hesser.

In the eight years he has been in business here, he has had exactly total 31 times. Things have got so now that Hesser doesn't leave things around anymore. The last visit of the regular settled only six packs of cigarettes.

* * * * *

Chicago, May 5—(AP)— A triple alliance flung out its combined man-hunting power today in a fresh foray designed to end the career of gangster John Dillinger.

Three powerful arms of the law —United States government agents, a special "flying squad" of picked city police, and secret detectives, fromt the State's Attorney's office—joined in the newly organized hunt for the elusive gunman.

Their only instruction was "get Dillinger."

BACK BROKEN AS ROADSTER LEAPS DITCH

Gordon Powers of Bancroft Victim in Crash

ON WAY HOME

Roy Maxwell, Driver of Car Escapes Serious Injury

Gordon Powers, 27, of Bancroft, sustained a broken back when catapulted from a roadster automobile driven by Roy Maxwell of Bancroft, when the automobile left the highway, just west of the Belleville Cemetery, leaped over a culvert and crashed into a wire fence about 10.15 p.m. last evening. Powers was brought to the Belleville General Hospital by a passing motorist where he received medical attention at the hands of Dr. Stobie.

According to the story related by Traffic Constable Ryles, who investigated, Maxwell stated that he had been driving in a westerly direction at the time of the accident. As he was guiding the car he reached down to turn off the heater of the automobile, he said, when in some unknown manner the car got out of control, left the highway on the north side of the road, cleared a culvert and tore off fifteen feet of wire fencing before it came to a halt atop. Just when Powers was buried from the machine is not known, but he was later picked up a few feet back of the automobile, suffering considerable pain and unable to move. It was only upon his arrival at the hospital that it was disclosed he was suffering from a broken back.

At an early hour this morning, Dr. Stobie made a report that Powers was suffering from a fractured back and was completely paralyzed from his waist down. Powers' condition at that time was reported as being very serious as no determination as to his possible recovery could be arrived at.

The front end of the motor car was badly damaged during the accident, necessitating its removal to a local garage for repairs.

Maxwell escaped with but minor injuries.

W. HASTINGS LONG RIDING

Over One Hundred Miles From Waterfront to North Townships

The newly-formed constituency of West Hastings for provincial purposes is an elongated riding having over one hundred miles in length between an unbroken line included within its bounds being as follows: Trenton, Belleville, Town of Trenton, Frankford, Stirling, Bancroft, Marmora and Deloro villages; townships of Sidney, Thurlow, Tudor and Cashel, Lake, Wollaston, Faraday, Herschel and Monteagle.

On Friday next, the 11th inst., delegates will assemble in Marmora village for the purpose of selecting a candidate to succeed Dr. Cooke, M.P.P. W. H. Ingaland, M.P.P. and others will deliver addresses.

WIFE OF BISHOP LYONS BEREAVED OF MOTHER

Portland, Ont., May 5—(CP) — Emily Priscilla, wife of William H. Lyons and daughter of the late Richard Blake, Brockville, is dead today at her home at Portland in her 78th year.

She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Harold Smith of Rt. Rev. Dr. John Lyons, of Kingston, Bishop of the Diocese of Ontario, Mrs. Guy L. Walker, Detroit, and Miss Hilda, Portland; and one son, L. L. Bolton, assistant Deputy Minister of the Department of Mines, Ottawa. The funeral will be held at Portland on Monday afternoon.

SCHOOLGIRL'S SCRIBBLER TELLS TALE, PUTS POLICE ON CLUE OF MOTORIST

PORT ERIE, Ont., May 5.—(CP)— From the scribbler of a composition entirely youthful schoolgirl, police today believed they had information which would lead to the arrest of a motorist who has been stopping school children returning home from school with requests they go for a ride on promises of being given gifts of candy. A little girl, alarmed by the refusals of other children who had refused to become inveigled by the persistent requests, wrote down the license number of the car on her scribbler containing homework data and the police are now checking licenses to establish the motorists' identity.

George V Ascended Throne 24 Years Ago

Twenty-four years ago tomorrow (May 6) a king died, and a king arose to the throne of England. On the death of King Edward VII, the Prince of Wales, George, (LEFT) the proclamation of the new King being read at Windsor, was proclaimed Monarch of the British Empire. He was crowned on June 23. The above layout shows

SAYS SWEEZEY GAVE $2,000

Hepburn Asks Premier Henry To Make Statement

WINDSOR, May 5.—Mayor David Croll of Windsor, last night, was chosen unanimously as the Liberal candidate for Windsor-Walkerville in the coming Ontario general elections.

Mr. Hepburn told the gathering that the Liberal party he heads had never paid any $2,000 Frank Sweezey notes which was given by R. G. Sweezey, power company executive. He declared he would like to know what the Conservatives are getting, and he asked Premier Henry if "little Johnny Aird was still his collector."

EARTHQUAKE SHAKES EAST

Was Quite Severe in British Columbia up to Alaska

Vancouver, May 5—After shaking houses, toppling articles off shelves and causing anxiety to thousands of persons, minor earthquakes traveled which last night shook Pacific Coast points from Washington to Alaska and faded today without causing any serious damage.

The trembling which shook Vancouver, Victoria and Washington points was described as the lowest interior of British Columbia were centered in the Straits of Georgia. Seismic tremblings shook points in Alaska for 48 hours, with the last of them occurring last night.

PICTON NATIVE DIES IN TORONTO

Toronto, May 5 (CP)—Edward Charles Gage, Secretary Treasurer of the Ontario Oddfellows' Home and Secretary Treasurer of the Old Boys' Aid Association, died early Friday after a heart condition. He was in his 69th year.

Born in Picton, Ontario, and resident here for many years, the late Mr. Gage was a popular and well-known fraternal figure in Forester and Masonic circles.

Mace Captured in War of 1812 May be Returned to Ontario

President F. D. Roosevelt Makes Friendly Gesture

URGES CONGRESS

Washington, May 5—(AP)—President Roosevelt has asked the United States Congress to return the mace of the parliament of Ontario, captured during the war of 1812 and now held at the Annapolis Naval Academy.

In a special message, Mr. Roosevelt called attention that on July 4 a memorial tablet to the United States forces killed in action will be unveiled in Toronto.

"The suggestion has been made," he said, "that it would be a graceful act for the United States to return this historic mace to Canada at the time of the unveiling of the tablet."

The message of the President follows:

"During the war of 1812 the mace of the parliament of Upper Canada, or Ontario, was taken by the United States forces at the title of the battle of York, April 27, 1813.

"That mace, which had been the symbol of legislative authority at York (now Toronto) since 1792, has been preserved in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.

"On July 4, 1934, there is to be unveiled in Toronto a memorial tablet erected by the United States daughters of 1812 to the memory of General Pike and others of the United States forces who were killed in action. The Mayor and Council of Toronto are providing the site for the memorial.

"The suggestion has been made that it would be a gracious act for the United States to return this historic mace to Canada at the time of the unveiling of the tablet.

"The mace is a token of representative government, established at York nearly a century and a half ago. It symbolizes the orderly rule of such government in Canada, continuing from that day to this.

"Since the agreement of 1817, the two countries have by common agreement maintained no hostile armaments on either side of their boundary; and every generation of statesments the peace and friendship between the United States and Canada.

"I heartily recommend to the favorable consideration of the Congress the enactment of a joint resolution authorizing the return of the mace to the Canadian government."

WAR-TIME BASIS

PEIPING, China, May 5—(AP)— Officials from outer Mongolia today Soviet Russia is rapidly placing the entire area upon a war-time basis.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE LAID

Motorcar, it is Alleged, Struck and Killed Pedestrian

Cornwall, Ont., May 5—(CP) — The criminal negligence charge laid against Clarence Wheeler 24 of St. Andrew's today was changed to one of manslaughter when he appeared in police court here preliminary for preliminary hearing. He was committed for trial and will come up at the September sittings in the Supreme Court.

The charge arose out of an automobile accident near Lancaster, April 20, in which it was alleged Wheeler's car struck and killed Norman Monbroy 39-year-old farmer.

Wheeler was released on $4,000 bail.

Mrs. Martha A. Cole Dies at Hamilton

Picton May 5 (Special)— The death occurred in the General Hospital, Hamilton of Martha Adelaide Cole, wife of the late W. W. Cole, in her sixty-ninth year. The late Mrs. Cole had been ill for some months and had gone to Hamilton for an operation, from the effects of which she did not rally.

She had spent almost her entire life in Picton, and was well known as a lover of horses, and as a horsewoman, she and Mr. Cole drove a beautiful team for many years at local fairs. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. J. T. Belcourt of Picton and a son in Hamilton. The funeral service which was private, will be held at late residence in the Cole Block, on Main Street, on Wednesday at 1.30 p.m. and interment was made in Glenwood Cemetery.

The misses Jean and Marion Insley have sold their residence on Queen St. to Mr. Harold Gibson of Bloomfield who will take possession June 1st.

DILLINGER QUEST ON LINER FRUITLESS, MASTER SENDS WIRELESS TO SCOTLAND

Greenock, Scotland, May 5—(AP) —Captain Stewart, Master of the S.S. Duchess of York, reported today to the Greenock police today that he had searched the big liner fruitlessly for John Dillinger, American desperado.

The local police said they were satisfied that Dillinger, rumored on his way to Great Britain, was not aboard Captain Stewart's ship but nevertheless, allen officers met the ship when it arrives later in the day.

It is understood here that detectives also will board the Duchess of York at Belfast to satisfy themselves that the rumors are untrue.

8 BUILDINGS ARE SCORCHED AT MARMORA

Prompt Alarm And Help of All Villagers Save Situation

FIRE IN BARN

Threatening Blaze Means Only Small Loss Fortunately

Marmora, May 5 (Special)—This village was threatened on Friday with a fire which fortunately did little damage beyond scorching slightly a large number of buildings. At one time it looked as if the fire might get beyond control of the volunteer bucket brigade.

It took fire and in a short time the flames caught on a house in front of the barn, owned by the Pearce Company and occupied by Mr. Kenney. The fire was no sooner under control than the strong wind carried the flames to a blacksmith shop also owned by the Pearce Company. The shop was damaged and then the garage and after this badly damaged. A vacant house owned by Mr. Excellency was set on fire but was saved with small damage.

Sparks flew across the street to Taylor Campbell's home, but did not beginning to ignite. Mrs. Chester Nichol's residence then began to burn. Three streams of water were put out in a very short time. A house owned by Mrs. Reynolds occupied by Mrs. Reynolds was also badly scorched.

The village was a scene of excitement as the terrified villagers took time hurrying in the removal of their furniture and belongings. But the prompt response of the bucket brigade and the prompt response of the people in the school district who worked in carrying buckets of water and in removing furniture from the school would have been very great. Except for the Village Bureau of excitement were at their height as there was doubt how far the blaze would spread.

The loss fortunately will not be very heavy but will run into hundreds of dollars.

Fully hundred men, women and boys fought the fire.

THREE SENTENCED FOR ASSAULTING OFFICER

Cornwall, Ont., May 5—(CP) Alleged to have participated in an assault on Provincial Constable W. H. Kennedy in the railway depot here last Friday, three men were under sentence today.

Leo Laramie 26, Sorel, Que., was sentenced to two years and Nelson Plion 19, of Montreal, to one year, on charges of assault and trespassing while Leo Martin 29, of Brockville, Ont., the third member of the trio, drew a six months term for obstructing a police officer and trespassing.

Constable Kennedy appeared in court and still bore the marks of the assault.

GOVERNOR GENERAL INSPECTS CADETS

Kingston, Ont., May 5—(CP)— His Excellency the Earl of Bessborough, Governor General of Canada, arrived at the Royal Military College this morning and inspected the battalion of cadets in front of the Administration Building. His Excellency congratulated the cadets on their splendid showing.

Later he witnessed gymnastic displays by members of the graduating class and this afternoon inspected the Royal Canadian Heavy Artillery. Tomorrow His Excellency will attend divine service in St. George's Cathedral.

Thieves Rob Grocer Who Fights with Salmon

Owen Sound, May 5—(CP)—John Russell, 80-year-old grocer, who helped up last night in his little corner store by two men who purchased some goods and then ordered Russell to hand over his money. The latter refused and struck one man over the head with a can of salmon. He finally won, overpowered and carried outside where the robbery took place. The men were unarmed.

PURCHASES TIMMINS PAPER

North Bay, Ont., May 5.—(CP)— Silverman, Roy H. Thomson, Chief, his return to North Bay, announced he purchased the Timmins Daily Press newspaper in the mining town. The first issue under the new management will make its appearance on Monday, he said.

CHISELLERS OF INDUSTRY CONDEMNED

Stevens Lashes With Words of Scorn Certain Firms

DIVIDENDS, WAGES

Notes Firm Playing Game Slaughtered by Unscrupulous

MONTREAL, May 5.—(CP)— Chiselers of industry—although the Minister of Trade and Commerce did not actually use the word made popular by President Roosevelt—were roundly condemned by Hon. H. H. Stevens in an address to Montreal businessmen last night.

Mr. Stevens verbally lashed big firms which, while continuing to declare dividends to shareholders, paid wages so low their employees were forced to seek relief from taxpayers' money; declared he would not sit by silent while firms which played the game in business were "crucified" by those that did not, and stated while he did not recommend an NRA for Canada there was certainly need of something.

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce, in its demands for curtailed government expenditure and balanced budgets, also came under fire from the minister. He was "amused" by the chamber's demands.

Did, he asked, business do better in the war, on behalf? Companies had increased the mortgage bonded indebtedness of industry and banking corporations in Canada 300 per cent. during the past 11 years, from $230,000,000 to $1,748,000,000. In that time business expansion and output had only increased 50 per cent.

Speaking on his reference to the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Stevens, in answer to Sir Henry Drayton, said: "It is a bit amusing to note that the distinguished gentleman who largely represents the apostles of economy and government expenditure was also the Minister of Finance of the country at the time the expenditure was incurred."

Such an instance, he claimed, illustrated the futility of empty resolutions by boards of Trade and Service Clubs that call for economy in public organizations, while at the same time they fail utterly to control in the slightest degree the urgent appeals of their members.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, May 5—(CP)—The weather has been mostly fair and fine in the Ontario peninsula and has continued warm from Ontario eastward. Showers prevailed also in the Northern Districts of Ontario and Quebec and in the Maritime Provinces.

Northern Ontario: Fair and cool tonight and Sunday.

Lake Superior: Moderate to fresh winds, fair, with somewhat lower temperature.

Manitoba and Rainy River: Fair, with a little lower temperature.

Saskatchewan and Alberta: Mostly fair and warm.

"Sock on Jaw" Promised Col. Hutchison by Belgian

Colonel's Story About Death of King Albert is Called "an Outrage o n The Dead" by Member of Belgian Embassy

London, May 5 (CP)—An enraged friend of the Belgian Embassy in London today invited Colonel Graham Seton Hutchinson to come and "get a sock on the jaw."

Indignantly saying he was ready to do it, Hutchinson declared: "I'm a liar," an Embassy spokesman quoted him as saying from Nottingham that Hutchison had said the late Belgian Monarch was killed by a motor truck in an accidental death while mountain climbing.

Word was sent to the Embassy and dare to repeat it to me, I will give him a sock on the jaw and tell him it is the most scandalous thing I ever heard," the spokesman declared.

"Incredible Lie"

"There is not a single person in Belgium who does not know that the real facts about how our beloved King met his death.

"There are some people who—to get a little notoriety—will invent the most incredible lies.

All decent - minded people throughout the world will, I am sure, feel such a statement with contempt as being unworthy of any gentleman.

"It is an outrage on the dead," Hutchinson has said to a friend and publicist, has written a number of books on Belgium, the spokesman for Graham Seton.

Describing the story of King Albert's death in last February 17, as the "biggest piece of spoof put out in the world in the last six months." Mr. Hutchison is reported to have said:

"He did not die as a result of an alpine accident, believe me.

"I know the facts.

"The story was put over by planned perjury in such a way that it is simply baffling to intelligent people."

"The story of Albert's death was issued in Belgium before he was dead," he said, "and the newspapers who wait does not go climbing by himself.

Finding of Glasses

Mentioning that Albert's field glasses were found 300 metres distant from the body and saying he had learned that from "one of the minutes on the King's body or hands in mountain climbing.

"In other words he was tapped on the back and the new manager in the Belgium. Nobody dares speak of the death of King Albert as simply baffling to intelligent people.

"The facts are that King Albert was murdered by Germans.

"I am in a position to say that King Albert I was shot by German communists—who in fact represent the Hitler Party of Germany—because they were able to stand up for themselves like Christians."

The death of Albert I, King of the Belgians, is said to a fall by physicians and government officials from a cliff near Namur, according to a statement issued by the Belgian Embassy in London.

At the time there were charges from some quarters that the monarch was done to death by communists.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Coming Events

BELLEVILLE CENTENNIAL AND United Empire Loyalist weekly meeting, Thursday, May 10th, in the Public School Auditorium. General business. Everybody welcome. m5-3t.

EUCHRE AND BRIDGE AT THE Johnstone Academy, Tuesday, May 8 at 8.15. Refreshments. m5-1t

DANCE AT SOUTH END CLUB rooms tonight (May 5th) 9 to 12. Cabin Orchestra. Admission 25c. m5-1t

EUCHRE AND DANCE, MOOSE Hall, Wednesday, May 9th. Euchre 8.15 sharp. Dancing till one. Many valuable prizes. Regular prizes. Admission 25c. m5-1t.

LIBERAL BARN DANCE AT WM. Matthew's, East of Cannifton, Wednesday, May 9th. Admission 25c. m5-11

THE UNSIDAOWED CROSS," to be presented by the Holiness Movement in the Salvation Army Citadel, Monday, May 7th. Silver collection. m3 5.

SAINT MICHAEL'S TENNIS CLUB opening dance in the Auditorium, Monday, May 7th. The Commodores orchestra. Refreshments. Dancing at nine. Admission: Stag, 50c; couple, $1. m3 5 7.

FOLLOW THE CROWD TO THE Moose Saturday night (May 5th). Saturday night dance. Music by the Commodores. Ladies door prize. Admission 25c.

City and District News

MARMORA STUDENTS WIN SCHOLARSHIPS

In Queen's University prize list, published today, awards are announced. The university scholarships in Arts (Old) were awarded to D. Dow Aikhead and Sydney Bullock.

QUINTENA LODGE MOURNS MRS. TICE

The late Mrs. George O. Tice, whose passing is so greatly mourned by her friends in this city had been a member of Quintena Rebekah Lodge since coming to Belleville and had taken a great interest in the activities of this society.

ROAD COMMITTEE TOUR COUNTY ROADS

Members of Hastings County Council road committee will leave Belleville on Tuesday for a thorough inspection of the county road system in order to prepare a work program for the coming season. It is believed that the majority of roads have emerged through the winter in excellent shape and that gravelling and grading will be necessary. The committee will be headed by Reeve James Moore, chairman and assisted by Col. Miller, Marmora engineer and Simcoe, county road superintendent.

NAMES OMITTED IN HONOR ROLL

Two names were omitted in the junior prizes roster at Queen Alexandra furnished the press, namely, Jean Lorraine Newman and Marion Clapper.

POLICE NEWS

Despite warnings during the past few days, relating to violations of the local all-night parking law, motorists persist in leaving their automobiles parked on local streets all night. More stickers were found on local automobile windshields this morning, having been placed there by the police early today. Drivers of these parkers have proven a hindrance to the operation of the city sweeper. Today is the last day for the motorists to see Chief Kidd. Another local motorist was apprehended driving his automobile on Front street with four persons occupying the front seat. He will report to the Chief Constable this afternoon.

Morley Reid, of this city, was given two months in the common jail, after pleading guilty to a charge of perjury, when he appeared for sentence on a charge under the L.C.A. today before Magistrate Ethel. The lower court charge against Reid was dismissed, but, a charge of perjury was laid by the Crown, following the acquittal when with giving false evidence when in relation to minor in court, at this previous trial. He admitted the charge.

JASMINE
FACE POWDER with GOLD OR VANISHING CREAM
$1.50 Value For
$1.00
McKeown's
DRUG STORE

Tip Top Tailors
Madee Agency
McGhee and McDonald
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing ad-1n

Sherwin-Williams
Family Gloss Paint
90c Quart
OSTROM'S Drug Store
ml-4

Lavender
Shaving Cream
Reg. 35c 25c
Lotion 39c
I. D. A. DRUG STORES

LOCAL MUSICIANS GO TO MONTREAL RESORT

Eight Belleville boys comprising the Don Fair orchestra, well known dance band have accepted a position with the Edgewater Pavilion, Montreal, where they will play throughout the coming summer season. The contract with such a large and prominent resort is held by local musicians is notable as the accomplishment for the local orchestra. The orchestra composed of Phil Huddleston, Art Snowden, George Hutchinson, Roy Mowery, Don Fairman, Wally King, Jerry Collins, and Hay Cook, left yesterday.

CYRIL WAITE NEW MANAGER AT SAINT JOHN

Well Known Banker, Musician And Public Man Moved

HIS WAR CAREER

Chairman of Finance Committee of School Board

Mr. Cyril Waite, manager of the local branch of the Dominion Bank for the past five years, and chairman of Finance on the local Board of Education will sever his connection with this city of Quinte's next when he leaves for Saint John, New Brunswick, where he has been appointed manager of a larger branch of the same bank.

Active and energetic during his residence in this city, Mr. Waite has gained the friendship of all as one of the community workers interested in the advancement of this city's interests. He took a keen part in expressions of congratulations, delivered daily with regret over the loss of one of the city's most prominent and best citizens.

Mr. Waite came to Belleville in 1929 from Napanee where he had managed the branch of the Dominion Bank. Previously he had served with the bank in Montreal, Hamilton and at Toronto head office. His war service record was time and lengthy and distinguished. He went up with the 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles in 1915. Mr. Waite served with the regiment in France and Belgium during the Ypres in 1916. From there he was transferred to the Royal Canadian in 1917 and returned to the bank.

Born and educated in Yorkshire, England, he took a keen interest in the affairs and politics of his native land. He was a member of the Canadian Militia for 14 years, and in the many and varied branches in which he has been.

In Belleville, Mr. Waite was especially prominent as organist and choirmaster of St. Thomas' church. His services were voluntary and given unstintingly. He was secretary-treasurer of the Belleville Musical Society and president of the Belleville Red Cross Society during the past term he has held the position of Chairman of Finance on the local Board of Education, an office that was ably and faithfully filled.

His enthusiasm for sailing is well marked, and his liking for boats and the water was extended to other forms of outdoor sports. His most noted hobby however was music, in which art he excelled.

DON TOPPIN WINS PRIZE

Albert College Annual Oratorical Contest Held

The annual oratorical contest at Albert College Thursday resulted in the award being won by Donald Toppin, one of the outstanding speakers in this district. Five boys entered the contest, competing for the prize donated each year by A. Forster, student of the class of 1899. Rev. Dr. Kerr of Toronto, Rev. Dr. Bishop, principal of the College, occupied the chair and the contestants spoke in the following order: Jessie Mowery, Donald Toppin, Morgan Rowland, William Chalk and Ivan Burton.

The topic of the contest was "Youth Movements in Canada." The judges Miss N. P. Merry, head of the English department of Belleville Collegiate, Rev. Dr. James Semple, and Rev. Harold B. Neal in making the award to Mr. Toppin gave honourable mention to Mr. Rowland who was a very close second.

An interesting musical program was contributed by Miss Blanche Dodge, former student of the College, and Mrs. A. E. MacColl.

CHARACTERISTICS OF PEOPLE BORN IN JANUARY
• STRONG POINTS
• WEAK POINTS
• SUITABLE OCCUPATIONS
• and Many Other Details
NOW READY AT 25c Per Copy
A similar booklet for February is on the press. Succeeding months soon.
THE JAMES TEXTS
BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO

W. B. DEACON LEADS DRIVE

Takes Place in Red Cross Campaign as Mr. Waite Leaves

Mr. Cyril Waite, president of the local Red Cross Society-having been transferred to Saint John, N.B., the executive at a luncheon held today to announce that Mr. W. B. Deacon has kindly consented to assume the office of chairman of the Red Cross Campaign which opens in Belleville on Monday, May 28th. Mr. Deacon had already accepted the office of campaign director.

On Monday morning forty canvassers start out to take part in the annual Red Cross campaign for funds. An emergency meeting of the committee will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stuart Leslie, vice-president, when plans were made regarding the canvassing of branches of the campaign and the part the campaign which is immediately at hand. The executive has also been asked to appeal to Mr. Deacon for kindly consenting to act as chairman of the Belleville Red Cross Society's annual garnest support.

W. R. Wallace, field secretary of the Red Cross, who has been in the city conferring with Mr. Waite prior to his departure met with the branch at the emergency meeting. He was with interesting talk on the Ontario Division Headquarters learned that Mr. Waite is to be removed from Belleville and of necessity, has to serve his connections with the Belleville Red Cross.

"I consider Mr. Waite," said Mr. Wallace, "one of the most aggressive and devoted younger presidents in any of our branches in Belleville and we have for the three years of his membership regarded the Belleville branch one of the very three branches in the Province. Much credit part of service rendered Red Cross during Mr. Waite's presidency for the canadian Legion, the two branches and local unemployed young men a year ago. Throughout his residence was largely the result of Mr. Waite's activity and devotion to duty and in my opinion the people of Belleville do owe him a debt for his great service in this time of emergency."

The best wishes of the Ontario Division Red Cross go with Mr. Waite in his new field of work, it is contemplated he will make a Red Cross contact in the City of Saint John having a very active Red Cross branch."

DO YOU REALIZE THAT - - -

Candidates who seek to be the representative from East Hastings in the approaching Provincial election have some territory to cover; there being no less than fifteen municipalities in the riding. They reach from Deseronto on the south to the township of Tudor in the extreme north part of Hastings county. Only two incorporated villages are included in the riding, namely Tweed and Madoc. The municipalities are as follows:

Town of Deseronto, villages of Tweed and Madoc, townships of Tyendinaga, Thurlow, Huntingdon, Hungerford, Madoc, Rawdon, Elzevir, Grimsthorpe, Limerick, Cashel, Dungannon, Monteagle, Carlow, Bangor, Mayo and Wicklow.

CADET CORPS AT TRENTON INSPECTED

Units Win High Praise From Inspecting Officer, Capt. Mann

Trenton, May 5 (Special) — With perfect weather prevailing, the annual inspection of the Trenton high and public school cadet corps took place yesterday afternoon on the campus of the high school. The cadet corps, the Trenton high school, Collegiate and Albert College continuation public schools, paraded before Capt. C. D. Mann of Kingston, inspecting officer from headquarters of Military District No. 3.

After viewing the march past and other military manoeuvres executed, the inspecting officer drew up a square while Cadet Charles Way of the high school corps was presented with the John Proctor cup for being the best cleaned cadet on parade.

Medals for rifle shooting were presented by Mrs. Simpson of College street school who turned over the D. C. R. A. and Lucra Record medals, C. Sergt.-Major Jones, Platoon No. 2, Nels Hurwitz; Sergt.-Major Fyfe.

Dufferin school — Captain, Clarence Asbury; Lieutenants, Robert Preslie, Peter Harrington, Harry Brunt; Sergeants, Robert Burr, John Hall, Gordon Hubbs, Lorne Hall, Gilbert Clegg.

College street school — Captain, Raymond Simpson; second-in-command, Ernest Hall; Lieutenants, Ross Brunel, William Johnson, Wesley Hall; Sergt.-Major, William Farrar, Harry Coon; Sergt.-Drummer, Gerald Clark.

After such a creditable showing as made by the cadet corps, much praise is due to those under whose guidance the work of faithful drilling took place. The campus was thronged with a large crowd of spectators from the schools and parents of the cadets.

The Gaiety Season Opens May 14.

The fine weather for the past week has given a decided boost to the local golf links.

All entries must be in to secretary Hall's office not later than May 11 at 7:30 o'clock. The schedule will be drawn on May 9 with the opening game on Monday, May 14.

The executive have had men working on the golf course this week and now it is in ship-shape for the season to start the 1934 season.

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. M. E. MOWATT

The funeral of the late Mrs. Matilda E. Mowatt took place Friday afternoon from the Belleville Pottery Company Pumaral Parlors and was largely attended by friends.

The service at the funeral parlor was held by Rev. Mr. Bennett, after interment was made was conducted by Adjutant Martin of the Salvation Army, assisted by Sergt-Major Hart.

The bearers were Messrs. Fred Mason, F. McCoy, T. Adams and Sergt.-Major Hart.

STEEL HYDRAULIC DUMP BODIES
Made right in Tweed so you can drive your truck in and have them mounted. Every one guaranteed fitted with high class pumps and our prices are attractive. Write or come and see us.
W. Gordon Steel Works Ltd.
TWEED, ONT.
m3, 6, 12, 15, 19, 22, 26

Now Is The Time to Plant
Shrubs
We have a good stock of Ornamental and Flowering Shrubs, a Spiraea
Hydrangea
Honeysuckle
Syringa, etc.
From 15c to 50c
According to size and variety
Apple Trees 50c
Grape Vines 15c
Also Evergreens, Perennials, and Shade Trees.
Belleville Nurseries
Phone 218 279 Dundas St. E.

Blanche Carter and Dolores Del Rio and the 300 Busby Berkely dancers in "Wonder Bar" coming to the Belle soon.

TABERNACLE W. A.

The May meeting of the Tabernacle Women's Association was held in the church parlors on Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Lent, the President in the chair. After singing "Holy and Tenderly Jesus is Calling", Mrs. Emerson led in prayer and Mrs. Windover read the Scripture Lesson. Various reports were received and adopted.

Mrs. T. Bell and Mrs. R. Johnson were appointed as Trustees to the W. A. Convention to be held in Canniffton in June.

The following program was conducted under the direction of and with Mrs. Taylor in the chair.

Hymn 255: "Jesus Keep me Near the Cross" was sung and Mrs. Crawford led in prayer.

Mrs. Taylor read a paper which she had prepared on "Mothers".

Solo: "Mother o' Mine" was sung by Mrs. R. Johnston and Mrs. Windover.

Mrs. Taylor gave an interesting reading, "Mrs. Peter Rabbit's Christmas Tree".

The meeting closed with the Missionary Benediction repeated in unison after which members of Group One conducted a successful sale of Home Cooking.

BETTER WEEK TRADE GOOD

A brand new "Ace Bailey" model cabinet radio is providing music for Mr. John R. Burgess, 145 East Dundas Street, today following the presentation of the set as the result of the Grand Prize draw made on Friday. The winning number held by Mr. Burgess was ticket No. 2.

Saturday's shopping hit a high stride along Front Street today as shoppers in throughout the day did a brisk as well as in the city invaded the downtown district, attracted by the various stores. Clerks in many of the stores were kept extremely busy in an endeavor to keep up with the orders.

Dwelling on the growth of the organization he represented, and the long service that many of the editor Leslies enjoy, Mr. McVeigh called attention to the fact that Peacock Brothers of Brockville had been with the company for the past 22 years. Chas. Bowerman of Campbellford, had been connected with them for 36 years and Earl Bailey

LEAVING TODAY: and "Madame" Spy!"
His bedside experience taught him what science has never discovered—
THE WAY TO A WOMAN'S HEART!
See how he used it to make the pampered darlings of society pray for a breakdown so they could meet him at their bedside
Not a Doctor's Picture! Not by any means! It's a patient's picture if there ever was one—but be sure—only for what-oh—you any theatre in town can offer!
2.30
7.15
9.00
A First National Picture with WARREN WILLIAM
JEAN MUIR
DAVID LANDAU
KATHRYN SERGAVA
DINNERWARE MON. - TUE.
STARTING MONDAY
CAPITOL

Winning Numbers

Today's drawing of Friday's winning coupons resulted as follows:

Grand Prize—G-40860.

The winner is Miss Ann McCoy, Madoc, according to the address written on the winning coupon.

Thirty other prizes await claimants holding the following numbers:

Tuesday's draw—A27260, B29094, E27727, A13812, C34000, B13860, E2750.

Wednesday's draw—B3200, B23630, C42372, C833.

C46398, E20149, E41247, E21746, E28827, E19807, E41787, F46822, F13546, F13972, C40555, C13604, B22902, G34315, E31898, F24467.

Thursday's draw—A19527, A13556, F10699, C39000, C40000, C41000, C36309, C5422, D13913, D8248, D18899, D21904, D42717, B42222, F10699, C39000, C40000, C41000, C5422, D13913, D8248, D18899, D21904, D42717, F21451, C578, G-9079, E2782, B530.

Unclaimed Prizes

A considerable number of prizes still await holders of the winning coupons with corresponding numbers printed below. Holders of the slips are asked to present them to Mr. William Doyle of the John Lewis Hardware, Front street, at once so that identification may be made:

A28742, B17417, B48101, D34602, B33946, D8752.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Will Be Held in Belleville Next Saturday

The Hastings County Democratic Convention will be held in Belleville next Saturday afternoon, May 12th, at 2 o'clock in the Belleville Armouries, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Provincial election.

G.M.C. DEALERS HOLD MEETING

Enthusiastic Gathering of Dealers Meet Executives

Unless they build bigger factories a hire more men, speed up production lines faster than they can go at present, and produce at least one-third more cars than are sold at the present time, the saturation point in the automobile industry will not be reached, a general assistant of retail dealers of this Central Ontario district and high officials of the General Motors Corporation of Canada were told at a meeting in the Hotel Cleland last evening by C. P. Dunsmore, sales promotion manager of the Oshawa office.

According to Mr. Dunsmore, sales promotion manager of the Oshawa office, this industry has a vigin field where cars have not yet been sold to the public and with all the facilities of manufacture, the best that the automotive industry can do is to turn out 2,000,000 cars per year," he added.

With representatives present from throughout the district bounded by Cobourg, Peterboro and Brockville, the meeting held in the city last evening was one of the most distinctive of its kind. Arranged by of stirring for the past 18 years.

Metal finishers, said the speaker, were almost an unknown quantity. Prior to pressed-steel bodies, car bodies than ever are being built in Canada, but not enough metal finishers are trained to take up the work of caring for those turned out. National advertising by the company and the help of Dominion Motors Corporation was praised in so service in order to secure this any four months during 1933.

Other Speakers

William Carruthers, manager of production department; F. Hearn, zone distributor; E. A. Everson; F. E. Herbert, Carruthers, Mr. Mahon, Russ Birchard, assistant general sales manager; Arthur Mahon, sales promotion manager, all spoke briefly of their connections and the happy relationships that have maintained between them and the dealers.

The meeting was then adjourned. Included among those present were: Mr. C. E. McTavish, General Sales Manager of G.M.C. of Canada; E. A. Everson, Assistant General Sales Manager; R. H. Birchard, Assistant General Sales Manager of the Western Zone; Mr. Win. Carswith, manager of Distribution for Canada; Mr. C. E. Hebert, branch manager of General Motors Acceptance Corporation; William Carruthers, Toronto Zone Truck Manager; Geo. York, Service Representatives of Belleville Territory; W. Gillotle, Toronto Zone Service Manager; W. Mullin, Toronto Zone Sales Supervisor; Harry Doughty, Toronto Zone Business Manager; Frank Hearn, Toronto Zone; J. Duffus, Peterboro; J. E. Hughes, Peterboro; J. R. Boyce, city; F. H. Naylor, Madoc; J. Davidson, Campbellford; J. Bailey, Shilling; R. E. Sculthorpe, Port Hope; F. R. Hanley, Port Credit; Graham, Trenton; A. Tumey, Cavan; C. Wilson, Cobourg; W. J. McConnell, Cobourg; Wood and Sage, Tweed; F. H. Naylor, Madoc; A. H. Jeffery, manager of Belleville Motors; E. Wray Van Meter, Corbyville and others.

Success of the evening was attributed to the fine spirit of the city, Belleville district representative, who handled the necessary details.

It's Here Today! The Greatest Cargo of Thrills Ever Brought Back from the Wilds by Man!
DEVIL TIGER
Directed by CLYDE E. ELLIOTT
Director of "BRING 'EM BACK ALIVE"
Real Amazing!
• COMPANION FEATURE •
A Wheel of Love and Laughter
HOLD THAT GIRL! with
James DUNN
Claire TREVOR
Now Playing
BELLE
Always A SMART SHOW
LAST DOW. SHOW 2.30
Added — Bing Crosby in "Please" — Belle Latest News Flashes
STARTING TUESDAY
10 Great Stars in the wonder show of all time
"WONDER BAR"

Stirling Scouts Entertain at St. Andrew's Guild Meeting

Scout Master Thomas Ward Speaks on Sir Baden Powell

Stirling—The April meeting of the Stirling Board of Education was held on Monday evening with Dr. C. J. P. Wait, Dr. H. H. Algar and Messrs. J. B. Sheldon, H. C. Martin, F. T. Ward, C. P. Zinn, Roy Losey, C. R. Basted, Walter Wright, J. S. Morton, E. G. Bailey, and Stuart Bailey present. The meeting was officially opened with the reading of the minutes of the last regular meeting. These were had been approved, Principal R. O. Lawlor of the Stirling High School reported that one hundred and thirteen pupils were in attendance at school on Friday.

Mr. J. B. Sheldon offered on behalf of the Horticultural society ribbons to be awarded for the best kept garden plot in the High School, and spoke of the work of Lawlor and Mr. Jos. Wilson, B.Sc.A., as a committee to suppervise, with the Public School prize cash be for, it being a worthy object for one year in the Horticultural Society, with S.S. No. 12 and Stirling competing. On a Marine-Wright motion the matter of choosing a plot for Agricultural endeavours was left in the hands of the Agricultural Committee.

Mr. William Jones, president of the Stirling Fair Board, was present and interviewed the Board in regard to putting a track on the courts of the Tennis Club in the High School and requested that the privilege of using the water supply in the school for the summer supply of water to the Tennis Club, the cost of course, to be borne by the Tennis Club. This request was considered in most favourable one and was granted on a Ward-Morton motion.

Mr. J. S. Morton reported that the fence on the Public School the grounds had been properly repaired. On a Walt-Algar motion, the Secretary was directed to endeavour to secure copies of the Amendments to the Public School Act at present last session and when obtained, to be made available to the ratepayers. Mr. Morton on a Ward-Young motion was granted the privilege of the use of the Manual Training room.

Miss Jean McCubbin asked the Board that she be granted leave of absence for the remainder of the term. The Board considered the request and Mr. Howden reported that everything was progressing most favourably in the Tennis Courts and spoke highly of Miss McCubbin suggesting that a letter of thanks be granted. It was moved by H. C. Martin and seconded by F. T. Ward that the leave be given following which, on a Morton-Zinn motion, the decision was made that another teacher be secured for the months of May and June.

Mr. Howden thanked the Board for their generous grant for Manual Training. The final subject for discussion was the Cook School, and on a Wait-Martin motion, the Teachers' Committee was ordered to act in conjunction with the Principal, to study the Cooks Scholarship and recommend to the next Board their findings therefrom. When the following accounts were then ordered paid the meeting adjourned: High School, C. Snowden, $4.55; J. S. Morton, $11.74; L. and R. W. Mathieson, $4.00; G. H. Leary and Son, $2.05; Stirling Milk Syrup, $6.77!

Public School, J. S. Morton, $27.12; L. and R. W. Mathieson, $5.05; G. H. Leary and Son, $7.31.

Telephone Rentals on Monday, April 30, 1934, at the Private Branch Exchange, Toronto General Hospital, to Rev. and Mrs. A. S. McDiarmid, a son.

Myers—Born on Sunday, April 29, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. Murray Myers, Stirling, a son.

Miss Bowers of Kingston has been appointed for the remainder of the school term to supply in the Public School during the illness of Miss McCubbin's leave of absence.

St. Andrew's Guild concluded its activities for the year on Monday evening in a most unique manner when Mr. Ward Thomas was supplied solely by the members of the First Stirling Troop of the Boy Scouts. The Scouts under Scout Master Tom Ward marched in a body to the church auditorium where the service opened in customary fashion with Mrs. R. W. McMahon in the chair. After extending a most hospitable welcome to the Scouts on behalf of the Guild, the chairman handed the building over to S. M. Tom Ward, who, in true Scout fashion, began helping with the procedure, stitched briefly an interesting sketch of the life work of Sir Baden Powell, founder of the Boy Scout movement. In his address, S. M. Ward gave some very interesting points on scouting, the interesting fact being the disclosure of the information that there are some two million and a half in existence in the world today and after expressing on behalf of the Scout troop, their pleasure in being present and the hope that they might be favoured by the meeting, the Scouts proceeded to present a programme of interesting events.

The opening number was a corset solo, "There's an Old Spinning Wheel in the Parlour played by Scout Ward, accompanied at the piano by Gerald Sprentall. A duet, a humorous one, "Tiddle-de-dee" was given by Carl Mumby as the two fellows of the evening's entertainment. A quartette composed of Roy Williams, guitar; Carl Mumby, banjo; Harold West, banjo; Gerald Sprentall, clarinet; rendered a musical selection.

An interesting feature of the programme was a demonstration of knot-tieing which was given by Scouts Bob Lacey and Lloyd Richardson. Mr. Arthur Duncan then stood in front of a chair in order to demonstrate this art the Scouts had learned. It was a thoroughly enjoyable one and proved a revelation to many. Rev. Mr. Algar rendered a violin solo accompanied by the piano by Gerald Sprentall. Mr. Mumby and Rose Shore sang a vocal duet with Gerald Sprentall accompanying at the piano.

The address of the evening was given by Mr. Ward. Mr. F. Rubin, Assistant Scout Master, who spoke on "Scouting Accomplishments" and Mr. Slamp may seem a small thing we can learn a lesson from it for in his life we have the lesson forcibly illustrated for us that although Mr. Slamp is small in amount to such a lot, we are, like Mr. Slamp, necessary parts to put here for a purpose. Whether our duties may be small or great, or may seem almost too arduous, we must keep on going and play the game of life like Scouts. Like the stamp, people often knock us hard and although it may hurt us, we must not give in but follow the example of Jesus Christ, the greatest Scout of them all. Mr. Ward, Mr. Rubin paid a real tribute to the memory of Sir Baden Powell terming him a "real Scout."

A duet was then by Russell Woodcock and Jack McCann. "That Silver Haired Daddy of Mine" and "Just a Song at Twilight" was much enjoyed with Jack McCann playing the accompaniment on the Hawaiian guitar. The next number was a banjo solo by Gerald Sprentall following which Clifford Holmes and Art Gould gave a comic in number in dialogue form. Ray Williams favoured the audience with a guitar selection after which Fred Joblin gave a talk on the "Principals of Scouting" in which he divulged much interesting information on this subject which is one in which many are not conversed. Outlining the Scout promise, the speaker stated that the Scouts always endeavour to live up to the ideals of the society. Their motto is to play the game fairly and to take everything as it comes and no matter how unpleasant it may prove, "smile". Contrary to the belief of many, one of the Scout ideals is to maintain peace. In conclusion, he stated that the Boy Scouts is one of the noblest of organizations in the world today.

As a token of the close of their previous numbers, the Scouts staged a most unusual entertainment which they formed an impromptu setting for a play. Malcolm Reid and Donald Francis formed a window as did Jean and Olive Almas. The door formation was effected by Messrs. Orval Casement and Harold Foster while Miss Vera Wilson and Mrs. Clifford Baker were subsitituted for pictures. Senator Ward acted as the door mat on whom everyone wiped their feet while Lloyd Rowland and William Kennedy were comfortable looking arm chairs. John Minore and Rose Shore got together on it and formed a delightful seat with Miss Madeline Leary, the radio. The last detail in the setting was the Grandfather's clock impersonated by Mr. Conley Ackers. Mr. Arthur Duncan was the hero and Mrs. H. B. Dickcens as the heroine acted out the play in most realistic style while Mrs. Ward was human chesterfield. Asked to give a suitable title for the unusual play, Jean Joblin ventured to suggest "The Gathering of the Scouts" and this title was heartily endorsed by the audience. The quartette of Gerald Sprentall and Malcolm Reid, Gerald Sprentall and Ray Williams gave another selection and the evening's work concluded. The programme was an excellent one and was thoroughly enjoyed by an unusually large number in attendance. Congratulations are being extended to Scout Master Tom Ward and his First Stirling Troop of Boy Scouts in the exceptional talent which they displayed in so many diverse lines on the staging the evening's entertainment.

Scout Master Ward thanked the Guild for their cordial invitation to be present, and expressed the hope that they would enjoy return again in the coming season. The Scouts closed the meeting in the customary manner with the re-singing of the Scout Promise. Lunch was then served and after a social hour, the gathering dispersed. The Guild will not resume its meetings until the autumn.

Mrs. N. Holgate returned to her home in Belleville on Tuesday after spending the winter in Stirling with Dr. J. S. and Mrs. Dermont.

Miss Bernadette McGee, B.N. has accepted a position as supervisor in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, and assumed her new duties on May 1st. Miss McGee is a graduate of St. Michael's Hospital.

St. Paul's Y.P.S. convened on Monday evening for the usual meeting which was under the direction of the Citizenship department. The President was in charge with Miss Margaret Craig and Mr. Harry Lovibond conducting the devotional period. Miss Mae Currie then took charge of the program calling on Mr. Chas. Allen for an instrumental number, "In a Persian Market." The address of the evening was delivered by Mrs. Donalds Richardson who took as her subject "The Story of Canadian Industry Limited." This, the speaker treated in ten distinct divisions, one of which dates back prior to Confederation. Each was subjected to an interesting treatise and many hitherto unknown facts were divulged.

Misses Ruby and Pearl Stapley next favoured the audience with a guitar duo with Mrs. R. W. Rowland accompanying at the piano, the "Hawaiian Fandango." Mrs. R. W. Rowland staged a musical contest and the color prize was won by the Blue and White divisions with equal honours. The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

MOTHER AND "TEST TUBE" TWINS

Five years Mrs. Lillian Lauricella, wife of an Inwood, Long Island mechanist, could have no babies at all —and the couple were desperately unhappy. But then science, after a fly "test tube" operation, sent the stork around with twins, shown with the happy mother. A woman physician disclosed that 12 of her patients had become "test tube" mothers recently.

PRICES QUITE UNEXPLAINED SAYS STEVENS

Tobacco Prob Stirs Chairman to Speak of Challenge

FALLING PRICES

Ottawa, May 5.—At the mass buying probe here Friday Grey Miller, president of the firm, denied he was holding back information and promised to meet the Minister's demands as far as possible.

South African tobacco sold in the British market in 1927 for 17.8 cents and Canadian, 28 cents, said Mr. Stevens. In 1932, South African tobacco had dropped to 14.3 and Canadian to 17 cents. This price was paid notwithstanding that the 1932 crop was a finer type of tobacco than Canada had ever produced in her previous history.

"That," said Mr. Stevens, "followed your statement cut in 1931, down from 30 to 22 cents. There is a sentence or events here which, to a lay opinion, would seem to indicate a control over the tobacco buying power other than ordinary mercantile factors.

"I must say," declared the minister, "that if is an appalling thing to me that I see no explanation for it.

"Explain this to me, in the United States, where Harrison is the dominant factor, the price paid per pound cents to 7 cents in 1931; and in that same year, 1931, who was associated with Harrison, comes to Canada; and there is a rise from 20 to 30. There is a significance, I may say, a sinister synchronization of facts, Mr. Miller, and we are not getting the explanation,' said Mr. Stevens.

"I told you yesterday—and I can't express this too strong—we have here in this evidence from the growers, statements that challenge parliament, and yet there is no attempt to justify the treatment the growers got; and the man who sits beside you came from the United States—and, by the way, it would be well to read what Mr. Roosevelt said of the prices received by the cotton growers there.

"You've brief does not answer the vital points. That is the difficulty with the brief; and that is the difficulty with you this morning."

Mr. Miller asked if an opportunity could be afforded him to "make a fair statement—to try to put it down in a fair way. If you have any feeling we are holding back anything, I wish you would get that out of your minds," he added.

"I think you are confronted with a serious difficulty. If you answer our questions frankly and to the point the answers must cast reflection on your self," said Mr. Stevens. "And you can't have it both ways. That is the way it appears to me from the evidence from the other side. We have had other evidence and I don't disbelieve Tom now. They impressed the committee very strongly. And there are other facts—the facts of the Sutherland report and in your own brief. All these questions ought to be and must be answered," the minister said.

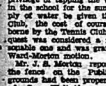
Healthy Happy Children

Thrive on

MOORES CANDY

Wholesome Home-made Fudges	18c lb.
Peanut Crisp	19c to 25c lb.
Nut and Cream Caramels	25c and 29c lb.
Chocolate Covered Dates	25c lb.
Burnt Almonds and Brazils	38c lb.

Extra Special This Week
FULL COURSE MEALS
30c — 35c — 40c



Sandwiches, plain or toasted ..... 10c to 25c
Hot and Cold Drinks of all kinds
Ice Cream Sodas and Sundaes ..... 10c up
Ice Cream Bricks of all flavours ..... 25c each

MOORES

245 FRONT ST.—Next to Royal Bank

CUT OUT THIS ADVERTISEMENT

Boys and Girls get

FREE BICYCLES
ROLLER SKATES
SOFT BALLS

WRITE A NEW SLOGAN FOR

VIP

The delicious, scientific chocolate flavored drink.

Win one of these 100 PRIZES

5 $35 C.C.M. BICYCLES for the 1st 5 BEST SLOGANS

40 PAIRS OF ROLLER SKATES for the next 40 BEST SLOGANS

55 SOFT BALLS for the 55 next BEST SLOGANS

100 PRIZES WORTH . . . $500

It's easy! It's fun! Get busy now and win your bicycle; ride it on The King's birthday!—June 3rd.

READ THESE SIMPLE RULES CAREFULLY

1. The VIP advertising slogan now used is "Keeps You Vibrantly Healthy." THINK UP A BETTER ONE, consisting of 7 WORDS OR LESS. Get a tin of VIP, just look the cover is a little book. It tells you all about VIP. Try VIP. Turn to the last page of the FRONT cover of the little book. Pin this to a sheet of paper. On the paper PRINT your NEW VIP advertising SLOGAN; also YOUR NAME and ADDRESS. (Note:—you may send in as many slogans as you wish, but EACH SLOGAN must be accompanied by the FRONT cover of a VIP book, or a facsimile of same.)

2. Contest open to children 17 years of age and under. By entering contest you agree to accept Judges' decision as final. All slogans submitted automatically become property of makers of VIP.

3. Send your slogan and FRONT cover of book to us not later than midnight, May 30th to VIP, 52 Jarvis St., Toronto. Winners will be notified by mail. Prizes will be awarded as per Rule No. 2. And YOU WON'T HAVE TO WAIT LONG.

MOTHERS! ! ! DADS! ! Get the children a tin of VIP from your druggist or grocer. Help the youngsters. The specially prepared wheat germ in VIP puts weight on children. Vitamin B is good for the blood. Scientific Food Products, Ltd., 52 Jarvis St., Toronto.

. . . for Economical Transportation

CHEVROLET

SOLD ON CHEVROLET the moment they TOOK THE WHEEL

There are 5 cars to choose from in the low-price field . . . YET MORE THAN 1 OUT OF 3 BUYERS PICK NEW 1934 CHEVROLETS

NATURALLY we are proud to have created in Canada's most popular automobile. All the more so because people are counting values—comparing quality—checking on delivered prices—as never before in automobile history.

Chevrolet has always been stronger on proof of value than on mere "claims".—People recognize this in Chevrolet's many exclusive features: Fully-enclosed, protected "Knee-Action", Body by Fisher, valve-in-head six cylinder engine with Blue Flame head, Fisher built-in Ventilation, exclusive YK frame, to mention just a few.

And just as long as motorists go on comparing, checking and testing, Chevrolet will hold and increase its great sales leadership. Because Chevrolet refuses to compromise on quality. The industry's leading engineers . . . the great General Motors Proving Ground . . . and an organization with "an ear to the ground and an eye to the future" . . . take care of that. Low delivered prices—easy G M A C terms.

NEW CHEVROLET

GMC

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE . . . PRODUCED IN CANADA

J. B. BOYCE

350 Front St. Belleville Phone 704

Convince YOURSELF

See the Car! Drive It! Try the Ride!

FULLY ENCLOSED "KNEE-ACTION" The Chevrolet type of Fisher Knee-Action. Fully protected against water, dust, mud, ice, snow or flying stones.

BLUE FLAME CYLINDER HEAD Exclusive to Chevrolet; increases power, speed and pickup, at the same time reducing gasoline consumption. Other advanced engine features: Harmonic Balancer, in addition to Chevrolet Balanced engine mountings; Octane Selector; automatic spark control.

BIGGER, POSITIVE BRAKES . . . Greater brake-lining area than ever for greatest safety. Al-cooled drums for freedom from warping and repairs. "Soft" easy foot pressure.

SAFETY GLASS In windshield and ventilators of all closed models . . . at no extra cost. Does not fog or frost or "silicon".

STURDY, SMART FISHER BODY . . . Strong as an armored battleship. Luxurious as Hollywood's best. Designed and built by the world's largest makers of automobile bodies.

EXCLUSIVE YK FRAME . . . A new kind of cruciform-design, pioneered by Chevrolet. Many times stronger than any other in its class. Builds a bridge for strength and rigidity.

BUILT-IN NO-DRAFT VENTILATION . . . SYNCRO-MESH WITH SILENT SECOND . . . OCTANE SELECTOR

PRICED AS LOW AS $844 FOR THE MASTER SUX

Delivered at factory, Oshawa, Ont., plus Provincial Taxes. Freight and transportation charges if any, extra.

Standard Series Chevrolet on low as $710 Easy G.M.A.C terms.

MUSIC TEACHERS AND PUPILS

The Toronto Conservatory of Music Midsummer Local Examinations for 1934 will be held throughout the Dominion in June and July next. Applications and fees from Ontario Candidates east of Sault Ste. Marie, must reach the Conservatory not later than

MAY 15TH, 1934

Application forms and Annual Syllabus containing full particulars will be mailed on request.

TORONTO CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC
COLLEGE ST. AND UNIVERSITY AVE. TORONTO 2

Diocesan W. A. Concludes Successful Annual Meeting

Mrs. H. P. Lowe, President And All Officers Re-elected

With Mrs. H. P. Lowe, diocesan president, presiding the deliberations of the delegates to the 48th annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada, Ontario Diocese, held in St. Thomas' Parish House were concluded yesterday afternoon, after particularly successful sessions.

Reports had shown progress in all branches of work and an encouraging outlook in time of distress. In the past year, 3,548 members were listed for the 143 branches and a special effort will be made to interest even more women of the diocese in missionary work.

At the opening of yesterday morning's meeting, Mrs. G. G. Wright on behalf of Christ Church branch, conveyed the sincere thanks of her fellow-members to St. Thomas' Church group for their splendid co-operation in arrangements for the meeting and to all who assisted in any way. It was announced that there had been 244 communicants at Thursday morning's service in Christ Church.

Mrs. P. H. Huyck, educational secretary called the attention of delegates to the W.A. Library and urged its greater use.

Discussion arose over the need of a central Dorcas Room and the executive was empowered to take steps at once and report in the fall to the deaneries.

Miss Winifred Burns, diocesan treasurer, whose comprehensive report was contained in the officers' reports' pamphlet issued to delegates was given a standing vote of thanks for her arduous work during the year.

Miss Burns stressed the fact that extra effort would have to be made to realize the diocese's portion of the Jubilee Funds as only half the amount had come in. She stressed also the value of systematic, monthly giving to pledges.

The report of the Extra-Cent-A-Day Fund showed that there was a sum of twenty dollars which delegates could vote to an appeal. It was the wish of the meeting that this amount be sent to the Ross River Mission in the Yukon for furnishings. The other funds and their appeals were voted as follows: Life Membership Fees ($75); Prince Rupert Coast Mission, Caledonia, $25; Furnishings for Mission Houses, Athabasca, $25; Jubilee Fund $25; Life Members' Offering, ($47.44); Roofing for Teslin Mission House, Yukon $25; Quatsino Indian Chapel $22.55; Thank offering ($1020.58) —$400 to the Bishop for work in the diocese; $310.34 to the United Thank offering for the training, maintenance and pensioning of missionaries; Maintenance Columbia Coast Mission $135.44; Kitchen Stove Aknavik Hospital $75.00; Heater Stove Copper Mine $40.00; Transportation Help for Missionaries to Saskatoon $50.00.

The treasurer's report showed that receipts for the year $7085.52. Fees from Diocesan Assessment totalled $445.20 and United Pledge Fund $3018.09.

Mrs. Lowe then read a hymn of comfort for those in sickness and trouble.

Mrs. W. F. Noonan, Brockville, secretary-treasurer of the Living Message, gave her report as did Mrs. H. E. Johnson, Delta, Little Helpers' Secretary-Treasurer, and Mrs. Coleman, Prayer Partners' Secretary.

The question box was then opened and problems were discussed and answered.

Noontide prayer was offered by Rev. A. Beauchamp Payne, vicar of St. Thomas' Church, who also addressed the delegates. He expressed the pleasure of his parish, co-operating with Christ Church, in entertaining the delegates at their annual meeting.

Basing his remarks on the text: "Be strong, all ye people: for I Am with you, saith the Lord". Here in conference the delegates had made a survey of the whole field of the Church. The comprehensiveness of the task must be realized— the responsibility of completing the task begun by the Apostles.

Regarding the different fields of missionary endeavour dwelt on the grave need in the Canadian West, where he, himself had served for many years.

Reports of missionaries, he said, aided delegates to "adjust to a better perspective, their ideas of the work of the Church. More necessary than attention to the actual administration of W.A. work is the deeper realization of the fact that the W.A. is absolutely for God. It must be considered in relationship to the Kingdom of God not as an isolation.

It is incumbent to realize the work itself, the greatness of the work.

"We must consider the greatness of the task that is ours. As our church has had continuity of life, so has it had continuity of responsibility and we must all realize our share in the fulfilment of the task."

The elevation of the work was another thought to be considered. It was sanctified by Divine promise and encouragement, which should encourage all workers and missioners.

Delegates were urged to realize the importance of the Spiritual life. They, personally, should be reflectors of the light of the Holy Spirit, a light that should shine through their life, character, example and influence. The spirit of humility should be cultivated.

"Wherever we go, whatever our task," he concluded our character, dispositions, all our actions must reflect the light of Christ".

Delegates were entertained for luncheon at Christ Church Parish House, hostesses being members of the Women's Guild. A very tempting and appetizing meal was served the visitors who were warm in their praise of the women of Christ Church for their hospitality and for the delicious luncheons served.

A most interesting communication from "Marjorie Caledonia's" father was read. "Marjorie" is the beneficiary of the girls' branches of Ontario diocese who send money for the education and clothes of this daughter of a missionary whose identity is, of course, unknown to her faraway friends.

At the invitation of St. George's W.A. the convention will be held in Kingston next year.

Officers were all re-elected as follows:—

Honorary Presidents—Mrs. John Lyons, Kingston; Mrs. Lennox Mills, Montreal; Mrs. Buxton Smith, Kingston.

Hon. Vice-President — Miss A. Muckleston, Kingston.

President—Mrs. H. P. Lowe, Kingston.

1st Vice-President—Miss L. H. Kirkpatrick, Kingston.

2nd Vice-President—Mrs. J. H. H. Coleman, Kingston.

Recording Secretary— Mrs. W. H. Chalmers, Kingston.

Corresponding Secretary — Mrs. Francis King, Kingston.

Treasurer—Miss Winnifred Burns Kingston.

Dorcas Secretary-Treasurer— Miss Emily Ruttan, Kingston.

Living Message Editor Secretary-Treasurer, —Mrs. W. F. Noonan, Brockville.

Girls' and Candidates' Secretary-Treasurer—Miss Edith Van Straubensee, Kingston.

Secretary-Treasurer for Junior Work—Mrs. Grant Sparling, Brockville.

Educational Secretary-Treasurer —Mrs. P. H. Huyck, Kingston.

Treasurer, Extra-Cent-A-Day Fund— Mrs. Leech, Amherst Island.

Little Helpers' Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. H. E. Johnston, Delta.

The report of the resolution committee was as follows:

Resolved that the Diocesan W.A. wish to thank—the Rev. Mr. Wright for his inspirnig sermon:

The Bishop and assisting clergy: Miss Greta Clark for her earnest and helpful addresses: Mrs. Soanes for her interesting account of the work among girls and candidates: the Bishop of the Arctic for his enthralling address; the Rev. Mr. Payne for his address: The W.A. branches of Christ Church and St. Thomas for their warm reception and kind hospitality: the choir and organist of Christ Church and Miss Gillard, Mrs. Ross Hunter and Miss Ackerill for their assistance at the service and meetings: the Billeting Committee for their work in so happily placing all the delegates. The Press for reporting the meeting: The officers of the Board for their untiring efforts through the year and at the annual meeting: We extend sympathy to all those who have been bereaved during the year and send greetings to all absent members.

A special message of sympathy will be sent Mrs. John Lyons, whose mother is very seriously ill.

The meeting was concluded by an address delivered by Rev. G. G. Wright, rector of Christ Church, who congratulated the presiding officer, Mrs. Lowe.

He also congratulated the delegates on the obvious harmony that had prevailed in the diocesan gathering.

"To entertain you has meant some work, but we have been paid ten times over in inspiration and encouragement received from you".

The enthusiasm and inspiration felt by the representatives of branches privileged to attend the meeting must be carried back by them and passed on. It is a trust that must not die with the receivers.

The basis of W.A. activities should be spiritual and not financial. Finances will come if the important side is not neglected.

"You cannot deal in church finances as in other problems. In business, the more money you put in reserve, the more money you have. In church finances, the more you send out to other parts of the Kingdom of God, the more you get. This is not good arithmetic, but its mighty good Church finance," he concluded.

After the closing prayer, tea was served by the hospitality committee the guests lingering for a friendly chat before dispersing for the year.

Personals

Mr. "Pete" Morgan of Brockville, is spending the week-end in the city.

Mrs. Edward Cross, John street, is spending the week-end in Toronto.

Mr. Wallace F. Johnston, who has been manager of Lattimer's Drug Store, leaves tonight for Toronto, where he has accepted a position. Mr. Johnson has made many friends in the city, who will regret his departure.

Miss Dorothy Sager, Tweed, sang at the Closing Recital given by outstanding students of the Toronto Conservative of Music in Massey Hall on Wednesday evening. She sang a group of ultra-modern English songs by Arnold Bax and Martin Shaw, and was warmly complimented by Dr. Healey Willan and other prominent musicians.

Major Frances Brown, Liverpool, England, will arrive in the city tomorrow to spend several months with her brothers, B. W. Brown and Arnold Brown. Major Brown is a retired Salvation Army officer, who served for many years in all the larger cities of England. Major Brown sailed on the Empress of Australia, which docked at Montreal today.

A splendid crowd attended the euchre party at St. George's Hall on Thursday night. Winners were first, Mrs. Weaver; second, Mrs. Robinson; third, Mrs. G. Beare; men's first, Mr. Bone; second, Mr. Haslip; third, Mr. Moon. Dainty refreshments were served after the games.

Following the meeting of executives and officials of the General Motors Corporation who convened in this city, last evening, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Leslie, 215 Bleecker avenue, entertained informally at their home, Bleecker avenue.

Mr. Ernest Collins, Front Street, is today (Saturday) celebrating his 73 birthday. He came to Canada 22 years ago to Renfrew, Ont., where he made many friends. On coming to Belleville he was employed as caretaker of the Belleville Intelligencer for eight and half years.

Mrs. G. Soule and son of Ottawa, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Doolittle, Everett street.

Arthur L. Davies Wedded at Kingston

Kingston, Ont., May 5.—(CP)—A wedding of interest took place this morning in St. Andrew's Church when Arthur L. Davies, managing editor of Kingston Whig-Standard and son of W. Rupert Davies, President of the Whig-Standard was married to Dorothy Eleanor Porter, daughter of Dr. S. E. Porter of this city. The couple were attended by Mrs. F. R. Davies who is also daughter of Dr. Porter, and F. R. Davies, a brother of the groom, and editor of the Kincardine Review Reporter.

TORONTO CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC MIDSUMMER LOCAL EXAMINATIONS

The Toronto Conservatory of Music announces that the Midsummer Local Examinations for 1934 will be held throughout Canada in June and July next. Applications and fees from Ontario Candidates east of Sault Ste. Marie should reach the Conservatory not later than May 15, 1934.

Big Reductions in the Following Lines

Leather Goods, Toiletware, Silverware, Clocks, Lighters, Bracelets, Pendants, Glassware, Umbrellas, and etc.

J. O. R. McCurdy
224 Front St. Phone 518

MODERN FURNISHINGS
—PERFECTLY CLEANED —PERFECTLY TEXTURED

CURTAINS
Measurements Guaranteed
Cotton Net 50c Sash Length
Odd Sizes Prices on Request
Silk Panels 75c Per Pair

DRAPES
½ Width 50c to 75c per Pair
Odd Length Prices on Request

BLANKETS / CUSHIONS
Single 75c
White or Grey, Double $1.25
Cushion Covers .. 50c
Cushions, Filled ...... 75c to $1.00

COMFORTERS
Wool $1.00
Eiderdown ...... $1.00 to $1.50

Domestic RUGS
3c Per Square Foot
7 x 9 .... $1.90
9 x 10 .... $2.70
9 x 12 .... $3.25
Orientals—6c per Square Foot

MASTERS IN THE ART OF CLEANING

STORAGE
Our complete storage equipment will protect your Fur Coats, Cloth Coats, Garments of every kind against theft or loss by fire and moths. Avoid risk by acting promptly.
STORE GARMENTS NOW!

MODERN
OLEANERS AND DYERS
192 Front St. Phone 729

W. A. DELEGATES

Registration at Diocesan Annual Meeting Here

Kingston:—Mrs. C. S. Kirkpatrick, Miss E. Rogers, Miss Laurena Rickaby, Miss Tuckett, Jean Richardson, Mrs. Dolby, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Sargent, Mrs. E. Teskey, Mrs. W. G. Lake, Mrs. P. Burns; Mrs. Fred Hartrick, Portsmouth; Miss K. Alexander, Portsmouth; Mrs. R. J. Moore, Barriefield; Miss Ella McKinnon, Barriefield; Prescott:—Miss Jennie Kingston, Miss Daniels, Miss Elsie Jackson, Mrs. Mossman; Kemptville: Mr. Jas. Gaw, Jr., Mrs. R. G. M. McIntosh; Mrs. M. DeP. Goodwin, Burritt's Rapids; Merrickville: Mrs. Clare Carley, Miss Laura King; Mrs. Lawson, Oxford Mills; Mrs. E. N. Sanderson, Mrs. J. A. Sanderson, Mrs. H. Brant, Mohawk; Miss Myrtle Maracle, Mohawk; Mrs. Armey, Mohawk; Mrs. Colden, Picton; Miss C. Francis, Picton; Miss Violet McLean, Picton; Mrs. E. J. Weir, Trenton; Mrs. N. Kidd, Trenton; Mrs. Arthur Smith, Trenton; Mrs. W. B. Crowe, Trenton; Mrs. P. W. Geen, Belleville; Mrs. Vandervoort, Mrs. C. Kells, Miss E. Ketcheson Belleville; Miss Alma Garrett, Wellington; Miss Thelma Bowdler, Wellington; Mrs. Laura Colborne, Mrs. J. B. Creegan, Augusta; Leeds Deanery, Mrs. Echlin, Brockville; Mrs. R. J. Rothwell, Mrs. J. H. Groves, Mrs. Sparling, Miss K. Wilson, Miss Sylvia Stembridge, Mrs. Jno. McGovern, Mrs. S. E. Morton; Freda Ware, Lyn; Mrs. A. Waklin, Rectory, Athens; Miss Ada Gifford, Athens; Mrs. H. E. Johnson, Delta; Mrs. Jesse Webster, Charleston; Mrs. Ormond Reid, Soperton; Miss Edith Donaghue, Easton's Corners; Mrs. Jno. Seymour, Toledo, P.O.; Mrs. Hamilton, Newboro; Mrs. Wm. Lyons, Mrs. Oscar MacDonald, Portland; Mrs. Webb, Miss Creegan, Gananoque; Miss Isobel Bauer, Gananoque; Mrs. E. E. Johnston, Lansdowne; Mrs. Reuben Davis, New Dublin; Mrs. W. J. George, Bancroft; Miss E. Blackerwick, Bancroft; Mrs. W. G. Swayne, Bonarlaw; Mrs. A. W. Brown, Bonarlaw; Mrs. A. C. Porter, Thomasburg; Mrs. Ed. Carter, Thomasburg; Mrs. Chas. Sweet, Stirling; Mrs. Geo. Mumby, Harold; Mrs. F. C. Beazer, Roslin; Mrs. W. Clapsaddle Roslin; Mrs. Alger, Stirling; Mrs. Vance, Stirling; Mrs. A. D. Wallace, Tweed; Miss Mabel Freeman, Tweed; Mrs. Geo. Clark, Tweed; Mrs. Shore Loynes, Napanee; Mrs. Amey, Napanee; Mrs. E. S. Hamilton, Wilton; Mrs. Aylesworth, Newburgh; Mrs. John MacDonald, Odessa; Mrs. H. Gilbert, Napanee; Miss W. Brandon, Napanee; Miss M. Leech, Amherst Island; Mrs. C. Gibson, Amherst Island; Mrs. Hugh Instant, Adolphustown, Mrs. F. Roblin, Adolphustown; Mrs. R. Wright, Bath; Mrs. H. Robinson, Bath; Mrs. E. Coulter, Tamworth; Mrs. T. A. Rogers, Deseronto; Miss Nan Oliver, Deseronto.

Weddings

SYMONS—GARDNER

The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Gananoque, on Wednesday, May 2nd., of Marion Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gardner, and Mr. Edward A. O. Symons, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Symons of this city, Rev. Mr. McQuade officiating.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, who wore a smart wool ensemble of lake blue with matching hat and white fox fur. She carried Tallisman roses.

Mrs. J. Franklin Symons was her sister's matron of honor and wore a pretty ensemble also with white fox fur.

Mrs. J. Franklyn Symons was groomsman for his brother.

A reception was held after the ceremony immediate relatives only being present. Mr. and Mrs. Symons left on a motor trip east and will reside for the summer at Rimouski, Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Symons, Miss Rea Symons of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Gardner of Toronto, were out-of-town guests at the wedding.

SMALLHORN—SLIGH

A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon, May 3rd., at the Holloway Street United Church Parsonage, when Grace Madeleine Sligh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Sligh of this city, became the bride of Mr. John Henry Smallhorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smallhorn, Corbyville; Mr. and Mrs. Smallhorn, were attended by Miss Anne Sligh and Mr. Gordon Brown and immediate relatives.

Rev. Harold B. Neal of Holloway Street United Church performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Smallhorn left on a motor trip to points east. On their return they will reside in Belleville.

IVEY—LUSCOMBE

The marriage took place in Yonge Street United Church, Toronto, on Saturday, May 5th at four o'clock, of Helen Elizabeth Connor daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Luscombe, to Donald Ivey, PhmB., son of Mrs. Ivey and late Mr. Alfred Ivey, the Rev. Ernest Harston officiating. The church was decorated with palms and Spring flowers, and the wedding music was played by Mr. Wilfrid Powell, organist. During the signing of the register Mr. George Trumbell sang "Because".

The bride was given in marriage by her father and she wore a gown of ivory satin, Princess lines, long tight sleeves and train. Her veil was of ivory silk tulle and was in cap shape with narrow chin strap, caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white Killarney roses and lily-of-the-valley, and wore the gift of the groom, a diamond baguette watch.

She was attended by Mrs. Orland Pinkston, twin sister of the bride, as matron of honor, who wore a frock of pale yellow starched chiffon with a picture hat of yellow mohair. She carried a Colonial bouquet. The bridesmaid was Miss Lorraine Ivey, sister of the groom. She was frocked in pale green starched chiffon with mohair picture hat to match. She carried a Colonial bouquet. The best man was Mr. Willard Knechtel, and the ushers were Mr. Kenneth Sine and Mr. Alfred Strickland.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Royal York Hotel where the bride's mother received, wearing a gown of blue periwinkle triple sheer, with a hat of natural leghorn. She wore a bouquet of Talisman roses. The groom's mother, who also received, wore a gown of powder blue triple sheer with a hat of powder blue French straw. She wore a bouquet of Ophelia roses.

Later, the bride and groom left for a trip through the Adirondacks. For travelling the bride wore a light blue travel coat with grey wolf collar with a hat of blue Baku straw. On their return they will live on Kingston Road, Toronto.

CHOIR GIVES FINE PROGRAM

Rawdon— On Sunday evening, April 29th, Mount Pleasant choir loft was filled with young people who had previously been invited by the pianist, Miss Olive McConnell to assist. The choir of twenty-five voices rendered "He Lifted Me" and "My Mother's Prayers Have Followed Me." Miss Edna Thrasher sang an appropriate solo, "God Will Take Care of You." The whole congregation sang "The Day Thou Gavest Lord Is Ended" and the pastor, Rev. F. G. Joblin discoursed on "Growth."

Mr. and Mrs Kenneth Weaver entertained Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith to tea on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Simpson attended the service at Mount Pleasant on Sunday evening.

Miss Laurene Scott entertained several young folk one evening recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith left by motor on Tuesday for their home in Baltimore, Maryland, after spending a few months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith.

Mrs. George Weaver, Mrs. Kenneth Weaver and Lois spent Tuesday, May 1st., with Mrs. Anne Bailey in Stirling, it being the occasion of the former's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle McAdam and Lois attended divine service of Stirling Lodge, No. 239, I.O.O.F., in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church Stirling and they were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Maynes.

Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Smith of Peterboro, spent the week end with Mrs. Gilbert Smith.

Mr. John White visited at the home of Mrs. James Lake on Sunday.

Some of the farmers have planted their early potatoes and sown their peas.

Mr. George Weaver had the misfortune to crush his leg rather badly last Wednesday and at present it is very painful.

Mr. Frank Young who has been in Belleville for several weeks arrived home on Monday somewhat improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Orno Sharp spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Neal, Bonarlaw, and attended service in St. Marks Anglican church.

Miss Evelyn Bertrand of Stirling spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Montgomery.

Mrs. Allan Bailey called on Mrs. James Hubble on Tuesday.

Messrs. Lorne and Harold White spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Stone at Salem.

Mr. Harold Rowe has accepted a position in a cheese factory near Corbyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Telford and Wilma of Bridgenorth were recent guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sharp entertained about sixty friends at their home on Monday evening and all enjoyed a delightful evening. Messrs. Burton Calvert and Milton Vandewater supplied the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Curry of White Lake, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thrasher and Edna entertained Mrs. Paul Sharp, Mr. Jack Sharp and Miss Grace Dayman on Sunday.

Rev. Canon Swayne, rector of St. Mark's Anglican Church, Bonarlaw, was the guest speaker at Rylestone Community League and gave a splendid address on "The Cross."

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sine of Hastings and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sine of Sidney, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sine.

Mrs. Sam Hubbs is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ivan Caldwell in town.

SUFFOCATES ON BED IN FAINTING SPELL

Simcoe, Ont., May 5. — Mrs. Peal Earls, 21-year-old Simcoe mother, died suddenly today at her home 250 Talbot street north, under circumstances of an unusual nature.

She was found dead on the bed in her home at 10.45 this morning by a cousin, Leota Earls, who had called to see her. Coroner Dr. R. Hamilton Doyle was summoned and found death due to suffocation. She had apparently been working when overcome by a sudden fainting spell, and falling on the bed was suffocated. An electric washer was in operation in the home at the time. Dr. Doyle decided that no inquest was necessary and released the body for burial.

"Teddy — shame on you, slapping poor Spike! I'm worried about Teddy, Madge. He won't play, — won't eat. He just mopes."

"His color is bad, Marian, and his eyes aren't bright. Often these are signs a child needs a laxative. Give Teddy some Castoria tonight."

"Come for a walk with us, Madge. Teddy's feeling fine. I gave him Castoria last night. It was just what he needed."

"I was sure of it, Marian. Castoria is an ideal children's laxative. And it's the grandest thing to relieve colic in babies, too. It clears out little systems thoroughly — gently, too. There are none of the harsh drugs in it that make some laxatives so harmful for children."

CASTORIA
The children's laxative from babyhood to 11 years

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE BELLE

The sweethearts of "Jimmy and Sally," James Dunn and Claire Trevor are united again in "Hold That Girl!" their latest which has its opening at the Belle Theatre today. Because of the popularity of this new team, achieved through their first picture, Fox Films has teamed them again in a screen play reported as highly brisk and breezy.

The story is of a young detective who falls in love with a girl reporter, while they are both covering the same assignment. Their romance is one that has its ups and downs because of their constant quarreling about conflicting assignments The girl arouses the jealousy of her boy friend by making the acquaintance of a gentleman crook. But she does not know that her acquaintance is a gangster and continues on friendly terms with him. On a jewel robbery assignment, which is being covered both by the detective and the girl, the jeweler is taken for a ride. The girl who has sneaked into the car and witnessed the murder, is discovered and taken to the mob's hideout. There she learns that her gentleman crook is the leader of the gang. She is about to be taken for a ride herself when the young detective, who, by this time has picked up her trail, arrives on the scene in time to save the girl and apprehend the gangsters.

Tigers, Jungle Menace

There are more tigers in the Asiatic jungles today than ever before, in the opinion of Clyde E. Elliott, who is back in Hollywood after a year in Indian Siam and Indo-China and the film of Fox Film's "Devil Tiger," the second feature attraction at the Belle today.

Elliott, who previously directed "Bring 'Em Back Alive," feels that the year spent in the jungles to make "Devil Tiger" has been well worth while. He has just completed the task of selecting the best thrill shots from the 700,000 feet of film exposed.

It is the first time a dramatic picture with a Hollywood cast has been made entirely in the virgin jungles. The crew included 150 natives, five cameras and two sound units. Marion Burns, Kane Richmond and Harry Woods are the principal players.

Among the battles recorded are those between a tiger and a crocodile, a python and a leopard, a Malayan bear and a hyena, a tiger and a leopard, tiger and a lion, a black panther and a crocodile, and a number of others. Elliott spent three weeks recording an elephant stampede in northern Siam as part of the story. Bing Crosby in the melodious classic "Please" and the Belle latest news flashes completes the program. The last show starts at 8.30.

AT THE CAPITOL

WARREN WILLIAM in 'BEDSIDE'

'Bedside' Discloses Amazing Adventures of Pseudo-Physician

An unusual theme, involving the adventures of a handsome and magnetic rogue masquerading as a famous surgeon, was hit upon by First National Pictures for its production of "Bedside," which opens at the Capitol Theatre on Monday.

The masquerader, played by Warren William, has a way with women which, with a keen propensity for getting his name before the public by unique, if unethical, methods, wins him tremendous success in the profession. In fact, it is this way with women, together with his passion for hard liquor and the gaming table, that is responsible for his dismissal from a medical school.

He confines his practice largely to the fair sex, flirting outrageously with his patients as well as his nurse, who condones his faults because she is deeply in love with him. He crashes the front page headlines with his miraculous surgical operations, all of which are false, and even has the medical profession fooled for a time. His crowning achievement is in making a grand opera star believe that he has saved not only her voice but her life, whereupon she promptly falls in love with him.

But retribution comes when he is faced with a real operation, with other surgeons looking on, and an operation upon his nurse with whom he is really in love. This brings a smashing climax to a picture that is full of exciting as well as amusing incidents.

Two new actresses of unusual promise will be seen in the leading feminine roles of "Bedside." Jean Muir, who was brought to Hollywood from the New York stage just a few months ago, showed such talent after playing in but three pictures that she was given the principal lead opposite Warren William as the nurse. It is claimed by studio photographers that she has the perfect camera face, one of elusive charm and unusual beauty.

Kathryn Sergava is the other newcomer to the screen, although she was famous on the ballet stage with Mordkin. This fiery red-headed Russian, a woman of dangerous and smouldering passions, plays the role of the temperamental opera star who falls in love with her doctor.

Other members of the cast include Allen Jenkins, Henry O'Neill, David Landau, Donald Meek, Renee Whitney, Phillip Reed, Phillip Faversham and Earle Foxe.

Other attractive and entertaining subjects number a Charlie Murray and George Sidney comedy, cartoon, Hodge Podge and Screen Snapshots. Dinnerware gifts on Monday and Tuesday.

JOBS HOUSES AUTOS Thousands of OPPORTUNITIES in the WANT ADS RADIOS ROOMS PETS

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

TORONTO MINING CLOSE

Toronto, May 5.—(CP)—Profit taking developed in the cheaper gold issues in the final session of the week on the Toronto Stock Exchange while the senior golds were firm and steady. Base Metals and Silvers were generally firm in slow action.

Sylvanite came out in volume and the price drifted down to $2.60, off a cent, while Maple Leaf weakened a cent or two, also on good volume. Shops, that Ankerite, Ventures, McIntyre, Macassa and Greene Stabell all cut 1 to 2 cents.

There were only a few sales in high priced issues.

Sudbury Basin was again actively taken and the price edged up 6 cents to $7.05. Sherritt also firmed 5 cents and other members of the group including Hudson Bay and Mining Corporation slipped fractionally. Noranda was inactive.

NEW YORK EXCHANGE

New York, May 5.—(AP)—Stocks led by the alcohols and some of the early group advances, rallied in the closing hour today. Losses of one to around four points were recovered in the process. The final upthrust came several minutes in arrears of the Stock Exchange tape, when some mild recoveries put before the ticker. But the close was nearly. Transfers approximated 875,000 shares.

TORONTO INDUSTRIALS

Toronto, May 5 (CP)—Consolidated Smelters was featured for a nine point loss on the Industrial section of the Toronto Stock Exchange today. The general board here broke from a narrow margin of losses over gains showing at the close.

Walkers Common and Distillers Seagrams were again offered in heavy volume at fractionally lower prices. Distillers dropped 1-4 and Walkers 1-2. Canada Malting and Alcohol was unchanged at 11 1-2. Volume was fair in the oils and gains were held for International Petroleum and Imperial Oil Dominion and Ingersoll Rands dropped 1 to 2 points and Canada Permanent advanced 3 to 12.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Bigger and Crawford, P. E. Wills branch manager. Quotations at 11 a.m. Daylight Saving Time.

MINES

Ashley	95
Alex	1.13
Acme	26
Bruck, Treth.	10½
Barry Hollinger	15
Base Metals	1.50
Bobjo	48
Big Missouri	29
Bagamac	24
Castle Trethe.	56
Consolidated	1.30
Central Patricia	68
Central Manitoba	19½
Coast Copper	4.60
Dome	20.50
Dominion Explorer	4
Eldorado	2.80
Falconbridge	13
Goldale	15½
Granada	5
Hollinger	18.50
Home Oil	1.45
Hudson's Bay, bid	13.50
Howey	1.80
Kirkland Lake	53
Kirkland Townsite	20
Lake Shore	49.50
Macassa	3.60
McIntyre	51½
McKinlyre	44.50
Mining Corporation	1.95
McLeod River	5¾
McWatters	41
Moffat Hall	5½
Nipissing	2.35
Noranda	32.50
International Nickel	27.38
N.O. Timber	13.10
Parkhill	87
Premier	1.25
Reno	92
St. Anthony	53
Sherritt	1.11
Sisco	2.13
San Antonio	2.83
Stadacona	27
Sudbury Basin	7.18
Sylvanite	2.64
Teck Hughes	1.05
Ventures	92
Wayside	40½
Wells Amulet	1.37
Wright Hargreaves, bid	2.80
White Eagle	33
McVittie	73
Cod's Lake	1.46

Toronto.

B. A. Oil, 18.
Imperial Oil 14⅛.
McCol-Frontenac, 12¼.
International Pete, 9⅞.
Brewers and Distillers, 165.
Distillers Seagrams, 8.
Walker's Pref., bid 16.
Canadian Ind. Alcohol, 11⅛.
Canada Bud, 9¼.
Consolidated Smelters, bid 9½.
Bell Telephone, 119¼.
C.P.R., 16⅞.
Canada Car, 7.
Canada Cement, 8.
Canada Malting, 23¼.
Cockshutt, 9½.
Dominion Stores, 20½.
Dominion Bridge, 34.
Ford 'A', 6.
Smelters, 150.
Montreal Power, 38¼.
Massey Harris, 5⅜.
Page Hersey, 70 asked.
Steel of Canada, 36.
Bantlian, 10½.
Ogama, 4¾.
C.I.A. (new), 10.
C.I.L. Common, 16¼ asked.

New York.

American Can, 98¼.
Avellalan Oil, 7-16.
Auburn, 60.
American Pwr. Power, 8.
Anaconda, 15¼.
National Biscuits, 26.
N.Y. Central, 29.
Case, 85¾.
Can. Atlas Lite, 22¼.
Consolidated Gas, 33.
General Motors, 34¼.
Inter. Telephone, 13.
Standard Oil N. J., 44.
Chrysler, 45¾.
North American, 16⅜.
Montgomery Ward, 26⅜.
Phillips Pete, 19¾.
Radio, 7⅜.
Standard Brands, 20⅜.
Stewart Warner, 9.
American and T., 110⅛.
United Aircraft, 14¼.
Vanadium, 23⅜.
Worthington, 26.
U. S. Steel, 46⅛.
U. S. Smelters, 116.

UNLISTED MINES

(A. H. Ketcheson and Co.—Close)

Adanac, 30A.
Beattie, 10-12.
Bidgood, 3¾A.
Big Long Lac, 18A.
Belmont, 4¼-5¼.
Buffalo Ankerite, 190-200.
B. C. Nickel, 153-158.
Bussieres, 65A.
Can. Pandora, 26-30.
Can. Matchewan, 19A.
Case Summit, 3-4.
Camus, 6¼A.
Chimaro Oil, 18-22.
Crown Res, 8-6.
Plate, 3¼A.
Four Nations U, 800-1000.
Francoeur, 34-36.
Great Bear Lake, 35-45.
Great Bear Lake Pwr., 33-40.
Gabrielle, 60-65.
Greenlaw, 7A.
Hard Rock, 29-32.
Hard Rock U, 6300-6700.
Island Lake, 13A.
Johnson Mip., 27-31.
Kenty Gold, 41A.
Kirk Gold Belt, 32A.
Kirk Penn, 3¼-4¼.
Lamaque Gold, 173-200.
Oont. Kirk, 6A.
Long Lac Adair 24-27.
Man. and Eastern 30-32½
Montreal and Boston.
McLeod Cockshutt 38-42
Northern Light, 14¼.
Nicola 70-77
O'Connell 74-80
Pickle Crow 66-72
Quebec Light, 14¼.
Quebec Eirkes, 1000-1500.
Reserve Island 2a.
Red Lake Gold, 33½-42
Smeltera Gold 31a
Sullivan 64-66
Toburn 140-150
Tashota 4-5
Wingold, 53A.
West Red Lake 21a
Young Davidson 29-33
Glenwood 30a
Pusty Pwr 900-950
Quebec Eureka 10-12
Blackhill 6A
Shawkey Gold 34-37

Grain Market

Closing quotation on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today:

	July	Oct
Wheat	66⅛	67⅛
Oats	31⅝	32⅝
Barley	36⅜	37⅜
Oats	32⅝	33⅝

Price range May wheat today—high 66⅜; low 65⅜; close 66⅛

Stock Market Gossip

New York—Traffic managers of some steamship lines believe that vacations in the tinseled district will be taken earlier than usual this year in expectation of heavy business following modification of the Securities Act. North German Lloyd and Hamburg-American Lines are advancing their cruise season two months, scheduling cruises in May and June. The Furness-Bermuda Line is planning six per-summer cruises.

Alcohol stocks were distinctly weak following reports that prices would be cut in near future. In some departments of the alcoholic beverage business the price is almost chaotic and all hands are showing care in making new contracts.

Short selling and liquidation appeared in several stocks which have been weak recently. .. D. J.

Canadian car loadings in week ended April 28 totalled 41,161 cars, off 1,364 from previous week, but 7,112 above same week 1933.

Total short interest as of the opening of business April 30 as compiled from information secured by the New York Stock Exchange from its members was 1,610,742 shares as compared with 929,685 shares as of March 31 a gain of 681,057 shares. D. J.

Present weakness in market can be attributed more to the gold tax agitation and talk than any other factor to the tax. This is evidenced by the fact that all issues available are not taxable were equally soft. We feel that market is acting well under the circumstances and that the issue should be made of the present opportunity to accumulate stocks.

Stein Bruman — Wheat shows better tone and their guidance proves insufficient higher prices likely. Feel friendly to rails and utilities.

Whitbrop Mitchell—Most observers are of opinion that the recent moisture will help but is quite inadequate to remedy the serious deficiency that has existed and if it is only an interruption of the drought serious consequences may be the result.

Laggard Students to Pay For Tuition

Sudbury, Ont., May 5 (CP)—High School Board officials are concerned attending high school who have been attending for more than six years must pay for their tuition. At its motion the board said it was unfair for a student to complete the course in the three years allotted and it would permit one year's "grace."

GOLD SYNDICATE OPENS OFFICE HERE

Central Malartic Syndicate of 350 Bay street, Toronto, opened their Belleville office today at 27 Bridge street.

According to Mr. R. A. Keefe, who is manager of the Belleville office, Central Malartic property has had every evidence of developing into a producing mine. Over 200 veins have been uncovered and last 300 assays show high gold values.

The engineer, Mr. H. R. Bissell, is in charge of development and that is now underway and he and "Bill" Smith, who is also on the property are enthusiastic over results thus far accomplished.

PLEADS GUILTY TO ROBBERY

TORONTO, May 5.—(CP)—Stewart Grandcaul, 24, pleaded guilty in police court today to the armed robbery of Mrs. Made Gilderoy, manager of a downtown beauty shop, of $94 last night. He was remanded for sentence until May 19th. Greatback was captured after a chase through city streets last night in which Mrs. Gilderoy participated.

DOLAN

The Druggist
OPEN SUNDAY

LAWN MOWERS
Repaired and Sharpened
Called for and delivered.
HARRY BROWN, Blacksmith
Rear 169 Front St.
Phone 1718

$27, 24, 28tf.

TENDERS FOR PURCHASE OF BELLEVILLE ARENA

Sealed tenders addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for purchase of Belleville Arena" will be received up to noon, Saturday, May 26, 1934, for the purchase of the lands and buildings and all equipment owned by Belleville Arena Limited, situated on the south side of Market street, Belleville, Ontario.

Each tender must be accompanied by a marked cheque on a chartered bank in Canada made available to the order of the owner, Belleville Arena Limited, equal to 10 per cent of the amount of the tender. After the acceptance of any tender the successful tenderer shall pay the balance of the purchase price within 15 days thereafter without interest and shall enter into agreement to complete the purchase in accordance with the conditions contained therein, copies of which can be obtained from the Secretary. Cheques of unsuccessful tenders will be returned immediately after May 26, 1934, without interest.

The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

DATED May 3, 1934.

A. P. Allen,
Secretary, Belleville Arena Limited,
212 Dundas Street, East,
Belleville, Ontario.
m5 2 12.

COINS AND STAMPS

UP TO $20.00 PAID FOR INDIAN head cents; half-cents, $125.00; large cents, $50.00; flying eagle. Send 10c for list. ROMANO-CODSINOS, "A" Springfield, Mass. m5-11

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Matilda Mowatt wish to thank their friends for the many kind attentions and expressions of sympathy extended them during the recent illness and death of their loving mother. Also for the many beautiful floral decorations. m5-1i

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Franklin P. Sine of Foxboro, wishes to thank her friends and neighbors for kindness and sympathy rendered during her recent sad bereavement, also for the floral tributes. m5-1i.

DIED

TICE—In Belleville on May 3, 1934, Margaret Jane McCaughen, beloved wife of Geo. Tice.

Funeral will be held from her late residence 23 W. Bridge Street, on Monday, May 7th, 1934. Private service in the home at 2 p.m. thence to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church for service at 2.30. Interment Belleville Cemetery. m4-3i

BELLEVILLE
BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL HOME
27 Campbell St.
Phone 76 Day and Night
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor
Manalcum Crypto For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland J. Tickell
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve for Less
FUNERAL HOME
Cor. Church St. and
Victoria
Phone 2280

Thomas G. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
16 Everett St. Phone 63
Office
Phone 61

THE MARTIN
FUNERAL HOME
218-223 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 3600
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON.

IF

your lawn mower is in need or repairing or sharpening, we will call for and return it to you in first class condition anywhere within the city limits at very reasonable cost. Just telephone 59.

Fruit Machinery Co. Ltd.
168 Front St.

NOTICE

Re Destruction of Corn Remnants
All persons within the city limits having corn on their premises are hereby notified that this must all be destroyed or buried before completely by May 20th to destroy the corn borers present. Failure to comply with this notice leaves the offender liable to a fine of not less than $10. a17 26 m5.

NOTICE

Dumping of Garbage or Refuse of any kind on vacant lots in the City of Belleville other than the City Dumping Grounds, strictly prohibited. Parties so doing will be dealt with.

By Order,
Board of Health.
a21 28 m5.

Special Notice

Meeting of the Conservatives of Belleville will be held in their club rooms, Monday evening, May 7th, at 8 p.m. for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the convention at Harmony on Friday, May 11th. This includes the ladies and young men's organizations.

J. P. McKeown, K. J. Ketcheson, President. Secretary.
m3 2 7.

NOTICE

Sanitary Sewer Connections
"In accordance with By-law No. 1991 of the Municipality of the City of Belleville, all buildings, residential, business or industrial, within all outside closets, earth closets, privies or privy vaults, shall be and the same are prohibited.

Property owners and others who find they are liable are requested to take immediate action to comply with the terms of said By-law.

H. MacKINNON,
Inspector Health Department.
a31 26 m3.

TO-LET

PASTURE FOR HORSES AND CATTLE. Apply Bridge, Thurlow. m5-1i

PASTURE FOR CATTLE. APPLY Mrs. N. Gross, Halleyway. m3-1i

FIVE ROOM HOUSE ALBERT ST. All conveniences, three piece bath room, double garage. Apply Tenney, 119 Victoria Avenue. Phone 1498. m5-1i

MODERN 6 ROOM HOUSE. NEWly decorated. Garage. Possession May first. Reasonable rent. Apply 181 Albert Street. m5-1i

PLEASANT, COMFORTABLE furnished bedroom. Centrally located. All conveniences. Garage if required. Apply 308 George St. m5-1i

RESIDENCE 32 STATION ST. All modern conveniences. $20 per month. There are two vacancies in the Bellevue Apartments available at $45 per month including heating, hot and cold water, Janitor service, and modernly equipped. R. E. Wood. a22-w-e-tf

FLAT WITH BATH, 485 BRIDGE Street, over Shore Tea Company. Flat 2½ rooms, $9.00 per month ten dollars month. Tea car garage, 325½ Front Street. Office Bridge Street. Apply Mrs. Doyle Phone 869, 265 Front Street.

APARTMENT TO LET, ENTRANCE from Front Street and Victoria Avenue. Fix to suit tenant. Apply Sam Pappas, Belleville Restaurant. m24-3i

HOUSEKEEPING MADE EASY by occupying one of these attractive residences:—Duplex house, Charles St.; Front St. Apartment over Hydro office; house Albert St. Miss Corbett. Phone 1661.

Cash or terms. m21-3i.

3 ROOM HEATED APARTMENT, suitable for couple, housekeeping. Apply 251 Front Street. m5-1i.

FIVE ROOMED APARTMENT, hardwood floors, heated, garage. 0. K. Furniture Store, 257 Front West. m1-1m.

5 ROOM APARTMENT, MODERN conveniences. Also 1 room apartment, suitable for light housekeeping. Apply 190 Front Street. Phone 1279. a27-tf.

TO LET—MRS. MOORE, 4 ROOMS. All modern conveniences. Garage and garden. Apply 251 Front St. a12-tf.

APARTMENT, FIVE ROOMS heated, hardwood floors, cupboards, electric range. Possession Feb. 15. Apply at Ontario Intelligencer Office. 28-tf.

PUBLIC HEALTH NOTICE

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
The Board of Health of the City of Belleville desires hereby notifies that are no persons resident within the City of Belleville, who have failed or neglected to cleanse their Premises of any accumulations of Manure, Refuse, Garbage or other matter or thing thereon or therein likely to be prejudicial to the Public Health. Lime and Cesspools must be emptied and disinfected forthwith.

Phone 2126-F to Thomas Babcock, City Sanitary.

Every person neglecting to observe this Notice on or before May 15th, 1934, will be proceeded against as the law directs.

Any further information may be obtained from Chief Constable Reid, the Health Inspector, Dr. Ginnis, or the undersigned officers of the Board of Health.

G. S. Cronk, M.D., Medical Health Officer. W. Ross Wallbridge, Secretary.
J. V. Doyle, Chairman. a21 26 m5.

MORTGAGE SALE

UNDER AND BY VIRTUE of the powers contained in a certain mortgage which will be produced at the time of sale and the lands will be offered for sale by public auction on the 19th day of May at the hour of 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the Court House in the city of Belleville, in the County of Hastings by George O. Tice, Auctioneer, the following property, namely, the number Eleven on the North side of Bridge Street in the City of Belleville according to Bull's Stock registered and known and otherwise known as Lot number Eleven on the Northerly side of Bridge Street in the City of Belleville.

On the property is said to be a frame store cottage in good condition.

Terms: Ten per cent of the purchase money to be paid down at the time of sale and the balance to be paid within thirty days

For further particulars and conditions of sale apply to—

Porter, Payne & Arnott,
213 Front Street,
Belleville, Ontario,
Solicitors for the Mortgagee or to George O. Tice,
23 Bridge Street West,
Auctioneer,
Dated at Belleville the 14th day of April, 1934.
a14 21 26 m3.

Attention

The Conservative Convention for West Hastings will be held in the Town Hall, Marmora, Friday, May 11th, at 2 p.m. for the purpose of selecting a candidate. All supporters of the Henry Government are cordially invited.

R. A. Elliott, R. H. Ketcheson,
President. Secretary.
Deloro, P.O. Belleville,
m4 7 F.

PHONE 99
Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagement Notices, $1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; Memorial Notices, $1.00; Cards of Thanks, $1.00 and Resolutions of Condolence, $1.00. All social notices announcements, minimum charge 50c per insertion.

CLASSIFIED — (For Sale, Wanted, Lost, Found, etc.) 1 cent per word first two insertions, subsequent insertions 1 cent per word.

CARD OF EVENTS—2c per insertion for 25 words and upwards, over that amount 1c per word.

PROFESSIONAL, LEGAL AND BUSINESS CARDS—Yearly Contract, $5.00 per inch per month.

CIVIC, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES (including notices concerning Legal Sales) 2c per agate line (14 lines to inch) first insertion; 1c per line for subsequent insertions.

AUCTION SALES—$2.00 per insertion and 50c for each additional 25 words for 75c; concession fee limited to 3c per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

Orders over West Ads when by phone must be cash. PHONE 99.

The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one insertion of an incorrect ad. Phone 99 for errors.

Advertisers may not assign their contracts to other members care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

HAVE GOOD PASTURE FOR 10 (ten) yearling heifers. Jersey bull to range with same. m5-1i

WE REQUIRE A SALESMAN TO call on farmers. An exceptional merit property well located, entire district, exceptional salesman to make some real money. Commission basis. Write Box "R" Ontario Intelligencer. m3-1i.

MALE HELP WANTED

HOW TO GET A GOVERNMENT JOB. Free booklet. The M.C.I., Ltd., Toronto (10).

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WOMAN WANTED TO SEW FOR us at home. Sewing machine necessary. No selling. Ontario Necessities Co., Box 101, Toronto (1).

LADY'S BICYCLE. PHONE 810. m4-2i.

SOD SUITABLE FOR LAWN bowling green. Inquire R. J. Wray, phone 40. m5-1i.

LIGHT CAR, REASONABLE. Small down payment. Balance guaranteed by responsible party, $40.00 month. Payable weekly if desired. Box 101, Toronto Intelligencer. m3-3i.

PERSONAL

PRIVATE HOME KINDERGARTENS pay. We start you. The Canadian Kindergarten Institute, Toronto (10).

FOR SALE

CHINA CABINET IN GOOD CONdition. Bargain for cash. Apply 13 Harriott St. m3-1i.

EXTENSION LADDERS IN GOOD condition. Apply 17 Howard St. m5-1i.

1931 PONTIAC EIGHT SEDAN. Small mileage. Privately owned. Like new car. Inspection invited. Reasonable price and payments may be arranged. Phone 2177.

TWO YEAR OLD JERSEY COW. Apply Harold Wright, R. R. No. 3, Belleville, Treat Road. m5-1i

1 DODGE TRUCK 1930 MODEL. 1 Rugby Truck 1933 Model. 1 Dodge Coupe 1930 Model. A quantity of egg crates, both new and second hand; 25,000 egg cartons holding a dozen eggs each. A quantity of other fibre cartons. Also about 60 loads of garden soil which requires to be moved at once. Full details can be obtained at any time at 168 Front St.

m2 5.

A TEN TABLE BILLIARD ROOM in Belleville by auction May 9th. Enquire at any Belleville billiard room for good circular. a28 3i.

NEW PARAMOUNT TENNIS racket, set bowling pool balls complete, six new leather pockets, Coca Cola cooler. 64 St. Charles. m4-2i.

ESSEX SUPER SIX 28 MODEL. Good condition. $ Door Sedan. Lingham St. Phone 1340M. m2-3i

USED MACHINERY. ONE REGINA tractor plow, 2 furrow Oliver tractor plow, 16 plate Ontario Massey Harris drill, Massey Harris 7 ft. McGowan, Massey Harris Warehouse, 221 Front St. m3-3i

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE

TEN ACRES DUNDAS HIGHWAY close to Toronto, with house, garage and barn, suitable for location for a gasoline station, roadside market or tourist farm. Sell or exchange for Belleville property. Box 2, Brighton, Ont. m5-1i.

LOST

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, TWO parcels containing blankets and drapes between Brockville and Havelock, via Belleville, Stirling, Campbellford. Reward if left at Ontario Intelligencer. m4-3i

Business Directory

AUTOMOBILE LOANS

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct Mortgage Financing of All Kinds
S. J. FISHER & SON
20 Bridge St. E. - Telephone 188
Representing
Campbell Auto Finance
Co. Ltd.
Toronto-Ottawa-London-Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., SPECIAL examination with the Radiocleal reveals all diseases in the early stages. Foot disorders corrected, all diseases treated. Phone 900 or write 388 Coleman St., Belleville.

H. R. and Vera B. Pitcher
CHIROPRACTORS
(Honour Graduates)
Palm-Neurometer Service
410½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1276 Belleville, Ont.

DENTIST

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 662 343½ Front St.
117-3m.

SURVEYORS

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer.
Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to.
PHONE 5—P.O. BOX 99
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
251 Front St. Phone 128

HALL & EARLE

General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
278 Front Street Phone 1156W

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, Members of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1234 P. E. Wills, Branch Manager. m5-1y.

LEGAL

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public, Chas. A. Payne, K.C., R. D. Arnott, Office: 219 Front Street, Belleville, Ont.

CHARLES H. KERR, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, Conveyancer, 25 Bridge St. East, Belleville, Ont., Phone 87.

T. C. WILLIS, BARRISTER, SOLICitor, Notary Public, etc., 18 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. m4-1z

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office, Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON & GRAHAM, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners. Office: 29 Bridge Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on mortgages. C. J. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham. Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late P. S. Wallbridge), Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan. Domicile, Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 52 Dundas East. F. J. Butler, K.C., Ormonde Butler.

B. G. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

PERSONAL

A FAT WOMAN LOOKS TEN years older than her actual age. Reduce in safety with Slendor Tablets. Fifteen weeks treatment for $1.50. Phone 135 McKeown's Drug Store.

BUSINESS LINERS

1 ACRE CHOICE GARDEN LAND with 7 room dwelling, barn, hog pen and hen house, in village of Thomasburg on Highway No. 37. This is a desirable residential home. Must be sold to wind up estate. Apply C. C. W. Perry, Auctioneer, or Mrs. Catherine Barristers, Belleville. a24 26 28 m1 3 5.

Dr. W. A. Paul President of Tweed Community Club

New Organization Plans An Interesting Season

Tweed, May 5—A meeting for the purpose of organizing a Community Club was held in the council chamber on Tuesday night. While the attendance was not large, due mainly to the fact that it was open night for the stores, all those who were present were enthusiastic with regard to the proposal. Dr. W. A. Paul was named as chairman of the meeting and Mr. S. R. Curry secretary. Dr. Paul explained the purpose for which the meeting was called and asked those present to state their views with regard to the formation of such a club in Tweed. Mr. W. E. Tunnon, M.P., who is a member of the Belleville Rotary Club, is strongly in favour of an organization such as a Community Club and so expressed himself. Mr. T. E. Moffat, Principal of the high school said that a club would be of great benefit to Tweed. Mr. W. S. Gordon and Mr. Curry also spoke favorably of the proposal. The idea of the club is to interest not only all the men, young and old, of the town, but also the farmers living in the vicinity of Tweed. At this point the chairman asked for a motion to place the matter definitely before the meeting. It was moved by Mr. H. Conner and seconded by Mr. Reeve W. H. Sayers that a Community Club be organized in Tweed. This motion was carried unanimously. The election of officers was proceeded with and resulted as follows:

Hon. President—Mr. W. E. Tunnon, M.P.

President—Dr. W. A. Paul.

1st Vice President—Mr. I. D. Donovan.

2nd Vice President—Mr. T. N. Beatty.

Sec. Treasurer—Mr. S. R. Curry.

Directors—Messrs. W. S. Gordon, T. E. Moffat, Fred Hindle, Paul Washoba, H. Dales, J. J. McVeigh, G. Quinn.

The Rotary Club of Belleville sent word that a visit to Tweed to arrange plans for this visit will be in the hands of the new executive. The club will begin to function in the near future it is proposed to hold monthly "get together" meetings with outside speakers.

The literary and recreation Department of the Young People's Society of the United Church can usually be counted on to provide an interesting and instructive program for their weekly meetings. That on Monday evening was no exception and was greatly enjoyed by an excellent audience. The opening exercises were conducted by Mrs. R. J. Nicholson. The Misses Palestine Twenty Thousand Years Ago" in the form of a letter describing address by Rev. H. R. Heriington of Thornbury. Miss L. Nicholson recited "Wolverine" a poem by Pauline Johnson. Little Miss Paula Prescott sang "This Little Piggy Went to Market." A poem "I'm Sad Sometimes" was given by Miss Cora Moffat. Miss Marion Nicholson played a piano solo. An interesting selection "The Singers" by Mrs. Gertrude McGregor Mot-

TO BE HONORED

An honorary degree of LL.D will be conferred by the University of B.C. on Hon. Iyamasa Tokugawa (above), Japanese minister to Canada, at the annual congregation ceremony in Vancouver May 10. The degree is a recognition of the minister's excellent work in promoting friendly relations between Canada and Japan. Hon. Mr. Tokugawa will accept the honour and will attend personally to be capped.

fat was read by Miss Dorothy Barrett, Mrs. H. B. Heddington and Miss Leslie Herrington sang a pleasant duet. The concluding number of an excellent program was "Patience" a poem read by Miss Margaret Moffat. Games and a delightful lunch brought the meeting to a close.

A delegation to the Conservative convention held in Madoc on Tuesday May 1st included Mrs. J. Porritt, Mrs. H. Murphy, Mrs. S. H. Rollins, Mrs. R. Countryman, Miss Violet Brown, Messrs. E. W. Jones, W. H. Sayers, C. R. Brown, H. Murphy, T. H. Rash, W. H. Clark, J. L. McGowan, John Stokes, and S. B. Rollins. Mr. Jas. Ellis, M.P.P. was the unanimous choice of the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Rollins returned to their home in Belleville on Monday after spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. G. P. Bowlby.

Bobbie, young son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Reynolds was taken to Kingston General Hospital on Sunday May 1st. He is reported to operate for mastoid.

Special Mother's Day services will be held in Tweed United Church in the Sunday school and also at the usual church services on Sunday, May 14th.

SPRINGBROOK L. A. MEETS

Springbrook, May 5—The ladies of Springbrook Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. John Baker of Bonarlaw on Wednesday with a large attendance.

Mr. Prebone McCabe of Picton, attended the funeral of his sister Mrs. M. Sweet and spent a few days visiting old school mates and friends in the community.

Mrs. Walter Health spent Wednesday with Mrs. Fred Heath at Bonarlaw.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shortt of Sidney spent Sunday with Mr. Manley Shortt and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Shortt, 10th Concession west.

Mr. and Mrs. George McMaster were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bateman.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson, Miss M. Bateman and Master Jackie Frederick of Campbellford were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Bateman.

Rev. H. W. Foley and Mrs. Foley motored to Selby on Wednesday and spent the day there.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reid and children visited at Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Reid's on Tuesday.

Mrs. T. Wood of Bonarlaw, spent a few days of this week with her sister, Mrs. Manley Avery.

The many friends, neighbors and relatives of Dr. Ruth Joyce are sorry to learn he is seriously ill at his home here in the village. All join in wishing a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Flossie Campbell and little sons of Killarney who are visiting in the village spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Green and children of Belleville spent Sunday with relatives in the village.

INTERESTING PROGR OF STUDY GROUP

8th Sidney, May 5—Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Matthews and Lillian were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Robert Bush.

Mr. Nathan Chard spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chard.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bush, Jack and Glenn spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Sarah Rowbush.

The April meeting of the River Valley Study Group was held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hanna on April 18th. The meeting was opened with the singing of a hymn. The Third Psalm was read followed by the Lord's prayer. Minutes of the March meeting were read and adopted. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Norman Rosebush. Mrs. Mary Vandervoort, 2nd Miss Flossie Rosebush are to prepare the lesson. Arrangements by John Sager the next chapter in the Study Book. The programme secretary, Mrs. Walter Lindenfield reported for this month. Mrs. Norman took charge of the programme for the afternoon. The Scripture lesson was taken from the 9th Psalm was read by Miss Flossie Rosebush, Mrs. Norman Rosebush led in prayer. The Chapter in the Study Book was read by Mrs. Mary Vandervoort. A solo entitled "Somebody" was given by Mrs. Lindenfield. Mrs. Lanating gave a splendid report of the eighth annual Presbyterial fall at Wilmanee Trinity Church. Mrs. Roy Spafford conducted the Study. The hymn "Blessed Assurance Jesus is Mine" brought the meeting to a close with the Mispah Benediction.

MELROSE W. I. HAS ANNUAL MEETING

Melrose, May 5 — The Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting and the annual election of officers at the home of Mrs. Orval McLaren on Thursday afternoon with a large attendance.

Mrs. S. Anderson has returned home after spending Mrs. F. Davis with relatives at Napanee.

Mrs. M. Morden entertained company from Toronto on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Wrong also Miss Mae Wrong spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Wrong.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Clarke also Miss Helen Clarke were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Badger.

Mr. Bruce McKinney, Mrs. A. McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. F. Davis and Mr. Harry Davis visited relatives at Madoc on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Badgley visited Mrs. A. Whiter, Napanee, who is very ill, on Thursday last.

Melrose Women's Institute opened on Tuesday for the season with Mr. S. Anderson as cheesemaker.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Haight were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Morden, Belleville.

Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Bird have taken up residence in Belleville.

THE BEST
SHINGLES
THE BEST
ASPHALT
ROOFING
EVERYTHING IN LUMBER
ROUGH AND DRESSED
Prices are still very attractive.
The Schuster Co. Ltd.
Phones 93 and 616 W. N. Belair, Pres.

TRADE NAME BUILT WITH ADVERTISING

C.C.M. Official Acknowledges Force It Has Increased Business

The Canada Cycle & Motor, Limited, of Weston, Ontario, is a Canadian company that is enjoying increasingly good business and they give credit to newspaper advertising as a force that has helped them decidedly.

"Through the depression our Company did not suffer as much as might have been expected," said Mr. J. W. Gibson, the Vice-President, "and there is no doubt that our resistance to the depression and our early comeback have been greatly helped by the fact that we have been pursuing for many years a liberal policy of newspaper advertising.

"What has been the net result of your many years' advertising?" was asked Mr. J. W. Gibson. Mr. Gibson paused thoughtfully for a minute or two and then said, "I think it over and then carefully said that our C.C.M. trade mark is today worth more than our plant and equipment. If we lost our plants tomorrow we could erect another building and install more machinery but it would take the expenditure of much money and a long period of time to build up a trade name equal in value to that of C.C.M. I think is what advertising has done for us."

SIDNEY COUNCIL

The May session of the Sidney Council was held on the 1st inst. The minutes of the April session were read and adopted.

Ketchenson and Danford that relief accounts under voucher No. 5 and all road accounts under voucher No. 6 be paid. Carried.

Mr. Tompkins, proprietor of the Sidney News-Argus was present to solicit the township printing for the current year.

Moved Read of Belleville was also present offering for sale a combine that would enable the township to do their own printing. Ketchenson and Dunford that the matter of a decision on township printing be left over until the next meeting of the council. Carried.

That the following accounts be paid up to date: Hydro $7.00; Wm. Mosaman, $7.50; P. O. Meals, $13.45; J. M. Ketchen, $7.45; Ontario Provincial Treasury, $3.00; City of Belleville, $2.50.

By-laws to authorize guarantee of loans to farmers under the Seed Grain Subsidy Act to provide for a reduction of the term of subsisting by-laws. First and third reading. Moved to the Bell Telephone Co., of operation roads for the erection of its pole lines were passed through their various readings. The council was then adjourned to meet June 5 at 10 o'clock a.m., court of revision at 1 o'clock p.m.

W. H. Nobbs, Clerk.

SALEM BUDGET OF NEWSY NOTES

Salem—Mr. Aubrey Hagerman has returned to Toronto after spending the past week with friends in the neighborhood.

Mrs. Dorland Ross, Hilda and Willard spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Conley, sixth line.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Robinson and family spent the dinner hour on Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Demille, Melrose.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sparrow, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sherman and Jack, and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Sherman and baby Garry of Belleville were Sunday evening callers at Mr. Thomas Leslie's.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Smith took dinner on Monday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Halloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hagerman, also Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hagerman and little Ronald visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hagerman of Shilton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sills spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Donaldson.

Mrs. Dan Hagerman spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Bertha Latchford, Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cole were Saturday evening callers of Mr. and Mrs. Dorland Ross.

THE BIGGEST NEWS

Since Westinghouse Introduced the Dual-automatic Refrigerator

You Are Entitled to These LIFETIME Features

Look for them in the refrigerator you select. Westinghouse Hermetically - sealed mechanism for Lifetime silence. Westinghouse Dual-automatic control, Lifetime protection and economy. Westinghouse All steel cabinet construction for Lifetime endurance. Westinghouse Meter-Miser (Model Lisk) improved high-speed freezer unit with Meter-Miser Defrosting (Model Lisk only); electric Hydrator; Cold-control; Quick-Cube Ice tray; Interior lamp; Cold-storage Ice tray; Super-speed temperature control and counter; other compartments to Meter convenience and economy. Guaranteed by Westinghouse . . . WESTINGHOUSE.

THE introduction of the Westinghouse Dual-automatic Refrigerator made history in the industry — and in thousands upon thousands of Canadian homes. It marked the beginning of ABSOLUTE dependability, absolute protection, under all conditions, normal or extreme. To-day, in those thousands of homes, Dual-automatic is more than a name . . . it is the symbol of unfailing, carefree protection and LIFETIME reliability. Now Westinghouse brings more good news for home-makers . . . a newer, finer Westinghouse Refrigerator, with all the former engineering and structural advantages PLUS a galaxy of advanced features and refinements.

Westinghouse
Dual-automatic REFRIGERATOR

The Big "A" Co., Limited
217 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE PHONE 294

Phone For Quick Service

WHERE TO GET WHAT YOU WANT WHEN YOU WANT IT

In Various Lines of Business, Merchandise and Service Needed From Time to Time by Householders.
USE THE PHONE PROMPT AND COURTEOUS SERVICE

Save Time and Temper Phone Your Order

THRIFTY FARMERS BUY THEIR CLOVER SEED EARLY
THIS YEAR WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY
See Our Samples and Get Our Prices
C. E. BISHOP & SON
SEEDSMEN
273 Front St. Phone 223

Personal Stationery
We submit social stationery that are replicas of forms used by noted social leaders and all surprisingly low prices.
Ontario Intelligencer
PHONE 99

PURITY BREAD
BUNS, PIES AND CAKES
Are Delicious—Try Them
G. E. Thompson
Proprietor
PURITY BAKERY
Phone 1976

ONTARIO BUSINESS COLLEGE, Limited
BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO—65th YEAR
Patent throughout Canada for its SUPERIORITY in its courses and the SUCCESS of its GRADUATES. Prepares students for positions as ACCOUNTANTS, SECRETARIES, SECRETARIAL REPORTERS and STENOGRAPHERS.
Students may start at any time. Write for the O.B.C. Catalogue.
Phone 124 L. E. MOORE, Principal

F. LaPalm
Local and Long Distance Hauling
Closed Furniture Vans
Open Trucks
All Goods Insured During Transit
Office—165 Pinnacle Street
Phone 1908
House Phone 1908

When you Think of PRINTING Think of Ontario Intelligencer
We have a fund of interesting ideas that we can shape to your selling problems. May we place them at your disposal?

MADILL
Makes Old Cars Act Like New!
J. E. MADILL
2 Dundas St. Phone 1396

DUTTON'S
High-Class Goodyear Welt
Shoe Rebuilding System
243 STATION STREET
Phone 537 Belleville

A Reliable Firm Are We For Watch, Clock and Jewelry Repairing Moderate Prices Guaranteed Work
A. E. Wonnacott
222 FRONT STREET
Next to Loblaw's
Phone 1539

ANOTHER SUNKIST KID LAUNCHED

Here is Sunkist Kid the eleventh, fastest racing creation, yet built by the internationally famous girl champion, Loretta Turnbull, who has worn out ten boats during a spectacular racing career in the U.S. and Europe during the past five years. A stern view, such as is shown here, is about all her competitors have seen of the eleventh edition, as Miss Turnbull has won first honors in four straight regattas recently. Her next conquest will be in the annual Intercollegiate Gold Cup regatta, at Long Beach.

THANKS TO MISTER FIX-IT AND FIX, THEIR SERVICE ALWAYS MAKE A HIT!

Excellent Food
IN LARGE VARIETY
Prompt, Cheerful Service
Reasonable Prices
At SCOTIS
Restaurant
206 Front Street
Phone 2183

Out of the MONTROSE MILK BOTTLE
PHONE 374
MONTROSE DAIRY

The Right Kind of Roofing
In Gravel, Asphalt or Shingle Roof — and Water Proofing.
Expert Advice Given
P. J. Fortin
217 Albert St. Phone 1215W

MARTIN'S GARAGE
Complete Service on All Cars and Trucks, Acetylene Welding, Body and Fender Repairs, Battery Charging, Repairs and Sales, Latest Appliances for Washing and Polishing.
65 Dundas St. E., Rear of Imperial Service Station
PHONE 478

You give things to Mr. Fix and Mr. Fit when you let us handle any job for you. Tell us what is the matter with your plumbing and in a short time there won't be anything the matter with it.
Murray Black
42 Gordon Street
Phone 1335

HARNESS
HARNESS PARTS And HARNESS REPAIRING
Trunks, Suit Cases, Travelling Bags
T. G. WELLS
12 Campbell St. Phone 1311J

Irwin's Body & Fender Repairs
44 Metra St. E.
PHONE 2130
Prompt Service

The Romantic Runaway

By KATHARINE HAVILAND-TAYLOR

"Are you scouting the country of the new government?" the boy questioned, his eyes suddenly becoming even brighter.

"I will let you judge that, Senor," Pablito replied.

"Ah yes! The wise man is silent," the boy said, nodding. "The wise and the good man cannot always tell what he is doing. But, Senor, we here have been oppressed by the regime, the taxes. May your hopes prosper to deliver us from oppression! And peace to you and may you walk with God!"

◆ ◆ ◆

Then he stood up. He himself, he said, making a ceremony of a courtesy as do most Latins, he himself would escort them to the shop of Sancho who sold the apparel of value both for the senors and the senoras. He himself would awaken Sancho who slept early and then he himself would take them to the house of Pedro who owned an automobile which in time—God being perfectly willing—would deliver them in safety in Havana, the beautiful city of laughter and gaiety. They would, no doubt, see the horse races there? And the cross-country races of moto r over the uneven country ways? Every year, thus, at least one driver was killed and ofttimes many more. And they would play at the Casino? His hungry eyes glinted as he spoke. There each night from hand to hand passed enough money to care for all the aged men and women and the little children of Cuba who now (he rubbed his stomach) often went hungry.

But that was life. Those who had little had continually less and those who had much had continually more. God, no doubt, saw reason for this. The wine had been enjoyable. The youth bowed low with his gratitude.

Sancho outfitted Lottie Pablito and Beau in a way which made them look like Cubans from one of the little villages— a bit bulky where they should have been slender and a bit pinched where there should have been room.

Beau turned before a pock-marked mirror to groan aloud. He had earned his nickname early through his particularity about his attire. Now he saw violently brown shoulders so padded as to suggest pin cushions, a wasp-waisted coat and a green and tan checked waistcoat. His shoes were a violent tan, such being the only shoes of Sancho's stock. Pablito chose a suit of an amazing blue. Sancho and the boy guide who had been found at the cafe were entranced. Lottie was less awkward than the men in her ill-cut country things. She looked a bewildered and rather sweet child of the province and younger than she had looked in many hard years.

"No one now would know you," whispered the self-appointed guide to Pablito as he considered Pablito's answer to his question about the matters of government.

"You are changed, utterly changed! But God will know you and guard you!"

Pablito doubted this, but he gripped the other's hand firmly as he said goodby and he began the new journey with a little warmth at his heart. Ten minutes later they were on the way to Havana.

CHAPTER XVII

The ancient automobile moved forward in a manner suggesting the gait of a startled jack-rabbit.

"How long will it take to reach Havana?" Pablito asked Pedro, the driver.

An unusually severe jolt prevented an immediate answer. Then Pedro turned, smiling and letting the car take its course.

If nothing happened to the interior of the vehicle, Pedro said, if they did not hit anything and God being willing, they should reach Havana in four hours or less.

Beau, looking more frightened than at any time before, groaned aloud and petitioned heaven for help. He did not know what Pedro had said. He only knew his was "one helluva ride".

Lottie sitting between Beau and Pablito, slipped her hand into Pablito's. He let it rest there. The more he saw of the girl the more he pitied her. Moreover he was lonely. At length her head dropped to his shoulder bouncing up again at every jolt in the road. Pablito slipped his arm around her shoulders.

"You're one of us now", she told him.

"I guess I am," he agreed miserably.

"Honey, look at the stars," Lottie said suddenly. "I never seen so many in all my life! They're swell, aren't they?"

A moment later she went on, "And do you notice the way the earth smells?" Lottie sniffed deeply and Pablito, following her example, found the turmoil of his spirit to be a little quieted. Cuba he thought, was a wonderful land. How Estelle would love all this! Pablito, thinking this, drew away from Lottie. She sat, hurt and chilled. But with time, she decided, she could win him. She would work for that and nothing else.

She turned to Beau then and laid her head on his shoulder. Beau slipped an arm around her, patted her upper arm and yawned widely. She'd get Pablito, Lottie vowed again, her head on Beau's shoulder. She closed her eyes then to say an [illegible] prayer.

◆ ◆ ◆

Beau engaged rooms for the trio at La Florida, a hotel in the old and crowded section of Havana, facing the narrow and famous street [illegible] that is known as [illegible] went to her room [illegible] Beau, seemingly wholly [illegible] casually interested [illegible] deep, leather-covered chair in the lobby to look over the situation.

Two Americans sat near him, talking of "the vacuum cleaner game". They rolled their thick cigar from one side of their mouths to the other and their voices rose offensively loud.

None of Field's friends, Beau realized as he had before, were at all likely to come here. They would choose hotels where the poorest food in Havana is served condescendingly and at the largest prices. Yes, he and Lottie and Pablito were safe! Comfortable and free from anxiety, he let his mind wander. He imagined Lottie could in less than 10 minutes remove from the vacuum cleaner salesmen their gold cigar cutters and lighters. He smiled a little, his eyes on the unsuspecting salesmen.

Pablito had wandered to the wide doorway leading into the narrow street. He turned suddenly and moved to Beau's side. "I'm going out for a while," he said.

"Are you dead sure about that?" Beau asked menacingly.

"Yes. You can't stop me and it will go hard with you if you try."

"Oh, is that so? Say, you neednot get so ugly."

"I don't mean to be ugly, but I'm going to go where I please."

"Try to give us the slip," Beau threatened, "and you'll wish you hadn't. See? And we can do it, too! Me and Lottie, we know how."

Pablito nodded shortly and turned toward the door.

Outside Havana was breathing less quickly than it did by day. A breeze from the water fluttered those awnings that had not been raised at nightfall and groups of young Cubans stood here and there on the narrow pavement, swinging canes or leaning on them, staring lazily and awaiting "the adventure".

Large, handsome motor cars followed ramshackle ones. Here and there above heaped stones or molded concrete Pablito, walking, saw the foliage of some tropic tree or thick-trunked, big-leafed vine. He had not imagined that any land so close to the states could seem so far from it, so entrancingly foreign and so pulsing with a wholly Latin gaiety. But the softness of the air, the laughter he heard and the inviting glances from deep brown eyes only mocked him.

He reached the edge of the Parque Central and here signalled the driver of an automobile that he judged to be for hire. The automobile had lace curtains at its windows, lace on the backs of the seats and a vase holding amazingly red paper flowers.

"La Mirasol," Pablito ordered, stepping in.

"La Mirasol, Senor," the driver repeated. The car leaned toward Pablito as he set one foot on the step but righted itself when he was inside. Then they were off. The car sped through the streets with that speed which always amazes and terrifies newcomers to Havana, taking sharp corners on two wheels bearing down menacingly upon other cars and then stopping abruptly just as collision seemed inevitable. Once stopped, it seemed to throb impatiently until the way was again clear.

The walls that so often rose abruptly from the narrow streets had a look of age and of utter solidity. Once Pablito saw a girl leaning over a grilled iron balustrade and below her a man, his head lifted. Snatches of song came to him, sweet in themselves but with sweetness increased by the soft blackness of the night, by that marvelous stage setting which is Havana, and by the city's pervasive feeling of light-hearted, thrillingly romantic happiness.

"If one were even half happy it would charm," Pablito thought heavily.

◆ ◆ ◆

La Mirasol proved to be a tawdry hostelry near the docks where houses and buildings thinned to present a much less picturesque effect and where the salt water crept into the night air, leaving it damp. Pablito told the chauffeur to wait for him and went into the place.

He found himself in a big room with a high ceiling, stucco walls and a tiled floor. There were toothpicks in a blue glass near the register on the yellow oak desk. A vase in which Havana's sweet roses were mercilessly crowded stood close to a tray of ink-spattering pens. On the wall back of the desk with a flamboyantly-colored chromo of the Virgin and Child with an advertising poster near by. Between these, fastened to the walls by pins that had grown rusty, were unclaimed letters. Some of them had been there ten years; others only eight, four or two.

Pablito waited. The proprietor was occupied with the cutting of his finger nails. "Senor, but a short moment," he said. Pablito waited longer.

Then the man moved toward him and Pablito, in a voice that trembled in spite of his best intentions, described Norris Noyes. The proprietor shook his head solemnly and called his daughter Maria, who come running from the kitchen. She heard the tale and shook her head also. No, they had seen no such gentleman. And God knew them to be speaking the truth.

They had had few American guests that season. Maria had an excellent memory and never forgot those whom she saw. No, no! They had seen no such a gentleman. Pablito forgot caution and asked for Noyes by name. Again the heads shook. Maria opened the thick register, displaying its grimy pages. The Senor, if he wished, could see—

She fluttered the leaves. There was name after name written there. Pablito read them over but nowhere was Noyes' signature.

Something seemed to tighten at Pablito's heart and for an instant he felt faint. The proprietor suggested a glass of wine and Maria ran to get it. Pablito thanked her, smiling with an effort. That smile made her abandon her dreams of one of the players of Jai alai and dream of Pablito for months thereafter. She thought of him as the blond one with the tortured blue eyes whose lips had trembled a second when she said, "No Senor. No such guest as you describe has been within our house."

CHAPTER XVIII

Pablito said, as he turned to leave the hotel, "I will return later to inquire for my friend. It may be that he will be there then."

Having thanked the proprietor and his daughter for the wine, for which he knew better than to offer money, he went out into the street.

For many days and many weeks thereafter Maria awaited his return. Each new footfall that echoed on the polished tiles would send her heart to beating rapidly. But Pablito did not come back to ask for the friend he was seeking. Maria grew to fear that the towering blond youth with the sad blue eyes was dead. He had wanted so much to find his friend and yet he came not!

One day some long weeks later a girl came with an interpreter to ask for such a gentleman as the tall, blonde young man had described.

"Tell 'em I gotta see him if he comes!" she said urgently and the interpreter repeated the words. "Tell 'em I'll leave my address and he's to come there. Tell 'em he goes by the name of Smith. If it ain't too late by then—when he comes —it may be a matter of life or death!"

◆ ◆ ◆

On that black night when Pablito left the Mirasol, despairing, baffled and balked, Marcia Treadway made her way to El Nuovo Fronton to settle in a box from which she could watch the fastest game in the world, Jai alai.

Down, down below her was a well marked court, backed by a high stone wall and on the court lithe men with wicker baskets, catching it again with almost instantaneous speed.

Marcia had put a good stake on Lizarraga, and hoped mildly that he would reward her faith. Not that it mattered much. The boy called Pablito was the only thing that mattered to her—the boy whose life she held in her weak, soft hands. She had to find Pablito.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Little Benny's Note Book

Ma is still teaching me the value of money out of Professor Janders book about Money Management for childern, and this morning at breakfist I said, Can I have my 5 cents allowance for today, ma?

Yes, if you earn it, ma said. Earning is the keystone of the forst principal of the whole sistem, as you awt to know by this time. And by the way, Willyum, Professor Janders suggests that from time to time the child himself should be encourraged to invest his own methods of earning his allowance, thus developping his initiative and bizness instincts, she said, and I said G, ma, I can think of some ways.

Yu see, the suggestion has born fruit already, ma said. Well, Benny, how do you think, you'd like to earn your allowance today? she said, and I said, I'll cleen out the icing bowl after you make the cake. I'll get out every speck of all the icing that's left I dont care how much you leave, and then I'll wash the bowl as good as new and put it away.

As a fruit bearing ideer, that was what the fruit growers call a wow, pop said, and ma said, But my lands Benny did I say anything about making a cake?

No mam, but G wizzickers ma, think of what a swell chance it would be for you to make one, I said, and she said, Thanks for the impersonel suggestion but I'm not quite as gullibly inclined as that. I think I'd better do the suggesting as usual, she said.

No mam, I know, another way, I said. I'll wait for pop around at the drug store with his umberella and watch for him to get off the trolley car in case it rains unexpected, and if he's late or anything, I can order a ice cream soda to keep me bizzy and charge it, I said, and ma said, Well of all things of all the ideers, the sky is like a blueberd today.

Sure, that would make it all the more unexpected if it rains, I said, and ma said, You'll earn your allowance by gathering up all the old newspapers in the ceeler and tying them in neet piles.

Wich I did feeling against it.

RADIO PROGRAMS

SATURDAY

E. S. T.

3.30—George Sherbau Gypsy Orchestra—CFRB
4.00—Oxford-Columbia Debate — CFRB
4.30—Piano Duo—CRCT
5.45—Kentucky Derby—CFRB
6.00—Derby Commentary—WGR
6.30—Music—WGR
7.00—Studio Party—CFRB
7.30—U.S. Marine Band—WBEN
8.00—Mowry's Orchestra—CFRB
8.30—"Looking at Life"—CFRB
9.00—L. Romanelli's Orch.—CFRB
9.30—"Peter the Great"—WABC; CFRB
9.30—News—CRCT
11.00—Jack Deny's Orch.—WJZ

SUNDAY

E. S. T.

8.00—Children's Hour—NBC; WJZ
9.00—Dr. S. Parkes Cadman—NBC; WTAM
9.00—Southernaires; male quartet, Levee Band—WJZ; KDKA
9.30—Samovar Serenade; Balalaika Orchestra—WLW
9.30—The Garden of Tomorrow—NBC; WTAM
10.00—Children's Hour—WABC
10.15—Maj. Bowes Capitol Family—NBC; WTAM
10.30—Musical Hour—WLW; WJZ
11.00—Salt Lake City Tabernacle—CFRB
11.30—Radio City Concert—NBC; WJZ
12.00—Church of the Air—CFRB
12.30—Surprise Party—NBC; WTAM
1.00—Regiment Band—CRCT
1.30—Concert Artists; Rosa Lowe, soprano; Marcel Hubert, cellist, Nadia Reisenberg, pianist; Orchestra—CRCT
2.00—Portland Symphony Orchestra—CFRB; CKAC
3.00—Organ Recital, Dion Kennedy, Organist—CRCT
4.00—National Vespers; Dr. H. Emerson Fosdick—NBC; WJZ
4.30—Frank Crummit and Julia Sanderson—CBS; WABC; CKLW
4.30—The Sentinels Concert directed by Josef Koestner — WLW
5.00—Romances of Science; Chas. Goodyear—WLW
5.30—Smilin' Ed McConnell—CBS; WABC; CKLW
6.00—Silken Strings, Charlie Previns Orchestra—WLW
6.30—Joe Penner—NBC; WJZ
7.00—Jimmy "Schnozzle" Durante —NBC; WEAF
7.30—California Melodies with Raymonth Paige's orchestra and guest artists—CBS; WABC
8.00—Irving Berlin; Frank Parker; Pickens sisters; Revelers — WLW; WJZ
8.00—Manhattan Merry-go-round; Tomara; Jacques Renard's Orchestra—CFRB
8.30—Fred Waring's orchestra; Cornelia Otis Skinner, guest artist—CBS; WABC
8.30—Frank Munn; Virginia Rae; The Haenschen Concert Orchestra—WTAM; WEAF
9.00—Madame Schuman-Heink and Harvey Hayes—NBC; WJZ
9.30—Hall of Fame; Joan Crawford and Franchot Tone; Nat Shilkret's orchestra—CRCT; WLW
9.30—Forty-Five Minutes in Hollywood—CFRB; WABC

WORK ON FARM IS FARTHER ADVANCED THAN IN YEARS

West Huntingdon, May 5—Master Ray Donnan celebrated his 8th birthday on Tuesday. Among those who were present for the occasion were Douglas and Ronald Donnan of Ridge Road and Geo. Cooke Jr.

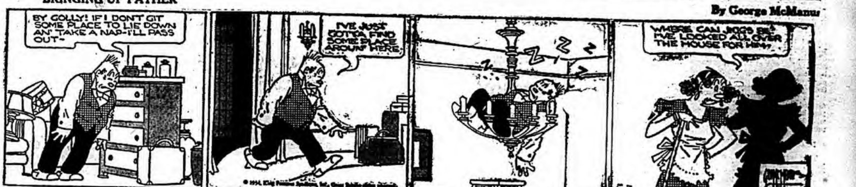
Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Saries were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sheffield were recent guests of Mr. Jas. A. Wilson, Mill Street.

Mr. Geo. McCurdy spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Johnston of Foxboro.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Fargey spent a couple of days last week at Mr. Geo. Glover's.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cooke attended a birthday party in honor of Mrs. H. Rollins of Ivanhoe on Tuesday evening.



TILLIE THE TOILER

By Russ Westover.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

TARZAN THE TERRIBLE

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

As Tarzan pretended to be receiving a message from the god, Jad-ben-Otho, the two women dropped to their knees, awe-struck. "Rise," he said at last, "my father has spoken. He has told me that this maiden is also a princess, betrothed to the chief of a tribe where Ta-den, your beloved, is even now not a prisoner, but an honored guest. Pan-at-lee is her name." O-lo-a turned questioningly to her slave, who nodded, her simple mind unable to fathom Tarzan's designs. "It is even as he says," she whispered.

Skilfully, so that no suspicion would be aroused in O-lo-a's mind, Tarzan sought to question her if any strangers had recently come to A-lur, especially a woman of another race. The princess hesitated before replying and then: "Only rumors reach the Forbidden Garden. Of them I cannot speak without justly incurring the wrath of my father." "In the name of Jad-ben-Otho, whose hands hold the fate of your beloved, I command you to speak," said Tarzan sternly. The girl paled. "Have mercy!" she cried "and I will tell you all I know." "Tell what?" demanded a voice from the shrubbery behind them.

The three turned to see the figure of Ko-tan emerging from the foliage. He scowled angrily, but seeing Tarzan his expression became one of surprise not unmixed with fear. "Dor-ul-Otho!" he exclaimed, "I did not know it was you; but there are places," he continued boldly, "where even the god's son may not walk, and this, the Forbidden Garden of Ko-tan, is one. I know not all my foolish daughter has spoken but I, the king, will hereafter answer your questions!" With stern finger pointed to the garden's other end, and, obeying, the women silently left their presence.

Then the king led Tarzan through a closely guarded secret passage. Without a word the two proceeded to Ko-tan's private chambers. Passing through the crowded throne room, Tarzan caught a glimpse of Lu-don, the high priest, listening to an under-priest. As the curtains dropped behind Tarzan and Ko-tan, the high priest gave an order. "Fetch the slave of the princess to the temple, at once," commanded Lu-don, and his cruel countenance glowed with a triumphant expression that boded no good for Tarzan of the Apes.

Holloway St. Sunday School Sixty Years Old Tomorrow

Interesting History of Congregation on West Side

Organized in May 1874, Holloway Street United Church Sunday School celebrates on Sunday, May 6th its sixtieth anniversary.

The first school started in West Bellerslie by the Methodists was a small frame structure which was located on Dunbay Street, on the lot where the present Holloway St. United Church stands. On Feb. 3rd, 1873 a committee of the Bridge St. Official Board was appointed to consider the question of church extension in West Bellerslie. Three men were selected in November of the same year; the property on the corner of Holloway St. and Dunbay acquired and a small frame building was erected. The following were the trustees who carried on the work connected with the beginnings of the church life on the west hill: Thos. McIntosh, J. Vandusen, R. Richardson, J. Jackson, W. Hollon, J. H. Yeomans, Jas. Wickett, W. F. Jones.

The services in the frame church were conducted by the ministers of the Bridge St. Church and this new work became an appointment of the Centre Church, which is now Bridge St. United Church.

In the spring of 1874 a few faithful workers gathered the organized first Sunday School. They gathered together the children of the neighborhood and carried on the school which grew rapidly. It appears that James Ross was the first superintendent. The following are some of those who have served since among those who have served since 1874: Jas. Ross, W. Fewerin, Mrs. Catherine Wood, C. A. Swayze, Horace Wrinch D.D., Philip Paul, man, H. J. McCollum, Thos. Ellis, A. E. Bailey, O. T. Woodley, Philip Cantt, Mrs. Jas. T. Hodgins (present superintendent).

Mrs. J. F. Gullett of this city is the only teacher of that first S.S. Mrs. Gullett is now in her 86th year and remembers a class of boys ranging from 12-13 years of age.

Mrs. J. N. Hudgins, the wife of the present Superintendent attended Sunday School in the little white church and has been a life long member of the S.S. and church here and formerly was very active in the church life of Bellerslie.

Mrs. Geo. Brown of Aimer St. attended Sunday School in the original building, and has a card from the first Sunday attended Mr. Ross, the first Supt. Verex of this city also attended Sunday School and church in the little church in the little white church and has been a life long member of the S.S. and church here and formerly was very active in the church life of Bellerslie.

Mrs. Geo. Brown of Aimer St. attended Sunday School in the original building, and has a card from the first Sunday attended Mr. Ross, the first Supt. Verex of this city also attended Sunday School and church in the little church in the little white church and has been a life long member of the S.S. and church here and formerly was very active in the church life of Bellerslie.

Mrs. Benjamin Quinney, Aimer St., one of the oldest members at Holloway was active in the early life of the first Sunday School and congregation.

The present church building was erected in 1876-78 and the same year became an independent circuit with Rev. J. H. Locke as the first minister.

FRONT ROAD LADIES' AID

The regular meeting of Front Road Ladies' Aid was held on Thursday afternoon, May 3rd, at the home of Mrs. C. Wilkinson with a good attendance.

The early part of the afternoon was spent in piecing quilt blocks after which the President, Mrs. S. Snider called the meeting to order and had a devotional and business meeting followed. One verse of "What a Friend we have in Jesus" was sung and the Lord's prayer repeated in unison.

Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Doris Reid then read minutes of last meeting which were approved and also letters of thanks received from Mrs. and Mrs. N. Brown and Master Clinton Brown for remembrances sent by Aid during their recent illness and accidents and Miss Cassie Clements also expressed her thanks to the Aid for the same.

Mrs. A. Clasie read the Scripture lesson, John 14th chapter verses 1 to 21.

It was moved by Mrs. H. Greatrix and seconded by Mrs. R. Reid, shew that the baby's layette received by the Aid be donated to the work of the V.O.N. in Bellerslie. The motion met with the approval of the ladies present.

The Secretary-Treasurer was authorized to purchase new lines for the communion table of the church also new individual glasses to replace those broken a short time ago.

Roll call was well responded to by a verse of Scripture from each member. A collection was then made that the June meeting would be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Bradshaw, she having extended us this invitation. Meeting closed after the usual offering the meeting was left to a vote.

The hostess, Mrs. Wilkinson then served a dainty lunch assisted by Mrs. A. M. Lewers, Mrs. D. A. Grass and Mrs. E Bradshaw.

CHATTERTON W.M.S.

The monthly meeting of the Chatterton W.M.S. was held at Mrs. R. Sarles with eight members and several visitors present. Call to Worship was given by the president, Mrs. Sarles, followed by Hymn 372; all repeated the Lord's Prayer. Roll call was answered by "Jesus' Sayings." Scripture reading, John 17; 9, 20-26 was read by Miss B. Bleecker. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Mrs. R. B. Pinkle gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. F. Bleecker's correspondence was read. Mrs. Crowe at the Presbyteria followed by Hymn 276. Mrs. R. B. Pinkle took charge of the following program: Reading from the theme "Where You Are" was sung by Miss B. Bleecker and this was followed by several sentence prayers. Mrs. Lindenfield favored with a solo, which encouraged us all to pray. Miss Bleecker gave the report of the Presbyterial. Solo by Miss L. Hopkinton. Each member brought a gift, which was sold and $1.40 realized. Collection 47c. Hymn 498 was sung and the meeting closed with the benediction. Benediction. After the meeting the hostess served delicious candy.

SMALL BARN BURNED AT CARRYING PLACE

Cause Given as Explosion of Lantern Carried by Owner

CARRYING PLACE—(Special)—When a lantern which he was carrying exploded when he was attending his horses shortly after 7 o'clock Sunday night, a shower of burning oil resulted in the destruction of a small barn owned by Mr. Stephen Landon of Gardenville. The alarm was given at once, and although the neighbors got the building every possible thing in-cluding doors and windows, a buggy and a cutter, chests and boxes of clothing, bedding, equipment, stores and other articles stored in the barn were piled at a safe distance. Several buckets of water and chop through the roof and pour water on the flames. However the loft over the stable was an inferno of blazing hay, and water could not be secured in time or in quantity to quench even a portion of the flames. In a few moments the roof, covered with tarred paper roofing, was ablaze, and it was seen that nothing could be done further. A small, low-roofed and work-shop located only a few feet away was seen to be in danger so a hose was quickly formed to prop shower-ing it with water. The fire burned fiercely for a time, to spend the few high into the air. Very fortunately the wind of last week had abated, for otherwise it is probable that a large portion of the village of Gardenville might have been wiped out since the building near was of lumber and surrounded by dry grass.

Mr. Landon had gone to his barn after returning from a brief trip, and was getting some hay for his horse when without any warning the lantern suddenly exploded. When attempts to subdue the flames proved useless, Mr. Landon gave the alarm. Attracted by the glow in the sky a large crowd gathered, many of whom gave timely aid with waterbuckets and wet bags. The building was in the best of condition, and while it is understood that the loss is partly covered by insurance, many will sympathize with the owner in losing so fine a structure.

All Belleville Revue 1934

100 OF BELLEVILLE'S MOST TALENTED ARTISTS IN AN OUTSTANDING VARIETY ENTERTAINMENT

THE ARTISTS

The Knot Hole Boys Chorus of 30 voices
Miss Leona Biggs
The Radio Male Quartette
Mrs. H. Hudgins
The Salvation Army Brass Band
Miss Evelyn Reddick
The G.G.B. Ladies Chorus and Rhythm Band
Miss Jessie Tutte
The Young Theatrics Dramatic Club
Mr. Alex Gordon
Chairman
Col R. J. E. Graham

Presented in the interests of the Y.M.C.A. by the Y's Men's Club

Collegiate Auditorium Wed. May 9th

Adults 50c
Children 25c
(Including Tax)

No Seats Reserved

HONOUR ROLL

Plainfield public school report for March and April.

V.—Mary Goodfellow.
IV.—Charles Outwater, Emma Chapman, Carl Platt, Mary Gray, Edmund Treen, Hazel Carleton, Anne Bealty.
III.—Olive Hall, Phyllis Hall, Allan Dunning, Isobel Barker, Garnet Denyes, Clarence Carleton, Charles Hall.
Junior III.—Irene Hall, Marjorie Dunnington, Thomas Wright, Dorothy Outwater, Hazel Chapman, Della Barker, Kent Gray.
II.—Carrie Goodfellow, Oscar Hall, Helen Reid, Jean Bagley, Mae Badgley, Keith Dunning, Albert Badgley, Verna Carleton.
I.—Audrey Hall, Stewart Goodfellow, Eileen Carleton, Hilda Jackson.
Primer—Beryl Platt, Irvine Moore, Cecil Bagley, Marion Prindle, Ernest Barker.
Mr. Marshall, Teacher.

MRS. LAWRENCE ENTERTAINS L. A.

3rd Sidney, May 5—Several ladies from this district attended Aikens Ladies' Aid held at the home of Mrs. Lawrence, 3rd line on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Saylor spent Sunday with the former's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Saylor, Front Road.

Mr. Edgar Adams, Aikens has rented the farm in Bridge Street Church last Thursday evening to hear Mr. Denton Massey of Toronto.

Mr. George Lawrence who has been with Mr. Darrell Hubbs for the past three years, left on Monday for Hermon, Ont., to spend the summer months with his brother Thos. Mr. Russell Hanford has been engaged by Mr. Hubbs for the next few months.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooke and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, Holloway on View.

Miss M. Hazard, of Trenton spent the week end with relatives on third line. *

Mr. Edgar Adams spent Sunday at his home in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grills accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Bailey, motored to Peterboro on Saturday.

Mrs. Harley Hubbs spent Tuesday of this week with Mrs. Edwin Adams.

Miss A. Adams is visiting her sisters in Toronto.

Mr. Earl Vanderwater has returned to her home in Toronto after spending the past two weeks with friends in this vicinity.

TRUE BLUE S.S. CLASS PRESENTS PROGRAM AT BETHANY

Gilead—The farmers are very busy on this line with their spring seeding. Nearly all the old hay mows down have been filled by the cold and last winter as has the new. New meadows are the only ones to live.

The True Blue Sunday School class with their teacher Mrs. Clare motored to Bethany on Friday night and put on the programme for the League.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Horton and baby Aileen of Bellerslie, also Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lemmon and Carl took tea Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bailey Sidney.

Mr. Kenneth Lesswee motored to Kingston on Sunday last.

Mrs. William Kleinsteuber of Kingston is visiting relatives on this line.

Mr. and Mrs. Joyce and family of Bellerslie spent Sunday with Mrs. Robert Latchford.

MISS ELSIE MAYNES IS HONORED

On Thursday evening last a number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Maynes for a farewell party in honor of Miss Elsie Maynes, who is leaving the community. About nine o'clock when all the guests had arrived, one of the guests read the following address was read by Ruth Dunning:

Lalla, Ont., April 26, 1934

Dear Elsie:

We have learned with regret that you are leaving our midst in the very near future, and are gathered tonight to enjoy a pleasant evening with you, before you take your departure. You, Elsie, have always held a great interest in the Sunday School and all other community activities. Last year you filled very ably the position of Sunday School organist and you were always ready to lend a helping hand to anything that was being done. You will be missed too in the softball team.

We all wish you every success in the work you are undertaking and also that some day you may find time to come back and visit your old friends and neighbors. They will doubtless make many new friends and it is the hope of all that they appreciate your sterling worth as your old friends do.

To show the esteem in which we hold you, we ask you to accept this gift in remembrance of us all.

At this point Helen Hall presented Miss Maynes with a beautiful piece of luggage consisting of a suitcase of satin lingerie.

"With it go the best wishes and love of your friends and neighbors of Latta and Plainfield and the surrounding community.

Signed on behalf of all, Elsie Hamilton, Bobby Colder, Helen Hall; Ruth Dunning.

Miss Maynes thanked everyone in a few appropriate words. Dancing was enjoyed till late when a delicious lunch was served by some of the ladies. After supper dancing was resumed till an early hour.

ENTERTAIN C.G.I.T. AT WELLINGTON

Hillier—The C.G.I.T. with their leaders, Mrs. Ross Hamilton and Miss Ruth Anderson entertained the Wellington C.G.I.T. at a weiner roast.

The ladies of Hillier United Church have invited and games and contests followed by a dainty lunch served by the lovely Stewardess.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mayhew of Black Creek were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Palmer with Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer motored to Kingston on Sunday and dined with Mr. and Mrs. Jordon near Rollin Sunday.

Mrs. J. D. Campbell spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Young Brock.

Mr. Jack Cardle is painting smoke stacks at Bloomfield and other places.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Malnes and little Audrey spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterborough, Cherry Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Peacock and two daughters and baby Glen of Toronto, spent Sunday afternoon with Miss E. Macdonald and Mrs. Jas. Macdonald, Bridge St.

Nelson Palmer who has been visiting his parents at Oshawa returned home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Stuart Wood attended the graduation exercises of her sister, Miss McLean in Toronto, Thursday evening at the Womens Hospital College St.

Farmers in this locality are plowing their fall wheat fields. This grain was so badly treated by Jack Frost that there is no possibilities of a crop, meadows are in a bad condition also, but there is a very high price. Present indications do not favor a large acreage.

Mr. DeCue of Wellington called on old friends in the village, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Palmer, Pleasant Bay called on Mrs. Levi Palmer and Miss Macdonald, Sunday.

Visiting children are having holidays Thursday and Friday at their teacher Mrs. Wood is in Toronto.

IS APPOINTED S.S. SUPERINTENDENT

Roslin—Rev. D. C. Hill and Mrs. Hill and family are spending this week in Toronto.

Miss M. Burleigh has returned to her home in the village after spending the winter months with her brother, Mr. A. Burleigh.

Some from here attended the funeral service of the late Mr. Chas. McClean which was held at family visited relatives in Napanee the home of his nephew, Mr. John on Sunday.

Morrison on Monday afternoon with interment in Thomasburg cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander of Moneymore is visiting her son, Mr. Norman Alexander.

Mr. W. Copeland is reported im-

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturdays: Open 9 a.m. Close 5:30 p.m.

Maple Leaf Special!

Monday! Canadian Inlaid Linoleums

In Two Yard Width

MAPLE LEAF SPECIAL
THE SIGN OF SUPERVALUE

95c sq. yd.

Another triumph of value — bringing you big savings in REAL INLAID LINOLEUMS at a fraction higher than you pay for ordinary printed linoleums. Here's a splendid opportunity to replace those worn and shabby coverings with sturdy, Canadian made inlaids that will give years of service without losing an iota of their rich, well blended colorings. These come in 2 yard width, in very effective block and geometric patterns that combine with modern decoration and furniture. In cool blues, soft greys, rich tans and greens. Rich and medium patterns — that may look well in sun rooms, kitchens and bathrooms. We advise early selection—for at this price it's bound to sell out—Monday is the day, and the price only 95c a square yard.

Floor Coverings in the Basement

Monday 2.30 P. M. Specials

Men's Fine Cotton
Broadcloth Shorts
In a big assortment of fancy stripes, or plain shades, men's fine cotton broadcloth shorts, in smartly cut, easy fitting style for summer comfort. If you take sizes 34 to 40, by all means select a whole summer's supply. On sale Monday at 2.30 p.m. Each ..... men's store
25c

Sizes 2, 3, 5 Only! Infants'
Patent Strap Shoes
A splendid shoe for the summer, infants' patent straps, with chrome tanned leather sole which makes them very flexible and easy fitting. Some have had trimmings. In a neat button fastener style, sizes 2-5 only. 2.30 p.m. Special Monday, pair ..... men's store
39c

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Sunday Church Services

BRIDGE STREET UNITED CHURCH
Rev. J. Semple, B.A., S.T.R., Th.D., Minister
V. F. Hunt, A.A.G.O., Organist and Choir Leader
Morning Theme
RURAL-LIFE SUNDAY
Service of Special Interest to Farmers
Evening
Guest Speaker:
Controller James Simpson, Toronto
Men's Choir of Forty Voices Will Lead the Singing
A Cordial Invitation to all Labor Unions to Attend
Instrumental Trio—Mr. Arthur May, Violin; Mr. Glen Elliott, Cello; Y. F. Hunt, Piano.
Church School 9.45

TABERNACLE UNITED CHURCH
Rev. I. J. Naylor, Minister — Mrs. M. F. Duff, Organist
11 a.m.—"CHRISTIAN, EVIDENCE"
7 p.m.—"LIFE ON TOP OF THE WORLD"
Sunday School at 2.30 p.m.

JOHN STREET UNITED CHURCH
Minister: Robert Hall, B.A., B.D.
Music: Miss Leona Biggs
Mr. Alex Gordon
"11 a.m. and 7 p.m.—The Minister
10 A.M.—SUNDAY SCHOOL.

HOLLOWAY STREET UNITED CHURCH
Minister Reginald B. Hobbs, M.A., D.D., LL.A.T.C.M.
SUNDAY SCHOOL JUBILEE ANNIVERSARY
11 a.m. and 7 p.m.
Guest Preacher
REV. W. P. WOODGER, B.A., Cobourg
2.30 p.m.—SPECIAL S. S. SESSION
Former members of Holloway St., are especially invited to attend.

ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Public Worship 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday School 3 p.m.
Services conducted by Rev. W. J. Walker, B.A., Niagara Falls
Organist and Choir Leader
Ernest Wheatley, Mus. Bac., F. Gld. C. M.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND
Fifth Sunday After Easter — Rogation Sunday

CHURCH OF ST. THOMAS
Rev. A. Beauchamp Payne, Vicar
8 a.m. Holy Communion; 10 a.m. Sunday School; 11 a.m. Holy Communion (Choral); 7 p.m. Evensong.

CHRIST CHURCH
Rev. G. G. Wright, L. Th. Rector
8 a.m. Holy Communion; 10 a.m. Sunday School; 11 a.m. Holy Communion (Choral); 7 p.m. Evensong.

The Gospel Church — ALLIANCE — Moira St. West Near Upper Bridge
Pastor: W. McArthur
10 a.m.—Sunday School
7 p.m.—"PROSPECTING"
The Gospel meets Man's direct needs—REST—of conscience —of heart desires—in the full satisfaction of the abiding Christ

VICTORIA AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH
A. Hilliard Jones, Minister
11 a.m.—Dedication of Missionary Offering
12 Noon—Reception of Members and Lord's Supper
3 p.m.—Bible School
7 p.m.—Regular Service
Monday 8 p.m.—B.Y.P.U.
Wednesday 8 p.m.—Meditation and Prayer.
Laura D. LaVoie
L.T.C.M., A.T.C.M., A.G.O.
Organist and Choir Leader

Regular Baptist Church
(Second Bank Bldg.—2nd Floor St.)
Pastor Armstrong's Message:
11 a.m.—"STRONG WEAKLINGS"
7 p.m.—Putting One Over On the Devil
Sunday School at 10 a.m.

proving though still a patient in the Belleville General Hospital where he underwent an operation.

The United Church Sunday school will hold its annual picnic in Sidney Grove on Sunday for the summer with Mr. Freeman Howes as superintendent of arrangements. A large attendance of both adults and children.

A number of young people from here attended the Junior League Rally held in the L.O.O.F. hall, Thomasburg, on Wednesday evening. Plainfield orchestra furnished the music for dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Copeland and family visited Mrs. W. Copeland on Sunday.

A large number from here attended the Conservative Convention held in Madoc on Thursday afternoon when Mr. James F. Hill, M. P. P., was elected by acclamation to contest the riding of East Hastings in the coming Provincial election.

The Women's Association held Public Worship at the home of Mrs. Alex. Crawford on Wednesday afternoon.

The May meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Chauncey Sills on Monday evening with fifteen present.

The meeting was opened by singing Hymn 296. "Fling out the Banner." This was followed by prayer and the reading of a portion of Scripture by the Rector, Rev. M. Beazer.

The Diocesan annual meeting which is held in Belleville this week was discussed and the members urged to attend if at all possible. The meeting closed with prayer after which the hostess served a delicious lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerr and Miss E. Kerr spent the week end with relatives in Toronto.

Mrs. J. Chisbon and grandchildren spent the dinner hour on Sunday with the Misses Wilson.

DILLINGER ON STEAMER THOUGHT POSSIBILITY

British Detectives Will Watch Liner Docking.

Liverpool, May 5. — Police announced today that they will search the liner Duchess of York upon her arrival Sunday morning to satisfy themselves concerning rumors that John Dillinger, United States desperado, is aboard.

A high official of the local detective branch said that while no definite clue had been received from United States authorities, reports here that the number one gangster of United States is fleeing to England could not be ignored.

The Duchess of York sailed from Halifax, N.S., on April 29.

The official announced that detectives will board the liner as soon as she docks. He said no one would be allowed to come ashore until every passenger has been scrutinized. No vessel will be searched.

An official of the Canadian Pacific said the company had not received any information that Dillinger was aboard the ship.

Authorities expressed the opinion that if the gangster should indeed sail Liverpool would be the most likely place to apprehend him since he might easily escape detection in both Greenock and Belfast, where the vessel calls late today.

POPE PIUS REDUCES RENTS

Vatican City, May 5.—Pope Pius XI. following the example of the Italian Government decided to reduce rents 13 per cent. on all buildings owned by the Vatican.

BACKACHE
Rheumatism
Liver and Kidneys are relieved by
Dr. CHASE'S
Kidney-Liver Pills

PROBABILITIES
Fresh to strong westerly winds; fine to rather cool tonight. Tuesday, moderate winds; fair and warm.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, MONDAY, MAY 7, 1934

TEMPERATURES
Today ..... Max. Min.
Year ago 62 40
Weather—Sunday. 66 39

GOVERNOR GENERAL LAYS CORNERSTONE

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Salt Lake City, Mary 7.—(CP)—When L. J. Tolman, 26, "tells it to the judge", he'll have a lot to tell about that automobile ride. He was arrested, charged with three offenses:

1. Speeding.
2. Driving without a motor vehicle operator's license.
3. Leaving the extent on his automobile open.

4. Passing a car on the wrong side.

Lincoln, Neb., May 7.—(AP)—Pale against them on the battlefield, separated them, and then brought them together in death. Frank L. Peterson and Charles C. Tollesen fought side by side in the Spanish American War and emerged with only minor casualties.

Tollesen became a physician at Wynot and Peterson a merchant at Valparaiso, about 125 miles apart. Last Friday night Dr. Tollesen was driving home and because we are rookie merchandise, the truck load of merchandise.

The doctor's son and Peterson's truck collided. Both died within 24 hours. Neither knew who drove the other car.

Milwaukee, Wis. May 7.—(AP)—Howard Wichgreld, two years old, and H. Pruessing, 60, escaped with parents of a bending in his head.

At emergency hospital surgeons removed a bee from baby's ear.

Racine, Wis., May 7.—(CP)—To Trikzy, a fuzzy little dog with a strong voice, the Lindbergh baby owes her life.

Trikzy barges from the best. Mrs. Abrevik with Trikzy under her arm went wading in Lake Michigan. When the water suddenly stepped into a deep hole and the water closed over her head, Trikzy barked frantically. The lookout at the coast guard station saw the dog and the woman was rescued.

Oklahoma City, May 7—(CP)—J. T. Jones entered the race for state office, but was disqualified by read 'ems account of it.

A capitol publicity publication said:

"J. T. Jones is a candidate for Secretary of State, and if elected, will make an excellent state treasurer."

Denver, May 7.—(CP)—Fifty-nine, thousand nine hundred and ninety-six Denverites apparently weren't in the city.

The municipal water board sent out 60,000 postal cards, asking the recipients to "tell" it their neighbors were using water during odd periods of irrigation hours. Four cards have been returned.

Montreal, May 7.—(CP)— From all parts of Eastern Canada and as far west as Winnipeg came members of the Canadian Association of Railwaymen to attend a memorial service held here yesterday the unveiling of a bronze tablet on the grave of Bro. Sergeant Edwin White, a former president of the Association. The monument is erected in Mount Royal Cemetery, Rev. R. G. Plaskett officiated at the graveside.

The plaque bears the legend: "This tablet is dedicated by all members of the Canadian Association of Railwaymen to the memory of Sergeant Edwin White killed on duty April 27, 1933.—He was true unto death."

Mr. White was killed in a train accident near L'Epiphanie, Que.

Guelph, Ont., May 7.—(CP)— Sunday's visit to a heavy sentence in the combination jail and fire hall at Palmerston. Three farmlands who were arrested for being drunk, clambered out to freedom, and then hiked 18 miles down the railroad track to Goldstone, where they broke into the arms of waiting police officers.

In police court here this morning, all pleaded guilty to charges of being intoxicated and were fined $10 and costs or one month in jail. On charges of escaping from custody they elected to fight by a higher court and were remanded a week for preliminary hearing.

Philadelphia, May 7 (AP)—The Young Women's Christian Association is warned by its International Secretary, Dr. Mary Dingman, to specific limit "a Christian organization," she says, "has finished much of the work and it often has become a dubious asset."

In a Sunday address before the Association's annual National Convention, Jonkvrouw Cornelia M. Van Asch Van Wyck, of Holland, asserted that the world's present need is needed to "make Christ a dictator and not a constitutional president with very limited powers."

Impressive Ceremony at Airbase Is Performed by His Excellency, Administration Building is Begun

Bishop Lyons of the Diocese of Ontario Represented

ANNUAL REVIEW

Men In Air Camp Show Fine Turnout For Inspection

Trenton, May 7 (Special)—A few citizens who happened to be near the Trenton base of the Royal Canadian Air Force yesterday afternoon were privileged to see His Excellency the Earl of Bessborough, Governor-General of Canada when he stopped over for a few minutes, en route to Toronto from Kingston, to lay the cornerstone of the new administration building at the airport. His Excellency's visit was strictly known and only a few citizens who stopped to watch the annual inspection of the fliers at the airport saw Lord Bessborough when they passed in review before Group-Captain G. M. Croil, Senior Air Officer of the Royal Canadian Air Force at Ottawa, were fortunate in seeing Canada's Governor General in action in the inspection many drove away unaware of the ceremony which was to take place immediately after the inspection.

The officers and men under command of Wing Commander L. F. Breadner, D.F.C., officer commanding the Trenton station, made a beautiful sight as they marched past with units presented by Group-Captain Croil.

After the inspection the corps passed to the north side of the Highway and took their positions near the stand erected for the event on the corner stone. The stand was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting. On the right hand side of the stand were the R.C.A.F. station officers, Squadron Leader Orendorff, Flight Lieut. Shaw, Liddell and Dickson; and Flying Officers Jones, Campbell, Orr, Blaine, Hall and Hamilton. Also in attendance while the remainder of the male under command Flight Lieut. Lewis were drawn up on the left.

Group Capt. Croil, Wing Commander Breadner and Flight Lieut. Hendren met His Excellency as he stepped from the vice regal car and the ceremony began. Later each officer was introduced to His Excellency and received a friendly handshake from the Governor representatives in Canada.

The ceremony was simple but impressive. The stone was swung into place while the Earl of Bessborough with a silver trowel put the cement on the stone and then lowered the stone truly laid. Prayer by Archdeacon Dumbrille of Nanaimo, representing Bishop Lyons, followed.

His Excellency, accompanied by the Archdeacon, Group Capt. Croil, Wing Commander Breadner and Flight Lt. Heakes then made a tour of the administration building which is now under construction. The Governor General again boarded his car and was driven to Belleville by Wing Commander Breadner and motored to the south side of the Highway where a trip through the new aerodrome was made and Sir His Excellency the Earl of Bessborough.

$6,000 HOUSE DAMAGE

PORT ERIE, Ont., May 7.—Damage of about $6,000 was caused in a blaze at Erie Beach Monday which destroyed the home of Thomas Fitzpatrick and Fred Hauber in together with contents, two garages and a truck, the latter the property of Fitzpatrick.

Cop Caught in Body Scissors as Cycle, Prisoner Get Unruly

NEW TORONTO, May 7.—When a call was received at the police station shortly before midnight Sunday from Lakeshore Road and Crescent, Constable Fred Hardy was despatched on investigate. After some careful inquiries, he came to the conclusion William Holmes, 20, Cumberland Street, Toronto, was not acting in the best interests of the public and ordered him to police headquarters. Holmes thought not. Constable Hardy handcuffed his man and placed him in the sidecar of his motorcycle.

When all was ready for the trip to headquarters, Holmes suddenly decided to leave and the officer with a "body scissors". Helpless to drive, the constable wrestled with his man for some time, all the while finally freed himself decided that trouble was only beginning. Calling to a bystander, Hardy persuaded him to get in touch with the police office and summon assistance. Constable Hardy brought Constable Robert Weatherup to the scene, and by a few punches with Holmes had Holmes all set in place for the place.

MAY HEAD "ARMY"

EVANGELINE BOOTH

Commander Evangeline Booth of New York, daughter of the founder, is expected to succeed General Edward J. Higgins as head of the Salvation Army throughout the world when the latter retires next November. She would be the first woman to rule the famous organization.

Riding Freight Bumps Head Against Bridge

Hamilton, Ont., May 7 (CP) William Welch, 39, of Hamilton was recovering today from serious injuries suffered when riding on top of a freight car he struck his head on a bridge and was hurled to the right-of-way below.

When members of the train crew noted his absence, the train was stopped and Welch was picked up and taken to hospital.

Misses Two Wolves But Gets 10 More

Gore Bay, Ont., May 7 (CP)— Although Clifford Scrogg killed a lone timber wolf on a 22 rifle, he got 10 young ones to save the bounty. While making the rounds of his woollen line, he saw tracks and followed them to some old dens. The adult wolf escaped, leaving the nine young to their fate. The large haul brought Bailey's total catch to 19.

TWIN FIRE-CHIEF HURT

London, Ont., May 7 (CP)—Fire-Chief Arthur Bailey was killed and the vacancy caused by the death of Deputy-Chief Scrogg filled at the Hunt Mill blaze, was injured today while fighting a $500 blaze at a house on Dundas Street West London.

Healey attached to number one company, was severely cut about the face by flying pieces of tin.

FIRE IN CORK PLANT

LYNDHURST, N.J., May 7. —(AP)—Fire raged today in the $400,000 plant of the United Cork Company on Grand Avenue, threatening the entire establishment and the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

BOYS ARE RESCUED WHEN CANOE UPSETS

Sighted by Life-Saver Cliff Farnsworth at the Humber Bridge

Toronto, two boys were rescued in Lake Ontario Saturday afternoon, when a canoe in which they were paddling capsized. The boys, John Lee, aged 14, of 17 Colborne Road and A. Dunn, 13 of Oakmount Road, were clinging to the side of the overturned craft when sighted by Life-Savers. They got into trouble about fifty yards from the mouth of the Humber River, and were rescued without difficulty when a rowboat was despatched to the scene.

Life Saver Clifford Farnsworth, is the youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. E. Farnsworth, 24 Rhodes Ave. This is his second term at Humber Station and he had just begun his season's duties. Mr. Farnsworth has previously served on Hanlan's Point and at beaches in Cleveland and has done much rescue work.

WAR OF 1812 BODIES FOUND

Skeletons Those of U. S. Soldiers Who Died At Fort Erie

Fort Erie, May 7 (CP)—Excavation was stopped until such time as American Legion officials arrived late today at Fort Erie Beach, where workmen today found the skeletons of the bodies of a number of American soldiers who are believed to have been killed in the war of 1812.

The bones, discovered in the ruins of old Fort Erie. Buttons marked "Seventh Regiment" were found on Bufalo Hill this afternoon by Past Commander James Graham of Post No. 1, Canadian Legion, Fort Erie.

The skeletons are in a good state of preservation, the teeth being practically well preserved. It is believed the spot where they were discovered is the location of at least six American soldiers.

SEE WAR DEBT SETTLEMENTS

Finland First To Be Treated In This Way By United States

Washington, May 7 (AP)—Speaker Henry Rainey said today he understood President Roosevelt intends to make a war debt settlement with Finland, which is not in default, and then to negotiate on a similar agreement with other nations. Asked when he expects a debt settlement, the speaker answered the speaker said at his press conference that he did not know.

The intimation was that the settlement with Finland could be held up to the last day in order to get indication of what the United States would do if other nations in default agreed to pay up to date.

President Roosevelt has said he intended to make a debt message to the United States Congress soon after Congress meets but gave out its contents.

The next installments on war debts are due June 15.

Negotiations with Finland have been in progress for some time. It is the only nation that has paid in full.

Paris, May 7 (AP)—The fourth French default on the war debts to the United States incurred considered certain by high officials who spoke privately of the question today.

These officials asserted that no negotiations in regard to the debts "directly or indirectly" have been in progress recently and added that the situation is more confused than ever.

TRUCK STOPS SO DOES TRAFFIC

Traffic was halted on the intersection of Front and Bridge streets shortly after noon on Monday when a delivery truck became stalled due to a broken axle. Motorists, unaware of the trouble halted behind the vehicle and blew blasting horns in their impatience. Traffic only horns until aware of the trouble.

ONE IS SLAIN 2 WOUNDED DURING RAID

Two Policemen Shot In Attempt To Serve Warrants

CONSTABLE DIES

One of Sons Wanted By Police Also Is Wounded

ST. THOMAS, Ont., May 7.—(CP)—Constable Colin McGregor, wounded when attempting to arrest Frank Temple 50, today died in the hospital. His afternoon and police in all parts of Western Ontario swept into one of the greatest manhunts this district has ever seen in an effort to apprehend Temple, who is charged with the fatal bullet which wounded McGregor while also struck Fred Temple, son of the fugitive, in the neck, while Serjeant John McKeown was shot in the arm.

St. Thomas, Ont., May 7.—While police throughout Ontario searched for theft on Frank Temple, 50, and his two sons, Fred and Frank, at their home here, two local policemen were shot, one fatally, during an attempt to bullet in the neck. Temple, senior, escaped through the back door and is still at liberty. One of the police fired at him as he fled and believes he hit him.

The wounded policemen were Police Constable Colin McGregor, and Patrolman Colin McGregor.

The two officers had gone to arrest on the chief of police, went to the home to execute the writ on old charges of theft and both found themselves facing the guns of both Fred Temple and the other by the father.

The ten minutes McKeown argued with the Temples, endeavoring to make a settlement.

Then the elder Temple ordered Fred to take McKeown's gun from him and as he tried to do so, McKeown brought down the butt of his pistol's hand, tripped him on the floor. Constable McGregor and the elder Temple then jumped into the back kitchen and opened fire on the officers.

The first bullet struck McGregor in the abdomen, the second struck McKeown in the left wrist and, it is believed, went into Fred Temple's neck. With his other hand McKeown picked up his pistol and fired at the man as he fled.

Temple, however, could be believed at least eight shots were fired by the Temples and himself in the exchange.

The police had received word only four days before of Temple's arrest on old charges of stealing bicycles, had visited the Temple farmhouse where the shooting occurred.

BUS COLLIDES WITH RADIAL, TWO DIE

FREMONT, O., May 7.—(CP)—Mrs. Edith Eshlson, Livingston, Ont., suffered face cuts and bruises in a bus collision today at a point that cost the lives of two passengers and injured 15 others.

The bus of Great Eastern Stages Inc., collided with a Toledo, Fostoria and Findlay Railway car, County and State authorities are probing the case. The bus driver was arrested.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS TO ADDRESS MEETING

Hon. George S. Henry is to speak at Masonic Temple, May 24, under the auspices of the West Hastings Conservative Association. Dr. Embury, K.C., Barnardo, Mr. James Hill, M.P.P., Peterboro; Mr. W. Lickman, Cobourg, M.P.P., Harold and Mr. W. H. Hubbard, M.P.P., Trenton.

At the committee rooms, Monday night, plans were made for women to attend the Marmora meeting.

FOUR MAJOR STRIKES ARE SETTLED IN U. S.

Washington, May 7.—(CP) —A wholesale maim of workers—out of the strike lines into the shops and factories—was revived today as four major disputes were settled in the United States.

Automobile industry strikes at St. Louis and Kansas City, Kan., and workers' strike at Peabody, Mass., and a coal miners' strike at Vancouver, Wash., ended, bringing more than 10,000 men back to their posts.

DUST STORMS IN WEST

Winnipeg, May 7 (CP)—Week-end dust storms sweeping southern Saskatchewan and southern Manitoba today were followed by reports of seed being whipped out of newly-sown fields, and the necessity of rain in both provinces.

WINNER OF KENTUCKY DERBY

Remarkable action photo of Cavalcade, winner of Kentucky Derby, last Saturday, as he showed his heels to the field to win Chesapeake Stakes at Havre de Grace, Md., in record time.

MOTOR CYCLE BUMPS CAR

Motorcycle Riders Are Thrown Into Ditch, Slight Injuries

Failure to observe the slowing of a motor car in front is alleged by the police to have been the cause of a slight motor accident when a motorcycle driven by James Walker on Front Road ran into the rear of an automobile travelling in the same direction and driven by Thos. Griffin of Belleville. The accident happened shortly after midnight Saturday night almost directly in front of the Albert College on Highway No. 2.

Both vehicles were travelling eastward at the time when owing to a rough stretch of road Mr. Griffin suddenly decreased the speed of his car. The motorcycle, following closely behind, could not be stopped at such short notice and ran into the rear of the automobile hurling both driver, Mr. Walker, and his pillion passenger, Mr. Frank Stephenson into the ditch at the left hand side. The two passengers on the motorcycle sustained slight head injuries when cut. The police investigated, no charges being laid.

NOTE IN TURKEY GIVES WEST CRISES

Galt, Ont., May 7.—(CP)—In a turkey that was being dressed over the week-end at Preston Hotel there was found a note in a glass phial, signed by James Stewart Vanguard, Sask., farmer, in which he conveyed Christmas greetings to the purchaser and conveying the information that he had sold it for 8 cents a pound on Dec. 8, 1933. He wanted the buyer to advise him how much a pound was paid for the fowl.

Roosevelt Saviour of His Country in Darkest Hour of His History

London, May 7.—The London Post suggested today that some leaders—but not excluding Hitler—would call President Franklin D. Roosevelt's new book if they could and "learn how it's done".

The British edition of the United States President's work, "On Our Way", appeared today. It was greeted with recognition by London newspapers.

The Post, sometimes a severe critic of United States, printed an editorial which said:

"Whatever verdict history may pass on the President's work as a whole, it may be anticipated with certainty that it will account him without controversy the saviour of his country at one of the darkest hours in her annals."

Nature with Man Beats Vandals Tree Lives Despite Removal of Bark

Experience and science have triumphed over vandalism in the case of a silver maple tree on the grounds of the Children's Shelter on the bay shore, at the east end of the city.

Last autumn the trunk was deprived of bark from the tree about four feet from the ground, a ring cut in the trunk and cutting off the bark completely. It looked like death for the tree.

But Inspector T. D. Ruston did not give up hope let the process of decay set in. He got in touch with a man who knows the science of plant life from the bottom to the top, Mr. Samuel J. Weddin. Together they looked at the tree and decided what to do.

Very small branches were cut in pieces six inches or less in length, ter was opened.

the one side of these was pealed and made to conform to the wood of the tree and the ends sharpened and when enough were in readiness the men inserted these little shingles under the bark both at the top and bottom. The wound was then covered by hiding the wood. Then the pieces were pressed close to the wood and over all a plentiful use of manure and burlap, bound and screened with chicken wire and the work of restoration was left to nature.

Today the tree is budding with promise of full foliage and long life. The wounds about twelve years old and was planted after the new shel-

SUNDAY TEMPERATURES

Toronto, May 7 (CP)—Sunday temperatures:

	A.M.	P.M.
Dawson	38	56
Victoria	44	60
Vancouver	46	62
Edmonton	32	56
Saskatoon	28	56
Prince Albert	30	62
Winnipeg	46	74
Kenora	34	62
London	54	80
Toronto	48	74
Kingston	56	58
Ottawa	46	72
Montreal	50	58
Quebec	44	72
St. John	42	62
Halifax	46	66
Detroit	52	78
New York	56	68

HELD AT COBOURG ON THEFT CHARGE

Cobourg, Ont., May 7 (CP)—Ralph Kemp of Frankford, who pleaded guilty today to obtaining liens and bales from local agencies by false pretences, was remanded until May 14 for sentence. Kemp was arrested and brought from Toronto Saturday morning by Chief Constable J. C. Blues of Cobourg.

Kemp went into a local garage and obtained tires and tubes to the value of $31 representing that he had authority. Chief Constable Draper of Toronto to make the purchases, but later learned that he had no such authority and he was arrested.

DUNGANNON HOME IS DESTROYED

The residence of Mr. Lemuel Mounteney of Brouson, Dungannon Township was totally destroyed by fire with the greater portion of the contents. Mrs. Mounteney was alone at the outbreak of the fire and neighbors gathered but the house was virtually destroyed.

BOMBS BLOW AWAY STEPS OF MEMORIAL

Northern Ireland Alleges Plot To Blow Up War Memorial

STEPS WRECKED

Bombers Reported To Have Carried Doctor With Them

Armagh, Northern Ireland, May 7 (CP Cable)—An abortive attempt early today to blow up the Armagh City War Memorial was attributed to members of the "Irish Republican Army" who removed from the Irish Free State and sped back across the frontier after cutting telephone lines leading to the Free State.

It was revealed the government of Ulster recently banned erection of a memorial at Carrickmore, Tyrone, by Irish Republican Army men who were killed in the uprising of 1916.

Armagh's citizenry were awakened by the explosion caused when one of two bombs—those brought by the raiders exploded and partially wrecked the steps of the memorial. But the bomber failed to explode and the bronze figure of Peace was unchanged.

The bombers took the precaution while on the way to Armagh to waken a doctor and force him to stand by in case of injury to one of their members. A police force in Armagh City was aroused by the explosion and the bombers made off with the doctor, dropping him at the Free State border.

JEAN HARLOW TO DIVORCE

Incompatability Given as Reason For Separation

Hollywood, Calif., May 7. (CP)—Jean Harlow, platinum blonde screen and her third husband, Harold C. Bell, today separated, but they announced that she intends to seek a divorce on grounds of incompatability.

Only a few hours after she had served as the matron of honor at a wedding yesterday, the screen star announced she had packed her belongings and left their Beverly Hills home. She said she would file suit for divorce against her cinematographer husband as soon as her film work would permit.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, May 7—Showers—have occurred from Northern Ontario eastward to the Maritime provinces while in Southern Ontario and the Western provinces the weather has been fair and warm.

Forecasts: Fresh to strong northerly winds; fair and cool today, moderate winds; fair and warm.

Northern Ontario — Northerly winds; fair and cool. Tuesday, fair and somewhat warmer.

Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence Valley—Fresh northwest winds; fair and cool today. Tuesday, fair and a little warmer.

Coming Events

MONTHLY AND SOCIAL MEETing Women's Conservative Club Tuesday, May 8th, at 7.30, in Club Rooms. Good attendance requested. m7-1i

HOLD EVERYTHING! FOR THE event of the season, Tuesday, May 22, Collegiate Auditorium, Belleville Men's Chorus and Symphony Orchestra. m7 8 12-

BELLEVILLE CENTENNIAL AND United Empire Loyalist week's meeting, Tuesday, May 8th, 8 o'clock. Police Court. General business. Everybody welcome. m8-3i.

SAINT MICHAEL'S TENNIS CLUB opening dance in the Auditorium, Monday, May 7th. The Committee. Tonight, May 7th. The Committee. Tonight, May 7th. Admission Dancing at nine. Admission 50c. m7-1i

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB OF SIDney dance at Riley's Pavilion, Tuesday, May 8th. Good and square dancing. Good music. Admission 25c. m7-1i

MOOSE SPECIAL DANCE THURSday, May 10th. Music by Ch. Connodores. Ladies and gents four prize. Admission 25c. m7 9 10-

MOOSE STRAIGHT EUCHRE Wednesday, May 9th, 8.30 sharp. Regular prizes. No dance. Admission 25c. m7 9-

City and District News

GLEN ALLAN BACK ON SECOND TRIP

On her second trip of the season, the steamer Glen Allan, under the command of Capt. Ross, left Toronto yesterday with a large cargo of sugar and canned goods.

LURID GRASS FIRE CALLS BRIGADE

One fire alarm marked the week-end for members of the local department. Alarm was sounded at 8:46 Saturday evening to a lurid grass fire on the corner of Lingham and Sidney streets. The blaze was extinguished with the aid of reliable old broom fire extinguishers used by the department as summer equipment.

Water Temperature At 50 Degrees

Rising temperatures in the Bay of Quinte over the week-end again reminded youthful natators on Sunday. The temperature of the water stood at a comparatively high mark of 50 degrees, with the highest temperature is 70-75. The swimmers again have the favored lineup location of the old Institute dock for their plunge.

Y'S MEN'S CLUB TO STAGING "REVUE"

In an effort to bring together all of the finest available talent in local musical, vocal, dancing and other various lines of entertainment, the Belleville Y's Men's Club have completed the most stupendous programme ever attempted to be presented locally and will introduce it all on their first annual Belleville Revue" at the Collegiate Auditorium next Wednesday evening. As well as soloists and dramatics talented bands and glee clubs of a collective nature will be introduced. In order to make the evening one of a tremendous success, Jack Belleville's outstanding humorous speakers has been awarded space to act as master of ceremonies, thus assuring the audience of a full hour and a dull moment during the big show Wednesday night.

MOTOR COLLISION ON VICTORIA AVE.

Rounding the corner of Victoria Avenue after he had turned east on to that street from Front street, shortly after two o'clock this morning, Jordan, owned and driven by Mr. Fred Gymer, 307 Ann street, crashed into a machine driven by Thomas Yarrow, 276 Bleecker avenue, when it became momentarily out of control. Damage to the Gymer car consisted of a crumpled left front fender while similar damage was occasioned the park-

Marcus Ward Stationery
Gentlemen's Club Size
60 Sheets
48 Envelopes
75c
McKeown's
DRUG STORE

Tip Top Tailors
Made to Measure
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
a3-1m

Sherwin-Williams
Family Gloss Paint
99c Quart
OSTROM'S Drug Store
m1-tf

Lavender
Shaving Cream
Reg. 35c 25c
Lotion 39c
I. D. A. DRUG STORES

ed machine owned by Mr. Yarrow. An amicable settlement was made between the parties concerned after an investigation had been made by Constable Wm. Evans.

REVEREND SPEAKERS TO ADDRESS MEET

At a meeting of the Belleville Co-operative Workers Association being held in the Y.M.C.A. rooms on Tuesday evening, Rt. Rev. J. F. Nicholson, V.G. of St. Michael's Church, and the Rev. J. S. McMullen will be guest speakers. The meeting is open to all interested, it is announced by officials of the newly-formed organization.

Special Services At Belleville Churches

ST. THOMAS'

Sunday, May the sixth, was the twenty-fourth anniversary day of the ascension of His Majesty King George, to the throne and at the services yesterday in St. Thomas' Church, the day was marked by the saying of the special prayers ordered by the church for that day. Immediately following the procession at the morning service the National Anthem was sung. The flag of St. George floated from the staff on the tower of the Church in honor of the day.

Yesterday was also Rogation Sunday and Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week are Rogation Days. These special days coming just before the festival of the Ascension, which falls on Thursday are days upon which special supplications are made asking for the blessings of God upon the seed sown at that in due time it may ripen and yield an abundant harvest. Special services will be held on those days and on Ascension Day.

Prior to the sermon a message was delivered to the congregation from the Lord Bishop of the Diocese to the effect that His Grace Archbishop Worrell, Primate of All Canada in the Church of England, had requested the Bishops of the dioceses in Canada to issue a special message to their clergy asking that they call their people's prayers to carefully observe the Rogation Days and make special supplication for the relief of the unfavorable crop prospects in Western Canada.

CHRIST CHURCH

During the evening service at Christ Church last evening, Rev. Wright spoke to the congregation on the "Parable of the Unmerciful Old Hundredth". The speaker reviewed the early days of the writer of the hymn, Rev. William Kethe, a Scotchman who was forced to flee his country in the early days of the Reformation. The speaker fluently told of the early days of the Protestant Church at which time the hymn was written. He compared us, the church at that time being desirous of following the old Psalm form of singing, today the singing of hymns is universal, however.

Communion will be held Sunday, the special prayers for that day being selected from the form of service.

BRIDGE STREET UNITED

Taking his theme from the books of the Bible where in the pastoral and agricultural life is shown as having produced a powerful influence upon Hebrew thought, life and literature, the Rev. James Semple, at Bridge Street United Church preached on Sunday morning on "Rural Sunday", his text being the words from Job "Speak to the earth and it shall teach thee". In the Gospels the minister said, the highest points of expression of the agricultural foundation of the Hebrew people is reached.

Farming pays in abundance of food for the agriculturist and for others. The farmer knows that he is yet rich, remarked the minister, is not the chief end of life. The farm and its work also, one of the chief blessings of life, in joy, and above all in independence. It is good in contentment of body and of character. The majority of leaders in the nation can trace their heritage to the farm and to the rural districts is where the potent influences are the rural home, the rural school and the country church, that creating character.

"When think of streets filled with garbage wagons, peddler's carts and so forth—there do not make for poetry," he said.

Nature preaches the eternal Gospel of Humility, Dr. Semple went on God Himself, is beautiful, the chosen place of beauty is the farm. The farm inspires a sense of majesty of law in nature and the truly eternal laws which govern all life, the law of the fruit after its kind, sowing and reaping.

God says to man at this season of the year "Get busy and do something worthwhile."

The greatest sermon a farm preaches is that God is a present God. No agriculturist can be a doubter.

"I ask you to think of the farm and its relationship with its contribution to life," advised the minister.

A LAZY LIVER CAN EASILY RESULT FROM A HEAVY WINTER DIET

Don't suffer from constant headache, biliousness, constipation, coated tongue, etc.

Parke's LIVER TONE is a vegetable corrective and will give quick relief. It also aids the stomach in its work of digestion. Used for over 60 years.

$1.00
DOLAN
THE DRUGGIST
Phone 128

FUN MUSIC VARIETY

All Belleville Revue 1934

100 Artists

Nothing Like It Before!

Collegiate Wednesday

EVENING 8.15 P.M.

Adults 50c
Children 25c
(Tax Included)

All Proceeds to Y.M.C.A.

OBITUARY

JOHN MARTIN

After being confined to the Belleville General Hospital for several weeks, John Martin, aged about 81 years, a resident of Trenton district, died last night.

LATE MRS. THOMAS CUSHING

On Saturday morning, at 8.45 o'clock the funeral of Mrs. Thomas Cushing took place from her late residence, 23 Alexander street, to St. Michael's Church, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. J. F. Nicholson, V.G. There Mrs. Wright conveyed the thanks and appreciation of the church to Mr. and the family for their untiring efforts in the past.

During the evening service Rev. Wright spoke to the congregation on the "Parable of the Unmerciful Old Hundredth". The speaker reviewed the early days of the writer of the hymn, Rev. William Kethe, a Scotchman who was forced to flee his country in the early days of the Reformation. The speaker fluently told of the early days of the Protestant Church at which time the hymn was written. He compared us, the church at that time being desirous of following the old Psalm form of singing, today the singing of hymns is universal, however.

Communion will be held Sunday, the special prayers for that day being selected from the form of service.

BRIDGE STREET UNITED

Taking his theme from the books of the Bible where in the pastoral and agricultural life is shown as having produced a powerful influence upon Hebrew thought, life and literature, the Rev. James Semple, at Bridge Street United Church preached on Sunday morning on "Rural Sunday", his text being the words from Job "Speak to the earth and it shall teach thee". In the Gospels the minister said, the highest points of expression of the agricultural foundation of the Hebrew people is reached.

Farming pays in abundance of food for the agriculturist and for others. The farmer knows that he is yet rich, remarked the minister, is not the chief end of life. The farm and its work also, one of the chief blessings of life, in joy, and above all in independence. It is good in contentment of body and of character. The majority of leaders in the nation can trace their heritage to the farm and to the rural districts is where the potent influences are the rural home, the rural school and the country church, that creating character.

"When think of streets filled with garbage wagons, peddler's carts and so forth—there do not make for poetry," he said.

Nature preaches the eternal Gospel of Humility, Dr. Semple went on God Himself, is beautiful, the chosen place of beauty is the farm. The farm inspires a sense of majesty of law in nature and the truly eternal laws which govern all life, the law of the fruit after its kind, sowing and reaping.

God says to man at this season of the year "Get busy and do something worthwhile."

The greatest sermon a farm preaches is that God is a present God. No agriculturist can be a doubter.

"I ask you to think of the farm and its relationship with its contribution to life," advised the minister.

LATE MRS. ROBERT A. HALL

The funeral of Mrs. Robert A. Hall took place Sunday afternoon from her late residence, Plainfield, and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Service was conducted in the home by the Rev. H. P. Everson, pastor of Plainfield United Church, who officiated also at the graveside in Thomasburg cemetery where interment was made. During the service a duet in keeping with the solemn occasion was rendered by Mrs. Arthur Bush and Mr. Joseph Gow.

The bearers were Dr. Harold Welsh, Dr. Robert Beatty, Mr. Lorne Carlton, Mr. Harold Beatty, Mr. Harry Coulter, and Mr. Orrie Parks.

The floral tributes were beautiful and included offerings from the following: Pillow, Husband and Family; Mrs. H. Coulter and family; Spray Women's Institute of Plainfield; Basket, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beatty and family; Spray, Mrs. Orrie Parks, and Dr. Welsh; Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beatty and Phyllis; Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Parks, and family; Spray, Douglas Clelland; Spray, Kathleen Goodmurphy; Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keegan; Spray Mr. and Mrs. Percy Belnap; Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blakley and family; Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Carlton and family.

MRS. SARAH SHAW

Stirling (Special)—On Wednesday morning, May 2nd, there passed to peace over on the other shore, following the service the Misses Fleming sang a duet "Peace and Rest" and Mrs. Koffred a solo "No Partings Yonder."

The pall bearers were six men from her community, Messrs. Clifford Mills, Harold Henderson of Samuel Kilpatrick, Thos. Fleming, Stanley Frost and Albert Clements.

The floral tributes were: Pillow, Family; Wreath, Henry Wallace and family; Basket, Carl Shaw, Toronto; Sheaf, St. Andrew's Church.

Kind friends of Sarah Shaw tastefully decorated the church with flowers for the service.

The Great Beyond Mrs. Sarah Shaw, widow of the late Samuel Shaw of Trenglion, at the age of eighty years. After a lingering illness from which she had seemed to recover with the advent of Spring, her passing came as a shock to her immediate family. Possessed with a most cheerful disposition her illness was borne with real patience and fortitude.

Her life having been spent in Huntingdon Township she had endeared herself to a large circle of friends in church and community. In religion she was a Presbyterian, and while she was an ardent supporter of her own church, St. Andrew's, West Huntingdon yet her kindly spirit made her ever ready and willing to lend a helping hand to her neighbourhood. Mrs. Shaw was a daughter of the late Arthur Wallace and Eliza Smith and was one of a family of ten, five of whom are living, namely, Misses Lizzie and Annie Wallace, Mrs. Thomas Wallace, Dresden, Harvey of Port Hope and Henry of Ivanhoe. She leaves to mourn her loss one son, Robert, on the homestead and Mrs. Wm. Ketcheson, Trenton and one grandson, Milton Shaw.

The funeral service was held from her late residence on Friday, May 4th, to Brush United Church and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. Koffend of Stirling, assisted by Rev. Mellow of Roslin Church. The funeral text "When the even was come He said unto them, "Let us

RETAIL MERCHANTS BANQUET TONIGHT

The Belleville Merchants' Retail Association are holding a banquet this evening at 6.30 at the New Windsor Hotel and a committee session is issued to every merchant. Very important matters are to be discussed at this meeting and all merchants are strongly urged to attend. A full report of the Belleville Better Week will be given.

MAN ON VERGE OF GREAT DAY SAYS SIMPSON

Controller Sees Christian Ideal At Basis of New Era

PROBLEMS SOLVED

"Man is capable of greater things than he has ever done before. We are living in the kindergarten of man's existence. Advantages are accumulating, conditions are set for days to comes there will be manifestations of a greater life than that which the world has not before seen."

This was the vision of the future which Controller James Simpson, son of Toronto, noted Labor leader, who delivered the first of a series of addresses, chose to be made by prominent public men at Bridge Street United Church evening meetings. The next to come will be Judge Lazier, Mayor of Kingston, on Tuesday, 15 June, Rev. James Semple, minister, continued.

"If man is to achieve these greatnesses, there must be a matter of the removal of the drawbacks and injustices of the present age so that the spirit may be released to stress the purest physical and material ideals of existence he has to do today as well as a fair deal for all men.

"Man has the power to set his house in order and to realize his potentialities. He has been given dominion of the Creator of man, for "after all we stand or fall to the test of what we see in the universe, which is not by accident but is the work of a great Spirit."

Man must be ready and trained for that great work, Mr. Simpson deplored that ministers who are trying to bring this message are in some cases not allowed to state their views on Christianity in their pulpits. "If man realizes that he is redeemed the more ready he will be to face the facts of life.

"It did not take me sixty years to find out," he declared, "that forty-five or fifty years ago I realized that we have the potentiality for the welfare of man, one should get back to the Christian church."

Age-old Conflict

The age-old conflict between selfish forces and the altruistic Christ still continues. But even the time when things seem the blackest is the time when men should fight the hardest against the forces that would destroy them half a century.

The speaker called the chief foe to the League of Nations self-interest and self-centredness. No matter how far we may be from the fair hatred of races or help those who are subject to another race.

"The next great war will be an entirely different one from any war from any other in history. The destructiveness of instruments has been intensified a thousandfold. The next war will be no more danger than the civilian as those in the trenches.

Will Solve Problems

The mind of man is capable of achievements like those of God Himself, the speaker declared. Man is made in His image in a spiritual sense. In spite of the vast problems Mr. Simpson declared, man is capable of settling them and of making his contribution to life. Then life's values will be properly stressed. The greatest human task of all is not making a living but the making of a life, but everything which is an obstacle through selfishness must be removed.

"I do not think that any man who is more richly endowed in enchanting ability than either men has the right to accept that superior endowment to realize the opportunities of others to make their own contributions to life. Whatever happiness we have should be consecrated on the altar of private and public service. I believe the future of that there would be less talk of revolution and of force."

"The day will come when men can make the unbearable conditions of life bearable according to the ideal of the Christian Church."

ALL CLAIMED BUT BIG HAM

Succesful Dash Out of Store By Woman Who Is Questioned

Customers gasped and stood in amazement as they saw a woman dash madly from a local chain store out the front entrance with a ham early Saturday night. Confusion reigned for a few moments as customers at first in one direction and then in another to determine exact by what cause. Thought was given such a hasty retreat from the building and a few moments later once again reigned supreme, it was said that the woman in question had left the store with a ham which she had escaped the manager of the store had not detained.

According to the manager's information afforded by the discloser of the theft, manager of the store had detected the woman in question slipping a cake of soap into a large hand-bag she was carrying. The manager of the store approached the lady in question and asked him to a rear room, where upon examining the hand-bag he found the ham, several pairs of women's stockings, soap and other articles. The manager was scrutinizing the contents of the bag the embarrassed woman made a sudden dash for the door. Gaining her liberty she raced madly through the crowds in the store, at yast gaining the street and her liberty. The manager returned to the store giving chase when to the fact a scene might follow.

Description of the situation received the woman in question is alleged to have been slightly over 30 years of age, found in the hand-bag were identified as merchandise from the chain store in which the woman was detected except the ham.

BETTER WEEK SHOPPING

Shopping in the downtown section of the city hit the highest mark of the week-end this evening, with streets and stores crowded in the business section and with clerks almost helpless at times to stem the rush. Thousands of dollars passed over the counters of local stores and burdened citizens, laden with their purchases, took and packages fought their way through the crowds. Hundreds of hundreds of out of town shoppers added to the number of local people who thronged the stores. Most noticeable were the number of cars parked in the business section and in other streets for blocks in that area.

Two hundred thousand coupons in the Belleville Better Week contest have been dumped in the large basket in the window of the Hall-Mathison Co. on Monday morning as the result of Saturday's shopping. Mayor Ellis, Chairman of the Civic Committee in charge of the week and Alderman W. A. Woodley appear to be the busiest men in town.

Besides the regular daily drawings made during Belleville Better Week, several other stores and concerns during the week have been boosting business by arranging their own drawings. Winning numbers in the special prize offered by Stroud's is No. 17583. The prize is given the holder of the lucky coupon is a handsome set of dishes which may be seen on display in the window.

The handsome diamond set signet ring donated by Wm. Wonnacott in a private draw being held by Mrs. Doyle was drawn for by Alderman W. A. Woodley on Monday morning previous to the regular morning delivery of shopping coupons. No. 89 was drawn and the holder of Number 89 of the corresponding coupon is asked to call at Mr. Wonnacott's jewellery store, 29 Bridge street east when presentation of either a set or gentleman's ring will be made.

At a meeting of the Belleville Retail Merchants' Association being held this evening some suggestions regarding Belleville Centennial 1934 many unclaimed numbers from the regular morning draws during the past week will be made. A last appeal is made to holders of unclaimed coupons to numbers printed elsewhere in this issue.

Prizes won during the past week have been well distributed through-

RED CROSS

Belleville Red Cross Appeal to You This Week For Support

"Junior Red Cross — Home Nursing Classes — Needy Ex-Soldiers — Crippled Children — Outpost Hospitals in Northern Ontario need your help. Please give liberally."

Send contributions to:
W. B. DEACON
Campaign Treas.
c/o Dominion Bank

CYRIL WAITE
MRS. STUART LAZIER
Vice Pres.

A-19540
A-43189
C-7978
B-35640
B-32843
C-261
C-1449
D-40122
D-16873
D-34484
D-5482
D-12787
G-3734
G-28100
G-43181
G-3953
G-32660
G-5671
I-43863
G-47005

COUPON STUBS UNCLAIMED

Last Appeal is Made by Officials of Merchants

A last appeal for the holders of the winning coupon stubs with numbers corresponding to the following unclaimed numbers below to present them to Mr. Wm. Doyle at the John Lewis Hardware Store, which is being made today by officials connected with the Belleville Better Week now entering its the meeting which will end this evening of the Belleville Retail Merchants' Association. Complete duration of the proclaimed numbers will be suggested. The following is the result of the daily draws during the past week. So far they have not been identified with the

Unclaimed—Saturday
A-28743
B-17417
B-18191
D-34092
E-35544
D-37132

Monday
A-27265
B-29094
B-27787
A-13813
C-34003
E-12660
B-7150

Tuesday
B-3619
B-19778
B-19209
B-21549
D-42073
D-34288
D-39267
E-30626
E-29324

Wednesday
B-3308
B-23536
C-36779
C-433
D-5316
D-34286
E-21744
E-47287
F-40533
G-13902
G-13004
G-40139
G-38355
F-34587

Thursday
A-18537
B-3405
B-14428
C-27715
C-40032
C-5331
D-19213
D-8342
D-21804
F-16689
F-29786
F-34749
F-31414

Friday
A-5461

MADE TO TOP THE BIGGEST . . . . CREATED TO TOP THE BEST . . . .

'WARNER BROS.' WONDER SHOW

STARTING TOMORROW

BELLE

DAILY at 2.30 — 7.10 — 9.15
Prof. At 1.10 — 5.00 — 8.55

MIDNIGHT ONLY
JAMES DUNN — Jean Parker
CLAIRE TREVOR — in HOLD THAT GIRL — "DEVIL TIGER"

LAST COM. SHOW AT 8.25

Winning Numbers

The following winning numbers were drawn on Monday morning from Saturday's record number of shopping coupons:

Grand prize—I-10139.

Consolation prizes:

G-44546, F-37700, B-32658, I-798, H-12258, G-3894, H-32307, D-42436, A-19338, B-30485, F-11078, H-16828, D-38779, F-34402, H-16569, D-19653, F-8464, B-29130, G-44134, D-39702, F-14058, G-39942, A-8765, E-2654, I-18800, D-30879, F-44362, G-40555, D-38971, D-14233, G-3894.

Roadhouse, Lunch Room Barred from Beer Sale

Henry Says at Brampton

Restaurants Must Give "Service" to Merit Permit

SALE CONFINED

Henry Denies He Was Dragooned Into Changes Proposed

Brampton, May 7.—Deprecating the suggestion prevalent in some quarters that his government if returned to power next election, intends "letting down the floodgates on liquor," through the new beer and wine amendments, Premier Henry saturday definitely stated that such will not be the case, and further intimated that restricted powers vested in the Liquor Control Board will insure that the proposed distribution with meals in eating places will be pretty well confined to "restaurants where service is needed."

"By sales authorities that are to be set up," said he, "we don't mean the small restaurants on the corners. We don't mean refreshment booths along the roadside. And roadhouses as they are sometimes called, do not enter into our scheme of things. Nothing of that sort has ever been mentioned. Nothing of that kind has ever been thought of."

Mr. Henry was speaking in support of the Peel riding candidature of Hon. Thomas L. Kennedy, his Minister of Agriculture. While he was absolutely clear on these points he left some indecision in the minds of the audience as to what the Liquor Control Board intends to do in regard to "preventing undue increase beyond a special permit to have liquor served at a restaurant. Hints were intended to date, although the board sometimes has thought that we should. Then there is the matter of advertising. That has never been allowed, as the board has the right to though it has exercised that right to allow it. We have felt that the people were not in favor of it, and that the mission of the Act was to control, not to encourage the consumption of liquor."

Mr. Henry denied that he had been "dragooned" into making the changes in the law, and resented the occasional repetition of the cries of 1926, when L.C.A. was before the people, that the government's move was destined to turn Ontario "into a saloon."

Local Option to Stay

Mr. Henry stressed the point that local option as practised under the Whitney Act celebrating the L.C.A. would would also apply to beer and wine distributing in any municipality that didn't want it need have it. Those that feel, would have been 'dry' for years under Local Option or the C.T.A. would find their wishes respected, he said.

Hon. Peter Heenan, the Liberal House Leader, had, he said, opposed Mr. Hepburn on the beer and wine legislation, but was glad he said, to follow him in everything else. What did Mr. McQuibban, he asked, think of the recent South York Liberal meeting, where the Conservationists was sung, and the Liberal chairman, complimented the singers, afterwards, saying: "You sing—our songs, we'll sing yours." Would Dr. McQuibban follow that sort of thing?

Sir Wilfred Grenfell, well-known author-explorer and founder of the Grenfell Mission to Labrador, photographed on his return to the United States from England, where he completed some of his latest book. Sir Wilfred is awaiting the arrival of the ice floes before leaving his next trip to Labrador. This time he will take 50 college students with him.

GIRL HIKER IS LOCATED

Foul Play Fears Are Disputed And Trio Continue Hike

Hamilton, May 7.—Fears that Eleanore Leighton, 19-year-old Montreal girl, had been hurt or had met with foul play after accepting a ride last Thursday morning outside Oshawa, were dispelled when the young woman was found by Detective Stan Bayliss and Probation Officer Leith in a room at the Commercial House.

Adelle Casey, 21, also of Montreal and Leona Hamilton, St. John, N.B., who reached Hamilton Saturday night in search of the missing girl, accompanied the officers and a half hour after the reunion they were off on their long journey again.

The three girls left Moncton on April 24 for Vancouver. They hoped to find work there. Explaining that they wanted to do "something different", Miss Hamilton said this afternoon that they had refused to accept transportation offered by relatives. All went well until they came within 20 miles of Oshawa, the passing motorist offered them a lift and Miss Leighton accepted, saying she would wait at Oshawa. Instead she proceeded to Toronto. Misses Hamilton and Casey hiked to Toronto after spending a day in Oshawa. There was no trace of the girl there and police were informed as it was feared that she had met with foul play.

DEATHS OVER THE WEEK END

(By the Canadian Press)

Northport, N.Y.—W. Arthur Cunningham, Comptroller of the City of New York.

Quebec — Lt.-Col. O. E. Talbot 79, former Liberal member of the House of Commons for Bellechasse and director of the Canadian National Railways from 1920 to 1930.

Toronto—Wilmot M. (Bill) Thackeberry, Toronto Sports Writer and Assistant Secretary of the Ontario Hockey Association.

London—Sir Louis Bernhard Baron 47, First Baronet of the name chairman and managing director of Carreras Limited, Tobacco and Cigarette manufacturers.

Cleveland—John T. Sencabaugh 95, Canadian oil man and early associate of John D. Rockefeller, Senior.

Detroit—Fred T. Morton 61, auditor in charge of Canadian National Railways subsidiaries in the United States.

North Bay.—James T. McDougall 82, Crown Timber agent for Nipissing District.

Winnipeg — Herbert Stainton 57, noted authority on town planning, chairman of the town planning commission of St. James, Winnipeg suburb.

MUNICIPAL AIRPORT SOUGHT

Kingston, Ont., May 7. — The Kingston Flying Club lease has expired and directors of the club are planning to interview city council with a view to establishing a municipal airport in Kingston.

SOVIET RUSSIA IS DEFAULTER, STAND BY U. S.

Russia Proceeds to Cut Down Big Buying

NO NEW CREDIT

British And Canadian Standing is Unaffected

Moscow, May 7. — Washington's ruling that the Soviet Government is a defaulter under the Johnson act appeared certain to intensify resentment aroused among Soviet officials dom by passage of the bill, shutting off United States credit to Moscow.

Orders Cut Down.

This statement has already crystallized in actual retaliatory steps, in the form of a recommendation that all Soviet economic organizations refrain from giving any orders from the United States, unless for items that cannot be obtained elsewhere.

This recommendation was made by the organ of the Commissariat of Heavy Industry, and, it is understood, has already been put into effect.

Soviet officials thus far have refused to answer the direct question whether Moscow is prepared to negotiate for a settlement of debt claims between the two countries, but apparently at present the Russian temper is not calculated to produce immediate steps in that direction.

Decision Is Announced.

Washington, May 7. — Attorney-General Homer Cummings has decided that Russia is in default on obligations to the United States and is not entitled to receive financial aid from citizens of this country.

His ruling, which was made on Saturday night after determining what countries would be barred by the Johnson Act from marketing their securities in the United States, in any other way receiving financial assistance, said that Great Britain, Italy, Czechoslovakia, Latvia, and Lithuania, the five nations that have made token payments on their war debts, are not in default.

As for Canada, Mr. Cummings said that his interpretation was that Dominion is to be regarded as a political subdivision of Great Britain.

Question Immaterial.

"The question should properly be answered in the negative," he added, "and this conclusion was suggested to Congress, but it appears to be immaterial because of my conclusion concerning the intention of Congress as applied to the obligations of subdivions. Canada, I believe, is not in default."

Canada owns no war-debts, but the Johnson bill is not restricted to such obligations.

Mr. Cummings cited numerous precedents in international law, but Cummings explained that he was following in his interpretation of the Johnson Act by authorized views of the United States, and the President Roosevelt's statements concerning war debts.

The Attorney-General called attention specially to President Roosevelt's statement of Nov. 7, 1933, when, in accepting a token payment from China, he said:

Quotes Roosevelt.

"I shall not regard the British government as in default."

Cummings gave no opinion concerning Greece, whose debt payments recently to France were in accordance with terms of the funding agreement between them. Such discussions are still under way concerning Poland and Finland, he said.

In his opinion the Attorney-General made no distinction with respect to nations, but they—with the exception of Finland, which has met in full all payments—are in default in reference considered in default.

Soviet Russia was held to be in default by the Attorney-General because it has failed to recognize obligations incurred by the preceding Czarist and Kerensky governments in Russia.

Under the Czars bonds totalling $80,000,000 were sold in the United States and the Kerensky regime, during its short life in 1917, borrowed $187,000,000 from the United States Treasury.

Negotiations are now in progress in Moscow for a debt-funding agreement covering those debts as well as claims of United States citizens for property alleged to have been confiscated by the Soviets.

Cummings, in his opinion, indicated that a successful conclusion of those negotiations would probably remove the stigma of "defaulter" from the Soviets.

Friend Gave Good Advice

And Dodd's Pills Did The Rest

"I have taken Dodd's Kidney Pills for my kidneys and bladder trouble," writes Mrs. E. W. Langlois, Grande Cowee, Geogo, P.Q. "A friend of mine advised me to give them a trial. I had suffered terribly. After taking six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills my troubles were completely gone." When you feel worn, tired, run down, it is because the kidneys are at fault. Guard against this trouble by taking to

Dodd's Kidney Pills

WARTIME SPY LIES IN JAIL AT BRIDEWELL

Trebitsch Lincoln, Former M.P. Taken From Ship in England

BACK TO CANADA

Lincoln Refuses Offer to be Allowed to Go to Antwerp

Liverpool, England, May 7—Trebitsch Lincoln, missionary of two religions, former Parliamentarian and one-time spy, was arrested here Sunday as he disembarked from the steamer Duchess of York and will be deported to Canada, the country he left only eight days ago.

Lincoln, known now as the Buddhist, Abbot Chao Kung, arrived with six Buddhists, monks and four nuns, intending to found a Buddhist colony in the south of France. The order under which he was deported years ago from the United Kingdom is still effective, and he was forbidden to land.

Authorities gave him the alternative to proceeding to Antwerp today aboard the Duchess of York, but he refused to do so. He was arrested, therefore, and lodged in Bridewell Jail till the ship returns to Canada next Friday.

The monks and nuns were not detained, but they elected to remain with their master and were lodged in a boarding-house.

Lincoln at various times has been an Anglican missionary in Canada, a curate in Kent, a Liberal member of the British House of Commons for Darlington, and a wartime spy for Germany. He is a native of Hungary.

Ottawa, May 7—If Trebitsch Lincoln, Buddhist abbot and reputed former international spy, is returned from England to Canada he will probably be allowed to pass through this country and continue on his way back to the Orient. The transportation company with which Lincoln was travelling will be asked arrange for his passage.

On his way to England last month Lincoln was granted permission to enter this country. He landed at Vancouver and stopped off in Calgary to call on Premier Minister R. B. Bennett. He then expressed the intention of visiting England to later establishing a Buddhist monastery somewhere on the outskirts of Montreal.

At one time Lincoln was a member of the British House of Commons. During the war he was accused of espionage on behalf of Germany.

While here he admitted he had once been an enemy of Great Britain, but said, since his adoption of the Buddhist religion with its philosophy of love for all mankind, he had banished only sentiments of good-will.

SANA IS GOAL OF IBN SAUD

Plan To Place Fierce Young Prince on Yemen Throne

Cairo, Egypt, May 7.—A battle between the two fighting sons of two brothers Arabian Princes, for the throne of Yemen as the prize—may be bring a dramatic end to the war between Yemen and England.

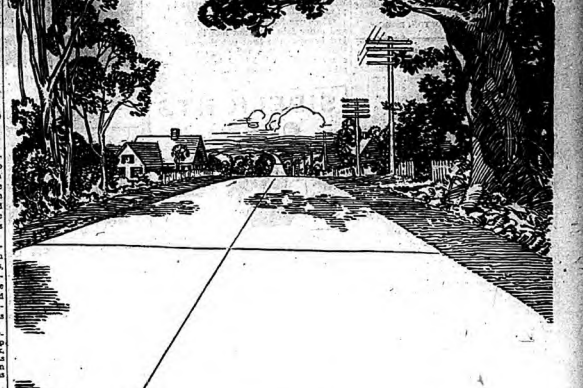
This climax was forecast today by the 25-year-old Emir Feisal, leading the conquering army of his father, King Ibn Saud of Nejd, against the forged through mountain passes toward Sana, ancient walled capital of Yemen.

Reports said the Emir Saud intends to dethrone the prince, also known as Ibn-Abdoul-Aziz-Ibn-Saud upon the death of Yemen if he wins Sana.

Ibn Saud, around the old city of Yemini forces under the command of Seif Al Islam, Heir of the Iman Yahia, ruler of Yemen, were reported working feverishly to prepare for a desperate defense.

Civilians were drafted for duty from the frightened population of some 25,000 persons in this historic capital situation in a valley 7,000 feet above the sea and enclosed by brick walls.

Before pushing on toward Sana—100 miles northeast—Feisal captured Hodeidah—the son of the mighty Ibn Saud assured foreign officials that foreign lives and property would be protected there.



He sent a messenger bearing this word to Kamaran Island, where the British sloop Penzance already had carried some of the 300 British citizens to Hodeidah.

Besides the British forces at the port city to assure protection, Italian warships also patrolled there and the French destroyer "Turbine" was ordered to the important point yesterday.

ARMY AND NAVY

GRAN TO NEEDY

Ottawa, May 7.—A donation of $30,000 to needy war veterans was on Saturday decided upon by the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada. The grant, approved at a meeting of executive officers of the organization, will be divided as follows: British Columbia, $3,000; Saskatchewan, $7,000; Alberta, $2,750; Manitoba, $6,750; Nova Scotia, $1,500; and Ontario, $6,250.

CONCRETE Paving

for Safer Motoring and Balanced Budgets

What a sense of security concrete paving gives! Tires really grip its skid-resisting surface; objects are clearly defined; night-time visibility is unusually good. And it means driving economy as well as safety, through reduced fuel consumption and retarded vehicle depreciation. Advocate concrete, the permanent pavement that needs so little upkeep. It assures your community maximum new mileage with cost kept well within budget limits.

CANADA CEMENT COMPANY LIMITED

Canada Cement Company Building, Phillips Square, Montreal

Sales Offices at MONTREAL TORONTO WINNIPEG CALGARY

CONCRETE Construction is ALL-CANADIAN

Everything that goes into concrete—cement, sand and gravel, crushed stone, reinforcing bars and even lumber—is Canadian and helps keep your fellow-citizens on pay rolls. Advocate concrete for every type of construction.

MRS. RHODES HEART VICTIM

Wife of Minister of Finance Dies in Sleep

Ottawa, May 7—Mrs. E. N. Rhodes, wife of the Canadian Minister of Finance and daughter-of the late Hon. W. T. Pipes, one-time premier of Nova Scotia, died suddenly Sunday morning at her home here. Succumbing to a heart seizure during her sleep, Mrs. Rhodes was found dead in her bed.

Apparently enjoying the best of health, Mrs. Rhodes entertained at her golf club Saturday afternoon and there had been no warning of the approaching seizure. She was born in Amherst, N.S.; 53 years ago.

The marriage of Mary Grace Pipes to Edgar Nelson Rhodes in 1905 united two prominent Nova Scotia families, of opposing political views. Hon. W. T. Pipes formed the Liberal administration in that province in 1882, which retained office until it was defeated in 1925 by the Conservative party under the leadership of his son-in-law.

Hon. W. S. Fielding was chosen as his successor by Mr. Pipes when he left the premiership after two years, Mr. Rhodes resigned as premier of Nova Scotia after five years in office to follow in the footsteps of the other illustrious Nova Scotian to become finance minister of Canada.

Mrs. Rhodes had thus shared in a unique way in the political life of her generation. She was keenly interested in politics and always followed the fortunes of both political parties with great understanding and concern. She was a frequent visitor to the galleries of the House.

MILLING TRADE SHOWS PICK-UP

Proof of business recovery in this district is offered by Mr. H. F. Purdy, manager of the Tweed branch of the Tweed Milling Company. Sales of Tweed, Tweed and Kingston branches last week were higher than at any time for the same period with in the past five years, it is reported by him.

Farmers Without Fodder or Hay Horses Fed Seed Grain in Montrose

Saskatoon, May 7 (CP)—Many farmers in Montrose District, near Leirn, Sask., have no fodder nor hay whatsoever according to A. B. Chambers, large scale farmer of that vicinity who today contradicted statements made here Saturday by Hon. Howard McConnell, K.C., Saskatchewan Minister of Municipal Affairs.

At the junction of four municipalities, Montrose, Harris, Perdue and Loganton, near Laura, the feed situation was very drastic, Mr. Chambers claimed. Horses were being turned loose on the prairies practically the same.

Mr. Chambers added, although if conditions become much worse, farmers were considering destroying many animals. Conditions in all four municipalities were practically the same.

NURSE IS INJURED, MOTORIST ARRESTED

Kingston, Ont., May 7—(CP)—Miss Elsie Hunt, a nurse living at R. R. No. 1 Belleville, was seriously injured when she was run down by a car driven by William E. Moore, of this city, near the corner of Princess and Alfred Streets. She is suffering injuries to her ribs and legs. Moore was taken into custody on a charge of intoxication, driving a car while intoxicated, and with having liquor in a place other than his own residence. He pleaded guilty before Magistrate J. M. Perrett to all three charges, and was sentenced to jail on one charge and given the option of a fine on the others.

"CAPITALISTIC DRAGON" IN GOTHAM'S MAY DAY PARADE

May Day said to have originated in Canada in Quebec late in the last century, has now become a world wide day of celebration, or demonstration. This May first was no exception and literally millions of proletariat all over the world took a day off to parade with banners and attend lectures and meetings. In Toronto 8,000 attended a gathering at which little signs of violence was manifest. In New York 100,000 workers paraded the streets. Little difficulty was experienced in Europe parades and demonstrations were marked by considerable violence, though not as great as was feared. Above are scenes from the colorful parade in New York, At TOP, reimbursement of. Marketing moving force in this sea of placards. BELOW, the block-dragon, representing Capitalism, which was a feature of the parade.

Here's something new

Kellogg's Whole Wheat Flakes come in a patented package. You don't need to tear to open it. And wait till you see the size! Lots more for your money.

All the nourishment of whole wheat. Get the big red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon except Sunday and holidays, at the Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

W. H. MORTON, Publisher.

INDEX STILL CLIMBING

The economic index shows a further gain in the week of April 28th, in continuance of the upward trend since the beginning of the year as shown by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The index maintained by the Bureau was higher in the last week of April than at any time since the beginning of 1933 with the exception of the week of July 22nd, last. The gain of the preceding week was 0.8 per cent. while the increase over the same week of 1933 was about 19 per cent. The economic index based on six weekly factors was 95.1 in the last week of April compared with 94.3 in the preceding and with 80.0 in the week ending April 29th, 1933.

The chief influence in raising the economic index was the spectacular gain in carloadings in the latest week for which statistics are available. The index of Canadian carloadings was 116 in the 16th. week of the year, a new high point since September, 1932. The gain in the freight movement is indated by the loading of 656,600 cars in the first 16 weeks of the year compared with 627,500 in the same period of 1933, a gain of more than 24 per cent.

A price composite of speculative commodities was nearly maintained in the week ended April 28th, a moderate advance having been in evidence since the first of the year. High grade bond prices were practically unchanged last week, the spectacular advance in the last three months being a development of economic importance.

Bank clearings in April were $1,204,000,000 compared with $1,197,000,000 in March, a gain of about $7,000,000. The total during the first four months of the year was 4,677,000,000 as against $3,756,000 in the same period of last year, a gain of 24.5 per cent. According to the measurement, financial transfers were nearly one-quarter greater during the first four months than in the corresponding period of 1933. Clearings have been irregular since the beginning of the year, but at a level much higher than in the first part of last year.

GUN-TOTING

Rumors tell of possible attempt of Dillinger to escape out of the United States but why he should do that seems difficult to explain except on the basis of the fear of capture which impels one to run anywhere.

But where is there a country where a bandit can get ammunition and guns by purchase or by theft as he can in the United States? If Dillinger gets into Canada he may get away for a time but he will carry his gun for to him as to all bandits a gun is a necessary equipment as well as shrewdness and brains. Possession of that gun might be his undoing.

One would think on the face of it that Dillinger would stay in his own country where he would have a chance with ammunition and weapons at hand whenever he needs more.

Fortunately this country is not so free in its regulations on the control of weapons as the United States. Hamilton Spectator notes that new regulations are expected to provide for registration of all guns in possession necessary. At present no one may carry a gun without a license, but the suggested amendment would make registration necessary. This would enable police to know where to look for weapons and in case of guns being missing the officers would only have to ask for an explation why the gun is missing. No honest man will object to registration, though he might be were "taxed" for mere possession. No one in this province who is anxious not to reveal its presence and possession to the authorities, should have a gun.

The United States has made a grave mistake in its restricting sale of weapons. When so many persons innocent as well as suspects and guilty tote guns, there is a yielding to licence which is not desirable. And with so many guns around and purchase so easy it is no wonder there are enough for the outlaws.

ALL OVER THE KILT

Scotsmen wear the kilt and there is no hesitation in donning the national garb even though some of the nether limbs even of Scots are not so impressive as the sight of the kilt itself. Now Irishmen are said to be refusing to fall in line with the acceptance of the kilt as a national dress as has been proposed, probably just because they are not used to it.

Yet who can say that many races may not adopt the kilt. No one knows that the present trousers which mean wear and which are a development of a common garment used by pagans long long ago and now so civilized that even many Irishmen will wear no others will not lose cast? Who will say the trousers are the last word in dress for men.

The kilt is the most picturesque dress for men which can be found. Some day the world may adopt it in one of many forms for man is really beginning to show some signs of revolting from the present style dress which has been largely so unchanging. Color is coming into the men's world.

Why anyone should resort to shorts when he might wear kilts instead is a puzzle.

Of course Scotland has the dress today and other folk may not like to take it on just because the Scot got there first, but that is no excuse, for every person and every nation is indebted in some way or other to another person or nation.

SIDELIGHTS

THY BLESSING, LORD ON ALL VACATION DAYS

Thy blessing, Lord, on all vacation days,
For weary ones who seek the quiet ways,
Fare forth beyond the thunder of the street,
The marvel of Emmaus Road retreat;
Thy comradeship so graciously bestow,
Their hearts shall burn within them as they go.

Grant those who turn for healing to the sea
May find the faith that once by Galilee
Flamed brighter than the glowing fire of coals.
And when Thou hast refreshed their hungry souls
Speak the old words again, beside the lake,
Bid all who love Thee, Master, feed Thy sheep.

Be Thou with those who bide where mountains rise,
Where yearning earth draws nearest to the skies.
Give them the peace, the courage, that they ask:
New strength to face the waiting valley task,
New light to deal through shrouding valley haze.
Thy blessing, Lord, on all vacation days.
— Molly Anderson Haley in New Outlook.

x x x x

A ROBIN'S NEST on the fire-escape of a hotel, close to the window of a guest room, shows what faith Robin Redbreast has in human nature. Notwithstanding the fact that the window was frequently opened as occupants came and went Robin went calmly ahead with his home construction and finished it ready for Jennie Robin to occupy and bring the family up in.

x x x x

MEMBER OF THE SIDELIGHT FAMILY in Dallas, Texas, sends along newspaper clippings, one from the Ontario Intelligencer stating that rose bushes have been hit hard by the severe winter, seventy per cent. having been injured. Another clipping is from the Dallas Morning News, of Monday, April 23, with a picture of a rosebush with a thousand blossoms. This rosebush is on the lawn of Milton H. Hickox, 1500 Parke Avenue, Dallas, in full bloom when the picture was taken, a three and one-half year-old bush, from eight to nine feet in height, and from twenty-five to thirty feet in circumference. Originally brought from Northern China by a Roman Catholic priest, Father Hugo, the rose now bears the name of Rosa Hugonis, but is often called the golden rose of China. The five-petal single rose is a canary color and about the size of a half-dollar. Mr. Hickox put out six four-inch cuttings from the bush in October. Two of them have blooms. And that's the story of the roses that bloomed in Texas, while Belleville roses were fighting for life after the abnormally hard Canadian winter—thanks to our good friend. Mrs. Wm. Wright, 179 1-2 South Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas. Sidelight family of readers is scattered all over the habitable globe, and whenever one of them sees something odd it is sent to headquarters for the edification of the rest of the family, through publication in this column.

x x x x

Algy had never been able to keep a job more than a few months. At present he was engaged as a packer in an antique china shop.

One day he broke a vase, and was told by the owner of the shop that half his wages would be deducted each week until the damage was paid for.

"How much was the vase worth?" he asked anxiously.

"About $150", was the reply.

"Hurrah!" shouted Algy, to the great amazement of the shop owner.

"What's the matter?" asked that individual.

"Well, sir," replied Algy, "it looks as if I've a steady job at last."

x x x x

"I'm afraid, John, you'll never be so famous that people will restore your birthplace."

"Huh! I'd be content if I could make the landlord repaper my present flat."

x x x x

"Always the majority has been the dough, the few have been leaven."—Harry Emerson Fosdick.

A MUTUAL COMPANY

NORTH AMERICAN LIFE

Solid as the Continent

M. W. SPARLING
District Manager
125 Front Street

PROFITS FOR POLICYHOLDERS

CRAVING FOR CHANGE NOW AN OBSESSION

Everywhere Changes Go on With Speed and Variety of a Kaleidoscope

By Louis E. Bisch, M.D., Ph.D.
Famous Authority on Health and Psychology.

(Copyright, 1934, Ivan Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Everywhere, at almost every turn we see changes. In cities buildings are torn down and new ones erected with a rapidity that makes one feel sometimes it all must have happened overnight. In the country districts filling stations suddenly appear, land is cleared, a factory may spring into being, sign boards are forever being changed—the landscape may change about as quickly as the city block.

We look, we wonder the change, we get used to it. About as soon as we get used to it another change comes along and again upsets everything. Everywhere changes go on with the speed and variety of a kaleidoscope. Nothing stays put. The old is constantly giving way to the new. All this produces a feeling of tenseness in us. It keys us up to a high pitch.

We shown it in the expression of our faces—a strained and agitated look. Our gestures often are exaggerated from the same cause. We talk too loud and too fast. We use language that is too crisp and vigorous that it leads to all sorts of bombastic and raising talk. This also accounts for vulgar language and profanity. Men are swearing more than they used to. Profanity is becoming rather common among women and young girls.

All these changes without are producing within a feeling of restlessness. Our emotions are kept boiling. Therefore we find ourselves trying to changes our more intimate environment. We even gratify the habit of wanting to change ourselves.

Have you noticed the modern tendency to change house furnishings? Women have always enjoyed moving furniture around, pushing the piano first into one corner and then to the other, but of late years the change has gripped some so strongly that they want to throw the old piano out altogether and replace it with one of newer style, size, or beautiful color.

A certain feeling of refreshing novelty results, of course, when the drapes are changed in the Winter or Summer, when the rugs are taken up, the rooms painted, etc., etc. To make these changes for the season and to make them with a kind of hectic, hyped-up persistence, of course, quite a different matter.

The same thing holds in reference to personal changes. After bobbing their hair women want to let it grow. They buy a fetching gown but lose all enthusiasm for it after wearing it once. They change their appearance with the frequency that a chameleon does the color of his skin. They never appear satisfied, settled, or content.

As I said before, outside changes make us want to change, too. And it must be remembered, in the last analysis it is we, ourselves, who really bring about these changes in building and landscape, that afterward affect us so powerfully toward making us desire more changes. It is a never ending, never ceasing, never constant, feverish change. Our nerves are changing our outlook about while the outside changes alter our natures still further.

Dr. Bisch's Daily Diet Hint

During the second month of life a baby should receive (if artificially fed) 30 ounces of whole milk, prepared according to a formula by which there is about 7 ounces of water and two and a half tablespoonfuls of cane sugar. All this is divided into 5 feedings in the 24 hours. In addition, one tablespoonful of orange juice is given twice a day and no some cases one additional teaspoonful of cod-liver oil is added.

PHYSICIAN DIES NOTED BICYCLIST

Dunbarton, May 7—In the passing of Dr. John B. Giles of Dunbarton in his eightieth year, Ontario County has lost one of its best known and oldest physicians. A native of Drayton, Ont., he graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons in 1885, and was a classmate of the late Hon. Herbert A. Bruce, the Lieutenant-Governor, and Dr. W. P. Caven. Since then he has practised at Dunbarton, where each week he took him to many parts of Ontario County.

A keen cyclist in his younger days he did much of his travelling by the wheel, alternating with trips on horseback when the roads would not permit using his bicycle.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

MAY 7TH, 1914.

The examinations in applied science and engineering at Toronto University have been concluded and three Belleville boys have been successful in their examinations. In mechanical engineering first year, G. R. Sinclair passed with honors; in mining engineering second year B. A. McCormick passed with honors and in architecture D. M. Waters with honors and in electrical engineering second year J. S. Panter passed with honors and in the same subject third year W. A. Steel passed with honors.

Mrs. George Smith of Hallowell has left to visit her son George in Sengough, Sask.

"A horse owned by Johnson's livery and attached to the postal delivery wagon ran away on Front street this morning. A man who attempted to stop the horse was thrown violently to the ground, but received only minor injuries.

30 YEARS AGO

MAY 7TH, 1904.

A party of children numbering about forty went to the Bay of Quinte woods yesterday in search of mayflowers. Dr. and Mrs. Yeomans were the hosts on the occasion. The children greatly enjoyed themselves.

Rev. Mr. Gilliland of this city is spending a few days in Ottawa.

Mr. Henry Cullen of Chicago is visiting relatives in the city.

Mr. "Bill" Cunningham of Toronto is home on a visit.

At the annual meeting of Bridge Street Church Auxiliary to the Women's Missionary Society the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. Pres. Mrs. G. H. Elliott; president, Mrs. W. W. Chown; first vice president, Mrs. S. Sullman; second vice president, Mrs. M. B. Robin; third vice president, Mrs. J. C. Isabel; rec. sec., Mrs. Anderson; treasurer, Miss Bogart; cor. sec., Mrs. A. G. Vermilyea.

40 YEARS AGO

MAY 7TH, 1894.

The Thousand Island House, Alexandria Bay, opens on June 23rd.

The early arrival of the mail from the west today was much appreciated. The Industrial Committee of which Mr. W. N. Ponton is chairman, backed by Mr. H. Corby, M.P., deserve much for the persistency with which they have advocated the early mail, and it is due largely through their persistent efforts that the Grand Trunk Railway was induced to again put on the early train.

A small pig which had evidently been overlooked in the wagon was found on the common near the city huts and left with Mrs. Clement.

50 YEARS AGO

MAY 7TH, 1884.

A sparrow in the color of which white largely preodominates, has its nest in West Belleville.

The weather has interferred with the practice of the local pitchers, but it will not take long to get the members in good playing order.

The small boy and a rod and line with a sucker dangling on the end of it, is getting to be a familiar sight about the streets these evenings.

Messrs. W. Hannah and E. Reeves have purchased Mr. W. H. Davis' harness business and will engage in the same stand. They are first class workmen and deserving of patronage.

Mr. P. J. M. Anderson has received the appointment of County Attorney made vacant by the death of C. L. Coleman.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. W. N. Ponton, M.A., barrister-at-law delivered his first lecture on Commercial Law before the students of Ontario Business College. The subject was handled in a masterly manner.

CAVALCADE WINS CLASSIC IN KENTUCKY

Eastern Horse Leads Discovery by Full Three Lengths

55,000 ATTEND

Cavalcade Carefully Ridden by Veteran Mack Gurner

Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky., May 7.—Cavalcade, the mighty record breaking colt bred in old England, but foaled in America, has broken two renowned Queens of the turf and hung up a sensational victory in the sixtieth Kentucky Derby.

Cavalcade justified the confidence in his speed and thrilled a tremendous crowd of 55,000 spectators, the biggest in six years, with a glittering stretch drive that easily beat off his gallant eastern rival, Discovery, and left the two fleet fillies, Nellie Nad and Mata, struggling in the race on Saturday.

Owned by Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloane, New York and Florida sports woman, who was making her own colors triumph after being out of the hospital only a short time, Cavalcade's victory was worth $28,175 to his owner and paid the Eastern turf follower their first smashing thrill since Twenty Grand came home in front three years ago in record time.

Cavalcade broke slow and was carefully ridden by the veteran Mack Garner, who made his first Derby winner in eleven attempts. Once he took command in the stretch, however, the beautiful brown colt, son of Lancegaye—Beautiful Day, was in front to stay. Paying tribute a long line of great British thoroughbreds, including Hyperion of the English Derby, Cavalcade flashed a finish in a burst of speed that left Alfred Vanderbilt's Discovery three full lengths back.

Closing fast, another colt, Agrarian, owned by Mrs. Helen Scott New York, came up to take third place by a half length from the fast tiring Mata filly. The highly regarded filly of Charles T. Fisher of Detroit, after setting a fast pace for the first half mile for her gentlemen rivals, and threatening to complicate the famous victory of Negret, only fifty ever to win the Derby, Mata Hari yielded first to Discovery and then to Cavalcade in the critical stages.

EIGHT YEAR GIRL DIES FROM BURNS

Clothing of Baptiste Girl Takes Fire From Stove

Dorothy Margaret, eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tallman of Baptiste, Herschel Township, succumbed in bed in the Red Cross Hospital, Bancroft, as the result of severe burns sustained when her clothing caught fire as she was playing near a rubbish fire in the yard at her home. An effort was made to extinguish the burning clothing but not before the child was severely burned. Coroner Lumb, Bancroft, was immediately summoned. Medical attention and removing the victim to the hospital where she passed away a few hours after her advance. After funeral services conducted by Rev. J. H. Hall, the child was interred in Mount Pleasant cemetery, Bancroft.

A TRAVEL BARGAIN

Sailing Fridays from Montreal to ST. JOHN, HALIFAX, LONDON, or BELFAST, LIVERPOOL, GLASGOW

Time One Way Seven Days. $144.50 RETURN 3rd CLASS

COMFORTABLE ACCOMMODATION
PLENTIFUL FOOD OF EXCELLENCE
QUALITY MANY AMUSEMENTS
TO FILL YOUR DAYS . . . .

Sail THE STEADY SHIPS

CUNARD ANCHOR-DONALDSON

To the OLD COUNTRY

217 Bay Street - Toronto, or local agent

Jean Muir and Warren William in "Bedside", commencing today (Monday) at the Capitol.

DILLINGER'S SWEETHEART IN COURT

Evelyn Frechette, Indian sweetheart of John Dillinger, bandit desperado, is shown, CENTER, covering her face, as she is being taken from the county jail in St. Paul to the federal building where she pleaded not guilty to a charge of conspiracy to harbor and aid a fugitive from justice. Dillinger allegedly was visiting in the girl's apartment in St. Paul when it was raided by federal agents, causing the outlaw to flee. She also is charged with murder.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK - - By R. J. Scott

Copyright, 1934, by Central Press Association, Inc.

ARMAMENTS ON INCREASE GENEVA VIEW

Armed Forces Built up Arousing Suspicions Among Nations

STATE OF NATIONS

Britain and Switzerland Alone Have Reduced Army Strength

(By Joseph E. Sharkey, Associated Press Foreign Staff)

Geneva, May 7 (AP)—A scramble for increased arms strength has been given impetus, any observer of the world armament picture, by the France-German deadlock and Japan's "Far Eastern" policies.

Reports keep coming into Geneva from what is applied or added activity to increase military power.

The failure of France and Germany to reach an agreement on armaments has proved the major stumbling block to an accord on disarmament. Adolf Hitler, Germany's intentions in Eastern Asia have aroused grave misgivings in many lands.

Figures compiled in authoritative quarters has revealed that only two republics, Switzerland and Great Britain, show a decrease in army strength.

Bungling have thrived throughout Europe with the building up of armed forces. Fear, suspicion and uneasiness are reflected in varying degrees, especially in France.

The server of arms strength shows the following:

France—Increased her fighting forces within the last three years by 45,000, through employing civilians to do work formerly assigned to soldiers.

Germany—Increased her 1934 army and navy budgets from $368,000,000 to about $385,000,000 and her aviation budget from $28,000,000 to $84,000,000.

Russia—Increased her armies from 562,000 to 678,000 since 1932.

Japan—Added 100,000 to army and air forces by 100,000 to 45,000 since 1931.

Italy—Added 42,000 to her armed forces, chiefly through air and naval branch increases.

Poland—Added her army from 282,000 to 341,000.

France's national defense program for 1934-35 calls for an increase in that branch—the largest since 1928. New armaments and fortifications are included in the army, navy and air budgets.

Belgium also is active, building forts along the entire German border.

Finland and Czechoslovakia are increasing their armaments. Germany's frontier and Poland on the Russian side are "hot."

The United States is among the leaders in the building of navies. Great Britain has built or authorized naval units since the last term of treaty strength; Japan up to 90% per cent.

Many nations are looking to the air lanes in building up their defensive forces.

Japan, for example, is shown by available figures to have increased her military planes from 450 to 3236 since 1931. Most of them have been purchased in Great Britain and in the United States.

France has made a slightly larger increase than Japan, while Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia and Rumania have been active in this respect.

INCLINE RAILWAY AT NIAGARA BURNS

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 7—The Whirlpool Rapids Incline, and Railway, related in history to the thousands of people is a pile of ruins as a result of a fire which swept through the buildings Saturday afternoon. The loss to buildings, engines, machinery and cars is estimated at $7,000. The fire is believed to have started from a spark from a locomotive engine.

Hearing at the water's edge and entering the structure. The fire department responded before the alarm was turned in by a motorist crossing the lower bridge, and was on the scene barely a mass of flames. There never was any hope of saving the structure.

Several firemen were overcome, but all of them have recovered, except Amos Storey, who has contracted bronchitis and is ill at his home as a result of breathing in dense smoke.

FRANCE FIXES PREFECTS

Paris May 7—The French Cabinet saved $250,000 on gold lace and fancy titles by decree reorganizing the ancient system of prefects.

Scores of officials who have been the government's "direct civil representatives" in the provinces were dismissed and their jobs assigned to others in hitherto sinecure positions.

Aspirin
DOES NOT harm
the heart

"Splitting" Headaches

Until the famous relief you know always does! Tablets (Genuine) Aspirin. Now the new way to relief. Just crush the tablet and stir the powder in a glass of water. Almost instantly you have a delightful alkaline drink that relieves the pain and settles the stomach. Quicker than pills or tablets. Remember the name and price. Demand the full box. Genuine Aspirin is made in Canada.

"TUMS" Quick relief for acid indigestion. Only 10c. TUMS—TO-NIGHT

WOMAN BEATEN OVER HEAD

Husband at Wallaceburg Sought For Alleged Attempt

Wallaceburg, May 7— Mrs. Matthew Doyle is lying at her home in Port Lambton in a very serious condition and her husband is missing following an alleged attempt by Doyle to murder his wife, six years ago Doyle was convicted of attempting to murder his wife and commit suicide. He served a term in Kingston Penitentiary and was released about a year ago. Saturday night he is thought to have made a second attempt to kill his wife.

Doyle and his wife had been living at their home in Port Lambton and on Saturday night their two sons left to attend a dance at a schoolhouse a few miles away. The boys returned shortly after mid-night and found their mother in a pool of blood on the floor. Blood ran from a blow on the head inflicted with some blunt instrument. The younger boy, Clancy, hastened to the office of Dr. W. A. Calhart, while his brother, Joseph, stayed with his mother. Constable H. R. Hutton of the R.C.M.P., who was in the doctor's office when the young man arrived, went to the house and later summoned the provincial officers, Robert Whiting and Jack Clark of Sarnia.

DRESS AFIRE CHILD DIES

Simcoe Girl Alone at Time Playing With Matches

Simcoe, May 7—Suffering severe burns when her dress ignited while she was playing with matches, Marjorie Schweitzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schweitzer, 107 Kent Street, died Sunday in the hospital here. The accident occurred about 4 o'clock Saturday evening. The little girl was alone at the time of the accident, Coroner C. O. Murdoch, who lives near-by, saw her touch a match to a piece of paper and almost simultaneously her dress burst into flames. He rushed to her and succeeded in beating out the flames with his hands, but not before the child suffered terrible burns about the face, body and arms. Arthur Port, who was passing, took her to Dr. E. H. Bingham for medical attention and she was taken to Norfolk General Hospital, death occurring Sunday morning. She is survived by her parents, six brothers and one sister. Her father, Conrad Schweitzer, was a well-known gas-driller of this district until a serious accident two years ago which left him an invalid.

WIN DEGREES AT KINGSTON

In the list of degrees, scholarships, prizes and medals awarded the faculty of arts and the faculty of applied science at Queen's University, Kingston, this week the following residents of this section are included:

Master of Arts — Helen Maria Hubbs, B.A., Picton (English).

Bachelor of Arts—Ruby Florence Coady, Shannonville (French, English). Bachelor of Arts (post)—Dorothy Arthur Kerr, Tweed; Edwin Henry Lill, Belleville.

Bachelor of Science (pass)—Milton Allan Bush, Trenton (civil engineer).

Frank Douglas Stafford Marrett, B.A., Marmora (electrical engineering).

James Borden Rollins, Tweed (chemistry).

Colin John Edwards Rorke, Picton (civil engineering).

BOMBS BURST IN SUITCASE

Vienna, May 7—Bombs concealed in suitcases exploded in three of Vienna's most important railway stations, causing great property damage. Police investigations revealed the suitcases had been deposited in baggage offices of the different stations Saturday.

They contained more than two pounds of explosives and a half gallon of benzine, together with clockwork for setting off the charge.

The violence was attributed by police to political opponents of the Government.

THOMASBURG L. A. MEETS

THOMASBURG, May 5th —

The farmers in this district report a great deal of their fall wheat and meadow fields have been killed out during the long hard winter. The warmer weather of this last few days has been greatly appreciated by everyone as little work has been done on the land yet.

The April meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held in the vestry on Thursday afternoon the 26th with an attendance of 19. The meeting was opened with a hymn and prayer by Mrs. Walker. Roll call was answered by giving the name of a "Canadian Writer." After which the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Several items of business were discussed and disposed of and it was decided to hold a social meeting out of doors weather permitting. A short programme was given Mrs. Ed. Kay gave a reading entitled "Put My Wee Boy In Bed." Mrs. Errington gave a solo accompanied by the autoharp and Mrs. Bruce Wallace gave a reading "In the Best of Whatever You Are." Collection was taken and the meeting closed with a hymn and the Mizpah Benediction.

The Moira Valley Cheese Factory opened on Tuesday, May 1st with Mr. J. Dudgeon as cheesemaker.

Mr. Wesley Morton, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown and Miss Isobel Beatty were Friday visitors at Mr. R. A. Morton's at Rawdon.

Mr. R. Bateman, Principal of Marlbank Public School spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bateman.

Mrs. D. Elliott is visiting her son Burton and Mrs. Elliott and children in Toronto for a few days.

Mr. F. Sherry attended the funeral of the late Mr. Charles McLean at Roslin on Monday afternoon. Interment was made in Thomasburg cemetery.

The Thomasburg Cemetery Board held a meeting at the residence of the Oddfellows' Hall on Saturday for general business for the year. Mr. Geo. Walker was appointed caretaker for the summer months.

Mr. J. Steven and Mr. N. Steven were in Toronto for a couple of days last week on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Taverner of Napanee spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Elliott.

Many interested Conservatives from here attended the Conservative convention at Madoc on Tuesday afternoon. Hon. William Finlayson, Minister of Northern Development was the chief speaker, while speeches were made by Mr. H. Cooke, Chairman of the Ontario Hydro Board, Mr. W. E. Summon, M.P., and Mr. J. F. Hill M.P.P.

The free concert and medicine show given by a couple of Indian girls on the street corner by the Red and White store on Tuesday evening drew an exceptionally large crowd. They sang a number of comic pieces and sold medicine.

FEELING MEAN AND NASTY?

WELL IT ISN'T YOUR SOUL —IT'S YOUR LIVER

GET THE POISON OUT AND THE SUNSHINE IN!

The best of people get "mean-of-sorts" from time to time. No calm disposition, good stomach, and strong nerves can fight a clogged up system. "Don't carry those poisons around with you. If you do, you are bound to have sick headaches and nerve indigestion.

Let BEECHAM'S clean out your system and put liver, and stomach, and bowels functioning regularly again.

BEECHAM'S—are so mild and effective—they are purely vegetable and quite harmless—safe to give to children. So inexpensively 25c a box. Perhaps you don't think you are in need of BEECHAM'S today. Well, just try a couple tonight and see how different you feel tomorrow. That will prove how much you were in need of them.

Beecham's PILLS
THE GREAT REGULATOR

SAM. INSULL LANDS IN U.S.

Will Face Federal Charges Over Collapse of Utilities

Fort Hancock, N.J., May 7.—(AP)—Samuel Insull, brought to this country from Greece to face Federal charges as a result of the collapse of his utilities empire, was landed here at 8.15 a.m. Daylight Time today.

He was placed in an automobile to be taken to Princeton Junction, N.J., there to be placed aboard a train for Chicago.

On the coast guard cutter Hudson to which he was transferred at 6.47 a.m., daylight time, he issued the first statement discussing the charge against him in Chicago.

"I have erred, but my greatest error was in underestimating the effect of the financial panic on American securities, and particularly on the companies I was trying to build," his statement said.

He continued:

"I worked with all my energy to save those companies from such mistakes—but they were honest mistakes. They were errors in judgment, but not dishonest intentions."

His opening remark in the statement was:

"I am here in America to make the most important fight of my life about only two freedom, but for complete vindication."

BRITISH ROLE AS PASSIVE

No Further Security Commitments in Europe

London, May 7—(CP Cable)—The Daily Telegraph said today the majority of the cabinet had reached a conclusion there was no justification for extending the United Kingdom's security commitments in Europe and that Britain's role when the world disarmament conference assembles May 29 would be quite passive than was believed last week.

The newspaper said the Ministerial Committee that had been handling the disarmament question had been concentrating on the new plan to extend European security guarantees but that the majority of the cabinet refused to accept such a course.

Prime Minister Ramsay Macdonald, it maintained, favored the proposal but was impressed by the flood of adverse comment from the Dominions.

Furthermore, the newspaper said, the French defense was planned on powers of a German attack can be maintained as long as France reserves absolute discretion regarding the armaments she requires.

The Telegraph described ministers as feeling that if France is now confident of her ability to look after herself, certain that no invasion she would not enter an arms limitation agreement in any event, there can be no justification for increasing British commitments in Europe.

REV. I. B. NAYLOR ADDRESS O. E. A.

The Rev. Mr. I. B. Naylor addressed the members and visitors of Belleville Chapter, No. 55, Order of the Eastern Star at the close of their regular meeting in Orange Hall Friday evening in the Oddfellows' Temple, Pinnacle.

The Worthy Matron, Miss Irene Hallam, was in the chair and after the Chapter had been declared closed an evening of entertainment arranged by Mrs. Arthur Naylor, P.M., and her group was thoroughly enjoyed.

Mr. R. D. Adams, P.P., acted as chairman and introduced the guest speaker who gave a beautiful address on Mother's Day. Rev. Mr. Naylor spoke fervidly of mother and mother's love and proclaimed "home" to be the sweetest word in any language. He spoke of the father's influence in the home and how the memories of home and mother, and home, are the most powerful influences for good in the life of the individual.

The speaker reminded mothers of their responsibility in setting a good example and entreated the young people to be true to the memories of their parents and their home.

The solos beautifully rendered by Mr. Clare Patterson, with Professor Lloyd accompanying at the piano and the lovely selections on the guitar given by Miss Muriel Smith were interspersed with readings and monologues.

Miss Marie Mills of Brighton, delighted the audience with her clever recitals. The splendid monologues given by Mr. Leslie Hart of Trenton, were keenly enjoyed.

An innovation in the program was the enacting of an amusing pantomime entitled "Wanted a Wife." Those taking part were: The Misses Gladys Mills, Nellie Rothwell, Ivy Hall, Rosalind Jarvis and Mr. Clayton Darrah.

The Worthy Patron, Mr. A. E. Barlow, expressed the sincere gratitude of the chapter for the inspiring address of the Rev. Mr. Naylor and to those taking part in the program, and on behalf of the Chapter moved a hearty vote of thanks which was seconded by Mr. Arthur Naylor, P.P.

The program was closed with the singing of the National Anthem after which Mrs. Naylor's group served refreshments.

SERUM TEST MAY BE FATAL

Colorado Prisoner May Fail in Gamble of Science

Canon City, Colo., May 7 — The death against which Colorado convict Carl Pickett gambled in the cause of science was threatening to overtake him last night.

He was dying of ill from the first of a series of injections of serums, which he volunteered to take in a "human test-tube" experiment to determine if a new tuberculosis preventive, developed at Denver, is a success.

Dr. H. J. Cooper of the National Jewish Hospital at Denver, who has been experimenting with the serums for fifteen years, said Miles Pickett, 28, was sick enough to seriously ill, but his condition is not considered critical.

Another convict, Carl Erickson, 25, is also ailing from serums.

He was not made ill by the first injections, which were started on Thursday.

The serums have been tested on animals, but this is the first time they have been injected into human beings. After the convicts receive a series of the injections they will be

"MARRY OFTEN"

MRS. WENDELL SMALL

That the way to perfect marital bliss is to remarry the same person and thus get a composite ideal of married life, is the view of Mrs. Small, of Boston, who ought to know. She recently married for the seventh time. Her initially most recent husband originally was her seventh time. She married her first when she was 16.

Too WEAK to do Her Housework

Now Strong and Healthy

"I took a severe attack of 'flu and influenza," writes Mrs. John Fraser of Owen Sound, "and when I was able to get out of bed I was left in a weak condition that I thought I would never get any strength back again. I could not do my housework. A friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I did, and after taking a few doses I found my strength was coming back. After taking six boxes I was completely well and as strong as I ever had been."

If you are weak, nervous, chronically tired—if your daily work is a burden—you, too, can quickly build up strength and energy with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

This is the remedy that was scientifically tested on 40 run-down people at a clinic held at a leading hospital. The physician-patients conducting the experiment wanted to find out whether Dr. Williams' Pink Pills could increase red blood cells and haemoglobin which a preparation must be able to do if it is to be of benefit to people suffering from anaemia.

Results GUARANTEED with this HOSPITAL TESTED remedy

1—Individual reports from these 40 patients are on file, certified by the hospital pathologist.

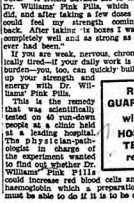
BEE HIVE
GOLDEN
CORN SYRUP
A GREAT ENERGY FOOD

Healthy Happy Children
Thrive on
MOORES CANDY

Wholesome Home-made Fudges	10c lb.
Peanut Crisp	15c to 25c lb.
Nut and Cream Caramels	25c and 29c lb.
Chocolate Covered Dates	25c lb.
Burnt Almonds and Brazils	39c lb.

Extra Special This Week
FULL COURSE MEALS
30c — 35c — 40c

Sandwiches, plain or toasted ..... 10c to 25c
Hot and Cold Drinks of all kinds
Ice Cream Sodas and Sundaes ..... 10c up
Ice Cream Bricks of all flavours ..... 25c each



MOORES
245 FRONT ST.—Next to Royal Bank

Blatchford's
ALL-IN-ONE CHICK MASH
It is made with the same care and from the same high quality ingredients as Blatchford's regular Chick Mash—the only difference being that it
INCLUDES SCRATCH FEED
GROUND RIGHT INTO IT.
It is correctly balanced and mineralized. Easy to feed. No additional grain required.
ALL IN ONE CHICK MASH
CHAS. E. BISHOP & SON
BELLEVILLE PHONE 283

"HOLD THAT POSE, COWGIRL!"

WATER RELEASES LITTLE LADS FOOT AS BOOT CATCHES

Halifax, May 7.—Bits lay trapped in a fast flowing brook, three-year-old Sol Swerling was firmly caught and firemen and police couldn't do anything about it. He, was a prisoner for half an hour while bandages gathered and suggested remedies. It looked as if the sidewalk would have to be torn up until one onlooker suggested pouring water in the hollow and the lather, and the experiment worked. The little fellow walked away grinning at his rescuers.

Miss Ethelyn Destreaux, pretty grand marshal of the recent "Beverly Hills on Parade" celebration, is to be painted on her rearing horse "Blondy" for preservation in time.

Beverly Hills' hall of fame, Frank Johnson Taylor, widely known artist, is commissioned for the work but imagine his difficulty in getting this pose down on canvas.

For Your Summer Wardrobe

FUR STORAGE and INSURANCE

Telephone 421

WOODLEY'S FURRIERS 272 Front St.

Personals

Mr. Leo Kennedy is visiting friends in Detroit.

Miss Maude Campbell is in Toronto, attending the Summer Millinery Openings.

Mrs. A. Therrien, Deseronto, has returned home after spending the past few days in the city the guest of Miss K. Nichols.

Miss W. H.-Cameron and children of Prince Albert, Sask., are visiting at her parents on 161 Albert street.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mott and Miss Mary Carmichael spent the week-end in Toronto.

Miss Rita Palmer, Ann street, spent the week-end at her home in Whitby.

Rev. Gerald Graham motored with his mother today to her home in Brockville, and will return to Belleville tomorrow. Mr. Graham will leave Belleville shortly for his new parish of Leeds East, to which he has been recently appointed.

Mr. J. P. Williams and sons, Fred and Bernie, who have been here to attend the funeral of the late Mr. Healy, at Bloco and also visited friends in Tyendinaga and Belleville have left for their home in Detroit. He was also accompanied home by his little daughter, Rosemary.

Mr. Ernie Lang, who has been in the Hotel Dieu, Kingston, for four weeks for eye treatment, was able to return to his duties at the post office today. Mr. Lang was under the care of Dr. Charles O'Connor of Kingston.

Guests from Belleville at the Ivey—Lascombe wedding in Toronto on Saturday were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Lascombe, Mr. and Mrs. Orland Pinkston, Mrs. E. Lascombe, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Arthur Hill, Miss Jean Moorman, Miss Kathleen Woodley, Mr. Charles Earle and Mr. Lionel Wales.

Miss Madeline Young, M.A., was elected a vice-president of the McMaster Alumnae Association at the annual dinner held at the University Women's Club, Toronto, on Friday evening.

Mrs. George Brown, a well known resident of this city at today receiving the congratulations and best wishes of her many friends on the occasion of her 80th birthday. Born in this city, the family home being on Mary street, Mrs. Brown has lived here continuously and has seen the city undergo many changes. Mrs. Brown now resides with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Whalen. Other members of her family are Mr. George Brown of Belleville, Ont., and Miss Jean Brown of Detroit. Mrs. Brown is enjoying very good health.

PASSPORT IS FOUND ON BODY IN LAKE

Name of Clarence Warner, 46, of Belleville, on Document.

Harrow, May 7.—A body found floating in Lake Erie Saturday is believed to be that of Clarence Warner, 46, of Belleville, A. Canadian passport found in a pocket of the clothing gave this name and age, and occupation as farm laborer.

Big Reductions in the Following Lines

Leather Goods, Toiletware, Silverware, Clocks, Lighters, Bracelets, Pendants, Glassware, Umbrellas, and etc.

J. O. R. McCurdy

334 Front St. Phone 518

Exquisite Kay Francis heads the cast of "Wonder Bar," unique musical drama coming to the Belle, Tuesday.

Weddings

READ—CRANSTON

A quiet but pretty event took place on Saturday, April 21st, at twelve o'clock noon, in the Plainfield parsonage when Edith Helena, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cranston Halloway became the bride of Mr. George Edwin Read, only son of Mrs. R. Read, Shipley. Rev. J. F. Peterson officiated.

The youthful bride looked charming in a dress of yachi bisa georgette with white accessories. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses, lily-of-the-valley and fern. The groom's gift to the bride was a Monroe wrist watch.

The bride's travelling dress was ashes of roses crepe with grey coat and accessories with a grey fox choker.

After congratulations and best wishes were tendered the happy couple left amid showers of confetti for a trip to eastern points and the United States.

Miss Ruth Brough and Mr. Gordon Detlor were their attendants.

On Mr. and Mrs. Read's return they will reside at the groom's home, 4th concession of Sidney.

Those in attendance at the ceremony were guests of the bride's parents at their home in Bellevile.

HOLLOWAY STREET W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of Holloway Street W.M.S. was held on Wednesday afternoon, May 2nd, in the church parlours, with the President, Mrs. Denton in the chair, and Mrs. Morden at the piano.

The meeting opened with the Call to Worship and the Hymn "All Praise to Thy redeeming love" this was followed by prayer by the President.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, then a paper on "The Kingdom of God movement was read by Mrs. Denton.

The various secretaries reports were given and showed that a sincere interest was being taken in all departments. A very interesting feature of the meeting was a letter from Miss Luella Burke, the missionary in Japan, (to whom this auxiliary is especially interested.

This letter was of some length and touched many items of general interest in Japan.

Mrs. Bosh leader of Group 'Five, then took charge of the meeting and Mrs. Bosh read 37th "Blest be the tie that binds" was sung;

The Scripture Reading from John 17 2-20-26 was read by Mrs. Allerby.

A reading "Going to Church in Korea" was given by Miss Hamilton. A solo "He lifted me" was sung by Mrs. Gordon Hall and was greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Neil gave a splendid talk on "Peace".

The meeting closed by singing hymn 533 "Father again in Jesus' name we meet" and all repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Members of Group Five served refreshments and a social half hour was enjoyed by all.

BLACK—WALSH

A pretty, but quiet wedding was solemnized this morning at St. Alphonsus Church, Wooler when Jean Walsh, daughter of Mrs. Walsh and the late Mr.- Walsh became the bride of James Twomey Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Black of Belleville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Corkery.

Th bride looked charming in a blue ensemble with matching accessories and was attended by her sister, Miss Evelyn Walsh. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Alphonsus Black. After the wedding breakfast, the happy couple left on a motor trip to Montreal, Quebec and points east. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Twomey Black will reside in Belleville.

ST. ANDREW'S W.M.S.

The W.M.S. of St. Andrew's church held a meeting in the church Hall on Wednesday, May 2nd, with Mrs. Seymour, the President, presiding. The program was in charge of Mrs. Lill and her group, who also conducted the devotional service. After the business session, when the minutes of the last meeting were read, the Treasurer's report heard and corresponden was taken up. Mrs. Bateman and Mrs. Ranson gave their reports from the Provincial Presbyterial, which was held in Hamilton in April.

Covering as they did the work of the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church in Canada during the past year, these reports were an interesting feature of the meeting and a source of encouragement to all who heard them. Resolutions of appreciation were tendered Mrs. Bateman and Mrs. Ranson, for their efforts as delegates, to bring back so complete a review of the Annual Provincial meeting.

WARM RESPONSE TO RED CROSS ANNUAL APPEAL

One Hundred Dollars Already Received by Committee

OPENING DAY

Canvassers Make Personal Visits to Belleville Homes

Belleville Red Cross Campaign 934 underway today with over thirty-five workers taking part in the canvas. Already the Campaign Treasurer Mr. W. B. Deacon is able to announce that a very fine response has been made by mail and approximately $100 received. This is most encouraging to the Campaign Committee. In addition to acting as Campaign Treasurer, Mr. Deacon has agreed to act as the general campaign chairman due to Mr. Cyril Wallis's sudden departure from this city. Mr. George Ferguson a member of the local Red Cross Board is in charge of the men canvassers, who will cover the downtown business cards and Mrs. Stuart Lazier is in charge of the Women canvassers who are doing the residential calls.

The Red Cross executive at an emergency meeting called on Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Stuart Lazier expressed a hearty vote of thanks to the two local theatres for showing the very attractive Red Cross talks for a few days during the campaign; also to the Boy Scouts of Belleville, who under the chairmanship of Scout Master Rev. T. R. Graham distributed the Red Cross window cards throughout the city. Special mention was also made by N. R. Vinton the Ontario Field Secretary of the interesting Red Cross window which is being shown throughout this week in the Canadian Department Stores by courtesy of the Manager Mr. W. J. McMillan. The Committee also referred to the firm assistance being given the campaign by the Ontario Intelligencer and a special vote of thanks was extended to Mr. W. H. Mortop and the staff of the paper.

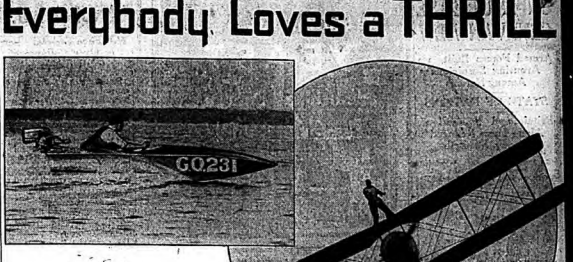
The Girl Guides and their helpers are assisting in the appeal under the direct chairmanship of Mrs. Stuart Lazier and Miss Anna Hurley.

Mrs. H. W. Ackerman, Mrs. F. B. Smith, Mrs. Ida Thompson, Miss Clare Walbridge, Mrs. G. A. C. Webr, Mrs. C. A. Cameron, Mrs. R. E. Vaux, Mrs. J. W. Hunsar, Miss Mabel Philpoon, Mrs. W. Pinkle, Mrs. J. R. Pettyjon, Mrs. A. B. Collins, Mrs. L. W. Howe, Mrs. G. Newby, Mrs. Dr. J. S. Bigham, Mrs. P. C. MacLaurin, Mrs J. E. Bateman, Mrs. A. B. Cribbin, Mrs. Dr. Ponton, Miss Ella McGinnis Miss Jessie McGie, Mrs. E. H. Allen, Mrs. R. Rogers, Mrs. H. L. Pearsall, Miss M. Ketchem, Mrs. W. H. Hubbard, Miss S. Davison, Mrs. Cyril Wallis, Mrs. A. W. Pratt, Mrs. N. E. Edwards, Mrs. Lloyd Thompson, Mrs. E. A. Geen, Mrs. John Neale.

SOFTBALL

On Saturday morning on Queen Mary School grounds took place a most exciting game of softball between Junior teams from Holloway United Church and Christ Church of England. At end of the ninth inning the score was fourteen all. It was agreed to play an extra innings and while Christ Church boys failed to win out—boys from Holloway played a great "finish" and the final score 16 for Holloway and 15 for Christ Church. The following boys played for Holloway Bosh (cf.) Rouse (catcher), Hall, (pitcher), Mallory (1b), Hall (2b), Symons (3b), Hall (ss), Long, Reed (r.f.), Langsbeer (l.f.) Salsbury (subs). Symons (l.f.) during way team was ably managed by Fred Rouse and Chumbley.

The losing team consisted of Flindall (c.f.) Bone, (r.f.) Gordon (catcher) Kenneth Cherry (lf.) Robert Dack (p) Charlie Aust, (1b), Cyril Christ, Maguire (ss), Jack Ostrom, (3b), Bill Gordon, (2b)



Christ Church team was satisfactorily managed by George Darvell. George deserves great credit for his consistent interest in the training of the Junior teams of Christ Church. These boys are among others that have entered the sports conducted by Inter-Church Softball League of Belleville.

Mr. A. B. Hymn of Christ Church kept score, and he declared to those present that he had a hard time from watching and keeping score than at any previous game he has attended in a great many years.

APEX 25¢ MOTH 25¢ CAKES

FOR SALE by ALL DRUGGISTS

Everybody Loves a THRILL

Here's a THRILL for Breakfast

A THRILL indeed—these crisp, curly flakes that have the world's best-loved breakfast flavour—the nut-sweet flavour of "Grape-Nuts" Cereal. Get a package for tomorrow's breakfast. And remember, not only does "Grape-Nuts" Flakes beat everything for downright deliciousness, but it is also exceptionally nourishing—because of healthful grains baked by a special process. Your grocer has it. Made in Canada.

"GRAPE-NUTS" FLAKES

the Smile-Tempting Breakfast Thrill

GF14M

GOLDEN-FLAKE COMPANION TO "GRAPE-NUTS" CEREAL

RADIO PROGRAMS

MONDAY

E. S. T.

8.15—U. S. Army Band—WJZ
8.30—News; Jim Hunter—CFRB.
8.30—Geo. Gershwin and Orchestra—WJZ
8.35—Leigt Romanelli's Concert Orchestra—CFRB
7.00—Lavender and Old Lace —WTAM
7.00—Happy Bakers—WGR
7.15—Edwin C. Hill—CRCT
7.30—Bing Crosby, Jimmy Grier's Orchestra—CKLW; WGR
7.30—Lawrence Tibbett.
7.45—Babe Ruth's Baseball Comment—WJZ; WGR
8.00—Harry Horlick's Gypsies; Frank Parker, tenor—WTAM
8.00—Rosa Ponselle, Andre Kostelanetz's Orchestra—WABC; CKLW
8.00—Minstrel Show—WJZ
8.30—Melody Moments; Orchestral direction Josef Pasternack—WHAM
8.30—"The Big Show", Gedtrude Nissen, Ethel Ragers orchestra—WABC.
9.00—Contented Hour—CRCT
9.30—Lillian Roth; Ohman and Arden and Orchestra—CKAC, WABC
10.15—The Poet Prince—WJZ

TUESDAY

E. S. T.

WEAF
8.15—Castles in the Air—CRCT
9.30—Treasure Chest; Don Allen's Orchestra—WTAM
10.30—U. S. Marine Band—CRCT
12.15—Noon Balde Concert Ensemble—CRCT
1.00—Anne Leaf at the Organ—WABC; CKAC
5.00—Metropolitan Parade; Leith Stevens, Conductor—CFRB, CKAC; WABC.
7.00—Seventh Regimental Band—WEAF; WLW
7.30—Alice Joy—CRCT
8.30—Bob Standlin, baritone —CFRB
8.00—Frances Alda, soprano —WEAF
8.30—Concert Program: Hudson's Orchestra—WAB; WGR.
7.00—Crime Clews—WLW
7.30—Abe Lyman's Orchestra and "Accordiana"—CFRB
8.00—Musical Memories; Edgar Guest, Alice Moon, Chas. Sears, Joe Koestner's Orchestra—WJZ
8.00—Ben Bernie and his Orchestra WLW; WTAM
8.30—Myrt and Marge—WEAF; WLW
8.30—Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra—WABC
9.00—Variety Show—WJZ
9.00—Colonel Stoopnagle and Budd, Glen Gray's Orchestra —WABC
9.00—Beauty Box Theatre; Gladys Swathout; Chorus; Nat. Shilkret's Orchestra—WEAF.
9.30—Symphony Concert; Frank Black; Emil de Cogozo Spanish baritone — WJZ; CFRB.
10.00—News—CFRB
11.00—Rudy Vallee's Orchestra — WEAF

STARS OF R ADIOLAND

RUTH ROBIN

Springtime always brings song birds. Radio's "bird" is pretty Ruth Robin, who is just 19, has a deep-throated tone in her voice...

The Beatty is Better

Your hands are hardly in the water at all with the Beatty— because of the basket, and because there is no rubbing, soaking, bleaching or boiling. Beatty factory branches everywhere sell direct at lowest prices—sell more than all other companies in Canada together.

DIAMOND JUBILEE 1934 JUBILEE

BEATTY WASHER STORE
225 Front St. Phone 770

Model C with basket

Thousands of OPPORTUNITIES in the WANT ADS

JOBS HOUSES AUTOS — RADIOS ROOMS PETS

Automobile Insurance

With these people being killed every two days in Ontario by autos, you are taking very great chances to be without insurance. Rates are now the lowest they have ever been.

Jamieson Bone & Co.

PHONE 1344 — Investments.

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

INDUSTRIALS CLOSE

Toronto, May 7 (CP)—Industrial stocks were hammered for losses of a point or more in the first hour today on the Toronto Stock Exchange. Losses among specialties were largely weakness on the New York Exchange.

Industry shares were unbolstered in nearly volume, much of it continuing from the last hour of trading yesterday. Selling was heaviest especially in the last half hour reduced losses to points, but 75 per cent. of the board closed on the downside. Following an early loss of one point Steinbergs industrial stocks moved weak this afternoon on the Toronto Stock Exchange. Other industrial issues including Ford A and B shares all receded lower points.

Wilder's common receded to 30¼ and then recovered a fraction this afternoon. Canada Steamships dropped 1¼ and Industrial Alcohol lost 1.

Bell Telephone had the best turnover this week and recorded a gain of 1 point, closing at 118½. Consolidated Mining Smelting was strong at 52¾, up 1¼ points for the week, but closed to 52¼ today. Consolidated Smelters recovered 1 point from the day's 7 point recession but failed to hold it.

Ford A sold off more than a point.

TORONTO MINES

TORONTO, May 7.—(CP)—Trading in Mining Shares dumped holdings in volume this afternoon as pronounced weakness developed on the Industrial markets. The mining session of the Toronto Exchange, while generally lower all the close, had an upward swing during the first hour of about $2 in McIntyre. In the last hour, however, Sheep Creek issue issues were limited to $1. Silver stocks had heavy losses and the zinc stocks. The mining board of the Toronto Stock Exchange was generally lower, mainly by weakness on the New York and other Industrial markets and prices generally recorded all along the line except in silver group.

While Metal shares were observed by a few in New York, Washington and the prospect of an agreement on silver buying program.

Gold stocks weakened mainly. Dome, McIntyre, Pioneer and Wright Hargreaves. Vipond, Antonio Macassa, Sylvanite and Sisco were off about a full point.

The best prices in the Silver group were recorded by Mr. First hour when Rickardo sold up to $3 for a gain of 5 points. Beaver Silver declined to a point or so occurred with its near relatives in the Cobalt listings. Shares off 2 to 5 at their worst were Coniagas, Crown Reserve, Industrial Alcohol, Santa Fe, Allied Chemical, U. S. Smelting and U. S. Steel. Transfers approximated 2,200,000 shares.

There were some scattered recoveries in the first hour, but offerings expanded as the day progressed and along about noon selling developed in all categories. The activity also was more pronounced on the sliding movement, and losses of 1 to 3 points were seen upon appearing among the favorites.

Bonds were irregular.

Losses among Canadian Stocks were generally moderate. Shares of Canadian Pacific, International Nickel, Dome and McIntyre yielded fractionally. On the curb Hiram Walker dipped around 2 points but Lake Shore was resistant. Dominion Government issues were steady but the Canadian dollar ruled unchanged at 100.31 1-4.

Shares down 1 to around 3 included American Telephone, Allied Chemical, American Can, American Tobacco B., Johns-Manville, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, United Aircraft, General Motors, New Jersey and California, General Motors and U.S. Steel.

Stock Market Gossip

Outlook.

Market needs some good news to stimulate buying and there is nothing anything else to take their mind off it the public still remembers the gold tax fiasco.

Silver may come to the front today on Washington news that President Roosevelt is willing to compromise with the silver bloc. In this way he hopes to avoid the drastic inflationary measure which are threatening. Half a loaf is better than none to the silvers and with the administration making some concession the silver crowd are certain to be placated and will not opportunity. The Roosevelt is to tell day on Washington news that President Roosevelt is willing to compromise with the silver bloc. In this way he hopes to avoid the drastic inflationary measure which are threatening. Half a loaf is better than none to the silvers and with the administration making some concession the silver crowd are certain to be placated and will not opportunity. The Roosevelt is to tell day on Washington news that President Roosevelt is willing to compromise with the silver bloc. In this way he hopes to avoid the drastic inflationary measure which are threatening. Half a loaf is better than none to the silvers and with the administration making some concession the silver crowd are certain to be placated and will not opportunity. The Roosevelt is to tell day on Washington news that President Roosevelt is willing to compromise with the silver bloc. In this way he hopes to avoid the drastic inflationary measure which are threatening. Half a loaf is better than none to the silvers and with the administration making some concession the silver crowd are certain to be placated and will not opportunity. The Roosevelt is to tell this morning.

Meanwhile the gold stocks have not done well neither have they lost a great deal of ground. Lack of buying has been the trouble while a certain amount of selling has broken out occasionally. The latter is rather pessimistic over the securities till the United States New York has been in under way in longlac promotions. This camp is becoming important in setting everyday and it may be that it will be the next big producer of gold boom. There are four prospects of merit now. Little Long Lac already a mine and Hard Rock, McLeod Cockshutt, Bankfield with merit proven but considered and others coming along.

Another big one will could clean up the snow and start a tremendous staking boom as there are numerous prospectors on the ground awaiting the clearing of the deep snow.

Developements of the Fast Mining.

The mining market during past week was under the spell of the controversy over the proposed take on gold. In the early days of the period there seemed to be a prevailing word from Ottawa on modifications. On Wednesday the public had reason to believe the government intended to afford the industry relief from that proposed of 10 per cent tax on gold and late that day prices turned. The announcement came well on in the evening and Thursday the public was scrutinizing of junior and moderate fluctuating of senior golds but full realization of advances was sustained and market response was far from decisive. Some of the issues declined nearer a stage where it will no longer be an important factor in day to day operations on the exchange and the market in most will re-turn to the policy of discounting favorable and unfavorable news of developments, rumors and forecasts and news of any other character which concerns the industry.

Washington—The Senate silver bloc is anticipating that a definite decision on silver legislation will be reached at the coming conference with President Roosevelt either today or Tuesday.

Senator Thomas of Okla., declared that he expected both the President and the silver bloc are desirous of settling the silver question a possible and the next White House conference will bring about a meeting of minds on the problem.

Distillery Shares Weaken.

The further weakness being expressed in the markets for the shares of the Canadian distillery companies is distinctly disappointing to a large body of shareholders and investors who have been hoping for more convincing price action. Frankly the stock markets are clearly recognizing the uncertainties that are now surrounding the future of the U. S. along the lines and for reasons already explained by Financial counsel. Careful observers who are constantly in touch with conditions politically and industrially across the border feel that position of the Canadian group of American type whiskies and spirits for sale in that market have become rather unfavorable as the new plant operations in the U. S. are bound to be coming into production from bootleggers and other elements. Standard quality products legally blended and bottled or wholly produced in U. S. are now in the position to legitimate production costs, taxes, import duties, etc., can not successfully compete with 60-to-70 legal vendor and the bottle and label concerns.

To Ask Anti Japanese Import Quotas

London—Great Britain will ask the colonies of the Empire to impose quotas against Japanese products This announcement made in the House of Commons by Walter Runciman, President of the Board of Trade.

Liquor at Quebec Hotels.

Representations to the Taschereau Govt. urging modification of Quebec liquor laws to permit sale of hard liquor in hotels are being made by hotel keepers of province. Sales of hard liquor in hotels in United States such as New York places Quebec in a position where they have much revenue from tourist trade unless a change is made.

CAP AND OAR FOUND SUGGEST SUICIDE

Sarnia, Ont., May 7 (CP)—Finding of a cap and oar floating on the St. Clair River at 5 o'clock and a quarter south of Port Tambton today, strengthened the belief of authorities that Matthew Doyle of that village had committed suicide after an alleged attempt to murder his wife Saturday night. Mrs. Doyle was still alive today but her condition was reported serious.

MRS. FAULKNER WINS TROPHY

Highest Aggregate In Three Games In Bridge Tourney

Woodstock, Ont., May 7.—Mrs. J. A. Faulkner of Belleville today held the John Hall trophy awarded to the player having the highest aggregate in three games at the Oxford-Elgin annual bridge tournament. The majority of trophies went to Woodstock players.

In the international pairs competition, Dr. W. J. Kelly and Dr. Udy of London won the east-west section while G. P. Francis and R. McDonald of Toronto won the north-south.

FEAR MINERS ARE TRAPPED

Fire Bars Exit of 20 Believed To Be Alive In German Mine

Buggingen, Germany, May 7 — Eighty miners are trapped in a narrow gallery, an area believed dead following an explosion and fire in the Buggingen potash mine near Mulheim, Baden, early today.

An heavy smoke poured out of the shafts it was doubted whether the entombed men could escape. No flame appeared impossible.

A short circuit caused an explosion which was followed by the fire in shafts more than 2,000 feet below the surface and spread rapidly. Repeated explosions brought terror-ins and shafts of the mine to miners.

Mine authorities called out all fire fighting and rescue apparatus in the area. They refused to divulge the exact number of men who were below the surface.

FIND BABY'S BODY

Toronto, May 7 (CP)—Constable Byron Burbidge of Etobicoke today was investigating the finding of a baby's body wrapped in old newspapers on the bank of Mimico Creek near the Lake Shore Highway in Etobicoke Township. The Coroner reported the body to be that of a still-born premature baby.

NEW "FLASK" BOTTLE

POCKET FLASK BOTTLE

A new flat 13-ounce bottle has been authorized by the Ontario Liquor Control Board. Previously these smaller-sized bottles had to be three-cornered to discourage selling them about. Now the board has granted permission for the new bottle because, according to the board, of complaints of customers.

IN MEMORIAM

COPE—In loving memory of a dear husband, father, Thomas Cope, who passed away, May 6th, 1932.

Sweet memories of a dad, so dear,
Are often recalled by a silent tear,
Cherished still with a love sincere,
Only a memory, but Oh, so dear.
Our lips cannot speak how we miss him
Our hearts cannot tell what to say.
God only knows how we miss.
In a home that is lonesome today.
—Sadly missed by Wife and Family.

m7-1t.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. Robert Shar, Ivanhoe, wishes to thank his neighbors and friends also the Mission Band and Sunday School of the United Church, for their kindness shown in various ways during his mother's illness and death, also the United Church for the use of church for funeral service.

m7-1t.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. Robert A. Hall and family wish to convey to their friends and neighbors their appreciation for the many kindnesses shown to them during their bereavement and to thank them also for the numerous beautiful floral offerings.

m7-1t.

BIRTHS

MARNER—At the Belleville General Hospital on Sunday, May 6th, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Marner, 35 Ridley Ave., a son (Robert Frederick).

m7-1t.

BIRTHS

DEMPSEY—In Belleville General Hospital, on Monday, May 7th, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Dempsey (nee Wilma M. Ellis), a son.

m7-1t.

MARRIAGES

ARNOTT-LAUZER—On Monday, May 7th, 1934, at the Bridge Street United Church Parsonage, Marmora, Bernice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lauder, to Mr. Richard Price Arnott, son of Mrs. Richard Arnott and the late Mr. Arnott, Rev. Dr. James Semple officiating.

m7-1t.

THE MARTIN FUNERAL HOME
218-218 CAMPBELL ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 2980
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
87 Dundas Street
Phone 774-W Day and Night
J. W. INGLIS
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland A. Pinkster
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve for Less
FUNERAL HOME
Cor. Church and
Victoria Ave.
Phone 2282

Thomas C. Thompson
Funeral Director
and
Funeral Home
38 Everett St. Phone 62
Office
288 Front St. Phone 62

34 Strachan Street To-Let

3 rooms downstairs, 2 bedrooms, toilet, hardwood floors downstairs, wired for electric range, newly decorated, good garden, easily heated. A comfortable home at low rental. Immediate possession.

BELLEVILLE LOCATORS
Geo. N. Gorman, Prop.
164 Front Street
Phone 99 House Phone 687

FOOT COMFORT FOR SURE — Use Cress Corn or Bunion Salves sold by Belleville I.D.A. Druggists.

TO-LET

PASTURE FOR CATTLE. APPLY Geo. Dempsey, College Street. Phone 2226. m7-2t.

3 ROOM APARTMENT AND BATH — hot water heated. Reasonable to right adults. Write Box "P" Ontario Intelligencer. m7-1t.

3 ROOMS PARTLY FURNISHED or unfurnished. All conveniences for light housekeeping. Apply between 6 and 8 p.m. at 198 Front Street. m7-1t.

7 ROOM BRICK DUNBAR ST. 3 bedrooms, 3 piece bath. Part hardwood floors, large lot $22. Apply Belleville Realty Co. R. B. Wilson, Prop., Kresge Bldg. m7-1t

MODERN 8 ROOM BRICK house. Large garage and garage. 32 Front St. Apply on premises. m7-1t.

FIVE ROOM HOUSE ALBERT ST. All conveniences, large sized living room. Garage. Apply P. F. Carney, 110 Victoria Avenue. Phone 1488.

PLEASANT, COMFORTABLE, furnished bedroom. Centrally located. All conveniences. Garage if required. Apply 308 George St. m3-3t.

APARTMENT TO LET, ENTRANCE through Shoe Store on Victoria Avenue. Fit to suit tenant. Apply Sam Rappo, Victoria Restaurant. m4-2t.

HOUSEKEEPING MADE EASY by occupying one of these attractive residences:—Duplex house, Charles St. $20. Duplex house near Hydro office; house Albert St. Miss Corbett. Phone 2226.

m4-3t.

3 ROOM HEATED APARTMENT available for office or light housekeeping. Apply 251 Front Street.

FIVE ROOMED APARTMENT, hardwood floors, heated, private bath. Thompson's, 104 Dundas St. West. m1-1mo.

5 ROOM APARTMENT, MODERN conveniences. Also 1 room apartment, suitable for light housekeeping. Apply 150 Front Street. Phone 2979.

APARTMENT, FIVE ROOMS, heated, hardwood floors, fireplace, sleeping porch. Apply Feb. 21. Apply at Ontario Intelligencer Office. f20-tf

Attention

The Conservative Convention for West Hastings will be held in the Town Hall, Marmora, Friday, May 11th, at 8 p.m. for the purpose of selecting a candidate. All supporters of the Ontario Government are cordially invited.

R. A. Elliott, Belleville, R. H. Ketcheson, Deloro, P.O. Belleville. m6 7 9.

Special Notice

Meeting of the Conservatives of Belleville will be held in their club rooms, Mondy evening, May 7th, at 8 p.m. for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the convention at Marmora on Friday, May 11th. This includes the ladies auxiliary, men's organization.

F. M. McKeown,— R. H. Ketcheson, President. Secretary. m7 3 7.

COURT OF REVISION

for the municipality of the Township of Tyendinaga will hold its first sitting in the Township Hall, Melrose, on Tuesday the 29th day of May, 1934, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of revising, correcting and establishing the assessment roll for year 1934.

D. J. Callahan, Clerk. m7-11.

LOST

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, TWO parcels containing blankets and drapes between Brockville and Belleville or Belleville, Stirling or Campbellford. Reward if left at Ontario Intelligencer. m4-1t

LOST

SATURDAY NOON, ROLL OF bills between Bridge Street and Pinnacle Street hill. Finder kindly ward if left at this office. m7-2t

GRAIN MARKETS

Chicago, May 7 (AP)—Wheat prices shot upward more than three cents at Chicago today on the strength of broadened speculative interest and commission house demand during grain pounding area. The golden grain was up 2 cents at the close with the low of a week ago

Corn prices also increased more than a cent a bushel. The two declared rather distinctly in favor of being more directly affected by the weather than wheat. Corn, however, showed the most strength. July opened at 81 1-8-7-8 cent, July touched early to 82 1-3 cents. September was up a like amount at 82 3-8 cents, after opening 81 1-4 to 82 3-4 cents.

POLICE SEEK MEN

Windsor, May 7 (CP)— Police are seeking two men who "strongarmed" Alex Fabian this morning and took four dollars from his pockets. Vague and varied description of the two have been given police.

PHONE 99 Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagements, Special Notices $1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices $1.00; In Memoriam, 25c; Memoriam Poetry, minimum charge 50c; Cards of Thanks (not exceeding 50 words) $1.00; Resolutions of Condolence, minimum charge 50c.

CLASSIFIED — (For Sale, Wanted, etc.)—1c per word per insertion for first TWO insertions, subsequent insertions 1c per word.

CONTRACT RATES—15c per insertion for 25 words or under, over that amount 5c per word.

PROFESSIONAL, LEGAL AND BUSINESS CARDS—(Yearly basis only)—$5.00 per inch. Non-profit GOVERNMENT AND MUNICIPAL NOTICES (including those concerning Local Improvements)—15c per agate line (14 lines to inch) for first insertion; 10c per line for subsequent insertions.

AUCTION SALES—$1.00 per inch, including 50 words for the commercial use therein, 2c per word for excess.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating silver five words to the line.

Please your Want Ads when in person or by telephone. PHONE 99. The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of an incorrect ad. Phone 99 if in doubt.

Advertisers may use their address as a box number. Number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

REQUIRED AT ONCE, CREW managers and salesmen for new patented household Electric Suction Cleaners. (five models) can be carried in pocket, high commission basis. Ex-Fuller men will find a very interesting proposition. Write Box "F" Ontario Intelligencer. m7-1t.

SALESLADY — EXPERIENCED only need apply. Apply between 10 and 11 a.m. Wills Shoppe, Belleville. m7-1t.

BABY CARRIAGE IN GOOD CONDITION. Phone 1188. m7-1t.

ONE HAND ORCHARD SPRAYER in good condition. Write Box "N" Ontario Intelligencer. m7-1t.

MAN WANTED—Apply Box 'G' Steady, no layoff if you work 2 hours daily. Apply 8, Semple, J. B. Waitzul Co., 2195 Mansfield St., Montreal. m7 9 14 16

GOOD GENERAL UNHAMPERED with references. Write Box "S" Ontario Intelligencer. m7-1t.

EXPERIENCED REPRESENTATIVE for famous Health Appliance. Unusual opportunity. Write Harmony Electro Mfrs., 2 Dundas St. E., Toronto Can. m4 4 7.

SOD SUITABLE FOR LAWN and bowling green. Inquire R. J. Wray. Phone 40. m4-3t.

FOR SALE

BABY ALIGATOR WITH GLASS front case and swimming pool (aquarium). Phone 1188. m7-1t.

ICE CHEST, GAS STOVE, SOLID black walnut square dining table, solid oak settee, etc. Apply after 3 p.m. 216 Dundas. m7-1t

COACH PUPPIES, BABY CHICKS, also cockerels and Pullets ready hatching eggs. Wm. Rowland, 168 Bleecker Ave. Phone 3582. m7-1t.

COW MANURE $1.00 PER HEAPED cart, Carter, Station P.O. m7-1t.

STOVE COAL, 2 CARLOADS, model, 5 good tires, new top and in fair condition. Apply 104 Dundas St. or licensed. Apply 104 Dundas St. Phone West 1170.

CHEAP GOOD MILCH COW, well bred. Phone 1362W. Apply 104 W. Moira St. m7-1t

MILCH COWS, HOLSTEINS. Apply Robt. Bird, Foxboro. m7-2t

BOYS' BICYCLE APPLY AFTER EVENings between 6 and 7, 31 Ridley Ave. m7-1t

BARRED ROCK CHICKS FROM Ontario breeding station, culled and blood-tested, also eggs under Dominion Hatchery Approval. Phone 18-R-23, price 12 Bridge St. Black & Sons, Belleville No. 7. m7 11 14.

ESSEX SUPER SIX '28 MODEL— Good condition. L. Goulding, Ingham St. Phone 1934M. m7-3t

1 ACRE CHOICE GARDEN LAND with 1 room dwelling, well, hog pen and hen house, in village of Thomasburg on Highway No. 37. This is a desirable residential home. Must be sold to wind up estate. Apply to Mrs. Sherry, Latta, or Collins & Cushing, Barristers, Belleville. a24 26 28 m1 3 5.

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Chicago market as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today.

Wheat, May 84 1-2; July 82 5-8. Sept. July 81 5-8; Sept. 33 3-4; Sept. 33 1-8.

Business Directory

AUCTIONEER

For City of Belleville and Provincial
NORMAN MONTGOMERY
55 Bridge West Belleville
Phone 1170 m7-1m

AUTOMOBILE LOANS

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner Car Financing of All Kinds
S. J. FISHER & SON
30 Bridge St. E. Telephone 188
Representing
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto-Ottawa-London-Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., SPECIAL examination with the Radionic reveals all diseases in their early stages. Foot disorders corrected, all diseases treated. Phone 900 or write 288 Coleman St., Belleville.

H. R. and Vera B. Pitcher

CHIROPRACTORS
(Honour Graduates)
Palbo-Neurometer Service
174½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1274 Belleville, Ont.

DENTIST

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 462 246½ Front St. 317-2m.

SURVEYORS

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Engineer.
Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to.
PHONE 6—P.O. BOX 99
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST.
Life and Fire Insurance
Phone 220
251 Front St.

HALL & EARLE

General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
218 Front Street Phone 1154W

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738. P. H. Wills, Branch Manager. m3-1y.

LEGAL

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public, Chas. E. Payne, K.C., R. D. Arnott, Offices: 212 Front Street, Belleville, Ont.

CHARLES KERR, BARRISTER, solicitor, Notary and Commissioner, 28 Bridge St. East, Belleville, Ont.

T. V. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLicitor, Notary, etc., Office No. 15 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. m4-1f.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office 33 Bridge St. East, Belleville.

PONTON & GRAHAM, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, Etc. Belleville Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Loans on mortgages. W. N. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham. Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late P. B. Wallbridge), Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, Corner Front and Bridge streets. Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 25 Bridge Street E. R. J. Butler, K.C., Ormonde Butler.

B. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario

PERSONAL

REMOVE THAT UNSIGHTLY EYEsore weight safely and surely. Ask McKeown's Drug Store for Slender Tablets. Literature free. Purely vegetable. Three weeks treatment $1.50.

KING OF TURF IS CAVALCADE

Season Has Been Literal Triumph For Derby Winner

(By Alan Gould)
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

New York, May 7.—(AP)—The wise old fellow with the satchel full of horse shoes—meaning the blacksmith who nailed the plates to the Kentucky Derby winner — knew what he was talking about, after all. Cavalcade, as he insisted two days before the race, was just a "big bully" and demonstrated it on Saturday to the complete satisfaction of an amazingly big crowd by over-powering all rivals in an exciting stretch drive at historic Churchhill Downs.

He's the King of the three-year-old United States turf today and until further notice—this English-bred offspring of a long line of thoroughbred champions. It has been a literal procession of triumph so far this spring for Cavalcade, victor in three straight races. In rapid succession the star of the Brookmeade Stable, owned by Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloane of New York and Florida, had equalled one track record, broken another and romped off with the $37,000 classic of the Bluegrass.

So far the Brookmeade colt has not been hard-pressed at the finish of any race. He looks to have the stamina, as well as speed for a great campaign, though his Derby time of 2.04 was short of the record and expectations.

Calvacade will not start in the preakness at Pimlico this Saturday. His stablemate, High Quest, will carry Mrs. Sloane's hopes in that three-year-old classic while the Derby winner rests until the American Derby at Chicago.

C.O.A.B.L. Schedule

May 24—Oshawa at Belleville. (Two games).

May 24—Kingston at Peterboro.
May 30—Belleville at Kingston.
June 2—Belleville at Peterboro.
June 6—Kingston at Belleville
June 6—Peterboro at Oshawa
June 13—Peterboro at Kingston
June 16—Belleville at Peterboro.
June 20—Peterboro at Belleville.
June 23—Kingston at Peterboro.
June 27—Peterboro at Kingston
June 27—Belleville at Oshawa.
July 2—Oshawa at Kingston (Two games)
July 4—Kingston at Belleville.
July 7—Belleville at Peterboro.
July 11—Peterboro at Belleville
July 11—Kingston at Oshawa
July 14—Belleville at Kingston
July 18—Kingston at Belleville
July 25—Peterboro at Kingston
July 28—Kingston at Peterboro
Aug. 6—Oshawa at Peterboro (Two games)
Aug. 8—Belleville at Kingston
Aug. 15—Peterboro at Belleville

LEAGUE LEADERS

(By the Associated Press)

National League

Batting—Leslie, Dodgers, .403; P. Waner, Pirates, .397.

Runs—Vaughan, Pirates, 20; Medwick, Cardinals, 16.

Runs Batted in—Suhr, Pirates, 19; Medwick, Cardinals and Klein, Cubs, 18.

Hits—Moore, Giants, 26; Leslie, Dodgers, 25.

Doubles—English, Cubs, 8; Ryan, Giants, 7.

Triples—Suhr, Pirates, 5; V. Davis and W. Herman, Cubs, 3.

Home Runs—Ott, Giants, and Klein, Cubs, 6.

Stolen Bases—Frey, Dodgers, and Martin, Cardinals, 3.

Pitching—Bush, Cubs, 5-0; Lucas, Pirates, 2-0.

American Legaue

Batting—Reynolds, Red Sox, .492; Vosmik, Indian, .434.

Runs—Morgan, Red Sox, 17; Manush, Senators, 15.

Runs Batted in—Reynolds, Red Sox, 331; Manush, Senators, 26.

Doubles—Werber, Red Sox, 9; Reynolds, Red Sox, and Greenberg, Tigers, 8.

Triples—Reynolds, Red Sox, 4; Manush, Senators, 3.

Home Runs—Ruth, Yankees, 6; Foxx, Athletics, 5.

Stolen Bases—Walker, Tigers, 7; Gehrig, Yankees, 4.

Pitching—Ruffing, Yankees, and Thomas, Senators, 4-0.

OSHAWA LOSES

OSHAWA, May 7 — Oshawa Dukes lost the opening game here Saturday in Ulster Stadium Baseball League to Malvern Grads to 8 to 2. With 12 strike outs to his credit, Nourse allowed only four scattered hits and was never in danger. Knox was taken out in the seventh as the Grads began to knock his offerings to the far corners of the field and was replaced by "Lefty" Wills.

Malvern Grads took their long lead in the sixth when "Lefty" McKillop walked and came in on Joe Breen's triple. Eagen went to first on Peacock's error. Hughes popped out to Elliott but Sheppard walked and Eagan came home on Porter's single. Wills doubled in the seventh but was on base.

PLAY AT SAINT JOHN

GRIMSBY, May 7—Ralph "Red" Farrell and Harry "Hawse" Marsh, two Grimsby boys who have been outstanding stars of the Hamilton Tigers O.H.A. senior team for the past few years, will not be seen next Winter in the Tigers colors, it was stated here. Both these boys will play next Winter, according to the report, for Saint John, N.B.

WRESTLING

Belleville Armouries, Wednesday, May 9, 8.15 p.m.
Walter Underhill, Columbia Uni. vs. Jack Thomas, Australia
Black Panther, Harlem vs. Walter Stratton, Chicago
Another bout to be advertised

Kentucky Derby Winner

(By C. Robert Kay, Associated Press Staff Writer)

Louisville, Ky., May 7 (AP)—Kentucky Derby winners seldom become champion race-horses, but if a Derby winner ever had a fine chance to win the three-year-old crown it is Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloan's Cavalcade, which captured the 60th. running of the historic race in such magnificent fashion as to beggar description.

Trained to perfection by R. A. "Smiling Bob" Smith and expertly ridden by the veteran Jockey Mack Garner, aboard his first Derby winner after ten losing attempts to win the Kentucky classic, Cavalcade on Saturday defeated the best band of thoroughbreds to go to the Derby post in years, and was not forced to extend himself.

Cavalcade is Trainer Smith's first Derby winner, and Smiling Bob" with a potential champion in his charge, is profiting by the mistakes of others in deciding not to start the English-bred colt in the Preakness at Pimlico this Saturday.

Burgoo-King, Derby winner in 1932, won the Preakness the following week and promptly broke down. Broker's Tip, last year's victor, started in the Preakness, lost and broke down. So there will be no over-exertion for Cavalcade. His next start will be in the American Derby at Chicago.

Take it from Jockey Garner, who rode Cavalcade in his three winning starts this year, the Sloane colt could have raced the mile and a quarter Derby distance in faster time than the 2.04 recorded, but it was not necessary. The track was fast, but softer than on the day Twenty Grand set the record of 2.01 4-5. Here is a comparison of the fractional times of their Derbys:

Twenty Grand ¼ mile 23 1-5; ½-47 2-5; ¾-1.12; mile-1.37 2-5; 1¼-2.01 4-5.

Cavalcade—¼-23; ½-47 1-5; ¾-1.12 1-5; mile-1.37 2-5; 1¼-2.04.

Saturday's Derby field contained crack sprinters, accounting for the fast time in the early stages. Cavalcade's time for the mile was the same as Twenty Grand's, but this latest race was virtually won at that stage and Cavalcade was not forced to extend himself in the last quarter, as was Twenty Grand.

Garner said Cavalcade does not like to run in front, but likes to catch horses, and if there had been faster horses in the field, Cavalcade would have caught them.

Mrs. Sloane, who purchased Cavalcade for only $1,200 as a yearling, became the fifth woman to own a Kentucky Derby winner. Her Time Clock, which ran coupled with Cavalcade, won the Florida Derby.

Mrs. Frank J. Heller's Agrarian was third, with Charles T. Fisher's well-backed filly, Mata Hari, fourth. Mrs. Sloane netted $28,175 by Cavalcade's victory, Vanderbilt received $5,000, Mrs. Heller $2,500 and Fisher $1,000. The Brookmeade entry was heavy favorite in the betting, at odds of 3 to 2.

Col. E. R. Bradley's Bazaar, the other filly in the field, finishing ninth, adding strength to turf experts' conviction that fillies should be disregarded in Derby calculations. Eastern-owned horses ran one-two-three, with Mata Hari giving the best performance among western hopefuls.

It was the first time in years that the Derby was not won by a horse that was a native of Kentucky.

CURRENT SPORT

(Day By Day)

Secretary Newton Thompson today released the 1934 schedule of the C.O.B.L. which finds 27 games incorporated. The league opens on May 24th. with all four clubs participating, Oshawa playing a twin bill at Belleville and the champion Ponies journeying to Peterboro. The usual triple schedule, between Belleville, Kingston and Peterboro was adopted, with the addition of a home and home series with Oshawa. The schedule is over a slightly longer period than in previous years owing to the fact that a winner does not have to be declared in the C.O.B.L. until the latter part of August. The final game of the schedule finds the Peterboro club at Belleville. The 27-game schedule will be found elsewhere on the sport page today.

At the opening of Friday night's boxing bouts Announcer Callaghan expressed the sympathy of the South End A.C. which will be conveyed to Mayor Tice and his family in the recent death of Mrs. Tice. Not only does the South End Club extend its deepest sympathy to the Mayor and his family but the entire sporting fraternity of the city joins in personal sympathy with His Worship. The late Mrs. Tice was an ardent sport lover.

According to announcement the wrestlers are to be with us again on Wednesday night with the Black Panther of Harlem, meeting Walter Stratton, the human flash from Chicago in the main bout of the evening. Matchmaker Tommy McClure assures the Kiwanis Club of two other well matched bouts to make up a card long to be remembered in this city. He is endeavouring to get Ted Travis, the Hollywood bad man, into the same ring with Jack Thomas of Australia, but Travis is still in the bad graces of the wrestling commission and it is doubtful if such a bout can be arranged, altho in this game sometimes the unexpected comes to pass. The main bout is a perfect natural as both boys are fast and can be relied upon to give the fans plenty of speed and action.

A new softball league came into being in Belleville last week when a Church League was formed. In the intermediate group eight teams have entered with all clubs getting into action next Friday night. The complete schedule is not ready as yet but will be released shortly. The opening games are: Holloway St. at St. Michael's; Tabernacle at Christ Church, at Queen Mary School grounds; St. Andrews vs. John St. at East Belleville playgrounds; Baptist vs. St. George's at Queen Victoria School grounds; all games being called at 6 p.m. We recently requested the managers of all softball teams to leave their score cards or results of games at Bill Cook's cigar store the night of the game and they would be published, now that the church league has come into being we extend the same invitation to them. As was pointed out it is impossible to attend every game and if the results are left at Cook's it will be appreciated.

The recent fine weather has tempted all lines of summer sports to venture out. The latest to join the parade was when a sailing punt was seen on the bay over the week end. This sport has come to the fore rapidly of late and demands a prominent place in sporting circles. It is understood a committee or delegation from the South End club is to meet a similiar delegation from the newly formed Belleville Yacht Club with the idea in mind of co-operating in the matter of sailing dates, thereby eliminating any chance of friction or overlapping. It is sincerely hoped that a mutual agreement can be arranged to the benefit of all concerned.

Altho' only two leagues sent official delegates to the annual meeting of the Eastern Ontario Ladies' Softball Association, held in the Y.M.C.A. Saturday night, the executive must be congratulated on the manner the sixth annual meeting of the association was conducted. Miss Bernice Simon, of Brockville, who is the president, carried out her lengthy agenda in a manner that would put most men's league meetings to shame. The conclave was one of the best conducted we have ever had the pleasure of attending in sport circles. It was completed with the most parliamentary-like proceedings. Miss Simon was not opposed for re-election. She is a sister of Morley and Bill Simon, who played baseball and hockey, respectively, in Belleville, some years ago. The reason for the majority of the league not sending delegates is because it is not as yet organized. The E.O.L.S.A. includes all leagues in Eastern Ontario from Belleville to the Quebec boundary.

After listening to numerous complaints registered against the Kingston and District League we are glad to note the local organization was not the only one to object to the manner in which softball was operated in Kingston. Apparently the Limestoners have few friends in the entire association, even the parent body had an axe to grind along these lines. The Kingston organization was the only one to fail in meeting its financial obligations last season. The meeting objected very strongly to the Provincial Union's ruling regarding the procuring of amateur cards in future for iri softball players. Why, they ask, should girls playing softball in Ontario only be asked to pay 25 cents for an amateur cards in future for girl soft mit herself for a medical examination also according to the ruling. These new rules will force the smaller clubs out of competition as they can not stand the financial strain. The most ridiculous ruling of all, we believe, is the matter of purchasing amateur cards for girls who play softball. Apparently girls' sports are developing into a racket. When an organization like the O.B.A.A. can refuse the use of an amateur card issued by the A. A. U. of C. why should girls be asked to procure them? Following the meeting Manager Leo Barrett announced that the first practice of the Belleville Fruit team would be held at the East Belleville playgrounds on Wednesday evening.

Like the true thoroughbred he is, Cavalcade ran a masterful race to win the Kentucky Derby and settle once and for all whether it is a "darby" or a "durby."

CLOTHIERS OF QUALITY

MEN'S SPRING HATS . . .

Latest styles in Men's Spring Hats in Brock, Borsalino, Horton, Kensington and others.

PRICED FROM $1.75 AND UP

Quick and Robertson

CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

First in Style, Quality and Reasonable Price

BERNICE SIMON IS RE-ELECTED

Annual Meeting of E. O. Ladies Softball is Held Here

Miss Bernice Simon of Brockville, was re-elected to the office of president of the Eastern Ontario Ladies' Softball Association at their sixth annual meeting held in the local Y.M.C.A. on Saturday night. A lengthy agenda was presented that included the usual routine of business. The E.O.L.S.A. includes all leagues from Belleville to the Quebec boundary and north as far as Chalk River. Only two leagues, the Brockville and Belleville loops were represented Saturday night, however, seven other leagues in the association not having organized so early in the season.

President Miss Simon regretted the fact that more delegates had not attended the first annual meeting to be held in Belleville, but pointed out that owing to the lengthy distances from Ottawa and district the matter of sending delegates to Belleville was deemed inadvisable. The minutes of the previous meetings were adopted as was the financial report of the treasurer, that incidentally found the association enjoying a small bank balance and a large indebtedness on the part of the Kingston Girls' League. Congratulations were forwarded the Ottawa Montugards, members of the E.O.L.S.A., upon their winning the provincial women's softball championship in 1933. Miss Simon submitted her report from the annual meeting of the Ontario Girls' Softball Union at which she represented the Eastern Association. The report was accepted, although the delegates present raised a strong objection to the provincial motion of the matter of procuring amateur cards for girl softball players. The secretary of the E.O.L.S.A. was instructed to write the provincial body of this objection. The meeting felt that amateur cards were not needed by girl softball players and secondly the initial cost of 25c per card would be a financial strain on the smaller centres and clubs.

The president announced that the base lines for girls' softball games was set at 45 feet, with a pitching box of 33 feet. Another matter was made clear when it was announced that 5 1-2 innings, when the home club was leading, constituted a full game. Last year the E.O.L.S.A. operated an "A" and a "B" series and found to their satisfaction an upward trend in the interest shown in both series. The association voted to affiliate with the provincial body. Miss Simon informed the meeting that all leagues had met their association financial obligations except the Kingston League, now owing some $20.00, a debt incured in 1932 and 1933.

The election of officers resulted in the following being returned unanimously Honorary Presidents—Lt.-Col. T. A. Kidd, Kingston; G. T. Fulford, Brockville, Miss Ethel McCullagh, Kingston, and Nora Seddon, Ottawa.

President—Miss Bernice Simon, Brockville.

Vice President— Miss V. Kingsbury, Ottawa.

Secretary-Treasurer—Miss Eleanor Simon, Brockville.

The Brockville league was represented by Miss Ryder while the local girls' league was represented by W. B. Vandervoort and Leo Barrett.

At the request of the Brockville delegate the 1935 annual meeting was voted to be held in Brockville. Following the meeting the league officials and the visiting delegates were entertained by the Belleville and District Girls' Softball League executive. Refreshments were later served.

WRESTLING

Bellevillians' chances to see their much-sought match between Jack Thomas of Australia, and Ted Travis, the light heavy whom Thomas had to subdue when he went berserk at Belleville's first show of light heavy wrestling, seemed doomed this week when news came to hand that Travis has been outlawed by practically all the athletic commissions in whose territories he has shown of late. For Belleville's third show of light heavy wrestling, under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club at the Armouries next Wednesday night, the fans are promised the next best thing to the coveted fight. In the main frame of this card Thomas has been pitted against Walter Underhill of Columbia University. Walter is a notorious bad-man of the wrestling game, and with Thomas' reputation for ability to subdue rough-house artists, this bout, at one-hour time-limit, with two falls out of three, should be productive of all the speed, skill, science, thrills and action of which this light heavy grappling is capable, and for which the sport has come to have a name in the centres where it has been introduced. This bout will be supported by another main fray, of the same duration and the same number of falls for the winner's part, and an outstanding preliminary. In the other main attraction the Black Panther of New York's Harlem belt will measure up to Walter Stratton of Chicago. In view of the presence of this top-notch showing card, the Thomas-Underhill affair will be hard put to it for highlight honors on the evening's card. Matchmaker Tommy McClure is negotiating for two outstanding performers for the curtain-raiser.

BASEBALL RESULTS

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
Rochester	13	3	.813
Toronto	9	6	.600
Newark	12	8	.600
Montreal	9	9	.500
Syracuse	7	7	.500
Albany	7	8	.467
Baltimore	5	13	.278
Buffalo	5	13	.278

Sunday's Scores

Albany 5-3; Montreal 4-4
Newark 4-1; Toronto 1-7
Buffalo 4-0; Baltimore 2-23
Rochester 16; Syracuse 2

Saturday's Scores

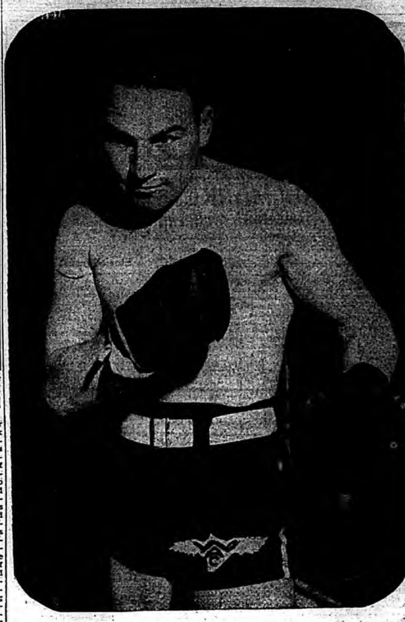
Albany 7; Toronto 6
Syracuse 4; Montreal 3
Newark 8; Buffalo 7
Rochester 6; Baltimore 4

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
New York	12	5	.706
Chicago	12	6	.687
Pittsburg	10	6	.625
St. Louis	9	8	.529
Boston	9	7	.563
Brooklyn	7	9	.437
Philadelphia	4	13	.250
Cincinnati	3	13	.188

Sunday's Scores

New York 5; Cincinnati 3
Chicago 11; Philadelphia 5
Pittsburg 8; Brooklyn 5
Boston 3; St. Louis 2



Saturday's Scores

Boston 5; Chicago 4
Pittsburg 6; New York 3
St. Louis 7; Philadelphia 1
Brooklyn at Cincinnati, postponed, rain.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
New York	11	5	.688
Cleveland	8	5	.615
Boston	9	7	.563
Washington	9	8	.529
Detroit	7	8	.467
Philadelphia	7	9	.437
St. Louis	5	9	.357
Chicago	4	9	.308

The Fighting Poise of a World's Champion

Jimmy McLarnin in fighting poise, ready for action.

No fighter in modern times, save perhaps Gene Tunney, has as steadfastly pursued his life's ambition to achieve fame and fortune as has Jimmy McLarnin, Irish-Canadian welterweight champion of the world. Years ago, Jimmy was a scrappy newsboy on the streets of Vancouver, idol of the youngsters of his neighborhood, and star athlete at whatever he chose to play. It was in one of these street corner scraps that Charlie "Pop" Foster discovered him and took him in tow. From that day on, Jimmy has risen steadily along the hard road to fame. At 16 he was a great little fighter along the Pacific coast. At 21 he was a headliner in New York. Now he is welterweight champion of the world, preparing to defend his title against Barney Ross in what is looked upon as being one of the greatest matches since the Dempsey-Tunney battles. For Barney Ross is a Jew with a fine record as a fighter. He is the idol of the multitude of Jews in New York, though he hails from Chicago. New York also has a large population of Irishmen and when an Irishman and a Jew get together—well, the fur usually flies. Perhaps even greater than Jimmy McLarnin's rise to fame is the manner in which he rose. Never a taint attached to his name; never a scandalous note. His name was never linked with that lower element that seems to have invaded the boxing game. And all through his career, Jimmy has stuck to one man—"Pop" Foster. "Pop" has been his one and only manager—and one with a reputation all over the continent for being the shrewdest in the game. In the bout on May 28 two great fighters will battle it out for the welterweight title. The odds will be close, probably favoring Barney Ross, for it is thought that Jimmy will be soft after a long lay-off, while Barney has been fighting regularly. But Jimmy is too clever to be caught out of condition at any time. Whatever the result it is bound to be a great fight, and all Canada will be pulling for an athlete who would be a credit to any sport—Jimmy McLarnin, Vancouver's fighting Irishman.

more than 20,000 m.p.t.* of anti-skid SAFETY

—that's the mileage bonus you can get when you equip with Dominion Royals. Because they're the only tires built of TEMPERED RUBBER—the toughest, longest-wearing tread rubber ever discovered.

TEMPERED RUBBER

* miles per tire

DOMINIONS

DOMINION TIRES ARE SAFER TIRES

GUARANTEED one year against tire injuries caused by blow-outs, cuts, bruises, rim-cuts, under-inflation and many other road hazards.

BUY WHERE YOU SEE THE DOMINIONS SIGN

DOMINION TIRES SOLD BY

QUINTE BATTERY SERVICE STATION
4 Dundas St. Phone 731

WHITE ROSE SERVICE STATION
138 Front St. Phone 1375

The Romantic Runaway

By KATHARINE HAVILAND-TAYLOR

She peered over the edge of her magazine. Why, Jim Field was actually on his knees! Her eyes narrowed in wonder at the picture of his extraordinary clumsiness calling to mind, somehow, Rosalind, Juliet, Portia, Desdemona and Lydia Languish—high, stiff, Spanish combs, lace mantillas, fans and all. Even Marcia felt it and glanced up, then hurriedly down at the dessert in her saucer. "Yes, well—" he began, too, plainly and now for time's sake. In the next two were Americans of the sort she disliked most. Still young enough but able to navigate. One had looked at her casually when he boarded, amorous glee. "Ahem," he began, leaning forward her. "Not at the moment," he answered, after a cool stare.

"Jealous, my friend," Marcia replied that he would not be. Jim Field's cheeks grew warm. She remembered the trip in Italy, the handsome men and his stylish lady. Jeffries' offered tip that day when the motor boat would not go. Fabillo would come to care for her when she was "sick"! he would send 'to him!

Again she searched the crowd for an unmarried tall youth with dark hair but the men below seemed all tall, fair, dark or bald—and she could not read the music back of her; it was all in terms of votes—from three below. "Lieutenant!" it cry shouted. "Lieutenant!"

* * *

Jim Field, all by himself now, was there at the table and later.

"We're going to Cuba for a while," he told Marcia. "I have a house just outside of Havana that I'm sure you will like."

"That will be nice," she answered dully. She knew that she was going to cry again. Suddenly she was convulsed and she was crying between sobs. "I'm sorry," she began hysterically, "because I know I'm going to cry. I know because I talked to him. People who talk to him. People who talk to him. People who talk to him. Fabillo did that. I know he didn't, Father—"

But Field was unsympathetic and the nurse was back with something in a glass and water. "Drink it down," she said, after she had swallowed it, its bad taste and drowsy effect. "I won't take it!" she whimpered. But she did take it and after a little attempt at a fight went into tears and choking sobs.

Field, in his office, frowned down at a pile of letters. Always had left neatly stamped for his reading. He wished the doctors had not ordered the New York rest be better. He wanted to get Estelle far away from everything that suggested the camp. The trouble was—as the doctors had said—that New York was still cold and it would be best not to try a drastic change of climate while Estelle was in such ill health. One of the doctors had examined Norma, too, and spoken even more urgently of Cuba. Norma had been there before. There many times when Field found it a little difficult to look at her because Estelle was now so much the echo of Norma as she had once been. His world see to it, he decided. His world was to it, he decided, that Estelle was "looked after" and that all kept strong. Norma was obliged by worry over her. He announced greatest after excitement only to discount what each of them said and common yet sensible.

* * *

The specialists all agreed that Estelle was mortally held by the idea of the innocence of one who was, without doubt, guilty—and guilty of murder! She must be "diverted", they said.

And so, with easy words, they wrote out a prescription, the ingredients for which could not be found.

There are times when too much care results in a tangle in the skein of circumstance. Thus Field complained one morning of a soreness in her throat. The throat was sprayed, disinfected and after that another physician came for her examinations. He did not find the tuberculosis germ that he feared. He spoke of this to one of his associates—the doctor who had prescribed "diversion" for Estelle.

"There are many things rotten that aren't being with them," he pounced with an acid edge to his words. "I don't dare give Mrs. Field the test I now think would isolate her from Estelle."

"She will die shortly," the other doctor said, "and someone will name the disease that kills her 'pernicious anemia.'

"I suppose so. They're a vile set that aren't being with them to pulled into the pack."

The doctor held become fond of Helena. Held through his study of her. He knew she had done all she could to make her comfortable and happy. So, recalled, she must have "looked out" her lover "after she died." How she was the saddest woman he had ever known.

"And so you suppose will be—" he began of the girl after Mrs. Field had left the room.

"Dead, I know. Of course in time she might find her way. Fabillo is she may try to make him over. If she does not, she will be broken on to his amazing blue suit.

"Horrible," he said shortly.

"I, Kid," Beau answered and, hurrying across the door, added: "We're goin' to the carnival. Heard last night where I can rent suits and I'm goin' around to get 'em after breakfast. We'll have the show sent up here. Better not make too many public appearances till I know how things are, see?"

"Yes—"

"Whatta' want for breakfast?"

"Coffee."

"Is that all?"

"Yes."

"I'm goin' to look out for you, kid. Thank God, you can trust your ol' friend, Beau."

* * *

"Say!"

The other stood great. "Listen, I done in marsh emulsion for girls! Ice in her like that!"

Fabillo went on tying his tie and Beau's anger cooled quickly. He realized that fighting among themselves would be disastrous.

"I won't say no more about that now," he confided, agitatedly, "but some day you'll be sorry for those words. Honest to God you will."

Fabillo made no answer.

A few moments later Lottie tried to open Beau's door, found it locked and banged on it angrily.

"Ain't you delicate!" she inquired scathingly as Beau admitted her. Then, her voice changing to a tone of baleful anxiety, she added, "Is he up?"

"Kinda-kan for him," said you angel Eyes?" Beau asked, his hard face softening in a grin.

"Yip for him!" she echoed, smiling uncertainly. Then she added honestly, "You big mutt. I'm in love with him!"

Beau laughed. Lottie said slowly, almost sadly, "It's God's truth. That boy's the first case I've got ever met."

To which Beau replied with his customary, harmlessly flippancy, "Oh, is that so?"

Beau liked the situation. If the kid would only fall for Lottie then would be peace in the camp. Meantime Beau would have to do considerable hinting to Fabillo of his danger and how keep him aware of the fact that he must dance to any tune Beau cared to play. Fabillo would be "a good guy". Beau thought, if he were handled right. He had courage. A youth with less courage would have been knocking to earth by Beau, pleading him at all too eager to hear his assurance of protection.

The three assembled in Fabillo's room to eat breakfast from a table set before an open window. From high, lilting half-sung cries of the vendors, a serpentine strain and confetti rose to them, mixed with the grind of motor braking and thrilly, excited voices.

After he had gulped down a substantial breakfast Beau picked up the newspaper he had ordered the waiter to bring. Having glanced casually at the headlines, he turned a quick, sly look at Fabillo.

It had been dumb. Beau realized, to leave the newspaper around before he had looked at it but the kid had been even dumber. Beau folded the sheets with the first page inside, lit a cigaret, and then, humming—made his way to his own room.

"Presty nice," he muttered when he was alone there, "considering of the escape of Fabillo. Smith, wanted for the murder of Norma Jeffries and for the theft of the famous Jeffries' pearls."

Beau had hoped the newspaper report would read like this, but of course he hadn't been sure. The loss in which Smith had escaped had been fatal. Then followed conjecture, built on the fact that the murderer might have escaped, leaving the empty boat as a hoax. Measures were being taken to cover every possible avenue of escape, the newspaper report concluded.

"It that so?" Beau questioned softly. He leaned from a window letting the newspaper blow far in the wind. Fabillo must not see the newspaper, to be urged by his consciousness of the danger. What he knew of that night and of the three who had escaped together. No Fabillo must never know. And now Beau and Lottie were free as the air and Fabillo was more than ever to Beau's power.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Little Benny's Note Book

Me and Puds Simkins and Shorty Judge was tawking about different subjects such as whether it's better to be cawt down under the ocean in a submarine or be cawt up in a aeroplane in a balloon, with no air to breathe either place, and who had the best pitch they've ever seen, resolutions and who hadn't, me saying, I kept mine all nite, when Puds says, I'm going to do a thing I mean it and no fooling bleeve me.

And I kept mine, Puds said, It I didn't have enough conspency and power to keep a resolution I wouldn't be worth much enyway, I bleeve me, he said, and I said, Why, what did you resolve to do?

I resolved to make it a rule not to ask for more than 3 helpings of dinner, Puds said, Gosh, said Shorty Judge said. Gosh, did you ever? Sure, he said, that's a good one, Puds said. What was your resolution, Benny? he said, and I said, I resolved to sneer all my correspondence prompt instead of put it off and not making people wait to hear from me like I generally do. Good nite I'm sure you will get 3 letters a year, Puds said, and I said, You're crazy, counting postcards I do.

Well I set out you what I resolved and bleeve me I'm keeping it too, Shorty said. When I come say a thing I make up my mind that's all I resolved to stop smoking for said, and me and Puds said, O boy that's a hot one, O wus look whose going to stop smoking, and nite when did you smoke?

I've often thawt of it. Shorty said.

Proving it's a cinch to do what you say if you dont say too much.

BEAUTIES TESTIFY IN TRIAL OF BANKER HARRIMAN

PEGGY HOPKINS JOYCE JOSEPH . HARRIMAN CONSTANCE TALMADGE

Peggy Hopkins Joyce, LEFT, international beauty of many marriages and many millions, and RIGHT, former movie star, have been summoned to testify at the trial of Joseph W. Harriman, by Harriman. Government charges CENTRE, president of the defunct Harriman bank, New York City, in connection with which both ladies received loans. They say they received conjecture, built on the fact that the murderer might have escaped, leaving the empty boat as a hoax. Measures were being taken to cover every possible avenue of escape, the newspaper report concluded.

"It that so?" Beau questioned softly. He leaned from a window letting the newspaper blow far in the wind. Fabillo must not see the newspaper, to be urged by his consciousness of the danger. What he knew of that night and of the three who had escaped together. No Fabillo must never know. And now Beau and Lottie were free as the air and Fabillo was more than ever to Beau's power.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

that Harriman used $34,375 of Peggy's money, and $34,313 of Connie's. Miss Joyce lives in New York, and Miss Talmadge is now the wife of Townsend Netcher, Chicago department store heir.

TILLIE THE TOILER

By Russ Westover.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

TARZAN THE TERRIBLE

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

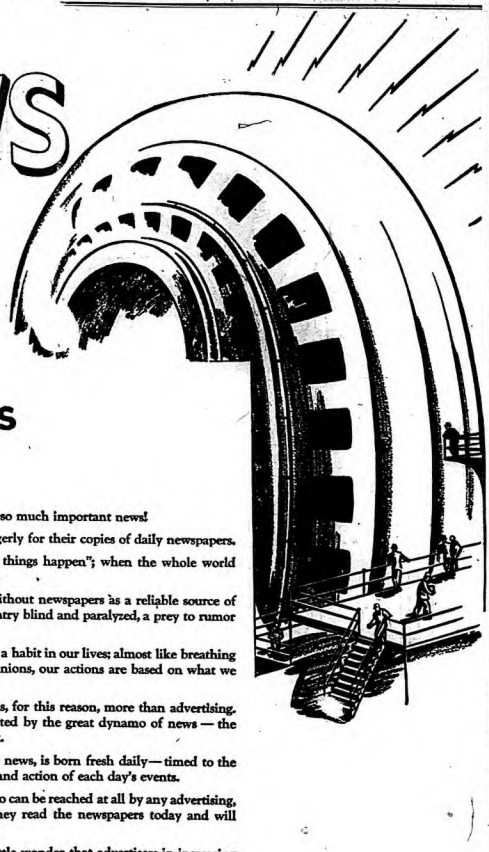
A warrior was ushered into Ko-tan's presence. "Lo-don, the high priest, desires that the king come to the temple at once and—alone," he announced. The king rose to obey, saying: "I will return shortly, Don-ul-Obho. Even the king must do as the high priest commands." But it was an hour before his return and meanwhile the ape-man occupied himself inspecting the richness and luxury of the apartment. When the hangings parted again and the king entered, Tarzan was almost shocked by Ko-tan's changed appearance. The king's face was livid, and he trembled visibly.

Consuming anger and withering fear showed in his whole appearance. "You have had news Ko-tan?" asked Tarzan. The king mumbled some reply as he cast terrified glances at the ape-man. Suddenly he raised his face heavenward and cried: "Jad-ben-Otho be my witness, I do not this thing of my own accord!" A great number of warriors had thronged into the apartment. There was a moment of silence. Then Ko-tan broke it, saying: "Slain, for the high priest swears he is an impostor." To offer resistance to this array of warriors was worse than useless.

Tarzan thought rapidly. "Let not your warriors touch a god's son, O Ko-tan," he exclaimed. "Jad-ben-Otho strike them dead. I will go willingly to the audience chamber to face the blasphemers who accuse me." In the temple Lu-don was waiting their arrival. Tarzan realized his only hope lay in seeming indifference: the charges. Ko-tan and his warriors were still under the spell of their belief in him. One glance, however, at the sneering face of the high priest convinced Tarzan that the crafty Lu-don had already in his heart determined the ape-man's fate.

First the high priest confronted Tarzan with the black slave who previously had recognized the ape-man at the banquet. At Lu-don's command the cowering fellow told how he had seen this creature "as our warriors met our neighboring enemy who had among them this same tailless man. They called him Tarzan the Terrible' and he fought our warriors with such strength that it took twenty to subdue him." But in did not fight as a god fights, and when a club struck him upon the head he sank unconscious as might an ordinary mortal." At these words a loud voice arose,

HERO PILOT SAVES LIVES OF 18 PASSENGERS



Superb airmanship of Pilot Ernest Bashan (INSERT) saved lives of 18 occupants of this airliner when it was forced down, as shown, in woods near Totterville, N.Y. Unable to find Newark Airport, owing to fog and rain after flight from Chicago, Bashan stayed aloft until fuel ran low. Then, he landed his ship so skilfully passengers escaped with slight bruises. Among the passengers was L. B. Spencer of West Welland, Ont.

"BLIND JUSTICE USES THE X-RAY

Unique scene in Dedham, Mass., jail as Abe Faber who is on trial with the Millen brothers for slaying of two policemen during bank holdup, underwent mental and physical test. He is shown on operating table under X-ray machine, while Drs. Evelyn Mitchell and R. Everett Austin, psychiatrists check results.

NEWS is the Dynamo of Business

Seldom before has there been so much important news!

Rarely have people waited so eagerly for their copies of daily newspapers.

These are the days when "new things happen"; when the whole world seems bent upon making itself over.

Try to imagine the past year without newspapers as a reliable source of information. You will picture a country blind and paralyzed, a prey to rumor and fear and almost certain chaos.

Following the news has become a habit in our lives; almost like breathing or eating. Our conversation, our opinions, our actions are based on what we read in newspapers.

Advertising in the newspapers is, for this reason, more than advertising. It is part of the force that is generated by the great dynamo of news — the force by which people act and think.

Newspaper advertising, like the news, is born fresh daily — timed to the minute — sparkling with the energy and action of each day's events.

It reaches virtually everyone who can be reached at all by any advertising, because whatever else people do, they read the newspapers today and will read them again tomorrow.

When you think of this, it is little wonder that advertisers in increasing numbers are harnessing their sales message to this dynamo called the news.

They are directing its mighty force at markets which are most promising. They are timing it to day-to-day sales opportunities.

If you want to see your sales curve rise with the return of business, put your advertising message in the pages of this newspaper. Put this great dynamo of news to work for you.

Newspaper advertising gets to everybody every day--and gets there First

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 9 a.m. Close 9.30 p.m.

Here's Exciting News!

A Stunning Assortment

New Blouses

- Plaids
- Polka Dots
- Stripes
- Plain Colors

Everyone a New Style for Summer!

Here's news every woman in town will be glad to hear — the C.D.S. has just received a shipment of new blouses, in the most delightful assortment of styles one could imagine! Every one a new and different style for summer wear — there are plaids, polka dots, plain shades and those popular shirt waist blouses that come in almost every shade to be had. Styles far too numerous to list here — but with such complete selection your choice will be easily made. In colsonee crepes and those supple taffetas that are taking such a tremendous part in this season's wearables. To shop promptly Tuesday would mean a big saving on your summer wardrobe —and no wardrobe is really complete without at least two or three blouses. Sizes 14 to 20 —

Any Blouse in the Group!

1.98

—second floor

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE CAPITOL

Warren William in "Sedidder"

An amusing story of a young man masquerading as a famous surgeon will unfold before the delighted eyes of the Capitol's audience today. All the trials and tribulations of the masquerader with nonsense among the patients and with real doctors who sense his lack of capabilities, make this film one which should give plenty of real entertainment to local movie-goers.

As enacted by Warren William, the good-looking scapegrace who sets himself up as a fashionable doctor in this picture, and, by the adroit use of publicity, makes himself one of the best known medicos in the country, it is at all times entertaining and amusing.

Two new candidates for early stardom appear in the leading feminine roles of the picture. They are Jean Muir, who has already given such a good account of herself opposite Paul Muni in "The World Changes," and Kathryn Sergava, formerly a dancer with Mordkin, who will certainly be used shortly in more important roles.

Miss Muir's great beauty, coupled with the fact that she seems to have learned acting at a school where its best features are taught, make her particularly attractive in the role of the nurse who blackens the masquerader's schooling, and finally marries him because she finds love stronger than her professional scruples.

Miss Sergava's charm lies in her exotic looks and her altrsolve Russian accent.

But it is Warren William who keeps the picture always in hand. As the dissolute medical student, and later as the fashionable doctor, he has one of the outstanding roles of his motion picture career—and makes the most of it.

The picture has been expertly directed by Robert Florey, whose flair for interesting camera angles and for unusual lighting makes his medical and hospital backgrounds seem less grey than it otherwise might.

Donald Meek as the insurance doctor who does most of the actual work, William contracts to do, Allen Jenkins as the publicity man who puts charlatan actress and Henry O'Neill as a bona fide member of the medical profession in His best phases, are outstanding in their roles.

AT THE BELLE

World-Famed Play "Wonder Bar" at Belle Tuesday

Out-doing all previous sensational combinations of stars and spectacles, Warner Bros. long awaited international musical drama, "Wonder Bar" will be shown for the first time locally at the Belle on Tuesday, for four days, matinee daily.

Kay Francis plays the leading role opposite Al Jolson, who portrays the proprietor of the "Wonder Bar" Ricardo Cortez and Dolores Del Rio have the coveted parts of the two dancers, while Dick Powell and Henry Kolker have the roles of the American composer-orchestra leader and the husband of Kay Francis, respectively. Hal LeRoy, the world's greatest tap dancer, plays the role of himself in a thrilling dance sequence.

Guy Kibbee and Hugh Herbert play the two American tourists with Ruth Donnelly and Louise Fazenda as their wives, in important comedy and character roles. Robert Barrat has the part of the army officer, who drives his auto over a cliff and unconsciously covers up a murder. Ffi d'Orsay and Merna Kennedy will be seen as the two flirtatious hostesses in the fashionable Parisian night club.

As "Wonder Bar" the unique musical proved an international sensation a few years ago. It played for months in all of Europe's capitals and was brought to this country as a stage-setting vehicle for Al Jolson. He took it on the road after a season in New York and Others in the cast include David Landau, Renee Whitney, Walter Walker, Phillip Reed, Phillip Pavenham, Earle Foxe and Marjorie Lydell.

The story is by Manuel Seff and Robert Lord, Erwen play by Lilla Hayward and James Wharton, additional dialogue by Rian James.

An excellent comedy featuring Charlie Murray and George Sidney Cartoon, Hodge Podge and Screen Snapshots of the Stars makes up an unusually good program.

Girl nights, Monday, and Tuesday.

No production since "The Miracle" has been so generally and so generously welcomed. A few months ago Warner Bros. secured the screen rights and proceeded at once to make extensive plans for its presentation as the greatest film spectacle of modern times.

It is said that the screen version of "Wonder Bar" returns to some extent to the European script which was considerably altered for the American stage production. This increases the importance of the role played by the long list of stars assigned to the picture.

Busby Berkely creator of the musical numbers that features "Gold Diggers of 1933", "42nd Street" and "Footlight Parade" created and staged the special musical spectacles on a scale never before attempted even in these previous successes. Berkely's ability for sensational departures from the ordinary in camera work has made screen history in the past year.

"Stush Rooms" is the title of a very funny comedy featuring Harry Gribbon and a host of funmakers to be presented on the same program with the Belle latest newsreels, and "Peril of Arsenic Annie" one of the new and novel Goofy Movie Performances starts daily at 2.30; 7.10 and 9.10, the feature presentation beginning at 3.10, 7.40 and 9.45 daily.

James Dunn and Claire Trevor are appearing at the Belle tonight in the rollicking romance "Hold That Girl", "Devil Tiger" revealing jungle thrills and romance is the second feature.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By the Associated Press)

Paul Waner, Pirates—hit Brooklyn pitching for three singles.

Lou Gehrig, Yankees—knocked in three runs against Browns with: homer, double and single.

Fred Frankhouse, Braves—limited Cardinals to four hits in 7 1-3 innings.

Carl Reynolds, Red Sox—clouted two triples and single against Tigers, sporing three runs.

Woody English, Cubs—hit two doubles and two singles for perfect batting day against Phillies.

Willis Hudlin, Indians—outpitched Ed McAuffry and contributed double to own victory over Athletics.

Bill Terry, Giants—led attack on Reds with three hits.

Al Thomas, Senators—shut out White Sox, giving six hits and fanning five.

PROBABILITIES

Moderate variable winds; fine and becoming somewhat warmer. Wednesday, moderate southeast to southwest winds; fair and moderately warm.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, TUESDAY, MAY 8, 1934

TEMPERATURES

	Max.	Min.
Today	58	31
Year Ago	66	34
Weather—Sunny.
Temperature Bed	36

WHEAT PRICES DRIVEN UP SENSATIONALLY

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Springfield, Mass., May 8—(CP)—Sixty electricians sat in darkness for a quarter of an hour while a plumber fixed the lights. The electricians were attending a meeting in Central Labor Union Hall when the light failed.

The antedates of the lighting by a plumber by trade—fumbled with fuses, switches and wires in the cellar, while the electricians listened calmly to the speaker.

Memphis, Tenn., May 8—(CP)—Two voting women—the only females members at the Tennessee Federation of Labor convention—have set notions about husbands. Her husband is a "good man and a marvel," said Mrs. Ruby Hurley Dyersburg.

"And that goes for me, too," agreed Miss Lucille Thornbaugh of Knoxville.

Atlanta, May 8—(CP)—F. H. Hughes, 23, dreamed that he was in a burning building that he was jumping out the window—and he did.

He crashed through a screen, fell five feet, and was taken to a hospital with a broken leg.

Milwaukee, May 8—(CP)—C. O. Davis, superintendent of the sanitarium, hasn't taken a vacation in 22 years.

The common council ordered him to take three months leave with pay and pay the expenses.

But Davis insisted that all he wanted to see was the salt hauling and street cleaning.

Fort Arthur, May 8—(CP)—A broken leg and injuries to the bruises were suffered by Russell Noll, 23, of Longwood, Ont., police on the Northern Transportation Company's steamer Superior, when he fell 14 feet into the boat's hold.

Saskatoon, May 8—(CP)—Crushed beneath the wheel of a wagon driven by her father, Emily Idak, five years old, was killed on the farm. The accident occurred on the farm of Peter Idak, 12 miles east in the Wakaw District.

New Castle, Pa., May 8—(CP)—Seats were scarce at the spring football games between Ellwood City High School and Erie Academy—but a whole section went unoccupied.

A sign on the empty section told the place:

Mother robs had built her nest there; she, and her unchicken; there were bright blue eggs in the nest. So the fans stood.

Shanghai, May 8—(AP)—After a break of 1,200 years, diplomatic relations between China and Persia were restored today.

As a result, Persia will establish consulates in Shanghai and Nanking.

Paris, May 8—(AP)—Prof. F. De La Fresnaye of Paris, chairman of the International Association for the prevention of blindness was awarded today the Leslie Dana prize by the city of Geneva for combating diseases of the eye.

Pittsburgh, May 8—(AP)— A grand jury which heard evidence in the slaying of Joseph Mellon himself, in a statement last Friday, disclosed the government was seeking to collect approximately $2,000,000 from him. He had charged the estate with failure to discredit him and the tax-dodging transactions. He served under three presidents.

Fort Erie, May 8—(CP)—Fort Erie council ruled last night dogs cannot be allowed to run on one half per cent of any bill for medical services, and that the dog tax bill shall exceed 1,000 dollars monthly. Confirmation on that ruling will be sought from provincial relief commissioner J. A. Ellis.

Kingston, Ont., May 8—(CP)—Forest fires, which are now raging in the far northern part of the county, have become increasingly serious.

At Northbrook, about 68 miles north of Kingston, road gangs have been called out, the village being threatened by the advance of fires. One house in the village caught fire but the blaze was extinguished. No further fires have been reported in the village, though trees are burning very close to there.

TEN BURNED IN EXPLOSION AT ELEVATOR

Grain Dust Explodes in 1,600,000 Bushel Elevator

LONG CRACKS

Cause of Explosion Not Determined By Officials

St. Louis, May 3.—(AP)—Ten men were burned, six of them seriously, in a violent grain dust explosion late yesterday, in the Missouri Pacific elevator at the foot of Primm street.

The blast shattered all of the windows in the huge structure, broke long cracks in the upper portion of the building and caused a fire in 1,600,000 bushels of grain stored there.

The fire burned for half an hour. Julius Meyer, vice president of the Continental Elevator Co., which leases the elevator, a 240-foot tall structure, said he had been unable to determine the cause of the explosion.

GARDEN NECESSITIES SUPPLIED UNEMPLOYED

Seeds of All Kinds Distributed From Central Relief Office.

Seed and garden vegetable calalogues, in all their garish colors, were the predominating note in the local relief office on Monday as the people took over the official task of supplying the unemployed with the necessities of garden planting. Today vouchers were being distributed for stated quantities of seeds, and when the seed to be used by the gardeners, Seed products, Agent for the Department of the building were also being picked out by applicants.

Encouraged by their success last year in cultivating low garden plots given them by the city, on which to raise sufficient vegetables to "can" themselves and their families over the winter months. Scores of men who last year engaged in the work are reapplied for lots, and seed, together with many new ones, went to their ranks. To date in the neighborhood of one hundred local men have applied at the office of the city engineer for the free seed vouchers had commenced some time ago.

RATES OF EXCHANGE

Exchange rates at 3 p.m. EDT. today were: Pound sterling in Montreal 4.92 3-32; in London (Montreal) .99 23-32; Pound sterling in New York, $4.11 5-8; Canadian dollar in New York $1.00 1-4.

A view of the beautiful mansion on the Miami, Fla., estate of Al Capone, Chicago gang leader who is now serving an 11-year sentence in Atlanta Penitentiary for violation of income tax laws. It is reported, Mrs. Lucy Cotton Thomas Magraw (Insell), penniless New York society woman, is willing to buy [illegible] ,000. Mrs. Magraw recently went to Miami, presumably to negotiate the purchase.

STILL IN JAIL, CAPONE MAY SELL ESTATE FOR $250,000

Drowned Man's Clothes Bear Local Address on Paper

Discovery of Body at Toronto Leads to Inquiry Here

PROBE PROCEEDS

Seeking information relative to the identity of a man found in a stream's body found floating in Kestrel's channel, in the east section of Toronto, the police of that city were in communication with Belleville police last night. The clue as to the probable identity came after finding a small piece of paper bearing the following inscription on the body: "To Kestrel, 56 Great St. James St., Belleville, Ingleside." The local constabulary investigate if a person of that name ever resided in the above address. The name and description of the dead man is: Kestrel, the name by that of Edward Johnson, a Swede, who was in Belleville visiting Jas. Pickell, a resident of the city and James St. According to Mr. Pickell Johnson lived with the Pickell family in Oshawa some two years ago and being a friend of the family paid them a visit about two months ago, leaving Belleville supposedly for Kingston at that time. Nothing has been heard of him by the family since they last saw him and according to Mr. Pickell's statement, Mrs. Pickell, sister of Johnson seemed in a very discouraged state of mind when in Belleville, owing to the fact that he (Johnson) had disappeared. Johnson was wearing a blue serge suit when in Belleville, the same material which the dead man in Toronto was reported to be wearing when found in the water yesterday.

According to Chief Kidd it may have been possible that the writing found on the piece of paper may have been blurred with constant washing of the water. "Pickell" might easily be taken for "Pestell" under such circumstances. The information ascertained here was immediately forwarded to Toronto.

When first found floating in the water it was thought that the man had been drowned but after careful examination a large hole was found in the man's forehead and the left leg partly cut off, so the opinion of the police changed to that of possible death by foul play. When after searched the pockets revealed nothing, they had been turned inside out with the lead of the coat having been also cut off. He had no teeth and was slightly bald, weighing about 200 pounds. He had also been wearing arch support in his boots.

The body, which had been in the water for some weeks, is described as that of a man about 50 years of age, five feet 10 inches, brown hair, blue suit, grey shirt, tie and socks and shoes. Clothing he was taken to the coroner's building.

BANK SALARY DATA GIVEN

Banks Designated by Letters at Banking Committee

Ottawa, May 8—(CP)—Salaries of bank employees in Canada ranged from a minimum of $300 per annum for junior clerks up to maximum of $12,500 for managers, according to statement tabled before the Banking Committee of the House of Commons today by Hon. Gordon Dodds, President of the Canadian Bankers' Association. The statement was given in response to a request from Dr. Raymond Morand Conservative member, for East Hamilton.

Salaries for junior clerks ranged from $300 to $1,000; intermediate, $400 to $2250; tellers $500 to $2,500; accountants, $600 to $4,000; managers $1,200 to 13,500; stenographers $300 to $2,000, according to the statement.

The methods of four different banks in respect to pensions, living allowances, insurance schemes, etc., were outlined in the statement. The names of the banks were not given, but they were designated by the four first letters of the alphabet.

Living allowances ranged from $50 to $400 per annum were made by one of the institutions. All four banks discouraged marriage on small salaries and in some cases officers on salaries below $1,500 were not permitted to marry without the consent of the bank. The travelling expenses of bank inspectors, who are referred by the banks were paid.

In each case pensions were established to be drawn upon when superannuation became necessary.

TRAMPLING IS FATAL

Hamilton, Ont., May 8—Abram Krick, South Grimsby farmer, who was seriously injured yesterday when a team of horses trampled him in a field on his farm, died in St. Joseph's Hospital here today. Mr. Krick was a well known resident of Grimsby and was in his 72nd. year.

Late Mrs. Geo. O. Tice Laid to Rest Tribute of Sorrow Paid to Deceased

All Classes Join Marked Tribute of Esteem to Honored Woman

AT ST. ANDREW'S

Marked tribute of esteem was paid by hundreds of Belleville citizens to the memory of Mrs. George O. Tice, whose funeral took place Monday afternoon from her late residence, 33 West Bridge Street, to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The large congregation which filled the church to overflowing manifested the high regard entertained for the late Mrs. Tice, by friends, acquaintances and co-workers with her in church, social, charitable, and fraternal organizations. It was also a sincere expression of sympathy with Mrs. Tice's daughter, Mrs. Grant Ponton and the members of his family in their sorrow. Floral tributes were abundance, beautiful in colors and arrangement, conveyed from the deceased's home, feelings of friends and business associates. The pallbearers attended the service in a body, and the Board of Education, the Parent Teachers' Association, the Agricultural Society, the Belleville Collegiate Institute Old Boys' Association, the Belleville Business College Alumni Association, the Women's Institute of Jerusalem No. 1, of which Mrs. Tice was an active and valued member, were officially represented by delegates and friends from a distance were present to pay their last tribute of affection and respect.

Prior to leaving the house for the church a private service was conducted for the family by the Rev. Harold Reid, M.A., the minister in charge of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Thos. Neal, B.A., B.D., minister of John Street United Church.

The service at the church was, throughout, solemn and impressive. The choir was in attendance and Mr. Ernest Wheatley, Mus. Bac., F.C.O.M., presided at the organ; the musical portions of the service were beautifully rendered. The hymns were favorites of Mrs. Tice and were: "O, God Our Help In All Ages Past"; "Abide With Me"; "Lead Kindly Light"; "Jesus Lover of My Soul"; "Nearer My God to Thee." The prayers and Scripture reading were taken by the Rev. Mr. Hall and Monday afternoon by the Rev. Mr. Reid, who based his remarks on the 23rd Psalm and the 14th chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel. "Watch Therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of Man cometh." It was a most beautifully worded address and feeling reference was made to the life and passing of Mrs. Tice.

It was, indeed, a solemn moment when at the close of the service the congregation stood as the soft beautiful tones of the organ pealed sounded the music to the familiar hymn of God and Heaven, "God be with you till we meet again."

The music of Chopin's funeral march was played by Mr. Wheatley. Three," the solemn procession left the church for the Belleville cemetery where interment was made in the family plot.

The bearers were Mr. O. H. Scott, representing the City council; Ald. H. Platt, representing the city council; Mr. Wm. Mallory, representing the civic employees; Mr. Hoge McClintock, representing the Board of Health; Mr. Wm. Mallory, representing the Parks Board and Chief Wm. Norris, representing the Fire Department.

City firemen acted as flower bearers; members of the city police force and of the Provincial R. police force acted as escorts and Traffic Officer Hykes conducted the funeral cortege.

FLORAL TRIBUTES

Pillow—The Family.

Star—Belleville Chapter No. 55, O.E.S.

(Continued on Page 2)

BULLS DRIVE WHEAT PRICE UP QUICKLY

Biggest Advance of Year is Staged at Winnipeg

BUOYANT TONE

Bullish Weather News Comes From Western States

Winnipeg, May 8—(CP)— Wheat prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange staged a sensational sport today, spurred on by reports of shortage of needful spring rains and prevalence of harmful dust storms at many points buoyed the bulls.

A last minute surge swept prices up for the sharpest gain of the year. The May option closed at 69 1-4, July delivery at 70 1-8 and the distant future, October at 71 7-8.

Bullish weather news was not the only front Western Canada but from the Western United States, drought-scared, and from important European markets, where prices generated in a buoyant wave of buying. Operations came almost to a standstill later, then partially up on renewed buying and finished at top levels.

THE WEATHER

Toronto May 8—The weather has been mostly fair and moderately warm in the west with a few very light scattered showers. Light showers have occurred in the Maritime provinces, while fair and warmer has prevailed in Ontario and the West.

Georgian Bay: Moderate variable winds; fair and becoming somewhat warmer Wednesday: moderate southeast to southwest winds; fair and moderately warm.

Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence Valley: Moderate northwest winds and a little warmer. Wednesday: Moderate southeast to southwest winds: fair and moderately warm.

FILLING OF DITCHES STARTS NEAR BRIGHTON

Highways Will be Much Safer for Traffic by Week

Scores of men, previously registered for the new Provincial Highway work are at present employed with picks, shovels and wheelbarrows on No. 2 Highway, just east of Brighton, according to Reeve A. L. Burke, Sidney township.

It is the intention of the Department of Highways to fill in the ditches along the highway throughout the Province. Grading on this scale is being carried out at a less steep angle than exists at present with extra material being taken from the sides of the road to make this possible.

According to Reeve Burke a request has been received by him from Lome J. Greer, superintendent of the Provincial Highways, Trenton Office, to conduct registration of unemployed in the front township in preparation for highway work through this county, which is expected to commence within the next few days.

FRAME HOUSE IS DESTROYED

Mrs. Ella O'Sullivan Suffers Heavy Loss

When the frame house of Mrs. Ella O'Sullivan of Tyendinaga caught fire on Monday morning the home with all its contents was destroyed. Mrs. O'Sullivan had no insurance on the property nor upon her family from the burning house. She is a widow and has five children.

The cause of the blaze is not known. The alarm was a large one. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

Douse Dog's Nose In Mild Vinegar To Get Out Quills

An old timer from the north section of Hastings County whose dog has had several run-ins with porcupines of late has got smart enough to know better, struck on an original and sure method for removing the barbed quills with no injurious results either to the animals. He passes the tip on to "city folks" who may wish to douse their dogs sampling during the coming summer.

Take half a pint of pure malt vinegar and douse the dog's nose with it. Three or four times until it gets good and soaked, leave it for a few minutes. Then the quills may be drawn out with little trouble. The vinegar dissolves the quills into a sort of gelatine substance. If the dog objects to the vinegar treatment bathe him well with a sponge soaked in vinegar."

Drilling Necessary to Parades, British Legion Women are Told

(By Thos. T. Champion)
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, May 8.—(CP)—The determination of women members of the British Legion when they take part in parades, provoked a lively discussion at this conference of the Women's Section in London.

Mrs. P. Hilton Moore moved a resolution suggesting that every certain amount of drilling beforehand would improve matters.

She said that for some years she had been unhappy about the impression parading women must make upon the ordinary man in the street, who had not the opportunity of realizing the wonderful work done by the women's section. "In my own branch," said Mrs. Hilton Moore, "a member of the executive, a sergeant-major, has kindly taken us in hand, and in a simple manner has taught us the right ways of dealing with the standard on all occasions. She said: "now to keep in step while marching."

BULLETS FIRED AT GOVERNOR

Sir John Anderson of Bengal Attacked While Attending Races

NOT INJURED

One Assassin Killed And Woman Bystander is Wounded

Darjeerling, Bengal, India, May 8 (AP)—Two Bengali assassins fired revolvers at Governor-General Sir John Anderson at a race meeting at Lebong today.

Sir John was uninjured but police killed one of the Bengalis and seriously wounded the other. A British woman was wounded slightly by one of the assassins' bullets.

Sir John was standing with his daughter at the time they were attacked from close range. A permanent police guard, which always accompanies the Governor, immediately opened fire on the two men, who later were identified as Dacca Terrorists.

The startling military police guard was immediately placed around the race course, which is in a suburb of Darjeeling. Several suspects were arrested.

Earlier previous attempts have been made upon the life of Sir John, who has waged constant warfare against Terrorists.

Governor of Bengal since August 1932 near the University of Calcutta, where he was attending exercises at which an attempt was made to wreck his train with a bomb a month earlier.

Coming Events

OPEN MEETING CHRIST Church A.Y.P.A. in Parish Hall, Wednesday, May 9, at 8.00 p.m. Good programme by ladies. Admission 10c. m8-1t

DANCE AT SOUTH END CLUB Tuesday, May 8, from 8 to 1. Log Cabin orchestra. Admission 25c. m8-1t

3-1 ACT PLAYS BY HUFFS 18-land Young People, Quinte Inn, Wednesday, May 9, at 8.00 p.m. Dancing after plays. Admission 25c. m8-1t

BELLEVILLE CENTENNIAL AND United Empire Loyalist weekly meeting, Tuesday, May 8th, 8 o'clock. Police Court. Important business. Everybody welcome m8-3t.

SEE KNEW AIR MARK

Hoping to better their own world record for a straight line flight, Maurice Rosi (top) and Paul Codos (lower), celebrated French air aces, are poised at Paris, awaiting favorable weather to take off on an attempted non-stop flight to Buenos Aires.

KIDNAPPER'S HOME FOUND

Believe June Robles Held There Not More Than 2 Days Ago

Canaries, Sonora, Tex., May 8 — (AP)—The house in which June Hodges may have been held as recently as two days ago has been found, two patrolmen disclosed today.

The statement came as a manhunt, such as this ancient mining settlement has not seen since Mexico and Texas rurals swept down in pursuit of early day brigands, spread through Canaanes and the surrounding territory.

The policemen, Corporals George Ash and Tom Newell, of the Arizona Highway Patrol, did not disclose the exact location of the house in which they said they were convinced the six-year-old heiress to the fortune of Bernabe Robles, Texas cattle baron, was now in the hands of two men.

RAIN NEEDED FOR GROWTH

April Precipitation Below Normal is Reported

TORONTO, May 7.—(CP)— Above-normal winter precipitation, opening the way for an excellent growing season in Northern Ontario sections, has run its course in Southern Saskatchewan and Central Alberta, leaving the wheat farmer in need of immediate rainfall. April showers were less frequent than the south and heated for.

The April report of meteorological service reported today a falling off in rainfall, and the April precipitation figures for the winter season, given a somewhat low rise because of heavy autumn downpours, are not sufficient to change the actual situation. Need of moisture in dried-out regions is imperative.

PLAN TO TAKE "HOLY TUNIC"

Vestment Said to Have Been Won by Jesus is in France

Argenteuil, France, May 8—(AP)—An attempt to steal the "Holy tunic" which Jesus is said to have worn as he bore his cross to Calvary is believed to have been made Sunday night.

The guardian in the Church of Argenteuil, where the tunic is known to day, reported that he was attacked while making his rounds of the Basilica, was wounded in the head, but the invaders fled empty-handed.

The purple shirt of wool has been on display in the church recently, its first public exhibition in 4 years. It is to be shown until May 21 to mark the close of "Holy Year" commemorating the 1900th anniversary of the crucifixion.

Pilgrims here for more than 1,000 years, the "Holy Tunic" supposedly was sewn and colored by the Virgin Mary herself.

Catholic Ecclesiastical authorities say it was this same tunic—stained with blood and sweat—which Christ wore on the road to Golgotha.

The shirt, which is one of three others are at Treves, Germany, and at Turin, Italy was last exposed to public view in 1933.

Hydro Gains are $4,291 Power Peak is up 66 P.C.

All Signs Point to Recovery, Remarks Commissioners

HYDRO BUSY

Profits of the Belleville Hydro System were $4,291.23 for the year ending April 30, 1934, as against $2,755.62 for the previous year. This drop of approximately $3,500 in profits was explained by the Belleville Commission today by Manager O. H. Scott as due chiefly to the cost of power. Revenue for the first four months of the year is up materially because of flat rate heaters and increased kilowatt consumption which have more than offset the drop in rates recently for a portion of the year. Power peak is now at 241 horsepower.

Increase in horsepower is 6.6 per cent. on the peak and 13.1 per kilowatt hour consumption.

The present power commission for April 1934 stands at 1,508 horsepower as against 1,267 horsepower for the previous April.

"We are very busy," commented the manager, Mr. Scott.

The Commissioners felt that the evidences of improvement were very clear.

Request for free delivery of electrical power to Victoria Park during the forthcoming proceedings staged by Magistrate W. C. Mikel was passed on to the Ontario Commissioner by the Belleville Hydro Electric Commission.

"A centennial is only once in a hundred years and the action cannot be used as a precedent," the magistrate had written the Commission in the letter in which he made the appeal.

The commissioners said it was beyond their authority to take action along the lines of a suggestion made by the waterworks of the city for consideration in the matter of charges for water and power services. The waterworks head pointed out that more than 50 per cent of power used was off peak and that therefore it might be for the commission to grant consideration, especially as the department did not contribute to the cost of conditions which arose. It was also pointed out that the consumption on the charge was made against the consumer for the water consumed.

The cost of power for thawing was decided by Manager O. H. Scott to be $317.96 plus the labor of Hydro men.

Chairman George A. Reid and Commissioner Duff were present. The secretary was instructed to write Mayor Tice, a fellow commissioner, expressing the condolences of the board in the loss of Mrs. Tice by death.

ASSASSINS FIRE SHOTS AT GOVERNOR

Sir John Anderson of Bengal Attacked While Attending Races

NOT INJURED

One Assassin Killed And Woman Bystander is Wounded

Darjeerling, Bengal, India, May 8 (AP)—Two Bengali assassins fired revolvers at Governor-General Sir John Anderson at a race meeting at Lebong today.

Sir John was uninjured but police killed one of the Bengalis and seriously wounded the other. A British woman was wounded slightly by one of the assassins' bullets.

Sir John was standing with his daughter at the time they were attacked from close range. A permanent police guard, which always accompanies the Governor, immediately opened fire on the two men, who later were identified as Dacca Terrorists.

The startling military police guard was immediately placed around the race course, which is in a suburb of Darjeeling. Several suspects were arrested.

Earlier previous attempts have been made upon the life of Sir John, who has waged constant warfare against Terrorists.

Governor of Bengal since August 1932 near the University of Calcutta, where he was attending exercises at which an attempt was made to wreck his train with a bomb a month earlier.

City and District News

ROAD COMMITTEE ON COUNTY TOUR

Headed by J. Miller, of the Ontario Department of Highways, and Jas. Moore, chairman of the committee, members of the Hastings County Council road committee left today on a tour through the county road system for the purpose of making a first-hand examination of conditions. The trip is to assist the committee in preparing an estimate for work on the roads.

TOO EARLY TO FISH SAY U. S. TOURISTS

Although tourists from the south have been arriving in the district in growing numbers each week, they are none of them have lately gone fishing in any of the county's lakes or streams. So far this season the non resident fishing permits have been sold, it was reported at the offices of local issuers today. While it is expected that the first trout season will be flavored with a few three-day fishing permit by the province for the date of $2.00, these have been received in the city yet, according to Mr. S. F. Pidgeon, who has applied for the shorter license.

ROADS ARE DRY BUT TRAVEL GOOD

Clouds of dust swirling from the sun-baked roads throughout the northern townships of the county constitute the only difficulty motorists are experiencing at the present time. The road to Bancroft and beyond is reported to be excellent.

HUNGRY MUDCATS SWARM THE HARBOR

Mudcats are swarming in the Bay of Quinte, and if local reports be covered the docks and wharves south of the city nights are being kept busy in with pleasant regularity. The fish are more plentiful in local waters than they have been for years, according to the statements of older fishermen.

WILL REQUEST A CHANGE IN HOURS

Re-Mayor Geo. A. Reid today registered a protest against the present by-law governing the use of lawn services in the city, and will apply to city council to have the present hours changed in favor of a period between 8.30 and 8.30 p.m. Daylight Saving Time, he said.

At present a by-law passed last summer by council, use of services is restricted to the hours between 2.30 and 8.00 p.m. Standard Time. The situation anyone who knows anything about flowers watering them at 8.30 in the afternoon when the sun is still blazing. That would be the real time under the new Daylight Saving Time, every flower in the garden would be ruined."

The point, he said is going to make a lot of lawless characters in this city if the same hours are retained. You can't water your flowers at that time, he said, that should be changed, and I'm going to see council and see if it can't be."

JAMIESON BONE HEADS ROTARY

Jamieson Bone, recently elected one of the directors of Belleville Rotary Club for the ensuing year, has been elected President of the club by his Colleagues, and will therefore officiate as President. President Ed. Bennett, whose term expires on that date, will go on the board Past President Bernstein will act as Vice President, Archie Cameron will be treasurer, and Ross Neal, secretary, with Laurie Lewis, assistant secretary.

Marcus Ward Stationery
Gentlemen's Club Size
60 Sheets
48 Envelopes
75c
Mc''eown's
DRUG STORE

Lavender
Shaving Cream
Reg. 35c 25c
Lotion 39c
I. D. A. DRUG STORES

ASPARAGUS ROOTS
1 doz. ..... $ .25
25 for ..... .40
100 for 1.50
BISHOP'S
SEED STORE
m-s-2

250 MEN EMPLOYED ON NEW HIGHWAY

Over two hundred and-fifty men from the town of Campbellford and the township of Seymour have registered for work on the new government road to be built between Campbellford and Havelock, when Mr. O. Perrin of the Department of Highways, held a sitting in Campbellford this week. Out of the grand total of men who registered, 124 were residents of the town of Campbellford.

What is termed a ceremonial drill was held in preparation for inspection which is expected to take place the latter part of this month. The members of the regiment are showing proficiency in drill. Both bands were present and furnished suitable music for the drill.

Sergt. Major L. E. Bouchard acted for drill purpose and last from Kingston headquarters is attached to the Argyll Light Infantry.

CEREMONIAL DRILL PART OF A.L.I. DRILL

The parade of the Argyll Light Infantry last night was a creditable one. Officers and men paraded with Capt. A. Cleen was in command.

WEATHER TODAY AS YOU LIKE IT

The weatherman in a spirit of jest and with the help of a cool breeze from the lake, gave the people of Belleville a taste of winter throughout the day from the north gave a touch of the frigid to the sun-warmed east side. Men of leisure lounged on the east side with coats unbuttoned, basking in the warm rays, while on the west side of the street a polar effect was maintained. Mercury went down and continued rise in temperature is indicated for tomorrow.

POLICE SEARCH FOR MISSING JUVENILE

Missing from home since they left, presumably for school on Monday morning, Buddy and Leo Claus of 375½ Pinnet, 9 and 11 years respectively, are at present the object of intensive search by the city parents, police of the local force, and by Thos. Ruston, superintendent of the Children's Shelter.

It is the second time the children have been missing from home in the past week or so, it was reported by Mr. Ruston who will scout the highways east of the city on Wednesday morning in the hope that the lost the children will head in the direction of Shannonville where relatives reside.

One boy was wearing blue corduroy pants while the other was dressed in blue overalls. Both wore coats when they left home.

IF YOU NEED GLASSES

Consult J. A. McFEE at Once!

Proper eye care today may save untold trouble, and probably avoid suffering later on. Backed by 35 years' experience and the most modern equipment obtainable in eye-examination, McFee offers you a GUARANTEED OPTICAL SERVICE. You may rest your eyes in his care with utmost confidence.

McFee's Improved Optical Service Costs No More!

J.A.McFee
OPTOMETRIST

League of Nations Success Says Controller J. Simpson

Man's Capacity For Development Not Fully Really

While the delegates from sixty-six nations gathered in the League of Nations, Geneva, to discuss ways to injure so much goodwill into the relations of the nations of the world that wars will cease forever, there are hostile influences at work there seeking to nullify the efforts to prevent war, and seeking to foment the hideous brew of hate which caused the war in the past and may start them in the future.

So said Controller James Simpson of Toronto, to the Belleville Rotary Club Monday. Mr. Simpson represented Canadian organized labor at the League of Nations, and is familiar with the machinations and undercurrents of that gathering of representatives of sixty-six nations of the world.

Twenty-five times across the Atlantic and three times across Canada gave the speaker an insight into international relations such as few men have, and his address bristled with facts of world-wide interest.

Prefacing his remarks with reference to incidents of one hundred years and less ago, Controller Simpson brought his remarks up to date by vivid descriptions of men and events of Geneva and the trend of events toward and away from world peace. He referred to opposition to the armament makers and their sinister influence toward turmoil and bloodshed. In this connection he commended the action of Canada's representative in the League of Nations in being the first to advocate taking away the armament monopoly from private parties and nationalizing the business of making munitions, and in thus eliminating the element of private profit from war will take away the most alarming and sinister influence against peace.

One Hundred Years Ago

One hundred years ago, it took four days to journey from Hamilton to Toronto, now it takes but half an hour by plane. Seventy-five years ago the Grand Trunk purpose to visit the city at an early date. Fifty years ago Canada was practically received, and disposition towards co-operation was expressed in a letter was sent addressed to the association, from His Worship Mayor Geo. Miller, 1st, and a hospitable welcome.

Fifty years ago, according to the speaker, Canada was almost a country of forty years or more ago the world was never blessed with so much abundance — especially everywhere, but also by poverty for millions. Two extremes.

At Geneva

At Geneva representatives of sixty-six nations, as we said, delegates, were trying to make peace permanent in the world, and settle international disputes in a sensible manner. At each delegate's desk is a box-like arrangement by which he can hear every speech, no matter in what language, in his own language. This is accomplished through skilled linguist interpreters and an invention of Marconi from the ideas of Dr. Graham Bell.

The League of Nations is a success, said the speaker, who asserted that several wars have been averted through the good offices of the League, besides other valuable contributions to the peace, comfort and safety of the world through labor legislation, health safeguards, etc.

No Rich, No Poor

Man's capacity for good is many times greater than he has ever utilized, said the speaker, and the future holds greater discoveries in science and invention than have been accomplished thus far—it is time to start using this latent talent and develop the earth's resources and possibilities to the best possible advantage. Then will the day by day when everyone will get full benefit of their labor, and there will be no sharp divisions of classes into rich and poor, but all will be on the level, prosperous, sharing alike in the earth's plentiful bounty, wisely developed and wisely administered.

Controller Simpson was introduced to Rotary by Past President Oswald Scott and Rotary appreciation was expressed by Rotarian Morley Duff.

OXFORD GROUP COMING HERE

Ministerial Association Make Plans For Two Events

The Belleville Ministerial Association met at the Y.M.C.A. this morning with its president, Rev. A. G. Wright in the chair. The following ministers were present: Rev. Bishop G. Marshall, Rev. A. E. Johnston, J. B. Naylor, Rev. H. B. Neal, Rev. Robert Hall, Rev. A. L. Geen, Rev. Dr. Ferguson and Assistant W. Martin (secretary-treasurer).

The meeting was convened for a two-fold purpose, namely to discuss the Oxford Group YMCA meeting of Oxford Group, and also the holding of a large open conference, whereby religious service in connection with the forthcoming centennial celebration of the city of Belleville.

Respecting the first matter, it has been made known that members of the Oxford Group have signified a purpose to visit the city at an early date, and the Ministerial Association was pathetically received, and disposition towards co-operation was expressed. A letter was sent addressed to the association, from His Worship Mayor Geo. Miller, 1st, and a hospitable welcome.

After a general discussion of the proposed conference it was appointed to meet the centennial executive committee and complete a suitable plan for a befitting conference. The committee consisting of Rev. A. E. Johnston, Bishop G. Marshall and Adjutant A. W. Martin.

Rev. A. E. Johnston, local president of the British and Foreign Bible Society, and Rev. William Moore, local secretary, made an appeal for the arrangement of holding the annual meeting of the Bible Society in Belleville. This was set to be held in Bridge Street United Church on Tuesday, May 22nd, with Rev. Dr. Ferguson as speaker.

The meeting opened and closed with prayer, offered by Adjutant A. W. Martin and Rev. A. Hilliard Johns respectively.

GRASS FIRE BURNS AT ALBERT COLLEGE

Firemen were given a lengthy run to a grass fire near Albert College on the Front Road, shortly before one o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

WEEK'S TRADE CALLED GOOD BY MERCHANTS

Parking Discussed at Meeting of Retail Dealers

Monday evening members of the Belleville branch of the Retail Merchants Association of Canada met in the New Queen's Hotel, wound up the business of Belleville Better Week and discussed various methods of extending the shopping area which centres in Belleville, how future roads radiating in all directions from Belleville might it easy for many more people to come here and transact business of every kind. Discussion of the result of Belleville Better Days brought out many outstanding expressions of approval of the idea and the method of conducting it, speakers going so far as to say that their business had been increased one hundred per cent. during the periods in other years. From the viewpoint of merchants generally it was evident that this community spirit displayed during Belleville merchants had benefitted nearly all of those taking part in a substantial way and the feature of the meeting was that, even if there had been no financial benefit, mutual benefit to some they were shortsighted and lacking in co-operation and would line up again in a similar event, declaring that such co-operation would result to the great and growing benefit of Belleville as a whole.

President John McIntosh occupied the chair, and those present included: Vice-President, R. J. Wray, Secretary, W. J. Logan, Treasurer, Gordon Logan.

General Chairman of Belleville Better Days, Ed. Shapiro, was warmly congratulated on all sides on the success of our shindig, and he injected into the big week and the meeting much of his usual hit efforts.

Others taking part in the discussion included George Woodley, Chas. J. Symons, R. R. McBride, Alderman Jas. A. Gallow, John Cook, Jos. Delaney, Laurie Lewis, Ross Neal, Jack Bell, John Shaw George Tisdall, S. F. Pidgeon, Wm. Bowerman, Alderman Howe, Horace Wright, James Lynch, Carl Sills, Geo. Hall and others.

It was decided to procure a challenge cup for presentation to the winner of the Belleville Better Days contest last Christmas, the same to be suitably inscribed.

Unclaimed Prizes

All unclaimed prizes will be held until May 15 and if not called for by that time will be disposed of at the discretion of the executive.

There are sixty-five members of the Belleville branch of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada to-day and a number are expected to bring the membership up to one hundred if possible.

Among the heart of the business section was again discussed, and it was decided to take a campaign to induce Belleville motorists to detour from parking on Front, Bridge street afternoons and Saturday mornings, and use parking places available. It was asserted that seventy-five per cent. of the cars parked in the business section were home-owned, and this interesting and needful attention came to shop, find no space convenient and go elsewhere to shop.

No parking by-law is desired by the R.M.A. but the co-operation of all citizens will solve the problem.

Votes of thanks were passed to all who contributed to the success of Belleville Better Week, including those who gave major and minor prizes, Bell Telephone Co., Hardware and Tip Top Tailors, for the use of their windows for displays drawings; W. H. Morton and staff for effective and generous co-operation; Mayor Thos. Ponton, Geo. Woodley, and others.

A motion of condolence to Mayor Tice in the death of his wife, was passed.

Daylight Saving was discussed and steps were taken to have a vote taken on the next municipal election using the provincial list if possible.

STUDENTS MAKE VERY FINE RECORDS

Douglas Smith, graduate of Belleville Collegiate Institute, in Educational School has been successful in obtaining his Master's degree in Arts at Queen's University this term and next year will begin work in the University of Chicago for his Ph.D. degree.

The lad also is a graduate of B.C.I. & V.S. who will receive his B.A. degree at Queen's University tomorrow and who is especially interested in journalism having participated a position with the H. A. Rogers Publishing and Advertising Co., Toronto.

Besides obtaining high standing in his various courses he has also taken an active part in student affairs. He was president of the Levana Society, Alma Mater Society, editor-in-chief and business manager of the Queen's Journal, and was also president of the Levana Society, Alma Mater Society, editor-in-chief and business manager.

Hidden talents who is well known in the city where he was a pioneer resident and was also medical service president at the annual meeting of Queen's University Alma Mater Society.

A SAFE PLACE TO BUY A GOOD USED CAR!

Why? Because it will thoroughly recondition every car before it is sold. Because it has been sold for over 30 years on an open lot at which reputation is your guarantee.

GENUINE THREE-DAY MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE

STUTZ 1926 Sport sedan, model put, 148 inch wheel base, 125 h.p., engine, with six wire wheels, finished in Stutz blue, upholstered in leather, completely reconditioned and refinished to a point where we will guarantee it to be a better car than when it was new. Equipped with Lovejoy shock absorbers, Delco starting and lighting system, and new chrome. For quick sale $1,350

STUDEBAKER, 1923 President Eight, sport de luxe convertible cabriolet, 136 inch wheel base, 8 cylinder, 90 h.p. engine, with six wire wheels, finished in maroon with black fenders, upholstered in maroon leather, equipped with Lovejoy shock absorbers, Delco starting and lighting system, and new chrome. Has been driven only 20,000 miles and is in splendid condition. Bargain $1,650

$295—BUICK, 1930, Super six, 5-passenger sedan $345

$325—FORD, 1930, 4 cylinder, 2-passenger coupe $375

$325—CHEVROLET, 1930, 5-passenger sport phaeton, in real good condition $375

$325—FORD, 1930, four-cylinder coach, reconditioned throughout $375

$450—HASH, 1929 Ambassador Six, 5-passenger sedan $495

$495—STUDEBAKER 1928 President eight 5-passenger sedan, six wire wheels, full crushed plush interior, in splendid condition $575

$575—STUDEBAKER 1930, 6 cylinder, 5-passenger sport sedan, six wire wheels, finished in maroon with black fenders, upholstered in leather $675

$575—FRANKLIN 1930, model Airman, 5-passenger coupe, powered by original owner. Original finish and upholstery $675

$600—HUDSON 1931 eight-passenger coupe, model sedan, spare tire mounted, finished in blue $695

$625—AUBURN 1930 model 8-20 sport de luxe phaeton, six wire wheels, finished in red, attractive sport model $695

$645—STUDEBAKER 1931 eight-passenger coupe, model 20, six wheels and trunk rack. Equipped with Lovejoy $695

$950—HUPMOBILE 1931 Century eight-passenger sedan, six wheels and trunk rack. Equipped with Lovejoy $995

$975—STUDEBAKER 1931, 8-cylinder Commander Road Rail sedan, finished in blue. Has been driven only 5,000 miles, and is in perfect condition $1,095

$995—HUPMOBILE, 1932, 8 cylinder, 5-passenger sedan, 122 inch wheel base, six wire wheels, completely refinished in maroon $1,095

$1,295—AUBURN 1930 model 8-20 sport phaeton, six wire wheels, finished in maroon with black fenders, upholstered in maroon leather, equipped with Lovejoy shock absorbers, Delco starting and lighting system, and new chrome. Has been driven only 20,000 miles and is in splendid condition. Bargain $1,650

TOUR OLD CAR TAKEN IN TRADE

Convenient Terms Over a 12-month Period

O'DONNELL-MACKIE LTD.

TWO USED CAR SHOW ROOMS

1909 Bay St. 1923 Yonge St.

Kingsdale 4178 TORONTO Cor. Yonge & Wellesley Sts. Kingsdale 1815

FIND CITIZENS GIVE GENEROUSLY TO RED CROSS

Canvassers Pleased With Results of Opening Day's Appeal

"I don't mind canvassing for the Red Cross", remarked a member of the canvassing group after taking part in this week's annual appeal for funds.

"People are so kind. When we're for the Red Cross they're glad to help and pathetic and have their donation all ready, waiting for us to call. If it is utterly impossible for them to give, they seem genuinely regretful. The Red Cross has many friends in Belleville.

Those who really understand something of the great work that the Red Cross is doing, are anxious to co-operate in the best way possible. A donation that will be the practical means of assisting in the humanitarian peace time program of the Red Cross, and in the event of war the Red Cross only extends through the generosity of citizens who are keen activities the tangible expression of their love for the land of their birth. The Red Cross dollar has to be far reaching. Some of it goes for material for the sewing work and that which each winter is completed by the ladies of the community and distributed to the needy in the city and district. The assistance of Junior Red Cross of which there are twenty-eight groups in the city, is also a tangible one, and places available. It was asserted that seventy-five per cent. of the Junior Red Cross organizations were home-owned, and this interesting and needful attention came to shop, find no space convenient and go elsewhere to shop.

No parking by-law is desired by the R.M.A. but the co-operation of all citizens will solve the problem.

Votes of thanks were passed to all who contributed to the success of Belleville Better Week, including those who gave major and minor prizes, Bell Telephone Co., Hardware and Tip Top Tailors, for the use of their windows for displays drawings; W. H. Morton and staff for effective and generous co-operation; Mayor Thos. Ponton, Geo. Woodley, and others.

A motion of condolence to Mayor Tice in the death of his wife, was passed.

Daylight Saving was discussed and steps were taken to have a vote taken on the next municipal election using the provincial list if possible.

V.O.N. Makes 395 Visits in April

An imposing total of 395 home visits were made in this city during the month of April by nurses of the Victorian Order of Nurses, it was disclosed in the monthly report of Nurse Miss Germain Dumais at the regular meeting of the board of directors held last evening.

At the meeting held during the month 26 babies were weighed, examined, and parents advised.

Severing her connections with the local branch of the order, Miss Dumais, for the past three years a resident here, but who is removing to Ottawa at the end of this month, tendered a letter of resignation, which was regretfully accepted by President Reg Masters and fellow members of the board. Miss Webster who has returned to the city following a two month's training course reported for duty on May 1st, and will remain here to be available for service from July 1st.

Miss Webster was appointed as Secretary of the local Order was welcomed by fellow officers to the board.

A note of appreciation is extended to Mrs. Dumais for the work assisted during the recent appeal of the order.

A Friend, coal liver oil $10.00; Mrs. Wm. Hawley of Port Arthur, Parley $5.00; A Friend $5.00; Mrs. Dr. Coughlin $2.00; Misses Wilson $2.00; Mr. Geo. N. Stokes $2.00; Mrs. J. Samuel $1.50; Miss Ethel Parley, Mr. Crough $1.00; A Friend $1.00.

FREE SITES OFFERED

Port Erie, May 8: Mayor William J. Hawley of Port Erie announced tonight that the annexation last night council had decided to offer three factory sites to industries locating here and that thirty four acres in extent situated adjacent to various frontier terminals will be immediately thrown open for the purpose.

THE CAUSED MORE CASES OF "HEART" TROUBLE THAN HE CURI?)

But women paid him plenty for his treatment!

TODAY CAPITOL GIFT NIGHT 2.30 7.15 9.00

All UNCLAIMED PRIZES
For Belleville Better Week
WILL BE HELD
Until MAY 15th
IF NOT CALLED FOR BY THAT TIME THE PRIZES WILL BE DISPOSED OF AT THE DISCRETION OF THE RETAIL MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION

THE PARADE OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST STARS!
Today!
In The World's Mightiest Show!
8 STAGGERING SPECTACLES—8
ENDS Friday

BELLE

Daily at 2.30—7.15—9.15

Matinee Wednesday and Saturday at 2.30

Council Extends Sympathy to Mayor Tice and Ald. Cushing

Resolutions Passed Will Be Forwarded to Above Named

A sombre note was injected into proceedings of city council on the occasion of their regular meeting on Monday evening when Mayor Tice, still evidently an invalid, and Alderman Cushing, who suffered a loss in the family during the week, were both absent. Moved by Alderman Herring, Hill, and seconded by Alderman F. B. Foley, the following expression of sympathy will be tendered Mayor Tice:

"We, the members of the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Belleville in session assembled at the city hall in the City of Belleville this seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four, sadly and reverently record the passing of Mrs. Margaret Tice, loved wife and helpmate of our highly respected Mayor.

"That the death of Mrs. Tice, the community has lost one, whose charm of character and elevating influence were reflected in the noble impulses and inspirations guiding the Chief Magistrate of the city in his many arduous and onerous duties".

"In her ever widening circle of friends, the deceased was admired for her patience and virtues, respected for her tact and kindness and loved for her charity and simplicity of heart."

"To the bereaved members of the family, and particularly to our esteemed colleague, the Mayor, we beg leave to extend our most profound and heartfelt sympathy in the irreparable loss, and it is our desire, that this Memorial be spread upon our Minutes and that a copy thereof be forwarded to His Worship, George O. Tice."

(Signed) Acting Mayor W. A. Woodley.

"To Alderman Thomas Henry Cushing: Similar memorial will be forwarded upon motion of Alderman Thomas F. Herring, and seconded by Alderman J. B. Harker:

"The members of the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Belleville, in session assembled this seventh day of May A.D., 1934, do record that the City of Belleville, most respectfully join with the citizens generally in tendering to our esteemed colleague, Alderman Thomas Henry Cushing, and through him to the other bereaved members of the family, our sincere sympathy for the irreparable loss in the death of a highly respected devoted and cherished wife and mother.

"And we further direct that this Memorial be spread upon our Minutes, and that a copy thereof be forwarded to Mr. Thomas Henry Cushing."

(Signed) Acting Mayor W. A. Woodley

Minimum Business

Only a minimum of necessary business was transacted by council with Acting Mayor W. A. Woodley in the chair.

The recommendation "That, in accordance with the terms of the Advisory Relief Committee, passed on May 3rd, from and after May 15, that no more men be called for relief work after they are allowed to finish that week, but that from that date that any families whom the relief office may deem to be in need be assisted with vouchers", was passed without discussion. It had been previously passed in committee.

A recommendation that the city engineer be authorized to call for tenders for the supply of sand, gravel, washed stone, sewer pipe, cement and castings for the year 1934 was, on the report of the civic departments until tenders are received for the same.

With the promise, that he will build a better road than during the coming year, at an estimated cost of not less than $8,000.00, a request by Mr. Thomas D. Harris for the purchase of a building lot on William Street was granted.

A request from the Belleville Senior Baseball Club for a grant was referred to the committee of council. A communication from the Canadian Institution for the Blind, was also referred to committee.

Resignation Accepted

On the motion of Alderman W. A. Woodley, and seconded by Al-

PIMPLES GONE . . . FACE PERFECTLY CLEAR AFTER USING FRUIT-A-TIVES SAYS SWORN STATEMENT

MRS. RAYMOND MOORE

Mrs. Moore is solemnly declaring in a sworn statement, how clear-a-tives gave her perfect clear skin because she says, "I was troubled by her appearance and so I tried a few facts. She states:—

"I do Solemnly Declare that I was troubled very badly with pimples. Then my husband recommended Fruit-A-Tives to me. I tried them and am very thankful that I did. In a short time the pimples all left and my face was perfectly clear. My health improved, too."

Mrs. Moore Annual

Mrs. Moore continued to use these effective fruit medicines after the Statement, October 16th, 1933.

FRUIT-A-TIVES—25c and 50c at all Drug Stores

FOURTH WIFE SUES

Describing her husband as "artistic, violent, and a dictator," Mrs. Mary Virginia Bruce Gilbert, above, former Polish beauty and musical actress, has filed suit for divorce in Los Angeles from John Clark Gilbert, wealthy New York sportsman. Mrs. Bruce is Gilbert's fourth wife. His three previous matrimonial ventures with Olivia Burwell, Leontine Joy and Ina Claire ended in divorce.

derman J. B. Harker the resignation of Mr. Cyril Wallz as member of the local Board of Education to which he was an appointee and was accepted with a measure of regret.

A bank transfer from this city to the same made the resignation necessary, it was pointed out by Mr. Wallz.

In moving the acceptance of the resignation, Alderman Woodley paid tribute to Mr. Wallz and to the vice Mr. Wallz had been to this community. "We are sad sorry to see him go, and we are losing one of the best members of the Public School Board. We wish him success in his new field, and are forced to accept the resignation with a considerable amount of reluctance."

Carried with the motion of acceptance was a rider that the City Council prepare a bylaw to be submitted at the next meeting, which will authorize the appointment of another member on the Board of Education.

Ratification of agreement between the city and Eugene Wheeler for the collection and disposal of garbage in the city was made by a unanimous vote of 10/4.

Early adjournment was made by Acting Mayor W. A. Woodley.

Present were Aldermen H. B. Foley, Harry Hill, Wm. Denike, Thomas F. Herring, J. B. Harker, Wm. Harvey, Frank A. Donnelon, T. T. Wills and W. A. Woodley.

NOTED VISITOR UNRECOGNIZED

Premier of B. C. Entertained By Young Man At Old Fort

BROCKVILLE, Ont., May 7.—(CP) Visiting relatives here after a series of conferences in Ottawa with members of the Dominion Ministry, Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Premier of British Columbia, spent part of the week-end making an unheralded inspection of Fort Wellington at Prescott.

He was conducted over the fortification, dating from the war of 1812 and now maintained by the National Parks System, by a youthful guide, who, unaware of his identity, gave him a series of lectures in regard to the Fort and its history and then, true to the regulations, refused to be reimbursed for his services.

JANITOR-ROBBER PLEADS GUILTY

London, Ont., May 8 (CP)—Robert Long, the janitor-robber, who dropped through a hole in the ceiling into the presence of the owner of a grocery on King Street yesterday afternoon, pleaded guilty in police court today to breaking and entering and theft of groceries valued at $50. He was remanded one week until police check up other alleged loots.

WOOLER SCHOOLS MARK ARBOR DAY

Beautify School Grounds in Observance of Day

Wooler.—On Friday the schools observed Arbor Day, but the children were seen washing windows, dusting walls, raking lawns with an occasional bonfire, making flower beds, all anxiously to be finished by lunch time when they were presented a picnic, or fishing party, or a ball game, and the afternoon was fine and they were all started off merrily with enthusiasm after real hard work.

J. J. Way's resignation as a trustee on the village school board was accepted and W. W. McColl was elected as trustee on Tuesday evening.

On Tuesday evening in the Stone Schoolhouse a meeting of the section was called to hear the report of the O.E.A. Convention held in Toronto, given by the delegate, Smith Valentine. Lillian Collings sang several solos, a dialogue was slat ystren by Irene and Francis Tuckabury.

Mrs. Clarke started downstairs with a can half full of paint when her heel caught on the top step causing her to fall down the stairs and the paint pouring over her head. Fortunately the can was not broken but she was badly shaken and wears a large bandage on her head.

Thos Head and his mother and Mrs. W. Smith are spending the week-end in Toronto.

Douglas Sleeper returned home from Toronto on Wednesday.

Mary Joy Sharpe returned home from Toronto after spending two weeks with her sister, Leona.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Austin, D. S. Austin and Bernice Sharpe attended the funeral of Mrs. Jas. Mrs. Shaw at Ivanhoe on Friday.

Percy Gooding spent Friday in Brighton.

On Wednesday evening the Stone Schoolhouse was the scene of a delightfully arranged by the teacher, Miss Anna Bell, to the occasion of entertaining a few teachers and friends: Miss P. Meyers and Miss Spragge, of Rockdale; Miss Mayfait, of Ninth Concession of Murray; Miss Hamilton, of Consecon; Miss L. Munroe, of York Road; Miss R. Cole, Preston Public School; Miss Wetherall, Gunter; Miss Bell, Grafton Public School; Mr. Young, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Terrill. After a survey of the wall pictures and the work of the Musical Training in the way of door stops and book marks, short meeting was held and then Miss Bell served refreshments.

Miss Bragg, president of the Teachers' Association, moved a vote of thanks to Miss Bell for such a pleasant evening.

Friday evening a meeting of the Young Farmers' Club was held at the home of J. A. Down and Son.

On Tuesday a noon lunch was served in the school to about fifty or more 'by a group of the W.M.S. At 2 p.m. the Mission Band Convention met the meeting with a worship period followed by business problems. Then a music enjoyed song was sung by the Mission Band, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. P. J. Wessels and Mrs. Ada Bonham. Mrs. S. L. Terrill gave the Church prayer a bylaw to be submitted at the next meeting, which will authorize the appointment of another member on the Board of Education.

Ratification of agreement between the city and Eugene Wheeler for the collection and disposal of garbage in the city was made by a unanimous vote of 10/4.

Early adjournment was made by Acting Mayor W. A. Woodley.

Present were Aldermen H. B. Foley, Harry Hill, Wm. Denike, Thomas F. Herring, J. B. Harker, Wm. Harvey, Frank A. Donnelon, T. T. Wills and W. A. Woodley.

FIRE DESTROYS CHURCH

Beebe, Que., May 7.—The Roman Catholic Church at Beebe was partly destroyed by fire of undetermined origin early today. Damages were estimated at $15,000. The flames had swept a portion of the building before they were discovered by early risers, and, confusion, and works of religious art.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

KIDNEY DISEASES

ESTABLISHED 1857

THE PROVED

PERSONAL NEWS OF FRANKFORD

Frankford.—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Murney have returned to Toronto after spending some time with their daughter, Mrs. Will Henderson.

Mrs. Ernest Sharpe spent Wednesday with Mrs. Stillman Hinkley.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nelson of Wellington also Mr. and Mrs. George Spencer on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Telford and daughter Eileen of Cooksville spent Sunday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Allison of Trenton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith.

Mrs. Hall (nurse) and Miss Ethel Foster were quietly married on Saturday at the United Parsonage by the Rev. J. T. Ferguson.

Mrs. Edgar Matthews has returned home after spending the week at Stirling with her mother, who has been ill.

Born—Saturday, April 28th, to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hadley, a son.

Wednesday, May 2nd, to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burkitt, a son.

On Wednesday night the Public Utilities Commission's Association and Pathfinders' Club presented a well rendered play entitled "You're Telling Me" in the basement of the High School, in aid of the Public Library. Mr. Ed Ketcheson acted as chairman, Mrs. Ketcheson, president of the Association, (Dr.) Gullet, a former Frankford lady, took a leading part.

WELLMAN'S Y. P. S. MEETS

Rawdon, May 8—Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Johnson spent Sunday at Trenton at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kingsley.

Mrs. Hamilton Campbell of Toronto spent the week end with Mr. Campbell and Mrs. Wellman.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunham and family motored to Stirling and their nephew, Mr. W. Whilton and bride on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. McGee and Donna visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bragg on Sunday.

Mr. Merton Chambers and the Misses Ethel and Marion Chambers of Thrasher enjoyed a motor trip on Monday as guests of Mr. Chambers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Tweed Road.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Best of Frankford spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thurlow.

Mr. David Bell attended Wellman's Y.P.S. on Wednesday evening and friends there wished him a happy homeward journey.

Miss Lillian Barnes spent a few days last week with friends in Toronto.

Mrs. John Heagle spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. Dave Burkitt, Stirling.

Mrs. Florence Dunham, assistant president of Wellman's Y.P.S. presided on Tuesday evening and in charge of the Devotional exercises. Mr. Arthur Wellman, Rawdon, in absence of the convener of that department. Mrs. Richard Wellman, Miss Dorothy Dunham read the Bible lesson.

Mrs. Abel Case delighted with a couple of accordion selections.

Miss Isobel Bedford gave a reading and Miss Lillian Barnes delighted with a solo.

Miss Ruth Eggleton teacher at Wellman's Corners presented and gave the topic on the subject:—"Jesus and the Human Heart"—The topic was greatly enjoyed by those in attendance, and the following Wellman's pupils took part.

Miss Bedford gave a reading and all sang "What a Fellowship" A duet by Miss Lillian Barnes and put on a Bible contest.

Mr. Lorne Wellman accepted a position with Mr. S. Sine.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Holmes attended the funeral of their brother at Millbrook last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Baker have moved to Allan's Mills to reside.

Mrs. Buchanan spent a few days with her brother, Mr. James Finch, Mount Pleasant, the young people staged their play "Lighthouse Nan" at Petterick's Corners on Saturday evening to a full house. Mr. Kenneth Weaver took his truck and many loads of people to the show, two sets. Several cars also journeyed up and down the road and thirty two from Mount Pleasant were present.

Besides those who assisted with the play, choruses were rendered by the Young People, Mr. Spencer and Mrs. Kenneth Weaver and Messrs Willie Jeffs and Ivan Weaver.

The proceeds amounted to over sixty-two dollars and the cast chose a delicious lunch of pie, sandwiches and coffee to which all did ample justice.

Miss Nellie Morrison of Bethel, attended the play at Petterick's on Thursday evening.

MASSASSAGA NEWS ITEMS

Massassaga, May 8.—A number from this neighborhood attended the funeral of Mr. Roy Vallesu's on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jose spent Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. Gordon Bonter.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Vallesu spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. Nightingale.

Miss Ella Wallbridge spent Wednesday evening with Miss N. Roth of Belleville.

On Monday evening the M.Y. P.C. held an open meeting at the church. A splendid programme was put on and was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. J. G. Sprague of Mountain View spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Wallbridge.

Mrs. Gertrude Wallbridge is spending a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Sprague of Mountain View.

J. S. Morton President Stirling Liberal-Conservative Assoc.

Delegates Appointed For Convention In Marmora

Stirling.—The Liberal-Conservative Association of Stirling convened in Albert Hall on Friday evening for the purpose of electing delegates who will attend the West Hastings Convention in Marmora being held in Marmora on Friday, May 11. The meeting which was splendidly attended was a most enthusiastic one. Owing to the illness of Dr. J. McC. Potts, for many years secretary of the Stirling Liberal-Conservative Association, Mr. H. C. Martin was appointed Secretary protem and in the course of the meeting was elected to that office.

The first item of business considered of the election of officers, Mr. J. S. Morton being re-elected president of the local organization. Mr. Fred T. Ward was elected treasurer and Mr. H. C. Martin, secretary. The delegates to the Conservative Convention were then elected and are as follows: Mr. W. J. Whitty, Miss Elma Donahue, Dr. H. H. Aher, Mrs. Dewey Bailey, Mr. Thos. Montgomery, Sr., Mr. Thos. Solmes, and Mrs. W. J. Whitty.

A most enjoyable dance was held in the Stirling Community Hall on Thursday evening under the auspices of St. Jerome's Church. Music was supplied by the Commodores and Mendelssohn Quartette. Turnout in town was present from Madoc, Marmora, Belleville, Deloro and Frankford.

Miss Carl Shaw of Toronto has been the guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Harper Rollins and attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Shaw, Ivanhoe.

Mrs. Ernest Sharpe was the scene of a very pleasant event on Thursday evening, when a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Standard-bearer for West Hastings was host at a delightful party. The guests on the evening were the chairmen of the Women's Institutes of Stirling, Frankford, and Stirling, as well as a number of others. At this conclusion of the evening a few short addresses were delivered on matters of interest to the gathering and a real social time was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wallace of Dresden, Miss Jennie Wallace, Miss Ethel Wallace, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wallace of Ivanhoe, were guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harper Rollins.

Messrs. S. and H. Wallace and Mrs. Wallace are brothers and sister of the late Mrs. Sarah Shaw who was buried from the home on Friday afternoon.

St. John's W.A. took the form of a Canadian evening with Miss Alice Colow, B.A., in charge of the programme, which was a most interesting and elevating address treating of Canadian artists and Canadian music. The "Land of the World Is Waiting For The Song" was sung and was very in keeping with the occasion in that it was composed by Ernest Sills, Canadian composer, who resided in Toronto. Miss Milna Hall sang and now living in Toronto. Miss Milna Hall sang and now living in the life of Pauline Johnson and terminated her address by reading one of Miss Johnson's poems. Miss Bateman sang sweetly the vocal solo "Land of Mine Fathers". Miss Margaret Cook gave a reading on Thomas Chandler Haliburton, the first of prose writers, and Miss Nita Cranston read one of his short stories. Miss Betty Cooley was the prize donated by Mr. Fred Houchin. Mrs. H. H. Aher sang a mountpanists for the evening. The singing of "O Canada" brought to a conclusion one of the most interesting of the season's programmes.

TAKES CHARGE OF Y. P. MEETING

Plainfield, May 8—Young People's meeting on Sunday night was in charge of Miss M. Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Bickford spent the week end with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Collins.

Mr. J. G. Latta was called to Toronto on Thursday night owing to the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. Davidson.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. Ellis and family in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mrs. Bailey is visiting her sister, Miss A. Reilly who is ill.

Edmonton Extortion

PEG TOP CIGARS 5¢

For OVER 50 YEARS

The OLD RELIABLE

FINE PROGRAM IS ARRANGED

All Star Revue Sponsored By Y's Men Ready For Production

Something new, something different in the line of local entertainment is being introduced by the Y's Men's Club at the Belleville Theatre on Wednesday night in the presentation of a variety show or revue that is to include a few outstanding talents in music, song, dance and dramatics that is available in this city. When the idea was first conceived by the members of the Y's Men's Club it was stunned as the project seemed far too stupendous to be staged locally. After carefully studying the matter and approaching the various artists and their assistants, the idea took concrete form and the Belleville Y's Men's first "all-Belleville revue" came into being.

The committees in charge fully realized the gigantic efforts that were needed to stage and put over such an entertainment that included so many and scattered talents. The production is the first of its kind to be staged in Belleville since the days before the passing of the old City Opera House when one or two local shows were staged each season with capacity houses necessitating a second and sometimes a third performance. In Wednesday night's revue not only local talents, numbers and collections will be back of the footlights but local producers will also have been fitted into the program that is undoubtedly the greatest of its kind produced in this city in recent years.

The Rose Hole Club's boys' chorus of forty voices will make their initial appearance on the Belleville stage, other well known organizations such as the Radio quartette, the Salvation Army mixed quartette and the Young Theopians, a successful local chorus group, are to be ten minute playlettes, artists, musical numbers by Miss Sheila Mae Tuite, Miss E. Reddick, Miss Leona Riggs, James Bashkier, Alec Gordon and others also have been engaged to make the project the most interesting, will be the entertainment to be staged by the pupils of the O.S.D. Miss Ethel Bowerman's classes in music, song and dancing achieved by the pupils of the Bowerman-O.S.D. ladies' chorus and their dancing band are also to be featured in the revue.

Besides vocal and instrumental numbers the revue will be highly general in another ten days. Meadows have made advance sales in many districts and new crops of alfalfa, red clover and timothy are forecast. Abundance of snow in the Eastern sections of the Province maintained soil in good condition and prospects there are reasonably good. Generally the fall appears to have ain sufficient immediate moisture, but needed heavy rains shortly later. Tender varieties of apple trees, principally McIntosh Red, were damaged, others wintered reasonably well. Peach buds were damaged. Pear and plum trees came through satisfactorily. Vineyards are backward and generally promise below winter. Tobacco plants under glass are backward, forecasts average for Norfolk County will be reduced approximately 25%.

DARKY BEARS CHARMED LIFE

Fortunately The Bullets Do Not Find a Vital Spot

WINDSOR, May 8—(CP)—James White, 35, colored, is not sure whether he is lucky or unlucky. Twice he has been shot but now he is to do two months on a theft charge to which he pleaded guilty.

A year ago he stopped some bullets from a shot gun when he tried to play bracelet between a man and wife. His second "bracelet" was a nick in the leg by a bullet from a policeman's revolver. While was trying to crack arson on the theft court.

POLICE CHARGE RECKLESS DRIVING

London, Ont., May 8.—Charges of reckless driving were laid in county police court against four children of men over two accidents in which five persons were injured.

The four men are Kenneth Latimer of this city, William Bissell of Lesbon township, Robert H. Carpett, of Parkhill and Thomas L. Patrick of London south, the first three of whom appear before Magistrate Hawkshaw on May 21st, while the latter two will be up for trial on Saturday.

DEATHS MONDAY

Brockville, Ont.—George B. Williamson, 67, former treasurer of Dundas county, Whitestown, and a member of the Bars of Ontario, Illinois and Kansas.

London.—General Sir Arthur Louis Woolcombe, 74, retired commander-in-chief of the eastern command.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Sir Gilbert Laird, 62, former associate editor of the Philadelphia North American.

Irish Free State.—Lord David O'Connor, a leader in the Sinn Fein movement and at the time was ruler of the Friends of Freedom in the United States.

Toronto.—Gilbert Acheson Smith, former principal of Parkdale College and for many years senior principal of Toronto schools.

Bank of Montreal Crop Report No. 1

Wide variations as regards seasonal conditions in the course of agricultural operations exist in the Dominion from coast to coast. In British Columbia vegetation and well-advanced seeding reflect a typical spring season, but unusual. In the Prairies seeding is fairly general. In Ontario farming operations are two weeks later than average and germination is backward. In Quebec Province ploughing has commenced, but it will be two weeks before seeding becomes general. In the Maritime Provinces, particularly Nova Scotia, the end is beginning. The Prairies are making fair start as regards seeding with having been above normal in the Province. Elsewhere, although sheltered reserves are still lacking over large areas of South and Central Saskatchewan and in southwestern Manitoba, present indications on the whole are fairly favorable, reduced wheat acreage and an increase in coarse grains. Ontario cold weather has taken a fairly heavy toll of fall wheat necessitating much replanting. Details in respect to the various Provinces follow:

Fall wheat is badly general in another ten days. Meadows have made advance sales in many districts and new crops of alfalfa, red clover and timothy are forecast. Abundance of snow in the Eastern sections of the Province maintained soil in good condition and prospects there are reasonably good. Generally the fall appears to have ain sufficient immediate moisture, but needed heavy rains shortly later. Tender varieties of apple trees, principally McIntosh Red, were damaged, others wintered reasonably well. Peach buds were damaged. Pear and plum trees came through satisfactorily. Vineyards are backward and generally promise below winter. Tobacco plants under glass are backward, forecasts average for Norfolk County will be reduced approximately 25%.

HEADACHES

Persistent headaches, with tired feelings and irritability tell of exhaustion of nerves that you are living at too high a tension. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food feeds the blood and the nerves back to health and vigor

Dr. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

60 MINERS KILLED IN BLAST IN BADEN

Burgingen, Germany, May 7 (CP)—Havas)—Sixty miners are killed in an explosion in a coal mine here, it was reported here this morning.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER
THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon except Sunday at the office of The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.
W. E. NORTON, Publisher.

THE LAW WILL GET THEM

In Peterborough, according to the Examiner, the chief constable has declared war on children or others roller-skating on the streets. That recalls the fact that there is considerable roller-skating here, even on the main streets, though not so much on the roadways as on the sidewalks. On some streets there is considerable of this, though as yet it has not reached a very pronounced stage.

The danger is bad enough when pedestrians meet roller-skaters on the sidewalks but when the movement spreads to the roadways then it is time for action. Motorists have enough troubles to face without the added risk of keeping a lookout for some youngster or older person darting out in no-one-knows-whither direction and often immediately in front of a car. Can the driver stop without injuring the reckless skater? is the question. So there is only one thing for the police. Action to stop skaters menacing their own lives and perhaps those of others.

Just now the police have a standing order to bring to court any boy or other riding a bicycle on the sidewalk. After due warning surely they ought to be brought to court for the roads are good enough for cyclists and safe enough even from motorcars if the bicycling youth or child will take ordinary precautions and not be rowing all over the road.

Not long ago a boy, riding a small low bicycle on the sidewalk, without a bell, informed a lady whom he had run into that she should have got out of his way. "You should not be where you are," he said. This same boy told another who warned him to the effect that his place was on the road, that bicycles of his class did not have to use the roadway. So it did not have to be and fathers and mothers begin to look as if the handing over to children of such machines as bicycles and giving the boys with bicycles a weapon to stay off the walk and not even to use the roads unless they take unusual care.

Most of these practices are the result of carelessness and nothing more, but there is some times a touch of selfishness which fail to see rights of their elders as in the case of the boy with the small bicycle.

UPPER CANADA'S MACE

President Roosevelt has made a fine gesture of goodwill in the proposal to return to Ontario the mace, a symbol of office seized when the U. S. troops were driven out of York in the year 1813. The victorious at York in the military academy of the captors but it will soon return to Canada.

Now despite what the presence of that mace in the academy meant, Canada did not feel ashamed for she could have taken it not mace, at least emblematic of her victories over United States troops in the long ago.

But after all what is the use of such prizes of war, hung up in a place where they might be calculated to stimulate the fire of youth undergoing training that though they are more likely to fire youth with a wrong conception and it is doubtful if captured flags are in this age any proof of a superiority in the field of battle.

Indeed it looks as if men are realizing so deeply the insanity and murderousness of war that they are willing to discard the mace, or a flag, as symbols of power and prowess. And yet the folly of attaching so much notice to the mace lies in the fact that Upper Canada had power even if the mace was taken and it was always possible to make a new one. One can understand men in the past fighting desperately for their flags in battle though the flag has disappeared in war because it would be a menace to that strategy in the field which tries to prevent the enemy knowing what regiments are near at hand.

In the President's nobility of heart which loves peace it is easy to see that two nations are becoming more and more peace-loving. A war across the Great Lakes and the Forty-Ninth Parallel is unthinkable, because the two nations understand one another. If some fiery demagogue should ever gain power on this continent and suggest military operations against the other country, the people of his own nation would suppress him because he did not represent them.

Yet Canada's vast acres in a forgone age would have tempted invaders such as the Huns, the Goths and Moslems who swept over Europe. The fact that there was once a grave danger in unoccupied land and the fact that today these lands are safe from invaders and also the fact that property of one country is safe today from its neighbors, is proof of the rise of standards of international relationships. The world is growing more peaceful.

So the President's goodwill offering is a sign of that better feeling which should mark the relations of neighbors. As the world wags on, more and more the Continent of North America will be an example of friends living closely together. Canada has no suspicions of the United States and the Republic has implicit confidence in the peace-loving character of our people. So we ask few safeguards. The mace besides being a sign of authority is also a sign of that newer spirit of brotherly love and peace which is striving so heroically and unselfishly to win all nations to its cause.

SIDELIGHTS

OLD AGE

The seas are quiet when the winds give o'er;
So calm are we when passions are no more.
For then we know how vain it was to boast
Of fleeting things, so certain to be lost.
Clouds of affection from our younger eyes
Conceal that emptiness which age describes.

The soul's dark cottage, battered and decayed,
Lets in new light through chinks that Time hath made;
Stronger by weakness, wiser men become
As they draw near to their eternal home;
Leaving the old, both worlds at once they view
That stand upon the threshold of the new.
—Edmund Waller, 7th. Century

x x x x

"HON. J. E. WALMSLEY, Bridge St., Belleville, Ontario, Canada," was the address on a letter postmarked New Orleans, April 30 and received last week by Ex-Mayor J. E. Walmsley, of this city. The letter was large and contained a beautiful invitation in colors from the Honorable Senators Walmsley, Mayor of New Orleans, The Hon. A. Miles Pratt, The Hon. Frank R. Gomila, M.D., The Hon. Fred A. Earhart and the Hon. Joseph Patrick Skelly, members of the Commission Council of the City of New Orleans, to be present at the inauguration of Mayor Walmsley at the City Hall, New Orleans, Monday, May 7, at eleven o'clock a.m. A beautiful photo in colors of the New Orleans City Hall graces the invitation cover. Mayor Walmsley of New Orleans and ex-Mayor Walmsley of Belleville are no relation, but have been in touch with each other for some years, owing to the similarity of names, and invitations have been exchanged for Old Boys' Reunions, Mardi Gras, etc. Mayor Walmsley of New Orleans, is a fighter, and is after the hide of "The Louisiana Kingfish," Hughey Long, member of the United States Senate, who has been bedevilling the politics of New Orleans for years. Mayor Walmsley made a special trip to Washington with the expressed intention of giving 'The Kingfish' a thrashing, stopped at the same hotel as Long, "The Kingfish" successfully eluded him and protected by an armed bodyguard kept his skin intact, the only casualty being a 110-pound reporter cut down for Senator Hughey Long's cane as he attempted to interview him on the Walmsley-Long feud. Some Keed, eh, what?

x x x x

SAMUEL INSULL, back on the soil of the United States, which he strove to rule as king of the electric utilities world, has taken Front Page precedence from Dillinger, the murderer. Insull's ambitions ran away with his good sense, and swamped his career. Insull had ambitions which led him into wholesale larceny and murder, with a price on his head and no chance of ever having another tranquil moment. Insull's operations robbed thousands of their money, while Dillinger robbed many of their lives — both were the under their own best possibilities and ended their career as public enemies.

x x x x

EDDIE CANTOR DREW DOWN "heavy sugar" for a once-a-week broadcast, reputed to be anywhere up to ten thousand dollars an appearance—one thousand being more likely, in real money. He is off the air now attending to screen and stage business, and the departure left the air waves as was signallized by a blast at New York critics, whom he raked fore and aft with one exception. That's having an author to windward, as it were, for he does not specify the lone critic who pleased him, and so every newspaper critic in New York can assume that he is the guy that Cantor likes—if any of them care a goldurn what he thinks about them.

x x x x

"CAVALCADE," THE FAVORITE, won the sixtieth Kentucky Derby (Darby to you) Saturday at Churchill Downs. Thirty-one horses started and the money involved was $37,000, the smallest prize money ever hung up for a Kentucky Derby. Cavalcade, the winner, is owned by Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloane, of New York and Florida.

x x x x

"The chief needs of American public service are five very simple ones: honesty, courage, common sense, knowledge and vision."—Nicholas Murray Butler.

x x x x

"I am indifferent to what the present thinks of me. What the future bones from us, we will accomplish.—Adolf Hitler.

x x x x

"There is no such thing as a comoromise with liberty. Liberty cannot be blended or adulterated."—Fiorello LaGuardia.

TOURISTS IN EUROPE NOTE OLD CUSTOMS

Rich And Poor Remove Hats When a Funeral Passes

By Louis E. Bisch, M.D., Ph.D.
Famous Authority on Health and Hygiene.

(Copyright 1934, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

When people from this continent travel in Europe for the first time they are apt to show surprise when seeing men, even the lowliest and most poorly clad—remove their hats when a funeral passes.

This is a sign of reverence the same as is shown when we doff our hats when the flag is carried past in a parade. Now I don't mean to imply that we possess no reverence at all. It is undeniable however, that in general we have less reverence for art, literature, religion, shrines, etc., than have the people abroad.

Our lack of reverence may be the chief reason why we have the reputation of being materialists and money worshippers purely and simply. Of course it is not true and the accusation is unjust.

I claim that, on the contrary, Americans are inherently and essentially idealists. If this were not so we never would have been able to muster sufficient imagination to reach the eminence we now enjoy as a nation.

A sordidly materialistic people would not very well have accomplished so much in such a short space of years. Are we not really generous and philanthropic? Are not our social-service organizations second to none? Do we not contribute handsomely to ameliorate the ravages of the world's misfortunes, whether they may be on our own or on foreign soil?

Do we not foster and give medical attention to starving children all over the world? Have we not in the countries in which they live are friendly to us as a nation?

A long list of American ideals could be named. Yet, this such ideals part and parcel of our national character make-up, why don't we show more reverence, respect and reverence for our accomplishments?

It would seem as though the reason for this strange apparent deficiency lay in the fact that you and I and everybody became infected with the germ of boredom. We are so used to hearing of colossal attainments and achievements, become so pass that it takes something stupendous to stir us out of the slightest thrill.

The consequence is we don't value what we already have. We become accustomed to our own virtues. We lose the sense of reverence for that which we actually are and actually have. We are a great and more profound respect for the things we have left behind to enrich the lives of us all.

The new fad instead of removing one's hat for a funeral does not necessarily indicate reverence although it might be a good beginning at that! But whatever we do we choose to show reverence and ideation will be excellent, for such an attitude is exactly what America needs badly.

Dr. Bisch's Daily Health Hint

Orange juice is healthful for infants as well as for adults. A baby as young as two weeks should be given half a teaspoonful in water every day. This amount should be increased gradually until, say at two months of age, the child is receiving a half teaspoonful twice each day and at three months a whole tablespoonful. Dilution with water, about an equal quantity, should be kept up.

JAP PEACE-MAKER

MITSURU TOYAMA

Fearing that resentment aroused by supposed U.S. opposition to a Japanese Monroe Doctrine" for Asia, might result in anti-American riots in Tokio, Mitsuru Toyama, veteran Japanese patriot, appealed to his countrymen to remain calm and counselled against any demonstrations.

CHANCERY COURT UPHOLDS MERGER

Injunction By I. M. M. Dismissed by Justice Eve

London, May 8 (AP)—The International Mercantile Marine Company's motion for an injunction restraining the Cunard-White Star shipping lines merger was dismissed by the Chancery Court today.

Justice Eve, in delivering the reserved judgment, said it was impossible to hold that I.M.M. was entitled to maintain the action, since a requisite of such a suit is that the plaintiff be a shareholder in the company.

The International Mercantile Marine Company is incorporated in New Jersey. The president is P. M. Flugrath of New York.

Fighting the merger, which is sponsored by the British Government, Franklin said the White Star Line owns his concern $11,000,000 of 36 ships. He added that I. M. M. holds stock in the Canadian Pacific Navigation Company, owner of White Star, as collateral.

Franklin is opposed to the merger agreement whereby Cunard would receive 62 per cent of the stock in the new corporation. Injunction proceedings were filed March 26. I. M. M. setting forth its objection to certain phases of the combination.

TO DEBATE BILL

Ottawa, May 8—Continuing its study of the new bank act the House of Commons banking committee meets today. Witnesses are to be called and the committee will likely spend its time debating the various sections of the bill. A number of members have amendments to propose to important sections.

BANKING ASSISTANCE FOR FOREIGN TRADE

FACILITIES for every phase of the financing of Foreign Trade are put at the disposal of manufacturers and merchants by the Bank of Montreal.

The facilities extended through any of the Bank's 564 branches in Canada include—

Purchase of Bills of Exchange representing exports.

Providing Commercial Credits for purchased abroad.

Purchase and sale of exchange "futures" for protection against price fluctuations in foreign currencies.

Special wire facilities reaching the important exchange markets and consulting the bonders of prompt action in these markets to the Bank's customers at all of its branches.

The obtaining of reports on the character and financial standing of foreign firms.

Enquiries are Invited

Head Office MONTREAL

MODERN, EFFICIENT BANKING SERVICE
116 Years' Successful Operation

BANK OF MONTREAL

Established 1817

Belleville Branch: G. A. C. WEIR, Manager

Frankford Branch: W. J. BUFFAM, Manager

TOTAL ASSETS IN EXCESS OF $750,000,000

Smallest Gardens Yield Many Excellent Vegetables

A 10'X10' VEGETABLE GARDEN WILL SUPPLY MANY HEALTH GIVING FOOD FOR YOUR BABIES.

Many city dwellers are deprived faced with poor soil conditions. A of the fresh vegetables they would perfect soil is seldom found, however and all soils must be constantly built and rebuilt if they are to be used every year. So your problem with a poor soil isn't insurmountable after all, and can be easily solved by the use of commercial fertilizers, peat moss, or its home equivalent, compost, and a little limestone, perhaps, to loosen up a sticky soil.

Good drainage is a necessity of which the gardener should assure himself before he attempts to plant his ground. So garden vegetables will grow in conditions which permit of a wet spell now and then the puddles after rains do not drain off quickly. Such a condition may in a piece of ground from use as a garden until it has been corrected. Ground to make the small garden is seldom as satisfactory as a more complete one. It has its usefulness where lack of space is the leading consideration. Many small gardeners specialize in one or two vegetables only, such as tomatoes, or lettuce and radishes, and with a minimum of effort get a grateful yield of the said vegetables they like the most.

Urban gardeners are very often

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

MAY 8, 1914

The cadet corps in connection with Queen Alexandra. Queen Victoria and Octavia Street schools are inspected for departure by Major Gillespie of Kingston. Today the first waves was signallized by a blast at New York critics, whom he raked fore and aft with one exception. That's having an author to windward, as it were, for he does not specify the lone critic who pleased him, and so every newspaper critic in New York can assume that he is the guy that Cantor likes—if any of them care a goldurn what he thinks about them.

Mrs. Paul Lalonde is home on a short holiday.

Mrs B. Eustace of Toronto, formerly of Belleville, is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. Harry Eccles of Toronto, is spending a few days in the city renewing acquaintances.

Mr. J. B. Foster, Everett St., has returned home from Saskatchewan. He was successful in selling a carload of horses he took west with him.

30 YEARS AGO

MAY 8, 1904

Would it not be well for the street surveyor to visit the sidewalk in front of the opera house where he will find a broken plank and a loose sone for a foot trap. A splendid time for a broken leg.

Some people are wondering when the rats and pitch-holes on Front Street are going to be filled up. A few loads of gravel would make a great improvement.

Mr. Will Cunnington of Toronto, who has a home on visit, sang "Fear Not Ye, O Israel" by Dudley Buck, in splendid voice at the evening service in St. Thomas Church on Sunday.

40 YEARS AGO

MAY 8, 1894

The first portion of the log drive which will fill the mill session is now running into the harbor boom.

Mrs. and Mrs. McLean have returned to the city.

Sportsmen's Corner has gone to Orillia.

It is now the farmers' time to rejoice as their prospects were never brighter. This season.

The work has been commenced on the ashery point on the west side of the river. It is the intention of the harbor commissioners to improve the appearance of this portion of the harbor.

The Belleville Cricket Club will play the Deseronto team shortly.

Mrs. G. C. Hunt has returned home from Grafton where she has been visiting friends.

50 YEARS AGO

MAY 8, 1884

The market is getting what it has long needed—a good scraping.

Mr. Charles Ashley will leave for the Northwest this evening.

Sportsmen's Club shoot tomorrow afternoon at 3.30 on the ranges.

A new harbor boom has been awarded.

Dr. Alex. Porin left last night for Michigancon where he will be professionally employed on the C.P.R.

Mr. W. J. Shanks, a Belleville boy, has been appointed editor of the Brockville Times. He is an able and graceful writer.

Mr. Jack Bowerman, one of the Belleville bicycle riders, is visiting friends in Pembroke.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK - - 'By R. J. Scott'

BILL JONES IS PRESIDENT OF TENNIS CLUB

Stirling Organization Plans Year's Program

Stirling, May 8—The first meeting of the Stirling and Community Tennis Club was held in the Agricultural office on Wednesday evening, and a representative and enthusiastic and anxious to get going formulated for the coming season. The treasurer's report when submitted showed a creditable balance after all outstanding accounts had been paid in full. The past year had been the most successful one in every way. Several interesting tournaments had been enjoyed last season and it was the desire of all the members to have as many such tournaments be kept up this year.

The fees were left at the same rate as last year, namely $3.00 per player and $5.00 for a family, with no one family. A transient rate of fifty cents per week was decided upon for anyone living outside the immediate vicinity of Stirling. School pupils will be charged the fee of $1.50 a season. The officers for 1934 were elected as follows: Honorary Presidents, J. D. Bodden and H. Lewis; President, Bill Jones; Vice Pres., Helen Mallory, Secretary, Marie Thompson; Treasurer, Ernest Convener of Property Committee, Noel Hicks; Auditor, Mr. Thurlow. The various committees will be appointed at the next meeting of May 16. The tennis courts are reported to be in good shape for the season and the necessary supplies can be procured and the grounds put in order without delay. There are only a few days at the most, the members will learn to play a good place.

Mr. Roy B. Durfin and son George were guests of friends in Toronto. While in Toronto Mr. Durfin purchased a fine new piano.

Miss Helen Drake of Brantford is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Montgomery, Sr.

It was with regret that the many friends of Miss Jean McCubbin learned that she has been obliged has been suffering from a severe laryngitis for several weeks and owing to a continuance of this trouble, has decided to resign from her position for the remainder of the present term and take a complete rest. Miss McCubbin left for her home in North Bay on Wednesday. It is the sincere wish of her many friends including many former pupils, parents, and many others that a rest from her duties will result in her complete restoration to good health. Miss Edith Bowers of Belleville has taken Miss McCubbin's place on the Public school staff.

Judge Madden of Napanee presided over the Police Court here in connection with County held in the Council Chamber, Stirling on Tuesday morning. A case of theft of a cow was unusually brief only one case being brought up for trial, being that of Standard Brands Limited, Toronto vs. Earl Ross of Stirling. The case dates back to several years ago when Mr. Ross operated a bakery in Stirling and conducted a bakery business at that which time he is alleged by the plaintiffs company to have sold a quantity of supplies from the said company without making the proper payment. After the hearing, the Judge dismissed the case.

The annual meeting of the Stirling Women's Institute was held in the Community Hall, Stirling on Wednesday morning of last week with a fair attendance of members present. Miss Gena Spry, First Vice President presided over the gathering which opened with the singing of the Institute Ode and the recitation of the Lord's prayer. After roll call the secretary, Mrs. Thomas Cranston gave the minutes of the last regular meeting which was duly adopted. A financial statement of the Institute since its reorganization was tabled the fact that the Institute closed their year with a creditable balance of $71.96 in the bank. The minutes of the last district meeting was next submitted for confirmation.

During the business discussion which ensued the motion was made and carried that the Women's Institute give to the village council a cheque for $25 in recognition of their kindness and to fittingly express their gratitude of the Institute to the Council for their allowing them the free use of the hall

RENNIE SEED
EVERYWHERE IN CANADA
THE FINEST IN THE LAND
Canada's Reliable Seed House for 64 Years
Send Right Now for 1934 Catalogue
Mr. RENNIE SEEDS Limited
TORONTO
ALSO MONTREAL, VANCOUVER
Write for Catalog

throughout the year. The chief executive composed of the President and the Secretary-Treasurer were named as the delegation which will present the cheque at the Monday evening meeting of the council.

The meeting next proceeded to the main business of the evening, namely the election of officers for 1934-1935, with Mrs. M. W. Sine and Mrs. J. M. Mercer acting as Chairman and Secretary protem. The voting was carried on by an open vote and resulted in the following appointments: First Vice President, Mrs. Thos. Cranston; Second Vice President, Mrs. Gena Spry; Secretary Treasurer, Mrs. M. W. Sine; directors, Mrs. J. M. Mercer, Mrs. Geo. Gagebe Bailey, Mrs. R. J. McMillan; Mrs. C. P. Weir, Mrs. District Director, Mrs. A. Gordan; Auditors, Miss C. J. Wallace, Mrs. A. Patterson; Property Committee, First Vice President and Secretary; Visiting Committee, Mrs. Thomas Spry, Mrs. Hiram Robertson, Mrs. Harold Sager, Mrs. Jas. Mrs. R. H. Williams.

The newly elected president, Mrs. L. Rodgers then took the chair and briefly addressed the meeting. She thought she didn't feel that she was fully capable of carrying on the work of the president but to accept to important and responsible a position as president and would endeavour to make a success of her term of office with the help and whole-hearted co-operation of the institute. The Nominating Committee for the June meeting was next appointed and consisted of Mrs. Thos. Spry and Miss Gena Spry. It was announced that the June meeting would be held at Bayside this June. The meeting was brought to a successful conclusion with the singing of the National Anthem after which a social hour was then enjoyed and a dainty lunch served.

The number of the ladies of St. John's Church Women's Auxiliary attended the conference held in Christ Church, Belleville on Thursday afternoon and evening morning sessions were devoted to Women's Auxiliary work while the evening session dealt mainly with the work of the Church. The Bishop of Ontario, Rt. Rev. John Lyons addressed the assembly. Dinner was served the guests in St. Thomas Parish Hall.

TENTS ABOVE GROUND USED BY FAMILIES

High Water in Trapping Area Causes sirk Evacuation

Port Chipewyan, Alta., May 8—(CP)—Men, women and children in the trapping area around Lake Athabaska today were reported to be living in tents pitched on platforms built into the trees 10 to 15 feet above the ground as flood waters emptied into the lake from the Athabaska River delta.

No estimate could be made of the number of persons in the district.

The high water has interfered greatly with the muskrat catch. At Fay River, 100 miles west of Port Chipewyan, residents fear that ice from the Athabaska river at Fort Claire may come down and sweep away their houses and cabins. No loss of life has been reported, but Horace Hamel, trapper, rescued as he neared exhaustion while he was clinging to his overturned canoe in a creek. He is a trapper.

Born At Sea Last Year Dies Within Year At Sea

Halifax, May 8 (CP)—Born on one ship only to die on another within a year was the fate of Irma Kaskaspas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelle Kaskaspas, Irma came to the proud parents in May last year while they were en route for Finland aboard the steamship Dunaar. They were returning to Canada on the liner United States when the infant died of bronchial pneumonia

Will you be one of the lucky six?

Ninety-four out of every 100 men have to depend on somebody for their livelihood at age 60! A startling statement, but proved by statistics.

A few cents a day saved now when it will hardly be missed, makes you one of the lucky six at 60, and guarantees you against dependence and poverty. $9 a month saved from age 25 will bring you $36 a month for life after age 60, besides protecting your loved ones against your loss in the meantime.

Send in the attached coupon today for full information.

Continental Life Insurance Company
Head Office - Toronto

Gentlemen:
Please send me, without obligation, full particulars of your Retirement Income Plan.
Name.....
Address.....
City.....
Age.....

NEW CHARGES LEVELLED BY M. F. HEPBURN

Claims "Empire of Timbers" Given to Gov't. Friends Without Tender

CONSERVATIVE RIFT

Premier Henry Throws Out Challenge to Temperance Forces

Toronto, May 8 (CP)—The fast moving Ontario general election campaign found a rift today in Conservative ranks in West Kent and a new charge against the government from Liberal sources. After West Kent Conservatives made their choice last night Mayor Isaac I. Davis of Chatham announced himself to the convention as ready to fight the election as a straight independent.

At the meeting in Rodney where Douglas M. Campbell, present Liberal member, was selected to represent the combined Liberal-Progressive forces in East Kent, Mitchell F. Hepburn, Ontario Liberal leader, accused the Ontario Government of giving "empire of timber" to government friends without tender. He described this as "worse of the doings of Honest George S. Henry."

He charged the government with spending more money on hard roads than they were receiving. His party leader declared, was not tied up with the timber interests and will present his charges at the time of the general election.

"When we get in power," he said, "the books and dockets and records are going to be amazed with those of the higher ups revealed."

Mr. Hepburn's attacks on the operations of the Liquor control Board, declaring that Ontario was forced to sell through agents "friends of the Government" and that from the commissions and placed large sums in party funds.

"I have documents to prove that Cabinet Ministers are implicated," Mr. Hepburn said.

Ram As Independent

West Kent Conservatives selected Burton L. Bedford, former Chatham mayor as their candidate last night which Mr. Davis announced his action as he criticized the convention for not inviting him to extend a civic welcome to Premier George S. Henry who addressed the meeting.

Premier Henry threw out a challenge to temperance forces to run candidates in the various ridings where Conservatives refused to accept as important and responsible a position as possible in an endeavour to make a success of her term of office with the help and whole-hearted co-operation of the Bedford, Mr. Davis announced his action as he criticized Mitchell F. Hepburn and his party for supporting the government's stand on the liquor issue but instead concentrated their attention on the temperance issue.

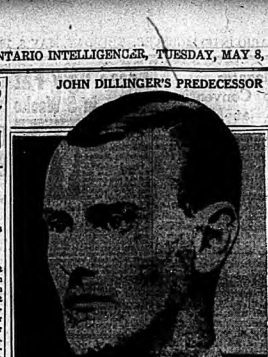
Mayor Davis' entry into West Kent changed the whole complexion fight. Besides Mr. Bedford there is the Liberal candidate, Walter St. Clair Bothwell and Mr. Wallaceburg.

The two other candidates to enter the fight are Dr. Stewart Wright and Thomas A. Murphy, Conservative in the Toronto Public Schools Board and William Lehfinen, who was chosen Communist candidate for Kenora.

Attorney General W. H. Price addressed Conservatives at Elgin last night and Premier Henry at Rodney on May 16. A. J. Kennedy, member for the riding since 1923, will again seek nomination and Mayor C. W. Thorpe of Haileybury and George Wardrope, K.C., are mentioned as possible candidates for the candidature.

Bruce Conservatives have postponed their convention until May 21. It was originally slated for May 10 at Port Elgin. The Liberals will name their choice May 9. East Lambton Conservatives are scheduled to pick their man at Petrolia, May 16 with Howard Fralegh, present member, expected to be the choice again.

T. MOODY TO SEEK FREEDOM



Fyles Petition Seeking Freedom on Writ of Habeas Corpus

San Francisco, May 8.—Tom Mooney, self-confessed bomb perpetrator, denies day bombing here, fyled a petition in federal district court today seeking freedom on a writ of Habeas Corpus from San Quentin prison, where he is serving a life sentence.

Alleging that Mooney was convicted without due process of law, the petition declares that Charles Fickert, then district attorney of San Francisco, obtained Mooney's conviction by the knowing use of perjured testimony.

Ten lives were lost in the parade bombing.

JOHN DILLINGER'S PREDECESSOR

Jesse James

With scores of thousands of police and federal officers scouring Bullet-filled States for one John Dillinger, desperado, bandit, and public enemy No. 1, it is interesting to recall that a similar man hunt was being made a little over fifty years ago for Jesse James, a bandit whose feats were the cause of him being made into a national hero in the United States, and gained him world-wide notoriety. James' deeds brought a reign of terror in Missouri and surrounding states during the Civil War. He was finally slain by members of his own gang, attracted by the $10,000 reward. There is $25,000 for the body of Dillinger. Dillinger was brought up in strict Quaker religious atmosphere. Jesse James was the son of a Baptist preacher.

"Remember if the city asks that there be sent to jail, I have no alternative that to carry out that wish if this tax is not paid before May 21st," added His Worship as a parting warning, as he assured those present that the matter was one of a serious nature as the city depended upon such taxes for their revenue.

SIMPLE CHEMICAL MAKES CLOTHING PROOF TO FIRE

Aroused by the number of fatal accidents that occur each year through children's clothing being ignited by the open flames of bon fires and camp fires at this time of play, a well known doctor of the city calls attention to a simple chemical which is available to all households, through the use of a simple chemical which makes clothing fireproof. He recommends that one pound of ammonium phosphate be mixed with two quarts of water, and the clothing treated. The chemical is non-poisonous, is effective and cheap. Pursuing his vacation hunt further, the medico calls attention to the many little lives that might be saved each year if all children playing near water wore small life preservers.

DONATIONS TO SHELTER

April donations to the local Shelter were National Bakery, buns; Model Women's Institute, 2 mirrors. Whytock, President, 18 jars of jam and jelly. St. Thomas' Church Guild, sandwiches and cake; Bridge Street Church, potatoes and bread; Mrs. Scott, 216 Bridge street, rhubarb; Miss Marion Varley, clothing and toys; Ladies of the Moose Lodge, sewing done. Game and fisheries per Mr. Lyons, fish.— Alice T. Harris, Matron.

733 POLL TAX CASES ARE UP

Court Tells Youths Conviction Would Be Blemish

"But, Your Worship, we have personal debts such as board and washing to be paid before we can obtain a poll tax, is considered, and some of us are away in arrears of these personal debts now," pleaded one poll tax delinquent during the morning's local police court proceedings held before Magistrate Mikel at which time some 12 local young men faced charges of the non-payment of their 1933 poll tax.

Those present were given until May 21st to pay-up or "go up" while warrants were issued for four others who failed to respond to their names when called.

As was pointed out by A. B. Collins, city solicitor, this matter has been in the local courts for nearly five months and if the tax is not forthcoming on May 21st, the court will have no alternative than to send the delinquents to jail in default of payment. Mr. Collins pleaded diligently with the boys and assured them he would prevail upon the city authorities to show leniency in their cases if they would but endeavour to raise the necessary $5.00 by May 21st. "This is an unfortunate affair and it would mean a blemish of your character if you boys are convicted, naturally the authorities do not wish a conviction, but, surely you can secure work at this time of the year as this tax must be paid," stated Mr. Collins in closing.

A CRISP MESSAGE

Kellogg's Rice Krispies telegram that their tiny message—"Snap! Crackle! Pop!" when you pour on milk or cream.

Children are fascinated. They listen—then eat! Good for them too. Kellogg's Rice Krispies have all the nourishment of wholesome rice. Ideal for breakfast, lunch, or the evening meal. Made by Kellogg in London, Ont.

Listen!—get hungry

LAKE BOATS SEARCHED FOR FRANK TEMPLE

Alleged Killer Believed to be Hiding Near St. Thomas

MAY BE ARMED

Police Sought His Arrest on Alleged Theft of Bicycle

Port Stanley, Ont., May 8—Police search for Frank Temple was concentrated in this vicinity today after reports were received the man who yesterday allegedly shot and wounded two policemen, one fatally, was seen last night within a few miles of this town.

Suspicious that Temple, 50-year-old St. Thomas resident, who shot it out yesterday with police who sought to arrest him on a charge of bicycle theft, might try to flee by water, officers searched all lake boats leaving this harbor.

They said a Mrs. Ferguson of Southwold, told them last night she saw a man answering the description, walking haltless and coatless along the road within two and one-half miles of this town. Mrs. Ferguson said the man was making his way furtively along the road with one hand in his pocket. Temple was believed armed when he fled from his St. Thomas home.

A brief but bloody battle on the streets of St. Thomas yesterday between Constable Colin McGregor of the St. Thomas police force, who received a fatal abdominal stomach, Sergeant Sam McKeown of Aylmer, who received a bullet wound in the head, who had sought to aid his father, shot in the neck and critically injured.

The two officers, accompanied by Constable Ed. Smith, were riding on a Michigan Central Railroad, had sought to question Temple after seeing a warrant charging them with theft of a bicycle. They had been sought a considerable time before it was learned they were residing in St. Thomas.

Temple fled after the shooting and climbed into the cab of a truck, crying at least one of the two pistols with which he had blazed at the officers.

Ontario provincial police and members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police joined search for the man. Dogs were used in the hunt, his fight, while officers of towns and cities in the surrounding area of St. Thomas watched all highways leading from the city.

All automobiles along highways in western Ontario were stopped and questioned last night, while provincial police kept close watch over trains and boats leaving the city.

Every member of the Temple family, including the wife and daughter of Frank, junior, were detained last night by police, questioned and arrested on a charge of bicycle theft, but police said he took no part in the shooting. The daughter was held under arrest for attempting to help her father hide in the attic, entered the house. His condition last night was reported slightly improved over last night's report.

Temple, though an experienced composer, his previous works have all been either songs, or compositions for strings, quartette or chorus.

MR. P. PRICE GIVEN PRIZE

Symphony Rejected by Toronto University Accepted at Columbia

By LOUIS HUOT

Canadian Press Staff Writer

New York, May 8.—(CP)—Percival Price, the dominion carillonneur, who plays the chimes in the slim Gothic Peace Tower in Ottawa, today had won a traveling student scholarship worth $1,500 with a composition the University of Toronto rejected, and which he submitted in his doctor's degree.

Trustees of Columbia University selected the Toronto-born, Toronto University bachelor-of-music as the student of music in Europe who may be deemed the most talented and deserving after competing his symphony, "The St. Lawrence" with many other entries from prominent musicians on the continent.

"He wrote it for his doctor's degree, but it was refused", Mrs. Price, Toronto mother, explained of the honneur declared at Toronto last night. "He was at home at the time, I forwarded a letter of disappointed. "I think I'll send it down to New York—but it's no good, though it may not do anything for me." I remember there was considerable angry controversy in some quarters."

A music teacher before her marriage, Mrs. Price taught her son to play the piano.

"But the bells always had a special lure for him" she recalled "Long before he touched a carillon he played 'bells' on the piano."

A symphony for full orchestra, the prize-winning composition was begun in January, 1932, in Vienna, where Mr. Price was studying. He finished it in the spring of the same year.

In New York—
STOP AT A NEW HOTEL!

HOTEL GOVERNOR
C. W. RAMSEY, Jr., Manager
7th Ave. at 31st Street • New York City

Luxurious comfort. 1200 quiet, delightful rooms, bath, radio, Servidor, circulating ice water—for as little as $3 daily. A.A.C. bus stops at door —Opp. Penn. Station.

Pulitzer Prize Winners

New York, May 8 (CP)— The winners of the principal Pulitzer prizes for 1933:

Best novel by American author—"Lamb in his Bosom," by Caroline Miller, of Baxley, Ga.; $1,000.

Best book on American history—"The People's Choice," by Herbert Agar; $2,000.

Best American play—"Men in White," by Sidney Kingsley; $1,000.

Best newspaper correspondence—Brier of San Francisco Chronicle for account of San Jose lynchings; $1,000

Best American biography—"John Hay," by Tyler Bennett; $1,000.

Best work of verse — Robert Hillyer, $1,000.

Private scholarship—Percival Price of Ottawa, Ont.

MANY ACCEPTED

Peterborough, Ont., May 8 (CP)—Forty three young men and women were last evening accepted into full membership of the Anglican Church of Canada at a confirmation service conducted by Rt. Rev. Devyn Woods, Bishop of Toronto, in Grace Church. Dr. R. C. Blagrave presented the candidates.

16 1-2 POUND TROUT LANDED

Minden, Ont., May 8.—A party from Godcrich, Ont., opened the Minden fishing season this year by hooking a salmon trout weighing 16 1-2 pounds. A. H. Bendry, of Minden, was the guide, and the big trout gave plenty of fight before it was successfully landed.

"Not even Lemon Juice can harm our FRIGIDAIRE '34"

YOU'LL realize something big has happened to electric refrigerators when you see the Frigidaire '34 models. Scaleless porcelain interior is just one feature. There's automatic defrosting, for instance; ice trays that can't stick; surplus power; beautiful long-lasting finishes of Dulux and lifetime porcelain; adjustable shelves; the Servashelf for arranging things; the Utility Basket for grouping small packages; more room at space—and a score of other features. But you must see the '34 models to really appreciate how much these features mean. Why not stop in tonight?

Made in Canada by Frigidaire Corporation, Toronto

ECONOMY! HERE IS A REFRIGERATOR THAT ACTUALLY USES LESS CURRENT THAN ONE ORDINARY LAMP BULB.

W. W. HAWLEY—DISTRIBUTOR
Kingston, Ont.
THE RADIO & REFRIGERATION SHOP
Belleville, Ont.
Phone 398 333 Front St.

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

Personals

ENGAGEMENT NOTICE

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sale announce the engagement of their daughter Irene, to Mr. H. R. Vanover, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Vanover, Picton, the marriage to take place quietly the latter part of June. m8-11-

Mr. G. Harold Hilton is confined to his home through illness.

Miss Betty Corrigan spent the week-end at her home in Peterboro.

Miss Rita MacDonald of Kingston, spent Sunday in the city.

Mrs. J. A. Faulkner is the guest of friends in Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Thompson of Kingston, were guests Sunday of Mrs. J. P. MacDonald, Front street.

Mr. C. E. Merkley of the Canadian Radium Mines, Haliburton, is spending the day in the city.

Miss Betty Davison, nurse-in-training at Kingston, is spending a few days at her home here, Pine Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne McConnell, Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Wilson, Toronto, attended the funeral of Mrs. George Tice, yesterday.

Miss Anne Colden has returned to St. Hyacinthe after spending the week-end in the city, the guest of Miss Hannah M. Colden, Hillcrest Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Flack, of Belleville, spent an enjoyable week-end at the home of Mrs. Flack's mother, 74 Bessborough Drive, Leaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wilson, Miss Rita Bowen and Mr. Douglas Austin have returned to Toronto, after spending the week-end with Mrs. Dower, Everett street.

Mr. Allan Shier, who has just returned after a successful year at Queen's University, left on Friday this morning on a camping trip. The latter part of the trip will be spent at Beaver Lake.

Miss Mary Webster, nurse of the local branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses, returned to the city after having spent the last two months taking a special course at Ottawa on that work.

About forty-five friends of Miss Hannah Colden, Hillcrest Ave., were entertained at a birthday party on Friday evening. Dancing was indulged in until the wee small hours and refreshments were served before the guests left for home.

A delightful shower was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Waite, Bay avenue, in honour of her son-in-law, Ronald Waite, and Mrs. Waite (nee Muriel Pringle). The bride and groom received many beautiful and useful gifts. Games and dancing were enjoyed after which dainty refreshments were served.

The first dance sponsored by St. Michael's Troop, C.G.I.T. was held in the Academy Auditorium last evening, with guests present to a large number of guests including many from out of town were present and spent an enjoyable evening with the Commodores Orchestra providing a delightful dance program.

The encore party arranged last evening in St. George's Hall in aid of the Third Belleville Boy Scouts' summer camp was well attended and enjoyed. Prize winners were as follows ladies' first, Mrs. Twiddy; second, Mrs. Cameron; consolation, Mrs. Pigden men's first, Mr. Weaver, second, Mr. Hunt. Lunch was served after the games.

On Saturday last, Miss Heather May Dodds, 16 Charlotte street entertained twenty-three of her little friends, the occasion being her twelfth birthday. The boys and girls met at the Belle Theatre, and after thoroughly enjoying the matinee, went by taxi to her home, where a delicious birthday supper was arranged. The tables were beautifully and artistically arranged in pink and blue alternately, and decorated with candles and spring flowers. After the repast, games were indulged in until nine-thirty, when the little guests rumbled their way homeward, all agreeing that they had enjoyed a very lovely time.

Quality Has No Substitute

"SALADA" TEA

"Fresh from the Gardens"

Dick Powell and Dolores Del Rio two of the cast of star names appearing in "Wonder Bar" now on the Belle screen.

NAMES GIVEN OF WINNERS

Belleville Better Shopping Week a Distinct Success

The following is the list of winners as the result of the daily draws of shopping coupons during Belleville Better Shopping Week just concluded:

Saturday

Mrs. Albert Pattee, Demorestville
R. Goody
Mrs. A. Belton, Dundas St.
F. McAvoy, R.R. No. 6
Sylvia Sparks, Bloomfield.
J. Beckett, 12 Charlotte St.
W. A. Gilchrist, Pine St.
Don Gilmour, Pine St.
Mrs. Jas. Lazenetis, Moira St.
Mrs. Clela Price, R.R.
Mrs. E. Gerow.
Mary Kennedy, 163 George St.
Mrs. Frank Branagh, R.R. No. 1
D. Hidley, 261 Pine St.
Geo. Madden, 39 Albion St.
Mrs. E. Shortt, Madoc
Mrs. C. P. Whitlock, Tarker
C. O. Kerr
Mrs. Pindall, 84 Gordon St.
Mrs. Labour, 73 Dundas St.
William Craig, 62 Forsyth St.
Mrs. John Benson, Ivanhoe
Marion Huff, Napanee
Mildred Bonter, Point Anne

Monday

Mrs. H. Harris, 18, Burrell St.
Mrs. Harold Bird, R.R. 5.
Maud Plumpton
D. L. Fleming
R. Bateman, 183 George St.
Mrs. Eugene Wheeler
Mrs. C. Symons
Miss A. Alexander
Mrs. E. Harris
Mrs. Clifford Bailey
George Smith
W. N. Allen, 203 George St.
Mrs. Cyrlers
Mrs. Violet Denny
C. A. Fisher
Betty Corrigan
Mrs. Percy Welch
Mrs. R. Grover, 81 Cedar St.
Thomas D. Barriage
A. E. Chaplin, 168 James St.
Kathleen Woodley

Tuesday

Burnard Johnston, Coleman St.
Mrs. W. Liddell
H. Montgomery, Carrying Place
A. M. Henderson, R.R. 1
Kathleen McPherson
Mrs. Harold Smith
Norman McDevitt, Corbyville
Mrs. H. M. McKay
Mrs. E. M. Hobbs
Maud Phillip
A. A. Pyron
J. A. Bush
Mrs. A. Burtt
D. M. Tugnett, Front St.
Mrs. J. Callaghan, Corbyville.
Mrs. Jose Shannon
T. R. Marshall
C. Cooper
Mrs. E. Futter, 10 Harriett
Mrs. J. Haggerty
A. W. Henderson R.R. 3
Mrs. H. Fuller
Miss Georgia Melchoir
W. H. Richardson, Bancroft

Wednesday

Betty Marsh
Mrs. F. Wiggins, 55 W. Moira St.
Mrs. Chas. Symons
Mrs. Beare, Marmora
Mr. J. Robertson, 99 Alexander St.
M. M. Moorman, 8 Murray St.
Mrs. T. G. Chamberlain
Edith Gardiner.
Doris Houston
V. Bird
Mrs. H. Heffernan, 103 Chatham
Mrs. K. Armstrong
G. K. Hazlett
Mrs. Jack Leigh
Robert Grant
Mrs. Alice Tuttle
Winnifred Whalen
Mrs. T. G. Chamberlain

Thursday

J. R. Burgess
Mrs. Jas. E. Cooke, Trent Road.
Archie Boyd
Mrs. Coombe, Church St.
Miss Wilma Reid, O.S.D.
Mr. John Smith
Mrs. Fred Wiggins
Miss M. Youmans
W. Van Tassel
O. N. Holland
G. Donoghue
Mrs. Jas. Morrison, Trenton
Mrs. F. Chapman, 317 Foster Ave.
Mrs. G. McKinney
Bernardine Shannon
Harry Hisley
Mrs. A. Howe
Rita Stevens
Miss Olive Wilson, Madoc
Mrs. James McKenzie
Ross Ballard
Mrs. K. Barriage
Mrs. P. H. Tilley, 12 W. Moira

Friday

Mr. Greer
Mrs. J. H. Clare
Mrs. Doris Mathews
Mrs. C. P. Whitlock, Tarker
Mrs. C. J. Symons
Mrs. E. E. Timmerman, 11 Alexander St.
A. Train
Laura Melchoir
Mrs. J. McDonald, Shannonville.
Mrs. H. Collins, 209 Dundas St.
Mrs. R. S. Chadwick, 185 Charles St. Fleming
Mrs. A. McCoy.
E. Barriage, 293 Pinnacle St.
C. A. Holmes

Saturday

Doris Houston
W. Hitgrost, 7 Ann St.
Mrs. A. Gilroy, 131 W. Bridge St.
Miss F. Higgins
Mrs. Kelly
Mrs. J. Samain.

Delegates to Convention at Marmora

At a meeting of the Belleville Conservative Association held in the Conservative Club rooms last evening, the following were chosen to represent the various wards composing the City in the City and the Conservative Convention, being held in Marmora on Friday, May 11, for the purpose of electing a Conservative candidate for West Hastings.

Delegates

Foster Ward:—Mrs. W. Carter, Mrs. McKenna, Harry Smith, D. W. Rollins, J. F. Houston; alternates, Mrs. Bunnett, Mrs. Frank Foote, Charles Van Norman H. Collins, K. Fox.

Samson Ward:—Mrs. J. Chapman, Mrs. W. Bowery, Mrs. J. Bentley, P. H. Wills, Charles Kerr, Bert Black, Bob Redner, J. Bentley, D. Fleming, J. V. Doyle; Alternates, R. A. Burrows, Mrs. H. Gordon, E. Bunnett.

Ketchenon Ward:—F. M. Bird, Chas. Hyde, William McCreary, R. White, G. A. Reid, Mrs. Chas. Hyde, Mrs. Annie Rose, Mrs. Otas, Treweton, Miss Simcock, Alternate, G. Walbridge.

Baldwin Ward—Mrs. R. Coulter, Mrs. R. H. Ketchenon, Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mrs. P. McKeown, Mrs. Williams, Chas. Washburn, Chas. Soules, P. Fisher, F. Gariepy, D. Gariepy, Bert Kelly, James Jeffries, Mrs. Chas. Soules, Miss O. Way, Mrs. Bert Kelly, Miss C. McLean, Mrs. Jeffrey, H. J. Hall, Geo. Sprackett, Dr. Kincaar, T. Cushing, Harry Rose.

Bleecker Ward—Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, Mrs. Willis Armstrong, Mrs. D. Guirom, Robert Cook, James Patrick, Harold Armstrong, Harry Weiss, Chas. Tedsworth.

Coleman Ward—N. McWilliams, P. Sertinger, Mrs. McCain, Fred Smith, Percy Gillespie, J. Orr, Mr. W. Irwin; Alternates, H. Johnson, Chas. Reid, John Charlesworth, D. Jose, William Kennedy, Bert Mason, Mrs. Wm. Mackey, Mrs. Fred Byron, Mrs. Sortmahaw, Mrs. Holst; Alternates, Mrs. Jas. Wilson, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Mary Clapper, Mrs. Wm. Rosevear.

Murney Ward — Miss Warham, Miss M. Rosevear, E. J. Neash, Mrs. E. M. Adams, Mrs. A. Lazier, Miss M. Thompson, Mrs. Wiggins, Ernie Hubbs, R. C. Hubbs, Mrs. Mikel, P. O. Diamond, Fred Porter, Harry Hill, Mrs. Sherwood Wilkins Hurst, George Getroon, Harry Green, W. A. Woodley; Alternates Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Black, Mrs. J. Adams, G. Dawes, Harry Morgan, O. Pralock, A. Baker, Mandy Lemmins.

Members of the Executive will have a vote at the Convention as follows:

Col. A. P. Allen, R. H. Ketchenon, F. M. McKenna, Mrs. Andrews, C. E. Argue, Mrs. Hope McGinnis.

DESERONTO COUPLE WEDDED 55 YEARS

DESERONTO, May 7.—Highly esteemed and prominent residents of Deseronto for nearly half a century, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gammon quietly observed their 55th wedding anniversary on May 1st. Mrs. Gammon has been in ill health for several years and the health of Mr. Gammon has also not been very good. However with the passing of a very severe winter they are looking forward to the glorious summer time, and their many friends in town extend congratulations on this important event in their lives. Mr. Gammon was associated for many years with the former Rathbun Company, and subsequently by trade and was employed in the locomotive works. He was a very skilled employee and after the company had ceased to exist, he retired to a great extent from active work. Mr. and Mrs. Gammon are members of the Church of the Redeemer and the latter until illness interfered, took an especial interest in the women's activities of the church.

She knows! She's been brought up on Christie's Arrowroots . . . the original . . . made from choicest pure arrowroot, blended with other ingredients, wholesome, palatable and dietetically correct.

Christie's Arrowroots

Loses Ugly Fat 41 lbs. in 5 Weeks

Reduces Hips, Bust 6 Inches

New Safe, Quick Way Helps Nature

"I have taken 5 bottles of Kruschen and have lost 41 lbs. in 5 weeks. I feel fine. I have more energy and vitality than I have had for years. I have recommended Kruschen to many friends and they have all got splendid results." Mrs. Rose Jordan.

Each Kruschen Salts tablet is a tiny pill. Each bottle contains enough Kruschen Salts to last 4 weeks. Each dose of Kruschen Salts, as explained in Kruschen booklet, costs only 1¼ cents. Kruschen Salts is sold with a money back guarantee. Get a 6oz. bottle of Kruschen Salts today. Start at once. Only 60 cents at DRUG AND DEPARTMENT STORES. Kruschen Salts is the 1 pill a day reducer. Get a bottle today. Mail order direct to Bottle Creek Drugs, Ltd., Dept. I, Walkerville, Ont.

FAITH VOICED IN YOUNGER GENERATION

Mr. Frederic Slater on 80th Birthday Tells His Life Story

LOVER OF FISHING

His Busy Early Days as Newspaper Boy on Long Route

"The youth of today," said Mr. Frederic Slater, "have plenty of intelligence. Some are good, and, of course, some are otherwise". Mr. Slater said that, if he were to voice any criticism it would be that they exaggerate the relative importance of sports.

The importance of these views will be more readily realized when one remembers that it comes from one of Belleville's oldest, and most respected citizens who is today celebrating his eightieth birthday.

Mr. Slater was born in Sussex in 1854 and celebrated his third birthday off Newfoundland as he was crossing on a sailing vessel which took six weeks to cross the Atlantic. After a few weeks in Halifax, his parents came on to Belleville, and with the exception of a few years, Mr. Slater has lived in Belleville ever since.

At the age of twelve, he began delivering papers on a route, that would make many paper boys of this day shudder. He started at the west end of Belleville, and from the dock to the outer station. He began this work at five and finished at about nine in the morning. Before this time he had also unloaded lumber and grain from boats in the harbour. Finally, he learned a plasterer and contractor, and, in that capacity, assisted in the construction of many buildings in this city.

Mr. Slater was also prominent in military affairs rising from the ranks to the rank of captain, and receiving a long service medal. He was present at the reception of Sir John A. Macdonald in Toronto Lodge.

Alderman and Acting P.M.

Among other positions of responsibility that Mr. Slater has held during the long years of service to Belleville is that of alderman in which capacity he served with a fellow alderman, for a time, on the Public Utilities Board, chairman of Mayor Strate Mason. "I am proud to say that that was my only appearance in court," said Mr. Slater with a smile.

Mr. Slater is a prominent Mason being a member of the Belleville Lodge, A.F. and A.M., also the R.A.M., the Knights Templar, and the Shrine. In addition, he recently received a merit medal in consideration of his fifty years of service to the order.

Mr. Slater has many vivid memories of Belleville, as it used to be. He recalled how he used to watch the mares from his garden near the track which at that time extended from Front Ave. to Albert street and from Bridge street to, almost Pine street. He also remembers the time when a large part of Front street was paved with flagstones.

Lives in Present

This does not mean that Mr. Slater lives in the past for he is deeply interested in contemporary affairs. "I consider the radio a great institution," he said. "Only the other day I heard Prince George open Parliament. He takes the radio particularly because of the news and music it brings him." Mr. Slater is also a great reader, and smiled as he observed a card from his daughter saying that she was sending him a book for a present.

Mr. Slater is greatly interested in sports, particularly in boating and golfing. "Fishing is the best sport a tired man can indulge in," he remarked. "It is the quietest and rest that does it." Until recently, Mr. Slater owned a cottage on Lake every year, and, as he proudly said, "generally managed to catch my limit."

"A Happy Life

"I married twice," said Mr. Slater, "and I have two sons and a daughter." Mrs. Slater is only a few weeks younger than her husband, and they are a perfect example of what marriage can be at its best.

Mr. Slater looks much younger than his real age. When he was asked many happy returns of the day, he smiled and said "I hope so. If I keep my health. If I don't, unhappy night's a better word." One thing has only to look at Mr. Slater to know that there will be many, and, happy returns.

ANNOUNCING OUR

SUMMER SHOWING OF QUEEN DRESSES

Which will be on display in our shop

Wednesday, May 9th

These dresses will be displayed on living models for the purpose of taking special orders. You are cordially invited to view this presentation.

NELLIE SMITH

Kresge Bldg. (Upstairs)

Belleville, Ont.

286 Front St.

CONGREGATION 60 YEARS OLD

Impressive Services Mark Jubilee at Holloway St. Church

On Sunday the people of Holloway St. celebrated with appropriate services their jubilee anniversary. The whole Sunday School joined in the morning service. The church was filled with friends, many of whom have been faithful members in the life of the church here. The members of the junior choir under the direction of Mr. Clifford Templer rendered suitable music. Douglas Browning sang a beautiful solo.

Rev. W. P. Woodger of Oshawa was the guest speaker of the day. His message was full of interest, both to young and old. His subject was the "Journey of Life".

Mr. J. Hudgins, Supt. of the S. S., was associated with Mr. Woodger in the service and brought words of greeting and welcome to the large congregation gathered.

There was a special session of the Sunday School in the afternoon, Mr. J. N. Hudgins presided. Former supts. of Holloway sch. part in the service. Mr. Russell Woodley, a former Supt. read the scripture, Mr. Phillip Fairman of Trenton, a former Supt. brought greetings and spoke of happy days in the S. S. Here, Mr. C. E. Woodley, also Supt. for a number of years, related greatly appreciated by all. The Albert College quartette also gave a splendid number.

One of the very interesting parts of the service were the two short addresses by George Livesay and Elton McMurray. They gave helpful and inspiring messages on the subject 'Why go to Sunday School?' Their reasons and statements will be long remembered by those present.

Col. Barragar, formerly associated with the S.S. as assistant Supt. and teacher of the Young Ladies' Class from 1894 to 1900, was also reminisced of the school 25 years ago.

The message of the afternoon was given by Rev. W. P. Woodger. Rev. J. D. P. Knox also assisted in the service.

The morning service was in charge of Rev. Mr. Woodger. The choir gave appropriate singing and anthem "Hymn of My Soul". The Holloway St. quartette sang very effectively "When Peace Like a River Attendeth My Way"

The present staff of Sunday School workers at Holloway Street is as follows:

Minister—Rev. Harold B. Neal.
Supt.—J. N. Hudgins.
Associate Supts.—Archie Gerstrix, B. O. Frederick, A. G. Campbell
Supt. Primary Dept.—Mrs. C. Moore.
Assistant—Mrs. B. McMurray
Graduation Class—Miss Alice Sweetman
Secretary—H. Ward.
Assistant—Miss McMurray
Treasurer—Chas. Brown
Pianist—Miss Ada Grover
Leader of orchestra — Harold Groves
Missionary Secretary —Mrs. E. Hobbs
Cradle Roll—Mrs. Hubbs
Temperance Secretary—Mrs. H. Neal.
Teachers — Mrs. J. McCarthy, Miss A. Browning; Mrs. J. Cordes, Mr. A. Gerstrix, Mrs. Gerstrix; Mr. W. Lane; Mrs. H. Ward; Mrs. H. B. Neal; Revd. J. D. D. Knox, Mr. Everett Fairman, Mr. Harold Mott, Mr. A. C. Campbell.

VICTIMS IMPROVE

St. Thomas, Ont., May 3—(CP)—Condition of Fred Temple, shot in the back by his father, Frank Temple, during a gunfight yesterday which resulted in the fatally wounding of Constable Colin McGregor and the less seriously wounding of Constable Sam McKeown, was reported as satisfactorily better today in hospital here. Hemorrhages which had raised fears for the life of the youth had been stopped, the hospital reported.

YOU WOULD NEVER KNOW MY FURNITURE IS NINE YEARS OLD—IT LOOKS NOTHING BUT HAWES'—THAT'S THE SECRET!

HAWES' Lemon Oil

AS FAMOUS AS HAWES' FLOOR WAX

Big Reductions in the Following Lines

Leather Goods, Toilet-ware, Silverware, Clocks, Jewellery, Bracelets, Pendants, Glassware, Umbrellas, and etc.

J. O. R. McCurdy

284 Front St. Phone 518

She's a Sharpshooter

RUBY BROWNING

Miss Ruby Browning of Haddonfield, N.J., student in the Sargent School of Physical Culture, Boston, Mass., draws a "bead" on you, she not only captains her school rifle team, but is an expert shot.

JOBS HOUSES AUTOS

Thousands of OPPORTUNITIES in the WANT ADS

RADIOS ROOMS PETS

KIRKLAND LAKE GOLD MINES

Important Developments
Taking Place on This Property

Write Us for Details NOW

with no obligation to you

BURTON and COMPANY

Trusts and Guarantee Bldg. Toronto, Can.

Automobile Insurance

With three people being killed every two days in Ontario by autos, you are taking very great chance to be without insurance. Rates are now the lowest they have ever been.

Jamieson Bone & Co.

PHONE 2346 Investments.

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, P. H. Willis branch manager. Quotations at close:

MINES

Ashley	20
Astoria	1.10
Aunor	2.69
Beattie-Duvan	.04½
Bidgood	2.14
Bidgood Kirkland	.18
Bonetal	.03
Bonville	.03½
Bralorne	2.14
Buffalo Ankerite	.34
Buffalo Red Lake	.03
Canada Malting	23½
Canadian Malartic	.16
Canadian Oil	2.75
Central Patricia	.68
Central Manitoba	.10½
Coast Copper	4.50
Dome	27.75
Dominion Explorer	.4
Eldorado	.08
Falconbridge	2.86
Goldale	.18½
Granada	.71
Hollinger	15.38
Hoyle Oil	1.48
Howey	.02½
Howey Bay	.02½
Howey Twp.	.17
Kirkland Lake	32
Kirkland Townsite	27
Lake Shore	49.75
Macassa	1.40
Malartic	.68
Malartic	42.50
Mining Corporation	1.89
McKenzie	.07
Moffat Hall	.14½
Mylamaque	.17
Noranda	29.50
International Nickel	28.06
N.O. Pipes	13.50
Parkhill	.65
Premier	1.96
Reno	.9
St. Anthony	.53½
Sherritt, bid	1.08
Simon	.19
San Antonio	3.80
Stadacona	.75
Sudbury Basin, bid	1.75
Sylvanite	2.51
Teck Hughes	4.10
Ventures	90
Waysido	.04
Waite Amulet	1.27
Wright Hargreaves	8.00
McVittie	73
God's Lake	4.65
Thompson Cad.	.45
Bear	15
Maple Leaf	62
McMillan	65
Reeds Arctic	20
Greene Stabl.	80
Myrtle Mabee	.90

Toronto.

B. A. Oil	14½
Imperial Oil	14¼
Model Providence	13½
International Petr.	36¼
Brewers and Distillers	17
Dominion Bridge	47
Walker's, B.	31½
Walker's, Ltd.	12
Canadian Ind. Alcohol	12¼
Canada Bread	6
Consolidated Bakeries	8½
Can. Steamships, 1184,
C.P.R.	16¼
Canada Cer.	7
Can. Vickers	7¼
Canada Malting	23¼
Crown Cork	23
Dominion Stores	26¾
Dominion Textile	69¾
Fleet "A"	21½
Goodyear	31½
Leitch "A"	17¼
Massey-Harris	27½
Massey Harris, 6%
Pfd. Bonus	7
Steel Canada	16¼
Power Corporation	11¼
Shawinigan	35½
Canada Vinegar	36
Steel of Canada	31
Swastika	10%
Gypsum	23
C.I.A. (new)	bid 81½
C.I.A. (preferred)	bid 14½

New York.

American Can	97
Allied Corporation	6¾
Auburn	27¼
American Pur. Power	8¼
Anaconda	14¼
National Distillers	26
N. Y. Central	28¼
Gas	26¼
Pacific Auto Life	21¼
Standard Oil	23
General Motors	34
Utter, Telephone	11¼
Standard Oil of N. J.	43

Chrysler, 44.
North American, 18¼.
National Dairy Products, 16.
Montgomery Ward, 26¾.
Philip's, 8¾.
Radio, 8.
Standard Brands, 20¼.
Vanadium, 22.
Westinghouse, 34¾.
U. S. Steel, 43½.
U. S. Smelters, 37¾.

TORONTO MINES

Toronto, May 8. — (CP) — Gold and base metal issues staged a recovery on the Mining Exchange of the Toronto Stock Exchange today, heavy buying coming in during the afternoon following a reversal of trend on the New York market, and the big groups was helped by the unexpectedly heavy dividend voted by Dome and gains up to $1.50 were registered. Noranda featured the base metal with a gain of 75 cents to $29.50. Silvers, with few exceptions closed on top and the sales lagged.

Yesterday's selling wave continued today but dried up at the end of the first hour and in the second hour the tape lagged as traders awaited definite action on the New York Board. Dome closed $1.40 higher at $27.75, Hollinger 20 up at $15.30, McIntyre up $1.50 at $43.50, Teck up $1.45 and Bralorne and Wright-Hargreaves up 40 cents at $8.90. Falcon in the base metals also showed important outside of Noranda's advance.

WALL STREET CLOSE

New York, May 8—Stocks rallied substantially today. The upturn was led by the metal shares. Virtually all parts of the list participated in the movement. Following initial hesitation, the volume increased in the late demand. U. S. Smelting and Homestake Mining rose about 5 points each. American Telephone, Dome, Chrysler and Johns Manville gained 2 or more each. Sales approximated two million shares.

POLICE NEWS

Two minor traffic accidents in which no persons were injured seriously were reported to the police today. Early this morning a truck driven by Alfred Rye of this city collided with a bicycle ridden by Fred Ritter, Herchimer Ave. The collision occurred at the corner of Burnham and Bridge Streets. The rider was knocked to the road but not seriously hurt.

An automobile driven westward by Stanley White, 184 McAnanny Street, struck a telephone pole near the top of West Bridge St. hill, breaking the pole off at the base, at 10 p.m. last night, when he attempted to pass another car driven by Norman Montgomery, 30 West Bridge St. Mr. Montgomery had just turned into the driveway leading to his garage and in order to avoid hitting this car, White swerved his car to the left, over the side walk and into the pole. No one was hurt.

Eight motorists found police stickers on their cars this morning for all night parking. There was no session of police court today.

Produce Market

TORONTO, May 8. — (CP) Wholesale prices on produce delivered at Toronto as supplied by United Farmers Co-operative, with the following were: eggs, grade "A" large, 20c; grade "A" medium, 18c; grade "C" cooking, 14c; Churning Cream (35 per cent.) 1 lb. 31c; No. 2 lb. 29c; Butter No. 1 solids 1b 19 3-4c; No. 2 solids 1b 19 1-4c.

Cheese: Cheddar Ontarios per lb. 20 cents.

Dealers' price on hand-picked white beans, in carlots, f.o.b. at Toronto and shipping, $1.10 a bushel.

THREE PERSONS SHOT

Birmingham, Al., May 8—(AP)—Three persons were shot and extensive property damage caused by dynamiting early today as a night-in a wave of terrorism and intimidation sweeping Walker and Jefferson County mine fields.

— OBITUARY —

MRS CAROLINE BELNAP

The death occurred this (Tuesday) morning of Mrs. Caroline Belnap, at the home of her son, Mr. Frank Belnap, Rossmore. She had been ill for a considerable time.

The late Mrs. Belnap, who had reached the advanced age of 87 years, was born in Fredericksburg, being the daughter of the late William and Margaret Killar. She had been a well known and respected resident of Rossmore and the Belleville district for the past 60 years and had seen many changes in the life of the community. She was a member of the Rossmore United Church.

Surviving her are her loss are four sons, John, Raymond, Edward, Frank, and one daughter, Mrs. Stillman Rook, all residents of Rossmore. To them will be extended the sympathy of all their friends. Her husband, Daniel Belnap, predeceased her some years ago.

WM. CHARLES BENNETT

William Charles Bennett died Monday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thos. Clarton, in the third concession of Thurlow just outside the city. He had been ill for some time.

The late Mr. Bennett was born in England 74 years ago and came to Canada when very young. He had been a resident of Belleville and vicinity for over seventy years and following his vocation of a carpenter. He was well known in the city during his active days and was highly respected by a large clientele. In religion he was a faithful member of the Bethel Hill congregation.

Left to mourn his death are seven sons, William and John of Belleville; Arthur W., and Fred of Roslyn; Albert of Ellis Island; and Robert of Thurlow township; Ernest of New York State, and two daughters, Mrs. Thos. Clayton of Thurlow township, and Mrs. Edith Emerson of Sidney township. His wife predeceased him about four years ago. To the sons and daughters will be extended the sincere sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

The late Mr. Bennett is resting at the Thompson Funeral Home, 28 Everett St.

UNLISTED MINES

A. H. Ketchenson and Co., 2:45 p.m. Daylight Saving Time

Adanac	8¾
Beattie	118-122
Bidgood	2.14
Big Long Lac	18c.
Bar Hailbutt	4¼-5¼
Buffalo Ankerite	34
B.C. Nickel	138-143
Bunsfield	40-50
Can Pandora	30c
Can. Malartic	69
Casey Summit	67-72
Canuba	48-50
Columario, old	18-22
Crown Reserve	81½
Duke	1½
Fear Nations U.	750-1000
Great Lake Paper	54-60
Francoeur	35-39
Great Bear Cev.	35-38
Gabrielle	58-64
Greenlee	8-10
Hard Rock	62a
Units	2500-6500
Island Lake	30-34
Johnson Bip	26-32
Kenty	80a
Kirkland Gold	Belt 31a
Kirkland Prod.	3¼-4¼
Lamaque Gold	172-200
Lamaque Contact	24a
Horseshoe	6-7
Cent Kirk.	6½ bid
Lamaque Cent Units,	6800 asked.
Long Lac Addit.	25-28
Lorrain Lake	35-36
Metals Dev.	5¼-6¼
Man and Minn.	3½ asked.
Minrand, 30 asked.
Morning Star	32-35.
Mecca, 20 asked.
McLeod Cockshutt	39½-43.
McQuaig Red Lake,	31-35.
North Shore, 26 asked.
Normetal, 31 asked.
Nicolo, 68-74.
O'Connell	29-33.
Pickle Crow, 68-72.
Seven Gold Reef	14½.
Quebec Eureka U.	1000-1500.
Reserve Extn.	6-8 asked.
Red Lake Gold,	38-42.
Smelters, 35-37.
Sullivan Consol.	36-42.
Toburn,	146-152.
Thabaska,	11-13.
Tillemont Island,	60-70.
Wendigo,	30-40.
Wingold,	50 asked.
West Red Lake,	11 asked.
Young Davidson,	20-25.
Porty Peace	900-950.
Bankfield,	36-40.
Glenwood,	36 asked.
Quebec Metals	10-12.
Cunipiau,	94-106.

NEW YORK FINANCIAL

New York, May 8.—Pressure on stocks in the final hour today as although prices shuffled about nervously throughout the session, the day's reactors exhibited any pronounced inclination to expand their declines.

U. S. Government securities displayed more strength, pushing into new high territory for the past year or more. Corporate bonds, however, were hesitant.

Call money was unchanged at 1½%.

Shares of Case and Johns-Manville came back two points and others, up fractions to around a point, included Dome, Homestake, Hudson American Smelting, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, American Commercial Alcohol and Columbian Carbon. Consolidated Gas, Loew's, American Telephone, U. S. and Bethlehem Steel.

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by H. A. Ketchenson and Co. today:

	May	July	Oct.
Wheat	70¾	71¼	71½
Barley	38¼	38¾	41¾
Oats	24¼	25¼	27¾
Cash	34¼	35¾	35¾

Liverpool Wheat: May wheat today (High, 69¼; low, 67; close, 69¾.

Stock Market Gossip

The recent signak of exceptionally warm weather has given a boom to railroad passenger business. Carriers serving the metropolitan district reported a sharp increase in travel over last week-end and state that if warmth continues this week a further substantial rise in this business is anticipated.

Some brokers report volume selling Monday was "scattered" and "small I do", which has not been a feature of business in the past few days.

Some margin calls were out Monday night, but were not in large quantity considering the extent and extent of the district.

Winnipeg Grain Exchange: Liquidation not so aggressive today and with sentimental hardening, offerings were easily absorbed. Investment buying was on a broader scale indicating better feeling of sentiment. Trade have been waiting the let-up in liquidation believing that Winnipeg had run its course there would not be much wheat for sale. Rain is now needed all over the wheat area on both sides of the line. Market is not following this advance but with dry conditions prevailing in Canada and southeastern Europe it remains to be seen what effect this will have in days bring. We advise caution in following bulges until the situation is better defined.

Letter this morning from a client in southern Alberta states grasshoppers unlimited now hatched and same condition exists just across the line in U. S.

Livestock

Toronto, May 8.—(CP)—The Toronto Livestock market: got away to a slow opening today with cattle, continuing yesterday's closing trend, selling slowly. Calves, meeting a fair demand, eased off from yesterday's fast pace but the price held the 50-cent rain of Monday. Hogs unsettled while a small supply of sheep and lambs sold steady.

Receipts as reported by the Dominion Livestock Branch were: cattle, 320; Calves, 540; Hogs, 640; sheep and lambs.

PICTON

Picton, May 8.—(Special)—Something of a fishing contest today, under the direction of Chief Game Warden Ernest Hoggard and local Officer Durnford, for the body of Elma Strawbridge. A reward of twenty-five dollars has been proposed, for the finding of the body.

Mr. Hoggard was unable to be able to be about again, after his return from Ft. Frances. Hoggard where he recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Adrian Hicks, motored to Lynn on Sunday with friends.

Mr. Murray Cronk and bride of Toronto, left for that city on Monday, after spending the past week with relatives in Picton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hawkins and Miss Mae Thompson returned on Tuesday last, after spending the winter in Florida.

Miss Beatrice Welsh, a bride of next week, was entertained at a table lamp and small table, by her Sunday School class at the United Church on Sunday last.

Members of Belleville Canton I.O.O.F., joined with their Picton brethren on Sunday last, for the annual church parade. They attended divine service at St. Mary Magdalene's church and listened to a fine discourse by Rural Dean C. J. Whitley. The Picton band accompanied the lodge to the service.

MISSING BOYS FOUND

Two little boys named Claus reported missing since yesterday, were this afternoon, found near the Bay Bridge and returned to their homes on Front street.

WANTED

Lawn Mowers to sharpen, called for and delivered. Cooke's Repair Service Phone 1138F.

m7-6t.

LATE MRS GEO. O. TICE

(Continued From Page 1)

Emblem—Quintena Rebekah, No. 132.

Cross—White Shine of Jerusalem.

Star—Sons of Jacob.

Wreath—Belleville City Council; Belleville Fire Department; Police Commissioners and Detectives of Police Department; Mayor and Council; Trustees, Trustee W. H. Morton and Family; Staff of Ontario Intelligencer; Belleville Hydro Commission; Members of Park Board; Co-operative Workers, Belleville Association.

Basket—Members of Board of Health; Neighbors Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walmsley, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wallbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Morgan; Mrs. G. L. Sills and Ont); Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ryan; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bateman; Civil Employees; Belleville Relief Workers; Mr. and Mrs. Hope McGinnis and Lorraine; E. M. Bell and Mrs. Bell Meagher; Mr. and Mrs. George Cornish and Neighbors; Employees of Belleville Hydro; McIntosh Family; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cook and family, Reisink, Sask.

Casket Corsage—Mary and Pauline Meagher.

Casket Sprays—Art. Seymour and Family; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tice and Mrs. Florence Moon; Mr. John Penny and Mrs. Penny; Mr. and Mrs. Hillary of Y.M.C.A.; W A. Lanier and Mrs. Eva Turvey and Barbara; Mr. and Mrs. C. Lee Perry; Mr. and Mrs. George Lee; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Anderson.

Sprays—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Wallbridge and Mrs. T. H. Marshall; Mrs. J. Sandwith and Mrs. Broadbrdo and Mrs. Pearce; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Imlah; Alderman and Mrs. Ben Bell; Thos. Bell and Mrs. W. Fifield; Group No. 9 St. Thomas Church; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Mott; Frances Wines and Friend; Mr. and Mrs. Fox Doolittle; Mr. and Mrs. Greenfield, Brighton; Mr. and Mrs. J. Young and Family; Tenants; Mrs. J. S. Ryan; E. H. Dingwall, Chaudian Fuels"; Oshawa; Mrs. Parks and Jack; Mr. and Mrs. J. Canning and Family; Belleville Fuel Dealers; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rowsome; S. J. Fisher and staff; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Dennett; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Chrysler; Brothers and Sisters; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Belnap; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Belnap; Church Employees; St. Julien Chapter I.O.D.E.; Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilbur; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dorrell; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Carey ernon; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bottum; Dr. G. A. Ponton; Mr. and Mrs. George Boulter and Dena Scantlebury; Kiwanis Club; Alderman and Mrs. Harry Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bateman; Alderman and Mrs. Frank Donovan; Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. John Borbridge and Vera; Belleville Rotary Service Club; Mr. and Mrs. Lorne McConnell; Alderman and Mrs. Ed. Mallette; Mrs. E. J. Baldrec; Mr. "Bill" Canning; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Collins; Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hibbard; L. H. Finkle.

NO CLAIMANT FOR SATURDAY'S PRIZE

Up to ten-thirty o'clock this morning, Tuesday, no claimant had presented the winning coupon stub for the $25 prize which was the prize drawn for on Monday morning from Saturday's shopping coupons during the last Spring Dollar Dividend Shopping Week. The winning number is 10139.

WITNESS ON STRETCHER

LONDON, Ont., May 8.—(CP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Hall, wife of an employee of the Bell Telephone Company, was carried into the court-house on a stretcher today to testify in her $15,000 civil action against the city for injuries suffered in a fall on Commissioners' street here last December.

149 Lingham Street (Opposite Pts. St. School)

FOR SALE

At a Low Price

Frame house, 6 rooms and three piece bath, garage, large lot, fruit trees, strawberries, raspberries, one apple tree, one plum tree, a few gooseberry bushes. Lot 50 feet frontage and adjoining lot—both 64½ x 198 deep.

Car Goes With Property

Terms: $200 cash, balance of $20 per month, including interest. Immediate possession. Reasonable cash payment balance arranged on easy terms.

Belleville Locators

Geo. H. Gorman, Prop.
164 Front St.
Phone 59 Home Phone 627

IN MEMORIAM

JOHNSON—In loving memory of our dear grandmother, Emma Johnson, who left us on May 8, 1928.

"To think we could not say goodbye,
We will always bear regret,
But the hearts who loved you dearly,
Are the hearts that won't forget."
—Ernest Isabella, Jack and Jim of Ottawa.

m8-1t.

BIRTHS

PAGE—In Belleville General Hospital, on May 8th, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Page (nee Lillian White) a son. m8-1t

DIED

BELNAP—In Rossmore on Tuesday, May 8th, 1934, Caroline Belnap, widow of Thos. Belnap, aged 87 years.

The funeral will take place from the home of her son; Frank Belnap, on Thursday, May 10th. Service in the home at 2 p.m. Interment in Simond's cemetery. m8-1t

Thomas C. Thompson Funeral Director

Funeral Home
32 Everett St. Phone 62

Office
258 Front St. Phone 62

THE MARTIN FUNERAL HOME
216-218 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 3366
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Day and Night Service
Phone 774-W Day and Night
J. W. INGLAH
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland A. Pinkston
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve for Less
FUNERAL HOME
Cor. Church St. and
Victoria Ave.
Phone 2266

STEEL HYDRAULIC DUMP BODIES

Made right in Tweed so you can drive your truck in and have them mounted. Everything complete. Fitted with high class pump and our prices are reasonable. Write or come and see us.

W. Gordon Steel Works Ltd.
TWEED, ONT.

m5, 8, 12, 15, 19, 22, 26

HARDWOOD FLOOR SANDING
New Floors
Resurfacing Old Floors
GLEN ELLIOT
141 Foster Ave. Phone 1025J

Robert CRR

Superior Ice Service
Successor to J. Carnell and Son
Phone 307 Res. 218 Foster Ave.

m28, 10, 12

AUCTION SALE

Household effects including piano (new), at 88 Grier Street on Thursday, May 10th, at one-thirty o'clock. A good sale. Geo. O. Tice, Auctioneer. m8-2t

14 YEAR BICYCLST FOUND UNCONSCIOUS

Toronto Boy's Father Seriously Ill in Another Hospital

Toronto, May 8 (CP)— Found unconscious beside his badly damaged bicycle, 14-year-old Stuart Hutcheson was rushed to hospital where little hope was held for his recovery today. He is suffering from a fractured skull and internal injuries.

While the lad was fighting for his life in one hospital, his father, seriously ill, was in a similar condition in another institution. News of his son's accident will be kept from him.

PHONE 99 Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 25c; Marriages and Engagements, Notices 25c; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; In Memoriam, $1.00; Resolutions of Condolence, $1.00; charge, 25c for 10 lines over that number. Cards of thanks, 25c. PERMANENT NOTICES (including those concerning Legal Sales)—15c per agate line (14 lines to inch) for first insertion; 10c per line for subsequent insertions. AUCTION SALES—50c per word, insertion. Minimum charge, 50c per insertion. Extra lines, 50 per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

Count the number of words and figure is more convenient. PHONE 99.

The Intelligencer will not be held responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any ad. or for the omission of copy.

Advertisers must have their replies addressed to the number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

REQUIRED AT ONCE, CREW managers and salesmen for newly patented "Mum" Non-Electric Suction Cleaners. Entire model can be carried in pocket, high commission basis. Write me—you will find a very remunerative proposition. Write Box "P" Ontario Intelligencer. m8-1t

SURVEYORS

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Architect, Civil Engineer. Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc. Telephone 2190-W. Office 8 Bridge St. E.

PHONE 8—P.O. BOX 60
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.

SANDY BURROWS and HOWARD ROOT
Life and Fire Insurance
221 Front St. Phone 128

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
278 Front Street Phone 1156W

TO-LET

FLAT WITH BATH, 48½ BRIDGE St. West, over Storm and Company. Flat 26 Campbell Street. Rental, ten dollars month. Ten car garage, 225½ Front Street. Apply Bridge Street, Apply Dan Ponton, 225½ Front Street.

a7-t-12-w-tf

FASTURE FOR CATTLE APPLY Geo. Denyes, College Street W. Phone 8232M. m7-3t

2 ROOMS PARTLY FURNISHED or unfurnished. All conveniences for light housekeeping. Apply between 6 and 8 p.m. at 178 Foster Ave. m7-3t

MODERN 8 ROOM BRICK house. Large garden and garage. 52 Bridge St. East. Belleville.

m7-3t.

ELEGANT, COMFORTABLY furnished bedrooms. Centrally located. All conveniences. Garage if desired. Phone 1156W. m5-3t.

3 ROOM HEATED APARTMENT suitable for office or light housekeeping. Apply 251 Front St. m1-tf.

FIVE ROOMED APARTMENT, hardwood floors, garage. Apply O. R. Thompson, 104 Dundas St. West.

5 ROOM APARTMENT, MODERN conveniences. Also 1 room apartment, suitable for light housekeeping. Apply 150 Front Street.

APARTMENT FIVE ROOMS heated hardwood floors, frigidaire, electric range. Possession Feb. 21 Apply at Ontario Intelligencer Office

LOST

SATURDAY NOON, ROLL OF bills between Bridge Street and Pinnacle and West Hill Bus. Reward if left at this office. m7-2t

LOST

LAST WEEK PAIR LADIES' black kid gloves, white trimming, small size, valuable to owner. Finder phone 195W. m8-1t

FOUND

WEDDING RING. OWNER MAY have same by proving property and paying for advertisement. Call at Ontario Intelligencer Office within two weeks. m8-1t

Business Directory

AUCTIONEER

For City of Belleville and Provincial
NORMAN MONTGOMERY
55 Bridge West Belleville
Phone 1170

m7-1m.

AUTOMOBILE LOANS

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner Our Financing of All Kinds

S. J. FISHER & SON
36 Bridge St. E. Telephone 188
Representing
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto-Ottawa-London-Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

H. A. WYATT, PhC, SPECIAL examination with the Radiochast reveals all diseases in the early stages. Foot disorders corrected, all diseases treated. Phone 900 or write 32 Campbell St., Belleville.

H. R. and Vera B. Pitcher
CHIROPRACTORS
(Honour Graduates)
Belleville-Trenton Service
274½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1274 Belleville, Ont.

DENTIST

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
X-Ray
Phone 462 240½ Front St.
J17-1m.

BOOTS AND SHOES REPAIRED

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1732. P. H. Willis, Branch Manager. m7-1y.

LEGAL

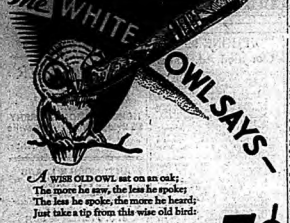
PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public, Chas. A. Payne, K.C., R. D. Arnott. Offices: 312 Front Street, Belleville.

CHARLES H. KERR, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary and Commissioner, 23 Bridge St. East, Belleville, Ont., Phone 42.

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICitor, Notary Public, etc. 18 Bridge St., Belleville. Tele phone 74. m4-tf.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office, Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON & GRAHAM, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Conveyancers, Offices: 247 Bridge Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on mortgages. W. N. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham, Office: Belleville.



WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late F. B. Wallbridge) Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets. Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 28 Bridge Street E. E. J. Butler, K.C., Ormonde Butler.

B. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, Conveyancer. Crown House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

PERSONAL

A GRACEFUL, FIGURE IS RARELY attained. Slendor Tablets are effective and harmless. $1.50 for three weeks treatment. McKeown's Drug Store.

CARL REYNOLDS MAY MAKE GRADE

Leading American Loop in Batting and Going Better Every Day

(By Bill King)

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

BOSTON, May 5—(AP) — The Philadelphia Athletics, who have hit him from behind many times during his seven years in the major, now appear to be pushing Carl Reynolds along as that Boston Red Sox outfielder races for the American League batting honors.

Just how the popular Reynolds, one of the rare specie known as "a ballplayers' ball player," will finish has already caused rival with a slugging average of .597 for 19 games, and going stronger every day.

One gets the impression, that repentant fates are trying to repay him for the cruel jokes played upon him two years ago, when, while he was batting a .340 clip for the Washington Senators as late as July, Bill Dickey, New York Yankee catcher, shattered his batting championship dreams with a right to the jaw.

The blow caused a fracture which gave Reynolds months of agony and finally a stunned spectator, that ended the play during all of the 1933 season.

This fellow Dickey, who indeed drew a long suspension, limited Reynolds' 1932 average to .349 and caused his batting average to slump to .301 the afterwards, the stomach disorder, probably had much to do with his transfer to the St. Louis Browns late that year.

Hornsby, like most ball players, even rival pitchers, is pulling hard for the quiet, unassuming Reynolds this year and joins Eddie Collins and Ruppert in the belief that nothing will check him out of his just batting deserts. His sensational slugging streak while with Newsome to his Boston bosses.

"Reynolds has always been a great hitter, when his health permitted," they explained at his home here, "with a seven-year average of .312 in spite of all the bad breaks. If he continues in his present good health, he will end up leading the league, or so close to it that no one will notice the difference."

BASEBALL RESULTS

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
Rochester	12	3	.813
Toronto	12	4	.750
Newark	12	9	.571
Montreal	10	7	.588
Syracuse	7	8	.467
Albany	7	8	.467
Baltimore	6	13	.316
Buffalo	3	13	.278

MONDAY'S SCORES

Toronto 8, Newark 4.
Baltimore 6; Syracuse 1.
Other games played on Sunday.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
New York	13	5	.722
Chicago	13	6	.684
Pittsburg	11	6	.647
St. Louis	10	8	.555
Boston	9	9	.500
Brooklyn	7	10	.412
Philadelphia	4	11	.253
Cincinnati	3	14	.176

MONDAY'S SCORES

Pittsburg 7; Brooklyn 6.
New York 2; Cincinnati 1.
Chicago 2; Philadelphia 0.
St. Louis 10; Boston 5.
10 innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
New York	13	5	.722
Cleveland	9	6	.571
Washington	9	8	.529
Detroit	8	8	.500
Philadelphia	7	8	.471
St. Louis	5	10	.333
Chicago	4	10	.286

MONDAY'S SCORES

Philadelphia 7; Cleveland 3.
Washington 17; Chicago 7.
New York 14; St. Louis 1.
Detroit 2; Boston 6.
11 innings.

SOFTBALL

Continuing their undefeated march towards the league championship, Grills Garage softball nine defeated the College Hill Cubs 8 to 3 at the Normal Park, Monday night. Delaney Bearcats were downing the lowly Tip Tops 10 to 4 at the College Field, both games being regular fixtures in the pre-season Wall Street League.

Earl Clarke, on the hill top for the "Mechanics" kid, was in form, allowing the Cubs but one safe blow in the first five frames. The Cubs nicked Clarke for five hits and a couple of runs in the sixth, but their rally was cut short, when the Grills outfit rose to the occasion, and mowed Harriage pursued the most consistent hitter for the winners with three safeties. Clarke had a double and a single was next in line.

"Runt" Miller assumed the mound duties for the Cubs, pitching but eight hits, only one of the extra base nature, Stevenson, playing-manager, in scoring position, proved Miller's downfall, Murray with a triple and a single led the Cub hitters while Gray connected for a three base blow and Jenkinson for a double. Failure to hit with men in scoring position cost the Cubs a game.

The line-ups—Cubs—Laperstein, Miller, Jenkinson, Gray, F. Murray, Miller, J. Murray, McDonald and O. Jenkins; Grills—Clarke, Harriage, Reid, Boyle, Latchford, Henn, Elser, Clarke and Graham.

Score by innings:

	R.	H.	E.
Cubs	0	0	3
Grills	1	6	2

Batteries—Miller and Pointer.

Bearcats Win

The Delaney Bearcats went on a batting rampage to down the Tip Tops 10 to 4 in a free hitting contest at the College Field. The Bearcats' extra base hits were good for them the victory when Henn hit a triple and Reid, Miller while Hanna connected for a home run and a double. The veteran Andy Reid, even showed his youthful team mates how it was done with a double and a triple. Lefty Bowden hurled consistent ball and was given airtight support by his Bearcat team mates.

"Wargy" O'Brien started on the mound for the "Tailors", but after a barrage of lusty hits in the initial frame, was relieved by Hall of Frank Parraro, who stemmed the tide and held the foe, when Oats counted six more runs to clinch the victory. Jones, with two singles, led the Tip Tops at bat with Bill Morgan counting a double as did Parraro. The game had been all tied four all when the Bearcats broke out on their batting spree in the sixth. Both games were well attended.

The line-ups—Tip Tops—Barrage, Bennett, Scott, Morgan, Metas, Smith, Simpson, Brown, Clarke O'Brien and Parraro. Delaney-St. Jr's—Reid, Duttle, Henn, J. Ethier, G. Ehler, Hanna, Jordan, A. Knott, Bowden and C. Tuttle.

Score by innings:

Delanys	0	0	0	0	6	0	0	4	0	—10
Tip Tops	0	0	2	1	0	0	0	1	0	— 4

Umpires—A. Ethier and Rollins.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By the Associated Press

Harry Lavagetto, Pirates—singled home winning run against Dodgers in tenth.

Johnny Allen, Yankees—limited Browns to seven hits, fanned eleven.

Mel Ott, Giants—doubled in the ninth to drive in runs that beat Reds.

Linwood Rowe, Tigers—held the Red Sox to two hits in five innings as relief pitcher, belted homer with one on in 11th.

Hill Lee, Cubs—blanked Phillies with four hits.

Heinie Manush, Senators—clouted White Sox pitching for triple, double and single, driving in four runs and scoring three.

Jack Rothrock and Jim Colina, Cardinals—helped beat Braves with home runs.

Ed. Coleman, Athletics—collected home run, double and single against Indians.

CURRENT SPORT

(Day By Day)

Although nothing authentic has been released on the matter in all probability a district collegiate track and field meet may be held in Belleville on May 19th, while the annual B.C.I. & V.S. field day has been practically named for the previous Wednesday, May 16th. Mercer Shields and Hamilton, who are in charge of sports at the local collegiate, made application to the provincial outlet for the privilege of holding a district athletic meet for collegiates in Belleville this spring. The matter is all but settled and will include the athletes from all the collegiates and high schools from east of Oshawa to Kingston and all the northern parts of the surrounding counties. If this meet is finally realized special prizes will be awarded to all entrants, the prize well worth competing for. The meet will include girls' as well as boys' events.

Matchmaker Tommy McClure made a two-strike when he announced two main bouts for the Niwanis Club's wrestling show on Wednesday night. Naturally the feature bout is interested in the Jack Thomas-Walter Underhill bout. Underhill is reputed to be one of the best wrestlers ever to leave an American university. He recently graduated from Columbia University, where he was one of the stock football players of that school. The Black Panther of Harlem, made a host of friends, when he battled gamely against Young Angelo in a recent bout here and will have a good following when he steps in against Walter Stratton, the Chicago Black Panther, recently to actal attacks to win the majority of his bouts and is a crowd pleaser, 'tis said. A curtain raiser of the highest caliber rounds out a three bout show.

Now that Joe Spring has located Scarborough perhaps our Eastern Ontario sport contemporaries will agree with us in regards to the possibilities of Jo Jo Graboski being seen in a Napoleon uniform next winter. Apparently the Fulford-Grenville-Napoleon business is one the latest reports have two crack senior outfits, one based at Frankford sabbing the decks of the Magnadons. It's too bad Belleville hasn't a baseball team to back it will fall.

The local indoor bowling season had its curtain to a close in the near future the annual "major League" tournament will terminate in a deciseful manner. It is rumored know that one of the new rules of the 34th Annual Dominion Bowling Congress, applied for the first time this year, allows each man of a five-man team one warm-up ball before actual rolling. This ball is rolled just to test the approach, to the foul line, and no pins are set up. Heretofore all bowling was done "cold", no player being allowed a practice ball.

Although all the clubs in the Bay of Quinte League have been religiously practicing for the past two days or more getting rehabbed for the league schedule has been forthcoming from President Charlie Lonck's office to date. Perhaps the recent photograph of Percy Lonck in a Toronto morning paper proved its usual aftermath. Reports from Picton are to the effect that the league champions are at last "stumbling" along without the services of "Wargy" Phillips. What vices of "Wargy" Phillips. What would they have done if he broke his arm, or sumpin? Answer—the same as they are doing now, that is grooming Pete Cole and Ross Church for mound duty. After all now, that Wellington is not a member of the local Intermediate "A" Picton club could annex the services of "Young Wargy" Phillips, ace-up-and-coming brother of the famous Wargy. He's a left handed hurler of no mean ability.

"Mickey" Compeau and Vinny McQuade two members of the Mill C.O.D. championship Belleville Pets, worked out with the Brockville team over the week end by the way, in case you need a return to the Limestone City and be afforded a C.O.D.L. playing certificate that would be a sifter once inserting the ranks of the Ponies. The Kingston sport scribe is failing to make light of the passing of these lads by hooking the stocks of Tommy Boyd and an outfielder named Clarke, both of these aspiring youths were previously given a thorough trial by the Ponies and found wanting. "Some people can make themselves believe most anything when the occasion arises."

Skipper Mills had the Nationals out to a strenuous workout Wednesday evening. Slowly but surely the master is getting the heterogeneous bits of his own level, insofar as baseball ability is concerned. Within the next week or so, Manager Mills should have his roster picked and then centre activities around moulding a team, that we hear will more than bring diamond honors to Belleville. As yet Vaughan Jack, the relocated pro. from Madoc has to put in an appearance. This lad is expected to be on the scene early or tonight's or tomorrow night's practice. Incidentally the Nationals will have their next every evening this week. "Looks like old times."

ANOTHER GERMAN CONTENDER WINS

Walter Neusel, German heavyweight contender, down in first round in his bout with Tommy Loughran in Madison Square Garden, May 4. He slipped to his knees. Neusel got a decision in 10-round scrap, and may get title bout with winner of the Carnera-Baer bout in June.

AS CAVALCADE RUNS AWAY WITH KENTUCKY DERBY

Cavalcade, brown colt by Lancegaye out of Hastily, owned by Mrs. J. D. Sloan, won the 60th Kentucky Derby. He is shown here after the race with Jockey Mack Garner up. Below is seen the finish of the race with Cavalcade leading, followed by Discovery, Azravian and Maca Hari.

Aajmaa Athletic Weekly Chronicle

LACROSSE—Last Thursday evening there was sufficient interest at the meeting of the Aajmaa Club and Friday evening at Rec. Belleville Playgrounds. Everyone interested in the National game is requested to attend these practices, and if your heavenly extra sticks tindly bring them along for those who aren't so fortunate.

The Bay of Quinte Lacrosse League will most likely operate with teams of all ages from Trenton, Tweed, Aajmaa Club, Belleville and other Intermedio or Wellington. Both Mr. Moore and "Rube" Barrett promised that every one be given a chance in field lacrosse during the summer and in the fall players should have sufficient experience for the lacrosse league.

PADDLING—Bill Fry expects to have the Wing brothers as guests of the Aajmaa Club at the end of the month. Those interested in paddling are asked to watch this column for future plans.

WRESTLING — Those on the wrestling executive are secretly securing material for a match in September.

BOXING—Any member desiring to train for boxing may see Coach Jack Johnston, boxing coach. When they are carefully groomed for a match, the executive will seek permission to place the boxers on a local clubs card.

BOWLING—TENNIS — Those who are interested in these sports are requested to refer to this column next week.

SWIMMING—Who are the members interested in a swimming competition? Why not swim under the Belleville colors in the Y.M.C.A. natual meet "Across the Bay Swim" and Lady Isle Water Carnival now.

BASKETBALL—Bunt Miller is gathering real basketball experts for the season, and they're all fall.

Things We Would Like to Know:

... How it feels to lose 5000 points in a basketball bridge hand and ask Bill Fry—he knows.

... Why Harry Batchelor can never win when playing against Grant Gallagher—Answer next week.

... Why the Chalk signs haven't been placed at the street entrance? Why the Aajmaa Club doesn't read the column every Tuesday.

LEAGUE LEADERS

By the Associated Press

National League

Batting—Ott, Giants, .394; P. Waner, Pirates, .387.

Runs batted in—Ott, Giants, 24; Medwick, Cardinals, 17.

Runs batted in—Medwick, Cardinals, 22; Berger, Braves, 21; Manush, Senators, 20.

Doubles—Berger and Werber, Rex Sox and Greenberg, Tigers 9

RECREATION ALLEYS

Junior B. League

Pick-Ups—Scopis 504; Huffman 450; Barrett 684; Black 499; Doe 503.

Lab.—Braind 444; Crerar 393; Boyce 457; Graham 515; James 441. 2150.

Pick-ups win 4 points.

Coca Cola—P. Marsh 509; B. Holway 474; C. Colaie 455; R. Arnott 436; C. Sallaway 504. 2284.

Hot Shots—F. Adams 429; H. Nichols 468; E. Ryan 509; F. Braidwood 487. 2. Hennigar 473. 2626.

TORONTO WINS FROM NEWARK

Behind Good Hurling by Blake, Leafs Advance to Second Place

By the Associated Press

Rolling along at a "gallop that is rapidly leaving the other International League teams far behind, Manager Dick Kinsella's Toronto Maple Leafs chalked up a record of seven straight victories and 12 games out of 13 for the season.

The Wings began their winning streak April 30 in the final game of the Albany series and since then have swept through a four-game series with Baltimore and taken the Syracuse Chiefs into camp twice.

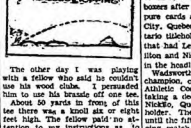
A combination of fine pitching on the part of Johnny Michaels and some run hitting gave Rochester its second triumph over the Chiefs yesterday. The score was 5-4.

Michaels held Andy High's men to five scattered hits and entered into the home run orgy himself. He was joined in the circuit hitting by Ray Grimes, Charley Winsett, Lee Handley and Ernie Wingard.

In addition Pal Goodman connected with two triples. Tommy Carey got one three bagger and Benny Bengough came out a pair of doubles to give the Wings 28 bases in the 13 hits off Fred Fussell.

Leafs Nose Out Newark

In the only other game played in the International League, Toronto Maple Leafs nosed out Newark Bears 8 to 7 to move into second place in the standings, with 10 victories in 13 games. The Bears, with nine setbacks in 21 starts, dropped to fourth place.



The score was 5-4 as Sheriff Blake, former member of Chicago Cubs' hitting staff, held the Bears to five hits while the Leafs were connecting for Rocco and Kenny Van Duke for 12 safe blows.

The Leafs scored single tallies in the first inning on a pair of singles, a base on balls and Jesse Hill's triple but then went hitless until the fifth and Baltgarer found Blake for singles in the eighth. Meanwhile the Leafs collected two runs in the fifth and added a pair of two more in the fifth and added a pair of two more in the fifth and eighth after Newark had tied the count.

The other teams played their games as parts of doubleheaders on Sunday.

Golf Facts

NOT THEORIES! By Alex Morrison

The other day I was playing with a fellow who said his couldn't hit the ball hard enough. I asked him to use his brassie off one tee. He hooked it into the trees. The next tee there was a knoll six or eight high. The fellow said to pay attention to my instructions as to how the brassie should be swung. He bounced his game ball and brought him the Willie Frank Merion Cricket Trophy, donated in the past ten years.

Another bowler to go down before an Ontario Champion was Desmond Green. Jack Armstrong, Ontario Bowling Champion, poked his way to a decision over green in a long left and then Sammy Tomlinson of Toronto walloped a decision out of Meyer Alper at Montreal at 126 pounds.

Quebec scored a victory when Joe Marsh, Quebec lightweight champion, was given his bout with Harvey Fleet of Kitchener, Ontario titleholder in the same class, decision him in the fourth round. Fleet had been warned several times for breaking the rules. Eddie Hesthfield of Dragonodville, Que., knocke Bantam Chandy, made it two for Quebec when he took a decision from Tony Canadian Champion.

Two Detroit Battling Brothers gave the couple of thousand fans a treat with some smart boxing. Eddie Cullins of Hamilton, Canadian Bantamweight Champion, was given a step the limit before he took a split decision from Edgar Walley of Detroit, Michigan, State Golden Gloves Champion. Some of the fans showed their disapproval of the verdict.

The best all-round display of the night was put on by Edwin Walling of Detroit, United States National Featherweight Champion, when he trounced Mel Gilonna of Toronto, Ontario Lightweight Champion in a bout. Walling was able to find his man with both hands and his finished work gave him the edge as he tossed Gilonna's blows aside and hooked him repeatedly for points.

Kitchener's hope, Gordon Schmale was to bolster the Ontario Welterweight Crown, wound up the evening with a knockout over Tony Mancini, Quebec Welter King, who hails from Montreal. The Kitchener fighter required only 40 seconds to find Mancini's jaw and when his right landed the fight was over.

CLOTHIERS OF QUALITY

T. J. DOYLE

Special Representative of

WM. H. LEISHMAN CO., TORONTO

will be at this store

Thursday and Friday

With a full range of samples of the latest weaves in Men's Clothing, ready to take measures for Spring and Summer outfits in this best Leishman manner, made to measure, made to fit.

Quick and Robertson

CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

First in Style, Quality and Reasonable Price

WRESTLING

Belleville Armouries

WEDNESDAY

May 9th at 8.30 p. m.

THREE BOUTS

Wrestling Fans—The Kiwanis Club has provided as good if not better card than previous show — Black Panther, Jack Thomas and others billed — Tuesday is spienty for outdoorsmen.

ADMISSION: RINGSIDE—50c GENERAL—35c
LADIES—25c (Including Tax)

BOXING

TORONTO, May 8. — (CP) — Ontario amateur boxers today boasted an edge over a delegation of Montreal and United States ringsters after one of the best amateur cards staged in the Queen City. Quebec champions faced Ontario titleholders in a fistic affray, that had Len Gadsby of Hamilton and Nick NickLo of Montreal in the headliner.

Wadsworth, Ontario middleweight champion, carried off the Ontario Athletic Commission Trophy after taking a decision from the rugged Nicklo, provincial titleholder. They fought on even terms until the fifth round, when a slugging match in Wadsworth's favor left the visitor groggy as the bell sounded but his game effort brought him the Willie Frank Memorial Trophy, donated in the past ten years.

Another bowler to go down before an Ontario Champion was Desmond Green. Jack Armstrong, Ontario Bowling Champion, poked his way to a decision over green in a long left and then Sammy Tomlinson of Toronto walloped a decision out of Meyer Alper at Montreal at 126 pounds.

Quebec scored a victory when Joe Marsh, Quebec lightweight champion, was given his bout with Harvey Fleet of Kitchener, Ontario titleholder in the same class, decision him in the fourth round. Fleet had been warned several times for breaking the rules. Eddie Hesthfield of Dragonodville, Que., knocke Bantam Chandy, made it two for Quebec when he took a decision from Tony Canadian Champion.

Two Detroit Battling Brothers gave the couple of thousand fans a treat with some smart boxing. Eddie Cullins of Hamilton, Canadian Bantamweight Champion, was given a step the limit before he took a split decision from Edgar Walley of Detroit, Michigan, State Golden Gloves Champion. Some of the fans showed their disapproval of the verdict.

The best all-round display of the night was put on by Edwin Walling of Detroit, United States National Featherweight Champion, when he trounced Mel Gilonna of Toronto, Ontario Lightweight Champion in a bout. Walling was able to find his man with both hands and his finished work gave him the edge as he tossed Gilonna's blows aside and hooked him repeatedly for points.

Kitchener's hope, Gordon Schmale was to bolster the Ontario Welterweight Crown, wound up the evening with a knockout over Tony Mancini, Quebec Welter King, who hails from Montreal. The Kitchener fighter required only 40 seconds to find Mancini's jaw and when his right landed the fight was over.

One thing every golfer must learn is that the left hand will never stay in the proper position or functions correctly without conscious direction.

Players using a grip where the left thumb presses against the shaft will find that this hand always turns toward the left. After it has turned so much that the back of the hand faces the hole I must force them to turn it toward the right until the back of the hand faces almost directly upward.

It's only when the hand is in this position that it can function properly during the swing. But, this corrective measure brings only temporary improvement.

The hand will soon turn toward the left, regardless of the interesting grip affords the only permanent cure.

FIND BODY IN TORONTO BAY

TORONTO, May 8. — (CP) — Police today opened an investigation into the finding of the body of a middle-aged man in Toronto Bay. The pockets of the man's coat had been turned inside out and contained nothing. The left leg was partly cut off and there was a large hole in the centre of the forehead.

THE DROP KICK — "RASSLER'S" STYLE

Stanley Pinto of Chicago was too rough for cyclone Dean Detton, Utah grid star, and won in straight falls at the auditorium in Oakland. The picture here might be called lights and shadows of the wrestling mat! It shows Dean Detton as he executes the famous drop kick on Pinto.

ROMANTIC RUNAWAY

KATHARINE HAVILAND-TAYLOR

CHAPTER XX

Marcia Treadway read the newspaper account of the Jeffries murder in the train. She was careful to keep from Pabillo's face, as she read it, the look of horror that was momentarily there before she would have to find the key. The Spanish woman's face, Marcia's eyes until she glanced toward a heap of Cuban money on a corner of the dressing table. She had been out of it the night before on Lazarraga, the jail keeper, and she chose to regard it as a good omen.

At one o'clock she started out in the car she had rented for the afternoon. Already the streets were crowded with motors filled with men and women in costume. A dense confetti fell as the thickening snow and serpentine streamers began to wind about the hubs of the many motorcars. Everywhere, gallant gay greetings to their neighbors. The rich and poor—all the citizens—that day were as brother and sister.

The sun shone dazzlingly upon the blue harbor and the white Morro Castle. The prettiest girl in the world tossed roses and chocolates to the men in the motorcars from their favor. The jostling throngs of pedestrians forced the slowest route—down the superb Prado, up through the Parque Central, where the wave often dash against a thick, gray wall to drench all comers in the air); into the smug and proud Vedado where the finest fortunate ones who have forgotten the meaning of hunger and thirst, they ever knew all have back again with faces turned from the sea, to the narrow harbor.

Young men kissed the coils of young countrywomen before they flung the arcs of ribbon into the air. Marcia, watching, caught several roses in return. It was pretty, natural, and she decided with that mild enthusiasm that comes from being too much used.

A short, stocky man who spoke a nasal variety of English leaped to the running board of Marcia's car as the parade was halted temporarily by the congesto ahead. "Lovely Fitmas Spirit!" he asked. She laughed, her eagerness for novelty making his adulation acceptable.

"Givin' me a rose, ain't you?" he went on.

"Why certainly," Marcia answered. The man took the rose with a wide smile that she understood when he went to thread it. "Say!" he called as he stepped down from the running board to climb into the mass of motors behind. It was some time after-wards that Marcia knew that he had thought the pearl-studded platinum chain she had been wearing had gone with the rose.

Behind him Marcia Treadway and had shrunk back for a shift, short second. Then in her confusion she was safe because she was wearing an insolent, small black mustache and a hat.

When he found Noya, Pablo nodded in the slow way that came from his bad headache, they would go to Sloppy's America. Then, perhaps, in time he might revive a certain sense of safety and, to some degree, of wish for life. In any event, because of Noya he would have an obligation to live.

The pain in his head was intensifying and even the motion of the car at times pushed him close to sickness. The bright colors, massive made of costumes, sunlight, blue water, acetic flowers and thrill green tangled in their separated and then tangled anew.

He supposed this was what the kaleidoscope which Noya had described and which was a part of Noyes' gentle boyhood. While, thinking of Noya, decided that he would go again soon to La Miraval.

He moved quickly and caught his breath. It seemed that Noya had died. Then Beau, opening the door of the heavily panting car, helped in to sit back and give into Lottie's keeping. Noya was not dead.

Of course it was not. Noya's head was against Lottie's breast. Lottie looked up and flashed under Pablito's steady, insolent gaze.

"Ees it, honey?" she said, her cheek plating a little.

"We gate the Cuse," Blanca, said the driver of the swarthy and French opera whiskers. Lottie asked quickly, and nervously, "Have you been in a scrip with all that ballooning?"

Pablito found it difficult to explain so simple a thing as the fact that they were going the proper dent's home.

Toward the close of the afternoon a note of wariness crept into the festivities—the day was almost over which follows on the heels of sustained laughter and light-hearted abandon. Pablito, who had watched the people, knew that he should have left such a day to the grand time." Her lap was full of little cakes of sweet chocolate, and sparing of a tingly pastille, Cuban gum, tiny vials of perfumes and other favors that had been showered on the marchers. Also in her flat bag were six scarf pins she had extracted from the ties of the unwary ones who had caught to their grin her favor from the crumpled hoard of the car, considerable cash and two cigaret cases, one of which was studded with rubies. This one she planned to give to Pablito.

Back at the house Lottie sought him out. The door of his room was open and she found him sitting on the edge of the bed. Lottie had noticed before that his face was flushed but now the flush made her frown.

"Say," she confided, "I don't exactly like the way you look. Do you feel sick?"

He managed to tell her that he was very thirsty and that he would be grateful if she would ring for water.

Lottie answered with a worried, "Sure, Kid—," watching him as she touched the bell. His unusually lean face was puffed, and the skin stained until it shone. His eyes were too bright and his lips, she could see, were dry.

"I loved you from the first time I looked at you, Pablito," he said hoarsely after she had turned from the bell. "And I'm coming back to you! Back to you!" he went on, passion in his voice. "That is all that I want in life and if a man wants only one thing in life he gets it. I will tell Noya. I will tell Noyes! They're trying to find Noyes!"

Pablito sent the boy who brought the ice water in search of Beau but he returned to say that that person could not be found. With endless cracking she managed to coax Pablito sufficiently to get him unclothed and in bed. There he lay tossing and muttering of a Princess and a pauper and love and Noyes. She sat by her bed, holding Pablito's hand, soothing him by repeating, watching the time. "Heart that big burn, Beast, ever coming? If he stayed out all night—"

Lottie knew that she did not care to summon a doctor without Noya's consent. Pablito might say anything.

"God!" she whispered. "Please send that big hum home!"

"Estelle!" Pablito called shout-ed the name.

"Shut up, kid. She's right here beside you," Lottie answered. "My Lord, if he keeps that up!" she muttered to herself. He did keep it up, moaning of Noyes and of Estelle. . . . Once he cried out about someone called Angela who meant to beat him. This made his voice rise again.

A servant tapped on the door. Was anyone ill, he questioned? The management wished to know, because the notes from his room had been heard from Obispo, causing considerable wonder.

"Tell the manager to mind his own business," Lottie answered. "This boy's been drinking some of your foam liquor and they got the shakes. If anybody should do any apologizin' it's you. Have you got them?"

The servant vanished. Close to spring, Lottie bent over Pablito. She looked so immensely tall and hard and slender on the bed. "Honey," she whispered, "if you keep on yellin' I'll have to get you and I don't wanta do that!" She stooped to lay her cheek against his. Oh, how she loved him, loved him!

His tossing stopped. He lay quiet, lips parted, eyes closed. "Is it me this is worse'n that yellin' was" Lottie whispered.... And Beau would very likely stay out all night. Pablito might die, waiting a doctor.

Lottie dropped to her knees beside the bed, holding his hand pressed to her cheek.

CHAPTER XXI

At the end of a month in Havana Marcia Treadway moved on to South America. She had grown restless, she admitted, and she was much thinner. She did not have to watch her diet these days not count calories, and in her orders, through a letter sent to her attorneys in New York, she decided she advised by wireless of any news concerning the Jeffries' case. The lawyers, no doubt, would think this a curious request but that didn't matter.

The only thing that did matter to Marcia was finding Pablito and she was convinced now that he must have gone to South America. She would find him there and together they would embark on a glamorous future. She promised that fervently to the expressly envisioned deity that served her as substitute for God.

Norris Noyes remained at the Hotel Nacional until he was ejected, courteously but firmly, for his inability to pay for the room by overdraft. Not even Marcia, the proprietor's daughter, whose manly face was by condition, succeeded against Noyes as the man Pablito had described. Perhaps that was why for this was the fact that Noyes had registered under the name of Pablito Noyes.

Thus Noyes found himself early one morning penniless, hungry and out in the open. Horses and cows, drawing loaded, plodded past him. Trucks, too, passed and an endless clattering of motors. A small donkey made its delicate and uncaring way close to the curb. Slumped to the side, were baskets which were filled with fruits from Cuba's richest soil: bananas, melons, grapes, pineapples, limes and citrous. Noyes looked after the beast that had brushed his thin arm and was overcome with a sensation of emptiness in his stomach.

Again he studied the constantly moving line, waiting his parched lips now and again with his tongue that was proving dry. He thought he knew what Pablito had done for him. He had not only found the boy. He thought he understood why Pablito was in hiding, she said she had never had "such a grand time." Her lap was full of little cakes of sweet chocolate, and sparing of a tingly pastille, Cuban gum, tiny vials of perfumes and other favors that had been showered on the marchers. Also in her flat bag were six scarf pins she had extracted from the ties of the unwary ones who had caught to their grin her favor from the crumpled hoard of the car, considerable cash and two cigaret cases, one of which was studded with rubies. This one she planned to give to Pablito.

Back at the house Lottie sought him out. The door of his room was open and she found him sitting on the edge of the bed. Lottie had noticed before that his face was flushed but now the flush made her frown.

"Say," she confided, "I don't exactly like the way you look. Do you feel sick?"

He managed to tell her that he was very thirsty and that he would be grateful if she would ring for water.

Lottie answered with a worried, "Sure, Kid—," watching him as she touched the bell. His unusually lean face was puffed, and the skin stained until it shone. His eyes were too bright and his lips, she could see, were dry.

"I loved you from the first time I looked at you, Pablito," he said hoarsely after she had turned from the bell. "And I'm coming back to you! Back to you!" he went on, passion in his voice. "That is all that I want in life and if a man wants only one thing in life he gets it. I will tell Noya. I will tell Noyes! They're trying to find Noyes!"

Lottie sent the boy who brought the ice water in search of Beau but he returned to say that that person could not be found. With endless cracking she managed to coax Pablito sufficiently to get him unclothed and in bed. There he lay tossing and muttering of a Princess and a pauper and love and Noyes. She sat by her bed, holding Pablito's hand, soothing him by repeating, watching the time. "Heart that big burn, Beast, ever coming? If he stayed out all night—"

Lottie knew that she did not care to summon a doctor without Noya's consent. Pablito might say anything.

"God!" she whispered. "Please send that big hum home!"

"Estelle!" Pablito called shout-ed the name.

"Shut up, kid. She's right here beside you," Lottie answered. "My Lord, if he keeps that up!" she muttered to herself. He did keep it up, moaning of Noyes and of Estelle. . . . Once he cried out about someone called Angela who meant to beat him. This made his voice rise again.

A servant tapped on the door. Was anyone ill, he questioned? The management wished to know, because the notes from his room had been heard from Obispo, causing considerable wonder.

"Tell the manager to mind his own business," Lottie answered. "This boy's been drinking some of your foam liquor and they got the shakes. If anybody should do any apologizin' it's you. Have you got them?"

The servant vanished. Close to spring, Lottie bent over Pablito. She looked so immensely tall and hard and slender on the bed. "Honey," she whispered, "if you keep on yellin' I'll have to get you and I don't wanta do that!" She stooped to lay her cheek against his. Oh, how she loved him, loved him!

His tossing stopped. He lay quiet, lips parted, eyes closed. "Is it me this is worse'n that yellin' was" Lottie whispered.... And Beau would very likely stay out all night. Pablito might die, waiting a doctor.

Lottie dropped to her knees beside the bed, holding his hand pressed to her cheek.

CHAPTER XXI

At the end of a month in Havana Marcia Treadway moved on to South America. She had grown restless, she admitted, and she was much thinner. She did not have to watch her diet these days not count calories, and in her orders, through a letter sent to her attorneys in New York, she decided she advised by wireless of any news concerning the Jeffries' case. The lawyers, no doubt, would think this a curious request but that didn't matter.

The only thing that did matter to Marcia was finding Pablito and she was convinced now that he must have gone to South America. She would find him there and together they would embark to Cuba, just as he and Pablito had planned. Now he was waiting—but for what? Meaningful he was hungry. Smith he moved aimlessly, following the black shade of the narrow ways and keeping to the shops, inside that rising in open spaces fringing the many parks, or for a few centavos release from the heat.

He walked up the street that is splendid with glittering shops. From there he went to the Colon Market and thence to the Prado, where, on a bench in the green centre strip which divides this thoroughfare, he rested after he ate without motion until a passing stranger stopped to look a him and then again, monastingly. . . .

"Do you care to come with me where you may get food?" the priest asked.

Noyes rose, trebling. "I am very hungry," he confessed unstealthily.

The priest led him into a dark room in a house that was hidden in the shadows of a small alley back a church near the Calle Union. Here, without a word, he set bread, cheese, a bag of olives and a bottle of wine on a bare table. Then he called to a priest while Noyes stared, hypnotized, at the first food that had been within his reach for two days.

Noyes ate in a wholly primal manner. After he had finished he sat down to the last crumb, his share of the food, his sat back and said slowly, "Father, I am in great trouble."

"Tell me about it if you wish," the priest said.

"I have caused another to sin," Noyes explained, "and in so doing I have lost a boy who is dearer to me than my own son. It is a long story—"

"My time is yours," the priest assured him.

"It is eight years ago," Noyes went on, after his bow of appreciation. "I met an actress named Estelle Murad who was the first woman I have ever known—or ever will know, she—"

His voice drained on steadily as he told about Noya and she slowly grew longer. Now and again a reach assisted across the bridge of the breath, making a scratching sound like the rustling of paper, or she would sigh like a cat on the Havana dated across the bare, tiled floor.

The priest listened, nodding frequently, and as time Noyes stopped his eyes outwardly with a gray handkerchief that Pablito had once used with him. . . . had lolled and the priest dropped his head, like Noya moving with his prayers. Noyes, too, dropped his head and the tears rolled down his cheeks.

As they both raised their heads the priest said, "What am I to do now, Father? Tell me!"

"Pablito can say," the priest answered slowly. "Your story would go into a book, I think. . . . I hear daily many tales that have in them much interest. . . . Perhaps I shall write it. Meanwhile you will sleep here and I will share with you my food for the day. Tomorrow I shall pray for you, for the boy and for the soul of the one called Josie Marshall."

Again Noyes mopped his eyes with the gray handkerchief that Pablito had once kept white for him.

The history found the captain who had retired and was raising chickens and children on a farm in a small village on the Maine coast. The captain remembered the infant born at sea; remembered, too, the names of the Cuban girls who had adopted the little boy. Billings, Sir Aubrey's agent, wrote down the names on a piece of paper.

"And now," said Sir Aubrey after he and Billing had left the captain's small white cottage, "it's Cuba now for us."

"It looks like that's the next move all right," Billings agreed. "By hey, Sir Aubrey, I wonder would be 18 now. Tall, he presumed, like his father, and handsome in light of hair. Mary had wondered when she was quite young as she remembered. Perhaps the boy would have blue eyes too. God pity him and poor Mary!"

When Pablito came back to a knowledge of life it was to an entire walls of a room in a house in Vevra. Cerro is a part of Havana which knows few tourists and, despite mechanical stance, phonographs and loudly-shouted gossip, is quite peaceful neighborhood.

Lottie, sitting by Pablito's bed, suddenly saw that he recognized her. "Honey boy, honey baby?" she asked in a whisper.

His moved his head slowly with an attempt to nod.

"You been real sick," she told him and took one of his white hands into hers. She added proudly, "I took care of you. I guess maybe I saved your life."

He pondered over that, remembering, and wondered. "Why?" he asked. Before me, after my gratitude to Lottie, being too weak as yet to into words.

A doctor came to see you who had enough whiskers on his face for stuff in the mattress in many cars," Lottie told Pablito. "That guy was a screamin' But he was all going to Ant Isabel's for dinner, and shine your own shoes, they took at you, what would Ant Isabel think? And then dress go out of the house because I opened an important G. O. D. package, hever a dollars to pay for it; not even you for all these years!" she said.

You mean, I said, and me said, I hope so.

Then I was pritty near dark when she came back, saying, Did my mades get home?

Mam? I didn't see it. I said, and then I said: you stay in sits of the house all afternoon? I told you? and I said, I was going to, the same goody said, why didn't you shine them after I expressly told you? How can your father see you were going to, she said.

Mam? I said, I pritty near shined them, ony something happened, I said, and me said, You didn't shine them, that's all. Then I told her, and how about my black slippers. She said, I'm sure I left at least, she said. Well, did you get my slippers? she said.

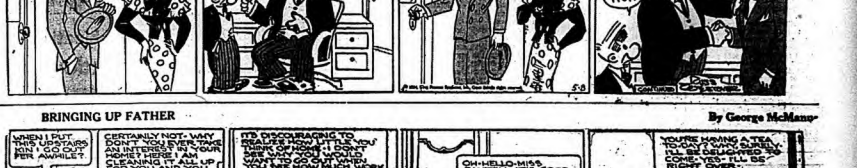
Almost, I said, and me said, Almost? How what do you mean by almost?

I mean I was going to, I said, and me said, I was almost something happened, I suppose, and I said. Yes mam, and she said, Well answering cits is going to happen rite now.

98 OUT OF 100 WOMEN REPORT BENEFIT

No More Backaches

"I used to have backache most all the time and other troubles. No pep. I was telling a friend how I felt and she told me about your Vegetable Compound. I have taken it for four months and feel much better."—Mrs. P. L. Meissner, 1018 Barrington St., Halifax, N. S.



If your back aches periodically as Mrs. Meissner's did, give this medicine a good trial. Take it regularly and you will be pleased with the results.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Used by women for over 60 years

TILLIE THE TOILER

By Russ Westover

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

TARZAN THE TERRIBLE

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Trenton Council Adopts D.S.T. Corresponding with Belleville

Dates Will Be From June 16th to Sept. 3rd

Trenton, May 7(Special)—The Trenton town council met last night at the town hall with Mayor Harry Cory in the chair and Councillors Orr, O'Rourke, Owen, McEvoy, Ellis, R. Whitley and H. Ledeur present. Councillor George Leavens was absent owing to illness.

Trenton will follow in the footsteps of Belleville in regard to Daylight Saving, unless a petition against the move, signed by a majority of citizens, is presented before June 16.

The resolution, moved by Councillor Ellis and seconded by Councillor Ledeur was unanimous. It read:

"That in consideration of Belleville adopting Daylight Saving Time and in view of the fact that the Trenton Chamber of Commerce, Retail Merchants' Association, individual merchants and the advertising management have signified by letter that they are in favour of Daylight Saving for Trenton; it is therefore resolved, that unless a majority of citizens, by petition, object by June 16 allow an adverse opinion, that Trenton will adopt Daylight Saving from midnight, June 16 to midnight, September 3, 1934."

Unemployed Gardens

With seventy-six unemployed already registered for garden lots and more coming in, it was decided to again foster this project.

The town will supply the seed. Mayor Cory named Councillors O'Rourke and McEvoy to arrange for the land and purchase of seed. All present favored the garden and again as it was a success last year.

Assurance for Fire Trucks and Men

The question of insurance for the pumper was brought up. Councillor McEvoy, chairman of fire, market and police said the rate for $10,000 public liability and $10,000 property damage would be $70. per annum.

Councillor Ledeur favored insuring the hose truck as well. Then the men were discussed. Councillor McEvoy said several members of the fire department would pay part of their own insurance. It was left to Councillor McEvoy to inquire for rates for two trucks and members of the fire department and report to the council later.

Councillor Whitley asked for a sewer to be laid on George Street. He said the town had plenty of old pipe. The mayor favored the idea as it had not attached to it. Councillors Whitley and Ledeur will measure up and report back.

Tax Collector Resigns

The resignation of Mr. Waldorf as tax collector was read and accepted. Mr. Waldorf has been assessor and collector but owing to ill health he tendered his resignation as collector. Mayor Cory said he always favored a separate man for these positions.

A resolution to have the collector's books audited before a new man takes over the job. Walter Delaney was appointed auditor. A special meeting will be called to consider applications for the tax collector's position.

Clarence Greer, engineer of the fire department, has turned in his resignation to take effect June 1. This matter will likely be dealt with at a special meeting later.

Rotary Election

The Trenton Rotary Club held their annual election of officers last night at their regular weekly luncheon. All offices with the exception of vice-president and the board of directors were filled by acclamation at the nominations last month. The installation of officers will take place on June 25. The new men to guide the Trenton Rotary Club for the ensuing year are:

Past President—Charlie Foster.
President—Thad Jarrett.
Vice-President—Jerry Squier, Jr.
Secretary—Ernie Smillie.
Treasurer—Gib Asts.
Directors—Charlie Allore and Norman Bower.

BOWLING
Monthly Tournament

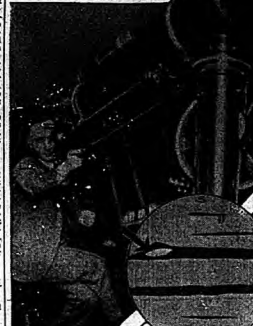
Chas. Allore 698; A. Winder 662; G. Goguere 634; J. Nicholson 608; C. Johns 607; G. Harrison 603; W. Taylor 596; J. Alexander 583; Sid Rid 580; T. Payette 572; E. Rehan 566; S. Turner 563; D. Bowers 562; F. Sherbert 555; R. Perry 553; A. Lamore 534; W. Allore 516; L. Lamore 515; R. Schingh 505; W. Treolet 504; R. Lamore 503; H. Ridley 487; L. Chouinard 423.

Social League

20th Century (4)—M. Lamore (2) 232; G. Harrison (2) 230; Total 2606; R. Lamore 500; W. Lemoire 527; W. Taylor 500; 2678.

B.B.P. (0)—J. Potts 604; H. Cronin (2) 322; G. Harrison 520; M. Tripp 602; E. Rid 584; L. Tyrrell (1) 210. 2906.

R.C.A.F.—Riddell 572; Jones 464; Blain 428; Brisse 543. 2016.



Breadner 513; Grandy 381; Heakes 372; Sharpe 476. 1864.

Dickson 584; Campbell 626; Cameron 431; Orr 523. 3138.

Warren William "Heart" specialist in "Bedside" now at the Capitol.

THE BEST
SHINGLES
THE BEST
ASPHALT
ROOFING
EVERYTHING IN LUMBER
ROUGH AND DRESSED
Prices are still very attractive.
The Schuster Co. Ltd.
Phones 93 and 616 W. N. Belair, Pres.

It's Raining Cats and Dogs on Jupiter, but Scientist Assures Humans of Safety

Dr. J. J. Nassau at his telescope in the Case observatory and a sketch of the planet Jupiter made by Dr. Nassau and showing the storm area.

By BONTA WITT
Central Press Canadian Writer

Cleveland, May 8—Although a tremendous storm on Jupiter, covering an estimated area 20,000 miles in length and 3,000 miles in width, has been observed by Prof. J. J. Nassau of Case School of Applied Science, Cleveland, its atmospheric disturbances on the earth cannot be blamed on Jupiter, he asserts.

No connection between storms such as the one now raging on Jupiter, 400,000,000 miles distant, and storms on the earth is evident, according to Dr. Nassau, neither does he believe that spots now appearing on the sun are responsible for the unusual activity on Jupiter.

Found Storm by Chance

Dr. Nassau began observing Jupiter closely, recently, when he learned of the presence of an interesting black spot on its north equatorial belt. While searching for the black spot which indicated condensation, or what looked as if there were a heavy accumulation of rain clouds, he saw the storm. A storm on Jupiter, just as on the earth, is a movement of great volumes of materials.

Describing his discovery, Dr. Nassau says, "While studying the black spot I noted a large white spot on the south equatorial belt. My assistant, Sidney McCaskey, confirmed what I saw. We calculated it to be 2,000 miles wide and 20,000 miles long, a storm of uncommon size. There is no explanation to be advanced for the disturbance in the upper parts of the atmosphere, although it probably is related to the black spot phenomenon."

Other storms on Jupiter have attained an estimated velocity of 300 miles an hour, but no calculations have been made as yet on the present one. As soon as he makes his discovery, Dr. Nassau reported his findings to Harvard university observatory, which is the clearing house for scientific information. Astronomers throughout the world are notified so that they may train their telescopes on phenomena in which they are especially interested.

Rivals "Red Spot"

Astronomers at Harvard have declared that the present storm is the greatest they ever have seen, rivaling in interest the large red spot which was located on Jupiter in 1878.

Nightly, since his discovery, Dr. Nassau has trained his giant telescope upon Jupiter, where seasons as they are known on the earth do not exist, and recording the present theory a solid coating of ice covers the planet, with a temperature of approximately 300 degrees below zero Fahrenheit, instead of diminishing in activity, the storm area has been increasing with evidence of tremendous activity in the surrounding region.

RADIO PROGRAMS

TUESDAY
E. S. T.

8.00—Frances Alda, soprano — WEAF
8.30—Concert Program; Hudson's Orchestra—WAB; WGN.
7.00—Crime Clews—WLW
7.30—Abe Lyman's Orchestra and Ensemble—CFRB
8.00—Musical Memories; Edgar Guest, Alice Moon, Chas. Sears, Jos. Koestner's Orchestra—CFRB.
8.00—Ben Bernie and his Orchestra WLW; WTAM
8.30—Ed Wynn—WEAF; WLW
8.30—Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra—WABC
9.00—Variety Show—WGY
9.00—Colonel Stoopnagle and Budd, Glen Gray's Orchestra —WABC
9.00—Beauty Box Theatre; Gladys Swarthout; Chorus; Nat. Shilkret's Orchestra—WEAF.
9.30—Symphony Concert; Frank Black; Emili de Gogorza Spanish baritone — WJZ; CFRB.
10.00—News—CFRB
11.00—Rudy Vallee's Orchestra — WEAF

WEDNESDAY
8.00—Sam Herman, xylophonist-CRCT
8.45—Metropolitan sPrade—CFRB
9.15—Young Artists Trio; Instrumental Group—WJZ
10.15—Will Osborne's Orchestra; Pedro De Cordoba, Friendly Philosopher—WABC
10.15—Sweetheart Melodies—WEAF WLW
10.30—U.S. Army Band—CRCT
11.30—Smilin' Ed McConnell — WABC
11.45—Mischa Raginsky's Ensemble —WABC
11.45—Screen Stars Interviewed by Louella Parsons; Ray Paige's Orchestra—CFRB
12.15—Rex Battle's Ensemble—CRCT
1.00—Two Pianos in the Balcony—WLW; WEAF; CRCT
2.00—Joe White, tenor; Instrumental trio—WEAF; CRCT
3.00—Manhattan Moods—CFRB
3.15—Organ—WJZ
4.45—Gordon, Dave and Bunny, piano—WABC
8.30—Jim Hunter, News—CFRB
6.45—Dance Music in Hollywood, sketch—WJZ
7.00—The Baron Munchausen"—CRCT
7.15—Easy Aces—CFRB,
7.30—Concert by Metropolitan Everett Marshal, baritone; Jerry Shilkret's Orchestra; Symphonic Arrangements—WJZ; KDKA
8.00—Raymond Knight and His Cuckoos; The Sparkers; Armbruster's Orchestra—WJZ; KDKA
8.30—Burns and Allen; Guy Lombardo's Orchestra—WABC
9.00—Ed Sullivan, columnist; Three Scamps; Vincent Lopez Orchestra—WJZ
9.00—Corn Cob Pipe Club of Virginia, barnyard music, male quartet — WEAF; WTAM; WLW
9.00—Gypsies of Portugal, Dorothy Morris Kennedy, Henry O'Neill, Robert Ilaral and Jimmy Kolker.

In addition there are three hundred beautiful chorus girls picked from 9,000 applicants who dance and sing clad in Sophanous gowns of the eighth episode of production that include "Dance of the Masked Lovers", "Romance of the Silver Forest", "Mirrors of Beauty", "Waltz-Dream-Shrine of Venus", "Ciots" to Heaven on a Mule" "Harlem on the Milky Way" and "All God's Chillins Got Wings," created and staged by Busby Berkley, who also staged the numbers for "2nd Street", "Footlight Parade", and "Golddiggers of 1933", is said to have surpassed even the gigantic

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED
Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 9 a.m. Close 9.30 p.m.

Dress Up Your Windows!
The C. D. S. Offers Extensive Variety for Every Window in the Home — Shop Wednesday

Gay Colored
Drapery Chintzes
In lovely flower effects, a splendid choice to select from, for a dozen and one different purposes where color and a brightening influence is needed. Make your own draperies, cushions, slip covers, smocks, etc. Yard, only 19c

Tailored Edge
Filet Net Curtains
So serviceable and good wearing, can be washed time after time, yet withal, so dainty looking—we recommend these tailored filet net curtains for the dining room or the living room. Size 43 inches by 2½ yards. Pair 2.25

Two Tone Swiss Curtains
In a very lovely pattern, two-tone Swiss curtains in ecru, that look well in the dining room, living room or the bedroom. 43 inches by 2½ yards, a size, too, that answers well for the aforementioned rooms. Pair 3.50

Filet Curtain Net
In soft ivory shade, dainty filet curtain net, with imitation tailored edge. A sturdy, long wearing material that answers "what to get" for the living room, for the dining room, hall or bedrooms. Inexpensive, too, at yard 29c

Combination
Oiled Window Shades
Sturdy, well made shades, mounted on a strong spring roller of reliable manufacture. In cream and green, and white and green. 37 inches by 70 inches long. Complete with nails, brackets and ring pull. Each 1.25

Painting?
Sign Seal Paints
A reliable, well mixed paint that covers well and dries hard and glossy. Our famous Blue Seal paint that comes in a wide selection of leading shades and white.
Pint 40c Quart 75c

Decorative Enamels
For painting those odd little pieces of furniture—coffee tables, corner brackets, bed trays, medicine cabinets. Put up in two sizes—and in a complete range of pastel shades. Each 15c and 35c

Muresco
A popular wall tint in 5 lb. packages — choice of white, ivory, cream, rose, pink, Quaker grey, and light buff. 65c

Rubberset Paint Brushes
A brush for every purpose—bristles set in rubber for long wear and better efficiency. Priced, each 15c to 2.00

Cleaning?
Scarfe's French Wax
Ann Adams, well known authority on Home Management says: I am really delighted with the "New Improved French Wax." It works up so quickly and gives such a mirror-like finish with so little effort. Why not try this new wax for Scarfe's—available in ½ lb. and lb. tins
Each 35c and 60c —basement

Old English
No-Rubbing Floor Polish
Easily applied and dries hard and brilliant without rubbing or polishing.
Pint Tins ..... 59c Tins 98c

Hawes' Lemon Oil
A reliable polish for all kinds of fine furniture—cleans well and leaves a bright, shiny finish. 12 oz. bottle 25c

In the Groceteria Wed. and Thur. Only COMBINATION SPECIAL
1 lb. PORK LIVER - - Both
½ lb. BREAKFAST BACON for 21c
TIP TOP
Weiners - - 2 lbs. 25c
Stewing Beef - - lb. 10c
LARGE SIZE
Pineapples - - Each 21c
Choice Tomatoes lb. 15c
THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE BELLE
GRAND OPENING OF WONDER BAR AT BELLE TONIGHT

Tonight's the night of the grand opening of Wonder Bar, mammoth musical and dramatic spectacle, which will be shown at the Belle Theatre until Friday, matinee daily.

The picture is based on the internationally famous play that was the sensation of Europe a few years ago when it played before king and commoner in Continental capitals. Again it was a sensation on the American stage with Al Jolson in the dollar role.

Al Jolson in the film version, plays the same role as an entertainer du luxe. Other members of the cast-all-star include Kay Francis, Dick Powell, Dolores Del Rio, Ricardo Cortez and Hugh Le Roy.

The supporting cast is quite as imposing including such notable players of stage and screen as Guy Kibbee, Ruth Donnelly, Hugh Herbert, Louise Fazenda, Fifi D'Orsay, Merna Kennedy, Henry O'Neill, Robert Ilaral and Jimmy Kolker.

In addition there are three hundred beautiful chorus girls picked from 9,000 applicants who dance and sing clad in Sophanous gowns of the eighth episode of production that include "Dance of the Masked Lovers", "Romance of the Silver Forest", "Mirrors of Beauty", "Waltz-Dream-Shrine of Venus", "Ciots" to Heaven on a Mule" "Harlem on the Milky Way" and "All God's Chillins Got Wings," created and staged by Busby Berkley, who also staged the numbers for "2nd Street", "Footlight Parade", and "Golddiggers of 1933", is said to have surpassed even the gigantic specialacles in these pictures by the uniqueness, beauty and magnificence of his new conceptions.

These spectacles spice the dramatic production which has been staged on a grand scale, the scale being a night club of gay Paris, the story centering about the entertainers, their romances with each other and with patrons.

The limitations of the stage have been overcome on the screen which permits of a production of far greater magnitude.

Five popular and new song hits are introduced during the action of the story they are "Vingo Do I Dream those Dreams", "Don't Say Good Night", "Wonder Bar", "Ciots" to Heaven on a Mule" and "Vive la France".

On the same program with the above excellent feature attraction are "Mush Scores", an all-star fun special; the popular Belle News with its up-to-the minute events garnered the world over, and "March of the Movies" showing performances start daily at 2.30, 7.15 and 9.10 the feature presentation beginning daily at 2.10, 7.40 and 9.45 p.m.

AT THE CAPITOL
Warren William in "Bedside"

Warren William, who has the role of a likable scamp of many love affairs in "Bedside" now at the Capitol Theatre . . . nevertheless receives his affections upon two women who have the feminine knack in the production.

Ousted from medical school because of his keen interest in love and gambling, he sets up as a doctor and engages as his nurse a woman for whom he has a real affection. This does not prevent him, however, from carrying on flirtations with his patients, chief of whom is a famous grand opera singer.

Jean Muir, who recently made her bow in pictures after attracting attention on Broadway, has the role of nurse. She is a tall blonde with an elusive beauty, in marked contrast to the fiery, red-headed Russian beauty, Kathryn Sergava, who plays the part of her rival, the opera singer.

Sergava, famous for her ballet dancing, makes her bow on the screen in "Bedside". While Miss Muir has played in but four pictures, her work has been so excellent that she was given a leading role in this production.

William makes violent love to both women and becomes so entangled with the opera singer that he is about to marry her when the nurse is seriously injured in an auto accident. Faced with an operation on her to save her life, he at last realizes his true affection and confesses that he is a fraud and not a fit surgeon to save the woman he loves.

The play is based on a story by Samuel Seff and Harvey Thew and while it carries a highly dramatic climax, is mixed with comedy and romance. Others in the cast include Allen Jenkins, David Landau, Henry O'Neill, Donald Meek, Renee Whitney, Walter Walker, Phillip Phil Plant, Phillip Faversham.

Other subjects include a comedy cartoon; Hodge Podge; screen snapshots—and Gift Night "Royal Princess Dinnertime."

CHIROPRACTIC
Is more than the art of adjusting. While adjusting is a necessary part of making a correction, it is relatively at least important. The matter of getter impingement is locating the subluxation and interpreting its effects. This requires exact and comprehensive knowledge of the structure and uses of the human body. Also the service of a pathoneurometer to determine which nerves or nerves is subjected to the greatest pressure. Then still in adjusting we more equips a chiropractor than the ability to hold a knife makes a surgeon.
H. R. AND VERA B. PITCHER
CHIROPRACTORS
(Pathoneurometer Service)
431½ Bridge St. E. Belleville, Ont. Phone 1274

HEPBURN'S NEXT?

"LELAND HAYWARD"

Name of Leland Hayward, New Yorker is mentioned in stories concerning the second husband-to-be of Katherine Hepburn actress in her latest film "Morning Glory" with Adolphe Menjou directed by Lowell Sherman. Gossip Smith becomes involved with Eva Lovelace (Miss Hepburn) when she tells him that Phil Plant, "ex" of Constance Bennett.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, MAY 9, 1934

PROBABILITIES
Moderate to fresh southwest winds, partly cloudy today and Thursday with a tendency toward higher temperature, light scattered showers, chiefly in western portion.

TEMPERATURES

	Max.	Min.
Today	62	40
Year ago	60	40

Weather—Cloudy.
Bay temperature, 56.

WINNIPEG POLICE RECOVER $3,000, ARREST 2

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Casper, Wyo., May 8—(CP)—Ralph Conroy of Casper made a new kind of birdie on the Casper Country Club house. Conroy, playing his first game of golf, drove 320 yards into a tree. The ball was found lodged in a bird's nest.

Oklahoma City, May 8—(CP) — Monroe Hinton explained in court how a grinding oil well sprinkled his full dress suit with oil, and why he wanted $50 damages from the oil company.

"What do you do with a full dress suit?" he was asked.

"Wear it to church," he replied.

"You mean you wear a stiff shirt and all that to church?"

"No," Hinton explained. "Miss's had a Sunday suit like you've got on, but it's full dress for me."

* * * * *

Torrington, Conn., May 9—(CP) —There is a new hitch-hiker on New England roads—Anthony Volentin's show dog.

The dog satisfies his yearning for travel by jumping on the running board of automobiles and trucks.

His latest trip took him to Great Barrington, Mass. on a fruit truck. He returned three days later on the same truck.

* * * * *

Cincinnati, May 5—(CP)— For want of a cooling place, 2,200 bar rels of beer were ordered dumped in a sewer.

The beer was made by a brewery, now in liquidation proceedings. With no money to operate the plant refrigerator, Judge Goodlin in bankruptcy received the dumping order from a federal judge.

The dumping means a loss of $15,000 in taxes to the government and $40,000 to the trade's creditors—and the cost of pouring out the beer is estimated at $400.

* * * * *

Marinette, Wis., May 9—(CP)— John Zeldberg 65, didn't want to be divorced, he says, wasn't.

"I don't want a divorce; I'm going to die pretty soon," he told County Judge Hall.

So the petition of Mrs. Minnie Zeldberg, 62, was dismissed.

* * * * *

Trumbull, Conn., May 5—(CP)— Mrs. Stephen F. Gotowski has learned why she couldn't find her brush of keys after she was thrown from her last fall in an accident.

The keys, rust-covered from weeks of exposure, were found high in the branches of a tree nearby.

* * * * *

Bartlesville, Okla., May 5—(CP) —"What a time we had in the old days!" M. V. Sanford, Washington County Agent, asked Jim Kingfisher, Osage Indian.

"Oh, I preach at Cherokee church near Dewey."

"Making much money?"

"Oh, about $50 a year."

"That's what I get—$1!"

"Yeah—and poor preach."

* * * * *

Hoopeston, Ill., May 9—(CP)— It was not until Carrier Walter Trego received 50 cents, the oldermen "too bits" each.

The penny-pinched their yearly salaries, fixed when the town was incorporated in 1871.

* * * * *

Hollywood, May 9—(CP)— Mae West says she's "through" with make—and she isn't the only one who "does a song and dance."

The actress received a letter from a teacher in Wake, Kas., telling of an article in a Canadian paper that was signed "Mae West."

Asked why the name, the pupil replied:

"Because I done 'em wrong".

* * * * *

Chicago, May 8—(AP)— Samuel Insull will be arraigned in federal court Friday, it was announced today, to be charged in the two federal cases against him.

The Insull utilities magnate, now in Cook County Jail will be brought to Judge Philip Sullivan and will hear himself charged with using the mails to defraud, in connection with the sale of stock in corporation securities, Inc., and with fraudulent acts violating the bankruptcy laws.

* * * * *

Fort Erie, Ont., May 9—(CP)— "If I find a trend on the side of leniency, a greater power than I will preside you, especially in case of this nature," Magistrate William T. Malkin told J. W. Taplay, railway fireman, acquitted of a charge of accepting money from the town of Fort Erie while carrying a salary with the railway company.

At conclusion of the long drawn out trial, the Magistrate said an existing doubt of intention to defraud would weigh in Taplay's favor.

Within Twenty Minutes Two Captured with Loot Taken from 'Peg Bank

Four Armed Men Lock Manager And Staff in Vault

QUICK CHASE

Portage Ave. Branch of Bank of Montreal Robbed Twice Before

Winnipeg, May 9. — Twenty minutes after a $3,000 bank robbery was committed here today, all the money had been recovered. Two of the four men sought in connection with the hold-up were taken into custody at Notre Dame and Arlington streets, a dozen blocks from the scene, by a police cruiser car.

The looted bank was the Bank of Montreal branch at the corner of Portage and Goulding streets.

The two captured men insisted they were the only two involved in the hold-up but eye witnesses said two others took part. The men, captured as they fled on foot after abandoning the car used in the hold-up, gave their names as Jack O'Brien of Regina, Ont., and Ernest Mellinchuk.

The bank manager and the entire staff of the bank were locked in the vault by the gunmen.

MACTEMPLE IS REMANDED

Alleged Slayer Outwardly Collected And Cool

St. Thomas, Ont., May 9 (CP) — Outwardly cool and collected, and with a ready smile for officers and while posing some comment to Inspector W. W. Dowsley, Joseph Mactemple, prisoner's box Frank Mactemple Miss Frank Temple, was arraigned before Magistrate C. P. Maxwell on a charge of murdering Constable Colin C. McGregor of the City Police force, in his Police Court today. He was remanded to the county jail for a week without pleading.

Crown Attorney Wood Haines stated, that in all likelihood at least one more remand will be necessary. He stated, that he desired to wait, until the inquest is completed. It was adjourned Tuesday morning, until Friday evening May 11.

The prisoner entered the Magistrate's chamber, that his surname is "Mac temple" not Temple.

In a calm voice he spelled the name slowly for the court. Small and under the Magistrate's desk a small "I" the prisoner replied:

DAIL SURPLUS OF MILLIONS

Surplus For Second Year Shows State's Position

Dublin, Irish Free State, May 8— A budget showing a surplus of 1,- 355,000 pounds (about $6,775,000) was presented to the Irish Dail today by Finance Minister Sean Lemass.

A surplus for the second successive year, the minister declared, is "convincing testimony of the soundness of the country's position."

Revenue of the Free State from duties on spirits reached 2,720,000 pounds, and income tax 270,000 ere that of the previous year.

SUSPENDED SENTENCE GIVEN

LONDON, Ont., May 9.—(CP)— Mildred Pinkford, 20, mother of a baby farm who was charged with abducting one of her little charges, was given suspended sentence in police court today and her license as a cancelled. The woman was found sane by doctors.

Celebrate Quarter Century in Filmland Actors Work Together Again in Film

Hollywood, Calif., May 9 (AP) — In the rear of a Chinese laundry at Eighth and Oliver Streets in Los Angeles 25 years ago today, one of the first motion pictures was filmed—a one-reel drama entitled "Power of the Sullan."

Edwin Bosworth played the hero and Stella Adams was the leading lady.

Celebrating this quarter of a century in filmland, Bosworth and Miss Adams today worked together again, this time for Columbia Studio in "Whom the Gods Destroy."

Although Bosworth has remained at the top of the film ranks; fate has not been so kind to Miss Adams, now middle-aged. She has the role of an extra.

350 QUEENS GRADUATES RECEIVE THEIR DEGREES

Honorary Degrees Conferred on Four Prominent Men.

Kingston, Ont., May 9. — More than 350 graduates of Queen's University received their degrees at the spring convocation here this afternoon, when honorary degrees were conferred on Dr. O. D. Skelton, under secretary of state for external affairs; John Blanke Plaskett, director of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory at Victoria, B.C.; Rev. William Robert Taylor of the University of Toronto and Rev. Dorland Noxon Morden of Walkerville.

Dr. Skelton replied for the recipients of the LL.D. and Rev. Dr. Taylor for the two receiving the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

The address to the graduates was made by W. W. B. Fyfe, principal of the university and vice-chancellor who conferred the degrees in the absence of the chancellor, James A. Richardson.

$100,000 BOND TO BE ARGUED

Judge Will Hear Petition To Reduce Insull Bail

Chicago, May 9 (AP)—Judge Will M. Sparks of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals granted a habeas corpus writ for Samuel Insull Sibil and ordered the prisoner to hear a petition at 9.30 a.m. tomorrow for reduction of the $200,000 bond.

The petition, signed by Insull himself in the county jail hospital, was presented by his attorneys Floyd E. Thompson, after another federal Judge had refused to act on formal motion to trim the heaviest bond ever required in a Chicago District Court.

Thompson said he would argue that $100,000 which Insull can furnish, was ample bond to assure his appearance for trial and that the higher sum was exorbitant and violated his constitutional rights.

DR. SHORTT NOMINATED

Charlottetown, May 9—(CP)— Rev. Dr. J. S. Shortt of Barrie, Ont., was nominated by the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island for Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, which opens in Toronto next month.

U. S. WHEAT PROSPECT LOW

Washington, May 8—(AP)—United States Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace declared today that from present weather indications the 1934 production of wheat in the United States might be as low as 450,000,000 bushels compared with the normal crop of more than 800,000,000.

NEW CITY HALL AT OTTAWA

Ottawa, May 9.—The long standing question of a City Hall for Ottawa may be settled shortly Prime Minister R. B. Bennett assured a civic delegation today.

GIVEN REFORMATORY TERM

Listowel, Ont., May 9—Pleading guilty to the theft of harness from the farm of Nicholas Sidder, of near Atwood, Arthur Wickie, 21, and Hubert Fleischauer, 18, were given reformatory terms of three months each, Magistrate J. L. Hamilton said yesterday. Charles Wickie, father of Arthur, was fined $10.00 and costs for receiving stolen goods.

GUILTY OF CONDUCTING LOTTERY

Hamilton, May 8.—(CP)—Pleading guilty to conducting a lottery, Gordon Johnson and Hugh Voyce, Hamilton, were fined $150 in Magistrate's court today.

AS INSULL RETURNED TO FACE EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGES

Here are two excellent photos of Samuel Insull, fallen Chicago utilities magnate, taken shortly after his arrival at Port Hancock, N.J., from Greece and just before he left by train for Chicago where the latest of his multimillionaire's faced charges in connection with the crash of his vast empire. On his first appearance in court he collapsed from a heart attack.

U.S. WILL BUY 1000 PLANES

"World's Finest Planes" Aim of Three Year Drive

Washington, May 9—The United States army put into a $7,000,000 aviation fund today, starting a three year drive to acquire 1,000 of the world's finest fighting planes."

From the office of Harry H. Woodring, assistant secretary of war, came a call for bids on a fleet of 80 huge bombing planes, a call which initiated the war department's policy of "stimulating" competitive bidding.

The call today for bids on the 80 bombers, to be delivered early in 1934, specifies that they be the "finest in the world."

MINING MAN FOUND SHOT

North York Coroner Believes Death Result of Suicide

Toronto, May 9.—A bullet wound in the head, the body of William N. Pitchett, vice-president of the Patricia Rouyn Exploration Company, was found in a car early today on Shepherd avenue, North York.

Police stated preliminary investigation indicated Pitchett could not have fired the fatal shot. They advanced the theory he had been slain elsewhere and the car driven to the avenue.

The air minister notified ships along the coast to search the channel but they reported they were unsuccessful.

The plane weighed ten tons and it was believed that if it fell into the channel, it would have sunk immediately.

PLANE DIVES INTO CHANNEL 6 FEARED DEAD

Wreckage Reported to Have Been Seen From Airplanes

SEARCH BEGUN

Occupants Are Four Frenchmen And Two Englishmen

Croydon, Eng., May 9.—Searchers in aeroplanes reported sighting the wreckage of the Air France passenger plane "Bregnet" floating in the channel eighteen miles west by north from Boulogne. Boats started out from Boulogne toward the wreckage. Six men are believed to have had their lives as the air liner disappeared.

Le Bourget, France, May 9.—Four Frenchmen and two Englishmen were believed killed today when an "Air France" tri-motor passenger plane disappeared on a flight across the English Channel between Dieppe France, and New Haven, England.

It was believed to have plunged into the channel, fifty miles wide at that point, sinking immediately.

The occupants of the plane were: Pilot Cannet, French; radio operator, Oller, French; Steward Hudson, English; Count Ernest de Neuville, French passenger; M. Guichard, French passenger; and A Mr. Trafford, English passenger.

The plane was sought on both sides of the channel by air and by sea, for several hours before hope was abandoned.

4 YEARS FOR RELIEF CLERK

Wilfred "Shorty" Quesnel Found Guilty of Forgery

SUDBURY, Ont., May 9.—(CP) Wilfred "Shorty" Quesnel 32, former Sudbury Relief Office clerk, was sentenced to four years in penitentiary for conspiracy and forgery by Mr. Justice Ralph Zamonsky, 27, to two and a half year for conspiracy and uttering, by Mr. Justice McFarland at the adjourned Spring Assizes here today. They were convicted by a jury yesterday afternoon after a lengthy trial.

Both prisoners broke down, when sentence was imposed. Zamonsky falling in his knees on the floor of the dock. Quesnel covered his face with his handkerchief, and his shoulders shook with emotion.

"You have been tried by the finest jury, that has ever come before me, or that I have sitated before," declared his self Zamonsky. To Quesnel he said, "You have been tried by an extraordinarily fair and just jury. Your trial has been very fair."

THE WEATHER

TORONTO, May 9.—(CP)—Synopsis—A moderate depression covers Manitoba and the Northwest States and a high pressure towards the Atlantic and Pacific Coast. The weather has been fair and comparatively cool from Southern Ontario eastward to the Maritime Provinces while light scattered showers have fallen in Northwestern Ontario, Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Georgian Bay—Moderate to fresh south and southwest winds; partly cloudy tonight and Thursday with scattered showers.

Northern Ontario — South and southwest winds; moderate; local showers; tonight and Thursday.

Upper St. Lawrence and Ottawa Valley—Moderate southwest winds; fair with a little higher temperature Thursday—Moderate to fresh southwest winds; mostly fair and a little warmer; probably scattered showers in more northern districts.

OPPOSES POOLING OF LINES

PARIS, May 9.—(AP)—General Victor Donalin, Minister of Aviation, declared today he was definitely opposed to the pooling of French and German Air Lines in a bid for South American Air Commerce.

Profits of $32,477,100 Made by Tobacco Firm, Growers' Prices are Cut

Overproduction Blamed by Gray Miller, Head of Company

GROWERS WARNED

Miller Claims Prices Stabilized to Prevent Chaos

Ottawa, May 9 (CP)—The Imperial Tobacco Company of Montreal during the last five years made profits of $32,477,100, added $2,- 748,000 to profits from its subsidiaries, paid $1,561,900 in salaries to six executives, and reduced prices to tobacco growers 50 per cent. it was shown today before the Parliamentary Mass Buying Committee.

Over-production was the cause of reduced prices, insisted Gray Miller, president of the company who was on the stand for another three hours today. He insisted his company had tried to induce tobacco farmers to reduce acreage. If lowered prices had been sought, he submitted, the logical course for his company would have been to secure increased, not reduced acreage.

"Can you tell me?" asked Herman Bennett, committee counsel.

"with all these accumulated stocks what has been being done to assist this country through the depression? Can you give me one single thing?"

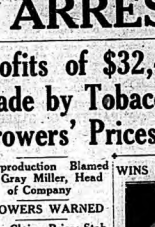
The Imperial Company, replied Mr. Miller had warned against over production, had maintained employment—although it admitted wages had been cut—and stabilized the retail trade so that growers did did not become chaotic as they did in the United States.

A flat denial that T. L. Lea had been sent to the Imperial Company by R. C. Harrison of the British American Tobacco Company, who has been charged with smashing fine cured tobacco prices in the United States, to induce the object here, was entered by Mr. Miller. Mr. Lea will later be heard later today.

Comparing cigarette prices in Canada and the United States, it was shown that nine cents was available to the United States for distribution among growers, manufacturers, jobbers and retailers while there was 11 cents in Canada. On a box of 25 cents, there was 13 2-10 cents for distribution in Canada where prices are lower.

When the president of the tobacco company, flanked with three or four lawyers took the stand the committee what common brands of cigarettes were sold in 1931, 1932 and 1934, Hon. H. H. Stevens, chairman, said it was "pathetic, really."

Apart from the drop in Federal excise taxes, the Imperial company decreased prices for cigarettes for Canadian consumers by five cent, reduction in raw tobacco prices, said Mr. Miller. He was unable to give figures but promised to secure them.



Ottawa, May 9.—With Gray Miller, president of the Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, again on the stand the House of Commons Committee on Mass Buying today sought further information on the plight of the workers of the large tobacco company. Yesterday it learned of the salaries of bonuses received by executives of the company and the effect on the heard of the company's profits and the growth of its capital structure.

Mr. Miller was asked by Mr. Mitchell to the suggestion the company had deliberately sought to depress the market for tobacco in the fall of 1931 in order to lower the prices. That was the year of the "panic" in the United States when Ontario tobacco producers when the prices dropped sharply and left the growers in a precarious and dire distress.

One reason for the late opening of the 1931 market, said Mr. Miller was the delay in the U. S. Buell, vice-president in charge of purchasing, told the committee that was the reason. Hon. H. H. Stevens, committee chairman, remarked the committee was "getting nowhere while Sam Factor (Liberal, Toronto West Centre) described them as "insulting to the intelligence of the committee."

Mr. Miller said his own salary was $25,000 a year and that in addition he had received yearly bonuses as follows: 1929, $45,446; 1930, $61,153; 1931, $40,419; 1932, $23,339; 1933, $40,- 467. Other executives received similar remuneration and the previous president, D. C. Paterson, now the chairman of the board, received a salary of $40,000 a year while head of the firm. Further the company had distributed 420,000 shares of stock at par value $14.50 a share to about twenty-five executives at $8.00 a share. They paid $23.50 a share from their bonuses and the company paid the other $2.00.

WINS MUSIC AWARD

PERCIVAL PRICE

His symphony "The St. Lawrence" turned down by the University of Toronto when submitted for degree of doctor of music. Percival Price sent the manuscript to New York, where it has won for him the Pulitzer prize for music. Mr. Price is cartilonneur of the Peace Tower at Ottawa and is formerly of Toronto.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL HELD AT SARNIA

SARNIA, Ont., May 9.—(CP)— Lambton County Music Festival was in full swing today with children's competitions featuring the pianoforte, violin and violin solos, action songs, and High and Sunday School choruses were heard. Tonight adult vocal contestants as well as junior choruses will take part. The Metropolitan choir of London will compete in the latter competitions. Many Western Ontario centres are represented in the competitions.

Coming Events

STRAIGHT EUCHRE AT SOUTH End Club rooms, Thursday, May 10th, 8 p.m. Eight prizes. Admission 25c. m9-11

REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING of Quinte Canoe Club with the Y.M.C.A. will be held in the Y.M.C.A. parlours, Thursday, May 10th, at 8 p.m. m8-11

MEETING OF ALL PERSONS interested in tennis at the bay of Quinte Country Club will be held on Friday evening, May 11th, at the Chamber of Commerce, at 8 p.m. All enthusiasts cordially invited.

GAY MEETING, THURLOW CONservative Association, Monday evening, May 14. Splendid entertainment provided. Hear message of our candidate J. F. Hill, M.P.P., and W. E. Ramsay, M.P. Everyone welcome. Refreshments.

HOLD EVERYTHING! FOR THE 25th of the season, Tuesday, May 22. Collegiate Auditorium. Grand Concert, Chorus and Symphony Orchestra. m7 9 12

MOOSE STRAIGHT EUCHRE. Thursday, May 10th, 8.30 sharp. Regular prizes. No dance. Admission 25c.

MOOSE SPECIAL DANCE THURSday, May 10th. Music by the Commodores. Ladies and gents door prize. Admission 50c. m7 9 10.

EUCHRE AND DANCE, ORANGE Hall, Foster Street, May 11th. Music by Cole's Komedy Kids. Admission 25c.

CARD PARTY, ST. GEORGES Club, Station Street, Thursday, 8.15 p.m. Admission 25 cents. Good prizes. Refreshments. m9-11

DANCE AT ST. JOHN'S HERCHImer Apt., Thursday, May 10th. Proceeds—Troubadors Orchestra. Admission 25c. m9-11

Destroying Grain Loading Devices Strikers Mown Down by Greek Guns

Athens, May 9 (AP)—Police and machine guns when the strikers attempted to destroy the new grain loading devices which have been installed, in the harbor.

The dockers were protesting against the construction of the modern devices, contending they would throw a number out of work.

The government immediately issued a communique saying the situation was serious.

Police and machine guns mown down strikers today killing six men and one woman during disturbances in Kalamata harbor.

An unidentified number of persons were injured.

Despite the police and military fire, the mob of strikers held their ground.

The bodies of the dead lay in the streets.

The authorities on the spot asked for additional soldiers.

City and District News

YOUTH KNOCKED DOWN BY CAR

Knocked from his bicycle when a car headed south on Front street, Tuesday afternoon, Donald Mabbitt, local youth, living at 561 Bridge street, east, received minor abrasions and bruises, while his machine was badly damaged. A settlement was made for the damage to the bicycle by Charles Linn, R.R. No. 3, Stirling, driver of the car.

HAND FRACTURED BY ROLLING BOULDER

Elmer Moffat, Marmora, sustained severe injuries in the left hand and right foot, when a large boulder fell, pinning him to the ground late yesterday afternoon. Mr. Moffat had been employed at the Standard Paving Company's quarry at Marmora and was in the act of moving a large stone, when another boulder rolled over, crushing his hand and foot. He was rushed to the office of Dr. J. J. Robertson, where after an X-ray of the injuries it was found, that three bones in his left hand had been crushed, while the wrist had been lacerated. The right foot was also badly crushed. The injured man was taken to the Belleville General Hospital for further treatment by Dr. Chas. Adams.

CATTLE ARE STRUCK BUT NOT INJURED

Coming suddenly upon a herd of cattle straying leisurely along the highway, Ernest Ellis, Trenton, was forced to drive his car into the ditch on highway No. 2, a few miles south of Thomasburg, early today. The automobile struck four of the animals before Mr. Palmateer could bring the machine to a full stop. No serious injuries are reported to have happened to the cattle although the car was somewhat damaged about the radiator. The driver reported the incident to the Provincial Police.

DIESEL ENGINES BEING OVERHAULED

Tugging idly at her mooring ropes at the government dock and with the waves of the harbor slapping her sides, the palatial Gooderham auxiliary yacht Oriole is at present being given the final touches of an extensive overhaul and repainting that has been carried on for the past few weeks. The boat will not be ready for the water for some time yet, however. According to Captain Strachan, local skipper of the boat, the Diesel engines with which she is powered, and sent to England last fall for repairs and overhaul, are being not arrived yet, and may be delayed until June. It has been expected, that the boat would leave Belleville for Toronto, at about the middle of the present month.

TRAFFIC LINES PAINTED ON STREETS

A midnight gang labored on the downtown section of the city until dawn this morning splashing white paint, in orderly rows and triangles, on the first of the traffic and car parking lines to be painted this season. By morning the nine men and a foreman, who started work at eleven o'clock the night before had a considerable area covered. It is expected by city engineer Chas. A. Mott, that at least two weeks will be necessary before the last of the guide lines are finished in the residential sections. The thickened paint used was affected from among ten other samples tried out in the city last year under actual working conditions. Strips of the paint were applied in some of heaviest used section of the street last fall and careful note was made of the test. One paint, it was found, stood up longer and better. This brand was specified for this year's painting.

FARMERS LOOK FOR GOOD GROWING RAIN

Farmers anxiously scanned the lowering clouds for rain today as the first few scattered drops of what promised to be a slow drenching fell early the part of the morning pattered and bounced upon the parched land and dusty roads. With seeding already completed all that is needed is a soaking rain to start germination in the ground. Although sullen clouds blotted the district during the fore part of the day, rain still held off. Temperature rose again today to a higher mark than that recorded on Tuesday. Registration of 83 degrees was taken just before noon. Low during the night was set at 40.

175 EMPLOYED ON JOBS FOR CITY

Under the direction of the city foreman, scattered gangs of men were still working throughout the city on sewer repairs, road patching and miscellaneous jobs. It was estimated by him that a total of 175 men were now being employed. On the Zwicky Island relief project the number had been cut to sixty men or less. It was expected by city foreman J. S. Henderson that the first work of concrete sidewalk patching would be commenced within a few days.

CADET CORPS OUT FOR SECOND PARADE

The Belleville Collegiate Cadet Corp made its second public showing Tuesday on their second parade of the season. The Corps is under the capable instruction of Mr. Howard, who, as lamal, is Cadet Instructor, and the other officers. The O.C. Cadet Corps is Reginald Jones, Jack Morgan, is Second-in-Command and Jim Zufelt, Douglas Print, Fred Sprague, and Gregory Dolan are the Company Commanders. The band under Mr. Hunter's able instruction, promises to attain an even higher standard of excellence, than it reached last year.

KINSMEN CLUBS TO HEAR PREMIER

Kinsmen Club members from Oshawa, Kingston, Cobourg, Belleville and Peterboro will gather at Peterboro on Thursday night, where they will be addressed by Premier George S. Henry. It is the intention of the local Club to send a large delegation to the Lift Lock City for the banquet.

Marcus Ward Stationery
Gentlemen's Club Size
60 Sheets
48 Envelopes
75c
McKeown's
DRUG STORE

Lavender Shaving Cream
Reg. 35c 25c
Lotion 39c
I. D. A. DRUG STORES

ASPARAGUS ROOTS
1 doz. ..... $ .25
25 for ..... .40
100 for 1.50
BISHOP'S
SEED STORE
m8-2t.

PAINTS
For Every Purpose
And For Any Purse
MARTIN-SENOUR
100% PURE PAINT
The guarantee of purity is on every can 1.25 Qt.
White and High Colors—1.35
C.V. PAINT
A first quality paint, made with pure materials and guaranteed.
95c Qt.
RICHMOND PAINT
A servicebase paint, made with pure linseed oil
69c Qt.
SMITH HARDWARE
PLUMBERS & TINSMITHS

PAPPAS Pays His Employees More than
Government Minimum Wage and keeps shops clean and their hours are fewer.
At The
Belmont Restaurant
HOURS for Girls are no more than EIGHT, while wages are Twenty-Five Cents an Hour.
This is what makes our SERVICE SUPERIOR and also explains our SANITARY METHODS
Careful choosing of foodstuffs
QUALITY AND FRESHNESS AND EXPERT COOKING is the reason so many people like to dine here.
Belmont Restaurant
229 FRONT STREET
Near Victoria Ave.

SEWING FOR RED CROSS

TYPICAL RED CROSS WORK ROOM

In Red Cross workrooms throughout Canada is carried on an important part of the Society's work — the sewing and knitting of articles to be distributed among the needy. In Belleville the activities of the work room, each year, are supervised by Mrs. Stuart Larler, vice-president of the local branch. With the co-operation of women's organizations in the city, and interested individuals, sixteen hundred articles were completed and given out last year. This is only one part of Red Cross work, for the maintenance of which the local Society is making an appeal this week. Will you assist with your donation?

Expression of Appreciation

In this our hour of trial from the fulness of my heart I most sincerely thank.

The members of the City Council and all City Officials and employees for their exceeding kindness.

The Clergymen of all the Churches in the City for their charitable prayers, their words of comfort and encouragement; and in this Group I include the Adjutant of the Salvation Army, whose message was so full of comfort.

The various Associations, Lodges and Service Clubs of the City, for their tributes of sympathy and evidences of brotherly love.

The Labor organizations, Relief workers, Federalism of Workers and all those groups and individuals associated with the local organization of distress.

The members of the various groups with whom my dearly beloved deceased wife, both in the Church and in her social life had been associated and who were so devoted to her during her trying illness.

The Hospital Board, Board of Health, the Hospital Staff and assistants, The Police Commission, Hydro Commission and Employees, The City and Provincial Police, the Chief and Members of the Fire Department, the Members of the Board of Education, the teachers and students of the various schools; the members of different Committees and Boards functioning in the City, The Ontario Intelligencer and staff, and the public generally, not only from Belleville, but from the surrounding district for their beautiful floral offerings, for their message of tenderness, for words of comfort, for the manifold consideration, sympathy and kindness of all those who in any way shared with the bereaved, the burden of their heavy cross.

In the name of one of the most considerate, gentle and lovable persons, which has ever been sealed in death, the family members join me in thanking you all and in praying, that God my abundantly bless you.

Geo. O. Tice.

FAIR BOARD FETES LADIES
First Venture Proves Decided Success And Most Enjoyable
Honoring their wives and lady friends, the Belleville Agricultural Society held a banquet at the Queen's Hotel last evening at which over 80 attended. President H. B. Cook was in the chair, master of chairman and kept the gathering in a humorous mood all evening.
Following the evening repast a splendid but snappy programme was the order of the evening Various toasts were presented with Ald. W. A. Woodley responding to the toast of Belleville in the absence of His Worship Mayor Tice. Mr. Geo. Catron responded to the toast to presidents of the Fair Board, while Mr. C. J. Symons, in his usual eloquent manner spoke for the local Parks Commission. The officials of the Fair Board in the form of Mr. Cook, W. Aselstine, A. G. Dafoe and R. H. Ketchesen. The guests of honor of the evening, "to the ladies" was proposed by J. W. Millen and was responded to by W. B. Reid. Mr. H. L. Ketchesen, representing the ladies' Committee, while Wm. Bamford spoke for the members of the board from Thurlow. President Cook, in a few short remarks, referred to the splendid progress of Belleville Fair in recent years, much of which was due to the efforts of the directors' wives, who were being honored last night. The chairman also introduced a humorous and novel method of getting acquainted. He also welcomed the ladies and board members to the banquet.
During the evening Aselstine's orchestra, of 12 pieces, delighted the large gathering with musical selections. Mr. Millen, local grain inspector for the Dominion Government, was present and spoke on seeds, while Mr. F. Webster, Picton, represented the provincial government. Mr. Webster is connected with the Agricultural Department of the Ontario Government.
Following the banquet the gathering enjoyed an evening of progressive euchre with Miss Helena Donovan winning the ladies' prize and Mr. C. J. Symons the gentlemen's prize. The venture was the first of its kind ever attempted by the board and was voted a success from every angle.

BRIDGE BILL APPROVED

OTTAWA, May 9.—(CP)— With minor amendments the Senate Divorce Bill of Private Bills passed the measure incorporating the Thousand Islands Bridge Co.

TONIGHT
ALL
Belleville Revue
1934
Collegiate AUDITORIUM
You'll Be Sorry
IF YOU MISS IT
Adults 50c Chil. 25c
(Including Tax)
All Proceeds to Y. M. C. A.

FRACTURES ANKLE IN HEAVY FALL

In a fall from a step ladder which he had been using in her home at 142 Foster Avenue, while engaged in housework yesterday, Mrs. J. A. Hall sustained a fractured ankle when it was reduced by Dr. G. H. Stobie. The patient is resting comfortably at present.

Special Offer
LADIES' HALF SOLES 50c
LEATHER OR RUBBER HEELS 25c
MEN'S HALF SOLES AND HEELS LEATHER OR RUBBER Stitched or Nailed $1.00
Work Called For and Delivered
PHONE 411J
TILBROOK
Belleville Shoe Hospital
Opp. Upper Bridge
m8-1m.

CONSTITUTION ACCEPTED BY LABOR MEN

Co-operative Workers of Belleville Association Is Now Formed

83 ARE PAID UP

Meeting Protest Welfare Board Returning to Voucher System

Flashing a new, green-covered book containing the constitution and bylaws of the newly formed Co-operative Workers' of Belleville Association, President, E. J. Baldrez, told a representative audience at the Y.M.O.A. rooms on the Bridge casion of the regular all-meeting last evening, that the change from the old labor association which he formerly headed to the new organization had been thorough and complete.

"From now on we work solely for the organization by which we are employed, and not, as heretofore, with the Welfare Board, which, in the past, has been responsible for the employment of the men we represent."

The new association has as its honorary presidents Mayor Geo. O. Tice, ex-Mayor Geo. A. Ketch, W. O. Ashley, K.C., H. Rowsome; Wm. E. Bobster; H. Smith; F. G. Deacon; W. B. Deacon; W. J. McMullen, chaplain and treasurer, and the Rev. J. F. Hunkeler, V.G., chaplain and secretary.

The three months' old monthly memberships have so far been accepted by the new organization, it was announced at the "Open Forum" at the meeting held last evening.

Two meetings will be held each month from now on except for one month, meeting on the 2nd, 3rd, on Tuesday night next. Following this meeting the rest will be held on the second night. In the permanent association hall, yet to be named.

Continuing further, the new organization will be a distinctive body in many ways by members. We must pledge their support to fellow members and to the principles of labor.

Article 5 of the new Constitution states: "That each member shall be levied in the sum of twenty cents, which must be kept up, or in default, shall forfeit all rights as recorded paid up members".

Article 10 "The Association, when sufficient members are enrolled, will ask representation on the Welfare Board, when 50 or more members being deemed sufficient".

Article 11 gives the organization "To bring to the attention of the proper authorities all by-laws by-functions of the Minimum Wage Act, and to endeavor to secure minimum wage scale for men".

Article 12: "To meet our civic fathers on matters of questions which may arise in committee, by electing three members from the first of April she has been confined to her room, gradually growing weaker. Her husband, and his aged father are left to mourn her loss, also one brother, William who resides in Alex, Alberta.

Her father, Mr. Isaac Daniel H. Pettit died about five years ago. Mrs. Backus was a member of many years ago. Mrs. Lake was a woman of sterling qualities and had many friends among whom she will be the

POLICE COURT

Frank Taylor, colored, and Georges Dalnard, Milford, appeared in the County Police Court held before Magistrate Casement in Belleville this morning, facing charges under the L.O.A. Dalnard pleaded not guilty to a charge of intoxication and immediately R. C. Donnan, K.C., local Crown Attorney abandoned that charge and laid a charge of illegally having intoxicating liquor in his possession. Dalnard again pleaded not guilty despite the fact a portion of a bottle of rubbing alcohol was found on his person, when he was arrested by Constables Edgerton and Wickett at 2:30 on Stirling. Evidence before the court in the case being the alcohol for external purposes only. He claimed to have received a drink of cider at his brother's residence north of Stirling, while he had previously consumed beer at Peterborough, too. When asked to tell the court, where he consumed the beer in Peterborough, Dalnard refused to "talk." He was held in custody until 3.00 p.m. this afternoon when the case will be continued.

To the Trade
We take pleasure in Announcing our appointment as District Wholesale Agents for "NEILSON'S ICE CREAMS"
Orders will receive our best attention.
CITIZENS' DAIRY
Phone 238
m8-2t.

Paying a Tribute to Mother!
McFee's...
Suggest Many Lovely GIFTS For "MOTHER'S DAY" SUNDAY MAY 13th
TABLE CENTRE, FLOWER HOLDER
Regge's silver plate. Appropriate card and bouquet. Complete 1.50
WHITE BEADED BAG
Silk lined, suitable for afternoon or evening wear. Exceptional Value
1.25
An Imitation Ivory Carved BEAD NECKLET
Very New
75c and 1.00
3 Lengths
STUD CARVED EARRING WITH CLIP BACK
All Colours
75c
"To the one who loves us when fortune's bright,
But more when sky's o'ercast,
Whose heart reveals, yet never conceals,
Our Mother! First and last."
GENUINE LEATHER OR CLOTH PURSES
For Spring or Summer
2.95 up
Sterling Silver Imitation or Ivory BRACELETS
From 1.00 up
Royal Albert — Royal Paragon CUPS AND SAUCERS
69c each
Beautifully Designed BIRTHSTONE RINGS
Very New
5.00 each
See the Many Other Gifts We Suggest in Our North Window
ANGUS McFEE
EST. 1860
WE BUY OLD GOLD

— OBITUARY —

LATE MRS. ANGUS LAKE

West Lake—Mrs. Angus Lake passed away at her home here on Friday morning. Mrs. Lake went to Florida early in the winter hoping to get relief from an affliction of the throat but the climate there was not favorable to her condition. Since her return the first of April she has been confined to gradually growing weaker. Her husband, and his aged father are left to mourn her loss, also one brother, William who resides in Alex, Alberta.

Her father, the late Daniel H. Pettit died about five years ago. Mrs. Backus was a member of many years ago. Mrs. Lake was a woman of sterling qualities and had many friends among whom she will be the greatly missed.

The funeral service which was held at the family residence on Monday afternoon at two o'clock, was largely attended. Her pastor, Rev. J. T. Sandwell officiated, assisted by Rev. C. Mullins of the Church and interment was made in Glenwood, Picton.

FLORAL TRIBUTES ...

In the list of floral tributes to the memory of the late Mrs. George O. Tice, a basket from neighbors of the deceased failed to retain the name of George F. Catrom, Mr. and Mrs. S. Joss and Mr. and Mrs. J. Backus Pen. In all of these names is sincerely regretted by the family, who omitted turning over the card when compiling the list.

AN EXTRAORDINARY ATTRACTION ---WITHOUT EQUAL HEARTS THAT BURN FOR WOMEN ON THE BURNING SANDS OF HELL!
Immense as the trackless desert! Deep as the starless night! Cruel as Satan! Tender as a baby's arms . . . this heart-wrenching drama of love that surpasses love . . . the love of man for man!
LIBERTY GIVES IT 4 STARS
NEW YORK NEWS 4 STARS
THE LOST PATROL
HEROIC! BLAZING! GLORIOUS!
IT'S GREAT BECAUSE IT'S REAL!
Victor McLaglen
Boris Karloff
Wallace Ford
Reginald Denny
THRILLS EVERY NERVE WITH ITS MARVELOUS EPIC OF COURAGE!
CAPITOL 3 DAYS BEGINNING TOMORROW "BESIDE" with Warren William Leaving Today

Tremendous!
TOPS EVERY MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT EVER MADE!
WONDER BAR
with Kay Francis • Al Jolson • Dick Powell • Dolores Del Rio • Ricardo Cortez • Guy Kibbee
BELLE Now...Ends Friday!
Daily at 2.30 - 7.10 - 9.10 — Feat. at 3.10 - 7.40 - 9.45

Henry J. Parliament Aged 90 Paid Honors on His Birthday

Launched First Sunday School in Victoria Community

BASKET OF ROSES

Mountain View, May 8.—Special—Over a hundred neighbors and friends gathered at the Sunday School rooms here on Monday evening, May 7th, to honor one of the oldest and most respected men, Mr. H. J. Parliament, on the occasion of his ninetieth birthday.

Mr. Arthur Parliament, superintendent of the Sunday School acted as Chairman for the evening.

The school opened the programme by singing "There'll be no Sorrow There" and "I am Happy."

Mr. Arthur Parliament spoke a few words extending his congratulations and thankfulness for having a man in their midst as willing and as helpful in all Church activities as Mr. Parliament.

Four little girls and boys sang very sweetly "Jesus me, This and I Know", Rev. J. D. P. Knox of Belleville, was the next speaker following birthday greetings. He said he had known Mr. Parliament a great number of years and had always found him a very true and loyal friend. He also brought to light that, "It isn't the years which we live that count in our lives but the events, and the impact that we make. Mr. Parliament he said had sowed the seed and borne his early life on the right road. Mr. Knox also told of how sixty-eight years ago, Mr. Parliament then a youthful school teacher started the first Sunday School in the Victoria Community. A few quilts from whom he now worships, also paid high tribute to Mr. H. J. Parliament making reference to her faithful help in church and home. Rev. Mr. Knox then quoted that beautiful poem "Oft in a Stilly Night" and upon conclusion presented Mr. Parliament with a beautiful book called "Bible Characters".

Five little girls accompanied by their teacher, Miss M. Mitchell rendered the two-part song "Sweet the Quiet Evening". Miss M. Mitchell sang a solo with Mrs. Ben Anderson at the piano "My Life on the Altar for Jesus" in her usual pleasing way.

Mr. Parliament was asked to come forward and the group of little girls children of the school gathered around in a circle singing "Happy Birthday," then Harry Burkitt presented him with Birthday Greetings from the school.

Miss Mitchell then made the presentation of a beautiful motto called "My Friend" by Edgar A. Guest, which was very appropriate because it was typical of Mr. Parliament. Before Mr. Parliament had time to respond, little Betty Keeble presented him with a beautiful basket of roses on behalf of the community.

Mr. Parliament said "I thank you all from the very bottom of my heart" and declared what he had done had always been guided by the hand of God. And that many years ago he took up his mind that for whatever purposes he was needed, with God's help he would respond. He spoke to the girls and boys to beware they got upon the right road and they would not go astray, but always follow that road which God intended. Mr. Parliament said he could enjoy a joke and a good laugh just as well at ninety years as he did when nineteen. He said "What would riches be compared with loyal friends". Certainly friends were the best.

And every year in the same month he goes to visit and speak to the Victoria Sunday school which he started nearly seventy years ago and of which he is one member and public self survive.

All joined together singing "Blest be the tie that binds".

Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served and a social half hour enjoyed, after which all departed switched by having such a friend as Mr. H. J. Parliament. Those present out of the community were Rev. J. D. P. Knox and family, Mr. Arthur Hubbs of Belleville, Mr. and Mrs. John Jacques of Consecon and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Jacques of Collingwood.

The pastor Rev. W. O. Fletcher of Amelisburg, was unable to be present.

GRAIN ADVANCE NOT FELT HERE

The sky rocket advance of grain prices on the Chicago Board of Trade on Monday had little effect on large stocks of grain held here by local produce men, it was reported by them today They look for the three cents jump in price of grain as just ordinary market trading, and expect that it will resume a more normal tone within a day or so. No rise in price had been effected today in this city.

ARE HONORED BY COMMUNITY

Mr. and Mr. R. Noyes are Tendered Farewell Party

On Monday evening, April 23, a large number of friends and neighbors assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Noyes, Trent Road, to bid them goodbye ere they moved to their new home at Wallbridge. Mrs. J. Doig read the address and Mr. F. Denyes and Mr. W. Vanderwoort presented Mr. and Mrs. Noyes with a hand-painted set of dishes. Mr. and Mrs. Noyes each made a feeling reply, thanking their friends and neighbors for their kindness. All wish them every prosperity in their new home. During the evening Miss L. Smith rendered a reading and Mr. J. Hall two vocal selections. Games and dancing were enjoyed until the wee sma' hours. Lunch was provided by Mr. N. E. Tice. A dainty lunch was then served.

Following is the address:

Dear Friends: On hearing of your intended removal from our midst, we as friends and neighbors have assembled in your home tonight to spend a farewell evening with you to convey to you our heartfelt and sincere sentiment of good will and to assure you, you carry with you the esteem, respect and, good wishes of the neighborhood. You have lived in our midst quite some time and in that time we have learned to know your worth and to esteem you most highly. We have always found you to be kind and true neighbors, ever ready and willing to aid and accommodate in every way those around, and we assure you we regret very much the removal from among us of such useful and liberal minded citizens as you have proved yourselves to be. And now we wish you, Mr. and Mrs. Noyes, to accept this set of dishes as a slight token of kindly feeling and goodwill for you from your friends. And we hope you may long be spared to enjoy life in your new home at Wallbridge.

We trust, though you are leaving our neighborhood, the ties of friendship you have formed at our meeting are ended here we may all meet in that blessed home beyond.

Signed on behalf of four many friends and neighbors — Mr. and Mrs. Doig, Denyes, Mr. and Mrs. Walter andervoort.

ALLISONVILLE PERSONAL NOTES

Allisonville—Mr. and Mrs. Keith Blackely and Miss Doris and Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Wright spent Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McHenry.

Mr and Mrs. M. B. Harnes of Belleville were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Haynes on Wednesday.

Mr. W. A. Hubbs visited his daughter Mrs. Loral Boyd on Thursday. B

Mr. and Mrs. George Huffman and Miss Margaret, Huffman motored to Wellington Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McHenry were in Belleville on Saturday.

Mr. Bibby and Mr. Haley spent a day recently in Thurlow.

Miss Lorna Phillips is visiting her grandmother Mrs. J. R. Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boyd, Belleville, spent Sunday with his mother Mrs. J. Boyd.

Miss B. Phillips of Wellington spent Sunday with her parents in Allisonville.

CARMEL BUDGBET OF DISTRICT NEWS

Carmel—The farmers are busy doing their spring seeding.

All are glad to see Mrs. Wanda Hubbs able to be out and around again.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker spent one evening at Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Dafoe's.

Quite a number from this line attended the funeral of the late Robert Hall in Plainfield on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. D. Cook is ill.

The group practice was held at Mr. H. F. Dafoe's.

Mrs. R. Hoxie is a patient in Belleville General Hospital.

Miss Estelle Grerow spent the week end at her home.

ENO'S 'FRUIT SALT'

for inner cleanliness —gentle, sure ... forms no habit

CA24

WESTERN U. S. DELUGED BY DUST STORMS

Snowplows have been placed into use in Iowa, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Minnesota and surrounding states as a result of terrific dust storms which have swept fine particles of dirt into huge drifts on the highways and farms. The dust also has been disastrous to stock, scores of cattle having died as result of eating dust-covered food. The photo show farmers plowing away the dust near Spencer, Ia., where the drifts were heavy.

Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario

Statement of Chairman Explaining the Principle That is Involved When Hydro Salary Information is Demanded in the Legislature

It is a matter of vital importance to the people of Ontario to preserve the status that the Hydro undertaking has always had, as a purely independent business enterprise, owned by the co-operating Hydro municipalities. Efforts recently made to have the Hydro-Electric Power Commission treated in the Legislature as though it were a department of the Provincial Government, would, if successful, have seriously undermined the independence of administration of the municipally-owned co-operatively owned electrical properties.

Specifically, individual members of the Provincial Legislature have on more than one occasion asked that information be supplied to the Legislature respecting the salaries paid to the executive heads of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission—a matter which, under the Power Commission Act, comes under the sole jurisdiction of the Commission as the trustee and administrator of the municipalities' electrical undertaking. The Chairman of the Commission has consistently refused to concede that any body other than the Association representing the owners—the municipalities—has a right to this information.

Speaking in the Legislature on March 29th, 1934, the Chairman took special pains to explain the principle that was governing the Commission in the position it had taken. One of the leading daily papers of the Province said that the Hydro Chairman's statement was one "which affects a principle undoubtedly become a keen Provincial issue and which is likely to be a basis of assault by Hydro critics . . ."

If, as is thus intimated, this important principle is to be one for further "assault" — then it is believed that the citizens of the Hydro municipalities, to the interests of retaining the administration of their Hydro investment of nearly $400,000,000 as an independent business enterprise, ought to take full cognizance of the real principles at stake in this matter, as set forth in the recent representations made to the Legislature.

The statement made in the Legislature by the Chairman of the Commission, on the 29th of March, 1934, is as follows:

Statement by Hon. J. R. Cooke

Chairman, Hydro-Electric Power Commission.

In dealing with the subject of salaries paid the Commissioners and executive heads of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, I trust the members of the Legislature will accord due consideration to the representation that a principle is involved which would be violated were the Commission to yield to the requests that have been made respecting salary details. I can assure you that there is no arbitrary desire to withhold information that is within the right of any member of this House to request. In very few words, I desire to explain the position the Hydro-Electric Power Commission takes in this matter.

The Commission is not a Government department, but has been constituted the administrator of an independent business undertaking owned by the co-operating Hydro municipalities. As trustee, the Commission has sole power to make its own appointments of officers and to determine their salaries. It should be remembered that the Commission's staffs are composed largely of persons trained in the highly specialized field of activity. The public utility field makes exceptional demands, and employees have not only directed their talents and energies to carrying on the work of this Hydro undertaking, but they have made it their life occupation.

The status of the Commission being what it is, the Commission would not be fulfilling its duties as trustee for municipalities if it were to give to individuals — even though they may be members of the Legislative Assembly—information such as it is appropriate to disclose only to the owners of the Hydro undertaking. The members of this Legislature do not regard the details of operation of municipal enterprises, such as water works, street railways, and other similar undertakings, as a proper subject matter for questions in this House. Members do not require regarding salaries paid by even the local municipal electrical distributing utilities, and yet the Commission's undertaking is virtually a part of these local undertakings conducted co-operatively by a trustee for the owner municipalities.

A year ago when the subject of Hydro salaries was raised and through political effort kept prominently before the public mind with the implication that the salaries were unjustifiably high and misstatements were being made respecting the amounts of the salaries, the Commission, in order to clear the public mind in the matter, published through the body representing the co-operating municipal electrical utilities the salaries of the Commission and of the executive staff. Having regard to the magnitude of the undertaking—one of the very largest in Canada—it was believed that the salaries are not only reasonable but substantially lower than those in most—if not all—organizations of a comparable magnitude in the public utility business under private ownership.

The Commission took even this course somewhat reluctantly. As a matter of general policy the Commission regards it as undesirable to make a practice of publishing the salaries of the staff. In this it is merely carrying out what is universally recognized by those in charge of large business undertakings, to be prudent business policy. It was felt, however, that there was no other way to correct the misrepresentation that was being disseminated.

The efficiency of the whole Hydro organization depends upon the maintenance of confidence, and this confidence includes confidence in judgment, in fair treatment, in insurance against undue disturbance and, of course, in the payment of remuneration adequate to bear the cost of living unharassed by curtailments or fears arising in respect of his employment.

In view of the action taken by the Commission having the salaries published through a proper organization, the information has been widely available through the public press so that it can no longer be simply knowledge of the facts that is sought, because this knowledge is available. One wonders, therefore, why this question is repeated on the Order Paper? Can it be that the object is to implant in the public mind the doctrine that the appointment of Hydro officials and their salaries is not under the jurisdiction of the Commission, but of the Government? The doctrine is absolutely out of harmony with any proper conception of the rights and functions of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission and of the municipalities for which it acts To yield to the demand that has been made would be to violate the basic principles underlying the Commission's administration, and for this reason I most respectfully decline to submit the salary information requested respecting the executive heads of the Commission's staff. There is no objection to giving data relating to the Commissioners themselves whose salaries are determined by the Lieutenant - Governor - in-Council These have previously been submitted to this House and to the municipalities, but for convenience I here repeat them for the present year as follows: Chairman $13,175.04, Vice-Chairman, $7,-875.08; Commissioner, $7,875.08.

I may add that last year, to order definitely to correct the misrepresentation being made about the salaries of executive heads, I gave instructions that, for this year, these salaries would be recorded in the Municipal Section of the forthcoming Annual Report.

INNOVATION IN DINING CAR SERVICE POPULAR

Montreal, May 9 — A la carte meals disappeared from the dining car menus on the Continental Limited, Canadian National Railways train between Montreal and Vancouver, and also on the Ocean Limited and the Maritime Express between Montreal and Halifax on May 1st, it was announced by W. W. Swinden, General Superintendent of Sleeping, Dining and Parlor Car Service of the Canadian National Railways. Commencing May 1st, all meals served on these trains were of the table d'hote variety — complete meals of the "plate service" type, separate prices for meat or cereal-day trends. There will also be special meals offered at lower prices for children under ten years of age. It is anticipated that the innovation will prove very popular and acceptable with the travelling public.

Breakfast rates in price from thirty-five cents to one dollar, luncheons from fifty cents to ninety cents and dinners from seventy-five cents to one dollar twenty-five cents, under the new plan, the menus shown on the menu cover the entire meal.

If it tastes unusually good

"It must be Canada Dry"

FAMILY SIZE . . . 20¢

12 OZ. SIZE 2 for 25¢ (plus deposit)

Try the family size of Canada Dry's Sparkling Water, too.

CANADA DRY PALE GINGER ALE

PREPARES FOR TRANSATLANTIC HOP TO LITHUANIA

Here is the Lituanica II, the transatlantic flight from Chicago to Kaunas, Lithuania, via Newfoundland. The plane is undergoing alterations in preparation for the flight. No date has been set for the take-off.

SPEED

SAFETY

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS

COMFORT

SERVICE

Quite Frankly, the Object of this Advertisement is to Stimulate Business.

The clouds of depression are gradually rising, and this movement towards better times can be speeded by a greater use of our railroads. In this you, the public of Canada, can help. The more you use the railroads, the more will be spent on wages and supplies, and,—so wide are the ramifications of this industry—every home in Canada will benefit. Besides, as a result of economical operation, you will receive unexcelled value for every dollar you spend.

So make your plans now for greater use of railroads, which were never before in a better position to serve you. For vacations, business trips, carriage of goods by express and freight, for telegraphs and transference of money, the railroads are your willing and efficient servants, not for part of the time only, when conditions are propitious, but all the year round. By rendering this continuous and essential service they deserve your patronage.

Do not think of railroads as transcontinental systems only. True, transcontinental business is important, very important, but the railroads are specially anxious to serve for short trips and on branch lines. You will find that for a surprisingly low expenditure you can go almost everywhere, be it near or far, in comfort and safety when you travel by rail.

CANADIAN NATIONAL

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Press, Belleville, Ontario, by Frank Ritchie.

W. E. MORTON, PUBLISHER.

WHAT RED CROSS DOES HERE

Support of the Red Cross campaign now in progress in the city should be generous for there is not only the wide field which the order covers but the local field, which is cultivated by women and others in the city. Belleville women last year made 1600 articles of clothing for the order, Junior Red Cross branches have been formed in the schools in Belleville as well as elsewhere, home nursing and nutrition classes were in operation here a year ago, and at Bancroft and Coe Hill we see the advantages of the work carried on in the Red Cross hospitals.

This is but a small section of the work which is undertaken in the name of the Red Cross, but is enough to show any person who thinks the necessity of the support of such an institution.

Do what the organization will and can, there is always more work to be done in the relief of suffering, in the lending of encouragement to those who are depressed. These are critical days for just the people the Red Cross is peculiarly fitted and prepared to reach.

The Belleville campaign should go over with generous support.

WAR ON STARLINGS

Starlings have made a host of enemies who are again preparing for war to the death on these birds which are steadily gaining a grip on the country and have settled themselves in this part of Canada for the entire year. Un-prepossessing in appearance but sturdy and rugged as well as shrewd and determined to carve out a big place in the bird world, they have aroused opposition from humans.

Jack Miner has said that starlings, has been a prime mover towards the destruction of these creatures because they are an unendurable nuisance and pest and yet no Ontario man might rightly go to the birds which make our birdland such a sweet element in the attractions of the province unless these birds have been charged with and allegedly proven guilty of destroying grain crops, fruits, eggs and young birds, especially of the robin family which attack the insect life which is so marked a foe of the crops and vegetation. Starlings are not protected by law.

This week it was recommended at a meeting of a special committee for the county of Welland that the Jack Miner trap be adopted extensively. Plans are going forward for united action all over the province against these birds which are so hardy as to be likely to overrun the country in large numbers in a few years unless checked. Jack Miner has said that for every one hundred birds he traps there fewer than a thousand come to their funeral.

There is no doubt that the only action which will count is a province wide united action. Five counties, Lincoln, Welland, Haldimand, Wentworth and Norfolk will join in the first war.

A stiff fight for the starlings. But they are shrewd and able to stand hardships and only a campaign to the death can check their progress.

The use of nets is practised at Beamsville with effect as the nets do not injure the birds and other birds are never caught when released while the starlings are kept for a worse fate.

As yet the starling has not become so great a nuisance here as he has in some of the sections where the fruit tempts these birds to gather by the thousands.

HONOR FOR CANADIAN

Canada must feel proud that her caricaturist has won the Pulitzer prize for a composition on the St. Lawrence River, work is a symphony remarkable for the fact that Toronto University refused it when it was submitted by its composer, Mr. Percival Price, for a doctor's degree in music.

So the mighty river, one of the outstanding features of Canada, has become a part of her music. This is the very thing which Canada as a nation needs, the artist to express the moods of nature and of the people in Canada. Then with these achievements Canada will have by winning her place in art become a fully-fledged nation. True greatness cannot possibly exist without its reflection in great art.

It is an established fact that Canadian art has made an impression which has considerable of the national impulse behind it. Painting and music are both in this class and in the field of literature possibly Canadians have not measured up to the status of painting for instance. It may be because poetry, the novel, the essay and the drama, are the most difficult of the forms in which to express a nation's life and motives or it may be that our writers do not receive the incentive and remuneration to warrant their taking the chance of making a financial failure of life to win a poet's or writer's doubtful laurel wreath.

Canada must pay, art cannot grow up forever in poverty and least of all can the literary art for there must be some encouragement. Canadian writers, painters and musicians have given much for Canada in the endeavour to find apt expression of the Canadian spirit but the poets and their writers must not always go in rags.

Mr. Price's success as the composer who has been awarded the highest crown for talent in music in America will thrill musicians and persons interested in the other arts to do more than ever on behalf of their chosen vehicle of expression.

Mr. Price's story is the story of a boy who received his first lessons from his mother and who was a lover of music from his earliest years. He as a child would run to the piano with his soiled hands to play. In 1919 he worked his way to England by peeling potatoes and then spent the summer haunting the halls of music in the Old Land. He was sent to study journalism but he was found to be spending most of his time at music and the course was dropped. He became cashier-manager in Toronto and then at Ottawa where he is now located.

SIDELIGHTS

TOMORROW

Tomorrow is a siren
Who sings with hope's own voice,
And bids you, putting pain aside
For thoughts of her, rejoice!

Tomorrow is the fairest
Of all time's wayward brood.
Days may be false, days may be true;
This day is ever good!

So why look back with sorrow
To dark days, past and done?
Tomorrow's but one night away,
And shining like the sun!

Take heart of cheer, you weary,
Who cower in defeat;
Look up, tomorrow is so near,
You hear its dancing feet!

You may be stripped and starving,
You may be old and poor;
But all tomorrow's golden store
Will wait you at your door.

—Aline Michaelis.

x x x x

OVER THE AIR SATURDAY came many interesting facts relating to the Kentucky Derby. Mati Hari, fractious filly, kept the horses fidgeting at post for over eight minutes and the announcers had to keep on talking to fill in the gap. One curious feature of the Kentucky Derby is that it generally runs hard. That filly which encourages hundreds of pickpockets and petty thieves to attend in anticipation of profitable pickings in close packed crowds driven under cover by the elements. Hundreds of detectives are engaged in the crowd and every eye every suspect is placed in the old church used as a jail across the way from the track. This calaboose has a capacity of five hundred and is usually well filled. Churchill Downs track, a replica of the famous English race track, is situated just outside Louisville. Derby Day at the Derby Day folks start to move out to the track with the dawn. There is a saying in Louisville that those who fail to start for the track Derby Day before noon fail to arrive there the same day, so great is the traffic congestion. The race is one mile and a quarter, and is essentially the prerogative of the male sex, for only one filly has ever captured the race. The owner of Cavalada, this year's winner, being a woman, of course, rather evens things up. Fifty thousand spectators crowded the stands and enclosures.

x x x x

CLARK GABLE, matinee idol of the movies, is getting considerable publicity for his alleged purchase of $18,000 in the winter books on Riskulus, Kentucky Derby, entry, scratched at the last moment. If he placed the money as alleged he stood to win $1,800,000 in the event of Riskulus winning. As it was he lost his bet, and is just $18,000 shy as the result of his gamble, proving the facts are as stated.

x x x x

STREET GOSSIP always runs away ahead of the actual news. Belleville curb news merchants have had Dillinger captured every day for a week now. Discounting the news thataway makes certain of always having a scoop.

x x x x

"LIVE CHICKENS UNDER A DEAD HEN," a heading over a letter on religious subjects in Saturday's Toronto Globe, intimates that there is some repair work to be done by the Protestant churches before they can be rated 100 per cent. efficient as guides to the Kingdom of God on earth. The letter referred to the work of Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist, who always urged the converts in his meetings to unite with some church. One day, so it is said, he met with a rebuke. In his question box an enquirer said: "Would you place live chickens under a dead hen?" After that, the story goes, Moody tried to qualify his instruction to new converts about joining old churches where the connection could not spiritually profit them. "Pastors without a message should take this to heart," said the correspondent.

Dairymen are Challenged to Save Great Industry

Plainly concerned over the falling production in the cheese industry throughout the country, and faced this year with conditions which will probably make for the lowest production on record, Joseph Burgess, Chief Dairy Produce Grader for the Dominion, pointed to the fact that "to make up for the lack of production this year cheesemakers and individual producers somehow must be spurred on to get the market."

Mr. Burgess stopped for a brief visit in Belleville yesterday afternoon on his way through to the west where a first hand examination of conditions in that area will be made. He paid his respects to the local office presided over by Mr. James E. Irwin, dairy produce grader for this central district.

"Salvation of the industry and ultimate recovery must depend upon the efforts of individual cheesemakers and factories in each area," he said in an exclusive interview granted the Daily Ontario Intelligencer. "At present we are down 16,000 boxes over the corresponding period of one year ago, on winter make.

"Just now the industry as a whole doesn't look too bright. With the noticeable shortage of feed all thru the country at the present time, and the condition of dairy cattle all over, the season will be a poor one. These be minded, we must get some good rousing rains and plenty of them to sprout the grass for grazing. It's the same all over the country, but there will probably being given a slight edge."

There is no opposition to the new regulation of the Dominion Department stamping of cheese, he said. Under the legislation recently put into force all makers must stamp the date number of the day of manufacture.

"That regulation was considered for a long time before it was finally put into effect. For years we have been received representations from abroad concerning it, and it is now in force to protect confederation that it was finally adopted. Exporters are in trouble without it," he explained.

"There is no other solution for the recovery of the industry than hard work on the part of all connected with it," he declared, "as the answer to a question. This year, however, dairymen has held the production greatly in all sections. Making, to protect the back end, they will probably concentrate to a greater degree on cheese."

C. P. Linn, dairy instructor at Belleville, at the local office reported to his chief that the situation was just the same in Stirling district as on Tuesday morning. The majority of factories are open, but the make of cheese is small, and confined for the most part to one or two days a week in factory. "There is hardly a bit of cheese down in the district, either," he added.

"How is the cheese?" asked Mr. Burgess. "That used to be a sweet clover cheese."

"It used to be, but it has died out like the alsike cheese. The alsike clover that it spoiled the land, they don't grow it any more," Mr. Linn.

"Good fred, too," commented Mr. Burgess.

Before returning to Ottawa, the Chief Grader will meet the graders of the various districts during his trip of examination.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

MAY 8TH. 1914.

The Belleville Old Boys of Toronto held a meeting at the residence of St. George's Hall in that city last night. Mr. W. S. Morden, K.C., is president of the Association. The annual excursion to Belleville will be on June 18th.

Rev. Dr. Baker, principal of Albert College, will be the preacher at the anniversary services in the Bridge St. Church in Grafton Hope on Sunday.

A Kingston driver rounded the iron bar yesterday in the vicinity of Dead Man's Bay which bore the name of the same. The horse is thought to have been dropped by one of the first vessels which sailed the river after the British took possession of Canada.

Belleville market prices: Butter 25 cents to 27 cents; eggs per dozen; geese 22 cents to 24 cents per dozen; dressed chickens $1.00 to $1.25 per pair; all garden stuffs such as lettuce, radishes, beets and green onions are now offered for sale and are readily disposed of.

30 YEARS AGO

MAY 8TH. 1904.

At a meeting of the Belleville Cheese Board the following officials were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. Jas. Anderson; 1st vice-dent, Mr. Thos. Ketcheson; second vice president, Mr. J. S. Deacon; auditor, Mr. J. Fairfield; auditors, Mr. J. S. Dench and Mr. W. C. Farley.

Mr. H. Wilson, Mr. Jas. Wilson of Napanee were in the city yesterday the guests of Mr. Dy. Crothers.

In a football match between teams representing the 15th. Regiment and the O.B.C. the score was a tie being 1 to 1. Mr. W. A. G. Hardy was referee and his decisions were impartial. Following are the names of the players: Fifteenth Regiment — Burke, Conger, Hayes, Kennedy, Hamilton, Trundle, Thompson, Acton, Dean, Munce, Hough.

O.B.C.—McCurdy, Fitzgerald, McCallum, Rollins, Skinner, Henning, Hicks, Cook, Minchinton, Lanigan, Gunn.

40 YEARS AGO

MAY 8TH. 1894.

A new front is being put in the Syndicate Store on Front street.

It is tough work driving saw logs this year. If rain does not come soon there are some of them will be tied up.

The football players will compose the city football team in a match to be played between the Ont. D. & D. Institute team: Hardy, goal; Marsh and Jamieson, full backs; Weller, Armond, Twining, half backs; Nash, McCaffrey, Jennings, Bogart and Kelso forwards.

Mr. J. J. Butler of Deseronto is in the city on business today.

Mr. John J. Burns of Toronto, has sold his handsome fast trotting mare, "Clara K" to Moore Bros. of Ottawa for $2,000.00. This horse was formerly owned by Mr. Jas. Ketcheson of this city. Mr. Burns feels confident that he could have given the mare a mark of 2.15 this summer.

50 YEARS AGO

MAY 8TH. 1884.

Mr. W. J. Mitchell will leave Belleville in a few months' visit to England. We wish him bon voyage.

Mr. parlor social in aid of Christ Church organ fund was held last evening at the residence of Mr. W. H. Carmichael and was a great success in every way.

A meeting of the commercial travellers residing in Belleville will be held shortly to consider the question of the local income tax.

Mr. Geo. E. Henderson, Q.C., has been appointed County Crown Attorney and Clerk of the County of Hastings. Mr. Henderson is well qualified to fill this responsible position.

ENJOYABLE EUCHRE AT MARMORA S. S.

Marmora—Mrs. M. McGrath, who has been spending the winter months in Cochrane returned home on Wednesday.

Mrs. McWilliams was called home to Port Colborne on Wednesday owing to the illness of her father.

Mrs. William Pisner of Port Williams is visiting relatives here for a few days.

Another enjoyable euchre and bridge party was held in the Separate School Hall on Wednesday evening. Mrs. E. Deacon was the winner of the ladies' bridge prize, and Mr. Joe Murray, the gentlemans. Mrs. T. Warren the ladies' euchre and Mr. Doran the gentlemans. A dainty lunch was served at midnight after which dancing was indulged in a couple of hours. Music was supplied by Miss Nina Boyle, cornet and Charles Campion.

Miss Jean Gladney was in Toronto on Wednesday.

Miss M. Sprague of Frankford spent Sunday at the home of Dr. Lumsden.

The many friends of little Miss Betty Pritchard who is ill will be pleased to learn that her condition is much improved.

Miss Vivian Woodhouse spent Thursday in Belleville.

Mrs. Frank Grant and daughters, Betty and Lois who have been visiting in Sault Ste. Marie for the past six weeks have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Thompson of New York City, accompanied by Mrs. Lyons of Ottawa and daughter, Rosemary, are guests of Mrs. E. Feeney.

MOTHERHOOD JOYS GREATER THAN TRIALS

The Arrival of Baby Arouses Tender Emotions —Never Experienced Before

By Lydia A. Bisch, M.D., Ph.D.
Famous Authority on Health and Psychology.

(Copyright 1935, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Despite the modern tendency of married women to shun motherhood the fulfillment of this biological urge on th epart of a woman still fields the greatest thrill that it is possible for her to get.

The maternal instinct in a woman does not always reveal itself until the baby is actually born. This is especially true as regards the paternal instinct in man.

But when that long-awaited little male finally arrives and its parents hear its first cry, few are the hearts that do not melt with tenderness and seldom, if ever, do not both father and mother feel a rousing and stirring of emotion within such as has never before been experienced.

Therefore you, the prospective mother, should be happy and proud that you are going to live long enough to have a child. Glory in motherhood.

Don't sit and wonder or brood. Be alert and active and optimistic. Surround yourself with the friends of a competent physician, you can trust at once and as you keep your appointments when he tells you to. Follow his rules, and you follow his advice.

You have to be engaged in an occupation that requires physical exertion it is safest to avoid. Such occupations as Factory Work, prolonged standing and constant stooping especially during the first four months.

Try to interrupt your work with periods of rest and relaxation. If you are highly mental, try if possible to vary it with a keep your viewpoint bright and cheerful.

Eat anything you fancy so long as you have a rational and balanced diet. You need proteins in the eggs, meat, vegetables, vegetables such as peas and beans, etc). Starches, such as potatoes, and sugars (the so-called carbohydrates). Fats should be added to the diet. Be sure to include the mineral producing foods such as spinach, one those vitamins you hear so much about these days which are to be found in vegetables and fats grown in the sun, and in the cooking—butter at all meals.

But, although you may eat as much as you please, do not overeat. You are eating for two. Keep the bowels in proper working order.

If your daily routine does not call for walking, be sure to take a walk at least once a day in the fresh air; bask in the sun all you like.

Do not make advance you will find the most restful way of lying down is that in which the hips and the knees are flexed.

Be careful about compressing the abdomen. Wear clothes that support but should never be constricted at any point.

Lastly, do not neglect amusements and pleasing diversion.

Get every relaxation you can being sensitive about being seen in company or out of doors.

Bear in mind that when you are taking the best of care of yourself you are not being selfish. You are at the same time taking care of your precious baby.

POLITICAL LEADER — BENNY'S HOPE

BENNY LEONARD

Showing the same confidence in his political acumen he has displayed in his ring ability when world's lightweight champion, Benny Leonard plans to seek the political leadership of the Ninth alderman district in New York. Here's Benny looking over a sheaf of telegrams wishing him good luck in his venture.

ATTEND FUNERAL OF ACCIDENT VICTIM

Queenboro —Rev. W. Merrick and Mrs. Merrick of Camilton spent Monday afternoon at the parsonage and called on a number of friends in the village.

Tanner—In Tweed Hospital on Monday, April 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Tanner, a son.

A number from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Alexander Storr on Wednesday.

Mrs Audrey Pilchet and Miss Marion Love were guests of Miss Jennie Thompson on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. M. Burris spent the past week with her daughter Mrs. Cyril Burris of Madoc.

Mrs. Clemens of Delora was the guest of her daughter Mrs. Ralph Franklin on Friday.

Mr. Calvin Tanner spent Sunday afternoon in Tweed.

Madoc—At Queensboro on Friday May 4th to Mr. and Mrs. Clayton McMurray, a son.

Mr. Tom Blaind of Belleville is visiting at the home of his uncle, Mr. Irvine Delpra.

The funeral of the late Geo. Lennone aged 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Lennone of Actinolite who was killed by a charge of dynamite on Wednesday while working on the highway near Marmora was held here at the R. C. Church on Friday morning.

Miss Margaret Delpra who has been attending the normal school in Trenton has returned to her home.

Misses Hilda and Verna Holmes of Hemington spent Friday with Mrs. Percy Lyons.

Mr. Ronald Caley of Belleville Collegiate spent the week end at his home.

The Y.P.S. met in the church on Tuesday evening with an attendance of 42. Miss Bonter, presidentess was in charge. After the devotional part of the meeting Mr. E. W. Caley gave the topic on Christianity. Marion Alexander and Joan Caley gave readings about children of other lands. Mr. Bruce Leslie gave a solo. An interesting contest followed and the meeting was closed by singing a hymn and prayer.

Mrs. Fair and Miss Norma Fair of Madoc were visitors at the parsonage this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Groves are spending a few days with friends in Trenton.

Miss Jennie Thompson spent the week end in Belleville.

Mr. Jack Caley spent last week end at Plainfield.

Mrs. M. Dyer spent Friday in Madoc the guest of her sister Mrs. R. Choate.

Rev. and Mrs. Mullin of Redmerville were guests at the parsonage on Monday afternoon.

Miss Kathleen Dyer is visiting her mother in Ormsom.

Rev. Edwards of Plinton took the service at the United Church on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Rourke were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Rourke at Frankford.

The services on Mother's day will be taken by Mrs. (Rev.) E. W Caley.

Dr. Bisch's Daily Diet Hint

Prunes are good for children, but often a child is irritable, they would likely not be the case were prunes properly prepared. The dried prunes should cook slowly in water for this more than an hour, and until they become soft. Only after prunes are cooking should sugar be added. Then they should not be served until another twenty-four hours

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

By R. J. Scott

Copyright, 1935, by Central Press Association, Inc.

MOTHERHOOD JOYS GREATER THAN TRIALS

The Arrival of Baby Arouses Tender Emotions —Never Experienced Before

By Lydia A. Bisch, M.D., Ph.D.
Famous Authority on Health and Psychology.

(Copyright 1935, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Despite the modern tendency of married women to shun motherhood the fulfillment of this biological urge on th epart of a woman still fields the greatest thrill that it is possible for her to get.

The maternal instinct in a woman does not always reveal itself until the baby is actually born. This is especially true as regards the paternal instinct in man.

But when that long-awaited little male finally arrives and its parents hear its first cry, few are the hearts that do not melt with tenderness and seldom, if ever, do not both father and mother feel a rousing and stirring of emotion within such as has never before been experienced.

Therefore you, the prospective mother, should be happy and proud that you are going to live long enough to have a child. Glory in motherhood.

Don't sit and wonder or brood. Be alert and active and optimistic. Surround yourself with the friends of a competent physician, you can trust at once and as you keep your appointments when he tells you to. Follow his rules, and you follow his advice.

You have to be engaged in an occupation that requires physical exertion it is safest to avoid. Such occupations as Factory Work, prolonged standing and constant stooping especially during the first four months.

Try to interrupt your work with periods of rest and relaxation. If you are highly mental, try if possible to vary it with a keep your viewpoint bright and cheerful.

Eat anything you fancy so long as you have a rational and balanced diet. You need proteins in the eggs, meat, vegetables, vegetables such as peas and beans, etc). Starches, such as potatoes, and sugars (the so-called carbohydrates). Fats should be added to the diet. Be sure to include the mineral producing foods such as spinach, one those vitamins you hear so much about these days which are to be found in vegetables and fats grown in the sun, and in the cooking—butter at all meals.

But, although you may eat as much as you please, do not overeat. You are eating for two. Keep the bowels in proper working order.

If your daily routine does not call for walking, be sure to take a walk at least once a day in the fresh air; bask in the sun all you like.

Do not make advance you will find the most restful way of lying down is that in which the hips and the knees are flexed.

Be careful about compressing the abdomen. Wear clothes that support but should never be constricted at any point.

Lastly, do not neglect amusements and pleasing diversion.

Get every relaxation you can being sensitive about being seen in company or out of doors.

Bear in mind that when you are taking the best of care of yourself you are not being selfish. You are at the same time taking care of your precious baby.

Alleged Murderer Taken at Point of Revolver after Three Day Chase

Fred Temple, Heavily Manacled Brought to St. Thomas Jail

HAND IS WOUNDED

Covered Only 30 Miles Since Time of Flight

St. Thomas, Ont., May 9.—Frank Temple, 50-year-old farmer charged with shooting and fatally wounding a policeman, was captured early today at West Lorne, about forty hours after he fled his home here following a pistol fight with three officers in the second shooting affray on charge of bicycle theft.

Temple, whose pistol fire allegedly caused the death of Colin McGregor, youngest policeman on the St. Thomas force, wounded another officer and his own son, Fred, was taken at the home of a friend, Richard Carnegie, West Lorne antique dealer.

Twenty-five officers of the St. Thomas, Ontario Provincial and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police forces had chased him through hundreds of swamp and dense brush land to Carnegie's house. Temple appeared not to realize his refuge was known. Officers signalled to Carnegie and the man quickly overpowered him as the officers rushed in.

He was unable to resist or draw the .32 calibre revolver found in his pocket. The pistol contained its six chambers three exploded cartridges and two live ones.

Apparently unconcerned and still unrepentant, Temple was brought back by automobile, heavily manacled. He was suffering from a wound in his right hand, suffered, police believed, when he resisted arrest with a storm of bullets that enabled him to dart through the back door of his home and remain free for 40 hours.

Doctor Dresses Wound.

In police headquarters this morning Temple sat waiting for a doctor to dress his wounded hand. He was unconmunicative about his wanderings, but revealed he had spent the first night of his flight only half a block from his own home, sleeping in a fowl house.

While he rested there the police scoured the territory for miles, stopping passing motorists, searching trains and lake boats as far west as Port Stanley.

From the time of the fight until he was captured the man had covered only about thirty miles. Officers said they believed he had spent most of his time under cover, making his flight slowly and cautiously.

For forty hours he fled with his wounded hand, fearing to draw police upon him if he sought to have it tended.

Sometime he appeared to have obtained food. He was in good condition when brought here. Officers asked him how he ate while he was a fugitive and he answered gruffly, "How do you suppose?" He seemed unconcerned by the fact he will go to gaol today before Magistrate C. F. Maxwell for preliminary hearing on a charge of murder.

Hit With Notched Bullet.

Police said Temple had vowed he would not be taken for bicycle theft and that he would shoot the first officer who appeared for him. McGregor, it was found yesterday, had been shot with a notched bullet, calculated to inflict the greatest possible injury.

Temple is a lanky built man, apparently capable of considerable strength. His attitude towards his arrest officers described as "inhuman". One policeman said: "He's not a crazy about anything."

His answers to questions caused police to describe him as a "smart Aleck".

Temple's capture, affected under leadership of Inspector T. W. Greene of the London division of the provincial police, came about eight hours after a boy saw him in the highway of Malcolm McNeil's barn, near Dutton. There a 16-year-old farm hand named McLellan, said he pointed the gun with a pitchfork as he was pitching hay.

The boy's story caused officers to concentrate near McNeil's home. They saw a man slip into the bushes at the edge of a four-mile stretch of swamp and pursued him. He beat them across the swamp and took refuge at Carnegie's house, apparently thinking he had outdistanced his pursuers.

Admitted Being in Mow.

After his arrest Temple admitted he was the man the boy had seen.

Temple apparently sought aid from Carnegie because he and the antique dealer were neighbors in the past when Temple and his family lived at West Lorne.

Police here are holding all members of Temple's family who were at home during the shooting as material witnesses in the trial. Fred Temple, son, is under arrest in hospital, charged with bicycle theft and assault on Constable Colin McGregor, son. Frank Jr., is charged with the same offence. Police claimed Fred sought to help his father escape after the shooting.

Temple's wife and daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Archer, were questioned at length by police here today.

HOME TO ENGLAND

Paymaster Commander G. A. Toole, O.B.E., R.N., photographed just before he left Montreal for England in the "Auconia" after having been served with the Canadian navy for some time and is now going home to England.

POLISH DEAD ARE HONORED

Niagara-on-The-Lake is Scene of Impressive Rites

Niagara-on-the-Lake, May 9.—On Sunday the graves of the twenty-five Polish soldiers, members of the Polish Legion, who died of flu at Niagara camp while training with thousands of compatriots for overseas service with the Allies were decorated at the annual gathering "here at hallowed ds of Canadian and American Polish citizens.

The twenty-five graves, surmounts by a general monument, lie in ancient St. Vincent de Paul's Cemetery, to what is known as the Polish plot. The memorial service was held a month earlier this year in order that General Josef Haller, commander of the Polish Legion in France, who has just finished a tour of the United States, might be present.

The service was conducted by Rev. Jan Dekowski, who served as chaplain in the Polish Army, and field Mass was conducted before an altar erected among the Polish soldiers' graves. Rev. Monsignor Pitass of Buffalo preached the memorial service.

Mayor Gairdner and other leading citizens were present, among them Mrs. Elizabeth Archer, whose kindly services on behalf of the Polish soldiers during their training in camp here and since will never be forgotten by them.

Mayor Gairdner gave a brief address during the ceremonies. In extending a welcome to the Polish people present to the old town of Niagara-on-the-Lake, he said their Church, under which these annual gatherings are held, set an example to the other Churches in loyalty to a splendid cause. Though it was a military gathering in a sense, at the same time the parrtock almost entirely of a religious.

"The Churches of other nations might well emulate your fine example," said the mayor.

$20,000 FIRE LOSS

Barrie, Ont., May 9.—(CP)—The Coal and Builders' Supply warehouse here was in ruins today, razed by what police believe may prove to be an incendiary blaze. Only a concrete wall remained of the warehouse, owned by J. G. Scott and situated on the Bay front.

Damage was placed at $20,000 in coal, cement, wood, lime and tile and three trucks being lost in the blaze. Company officials said the loss was partially covered by insurance.

M. F. HEPBURN IS SCORED BY MR. MACAULAY

Claims Liberal Leader Is Conducting a Mud Slinging Campaign

GIVE ENQUIRY

Willing "Toll Gate" System Charge Be Aired in Committee

Toronto, May 9 (CP)—If Mitchell Hepburn, Ontario Liberal leader, can produce "anything sordid and sufficient importance to warrant an inquiry" the government will give him a hearing on the charges against the Ontario Liquor Commission. Premier George S. Henry gives this assurance to the Liberal leader who has charged overlords of a "toll gate system" in the liquor commission.

In his campaign speeches for the Ontario general elections, Mr. Hepburn has claimed British distillers have expended large sums through agents before being able to place their liquor with the Ontario Liquor Commission. He claimed the situation was known to Cabinet Ministers, one of whom, Mr. Hepburn said, had "even dictated about the distribution of the money."

Last night's election campaigning produced a "mud-slinging" charge against Mr. Hepburn. Hon. Leopold Macaulay, Ontario Minister of Highways spoke before South York electors and denounced what he called Mr. Hepburn's "mud slinging campaign."

Mr. Macaulay asked what the Liberal leader didn't make his "toll gate" charge during the legislature session when it could have been dealt with by a committee.

"I think the people of Ontario have reached the point where they have no faith in anything Mr. Hepburn says whatever," Mr. Macaulay said. The charges the South York Liberal candidate had imported "a disreputable band of scandal mongers that have dealt with nothing but personalities since they came into the riding."

Toronto Candidates Chosen

Three conservative candidates were nominated last night. Arthur Ellis, K.C., was picked as candidate for South Ottawa; William Dockworth was chosen for the Toronto riding of Dovercourt, and Edward J. Murphy, K.C., was selected to represent the Toronto riding of St. Patrick.

Mr. Duckworth defeated three other nominees for the Dovercourt candidature. Sam Wright, present member, has retired from politics and refused to stand for the nomination. Mr. Murphy is the present member for St. Patrick's and Mr. Ellis also is the present member for South Ottawa.

Hamilton Home Owners' Association will have a candidate in East Hamilton. He will be Albert Masbell, president of the Association. His entry makes it a four-cornered fight for the seat with Labor standing to run a man for a four-cornered contest. An Independent will contest West Lambton, the choice of a candidate to be made tomorrow at Courtright.

J. P. Moore, K.C., Conservative field leader for London North, will not enter the election and a new man will be selected at the convention May 16. On the South side Labor-Walkerville Conservatives will make their choice.

HEAVY DAMAGE DUE TO STORM

Western Canada Visited By Dust, Rain and Cyclone

Regina, May 9.—(CP)— Damage mounting into thousands of dollars today marked the trail of dust storms, showers, thunderstorms and cyclonic winds across Southern Saskatchewan where they brought afflicted farmers all season.

Sweeping across the southern stretch with fury, and dipping south across the International boundary, the storms last night took heavy toll through Wilcox, Gray townships and adjacent districts. Tornado winds caused damage in the Plenty-wood, Mont., district.

At Wilcox a roof was ripped from a convent, and several barns were demolished. A garage at Gray was razed at Wilcox. Outbuoys and small barns at Gray were also toppled over. Also at Wilcox a family was forced from their damaged home to take refuge in a dilapidated chicken coop.

Two barns, one valued at $4,000, were ripped up in the Corinne district.

A windmill was torn down, chimneys toppled and windows shattered in the Vibank district.

A dense, black cloud of dust swept across the sigh wind, cut down vision on country roads and highways and wheat fields were reported torn out in some districts.

From showers in the Western sections, the rains ranged all the way to a downfall of more than an inch at Regina and other points

Nearly half an inch of moisture fell at Assiniboia the first recipitation of the season, while an eighth of an inch was reported at Creelman, where hail, falling during the afternoon, did no damage.

Samuel Insull, Jr., son of the former Chicago utilities magnate, was at Pennsylvania station in New York to meet his father, who was due on Monday on the S.S. Ettonia.

LORD ENJOYS MENIAL LABOR

Son of Earl of Mayor Found Wheeling Barrow on Construction Job

Croydon, England, May 9 (AP)—Lord Naas, eldest son of the eighth Earl of Mayo, was found today pushing a wheel barrow on a construction job here, drawing a labourer's wage of 45 shillings (about $12.90) a week.

The 26-year-old scion of a peer said, that he took the job because "my one aim in life is to make good" and that he had had no luck "scraping around London trying to find work" after returning from Africa, where he tried coffee planting.

Lord Naas, scion of an Irish family that traces its ancestry eight centuries back, and a distant relative by marriage of the Earl of Scarborough, Governor-General of Canada, was educated at Uppingham. He was intended for an army career but went coffee-planting in Kenya colony. Later he joined the Royal African Rifles there and was ordered home, but was unable to stand the English climate and returned to Kenya.

There, however, he found his job gone, so he came how to England once more.

"His laborer's job has been a godsend to he said. "It does not mean much, about 45 shillings a week, but keeps me alive. Occasionally I run across some old friends and go to a show with them."

The seventh Earl Mayo, a cousin of his Lord Naas, died in Bari, married Geraldine, the eldest daughter of Sir Gerald Bradstreet Ponsonby, who was a brother to the 5th, 6th and 7th Earls of Bessborough.

URGES DRIVE FOR TOURISTS

Claim Made Cartier Anniversary is Not Fully Advertised

Ottawa, May 8 (CP)—Describing the celebration as an opportune time for a united Dominion effort to increase tourist traffic, D. Roy Dolan, director of the New Brunswick Bureau of Information and Tourist Travel today laid a comprehensive brief before the Senate Committee studying the problem under the chairmanship of Senator W. H. Dennis, Halifax.

In the past the efforts to attract tourists to a province only have not been properly co-ordinated, Mr. Dolan thought. There should be a Dominion Bureau of Information, the business as a great national undertaking.

"As over 990 per cent of tourist revenue comes from citizens of the United States, it is only natural that first consideration shall be given to the development of business from this source, Mr. Dolan said. "We are fortunate that this time, when the necessity is so great, there is a strong likelihood of the seed falling on fertile ground.

Canada had failed to properly advertise the 125th anniversary of the landing of Jacques Cartier, Mr. Dolan declared. It would have brought great numbers interested in historical events to this country had it been sufficiently placed before the people of the United States, particularly the French Canadians of the New England States.

WHITE SHIPS FOR WEST INDIES FLEET

Montreal, May 9—This summer, for the first time, all liners, Vagebond cruise freighters and ordinary freighters of the Canadian National's Canada-West Indies fleet will present a uniform, all-white exterior as they dock and sail from Montreal. Completion of the work of painting all hulls was reached last autumn, after it was found interior, temperatures could be maintained at degrees with white exteriors. due to reflection of the sun's rays the principle is that black absorbs the rays and white reflects them.

MARKET BILL IS BLOCKED IN THE HOUSE

Liberals Oppose the Compulsory Measures of the Bill

DEBATE MOTION

Little Support for Senator McRae Who Advocates Leaving the League

OTTAWA, May 9.—(CP)— With the stiff Liberal Opposition to the Government's Marketing Bill showing no signs of abating, discussion of the measure in committee of the whole resumes today in the House of Commons.

Hailed by Conservatives a practical step to benefit farmers and other primary producers, welcomed by the farmer-labor group as a move in the direction of National economic planning and denounced by the Liberals as a serious inroad on individual liberty and a wild plunge into socialism the Bill is one of the most controversial measures of the session.

Meanwhile the Senate continues debate on the motion of Senator A. D. McRae of Vancouver, that Canada should withdraw from the League of Nations. Little support for the suggestion has been forthcoming from the older statesmen but it has provided an opportunity for a wide-open discussion of the work of the League and of Canada's position generally in world affairs.

Last night Senator F. B. Black of Moncton, N.B., Liberal, in his reply against the proposal but denounced particular and the "flashy sentimentalism" that leads to "a spineless, ineffective nationhood".

Senator W. A. Buchanan of Lethbridge, thought the people of Canada would be opposed to the proposal, particularly as the withdrawal of Canada at this time would strengthen the hands of the enemies of the League who were also, in many cases, enemies of fraternal peace.

Against Compulsory Measures

Liberal opponents of the Marketing Bill in the House of Commons today centred their fire on the compulsory features which it supported. They objected to producers being compelled to conform to schemes

By all means demand Smoothness...but get Smartness too...

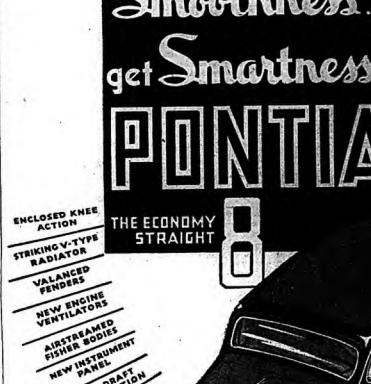
PONTIAC 6

THE ECONOMY STRAIGHT

ENCLOSED KNEE ACTION

STRIKING V-TYPE RADIATOR

VALANCED FENDERS



NEW ENGINE VENTILATORS

AIRSTREAMED FISHER BODIES

NEW INSTRUMENT PANEL

NO-DRAFT VENTILATION

7 STRIKING BODY STYLES

Prices of Pontiac cars at factory, Oshawa, fully equipped (Freight and Government license extra). Begin at $1031

Easy GMAC Terms

84 HORSEPOWER STRAIGHT 8 ENGINE

K-V SUPER PRIME

OCTANE SELECTOR

STARTERATOR

GREATER ECONOMY

CROSS-FLOW RADIATOR

BENDIX AIR-COOLED BRAKES

IF you want a Straight Eight for your money, get a Pontiac. It's not merely a beautiful automobile . . . it's the second best looking car of the year. It's taken by a car costing over $3,500. Pontiac's lines are long, stately, perfectly proportioned. Airstreaming is artistic without being extreme. Here's the kind of a car any man would be proud to own!

Smoothness compares with smartness in this new model. Knee-Action Wheels deliver a thrilling "Floating Ride" that levels out every bump! Extra weight, scientifically balanced, makes the car ride as a car should. Swing Stabilizer prevents dangerous rolling on the turns. And big, handsomely appointed interiors provide plenty of legroom, head-room and old-fashioned, easy-chair comfort. In fact, throughout its make-up, Pontiac is a big car, giving you all the important big car advancements at a comparatively low price.

We've tried to tell you a little about this magnificent motor car. The rest you'll discover by a demonstration. Drive the new Pontiac . . . personally. See if you don't agree that here is one car that answers the requirements of the entire family!

A General Motors Value—Produced in Canada

J. B. BOYCE

350 Front St. Belleville Phone 704

CLEANSE your Kidneys

—as well as your house

Just as your household may need Spring cleaning, so your kidneys need similar attention. Winter takes toll of your energy—Spring usually finds you with weakened and languor blood. Healthy kidneys filter the impurities out of your blood—that is their normal function. If they fail, poisons gather and illness follows. Doan's Kidney Pills are the best Spring tonic. They restore the kidneys to normal action. Your system is cleansed and invigorated by a full supply of pure, rich blood. Don't neglect your kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills

MODERN PRATT-EXCEL MIGHTY MEN OF OLD

Tales have been handed down of the mighty lumbermen of old but two Nova Scotians recently piled up a record in felling trees, which it is believed has never been equalled. Two brothers made a wager as to who could fell the greatest number of trees during the space of three days with a maximum of eight inches at the base, trees averaging aged 30 and weighing 200 pounds. In a total of twenty-four working hours cut a road to his timber, felled, trimmed, sawed and helped to load on a trail sled 12,000 feet of lumber. Rod the other, aged 24 and weighing 175 pounds, beat his record with a total of 12,127 feet. Working together in 20th days the two cut 700 trees averaging from 35 to 75 feet in height and scaling approximately 150, 000 feet. The 24-year old has somewhat of a reputation as a strong man. One of his feats was to push a wheelbarrow with 1,970 pounds of cement up a six foot incline 12 feet long and dump it. He is about six feet in height. A younger brother, who is six-foot-three, has easily lifted a barrel of potatoes with the 175 pound weight on end. They are members of the Western Valley of South Alton, Nova Scotia.

For Your Home-Bound World-Wide

FUR STORAGE and INSURANCE

Telephone 421

WOODLEY'S FURRIERS 272 Front St.

Personals

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Chugbes of Detroit announce the engagement of their only daughter, Dorothy, to Jerome B. Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Murphy, of this city, the marriage to take place on the 4th at St. Catherine's Church, Detroit, Mich. ms-it

Mrs. J. Floyd, Toronto, is visiting at the home of her cousin, Mrs. J. Fabey, Cedar street.

Miss Kathleen Shanque of Tweed is visiting relatives in the city.

Mrs. Ida Goodmurphy has returned to the city after having spent the past four weeks in Toronto visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Culbreth and son, Thomas, announce the marriage of her mother, of Niagara Falls, N.Y., was last week-end at the home of Mrs. Albert Bandle, Lingham St.

Mrs. Percy Reid, Shannonville, who was admitted to the Belleville General Hospital on Sunday and operated on for appendicitis, is getting along favorably.

Mr. Murray Gould Postell, formerly of Belleville, have returned to Montreal, after having spent the past week in the city.

After the regular meeting of the Women's Conservative Club last night, a social evening was held. Mrs. Kinnear was winner of the prize for bridge and Mrs. Brickman for euchre. Refreshment members were hostesses for the evening and served a delicty lunch.

Mr. Patrick Hayes and family have returned home after spending the week-end in Toronto.

Miss Dorothy West was hostess at an enjoyable shower last evening, in honour of Mrs. Ronald Wells (nee Muriel Doyle). Guests were members of the Metropolitan store staff and their friends. The bride received many lovely gifts and a delicious lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Friends of Mrs. A. E. Hinchliffe (nee Mary Browning), will be pleased to know, that she survived a major operation in the hospital today and is doing as well as can be expected.

A City Residence

...for a day, a week or longer—from a single room with bath to a suite of rooms—you'll find comfort, fine meals and courteous service. Delightful lounge reception rooms. Ideal for banquets, conventions—that briefly is the distinctive service of "The Host of Arms."

WINDSOR ARMS HOTEL

22 St. Thomas Street (Close at Bay)

TORONTO

Tel.—Ma. 6141-2-3-4

Write for Folder

Big Reductions in the Following Lines

Leather Goods, Toilet-ware, Silverware, Clocks, Lighters, Bracelets, Pendants, Glassware, Umbrellas, and etc.

J. O. R. McCurdy

324 Front St. Phone 518

END YOUR Foot Trouble

ATTEND THIS SPECIAL

Demonstration MONDAY MAY 14

PHONE 2082 FOR SPECIAL APPOINTMENT

Never before has an opportunity like this been presented to foot sufferers in this city and vicinity. By special arrangement, we have secured the exclusive services of an Expert from the Toronto Staff of Dr. Wm. M. Scholl, world noted Foot Authority, for this important occasion. If you suffer from your feet, by all means arrange to be here on the above date.

FREE FOOT TEST

You will receive a complete Foot Test and the proper Dr. Scholl Appliance or Remedy required to give you relief will be demonstrated on your own feet. You will also be given advice as to the proper width and type of shoe you should wear, how to give your feet the right care, etc.—ALL WITHOUT CHARGE! What you will gain will be of life-long benefit to you. Therefore, remember the date and be sure to attend.

AGNEW-SURPASS SHOE STORES LIMITED

252 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE

A Page of Interest to Women

No Depression for Advertisers

Dodds Medicine Company Reports Increase Over All Previous Years —Give Credit to Advertising

The Dodds Medicine Company Limited, Proprietors of Dodd's Kidney Pills and other well known Medicines, report that their sales for the past six months have far exceeded any similar period in the history of the Company.

The whole credit for this remarkable record is attributed to Advertising. Mr. John McKee the President of The Dodds Company, says that his Company has turned the dear ear to all talk of depression, and has continued a policy established over a century ago, under which Dodd's advertising appears practically daily in every week-while Daily and Weekly Newspaper.

"We may be a little old fashioned"—says Mr. McKee—"but it seems strange to us that so many Companies cut down their Advertising when business falls off. We do the very opposite. When business shows any signs of slackening, we increase our Advertising."

"Of course, we know that Dodd's Kidney Pills and our other medicines must be medicine of real merit to have survived so over half a century with increasing sales each year."

CENTRE ST. CHURCH PRAISE Y. P. S.

The following unanimous resolution was passed by the Centre St. United Church Congregation, at the Sunday morning—"That we hereby express our very high appreciation of the fine group of young people from Zion Church, Thurlow, for their generosity and ability in rendering so efficiently that most interesting and instructive play "Ten Nights in The Bar-room" given last Friday evening in Prince of Wales School in behalf of the home mission work and accompanied by their liberal donation to the same.

Perishable products may now travel from shipping point to dealer without leaving the refrigerator, by means of refrigerated containers which fit six to a flat car.

INFANTS' COLDS Relieved

Young children easily catch cold. So Mrs. Russel Ward, of Hilton Beach, Ont., wisely says: "It is a notice that there is any sign of a cold I give Baby's Own Tablets and find they are a great help." Thousands of mothers do the same not only for colds but for feverishness, indigestion, constipation, teething troubles, colic, upset stomach and so on. Baby's Own Tablets are safe and sure in relieving childhood's common ailments. Price 25c.

Dr. Williams' BABY'S OWN TABLETS

LIBRARY CORNER

Pelham Edgar, Professor of English in Victoria College, University of Toronto has written a comprehensive volume on novels and novelists in "The Art of the Novel". Professor Edgar has discussed novels from 1709 to the present time, choosing those which illustrate the gradual change in the structure of the novel and the way the various authors shaped and developed their material. He describes with interesting comment the different schools in literary style from the days of Defoe, Fielding and Richardson, to those of Virginia Woolf, Sinclair Lewis and Willa Cather. "Fantastic romance is today the exception where it was once the rule, for fictive aims now at an intensification of reality rather than an escape from the actual". Among the many suggestions treated in this book are, the antirealism of Willa Cather, the irony and satire of Maughan, Huxley, Lewis and Norman Douglas and the French realism of Glasing. George Moore and Arnold Bennett:

The account of the author's experience as a prisoner for ten years in a State penitentiary forms the theme of James B. Winning's book "Behind These Walls". The book gives a balanced picture of prison life, its routine, its housing, presenting at the same time an indictment against prison methods. The New York Times is speaking of this volume remarks. "His book differs from other accounts of prison experience in that—unlike most of the colourful detail with which it is told". Mr. Winning writes with such realism as to bring the reader as near as the words can to actual experience.

Agnes Repplier has endeavoured to acquaint the reader with "the oldest country in Europe to belong continuously to the same race", in book "Sweden: the Land and Its People". Sweden is presented for both the tourist and the arm-chair traveller. Here is a country which has preserved and preserved the art of its craftsmen and at the same time developed much that is new and modern. The author considers Sweden a past is no country in which one recognizes as living, for Sweden a past of tremendous historical energy, a present of abounding health, and a future of potentiality". The book is illustrated with many fine photographic illustrations of Swedish cities and countryside. K. G.

WALLBRIDGE W.M.S.

Wallbridge, May 7.—The May meeting of Wallbridge W.M.S. and Ladies' Aid Association met at the home of Mrs. John Hinchliffe on the second day of May with about 20 members present. The meeting was opened with President in the chair by singing a hymn, followed by the Lord's Prayer, repeated in unison. Mrs. Lawrence Ketcheson read the Scripture lesson which was taken from the 7th chapter of John verse 9 and 20 to 36 followed by a short interpretation of it by the president. Roll Call was responded to by a verse on "Faith". The Treasurer's report was given. Mrs. Fred Gay gave a splendid instructive report on Presbyterial conference held in March at Napanee. Collection was taken followed by an effective prayer by the President. Mrs. George Christopher gave a reading entitled "The Bonus Life Pays." Mrs. James Hinchcliffe led in prayer. The closing hymn was sung. The meeting was dismissed with the Mizpah Benediction.

Mrs. Hendricks, Ruth and Jack of Frankford were Sunday visitors at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hill of Trenton spent Sunday with Mrs. John Hinchliffe.

Mrs. George Ford and Mrs. A. Consaul are back calling cards. Orval Yeleman on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Leonard Sine was a caller at Mr. John Hagar's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fair took dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hinchliffe.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace and Dorothy of Belleville spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hinchliffe.

The May meeting of the Sidney Girls' Club was held at the home of Miss Peggy Ketcheson with a large number of girls present. The meeting opened with the singing of the Institute Ode followed by community singing. The Secretary's report showed a balance on hand of over $15.00 in the treasury for the majority present that benefit from the club would be the boys in the Sidney Junior Institute, operating on Institute principles and with the same purpose as the senior. Mrs. Mac Fair read a paper entitled "It Can be Mended". Miss Edgar L. Vincent, Miss Reta Woods read about "What Shall We Have to Keep Doing." Mrs. L. Ketcheson presided over the Institute and talked on Institute work.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses. A vote of thanks to Mrs. Ketcheson and Peggy for opening their home was moved by Miss Reta Woods.

TRANSIENT PASSES INTO COMA

Kitchener, Ont., May 7.—(CP)—Passing into a diabetic coma soon after being picked up by a motor driver on the highway at Brantford last night, Ray Keebler, 21 Dundas street, Galt, was brought to the Kitchener-Waterloo Hospital, where he died early today without regaining consciousness.

The driver, Joseph Howie, and employed by the Marks Transport Company, said that Keebler's head ragged on his chest soon after he entered the transport truck's cab.

CANADIAN STAR FOR BROADWAY

Miss Joan Miller, 24-year-old star who won the Lady Beaverbrook trophy for the best individual performance in the Dominion drama festival at Ottawa, is on her way to New York for a tryout before Broadway producers. Born in Nelson, B.C., Miss Miller always had a desire to go on the stage but she has had a long hard struggle to win her opportunity. She has been active in the Vancouver Little Theatre for several years, playing a number of various roles with distinction. In Maxwell Anderson's "Queen Elizabeth" she took the title role and won high praise from the official adjudicator of the Dominion finals at Ottawa.

JOHN ST W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of John Street United Church W.M.S. was held on Friday, May 4th. Mrs. Moore, the president, opened the meeting with the invocation and Hymn 272 was sung followed with prayer by Mrs. Moore.

The subject for the month was "Temperance". Miss Corbett led the devotional period that stone to the Bible lesson, Numbers Chapter 13. She also gave a brief and inspiring talk on the duty for everyone to be brave and loyal and fight the giant of intemperance.

The President paid a beautiful tribute in verse of the loyal members of the society, who have passed on in recently: Mrs. Jinkinson, who had been a most faithful and loyal member and Mrs. Armstrong, who had been loyal to the cause, one of both the missionary and temperance, when she lived in Belleville.

After the regular business of the meeting, Mrs. Robt. Hall, read a paper on the subject "Peace" which should be very prominent in the minds and thoughts of all in these critical times.

Mrs. A. E. Ross in her talk on Christian Stewardship, said that one must acknowledge God's ownership of everything we have if we would show our loyalty to Him. We must give to Him, His rightful place and not just give the remnant and that Stewardship is the illustrated this by telling the story of "Thanksgiving Ann". Ann's mistress had sacrificed at the idea of systematic giving and said that it was better to give what one has on hand and not be tied down to any system. So Ann tried it out as usual time and did not bother to get a regular dinner, but gave the master and mistress what she happened to have on hand. Needless to cry, her mistress saw the point and decided that it was better to be systematic.

Mrs. Archibald's paper was on the subject "Temperance". She pointed out that we cannot hope for any help from either party as neither of them seem disposed to come out bravely for temperance which is most deplorable. Mrs. Ferguson, the leader of the group who provided the program, also spoke on Temperance and said we can be intemperate in more than one way. We can be intemperate in our words, thoughts and actions, in fact in almost all things. But we must guard against any form of intemperance and rid ourselves of intemperance and failings today, word others, while we are also fighting against the drink traffic, which is sweeping over our land.

The meeting was closed with Hymn and prayer.

FOXBORO W. M. S.

The W. M. S. held their May meeting at the home of Miss Stella Clarke on Wednesday last with an attendance of twelve. The call to worship was given by the president Mrs. Walter Wickett, followed by a consecration hymn. Mrs. Hutchings led in prayer and Psalm XIX was then read in unison. The minutes of the last meeting was read and approved and roll call given. After which some business items were discussed. Collection was taken and hymn sung. Scripture taken by Mrs. Hodgen reported on Conference. Miss Clarke read a very interesting letter from Miss Clark of China. Mrs. E. McCaughen then sang a solo which was very much appreciated and this was followed by a reading on the "Resurrection" by Mrs. Riley. Hawley which was also enjoyed. Little Bernice McCaughen then sang very sweetly "Jesus Loves Me". Treasurer gave her report and secretary of Christian Stewardship gave a reading "Only a Woman's Life". Hymn "Bless Be The Tie That Binds" was sung and Mrs. Hodgen led prayer by Mrs. Murney Reynolds.

FOXBORO MISSION BAND

The May meeting was held on Sunday morning after S.S. Meeting opened by singing "God sees the Little Sparrows Fall" Betty Hodgen and Lois Spencer repeated short prayers. Gordon Priest then gave a reading "The Thankful Boy" Marjorie Toney sang "He Saith For You". The minutes of the last meeting were read and Lois Spencer read some verses "Ourlocks goes to China". Mrs. A. W. Embury then gave an interesting talk and offered prayer for our missionary. A hymn was sung while Norma Hayes took up the offering and all repeated the Lord's Prayer.

Mission Circles and C.G.I.T. work were very much appreciated.

Miss Anglin spoke of the held the reserved from the Magazine in Mission Band Work. A good story and good pictures was always to be found in it. Stories of other Mission Bands were always helpful.

Mrs. De Roche, Mace Secretary stated that she was helped in her work by the articles on the League of Nations. She then read a most interesting letter from her brother, Dr. Percy McCulloch and his wife, who are spending the year at Dr. Sheldon Chumir Hospital, Chanoti, Honan, a strategic centre of a thickly populated district in China.

Mrs. Latimer, the Missionary Monthly Secretary, made a plea for more subscribers to this very worthwhile magazine.

RED CROSS

Give Liberally

"STILL SERVING"

"But the Greatest of These is Charity"

Belleville Red Cross

APPEALS FOR YOUR SUPPORT THIS WEEK

"Needy humanity everywhere turns to Red Cross for help. Belleville Red Cross stands ready to render service whenever it is called upon. To render this service funds are needed, so please give as generously as possible.

Send Contributions to: Campaign Treasurer c/o Dominion Bank

W. B. Deacon Campaign Chairman

Mrs. Stuart Lazier Vice Pres.

BRIDGE STREET W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Bridge Street United Church was held in the Church Parlours, May 4th at 3.00 pm.

The meeting was opened with the hymn "Soldiers of Christ arise" followed with a prayer offered by Mrs. Chas. Hinds. After the regular business was transacted and reports given, Mrs. M. Sparling and Mrs. J. W. Holmes, and their group took charge of the meeting. Mrs. Holmes gave the Bible reading and offered prayer.

The topic of the meeting was "The Missionary Monthly". Miss Lazelle Thomas took the ladies on a personally conducted tour through that magazine, showing the different types of articles and departments covered, from which she recruited to letters and pictures from missionary fields in east and west.

Mrs. Harriton, the stewardship secretary, spoke of the help she had received from the magazine along her line of work and stressed the importance of a quarterly budget.

Mrs. Gartley, the temperance secretary recommended the up-to-date articles, which kept one in touch with the temperance movement.

Mrs. Bishop, the president of the Society, praised the aids for programs, which were such a help in the smaller auxiliaries and the communities where women were pressed for time. Articles on the Kingdom of God Movement and for BURNS

Apply Unguentine, Quick! Give blessed relief from burning pain. Heals fast and only scar. Be sure you have it handy!

Unguentine

Relieves pain. Hastens Healing.

The House of Better Values Offers

Better Prices—Look!—Buy Now!

3 Cell Focusing FLASH LIGHTS $1.98

Extra Special! 16 IX TIN DAIRY PAILS Price 59c 5' FOLDING RULES 15c

Garden Rakes..... 65c
Bean Hoes..... 65c

Children's 3 piece Garden Sets 10c Set

OIL STOVE OVENS

One Burner 12" wide, 11" high, 10½" deep $1.98

2 Burner Ovens, Glass Door $3.98

Coleman Gasolene Stove 10.00

The stove of a thousand uses — Small, sturdy, fast. Weighs 20 lbs. Brown enamel finish.

THIS PRICE THIS WEEK

In addition to the above we will allow you $10. for your old oil or gasoline stove on any gasoline stove over $45.00.

HOT PLATES

2 Burner, duco finish..... 2.49
2-Burner, 3 Heat Switches..... 3.98
1 Large Burner and 1 Small..... 3.98
1 Large Burner and 2 Small, Combination Switch..... 4.98
The Above Prices Are For This Week Only

GAS RANGES

1 only, reg. 89.00, grey and white porcelain enamel, large cabinet. TO CLEAR—$59.00 A Bargain

RANGETTE

Green enamel, chrome plated, large oven. Complete $2.95 DOWN $10 Payments $2.30 Monthly

NARVO SALE NOW ON—A Murphy Quality Finish

	Reg.	Sale Price
Half Gallon	2.85	2.10
Quarts	1.50	1.10
Pints	.85	.65
Half Pints	.50	.40

THIS IS NOT A CHEAP PAINT

Bring In Your Cash Coupons

WE DO PLUMBING, HEATING AND TINSMITHING

JOHN LEWIS CO.

265 Front St. Belleville Phone 2280

END YOUR Foot Trouble

ATTEND THIS SPECIAL

Demonstration MONDAY MAY 14

PHONE 2082 FOR SPECIAL APPOINTMENT

Never before has an opportunity like this been presented to foot sufferers in this city and vicinity. By special arrangement, we have secured the exclusive services of an Expert from the Toronto Staff of Dr. Wm. M. Scholl, world noted Foot Authority, for this important occasion. If you suffer from your feet, by all means arrange to be here on the above date.

FREE FOOT TEST

You will receive a complete Foot Test and the proper Dr. Scholl Appliance or Remedy required to give you relief will be demonstrated on your own feet. You will also be given advice as to the size, width and type of shoe you should wear, how to give your feet the right care, etc.—ALL WITHOUT COST to be of lifelong benefit to you. Therefore, remember the date and be sure to attend.

CHARGE! What you will gain will be of lifelong benefit to you. Therefore, remember the date and be sure to attend.

AGNEW-SURPASS SHOE STORES LIMITED

252 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE

LIBRARY CORNER

Pelham Edgar, Professor of English in Victoria College, University of Toronto has written a comprehensive volume on novels and novelists in "The Art of the Novel", Professor Edgar has discussed novels from 1700 to the present time, choosing those which illustrate the gradual change in the structure of the novel and the way the various authors shaped and developed their material. He describes with interesting comment the differences in literary style from the days of Defoe, Fielding and Richardson, to those of Virginia Woolf, Sinclair Lewis and Willa Cather. "Fantastic romance is today the exception where it was once the rule, for fiction aims more at an intensification of reality rather than an escape from the actual". Among the many expressions treated in this book are, the anti-realism of Willa Cather, the irony and satire of Maugham, Huxley, Lewis and Norman Douglas and the French realism of Glasing, Georgs Moore and Arnold Bennett.

The account of the author's experience as a prisoner for ten years in a State penitentiary forms the theme of James R. Winning's book "Behind These Walls". The book gives a balanced picture of prison life, its routine, its housing, presenting at the same time an indictment against prison methods. The New York Times in speaking of this volume remarks, "His book differs from other accounts of prison experiences in the liveliness and the colourful detail with which it is told". Mr. Winning writes with such restraint as to bring the reader as near as words can to actual experience.

Agnes Rothery has endeavoured to acquaint the reader with the oldest country in Europe to believe continuously in the sea and race", in book "Sweden; the Land and Its People". Sweden is presented for both the tourist and the arm-chair traveller. Here is a country that has successfully preserved the art of its craftsmen and at the same time accepted much that is new and modern. The author concludes: "There is no country in which one recognizes so fully as in Sweden a past of tremendous historical sweep, a present of pulsating health, and a future of potentiality". The book is illustrated with many fine photographs illustrations of Swedish cities and countryside. K. G.

CANADIAN STAR FOR BROADWAY

Miss Joan Miller, 24-year-old star who won the Lady Beaverbrook trophy for the best individual performances in the Dominion drama festival at Ottawa, is on her way to New York for a tryout before Broadway producers. Born in Nelson, B.C., Miss Miller always had a desire to go on the stage but she has had a long hard struggle to win her opportunity. She has been active in the Vancouver Little Theatre for seven years, playing a number of various roles with distinction. In Maxwell Anderson's "Queen Elizabeth" the title role won her won high praise from the official adjudicator of the Dominion finals at Ottawa.

WALLBRIDGE W.M.S.

Wallbridge, May 3—The May meeting of the Wallbridge W.M.S. and Ladies' Aid Association met at the home of Mrs. John Hinchliffe on the second day of May with about 30 members present. The meeting was opened with President in the chair, by singing a hymn, followed by the Lord's prayer repeated in unison. Mrs. Lawrence Ketcheson read the Scripture lesson which was taken from the 7th chapter of John verse 9 and 20 to 36 followed by a short interpretation of it by the president. Roll Call was responded to by a verse on "Faith". The Treasurer's report was given, Mrs. C. Fair gave a splendid instructive report a Presbyterial convention held in March at Napanee. Collection was taken followed by an offertory prayer by the President. Mrs. George Christopher gave a reading entitled "The Bonus Life Pays." Mrs. James Hinchcliffe led in prayer. The closing hymn was sung. The meeting was dismissed with the Mizpah Benediction.

Mrs. Hendricks, Ruth and Jack of Frankford were Sunday visitors at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hoyt.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hill of Trenton spent Sunday with Mrs. John Hinchliffe.

Mrs. George Pollard and Mrs. A. Consaul and Jack called on Mrs. Orval Yateman on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Leonard Sine was a caller at Mr. John Hogg's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fair took dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hinchliffe.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace and Dorothy of Belleville spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Chisholm.

The May meeting of the Sidney Girls' Club was held at the home of Miss Peggy Ketcheson with a large number of girls present. The meeting was opened with the singing of the Institute Ode followed by community singing. The Secretary's report showed a balance on hand of 60 cents. It was the will of the majority present that the benefit forth the club should be known as the Sidney Junior Institute, sponsored by the Institute, sponsored with the same purpose as the senior. Mrs. Fay Fair read a paper entitled "It Can be Mended." Mrs. Elgar Vincent, Miss Reta Woods read about "What An Institute has Been Doing." Mrs. L. Ketcheson presided at the business meeting, talked on Institute work.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses. A vote of thanks to Mrs. Ketcheson was by acclamation and their home was moved by Miss Reta Woods.

TRANSIENT PASSES INTO COMA

Kitchener, Ont., May 8.—(CP)—Passing into a diabetic coma soon after being picked up by a truck driver on the highway at Brantford last night, Ray Koehler, 171 Dundas street, Galt, was brought to the Kitchener-Waterloo Hospital, where he died early today without regaining consciousness.

The driver, named Howe, and employed by the MacRae Transport Company, said that Koehler's head ragged on his chest soon after he entered the transport truck's cab.

JOHN ST W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of John Street United Church W.M.S. was held on Friday, May 4th. Mrs. Moore, the president, opened the meeting with the invocation and Hymn 372 was followed with prayer by Mrs. Moore.

The subject for the month was "Temperance". Miss Corbett led the devotional period. Her theme for her Bible lesson, Numbers Chapter 13. She also gave a brief and inspiring talk on the need for everyone to be brave and loyal and fight the giant of Intemperance.

The President read a beautiful tribute to two of the loyal members of the society, who have passed on recently; Mrs. Pinkston, who had been a most faithful and loyal member and Mrs. Hargreaves, who had been most loyal to the cause of both the missionary and temperance, when she lived in Belleville.

After the regular business of the meeting, Mrs. Robt. Hall, read a paper on the subject "Peace" which should be very prominent in the minds and thoughts of all, in these critical times.

Mrs. H. A. Ross in her talk on Christian Stewardship, said that we must acknowledge God's ownership of everything we have if we would show our loyalty to Him. We must give to Him, His rightful share and not just give the remnant and that generously. She illustrated this by telling the story of "Thanksgiving Ann". Ann's mistress had scoffed at the idea of systematic giving and said that it was better to give what one has on hand and not be tied down to any system. So Ann tied it out in small bits and did not bother to get a regular dinner, but gave the master and mistress what she happened to have on hand. Needless to say, her mistress saw the point and decided that it was better to be systematic.

Mrs. Archibald's paper was on "Temperance". She pointed out that we cannot hope for any help from either party or neither of them seems disposed to come out bravely for temperance which is most unfortunate. Mrs. Ferguson, the leader of the group provided the program. She also spoke on Temperance and said we can be intemperate in more than one way. We can be intemperate in our words, thoughts and actions, in our likes and dislikes. But we must guard against any form of intemperance and rid ourselves of intemperance and feelings for hard others, while we are also fighting against the drink traffic, which is causing so much sin.

The meeting was closed with Hymn and prayer.

FOXBORO W. M. S.

The W. M. S. held their May meeting at the home of Miss Amelia Clarke on Wednesday afternoon an attendance of twelve. The call to worship was given by the president Mrs. Walley Wickett, followed by a responsive hymn. Scripture lesson read in prayer and Psalm XIX was repeated in unison. The minutes of the last meeting was read and approved and roll call given. After the usual business items were disposed. Collection was taken and the watch tower taken up. Mrs. Hodgen reported on Canada and Mrs. Clarke read a very interesting letter from Miss Clasi of china. Mrs. E. McCaughen then sang a solo which was very much appreciated and this was followed by a reading on the "Resurrection" by Mrs. (Rev.) Hawley which was also enjoyed. Little Belinda McCaughen sang very sweetly "When He Cometh." Treasurer gave her report and secretary of Christian Stewardship gave a reading "Only a Woman's Life". Hymn "Blest be The Tie That Binds" was sung and meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Murney Reynolds.

FOXBORO MISSION BAND

The May meeting was held on Sunday morning after S.S. Meeting opened by singing "God sees the Little Sparrows Fall". Betty Hodgen and Lois Spencer repeated short prayers. Gordon Priest then gave a reading "The Thankful Boy" Marjorie Toney sang "He Saith For You". The minutes of the last meeting were read and Lois Spencer read some verses "Curlylocks goes to China". Mrs. J. W. Embury then gave an interesting talk and offered prayer for our missionary. A hymn was sung while Norma Harris took up the offering and all repeated the Lord's Prayer.

Belleville Red Cross

APPEALS FOR YOUR SUPPORT THIS WEEK

"Needy humanity everywhere turns to Red Cross for help. Belleville Red Cross stands ready to render service whenever it is called upon. To render this service funds are needed, so please give as generously as possible.

Send Contributions to:
Campaign Treasurer
c/o Dominion Bank

W. B. Deacon
Campaign Chairman
Mrs. Stuart Lazier
Vice Pres.

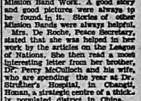
BRIDGE STREET W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Bridge Street United Church was held in the Church Parlours, May 4th at 3.00 p.m.

The meeting was opened with the hymn "Soldiers of Christ arise" followed with a prayer offered by Mrs. Chas. W. Bishop. After the regular business was transacted and reports given, Mrs. M. Spratling and Mrs. J. W. Holmes had their group took charge of the meeting. Mrs. Holmes gave the Bible reading and offered prayer.

The topic of the meeting was "The Missionary Monthly". Miss Lazelle Brown took the ladies on a personally conducted tour through that magazine, reviewing the various types of articles and departments covered, from poems and editorials to letters and pictures from missionary fields in east and west.

Mrs. Harrison, the stewardship secretary, spoke of the help she had received from the magazine during her line of work and stressed the importance of a quarterly budget.



Mrs. Gartley, the temperance secretary recommended the up-to-date articles, which kept one in touch with the temperance movement.

Mrs. Bishop, the president of the society, praised the aids for programs, which were such a help in the smaller auxiliaries and in communities where the women were pressed for time. A vote of thanks to the Kingdom of God Movement and Mission Circles and C.G.I.T. work were very much appreciated.

Miss Anglin spoke of the help she received from the Magazine in Mission Band Work. A good story and good pictures were always to be found in it. Stories of other Mission Bands were always helpful.

Mrs. De Hooht, Peace Secretary, stated that she was helped in her work by the articles on the League of Nations. She then read a most interesting letter from her brother, Rev. Percy Kunch and his wife, who are spending the year at Dr. Holmes' home in Chanzhi, Honan, a strategic centre of a thickly populated district in China.

Mrs. Lattimer, the Missionary Monthly Secretary, made a plea for more subscribers to this very worthwhile magazine.

Apply Immediately, Quick! Over-blazed relief from scorching pain. Prevents blistering and infection. Be sure you get Moone's Emerald Oil

Unguentine

Relieves pain. Restores Healing

Boris Karloff, Victor McLaglen and Wallace Ford in "Lost Patrol" picture extraordinary at the Capitol tomorrow, Thursday.

o Depression for Advertisers da Medicine Company Reports Increase Over Previous Years —Give Credit to Advertising

he Dodds Medicine Company ited, Proprietors of Dodd's Kidney Pills and other well known dicines, report that their sales the past six months have far eeded any similar period in the ory of the Company he whole credit for this remarkrecord is attributed to Advising. Mr. John McKee the sident of The Dodds Company , that his Company has turned deaf ear to all talk of decsion, and has continued a ry established half a century under which Dodd's advertis appears practically daily in forty-five Daily and Weekly newspaper.

We may be a little old fashioned," says Mr. McKee—"but it as strange to us that so many panies cut down their Advertising when business falls off. We the very opposite. When business shows any signs of slackening, increase our Advertising."

Of course, we know that Dodd's ney Pills and our other medicines must be medicine of real to have survived for over a century, with increasing s each year."

CENTRE ST. CHURCH RAISE Y. P. S.

The following unanimous resolution was passed by the Centre St. United Church Congregation, last Sunday morning: "That we hereby express our very high appreciation of the fine group of young people from Zion Church, Thurlow, for their generosity and ability in rendering so efficiently that most interesting and fascinating play "Ten Nights in The Bar-room" given last Tuesday evening in Prince of Wales School in behalf of the home mission work and accompanied by their liberal donation to the same.

Perishable products may now travel from shipping point to dealer without leaving the refrigerator, by means of refrigerated containers which fit six to a flat car.

INFANTS COLDS Relieved

Young children easily catch cold. Dr. Miles' Nervine, of Hilton Beach, Ont., writes: "I am a mother that thinks Baby's Own Tablets sold I give Baby's Own Tablets and find they are a great help." Thousands of mothers do the same. Not only for colds but for feverishness, indigestion, constipation, teething troubles, colic, upset stomach and so on. Baby's Own Tablets are safe and sure in relieving childhood's common ailments.

Dr Williams' Medicine Co. (1)

BABY'S OWN TABLETS

The House of Better Values Offers

Better Prices—Look!—Buy Now!

3 Cell Focusing FLASH LIGHTS $1.98

Extra Special! 16 IX TIN DAIRY PAILS Price 59c

5' FOLDING RULES 15c

Garden Rakes..... 65c
Bean Hoes 65c

Children's 3 piece Garden Sets 10c Set

OIL STOVE OVENS

One Burner 12" wide, 11" high, 10½" deep $1.98
2 Burner Ovens, Glass Door $3.98

Coleman Gasolene Stove

10.00

The stove of a thousand uses — Small, sturdy, fast. Weighs 20 lbs. Brown enamel finish.

THIS PRICE THIS WEEK

In addition to the above we will allow you $10. for your old oil or gasoline stove on any gasoline stove over $45.00.

HOT PLATES

2 Burner, duco finish 2.49
2-Burner, 3 Heat Switches 3.98
1 Large Burner and 1 Small 3.98
1 Large Burner and 1 Small, Combination Switch 4.98
The Above Prices Are For This Week Only

GAS RANGES

1 only, reg. $8.00, grey and white porcelain enamel, large cabinet. TO CLEAR—$59.00 A Bargain

RANGETTE

Green enamel, chrome plated, large oven. Complete $2.95 DOWN 10 Payments $2.30 Monthly

NARVO SALE NOW ON—A Murphy Quality Finish

THIS IS NOT A CHEAP PAINT

Bring In Your Cash Coupons

	Reg.	Sale Price
Half Gallon	2.85	2.10
Quarts	1.50	1.10
Pints	.85	.60
Half Pints	.50	.40

WE DO PLUMBING, HEATING AND TINSMITHING

JOHN LEWIS CO.

265 Front St. Belleville Phone 2260

JOBS HOUSES AUTOS

Thousands of OPPORTUNITIES in the WANT ADS

RADIOS ROOMS PETS

FINANCIAL MARKETS
NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

TORONTO MINES

Toronto, May 9.—Mining shares drifted narrowly up and down today, as expectations over the silver outlook at Washington waxed and waned and finally closed with very slight gains predominating. The silver issues themselves were strong at the opening and at the close though the best gains of the day were not retained. Some of the base metals were in demand and the close was generally firm.

Net advances of 25 to 50 cents were chalked up for Dome, Hollinger, McIntyre, Bralorne and Teck, Wright Hargreaves and Lake Shore closed unchanged. Secondary gold shares finished the day with few price variations.

Firm spots in the base metals were Noranda, Sudbury Basin and Waite-Amulet. Hudson Bay was off slightly.

NEW YORK FINANCIAL

New York, May 9 (AP) — The stock market's silver lining was not so bright today and trading turned dull and indecisive following the failure of most shares to follow through on the brisk rally of the previous session. Bonds displayed scattered signs of improvement.

Narrow changes featured quiet dealings in Canadian shares. McIntyre and Dome got up fractionally, but International Nickel eased a shade. On the Curb Hiram Walker lost a half point. Dominion Government Bonds were steady. The Canadian dollar improved 1-16 of a cent at 100.27 1-2 cents.

Shares of U.S. Smelting yielded more than 3 points of their Tuesday's advance and American Smelting was down about a point. Chrysler was firm and Consolidated Gas and Montgomery Ward steady. Declines of fractions to a point of more were registered by Allied Chemical, American Telephone, U.S. Steel, Goodyear, Case, Du Pont, PoJbns Pont, Johns-Manville, U. S. Rubber, Union Pacific and Santa Fe.

NEW YORK CLOSE

NEW YORK, May 9.—(AP)—Stocks quietly sold lower today, virtually cancelling the gains registered in the previous session. U. S. Smelting lost all of its 5 1-2 point spurt yesterday. U. S. Steel, American Telephone, American Smelting and Case were off a point or more each. Transfers approximated 1,100,000 shares.

TORONTO MINES

TORONTO, May 9.—(CP)—Profit-taking on yesterday's late rally and today's morning show of strength, gave the Industrial Board of the Toronto Stock Exchange a moderate set-back today. The selloff developed in the last hour with Nickel dropping about 50 cents and the other interlisted shares showing losses of small fractions. Oils, foods and beverages shares were more widely represented on the upside at the close.

Walkers Common turned over in failure volume, most of the time at a loss of about 7-8. Industrial Alcohol closed unchanged at 12 1-8 and Distillers Seagrams down 1-4 at 16 5-8. In the Brewery section Canada Malting, Cosgrave and Walkerville clung to the upside and the Brewing Corporation issues closed off a little.

Automobile Insurance

With three people being killed every two days in Ontario by autos, you are taking very great chances to be without insurance. Rates are now the lowest they have ever been.

Jamieson Bone & Co.

PHONE 1366

Insurance. Investments.

10 Reasons Why YOU

SHOULD BE A SHAREHOLDER IN

Monarch Great Bear Syndicate LIMITED

(No Personal Liability)

(1) GREAT BEAR LAKE, according to the best informed Government Officials, Mining Engineers and Geologists, is the richest mineral area of any place in the world.

(2) MONARCH GREAT BEAR SYNDICATE, LIMITED owns or controls 2,300 acres in four groups in Great Bear Lake, all of which were secured because of the presence of ore on the properties.

(3) MONARCH GREAT BEAR SYNDICATE, LIMITED owns the Dillon High Grade Silver discovery in the Camsell River Section near White Eagle Silver Mines. This discovery ranks with the most outstanding in the area.

(4) DILLON ORE ASSAYS 4,500 ounces of silver per ton. Value $2,000.00 per ton.

(5) ON THE MACKENZIE ISLAND a high grade gold discovery was made, assaying up to $70.00 per ton.

(6) SIXTEEN VEINS have already been discovered on the various properties owned by the Syndicate, every vein returning good values in either Silver or Gold.

(7) IT IS THE INTENTION TO MAKE SHIPMENTS OF HIGH GRADE SILVER ORE TO THE SMELTER DURING 1934.

(8) THE CAPITALIZATION of the Syndicate is extremely low, being 150,000 share-units, 50,000 of which are still in the treasury.

(9) THE MONARCH GREAT BEAR SYNDICATE, LIMITED is the most outstanding mining speculation being offered in Canada to-day.

(10) A CREW OF HAND-PICKED MINERS are on the way into Great Bear Lake to open up the high grade silver veins on the Camsell River group. Production of high grade silver will soon be under way.

PRICE $2.00 PER SHARE UNIT

BURTON AND COMPANY

Since 1926

INVESTMENT DEALERS

302 Bay Street Toronto, Canada

Messrs. Burton and Company,
Trusts and Guarantee Bldg.,
Toronto, Canada.

Gentlemen,—

Please forward full particulars and map regarding Monarch Great Bear Syndicate Limited — Share-Units, without obligation on my part, to

NAME ....

ADDRESS ....

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, P. H. Wills branch manager. Quotations at close.

MINES

Ashley 98
Ajax 1.13
Acme 34¼
Breth. Treth 9½
Barry Hollinger 13⅝
Base Metals 1.40
Bobjo 48½
Big Missouri 33
Bagamac 22
Castle Treth. 69½
Coniaurum 1.28
Central Patricia 70
Central Manitoba 10
Coast Copper 4.40
Dome 37.25
Dominion Explorer 4
Eldorado 2.83
Falconbridge 3.82
Goldale 15
Granada 70
Hollinger 15.45
Home Oil 1.42
Hudson's Bay 12.75
Howey 1.25
Kirkland Lake 50
Kirkland Townsite 26
Lake Shore 49.50
Macassa 2.63
Malartic 65
McIntyre bid 43.25
Mining Corporation 1.96
McLeod River 5
McWaters 40
Moffat Hall 6
Nipissing 2.29
Noranda 32.75
International Nickel 27.75
B.C. Pioneer 12.75
Parkhill 68
Premier 1.29
Reno 93
St. Anthony 51
Sherritt 1.06
Siscoe 2.11
San Antonio 3.80
Stadacona 27
Sudbury Basin 1.80
Sylvanite 2.50
Teck Hughes 6.05
Ventures 88
Wayside 38
Waite Amulet 1.28
Wright Hargreaves 8.90
McVittie 70½
God's Lake 1.38
Thompson Cad. 48
Bear 46
Maple Leaf 60
McMillan 65
Reade Auth. 92
Greene Stabl. 80
White Eagle 36

Toronto.

B. A. Oil, 14⅝.
Imperial Oil, 14⅝.
McColl-Frontenac, 13¼.
International Pete, 27.
Brewers and Distillers, 170.
Distillers Seagrams, 16½.
Walker's, 33¼.
Walker's Preferred, 15⅝.
Canadian Ind. Alcohol, 12⅛.
Canada Bud, 9⅛.
Bell Telephone, 119.
C.P.R., 16¼.
Canada Car, 7⅛ asked.
Canada Cement, 7⅝.
Canada Malting, 32½.
Cockshutt, 7⅛.
Dominion Stores, 20¼.
Dominion Bridge, 33¼.
Ford "A", 21½.
Smelters, 154½.
Loblaw "A", 17⅝.
Montreal Power, 37½.
Massey Harris, 5⅝.
Page Hersey, 66.
Power Corporation, 11⅝.
Canada Vinegar, 24.
Steel of Canada, 36¼.
Brazilian, 10½.
Gypsum, 6¼.
C.I.A. (new), bid 9¼.
C.I.A. (preferred), bid 14⅝.

New York.

American Can, 97¼.
Auburn, 37½.
American For. Power, 14⅝.
National Distillers, 25¼.
N. Y. Central, 28½.
Electric Auto Lite, 21¼.
Consolidated Gas, 33¼.
General Motors, 33¼.
Inter. Telephone, 13⅝.
Standard Oil of N. J., 42⅝.
Chrysler, 42¼.
North American, 15⅝.
National Dairy Products, 15¾.
Montgomery Ward, 26⅝.
Phillip's Pete, 17½.
Radio, 7⅝.
Standard Brands, 19⅝.
Stewart Warner, 7⅝.
American T. and T., 110½.
United Aircraft, 20⅝.
Vanadium, 22.
Westinghouse, 34.
U.S. Steel, 44½.
U. S. Smelters, 115.

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson and Co.

	May	July	Oct
Wheat	69	70¼	71⅝
Rye	45	46⅝	48⅝
Barley	37¼	36⅝	40¼
Oats	33	34⅛	34⅝

Price range May wheat today, high 70¼; low 68½; close 69.

REVISE WHEAT PRICE PLAN

LONDON, May 9.—(CP Cable)—The Minimum World Price plan for exported wheat will be revised in order to put it into clearer terms.

UNLISTED MINES

by A. H. Ketcheson and Co.
Adanac 30a
Beattie 120-125
Bidgood 3-3⅝
Big Long Lac 18a
Bathurst 4-5
Buffalo Ank. 178-186
B.C. Nickel 134-140
Bussieres 60a
Can. Pandora 30a
Can. Malach 19a
Casey Summit 66-72
Columario 18-22
Crown Res. 12-15
Fiske 2½-3½
Four Nations U. 1000a.
Francoeur Mines 26-30
Great Bear Lake 35-39
Great Bear Dev. 35a
Gabrielle 50-54
Units 6300-6600
Island Lake 15a
Johnson Nip 29-33
Kenty Gold 80a
Kirkland Gold 31a
Kirkland Premier 3¼-4¼
Lamaque Gold 166-196
Lamaque Contact 23a
Horseshoe 5-6½
Long Lac Lagoon 26-28
Metals Dev. 4-6
Morning Star 33-37
Mecca 20a
McLeod Cockshutt 39-43
McQuaig Red Lake 33-36
North Shore 24a
Normont 12-15
Pickle Crow 68-72
Queen Lebel 12-15
Quebec Eureka Un 1000-1500
Reserve Is. 25a
Smelters Gold 29-31
Toburn 146-153
Tashota 5-6
Tiblemont Is. 60-70
Wendigo 55-59
Wingold 50a
West Red Lake 21a
Young Davidson 29-33
Forty Four 900-1000
Shawkey 34-37
Quebec Eureka 12-15

Stock Market Gossip

WESTERN WHEAT

Winnipeg—The ruinous dry spell that developed on Tuesday in the blazing day of heat in the west was climaxed late yesterday afternoon by a cyclonic wind and dust storms and rains whose effects were felt over a wide section of Saskatchewan and west Manitoba. Preceded by a high wind and dust storm rain began to fall last night in the Minnedosa and Brandon districts. In Saskatchewan damage amounted to several thousands.

Inflation Talk in U. S.

Chicago—Inflation talk was regared as adding tremendously to a decidedly bullish situation based on drought over a wide area in North America and parts of Europe and Russia. Weather reports are regarded as the governing factors in the grain market creating a mixed sentiment with the trade bullish. Lack of subsoil moisture is the main feature and is bringing in a fair run of buying especially among the smaller traders. Professionals while leaning to the buying side on all weak spots are cautious and take profits on all sharp upturns.

Gold Production

Ottawa—Production in March amounted to 249,310 ozs. as compared with 260,154 ozs. in corresponding month last year the Dominion Bureau of Statistics says in report issued yesterday. Gold produbedduring first three months of 1934 totalled 703,555 ozs. a decrease of 2.5 per cent against output in corresponding period last year.

Ontario led with a production of 176,390 ozs. consisting of 36,912 from Kirkland Lake area , 78,226 from Porcupine Came and 11,252 from other sources. Quebec was next with 37,883 ozs. produced and British Columbia third with 23,272.

Silver.

In working toward a compromise with the insistent silver sentiment in congress President Roosevelt has discussed and outlined a course of action which would constitute a considerable advance toward announced monetary objectives of his administration.

Silver Draft.

Senator Pittman of Nevada has submitted to Herman Oliphant, general counsel to secretary of the treasury Morgenthau a bill which according to Senator Pittman would Silver, and direct secretary of treasury to establish and maintain a metallic reserve of which 25 per cent would be silver.

149 Lingham Street
(Opposite Pine St. School)

FOR SALE
At a Low Price

Frame house, eight rooms and three piece bath, garage, large hen house, strawberries, raspberries, one apple tree, one plum tree, a few gooseberry bushes. Two lots—house lot and adjoining lot—both 64½ x 120 feet.

Car Goes With Property

Buick 6, 7 passenger, 1926 model touring car, new tires, first class mechanical condition. Investigate this proposition. Reasonable cash payment balance arranged on easy terms.

Belleville Locators
Geo. N. German, Prop.
166 Front St.
Phone 98 House Phone 887

WANTED
Lawn Mowers to sharpen, called for and delivered.
Cooke's Repair Service
Phone 1138F.
m7-6t.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND OTHERS

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE of Samuel Beer, late of the City of Belleville in the County of Hastings, Mason, Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1927, Chapter 150, Section 51, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of Samuel Beer, late of the City of Belleville in the County of Hastings, who died on or about the 24th day of April, A.D., 1934, are requested to forward their claims, duly proven, to the undersigned, on or before the 15th of June, 1934.

AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that after the said date the executrices will proceed to distribute the estate among the parties entitled thereto having regard only to such claims of which they shall then have notice.

DATED at Belleville this 8th day of May, A.D., 1934.

Walbridge, Cameron & Company,
Barristers,
Dominion Bank Building,
Belleville, Ontario,
Solicitors for the Executrices.
m9 16 23.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND OTHERS

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF MARY C. JESSOP late of the City of Belleville in the County of Hastings, Widow, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1927, Chapter 150, Section 51, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of Mary C. Jessop, late of the City of Belleville in the County of Hastings, who died on or about the 23rd day of February, 1934 are requested to forward claims, duly proven to the undersigned, on or before the 8th day of June, 1934.

AND, NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that after the said date the executor will proceed to distribute the estate, among the parties entitled thereto having regard only to such claims of which he shall then have notice.

DATED at Belleville this 8th day of May, 1934.

Wallbridge, Cameron & Company,
Barristers &c.,
Belleville, Ontario,
Solicitors for the executor.
m9 16 30.

TENDERS FOR COAL AND COKE

SEALED Tenders addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for coal", will be received until 12 o'clock noon (daylight saving) Thursday, June 14, 1934, for the supply of coal and coke for the Dominion Buildings throughout the Province of Ontario.

Forms of tender with specifications and conditions attached can be obtained from the Purchasing Agent, Dept. of Public Works, Ottawa; and the Supervising Architect, 36 Adelaide St. East, Toronto, Ont.

Tenders will not be considered unless made on the forms supplied by the Department and in accordance with departmental specifications and conditions.

The right to demand from the successful tenderer a deposit, not exceeding 10 percent of the amount of the tender, to secure the proper fulfilment of the contract, is reserved.

By Order,
N. DESJARDINS,
Secretary.
Department of Public Works,
Ottawa, May 8, 1934.
m9 16 23.

FOUND

THIS MORNING, SUM OF MONEY—Owner may have same by proving property and paying for this advertisement Inquire at this office. m9-1t

LOST

SATURDAY NOON, ROLL OF bills between Bridge Street and Pinnacle and West Hill Bus. Reward if left at this office. m7-2t

YOU'LL BE AMAZED at the relief you will get for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago by using RUMACAPS. — Ostrom's Drug Store, 213 Front Street.

SELL! Through the WANT-ADS

DIED

BENNETT—In Thurlow at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Thos. Clayton, on Monday, May 7th, 1934, William Charles Bennett, in his 87th year.

Funeral from Thos. C. Thompson's Funeral Home, 38 Everett Street, on Thursday, May 10th Service at 2.30. Interment in Belleville Cemetery. m9-1t

DIED

BELNAP — In Rossmore on Tuesday, May 8th, 1934, Caroline Belnap, widow of Daniel Belnap, aged 87 years.

The funeral will take place from the home of her son, Frank Belnap, on Thursday, May 10th, Service in the home at 2 p.m. Interment in Simond's cemetery. m9-1t

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland A. Pinkston
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve for Less
FUNERAL HOME
Cor. Church St. and Victoria Ave.
Phone 2285

Thomas C. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
38 Everett St. Phone 62
Office
238 Front St. Phone 63

THE MARTIN
FUNERAL HOME
210-212 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 2665
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

BELLEVILLE
BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
27 Campbell St.
Phone 774-W Day and Night
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

BELLEVILLE-MADOC BUS
Leaves Belleville
7 A.M. and 5.30 P.M.
Leaves Madoc
9 A.M. and 2.30 P.M.
PHONE 1340

TENDERS FOR PURCHASE OF BELLEVILLE ARENA

Sealed tenders addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for purchase of Belleville Arena" will be received until 12 o'clock noon, Saturday, May 26, 1934, for the purchase of the lands and brick structure erected thereon, owned by Belleville Arena Limited, situated on the South side of Market Street, Belleville, Ontario.

Each tender must be accompanied by a marked cheque on a chartered bank in Canada made available to the order of the owner, Belleville Arena Limited, equal to 10 per centum of the amount of the tender. After the successful tenderer shall pay the balance of the purchase price within 15 days thereafter without interest and shall enter into an agreement to complete the purchase in accordance with the conditions contained therein, copies of which can be obtained from the Secretary. Cheques of unsuccessful tenders will be returned immediately after May 26, 1934 without interest.

The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

DATED May 8, 1934.

A. P. Allen,
Secretary, Belleville Arena Limited,
212 Dundas Street, East,
Belleville, Ontario.
m5 9 12.

AUCTION SALE

Household effects including piano (new), at 88 Grier Street on Thursday, May 10th, at one-thirty o'clock. A good sale. Geo. O. Tice, Auctioneer. m8-2t

Attention

The Conservative Convention for West Hastings will be held in the Town Hall, Marmora, Friday, May 11th, at 2 p.m. for the purpose of selecting a candidate. All supporters of the Henry Government are cordially invited.

R. A. Elliott, President, Deloro, P.O.
R. H. Ketcheson, Secretary, Belleville.
m4 7 9.

PERSONAL

SAFELY? SANELY? SURELY, will Slendor Tablets help you remove that uncomfortable excess avoirdupois which encumbers and embarrasses you. Three weeks treatment $1.50 from McKeown's Drug Store.

PHONE 99
Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagement Notices $1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; In Memoriam, $1.00; Memoriam Poetry, minimum charge, $1.00 for 10 lines or less than 10c per count line; Ladies Receiving Announcements, minimum charge 75c.

CLASSIFIED — (For Sale, Wanted, etc.)—1½c per word each for first TWO insertions, subsequent insertions 1c per word, minimum 30 words.

COMING EVENTS—3c per insertion for 25 words or under, over that amount 2c per word.

PROFESSIONAL, LEGAL AND BUSINESS CARDS—(Yearly Contract) $2.00 per month per inch.

OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES (including those concerning Legal Sales)—15c per agate line (14 lines to inch) for first insertion; 10c per line for subsequent insertions.

AUCTION SALE—3c per word, heading to count as 12 words; minimum 25 words for 75c; consecutive insertions, 2c per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

Telephone your Want Ads when it is most convenient. PHONE 99. The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one insertion of an incorrect ad. Phone us if it is wrong.

Advertisers may have their replies addressed to Box Number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—A LADY OVER 28 TO demonstrate an unusual Corset Service. A real opportunity to make money. Demand biggest in years. Every woman a prospect. We train you. Apply Box "E" Ontario Intelligencer. m9-3t

FULLY QUALIFIED METAL FINishers wanted by Ontario Automobile manufacturer. Must be capable of doing all Metal finishing operations. Auto body experience essential. Apply to Employment Service of Canada, 19 Campbell St., Belleville. m9-3t

LADY TO TAKE ORDERS SPARE time, "Guaranteed Goods," good pay. Call 7 to 9 at 268 Coleman Street. m9-3t

MAN WANTED FOR ROUTE. Steady, no layoff if you work 8 hours daily. Apply R. Semple, J. R. Watkins Co., 2195 Masson St., Montreal. m7 9 14 16

FOR SALE

ONE LARGE TENT. APPLY 24 Meyers St. Phone 597M. m9-3t.

BY PRIVATE SALE

AT 111 LINGHAM ST. PRIVATE sale of real good furniture, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, from 2 to 5. m9-1t

FOX TERRIER PUPS ON THE market next Saturday (May 12), Percy Burns, Picton People's Mutual Telephone, Demorestville. m9-1t.

ENGLISH PRAM, ROGER'S NINE tube radio. Best offers. Owner leaving city. Apply 19 Brown St. m9-3t

DOUBLE BARRELLED GUN, 12 gauge Winchester target rifle, 22 calibre, oval top table, good condition, 20 Murney. m8-3t

CHEAP, GOOD MILCH COW, well bred. Phone 1362W. Apply 104 W. Moira St. m7-3t

ESSEX SUPER SIX '28 MODEL. Good condition. L. Soules, 135 Lingham St. Phone 1349M. m7-3t

TO-LET

APARTMENT FIVE ROOMS heated, hardwood floors, frigidaire, electric range. Possession at once. Apply at Ontario Intelligencer Office m9-tf.

SMALL SIX ROOMED HOUSE. All conveniences. Garage and garden. Apply 75 Pine St. m9-1t

FOR THE SUMMER MONTHS, 5 roomed furnished apartment and sun room. Apply 49 Victoria Ave. Phone 483F. m9-2t

LARGE APARTMENT A-1 CONdition, 149 Pinnacle Street. Apply personally to Hotel Belvidere. m9-tf.

GOOD FURNISHED BED ROOMS. Very central. All conveniences. Suit business men. Mrs. R. H. Morgan, 17 Bridge East. m9-3t

RESIDENCE 23 STATION ST. ALL modern conveniences, $30 per month. There are two vacancies in the Bellevue Apartments available at $40. per month including frigidaire, hot and cold water. Janitor service, and modernly equipped. R. J. Graham. a28-w-s-tf.

PASTURE FOR CATTLE. APPLY Geo. Denyes, College Street W. Phone 932M. m7-3t.

3 ROOMS PARTLY FURNISHED or unfurnished. All conveniences for light housekeeping. Apply between 6 and 8 p.m. at 178 Foster Av. m7-tf.

MODERN 8 ROOM BRICK house. Large garden, and garage. 32 Frank St. Apply on premises. m9-3t

3 ROOM HEATED APARTMENT. suitable for office or light housekeeping. Apply 251 Front Street. m1-tf.

FIVE ROOMED APARTMENT. hardwood floors, heated, garage. G. R. Thompson, 104 Dundas St. West. m1-1m.

5 ROOM APARTMENT, MODERN conveniences. Also 1 room apartment, suitable for light housekeeping. Apply 150 Front Street. Phone 1379. a27-tf.

Business Directory

AUCTIONEER
For City of Belleville and Provincial
NORMAN MONTGOMERY
55 Bridge West Belleville
Phone 1170
m7-1m.

AUTOMOBILE LOANS

AUTO LOANS AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner Car Financing of All Kinds
S. J. FISHER & SON
30 Bridge St. E. Telephone 188
Representing
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto-Ottawa-London-Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., SPECIAL examination with the Radioclast reveals all diseases in the early stages. Foot disorders corrected, all diseases treated. Phone 900 or write 388 Coleman St., Belleville.

H. R. and Vera E. Pitcher
CHIROPRACTORS
(Honour Graduates)
Palbo-Neurometer Service
62½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1274 Belleville, Ont.

DENTIST

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 448 240½ Front St.
j17-3m.

SURVEYORS

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to. PHONE 6—P.O. BOX 60 MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS and HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
251 Front St. Phone 12

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
278 Front Street Phone 1154W

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738. P. H. Wills, Branch Manager. n5-1y.

LEGAL

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public. Chas. A. Payne, K.C., R. D. Arnott. Offices: 219 Front Street, Belleville, Ont.

CHARLES H. KERR, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary and Commissioner, 28 Bridge St. East, Belleville, Ont., Phone 42.

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLIcitor, Notary Public, etc., 15 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. m4-tf.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office, Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON & GRAHAM, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners. Office: 28 Bridge Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on mortgages. W. N. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham. Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late F. S. Wallbridge) Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 28 Bridge Street E. E. J. Butler, K.C. Ormonde Butler.

B. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister Solicitor Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Building, Belleville Ontario

For ECONOMY Read the ADVERTISEMENTS

PUPILS MARK ARBOUR DAY

Tweed Cons. School Children Hosts to Separate School

Tweed—The teachers and children of the Consolidated School celebrated Arbour Day on Friday, May 4th. The grounds around the school building were carefully raked and the rubbish burned or otherwise disposed of. They now present a neat and orderly appearance. One of the classes under the direction of Miss Florence Blaney, teacher of agriculture, raked the school garden and staked out plots of uniform size in preparation for the sowing of seeds this week.

In the afternoon the pupils of the Consolidated School were hosts to the pupils of the Separate School and a softball double-header was played. The first game between the boys of the two schools resulted in a victory for the home team by the close score of 7 to 4 in five innings, the visitors scoring three runs in the last inning. Mr. S. H. Connor, Principal of the Consolidated School acted as umpire.

The Line-ups:

Separate School—Jerome Courneyea p; Andrew Kelly rf; Harold Meraw c; Gerald Healey lf; Joe Fallroy 1b; Leo O'Coin 3b; Stanis Hotts cf; Tom Donohue b; Dorion Shanquès ss; Charles Barrow 2b; Bernard Trudeau rf.

Consolidated School — Francis Thompson ss; Wilbur Bateman p; Donald Bateman 2b; Harmon Simmons c; Marvin Van Horne 3b; Harold Long 1b; Kenneth Rodgers lf; Earl Thompson cf; Stafford Way rf.

In the second game of the double header the more experienced girls of the Separate School overwhelmed their opponents by a score of 32 to 12 in seven innings. Joe Courneyea officiated as umpire of this game.

Mrs. (Dr.) M. G. Dales entertained a number of friends at a delightful bridge party on Wednesday evening. Mr. I. D. Corcoran was the winner, compiling the highest score.

The Ladies' Bowling Club held its annual meeting at the home of the retiring President, Mrs. H. E. Wager. After a delightful supper at 6.30 p.m. the meeting was called to order and the following officers were elected for the present years 1934.

Hon. Pres.—Mrs. H. E. Wager.
Pres.—Mrs. Geo. E. Clark
1st Vice Pres.—Mrs. F. Hindle
2nd Vice Pres.—Mrs. W. A. Beatty.
Secy.-Treas.—Mrs. H. Murphy
Games Committee—Mesdames F. Hindle, C. H. Kerr and W. E. Tummon.
Skips—Mesdames Wager, Kerr, Beatty, Hindle and Miss J. Wright.

Membership and Social Committee are composed of the executive officers named above. At the conclusion of the business meeting six tables of bridge were arranged with Mrs. Hindle successful in winning the prize for highest score and Mrs. D. H. Morrison the consolation. The ladies are deeply indebted to Mrs. Wager for her capable leadership of the club during the year 1933 and for the delightful way in which she had arranged for their entertainment at the annual business meeting.

At the convention held in Madoc on Tuesday, May 1st, Mr. J. W. Kingston of Tweed was elected first vice-president of the East Hastings Conservative Association.

The Bird House Contest sponsored by Tweed Horticultural Society was held on Friday afternoon, May 4th. This is the first event of the kind ever held in Tweed and the interest manifested by the boys and girls speaks well for the future of bird life in Tweed and the vicinity. A good deal of credit for the success of this venture is due to the enthusiasm aroused by Rev. R. R. Nicholson, United Church minister who is an authority on the subject and delivers illustrated addresses on bird life. It was largely through him that the Horticultural Society decided to foster this contest which is an important branch of its work. Thirty-two boys and three girls entered martin, bluebird, tree-swallow, wren or robin boxes in the competition. These boxes were placed on exhibition in the show window of A. C. Blakely's furniture store for some time on Friday afternoon. They were then removed to the Consolidated School where they were judged by Rev. R. R. Nicholson and Mr. C. H. Kerr.

The prizes were awarded as follows:

Class A—Open to boys of the High School and of the Fourth classes of the Separate School.

Sec. 1 Martin House—First—Harmon Simon; second, Francis Thompson.

Sec. 2—Bluebird, Tree Swallow, Wren or Robin—First—Ross Duggan; second—Robert Elliott; third—Donald Bateman; Extra—Wilbur Bateman.

Class B—Open to all girls and boys of the third and lower classes of the Separate and Consolidated Schools.

Sec. 1—Martin House—No awards were made in this section as the nesting boxes were not suited to martins.

Sec. 2—Bluebird or Tree Swallow—First—Fred Shewring; Second—Bill McCrea; Third — Billie Barnett; Extra—Jean Sills and Douglas Connor.

Sec. 3—Wren—First—Mary Kleinsteuber; Second—Gleen Connor; Third—Francis Baldwin; Fourth—Bert Reynolds.

Sec. 4—Robin Shelf—No entries in this section.

All of these boxes gave evidence of considerable time and care being devoted by boys and girls to their construction. Many of the boxes were constructed of rustic material. In several instances a section of a round log about one foot in length was cut in two lengthwise, the interior hollowed out with a gouge or other tool, a hole of the proper size bored in one piece and the two sections nailed together again. Others were made of slabs and bark. One used half a small nail keg which was covered with bark and the sloping roof thatched with rushes after the manner of the native huts of Africa. Another boy had gone to a great deal of trouble to construct a log cabin of red willow twigs, roofing it with the same material. Some of the models made of dressed lumber by the boys of the manual training class of Tweed Consolidated School were exceptionally well done and showed the benefit of such work taught in the school.

A number of the entries for some fault in construction or size could not receive a prize and yet represented a great deal of work on the part of the exhibitor. Mr. C. H. Kerr, one of the judges, who is deeply interested in the work of the girls and boys thought it was unfortunate that these efforts should be unrewarded. So for this purpose he donated three pair of running shoes which are awarded to Jean Sills, Douglas Connor and Wilbur Bateman who were among those who did not win prizes but whose work deserves special mention. The Society deeply appreciated Mr. Kerr's generosity.

In the evening at eight o'clock a number of the children with their parents and friends gathered at the school to inspect the exhibit and to hear the illustrated Bird Lecture. Before this was given Mr. Nicholson explained defects in the construction of some of the bird boxes and pointed out points of merit in others. This should prove of value in later competitions.

Through the kindness of the Consolidated School Board the use of the school and the school lantern were granted to the Horticultural Society. The illustrated address by Mr. Nicholson was greatly enjoyed by everyone and did much to stimulate an interest in our bird friends so useful to man as destroyers of injurious insects and to gladden his heart with beautiful music. A collection was taken up to defray expenses in connection with the contest.

The funeral of the late William D. Healey of Stoco was held on Monday, April 30th from his late home to St. Edmund's Church, Stoco. The late Mr. Healey, who was in his 79th year, passed away on Wednesday following a stroke. He is survived by his widow formerly Miss Nora Cleary of Erinsville, two sons Fred of Stoco and Casey of Los Angeles, two brothers, John and Lawrence both of Stoco and two sisters, Mrs. Bridget Fleming of Larkins, and Mrs. Margaret Hinch of Rochester N.Y.

The deceased had spent nearly all his life in Stoco where he was a prosperous farmer. He was a Liberal in politics and a member of the Holy Name Society.

Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Walter Healey, a nephew of the deceased, of Napanee. Interment was in Stoco Cemetery. The bearers were five nephews and one grandson; Justin, Vincent, Stanton, Dennis and Frank Healey of Stoco and Fred Williams of Detroit.

Mr. Gardner Horton of Flinton, who sometime ago, was seriously crushed by a large mass of frozen gravel in a gravel pit while engaged on the Highway and suffered a fracture of the knee and ankle was removed on Sunday to his home in Flinton from the home of Mrs. Geo. Lalonde, Tweed, where he was taken following his accident. The injured leg has been placed in a cast and is doing as well as can be expected.

Those who have been driving along Highway No. 7 report that there have been severe brush fires in the north country during the past few days. For a time Northbrook was in considerable danger which fortunately was averted with aid secured from men working on the highway.

On Monday April 30th, friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Thos. Gaffney of Bogart, who with his family is moving to another community. An enjoyable evening was spent with music selection being rendered by Messrs J. Erwin, L. O'Coin and T. Gaffney. Clever step dancing by Messrs J. O'Coin and V. Simmons was appreciated. After an evening spent in dancing, a delightful lunch was served. Mr. Peter Delore, on behalf of the community presented Mr. and Mrs. Gaffney with a purse, while the following address was read by Mr. F. J. Kinlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaffney and family:

Tonight, dear friends, each heart is tainted with a sadness, the depth of which true friends can only know, a sadness occasioned by your leaving us, after being with us, have been one of us for a time which may be as a passage of time long, but which, to us, looking back, seems all too short; a sadness of which the darkness is only lit by one little note of thankfulness that the distance will not be so great that we will entirely lose the pleasure and benefit of your presence, a sadness which is reciprocated by the joy of those new neighbors who have cause to welcome you in that pleasure, benefit, and example which is now the great loss of Bogart community, Stoco parish, Bogart School and the School Board, but which is now the gain of another community, parish and school; a sadness which occasioned this gathering of friends and neighbors to tell you and to show you that although as neighbors we reluctantly part, as friends, we shall never part; a sadness which will be lightened if you will please accept this comparatively meagre token of our best wishes for your well-deserved success and happiness in your new home.

Signed—Peter Delore, Francis Mereau.

"I like Muffets"

"Breakfast to me is like a close shave. It's got to be smooth, easy to take and refreshing. That's why I like Muffets."

"It's a good thing that I do like Muffets. My mistress buys them all the time and she ought to know, her being a dietician before she was married."

"They're the ticket! A one way passage to health and enjoyment on the smoothest route I've ever travelled—get aboard the Muffet special."

An extra Muffet Feature

Muffets are the only whole wheat biscuits irradiated for Sunshine Vitamin "D" Patent (No. 281158). Sufficient quantities of this vitamin are essential to health. Ask your doctor.

Everybody likes Muffets

Muffets are ribbons of all-Canadian whole wheat... wound round and round... then toasted to a rich-flavoured crispness. A new process has made possible these new improved wheat ribbons that crumble easily... break readily.

MUFFETS

Made in Canada by The Quaker Oats Company

FIRE BREAKS OUT IN WOODS

Work of Sidney Neighbors Keeps Flames Under Control

4th Sidney—On Friday the children enjoyed Arbor Day when in the morning they were busy cleaning the school and yard. Then with their teacher and a number of young ladies they wended their way to the woods where they all enjoyed a real weiner roast after which they all enjoyed picking flowers, then wended their way home very tired.

On Sunday morning a very exciting time was spent fighting fire when in some manner broke out in Mr. J. Hannah's woods. A number turned out and fought it for an hour or more when it came under control with pails of water being thrown on the fences and stumps while it was going up into some trees which was also checked. How the fire started is unknown.

The milk wagon is again heard rattling over the roads to the cheese factory. Mr. E. Phillips and Mr. C. Browne are the milk drawers for the season.

The farmers are busy on their land putting in their crop, having extra amount of work to do with fall wheat and alfalfa are a total failure.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Noyes in our neighborhood who have moved on Mr. and Mrs. C. Holmes' farm.

On Monday evening last a large number of neighbors and friends had a real lively time when they all met and gave Mr. Geo. Reid and bride a charivari. George gave them a nice sum of money after which ice cream was bought and served to the crowd. All enjoyed the treat very much.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Pope of Victoria and Mr. and Mrs. H. Pound and son Ross spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. Harris.

Mr. H. Hookes spent Saturday evening with Mr. Robt. MacPherson.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Nobes have moved to their new home in Prince Edward County.

BIG ISLAND SCHOOL TEAM IS VICTORIOUS

Big Island—Mr. and Mrs. B. Bieth Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goraline and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Badgley spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Peck, it being the occasion of Mr. Peck's 75th birthday.

Mrs. Arnold Anderson is spending a few days with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clement.

Mr. John Van Blaricom spent Tuesday with his daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Everett Johnson.

Miss Mary Sprague spent Sunday with her friend Miss Marion Carter.

Mr. Ken Latta and mother have returned home after a fortnight visit with relatives in Southampton.

Mrs. Walter Norton, Douglas and Jack spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Flave Gorsline.

Mr. Maurice Williams spent Sunday in Belleville.

Mrs. Wilmet Wager has been spending a few days with Mrs. Annie Wager, Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Badgley are spending a few days with the former's sister Mrs. Emma Wager who is very ill.

Mrs. Martin spent Sunday with her daughter Mrs. Wilfred Williams.

Mrs. Lee Williams spent Sunday with her sister Mrs. Blake Jones, Crofton.

Demorestville School visited Big Island School on Tuesday afternoon to play baseball. Big Island being the winners.

BUSINESS EMERGING

Halifax, May 8—(CP)—Canadian business is emerging from its worst period of economic distress without resort to artificial methods and is poised on the threshold of new and greater expansion, Major J. J. Anthes of Toronto, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, told a gathering of association members here yesterday.

Soldier Grateful "TO MECCA" Had Rash on Leg

Tried 17 Various Salves and Ointments

Mr. Joseph Miller of Alberta, who was a soldier in the Boer War, writes: "For years past I have had an almost incurable RASH on both legs. I tried 17 different salves and ointments and incurred unlimited expense in doing so. By chance I tried Mecca, and this I know—that my rash is gone, thanks to Mecca."

"Mecca" ointment has brought relief and healing to sufferers from all kinds of skin ailments. Keep a tin of "Mecca" handy in your home.

Sold by all Druggists—25c, 35c (Tube), 50c and $1.00.

The Hospitable Gesture of Serving GOOD TEA

For formal or informal entertaining, GOOD tea is always correct. Pouring it is a rite the smart hostess reserves for herself as the crowning intimate, hospitable gesture. Always serve GOOD tea for your family's own enjoyment of its finer flavour, as well as for the pleasure of your guests.

GOOD tea always gives more: more cups, more energy, more flavour, more refreshment and so, is the most economical as well as the most enjoyable of beverages.

Everyone can afford GOOD tea, Empire grown for the Empire's homes and brought to you by famous packers who employ tea experts to maintain perfection of quality and blend.

THE CEYLON TEA BUREAU

... nothing so refreshing as a cup of GOOD Tea

U.S. Consul Graduated at Queens, First Consul to Win Degree Here

Kingston, Ont., May 8—(CP) — When degrees are conferred at spring convocation at Queen's University on Wednesday, one of recipients of Master of Arts will be Major George Gregg Fuller, American Consul in Kingston. Although the consulate has been in existence in Kingston for 75 years, it is the first time that a consul ever studied for a degree at Queen's and it is also believed to be the first time an American consul studied for a degree in a Canadian university.

Major Fuller graduated from Yale University with a Bachelor of Arts degree 24 years ago and then took one year of post graduate work at the University of Berlin. Last fall he decided to attend Queen's and refresh his knowledge of economics. He took courses in banking, finance, international trade, politics, American and Canadian economic history and in addition wrote a 250 page thesis on analysis of trade between Canada and United States under reciprocity 1854 to 1866 and based on that analysis the many attempts to establish reciprocity up to 1910.

Although there was a 23 year period since Major Fuller attended classes did not find studies unduly difficult.

THIRD THURLOW W.C.T.U. MEETS

3rd Thurlow—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker attended last week the funeral of Mrs. Robert Hall, Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler of Stirling were the guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Doxtator.

A number from this line attended the W.C.T.U. at Mr. Wesley Bradshaw's on Sunday evening last.

Rev. Mr. Merrick spent the dinner hour on Sunday last at Mr. Frank Walker's.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thompson of Toronto have been spending a few days at their summer resort Hill Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and Mr. Frank Hawley called recently on Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cooley.

Miss Mabel Latta of White Lake has been visiting her uncle Mr. Fred Swain.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Mott, Belleville spent a day this week with Mr. Fred Swain.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Martin were callers this week of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cooley.

Mr. Harold Rupert entertained a number of friends one evening this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Clapp of Port Hope spent a few days recently with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Clapp.

Mrs. Margaret Drummond of Burlington has returned home after spending a few days with her sister Mrs. E. W. Brown.

98 OUT OF 100 WOMEN REPORT BENEFIT

No More Backaches

"I used to have backache most all the time and other troubles. No pep. I was telling a friend how I felt and she told me about your Vegetable Compound. I have taken it for four months and feel much better."—Mrs. P. L. McIsaac, 1011 Barrington St., Halifax, N. S.

If your back aches periodically as Mrs. McIsaac's did, give this medicine a good trial. Take it regularly and you will be pleased with the results.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Used by women for over 60 years

"Good Tea"

—is hard to define, easy to appreciate

THE CEYLON TEA BUREAU sought a descriptive phrase for better quality tea and selected the words "Good Tea". It is an apt choice because "Good Tea" has brought added pleasure to many Canadian homes. We had incorporated the slogan "Good Tea" in our advertising in 1894. "Good Tea" is hard to define, easy to appreciate. No product can acquire a "good name" overnight. In the business world a good name may only be won by a sustained standard of quality over a period of years. After forty years of uniformly high quality the name "RED ROSE" is your guide to "Good Tea".

NO ADVANCE IN PRICE

Red Label 25c ½ lb. Orange Pekoe 38c ½ lb.

Red Rose Tea

"is good tea"

484

Buy GOOD TEA

SALADA

WHAT IS HOME WITHOUT A GARDEN?

Early Spring Care of Lawns

Early Spring Feeding Will Assure a Healthy Vigorous Lawn Next Summer.

In beginning spring gardening operations include early spring care of the lawn in your plans. For the lawn is the carpet of that outdoor living room where you will be spending a great many hours in the coming months. It is the foundation on which you are building to can make or mar your outdoor surroundings.

Grass makes the best growth early in the season, when cool temperatures prevail, and we should therefore see that conditions are favorable to this early growth. One of the most important requirements is to see that there is in the soil germination will be hastened.

an ample supply of available plant food—that is, plant food capable of being dissolved and assimilated by the plant.

Well established grass becomes vigorous and hardy. It can withstand drought, insects and diseases to which it might otherwise succumb. Feeding produces a thick, matted turf which offers weeds a very poor chance of existing or even getting a start. A good root system is one of the results of proper feeding and the root system is very important in helping the lawn to withstand the hot summer weather that is to come.

An ideal time to apply this plant food is when spring thawing begins. The moisture that is in the soil and the ground is not too soft and mucky, therefore so as to avoid marring the lawn surface. Choose a day when the soil is dry. If you have a large area to cover, a plant food spreader will be found a real aid in spreading the plant food evenly and thoroughly. Where only a small area is fed area, it is satisfactory to apply by hand. Apply at the rate of 4 lbs. to one hundred square feet.

If application is made a little later, and the grass has already established a good top growth, be sure to wet it down thoroughly and wash the plant food off the blade of grass.

Rare or thin spots should be repaired so the grass will have a good start during the cool moist weather. Where seed is used as the food, is applied during the thawing period; it will sprout and firmly establish itself.

RECEPTION HELD FOR NEWCOMERS

Madoc Jct.—Miss Caroline Raynor visited relatives in Belleville on Saturday.

Mrs. Sam Danford and little granddaughter, Master Jackie Clarke, have returned home after visiting the past week with relatives in Detroit.

A number from here attended the Confirmation Service at St. Andrew's Church, Stirling on Sunday morning last.

Mr. Leonard Waterfall spent the dinner hour Sunday with friends in Stirling.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Raynor of Belleville were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Raynor.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pilchett and Rosella had dinner on Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. W. Pilchett's

Stirling.

The milk wagon is again making its rounds after the cheese factory.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Wannamaker entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Raynor, Caroline and Jackie, Mr. L. Waterfall and Mr. and Mrs. G. Pilchett, and Rosella on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ashley spent Sunday evening at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones'.

A very pleasant time was spent on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Beaudrie when the neighbors gathered for a "get acquainted party". Mr. and Mrs. Beaudrie have just recently moved into the community.

WELLERS' BAY CHEESE FACTORY OPENS OPERATION

Consecon—The Women's Association met in the vestry of the United Church on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Burr and Mrs. M. Stafford were in Belleville on Wednesday.

Mrs. Rita German called on friends in Picton on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones and Katie were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Veit, Jack and Joe visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Veit on Sunday.

Mr. Fred Bolke has moved to Mrs. Jennie Weeks' house on Main St.

Mr. F. McManus has purchased Mr. J. Foster's lot, bay frontage, and intends building a cottage.

Wellers' Bay Cheese Co. commenced for the season Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chase are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McDonald at Oxford.

The funeral of Mrs. Lewis Goodmurphy was conducted by the Rev. Swain at her late residence, fourth concession of Ameliasburg on Monday afternoon, interment at Carrying Place Cemetery. We extend sympathy to the bereaved husband and family.

TO SCOTLAND WITH TOM HAMILTON

The renowned Entertainer in song and story as Conductor on these special sailings

	Montreal	Quebec
ATHENIA	May 12	May 18
LETITIA	June 15	June 29
LETITIA	July 14	July 27
LETITIA	Nov. 29	(Quebec) Nov. 30

LOW OCEAN RATES

	One Way	Return
Cabin Class	from $122.	$226.
Tourist Class	from 104.50	189.
Third Class	- 82.	144.50

Ask for our folder about this and other features of Scottish character.

Apply to your local agent—No one can serve you better.

Anchor-Donaldson Line
207 Bay Street, Toronto

ANCHOR-DONALDSON
DIRECT TO THE HEART OF GLASGOW

6-65

Eldorado and Union Y.P.S. Banquet as Campaign Ends

Chimney Fire Leads to Total Destruction of Eldorado Home

MRS. OSBORNE DIES

Officers Are Elected By Institute at Rockburn

Eldorado, May 8—Mrs. James Osborne passed away at the home of her son, George Osborne, near Bannockburn, on Tuesday, May 1st, after a short illness.

Deceased was in his 86th year. The late Mrs. Osborne was born at Kingston, Ontario, in 1850, her maiden name was Elizabeth Magginson.

At the age of four years she came with her parents to Meggingson's Corners, where the first part of her life was spent. In the year 1870 she was united in marriage to James Osborne who predeceased her 32 years ago. To this union was born five sons and one daughter, Mrs. Nobt. Whittle, of Belleville, Mrs. Osborne of Buffalo, N.Y., Fred and George of Bannockburn, Charles of Toronto, who predeceased her some years ago.

She was a kind and Christian character and up until health prevented was always found in her place in the house of worship on Sunday.

Left to mourn her loss besides the sons and daughter are 18 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Osborne was held from the home of her son George Osborne, on Thursday afternoon. May 3rd at 2 o'clock to Eldorado Union Cemetery, where services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of Bannockburn, his text for this sermon "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God." Hebrews 4:9.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Fitzgerald, James Fox, James MacDonald, Walter Reniey, James Hamilton, Bert Selmer. Interment was made in the Eldorado cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Osborne, of Deloro, were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chambers on Sunday.

Mrs. George Lawrence of Sidney spent Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chambers.

Mrs. Chas. Holmes of Trenton, Monday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Bronson.

Mrs. Fred Chambers and Ernest spent the week end in Cobourg.

Mission Band

The regular meeting of the Band was held in the basement of the church on Saturday afternoon, April 28th.

President, Miss B. McCann opened the meeting with quiet music, followed with prayer by the leader. Hymn 384 was sung. The Scripture lesson was read by Miss Joyce Trumpour and Ruth Andrews.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mr. F. Trumpour. Mrs. A. Harvey reviewed the study book, and the roll call was responded to with a Bible verse. Hymn 386 "Onward Christian" was sung by Doris Andrews, Mary Hoyt, Joyce McCann, Harry White, Rosie McCann.

The Bible story, "Peter a Good Comrade" was given by Mrs. Albert Harvey, followed with Friendship prayer in unison.

A reading "The Three Magic Words" was given by Ruth Andrews and after silver "Missionary Bells" the Study Book story "Begging Bowls" was very interestingly given by Mrs. Albert Harvey.

A duodcast was given "An Active Church on Tuesday afternoon," by a woman missionary in Western China, by Joyce Trumpour and Ida Trumpour.

The Watch Tower was given by "Canada"; Reta McCann, "China"; Joyce Trumpour, "India"; Ruth Andrews "Japan". G. Trumpour "Temperance", Jean Trumpour.

A reading "My Neighbors" by Irene Wyrie. A reading "Rides in China", by Joyce Trumpour. After closing Hymn 385, Mrs. Albert Harvey closed the meeting with prayer.

Women's Institute

On Tuesday evening May 1st, Eldorado and Bannockburn Women's Institute met at the town hall Bannockburn with an attendance of 39. Mrs. Ed. Blakely, president occupied the chair. The meeting was opened with the Institute Ode and community singing. The roll call was responded to by each handing in their membership fee. Mrs. Kenneth Bateman read the minutes of the last meeting also the minutes of a special meeting prepared by Mrs. Harold Connerford and was given by Mrs. F. A. Nickle. The tickets which had been sold for the quilt were drawn. Mrs. Severn of Bannockburn drew the lucky ticket and received the quilt.

The appointing of the officers for the year then followed with Mrs. F. A. Nickle as chairman and Mrs. J. A. Denny and Mrs. H. Farnell as scrutineers. Officers for the year are as follows:

President, Mrs. James Baller; Vice-President, Mrs. Severn; District Director, Mrs. Bateman; alternate, Mrs. B. Carman; Secretary, Mrs. H. Farnell; Branch Directors, Mrs. H. Farnell, Mrs. James Baller, Mrs. K. Bateman, Mrs. Clarence Carman; Sick Committee, Mrs. Alex Hunter for Bannockburn; Eldorado, Mrs. Wm. Andrews and Mrs. F. Nickle; Umin, Mrs. Harry Blakely; Scotch Settlement, Mrs. Walter Pigeon. School Committee, Bannockburn, Mrs. Donly; Beats' school, Mrs. Albert Harvey; Blakely's, Mrs. J. Mosher; Eagle's Nest, Mrs. Seaman; Eldorado, Rugger's, Mrs. S. Mann; Burrit's Rapids, Mrs. Cecil Pigeon; Scotch Settlement, Mrs. Walter Pigeon; organist, Jr. Donly.

A vote of thanks was moved the retiring president, Mrs. F. Nickle, also to the retiring secretary, Mrs. K. Bateman for the splendid work done in the past year.

Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. J. Chesley. The meeting closed by all singing the National Anthem after which a dainty lunch was served by the ladies and a social time enjoyed.

Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wannamaker and son of Shirley, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wannamaker.

Mr. Hazlitt Holmes has returned home after spending the week end with his parents at Trenton.

Miss Eva Empey spent a few days the past week with Mildred McCann last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Blackburn entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. Harvey to tea on Sunday.

W. M. S.

The regular meeting of the Eldorado and Union W.M.S. was held on Wednesday afternoon, May 2nd at the home of Mrs. J. R. Trumpour with an attendance of 14. The president, Mrs. A. Empey, presided, and opened the meeting with hymn 96.

The Bible lesson, Matthew 25, was read in unison and was followed with a session of prayer by Mrs. Empey, Mrs. Ed. Blakely, Mrs. Work"; Mrs. Annie Holmes for Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. Geo. Robinson for "The Work of Prayer."

Mrs. M. Post, group leader for this month, had charge of the study and put on a very helpful and interesting session. The study was based on singing familiar hymns, followed by prayer for the work.

The study book talk, "Pitting Into the Worlds Life with China and Japan" was given by Mrs. Ed. Nickle and very much enjoyed by all. The Mission Band "Building on a Social Standpoint" by Mrs. Leslie Robinson, and "Building on a Business Standpoint" by Mrs. A. Empey, were very helpful. Mrs. McDougall closed this part of the session with prayer after which a short business discussion was held, planning ways and means of raising funds for the society and was decided to have a "Merry England supper" on June 5th.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Ed. Blakely and the roll call was responded to by a Bible verse. Items of business

Mrs. McDougall closed the meeting with prayer after which a dainty lunch was served by the hostess and a social hour enjoyed.

Y. P. S.

The Eldorado and Union Young People's Society gathered together in the parlors of the Eldorado United Church for a banquet on May 3rd. Every place at the tables was prettily decorated with pink streamers were effectively used. The menu which was provided by the members of the society was delicious. The tables were the Misses Florence Walker, Grace Bateman, Dorothy McCann, Reta McCann, Ida McCann and Luella Chambers. The Bible story, "Peter a Good Comrade" was given by Mrs. Albert Harvey, followed with Friendship prayer in unison.

A reading "The Three Magic Words" was given by Ruth Andrews and after silver "Missionary Bells" the Study Book story "Begging Bowles" was very interestingly given by Mrs. Wm. Andrews.

A duodcast was given "An Active Church on Tuesday afternoon," taken by a woman missionary in Western China, by Joyce Trumpour and Ida Trumpour.

The Watch Tower was given by "Canada"; Reta McCann, "China"; Joyce Trumpour, "India"; Ruth Andrews "Japan". G. Trumpour "Temperance", Jean Trumpour.

A reading "My Neighbors" by Irene Wyrie. A reading "Rides in China", by Joyce Trumpour. After closing Hymn 385, Mrs. Albert Harvey closed the meeting with prayer.

DON'T BE CONFUSED BY MISLEADING CLAIMS

Be Sure You Get Genuine Kellogg's, ALL-BRAN

Bran has proved so successful in relieving common constipation that recent competition has developed. Now products having only a fractional quantity of bran, blessed and with this minimum bran content is suffering.

You may have tried some of these part-bran products—and have been disappointed. Why? Because they do not furnish the amount of bran you need.

It's the "bulk" or fiber in bran that gently relieves common constipation. This "bulk" is similar to that finely vegetable fiber within the body, it absorbs moisture and forms a soft mass which gently clears out the intestinal wastes.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides this "bulk" in delightful cereal concentrated form. It also furnishes vitamin B, Iron and the bran in ALL-BRAN. It has won millions of friends because it relieves constipation, completion safely and pleasantly.

If you have tried bran in any same implies—with nothing added except the flavoring of Malt, Sugar and Salt.

When you buy a bran cereal for the relief of constipation, read the wording on the package. The facts are there! Make sure by getting Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—in the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ont., Canada.

Miss Reta McCann read a poem, "Jim Bludso" and Miss Joyce Trumpour sang a humorous reading entitled "Irish Stew."

A toast to the "whites" was proposed by Miss Olive Martin, leader of the red side and responded to by Miss Therpe. Ruth Andrews then favored with another solo, "Childrin's Joys". The toast to the red side was proposed by Grace Robinson, leader of the whites and was responded to by Miss Annie Holmes. Another humorous reading, "Caleb Coonrig's" was very delightfully given. The toast to the boys was proposed by Miss Ida Trumpour and responded to by Cecil Robinson, followed by a reading by Ruth Andrews. The toast to the girls was proposed by Gordon Pigeon and responded to by Frieda McCann. Solo, "Sweet Rose of Sharon Land Time in the Valley" by Lily Wright, with Miss Clarice Martin at the piano. Miss Pearl Empey at the organ, was then given a very delightful solo, evening was brought to a close by the repeating together of the Mizpah benediction.

The pupils and teacher of S. S. No. 11 held a very successful picnic in Mr. Fred Chambers' woods on Friday last. Games were played and the pupils all report a very enjoyable time.

Mr. Fred Wright and two sons spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. J. McAdam of Cooper.

Five believed to have started from a chimney, completely burned to the ground, the home belonging to Mr. J. Holland near Eldorado. Mr. Holland, who had farmed previously, Mr. Holland was living in the house at the time of the fire. The fire had got such a start when help arrived that it was impossible to save the house but most of the household effects were saved.

Personals.

Mr. Angus Andrew and son Douglas of Youngstown, N.Y. called on his brother, Mr. William Andrew on Sunday.

Mrs. Waller Bronson of Springbrook is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Harry Walker.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Fitzgerald and Jack spent the tea hour with the latter's uncle, Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes of Queensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. D. McCann and Mr. and Mrs. H. Shaw attended the funeral of Mrs. Lewis Goodfellow of Peterboro on Monday last.

Misses Annie and Ethel Fox and friend of Cobourg, spent the week-end at their father's, Mr. John Fox.

Rev. J. R. Trumpour was in Picton on Tuesday attending the Presbyterial meeting held there.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bateman and Leslie Post were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. J. O'Rourke at Queensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Post and Miss Leda Post spent Sunday with Mr. Keith Keson of Hannah's motored to Peterboro on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mr. J. Hunt.

Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Trumpour spent a dinner hour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Blakely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fitzgerald and Jack accompanied by Mr. William Holmes and Ernest spent Saturday visiting friends at Belleville and Trenton.

SURPRISE PARTY MARKS BIRTHDAY

Crofton—Ladies' Aid held at the home of Mrs. Jerry Covert on Wednesday afternoon, April 25th, attended.

Belleville visitors on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. B. Jones and Mrs. W. J. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bongard, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hovay, Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarke and Mrs. Connover.

Mr. Howard Fox of Surr's spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. Harold Baker.

Mr. Donald Monroe spent Sunday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Munroe.

Mrs. Victor Bongard and Andrew Munroe motored to Toronto on Friday and brought a horse.

Mrs. Jerry Covert called on Mrs. S. J. Munroe on Saturday afternoon.

On Monday evening a surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bongard in honor of Mrs. Bongard's birthday. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Adam Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Palmer of Belleville and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thompson of Picton and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mitchell of Northport.

Mrs. Shelly Williams called on Mrs. Ernest Crook one afternoon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Calnan and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Horsbeck were in Belleville on Friday.

The men are very busy on the land now sowing the seeds for another crop. All hope for a better yield than last season.

TEMPERANCE IS THEME OF ADDRESS

Centre—At Centre Church Sunday morning Mr. Lafferty of Toronto representing the Temperance Federation of Ontario gave a splendid address on the subject. Mr. Lafferty also was present at Sunday School session and gave a talk to the children about the "lily". The boys and girls and older ones also will long remember this talk.

Mrs. Archie Hall and cousin from Peterboro spent the week end with Mrs. Hall's sister, Mrs. Dowland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Reimer and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Fox, also Mrs. Julia Fox spent Sunday afternoon and evening with Belleville friends.

Mrs. G. W. Pymer and Ruth of Bennerville was Thursday visitors at Mr. Herbert Pulver's.

Mrs. Marcus Moy, also Mr. Moy Moy and Mr. Walter Moy motored to Madoc on Sunday visiting friends for the day.

Mr. W. N. Redner and daughter, Miss Helen Redner motored to Waterford on Thursday to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Buckle who resides there.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Parliament of Toronto are guests of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Parliament for a week.

Save Poker Hands to get Better Cigarette Papers FREE—Everybody agrees that "Chanticler" and "Vogue" are the best papers—you can get 5 large books of either brand—free for only the cost of one Poker Hand, from your nearest Poker Hand Premium Store or by mail from P.O. Box 1340, Montreal, P.Q.

TURRET YOU GET MORE TOBACCO FOR THE MONEY

Fine Cut CIGARETTE TOBACCO

with TURRET FINE CUT! and Poker Hands, too

"More tobacco for the money" means more cigarettes for the smoker with Turret Fine Cut. And it means better cigarettes, too —milder, cooler, more fragrant smokes! Turret Fine Cut gives you Poker Hands as well—which can be exchanged free for a wide list of valuable, useful gifts for yourself and your home. Start today to make your money go further—"roll your own" with Turret Fine Cut.

It pays to "Roll Your Own" with TURRET FINE CUT CIGARETTE TOBACCO SAVE THE POKER HANDS

Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Limited

2 EXTRA CORD PLIES UNDER THE TREAD —at NO EXTRA COST

GET the most for your money—buy Firestone—the tire that gives you 25 to 40% longer tire life—at no extra cost. Only in Firestone can you get all these extra features:

1 Gum-Dipped, Safe-T-Locked Cords—every fibre, strand and cord welded together with pure rubber.

2 Two Extra Cord Plies under the tread eliminate blow-outs, punctures and loose treads—makes the tire safe at any speed.

3 Safety Tread of tough, heat-resisting rubber is wider, deeper—gives up to 25% more non-skid wear.

IT really doesn't pay to take chances with ordinary tires when you can get all the Firestone extra values for the same money. And remember, Firestone tires are guaranteed for one year against blowouts, cuts, bruises and all other tire trouble except punctures. Drive in to your nearest Firestone Dealer today and let him replace thin, worn tires with the safest and most economical tires you can buy.

Firestone High Speed TIRES

AUTHORIZED FIRESTONE DEALERS "TOOTS" and "BOUNCER"

RED INDIAN SERVICE STATION

Corner Bridge and Front Sts.

FULL MICRO SAFETY

FREE! 1,001 PRIZES EVERY WEEK

"HEY KIDS! JOIN MY BASEBALL CLUB—AND WIN ONE OF THESE SWELL PRIZES! JUST MAIL YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS WITH ONE QUAKER PUFFED WHEAT OR RICE BOX TOP TO BABE RUTH'S BASEBALL CLUB, P.O. BOX 1083 CHICAGO FOR MEMBERSHIP BUTTON & CONTEST ENTRY FORM."

HERE ARE A FEW OF THE PRIZES

Trips to New York or Chicago to see me play, all expenses paid. Free Spalding Baseballs and Fielders' Gloves.

Listen in to BABE RUTH over the N.B.C. Blue Network every MON., WED. and FRI., 8.45 to 9 p.m. E.D.T.

QUAKER PUFFED WHEAT PUFFED RICE

CURRENT SPORT

(Day By Day)

In the near future the Ki-Y executive will convene to plan their summer's activities. This organisation is willing to foster both baseball and softball among the 'teen age boys of the city. In past years it has been practically impossible to interest the younger boys in the formation of a baseball league in the Ki-Y. Mr. Shortt stated recently that he would see that a baseball league was formed for boys under 17 years of age if sufficient clubs could be formed to warrant the purchase of equipment for such a loop. This is an opportunity for all boys under 18 years to get together. Mr. Shortt is willing to assist in any way. In the meantime the Ki-Y is going ahead with plans to operate junior, juvenile, bantam and midget softball league for the summer. All teams desiring to play in this league should apply to Mr. Shortt at the Y.M.C.A. Thru' the courtesy of the Kiwanis Club and the Y. crests will be awarded the members of various winners in the Ki-Y league for the past year. The annual meeting and distribution of prizes will be held before the end of the month. The Ki-Y sponsors hockey, baseball, softball and other sports among the 'teen age boys.

According to reports following the Wall St. softball game played at the College Hill field Monday night altogether too much rowdyism was seen. Yesterday the caretaker of the College Field announced that if these games could not be played in a sportsmanlike manner they would be discontinued there. Rumors have one player coming in for a suspension. When the time comes that players cannot conduct themselves as gentlemen on the diamond it should be time either they be expelled or the game discontinued locally. If present conditions continue at these games a more drastic measure may be necessary.

The stage is all set for tonight's all-star Kiwanis wrestling show at the Armouries. Matchmaker Tommy McClure has three fast bouts on the card, all being evenly matched. Naturally the Thomas-Underhill affair will feature insofar as local fans are concern, Thomas being a great wrestler and a crowd pleaser, while his opponent comes highly recommended from the University of Columbia. The Black Panther, that colored band leader from Harlem, takes on a tough opponent in Walter Stratton of Chicago, who is reputed to be one of the fastest men in the business. A sure-fire curtain raiser rounds out what looks to be the best show yet. It's for charity, so 'nuff sed

If the Baer-Carnera title bout scheduled for June 14 draws a three-quarter of a million dollar gate, as predicted by many, the challenger can sit back and smile to himself when he compares the 'take' with the stipend he received for his first fight, which happened to be the grand sum of four dollars. Max Baer has proven somewhat of a play boy, but recent press despatches are to the effect that he is training strenuously for his bout with carnera, the champ. The "Lumbering Italian," however, does not intend to waste much of his spare time fooling around and is at present undergoing training. Naturally the Yankee sport writers are boosting Baer's stock quite high in an endeavour to revive the interest of the fight game. Judging from past performances it will take more than a name to wrest the title from Carnera. He's far from the "clown" some Yankee sport writers would have one believe.

After bally-hooing the Oshawa Dukes to the limit all winter the Oshawa sport scribe is now searching Webster's for adequate phrases to quell the near riot that followed Saturday's game when the Dukes took a swell drubbing at the hands of the Malvern Grads right in Oshawa. The Motor City sport commentator all but promised the fans the provincial title before the team ever took the field. When they lost their first game at home Saturday the cry went up from the stands, "you guys should have stayed in the Central League, maybe you could have won at least one game there." Well the Dukes may find the going just as tough in the Central as in the Ulster League. Another sport note from Oshawa gives us a laugh. In reference to Red Hollingsworth, ex-Peterboro infielder now cavorting about the shortstop position for Oshawa, the scribe says he fielded excellently and will add strength to that club once he gets his batting eye. We have seen the ex-Peterboro sorrell top perform for many seasons but as yet he has failed to break any fences down this way. As a matter of fact Hollingsworth's great drawback is his inability to hit. And then the Oshawa sport writer suggests the red head will soon get his batting eye back.. Where will he get it from we'd like to know?

Out in Peterboro Knotty Lee had 30 out to the Petes' first practice on Saturday afternoon. Two new additions to the club, Jack Murray and Sig Konopka naturally proved the centre of attraction. As pointed out by the Peterboro sport writer Murray is a Canadian born lad who received his baseball tuition in the sunny state of California. He is usually found around the keystone sack and bats left handed. As for The Detroit lad he has this to say: "Konopka—pronounced just as it's spelled with the 'o's' as in 'lot' and the accent on the second 'o'—comes from Detroit, though he was born in Toronto. He is short and hits lefthanded. He could fill any one of several spots. Sig got his experience in the American Baseball Federation, advancing from one class to another till he was hitting tops in Class A ball. Next class to that is semi-pro and he didn't try out in that company It's made up of ex-Big Leaguers like Harry Heilmann, Red Wingo, Bob Veach, etc., as well as coming stars. Class A ball is at least as fast as our senior calibre, so Sig ought to fit in nicely. He doesn't appear to be over twenty years of age."

After looking over the recently released C.O.B.L. schedule for 1934 the local club finds that the Nationals are called upon to play four games in the first ten days or so and then play but three games in the next month. As a matter of fact they have but one home game from June 6th until July 4. A slight revision may be asked for in order to equalise the playing dates. It must be remembered that the various clubs ask specifically for certain days. Naturally Secretary Thompson tried to please all and with a triple schedule to work on it is some job to allot the games to please all. The moving back of one of the earlier games might help.

According to President Charles Meagher the Nationals are to have one or two pre-season games in order to try out a number of the younger players. Plans have been practically arranged for a game with the Picton intermediates and will be played in Picton some evening next week. One or two exhibition games are worth a week's practice between 6 and 7 in the evening. A few of Nationals were measured for their uniforms last night. The executive announced today that season tickets would be sold again this year at a slightly reduced rate. With Jack Williams slowly rounding into form and a rejuvenation being shown in senior ball circles this spring the largest crowd ever will be on hand for the morning game on May 24th. The Nats. will be out every night this week.

A number of locally interested lovers of the track dared us to pull a Lou Marsh and pick the winner of the 1934 King's Plate. For their benefit we'll do that little thing later this week. At that we could not miss 'em any more frequently than does the self-same Lou E. M.

Lefty Grove Not Discouraged by Dismal Showing Saturday

(By Bill King, Associated Press Sports Writer)

Boston, May 9 (AP)—A little more work, just enough to give him back his old time control and Bob "Lefty" Grove will be in there taking his regular turn and showing the folks he's no $125,000 "lemon", so he says.

"Am I all through?" asked Boston Red Sox' costly southpaw. He answered his own question with a positive "I should say not."

"My arm is as good as ever, or rather it will be in a few weeks from now. All I need is my control. I had everything but that Saturday when I flopped against St. Louis.

"Maybe it didn't look that way from the press box but I had everything I ever had. Plenty of steam and the benders breaking nicely. All but control. I just couldn't find the corners and when I got into a hole I had to 'groove' it, and when I tried to play safe I walked them. 'I'll work off this wildness just like I did my sore muscle. Come around and see me in a few weeks. I'll be taking my regular turn then and winning my share of games for the Red Sox, too, and I'll be doing that next season and the one after that."

Despite Grove's wretched showing in his first regular star, which consisted of pitching to five Brown batters, who scored two runs before filling the bases on a triple, double, single and two passes, Manager Bucky Harris has not lost faith in him.

"Grove is just as anxious to work as I am to have him," Harris said, "but he is going to be right before he starts a game. But anyone who says he's through is 'nuts'."

YANK'S LEAD 2 1-2 GAMES TRAIL IS HOT

Five Clubs Within Compass of Game and Half Behind the Leaders

PIRATES ARE COMING

Gus Suhr and Paul Waner Have Hit Safely in 17 and 15 Games

(By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer)

If seven other clubs can work out some feasible system of "ganging up" to stop the Yankees, the prospects look very good for a closer race in the American League than in a good many seasons.

The Yankees today held at 2½ game lead over their nearest rivals but the pack, in full cry on their trail, included five clubs bunched within the compass of a game and a half in the standings.

Washington's Senators, pursuing a four-game winning streak, took the second notch with a 7-6 victory over the White Sox yesterday. Cleveland, victims of Joe Cascarella's three-hit pitching and a 2-0 defeat at the hands of the Athletics dropped into a virtual tie for third place with Detroit Tigers, who whipped Boston 5-1. The A's and the Red Sox, in turn, tied for fifth, a half game further back.

Cascarella, making his second big league start, recorded the day's best mound performance as he limited the Indians to three fruitless singles with Pinky Higgins' triple with one on and a passed ball brought in the two Philadelphia runs. The Tigers also got good flinging with Tommy Bridges limiting Boston to six blows and holding Carl Reynolds hitless for the first time this season.

Washington had to come from behind after Zeke Bonura hit a homer with the bases full and Whitlow Wyatt, who has six decisions in fifteen games Chicago has played, took the mound just in time to be charged with the loss.

The Yankees got another scare from St. Louis before they won their fifth straight game but Buck Newsom ruined his own good flinging job by making two wild pegs past first in the eighth inning and the Yanks rushed over six runs to win 8-3.

National League

Pittsburgh's Pirates again provided the outstanding National League performance when they advanced to second place by beating Brooklyn 5-2 while the Cubs took a 13 to 6 trimming from the aroused Phillies.

Led by Gus Suhr and Paul Waner, who have hit safely in 17 and 15 consecutive games respectively, the Pirates won easily behind Bill Swift, who gave only three hits in the last seven innings. The Phillies slammed Lynn Nelson to cover before he had retired a man and rolled up 18 hits off three Chicago pitchers to offset Chuck Klein's seventh homer of the season.

The league leading Giants also took a beating when Cincinnati set out to end an eight game losing streak and did it, 7-3, by driving Fred Fitzsimmons to the showers and scoring six runs in the first. St. Louis tightened its hold on fourth place by coming from far behind to defeat Boston Braves for the second time 5-4.

BOSTON BRUINS TO BE REBUILT

Frank Patrick Named As Manager to Succeed Art Ross

Boston, May 9 (CP)—The task of rebuilding the Boston Bruin hockey club to the glory it once knew was in the expert hands of Frank Patrick today. Action was his promise.

A few hours after Charles F. Adams, the Bruin president, announced here last night that the veteran hockey strategist had been appointed manager of the team, Patrick revealed at Vancouver that radical changes in the make-up of the team were contemplated.

Simultaneously Adams confirmed recent reports of deals with Toronto Maple Leafs. The Bruin head said he had purchased Charlie Sands, a right winger, and Jack Shill, a left winger, from the Leafs.

Sands scored 16 points while playing with the Leafs second line last season and Shill was brought up from the amateur ranks to take Busher Jackson's place when that outstanding forward was sidelined with injuries.

The acquisition of these two Toronto players makes three new forwards added to the Boston team since the season ended. After the Canadian-American Hockey League playoffs, the Bruins announced the purchase of Art Giroux from the victorious Providence Reds.

"We have the nucleus of a good club. We will augment by purchases and deals until we have a club strong enough to hold its own with any other club," said Patrick in his statement.

BARNEY IN TRAINING

BARNEY ROSS

Barney Ross, world's lightweight champion, works as a lumberjack in Wisconsin woodland as he gets into shape for his New York bout with Jimmy McLarnin.

ROYALS CLIMB IN STANDING TO 4TH PLACE

Montreal Team Receiving Excellent Hurling and Hitting

LEAFS LOSE

Drop Back to Third Place When Bears Win By 4-1

By the Associated Press

Mainly through the efforts of a pitching "big three" composed of Ray Fritz, Curly Ogden and Chad Kimsey, Montreal Royals are beginning to climb in the International League pennant race.

In fourth place today, the Royals trailed third place Toronto by only one game and Newark Bears, second place holders by only a game and a half, and good pitching has been chiefly responsible. In complete games, the Royals' elbowers maintained a clear-cut lead over all rivals. Ten times Montreal's starting flipper has still been around at the finish. Fritz, Ogden and Kimsey have contributed three complete games apiece to this record, the other standing to the credit of Clise Didley.

Ogden's effective pitching helped the Royals whip the Albany Senators yesterday 5-3. He allowed 9 hits but spaced them where they would do the least damage. Ed. Pipgras had the Royals blanked for six innings but they drove him from the hill with a five-run drive in the seventh. Three walks, a balk and three hits, one of them Billy Rhiel's second double of the game with the bases loaded, were the ingredients of the rally.

Red Wings Win 8 in Row

Meanwhile the pace-setting Rochester Red Wings won their 8th successive victory although it took rallies in the eighth and ninth to pull out a 7-6 decision over Syracuse Stars. Bobby Coombs blanked the Red Wings while his teammates clubbed Tony Kaufmann and Dykes Potter for a 6-0 lead after seven and a half innings. Then the Red Wing firing began. Geo. Toporcer's men clubbed Coombs out of the box with a three-run surge in the eighth and then won the game with four more tallies off Joe Bloomer in the ninth. Eight of the Red Wings' 13 hits came in the last two frames.

Newark Bears regained second place by taking Toronto over the hurdles 4-1 as Walter Brown, immense right hander, limited the Leafs to eight well scattered hits. Gene Schott, cuffed around for 8 hits in seven innings, was charged with his first defeat in four starts.

Baltimore fell into undisputed possession of the cellar as the Orioles dropped an 11-4 decision to Buffalo Bisons, their ninth defeat in ten games. George Milstead, giving up eight hits, had no worries after his mates piled up a 6-2 lead in five innings. Atwood and Kroner clouted homers for Baltimore, and Butch Meyers for Buffalo.

AMELIASBURG SOFTBALL LOOP

The Ameliasburg Softball League will get under way next Monday evening, first game being at Gardenville, one of the new entries in the race, with Consecon furnishing the opposition.

The annual meeting of the league was held recently when Rossmore, Gardenville, Quinte Rangers were added to the circuit, while Victoria and Carrying Place dropped out. Officers of the league for 1934 were elected as follows: Hon. Presidents, J. A. Weese, M.P., Robt. Zufelt, President, Dr. O. Van Luven, Vice Pres., Roy Wannamaker, Sec. Treas. G Howard Sager. Following is the schedule:

May 14—Consecon vs. Gardenville.
May 16—Quinte Rangers vs. Rednersville.
May 18—Rossmore vs. Ameliasburg
May 21—Gardenville vs. Quinte R.
May 23—Rednersville vs. Consecon
May 25—Ameliasburg vs. Rossmore
May 28—Ameliasburg vs. Gardenville.
May 30—Quinte R. vs. Consecon.
June 1—Rossmore vs. Rednersville
June 4—Consecon vs. Quinte R.
June 6—Gardenville vs. Ameliasburg.
June 8—Rednersville vs. Rossmore
June 11—Gardenville vs. Rednersville
June 13—Rossmore vs. Consecon.
June 15—Ameliasburg vs. Quinte R.
June 18—Consecon vs. Rossmore
June 20—Rednersville vs. Ameliasburg
June 22—Quinte R. vs. Gardenville
June 25—Gardenville vs. Consecon
June 27—Rossmore vs. Quinte R.
June 29—Ameliasburg vs. Rednersville.
July 2—Rossmore vs Gardenville
July 4—Quinte R. vs. Ameliasburg
July 6—Consecon vs. Rednersville.
July 9—Quinte R. vs. Rossmore
July 11—Ameliasburg vs. Consecon
July 13—Rednersville vs. Quinte R.
July 16—Gardenville vs Rossmore
July 18—Consecon vs. Ameliasburg
July 20—Rednersville vs. Gardenville.

GOLD HOARDING GOBBLER HAS NORTH ALL EXCITED

Vancouver, B. C., May 9 — Up around Prince Rupert, which is the end of steel on the northern route of the Canadian National Railways to the Pacific Coast, they are all excited. And a turkey, just an ordinary, common-garden turkey meant to placate the palate caused all the hull-a-balo. In the crop of this bird was discovered three gold nuggets. The poultry vender isn't saying where the bird came from. But he knows. Some day soon he intends to shut up shop and start on the trail of the mother lode. A lot of people intend to shut up shop and follow him.

GALT TERRIERS LOANED TO HAMILTON LOOP

Six Teams To Compose Inter-County League for Season

Kitchener, Ont., May 9.—(CP)—The Intercounty Baseball loop will play this season with six teams, the result of a peace move to settle the differences with the Hamilton Baseball Association. The Intercounty has sacrificed Galt Terries, a prized team, as part of the armistice agreed upon last night.

Officials of the Ontario Baseball Amateur Association and the Intercounty League reached agreement on the Hamilton-Intercounty differences by loaning Galt to the Ambitious City for the season. The trouble started in March when the O.B.A.A. reclassified the teams, sending London, Brantford and Stratford into Senior company of the Intercounty, a step that met objections.

With Galt performing in the Hamilton Group, the Intercounty will have Guelph, Kitchener, St. Thomas, London, Stratford and Brantford in its senior division. The six Intercounty teams will play a double schedule. The first four teams will qualify for the semi-final playoffs.

The Intercounty circuit will be launched on its way Saturday with Kitchener playing London; Guelph at St. Thomas and Stratford at Brantford.

Refined from the finest crude oil known
—to protect your car
Sealed in one-quart tamper-proof cans
—to protect you

VEEDOL MOTOR OIL

VEEDOL Motor Oil

40c A QUART

100% PENNSYLVANIA AT ITS FINEST

Tide Water Oil Company of Canada, Ltd., Toronto, Montreal, Regina

CLOTHIERS OF QUALITY

T. J. DOYLE

Special Representative of
WM. H. LEISHMAN CO., TORONTO
will be at this store

Thursday and Friday

With a full range of samples of the latest weaves in Men's Clothing, ready to take measures for Spring and Summer outfits in the best Leishman manner, made to measure, made to fit.

Quick and Robertson

CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

First in Style, Quality and Reasonable Price

It is difficult to convince the children that they don't need a big bowlful of Grape-Nuts. It is so delicious they always want more. But Grape-Nuts is highly concentrated nourishment. Four teaspoonfuls with milk supplies more varied nourishment than many a hearty meal—making Grape-Nuts one of the most economical foods to serve. Get a package for tomorrow's breakfast. Grape-Nuts is made from whole wheat and malted barley by a special process which makes it one of the easiest of foods to digest.

Grape-Nuts

MADE IN CANADA

G4-34

GET A PACKAGE FOR TOMORROW'S BREAKFAST

The Romantic Runaway

by KATHARINE HAVILAND-TAYLOR

CHAPTER XXII

Norma Field's health did not improve in the heat of Cuba. Estelle hovered near her mother, so anxious that at times she almost forgot Pablito. Even "Big" Field was gentle with his wife these days.

"We'll have you looked over again when we get to New York," he said. "And you, too," with a short nod toward Estelle. "I'm getting pretty tired of that 'disappointed in love' look of yours!"

She did not answer. All she wanted was justice for one she knew to be innocent. But no one except her mother, who could do nothing, would listen to her.

One night at dinner when Mrs. Field had been too ill to appear Estelle braced herself and then spoke. "Father," she said, "do you think Pablito was drowned?"

"I hope to God he was!" he said harshly. Then he leaned forward his small eyes narrowed. Shaking a thick forefinger at Estelle, he said: "Look here, young lady, I'm the one who choses your friends! Do you understand that? And there'll be no white trash among them!"

"But I liked Pablito," Estelle said defiantly, "and I still like him. I know he didn't do what you think he did."

"Oh, my God!"

Her heart pounding, the girl hurried to her mother's room as soon as the meal was over. But Norma Field was burning with fever and Estelle knew that she must not bother her.

Sir Aubrey and Billings, the detective, located the fat, dumpy little woman who had been slender Concepcion Villaverde y Blanco. She sat rocking in an ornate chair that had come all the way from New York, weeping as she told them how sweet the "white, white baby" had been. She had not spoken English for many years and her part of the conference was faltering. Billings sat twirling his hat nervously and, now and again, mopping his forehead. The day was cruelly hot. Even the breeze seared the skin. Sir Aubrey's cheeks had been turned to a royal purple.

"Then you gave the baby into the keeping of this Angela of Key West?" Billing prompeted.

"Yes. He is still with her—a kind, good soul who has given him mother's care. We still reimburse her. Or rather, my respected father sends her the money. The boy is but 18 and still going to school, I imagine."

Sir Aubrey forgot the heat and at the same time forgot his distrust of airplanes. He would fly to Key West, he decided.

In the open he surveyed the street in the Vibora—rather shabby to English eyes, used toneat hedges and short-clipped green—and sighed deeply. He was near enough to the goal now to relax a little. Relaxing, he felt a nostalgia, that had grown large under his tension.

There were goats in the streets and little brown babies, some of them wearing shirts, some without. Rank, coarse grass grew before the porches, high of pillar and of ceiling, before the one-storied, connecting houses to make a collonade. heat and languor and noise and disorder, Sir Aubrey felt. A Chinese vegetable vendor padded down the centre of the street, carrying baskets heavily laden with greens on a pole strung across his shoulders. A laborer slept soundly in a little shade. The senoras on the balconies surveyed the strangers with frank interest.

Sir Aubrey visioned the roseate future in which he saw himself taking the boy home to Lower Girtings. He saw the big hall filled with family portraits, his wife and daughters drinking tea and eating strawberries on the lawn, the curate coming with some companion from the courts. Soon he would be taking guests to the stables; shooting ;coming in, tired and satisfied, after a day that had given him a good bag. And the boy would be with him; his son.

Billings signaled a roving fotingo and they crawled in. It leaned heavily as Sir Aubrey put his foot on the tin-foil step. They rode through Cerro on their way to Havana proper, passing a house in which there was a boy who was oddly pale beneath a heavy coat of tan that had clung through weeks of illness.

The boy was saying earnestly, "I've got to get something to do, Lottie. What do you think I can do?"

Beau, in the same room, sagged back in his chair, lowered heavy eyelids. "You're goin' to work for me, Pablo," he said in a drawling tone. "I got some jobs for you."

"Beau, I can't do your kind of work."

"No, but you will."

"I won't."

Beau laughed sneeringly. "Look here, kid," he said slowly. "You're just about half a man now. I'll make a man of you—after I break you. But just what do you think you're worth now? I could knock you down with one hand and—"

But he did not knock Pablito down. A moment later Beau was prostrate on the tiled floor. Lottie, in a corner, pressed her hand to her lips, looking down at him, Pablito, shaking, stooped and laid his hand on Beau's gray silk shirt.

"It's —still going—" he said "Get some water, Lottie, and the Scotch."

She go tthem. Together they worked over Beau. "Beau thought he could lick anybody," Lottie confided. "He was lightweight champion of the Bowery for a while."

Presently Beau opened his eyes stupidly. He gulped down some of the Scotch, touched his chin experimentally and moistened his lips. Then he said weakly, "There's money for you in that business. I never met a meaner right. With a little training—"

He harped on this idea all the rest of the day. In the evening, as they dined in a cafe in Cerro, open on two sides to the street, Beau said, "In a few years you could lay up enough money to last the rest of your life. That is—you could if you could wallop 'em the way you walloped me. Oh, baby! I thought I'd met the Broadway Limited!"

Pablito was young enough to reply, "I hadn't begun—"

Beau grinned and all the sneering was wiped from his face.

"If you want money," he said, "that's the way to get it."

"I do want money," Pablito admitted. He more than wanted it; he had to have it. Money would help him find Noyes. They would go away together to some isolated country and that would take money too.

"How could you fix it so that no one would know me?" he asked.

Beau smiled. "Kid," he said kindly, "if a lot of these guys are makin' money on you, don't you think they can rake up some ole hag who'll say she's raised you from a pup? Just knock out a couple brown brothers and you'll be safe as Grant's tomb."

"I didn't think these people liked anything but cock fighting," Pablito said then.

"We'l educate 'em."

Lottie, across the table, was studying Pablito closely. She agreed with Beau that Pablito, with training, could succeed as a boxer. But it would put him in the public eye and the women would begin to chase him. "It ain't no work for a gentleman," she objected harshly.

"Say kid," Beau reminded her, "gentlemen ain't made outa murderers, see?"

Pablito set his glass down. He did not want Beau to see that his hand shook and Beau was watching him narrowly.

"Plenty of money," Beau was saying slowly. "Trips to South America and Paris, kid. Paris! And the right to tell anybody to go to hell. That's what money'd give you. How about it, kid?" he ended, softly, and coaxingly.

"All right."

Still leaning across the table, Beau went on intently. "I get my rake-off. See? I'm your manager. Get that?"

"All right——" Beau sat back. "I'l scare up someone to train you. Then watch the fireworks!"

A moment later he asked, "What's Johnnie in Cuban?"

"You mean little John?"

"That'd do."

"Juanito is little John."

"All right, Juanito. That's goin' to be your name. Drink to him, Lottie. May he got on with his killing!" Beau saw, smiling, that this had "got" Pablito. It always did. He judged, did Beau, that he would get his rake-off and a good one.

CHAPTER XXIII

Within a month Marcia Treadway boarded a boat for New York, having found Rio "rather stupid". Back in New York she took up resirence in the brown stone house that had been left her by an aunt—the same aunt who had left Marcia a legacy so large that it was heralded in newspaper headlines.

Usually when she returned home Marcia decided fretfully that she must have the place "redone" and usually some young decorator whose company she found for a time, amusing got the commission.

But on this home-coming Marcia had no such interests. Her friends murmured that she was not looking well and this stirred up the old story about Ted Jeffries. That affair, said some of her supposed friends, had "gone pretty fa."

Marcia knew what was being said and who was saying it but this knowledge did not matter as once it would have. The two things that mattered were her feeling of guilt, which was increasing instead of diminishing, and her fear for Pablito's safety.

During fitful periods of sleep she dreamed that a band of masked men were hanging Pablito and that she, screaming the fact of his innocence, was struggling to reach the group while her leaden feet refused to move. She woke always from this dream (which varied little in its repetition bathed in cold sweat and trembling.

She began to thaw toward a young attorney, who, with sundry other men, had for a long while added to her arrogance by a veiled courtship of her fortune. And while she was with him she sounded him out about the treatment of criminals and about whether they always had fair trials.

One unusually cool May night they sat before a fire in the drawing room of Marcia's home. She said leaning forward, "Tell me, Tony—even if everyone thought a man guilty they woudn't execute him immediately, would they?"

"That depends," he answered. "Law is ,to some extent, a matter of geography. There are places where men take the law into their own hands. Sometimes we have lynchings, you know—"

She grew pale and shrank back in her chair, her hands tightly gripping the arms.

Then she managed to hide her perturbation. "What would you do," she asked, "if you know a man to be innocent but could not tell how or why you know it?"

"I'd forgot about it," he answered casually.

Marcia gave a short, mirthless laugh. It sounded so easy but she knew it was far from easy. It was impossible.

"Tony," she said then, with a change of tone ,"that reminds me of something else I wanted to ask you about. I want to locate a boy of 18—or perhaps a year or two older—and I don't know how to go about it. I want to keep the matter secret."

Tony thought of Marcia's brother who had did in an asylum to which, by the most vicious forms of vice, he had paid his grim entrance fee.

"You know Lester was married?" she asked on sudden inspiration. She could pretend Pablito was Lester's son Where Lester's wife was, she did not know, but she assumed she could silence her and the subject if she had to.

"Do you know what country the boy is liable to be in?" Tony questioned, after his nod which admitted he knew that Lester was married.

"Cuba or South America. I rather think South America."

"Well," he said, "if you took the matter to the police—"

"But I don't want to do that," she interrupted. "You see my nephew —charming, isn't it?— was caught thieving and sent to a reformatory He escaped. Now I want to find him and give him another chance."

"Ah—I see. Well, detectives—"

"I suppose so," she agreed, not quite happily. "But, with his reformatory record, is that safe? Wouldn't the detectives be working with the police?"

"Not if your case makes them keep away from the police. With sufficient money, Marcia, almost anything is possible."

"I have always thought so, but lately—"

She fell into a reverie then and thought of Pablito, the boy whose eyes had "enchanted" her. If she could only find him he would be utterly dependent on her. She was obsessed by this thought and of making him into a man of the world. She would be very good to him very, very good to him!

"I've spoken to you twice," said Tony.

"Oh really?" she murmured with a lift of her fine arched brows and a return to her old, languid insolence.

The priest who had given the shelter of his humble home to Norris Noyes salvaged enough pennies from his poor box to send Noyes to Key West. "You are running into the jaws of death, my friend," he warned.

Noyes nodded, abstractedly. "I think," he said, "Pablito may have returned to our island."

"That is possible," the priest agreed.

"I must find him."

"Let me know how things go with you," the priest petitioned. "And", he added, "you have my prayers—"

To Be Continued

Little Benny's Note Book

Me and pop and my dog Junior was taking a wawk and some man stopped going passed, saying, That's sure a cute looking little dog, my little boy would love to see him, he'd sure think he was cute, he'd have a mitey fine time with that little dog.

I'm sure he sure would, pop said. Junior makes it a point never to bite children unless they bite him ferst, he said, and the man said, That's sure an odd coincidents, my little boy is named Junior too, and he's sure a smart little shaver.

Maybe there's something in a name after all, pop said. But joking aside you wouldn't bleeve what an intelligent little cuss this dog is. He knows the diffrents between the door bell and the telefone bell as well as I do, in fact better, because sometimes I get fooled myself, but not this little rascal. When the doorbell rings he's the ferst one there, waiting to see whose coming now, but if it's the telefone he's upstairs like a flash, and there you'll find him, sitting in front of it with an expression as much as to say, Well, are you going to anser it or not? How's that for intelligents? pop said.

Not bad, I admit, I mean for a dog, the man said. But this Junior of mine, ha ha he's scarcely 2 years old and you awt to see him blow a match out. He puffs on his little face as if he was going to blow over a house, and by jingoes if I put out the match before he has a chance to blow it out he's libel to bring the house down at that, ha ha. Now thats something your dog cant do, not that I'm belittling his intelligents but after all of course there's a limit to what you can expect, he said, and pop said, Say, this dog was steddy on his feet before he was 2 weeks old, can your Junior match that? Not that I want to run him down in any way, because after all he's only a child, he said.

This discussion is degenerating into a farce, the man said. And he kept on going looking as if he wished he had never stopped, and pop said, There goes a self centered man, and a dum one too.

Wich he proberly was, ony he was proberly thinking the same about pop.

RADIO PROGRAMS

E. S. T.

WEDNESDAY

4.45—Gordon, Dave and Bunny, songs—WABC
5.30—Jim Hunter, News—CFRB
6.45—Irene Rich in Hollywood, sketch—WJZ
7.00—The "Baron Munchausen"—CRCT
7.15—Easy Aces—CFRB
7.30—Broadway Melodies; Everett Marshal, baritone; Jerry Freeman's Orchestra—CFRB
7.45—Babe Ruth's Baseball Comment—CRCT
8.00—Nino Martini; Chorus Andre Kostelanetzs' Orchestra — WABC
8.00—Raymond Knight and His Cuckoos; The Sparklers; Armbruster's Orchestra — WJZ; KDKA
8.30—Burns and Allen; Guy Lombardo's Orchestra—WABC
9.00—Ed Sullivan, columnist; Three Scamps; Vincent Lopez Orchestra—WJZ
9.00—Corn Cob Pipe Club of Virginia, barnyard music, male quartet — WEAF; WTAM; WLW
9.30—Jack Denny's Orchestra, Harry Richman—WJZ
9.30—Albert Spalding, violinist; Conrad Thibault, baritone — WABC
9.30—Meeting of the American Judicature Society; Hon. Clarence Goodwin; Newton D. Baker—WEAF
9.35—Pompeian Program—CFRB
10.00—Nick Lucas, songs; Freddie Rich's Orchestra—WABC

THURSDAY

8.00—Herman and Banta, xylophone and piano—WEAF
8.00—The Breakfast Club; Dance Band; Songs—CRCT
9.15—Castles in the Air; Concert Program—CRCT
9.30—Treasure Chest; Howard Phillips, baritone, Don Allen's Orchestra—WLW
10.00—U.S. Navy Band—CRCT
10.30—Artist Recital—CFRB
11.30—News—CFRB
12.15—Rex Battle's Orchestra — CKOC; CKCL
12.15—Empire Club Lunch—CRCT
1.00—Anne Leaf at the Organ—CFRB
2.00—Metropolitan Parade—CFRB
2.00—Baseball, Baltimore at Toronto—CKCL
3.15—Alice Joy, songs—WJZ
3.30—Hazel Glenn, soprano; Orchestra—WEAF
4.45—Echoes of Erin — WEAF; WTAM
5.30—Jim Hunter, News—CFRB
6.45—Sohio Melody Masters—WLW
7.00—Rudy Vallee's Orchestra; Guest Stars—CRCT
7.15—Easy Aces—CFRB
7.30—Voice of America; Mary Eastman, soprano, Alex Gray Nicholas Kempner's Orchestra—WABC; WGR

10.00—News—CFRB
10.15—Lew Williams, Fishing and hunting—WTAM
10.30—Luigi Romanelli's Orchestra —CFRB
8.00—Captain Henry's Showboat; Chas. Winniger; Lanny Ross; Gus Haenschen's Band — WEAF
8.00—Neilson's Hour—CFRB
8.30—Fred Waring's Orchestra—WABC; CKAC
9.00—Paul Whiteman's Orchestra; Nikita Balieff, Creator of Chauve Souris; Deems Taylor—CRCT
9.00—Col. Stoopnagle and Budd; Glen Gray's Orchestra; Connie Boswell, songs—WABC; CKLW
9.30—Anne Leaf at the Organ—CKAC
9.45—James Thurber, humorist—CFRB
10.00—The Cavaliers, male quartet —WJZ
10.00—News—CFRB

ENTERTAIN AT AN AT-HOME

Sidney Crossing—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Grills called at Mr. Casey Ketcheson's on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Steele and daughter spent Sunday with relatives in the neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ketcheson of Thurlow spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie Ketcheson.

Mr. Fred Moon has returned from the hospital and is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers and Eddie of Johnstown, called at Mr. Bruce Hogle's on Sunday evening.

The Institute held an "at home" on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Casey Ketcheson.

Miss Irene Grills has been a patient at the Belleville General Hospital for the past few days.

TILLIE THE TOILER By Russ Westover.

BRINGING UP FATHER By George McManus

TARZAN THE TERRIBLE (Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

An almost breathless silence ensued after the high priest condemned Tarzan to die. It was the ape-man himself, who broke it. "If I am an impostor, and have posed as the son of your god, demand now, O wonderful priest," he taunted, "that Jad-ben-Otho cause his consuming fire to strike me. You dare not," he sneered. "I would," said the high priest, "had I not but just received a message from Jad-ben-Otho that your fate be different. Seize the impious one! Tomorrow he dies befitting his crime." The warriors hesitated to obey, but the lesser priests leaped eagerly forward.

Fired with fanatical courage they came, like a band of hideous harpies. The game was up. That Tarzan knew. He must resort to the weapons of defense he best loved. As the first priest leaped toward him, no longer was it the suave ambassador from heaven he confronted, but more like a fiend from the lower regions. Outstretched hands sought to clutch the ape-man. Instead, steel fingers snapped up the hideous, masked priest, raised him above the altar where stood Lu-don with drawn knife. Close behind Tarzan were others rushing for him. There was no instant to waste.

Before they could even guess what was in the mind of the condemned, Tarzan, with all the force of his great muscles, dashed the struggling priest full in Lu-don's face. So quickly he moved, he had leaped to the altar and from there to a hand-hold upon the summit of the temple wall before they recovered from surprise. Gaining a footing he turned to shout a final taunt, then dropped from their sight upon the other side. The utmost confusion prevailed now, but two there were whose hearts were glad at the success of the ape-man's maneuver and one smiled openly. These were Ja-don and the other, Pan-at-lee.

Scrambling ignominiously to his feet, the high priest kept crying: "Seize the blasphemer!" His votaries rushed about, wildly calling upon the warriors to pursue the fugitive. Inwardly the king was pleased at Lu-don's discomfiture, and the warriors were filled with admiration for a brave man. A careful search of all the temple's secret passages revealed no trace of the quarry. So great was the terror inspired by the tale of his escape that soon women and children were hiding behind barred doors, while swift runners were sent everywhere to arouse the people that all might be on the lookout for Tarzan the Terrible.

Race Horse Most Sensible Harry Brown Declares

Admirer of Fleet-Footed Hero of the Track Speaks of Animal's Gentleness and Fine Endowment of Brains — Brown Calls Shoeing An Art As He Shows Shoe to Prevent Over-Reaching.

Clip-clop! Clip-clop! Clippety-clop!

Down the stretch on the race track at the Agricultural Grounds west of the city, four pacers, red-rimmed nostrils distended, hooves beating staccato tattoos on the hard road, necks distended, manes flying, creaking leather whipping their sides, fly ahead of the light sulkies neck and neck they strain. One stumbles. Rights itself. Stumbles again. Little spurts of dust on the road tell the experienced watcher the story. "Hum," he remarks, watching the horse fall behind the rest of the flying steeds coaxed by the soothing tones of the men behind. "Over-reaching again." He waves a blue clad arm to the rider on the sulkie. "Bring her in!" Then as the foam-flecked animal is led into the fence, "Take her down to Harry's and get a set of those special shoes put on her. See if that'll stop her from hittin'."

Spring training is on at the Fair Grounds. Beautiful little animals with silky muzzles and big eyes are performing for the first time in their lives under the critical and experienced eyes of owners and trainers. There may be a Dan Patch among them. Some of them may never make the grade past the spring training camp. Some little imperfection may halt them even before they really get started. Foot trouble will probably be the main source of trouble. But there is lots of remedy for even that evil. The best one is the fitting of proper shoes.

If it wasn't for the race track men, life around at least one local blacksmith in the summer time would be a dull business. But with the coming of the horse owners, business again booms in this particular shop. For, be it known, race horse owners may be a fussy lot, but they're good pay, and tip liberally when they get what they want.

"They're my best customers in the summer," says Harry Brown, one of the city's best known shoers and makers of horse shoes—especially those made to order. "Oh, yes, they're a little fussy, sometimes, but it's easy to please them when you know what they want."

Harry knows a piece of horse flesh himself. Shoeing the big, stolid dray horses, and coal cart pullers may be all right as business, but for pure genuine pleasure, turn an experienced man who likes horses onto the job of pleasing a finicky customer, and helping him make an ordinary little mare into a money maker. It's an art, that's what it is, fitting these little animals with the right kind of shoes.

Hanging on the wall to the left of the glowing forge in the downtown shop is a variety of shoes. All of them are light in weight, pounded and shaped from a piece of light and strong iron. Many of them are oddly shaped. Only in general conformation do they resemble ordinary shoes.

"Here's one." Harry hands it over for inspection. At the rear of the shoe, where other shoes are generally open, is extended the complete circle. Extending from the circle is a long "toe." "Made that for a fellow who came in here one day with a little mare which would persist in over-reaching. She used to bang her front nigh fetlock up something awful with her off hind foot when she hit her stride. We fixed her up with a shoe like this. You see, you turn a caulk down on the end of this 'toe.' Then just before her hind foot reaches the front one, it catches in the road and sort of holds it."

Harry admits that "it must be an art" to shoe the different kinds of horses that came in. "They're all different. You've got to sort of size them up and tell yourself what they need. One horse will need one kind and another horse will need another. Sometimes their owners are putting on a different pair almost each week or so.'

Race horses are easy to shoe. They're gentle and kind, and have more sense than the other varieties. Their long and friendly association with men make them pets. They know they won't be hurt. And then they're used to it, too.

The dray horses, the big fellows, which haul your coal and bread and other necessities of life may be the bread and butter of the few remaining smithies in the city, but the shoeing of race horses is something else again. It's a job any good smithy could get sentimental over.

Taking Hay from Spot in Mow Uncovers Man Wanted by Police

St. Thomas, Ont., May 8 (CP) — Decision of Clifford Anderson, 16-year-old farmhand on the farm of Malcolm M. McNeil, Dunwich, just outside Dutton, to remove hay from a certain spot in the mow because it "looked like a good forkful" of hay led to the capture of Frank Temple, 50 year old alleged slayer of Constable Colin McGregor.

To the Canadian Press, a member of the McNeil household revealed the young farmhand's thrilling experience. Malcolm McNeil and his brother had completed their part of the chores for the night and had been called for supper. This was at 6.30 p.m. last night. Clifford went to the mow to throw down the hay for the horses. He was hurrying in order to get to the house with the two men. He picked up the fork, saw the likely-looking bunch of hay and jabbed his fork into it. He uncovered a haggard-looking stranger who had been buried in the hay. Keeping his face averted, the stranger — who proved to be the much-sought Temple—talked to him in low tones, asking him not to tell the "boss" that he was there, Anderson said.

Man Seemed Nervous

Temple seemed very nervous and on the alert, the farmhand continued. He asked the youth to roll a cigarette for him and the boy complied. Before reaching for the cigarette, Temple drew a pair of black gloves on his hands—evidently to prevent young Anderson from seeing his wounded hand—which Sergeant Sam McKeown hit with a revolver shot during the fracas on Monday which ended with the death of McGregor and the wounding of McKeown and Fred Temple, son of the man now under arrest.

Wondering about the youth's delay in getting the hay down, Malcolm McNeil mounted the stairs from the lower part of the barn and called to the youth through the opening, telling him to hurry since supper was waiting. Unaware of the fact Temple was present, Mr. McNeil returned to the lower floor of the barn and then proceeded to the house.

Anderson said Temple pleaded with him continually not to tell "the boss" he had uncovered a man in the hay. The aged man did not threaten the youth with violence or display his revolver, the youth said, but continued begging him not to tell anyone what had occurred.

The farmhand promised he would not tell Mr. McNeil and was permitted to leave the barn unmolested. It was not until about two hours later that he told members of the household, and expressed the belief the man he had uncovered was Temple. Malcolm McNeil immediately telephoned a report to Chief William Ketchapaw of the city police department, giving him the details as told by young Anderson.

Dolores Del Rio and Ricardo Cortez snapped during their sensational dance specialty in "Wonder Bar" at the Belle now, ends Friday.

MARIETTA CREW—Here's crew which will represent Marietta, O. college in Poughkeepsie regatta in June.

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE CAPITOL

Victor McLaglen—Boris Karloff in "THE LOST PATROL"

The savage menace of the desert, with its blazing sun and blinding sandstorms, and the varied emotions of eleven men facing inevitable death at the hands of unseen enemies, are woven into "The Lost Patrol" a powerful and unforgettable picture which opens tomorrow at the Capitol theatre.

Here is sheer drama, bold and uncomprising presented against a background magnificient in scenic value. RKO-Radio Pictures stepped far from the beaten path with this production, and Director John Ford responded to the opportunity given him with an inspired piece of work.

Performances of the cast are uniformly superb, with Victor McLaglen and Boris Karloff having an edge on the honors because of longer parts and superior dramatic opportunities. McLaglen as the iron willed, unconquerable sergeant, and Karloff, as the religious fanatic who goes mad under the strain of imprisonment on the desert, are figures which will live in audience memories.

Wallace Ford, Reginald Denny, Alan Hale, Billy Bevan, Sammy Stein, Paul Hanson, J. M. Kerrigan, Brandon Hurst and Douglas Walton, the other actors on the roll of "The Lost Patrol" win their share of richly deserved laurels.

"The Lost Patrol" is a story of a detachment of British cavalrymen who become aimless wanderings on the Mesopotamian desert when their officer is killed by Arabs. Only the officer knew where they were, what their orders were, and when and where they were to rejoin their brigade. That knowledge died with him.

Spurred by the iron will of their sergeant, the troopers reach a desert oasis, where they become virtual prisoners when their Arab enemies creep upon the camp under cover of night and steal their horses. The drama then becomes one of superb character delineation, as the men react in various ways to the strain of imprisonment, and the appalling heat of the desert. Then, there is the constant menace of hovering death, a menace which strikes swiftly and silently, as the row of saber marked sand mounds beside the oasis grows in number. The men talk of life and love, and the women they left behind them, but before them is only death.

Just in time to keep the dramatic strain from becoming too tense, a powerful climax brings the picture to a surprising and logical conclusion.

"The Lost Patrol" is based upon Philip MacDonald's novel "Patrol" and the screen play was admirably done by Dudley Nichols with adaptation by Garett Fort.

By all means put "The Lost Patrol" down as a picture that must be seen.

"Frozen Assets," an Andy Clyde comedy. Football footword sportlight subject, and Capitol News of world-wide events conclude a program that is hard to equal.

AT THE BELLE

STARS, SPECTACLE MUSIC FILL 'WONDER BAR' TO BRIM

Never in the memory of the writer has there been staged a show of such magnitude and magnificence as the Warner Bros. Production of "Wonder Bar", which had its premiere at the Belle yesterday, where it was acclaimed by large enthusiastic audiences.

"Wonder Bar" is not just another musical. Warner Bros., have produced three great musical, "42nd Street", "Gold Diggers of 1933" and "Footlight Parade", in the past year. It was held that they had hit the high spots with these productions; that they could not go on indefinitely putting out greater spectacles.

But Warner Bros. have again done the seemingly impossible. "Wonder Bar" is something entirely new, so vastly different from anything that has gone before it that there is no means of comparison. It surpasses its predecessors not only in its uniqueness and novelty, but in the beauty and grandeur of its spectacle and its throbbing drama of life.

And what a cast! Brilliant stars, with a dozen featured players to say nothing of five hundred other performers. Jolson has his old stage role which he enacts with all his old time fire and enthusiasm as one of the world's greatest entertainers. He sings two catchy new songs in English and a Russian gypsy melody, as well as acting as master of ceremonies at the gay Parisian night club where the drama is set.

Kay Francis is stately and charming as the somewhat flirtatious wife of a wealthy banker who has lost her head over a cabaret entertainer. Dolores Del-Rio, the magnetic brunette and the dashing Ricardo Cortez make an excellent team as the dancing marvels of "Wonder Bar" cabaret, whose fiery and impassioned last performance of the newly inevented "Gaucho" dance ends in the stabbing of the lover. Dick Powell sings as engagingly as always, as well as giving an excellant performance as an orchestra leader and the rival lover for the beautiful Del Rio. Hal LeRoy, the famous stage star, performs one of his wizard dances that takes the house. Other notable performers in the cast include, Guy Kibbee, Hugh Herbert, Louise Fazenda, Ruth Donnelly and Fifi D'Orsay.

It is impossible adequately to describe the magnificence of the spectacles created and directed by Busby Berkely, that master craftsman who staged the numbers not only for "Wonder Bar", but for "42nd Street", "Gold Diggers of 1933" and "Footlight Parade". The number called "Don't Say Good Night" set on a revolving stage and encircled by gigantic pillars, is a revelation in beauty and splendor and can be appreciated only by being seen. Three hundred of Hollywood's most beautiful dancing and singing girls romp through this and other numbers amid a riot of color and dazzling light effects.

"Wonder Bar" will be presented at the Belle until Friday, matinee daily, and if you only go to one show a year, this is the one you should not miss.

ROUND TRIP

Bargain Fares

From BELLEVILLE

MAY 11 - 12

to

MONTREAL

$4.40

Quebec City

$7.65

ST. ANNE DE BEAUPRE

$8.25

Equally low fares from intermediate points.

GOING—MAY 11-12

RETURNING — Leaving Montreal and Quebec City up to evening of May 13th.

For full particulars consult your nearest Agent.

CANADIAN PACIFIC
CANADIAN NATIONAL

m9, 10

JOHN LAKE ANDERSON WILL BE MADE DEACON

John Lake Anderson, a former resident of Belleville will be made a deacon by the Bishop of Edmonton about Trinity Sunday. Mr. Anderson was baptized in St. Thomas Church, Belleville, and has been attending the Church of England Theological College at Vancouver. He is the son of the late J. A. Lyle Anderson, a well known business man in Belleville about twenty years ago, and Mary E Lake Anderson.

FACTS ABOUT BETTER VISION
By N. E. EDWARDS
EYESIGHT SPECIALIST
288 Front St. Belleville

The Future of Your Eyes —

Ever thought of that? In ten or fifteen years how will they be? How you care for them now will have something to do with it. You cannot continue to strain them and not later have cause for regret. Why not help them now, if they need it, and thus conserve your vision?

(Continued Next Week)

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Sale! Women's Fine Silk Hosiery

Firsts and Seconds In the Group

Full fashioned, chiffon and service weight hose that will save greatly for you on summer needs. Both firsts and seconds comprise the group—in such fashionable shades as Beige Taupe, Ohukker, Brownwood, Manoa, Taupemist, Clearsan, and Sunglow. Considering the quality and low price, early shopping would be best. Sizes 8½ to 10½ in the lot.

Pair 69c

—main floor left

Extra! Women's Beige Running Shoes (Seconds)

5 eyelet tie style with plain toe. In sturdy beige canvas with a flexible rubber sole. Sizes 3½ to 7. ¼" heel. Buy on Thursday. The price is, pair 89c

Look! Sale Prices on

Unbleached Sheetings

It pays to buy this quality cotton — unbleached which insures extra long service. Now is the time to secure your quantities for summer sheets, pillow cases, etc.

72 inch yard .... 29c 81 inch yard 35c

Extra Heavy Quality

Unbleached Sheetings

72 inch yard .... 35c 81 inch yard 39c

You'll appreciate this heavy weight sheeting and the attractive low price too! Only 75 yards of each width.

Look! 54" x 70" Colored Bordered Linen

Crash Cloths

A sturdy crash linen cloth that is excellent for everyday service. They wear and launder beautifully. In colored stripes of rose, blue, green, and yellow. Each 1.00

—main floor rear

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

LIMIT TERMS BANK, BANKER

Viewpoint of Mr. Schuster Upheld by Chairman of Banking

Section 166 of the Bank Act was under consideration yesterday by the Select Standing Committee on Banking and Commerce at Ottawa, when the use of the words "bank," "banking" and "banker" as such words are commonly used by investment bankers came under review. Protests have been made to Ottawa that such words should be confined to the chartered banks of Canada and private banking houses if there are any. Investment bankers should not be permitted to confuse their position by using such words. Mr. W. E. Schuster of Belleville, contributed his views to the situation both to Ottawa and to Toronto and was firmly upheld by the chairman of the Select Standing Committee on Banking and Commerce.

The committee was asked by the Prime Minister to consider "very vigorous protests" which had been received at both the Finance Department and the Department of the Secretary of State against the use of the name "investment banker."

Section 166 of the act was under consideration when Premier Bennett brought the matter up. This section prohibits the use of such words as "bank," "savings bank," "banking house," "banking association," without the authority of the act. The question was whether or not the term "investment banker" should come within the purview of the section.

Certain members of the committee stated that firms using the name "investment banker" were frequently operating by virtue of a Provincial charter. It appeared questionable whether the Dominion would have power to prohibit the use of the term by Federal legislation.

Mr. Bennett explained that the objections in some cases arose from the fact that persons had lost money owing to the purchase of securities from people operating under the name of investment bankers. The term banker gave an impression of security, and it perhaps was used to do so. At any rate, the protests had been received, and, without taking any position on the matter, he felt that the committee should be made aware of the protests.

Finally notice was given of an amendment to add the term "investment banker" to the section. Its passage was held up pending consideration of the amendment.

The committee rose at 6 o'clock with a few sections and one or two of the schedules of the act still to be passed. It will sit again on Thursday.

"I note with interest your idea," wrote R. B. Hunn, chairman of the committee, in a recent letter to Mr. Schuster, "your idea that the words 'Bank, Banking and Banker' should be absolutely confined to the chartered banks of Canada and that investment houses should not be permitted to confuse their position by the use of such words. I shall bring your views before the committee and I may say that I am in thorough accord with them."

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS

Change of Time Effective April 29th 1934.

TRAINS GOING EAST

North Station No. 118, 12.35 A.M. Mail and Express. Monday only
North Station No 18 12.35 A.M. Mail and Express Daily, except Monday.

North Station, No. 16, 3.00 A.M. The Maple Leaf, Daily.

North Station, No. 14, 12.05 noon. The International Limited, Daily

North Station, No. 6, 6.08 P.M. The Inter-City Limited, Pool Train, Daily.

North Station, No. 448, 7.00 P.M. Daily except Saturday to Ottawa.

TRAINS GOING WEST

North Station No. 19 2.55 A.M. Mail and Express. Daily.

North Station, No. 17, 4.10 A.M. The Inter-City Limited, Daily.

North Station, No. 5, 2.45 P.M. The Maple Leaf, Daily.
North Station No. 9 5.50 P.M.

Daily except Saturday and Sunday.
North Station, No. 15, 7.10 P.M. The International Limited Pool Train, Daily.

North Station No. 109 7.35 P.M. Local train, Sunday's only.

BELLEVILLE & PETERBORO

North Station No. 11 6.15 A.M. Local Passenger. Daily except Sunday.

BELLEVILLE & PICTON

North Station No. 352 8.00 A.M. Local Passenger. Mon., Wed., Fri. Leaves Picton for Belleville 12.30 P.M. same days.

READ THE ADS
Keep Step With
THE TIMES!

YACHT PARADE—Officially open ing the yachting season 100 sailing and motor cruisers par ade in San Francisco, Cal., bay.

WORLD RECORD JUMP—Here's Walter Marty clearing bar in Palo Alto, Cal., to set world high jump mark of 6 feet 9 1-8 inches.

PLEASED CHINA —IRKED JAPAN

Captain Frank Hawks (left) noted speed flier, pictured in Shanghai, China, after he had demonstrated the efficiency of his giant Condor bombing plane to a group of Chinese army officials. Capt. Hawks plane-selling activities in China are reputed to have been one of the reasons for Japan's recent attempt to rush through a "Monroe Doctrine" for Asia.

PROBABILITIES
Lower Lake Region—Strong southwest to west winds; moderate gales; fair and somewhat cooler tonight. Friday—Fresh to strong west to northwest winds; fair and a little cooler.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES
Max. Min.
Today 70 45
Year ago 72 52
Weather cloudy. Rainfall .32.

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1934

PICTON YOUTH KILLED IN CAR COLLISION

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Kitchener, Ont., May 10—(CP)—The cases against 18 strikers charged in connection with the recent disturbances at the Lang Tanning Plant were adjourned one week in police court here today. Seven men and three women are charged variously with obstruction, intimidation and disorderly conduct.

The adjournments were made at the request of Colin Brown of Toronto, counsel for the defendants.

• • • •

New York, May 10—(AP)—Mrs. Katharine Gibbs '71, president and founder of three girls' schools in Boston, Providence and New York, is dead here today of pneumonia. She was born in Canton, Ill. Death came last night.

• • • •

Kitchener, Ont., May 10—(CP)—Mrs. Mary Schaefter, aged 67, died in a Ford car while on her way to mass shortly after seven o'clock today.

She had boarded the Ford near Mr. Frederick Street terminus and when it reached the corner of the city she was dead.

The driver, Harold Appel, was unaware of her condition until a passenger asked: "Is Mary the last one?" He turned and said: "Oh, I won't go in there. That woman is dead." He brought her home and death being due to heart failure.

• • • •

Ottawa, May 10—(CP)—The tobacco industry in the Province of Quebec was not in a very prosperous condition from the standpoint of the grower, Mayor Jean Marien of St. Jacques l'Achigan, Que., told the Tobacco Inquiry probe heads and mass buying parliamentary probe today. Mr. Marien said he represented the fast growing industry of Quebec.

• • • •

Toronto, May 10—(CE)—Charged with conducting a "kangaroo court" at the meeting of the Federated Textiles of Canada, Benjamin Trish, Montreal, was fined $10 and Peter Cooley appeared in police court today and said the fine was sponsoring a $25,000 puzzle contest.

• • • •

Moscow, May 10—(AP)—Vyacheslav Mikhailovich Molotzhsky, chief of Soviet Russia's secret police died today at the age of 60 years.

• • • •

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. May 10—(CP)—Motorists going home from the Conservative convention at Espanola last night, found the going difficult. At least 12 cars had to be pulled out by tows coming out of the ground and construction work was the cause of most of the trouble.

• • • •

Dance, India, May 10—(CP-Havas)—Seven students were arrested here today in connection with the assassination of Ramesh, a nationalist leader, in Lahore, Governor of Bengal.

Sir John Anderson who has recently taken the zed in attempting to put down strikes among the Bengali and was fired upon last Tuesday. Both his assailants were shot down by police. The incident occurred at a race track at Darjeeling. It caused an outburst of alarm on the life of Sir John in the past year.

• • • •

Salzburg, Austria, May 10—(CP-Havas)—Chancellor Dollfuss warned Nazi-German leaders to cease "campaign of lies" against Austria.

Addressing a mass rally of the patriotic party the Chancellor asserted that he was sure the disorderly elements were determined to continue the struggle for Austria's independent.

• • • •

Toronto, May 10—(CP)—William Ward and his wife were saved from being overcome asphyxiation by the alertness of two policemen in a rooming house, when a broke out in the ward house.

Nothing stirs from the dwelling, the officers received no answer, when they broke in the door to find the couple sleeping soundly unaware of the danger. The constables were partially overcome but were soon revived. They were quickly ambulanced and damage was slight.

• • • •

London, May 10—(CP Cable)—A flight of four planes of the British Air Force will take part in the Toronto centenary celebrations in July, it was announced in the House of Commons today by Sir Philip Sassoon, under-secretary for air.

The machines will be the Hawker Fury, the standard interceptor fighter of the Royal Air Force, They have a top speed at 15,000 feet of 214 miles per hour and are extremely fast climbers.

They are all-metal biplanes with a Rolls-Royce kestrel engine,

Jack McGibbon, Picton, with Odessa Youth Killed in Driving Rain Storm

Light Touring Car Crashes Headon With a Transport

THREE INJURED

Eric Ricketts, Belleville, Notifies Police of Collision

Napanee, Ont., May 10—(CP)—A midnight auto drive ended in tragedy for a party of six young men and women when their light touring car crashed into a heavy transport near Odessa during the height of a violent electrical and wind storm.

Two youths in the car, Jack McGibbon, 27, driver, and Vincent Kilgannon, 21, of Odessa, were killed instantly. Two girls and a third youth were injured seriously and were rushed to hospital in Kingston where their condition was described as critical.

The injured are: Oscar Heath, Thelma Aylesworth and Lewis Powley all of Odessa, and Vivian Clark of Mooney's Bay, who was seriously injured. The transport driver, Eric Ricketts of Belleville escaped unhurt.

The party of Odessa youths was returning from Kingston via Highway No. 2 when a storm broke, simultaneously with a heavy fall of darkness and blocking the road in sheets of heavy rain, beaten with high winds.

WATCH FOR BB 1

The "B.B." on the license-plate shown here might stand for Ben Bender, but it doesn't. It's on the back of B. Bennett, Esquire, said Mr. Bennett, being prime minister of Canada. Twas said that Mr. Bennett was superstitious and demanded that he get plates numbered BB 1 and BB 2. This, however, has been denied, for the car was assigned the B's in the alphabetical list. .

PUNT REPORTED MISSING

A gale whipped the local harbor, sending whitecaps rushing in the Bay of Quinte and straining boats in their moorings. One punt with a heavy motor attached broke its moorings and is believed to have been blown into the bay by the high wind. One near fatality was recorded, when two local youths on a nocturnal fishing party had their boat capsized in the bay harbor, when caught by the gale. They managed to reach the shore safely.

Traffic was halted through the city for several hours during the heavier part of the storm at midnight. Huge trucks and lorries crowded the Market Square, while drivers sought refuge in the early lunch rooms.

Several lightning arresters guarding an expensive teletype equipment in the office of the local Ontario-Intelligencer were melted by the heavy charge of electricity. Scraps of gaffic caused by the lightning followed the wires in. Radio dealers state that a odd bit of trouble was reported no unusual number of calls owing to the storm. The wires put out of commission through the lightning flash.

After waiting throughout the night for reports from outlying stations, Mr. W. G. Procter, Dominion Fuel Board, Secretary of the Bell Telephone Company reported "nothing unusual" late this afternoon. A odd bit of trouble on the rural lines is all I've heard of."

The storm is believed to have centred in the eastern section of this district after having been brewed in the north, where lightning was first observed late in the evening.

Today a 35-mile gale still swept the district while a further downfall of rain fell.

HEAVY STORM VISITS CITY DAMAGE LIGHT

Electrical And Telephone Services in Rural Sections Interrupted

RAIN WELCOMED

Residence at Point Anne And Tree at Cannifton Struck

The season's first thunderstorm, one of the heaviest in local record, according to officials of the various public utilities concerns, split the sky over this district last evening with its jigsag streaks of heavy lightning, which created minor damages throughout the area, and brought a slight shutdown to electrical and telephonic service in the rural sections. It was accompanied by a heavy downfall of rain, which covered the city and district in a one-half inch depth, bringing relief to farmers, whose land had become parched and hard from the past weeks of dry weather.

Only slight damage was reported from the electrical storm. A stray flash of lightning, which made a direct hit on a chimney on a residence belonging to Frank Polk, Point Anne, set fire there, firing and tumbled the family from their beds. The resounding clap of thunder followed the stray bolt.

At Cannifton an age-old elm tree in the village school yard was reported to have received a direct hit, while the storm was at its height, but in the morning. Little other damage was reported.

A check-up made at Cannifton today disclosed no reported damage, except for the fact that a number of shingles were loosened from roofs and sheds by the forty mile gale, which accompanied the storm.

Hydro officials reported only minor interruptions during the night in the local area, with little damage being done in the city, and only a few shutdowns outside, which, however, had been due to been without light and power for a short period during the early morning.

DESTROYER IN COLLISION

Warship "Whirlwind" Helps Steamer in Fog To Port

London, May 10 (CP-Havas) — The British destroyer Whirlwind collided with the steamer Lulmsgarth during a fog in the English Channel today. Both ships were damaged. The Whirlwind escorted the Lulmsgarth to Dartmouth.

NO REDUCTION IN BAIL BOND

Application by Insull's Counsel Denied by Judge

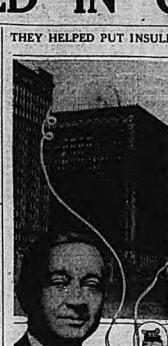
Chicago, May 10 (CP)—Samuel Insull today was refused a reduction of the $200,000 bond under which he is held prisoner in the Cook County Jail.

Judge William H. Sparks of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, said he felt the evidence did not entitle Insull to a reduction in the bond lowering of the bond which Insull's attorney, Floyd E. Thompson asserted was the highest ever demanded a defendant in any United States Court.

Thompson had brought his plea before Judge Sparks in a petition for a Habeas Corpus writ. Insull remained in the County Jail hospital where he was treated since Judge John P. Barnes Tuesday fixed the bond on his charges of using the mails to defraud and violating the Bankruptcy Act.

Forest A. Harness, special Assistant Attorney General, told Judge Sparks the United States government would show that frauds involving $10,000,000 were committed in the mail fraud case and that $2,000,000 was involved in the alleged mishandling of assets in another bankruptcy.

"The importance of these sums," Harness said, "entitles the government to assume that Insull will be on hand for his trial."



Judge Sparks concluded the hearing with the remark:

"I do not know any one could refuse you a hearing, but I am afraid I can't help you further."

Bolt Splinters Tree Piles it Like Firewood

Lightning plays queer pranks, and completes the job with thoroughness by the stray bolt which struck a veteran pine tree and left mark along the Trent Road near the Bay of Quinte Country Club during the height of this morning's storm, coldly itself for neatness and perfection. Smashing the old tree to slave-sized bits, the bolt then piled the kindling neatly around the location on which the old pine stood.

THEY HELPED PUT INSULL BEHIND BARS

A view of the Commonwealth Edison Building, Chicago, which was the throne occupied by Samuel Insull when he ruled a vast utilities empire, and from which he was toppled by financial coup of Cyrus S. Eaton (LEFT) Nova Scotia-born Cleveland financier, who acquired control of an Insull company and sold it back at his own price, and S. Z. Mitchell (RIGHT), whose activities as head of Electric Bond and Share Co., drove Insull to erect the financial pyramid that toppled and buried him.

HIDDEN BRANCH CAPTURES FISH

ORILLIA, Ont., May 10—(CP)—Major Clark Wallace tells the prize fish story so far this season. He was fishing in a trout stream and hooked a nice one but his line broke. However, he went on fishing with what remained of the line and afterwards he let the hook drop down stream about 50 yards when he saw his fish tied up by his line to the submerged branch of a tree. He pulled up the branch got his fingers in the trout's gills, and landed him. It weighed three quarters of a pound.

STORM GENERAL OVER PROVINCE

Barrie Church Struck, Damage Being Estimated at $50,000

By the Canadian Press

Accompanied by a driving wind and heavy rain that electrified the storm of the season broke over Ontario leaving a trail of damaged buildings and was indirectly responsible for one death.

In widely separated parts of the province homes, outlying barns and other buildings were targets for lightning bolts. The steeple of Trinity Church in Barrie was struck by lightning but the fire was brought under control before damage was extensive that close to $50,000 had been done.

On Highway No. 2 near Odessa a light touring car driven by a party of young men and women from Kingston to Napanee left the road and the driver, Jack McGibbon, 24, was killed. Vincent Kilgannon, 24, also killed. Two young women and a third youth were injured, one critically, it was learned today on the storm, was reported.

A large barn, owned by David White in Carew, township, near Canterbow, was razed by a lightning bolt as the storm severest part began the storm. Another bolt struck a tree in Dr. Ivey's garden during the fire spread to a cottage owned by Mrs. Mary Ann Bowen, also destroying it.

At Hope lightning streaked across the home of Mrs. Jamie Gamble. She was rendered unconscious for a few hours. The house was badly burns. The bolt tore shingles from the roof and shattered one side of the house.

Rondeau Hill firemen subdued a blaze in the transformer on a transmission pole near Rondeau. Power was cut off for a short time. The storm missed the central part of Toronto, striking the fringes of the city.

Farmers generally welcomed the downpour which accompanied the storm and expressed belief it would reduce the loss of crops expected.

STORM GENERAL OVER PROVINCE

Barrie Church Struck, Damage Being Estimated at $50,000

By the Canadian Press

Accompanied by a driving wind and heavy rain that electrified the storm of the season broke over Ontario leaving a trail of damaged buildings and was indirectly responsible for one death.

In widely separated parts of the province homes, outlying barns and other buildings were targets for lightning bolts. The steeple of Trinity Church in Barrie was struck by lightning but the fire was brought under control before damage was extensive that close to $50,000 had been done.

On Highway No. 2 near Odessa a light touring car driven by a party of young men and women from Kingston to Napanee left the road and the driver, Jack McGibbon, 24, was killed. Vincent Kilgannon, 24, also killed. Two young women and a third youth were injured, one critically, it was learned today on the storm, was reported.

A large barn, owned by David White in Carew, township, near Canterbow, was razed by a lightning bolt as the storm severest part began the storm. Another bolt struck a tree in Dr. Ivey's garden during the fire spread to a cottage owned by Mrs. Mary Ann Bowen, also destroying it.

At Hope lightning streaked across the home of Mrs. Jamie Gamble. She was rendered unconscious for a few hours. The house was badly burns. The bolt tore shingles from the roof and shattered one side of the house.

Rondeau Hill firemen subdued a blaze in the transformer on a transmission pole near Rondeau. Power was cut off for a short time. The storm missed the central part of Toronto, striking the fringes of the city.

Farmers generally welcomed the downpour which accompanied the storm and expressed belief it would reduce the loss of crops expected.

FIRE RAGES IN PULPWOOD

$50,000 Pile Threatens Mill of Minas Company

Mantsport, N.Y., May 10 (CP) Fire raging through a $50,000 worth of pulpwood threatened the mill of the Minas Pulp and Paper Company today.

The office and adjoining building is burning and the mill is directly in the path of the flames.

Rangers directing hundreds of volunteers supported by cars a shifting wind might threaten the Kentville township of Hantsport.

Detachments from Windsor and from Truro Agricultural were on the scene, assistant plant workers and volunteer fishermen and farmers.

A crowd of men from the mill ventured into the danger zone and carried out several heaps of dynamite caps and powder which had been causing anxiety.

They were red-eyed and almost overcome by smoke when they emerged, but recovered quickly and rejoined the forces battling the flames.

Piles of pulp on the wharf threatened by the fire and those lying in the stream were blazing and there appeared to be little chance of saving any of the Company's big stock.

55 CARS OF PINE SHIPPED TO ENGLAND

Espanola, May 10—(CP)—Fifty-five cars of Jack-pine lumber, totalling 1,200,000 feet, will be shipped by Austin and Nicholson next week, from Little Current dock for export recall of the Imperial Conference Trade Agreements made at Ottawa, according to George B. Nicholson, M.P.

"This will be the first shipment to England from Northern Ontario since the United Kingdom and although it is an experiment, other shipments have been arranged," stated Mr. Nicholson, who was chairman of the Canadian Committee of the Imperial Conference.

Settler of 54 Walks 325 Miles Seeks Settler's Lot for 15 Year Son

QUEBEC, May 10—(CP)—Joseph Miniscalchi 54, a settler from Mont Louis, Gaspe, walked all the way from his humble hut on the Gaspe Coast, a distance of 325 miles, to see Premier L. A. Taschereau and present a request for a free title to a settler's lot for his 15-year-old son, the oldest of 13 children.

Miniscalchi, none the worse after his long hike, on his arrival here was directed to the office of Hon.

BOMB READY FOR DOLLFUSS DISCOVERED

Austrian Chancellor Unperturbed by Find

SET IN AIRPORT

Dollfuss and Vice President Presented With Flowers

Salzburg, Austria, May 10 (AP)—Chancellor Dollfuss again narrowly escaped death today when authorities found a high explosive bomb at the airport station here shortly before he arrived from Vienna for a patriotic front meeting.

The infernal machine contained 11 pounds of shrapnel and was equipped with clockwork.

However, the little chancellor appeared unperturbed by the discovery.

He and Prince Ernst von Starnberg, the handsome vice-chancellor and head of the Patriot Heimwehr, were showered with flowers. Two tiny leaders were almost mobbed by buxom peasant girls who swarmed around them, repeatedly holding up their procession through the streets of Salzburg.

It was the first joint appearance of the last men as leaders of a patriotic front demonstration.

BLAST KILLS FATHER OF 5

King Mine at Thetford Mines Scene of Explosion

Thetford Mines, Que., May 10 (CP)—A premature explosion in the King mine today killed Ernest Barbeau, 36, father of five children, and injured Leander Lacroix, 30, badly he may lose the sight of both eyes.

Fellow workmen rushed to the 900 foot level following the blast and found the two men. Hooked was taken to hospital and doctors were trying to save his sight.

The mine is operated under by officials of the company indicated that a charge of dynamite had been set of by a shovel falling on them.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, May 10—(CP)—Synopsis—Low pressure which was over Manitoba and the Northwest States yesterday moved northeastward to Lake Superior and has caused unsettly causing light showers in Eastern Ontario, and in some sections of Ontario and western Quebec. Pressure is low over the western half of the continent and off the Atlantic coast, and fair weather prevailed in Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Georgian Bay—Strong west to northwest winds or moderate gales; fair and cooler tonight and Friday.

Northern Ontario—Strong west to northwest winds; partly cloudy with scattered showers. Friday—Strong west to northwest winds; mostly fair and rather cool.

Lower Lakes, Upper St. Lawrence Valley—Strong southwest to west winds; mostly cloudy with showers in a few scattered showers. Friday—Fresh to strong west to northwest winds; mostly fair and somewhat cooler.

Coming Events

BIG'S CAMP TAG DAY, MAY 11th. Buy cheerfully, give generously. Tag day in aid of Belleville Boys' Camp at Moira Lake, used by girls also.—Thos. Ward, Chairman. mh10-3t

BOXING AT SOUTH END CLUB rooms, Friday, May 11th. Admission 25c. Six good bouts. Admission 15c. mh5-1t

TEA AND HOME COOKING SALE in the basement of Bridge St. Church, at the home of Mrs. Pratt, 219 Ann St., Wednesday, May 16, at 2 p.m.

MEETING OF ALL PERSONS interested in tennis at the Bay of Quinte Country Club will be held on Friday evening, May 11th, at 8 o'clock, Membership fee $ p.m. All enthusiasts cordially invited. mp-10

EUCHRE AND DANCE, ORANGE Hall, Point Anne, Friday, May 11th, under by Cole's Orchestra. Admission 25c. mh8-3t

MOOSE SPECIAL DANCE THURSday, May 10th. Music by the Commodores. Ladies and gents door prize. Admission 25c. m7 9 10.

W. C. Mikel, Genealogist, Honored, Listed in U. S. Research Handbook

Mr. William Charles Mikel, Esq., K.C., local master of the Supreme Court of Ontario, who has won local recognition for his work in genealogical and historical research, has been honored by being included in the list of the leading active genealogical researchers in the United States, in The Handbook of American Genealogy recently issued by The Institute of American Genealogy of Chicago.

Recognition in this field affords access to the extensive lineage files of The National Clearing House for Genealogical Information, as well as professional contact with prospective clients throughout the United States and in foreign countries, which will enable him to expand the scope of his work very materially.

It will be of interest to the members of the Masonic fraternity, and especially to the registrars of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Sons of the American Revolution, Colonial Dames, and other hereditary-patriotic societies to learn that a local resident has served these international contacts, because they will make possible the necessary genealogical research to qualify for membership, without outside aid.

FLOODED FAMILIES READY TO RETURN

South Porcupine, Ont. May 10 — (CP)—Families in the flood-stricken area here today prepared to return to their homes which had been filled with rising waters of Porcupine Lake. The lake waters were receding and no further floods were expected.

Damage to the 60 houses affected by the flood has not yet been estimated. Many of the homes were built on stilts, having been forewarned by past floods. But the damage done is expected to run in several thousands of dollars.

City and District News

CLERGY ATTENDING AT ORDINATION

The Rev. G. G. Wright and the Rev. A. Beauchamp Payne will attend the ordination of S. Jackson to the Anglican priesthood, which is being conducted in the Church of St. Mary Magdalene at Napanee by the Lord Bishop of the diocese, the Rt. Rev. John Lyons.

JACK DEACON ELECTED AS OFFICER

Jack Deacon was recently elected one of the Vice-presidents of the Toronto University Alumni Association of New York City. They held a big banquet and their annual meeting on April 21st. Jack was chairman of the program committee. He is a graduate in engineering of the University of Toronto.

Motorcyclist Given Beautiful Trophy

A beautiful silver cup, suitably engraved and presented to him by the American Motorcycle Association of "Jack" Spalding, Belleville, has been received by Mr. Bert Pyne, well-known local motorcycle sports enthusiast. The prized trophy was presented to him in recognition of his having travelled the longest distance to attend the provincial championship road race held in Jacksonville, Florida, on April 1st. "Bert," driving his English made machine, was forced out of the race through an accident to the cycle after having led the field for several laps by a comfortable margin.

LOCAL ORCHESTRA HEARD ON AIR

Already acclaimed in the east as one of the newest and most popular dance bands on the entertainment front, Percy Palmer and his Commanders' orchestra, composed of well known Belleville boys who have been playing for two years in Montreal, are at present engaged in a daily broadcast from radio station CFCM, Montreal. The station may be heard on 600 metres between 5 and 5.30 p.m. It operates with 100 kilowatts power. The orchestra is at present booked temporarily in Montreal prior to the commencement of the summer season at the Ridgewater Pavilion, large resort family miles east of that city.

FRANKFORD WOMAN WINS RED SUITE

Unclaimed since last Monday morning when the final draw of the Belleville Shopping Week was announced, the red suite of chesterfield and chair was awarded today to Mrs. George Gifford, Frankford, who presented the winning number stub to William Doyle at the John Lewis Hardware Company.

CHILD BITTEN TWICE BY DOG

Twice within a short period of time last week the same dog attacked and bit little Allen Wright, age 7 years, of 144 West Bridge Street, the last time being in the presence of a police officer, who was called on a complaint relating to the matter. Little Allen Wright about 7.30 p.m. Thursday was playing on the stable Taylor ascertained to whom the dog belonged and he came to the party with the lad proceeded to the home of Mrs. Wright at 144 West Bridge Street, who is alleged to have owned the dog. When the officer appeared at the front door of the latter's residence and the door being opened, the dog rushed out and again attacked the little Wright lad. Constable Taylor saved the little fellow from further injuries, when he pulled the dog off from the frightened boy. The latter received a slight bite on the right shoulder. Later the canine was locked up at the suggestion of the officer.

DEATH RATE OF INSECTS HIGH

Shrivelled by the extreme cold of the past record-breaking winter, millions of destructive insects in this district are believed to have been killed. According to an uncompleted survey now being carried on by entomologists stationed at the Dominion Entomological Laboratory, the mortality among insects during the last year is believed to be very high, but unfortunately with the exception of destructive insects that have been killed, many others have helped and set out last year to keep the others under control also suffered. It will not be known just what percentage of the destructive varieties have been killed.

ASCENCION DAY IS CELEBRATED

Today being Ascension Day, there was a celebration of the Holy Communion in the St. Thomas' Church eight o'clock this morning and in St. Thomas' Church at the same hour, the observance of the Ascension Day festival, the flag of St. George was hoisted from the staff on the tower of St. Thomas' Church.

LOCAL KINSMEN ATTEND CONVENTION

The following members of the Belleville Kinsmen Club with be in attendance at the convention of Kinsmen being held today at Oshawa, Ontario: Harry Parker, Jack Montreal, are at present engaged in daily broadcasts from radio station CFCM, Montreal. The station may be heard on 600 metres between 5 and 5.30 p.m. It operates with 100 kilowatts power. The orchestra is at present booked temporarily in Montreal prior to the commencement of the summer season at the Ridgewater Pavilion, large resort family miles east of that city.

William Hurst, Jack Norry, Jack Hutchinson, Charlie Hurst, Charlie Kerr, Bill McIlwain, Carl Sills, Ed Lally, Gardiner Duff, Ronald Keele.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT AMICABLY SETTLED

A slight motor accident happened near the Canadian Swift Company's plant on Station St., early last evening, when a Swift truck is alleged to have cut in in front of a motor car that had been travelling in the same direction. Chief W. E. Willett, Wooler, while the truck driver was proceeding on his way to the city. Both vehicles were travelling westward and according to the information received by the police the truck suddenly turned into the company's driveway, before the automobile, that had been following directly behind, could stop. The right front fender, headlight and a tire of the automobile were damaged, but otherwise were amicably settled upon the arrival of the police.

Information was also received at the police station relating to disturbances caused by trespassers parting on Highland Ave. The proprietors of the various tourist homes on that street object to the parking of these large transports in front of their homes, and the police promised immediate action. No motor accidents were reported on local surrounding highways.

4 Square Floor Wax
18 inch Wool Duster
Both 50c
McKeown's
DRUG STORE

ANTACID Stomach Powder
Immediate Relief
Reg. 75c size 49c
I. D. A. DRUG STORES

Robert ORR
Superior Ice Service
Successor to J. Cornell and Son
Phone 207. Res. 218 Foster Ave.
ml, 10, 12

ICE
When You Need Ice
PHONE 1888
G. Dafoe, 198, Dundas St. E.
(Formerly Residence of Graham's)

FRESH FORMALDEHYDE
Just In 33c POUND
SCHRYVER'S PHARMACY
Phone 49
204 Front St.

A NEW HAT FOR MOTHER ON MOTHER'S DAY
A Special Assortment
Woodley's

Maxwell LawnMowers
Call and see the new modern features of these excellent mowers. Priced to suit in Belleville and district.
PRICED
4.95 to 10.85
Sacco
The wonderful plant food for lawns, gardens, flowers, etc.
10 lb. bag 80c
PHONE 284—WE DELIVER
SMITH HARDWARE
PLUMBERS & TINSMITHS

Sixteen Nurses are Graduates at Hotel Dieu

The winners of the medals and of graduation diplomas in the final at the Hotel Dieu Hospital School of Nursing, Kingston, have been announced.

The medals were won as follows: Gold medal for highest standing donated by His Excellency Most Reverend M. J. O'Brien, D.D., bonor Rev. Sister Hughes; awarded to Miss Margaret Rose Dorothy Frankford, Ont.

Silver medal for second highest standing, donated by Dr. Charles E. O'Conner, K.S.G., honor Rev. Sister LaRocque, awarded to Miss Margaret Birket, Madoc, Ont.

The members of the graduating class from this district are:

Rev. Sister Hughes and Rev. Sister LaRocque, Hotel Dieu Hospital, Kingston; Misses Mary Madeline Callaghan, Lonsdale; Margaret Swerinton, Frankford; Margaret Theresa Birket, Madoc.

GRAND MASTER IS WELCOMED

I. O. O. F. Members From District Meet In City For Event

With representatives present from lodges in Belleville, Madoc, Thomasburg, Tweed, Springbrook, Campbellford, Trenton, Frankford, Westport and elsewhere throughout the district, Stirling Lodge LOOF held a special meeting on Wednesday evening in the lodge rooms, welcoming the Grand Master, Col. Gray, of Oshawa, to District No. 6. Among the large number present were many veterans of various lodges, one of which was a 50-year-old veteran in the person of W. R. Ketcheson. Twenty-three twenty-five-year-old veterans were also in attendance, the youngest being one Past Noble Grands.

During the evening Madoc degree staff conferred the Third Degree on a class of candidates, the following which the Grand Master gave a very stirring and instructive address, which was exceedingly interesting. Following the conferring of official business, the assembly turned over to a social gathering with a somewhat impromptu entertainments being given by various members. A splendid lunch provided by brothers of the Stirling Lodge brought the successful evening to a close.

Mary Pickford May Visit Here on Next Tour

Mary Pickford, famous screen star and producer, will on her next visit to Belleville, Canada, make every special effort to pay Belleville a visit and spend a few hours here, it was learned today.

Today the film star is in Toronto on the same tour but will be unable on this occasion to come to Belleville, according to Mayor Mac Tice, her engagements calling for her immediate return to Hollywood by plane.

Miss Pickford's manager last night telegraphed Mayor Tice in explanation of the situation. The telegram reads:

"Toronto, Ont., May 9, 1934.
Mr. George O. Tice,
Mayor,
Belleville, Ontario.
Miss Pickford has just telephoned me from New York asking me to answer your wire of the second but her studio in Hollywood was driven but been forwarded to her by mail. She wishes to express her appreciation of your offer of the freedom of the city of Belleville and your invitation to visit you and regrets exceedingly that her engagements compel her to leave by air for the coast immediately on the close of her engagement in Toronto on the 19th instant.

"She also desires me to assure you that on the occasion of her next visit to Canada she will make every effort to spend a day in Belleville.

Frank Orr,
Manager for Mary Pickford."

POLICE COURT

Nothing of any grave importance was presented at today's police court held before Magistrate Mikel. A motorist faithened the city's forfeiture by failing to appear. He paid guilty to reckless driving. Just before the opening of police court Constable Evans apprehended a motorist who had failed to stop for the red light signal at the intersection of Bridge and Front streets. The driver assured the court he had failed to observe the light. He was on the look-out for the finger boards, being a stranger in this part of province. Constable Evans said there been another car coming in right ahead of him, otherwise he have been an accident. No costs was assessed.

When J. O. Holding's name was called in the police court this morning, he was to have been charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. Owing to the fact that Holding resided in Toronto and he had only been recently summoned, the matter was put in abeyance until tomorrow in order to give the accused man an opportunity to answer.

RED CROSS

Red Cross workers, taking part in the campaign which began in the city on Monday are reported to be encouraged with the results so far.

"The appeal is doing very well," said Mr. W. B. Deacon, campaign chairman, "the response has been general and generous. Citizens feel they have a moral duty to perform in supporting Red Cross work and we expect the returns to exceed those of last year."

This indeed is a cheering note for those interested in Red Cross. The work of this Society goes on day after day in the year in Belleville and throughout the Dominion supported by those who take a personal and practical interest in their less fortunate fellow men.

A large number of ladies and men are giving freely and carefully of their time in the arduous duties of canvassing. Their only reward is the knowledge that they have done their "bit" for Red Cross. It is hoped that during the remainder of the week the same co-operation of the citizens will greet their efforts so that this year's campaign will be a "best ever".

PALMER'S Gifts for Mother

Does her watch keep time—is it old fashioned? Why not present Her with a New Modern Bulova, 15-jewel movement, white or natural gold $24.75
• • • •
¼ Doz Queen Boss Teaspoons Tudor Plate
Sfs for 90c
• • • •
Taffeta Umbrellas Fancy Handles
$4.50
• • • •
Leather Hand Bags Black or Brown
$2.95
• • • •
Madeion Salad Forks Special Price
4 for $1.00
26 BRIDGE ST. E.

To the Trade
Announcing our appointment as District Wholesale Agents for "NEILSON'S ICE CREAM"
Orders will receive our best attention.
CITIZENS' DAIRY
Phone 236
m3-21

$2. Repairs Your Watch Including Cleaning
Expert—Fit Guaranteed or 2 Years Hands and Glass Extra
GEO. L. FINCH
WATCH EXPERT—FH. 2302
94 Bridge St. E.

STROUD'S Week-End SPECIALS
We Are Giving FREE, One Pound of White Sugar with a Dollar Order.
Made Loaf Baking
POWDER 16 oz. Tin 19c
Ladies' Favorite Pastry
FLOUR Bag 68c
Choice Green
TEA lb. 39c
2 lb. lots $1.00
Good Corn
BROOMS 35c
Rolled Oats ..... 7 lbs. 25c
Sunlight Soap ..... 9 bars 25c
Corn Starch ..... pkg. 10c
De Luxe Jelly Powders ..... pkg. 5c
Silver Pie
PLATE 1.95
Pyrex Lining
2 Piece Silver
Tea Service
Teapot, Cream and Sugar
Latest Design
Regular 12.00—NOW
$7.95
Made by 1847 Rogers Bros.
SHOWER GIFTS
OF CHINA
Cheese Dishes, Cake Plates, Butter Dishes, Milk Jugs, Jardiniores, etc. etc.
49c

LONE BANDIT

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., May 10. —(AP)—A lone bandit held up the book-keeper of a contracting company here today, looked her in a washroom and escaped with $1,218 payroll.

EDDIE LOGAN CLUB BOOSTER

Kiwanians Asked to Assist in Putting Over Toronto Convention

Support of the coming International Convention of Kiwanis in Toronto in June by the local Kiwanis Club was strongly urged by Isaac McNabb, International Trustee at the weekly luncheon of that club. Through a confusion of dates, there was no speaker for the meeting, but a real get together was held by the members, although there was a large number in attendance. Mr. McNabb stated that the club owed to the International Convention their presence and all the help they could possibly give. Already an excellent program has been arranged for the convention June 10-14 and the ladies will be admirably looked after by the committee. Two delegates will be appointed from this club but it is expected a large number will make the journey to Toronto some time during the four days.

Not having a speaker the club enjoyed a singing practice under the direction of Jock Riggs. Results from now on the boys will be able to sing their club songs much better. Mr. Riggs also called on Jack Intosh respecting an underprivileged under the age limit and that work was given and the thanks of the club expressed. So the work accomplished. The club will undertake to have Bobby Peck's Island if plans formulated go thru. Vince will be planted along the highway to cover up the stones which this year had been used as entrance to the park more beautiful.

Eddie Logan was the booster for the day and was introduced by George Griffin. Since coming to this city Eddie Logan has proved himself a good Kiwanian and a real fellow in every sense. He was born at Hastings and early in life went to Belleville to learn the printing trade. After working with different firms in Belleville, he entered the Kent firm as a watchmaker but he preferred to spend the end of the game to sitting on a bench operating a drill in the jewelry store became one of the leading salesmen for that organization. He was also manager when the firm secured his connection with that firm to come to this city to manage the J. A. McPee Jewellery Store. He represented the Canadian Jewellers' Association in Eastern Ontario as an executive member for a number of years. He is a member of the Trenton Golf Club at Riley's Pavilion on May 22nd. for an inter-club meet.

DESIGNS, BUILDS RUNS DISTILLERY

J. C. Hoff of Belleville Operates Plant in Maryland

The Thomas Ward Distilling Co. which is situated at Westminster, Md., about eighteen miles from Baltimore, this distillery was built by Mr. J. C. Hoff of Belleville, Ontario, from equipment furnished by Ascania Copper and Iron Works. Besides being a noted modern distillery this plant was also built in record time, the construction started on November 5 and on March 5 the first trial run was made, regular production started on March 15 and since then this distillery has been producing standard whiskies and rye whiskies also gins. Their capacity is 150 barrels of whisky a day and about 30 barrels of gin a day, and is one of the finest distilleries in the state. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hoff reside at 3427 Overton Road, Mount Washington, Baltimore, Md.

MOUNT FOREST MANAGER TO TAKE CHARGE HERE

P. C. Sisler To Be Manager of the Dominion Bank.

As the result of a triple move, there have been several changes made in staff at the Dominion Bank. Mr. W. L'Heureux has gone as the accountant to the Belleville branch of the Dominion Bank. His place in the Belleville branch will be taken by Mr. D. J. Jones of Toronto who is being succeeded by Mr. Moulten from the Chatham branch.

It has also been learned that Mr. P. C. Sisler is to leave Agnes Cyril Waite, who was transferred to Saint John, New Brunswick. Mr. Sisler will be coming to Belleville from Mount Forest to take up his new duties in about a week's time.

Mr. D. J. Jones is a prominent Kinsman in Peterboro, and he is to be transferred to the local branch of the Kinsmen during a special ceremony to be held in Peterboro this evening at which representatives from the Kinsmen in Belleville will be present.

Flowers for Mother
THE GIFT SHE WANTS MOST
What would her special day be without flowers? The one gift mothers look forward to.

We are showing a large assortment of cut flowers and offer an extensive choice in blooming plants.
All Are Moderately Priced
PHONE 1900 FOR PROMPT DELIVERY
Templer Flower Shop
14 CAMPBELL ST.

REV. FATHER BAKER TO GIVE ADDRESS

The Labor Association will be addressed by Rev. Father Baker of St. Michael's at their regular meeting to be held Monday night. A musical program is also being arranged.

Mother's Day
IS NEXT SUNDAY . . .
YARDLEY'S PREPARATIONS ARE ALWAYS ACCEPTABLE
We are giving a Jar of Yardley's Cream with each box of Face Powder—
BOTH FOR $1.10
You will find a complete stock of Yardley's here
Also Mother's Day Cards
Geen's I.D.A. Drug Store
Phone 131 For Prompt Delivery

GROUNDS LEVELLED AT SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Considerable Spring repair work on grounds and buildings of the Ontario School for the Deaf is being carried out this week by hired men. Grounds of the school are being levelled and some free and shrubbery planting is being done.

HOLY DAY OBSERVED AT ST. MICHAEL'S

Ascension Thursday, a holy day of obligation was observed at St. Michael's Church this morning. Masses were celebrated at six, seven and nine o'clock, the last being a High Mass. There were no classes in St. Michael's Academy today.

PEPPER
Pure, full strength, aromatic. Save by buying in large packages. For good peppercorn flavor, Ideal pepper is good.
Black 40c lb. White 50c lb.

FLAKEWHITE. A fine, high grade Shortening. Pure Food ..... 2 lbs. .23

PRUNES, fresh large size, lb. ..... .14
FIGS, Layer, ½ lb. pkg. ..... .15
CORNED BEEF, finest quality, lge. tin ..... .14
TOMATO CATSUP Libby's best ..... 2 for .25
HONEY BUTTER. Simply delicious, pkg. ..... .24
SHRIMPS, in the fine sauce, tin ..... .19
MALTED CHEESE, Soft, spready ..... 2 for .25
LIBBY FOODS. Aylmer ..... 2 tins .25
RHUBARB, large bunches ..... .21
CUTEX, liquid or powder ..... .05

Special SUPERSUDS
3 pkgs. 20c

ASPARAGUS, home grown ..... 2 for .25
ONIONS, Cooking ..... 10 lbs .25
POTATOES, extra fine, peck ..... .29
COFFEE, blend, freshly ground, lb. ..... .35

QUALITY, SERVICE, FRESHNESS
220 Front Street Phone 648
The IDEAL Stores

— OBITUARY —

MRS. CLINTON WHEELER

After an illness extending over some time, Pauline Caroline Wheeler, wife of Mr. Clinton Wheeler, passed from this life this morning (Thursday) at her home, 96 Chatham street.

The late Mrs. Wheeler was born in Belleville twenty-six years ago, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Curtis and had resided here all her life. She was a devoted wife and loving mother and had many friends who will regret to learn of her death. She was a member of the Church of England and an attendant at Christ Church.

Left to mourn her loss besides the husband and parents are two young children, a son Clinton Harry and a daughter, Pauline Given; one sister, Miss Ethel Artis of Belleville and one brother, Harry Artis of Toronto.

To Mr. Wheeler and children, the parents and sister and brother, the sympathy of the entire community will be extended in their bereavement.

"IT'S GREAT! IT'S DARING! . . . a heroic saga that every woman should love, one to more the heart of every man."

BELLE Always A SMART SHOW
NOW PLAYING . . . Hurry, It Ends TOMORROW
2.30 — 7.10 — 9.10
Feat. at 3.10 - 7.45 - 9.45
. . . THE SHOW EVENT OF EVENTS!
WONDER BAR
EXTRA! Rovelette - Vitaphone Comedy - Sportlight
STARTS SATURDAY — CONSTANCE BENNETT FRANCHOT TONE in the musical romance magnificent "MOULIN ROUGE"

SATURDAY CAPITOL SHOWS 2.30 : 7.15 : 9.00 Feature 3.10 : 7.55 : 9.45

INVESTIGATE PRICE SPREAD

Committee to Probe to Bottom "Panic" of 1931

Ottawa, May 10—(CP)—Charge action was taken by the Imperial Company of Canada in 1931 to depress prices on instructions from the United States were levelled at officials of the company and indignantly denied as the Stevens committee on price spreads and mass buying continued its probe into the tobacco business.

The committee continues its inquiries today, determined to bring out all facts in connection with the sharp price drop which caused the "panic" of 1931 in the tobacco areas of western Ontario.

Yesterday the committee questioned T. G. Lea, formerly a buyer in the United States, who came to Canada in 1931. Mr. Lea insisted the drop in price was due to instructions from Montreal and not from the United States.

After Mr. Lea had denied making statements in Tillsonburg hotel to the effect he had bought tobacco for 14 cents a pound from a boy purchasing himself through college who had taken "this medicine like a man", the committee heard F. R. Gregory, his predecessor as chief buyer, say he remembered Mr. Lea speaking about the boy. Sylvester Hobbins of New Toronto, also recalled hearing Mr. Lea make the statement. Mr. Lea said he might have made it but did not remember.

During the last five years, the committee was told, the Imperial Tobacco Company made profits of $24,417,100 added $4,748,000 in profits from subsidiaries, paid $1,861,900 in salaries to six executives and reduced prices to tobacco growers by 30 per cent.

Gray Miller, President of the company, who has been ill and confined to bed for several days, attributed the lower prices to over-production and said the company had tried to induce the farmers to reduce their acreage.

The company controls 70 per cent of the total tobacco trade of Canada, Mr. Miller told the committee. It controls 75 per cent of the cigarette trade, all but 66 per cent of cut tobacco, 48 per cent of plug tobacco, 97 per cent of snuff, 81 per cent of small cigars and 97 per cent of cigarettes.

Now There's Much Joy In This Home—Dad's RHEUMATISM Cripples Him No More

Off to work went Father—mother laughs with joy—the kids are happy and no wonder.

Three weeks ago he was nearly a cripple, the pernicious rheumatic pains almost drove him mad—then came a bottle of ALLENRU—2 present from a neighbor. In 2 days the agony left him—in 3 weeks—well no wonder gloom changed to joy in that modest home.

Within 24 hours after you begin to take ALLENRU the torture of pain, neuritis or lumbago the excess uric acid starts from your body—in 48 hours the terrible agony is gone—that's why leading druggists everywhere sell and recommend it for rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica and neuritis,—4 oz. bottle costs only 85c.

AN EXAMPLE TO KEEP

The pioneer knew thrift as a stern necessity and by its homely virtue gave beginning to a nation. His example is one to be followed today. Regular deposits in a Savings Account are the sure road to financial independence and security.

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA

PICTON

PICTON— On Monday evening, May 7th, the Temperance Federation of P.E. County, and the local W.C.T.U. united forces, to give those interested, a splendid evening entertainment. At seven o'clock a sumptuous banquet was served by the W.C.T.U. in the Sunday School Room of the United Church to over one hundred and fifty. Following this, Mr. Clarence Mallory, president of the Federation, called the meeting to order, and a most interesting programme followed. "Round the Mizzle Cry" was sung in unison, after which Rev. Mr. Oglett offered prayer. Rev. David Wren next gave the report of the nominating committee of the Federation. Mr. Mallory announced that this was their third annual banquet and the attendance was now diminishing, proving that temperance is not a dead issue in the County. Rev. Mr. Wren introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Rev. Clarke F. Logan, M.A., of Kitchener, who delivered a most forceful address, explaining what the Government intends to do regarding the Beer and Wine Bill, and the evils that will follow the loosening up of the laws against liquor. A duet by Misses. College and Waldron was enjoyed. Rev. R. A. Whatham spoke briefly of the help that the youth of our province could give, to the temperance cause. He then presented the Provincial Banner and a silver trophy to Donald Baxter of Bloomfield, who recently competed for them in Toronto. Misses Burr and Starks were heard in a duet. The orchestra, of 3 people, followed, which resulted in Miss Evelyn Wight of Rose Hall, who spoke on "Liquor Problems of Today" taking first place and being privileged to hold the beautiful silver trophy for one year. Mary Munroe, also of Rose Hall ranked second, and Mr. Raymond Thompson of Massasaga, took third place each receiving a book. Prof. T. E. Blanchard sang in his pleasing manner, following which the audience sang "Home Be the Tie that Binds". Prayer by Rev. Mr. Oglett and Mr. Wren the evening's a close.

On Thursday evening next, a meeting is being held in Picton, to organize County Hard Ball League. Wellington, Cressey, Milford and Wesley Lake have signified their wish to enter the league, and other points are expected to enter.

On Friday evening last, Miss Ruth Crimmon entertained delightfully, at a miscellaneous shower and bridge, at her home on King Street, in honour of Miss Marion Insley, bride elect. There were five tables of bridge, with Miss Leola Palmatier carrying off the prize for the highest score. Lunch was served after the game with Miss Marguerite Routh assisting the hostess. A beautiful white basket was then carried in, filled with beautiful gifts, mostly of china and silver, and presented to Miss Insley who thanked the girls in a few words for their kindness.

OBITUARY—Mrs. Angus Lake

Following a largely attended service, conducted by Rev. T. E. Blanchard, at her home at West Lake, the body of the late Mrs. Angus Lake was laid to rest, on Monday afternoon, in Glenora Cemetery, Picton. Mrs. Lake, whose maiden name was Sarah Cecelia Pettit, was in her fifty-ninth year. She had spent the winter in Florida with her husband, and while there was taken seriously ill, and lived only a few weeks after returning to her home. She was a valued member of the West Lake United Church, and of the Order of the Eastern Star. She was active in all community undertakings, and will be missed by a large circle of friends. Her husband, Mr. A. J. Lake, survives.

Rev. Frederick Nourse

Rev. Frederick Arthur Nourse, of 24 Moorewood Road, Toronto, passed away at the residence of his son, Reginald Nourse, Picton, on Sunday, May 6th, aged sixty-three years. The late Mr. Nourse was a superannuated minister of the United Church and had been in failing health, for four weeks, at his son's home. The body was taken to Toronto for burial, where service was held on Wednesday afternoon. The widow, one son of Toronto, and Reginald Nourse of Picton, survive.

Mrs. Herbert Harvey

Iva Loraine Harvey, wife of Herbert Harvey of Bloomfield, passed away on Saturday, May 5th, after a long illness. Mrs. Harvey had only attained her twenty-seventh year, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mallory of Bloomfield, at whose home the funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon. She was a member of the United Church, and by her consistent Christian fortitude in her suffering. Rev. T. E. Blanchard spoke comforting words to those left to mourn her early passing. Interment was made in Grover Cemetery.

Wedding

In Picton on Saturday, May 5th by Rev. S. M. Scott, Florence McCabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McCabe of Picton, to Edward Royal of Belleville.

Personals

Mrs. T. Campbell, Toronto, spent the week-end in town, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Webb Collier, Church street.

Miss Gertie Mein has accepted a position in the law office of Crown Attorney G. Walmsley.

The fire reels were called out at midnight Saturday, to extinguish a fire, that destroyed the cab. of a new truck, belonging to Mr. Michael Cole, that was parked in front of his residence on Chapel St. A cigarette is thought to have caused the fire as the ignition system was found in perfect condition.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hill have moved to Mrs. William's apartment on King street.

Mr. Howard Wood of Greenbush left for Toronto last week to take a position with the Raynor Construction Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cenier moved to Long Point, on Tuesday for the fishing season at the Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gilmore are moving the week into their home on Elizabeth street.

Silverwood's Dairy of Peterboro are sending a truck twice, a week to P.E. County, with ice cream and butter.

Mr. Veshit McIlmoyle is laying hardwood floors, and making extensive repairs to his home on Bridge street.

Mrs. E. R. McLean was elected President of the Home and School Club for the next year. Mrs. E. Ward will continue as Sec.-Treas.

Mr. Cecil Harrison Jr. left on Monday night for Cornwall, where he will join his boat for the coming season.

Rev. R. A. Whatham of Oshawa, preached at the Sunday morning service in Picton United Church, and at the evening service at the Disciple Church in West Lake.

Cadet Inspection took place at Picton Collegiate Institute on Thursday afternoon. In the absence of Captain Mallory of Kingston, Capt. Arnold Adams conducted the inspection on the school campus, before a crowd of interested spectators. There were drills by the cadets as a whole, platoon manoeuvres, P. T. Drill and Semaphoring. Mr. Adams commended the work of the boys and said that it speaked that of last year, Mr. Fox, principal, presented school pins to (1) Verdun Van Dusen best all round cadet, (2) Donald Wannamaker, best shot, (3) Reuben Vanover, best platoon leader, (4) Bert Palmatier, captain. Three boys marched down Main street and up Paul, King and Church streets to the Collegiate, to music, following the manoeuvres. Commands, exercises and cake were served to the boys, in the lunch-room and play-room by the lady teachers and some of the girl pupils, after which during Supper the girls gym until 9.30 o'clock, followed by Marguerite Nicholas and Dorothy Dattis.

JEAN HARLOW LEAVES THIRD HUBBY

Pressaging the end of her third marriage, Jean Harlow, above, platinum blonde screen star, has separated from her cinematographer husband, Harold G. Rosson, Inset, and announcement plans to seek a divorce on grounds of incompatibility. Chicagoan.

Prior to her marriage to Rosson, Miss Harlow was the wife of Paul Bern, film producer, who committed suicide two months after their wedding. Her first husband was Charles F. McGrew, II, wealthy Chicagoan.

RUNAWAY TEAM HALTED BEFORE DAMAGE EXTENSIVE

Carrying Place, May 10 (Special) —Overcome with the heat of a wooden house in which she was tending a number of tiny chicks early last Saturday morning, Mrs. Fred Hicks suffered a badly lacerated right hand when the sharp point of a hook on the outer door ripped through the flesh as she fell. Mrs. Hicks had gone to the brooder house early to feed and water the chicks, and had been inside it only a few minutes when she began to notice the effects of the heat. Deciding to get a breath or two of fresh air, she started toward the door; but had only succeeded in reaching it when she was overcome by faintness, and fell as she placed her hand on the hook. The point of the hook tore through the flesh between the thumb and index finger of the right hand leaving a deep and painful gash. Fortunately her husband near immediately called Dr. O. VanZaven of Consecon, who found it necessary to put in six stitches to close the wound. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery from the unfortunate injury.

Escapes Injury

When a team which he was driving became alarmed and suddenly began to run early on Monday morning, Mr. John Buchanan, mail-carrier and supervisor on the Trenton road, narrowly escaped serious injury as runaway horse crashed through a shallow ditch and into a brush pile. The youngest horse of the two had been making trouble for several days, and on the evening before a chain bit had been added to his harness; and when the team suddenly swerved and, for no apparent reason, began to run, the strain of the pull was too great for the chain, which broke, making it difficult to control the horses in any way. Apparently they kept in the centre of the road, otherwise damage to people and property would probably have resulted. Both Mr. Buchanan and his horses escaped injury when the seats of the wagon with him threw their weight upon the floor, but when the foot boards of the wagon gave way, Mr. Hennessey jumped. Realizing, that the canal and the narrow difficult bridge were close ahead, Mr. Buchanan with considerable presence of mind suddenly turned the team across a shallow ditch and into a deep brush which seemingly providentially placed. Here their wild career was checked and both were soon at work pulling the grader; Mr. Hennessey suffered bruises and the loss of some skin on his hands, but was able to continue his work as usual. The runaway occurred between the Dave Mc. Green and the Davis property.

Arbour Day Observed

Arbour Day was observed with fitting ceremonies at the local school on Friday last. Armed with rakes and scrubbing brushes, the pupils congregated early and spent the forenoon in cleaning the school within and without, and in tidying the playgrounds. Worm mounds were carefully levelled and sent away, flowerbeds were laid out spaded, and plans for planting were made from ashes, football goals were erected and a backstop for the softball diamond, while inside blackboards were washed, windows were cleaned and decorated, and soap and water came into universal play. Just at noon the pupils with the two teachers set out for Twelve O'Clock Point, the scene of the year's school picnic. Here lunches were eaten, games were played, a game of softball was played, swimming was enjoyed by the few who braved the chilly waters, and races were held. With prizes being given to winners and those who finished last, there was been competition. Some of the races were for the older boys, some for younger boys, younger girls, medium girls, older girls, three-legged race, relay race, wheelbarrow race, and frog race. Some of the pupils enjoyed the day to the fullest extent, and many went into early bed. Arbour Day might come once a week.

A number from this community attended presentations of Delaney's Shows at Amelianburg on Monday and Wednesday of last week.

Mr. C. Hunter left early in Thursday last to go to Montreal, there to spend several weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ormand Gilmaster, and Bobby and Mr. Gilmaster. During her absence Mr. Dusenbury is boarding with Mr. and Mrs. Harry La Tour.

Mr. Will La Tour acted as mail-man on Mr. Dusenbury's route on morning last week.

After spending a week visiting her parents, and Mrs. Ernest Hennessey, here, Mrs. Roy Kingston of Delhur, together with Jimmy her little son, returned to her home on Sunday.

MOTHERS' DAY.

Phone 2031 NOW!

THE ONE DAY OF THE YEAR WHEN FLOWERS ARE ALL-IMPORTANT

May 13th

CARNATIONS Red and White

TULIPS DAFFODILS

SWEET PEAS — SNAPDRAGON LILY OF THE VALLEY

POTTED PLANTS

Members of the Florist Telegraph Delivery

PLACE YOUR ORDER EARLY —Open Evenings Until Mothers' Day—

DOROTHY F. QUICK

FLORIST Belleville

46 Bridge St. E. Phone 2031

Victor McLaglen and Alan in "The Lost Patrol," now showing at the Capitol.

We Sell the Best for Less

Wright's SUPERIOR STORE

BUTCHER SHOP & GROCERY

24 W. Moira St. Phone 1195 We Deliver

MONEY SAVERS FOR MAY 11th. and 12th.

Robin Hood Bread Flour 96 lbs.	2.49	Delicious Loaf ..... lb. 2c Headcheese ..... 2 lbs. 25c Head Pork ..... lb. 16c Sliced Bacon ..... lb. 32c Smoked Back Bacon ..... lb. 32c Peanut Bacon ..... lb. 27c
Good Bread Flour, 24 lbs.	57c
Tiny Peas, 2 squats	8c
This is a Special
Chateau Cheese	2 ½ lbs. 23c	Shortening 2 lbs. or Lard	21c
Note This
Lux 4 cakes	23c	Fresh Hams Whole or Half	18c
Soap ...
Corn Syrup 2 lbs. 16c 10 lbs.	71c	Rose Bread Baking Powder, lb. tin	17c
		Red Rose Tea, lb.	49c
Choice Hand-Packed Tomatoes 4 tins 2 lbs.	23c	Chef Tomato Catsup, 12 oz. bot.	13c
Pine or Coarse Oats 7 lbs.	25c	Robin Hood Quick Oats large box	17c
Yeo Canned Spring Clean Whitened Chicken's large bottle	8c	Good Laundry Soap 10 bars	25c
Raspberry Jam, 32 oz.	29c	Choice Dried Apricots, lb.	23c

Try The New Fish Sausage ... 15c lb.—2 lbs. 25c

We Sell the Best for Less

Healthy Happy Children Thrive on MOORES CANDY

Wholesome Home-made Fudges	15c lb.
Peanut Crisp	15c to 25c lb.
Nut and Cream Caramels	25c and 29c lb.
Chocolate Covered Dates	25c lb.
Burnt Almonds and Brazils	39c lb.

Extra Special This Week FULL COURSE MEALS 30c — 35c — 40c

Sandwiches, plain or toasted ..... 10c to 25c
Hot and Cold Drinks of all Kinds
Ice Cream Sodas and Sundaes ..... 10c up
Ice Cream Bricks of all flavours ..... 25c each

MOORES

245 FRONT ST.—Next to Royal Bank

MOTHERS' DAY Next Sunday

LAURA SECORD CHOCOLATES

725 Pounds Here For You

A Lovely Wholesome Gift for MOTHER

She knows you love her, but you don't let her know it often enough.

Give her a box of delicious, fresh Laura Secord Chocolates for Mothers' Day. It doesn't cost you much, and she will greatly appreciate it.

25c—50c—$1.00—$1.50

Kindly order yours early. You know we are always sold out for Mothers' Day, and many are disappointed.

Dolan the Druggist

I.D.A. DRUGGIST PHONE 138

The New "Vagabond" HAT For Girls

Woodley's

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER
The Daily Ontario Intelligencer is published (except Sundays) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

E. MORTON, Publisher.

QUAKE-RUINED CITY

Photographs of the lost city of the dead race of Shiba have been taken by the explorers who made the discovery in April, that the capital of the Queen of Sheba was destroyed by an earthquake, at what time in his history after the visit of King Solomon cannot of course be told as yet because the photographs were made from the air. Closer investigation is necessary.

The city of the desert of Arabia still shows hundreds of towers along a ridge which descends by terraces to a river. The principal temple evidently that of the Queen shows traces of forts still remaining.

For those who know the Bible story of the visit of the Queen of Sheba to Solomon it may seem strange to learn that inside the city are ancient fields in the form of an oval, which were used as temples of worship of the sun.

The camera also indicated that on top of the ruins of the old city other villages were built, the white of the older city showing among the ruins of the later Moslem villages.

Portions of the walls which surrounded the city are still standing, and hanging gardens and 40-yard towers rise from the ramparts while a swimming pool are all indicated.

Along the lines of the story is the recent statement that the great Sahara desert itself once was a fertile land but was overrun by moving sands which have obliterated life.

Another wonder of the ancient world which was the Lost Atlantis, is still the quest of explorers.

Strange it does seem that with all the wonders of modern life, yet attention to the ancient world has every strong appeal for man in the twentieth century. His inquiring mind, would like to know much more of the ancient civilizations because this knowledge might bring to light facts which could be used as of great value in the problems of our own ancient civilizations passed away, whether we have a correct view of these ancient civilizations, whether even the ancient world ample fruit for the high standard of culture and civilization which were reached long before there are questions yet to be answered.

The classical civilizations of Europe are recent as compared with the story of the East buried in mystery and yet slowly and steadily being revealed by modern exploration and science.

RUSSIA'S PAST DEBTS

A ghost is troubling Soviet Russia. It is the spirit or lack of spirit, evoked by the non-payment of old debts to the United States. The evil that men do lives after them, and one government may do an evil thing, and some government pays. For and the other government pays. For somebody always pays, the creditor, or the debtor, one or more or a host of intermediaries.

When some time ago it was said that the United States would open her arms to Russia and resume trade, one well known Belleville financier struck the keynote of the situation when he pointed to the old Russian debts. His prediction has come true. Even the U. S. cannot forget the treatment she had received at the Russian hand.

Russia is Russia to the United States and to any other land, and the Soviet must stand the blame for the incidents which occurred before the Bolshevists came into power. The Soviet is the strong man who took Russia out of the hands of Kerensky and that strong man is to-day Russia, because his predecessor died in debt, and just because Czarist Russia was in debt.

Now Russia has some time to think. A name for being "bad pay" is one of the most costly things a man or a nation can possess. It is very hard to get out of it, even more hard to do because the name lives long even after the debt is paid if it is paid.

Russia is not likely to take any steps to pay off the old debts for she probably has her hands full even as it is.

This debt question is again up to the United States and it looks as if there would soon be another attempt to settle the war debts question.

x x x

DOGS

Toronto has its dog problem much accentuated since the assessment list contains the total of 25,000 animals though only 7,000 were registered last year.

Other cities have theirs. In Belleville there is a dog population the most of which are on the list either before canvass by the dog impounder or after he takes them in his net. Belleville is of course comparatively free from the vast problems of a city the size of Toronto, but it has its own problems with dogs which come in from the country roundabout.

It is safe to say that there is not the proportion of unregistered dogs here that there is in Toronto.

The time for reasoning is before we have approached near enough to the forbidden fruit to look at it and admire.—Margaret Percival.

SIDELIGHTS

GRAVE and GAY

Supervised by The Intelligencer Staff

WISHING

Ring-ting, I wish I were a primrose,
A bright yellow primrose blowing in the Spring!
The stooping boughs above me,
The wandering bee to love me,
The fern and moss to creep across,
And the elm-tree for our king!

Nay—stay! I wish I were an elm-tree,
A great lofty elm-tree, with green leaves gay!
The winds would set them dancing,
The sun and moonshine glance in,
The birds would house among the boughs
And sweetly sing.

Oh—no! I wish I were a robin,
A robin or a little wren, everywhere to go;
Through forest, field or garden,
And ask no one leave to ramble,
Till Winter comes with icy thumbs
To ruffle up our wing!

Well—still! Where should I fly to,
Where go to sleep in the dark wood or dell?
Before the day is over,
Home comes the rover,
For mother care's the center this
Than any other thing.

—William Allingham.

x x x

AN INTERESTING FEATURE of Belleville Better Days centred in the number of shoppers from out of town, many from a considerable distance, most of them attracted by the 32-page Better Belleville Days' edition of The Ontario Intelligencer and by the free bus lines to more than twenty thousand homes in all parts of the Bay of Quinte district. With good paved roads leading to Belleville, making this city the centre of an ever-enlarging district people can come for one hundred miles without discomfort in their cars, and their visit to Belleville is always interesting and profitable. Let's invite them to come often and make their visits as pleasant and profitable as we can. Business men can talk to thousands through this newspaper every day, thousands of prospective customers.

x x x

BELLEVILLE BRANCH of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada, newly formed, is proving itself a live and energetic organization, and a valuable asset to the community. Judging by the initial enthusiasm and energy displayed by this new organization much may be expected in future action which will be a benefit to the city generally.

x x x

GIVE A MAN A JOB sentiment revives with the spring which reveals so much to do about the home and business place. There are many jobs of cleaning and brightening up which would greatly improve property as well as giving aid and comfort to some man who might have been out of work. Get in touch with the Government Employment Bureau, Campbell Street, for help in any kind, and add your good deed to the sum total of good deeds which will help you and help others, besides improving your property.

x x x

THAT NEW TRENTON-KINGSTON Highway along the bay shore of Prince Edward County is interesting as a proposal, but Belleville should see that this city is not sidetracked by such an arrangement.

x x x

A GOOD BATTING AVERAGE is all that any good ball player can expect. President Roosevelt said that he did not expect to make a hit every time he went to bat, but he would try to maintain a good batting average. It's the same in the newspaper business. Can't expect to suit all the people all the time, but we can suit some of the people all of the time and most of the people most of the time.

x x x

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION makes horse races, said David Harum, and a world in which all of the people were apparently of the same mind—all Yesmen and Yeswomen, would lack that variety which is the super spice of life.

x x x

"The people of the world more nearly grasp the inter-dependence of nations than do the governments who are supposed to represent them."—Viscount Cecil.

x x x

"Life is short, death is long; and I see no reason why half our lives should be spent in bed."—Lady Oxford.

x x x

"What did George's rich maiden aunt leave him in her will, after he had spent so many years pretending he was fond of her beastly cats?"

"The cats."

x x x

"America will never become a truly musical country until the so-called common people take it into their hearts to regard it as their proper heritage."—Walter Damrosch.

IT IS WRONG TO BELITTLE NERVOUSNESS

People Who Have a Nervous Trouble Really Suffer

By LOUIS E. BISCH, M.D., Ph.D., Famous Authority in Health and Psychology

(Copyright, 1934, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Nervousness is one of those terms one hears mentioned almost every day and it means about as many different things as there are people using it. Yet the nerves are highly important structures in the body which really everywhere. A person cannot be as well as he might be if his nervous system is not functioning absolutely normally.

It is a mistake to belittle nervousness even when we have to do it. A functional origin and that the organic structure of the nerves is intact. Insomnia, palpitation of the heart, fears, diarrhea, worry, fear, anxiety and all the other symptoms that may be part of nervousness in order should not be brushed lightly aside with the remark as, "It's only a case of nerves."

People who have a nervous disorder need sympathy. They need suffer even more than does a patient with an organic condition because their condition only makes their suffering worse.

What all nervous patients should do is learn to respect their nerves even though they are not functioning properly. But the lesson is that most of them soon develop ideas of inferiority, nervousness from either of which become added handicaps in making the fight to get well.

Occasional feelings of agitation, depression, and fear in which we should be considered nervousness. Real nervousness is something else and not usually come and go but persists, and even grows worse with the passing of the years.

Yet, nervousness has a cause. Sometimes the cause is disorder in some other organ of the body such as the heart, kidneys, etc.

Usually the trouble lies in the way the mind works, in the thought processes themselves. And because of this latter fact it often happens that a nervous patient visits one doctor after another, each one of whom seeks a possible organic explanation, until at last he is directed to a medical psychologist who recommends a complete analysis of the mental processes.

The cure for most cases of functional nervousness lies in an exploration of that deeper mind of ours which we call the unconscious or subconscious. Here so-called repressions, conflicts and complexes may be causing all the trouble. And the secret of it is that the patient himself may not be realizing what nervous factor of which he is pursuing. When he does realize it, however, that is, when the analyst points out his faults—he quickly makes the necessary adjustments in his mode of living, thinking and feeling, and the symptoms of nervousness soon disappear.

Nervousness can be cured. What is needed is every effort should be made to bring about a cure. For, as mentioned before, nervous ills are not eradicated from the system, others usually develop while the old ones become chronic. This means that a cure usually becomes an exceedingly difficult, if not impossible, task.

Dr. Bisch's Daily Diet Hint

There are those who suffer from increased motility of the digestive tract which often results in a kind of mucous diarrhea. What it is the nervous system which needs attention and not primarily a regulation of the diet. A so-called "rest cure" is what these patients need, preferable away from home and familiar surroundings. The diet itself should be simple, readily digestible and small quantities in the beginning. Skimmed milk is the best to start with, gradually adding more and regular diet as the symptoms disappear.

ONE OF KIDNAPPERS BELIEVED IN CUSTODY

Documents Also Taken Exposing the Actual Procedure

Tucson, Ariz., May 10 (AP)—The Federal prisoner was held by an authoritative source yesterday, that one of the men in the Urschel kidnapping plot of June Robles, 19-year-old hatress, has been found by investigators and is now within their custody.

It also was told that a written document giving details of the plot and locations, where the child had been secreted was found, revealed by the man.

Not formally under arrest, nor the subject of any charges, the man has been in the custody of investigators for a week. The document, it was learned, implicates him as one of four persons in the kidnapping of the girl last April 25th from her home here.

He was identified as a Mexican.

The others in the plot were described as a Mexican and his wife, and a man whose nationality was not revealed.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK — By R. J. Scott

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

May 10th, 1914

Mr. Wilson H. Lloyd, a graduate of the Belleville High School, has passed with honors into the Toronto University year in medicine at Queen's University. This accomplished will work for the Government Medal and Cobalt.

Mr. J. L. Foster of Moira, is spending a few days in the city.

Street surveyor is having Coleman street moved from the bridge and Catherine streets.

Mr. Joseph Smith, formerly, May 10th 1884, Miss B. Rutan, blacksmith, Front St., began his apprentice.

Mr. He joined with Mr. Smith business in West Belleville in a little frame shop. He was a farmer of Bridge and Coleman streets. At this time an old wooden bridge spanned the Moira River. Mr. Government Employment Bureau, Campbell Street, for help in any kind, and add your good deed to the sum total of good deeds which will help you and help others, besides improving your property.

x x x

THAT NEW TRENTON-KINGSTON Highway along the bay shore of Prince Edward County is interesting as a proposal, but Belleville should see that this city is not sidetracked by such an arrangement.

x x x

A GOOD BATTING AVERAGE is all that any good ball player can expect. President Roosevelt said that he did not expect to make a hit every time he went to bat, but he would try to maintain a good batting average. It's the same in the newspaper business. Can't expect to suit all the people all the time, but we can suit some of the people all of the time and most of the people most of the time.

x x x

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION makes horse races, said David Harum, and a world in which all of the people were apparently of the same mind—all Yesmen and Yeswomen, would lack that variety which is the super spice of life.

x x x

"The people of the world more nearly grasp the inter-dependence of nations than do the governments who are supposed to represent them."—Viscount Cecil.

x x x

"Life is short, death is long; and I see no reason why half our lives should be spent in bed."—Lady Oxford.

x x x

"What did George's rich maiden aunt leave him in her will, after he had spent so many years pretending he was fond of her beastly cats?"

"The cats."

x x x

"America will never become a truly musical country until the so-called common people take it into their hearts to regard it as their proper heritage."—Walter Damrosch.

30 YEARS AGO

May 10th, 1904

We have received an interesting letter from Mr. Wm. Johnson, who is now in Egypt.

The members of the Intelligencer staff wish to thank Mr. James Wallace, who resembled them with a nice lot of bananas this afternoon.

In the death of John G. Frost, which occurred on Monday morning Belleville lost a worthy citizen. Deceased was always ready to advance the interests of the city, he loved so well. Mr. Frost was 76 years of age and had resided in Belleville for forty years. He was engaged in the furniture business. He was a member of the city council for many years and a water commissioner. He was a candidate for Parliamentary honors for the Liberal interests being defeated by the late Alex. Robertson, M. P. and Mr. Thomas Porter, M.P.. For some years he was an energetic chairman of the board of trade. Rev. Dr. Wright, Rev. Dr. Casey and Rev. Dr. Ryckman will conduct the funeral services.

40 YEARS AGO

May 10th, 1894

After having in previous years wiped out nearly every branch of business and professional pursuit in the game of baseball except the undertaker, the local tyros decided to try conclusions with the latter and met their doom yesterday. At about half past three a crowd of people could be seen wending their way towards the hospital. Although none of the big manufacturing concerns of our city closed for the occasion and no brass band has been engaged to announce to pay sweet strains of music, yet it was a large crowd, and they were going to witness what in many respects resembled a game of baseball. The "cranks" were there in full and their remarks on the playing of some of our typographical artists were not of a very encouraging nature, but the gallant printers stuck to it and played the game to the finish as the score will show. The printers won the toss and went first to the bat and made a fair start with four runs, but the professional "writer" from Hogg Island soon proved more than a match for them in the remainder of the game and they only succeeded in making six more runs at the finish. The way Wilson of the printers struck at the ball would lead the spectators to believe he was trying to drive a band saw. Every time the pitcher lifted the ball over the plate it went through the air in a frightful manner and if hitting had been in order he certainly would have been rendered useless for the remainder of his days. H. McDermid made some splendid hits and scored several times. He was also in good form behind the bat, missing very few balls. If he had accepted Hamilton's challenge to hit the ball it probably would have been picked up in some farm in Ameliasburgh. Wilson, Ball and Davidson did good work on the bases. Harris kept up his reputation as a heavy striker when he hit his ball, but his eye sight was poor yesterday and he failed to find the exact position of the leather several times. The Ontario Duds made some errors in the air and they are up there yet. Several good catches were made by the printers was Imbleh did splendid work behind the bats and fired him after the first innings. For the clobbers Hampton, Falconer and Vaughan did brilliant work, each succeeding in being put out very creditably. The correct score is not known, but it probably was in the neighborhood of one hundred. The mascot, Walter McDermid did his share in encouraging the 'type sluggers' by having carried 23 pails of water during the contest.

50 YEARS AGO

May 10, 1884

There was a good attendance at the annual meeting of the Bay of Quinte Yacht Club. Commodore Clarke presided. The election of officers resulted as follows: Commodore, R. Clarke; vice-commodore, R. M. Roy; captain, S. R. Bakwell; secretary, R. S. Neilson; treasurer, Wm. Pike; measurers, Geo. N. Leavens and W. S. Deweyer; regatta committee, D. B. Robertson, chairman; E. Force, Jas. Jenkins, C. J. Starling, F. S. Campbell, W. N. Ponton, J. Addison, S. A. Spenlgenberg, Wm. Webster; executive committee, C. J. Starling, chairman; A. Robertson, M. P.; Thos. Bilchie, J. Henderson, P. H. Hambly, Jas. Edgar, C. S. Sutherland, W. A. Stoneburg, Geo. F. Hoge, J. L. Bigger, H. Carey,

We Deliver

SUPERIOR STORE
CICERI & BLUE

We Deliver

Use Our Personal Phone Service
For Quick Delivery, Fresh Merchandise, Low Prices, and, BEST OF ALL, each item will be personally selected by MISS NEWSON, who, we are sure, will please you.

Two Direct Lines
$20 PHONE 821

BUTTER 2 lbs. 41c
PINES 2 for 33c
BREAD 9c lge. Loaf
Castle Wax 25c per tin
Toilet Paper 6 rolls for 25c
Peanut Butter 11c lb.
Large ORANGES 39c Doz.
PEARS 3 tins 27c
SHRIMPS 19c
SODAS 2 lbs. 25c
Arrowroot Biscuits 23c lb.
TOMATOES 2 lbs. 29c.
Robin Hood Quick Oats 17c
Roman Meal Bread 8c Loaf
Sliced Bread 10c
Chase and Sanborn's COFFEE 40c lb.
Potatoes 29c pk.
Chef Beans 5 tins 25c

EFFORTS TO SETTLE MILL STRIKE MADE

Fort Frances, Ont., May 10.—(CP).— Conferences to settle the strike of 1,200 mill workers both here and at International Falls, Minn., were scheduled to begin here today.

The unions are seeking establishment of a uniform standard of wages, hours and working conditions. They have suggested a return to the 1933 wage scales plus an increase of 11.1 per cent. A six-hour day also is sought.

Several labour representatives arrived yesterday for the meetings and A. W. Anderson, Minneapolis, production manager of the Minnesota and Ontario Paper Mills, Ltd., was due to arrive later today or take part in the discussions.

The Union representatives include John P. Burns, Washington, International President of the Pump and Sulphite Workers, and C. O. Cunningham, representing William Green, President of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. W. Hughes, Minneapolis, Secretary to the 1933 wage scales plus an increase of 11.1 per cent. A six-hour

MEAT SPECIALS
GOVERNMENT RED GRADED BEEF

Chuck or Shoulder Roast, lb.	9c	Boneless Rolled Fillets Veal lb.	12c
Short Rib or Blade .... lb.	12c	Shank Off Legs of Veal . lb.	14c
Porterhouse or Wing .... lb.	22c	Sliced Peameal Back Bacon .... lb.	25c
Round Steak ..... lb.	15c	7 to 9 lb. Turkeys ..... lb.	24c

Concrete Retaining Walls Laid for Crowe Lake Bridge

Residents Follow Progress of Construction With Interest

Marmora—Work on the new bridge over Crowe River is progressing in an interesting manner now, and on Sunday the development were a source of interest to many motorists, although work was not being carried on at that time. Three hundred and fifty cars crossed the temporary bridge on Sunday, most of them during the afternoon and it is estimated two or three thousand people visited the site of the bridge that day. The concrete retaining walls on the east pier are almost completed and are now to the height of the floor of the new bridge. The first steel will be steel for the floor of the bridge is now in place. The steel is fast in the concrete of the lower chord is turned with a curve to a horizontal position, and when the forms are in position for the floor of the bridge the steel will be buried in the concrete. Men are now at work removing sections of the old bridge and as soon as it is out of the way, the eastern pier in the river will be poured to the height of the floor of the bridge. All manner of rumy trouble from high water is now past.

Personals

Miss Dora Lawrence, R.N., who has been in Peterboro for the past couple of weeks, returned home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Toronto were week-end visitors at their summer home, Crowe Lake.

Mr. C. Williams returned from Montreal on Friday, having made a business trip there.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickson and family of Peterboro were week-end guests in town.

Mrs. Parker, and family, of New York City, spent the week-end at their summer home on the Island, Crowe Lake.

Mr. T. Burnham of Peterboro was in town on Monday.

Mrs. N. Mitchell who has been taking a hairdressing course in Peterboro, returned home on Saturday and will specialize in marcelling and Permanent Waving.

Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Hollingsworth and Miss Charles, visited relatives in Finch, Ont., for a couple of days last week.

People are fast beginning to realize the full extent of the damage done to trees and shrubs by the extreme cold of the past winter. Great numbers of apple, peach, plum and other fruit trees were killed, raspberries and other small fruits also suffered very heavy damage. Many rose bushes and other flowering shrubs were also destroyed. Mr. C. Wells's beautiful rose garden at their summer cottage, Crowe Lake, was almost completely destroyed, the damage amounting to almost 100 per cent. Others in Marmora and Deloro and at the Lake also had a large number of injured shrubs or flowers killed by extreme cold.

Miss Kate Doyle returned home from the Hotel Dieu, Kingston, on Thursday and her condition is very much improved. Many friends in Marmora and Deloro are glad to be able to hear this.

Eighteen members of St. Paul's Men's Club visited St. James' Men's Club, of Trenton, Tuesday evening, and had an enjoyable time. Rev. W. Hope Sewell and Rev. R. E. Mount of Tweed, warmly welcomed the visitors. Mr. W. R. Reynolds, president of St. Paul's Club, gave a short talk, outlining the activities of St. Paul's Men's Club, after which Mr. W. J. Cottrell of Marmora, took charge of the program.

Several students from this district, who are attending Queen's University, have won awards in the Faculty and Arts' honor list which has been announced. In the first year Science group, H. M. Harpell, late, of Keene, is awarded a $100.00 scholarship and two Marmora students, D. D. Aitken and Sydney Sulbor, have been awarded each $75 scholarships. The '01 Fellowship in English, of $80, has been won by F. J. Wilson, of Sunderland. Dorothy Lean, of Cobourg, won the medal in Mathematics, and Margaret E. McGregor, of Bowmanville, the medal in Spanish.

St. Andrew's Y. P. A.

St. Andrew's Young People's Association held a successful open meeting in St. Andrew's Hall on Monday evening, with about fifty young present. The president, Geo. Cook, was in charge and the program.

The opening exercises had been taken by Rev. C. W. Hollingsworth, a short business session was held, Max Green then gave "Current Events" in an interesting manner, after which Edith Henry conducted a short game of old favorites. Rev. C. W. Hollingsworth led in a discussion on "Christian Citizenship," after which two contests and a number of games were indulged in. Dainty refreshments were served at the close.

HUNTINGDON TWP. COUNCIL

Huntingdon Township Council met in regular session, all members present.

Minutes of last meeting were read and on motion Hagerman-Hilliker were adopted.

Mr. Nathan Montgomery interviewed Council about the Connaught road being in need of repair. No action taken for the present.

Mr. Hugh English interviewed Council about drainage. This was left over until a later date.

Hagerman-Jones that bylaws regarding the change in Hydro and Bell Telephone be given their second reading.—Carried.

Council then went into committee of the whole on motion of Reeve in the chair. The bylaws were given their second readings, signed, sealed and numbered.

Council resumed and on motion Whitney and Jones the following bills be ordered paid:: C. Lockhart, labor on road, $1.12; T. E. Fleming, supplies, $2.46; Town Hall license, $11.00; Mrs. Archer, for relief, $48.27; Removing Geo. Cross to County Home, $7.00.

Hagerman-Wickens that Council adjourn to meet Monday, June 4th at 10 o'clock a.m. and Court of Revision on same date at 1 o'clock p.m.—Carried.

H. S. KILPATRICK, Clerk.

WAGE AGREEMENT REACHED

TORONTO, May 9. — (CP)—A wage agreement has been reached between the Pitt Shop employees of Printers and Bookbinders Association of Toronto and the Bookbinders, Printing Pressman and Apprentices' Union, it was understood here today and will be signed at a conference being held the parties Friday. The wage rate continues on the same basis as last year.

Refreshing at NOON

WHEN the children come home hungry at lunch-time, give them a treat! Crisp, delicious Kellogg's Corn Flakes, with milk or cream. A food full of energy, yet light, refreshing, easy to digest.

Try Kellogg's yourself for lunch. See how keen and fit you feel, the rest of the day. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

Kellogg's FOR LUNCH

CANADIAN PRESS ELECTS OFFICERS

Canada's great news-gathering organization, the Canadian Press, has elected its officers for the ensuing year at its annual meeting held in Toronto. Re-elected president was Henri Gagnon (upper right) publisher of the Quebec City Le Soleil, honorary president is W. Norman Smith, (upper left), vice-president of the Ottawa Journal; first vice-president, Col. John Preston, (lower right), managing director of the Hamilton Spectator; second vice-president H. P. Duchemin (lower left), managing director of the Sydney Post-Record. Slightly elected for his work, was J. F. B. Livesay, general manager of the organization.

MRS. L. CASSIDY HOSTESS TO L. A. OF SPRINGBROOK

Springbrook—On Thursday, May 3rd, Mrs. Lindsay Cassidy was hostess to Springbrook Ladies' Aid. Psalm 73 was read responsively. Mrs. Orr Bailey led in prayer. Numerous favourite birds were named by the members in reply to the roll call.

During the business session a contest between the groups was arranged. Miss Enid Burkitt then entertained with a paper, "Apostle Elocution". Mrs. Fred Penn with "What Have They Seen In My House", and Mrs. Carman Sine with one of Aunty's poems, "The Everlasting Memorial." Repeating the Hebrew Benediction concluded this part of the program.

While refreshments was enjoyed the hostess served lunch. She was assisted by Mrs. Fred Robertson and Mrs. W. A. Bateman.

Mrs. E. Rosser returned to Toronto after spending a week with her father, Mr. Marshal Sweet.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Meiklejohn and Vivian, also Mrs. Roy Fry of Seymour were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Meiklejohn, 11th Concession.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ray spent Sunday in Stirling.

Miss Verna Baker of this village spent Sunday at Bonarlaw.

Mrs. Andrew Reid returned to her home here after spending a couple of days at the home of Mr. Arthur Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Rousell and Mrs. E. A. Rublin motored to the village of Roseneath on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Rousell and Mrs. Rublin will spend a few weeks here while Mr. Rousell returned to their home in Hamilton on Sunday.

Mr. Rufus Joyce's many friends are sorry he is not improving very rapidly. Mis Lulu Brown, R.N., of Bonarlaw is in attendance.

Mrs. Alex Bateman of 11th Concession spent a few days of last week with her mother, Mrs. Rufus Joyce.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McConnell of London, Ont., were recent guests of Mrs. C. A. MacConnell.

Mrs. S. L. Terrill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Murray of Toronto called on Mr. and Mrs. Howard Richards, on Sunday.

BALL GAME IS FEATURE OF ARBOR DAY OBSERVANCE

Mountain View.—Rev. W. G. Fletcher, of Ameliasburg, spent the tea hour on Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Parliament.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Sprung spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Edda Hall at the Belleville Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wood and Carl, of Belleville, spent the tea hour on Sunday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wood.

A number from this vicinity attended the Ameliasburg softball dance on Tuesday night.

Mrs. Donald Dickson is staying for a time at Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sprung's.

Miss Audrey Way called on Mrs. Irma Pym on Tuesday afternoon.

Glad to report Mrs. Pymer's condition somewhat improved.

The Mountain View school pupils and teacher enjoyed Arbor Day with the Burr's school.

Mr. Jay Sprague took them out in his truck. A softball game was played in which Mountain View were the winners by a score of 32-16. Burr's treated their visitors very well and Mountain View after moving a vote of thanks by Bernice Mountain invited them back on Friday, May 18th.

They were treated to sandwiches, pickles, cheese, cake and ice cream by the Burr's school and teacher, Miss Velma Arkle.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Adams, Arthur and Margaret, of Consor, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sprague and Eleanor spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Earle Wesse and family.

Mrs. William Vanwart had dinner on Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Parliament.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jacques of Foxboro, and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Jacques of Consor were Sunday callers of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Parliament.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson and Miss Lillian Anderson attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Angus Lake of West Lake, on Monday afternoon.

Miss Margaret Mitchell spent the week-end with Miss Ada Hall at A. Plant and Vera, of Bayside.

Mr. George Sprague, of Redneresville, spent the dinner hour on Sunday with Mrs. Lillian Sprague and Annie Blair.

BIG ISLAND WEEKLY NOTES

Big Island.—Mrs. Arnold Anderson and daughter Arlie, of Greenbush, spent Tuesday at the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clement.

Mrs. Lee Williams, Bernice and Carmen, spent Sunday with Mrs. Blake Jones, Crofton.

Mr. Bobbie Peck spent the week-end with his uncle, Carmen Williams.

The school children observed Arbor Day on Friday. Bethel school with their teacher, Miss Phyllis Reynolds, came over and enjoyed a real time at Big Island school ground winning.

Mrs. Wilmont Wager returned home in the middle of the week from a visit to Bethel.

Miss Cecil Latta has secured a position as bookkeeper with the Pollard Canning Co. Bethel.

Miss Marion Carter, Demorestville, spent the week-end with her friend, Miss Mary Sprague.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Anderson spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clement.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norton, Smithport, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Gerline.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Peck spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gerrish, Pine Lake.

Visitors at Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sprague's on Sunday for the tea hour, Miss Mina Sprague, Mr. Ira Sprague, Miss Ina Sprague and friend, also Miss Ines Allan and friend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sprague spent Sunday in Kingston.

Miss Helen Mahood spent the week-end in Picton.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Williams, of Belleville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Ogden spent the dinner hour on Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sprague.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Clement and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Young spent Saturday in Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sprague spent Sunday evening in the evening on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Masters.

SUFFERS SEVERE CASE OF BLOOD POISONING

Lonsdale.—Garden making is the order of the day down this way.

A great many of the farmers are working up the land they worked and sowing last fall, being very much dispointed in both, spending their time with a good amount of money in seed. All hope for better times to encourage the man behind the plow.

A number from this vicinity attended the impressive Confirmation service which was held in St. Jude's Anglican Church, Kingston, on Sunday evening, April 29th. Service was conducted by Bishop Lucas, assisted by Rev. A. E. Pepper, pastor, Rev. W. G. Pringle, Selby parish. Four were confirmed, Miss Minnie Hewitt and Jean Leaver, also Messrs. John Brown and Nelson Leaver. Wonderful service and attendance as the church was filled to the door with many standing in the entrance.

Mrs. J. T. McCullough visited her brother, Mr. P. McCullough, one day lately.

Messrs. Will and Arthur Dowdell spent a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dowdell.

All were sorry to hear of the sudden illness of Mrs. Jas. McAuliff, who was taken to Hotel Dieu Hospital, Kingston, and has undergone a serious operation. All hope for her will have a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis McCullough and daughter Margaret, and Jimmy and Jack, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Jas. McCullough, also his sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry McCullough, enjoyed a drive and dinner spending the day with his sister, Mrs. Fred Hall, Latta.

Residents are pleased to know that Mr. Gerard Sexsmith who suffered from an attack of bloodpoisoning in a bruised hand, is improving.

Mr. R. M. McCullough attended the Presbyterial meeting held in Trenton one day recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Melburne entertained Mr. and Mrs. Hill of Sunnyside, on one day this week.

Mrs. Margaret Turnbull was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Percy McCullough on Tuesday.

Mr. Kenneth Loveys, Corbyville, called on Mr. J. M. McCullough on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Will Haight spent one day with Mr. A. H. McCullough recently.

Dr. and Mrs. Robt. McQuay, Whitby, also daughters, Betty and Mary, and son Donald, on Saturday and Sunday visited some friends in this neighborhood.

Mrs. J. McQuay spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her brother and sister, Mrs. James and Mr. Norman Whiteman.

Messrs. Billy King and Ralph Melburn were in Napanee on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Jas. Whiteman, also Mrs. Jas. McQuay, Whitby, called on Mrs. Gough, on Sunday morning.

Mr. A. H. McCullough called on Mr. W. A. McCullough one day recently.

The people of this community extend their sympathy to Mrs. Ella Sullivan whose house caught fire and was burned on Tuesday morning.

THE SELF-HEATING Coleman IRON

FUEL COST ONLY 1½c AN HOUR!

Lights Instantly

MAKES-IRONING EASIER

—Cuts Ironing Time One-Third!

Every woman loves it to herself to have one of these irons that saves her health, strength and gives her more leisure time. With a Coleman you can do a big ironing, a little ironing, at the same time and at a cost of only ½¢ an hour.

The Coleman Lights Instantly . . . heats quickly. Hear may be adjusted for light or heavy work. Sole plate is tapered just right for easy ironing under bumper, pleats and along seams. The always hot point . . . gracefully tapered . . . slips easily into hard-to-get places.

THE COLEMAN LAMP & STOVE CO., LTD.
TORONTO, ONTARIO

ASK YOUR DEALER

John Lewis Co.

Headquarters Coleman Products

265 FRONT ST. PHONE 2260

HEMORRHOIDS OR "PILES"

Dr. Chase's Ointment relieves the itching, burning, stinging sensations almost immediately and for half a century has proved effective treatment for this torturing ailment. Why risk an operation when this ointment will relieve you?

Dr. CHASE'S OINTMENT

SAVE ½ THE WORK

and have the Same Fine Looking Floors!

Constant "going over" Unnecessary

Smart housewives everywhere are proving that weary hours of waxing, rubbing and polishing floors CAN be cut in half.

There's an easier way, a quicker way to care for floors. The SHINE and SHUFFLE TEST proves there is a difference, that there is ONE floor wax which enables you to have good looking floors all the time and save one hour's work in every two.

THE SHINE AND SHUFFLE TEST

While you still have some of your present polish left, get from your dealer a tin of Polifor and test them both side by side. Use Polifor on any one floor in your home where the finish must be right. Then take a floor where wear is extra hard and do this with Polifor Wax.

Then on the balance of your floors see the polish you always have been using. Test the results you get from both finishes over a period of time—we leave the decision to you.

Made by the makers of NUGGET SHOE POLISH

Polifor WAX

"There's a Polished Home in Every Tin"

THE RED & WHITE STORES

"GOOD TEA NEVER FAILS YOU"

and upper right MORE CUPS to the Pound

Red & White Orange Pekoe 29c

You'll enjoy the rich, aromatic, delicious and satisfying flavour. ½ lb.

CROWN Blend 39c

It has both strength and flavour. 11 oz. bag

SPECIAL—FOR MUFFINS

QUAKER NATURAL BRAND 2 pkgs. 25c.

VI-TONE The Tonic food beverage. Large tin 33c

½ lb. tin

Mazola Oil Makes salad dressings smooth and rich

1 lb. Tin 28c

CHEF BAKED BEANS 2 16 oz. Tins 11c

FIVE ROSES FLOUR 24 lb. Bag 85c

The all-purpose flour

Use FLUFFO SHORTENING 2 lbs. 21c

For Perfect Results

SOAP P. & G. White Naptha 5 for 19c

Sunlight Soap 5 for 29c

Gold Medal Floor Wax Gives a hard, brilliant finish 25c

Delicious WHOLE BRAZIL FUDGE 25c lb.

No. 1 Quality BULK SODA BISCUITS 2 lbs. 23c

SALMON RED STAR FANCY COHOE Large No. 1 Tins 23c

OLD CITY RASPBERRY Jam with Pectin 32 oz. Royal Jar 28c

Gold Medal Choice Quality Tomatoes 4 2½ Squat Tins 25c

Red and White Quick Tapioca, pkg. 10c
Red and White Baking Powder, 16 oz. tin 23c
Red and White Peanut Butter, 20 oz. Jar 25c
Red and White Jelly Powders ..... 4 pkgs. 25c
Shredded Wheat ..... 2 pkgs. 25c

QUALITY ALWAYS HIGHER THAN PRICE

HAT SALE $1.49
Woodley's

Personals

Miss Winnifred McCabe is visiting relatives in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Logan of Hamilton, are guests of Col. and Mrs. Ponton at Sidney Cottage.

Miss Dorothy MacGregor of New York, is visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Graham, Forin street.

Miss P. Campbell, Reg. N., Toronto, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Campbell, Coleman street.

The many friends of Mr. C. A. (Bert) Campbell, Coleman street, will regret to learn that he underwent a serious operation recently in Belleville General Hospital. He is doing as well as can be expected.

Miss Velma Chapman of St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, and Miss Allene Craig, Belleville, spent a few days of this week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Chapman, Roslin.

The many friends of "Bill" Farrell are congratulating him on his success at the recent exams of Queen's University. Bill attained high honors in all his subjects in Commerce.

Mrs. James Woodley, who has been a patient at Belleville General Hospital, was removed to the home of Mrs. J. McCarthy, Everett street, yesterday considerably improved.

Miss Marion Insley, Picton, bride-elect, whose marriage to Mr. Walter Harden of Belleville, takes place on May 14th., is being much feted by her friends previous to her marriage. On Monday night, Miss Lillian McManus and Miss Marguerite La Valle, entertained at a bridge and kitchen shower in her honour at Miss McManus' home on Bridge street, Picton. On Tuesday evening, Mrs. Jack Shurie of Turnbull street, Belleville, was hostess of a bridge and linen shower for Miss Insley.

In the Moose Auditorium, last evening, an enjoyable euchre party was held. Winners were ladies' first Mrs. Donovan; second, Mrs. George Osler; third, Mrs. Barker; fourth, Mrs. R. Webster. Special, Mrs. Donavon. Men's first, Mrs. F. Andrews, second; T. A. Simpson; third, Mr. Frechette; fourth, T. Pritchard. Special, Mr. F. Andrews. Lunch was served after cards.

The Energetic Club of Holloway Street United Church entertained at a delightful afternoon tea yesterday at the home of Mrs. Fred Woodley, 119 West Moira Street. Mrs. E. Liddle opened the door to the guests who were received by the hostess and Mrs. Leonard Reid, president of the club. Mrs. A. C. Campbell invited the guests to the tea room which was in charge of Mrs. W. H. Olliphant and her efficient assistants, members of the Club. The tea table was daintily arranged with sweet peas and baby's breath. Mrs. Harold B. Neal poured during the earlier part of the afternoon and Mrs. W. A. Woodley later. The popular home cooking table was in charge of Mrs. Roy Spafford and Mrs. Bill Johns. Mrs. Frank Langabeer was treasurer.

MAY ASK SPECIAL ASSIZES

ST. THOMAS, Ont., May 10.—(CP)—A movement was started today to have Attorney-General William H. Price recommend to the LieutenantGovernor-in-Council that a Special Assizes Court be called in June to try Frank Mactemple, accused of the murder of Constable Colin C. McGregor.

No regular sittings of the Supreme Court will be held until September or October. Meanwhile Mactemple will be held in Elgin County Jail from which he escaped some years ago, while held on a theft charge. Cost of the 40-hour hunt for Mactemple was expected to run into several hundred dollars.

Big Reductions in the Following Lines
Leather Goods, Toiletware, Silverware, Clocks, Lighters, Bracelets, Pendants, Glassware, Umbrellas, and etc.
J. O. R. McCurdy
224 Front St. Phone 513

For MOTHER on her Day
YARDLEY LAVENDER
Her favorite perfume in a wide variety of packages and prices.
MOIR'S CHOCOLATES
A specially packed box at the lowest price this QUALITY candy has ever been offered.
Full Pound 50c
Or, if you prefer, HOLLY'S at the same price.
OSTROM'S
I.D.A. DRUG STORE 213 FRONT ST.

Womens' Activities

BETHANY W.C.T.U.

The regular monthly meeting of the Bethany W.C.T.U. was held at the home of Mrs. Wesley Bradshaw. The president, Mrs. William Badgley, opened the meeting with hymn 6 followed by prayer by Mrs. F. Walker. The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. S. C. Cooley after which hymn 45 was sung. Business was discussed after which Miss Bertha Badgley gave the minutes of the last meeting. Treasurer's report by Mrs. G. F. Hamilton. Mrs. Hamilton then took charge of the remainder of the meeting. Temperance Doxology and Hymn 33 were sung. A reading by Miss Bertha Badgley. Miss Reta Clark then gave an instrumental which was much enjoyed by all. Clip sheets were then read. A motion song was then given by Bessie Walker, Lorena and Norma Wilson. A temperance reading by Miss Stanley. Hymn 21 was sung and Mrs. William Casey closed with prayer. The hostess served candy and a social half hour was spent.

MELROSE W.I.

The monthly meeting of Melrose Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Grant McLaren with an attendance of 28 on Thursday, April 26.

The meeting opened in the usual way with singing the "Ode" and all repeating the Lord's prayer.

Mrs. A. English and Miss Lily Weese audited the books and found them correct. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read also the minutes of the last regular monthly meeting.

The following officers were elected for 1934-1935, President, Mrs. Ed. Lazier, 1st Vice President, Mrs. Thos. Leslie, 2nd Vice President, Mrs S. Badgley, 3rd Vice President, Miss L. Weese, Secretary Treasurer, Mrs. H. Murphy, District Director, Mrs. Ed. Lazier, Pianist, Mrs. Geo. Badgley, Directors, Mrs. C. Hagerman, Mrs. A. English, Mrs. Claude Clarke, Mrs. W D. Robertson, Chairman of Agriculture, Mrs. F. Doxtator, Chairman of Health, Mrs. Craig, Chairman of Legislation, Mrs. Robertson, Chairman of Home Economics, Mrs. R. M. Meehan, Chairman of Relief, Mrs. A English, Press Reporter, Mrs. H. Murphy.

Arrangements were planned by the members to attend. Roll Call, suggestions for next year's program Many good ideas were given and will be made use of in making out the new programmes for the coming year.

A topic "The Institute as an Educator" was well given by Mrs. C. English. Readings were given by Mrs. Hinds and Mrs. Murphy. Members thanked the Institute for flowers while ill. An appeal by Mrs. S. Sherman for a needy family was given attention and a donation was voted to buy material.

A vote of thanks was tendered the retiring president for her loyalty and faithfulness during the past two years.

Mrs. McLaren ably replied. Meeting closed with the National Anthem and a social hour enjoyed by those present.

Centre And Victoria W. M. S.

Centre and Victoria W.M.S. held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Simpson, Rednersville, with 18 members and 1 visitor present on May 2.

The meeting opened with singing and all repeating the 23rd Psalm. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and delegates appointed for the sectional meeting at Milford. Mrs. H. Pulver, leader of group 2 then took charge of the meeting. After singing a hymn, Mrs. S. Brickman read the scripture lesson and Miss A. Brickman the devotional leaflet. Mrs. Mullen gave a temperance reading from the May number of the Missionary Monthy. Mrs. H. Adam then read another wonderful letter from her Missionary friend in Tibet, China, telling of her and her husband travelling to Shanghai to spend Christmas with their girl and boy. A twenty days' journey of very rough travelling and much of it by mule. One could not but rejoice with them when it was made possible for them to do the return journey by aeroplane in three hours. A portion of the Study Book was given by Mrs. Dehaney, after the Roll Call and singing of "Jesus Saves" Mrs. H. Adam closed the meeting with prayer. Mrs. B. Redner offered her home for the next meeting. Group 2 served dainty refreshments.

The Mission Band was held at the school room on April 30, a splendid program was enjoyed with the aid of the New Study Book "Listening in".

SHANNONVILLE W. M. S.

The ladies of the W.M.S. of Shannonville United Church held their May meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Sine with 15 members in attendance. After the opening hymn the devotional leaflet entitled "Jesus and His Friends" was read by Mrs. Claude Clarke and Mrs. W. S. Dies led in prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary and adopted. Mrs. (Rev.) Clarke read a card of thanks from Mrs. Stanley MacDonald for sympathy expressed at the time of her recent bereavement.

As the auxiliary is asked to provide a layette it was planned that each member contribute toward it and pay in ten cents to their group leader for the purchase of the same. The roll was then called by the secretary and brought forth good response of Bible verses containing the word "mother" or a Mother's Day verse.

Mrs. Dies, temperance secretary gave a short reading from the Advocate and Mrs. P. Knight gave a reading about the United Church Mission at North Honan. Mrs. C. Liddle then gave the remainder of the report of the Napanee Presbyterial which was continued from the last meeting. Mrs. H. Shetler then favored with a solo "This is My Task" accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Harry Sine. The next chapter of the Study Book was taken up by Mrs. Dies telling of the early missionaries of all denominations to this country. Collection was two dollars and five cents and for flower fund seventy cents, total collection ,two dollars and seventy-five cents. After singing two verses of hymn 277 Rev. Clark closed the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Sine and her assistants served a dainty lunch and a social time was enjoyed after the meeting.

MELROSE W. M. S.

The May meeting of the Melrose W.M.S. was held on Wednesday afternoon at the church with a goodly attendance. President, Mrs. E. Badgley presided. The opening hymn was followed by prayer by Mrs. Bennett. Scripture reading, John 17-9-26 was given by Mrs. Pascoe. Roll call from a verse with faith in it. Minutes read and approved. Letters of sympathy were sent to Mrs. Jeffrey and Mrs. Ross who have been ill. The treasurer's report was then given. A reading was given by Mrs. H. Demill "What Jesus Christ Means to Me". Study Book, "Educating a fifth of the world? by Miss Simpkins and Mrs. Bennett. Temperance reading entitled "If women should smoke" by Miss M. McLaren. ....

A closing hymn was sung. Meeting closed with all repeating Lord's Prayer.

WILLING TO CORRECT

TOKYO, May 10.—(CP Cable via Reuters): The Australian Government would be prepared to entertain any proposals which the Japanese Government may contemplate towards correcting the one-sided trade balance between Japan and Australia, J. G. Latham, Australian Cabinet Minister, said on his arrival today.

A LAZY LIVER CAN CAUSE MANY AILMENTS

Parke's LIVER TONE
will quickly restore that liver to normal, healthy action, relieving constipation, biliousness, headaches, etc. It also aids the stomach. A month's treatment for $1.00
DOLAN
THE DRUGGIST
Phone 128

Prominent Canadian For Court of St. James

LADY KEMP

Another prominent Canadian who will be presented at the Court of St. James in June is Lady Kemp of Toronto, who will be accompanied by her daughter Miss Virginia Copping. Miss Copping is now attending school in England.

REVUE

Excellent Program is Presented Under Y's Men's Auspices

Belleville's outstanding artists in music and drama contributed last night to one of the most enjoyable of the season's programs, the "All Belleville Revue of 1934" presented in the Auditorium of the Collegiate under the auspices of the Y's Men's Club. Seldom is such an array of local talent assembled in one production and the variety of numbers and the high standard of performance provided the audience with an evening of complete enjoyment.

In the absence of Col. R. J. E. Graham, Mr. Jos. Shortt, general secretary of the Y.M.C.A. was chairman, welcoming the audience and expressing the appreciation of the club for the support extended them by the contributors and citizens.

"Canada West" a spirited patriotic march, the composition of W. Carroll of the Winnipeg Citadel Band" was chosen as the opening number played by the local Salvation Army Citadel Band under the direction of Bandmaster David Wardle. This musical unit has earned a wide reputation for their distinctive performances and their selections last evening, sustained this enviable record. So well blended was the harmony, especially in the softer passages, that the music seemed to issue as from one instrument. An air Varie "A Little Ship" by Bandmaster H. T. Mountain and their rendition of the new tempo of the National Anthem called forth warm praise from the audience.

Readings and a playlet were introduced on the program to add a note of variety to the numbers. The first of these was "On Being ClinIced" by Miss Catharine Smith, who interpreted with understanding and humour the reactions of an Irish patient at clinic. Miss Joan Maraskas gave in an appealing number the rhyming story of a "melodramatic" tale, which ended happily, of course.

The playlet "A Quiet Game", which won 2nd place when presented by Cobourg Players in the regional Drama Festival at Kingston, was given by a group of the "Young Thesplans", directed by Miss Merry. Bridge lovers especially, and the audience generally, were overcome with laughter as the couple from the "apartment upstairs" are entertained at bridge for the first time by their neighbours below. Douglas Newby as Mr. Bidwell, furious because an evening of bridge has been ruined, Athol Crozier, as his sympathetic wife, Mary Forster as Mrs. Doolittle whose flow of conversation makes bridge-playing impossible and Douglas Frink as her abashed husband who takes a valiant stand, fortified by several cocktails gave splendid performances.

The Radio Quartette, provided greatly appreciated numbers. "The Boys of the Old Brigade", "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes", and "In This Hour So Soft and Tender" chosen by Messrs. Bankier, Stillman, Thomson and Moorman as their offerings for the evening showed to advantage, the harmony, volume and clarity of tone achieved by this well-known quartette.

The O.S.D. Ladies' Chorus, new to the Belleville public, was heard in a group of three songs. The sweetness of their voices in the favourite "Under the Greenwood Tree", "Mighty Like a Rose" and "Old King Cole" revealed the fact that an ensemble of note has been added to the city's musical organizations.

Twenty boys of the Knot Hole Singing Class were heard in two choral numbers. Making their debut last season, the boys have continued their training under their sponsors, Messrs. Thompson, Howard and Houston and their singing of "Mending Roadways" and "Passing By" reflected much credit on their talent and coaching. Mr. Bert Houston acted as accompanist while for all the other numbers the accompanist was Mr. Alec Gordon.

Smart in their navy blue and white school uniforms, the Rhythm Band of the Ontario School for the Deaf, astonished the audience with the sense of rhythm developed in these deaf children. "Gavotte" and "Dainty Step" were played, with one of the students acting as conductor.

Soloists of the evening, added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening. Miss Evelyn Reddick's rendition of "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" contralto solo from "Samson and Delilah", an exacting aria executed with great skill and "Wake Up", a sparkling Spring Song, Mrs. G. H. Stoble's delightful interpretation of the gay "Who Will Buy My Lavender?" and "Cuckoo" and Mr. James Bankier's masterly singing of the beautiful "Song of Songs" and Geoffrey O'Hara's "Spring Will Return With You", received ovations from the audience.

Unable to arrange for two pianos, as planned, the sixth number on the program was changed from a piano duo to a piano duet by two musicians of note, Miss Leona Riggs and Mr. Alec Gordon. Their selection was the "Raymond Overture" played with a fine appreciation by two promising artists.

The audience is indeed indebted to the Y's Men's Club for this concert of unusual merit.

At the left Kay Francis is shown wearing a gown, heavily beaded all-over in silver and crystal bugle beads with a modified peacock train. An interesting fashion note is the black velvet evening cape designed to match it. This is a fold-back model, covering only part of the arms in front but the back is discovered to be of silver lame and falls in a wealth of luxurious folds to the ground

Dolores Del Rio wears a very formal gown of gold sequins with a high neckline and dropped shoulder. The coat to match it is of gold lame, tucked to give the appearance of many folds. Large dolman sleeves are cuffed with bands of mink and a cross-over stand-up collar frames the face. These two lovely stars appear in "Wonder Bar", the Warner Bros. musical sensation now at the Belle.

QUICK ACTION IS BEST!

TWEED SUITS REDUCED
SO SMART . . . and when we say smart, we mean just that. They're the favoured flecked and monotone all wool tweeds that topped the fabric vogue this Spring! The fashionable two and three-piece styles . . . right for wear now . . . and great for travelling later
½ Price
150 DRESSES REDUCED
JUST RIGHT . . . for now and during the whole year. Almost our entire stock has been reduced for quick selling to make room for Summer goods. Come in and see these bargains.
½ Price

THE J. A. McNABB LTD.
PHONE 444 254 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE

INDIAN SCHOOL STORY IS TOLD

Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church Hears Address

A note of optimism regarding Indian Residential Schools was sounded by Mrs. Arthur W. Thomas yesterday afternoon, at a meeting of Christ Church Woman's Auxiliary. Mrs. Thomas, who was introduced by Mrs. Cooke, has spent five years of missionary effort at Shingwauk Home, the charge of Algoma Diocese, at Sault Ste. Marie, where she taught nearly ninety students.

It was opened in 1873 by Rev. E. F. Wilson, Missionary at Garden River Indian Reserve. Funds were collected in England. The School was burned, but re-built at Sault Ste. Marie with a Memorial Chapel. The Rev. Principal Fuller was in charge. There is now a staff of ten officers, with fifty-six girls and forty-seven boys—Indians and half breeds under the Rev. A. Hines, Principal and Miss Botterel, matron. Many interesting and amusing glimpses into the character of the inmates were cited. Conditions would inspire anyone with a passion for souls to the maximum of effort. Encouraging signs are the number of Christians both boys and girls holding good positions. One became a theological student and is now ordained. Several of the girls have graduated as nurses. The hymn ,"O Master Let Me Walk With Thee" was sung. Mrs. Vandervoort taking the devotional part. Splendid reports were given by Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Bottom and Mrs. Crozier.

Mrs. G. G. Wright gave an extensive report on the business connected with the recent convention. She received the hearty support of the Association which appreciated her untiring energy for its good.

In the singing of "The Heavenly Song", Mrs. Ernest Lang delighted everyone. Mrs. Harold was in charge of the tea table. Mrs. Pauley poured, assisted by Miss Way, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Wiggins.

NEVER — Too Many Shirts

If you want to see some really smart shirts see the new dark tone effects. They're quite the thing for Spring. Collar attached, others have two laundered collars to match. You'll like these darker tones for a change, especially when you see how cleverly they have been patterned.
SEE OUR NORTH WINDOW
Shaw's Men's Wear
THE STORE OF FASHION

A. Y. P. A.

An interesting program was given under the auspices of Christ Church, A.Y.P.A. in the Parish House last evening. A good crowd attended and the following numbers were presented, the president Miss Evelyn Coulter acting as chairman. Piano solo, Miss Dorothy Asselstine; Skit from A. A. Milne's "Winnie the Pooh"; Acrobatic dance, Marion Adams; Ballet dance Phyllis Wright; Skit, Dramatization of an Old English ballad; Tap dance, Eva Adams; Song, Mrs. C. Kline; Skit, "Calamity Jane"; Recitation, Pat Meagher; Short play, "The Mad Tea Party" from "Alice in Wonderland"; Piano solo, Dorothy Croft.

Refreshments were served after which there was dancing. Mrs. Leonard presiding at the piano.

OPERATING SURPLUS AT QUEEN'S

Kingston, Ont., May 10.—(CP)—Queen's University had an operating surplus of $1,869 during the past year, it was reported in the financial statement of the Treasurer, Dr. W. E. McNeill, today but it was only by strict economy that the Budget was balanced Principal W. H. Fyfe, stated that increased endowment is absolutely necessary at the University.

TIMBER MILL TO OPERATE

OTTAWA, May 10—(CP)—After three years of idleness the timber mill of the J. R. Booth Company, of Ottawa, is now in operation. In addition officials said that the McLaughlin Mill at Arnprior, Ont., which will operate on contract by the Booth Company, would start next week. Several hundred men of Ottawa and Hull, Que, will be given employment in the Ottawa Mill, the number to be determined by the quantity of work received. No men from outside Ottawa or Hull, will be given employment.

SITUATION GRAVE

LONDON, May 10.—(AP)— The Government continues to have a "grave interest" in the affairs of Liberia, it was stated officially today, but has no intention of sending a warship to the coast of the African Republic in conjunction with any other power.

Commenting on reports that ships were to be sent, a spokesman said that Britain has received no invitation to participate in such action and that if the proposal is made it will be rejected.

Loses Ugly Fat 14 lbs. in 11 Days
New Safe, Quick Reducing Method

32 Pounds Gone!
"I lost 14 lbs. the first 11 days taking BonKora. Since then, taking it less regularly, I have lost 8 more lbs. (32 lbs. in all)."—Miss Hilda O. Lantzer, who was overweight.
Others who say ordinary methods failed, report 10 to 41 lbs. lost in 8 weeks with BonKora, the new quick, safe, pleasant Reducing Treatment.
Reduces fat the new "3-stage" way. Triple action; triple speed. No starving. Take a little BonKora daily and EAT BIG MEALS of proper combinations shown in BonKora package. There are no dangerous drugs in BonKora. In fact, this treatment builds health while reducing fat the quickest way.
Don't let fat ruin your charm. Get a bottle of BonKora from druggist today. If not delighted with quick loss of fat, manufacturer refunds money you paid for this bottle. You don't risk a penny.
Get a Big Bottle of BonKora Today. Special This Week at ALL GOOD DRUG AND DEPARTMENT STORES. Your druggist has it or can get it quick from his wholesaler. If not, write today to Battle Creek Drugs, Ltd., Dept. 2, Walkerville, Ont.

JOBS HOUSES AUTOS Thousands of OPPORTUNITIES in the WANT Ads RADIOS ROOMS PETS

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

Automobile Insurance

With these people being killed every two days in Ontario by motor cars you are taking very great chance to be without insurance. Rates are now the lowest they have ever been.

Jamieson Bone & Co.

PHONE 1264

Insurance. Insurance.

TORONTO STOCKS

Toronto, May 10 — Industrial shares flirted slowly this afternoon before closing a moderate advance better in the day in sympathy with the rally in sharp declines on the New York Board. Most of the industrial shares, International Nickel excepted, fully recovered and in the case of distillery stocks, small gains over recorded. Trading centered mainly in the distillery issues, Gypsum and Smelters. The latter closed a point down at 24.

From a low point of 26.25, International Nickel came back to close at 27.30, off 50 cents net. Walkers common was a strong spot in late trading, closing around 33 for a fractional gain. Dominion Alcohol and Distillers' issues were also traded thin. Gypsum and Smelters broke even.

TORONTO MINES

Toronto, May 10—The selling wave on some of the industrials spread over the mining section of the Toronto Stock Exchange today, taking effect yesterday fully mildly the New York price take-down. Any recoveries that were quickly made up after the selling subsided with some of the leaders of the cheaper gods, including Lamaque, Hollinger Ext. and Siscoe in the silver groups. Those were down at the close.

NEW YORK FINANCIAL

New York, May 10 — Stock rose dropped sharply today under heavy offer waves that carried many issues per new low levels for the year to date.

Losses ranged from 1 to around 5 points at the worst, although gains were somewhat fewer number. There was no specific news development to account for the severity of the decline, but various speculation theories and the "stop loss" liquidation was largely responsible.

Canadian shares yielded fractions to a point or more. Montreal gained even around a tic worst. Shares Canadian Pacific, Dome and International Nickel eased fractions. On the curb Hiram Walker has been one bright spot. Other issues in more resistant. Dominion overmented and generally failed badly. The Canadian dollar was 16 of a cent lower at 100.15-16. Stock stocks as Consolidated Gas, American Tobacco and Public Service of New Jersey were only moderately lower. Int. G. Rubber at preferred lost 5 points and here, off 2 to around 13. Industrials at Bethlehem Steel and U. S. Steel.

Livestock

Toronto, May 10 (CP)—Ten lambs and 50 hogs made the total receipts at the opening of the Toronto livestock market today. Early sales made were a few handyweight hogs at $4.85 to $5.00 per hundred and fifty head of drovers were also on the market to noon with sold during the morning. No hog price was established in early trading.

Produce Market

Toronto, May 10 (CP)—Wholesale prices on produce delivered at centre as supplied by the United States Co-operative Co. here today were: grade "A" large eggs, doz. 19c; grade "A" medium doz. 15c; grade "C" doz. 14c; churning cream, 1 lb. 26c; No. 1 lb. 19c; Butter 1 solids lb. 20c; No. 2 solids lb. 19c.

Ontario cobbler potatoes, bag 85c. Jer's price on hand-picked white ns, in carlots F.O.B. at point Shipment: $1.10, basket.

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today:

	May	July	Oct.
at	47¾	49¾	51¾
day	47¾	49¾	51¾
.....	35¾	36¾	38¾
rior range	May wheat today:
h 73½, low 69½, close 71¾.

FRUIT ACT REGULATIONS

OTTAWA, May 10—(CP)—Regulations under the Fruit Act were announced in detail today by the Hon. Horticultural Council in connection.

TREASURER'S SALE OF LANDS FOR TAXES
CITY OF BELLEVILLE
PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

To wit:—

By virtue of a warrant issued by the Mayor under seal of the Corporation of the City of Belleville, bearing date of the 24th day of February, 1934, a sale of lands in arrears for taxes in the City of Belleville, will be held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, Belleville, Ontario, at the hour of Ten O'Clock A.M. (Forenoon) on Thursday the 26th day of June 1934, unless the Taxes and Costs on the lands are sooner paid.

Notice is hereby given that the list of lands for sale for arrears is being published in the Ontario Gazette in the issues of March 10th, March 17th and March 24th, 1934 and that copies of the said list may be obtained from the City Treasurer's office.

Treasurer's office this 14th day of March, 1934.

H. R. STOCK, Treasurer.

UNLISTED MINES

By A. H. Ketcheson and Co. at noon.

	Bid	Ask
Bidgood 3¾-4.
Big Long Lac 19a
Bathurs 4-5
Buff. sherkville 175-180
Dominion 26
B.C. Nickel 132-137
Can. Flindorfs 30-35
Can. Malarch 19a
Casey Cobalt 69-75
Canuss 6¼-8¼
Cobalt 3¾-4
Four Nations U. 1000a
Great Bear Dev. 33-37
Gabriela 50-60
Grenlaw 7a
Hard Rock 75-80
Unite 6000-8000
Island Lake 14a
Kirkland Gold Belt 30a
Kirkland Lake 3¾-4¼
Lamaque Gold 166-190
Lamaque Contact 90
Mornshoe 5½-6¾
Omi. Elev. 4½-5
Bankfield 27-40
Gold Belt 30-35
Longlac Adair, 27-30.
Longlac Lagoon, 24½-27.
Mirado, Ltd. 21.
Main. and Eastern, 20-23.
Mirmanda, 24-26.
Morning Star, 31-34.
Moose, 13 asked.
Moleod Cockshutt, 39-42.
North Bonetal, 11 asked.
Normond, 15 asked.
Noella, 6½-7.
O'Connell, 29-33.
Quebec Rainbow, U. 1000-1500.
Reserve Island, 28 asked.
Red Lake Gold, 37-42.
Smallers Gold, 24 asked. 31.
Tobin Yan, 24 asked.
Thabota, 5-6.
Thibeault Island, 60-70.
Wendigo, 53-56.
Winpool, 80 asked.
Wat. Bear Island, 21 asked.
Quebec Bureka, 10½-13.
Consolidated, 26.
Miller Independence, 39 asked.

Stock Market Gossip

Silver wheat commodities push dividends are the things to watch. The silver conference struck a snag yesterday and it is not over yet. Still feel that the U. S. will do something for silver.

Wheat outlook has a double barrelled chance of moving and the possible inflation measure.

Gold dividends are the sensational kind were started by Hollinger. Then came Dome and others are said to be ready to follow.

Mackenzie's here are constructive factors and will make for markets. It looks like a good summer.

Mesabis Ore.

Calgary—Application into affairs of Manalta Oil Co. was recommended today by V. R. Jones official receiver, who was appointed company insolvent since 1926. Company assigned assets to creditors.

The official receiver suggests the directors of the company, which he examined to ascertain why certain transactions were made, with view of financial position of the company.

Broomhall says: The Liverpool wheat market is now considerably above the season's low figure. A better tendency has existed since the May liquidation has subsided. During the week ending yesterday there has advanced 1¼ cents a bushel, Australia 1 and Canada 1 to 3 cents. Buying was more active yesterday in spite of advancing prices and plate sales to Belgium and Holland.

Silver.

Washington—Senator, Thomas of Oklahoma appeared pessimistic over the silver situation. He contended that while President Roosevelt was somewhat in favor with a 50-50 principle of silver remonetization the treasury officials were opposing it and advising the President against it.

Senator Thomas seemed to feel the same as Senator Borah that the silver advocates should take their fight to the country.

According to the Oklahoma Senator the legislation proposed by Secretary Morgenthau at the conference Wednesday was purely permissive legislation and provided specifically that it be "the sense of Congress" that a silver remonetization program be adopted. He declared that the Morgenthau proposal was nothing to him and that he was fearful that whether any helpful silver legislation could be enacted.

NEW YORK CLOSE

New York, May 10.—Stocks were swept lower in heavy selling waves in the forenoon today, but recovered substantially in late dealings. U. S. finishing unchanged, a 3-point loss into an equivalent net gain. American Telephone also displayed late strength. Declines of 1 to 3 points were reduced to a point or less by U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and New York Central. Transfers approximated 2,150,000 shares.

FIRE FIGHTERS SAVE HILL

NORTH BAY, Ont., May 10—(CP) —Effective fire fighting averted a conflagration at Callander, sawmill town eight miles south of here, today when the shaving bin of the Canadian Timber Company's Plant No. 2 caught fire, it was learned.

The loss is fixed at $10,000 and the cause attributed to defective wiring.

Special Offer

LADIES' HALF SOLES 50c
LEATHERED OR RUBBER HEELS 25c
MEN'S HALF SOLES AND HEELS LEATHER OR RUBBER Stitched or Nailed 50c

Work Called For and Delivered

PHONE 4112

TILBROOK

Belleville Shoe Hospital
Opp. Upper Bridge

m8-12m.

No. 10 Highland Avenue FOR SALE

At Low Price To Close An Estate

Brick bungalow, large living room, fire place, den, dining room, fireplace, kitchen, 2 bedrooms, three piece bath, built in steel wash, kitchen, wired for electric range, gas, nice lawn, double garage, one and three quarters acres of land, four apple trees, also pear, cherry, four egg trees, two pear trees, two large grape vines, two kidney and one black currant tree, raspberries, rhubarb, etc. Property may be viewed at St. W. Let us show you THE HOUSE.

Belleville Locators

Geo. N. Gorman, Prop.
166 Front Street
Phone 99 House Phone 687

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS

Change of Time Effective April 29th 1934

TRAINS GOING EAST

North Station No. 118, 12.35 A.M. Mail and Express. Monday only.
North Station No. 14, 12.35 A.M. Mail and Express Daily, except Monday.
North Station No. 16, 6.08 P.M. Mail and Express.

North Station, No. 6, 2.00 A.M. The Maple Leaf, Daily.

North Station, No. 14, 12.05 noon, Mail and Express, Daily except Sunday.

North Station, No. 448, 7.00 P.M. Daily except Saturday to Ottawa.

TRAINS GOING WEST

North Station No. 15, 2.35 A.M. Mail and Express. Daily.

North Station, No. 17, 4.10 A.M. The Inter-City Limited, Daily.

North Station, No. 5, 2.45 P.M. The Maple Leaf, Daily.

North Station No. 13, 9.50 P.M. Daily except Saturday and Sunday.

North Station No. 109 7.33 P.M. The International Limited Pool Daily.

BELLEVILLE & PETERSBORO

North Station No. 11 6.15 A.M. Local Passenger. Daily except Sunday.

BELLEVILLE & PICTON

North Station No. 323 8.20 A.M. Mixed. Monday, Wed., Fri. Leaves Picton for Belleville 12.30 same days.

MARRIAGE NOTICE

RODBOURNE-HENDIN—At Christ Church, Belleville, by the Rev. R. C. Wright, May 9, 1934, J. William Rodbourne and Miss Eileen Hendin.

m10-1i

DIED

BENNETT—In Thurlow at the residence of Mrs. Charles Dilay-ton, on Monday, May 7th, W., in Charles Bennett, in his 77th year.

Funeral postponed until Friday, May 11th, from The Thos. C. Thompson Funeral Home, 24 Bridge St. West. Service at 2.30 p.m. Interment in Belleville Cemetery.

m10-1i

DIED

WHEELER—In Belleville on Thursday, May 10th, Pauline Caroline, beloved wife of Graham Wheeler. Funeral from her late residence 96 Chatham Street, Saturday, May 12th, Service at the house at 2.30. Interment Belleville Cemetery.

m10-1i

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 176-W Day and Night
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orford C. Ticknell
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve for Less
FUNERAL HOME
Cor. Church St. and Victoria
Phone 2395

Thomas C. Thompson
Funeral Director
and
Funeral Home
36 Everett St. Phone 62
Office
256 Front St. Phone 63

THE MARTIN
FUNERAL HOME
218-220 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 2900
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

CITY OF BELLEVILLE
TENDER FOR FERRY HOUSE BUILDING

Sealed tenders addressed to Alderman Thomas H. Marshall, Chairman of Market & City Property, c/o City Hall, Belleville, will be received up to 5 P.M. Thursday, May 17th, 1934, for the purchase and removal of the brick and stone building known as the "Ferry House" and also the frame outbuildings situated on Lot 3a on the east side of Bridge Street, the property of the City of Belleville.

All buildings including brick, stone, lumber and debris is to be removed from the lot and the said buildings are torn down to ground level and any large holes such as cellars, basements, etc. are to be filled in level with the existing ground.

Contractor is to accept all responsibility for injury to adjoining property and to all workmen as well as to the public and the work is to be completed to the satisfaction of the City Engineer and the Chairman of Market & City Property.

Any tender not necessarily accepted.

Chas. A. Mott,
City Engineer.
m10-1i

CITY OF BELLEVILLE
TENDER FOR SUPPLIES 1934.

Sealed tenders addressed to the Chairman of the Board of Works will be clearly marked as to contents will be received at the City Clerk's Office, City Hall, until 5 P.M., Thursday, May 17th, 1934, for supplying to the Corporation of the City of Belleville the necessary quantities and classes of SAND, GRAVEL, CEMENT, SEWER PIPE and TILE AND CRUSHED STONE as required by the various departments under the Council of the City of Belleville.

Forms of tender and further particulars may be had on application to the City Engineer's Office, City Hall, Belleville.

Chas. A. Mott,
City Engineer.
m10 12, 18.

CITY HEALTHY SAYS M. O. H.

"We're still healthy and growing," stated Dr. C. S. Cronk, Medical Officer of Health for the city when questioned.

Contagious diseases are at a low ebb at present, and the weather has been an exceptional one for freedom from communicable disease. Only two cases of diphtheria, were reported during the whole month. The city's sick bill consisted only of minor contagious ailments.

WANTED

Lawn Mowers to sharpen, called for and delivered. Cooke's Repair Service Phone 1138F.

m7-tf.

Farmers

DON'T INSURE
until you have consulted the agent for the

BAY OF QUINTE FIRE INS. CO.
Head Office
Picton — Ontario
Office in Crystal Hotel Phone:
Office 1776 Res. 2306J
CLAYTON W. BURR
Agent

Boat Builders

We Have Boat Cedar
8 to 14 Inches
Also all kinds of Lumber and Shingles. Get our price before buying.

WHITE'S Lumber Yard

14 North Front St.

m1-tf.

PERSONAL

EVEN A 16 YEAR OLD IS NOT youthful appearing if she is too stout. Reduce 3 to 5 pounds reducing easily accomplished by taking Slender Tablets. Three days' treatment $1.50 McKeown's Drug Store, Phone 125.

TO-LET

HOUSEKEEPING MADE EASY by occupying one of these attractive ready-for-occupancy flats. Small Charles St.; Front St., Apartment near Bridge; Victoria Ave. and St. Miss Corbett, Phone 1861.

m10-3t

SEVERAL SMALL APARTMENTS at $10 and $12 month. Apply 210 Front St. Rent reasonable. Apply Artists Ladies' Wear, 301 Front Street.

m10-tf.

APARTMENT, THREE LARGE bright rooms, newly decorated, furnished with Chesterfield, bedroom, breakfast room, kitchen and pantry. Use of bathroom. Apply 18 Albion.

m10-3t

A PARTMENT FIVE ROOMS heated, hardwood floors, use of gas, electric range. Possession at once. Apply at Ontario Intelligencer Office.

m10-tf

FOR THE SUMMER MONTHS, 5 rooms furnished apartment and sun room. Apply 49 Victoria Ave. Phone 483F.

m10-3t

LARGE APARTMENT A-1 CONdition, 149 Pinnacle Street. Apply personally to Hotel Belvidere.

m8-tf

GOOD FURNISHED BED ROOMS. Very central. All conveniences. Bill Boulanger, 19 Bridge St. E. Morgan, 17 Bridge East. m9-3t

ROOMS FOR RENT, FURNISHED or unfurnished. All conveniences for light housekeeping. Apply between 6 and 8 p.m. at 176 Foster Ave.

m7-tf.

MODERN 8 ROOM BRICK house. Large garden, and garage. Apply 251 Front Street.

m8-3t.

3 ROOM HEATED APARTMENT suitable for office or light housekeeping. Apply 251 Front Street.

m1-tf.

FIVE ROOMED APARTMENT, hardwood floors, heated, Apply C. H. Thompson, 104 Dundas St. West.

m10-1i

5 ROOM APARTMENT, MODERN conveniences. Also 1 room apartment, suitable for light housekeeping. Apply 159 Front Street.

m8-tf

BUSINESS LINERS

Mrs. Harman is offering the remainder of her stock of hats at a price to make room for the summer. Good opportunity to get a real bargain, 421½ Bridge Street, (Upstairs).

m10-3t

TUG AGREEMENT

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., May 10. —(CP)— The Steamer Keybar grounded in the Detroit River, the Canadian Ship Canal in a high wind early today and tugs had given her assistance. It is only accident so far reported in the extraordinary blowing of southwest winds are still disquieting.

Local tugs passed through the Canadian canal yesterday and the first freighters are expected today.

JAPAN ISSUES WARNING

Tokyo, May 10.—(AP)—Japan today gave advance notice of a probable warning to both China and the League of Nations as to "the advisability of suspension" of Dr. Ludwig Rajchman's plans for financial aid to China by the League. Dr. Rajchman, Polish Jewish Expert Hessa Japanese Navy Secretary declared that "Japan cannot consistently

PHONE 99
Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 25c; Marriages and Deaths, 25c; In Memoriams $1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; Cards of Thanks, $1.00; Lodge Notices, $1.00; Reading Notices, $1.00 per line; Coming Events, 5c per line. Reading Announcements, minimum charge 50c.

CLASSIFIED — (Per Said, Wanted, For Rent, Lost, Found, Strayed, Stolen, etc.) Minimum charge for 15 insertions 1c per word, minimum 15c.

COMING EVENTS—Per 1st insertion 1c per word, minimum 15c. Each subsequent insertion ½c per word.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS AND BUSINESS CARDS—(Yearly Contract) $20.00 per inch. Per month, $2.00 per inch. Per week, $1.00 per inch.

ENGAGEMENTS—Per 1st insertion 1c per word. Each subsequent insertion ½c per word. Minimum charge for 15 insertions 15c.

MARRIAGES—Per 1st insertion 1c per word, minimum charge for 15 insertions 15c. Each subsequent insertion ½c per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

Discounts year West rate, when is to more contracted. PHONE 99.

Ads. received by telephone will be charged at the rate for more than one insertion of an insertion unless paid for if it is subsequently cancelled.

Advertisers may have their replies addressed to a box number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

SECOND HAND ONE-HORSE carter's wagon, cheap. Phone 1064 or apply 19 Isabel Street.

m10-3t

EXPERIENCED LAUNDRESS AND fancy ironer wishes work, or position as housekeeper. Mrs. Stubbs, care Mrs. M. Clark, Deseronto, R.1, Belleville. m10-3t

REFRIGERATOR, MUST BE IN good condition. Phone 508W.

m10-1i

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—A LADY OVER 26 TO demonstrate in nearest town. Corey Service. A real opportunity to make money. Steady work for 12 years. Every woman a prospect. Apply Box 1000, Corey Service, Ontario Intelligencer. m8-3t

FULLY QUALIFIED METAL FINishers wanted by Belleville Automobile manufacturer. Must be capable of doing all kinds of finishing operations. Auto body experience essential. Apply to Employment Service of Canada, 19 Canniff St., Belleville. m8-3t

LADY TO TAKE ORDERS SPARE time. Unexcelled line, good pay. Call 7 to 9 at 368 Coleman Street.

m9-3t

FOR SALE

ESSEX SUPER SIX '32 MODEL. Good condition. L. Soules, 193 Dundas St. East. Phone 1094. m10-3t

BUFFET, TABLE AND CHAIRS, used, in good condition, cheap. Apply 19 Isabel Street. Phone 1064.

ONE SMALL WALNUT CHINA cabinet, in good condition. Phone 1064.

m10-3t

GENTLEMAN'S BICYCLE, GREY wicker baby carriage. Apply Shell Service Station, 7 Bridge St. W.

m10-3t

3 SUNNER ACME GAS RANGE with shelf. Apply 19 Isabel Street.

1930. m10-1i

CANARIES, HANTZ MOUNTAIN Rollers, beautiful singers, bargain for taken at once. Phone 2624, 163 Bleecker.

BUNCH OF USED LUMBER, sash, doors, windows, piano. Apply 209 John Street. m10-1i

EMERGENCY DINING ROOM suite, 2 rockers, dresser, extension table, chairs, coal and wood stove, stove pipes. Apply 33 N. Front.

QUANTITY OF TIMOTHY AND clover hay. Will deliver. Phone 2624, 163 Bleecker.

QUANTITY OF FINE BROOMER corn and seed. Free for drawing. 22 Howard. m10-1i

NORTH FRONT ST. CORNER 97 x 40 feet. Choice garage site, 6 roomed frame house. Price $1,000. Terms.

10 Roomed Solid Brick House, Corner of Catherine and Coleman. Price $3,000. Terms.

6 Rooms, Cobble Stone House. Nearly new. All hardwood floors. Modern conveniences. Close to Sir John A. Macdonald School. Price $3,200. Terms.

33 Bridge West. Phone 1170.

m7-1w.

ONE LARGE TENT, APPLY 24 Meyers St. Phone 937M. m8-3t.

ENGLISH PEAT, ROGERS NINE tube radio. Best offers. Owner leaving city. Phone 19 Brown St.

m9-3t

DOUBLE BARRELLED GUN, 12 gauge Winchester target rifle, 22 calibre, oval top table, good condition, 32 Hudson St.

m9-3t

RATE ADVANTAGE

Victoria, May 10.—(CP)— Effective May 7, British Columbia Berry Growers have the benefit of a reduced express rates to Alberta points in carlot shipments of 17,000 or 20,000 lbs., with the expectation that a reduction will apply later in respect to Saskatchewan deliveries and points east to Winnipeg. Hon. K. C. Macdonald, Minister of Agriculture, had been advised today by Secretary Thompson, Express Association and the B. C. Markets Branch.

Business Directory

AUCTIONEER

For City of Belleville
and Provincial
NORMAN MONTGOMERY
55 Bridge West Belleville
Phone 1170
m7-1m.

AUTOMOBILE LOANS

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner Car Financing of All Kinds
S. J. FISHER & SON
26 Bridge E. R. Representing 16
Campbell Auto Finance
Co., Ltd.
Toronto-Ottawa-London-Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., SPECIAL examination with the Radiscan reveals all diseases in 15th early stages. Foot disorders corrected, all diseases treated, Phone 662 or write 288 Coleman St., Belleville.

H. R. and Vera S. Pitcher
CHIROPRACTORS
(Hemmer System)
Palm-Neurometer Service
61½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1374 Belleville, Ont.

DENTIST

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 462 349½ Front St.
J17-1m.

SURVEYORS

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Engineer.
Land Surveys, Plans and Specifications, etc., promptly attended to.
PHONE 6 — P.O. BOX 14
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
321 Front St. Phone 220

HALL & EARLE

General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
278 Front Street Tel. Phone 1124W

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738. F. H. Villa, Branch Manager. m8-12r

LEGAL

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public, etc. Phone, K.C., R. D. Arnott. Offices: 219 Front Street, Belleville, Ont.

CHARLES H. KERR, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, Commissioner, etc. 25 Bridge St. East, Belleville, Ont., Phone 48.

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICitor, Notary Public, etc., 15 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. m4-tf

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office, Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON & GRAHAM, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Conveyancers, etc. 247 Bridge Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on mortgages. W. N. Ponton, K.C., H. P. Graham. Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late F. B. Wallbridge). Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 28 Bridge Street E. F. J. Butler, K.C., Reginald Butler.

R. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

For ECONOMY Read the ADVERTISEMENTS

AMAMI SHAMPOO
Comes out the rose LUSTRE and BEAUTY of your hair
IN ONE SHAMPOO
Cleanses perfectly ... Dries quickly
Leaves hair soft and lustrous
At Drug and Department Stores, 35c
Amami Ltd., 1 Fraser Ave., Toronto

P. E. COUNTY MUSIC TRIALS

Third Annual Competition in Schools Works up Much Enthusiasm

The schools of Prince Edward County held their third annual competitions in music on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of May 3rd, 4th and 5th at Picton Collegiate, Wellington Consolidated School and the Bloomfield United Church. Competitions in solos, duets, quartettes, choruses and piano solos were keenly contested by the pupils of the urban and rural schools of the county and the final competitions are scheduled for the 23rd inst. Ample provision for the trophies and prizes will be distributed. The school inspector and teachers of the county are all behind the study of music in their schools and the interest of the community is shown by the large number of teachers and friends who attended the sessions. Mr. W. P. Reid, A.C.O., acted as adjudicator for the third season, this year, and upon each of the days classes competed and the singing gave evidence of very careful training and supervision.

MILFORD MAN FOUND GUILTY

Court Proves Perjury in Connection With Liquor Charge

When George Dalrand, Milford, endeavoured to mislead the court yesterday, it proved rather drastic for him when he found himself facing a charge of perjury, after having been guilty of a previous charge of illegally having intoxicating liquor in his possession. Dalrand was sentenced to serve two months in the common jail on the perjury count, while His Worship Magistrate Calesmith imposed a fine of $100.00 and costs, or in default of payment, an additional three months on the liquor charge. Dalrand collapsed in open court after the passing of sentence. The case was heard in the county police court held at Belleville, Frank Taylor, a well-known veteran liquor entertainer giving his home address as Hamilton pleaded guilty to a charge of consuming liquor and was fined ten dollars, without costs. Taylor assured the court he would endeavour to refrain from the habit of strong drink in his person and was trying to raise the remaining four to evade a ten day sentence that would be imposed if the fine was not forth-coming.

CHILD DIES OF INJURIES

Brantford, Ont., May 10 (CP)—Iris Proctor, two and a half years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Proctor, died at the Brantford General Hospital last night from injuries received when she was knocked down by a car driven by Harold Sayles, of Brantford.

Police Investigation into the driver of the car was not held and an inquest is being convened.

MINISTER TO SPEAK

Kingsdrine, Ont., May 10 (CP)—Originally slated for May 10, the nominating convention of the South Bruce County Conservative Association has been postponed until May 17. It is expected it will be held at Port Elgin with Hon. Leopold Macaulay, Minister of Highways, as the speaker.

SPORTSMEN ATTEND FUNERAL OF WRITER

Wilson M. "Tusk" Tuckaberry Laid To Rest In Park Lawn Cemetery

Toronto, May 10 (CP)—Wilson M. Tuckaberry, known to thousands of sportsmen and newspaper people as "Tusk", was buried Tuesday in Park Lawn Cemetery here. Tuck died suddenly on Saturday. He was assistant general editor of the Mail and Empire and assistant secretary of the Ontario Rugby Association for many years.

A service for the family and close friends was held at the residence prior to the church service, which was conducted by Rev. H. W. Avison, pastor of High Park United Church. Numerous representatives of the sporting fraternity and of the newspaper world attended.

HILLIER C. G. I. T. COMPLETE SEWING

Hillier—Mrs. Arthur Higgs took her "Busy Bee" class to Mr. Burrs' woods for a picnic Saturday afternoon.

The C.G.I.T. met at the home of Miss Agnes Palmer, Saturday. The girls have their layette all cut out and expect to have it finished.

Mrs. C. L. Jones and Mrs. J. D. Campbell went to Picton Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tubbs and daughter, Will and Jim Turney have returned from Florida after spending the early days of May in the warm climate. Mr. Jim Turney was taken ill returning home and his many friends are sorry to hear that his recovery is very slow.

Miss Gerald Wight and Mrs. Roy Wight and children were callers at Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mallett's Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Gamble were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Sagadin.

The Delaney Co. were recent guests of Mrs. Herbert Wight and Mr. Charlie.

Miss Margaret Stewart and Miss Ruth Anderson spent Sunday with Miss Mary Ann Hart Taylor, Carrying Place.

Mrs. Alice Weathers has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Ross in other western points.

Mr. Arthur Rupert is spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Rupert.

Miss Allen Maines was home from Toronto Saturday.

Master Liddon, of Port Colborne, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jack Liddon.

Mr. Jack Lardle is painting Milford Church, steeple.

Mrs. Morley Wood and children spent a few days with Mrs. Thistlethwaith, Wellington.

Miss Jane Grant of Picton Collegiate and Mr. Douglas Grant of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Wellington, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Grant.

Arbour Day was observed at Gold Creek School, Friday. After receiving the blessing of the school-mistress, Miss Taylor, Mr. Wilfred Taylor assured the court he would endeavour to refrain from the habit of strong drink in his person and was sorry to raise the remaining four to evade a ten day sentence that would be imposed if the fine was not forth-coming.

CHILD DIES OF INJURIES

Brantford, Ont., May 10 (CP)—Iris Proctor, two and a half years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Proctor, died at the Brantford General Hospital last night from injuries received when she was knocked down by a car driven by Harold Sayles, of Brantford.

Police Investigation into the driver of the car was not held and an inquest is being convened.

MINISTER TO SPEAK

Kingsdrine, Ont., May 10 (CP)—Originally slated for May 10, the nominating convention of the South Bruce County Conservative Association has been postponed until May 17. It is expected it will be held at Port Elgin with Hon. Leopold Macaulay, Minister of Highways, as the speaker.

RAWDON NEWS OF PERSONAL INTEREST

Rawdon—Miss Audrey McLean of Wellington was a dinner guest on Monday at the home of Mrs. Thed Thompkins and she called on other friends at Wellman's.

Miss Roberta Locke of Stirling spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bailey, Mount Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mcolgonny spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Thompkins, Stockdale.

Miss Blanche McMullen was a dinner guest on Sunday at the home of Miss Helen Farrell.

Mr. Ross Bird attended a banquet at the Stirling Hotel on last Thursday evening, held by the members of Dr. Faulkner, Liberal standard bearer for West Hastings.

Cendal Cheese Factory began operations last week with Mr. Morris Rose as cheesemaker.

On Sunday morning at Mount Pleasant Church, Rev. Miss Olive McConnell delighted with a beautiful solo, "Open the Gates My Soul" and Miss Edna Thrasher played the accompaniment. Rev. F. C. Johnson read a letter of appreciation from the Missionary and Maintenance Fund for the missionary contribution through envelopes and cent a meal boxes.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stone and Marjorie and Mr. Lorne White spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stone, Crofton.

Dossee's W.M.S. met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jerry Crofton.

Mrs. and Mrs. Denamore Doolittle of Burr's spent Friday afternoon with their sister, Mrs. H. Nonn.

The teacher, Miss Perle Minaker, and her pupils celebrated Arbor Day on Friday by cleaning the school yard and a picnic dinner in the woods followed by games and picking flowers.

Messrs. Wm. and Richard Clarke and Miss Amelia Clarke of Foxboro, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Roblin, and called on Mrs. Harold Locke in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Nonan and daughter Ella and Mr. and Mrs. N. Delong of Picton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boyer and Georgia.

Mrs. Hannah Huff and children spent Saturday afternoon with her mother, Mrs. James Johnson.

Those attending to the last rites of Mrs. Clarence Sprague on the arrival of a young daughter in Belleville Hospital on May 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Calnan moved into the house on the lower farm on Monday.

Master Ronald Burr, of Burr's, spent the week-end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Werden.

Miss Georgia Bovay, P.C.I., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bovay.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nonon spent a recent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Desmore Doolittle, of Burr's.

CARMEL W. M. S. MEET AT CHURCH

Carmel—The monthly W.M.S. meeting was held at the church on Wednesday afternoon of May 2nd.

Mrs. Elijah Horton who was operated on Saturday morning at the Belleville General Hospital is improving. Friends will be glad to hear of a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Ross Wannamaker had a valuable horse Saturday evening.

Mr. James Bronson attended the Conservative meeting in Madoc last week.

Mr. Bert Carr was glad to see Mrs. Wanda Sine around again after her long illness.

Many from around here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. R. Hall at Plainfield Sunday.

The road men have commenced gravelling the 37 Highway, from Honeywells Corners to Tweed. They expect to complete it with a coat of oil.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Simmons called on Mrs. Harry Defoe Sunday in the convalescing at her home.

Mrs. Wallace attended the Women's Missionary meeting held at the home of Mrs. W. Hiliott, at Plainfield, on Thursday, May 3rd.

Mr. Arnold Scott has gone to work on the farm for Mr. Hall again.

Mr. B. Firman who was ill is somewhat improved.

House-cleaning is the order of the day in this neighborhood.

I. O. O. F. HAS SOCIAL EVENING

Bonarlaw—Spencer and Son, contractors, are working at the new cheese factory. They are also building up stonework and clearing the ground.

A large number from this vicinity attended the annual Decoration meeting of the W. A. which was held in Belleville last week. Those from Bonarlaw were Cowan and Mrs. W. G. Swayne, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Baker, Mrs. W. J. Barlow and Mrs. M. Fitzgerald.

On Saturday evening of this week a social evening and euchre was held by members of the Bonarlaw Brook Lodge I.O.O.F. No. 429 and their families in the Orange Hall at Springbrook, about fifty persons being present. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. W. J. Barlow and the gentleman's prize by Mr. Fred Marlow.

After the game ice cream and cake was served and the Noble Grand, W. J. Barlow, acting as chairman, called on District Deputy Grand Master, W. H. Heath, and Sister Noble Grand of Stirling Lodge, and J. F. Baker, of Springbrook Lodge, for addresses. Some very interesting figures were given by Mr. Heath, D.D.G.M. for the state of the Order, the membership of which he stated was over two millions.

Brother Baker called the attention of the members and others present to the creditable manner in which the D.D.G.M. Bro. Heath, who is a member of Springbrook Lodge, had filled his term of office which is about to expire, and also to the fact that under the leadership of Noble Grand W. J. Barlow, this Lodge is flourishing, nine new members having recently been initiated and there are prospects for more. The record has only been exceeded by one other Lodge in the Province.

All joined hands and sang "Auld Lang Syne" ending a very pleasant evening.

S. S. CLASS GIVES ENJOYABLE PLAY

Fourth Thurlow—Young People's meeting was held Tuesday evening of last week at the church with Miss Edith Walker, 3rd line, in charge of the programme. Mrs. Wilfred Clare and her Sunday School class kindly presented a playlet entitled "Getting Married" with the Anybody Family" which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Several readings and musical numbers were also given. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served at the close of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Badgely spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Badgely, Deseronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller and family, also Mr. Bruce Miller, of Niagara, visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bateman, Malone, on Sunday.

Miss Stella Bradshaw took dinner on Sunday with Miss Bertha Badgely.

Miss Bessie Way, called recently on Mrs. Arthur Bradshaw.

Mr. Walter Sills and Mr. Thomas Peacock are on the sick list.

Misses Mildred and Shirley Phillips, 3rd line, were dinner hour guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cole.

Mrs. Everett Beer spent this week with friends in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Horton and baby Elaine, of Belleville, visited the latter's father, Mr. Frank Garrison, on Sunday.

Little Donna Sills had the misfortune last week of falling from a high loft in the barn. The little girl received some bad bruises.

The Bethany branch of the W. C. T. U. held their regular meeting Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bradshaw, with a good attendance.

Mrs. Harry Walker.

Mrs. T. Leslie, Salem, took dinner Tuesday of last week with her daughter, Mrs. A. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mason, of Belleville, called recently on Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradshaw.

Mr. Walter Sills and Mr. Thomas Peacock are on the sick list.

Misses Mildred and Shirley Phillips, 3rd line, were dinner hour guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cole.

Mrs. Everett Beer spent this week

PICNIC FOLLOWS ARBOR DAY WORK

Christian Street—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pooley of Bloomfield, spent Tuesday with their daughter, Mrs. Stanley Weeden, and family. Miss Marion Werden went home with them and spent several days there.

Quite a number of ladies from here attended Crofton Ladies' Aid meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jerry Crofton, of Crofton.

Mrs. and Mrs. Desmore Doolittle of Burr's spent Friday afternoon with their sister, Mrs. H. Nonn.

The teacher, Miss Perle Minaker, and her pupils celebrated Arbor Day on Friday by cleaning the school yard and a picnic dinner in the woods followed by games and picking flowers.

Messrs. Wm. and Richard Clarke and Miss Amelia Clarke of Foxboro, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Roblin, and called on Mrs. Harold Locke in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Nonan and daughter Ella and Mr. and Mrs. N. Delong of Picton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boyer and Georgia.

Mrs. Hannah Huff and children spent Saturday afternoon with her mother, Mrs. James Johnson.

Those attending to the last rites of Mrs. Clarence Sprague on the arrival of a young daughter in Belleville Hospital on May 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Calnan moved into the house on the lower farm on Monday.

Master Ronald Burr, of Burr's, spent the week-end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Werden.

Miss Georgia Bovay, P.C.I., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bovay.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nonon spent a recent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Desmore Doolittle, of Burr's.

ENTERTAIN AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

3rd Thurlow—There was a good attendance at Centenary Church on Sunday morning. Rev. Plant delivered a sermon in his usual fine way which was enjoyed by all present.

The many friends of Miss Irene Orrille, who is a patient in the Belleville General Hospital, will be glad to hear that her condition is very satisfactory, and a speedy recovery is hoped for.

Mrs. Harley Hubble, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hubble and family, Mr. and Mrs. Selburne Westover and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Laurence spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Duffin, Stirling.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenny, of Belleville, spent Sunday with Mrs. Kenny's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Latta.

Mr. and Mrs. Selburne Westover were at home to some of their friends on Saturday evening, it being the occasion of Mr. Westover's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Orr who have spent the last few months on his father's farm, have moved to Trenton where Mr. Orr has secured a position.

MONEY BACK GUARANTEE OF SUPERIOR QUALITY PRINTED ON EVERY PACKAGE
Quaker Corn Flakes

Flo-glaze
Leaves No Brush Marks
The PAINT that "Leaves NO Brush Marks"
"A Canadian Product Better Made"
WALKER HARDWARE
COMPANY, LIMITED
248 Front St. Belleville Phone 163

Between you and me...

"YOU CAN PROVE TO YOURSELF HOW LONG OLD DUTCH WILL LAST BY PUTTING THE DATE ON THE NEXT PACKAGE YOU BUY."
"THAT'S AN IDEA, AND I'LL DO IT. I'VE NOTICED ALREADY HOW MANY MORE THINGS YOU CAN CLEAN WITH OLD DUTCH."
Old Dutch does it because it's made with pure "SEISMOTITE"
"Seismotite" (pronounced sī'-mo-fite) is a fine, scratchless cleaning and polishing material of volcanic origin. It cleans more things, cleans quicker and doesn't scratch. Seismotite particles cover more surface because they are flaky and flat-shaped like this That's why Old Dutch goes further and does more cleaning per penny of cost. Avoid cheaper scouring substitutes that scratch
Old Dutch is ideal for cleaning any surface on which water may be used—floors, woodwork, painted walls, kitchen utensils, glassware, etc. It polishes as it cleans fine porcelain, enamel and tile. Buy a package of Old Dutch today.
Doesn't Scratch
Made in Canada

ORANGE PEKOE BLEND
"SALADA" TEA
"Fresh from the Gardens"

A&P ESTABLISHED 1859 for this week-end
lean SMOKED PICNIC STYLE
PORK SHOULDERS Shankless LB. 15¢
WHERE ECONOMY RULES
Specials For Thursday Friday and Saturday Only
A & P SELECTED BEEF
Prime Rib Roast lb. 17¢
BLUE BRAND
Sirloin Steaks lb. 18¢
FINEST QUALITY
Boiled Ham Sliced lb. 39¢
Fresh Pork Shoulder 14¢ | Boneless Butts Pork 17¢
SMOKED
Fillets 2 lbs. 25¢
Fresh Fillets lb. 14¢
GILT EDGE
FLOUR Bread 98 lb. bag 2.15
KELLOGG'S
Corn Flakes 2 Pkgs. 15¢
AYLMER GREEN LABEL
Red Plum Jam 32-oz. Jar 22¢
OUR OWN PERFECT STRIKE
Salmon Sockeye 2 No. ½ Tins 31¢
Milk Nestle's Condensed Tin 17¢
Soap Sunlight Laundry 5 CAKES 25¢
AYLMER or LIBBY'S
Tomato Juice 10½ oz. Tin 6¢
CHRISTIE'S—SINCE 1853
Date Jams lb. 23¢
McCORMICK'S
Chocolate Mallows 2 lbs. 25¢
Really FRESH Coffee IS GROUND BEFORE YOUR EYES
lb. 35¢ lb. 39¢ lb. 29¢
So many coffee lovers have learned the difference fresh grinding and correct roasting make to coffee flavor that A & P Coffees outsell any other Coffee in Canada.
Real Hot Special
Fresh Louisiana STRAWBERRIES
PINT BOX 10¢
THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC

2000 Trees in Reforestration Area Planted by Scouts, Pupils

Schools of Six Townships Aid the Stirling Troop

Stirling, May 10—The first Stirling troop of the Boy Scouts celebrated Arbor Day on Saturday, May 5th in a most unique way when they invited all the schools of six townships to unite with them in making the day by carrying out a reforestation scheme in planting one thousand trees in the reforestation area set aside in the Agricultural Grounds through the courtesy of the Stirling Fair Board. The celebration, which was under the auspices of the First Stirling Troop of the Boy Scouts was personally supervised by Mr. J. S. Belshaw, Director of the Ontario Horticultural Society for this district and to him and Scoutmaster Tom Ward goes a great measure of the credit for the success of the undertaking.

The Scouts and their guests, students from the Public Schools of the district, Rider Road School, S. S. No. 4, Rawdon, S. S. No. 7 Huntcon, Rawdon Public School, Seeford Public School, and Stirling Public School, assembled at the Agricultural Grounds at 10 a.m. Scout Tom Ward called the gathering to order and after explaining briefly the purpose of the gathering, called upon Mr. J. S. Belshaw to plant the first pine tree in the specified plot set aside for reforestation purposes. When Mr. Belshaw had been accomplished Mr. Belshaw addressed the boys briefly thanking them for the signal honor bestowed upon him in being allowed the honor of first planting the first tree. In his capacity of District Director of the Horticultural Society and President of the local organization, Mr. Belshaw endeavoured to make clear to the boys the significance of the day's performance in abetting the aims of the society by their reforestation plan. The speaker then explained in detail the proper method to be adopted in setting out the pine tree for reforestation. Light soil is preferable with the trees being set approximately six feet apart each way and in a case where the planting is being effected in sod, the sod should be turned to avoid the possibility of the grass choking out the life from the young trees. If this is to become an annual event, Mr. Belshaw said, he would recommend the planting of Scotch pine, as they are the variety in the hardy type unmolested by the boys, and will tend to put the trees in the red and white varieties. Final instructions having been issued, the boys got down to the accomplishing of their task.

The work had been previously furrowed and marked by a chain to ensure the trees being set out in the young trees at a distance of five feet. In a short time each of the lads had set out their one thousand tree quota, and as the programme came the setting out of forty choice poplar cuttings which were planted on the west, east and north sides of the Fair Grounds. This variety of tree grows very heartily and in a few short years will add considerably to the beauty of the Agricultural Grounds.

At the close of the work of the boys in true scout style prepared their noon-day meal on the grounds, cooking their food over the campfire. A real picnic was served until the boys were asked to reassemble at 1:30 for the continuance of the day's programme. Ex-Councillor William Fluehart, a member of the Stirling Fair Board was present and under his direction, cedar posts were cut from the swamp land at the south of the ground and the boys set to work digging post holes and in a short time the reforestation project was fenced with the cedar posts, thus effectively eliminated the reforestation activities of the day.

During the course of the afternoon one of the lads suffered a minor injury to his hand but his only calls for help were responded to with such dispatch that no serious injury resulted. As for the fencing, the boys found it a real pleasure under the able supervision of Rev. E. W. Rowland, A.R.M., a most capable Scout leader and a real booster of the Scout movement, in Stirling from the earliest days of its inauguration.

As by this time most of the visitors had taken their departure and those in charge felt that a good day's work had already been accomplished, the sporting events were drawn to a close when on by the members of the School Board of the village of Stirling were defeated by a softball game won by S. S. No. 7, Rawdon, and a second game played by S. S. No. 4, Huntingdon.

The Stirling Scouts are indeed grateful to the various organizations, the Stirling Fair Board, the Stirling Board of Education, the Horticultural Society, and to Mr. J. B. Belshaw, Rev. E. W. Rowland, Mr. William Fluehart, Mr. Mc. H. Sheridan, for their ready and willing co-operation in assisting in every possible way to make this outstanding occasion in the township's annals success which it was.

The village of Stirling should feel justly proud of the First Stirling Troop of the Boy Scouts and their enterprising Scout Master, Tom Ward for fostering such a reforestation project which like all of their achievements in the past, will prove beneficial to our community in the years to come.

keeps leather LIVELY

Makes Shoes Wear Longer and Look Better

NUGGET SHOE POLISH

There's a NUGGET Shade for every Shoe made.

4 BIG facts

QUALITY SAFETY DURABILITY ECONOMY

FEATURED IN
The New Goodrich Safety Silvertown WITH SAFETY-RIB CENTRE TREAD

1. QUALITY—A 67 year old reputation . . . the oldest name in the rubber industry is your guarantee of quality.

2. SAFETY—To prevent blow-out tragedies, Goodrich has built the amazing Life-Saver Golden Fly into every Silvertown tire. This invention makes every tire—whether blow-outs really start. Rubber and fabric don't separate. Thus, heat blisters never form. Blow-outs are prevented by eliminating their cause.

3. DURABILITY—The Golden Fly resists terrific heat; the cause of blow-outs and early tire failure. Tires are more durable . . . last months longer . . . and the fear of blow-outs is removed.

3 Times Safer From Blow-outs

NO EXTRA COST

4. ECONOMY—Imagine getting this new Goodrich Silvertown, with the Life-Saver Golden Fly, for the same price as any other standard tire! Only the Goodrich Company grants to save [illegible] possible such a value.

FREE This 7-section cloth red reflector. Protect your car from tail light goes blind. Send it and join the fifty Safety Leaguers.

Look for the Mountain

This sign tells you we sell Goodrich Safety Silvertowns and Life-Saver Golden Fly.

AL'S TIRE SHOP

241 COLEMAN STREET. PHONE 1320

CENTRAL TIRE & BATTERY SERVICE

240 FRONT ST. PHONE 388

W. E. GRILLS

25 MOIRA STREET WEST PHONE 1151F

The NAME Goodrich On Every Tire IS YOUR GUARANTEE

$3.50; Irvine Eggleton, sorting Pump House, $10.00; Thos. Francis, cutting wood, relief, $2.00; Thos. Francis, milk relief, (Grocers) $2.00; R. H. Williams, cemetery $12.30; R. H. Williams, cemetery work, $2.12; Municipal World, postage, $4.65; Thos. Francis, Milk relief (Keegan) $2.00; G. H. Lazier, Shed, Relief goods $6.00; Thos. Montgomery, Jr. street work $3.00; Thos. Montgomery, Jr. cutting wood $6.00; Archie McGee, street work $3.00; Dr. H. H. Alger, Board of Health and Relief $13.00; Dr. H. H. Alger, Board of Health and Relief $13.00; J. O. H. Leary and Son, goods for Relief $1.00; Municipal World, postage $3.65; B. A. Pattison, general $2.50; Consumers Gas Co., Gas $1.50; Waterworks, $2.16; Rawdon taxes, $4.66; Lloyds, for fire truck $3.00; R. Lawrence, work on waterworks $13.00; R. Dalton, work on waterworks $8.75. Thos. Heard, salary $27.00; Stirling Hydro Electric System, waterworks, billing and collecting, $10.00; Stirling Hydro Electric System, Community Hall, hydro rental $118.19; Stirling Hydro Electric System, Community Hall, street lighting, C. Hall and Fire Hall $18.85; Dominion Rubber Co., rel. etc $1.90; Sam Eggleton, salary, $5.00; Municipal World, stationery $1.50; Fire brigade, three fires, $6.00; Lazier and Sons, goods $1.00.

Mr. Norman Bailey of the Bank of Montreal staff in Toronto, spent the week-end at his home in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon of the Royal Bank staff spent the week end at their home in Toronto.

Miss Mary Haggerty, of Bellefonte, is the week end guest of Miss Irene Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. George Varty and family spent Sunday visiting friends and guests of Mrs. Varty's parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hagerty of West Huntingdon.

Rally Sunday Sunday was observed in St. Paul's United Church on Sunday and a greater increased attendance was noted. The elders of the church visited the homes of all members and adherents of the congregation during the week in attendance on Sunday and a much greater attendance was the result. Rev. E. W Rowland, pastor was in charge of both morning and evening services. The choir also marked the occasion and in the evening rendered the service with a vocal solo while the choir rendered the anthem. "Seek Ye the Lord," the children's choir, Miss Betty Conley taking the obligato during which sang "I Will Build the Rock".

Mrs. Fred Girdwood and daughters, Misses Alice and Nancy and Mrs. Hugh J. Jr. Jones spent the week end visitors of Mr. R. Jones and family in Stirling.

Mrs. Chas. Orlando has been confined to his bed for the past week with congestion of the lungs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Belshaw on Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. B Belshaw.

Mrs. R. W. Mathieson, third vice-president of the Belleville Women's Institute attended an executive meeting held at the Children's Shelter in Belleville on Sunday. Plans were laid for the District convention to be held at Bayside on June 7th. During the afternoon, two mattresses were donated to the Shelter.

Miss Emma Allen, nurse in training in Belleville General Hospital, staff is holidaying with relatives in Stirling and Bloomfield.

Miss Alice Calow, Miss E. Bowman and Miss Ethel Metcalf spent the week end in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McGee were week end visitors of their son, Dr. Donald McGee of Belleville.

Mr. R. Jones underwent at his home in Aylmer over the week end.

Mrs. Hugh Jones of Detroit is the guest this week of his brother Mr. and Mrs. Selbourne Westover.

Mrs. R. A. Ridley, Mr. Cyril Bailey all of Belleville were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Duffin.

Mrs. Victor Houchin of Toronto is the guest this week of his brother Mr. Fred Houchin

Mrs. Ira Aylsworth and daughter, Patricia Ann of Port Hope are guests this week of Mr and Mrs. O. Lorry.

Paint your Car like Factory-finish for 2.00

You can give your car a factory-like finish with Dominion Rubber Enamel in that fashion and color you like best. Dominion Rubber Enamel is there, as perfectly made and won't crack or peel. Get a can today. Only 2.00 per can of pint. Per Gallon $5.00

Per Quart $3.00

Make Furniture Painting an EASY Delight!

The most effective finish for furniture is Steelcote Enamel. Its beauty and durability are very easily. Made in 6 colors.

$1.10

½ Pints

Steelcote BRUSHED ENAMEL

These Merchants Sell Steelcote:

BELLEVILLE—The Big "A" Co. Limited; Holway Bros.; Arthur A. Ellis; White Hardware Co.

TRENTON—Fluglhorn and Clegg; Holway Bros.

FRANKFORD—A. J. Sprague.

MADOC—C. G. Reid and Son.

MARMORA—J. D. Dale Estate.

DESERONTO—Chas. F. Dimmell.

The Monday evening meeting of St. Paul's Y.P.S. was in charge of Miss Christella Endeavour Department and was a very splendid one. The president, Mr. Harry Hulbe conducted the Devotional Period and presided over the meeting. Miss Mary Grant gave a Scriptural reading "Fruit Upon a Rock" which was based upon verses 1 and 2 of Psalm 92. This was followed by short sentence prayers by Misses Christella Hulbe and Mary Grant and the concluding exercise was a responding in unison of the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. James Belmford, First vice president presided over the business meeting. The first feature of the business meeting was the Presidents section of the Y.P.S. "The Heart that Gives" taken from the Golden Rule Book and given in splendid style by Mrs. Ted Mathieson. The main address of the evening was delivered by Mrs. A. Coverdale who chose Andrew Fuller's Motto "Done unto the Lord" and are heavy laden' and I will give you rest" showing in her address how truly applicable the text is to those in every walk of life. Miss Nina Carlisle favored the audience with a vocal solo, "The Shepherd's Evening". The contest a berry number was put on by Miss Viola Mills, Red and Khaki sides gaining equal honors. The meeting closed with lunch served by the ladies.

Mrs. Jas. A. Whitehead, Mr. Charles Allen and Miss Emma Allen spent Sunday visiting friends given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. Rutherford on their marriage on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wells were Sunday guests of the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wells, Rawdon.

Mrs. J. Legrow has returned to her home in Toronto after spending the winter months in Toronto and visiting relatives in Stirling.

REV. MR. HAZARD GIVES ADDRESS ON TEMPERANCE

West Lake—Rev. Mr. Hazard of Toronto, gave a very interesting temperance address on Sunday afternoon. He was listened to with great attention.

Mr. Philip MacDonald suffered a slight attack one day last week at his home on Lake Point, and has been confined to his bed but is improving nicely.

Mrs. Hagerman continues very ill at Belleville hospital. Her friends would be glad to see her home again soon.

Rev. Mr. Sharp and Mrs. Sharp were Prince Edward Island visitors and visitors at Mr. Dan Maitland's.

Mrs. Richard Trotter, of Wellington, is spending a few days at the home of Mr. A. J. Lake.

BAYSIDE WEEKLY NEWS BRIEFS

Bayside—Miss Margaret Weese is visiting relatives in Toronto.

Mrs. Ernest Bonter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Paro in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Megginson were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Megginson of Stirling.

Mrs. Fale is spending a few days at her parents' home at Campbellford, visiting her father Mr. Alex Hall, is convalescing from a slight illness.

The many friends of Miss Elsie Hunt will be glad to learn that a serious accident at Kingston where she was hit by a car. All wish her a speedy recovery.

Miss Alice and Ila Wood visited Sunday with Mrs. J. White at the daughter Mildred, of Stirling.

Mr. Ernest Bonter is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Clayton Herman at Carrying.

FINE PROGRAM IS GIVEN AT LEAGUE

Foxboro—A good number attended League on Monday evening and a splendid programme was enjoyed, the topic being given by Mrs. Stewart Silks.

The W.M.S. was held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. Clarke.

Mrs. Geo. Priest underwent an operation on her throat on Saturday at Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Daniels and Miss Marion and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Daniels were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. Percy Uman, Consecon.

Mr. Clarence Sharry and his mother Mrs. Sharry were visitors on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wellville, and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Collier and family of Crookston, were Sunday guests at Wm. Coulter's.

Two aged Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. T. Hoskins were guaranteed for Stirling Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kilpatrick and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones of West Huntington on Sunday.

Mr. Bronyee returned home after visiting friends in the east.

Divine service was attended to Mrs. (Rev.) Mutton in the loss she has sustained in the death of her mother, Mrs. (Rev.) Fuse, of Peterboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Melnor Wickett attended the funeral on Monday of the latter's cousin, Mrs. Tice, of Consecon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wannamaker entertained a number of young people from Belleville at their home on Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Spencer, Cairns of Belleville. A very pleasant evening was spent and a delicious lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rose of Trenton spent Sunday at Mr. J. Eggleton's.

Mr. and Mrs. Simmons attended the burial in Belleville on Saturday of the latter's niece, Mrs. Brown, of Toronto.

Mrs. Ted Boyle and George and Mrs. O. Chalmers had Friday dinner at Mrs. Sylvia Lidster's.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Coulter attended the funeral of Mrs. Robert Hall, in Plainfield, on Sunday.

Mrs. Hanna and Miss Evelyn Wickett spent Monday with Miss Sylvia Lidster.

Mrs. H. Stewart and children, of Oshawa, spent over Sunday with her mother, Mrs. L. Hagerman.

Mrs. Prink is undergoing treatments in Kingston General Hospital.

Miss Doris DaFoe spent the week-end in Halloway.

Mr. Bygrove spent Monday at Mr. Ross'.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hodgen and Betty had Sunday evening supper at Mr. Gibson Hodgen's, Belleville.

INJURES BACK IN FALL DOWN STAIRS

Malone—Mr. and Mrs. Chambers of Stirling, visited at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. H. Nickle, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Arthurs and family of Belleville, spent the week end visiting relatives in Malone and Marmora.

Mrs. Richard Trotter had the misfortune to fall downstairs injuring her back. All hope she will soon be able to be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox are both confined to their home through illness. All hope they will soon be better.

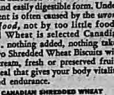
Fire has started to rage already this summer on the Malone hardwood berry rocks.

Citizenship of the community is extended to Mrs. Walter Lowry on the death of her father who passed away at his home in Northbrook, the latter part of last week.

Mrs. H. Wesse and Mrs. J. Ellis and daughter spent last Thursday in Marmora.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Simpson and family, also Mr. and Mrs. Simpson Sr., spent Sunday with Mrs. T. I. Simpson, Stirling.

Mr. Harry Cawley has returned home after spending the past week in Belleville Hospital.



Mrs. W. E. Long is visiting friends in and around Eldorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ellis and children, of Stockdale, visited at the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Nickle, in Malone.

YOU LOOK LIKE A DIFFERENT BOY!

"A YOUNG bodies like yours need the bone and tissue-building elements as found in Shredded Wheat . . . in a most delicious and easily digestible form. Undernourishment is often caused by the wrong kind of food, not by too little food." Shredded Wheat is selected Canadian wheat . . . nothing added, nothing taken away. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with milk or cream, fresh or preserved fruits, make a meal that gives your body vitality, energy and endurance.

THE CANADIAN SHREDDED WHEAT COMPANY, LTD. Niagara Falls, Canada

SHREDDED WHEAT

MADE IN CANADA — BY CANADIANS — OF CANADIAN WHEAT

BUY GEM LYE

You Get More For Your Money. Opens Clogged Drains, Also Makes Fine Soap At Low Cost.

Write for free Booklet

CUDAHY SOAP WORKS, TORONTO

Dr. Faulkner, Mr. Hollon, of Belleville, and several other well known citizens held a political meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fox last Monday evening. The house was filled to capacity and those speaking by the different men was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Clarence Weese, who has been ill at her home for the past couple of weeks, is able to be out and around again.

AND WE SUGGEST YOU TRY

DOMINION STORES

THE MARK TELLS THE STORY. RICH... MELLOW... FRAGRANT

RICHMELLO TEA

RICHMELLO

RICHMELLO

RICHMELLO

FREE

We Are Giving 6 Bottles of Coca-Cola

Free with every $2.00 order left at our stores during Friday and Saturday. Deposit of 25c on bottles necessary.

YELLOW LABEL Reg. 68c lb. 63c lb.

BLUE LABEL Reg. 55c lb. 49 lb.

The fine quality and delicious flavour of Dominion Stores' Tea is consistently maintained. You are always sure of GOOD TEA at Dominion Stores.

Fine Quality PASTRY FLOUR 24-lb. Bag 57c

HERE IS EXCEPTIONAL VALUE

CROSSE & BLACKWELL'S 8 O'CLOCK Jar 21c

Marmalade

Prepared from Fresh, Sweet Oranges, Grapefruit and Lemons. These delicious marmalades in one.

PINEAPPLE SINGAPORE SLICED Tins 10c

AMMONIA POWDER "HANDY" Brand Pkg. 5c

CORN SYRUP CROWN OR BEEHIVE No.'s 35c

PORK & BEANS CAMPBELL'S 28-oz. Tin 10c

MAYFIELD Selected Side BACON Cut from the Finest Selected Canadian Hogs. lb. 29c

Shirriff's JELLY POWDERS - pkg. 5c

ICING SUGAR - 2 lbs. 19c

Christie's FIG ROLLS - lb. 17c

Verything TOILET TISSUE - 3 rolls 10c

ROLLED OATS 6 lbs. 25c

Lux TOILET SOAP - cake 6c

FREE! An Aluminum PIE PLATE With Each Pound of CRISCO 1-lb. Tin 23c

CASE GOES TO SHOP BOARD

Union Member Discharged by Chair Company at Stratford

Stratford, Ont., May 10—(CP) — Discharged yesterday from his post at the Stratford Chair Company, J. R. Cossey, prominent in the furniture workers' strike last fall and since then one of the leaders of the Furniture and Wood Workers' Union, has taken his case to the shop committee.

The shop committee, according to information today, will meet the management of the plant later today. It is claimed that Cossey is being discriminated against and his re-instatement will be sought. Failing in that, it is stated that the union has a very definite line of action which it proposes to follow.

Mayor G. J. Kerr, President of the Furniture Workers' Industrial Union declared today that a strike at the plant was not anticipated as a result of the incident.

LEWIS
FOR GUARANTEED OPTICAL SERVICE AT MODERATE PRICES
LEWIS.
285 FRONT ST.—Opp. Loblaw's
Telephone 1406

SECOND LINE

2nd Line—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Toppings, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McGowan visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lessing.

Mrs. Russel Mahlie of Ottawa is visiting her brother Mr. Arthur Dent.

Mrs. Arthur Dent is convalescing after her recent operation in Belleville Hospital.

Miss Mary Shynsgruhm has returned to Toronto after visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Shynsay Shynm.

Mr. Wes Grey is sporting a new car.

Rev. Clarke and Mrs. Clarke made several calls on this line on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. Mitchell and Mrs. R. Mitchell spent the dinner hour on Tuesday with Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, when the Institute meeting at Mrs. Bunnett's.

Mr. and Mrs. Moncrief of Consecon spent Sunday with the latter's sister Mrs. Arnold Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cockfin, Mr. and Mrs. W. Jordon of Bonlin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wes Grey.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bunnett and Carmen, Miss Laura Bunnett, Mr. and Mrs. P. Sprackett visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lessing.

Miss Doris Dent of Ottawa is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dent.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Grey, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bunnett attended the Conservative convention held in Madoc, Mrs. Grey and Mrs. Bunnett being delegates.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Leeming spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. P. Sprackett.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Toppings spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Howe.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Grey entertained company on Sunday.

The Institute meeting held Arbor Day on Friday. After cleaning the school and the school grounds they went to the woods and had a picnic. Then they had a game of ball, races and other sports.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grey of Lalla Mrs. Johnson of Consecon visited Mr. and Mrs. Wes Grey spent a Sunday recently at Ray Bay with their cousin and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. Nolan.

Mr. Will Taylor had the misfortune to be hurt by one of his horses. A number of ladies attended the Quinte Institute meeting held at the home of Mrs. Jas. Bunnett of the Front Road.

ROUND TRIP
Bargain Fares
From BELLEVILLE
MAY 11 - 12
to MONTREAL
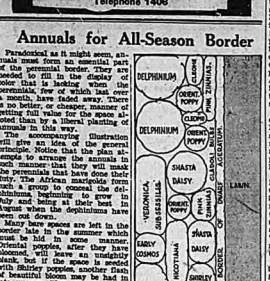
$4.40
Quebec City
$7.65
ST. ANNE DE BEAUPRE
$8.25
Equally low fares from intermediate points.
GOING—MAY 11-12
RETURNING — Leaving Montreal and Quebec City up to evening of May 13th.
For full particulars consult your nearest Agent.
CANADIAN PACIFIC
CANADIAN NATIONAL



Annuals for All-Season Border

Paradoxical as it might seem, annuals form an essential part of the perennial border, and are needed to fill in the display of color that is lacking when the perennials, few of which last over a month, have faded away. There is no better, or cheaper, manner of getting full value for the space allotted than by a liberal planting of annuals in this way.

The accompanying illustration will give an idea of the general principle. Notice that the plan attempts to arrange the annuals in such manner that they will mask the perennials that have done their duty. The African marigolds form such a group to conceal the delphiniums, beginning to grow in July and being at their best in August when the delphiniums have been cut down.

Many large spaces are left in the border late in the summer which must be filled in some manner. Oriental poppies, after they have flowered, will leave an unsightly blank, but if the space is seeded with Shirley poppies, another flash of beautiful bloom may be had in late summer. Plans should provide space for colonies of annuals or perennials, bulbs, and as gladiolus, to furnish color after the first flush of June bloom. Several varieties of quick blooming annuals will also furnish early color at the front of the border before the phlox has had a chance to bloom.

In small gardens the raised border will be found more satisfactory than the true perennial border. And not only will they add length to the season, but will furnish a cutting garden as well from which a generous amount of flowers may be had for the living room table. In small yards, the border is usually molded up against a fence or lattice, and if such is the case, the taller plants should be placed at the rear of the bed in such manner as to act as a background for the others. For this purpose, the cosmos, annual sunflowers of the cucumber-leaved type, not well enough known, the spider plant (cleome) the tall flowering tobacco, Nicotiana sylvestris; the tall African marigolds, the colossal zinnias and cosmos, are excellent material, bringing the tall growth to the front of the border occasionally to avoid monotony.

PLANTING PLAN FOR MIXED BORDER OF PERENNIALS AND ANNUALS, ABOUT 4'X 15'

If you have not already made plans for such a border, it is a good idea to start in now. Annuals and perennials together will give you rightful satisfaction.

NILES' CORNERS PERSONAL NOTES

Niles Corners.—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crosby and June of Belleville, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Huyke of Consecon were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dafoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ellis and family of Ameliasburgh visited his father and brother here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Buzzard and Ronald and Mr. L. Peers, of Belleville, also Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bovay and children, of Wellington, were Sunday evening visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. DeMoe.

Cloverdale factory has already started operations on Sundays, also, for the season.

Mrs. H. Lunn spent the week-end with her sister Mrs. Colling.

Mr. John Sopher has gone to Belleville where he has obtained work for a time.

Mrs. Frank Benway is still confined to her bed. All hope for a speedy recovery.

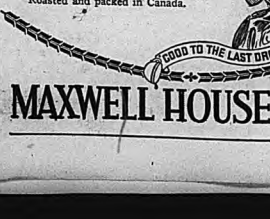
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ellis Monday attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Louis Murphy, Consecon.

METAL FINISHERS NOW IN DEMAND

Service Bureau Unable to Supply Men Needed Fro Work

For the first time in many months the local Employment Service of Canada office has been called upon to help fill positions for engineers and for which there are no offers. Faced with a shortage of skilled artisans, a large Canadian automobile manufacturing company has appealed to the government for help in locating men skilled in this line of work. Belleville, like many other cities and towns throughout the province, knows powerless to help. An estimate shows that metal finishers have either changed their trade, or the artisans have no desire to return to it.

"As far as I know there is only one qualified metal finisher in Belleville", said Leroy F. Green, superintendent of the local employment office yesterday. "There might be more in answer to the ad put in the paper, but so far I only know of one."



During a recent convention held here of dealers and officials of the General Motors factory at Oshawa, Mr. C. E. Acheson, general sales manager of the G.M.C. of Canada, said "a large additional volume of demand for workers on this trade was made, and could not be filled. They've either lost the knack of metal finishing or they don't want to go back to the trade."

Thousands of metal finishers were trained in Canada and in the United States during the boom days of automobile production, but the work was highly specialized and when the falling off in production, the workers have returned to other lines.

ORCHESTRA LEADER AWARDED $1,200

Kitchener, Ont., May 10—Charles J. Hoffman, violinist and orchestra leader, was awarded $1,200 and costs in his $15,000 action against Edward H. Trump, city, by Mr. Justice Patrick Kerwin in non-jury session of the supreme court here yesterday.

The plaintiff's suit was the sequel to a motor car accident at Cambridge on January 24 in which Trump's car carrying the plaintiff and other musicians collided with a truck when they were returning to Kitchener from Preston. Mr. Hoffman was injured in the mishap. He claimed that the hearing in his left ear had been so seriously affected that he is handicapped in his playing.

FIRST—the same flavourful, savoury blend which years ago captured the hearts of Dixie's coffee-lovers. Then—roaster freshness guaranteed by the exclusive Vita-Fresh packing process which removes more flavour-robbing air from the tin than any other process. Then—a new and exclusive method of grinding which exposes more of the flavour and insures more flavour no matter what way of making coffee you use—drip, percolator, or boiling. Roasted and packed in London.

MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE

MH15-34

CHOOSE QUEEN OF CENTENNIAL

City's Most Popular Baby Also To Be Chosen

The committee in charge of Belleville Centennial commemoration, June 18 to 23, have arranged to have preliminaries in connection with Centennial publicity. One is a contest to choose some young lady as Queen of the Centennial, together with attendant in-waiting, to rule over the Centennial proceedings. Another voting contest will be conducted to choose the most popular baby. In connection with the contests the committee has furnished the following statement to the press:

Some young lady will be proclaimed Queen of Belleville's Centennial celebration and will reign over her kingdom for one joyous week.

She will receive along with her jewelled crown, A beautiful silver trophy. And a two weeks' vacation of her choice of any Ontario summer resort. These are essential items.

She will be waited on during the week of the celebration by her maid and second lady-in-waiting. These ladies will go to the finals in the second and third prize of the contest, which also will be beautiful silver trophies.

The most popular Baby Contest will be one more lucky baby for which there is a first, second, and third prize offered.

First prize will be a silver trophy and a bank account will be opened in the Baby's name. Second and third prizes to be silver trophies.

All these prizes are now on display in the Centennial Committee rooms, 16 Front street, where entry for the two contests will be received.

In to-morrow's issue of this paper, entry forms will be published, and girls and baby one thousand votes. These forms should be filled out and entered not later than Saturday, May 12, 1934 to the contest committee of Centennial headquarters.

Those who are not eligible to enter the contest are: members of the Centennial staff and their families. No child over five years old will be entered in the Baby contest.

In this paper tomorrow a coupon will be published upon which candidates for Queen of the Centennial can be nominated—the coupon carrying one thousand votes for the candidate named. A coupon will also be printed for entry to the Popular Baby Contest.

CLUB ENTERTAINS BRIDE AND GROOM

Mountain View, May 10—Mr. and Mrs. Lyall Dillon of Tichborne spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sprague and family.

Miss Margaret Mitchell spent the week-end with Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Spencer and Norman.

Mrs. Howard Calnan and Jimmie returned home on Monday after spending the past couple of weeks with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Bovay.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bovay spent the hour on Saturday night with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sprague and family.

Mrs. Hubert Wallbridge of Stirling spent Sunday with Mrs. Clarence Sprague and family.

Mrs. William Yarwart s spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Parliament.

Mr. and Mrs. John Black, Murray and Dorel called on Mrs. D. Lamb of Picton who is ill.

Mrs. Wm. Minaker is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. George Bisby of Pinkney who has a baby daughter.

Miss Gertrude Wallbridge of Massassaga spent a few days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Sprague.

Mrs. Andrew Longstaffe entertained the Ladies' Guild at her home on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Sprague and Mrs. Howard Wallbridge and Miss Gertrude Wallbridge motored to Picton and Cherry Valley on Sunday and called on Mrs. Emma Wager and Miss Elizabeth Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. William Vanwart and Shirley spent Tuesday with friends near Colborne.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jacques spent the hour on Monday with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Parliament.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. John Bovay on Wednesday afternoon, May 2. It being the annual meeting a great deal of business was discussed. All officers except the secretary-treasurer were voted back for the ensuing year. The Institute speaker this year will be Miss Emily J. Gunsi, B.A. of Toronto. Refreshments were then served by the hostess assisted by her daughters and the meeting closed by singing "God Save the King".

Rev. J. D. P. Knox of Belleville called on Mrs. Jesse Sprague and Mrs. Clayton Sprung on Monday evening.

On Thursday night, May 3, about forty members of the V.A.C. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bovay (nee Ila Wood) to spend a social evening. Ila and Howard were asked to come forward and the following address was read by the president of the V.A.C., Mr. Harmon Montgomery.

Dear Ila and Howard: Once again we are gathered as members of the V.A.C. to extend congratulations and best wishes to two of its most active members. In looking back over the years entertaining most loyally assisting in telephoning and seeing that all had ways to go. For these and other favors we are deeply grateful. We are so glad that you are to reside in our midst and will still join our club in all its activities.

You have both given us your best service and we are only too glad to be of any help or service to you in starting your voyage of life together.

As a small expression of our appreciation we ask you to accept this chest of silver, with it goes our sincere wish for a most happy and prosperous future. May God's richest blessing be showered in abundance upon you and may love and true fellowship be the foundation of your home and may success and prosperity crown all your efforts.

Signed on behalf of the Victoria Athletic Club—C. W. Pope, Audrey Way and Harmon Montgomery. Mr. Gerald Pope presented the gift. Ila and Howar d thanked their club friends and asked them to visit them, after which all joined together singing "They Are Jolly Good Fellows". Refreshments were then served.

SHOWER HELD FOR NEWLYWEDS AT SHANNONVILLE

Shannonville, Ont., May 10.—About eighty relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Fitzgerald gathered at the schoolhouse on Thursday evening to surprise them with a miscellaneous shower. The function was splendidly arranged by the committee in charge and the beautiful gifts showered upon them evidenced the esteem in which they are held. Dainty refreshments were brought by many of the guests and at a late hour the happy event came to a close with the serving of refreshments.

Mrs. Herbert Honston spent Thursday last with friends in Belleville.

Born Wednesday, May 2nd, to Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Fitzgerald, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hill, Mrs. Bertha Robinson and daughter Clara and Mr. Bob Christmas motored to Brantford over the week-end and attended the funeral of a relative there.

Born on May 4th, to Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, a baby girl.

Miss Mildred Bailey of this place and Mr. Frank Mountaneze of Belleville were quietly married on Saturday, May 5th, in Belleville.

Mr. J. M. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bell of Frankford called on Mr. and Mrs. Jack McDonald on Sunday afternoon.

A number of men are being employed to clean the old school grounds making ready for the erection of a new school.

HAWES FLOOR WAX
POLISHES AND PROTECTS
FLOORS, LINOLEUM, FURNITURE, AUTOS, etc.
Preferred in Five Homes for Many Years
HAWES' FLOOR WAX

NATIONS IN DISTRESS TO ASK DEBT RELIEF

Washington, May —(AP)— President Roosevelt emphasized today that the United States stands for collection of war debts but will grant a hearing to nations in distress who ask for reduced payments.

Whether token payments, which have been made in the past, by Great Britain and some other countries, will be accepted in June, will be decided upon the merits of the individual case, the President said at his Press Conference.

ON SALE AT LOBLAWS Week of May 10-May 16th

Featuring the well-known Overseas line by Reckitts

"SPECIAL"
NUGGET SHOE POLISH 2 Tins 19¢
Assorted Shades

The Latest British Educator
BISCUIT SENSATION of LOBLAWS
CRAX BUTTER-WAFERS
CRAX 90 Days 300
PERFECT BED-TIME COMPANION
NEW CHEESE CRACKER
CRISPY FLAKY DAINTY
Pkg. 10¢
Use with Soups, Cheese, Oysters, Salads also as a Side cracker. Serve a Better Way

"SPECIAL"
ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR
2-lb. Bag 8¢ 7-lb. Bag 22¢ 24-lb. Bag 69¢
"Specials" like this are worth waiting for!

"SPECIAL" Extraordinary! Presenting an Entirely New Biscuit Confection
WESTON'S Foulds Quality Wedding Bell Creams
Biscuits of this quality should sell for 25¢ a pound—Present cost of 2? biscuits to a pound.
27¢ SAVINGS CREAMS TO THE POUND
Special 1 lb. 19¢

SURPRISE Soap 5 Bars 19¢
Really Does Surprise You
BRIGGER'S RED PLUM JAM With added 33-oz. Jar 23¢
Most every basket will contain a jar at this price
QUAKER PUFFED RICE 2 Pkgs. 25¢
So Useful in many Recipes as well as a Cereal
DOMESTIC or EASIFIRST SHORTENING 1-lb. Carton 10¢

OUR DIETITIAN
Miss G. G. Taylor, B.H.S. tells how to surprise the family at very little cost.

—MENU—
Veal Olives
Escalloped Potatoes Fruit Salad Spinach
Cabbage and Pineapple Salad
Fruit Rolls with Brown Sugar Sauce

VEAL OLIVES
2 pounds veal from leg, cut in ¼ inch slices.
Salt Pepper Arrow Mixed Spices
Cut veal in pieces 2 by 4 inches. Put slice of bacon on each, having bacon extend beyond edge of veal. Roll and fasten with toothpick. Brown entire surface in frying pan, in fat, because fat with salt and pepper. Add water to cover, cover pan, and let boil until tender. Thicken liquid in dish, for gravy.

RINSO "Cooks Clothes Clean" Med. Size Pkg. 9c
AYLMER STRAINED FOODS Per Lb. Jar Assorted and Special Diets 2 Tins 21c
Marsh Seedless Grape Fruit Lge. Size 2 for 19¢ Med. Size 7¢ Each
JUNKET Powders Assorted Flavours Pkg. 11c
N. B. Yeast Flakes Makes Delicious Yeast Bread & Pulled Pkgs. 29c
California Navel Oranges Sweet and Juicy Per Dozen 29c 37c and 43c
SHERIFF'S SWEET MYSTERY DESSERT Chocolate Malted 3 Pkgs. 23c
OXO 16 Cube Box 26c

Conservative Delegates to Convention are Appointed

W. H. Ireland, M. P. P. is Speaker at Organizing Meeting

Trenton, May 16 (Special). — A large number of citizens attended the Conservative meeting last evening when the delegates and alternates were picked to attend the convention in Marmora on Friday afternoon.

Mr. W. H. Ireland, M.P.P., was in attendance with Rhen Janes, president of the Trenton Conservative Association, in the chair.

Forty delegates were chosen as follows:

Ward 1.—W. E. Donaldson, R. Oates, A. Anderson, T. Saunders and Mrs. W. Powers. Alternates, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. H. Galna and H. Wannamaker.

Ward 2.—G. Frazis, W. Fuller Jr., C. Heasip, Mrs. S. Blair, H. Strong, W. Hadrell, J. S. Stacey, T. Bennett, Mrs. Seabrooke and J. Reid Jr. Alternates, Mrs. H. Johnson, Mrs. S. Kennedy, S. Kennedy, S. Derry, Mrs. H. Strong and Anson Delong.

Ward 3.—J. Johnson, W. Salisbury, George Taylor, A. Jackson and O. Barnum. Alternates, Mrs. O. Taylor, Mrs. Wrighman, Mrs. W. Johnson, Mrs. J. Johnson and Mrs. Barnum.

Ward 4.—Mrs. H. Coyon, H. Orser. Alternates, H. Coburn, C. Yerex and E. Welr.

Ward 5.—D. D. Graham, K.C., Mrs. W. House, Mrs. A. Forbes, W. Alexander, H. Rem, J. Hennessey, O. Tripp, J. Wing, R. Burtt, G. Kennedy, N. J. McNair, R. Armstrong. Alternates—Mrs. Sheppard, Mrs. H. Burtt, Mrs. O. Tripp, Dr. H. Wright, H. Moon, W. Smith, F. Bolton and H. Weller.

Ward 6.—L. Crosby, W. Gardner, F. Radray, W. Williams and J. Donaldson. Alternates, Mrs. H. Stinson, Mrs. W. Patrick, W. Parks, C. Chandler and H. B. Stinson.

The meeting unanimously supported a resolution that the Trenton delegates give all their support to "Billy" Ireland.

Mr. Ireland was called upon to say a few words by President H. Janes.

In a few words Mr. Ireland asked the support of all if he received the nomination on Friday next. He was glad to see so many out. He informed them that Mr. Lorne Green of the Government Employment Bureau at Belleville would be in Trenton Thursday (today) at 2 p.m. at the town hall where several men would be required for the highway work.

CARPET BALL

On Monday evening the City Carpet Ball League played off a six game between the Ash Scrubs and the Stars of Rodney, teams to decide who should be the winner of the trophy given by the League. The best two out of three, five doddeled shot game was played and keenly contested resulting in the Scrubs obtaining a victory over the Englishmen by 14 points, which made them the winning team of the League. The presentation of the trophy was made on Monday evening, May 12th., in the Orange Hall, where the various teams of the League gathered with their best sweethearts and friends to spend a social get together evening. Between seventy and eighty persons were present. After all had been made acquainted, euchre and bridge were played, while a game of Carpet Ball was played between the ladies and gentlemen who were not inclined to card playing. At 10.30 lunch was served in the dining room the members of the ladies' teams having previously prepared four large tables with good things to eat. The goodguy being sung, all sat down, and did ample justice to the good things provided. Dancing was then the order of the day to the music generously supplied by Miss Grace Latham, accompanied by Mr. Allen Browning Jr., on the violin.

During an interval called by the Chairman of the League Mr. T. Adams, the winning members of the team were called forward and introduced to the gathering and Mr. Adams on behalf of the League presented the Trophy to Mr. Fraser Paul, captain of the team. In a few well chosen words Mr. Paul thanked the members for the honor which had been bestowed on the team and himself and mentioned that though the trophy be named by the team were also the winners. Mr. Adams also spoke a few words thanking the members of the League for the whole-hearted support they had given nim during the season and hoped that next season would be as pleasant and enjoyable as the past one had been. Dancing was then until 12.30 when the gathering broke up by the singing of the National Anthem with them the thought that a very enjoyable evening had been spent.

STORM DAMAGE IN THIS DISTRICT

Peterborough, Ont., May 10 (CP) —Struck by lightning during the most severe electrical storm which swept this district last night, the large barn of David White, Cavan Township, burst into flames and was completely destroyed. Mr. White was able to remove his horses and calves from the burning structure but everything else including 100 bushels of wheat, a quantity of oats and farm implements was destroyed. No estimate was placed on the loss.

Brockville, Ont., May 10 (CP)— When a tree in Cry Lee was struck by lightning early today and caught fire, the blaze spread to the summer cottage of Ross Webster, Toronto, destroying it together with its contents. Two other cottages in the vicinity, owned respectively by Noah Peck and Charles Prendenburg were saved with difficulty after hard work on the part of nearby residents.

Deaths Wednesday

Quebec—Judge Louis Demers, 63, Judge of the court of sessions of Quebec.

Hamilton, Ont.—Lieut.-Col. Robert Perry, 78, retired Salvation Army worker, known in several countries.

Winnipeg—Knox Magee, 57, formerly editor of the Winnipeg Telegram and the Manitoba Saturday Post and an editorial writer on the Winnipeg Tribune.

Montreal—Michael D. Carroll, 59, former well-known sportsman and a member of the Montreal Motion Picture Censor Board.

NOTICE

We are pleased to announce that our store in Belleville is now under the Management of MR. WALTER THOMAS, who for many years past has operated a Meat Market in this city. His many friends and old customers will, I am sure, appreciate this, and Mr. Thomas will give to them the High-Class Service which is to be found at all

LUCKINS

MEAT SHOPS
PHONE 597

SPECIALS

Round lb. STEAK 15c

Hamburg Steak ... 3 lbs. 25c
Minute Steak, lb. 23c

Centre lb. Brisket 8c

Brisket Point, lb. 6c
Beef Cuttings 2 lb. 25c

Tender Oven lb. ROAST 11c

Rolled Roast .. lb. 11c
Potroast Cuts .. lb. 10c

Fresh Beef lb. HEARTS 8c

Stewing Beef .. lb. 10c
Blade Roast, lb. 12½c

Pure lb. LARD 10c

Shortening 2 lbs. 21c
Breakfast Bacon ..... lb. 25c

Lacklns lb. BUTTER 21c with orders

Roasting Pork lb. 15c
Boil Roast ... lb. 17c

Pork lb. Tenderloins 23c

Pork Sausage, lb. 19c
Family Sausage .. 2 lbs. 25c

S.P. Cottage lb. ROLLS 17c

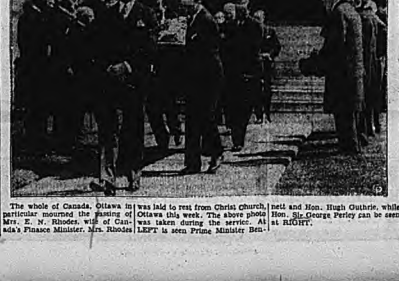
Veal Stew ... lb. 5c
Veal Chops, lb. 12½c

Oyster Fillet lb. VEAL 11c

LUCKINS

PHONE 597

ADD THIS TO YOUR MORNING'S DAILY DOZEN!



It's guaranteed to give you that "up and at 'em" feeling, this trick. Joseph Edmond, 36, of Quebec, is the lad who is stretched out on the chairs here allowing a 40 pound rock to be broken on his chest with a 20 pound sledge hammer. He also has some other tricks, such as running at full speed, head-first into a brick wall, holding up his weight on any one finger of both hands, and then dropping suddenly on his head. He does that trick best on a cement floor. Edmond claims his skull is 20 times as thick as the average. He is short, stocky and has great bulging muscles that can take a half-inch from poker and tie it in a knot around his head.

AS SOVIET AIRMEN RESCUED 104 FROM ICE FLOES

These photos show scenes relating to the daring rescue by Soviet airmen of 104 persons who became stranded on the floes in the Arctic ocean when the steamer Cheliuskin sank on its return trip from a scientific expedition to Wrangel Island—top, left, Professor Otto Schmidt, leader of the expedition, shown in a hospital at Nome, Alaska, where he was taken after being stricken with pneumopia; right, Pilot Babushkin and his mechanic. Balavin, right, the outstanding heroes among the aviators who defied heavy winter flying conditions to remove the party in safety; below, members of the marooned party grouped about one of the rescue planes.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ATTEND FUNERAL OF MRS. RHODES

The whole of Canada, Ottawa in particular mourned the passing of Mrs. E. N. Rhodes, wife of Canada's Finance Minister. Mrs. Rhodes was laid to rest from Christ church, Ottawa this week. The above photo was taken during the service. At LEFT is seen Prime Minister Bennett and Hon. Hugh Guthrie, while Hon. Sir George Perley can be seen at RIGHT.

When the first tread wears off, a SECOND anti-skid tread automatically appears.

51% Thicker Tread
50% Less Punctures

The Only GENUINE Air Cooled Tire.

The ONLY Tire with TWO TREADS .. one beneath the other.

PERFECT TRACTION .. PERFECT COMFORT .. PERFECT SAFETY.

35% to 150% More Miles.

SEIBERLING

Genuine Air Cooled Tires

100% PURE MOTOR OIL 89c PER GALLON

ST. CHARLES MOTOR CO.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES—VULCANIZING
343 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE PHONE 232

"They Never Wear Smooth"

Letters to The Editor

"Belleville May 9, 1934.

"Editor, Ontario Intelligencer,

"Dear Sir:—

Wishing to control streets gossip concerning the editing of a paper known as Jack Canuck in which Belleville Citizens and Industries in this city, have received publicity, is my object in asking you to publish this letter to the citizens of Belleville.

"Firstly, E. J. Baldree is in no way connected with Jack Canuck, or Hush and positively wishes it made quite clear that any publicity "if it can be called such" concerning the City of Belleville or its citizens appearing in these bi-his comes not from the pen of the undersigned as a private citizen, nor from the pen of the undersigned as an official of the Co-operative Workers of Belleville or any of its executive, at this point. I wish to make it quite clear. Let's observe Article No. 11 of the Constitution and By-Laws of the New Co-operative Workers Association, which reads as follows ("See Wednesday's edition, May 9th, 1934.") Article 11 pledges the organization "to bring to the attention of the proper authorities any infraction of the Minimum Wage Act, and to endeavour to secure minimum wage scale for men.

"Now, Sirs, this by-law states "to bring to the proper authorities cases of supposed infraction of the minimum wage, and I'm sure Jack Canuck is not the proper authority and therefore that by-law exonerates either E. J. Baldree or the Workers' Association. The citizens may rest assured that when we complain, our grievance is sent direct to the Minimum Wage Board of Ontario and not to papers.

"Secondly; Are the citizens of this city aware that at the present time there is no minimum wage law governing the male employees of Ontario and exposure of wages paid workers by or from a few out of any of the above mentioned will not bring about better working conditions or even assist to secure for the working men of Ontario the minimum wage act for men. This can be done by the formation of a working class, (both sexes), getting behind the political party chosing this as a platform which is the party of the peoples of this country in the near future. The writer has correspondence concerning this from the heads of both political parties, and could reveal some very interesting information. So therefore this exonerates the undersigned and the executive of the Co-operative Association of the write-up given Belleville industry by the above-mentioned paper and their codgers especially since we are quite familiar with our Government Departments which alone will convince this country.

"Citizens, I leave it to your judgment did I sell the Belleville edition or this Toronto paper?

"And am I they paying a starvation wage.

"Thanking you, Sir, for publication space.

"Sincerely yours truly,

"E. J. Baldree, and the executive of the Co-operative Workers of Belleville Association."

Representation Sought on Highway Work

Mayor Tice Intercedes For Workmen on Highway Project

In conference yesterday with Wm. H. Ireland, M.P.P. for West Hastings, which was also attended by Lorne F. Green, superintendent of the local Employment Service office of Canada, Mayor Geo. O. Tice fought for representation of Belleville men on the new highway grading work, which will be carried out on No. 2 Highway through this district.

It was hoped by him to have between one hundred and one hundred and fifty men from this city on the work, which is now being carried on in the west section of the county.

Mayor Tice today pointed to the fact that the city maintains a large suburban road area which also includes the upkeep of the No. 2 Highway which runs through the city. The new bridges at the city, which link the highway are also being kept up at no cost to the government. "I believe that we are more entitled to the work than they are in the townships, where large numbers of the men are being employed on the work and I'm going to do my best, to see that our own workmen are represented on this" declared the Mayor.

PIONEER GROCERYMAN DIES AT HAMILTON

First to Introduce Cash and Carry System in That City

Hamilton, May 10 (CP)—William Carroll pioneer in the chain store business in Canada, died at his home in Appleby this morning after a short illness.

The late Mr. Carroll was a unique figure in the Canadian world of commerce. Years before the chain store idea had become general, he conceived the project of extending his enterprises to cover all Hamilton and later the entire district, Carroll's Limited finally having within its organization hundreds of stores.

Many practices which have since become part of the modern grocery business but were unknown to the corner store keeper of thirty years ago, were the result of the active brain of Mr. Carroll. Starting with one shop on John Street South, he was the first to do away with cumbersome and costly delivery system and introduce the cash and carry principle. His ideas were later adopted throughout the United States and Canada.

A GREAT TRIUMPH IN REFRIGERATION

Despite one of the coldest winters on record and one of the most difficult routes in the world for perishable food stuffs, vessels of Canadian National Steamships and the Canada-West Indies service have brought fruits and vegetables that must not be chilled or warm enough to over-ripen, dairy produce that must be kept cool and meat that must be frozen, in some instances, the temperature must not vary more than five degrees, in spite of outdoor variations as great as 140 degrees. The past season has imposed the severest test on the refrigeration equipment of the Canadian National Steamships fleet since the inauguration of the Canada-West Indies Trade Agreement under which the service was inaugurated in 1928.

Week End Specials At Adams

Camper Oxfords
Brown leather, special wear resisting soles.

Men's 1.49
Boys' 1.29
Youths' 1.19

Boys' and Youths' Brown Running Shoes
High or low cut, protected toes. All sizes 89c

Men's Brown Running Shoes
High or low cut, protected toes. All sizes 99c

200 Pairs of Women's Black Kid

Ties and Pumps
Cuban or spike heels. All sizes in the lot. Regular 4.00 value. Special clearing price 1.98

Women's Sport Oxfords
Fawn and brown, black and white, leather soles or duplex soles. Sizes 2½ to 7 ..... 1.98

Boys' Oxfords
Rubber heels or elastic joins. All sizes. Special 1.89

Men's Oxfords
Rubber heels or leather heels. All sizes. Special 1.98

Men's Oxfords
High grade calf, oakbend soles, solid construction, rubber or leather heels. All sizes 3.49

Superalik Hosiery
All the Wanted Shades
75c 1.00

SAVE WITH SAFETY

Adams
THE SHOEMAN

SELL! Through the WANT-ADS

In New York—
STOP AT A NEW HOTEL!

HOTEL GOVERNOR CLINTON

Luxurious comfort. 1200 quiet, delightful rooms, bath, radio, Servidor, circulating ice water—for as little as $3 daily. 8 & O. bus stops at door—Opp. Penn. Station.

C. W. RAMLEY, Jr., Manager
7th Ave. at 31st Street • New York City

Referee Disqualifies Stratton at Kiwanis Wrestling Show

Three Bouts Give Fair Crowd Real Evening of Favorite Sport

With speed and action personified three fast wrestling bouts were staged at the local armouries under the sponsorship of the Belleville Kiwanis Club last night with the opening bout of the evening practically stealing the show that stiffed the fans' favorite yet all three bouts did. Dory Detton, a human atom of energy, threw caution to the winds to defeat Joe Tripanski of Hungary in the opening bout while the unorthodox methods of Walter Stratton, the Chicago bedman, caused him to be disqualified in the third round when the bout was awarded to the Black Panther of Harlem, after each grappler had previously won a fall in the wrestling to date, the main bout of the evening Jack Thomas downed Walter Underhill, the ex-Canadian University football star, after losing the first fall in exactly seven seconds. Thomas staged a spectacular finish to win the bout and the hearty support of nearly six hundred rabid, howling fans. Following the bout it was announced that a return bout would be staged locally on May 24th featuring Jack Thomas against Jim Harris, the California bedman who is now under suspension in practically all athletic commissions.

The opening bout between Dory Detton and Joe Tripanski saw both men revert to aerial attacks in the fastest bout ever witnessed in a local ring. Despite the fact that Tripanski out-weighed Detton about seven or eight pounds the lighter grappler showed a flair for superior method of contact attack and after literally hurling each other out of the ring repeatedly Detton finally applied a series of body slams and drop kicks a la Gus Sonnenberg, to win with a front head lock and top spread in exactly 12.40.

Stratton Disqualified.

In the semi-wind-up affair Walter Stratton, the Chicago bedman, lived up to his reputation to repeatedly assume a unorthodox manner of wrestling and continually hamper the efforts of the Black Panther of Harlem. Despite his rough and tough tactics Stratton eventually lost the bout when disqualified for a foul after each man had won a fall. Stratton won the first fall in 7.13 with a full Nelson, after a central aerial attack the Panther came back to win the second fall in 8.35 by applying a series of body slams to be culminated with a short butt that brought Stratton to the canvas for the count. Stratton continually brought the wrath of the fans and repeated warnings from Referee McClure upon his shoulders when repeated unorthodox holds and foul tactics until he was finally disqualified for fouling the Panther. Stratton left the ring threatening to annul a series of bouts at the hands of the referee.

The main affair saw Jack Thomas, the local Australian favorite, caught unawares as the bell sounded for the opening of the bout and exactly seven seconds later the shoulders were pinned to the mat by Walter Underhill of Columbia University. The fall was soundly protested by the fans as Thomas had little, if any chance to defend himself, and the second round opened with Thomas refusing to leave the ring. Underhill applied a flying tackle to onlookers, who showed his mettle by staging a hectic come-back in the second round and after seven minutes of wrestling pinned Underhill's shoulders to the mat with a reverse hammer lock, applied with the legs. In the final round both grapplers demonstrated many punishing holds to finish up the attempts, and the referee hold before Thomas reverted to boxing methods to anger his opponent, Thomas being at ex-pugilist. When ever in difficulties, however, he resorted to the many unorthodox holds. Underhill repeatedly left the ring to escape the ire of Thomas, who skilfully reverted to plain wrestling methods and won the admiration of the fans with his attempts at the various known scissors holds. After an exchange of plain punches in the head Thomas felled Underhill with a mighty right to the jaw and later pinned his shoulders to the mat for the final fall, amid cheers.

All three bouts were well matched with the contestants displaying many punishing holds that not only thrilled the fans but marked the wrestling as one of the best ever staged in a local ring.

WRESTLING

The results of last night's Kiwanis wrestling bouts:

Joe Tripanski, 165, Hungary, lost to Dory Detton, 151, Salt Lake City, one fall 12.40 (thirty minute limit).

Black Panther, 170, Harlem, won from Walter Stratton, 173, Chicago, one fall each, Panther awarded the third fall on a foul (one hour limit).

Jack Thomas, 185, Australia, won from Walter Underhill, 187, Columbia University, Thomas winning the final two falls (one hour limit).

Referee—Tommy McClure, Toronto.

Webster Cigars NOW 5¢

YOU'LL APPRECIATE THE DIFFERENCE
L. O. GROTHE LIMITED

CURRENT SPORT

(Day By Day)

We are in receipt of a letter from Bill Adams, who handles the heaters at the Trenton Airport, in regards to the Hockey Merrily that staged locally last Friday night. Bill heartily agrees with the statements in another Hockey methods reverted to by Wheeler, Quoting from Mr. Adams' letter—"Wheeler used a good many right punches, and I warned him again and again. Why did not in the third man in the ring warn him after Wheeler had started to use foul blows?" Mr. Adams goes on to say, however, that perhaps such a situation could have been averted if the two contestants had made decisions insofar as sleeper boxers were concerned, been matted out. Again that old bone of contention has lodged its goons up.

The evidence of controversy shown following the last South End A.C. bouts only goes to prove that the fight game is a paying popularity in Belleville. Every person who saw Friday night's show agreed it was a "wow". If the S.E.A.C. promoters want to reap something of a sensation in local boxing circles, they might go far afield and acquire the service of a good amateur featherweight and match him with Howard Wheeler. There is no use denying the fact that Wheeler is a little less than a match for Dempsey, he gives no quarter and asks none. He did be a fighter to the last ditch and always can be counted upon to give a good account of his wares in the ring. Wheeler is no heavy for Morris, therefore why not bring in a top-notcher, for Wheeler's class? Such a bout would surely pack 'em in.

Owing to the limited number of lacrosse sticks available only a few are able to practice at the East Belleville play grounds when the "Asphalt" club hold their semi-weekly work outs. The other night nearly 30 aspiring youths were on hand to try out for the proposed lacrosse team, with but 12 or 15 lacrosse sticks available. Now that the sponsors of Canada's national game in Belleville has been assured of a rejuvenated interest being shown locally, the club officers are ordering sticks. Owing to softball practice the lacrosse team will not function at the play grounds on Tuesday night, and at the Victoria School grounds, on Friday night. Two competent coaches are on hand each night.

When the executive of the Belleville Nationals met on Tuesday night it was definitely decided to enter the team and we should say reject, the recently issued C. O. B. J. A. schedule. The members of the executive felt, that a syndicate schedule, would assure the fans of a better brand of baseball.

